Volume ayant appartenu à Ad. Hatzfeld, puis à L. Schöne, pour le travail du Dict.re général.

4° X
243

Á

DICTIONARIE OF THE FRENCH AND ENGLISH TONGVES.

Compiled by RANDLE COTGRAVE.

LONDON
Printed by Adam Islip.

Anno 1611.

T

you
you tim car
the Lo
uar an ſo
mi
Bu pa be to ſoe

TO THE RIGHT HONOrable, and my very good Lord and Maister,

Sir WILLIAM CECIL Knight, Lord Burghley, and sonne and heire apparant vnto the Earle of Exceter.

I Here present vnto your Lordships view an Account of th'expence of many houres, which in your seruice, and to mine owne benefit might haue beene otherwise imploied: for sloth, howsoeuer, had not consumed them; somewhat I must haue done the whilest; nor could I haue bestowed them on a Worke of lesse vse for your Lordship, the French being alreadie so well vnderstood by you, and all yours. In which regard, as I am particularly bound to acknowledge your Lordships goodnesse, bearing with my humor to follow, and allowing me time to finish, it; so haue all they, to whom it shall proue of any worth, iust cause to honour in your Lordship that goodnesse, continued a long time vnto their, and the common good. No priuat consideration was fit to make your Lordship often to dispence with th'ordinarie attendance of an ordinarie seruant. But this is one of the least of your Lordships respects to the Publicke; and I would be loath to ingage your Iudgement, or Honour, on the successe of so meane a Peece. My desires haue aimed at more substantiall markes; but mine eyes failed them, and forced me to spend much of their vigour on this Bundle of words; which though it may be vnworthie of your Lordships great patience, and perhaps ill sorted to the expectation of others, yet is it the best I can at this time make it, and were, how perfect soeuer, no more then due to your Lordship, to whom I owe, for what I haue beene many yeres, whatsoeuer I am now, or looke to be hereafter.

Your Lordships

most bounden seruant,

Randle Cotgrave.

Au favorable Lecteur François.

LEcteur, l'Auteur de ce livre (Gentilhomme Anglois, à qui ſon propre Pays &, ſur tout, le notre ont vne obligation particuliere, qu'ilz ont à peu d'autres) apres avoir penibłement veillé & travaillé par pluſieurs ans, ſur cet œuvre. non moins, certes, ingrat que laborieuz; En fin eſt contraint de le laiſſer partir de ſes mains, plutot vaincu de l'importunité de ſes Amis, & de la neceſſité que le Public en a, que ſatisfait en ſon ame de ſon propre ouvrage. Et t'aſſure que ſi on l'eut voulu croire, il fût encore apres à ſe tourmenter, pour trouver la ſignification de telz mots, qui, poſſible, ne ſeront jamais plus ouyz en ce monde, (quoy que luz) & dont, ie croy, il n'y a perſonne qui ait ouy parler depuis cent ans, que luy; tant ſa curioſité a eté grande & exacte a lire toute ſorte de livres, vieuz & nouveauz, & de tous noz dialectes. A cette cauſe, peut, poſſible, qu'ayant égard à ce que tu voys, non à ce que tu ne voys pas, tu l'accuſes plutot de ce qu'il a dit, que de ce qu'il a eté contrainct de laiſſer; qui toutefois ſeroit vn treſor ineſtimable, s'il eût pu trouver, ou pardeça, ou en France meſmes (où il a eté ſi curieuz d'envoyer expres) qui l'eut pu, ou voulu reſoudre de ſes doutes; Il te ſuplie bien fort, ſi tu trouves icy quelques mots qui te ſonnent mal auz oreilles, ou meſme qui n'y ayent encore iamais ſonné, de croire, qu'ilz ne ſont point de ſon invention, mais recueilliz de la multitude & diverſité de noz Auteurs, que poſſible tu n'auras pas encore luz, & qui, tant bons que mauvais, deſirent tous d'eſtre entenduz. Il pouvoit bien citer le nom, le livre, la page, & le paſſage; mais ce n'eut plus icy eté vn Dictionaire, ains vn Labirinte. Ceuz qui ne les ſauront pas, les aprendront; Ceuz qui les ſauront, jugeront bien que l'ignorance, poſſible, d'vn ſeul mot, ſoit ſubſtanciel, metaforique, inuſité, ou tiré de la varieté des Ars, peut ſouvent obſcurcir tout vn ſens, & rendre barbares les conceptions les plus gentilles. Permis à qui voudra d'en vſer, ou de les laiſſer; Bien entendu, toutefois, que ce ne ſeroit pas le pis qui nous pût arriver, que de remettre ſuz, certains mots ſur-annez, que nous avons mieuz aimé laiſſer perdre, quoy que treſpropres & ſignificatifs; Et autres de notre propre cru, bien que de divers terroir, allans plutot mandier chez les Etrangers pour nous exprimer, ou bien nous taiſans du tout, ou parlans par vn long contournement de paroles, que d'ouvrir vn peu la bouche pour en prononcer quelques vns qui ſembloyent trop reveſches pour la douceur du palais de noz Damoiſelles, ou grater l'oreille delicate de Meſſieurs noz Courtiſans de ce tems-cy. Quant auz fautes de l'Impreſſion, l'Autheur ne les peut totalement prendre ſur ſoy, ne niant pas qu'il n'en ſoit eſchapé aſſez, comme auſſi poſſible en quelques endroits, quelque impropre interpretation; eſperant bien toutefois, que les vnes ny les autres ne ſeront pas ſi grandes que ta courtoiſie n'y puiſſe bien ſuppleer. A tant, Il recomande ſon œuvre à ta bonne reception, & moy ie demeure

Ton treſaffectionné Patriotte,

I. L'OISEAV de Tourval, Pariſien Δ.

To the Reader.

HVmanum est errare, say the Latinists, to whom verie many (too much men in their much erring) haue beene exceedingly beholden for an excuse vpon iust accusations. I (who am no God, nor Angell) either to preuent, or to profit, others, am willing ynough to accuse my selfe; and therefore haue caused such ouerslips as haue yet occurred to mine eye or vnderstanding, to be placed neere the forhead of this Verball creature; as lesse afraid so to disgrace it, then to deceiue those that shall harbor it; and chusing rather to publish mine owne errors, then to be guiltie of other mens; I will not presume to affirme that these be all, no more then I will acknowledge, or giue any account for, such, as the malicious and ignorant shall captiously pinch, or fondly point at: but my hope is, that as I haue dealt freely in the discouerie of these, so all that be indicious will vse me friendly in their corrections of the rest.

Errata.

A

IN the first Page, col. 1. Il a gaigne, for, Il y a gaigné. volunte, for, volonté. and col. 2. an Adiective, for a Nowne. whose tone foot is, for, who hath one foot. and Abbaisse, for, Abbaissé.

Adouber, for Adouber.

dessus, for dessous; in a phrase vnder Aile.

Aoriste. A Tense; is, more particularly, a Tense of time indefinitely, or betweene Perfect and Imperfectly, passed.

Appensensement, for Appensement.

La Perche vnder Arpent; the la superfluous, and false; for Perche is masculine.

B

Balise, & Baliste (tearmed about Orleans Baslis;) is more properly, a causey in a riuer for the turning of the streame vnto a Mill, &c.

Bannier, for Banniere; vnder Banniere.

Bardechiser, for Bardachiser.

Basse contre, for Basse-contre.

Baston cornu, a Battleaxe; is rather, a staffe tipped at both ends with horne; and heretofore vsed in publicke Duelloes, or Combats.

pigue, for figue; in Batre à froid, vnder Batre.

Belitresse, for Belistresse.

Bisac, for Bissac.

hnnoeur, for honneur; vnder Blesser.

Bord, is more properly an edging, or binding about the edge, of a garment, &c, then either welt, or hemme: and Border much more properly to edge, or bind, or compasse with an edging or binding lace, &c, then either to gard, or to border.

le cueillier, for la cueillier; in a Prouerbe vnder Bouche; and (in the most Copies) vnder Cuillier.

se Bride, for se Brider; vnder Brider.

C

19, for 192, in Carat.

Carlin, worth 40 Quadrins; is to be vnderstood of the Florentine Quattrino, worth no more then halfe the French Quadrin.

Carminatif. Wind-voiding, &c; is rather, cutting or dissoluing, and thereby refining and thinning, grosse humors.

An ounce, in stead of a graine; in Carrube.

Ceincture de dueil (vnder Ceincture) referred vnto Dueil, where it was forgotten: but you shall find it expounded in the word Littre.

Brusler la chandelle. par (vnder Chandelle) the full point superfluous.

festes, for fesses; in a Prouerbe vnder Charité.

levrier, for levriers; in a Prouerbe vnder Chasse.

repend, in stead of repent; in a Prouerbe vnder Chat, and in another vnder Despendre.

le chevre, for la chevre; in a phrase vnder Chevre.

Chicambaut, the Luffe-blocke, should be, the Bumkin.

old, for cold, in the word Cigale.

poules, for poulets; in a Prouerbe vnder Cimitierre.

Ioye triste & coeur; in a Prouerbe vnder Coeur, the & superfluous.

dammages, for dommages; vnder Conclusion.

Comforter, in stead of Conforter; in a phrase vnder Conforter.

Contrechange, for Contreschange.

chausteau, for chasteau; in a Prouerbe vnder Corps.

Coquiol, for Coquiole, and a superfluous comma in that line.

Couäné, and in some words that follow it, the Diereses ill placed ouer the a.

grand, for grands; in a Prouerbe vnder Coup.

Grattant, for gratant; in a phrase vnder Cul.

D

Dardiller (a frequentatiue to Darder) signifies, to dart, or throw darts, verie fast.

Decicif, in stead of Decisif.

things,

The Errata.

things, for thinkes, in the laſt line of Diſcretion.
Reſve, in ſtead of Reſuë; in Domaine forain, vnder Domaine.
Douves d'un tonneau. Be as well the ſide-ſtaues, as the head-peeces, of caske.
Dragme: m. for Dragme: f.
Daulerie, for Draulerie. pen wants (to the making of vpon) in the beginning of the third line of Droict de Regiſtre, ou contentor (vnder Droict.)

E

Mitaines engantées, were better; handed, or put on the hands, like gloues.
Eſraigne, for Eſcraigne.
Eſcruoëlle, for Eſcrouëlle.

F

Fanné, read Fanne.
Foret. Is rather a Drill, then either a Gimlet, or Piercer.
breaker, for breaker; in Fracteur: And, Aujourd'uy, in ſtead of Aujourd'huy; vnder the ſame word.
Franchemulle de mouton. (which ſhould be Franche-mule) may verie well be that in a Weather, which Franche mule (vnder Mule) is in an Oxe.

G

Gaigne-pain. Is moſt properly (in the laſt ſence) an old-faſhioned ſhield ſtucke thicke with the teeth of Horſes or Moyles.
In Generalité, ſay I, there be 21 generall Receiptes, &c; (whereof the Printer hath ouerſlipped one, viz. Rion, in the reckoning) wherein I followed a late Engliſh Author of good worth: But now find in the later French (as the laſt edition of the Comment vpon Code Henrie, and l'Oiſeau his booke of Orders) and by the report of a iudicious Gentleman, verie lately imployed in France, that there be but 20; whereof Rion is one, and Moulin (the laſt in my computation) none.
Gouldron, Gouldronné, & Gouldronner; referred vnto Gouderon, &c; in ſtead of Goderon, &c.
ſound, for found; vnder Gracieux.
32, for 16; in Gros.
La guinderelle de la miſaine. The mizzen hallyards, belongs rather to the foreſaile.

H

alſo, as Hayreux; forgotten in Haireux.
paine, for peine; vnder Har.

In Hipotheque (a little before which, Hipotheque; as Hypotheque, was ouerſlipped) and in Hypotheque, the word immouables might haue beene ſpared.
Houille. Is a kind of ſea-coale.

I

Dicu, for Dieu; vnder Iambe.
Ibix, for Ibex; in Ibice.

L

Legion (ſay I) conſiſted of 6830 ſouldiers; which was the full, and perfect Legion, ſayes Thomas Thomaſius out of Vegetius. In Cæſars time the full Legion contained but 5000; And though ſometimes before the number were greater, as when Scipio went into Affricke, 6500, and after the Macedonian warre 6300; yet both before and after thoſe times the moſt vſuall rate was either that, or but 4200.

M

In Manganeſe, a ſuperfluous, or.
Mareſchaux de France. Now there be 10, ſay I, following therein my Engliſh Author, who writ aboue 10 yeares agoe: Since when there haue beene 12 at one time, and now I doe not beare of aboue 9.
Veine, for Veines; in Meſaraique.
Müere, for Mieüre.
Mouelle; as Moelle. Mouette, & Mouettes; as Moette, & Moettes, want each of them a Diereſis ouer the firſt e.

N

Soubs peine niſi, for ſous peine de niſi (in moſt bookes.)

P

Panceron. Is rather a little, then a great, paunch.
boale, for boule; in a phraſe vnder Pied.
Pillorier, for Pilorier.
Preſſuirier, for Preſſurier; vnder Preſſurier.

R

A comma wanting after Tradeſmen; in the phraſe vnder Robon.

S

Gurnet, for Garnet; in Spinelle.
old Metellus, for Paulus Æmilius; in a Prouerbe vnder Soulier.

V

Veinec oronale, for Veine coronale; vnder Veine.
meſcraïques, for meſaraïques; in the ſame page.

A Dictio-

eque ; as otheque, ed.

hich was Thomasius on contai-
the num-
Affricke,
o; yet both rate was following 10 yeares

one time,

; as Moetis ouer the oft bookes.)

nch.

.

rase vnder

erbe vnder

Veine. ge.

ctio-

The Indicatiue Mood.

	The two Auxiliar Verbes.		The first Coniugation is of Verbes that end in er, as	The second Coniugation is of Verbes that end in ir, as	The third Coniugation is of Verbes that end in oir, as	The fourth Coniugation is of Verbes that end in re, as
	Avoir, to haue.	Eſtre, to be.	Parler, to ſpeake.	Baſtir, to build.	Veoir, to ſee.	Cognoiſtre, to know.
The Preſent Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Doe.	I'ay, I haue. Tu as, thou haſt. Il ha, he hath. Nous avóns, we haue. Vous avés, ye haue. Ils ont, they haue.	Ie ſuis, I am. Tu es, thou art. Il eſt, he is. Nous ſómmes, we be. Vous éſtes, ye be. Ils ſónt, they are.	Ie párle, I ſpeake. Tu párles, thou ſpeakeſt. Il párle, he ſpeaketh. Nous parlóns, we ſpeake. Vous parlés, ye ſpeake. Ils párlent, they ſpeake.	Ie báſti, I build. Tu báſtis, thou buildeſt. Il báſtit, he buildeth. Nous baſtiſſóns, we build. Vous baſtiſſez, ye build. Ils baſtiſſent, they build.	Ie veoy or voy, I ſee. Tu vois, thou ſeeſt. Il voit or void, he ſeeth. Nous voyóns, we ſee. Vous voyés, ye ſee. Ils vóyent, they ſee.	Ie cognóy, I know. Tu cognóis, thou knoweſt. Il cognóit, he knoweth. Nous cognoiſſóns, we know. Vous cognoiſſéz, ye know. Ils cognóiſſent, they know.
The Preterimperfect Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Did.	I'avóye, or j'avois, I had. Tu avóis, thou haddeſt. Il avóit, he had. Nous avións, we had. Vous aviés, ye had. Ils avoyént, they had.	I'eſtóye, I was. Tu eſtóys, thou waſt. Il eſtóit, he was. Nous eſtións, we were. Vous eſtiéz, ye were. Ils eſtóyent, they were.	Ie parlóye, I did ſpeake. Tu parlóis, thou didſt ſpeake. Il parlóit, he did ſpeake. Nous parlións, we did ſpeake. Vous parliéz, ye did ſpeake. Ils parlóyent, they did ſpeake.	Ie baſtiſſóye, I did build. Tu baſtiſſóis, thou didſt build. Il baſtiſſóit, he did build. Nous baſtiſſións, we did build. Vous baſtiſſiéz, ye did build. Ils baſtiſſóyent, they did build.	Ie voyóye, I did ſee. Tu voyóis, thou didſt ſee. Il voyóit, he did ſee. Nous voyións, we did ſee. Vous voyiéz, ye did ſee. Ils voyóyent, they did ſee.	Ie cognoiſſóye, I did know. Tu cognoiſſóis, thou didſt know. Il cognoiſſóit, he did know. Nous cognoiſſións, we did know. Vous cognoiſſiéz, ye did know. Ils cognoiſſóyent, they did know.
The Aoriſt, which in euerie Engliſh Verbe hath a proper terme.	I'eu, I had a while agone. Tu eus, thou hads a while agone. Il eut, he had. Nous eúſmes, we had. Vous eúſtes, ye had. Ils eúrent, they had.	Ie fu, I was a while agone. Tu fus, thou waſt a while agone. Il fuſt, he was. Nous fúſmes, we were. Vous fúſtes, ye were. Ils fúrent, they were.	Ie parláy, I ſpake a while agone. Tu parlás, thou ſpakeſt. Il parláſt, he ſpake. Nous paráſmes, we ſpake. Vous paráſtes, ye ſpake. Ils paſérent, they ſpake.	Ie baſtí, I built a while agone. Tu baſtis, thou builteſt. Il baſtiſt, he built. Nous baſtiſmes, we built. Vous baſtiſtes, ye built. Ils baſtirent, they built.	Ie ví or véy, I ſaw a while agone. Tu vís or véis, thou ſaweſt. Il víſt or véyt. He ſaw. Nous víſmes, we ſaw. Vous veiſtes, ye ſaw. Ils veirent, they ſaw.	Ie cognú or cogneú, I knew. Tu cognús, thou kneweſt. Il cognúſt, he knew. Nous cognúſmes, we knew. Vous cognúſtes, ye knew. Ils cognurent, they knew.
The Preterperfect Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Haue.	I'ay eu, I haue had. Tu as eu, thou haſt, &c. by putting the Participle eu, to the perſons of the Preſent tenſe.	I'ay eſté, I haue beene. Tu as eſté, thou haſt beene, &c. by putting eſté to the Preſent tenſe of Avoir.	I'ay parlé, I haue ſpoken. Tu as parlé, thou haſt ſpoken, &c; by putting parlé to the Preſent tenſe of Avoir.	I'ay baſti, I haue built. Tu as baſti, thou haſt built, &c; by putting baſti to the Preſent of Avoir.	I'ay veu, I haue ſeene. Tu as veu, thou haſt ſeene &c. by putting veu to the Preſent of Avoir.	I'ay cognú, I haue knowne. Tu as cognú, thou haſt knowne &c. by putting the Participle cognu to the Preſent of Avoir.
The Preterpluperfect Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Had.	I'avóye eu, I had had. Tu avóis eu, thou haddeſt had, &c. by putting eu to the Preterimperfect tenſe.	I'avóye eſté, I had beene. Tu avóis eſté, thou hadſt beene, &c. by putting eſté to the Preterimperfect tenſe of Avoir.	I'avóye parlé, I had ſpoken. Tu avóis parlé, thou hadſt ſpoken, &c. by putting parlé to the Imperfect. of Avoir.	I'avoye baſti, I had built. Tu avois baſti, thou haſt built, &c. by putting baſti to the Imperfect tenſe of Avoir.	I'avóye veu, I had ſeene. Tu avóis veu, thou hadſt ſeene &c. by putting veu to the Imperfect tenſe of Avoir.	I'avoye cognú, I had knowne. Tu avois cognú, thou hadſt known &c. by putting cognu to the Imperfect of Avoir.
The Future Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Will, or Shall.	I'auráy, I ſhall or will haue. Tu aurás, thou ſhalt or wilt haue. Il aurá, he ſhall or will haue. Nous aurons, we ſhal or will haue. Vous auréz, ye ſhall or will haue. Ils auront, they ſhall or will haue.	Ie ſeráy, I ſhall or will be. Tu ſerás, thou ſhalt or wilt be. Il ſerá, he ſhall or will be. Nous ſeróns, we ſhall or will be. Vous ſeréz, ye ſhall or will be. Ils ſeront, they ſhall or will be.	Ie parleráy, I ſhall or will ſpeake. Tu parlerás, thou ſhalt or wilt ſpeake. Il parlerá, he ſhall or will ſpeake. Nous parleróns, we ſhall or will ſpeak. Vous parleréz, ye ſhall or will ſpeake. Ils parleront, they ſhall or will ſpeake.	Ie baſtiráy, I ſhall or will build. Tu baſtirás, thou ſhalt or wilt build. Il baſtirá, he ſhall or will build. Nous baſtiróns, we ſhall or will build. Vous baſtiréz, ye ſhall or will build. Ils baſtiront, they ſhall or will build.	Ie voiráy or verráy, I ſhall ſee. Tu voirás or verrás, thou ſhalt ſee. Il voirá or verrá, he ſhall ſee. Nous voiróns or verróns, we ſhall ſee. Vous voiréz or verréz, ye ſhall ſee. Ils voiront or verront, they ſhall ſee.	Ie cognoiſtráy, I ſhall know. Tu cognoiſtrás, thou ſhalt know. Il cognoiſtrá, he ſhall know. Nous cognoiſtróns, we ſhall know. Vous cognoiſtréz, ye ſhall know. Ils cognoiſtront, they ſhall know.

The Imperatiue Mood.

	Ayés tu, haue thou. Qu'il ayt, let him haue. Ayons nous, let vs haue. Ayéz, haue ye. Qu'ils áyent, let them haue.	Sóys tu, be thou. Qu'il ſóit, let him be. Soyóns, be we. Soyéz, be ye. Qu'ils ſóyent, let them be.	Párle tu, ſpeake thou. Qu'il párle, let him ſpeake. Parlóns, let vs ſpeake. Parléz vous, ſpeake ye. Qu'ils párlent, let them ſpeake.	Baſtis tu, build thou. Qu'il baſtiſſe, let him build. Baſtiſſons, build we, or let vs build. Baſtiſſez vous, build ye. Qu'ils baſtiſſent, let them build.	Voy tu, ſee thou. Qu'il vóye, let him ſee. Voyóns nous, let vs ſee. Voyéz vous, ſee yee. Qu'ils vóyent, let them ſee.	Cognóy tu, know thou. Qu'il cognóiſſe, let him know. Cognoiſſóns, let vs know. Cognoiſséz vous, know ye. Qu'ils cognóiſſent, let them know.
Preſent Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is May, as Dieu vueille que, God grant that, or I may God that.	I'áye, God grãt I haue or may haue. Tu áyes, that thou mayeſt haue. Qu'l ayt, that he may haue. Nous ayóns, that we may haue. Vous ayéz, that ye may haue. Ils áyent, that they may haue.	Ie ſóye; God grãt I be, or may be. Tu ſois, that thou may be. Il ſoit, that he be. Nous ſoyóns, that we be or may be. Vous ſoyéz, that ye be. Ils ſóyent, that they be.	Ie párle, God grãt I ſpeak or may ſpeak. Tu párles, that thou mayeſt ſpeake. Il párle, that he may ſpeake. Nous parlións, that we may ſpeake. Vous parliéz, that ye may ſpeake. Ils párlent, that they may ſpeake.	Ie baſtiſſe, I pray God I may build. Tu baſtiſſes, that thou mayeſt build. Il baſtiſt, that he may build. Nous baſtiſſións, that we may build. Vous baſtiſſiéz, that ye may build. Ils baſtiſſent, that they may build.	Ie vóye. God grant I may ſee. Tu vóyes, that thou mayeſt ſee. Il vóye, that he may ſee. Nous voyóns and voyións, that we may ſee. Vous voyéz and voyiéz, that ye may ſee. Ils vóyent, that they may ſee.	Ie cognóiſſe, God grant I may know. Tu cognóiſſes, that thou mayeſt know Il cognoiſſe, that he may know. Nous cognoiſsións, that we may know. Vous cognoiſsiéz, that ye may know. Ils cognoiſſent, that they may know.
Preterimperfect Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Might, or Could; as Ie voudroye bien que, I would God I might.	I'eúſſe, would God I had, or might haue. Tu eúſſes, would God thou hadſt. Il eúſt, would God he might haue. Nous eúſsions, would God we might haue. Vous eúſsiez, would God ye might haue. Ils eúſſent, would God they might haue.	Ie fúſſe, would God I were or might be. Tu fúſſes, that thou mights be. Il fúſt, that he might be. Nous fuſſións, that we might be. Vous fuſſiez, that ye might be. Ils fúſſent, that they might be.	Ie parláſſe, would God I ſpake, or that I might or could ſpeake. Tu parláſſes, thou couldeſt ſpeake. Il parláſt, he might ſpeake. Nous parlaſsións or parliſſions, without God we ſpake. Vous parlaſsiez or parliſſiez, ſpeake ye. Ils parláſſent, they might ſpeake.	Ie baſtiſſóye, would God I did build, or might or could build. Tu baſtiſſóis, that thou couldeſt build, &c, altogether the ſame with the Imperfect of the Indicatiue Mood,	Ie véiſſe or víſſe, would God I ſaw or might ſee. Tu viſſes or veiſſes, that thou didſt ſee or couldeſt ſee. Il véiſt or víſt, that he ſaw. Nous veiſſións or viſſións, that we	Ie cogneúſſe, would God I knew, or might know. Tu cogneúſſes, that thou kneweſt. Il cogneúſt, that he knew. Nous cogneuſsións, that we knew.

The Optatiue Mood. Adiect be of wiſhing

The Optatiue Mood, which hath always an Aduerbe of wishing ioyned with it.

Present Tense, whose signe is Might, as Dieu vueille que, God grant that, or I pray God that.	I'áye, God grãt I haue or may haue. Tu áyes, that thou mayest haue. Qu'l ayt, that he may haue. Nous ayóns, that we may haue. Vous ayéz, that ye may haue. Ils áyent, that they may haue.	Ie ſóye; God grãt I be, or may be. Tu ſois, that thou may be. Il ſoit, that he be. Nous ſoyóns, that we be or may be. Vous ſoyéz, that ye be. Ils ſóyent, that they be.	Ie párle, God grãt I ſpeak or may ſpeak. Tu párles, that thou mayeſt ſpeake. Il párle, that he may ſpeake. Nous parlións, that we may ſpeake. Vous parliéz, that ye may ſpeake. Ils párlent, that they may ſpeake.	Ie baſtiſſe, I pray God I may build. Tu baſtiſſes, that thou mayeſt build. Il baſtiſt, that he may build. Nous baſtiſſións, that we may build. Vous baſtiſſiéz, that ye may build. Ils baſtiſſent, that they may build.	Ie vóye. God grant I may ſee. Tu vóyes, that thou mayeſt ſee. Il vóye, that he may ſee. Nous voyóns and voyións, that we may ſee. Vous voyéz and voyiéz, that ye may ſee. Ils vóyent, that they may ſee.	Ie cognóiſſe, God grant I may know. Tu cognóiſſes, that thou mayeſt know. Il cognóiſt, that he may know. Nous cognoiſsións, that we may know. Vous cognoiſsiéz, that ye may know. Ils cognoiſſent, that they may know.
Preterimperfect Tenſe, whoſe ſigne is Might, or Could; as pleuſt a Dieu que, I would to God that.	I'eúſſe, would God I had, or might haue. Tu eúſſes, would God thou hadſt. Il eúſt, would God he might haue. Nous eúſsions, would God we might haue. Vous eúſſiez, would God ye might haue. Ils eúſſent, would God they might haue.	Ie fúſſe, would God I were or might be. Tu fúſſes, that thou mights be. Il fúſt, that he might be. Nous fuſſións, that we might be. Vous fuſſiéz, that ye might be. Ils fúſſent, that they might be.	Ie parláſſe, would God I ſpake, or that I might or could ſpeake. Tu parláſſes, thou couldeſt ſpeake. Il parláſt, he might ſpeake. Nous parlaſsións or parliſſions, would God we ſpake. Vous parlaſſiéz or parliſſiez, that ye ſpake. Ils parláſſent, that they ſpake, or could ſpeake.	Ie baſtiſſóye, would God I did build, or might or could build. Tu baſtiſſóis, that thou couldeſt build, &c, altogether the ſame with the Imperfect of the Indicatiue Mood.	Ie véiſſe or viſſe, would God I ſaw or might ſee. Tu viſſes or veiſſes, that thou didſt ſee or couldeſt ſee. Il véiſt or viſt, that he ſaw. Nous veiſſións or viſſións, that we ſaw. Vous veiſſiéz or viſſiéz, that ye ſaw. Ils véiſſent or viſſent, that they ſaw or might ſee.	Ie cogneúſſe, would God I knew, or might know. Tu cogneúſſes, that thou kneweſt. Il cogneúſt, that he knew. Nous cogneuſsións, that we knew. Vous cogneuſsiéz, that ye knew. Ils cogneúſſent, that they knew or might know.
Preterperfect Tenſe, Dieu vueille que.	I'áye eu, I pray God that I haue had. Tu áyes eu, that thou hadſt had, &c. by putting the Participle eu to the Preſent tenſe of this mood.	I'áye eſté, I pray God I haue beene. Tu áyes eſté, that thou haſt bin, &c. by putting the Particip. eſté to the Optat. Preſ. of Avoir.	I'áye parlé, I pray God I haue ſpoken, Tu áyes parlé, that thou haue ſpoken, &c; by putting the Participle parlé to the Optatiue Preſent. of Avoir.	I'áye baſti, I pray God I haue built. Tu áyes baſti, that thou haue built, &c; by putting baſti to the Optatiue ſent of Avoir.	I'áye veu, I pray God I haue ſeene. Tu áyes veu, thou haue ſeene, &c; by putting veu to the Optatiue Preſent of Avoir.	I'áye cognú, I pray God I haue knowne. Tu áyes cognú, thou haue knowne &c. by putting cognu to the Optatiue Preſent of Avoir.
Preterpluperfect Tenſe, A la mienne volonté.	I'eúſſe eu, would God I had had, Tu eúſſes eu, thou hadſt had, &c. by putting eu to the Imperfect of this mood.	I'eúſſe eſté, would God I had bin Tu eúſſes eſté, that thou hadſt bin, &c. by putting eu to the Optatiue Imperfect. of Avoir.	I'eúſſe parlé, would God I had ſpoken, &c. by putting the Participle parlé to the Optatiue Imperfect. of Avoir.	I'eúſſe baſty, would God I had built, &c; by putting the Participle baſty to the Optatiue Imperfect of Avoir.	I'eúſſe veu, would God I had ſeene, &c; by putting the Participle veu to the Optatiue Imperfect of Avoir.	I'eúſſe cognú, would to God I had knowne &c. by putting the Participle cognu to the Optatiue Imperfect of Avoir.
Future Tenſe, Dieu vueille que.	I'áye cy aprés, I pray God I may haue hereafter; by putting cy aprés to the Preſent tenſe.	Ie ſóye cy aprés, I pray God I may be hereafter; by putting cy aprés to the Optat. Preſent.	Ie parle cy aprés, I pray God I may ſpeake hereafter, &c. by putting cy aprés to the Optatiue Preſent.	Ie baſtiſſe cy aprés, I pray God I build hereafter, by putting cy aprés to the Optatiue Preſent.	Ie vóye cy aprés, I pray God I may ſee hereafter &c. by putting cy aprés to the Optatiue Preſent.	Ie cognóiſſe cy aprés, I pray God I may know hereafter, by putting cy aprés to the Optatiue Preſent.

The Subjunctiue Mood.

The Subiunctiue mood borroweth its Tenſes partly from the Indicatiue, and partly from the Optatiue mood, by adding one of theſe Coniunctions, veu que, ſeeing that; combien que, albeit that; ſi, if; quand, although that; comme ainſi ſoit, ſeeing that: as for example. Preſent. Veu que j'ay, as in the Indicatiue mood: or, Combien que j'ay, as in the Optatiue. Imperfect. Veu que j'avoye, as in the Indicatiue: or, Combien que j'euſſe, as in the Optatiue. Onely this one Preterimperfect tenſe hath proper to it.

Preterimperfect Tenſe, whoſe ſignes are Might, could, ſhould; as Quand.	I'auróye, though I ſhould haue. Tu aurois, though thou ſhouldeſt haue. Il auroit, he ſhould haue. Nous aurións, we ſhould haue. Vous auriéz, ye ſhould haue. Ils auróyent, they ſhould haue.	Ie ſeróye, though I ſhould be. Tu ſeróis, though thou ſhouldeſt be. Il ſeróit, he ſhould be. Nous ſerións, we ſhould be. Vous ſeriéz, ye ſhould be. Ils ſeróyent, they ſhould be.	Ie parleróye, though I ſhould ſpeake. Tu parleróis, though thou ſhouldeſt ſpeake. Il parleróit, he ſhould ſpeake. Nous parlerións, we ſhould ſpeake. Vous parleriéz, ye ſhould ſpeake. Ils parleróyent, they ſhould ſpeake.	Ie baſtiróye, though I ſhould build. Tu baſtiróys, though thou ſhouldeſt build. Il baſtiróit, he ſhould build. Nous baſtirións, we ſhould build. Vous baſtiriéz, ye ſhould build. Ils baſtiróyent, they ſhould build.	Ie voiróye or verróye, though I ſhould ſee. Tu voiróys or verróys, thou ſhouldeſt ſee. Il voiróit, he ſhould ſee. Nous voirións or verrións. Vous verriéz or voiriez. Ils voiróyent or verroyent.	Ie cognoiſtróye, though I ſhould know. Tu cognoiſtróis, thou mighteſt know. Il cognoiſtróit, he might know. Nous cognoiſtrións, we ſhould know Vous cognoiſtriéz, ye ſhould know. Ils cognoiſtróyent, they ſhould know.

The Infinitiue Mood.

Preſent.	Avóir, to haue.	Eſtre, to be.	Parlér, to ſpeake.	Baſtir, to build.	Veóir, to ſee.	Cognóiſtre, to know.
Perfect.	Avóir eu, to haue had.	Avóir eſté, to haue beene.	Avóir parlé, to haue ſpoken.	Avoir baſti, to haue built.	Avóir veu, to haue ſeene.	Avóir cognú, to haue knowne.
Futur.	Pour avoir cy aprés, to haue hereafter.	Pour éſtre cy aprés, to be hereafter.	Avóir a parlér cy aprés, to ſpeake hereafter.	Avóir a baſtir cy aprés, to build hereafter.	Avóir a veóir, to ſee hereafter.	Avóir a cognóiſtre, to know hereafter.

The Participles.

Preſent.	Ayánt, having.	Eſtánt, being.	Parlánt, ſpeaking.	Baſtiſſãnt, building.	Voyánt, ſeeing.	Cognoiſſãnt, knowing.
Preterit.	Eu, had.	Eſté, beene.	Parlé, ſpoken.	Baſti, built.	Veu, ſeene.	Cognú, knowne.

on it was on it
A. The fies (
Asse
cal A
But Tens
signi
all w writ
A. an nifie
Pier
Estr son whe
as, I that Lon
A. an
For only, trou
men
In, o
By;
(as i ie le mon
poin
don man
espé pert
doir
Lyo
tel f
A l
wou

¶ A DICTIONARIE OF THE French and Englisth Tongues.

A The first letter of all Alphabets, is (as it is a letter) a Substantiue: whence;

Il eſt marqué à l'A: he is a right honeſt man: or, one in whom there is as much vertue, as great worth, as can be in any man: (From the monie of France; euery ſort whereof hath ſtamped on it a particular letter, denoting the place wherein it was made; now, that which is coined in Paris hath on it an A, and is, commonly, of the beſt mettall.)

A. The third perſon ſinguler of the verbe Avoir, ſignifies (of it ſelfe) hath, holdeth, poſſeſſeth, enioieth; as, Aſſez a qui bon credit a: alſo (when it hath the local Adverb y before it) is; as, Aſſez y a ſi trop n'y a: But when it precedes a Participle in the preterperfect Tenſe of another verbe, it is reſtrained vnto the firſt ſignification, hath; as, il a gaigne ce qu' il a peu: In all which (and otherwiſe, onely as it is a letter) it is written without Accent.

`A. an Article, ſet before a proper name, or Nowme, ſignifies, in matters of poſſeſſion, of; as, La maiſon à Pierre, La femme à Robert: But where the verbe Eſtre goes before, it ſignifies To, or, Vnto; as, La maiſon eſt à Pierre, belongs to Peter: So doth it alſo when it followes verbes that require a Datiue caſe; as, Ie l'ay donné à toy; cela appartient à moy; or that ſignifie motion to a place; as, Ie m'en iray à Londres, à ma metairie.

`A. an article, or Preposition; ſignifieth ſometimes, As, or For; Il eſt tenu à perdu; à ſot; à fable: ſometimes only, For; à cette cauſe: ſometimes, At; as, Tu me trouveras à Paris; à loiſir; à voſtre commandement: alſo In, or, At; as, à temps, & lieu: ſometimes In, or, Before; as, à la preſence du Roy: ſometimes By; as, à l'adventure; à cœur; à droit; à tort: & (as in old Authors) à dieu le veu, in ſtead of par dieu ie le veux: ſometimes On, or Vpon; as, à lundi; il monte à cheval: ſometimes To; as, à propos; à point: alſo Agreeable, or, According to; as, à l'ordonnance des Arbitres: alſo, Like vnto; After the manner, or faſhion of; as, veſtu à l'Italienne; vne eſpée à l'Eſpagnole: ſometimes, With; as, à peu de perte; à banniere deſployée; vne chaire à accoudoirs; & (in Blazon) Il porte de Synople à trois Lyons d'argent: alſo, With, or Among; as, à nous tel fait eſt bien vilain; Il eſt à nous grande vinée. `A la mienne volunte, If I might haue my will: or, I would to God.

Dont il eſt à grande ioye, Whereof he is very glad; which makes him very merrie.

Ils ſe faiſoient tenir à douze; They made themſelues be held by twelue: or, were ſo fierce that twelue were faine to hold them.

`A. preceding the Infinitiue mood of a verbe, ſignifies, to, ſeruing to, for to, of purpoſe for; as, S'il a choſe à dire; vn clou à pendre des ſacs. Somtimes it either giues the verb a participiall ſence, as, Il eſt à dormir, he is ſleeping, or new, or neere aſleepe; or, the verb being preſent, it denotes the future, as, I'ay cela à faire, I am to doe that hereafter.

`A. before an Adiectiue, ſometimes makes it admit of an Aduerbiall interpretation; as, à droict, à tort; rightfully, wrongfully.

`A, is ſometimes not expreſſed, but vnderſtood; as, Si Dieu plaiſt, for, s'il plaiſt à Dieu.

Aachée: f. a dolefull crie, lamentation, Ay-mee.

Aage: m. age, yeares, dayes; alſo, an age; time, ſeaſon.

De grand aage; very old, a grandſire, a gray-beard, whoſe tone foot is alreadie in the graue.

De petit aage; very yong, a child, an infant, an innocent, an vnderling.

Avoir de l'aage, to be ſtrong and luſtie: alſo, to be well in yeares, or well ſtricken in yeares.

Aagé: m. aagée: f. aged, old; of age, of years; of full age, of great yeares.

Abaiſſé; & Abaiſſement; as, Abbaiſſe; & Abbaiſſement.

Abaiſſer; & Abaiſſeur; as, Abbaiſſer; & Abbaiſſeur.

Abandon: m. bandon, free licence, full libertie for others to vſe a thing; The quitting, abandonment, or proſtitution of a thing vnto others; whence;

Mettre ſa foreſt en abandon; to lay it open, or make it common, for all men that will gather wood, or graze their cattell, in it.

Abandon fait larron; Prov. Things careleſly left, layd vp, or looked vnto, make them theeues that otherwiſe would be honeſt: we ſay, faſt bind faſt find.

Qui faict nopçes, & maiſon, il met le ſien en abandon; Prov. The building of houſes and making of feaſts, are vnlimitted waſters of a mans ſubſtance.

Abandonné: m. née: f. abandonned, forſaken, forgone, quitted, giuen ouer, caſt off; layd open, left at randome; proſtituted vnto, made common for, any man; alſo proſcribed, outlawed.

Cheval abandonné ſur la bride. hanging vpon the hand.

Choſe trop abandonnée. thats vnrecouerable, or in very deſperat tearms.

Abandonnement: m. an abandonning, quitting, forsaking, leauing off, giuing ouer, laieng open for, prostituting vnto, others; also a proscribing or outlawing.
Abandonnement de raison. a wilfull defection, reuolting, or swaruing, from reason.
Abandonnément. at randome, dissolutely, licenciously, profusely, with full libertie.
Abandonner. to abandon, quit, forsake, forgoe, waiue or giue ouer, shake or cast off, lay open, leaue at randome, prostitute vnto, make common for, others; also, to outlaw.
Abandonner la vie de tel au premier qui le pourra tuer. to proscribe a man; (is euer to be vnderstood of a Soueraigne, or such a one as, next vnder God, hath absolute and vncontrowlable power ouer his life.)
s'Abandonner à plaisirs. sensually to yeeld, or become a slaue, vnto pleasure; wholy to captiuat, or deuote, his thoughts to delights.
Fille qui donne s'abandonne; Pro. A maid that giueth yeeldeth.
Il commence bien à mourir qui abandonne son desir; Pro. he truly begins to die that quits his chiefe desires.
Abandonneur: an abandonner, leauer, quitter, forsaker, forgoer, giuer ouer, prostitutor of.
Abaque: m. a Plinth, or flat square stone, on the Capitell of a pillar.
Abastardi: m. ie: f. adulterated, sophisticated, bastardized, counterfeited; marred, corrupted, depraued; degenerat, changed out of it owne kind; made worse, growne worse and worse.
Abastardir. to bastardise, adulterat, sophisticat, counterfeit; to change out of it owne kind into a worse; to depraue, corrupt, viciat, spoile, marre, make worse; also, to degenerat, wax naught, grow worse & worse: (In which sense it hath, most commonly, the Passiue note, Se, before it.)
Abastardissement: m. an adulterating, sophistication, counterfeiting; a corrupting, marring, deprauing; a making worse, or changing out of it owne kind into a worse; also a degenerating.
Abastardisseur: m. an adulterator; sophisticater, counterfeiter; a corrupter, deprauer, spoiler of things; also, a bastard-maker.
Abatis; Abatre; & Abatu. Looke Abbatis; Abbatre; and Abbatu.
Abayement; Abayer; & Abayeur. Looke, Abbayement; Abbayer; and Abbayeur.
Abbais. as Abbois.
Abbaisse: m. ée: f. debased, deiected, humbled, prostrated; bent, or brought downe; made, or growne low; decreased, fallen, stooping.
Abbaisement: m. a debasing, abasing, deiecting, humbling, prostrating; bending downewards, bringing downe, making low; also, a stooping; decreasing, falling, waxing low.
Abbaissement de courage. faintheartednesse, or the growing fainthearted; a failing in courage; the falling of the creast; also, lowlinesse of mind.
Abbaissement de son estat. an impairing, diminution, or abatement, of his means.
Abbaisser. to debase, abase, abate, humble, depresse, deiect; bend downwards, bring downe, make low; also, to stoope; decrease, fall, or wax low.
Abbaisser la Maiesté d'un Prince. to disgrace, disparage, violate, infringe, or tread vnder foot, the Maiestie of a Prince.
s'abbaisser à. to humble or prostrat himselfe before; also, to yeeld or submit himselfe, vnto.
Abbaisseur: m. an abaser, debaser, deiecter, depresser, humbler, bringer downe of.
Abbandon; & Abbandonné; as Abandon; and Abandonné.
Abbandonnement; & Abbandonner; Looke Abandonnement; & Abandonner.
Abbatement: m. a felling, a beating, or breaking, a violent bearing, or bringing, downe; also, an abatement; also, the thing thats felled, beaten, or borne, downe.
Abbateur. a feller, ouerthrower, beater, breaker, or bearer, downe of.
Grand abbateur de bois. a sore fellow, horrible swaggerer, terrible bugbeare; one that ouerthrowes all he meets with; (Ironically.)
Abbateure: f. as Abbatement.
Abbateures. the boughs, leaues, or sprigs, which a Deere breakes and beares downe with his head in rushing through a thicket.
Abbatial: m. ale: f. Abbotlike, Abbay-like; of, or belonging to, an Abbot, or Abbey.
Abbatis: m. an ouerthrow; or ouerthrowing; as Abbatement; Also, an vtter defeature, execution, or slaughter of men.
L'abbatis d'une forest. wind-falls; or the wood, or trees, grubd vp, felled, or fallen downe.
L'abbatis d'une maison; the ruines of a house.
Abbatre. to fell; to beat or breake downe; violently to beare, or bring downe; to ruine, ouerthrow, cast to the ground; also to defeat vtterly, discomfit wholy.
Cela abbat l'yvresse. that quels, allaies, abates drunkennesse; or, makes a man sober againe.
Fort est qui abbat, & plus fort qui se releue; Pro. Seeke, Releuer.
Abbatu: m. uë: f. felled; beaten, or broken downe; violently borne, or brought down; quelled, ruined, ouerthrowne, cast to the ground.
Il a le coeur tout abbatu. his mind is vtterly deiected, courage abated, heart gone; hee is wholy crestfallen; there is no further life, no mettall, no spirit, left in him.
L'abbatu veut tousiours luicter; Prov. sayd of an obstinat fellow, whom no foile can make leaue a Contention, or suit, begun.
Chasteau abbatu est à demy refaict; Pro. A house puld downe is halfe built vp againe.
Abbay: m. a barking, or baying of dogges; Looke Abbois.
Tenir en abbay. to hold at bay; also, to delay, or driue off, with false hopes.
Abbayant. sub. as Abbayeur; a barker, &c.
Abbayant. part. barking, baying; railing.
Abbaye: f. an Abbay, Monasterie, Religious house.
Abbayé: m. ée: f. barked at; railed on.
Abbayement: m. a barking or baying of dogs; also, a lowd, extreame, and passionat reuiling of, shouting at, raying on.
Abbayer, to barke, or bay at; also, to reuile extreamly, lowdly to raile on.
Il abbaye contre la Lune. he barks at the Moone; sayd of one that obstinatly striues to falsifie, or disgrace the truth; wherein he spends his indeauors most ridiculously, vnprofitably, miserably.
Chien qui abbaye ne mord pas; Pro. The barking dogge bites little; and, He that sayest most, commonly does least.
Qui sert commun nul ne le paye, & s'il defaut chascun chaſcun l'abbaye; Pro. He that ſerues a Communaltie is controlled by euery one, rewarded by none.

Abbayeur: m. a barker, a rayler.

Abbé: m. an Abbot.

Face d'abbé. a iollie, fat, and red face; a fierie facies.

Pas d'Abbé. a leaſurely walking, ſlow gate, Aldermans pace.

Table d'Abbé. a plentifull, or well furniſhed, table.

Il iure comme vn Abbé. he ſweares like an Abbot, viz. extreamly.

Abbé, & Convent ce n'eſt qu'un, mais la bourſe eſt en divers lieux: Pro. Though an Abbot, and Conuent haue but one bodie, yet haue they ſeuerall meanes (and minds.)

Homme ne connoit mieux la malice que l'Abbé qui a eſté Moine · Pro. No man can play the knaue better than an Abbot that hath bene a Monke.

Abbec: m. a bait, for fiſh.

Abbeché. fed, as a yong bird by the old; alſo, inſtructed; or, inueigled, as a nouice.

Abbechement: m. a beakefull of; alſo, a feeding, or putting into the mouth of; alſo, an inſtructing; or, inueagling.

Abbecher. to feed, as birds doe their yoong, or faulkeners their hawkes; to put into the mouth of: hence, to inſtruct a yoong one; and, to inueagle, allure, intice, a nouice.

Abbée: f. a hole, or ouverture, for the paſſage of ſome part of a ſtreame thats held in by a damme, ſluice, &c.

Abbeille: f. a Bee; the little hiue-bee, or honnie-bee; Looke, Abeille.

Abbeſſe: f. an Abbeſſe.

Abbois: m. barkings, bayings.

Abbois de l'eſtomac. the gnawing of the ſtomach, in extreame hunger.

Aux derniers abbois. at his laſt gaſpe, or, breathing his laſt; alſo, put to his laſt ſhifts, driuen to vſe his laſt helpes: A metaphor from hunting; wherein a Stag is ſayd, Rendre les abbois, when wearie of running he turns vpon the hounds, and holds them at, or puts them to, a bay.

Abbonnement. as Abonnement.

Abbordé; Abbordée; & Abborder: as Abordé; Abordée; and Aborder.

Abbougri: m. ie: f. growne crooked, or withered in the top, as an ill-thriuing tree.

Abbougrir. to hinder from growing, to keepe from riſing, to let from thriuing; alſo, to grow crooked, or wither in the top, like an ill-thriuing tree.

Abbougry. as Abbougri.

Abboyé: m. ée: f. barked at, bayed at.

Abbras. the name of a terrible Gyant in the old Romants; whence,

Ce fier Abbras; this kill-cow, skar-crow, bugbeare, ſwaſhbuckler, horrible backſter.

Abbregé: m. an Abridgement, Abſtract, Epitome, Summarie, Compendium, ſhort courſe, or diſcourſe.

Abbregé: m. ée: f. ſhortened, abridged, curtalled, abbreuiated, epitomiſed; alſo, briefe, ſhort, compendious.

Abbregement: m. a ſhortning, abridging, epitomiſing, abbreuiating; alſo, an abridgement.

Abbregément. ſhortly, breefly, ſuccinctly, compendiouſly, by abridgement.

Abbreger. to ſhorten, abridge, abſtract, abbreuiat, epitomiſe, curtall, cut ſhort.

Abbreuiateur: m. an abbreuiator; a maker of breefs; or of writs.

Abbreuiature: f. a Breuiat; Abbreuiation, Abbreuiature; a ſhort note.

Abbreuvé: m. ée: f. watered, ſteeped, ſoked, ſeaſoned in, throughly wet, or moiſtned with, liquor; alſo ſhrunk, as cloth, in water.

Abbreuvé d'une opinion. whoſe thoughtes are wholly poſſeſt with, or fully perſuaded in, an opinion.

Abbreuver. to water, as a horſe, &c; throughly to wet, or moiſten with water; ſteepe, ſoke, or ſeaſon, in liquor: alſo, to ſhrinke, as Fullers do their cloth, by water.

Abbreuver de quelque opinion. to imbue, poſſeſſe wholly, with an opinion; to imprint, or fix it in the mind; to breed in the thoughts an aſſured perſuaſion, or full beleefe, thereof.

Abbreuvoir: m. a watering place for horſes.

vn abbreuvoir à mouſchès. an open wound, or hurt; (whereat flies, if they may quietly, drinke their fill.)

Abbruti: m. ie: f. beaſtly, brutiſh; or, made beaſtly, become brutiſh.

Abbruver. as Abbreuver.

Abderois. of Abdera; the ancient name of a towne in Thrace; & of another, now called Almeria, in Spaine; and of a certaine iſland neere vnto Samothrace.

Rire Abderois: Prov. A continuall or vnceſſant laughter; ſuch as the Philoſopher Democritus (who was of the firſt Abdera*) is ſayd to haue vſed.*

Abdiquer. to abdicate; to refuſe, reiect, forſake; reſigne, giue ouer; caſt off, expell, put out of fauour; alſo, to abrogate, or diſanull; alſo, to prohibit the vſe of.

Abducteur. a leader out, or away; a withdrawer, or puller away.

Abecé: m. an Abcee, the Croſſe-row, an Alphabet, or orderly liſt, of all the letters.

Abecedaire: com. in his Abcee: that but beginnes to learne his Abcee: hence alſo, childiſh, yoong, ſimple, ignorant.

Abechement. as Abbechement.

Abecher. as Abbecher.

Abequeter. to pecke at.

Abediſſimon. a ſerpent of the kind of dragons.

Abeillanne. the white muſcadine grape.

Abeillaud: m. a Dorre, or Drone-bee; ¶ Langued.

Abeille: f. a Bee; the little hiue, or honnie-bee.

Les abeilles ne deuiennent point frelons; Prov. Good, or well-bred, ſpirits neuer degenerat.

Abeillon: m. a neaſt, or ſwarme, of Bees.

Abequer. as Abbecher.

Abeſté: m. ée: f. mounted on horſebacke; or, that hath an horſe to ride on.

Abeſti: m. ie: f. made, or become beaſtly; full of, or beſotted with, beaſtly humors.

Abeſtin. perpetually burning. ¶ Rab.

Abeſtir. to make a beaſt, or beaſtly; to bring into beaſtly courſes; to beſot with beaſtly humors; to fill with ſauage, or brutiſh, conditions.

Abhorrant: m. an abhorrer, deteſter, loather; Or, as Abhorrent; and hence;

Ie ne ſuis trop abhorrant de cette opinion; I differ not much from, I am not altogither againſt, this opinion.

Abhorré: m. ée: f. deteſted, abhorred, loathed.

Abhorrent. abhorring, deteſting, loathing; abhorrent from, vtterly diſagreeing in nature, and humor; alſo, vnuſuall, vnaccuſtomed, out of courſe.

Abhorrer. to abhor, deteſt, loath extreamly, haue in abhomination; vtterly diſagree from; wholly ſhunne, flie, flie, hate the company of.

Abhorrir; as Abhorrer.

Abhorriſsant; abhorring, deteſting, loathing.

Abiect: m. cte: f. abiect, baſe, vile, contemptible, outcaſt, of no value; deſpiſed, caſt off, or away; lowly deiected, out of courage, out of conceit with himſelfe.

Abiection: f. abiection, vileneſſe, abiect lowlineſſe; baſeneſſe of hart, faintneſſe in courage, ouermuch humilitie, or vndervaluing of himſelfe.

Abier: m. a faulcon gentle.

Abile; & Abiller; as Habile; & Habiller.

Abisme; & Abismer; as Abysme; & Abysmer.

Abismé: m. éc: f. ingulfed.

Abiuré. abiured, denied by oath; forſworne.

Abiurement: m. an abiuring, forſwearing, denying with an oath.

Abiurer. to abiure, forſweare; denie with an oath.

Ablatif: m. the ablatiue Caſe.

Ablation: f. a taking away, or from.

Ablayé; terres ablayées de bled; Corne ground; land whereon Corne growes, or wherin it hath bene ſowed.

Ablays: m. Corne growing, or in ſheaues.

Able: f. a blay, or bleake, fiſh.

Ableret: m. a kind of ſmall fiſh-net.

Ablette: f. a little blay, or bleake.

Abloquié. Edefices abloquiez; viz. baillez par le ſeigneur direct en Emphyteoſe, & Cenſiue.

Ablution: f. a waſhing away.

Abois: m. as Abbois.

Aboli: m. ie: f. aboliſhed; raſed, defaced, put out, abrogated, extinguiſhed, annihilated, fordone, diſanulled.

Abolir; to aboliſh; to raſe, deface, blot, or put, out; to abrogate, annihilate, extinguiſh, foredoe, diſanull.

Aboliſsement: m. an aboliſhment, or aboliſhing; a raſing, defacing, abrogating, diſanulling.

Abolition: f. an aboliſhment, annihilation, abrogation, extinguiſhment: And in law, The leaue giuen by the king, or iudges, vnto a criminal accuſer, to deſiſt from further perſecution: In Chancerie, An abſolute, or generall, pardon.

Abolition de creances, & vieilles ſcedules; a generall, releaſe, Quietus eſt, or forgiueneſſe of olde debts.

Lettres d'abolition. An abſolute pardon graunted by the Prince vnto a whole Countrie, Towne, or Village, that hath offended: ¶ Nicot. Yet others, more generally, meane by Abolition, any abſolute or generall pardon.

Abominable: com. Abhominable, execrable, deteſtable.

Abomination: f. an abhomination, a deteſtation, a horrible, or execrable thing.

Abominer; To deteſt, abhorre, loath extreamly; to haue in abhomination.

Abondamment. abundantly, copiouſly, fully, plentifully, enough and enough againe.

Abondance: f. Store, abundance, plentie, fulneſſe, copiouſneſſe.

Abondant. Abundant, plentifull, plentious, copious, very full, exceeding much.

D'abondant, (Aduerbially) Ouer and beſides, moreouer.

Abonder. To abound, or ouer flow with; to be rich in; to be full, or haue ſtore, of.

Abonnage; as Abornement; Alſo, an exchange, or alienation of rents, duties, or ſeruices.

Abonnaſſé. Calmed, quieted, appeaſed, pacified.

Abonné: m. é: e: f. Compounded for, or with; agreed for before hand; at a certaine rate with; made good with, exchanged for.

Abonnement: m. A compounding with, or for; an agreeing for, a being at a certaine rate with, before-hand; a making good of one thing with another; alſo an exchanging, or aliening of one thing for another.

Abonner. To compound with, or for; to agree before-hand, or be at a certaine rate, with, for a thing; to make good one thing with another; alſo to alien, or exchange, one thing for another.

Abonneur. An alienor, exchanger; Alſo, as Acquereur.

Abonni: m. ie: f. Made good; Alſo as Aborné.

Abonnir. To make good; alſo to doe good vnto; Alſo as Aborner.

Abord: m. An arriuall, an approach; a boording, abording, drawing neere vnto.

De doux abord. Gentle, courteous, affable: of open acceſſe, eaſie to be ſpoken with, or come vnto.

Abordable: com. Affable, abbordable, approchable, boordable.

Abordade: f. as Abordée.

Abordé. Approached, abboorded, accoaſted, boorded, drawne neere vnto; alſo arriued, or landed at.

Abordée: f. An approach, boording, abboording, accoaſting, drawing neere vnto; alſo, an arriuall, arriuing, or landing at.

D'abordée. At firſt, at firſt ſight; as ſoone as they touched, incountred, or came, togither.

Abordement; as Abordée.

Aborder. To approach, accoaſt, abboord; boord, or lay aboord; come, or draw neere vnto; alſo, to arriue, or land at.

Abornage; as Abournage.

Aborné: m. ée: f. Limitted, ſtinted, bounded, knowing his bounds, or what he muſt truſt vnto; hence, compounded with, or for; agreed beforehand for; at a certaine rate with, vpon a former agreement.

Abornément. A limiting, bounding, ſtinting; alſo, a compoſition, or compounding; a ſetting of a certaine price on, or a ſtanding at a certain rate for; a receiuing, or paying for, things, otherwiſe than in kind.

Aborner. To limit, bound, ſtint; alſo, to compound with, or for; to ſet a certaine rent on; to ſtand at a certaine rate for; to receaue, or deliuer, by former agreement, any thing otherwiſe than in kind.

Abortif: m. iue: f. Abortiue, vntimely, ſtill-borne; bred, borne, or brought forth, before a due time.

Oeuf abortif. An addle egge, or, an eg whoſe ſhell is not yet hard.

Abouchement: m. A parley, or conference.

Aboucher. To parley, treat, conferre with by word of mouth; to ſpeake face to face vnto.

Abouchon: d'ab: Groueling, layd on his face, or on all foure; alſo, ſtooping; hauing, or holding, the face downward.

Abouquement: m. A heaping vp, as of new made ſault.

Abouquer. To heape, or pile vp.

Abourionner. To bud, ſprout out, put forth.

Abournage: m. A compoſition, a certaine rate, or valuation of, a beforehand agreement for, things.

Abournement; & Abourner; as Abornement; & Aborner.

Abouter; To bring, or draw to a head, or end.

Abouti: m. ie: f. Growne ripe, drawn to a head, brought to an end; alſo, abutted, affronted, confined, come neere neere vnto,met at,the end.

Aboutir. To wax ripe,or draw to a head, as an impostume; also,to end; to approach,or grow, towards an end; to meet at their end; also to touch, affront, abut vpon, confine,or be neere, vnto in the head,foot, front,bottome, top, or end of; also, to approach, or make towards.

Aboutir en pointe. To end sharpe, or pointed; to grow smaller,and smaller towards the toppe, head, or end.

Aboutissans d'une maison. Th'vtmost ends or parts of a house,at the front and backeside thereof.

Aboutissans d'une heritage. The vtmost bounds, or limits of an inheritance,at both ends thereof.

Aboutissant. Drawing, or comming,vnto a head, or end; also affronting,abutting,confining vnto at the top or bottome,head or foot, or at either end; also, making,or approching, towards.

Aboutissement. A drawing to a head, a growing towards an end: a meeting at their end,a touching, affronting,abutting vpon,a confining, or neerenesse,at either end.

Aboutissement d'os. as,Epiphyse.

Aboutissement de terres. The vtmost boundes, marches,limits,or ends of lands.

Abouvier. To vnyoke Oxen; ¶Norm.

Abradant. Paring, shauing,scraping,rasing; wearing away.

Abregé:m. An Abridgement,&c;as Abbregé.

Abregé. Abridged,abbreuiated,shortened, curtalled.

Abregement. as Abbregement.

Abri: m. A couert, shrowd,shelter,or shadie place; a lee-shore,shead,seat,or corner, whereto neither wet, nor wind,can come: Hence,a sanctuary,place of suretie,or of safe retreit,in aduersitie.

Vn port de bon abri pour les nauires. A safe harbor for shipping, in all weathers.

Abricot:m. The Abricot,or Apricocke plum.

Abricotier. An Apricocktree.

Abrier d'Arbeleste:m. The tree of a Crosbow.

Abrier. To couer, shrowd, shelter, shadow.

Abrogation:f. An abrogation, abolishment; repealing,disanulling.

Abrogé:m.ée: f. Abrogated,abolished, disanulled, repealed.

Abroger. To abrogate,abolish,disanull,repeale.

Abroton: m. The bearbe Sothernwood.

Abruption: f. An abruption; a breaking off, a bursting asunder.

Abruption d'os. An entire seperation of some part of a bone from the rest,which thereby suffers a manifest want.

Abruti: m.ie:f. Made beastly,growne brutish.

Abrutir. To make beastly,or brutish.

Abruvé:m. ée: f. Watered,wet throughly; seasoned, steeped,or shrunk in; filled, furnished,or stored with, water,&c.

Abruver. as Abbreuver.

Abruvoir. as Abbruvoir, A watering place for horses.

Abry: m. Looke Abri.

Abscez:m. An impostume,botch,or swelling ful of mattar; a course of ill humours running out of their veins and naturall places,into the emptie spaces betweene muscles.

Abscis:m.ise:f. Cut off,diuided,seperated from.

Absconse:com. Hidden,obscure,darke,secret, couert, lurking,concealed.

Absconsé:m.ée: f. Hidden, obscured, concealed, kept close.

Absconsement:m. A hiding,obscuring,concealing.

Absconser. To hide, conceale, obscure,keepe close, or secret.

Abscynte:m. Woormewood; Looke Absynthe.

Abscyntien:m.enne:f. Belonging to Wormwood, bitter as Wormewood,tasting of Wormwood.

Absence:f. Absence.

Absent. Absent,missing,wanting,out of the way.

Absenté: m.ée:f. Absented; sent,had,or kept,got, flit, or fled,out of the way.

Absenter. To absent,to send,keepe, get, or haue out of the way.

S'absenter. to flit,be gone,flie his countrie,play least in sight,keepe out of the way. (Vsed most commonly in the worst sence.)

Absince. as Absinte.

Absinte:m. Wormwood; Looke, Absynthe.

Absinthe. as Absinte.

Absolte: f. An absolute pardon,a generall absolution, forgiuenesse,remitment of offences.

Absolut:m.ute:f. Absolute. Whence;

Ieudy absolut. Maundie-Thursday, Sheere-Thursday.

Absolution:f. An absolution, a forgiuenesse or forgiuing; a discharge of, or deliuerie from; an abolition of debts,wrongs,offences.

Absolutoire:com. Absoluatorie,pardoning,forgiuing.

Lettre absolutoire; A Pardon signed.

Absorbé:m.ée: f. Supped,or drunke wholy vp; deuoured, swallowed.

Absorber. To sup,or drinke vp all: to deuour,swallow, consume.

Absoudre. as Absouldre.

Absouldre, To absolue, to forgiue absolutely,pardon wholy; to remit offences vnto, to discharge, deliuer, quit from all danger.

Absouls; as Absous.

Absoulte; as Absolte.

Absous:m.oute:f. Absolued,pardoned, forgiuen,quit, cleerely discharged of, or deliuered from, the danger of iudgement.

Absoute:f. as Absolte; or, A generall absolution, pardon, forgiuenesse,remitment of offences.

Abstenir. To abstaine, forbeare, temper himselfe, refraine,withhold from medling with.

Soustenir,& abstenir. To temporise it; to bear with, or apply himselfe vnto the time.

Absterssif:m.iue: f. Absterssiue, cleansing, or wiping away.

Abstinence. Abstinence,refraining,forbearance.

Abstinence de guerre. A truce,or surceasing from warre.

Abstraction. An abstraction,a drawing out, or away.

Abstraict:m. A seperation,disunition,disunction.

Abstraindre. To bind fast, to knit hard, to wrap in bands.

Abstrus:m.use:f. Close,hidden, shut vp,darke, secret, wrapped vp in obscuritie,hard to be knowne, or vnderstood.

Absurde:m. An absurditie; a grosse, vnlikely, or vnreasonable matter.

Absurde:com. Absurd,sottish,grosse,foolish,vnlike,abrupt,without reason,out of order.

Absurdement. Absurdly,grosly,vnorderly,abruptly.

Absurdité:f. An absurditie,grossenesse,foolishnesse,an abrupt, or sottish part, an vnlikely thing, vnreasonable dealing.

Absynce; & Absynte; as Absynthe.

Abſynthe: m. Wormewood.

Abſynthe marin. Sea Wormwood, is of three kinds; one called white ſea-wormwood; the ſecond, broad-leaued ſea-wormwood; the third, Mugwoort wormwood, or, Sothernwood wormwood.

Abſynthe Pontique. Ponticke Wormwood; whereof there be two kinds, the ordinarie broadleaued, and the ſmall Ponticke Wormewood: Some alſo call the White ſea wormewood Abſynthium Ponticum; others confound the Ponticke with the Roman; and it ſeemes (by them) that, that which heretofore was termed Ponticke, is now turned into Roman.

Abſynthe Romain. Romane Wormewood, French Wormwood, ſmall-leaued Wormwood, Garden or Cypres Wormewood; called alſo Wormewood gentle, by reaſon of the ſweet ſmell, which, contrarie to all the other kinds, it yeelds.

Abſynthe de Sainctongne, ou Santoniq; . The ſame; or ſmall white Wormewood; (ſome call the ſecond Ponticke, and others the white ſea Wormewood, Abſynthium Santonicum, but not ſo properly.)

Petit abſynthe; as Abſynthe marin; eſpecially the firſt, and laſt, kinds thereof.

Abus: m. An abuſe; deceit, impoſture, diſappointment, fallacie, gullerie; alſo, a miſpending, or diſorderly imploiment of.

Abuſé: m. ée: f. Abuſed, miſuſed, wronged: alſo, miſſpent, or diſorderly beſtowed: alſo, deceiued, miſtaken, in an error, beguiled, gulled.

Abuſement: m. An abuſing, or miſuſing; a miſpending, or diſordered beſtowing of; alſo, a deceiuing, diſappointing, mockerie, beguiling.

Abuſement de l'œil, ou, de veuë. A miſtie dimneſſe in the eyes, which cauſeth them to miſtake one thing for another, and is the auauntcourror of blindneſſe.

Abuſer. To abuſe, miſuſe, wrong, miſpend, or beſtow diſorderly; alſo to deceiue, diſappoint, gull, couſine, beguile.

s'Abuſer. To miſtake, or be in error; to wrong himſelfe; alſo, to looſe time.

Abuſeur: m. An abuſer, a miſpender of; alſo, a deceiuer, impoſter, beguiler.

Abuſeux: m. euſe: f. Full of abuſes; deceitfull, guilefull.

Abuſif: m. ue: f. Abuſiue, deceitfull, guilefull; alſo, againſt cuſtom, cleane out of order, or from the vſe of.

Abuſion: f. An abuſing, an error, fallacie, impoſture, guile, deceit.

Abuſiuement. Abuſiuely, moſt vnorderly, cleane from the right vſe, or ſence of.

Abutter. To aime, or, to ſhoot, at.

Abyſme: m. An Abyſmus; a bottomleſſe hole, or pit; an infinit, immenſe, or vnmeaſurable depth; a whirlepoole, or ſwallowing gulfe.

Abyſmé: m. ée: f. Abiſmed, ingulfed; throwne into, or ſwallowed, by a whirlepoole, bottomleſſe pit, or hole of an vnknowne depth; alſo beaten, or thruſt ſo flat vnto, or far into, another, that it ſeemes loſt, or appeares no more; alſo, ſunke, vndone, throwne downe, ouerthrowne, become on a ſuddain of moſt rich moſt poore: and hence;

Il a abyſmé ſon ennemy. He hath wholy ſuppreſſed, or vtterly ruined, his enemie.

Abyſmer. To abiſme, or ingulph; to ſwallow vp in an infinit, and vnmeaſurable depth; to caſt into a bottomleſſe hole, or pit; to throw downe from a great heighth vnto the bottome; alſo, to beat, or thruſt one thing ſo flat vnto, or far into, another, that it ſeeme loſt, or appeare no more; and (by metaphor) vtterly, and on a ſudden, to deſtroy, ruine, vndoe, ouerthrow.

Abyſmeux: m. euſe: f. Gulphie, full of whirlepools; alſo bottomleſſe, of an infinit, or vnmeaſurable, depth.

Acablé. as Accablé; Alſo, made faſt with, or vnto, a Cable.

Acabler. To faſten with, or vnto, a Cable; alſo, as Accabler.

Acace: f. A certaine thornie plant, of two kinds; a greater, growing moſt in Egypt, & a leſſe, in Pontus; alſo, as;

Acacie: f. A medecinall iuice, or liquor, drawn from the ſeed of the Egyptian thorne Acacia; in ſteed wherof, (ſaies Gerard) the German Apothecaries both vſe, & call ſo, the iuice of Sloes.

Academié: m. ée: f. Beſotted, puzled, or plundered, with too much skill, or ſtudying.

Acaire. A proper name for a man; and the name of a ſaint, vnto whome furious, haſtie, and harebraind people are ſent in Pilgrimage.

Acamusé: m. ée: f. Flatted; made, or beaten, flat; blunt, or flat pointed; like a flat noſe.

Acalli: m. ie: f. Hardned, enured, accuſtomed vnto; that hath got a habit of, &c.

Acanthe: m. The ſmooth thiſtle called, Brankurſin, and Beares-breech.

Acaré: m. ée: f. Affronted, confronted; ſet before, preſented vnto, the face of.

Acarement: m. An affronting, or confronting.

Acarer. To affront, confront, ſet face to face, or before the face of; bring neere vnto, or, together.

Il luy acara ſon Arquebuſe à l'eſtomac: He preſented his Peece vnto the others ſtomack.

Acariaſtre: com. Harebraind, raſh, brainleſſe, haſtie, furious, vnreaſonable, inconſiderat; one that is violently ſwaied by his owne mad will, and frantick humour.

Acariaſtreté: f. Frantick obſtinacie, mad wilfulneſſe, harebraind furie, opinionat raſhneſſe.

Acaſer. To inhabit, ſoiourne, lodge, dwell, or houſe himſelfe, in.

Acazer. To rent, or let out vpon a yearely rent.

Accablé: m. ée: f. Ouerthrowne, ouerwhelmed, beaten, or borne, downe with blowes, &c; Oppreſſed by much waight, or ouer-heauie burthens; confounded, vtterly ruined.

Accabler. To ouerthrow, beat, or beare, downe with blowes, &c. Oppreſſe by much waight, or ouerheauie burthens; ouerwhelme, ruine, confound vtterly.

Accagnardement: m. Sloath, idle ſenſualitie.

Accagnarder. To grow lazie, ſloathfull, idle, woorthleſſe.

Accaration: f. as Acarement.

Accariaſtreté. as Acariaſtreté.

Accaſané. Louing home, euer within doores, a houſedoue, mued vp, neuer ſtirring abroad.

Accaſement. as Accoiſement.

Accelerateur. A ſpeeder, haſtner, diſpatcher.

Muſcle accelerateur. A certaine muskle whereby the vrine and ſeed are ierted out.

Acceleration. Haſt, or ſpeedmaking; an acceleration.

Acceleré: m. ée: f. Accelerated, haſtened; diſpatched.

Accelerer. To accelerat, haſten, ſpeed, make haſt, diſpatch.

Accence: m. as Acence.

Accenſement. Il tient cela par ac: He holds that by leaſe, or at a certaine yearely rent; or is to pay an yearly Cens for it; Looke Acenſement.

Accenſiſſement: m. A holding by leaſe, or in farme, or or the paying of an yearely rent, or Cens for any thing held.

Accent: m. An Accent; alſo, the raiſing, or letting fall, of the voice in pronunciation.

Accent aigu. A ſharpe accent, marked thus, ´, & much vſed.

Accent circonflex, ou contourné. The bowed accent is marked thus ^, or thus ˜, and is not much vſed in French.

Accent graue. is marked thus, `, & ſet ouer the words à, où, là, &c.

Accentué: m. ée: f. Accented; noted, or pronounced, with an accent.

Accentuer. To marke, note, or pronounce, with an accent

Acceptable: com. Acceptable, gracious, pleaſing, fit, or worthy, to be entertained.

Acceptation: f. An acceptation, intertainment, receipt, allowance of.

Accepté: m. ée: f. Accepted: receiued, or intertained in good part.

Accepter. To accept, intertaine, receaue in good part; admit, approue, allow of.

Acceptilation: f. A paiment; or, an imaginary diſcharge of a debt, made from a Creditor vnto a Debtor in this forme; Tiens tu pas pour eu, & receu ce que ie t'ay promis? (ſaies the Debtor; wherto the other anſwers) Ouy, Ie le tiens.

Acception: f. An acception, accepting, receauing, taking; an admiſſion, or intertainment of; alſo, a reſpect, or diſtinction of perſons, in Iudgement.

Acceſsible: com. Acceſſible, familiar, courteous, gentle, of eaſie acceſſe.

Acceſsif: m. iue: f. Acceſſible, acceſſiue, eaſie to come vnto.

Acceſsion. An acceſſion, or addition; alſo, an acceſſe or comming vnto.

Acceſſoire: com. A circumſtance; an acceſſion, increaſe, augmentation, ouerplus, vantage ouer and beſides the due or principall; alſo, a danger, great miſchiefe, or trouble; alſo, an error, or diſorder.

Acceſſoire: com. Accidentall, or acceſſarie; happening, or comming in, or making one by chance.

Acceſſoirement. Acceſſarily, accidentally.

Accez: m. An acceſſe, an entrie, or paſſage vnto, a comming vnto a place, or matter.

Accez de fiebvre. A fit of an ague.

Accident. An accident, a circumſtance; alſo, a misfortune, miſhap, calamitie, miſchance; alſo, any accident, or caſualtie.

Accidental: m. ale: f. Accidentall, Caſuall.

Accidentalement. Accidentally, caſually, by fortune, by meere chance.

Accidentellement. as Accidentalement.

Acclampé. Faſtened, pinned, pegged; ¶Norm.

Acclamper. To faſten, to pin, or peg; ¶Norm.

Accodepot. A Triuet; the prop, or ſupporter, of a ſeething pot.

Accoeuiller. To benum, or beſot, with ſenceleſneſſe.

Accoinct, or Accoint; Acquainted, or familiar with; alſo, neat, compt, fine, ſpruce in apparell, or otherwiſe.

Accointable: com. Acquaintable, eaſie to be acquainted, or familiar, with.

Accointance: f. Acquaintance, conuerſation, or commerce, with.

Accointement. as Accointance; (An old word.)

Accointer. To make iollie, peart, quaint, comely, gallant, gay; to pranke, decke, tricke vp: alſo, to ſeeke, or affect, the acquaintance of; In which ſence it is moſt vſed paſſiuely, or with the paſſiue article; as;

S'accointer de. To wax acquainted, grow familiar, with; or, to get, or deſire, the acquaintance of.

Accoisé: m. ée: f. Quieted, calmed, pacified, appeaſed, quallified, aſſuaged, allaied, eaſed.

Accoisement. A quieting, pacifieng, appeaſing, qualifying, eaſing, aſſuaging, abatement of paine or paſſion.

Accoiſer. To quiet, pacifie, appeaſe, calme, aſſuage, eaſe, mittigat, quallifie, abate, allay.

Accolite: m. A nouice, or yoong proficient, alſo the boy that miniſters to the prieſt at maſſe-time.

Accollade: f. A colling, clipping, imbracing about the necke; Hence, the dubbing of a knight, or the ceremonie vſed therein.

Accollé. Colled, clipped, imbraced about the necke; in blazon, collared.

Accollée: f. as Accollade.

Accoller. To embrace, coll, or clip about the necke.

Accolleer. To make meet, or fit for the necke; Alſo, to ſtrike in the necke, as men kill conies.

Accommodable. Fittable, aptable, appliable.

Accommodation. A fitting, apting, applying, accommodating, furniſhing.

Accommodé. Fitted, apted, applied; furniſhed, accommodated; alſo, helped, aſſiſted; alſo courſed, or cudgelled.

Accommoder. To accommodat, fit, apt, applie, frame vnto, or for; to furniſh; alſo, to aſſiſt, helpe, ſuccour; alſo, to courſe, beat, cudgell, vſe a knaue in his kind.

Accommoder vne femme. To vſe a woman.

s'accommoder au temps. To ſerue the time; to follow the ſwinge, courſe, or faſhion, of the preſent world; to doe as others doe.

Accompagnable: com. Companable, ſociable, eaſie to bee conuerſed with.

Accompagné. m. ée: f. Accompanied, aſſociated, conſorted, kept with; hauing the company, or fellowſhip, of.

Mieux vaut eſtre ſeul que mal accompagné. Pro. It is better to be alone than with idle, or ill sorted, companie.

Accompagnement. A companying, or accompanying; a fellowſhip, ſocietie, aſſociation.

Accompagner. To accompanie, aſſociat, conſort, keepe, or hold, fellowſhip with; alſo, to follow (in courteſie.)

Accomparageant. Comparing, matching with, reſembling vnto.

Accomparager. To compare, match, equall, confer one thing with another.

Accomparer. as Accomparager.

Accompli: m. ie: f. Accompliſhed, atchieued, finiſhed, performed, fulfilled; alſo, furniſhed, ſupplied, indued, with.

Cent ans accomplis. Full a hundred yeares.

Accomplir. To accompliſh, finiſh, fulfill, performe, atchieue; ſupplie or furniſh what lacketh.

Accompliſsement. A fulfilling, accompliſhment, atchieuement, full performance of; alſo, a ſupplie, or furniſhing.

Accompliſseur. a fulfiller, atchieuer, performer, accompliſher, finiſher, ſupplier, full furniſher.

Acconditionné: m. ée: f. Giuen, or granted, vpon condition.

Acconditionner. To giue, or graunt, vpon condition.

Acconduire. To lead, or bring to; to conduct, or guide vnto.

Acconſuyvre. To ouertake, or attaine vnto; to reach, in iourneying, or going.

Ie ne ſcauroy acconſuyvre par paroles le grand plaiſir. I cannot expreſſe or comprehend, in any words, the

the great, &c.

Accopper. as Achoper.

Accoquiné. Made tame, inward, familiar; also, growne as lazie, sloathfull, idle, as a beggar.

Accoquiner. To make tame, inward, familiar; to reclaim a wild thing.

s'Accoquiner. To wax as lazie, become as idle, grow as sloathfull, as a beggar.

Accord: m. Accord, agreement, concordance, consent; also, a contract, composition, bargaine agreed on; also, the deed whereby that contract, &c, is made, or passed; also an accord, or concord in musicke.

Accordable. Compoundable, accordable, agreeable; fit, or easie, to be agreed.

Accordailles: f. The betrothing, or making sure of a man and woman together.

Accordance: f. An accord, or agreement; a concord, or concordance in musicke.

Accordant. Agreeable, accordant, concordant; well fitting vnto: compounding, or consenting, with.

Accordé. vn ac: A man betrothed to a woman.

Accordé. Accorded, agreed, concurred with; consented, graunted, yeelded vnto; chaffered, bargained, compounded for; attoned, compounded, reconciled together.

Figure accordée. Looke Figure.

Accordée. Vne accordée. A woman that's handfast with, or betroathed vnto, a man.

Accordement: m. An according, concurring, or agreeing with; a yeelding, or graunting vnto; also, a bargaining, or compounding for; also, a reconciliation, or composition of differences; an agreeing vpon.

Accorder. To accord, concur, consent, agree, with; to yeeld, or graunt vnto; also, to attone, compound, reconcile differences, or parties in difference; also, to bargain, chaffer, compound for; also, to agree vpon.

Accorder vne fille. To handfast, affiance, betroath himselfe vnto a maiden.

Deux chiens ne s'accordent point à vn os: Prov. We say, Two cats and a mouse, two wiues in one house, two dogs and a bone, neuer agree in one.

Accorné: m. ée: f. Horned, hauing, or wearing horns: (In Blazon) attired.

Accort: m. te: f. Discreet, headie, warie, aduised, circumspect, foreseeing, aware; of a good spirit, quicke wit, notable reach, that hath an excellent forecast; also, wilie, subtill, cunning.

Accortement. Warily, discreetly, heedfully, circumspectly, aduisedly; wittily, subtilly, cunningly.

Accorteſie: f. Circumspection, warinesse, heedfulnesse, discretion, aduisednesse, a great reach, or forecast, subtiltie of spirit, quickenesse of wit.

Accortiſe: f. as Accorteſie.

Accoſtable: com. Accoastable; fit, or easie, to be accoasted.

Accoſté: m. ée: f. Accoasted, approached, or drawne neere vnto; growne familiar with; also, affronted, braued, vrged.

Accoſter. To accoast, or ioine side to side; to approach, or draw neere vnto; also, to wax acquainted, or grow familiar, with; also, to affront, vrge, braue (to his face.)

Accoté: m. ée: f. Vnderset, underpropped; whose sides are held vp; supported, sustained, staied from shaking, or slipping; also, reared, or leaned, against.

Accotement: m. An vndersetting, underpropping; supporting, sustaining, staying vp; also, a prop, shore, supporter.

Accotepot: m. A prop, or stay, for a (seething) pot; properly, a thicke peece of yron, (made somewhat like a halfe moone) wherewith the one side of a pot is supported.

Accoter. To underset, underprop, or hold vp the sides of; to sustain, support, shore, buttresse, beare vp; to stay from shaking, or slipping.

s'Accoter contre. To reare himselfe, or leane, against.

Accouché: m. ée: f. Laid downe, got into bed.

Accouchée. A woman that lies in childbed.

Accouchement: m. A lying downe in bed; also, a womans being brought to bed; or her being in childbed.

Accoucher. To lie downe in, to get himselfe, to bed; also to be brought to bed, as a woman of a child.

Accoudement: m. A leaning on the elbow.

s'Accouder. To leane, rest, or stay, on his elbow.

Accoudoir: m. A forme, bench, rayle, &c, whereon one leanes with his elbow; a rest, a stay, a leaning stocke.

Vne chaire à accoudoirs. A chaire with elbowes.

Accoulpé: m. ée: f. Blamed for, charged with, accused of, a crime.

Accouplable: com. Yoakeable, coupleable, fit to be coupled with.

Accouplage: m. A coupling, or coniunction; a yoaking, or uniting together, or vnto.

Accouplé. Coupled, yoaked, ioyned together, or vnto.

Accouplement. as Accouplage.

Accoupler. To ioyne, vnite, couple, yoake together, or vnto.

Accouragé: m. ée: f. Incouraged, hartened, imboldened; that hath mettle put into him.

Accourager. To hearten, incourage, imbolden.

Accourber; & Accourbir. To bow, crooke, or bend inwards, or towards.

Accourci: m. ie: f. Shortened, abridged, curtalled, contracted, clipped, or cut short.

Accourcir. To shorten, abridge, curtall, clip, or cut short.

Accourciſſement. An abridging, shortening, curtalling, contracting; a clipping, or cutting short.

Accourement: m. A concourse, comming, or running of many men together to one place; an assemblie, or hastie gathering of people from many places vnto one.

Accourir. To run, hast, or hie together in flocks, or troups, vnto a place.

Accours. as Accourement; Also, a chase.

Accouſiné. Taken as, acknowledged for, a kinsman.

Accouſiner. To make, acknowledge, or take, for his cousin.

Accouſtement: m. A hearkening, or listening too; a drawing neere with his eares, or vnto the eare of.

Accouſter. To hearken, listen, giue eare to, draw neere vnto the eare of, or, with his eares.

Accouſteur: m. A hearkener; one that listens, or giues eare, vnto another.

Accouſtré: m. ée: f. Dressed, attired, arraied, apparelled, trimd, decked.

Accouſtré à la Tigreſque. Cruelly handled, horribly bethwacked, or beſcratched.

Il m'a mal accouſtré. He hath vsed me very hardly, he hath dealt most badly with me; or, he hath brought me to much misfortune, a poore estate, an ill passe.

Accouſtrement: m. A dressing, attiring, apparelling, decking, trimming; also, a garment, raiment, habilimēt, suit of apparell, suit of cloathes.

Accouſtrer. To cloath, dresse, apparell, attire, array; deck, trimme.

O comme il accouſtre les gens. Oh how vilely he disgraces, how badly he reports of, how filthily hee handles, how skurvily he deales with, all men.

Il s'accouſtre bien. He stuffes himselfe soundly, hee lines his iacket throughly with liquor; The like is;

Il s'accouſtre pour aller au guet. He takes his liquor kindly, freely, fully; (from the cuſtome of thoſe that are to watch.)

Le Roy s'accouſtra de telle cruauté, & furie. The king put on ſuch crueltie, entered into that furie.

Accouſtumance: f. Cuſtome, vſage, woont; alſo, an accuſtoming.

Accouſtumé: m. ée: f. Accuſtomed, vſed, woonted, enured vnto; alſo vſuall, or much vſed: and hence;

Choſe accouſtumée n'eſt pas trop priſée: Pro. We ſeldome prize whats ordinarie.

Accouſtumer. To accuſtome, vſe; enure vnto, practiſe in.

Accoutré; Accoutrement; & Accoutrer: as Accouſtré; Accouſtrement; & Accouſtrer.

Accoutumance; Accoutumé; & Accoutumer: as Accouſtumance; Accouſtumé; & Accouſtumer.

Accouvé: m. ée: f. Brooded; ſet cloſe on, crowded ouer; alſo, couered, hidden, ouerſhadowed.

Accouver. as Accouveter.

Accouveter. To brood, ſit cloſe, or crowding, as a henne ouer her egges, or Chickens; (and hence) alſo, to ouerſhadow, couer, hide.

Accravanté. as Accrevanté.

Accravanter. as Accrevanter.

Accrazer. To breake, burſt, craze; bruize, cruſh.

Accreſté: m. ée: f. Creſted, copped; hauing a great creaſt, or combe, as a Cocke; alſo, cockit, proud, ſaucie, ſtately, luſtie, creaſt-riſen.

Accreſter. To wax cockit, grow proud, become ſaucie, liuely, ſtately, to ſtrout it, or ſtand vpon high tearms.

Accreu: m. uë: f. Growne, increaſed, enlarged, augmented, amplified; alſo, multiplied.

Accrevanté. Violently burſt, furiouſly broken.

Accrevanter. To burſt, or breake violently.

Accrevanter les villes. To raſe, ouerthrow, deſtroy, whole townes.

Accruë: f. A growth, increaſe, eeking, augmentation.

Accrever. To burſt, or thruſt out the guts of.

Accroché: m. ée: f. Hooked; claſped, grapled, faſtened vnto; alſo, graſped; alſo, ſtayed, or delaied, as a ſuit; whence;

Le procés eſt accroché. Hangs by the wall.

Accrochement. m. A hooking, claſping, grapling; a faſtening to, or hanging on, a hooke; a graſping, reaching, or catching at, a drawing to, by a hooke; alſo, a ſtaying, delaying, or foreſtalling, of a Suit.

Accrocher vn procés. To ſtay a ſuit from further proceeding; to delay, or leaue off, for a time, the proſecution of it.

Accroire. To entruſt, to commit vnto the keeping of in truſt; alſo, to lend (as monie) vpon truſt.

S'en faire accroire. To thinke well, or be well conceited, of himſelfe; to take too much, or very much, vpon him; hence, to preſume on, or make himſelfe ſure of, a matter; to ouer-rule it, diſpoſe of it, preuaile in it, make it go on his ſide, or be for his purpoſe; to commaund abſolutely, or (as we ſay) to rule the roaſt; alſo, to ſpread far in reputation; increaſe mightily in credit; get or grow into great authoritie, by a thing.

Accroiſſance: f. Increaſe, augmentation, growth, ecking.

Accroiſſement: m. An increaſing, augmenting, amplifying; a making or growing, bigger and bigger; alſo, a multiplying.

Accroiſt. as Accroiſſance.

Accroiſtre. To increaſe, augment, amplifie, enlarge, make bigger and bigger; alſo, to multiplie, or wax many.

Tel cuide vanger ſa honte qui l'accroiſt: Pro. Some, thinking to redeeme their ſhame, redouble it.

Accroitre. as Accroiſtre.

s'Accroſter. To graſpe, claſpe, grapple, or buckle together.

Accroüé: m. ée: f. Drooping, as a bird that ſits with hir feathers looſe, or ſtaring, about hir.

Accroupi: m. ie: f. Crouched, cooped, ſtooped, or ſet ſtooping; bent, or bowed forward; ſquat vpon the taile.

s'Accroupir. To ſtoope, crouch, coope, bend, leane, or bow, forward; ſit, bending forward, vpon the taile, or knees.

Accruës: f. as Accreuës.

Accubes: f. Couches, lodgings; reſting places; Cabins to lie, or to reſt, in.

Accueilli: m. ie: f. Intertained, receiued; welcommed; alſo, arriued, or gathered together in a place; alſo, taken, ouertaken; or ſtricken, as with thunder.

Accueillir. To entertaine, receiue, or welcome (kindly;) alſo, to reach, ouertake; or ſtrike; alſo, to come, gather, flocke together, or (as wormes, &c.) breed, in a place.

Accueillir ſa voye vers. To trauell, journey, wend, or go, towards.

Accueuré. Sicke, or ill, at the heart.

Accul: m. A ſtop, or ſtay; any action, or thing, that plunges, or hinders from proceeding; a ſetting, or ſitting on the taile; alſo, the bottome, end, or furtheſt part of a foxes, or badgers earth, where ſitting on his taile, he defends himſelfe againſt the Terriers.

Aculé: m. ée: f. Ouerthrowne, or ſet on his taile; brought vnto a ſtrait, or into tearms of vnauoidable danger; alſo, ſtopped, or ſtayed, from further proceeding.

Aculé en ſon opinion. Setled, or obſtinat, in his opinion; not to be moued, not to be drawne, from it.

Ils l'ont aculé de toutes parts. They haue beſet him round, they lay hard vnto him on all ſides; (from the wild Bore, who brought vnto a bay ſets him on his Gammons, and turning thereon, is forced to defende himſelfe againſt both dogs, and men, on euery ſide aſſailing him.)

Acculer. To throw downe, or ſet on his taile; alſo, to beſet round, lay hard vnto, bring into a ſtrait, or vnto tearms of vnauoidable danger; (in arguing) to put to his plunges, or driue vnto a nonplus; alſo, to ſtop, or ſtay from further proceeding.

Acculer vn ſoulier. To tread, or weare, a ſhoe downe at the heeles.

Accullé; as Aculé.

Accumulateur: m. An accumulator; a heaper, or piler; a hoorder, or gatherer; a ſauing, or thriuing, fellow.

Accumulation: f. An accumulation, or accumulating; a heaping, or piling vp; a hoording, or gathering into heapes.

Accumulé: m. ée: f. Accumulated; heaped, or piled vp; hoorded, or gathered into heapes.

Accumuler. To accumulat, heape, or pile vp; to hoord, or gather into heapes; to increaſe mightily; to lay on load.

Accuſant: m. An accuſant, or accuſer.

Accuſant. (partic.) Accuſant, accuſing.

Accuſateur: m. An accuſer, plaintife, informer, fault-finder.

Accuſatif: m. The Accuſatiue Caſe.

Accuſation: f. An accuſation; a complaint made, an information brought, againſt; an imputation caſt on.

Accuſatrice: f. An accuſatrix, or accuſereſſe.

Accuſé: m. ée: f. Accuſed, appeached, complained of, informed againſt, charged with a crime; alſo, diſcloſed, or bewraied.

Accuſement: m. An accuſing, a complaining of, or informing againſt; a finding fault withall; alſo, a diſcloſing, or bewraying.

Ac-

Accuſer. To accuſe, or appeach; to complaine of, informe againſt, charge with a crime; caſt an aſperſion, lay an imputation, on; alſo, to bewray, diſcloſe, or diſcouer, a ſecret.

Tel s'excuſe qui s'accuſe: Pro. Looke Excuſer.

Accuvé: m. ée: f. Put into a fat; let ſtand, or let worke, in a fat.

Accuver. To put into a fat; to let ſtand, or let worke, in a fat:

Acence; or, Acenſe: m. A farme, or leaſe.

Acensé: m. ée: f. Leaſed, or let out to farme.

Acenſement. m. A farming; a letting, or taking, to farme.

Acenſer. To let, or take, to farme.

Acenſeur: m. A farmer; a letter out, or taker, to farme.

Acenſivé: m. éc: f. Let out for (an yearely) Cens.

Acenſivement: m. A letting out for Cens; the creating of a Cenſiue, or of a Tenure by Cens.

Acenſiver. To giue, or let out, for (an yearely) Cens; To create a Cenſiue, or a Tenure by Cens.

Acerbité: f. Acerbitie, ſharpeneſſe, ſoureneſſe.

Aceré: m. ée: f. Steeled; forged or made of, tempered, or ſtrengthened with, Steele.

Acerer. To ſteele; to forge or make of, temper or ſtrengthen with, Steele.

Acertement. as Acertenement.

Acertené. Certefied, aſſertained, aſſured.

Acertenement. A certifying, aſcertaining.

Acertener. To certifie; aſcertaine, aſſure, affirme boldly, informe confidently.

Acertes. (Adverb.) Of a certaine, in very deed; in good earneſt; alſo, hartily, affectionatly, without feigning.

Acetabule. as Cotyledon; Alſo, an ancient meaſure containing about ſix ſpoonfuls of liquid things; & two ounces and a halfe of drie; or (according to our waight) an ounce, 3 quarters, 2 Carats, 12 grains and a halfe.

Aceteuſe: f. The hearbe Sorrell.

Aceteux: m. euſe: f. Sharpe, ſouriſh; of the ſubſtance, or hauing the taſt, of Vinegre.

Acetoſité. Sharpeneſſe, ſoureneſſe; the ſubſtance, or taſt, of vinegar.

Ach. An Interiection of ſorrow, as, Oh; and of ſorrowfull exclamation, as, Ah; vſed alſo in Imprecations, as, Ha.

Achalandé: m. ée: f. Cuſtomed; frequented by chapmen, or cuſtomers.

Achalander. To allure chapmen, get cuſtomers, draw cuſtome.

Achancri: m. ie: f. Cankered; made, or growne, cankred.

Achantiquë. Maſtic achantique: A ſweet taſting Maſticke, or Gum, bred on the top of the Calthrop, or Star-thiſtle.

Achapt: m. as Achet; A purchaſe, &c.

Achapt paſſe louage. Seeke Louage.

Achapter; & Achapteur; as Acheter; and Acheteur.

Acharné: m. ée: f. Fleſhed with, or vpon; alſo, fed, or baited with, affected vnto, fleſh; alſo felly minded, cruelly bent againſt, proſecuting extreamly, bloudily perſecuting, purſuing vnto death without remorce, or mercie.

Acharnement; m. A fleſhing; a feeding, or baiting with fleſh; a laying of fleſh vpon; alſo, an entering in, or prouocation vnto, crueltie.

Acharner. To fleſh on; to lay fleſh vpon; to feed, or bait, with fleſh; to enter, or traine vp, in blood; alſo, to prouoke, or egge vnto all cruell and bloodie courſes againſt.

Acharner vn Leurre. To tie fleſh vnto a Lure.

S'acharner ſur. To be felly minded, or cruelly bent againſt; to proſecute extreamly, purſue moſt hatefully, perſecute without remorce, or mercie.

Achaſſer. To driue, or chaſe, towards.

Achat. m: as Achet.

Achate. The pretious ſtone Achates; (makes the wearer gracious, and keepes him from idleneſſe.)

Ache: m. The letter H; alſo, the hearbe Smallage.

Ache femelle. Female Smallage.

Ache des Iardins. Parſeley.

Ache large. Great Parſeley, Alexanders.

Ache de marais. Marſh, or mariſh, Parſeley, water-Parſley, Smallage.

Ache de risée. Is either the Crowfoot of Illiria, or, the Crowfoot of the fallow field.

Ache ruſtique. Smallage, marſh, or mariſh, parſeley.

Ache de Sardaigne. The ſame.

Ache ſauvage. Wild parſeley.

Grand ache. The hearbe Alexanders.

Achées: m. Grubs, ground-worms.

Achelois: m. iſe: f. Of, or belonging to the famous Grecian riuer Achelous; alſo, waterie; and hence;

Bruvage Achelois. Water; or waterie drinke.

Achemé: m. ée: f. Decked, attired, adorned, dreſſed, with.

Achemer. as Achemmer.

Achemereſſe. as Achemmereſſe.

Achemes: m. as Achées; Alſo, attires, deckings, ornaments for women.

Achemine: m. éc: f. Put, or ſet, in the way; addreſſed vnto, directed in, a courſe; begun, entered into.

Acheminement: m. A ſetting, or directing, in the way; an entring; a ſhewing of the way vnto; alſo, an addreſſe, introduction, entrie, ingreſſion; way, paſſage, means, vnto a thing.

Acheminer. To addreſſe vnto, put into, ſet, or direct in, the way; to enter; to ſhew the way vnto; alſo, to commence, begin, ſet forward; breake the ice, giue an entrie, make an ouerture, vnto.

Il perſuadoit, & acheminoit tant qu'il pouvoit, à. He perſuaded, and laboured all he could, to.

S'acheminer. To wend, go, take his way, beginne his iourney, ſet forward.

Achemmer. To decke trim, adorne; dreſſe, array, attire.

Achemmereſſe: f. A woman that makes profeſſion of dreſſing, or decking of Brides; hence alſo, any waiting-woman, or chambermaid, that hath that office about hir Ladie, or miſtreſſe.

Achenal: m. A channell.

Achepter. as Acheter.

Acher. To ſet the teeth on edge.

Acheramin: m. A kind of Smallage, or Crowfoot reſembling Smallage.

Acheron. The name of one of the riuers faigned to be in Hell.

Acheronté: m. ée: f. Plunged in Acheron, drowned in Hell; alſo, helliſh, or bred in Hell; and (thence) moſt cruell, fell, hideous.

Acherontide. Ames Acherontides. Damned ſoules.

Achesmes. as Achemes; Tires, or ornaments, for women.

Achet: m. A bargaine, or purchaſe; a thing bought, or purchaſed; alſo, buying, or purchaſing.

Acheté: m. ée: f. Bought, purchaſed; gotten, or procured, for money.

Acheter. To buy, to purchaſe; to get, or procure, by bargaining, or for money.

Acheter chat en poche. To bargaine vnaduiſedly; to buy a pig in the poke; to buy one knowes not, or ſees not what.

Achete maiſon faitte. Pro. Buy a houſe readie made; (many haue vndone themſelues by building;) The Il faut acheter maiſon faitte,& femme à faire:Pro. Buy a houſe made,and a wife vnmand.

A trop acheter n'y a que revendre: Pro. Wares ouerbought are ſildome returned without loſſe; nor doe many things (on the getting wherof we haue beſtowed much time or toile) gotten, quit the coſt wee were at about them.

Il faut acheter vigne deſerte; Pro. Buy ground that lies vntilled.

Qui bon l'achete bon le boit;Pro. He that wil pay, or take pains,for good things,enioies good things.

Trop achete le miel que ſur eſpines le leche; Pro. He that lickes honnie of thornes paies too deere for it.

Achetereſſe: f. A woman that buies,or purchaſes.

Acheteur: m. A buier,a purchaſer.

Achetiver; as Chetiver. Alſo,to inthrall,or captiuat.

Achevé: m.ée:f. Atchieued,ended,effected,finiſhed,concluded,conſummated,compaſſed,accompliſhed.

Son honneur eſt achevé de perdre; His honour is wholy,his reputation fully,loſt.

Achevement: m. An atchieuement,or atchieuing; a perfecting,or bringing to perfection; a full ending,effecting,or finiſhing; a conſummating, or accompliſhment.

Achever. To atchieue; to end, finiſh, conclude (fully;) to diſpatch, effect, performe (throughly;) to perfect, conſummat,accompliſh,go through-ſtitch, with.

Cela ſervira pour l'achever de peindre; There wants but that to fill vp the meaſure of his ill fortune; that being once done,he is vndone.

Achilles: m. (The well-knowne name of a moſt valiant Greeke; vſed ſometimes,by the French,to ſignifie) a defender,protector, ſupporter, propugnator, warrant, aſſurance; buckler,fortification.

Achoiſe: f. An occaſion,an oportunitie.

Achoiſon: f. The ſame; alſo,election, or choiſe; alſo,an accuſation.

à petite achoiſon le Loup prend le Mouton; Pro. The Woolfe takes any ſmall occaſion to ſeize on the Sheepe.

Achoiſonner. To accuſe,to picke a quarrell againſt.

Achoinmer. To reſt, or make Holyday; alſo, to ſtay, or attend.

Achon. A kind of long Axe. ¶ Bourbonnois.

Achopé: m.eé: f. Stumbled at,or on.

Achopement. A ſtumbling; offence giuen,or taken.

Achoper. To ſtumble at,or on.

Acide: com. Sower,eager,tart,ſharpe.

Acidité. Eagreneſſe,ſharpeneſſe,ſoureneſſe,tartneſſe.

Acier: m. Steele.

Acierer. Seeke Acerer.

Aclamper; as Acclamper.

Acné. A witleſſe,and graceleſſe,fellow.

Acoint; Acointer; Seeke Accoint.

Acollé; as Accollé.

Acolyte, as Accolite. Hee that miniſters to the Prieſt whyle he ſacrifites or ſayes Maſſe.

Aconduire; Seeke Acconduire.

Aconit: m. Aconitum, a moſt venemous hearbe; of two principall kindes,viz. Libbards-bane,and Wolfe-bane.

Aconſuyvre; as Acconſuyvre.

Acope: m. A medecine compounded of heating, & mollifying Simples.

Acoquiner; as Accoquiner.

Acore: m. Calamus aromaticus, the ſweet Cane.

Acorné: m.ée: f. Horned; hauing hornes.

Vache acornée; (in Blazon) Armed.

Acort; as Accort.

Acoſter. Looke Accoſter.

Acoter. Seeke Accoter.

Acoucher. as Accoucher.

Acouhardir. To accowardize, effeminate, make faint-hearted.

Acoup. Quickly, ſhortly,ſpeedily,ſuddainly,in a trice,in a minute,in a moment.

A-coup-venant. The name of a faire ruddie Apple.

Acouter. as Accouter; or as Eſcouter.

Acquerement: m. A purchaſing,obtaining,getting,procuring; or,as Acqueſt.

Acquereur: m. A purchaſer,getter,gainer; one that increaſes his ſubſtance by buying; alſo, a challenger, or claimer of,one that pretends a title vnto,land.

Acquerir. To acquire; to get, obtaine, procure a thing ſought for; to purchaſe,or gaine by purchaſing; alſo,to claime,challenge,or pretend title vnto,land.

Acqueſt: m. A purchace,a thing procured,got,or bought; alſo,a getting,procuring,purchaſing; alſo,profit, gain, commoditie,gettings,increaſe of ſubſtance.

Acqueſts. Purchaſes made,or things bought, by the vnmaried; or by,or for,only one. (Therein different from Conqueſts.)

Nouveaux acqueſts. Purchaſes of inheritances feodal, allodial, or cenſuel, &c, made by Churchmen, Corporations,Fraternities,&c, after they haue procured letters of Mortmaine (for other things;) whereof the King informing himſelfe by Commiſſion or otherwiſe,they are ſummoned to void out of the lands, &c, ſo purchaſed, within a yeare; by the end whereof if they haue not paid the fine, whatſoeuer, impoſed on them by his Officers, the lands are immediatly, and without recouerie,ſeized into his hands.

Droict de nouvel acqueſt. A Priuiledge of fining, at certaine times, the ignoble Tenant that poſſeſſes, or purchaſes,a noble Tenement,or inheritance; Looke Droict.

Il n'y a point d'acqueſt en luy. He is but a drie fellow,there is nought to be got by dealing with him.

En grand fardeau n'eſt pas l'acqueſt; Prov. The greateſt burthens are not the gainfulleſt; or, The goodneſſe of a thing reſts not in the greatneſſe of it.

Acqueſté: m.ée: f. Purchaſed,acquired; gotten,gained; procured,obtained.

Acqueſter. To purchaſe,get,gaine,acquire, procure,obtaine.

Acqueſtereſſe: f. A woman that purchaſeth.

Acqueſteur: m. A purchaſer,getter,gainer; a thriuing fellow; one that encreaſeth his ſubſtance by buying.

Acqueſts. Looke Acqueſt.

Acquieſcement: m. Quietneſſe; alſo,an agreement; a yeelding,or comming to agreement before iudgment; alſo,an approuing of,or a ſubmitting himſelfe vnto, a iudgement paſſed againſt him.

Lettres d'acquieſcement. A letter of Atturney, whereby a Client giues his Counſellor,Atturney,or Solicitor,authoritie to agree with his Aduerſarie.

Acquieſcer. To yeeld,or agree vnto; come to an agreement,be at quiet,ſtriue,or ſtir,no more.

Acquieſcer a la ſentence dont eſt appel. To approue, or ſubmit himſelfe vnto,a ſentence, though againſt him; to purſue no further appeale.

Acquis: m.iſe: f. Got, purchaſed, obtained,acquired, bought with money.

Acquiſiteur: m. A purchaſer.

Acquiſition. An acquiſition,a purchaſing,a purchaſe.

Acquit: m. A diſcharge,acquittance, Quietus eſt, a deliuerie,diſpatch,riddance,from a trouble,or charge.

Droict

Droict d'acquit. Looke Droict.

Par forme d'acquit ſeulement. Sleightly, careleſly, onely for a faſhion; more of neceſſitie, or for feare, then from the heart, or in any good will.

Acquité: m. ée: f. Acquitted, diſcharged, freed, cleered, rid of, deliuered from; alſo, performed, acted, effected, diſpatched.

Acquiter. To quit, acquite, free, cleere, diſcharge, rid of, deliuer from.

Acquiter marchandiſe. To cuſtome, or pay cuſtome for, merchandiſe.

Acquiter vne terre. To quit, or quiet a peece of land; to rid it from ſuits, trouble, and controuerſie, by recouering, or deliuering, it from ſuch as vſurped it; to cleere the title thereof.

S'acquiter de ſon deuoir. To doe his dutie, to play an honeſt mans part.

S'acquiter de ſa promeſſe, ou ſerment. To performe his promiſe, to fulfill his oath.

Qui s'acquite s'enrichit: Prov. He that gets out of debt growes rich; or, Hee that keepes touch enriches himſelfe.

Acquoiſer; as Accoiſer. To pacifie.

Acravanter. Looke Accravanter.

Acre. An aker of land; ¶ Norm. (It is moſt commonly larger than the Arpent.)

Acre. Azur d'acre. Looke Aſur.

Acre: com. Eager, ſharpe, tart, ſower, vnripe; alſo, earneſt, vehement.

Acredité: m. ée: f. put, or got, into credit.

Acrediter. to put, or get, into credit.

Acreſté. Creſted, copped; alſo, cocket, luſtie, proud, ſtately, highminded, creſt-riſen.

Acreu; as Accreu.

Acrimonie. Eagerneſſe, ſharpeneſſe, tartneſſe, ſowernes.

Acroamatie: f. Melodie harmonie; a pleaſing diſcourſe; a plauſible action.

Acroamatique. Muſicall, harmonious, delightſome, pleaſing, plauſible, to the eare.

Acroc: m. A booke, a claſpe, a ſtay; any thing to hang another thing on.

Acromion. The ſhoulder pitch, or point, wherewith the hinder, and fore, parts of the necke are ioyned together.

Acrotaires; as Acroteres.

Acroteres: m. Promontories, hilles, or Elbowes of high ground, lying out into the ſea, and ſeene afar off at ſea; alſo, the extreame parts of the bodie; alſo, Pillaſters, or Pediſtalles for Statues in the forefront of Buildings.

Acroupi: m. ie: f. Whoſe hinder parts are drawne vp, or gathered together.

s'Acroupir. A Horſe to knit, or draw vp, or gather togither, his hinder parts; and withall, to beare himſelfe vpon them.

Acroupiſſure: f. A Horſes ſtrong knitting, drawing vp, or gathering, together of his hinder parts; any ſuch action, motion, or poſture of his.

Acte: m. An act, fact, exploit, or deed; alſo, an Act; an authenticall writing, or Inſtrument, entered, or ſet downe as a Record, or Preſident, in Court; a Teſtimoniall, or (ſhort) order of Court; alſo, an Act, or Pauſe in a Comedie, or Tragedie; alſo, a quantitie, or meaſure, of ground, containing 120 feet.

Les derniers exploicts, & actes de poſſeſſion. Are (in an Aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin ) the Plaintifs averment, and proofe, that he had quiet poſſeſſion a whole yeare before the Diſſeiſin.

Actif: m. iue: f. Actiue, quicke, ſtirring, buſie, diligent, laborious, euer doing, neuer idle.

Debtes actiues. Debts that be owing, or due, vnto vs.

Vaſſelage actif. The right of fealtie, due by euery Vaſſall vnto his Lord.

Actifs. An Order of Friers, that weare tawnie Habits, and feed on naught but roots.

Action: f. An action, deed, exploit, enterpriſe; alſo, an action in Law; a plea, or right to plead.

Action de graces. Thankeſgiuing.

Actionné. Indited, impleaded, ſued; alſo, acted, effected.

Actionner. To ſue, indict, implead; alſo, to worke, acte, effect.

Activité. Actiuitie, quickneſſe, nimbleneſſe; readineſſe.

Actourné: m. An Atturnie; ¶ Norm.

Actournée: f. A Warrant, or letter of Atturnie; ¶ Norm.

Actuel. Readie, ſpeedie, preſent, diſpatching, effectuall.

Cautere actuel. An actuall Cauter. See Cautere.

Actuellement. Preſently, quickly, ſpeedily, out of hand, without delay, or attendance for.

Acuité: f. Acuitie, ſharpeneſſe, keeneneſſe; piercing, ſubtiltie.

Acuré. Oiſeau acuré; That hath had caſting giuen hir.

Acutelle. The hearb Camocks, Reſt-harrow, Pettie whin, Ground ſiaires.

Adage: m. An adage, prouerbe, ould-ſayd-ſaw; wittie ſaying.

Adagial: m. ale: f. Prouerbiall, or full of adages.

Adam. Adam (the firſt man that euer was;) alſo, the Adam peare (whereof excellent Perrie is made.)

Baſton d'Adam. The weapon wherewith Adam vſed to fight with Eue.

Morceau d'Adam. The head of the windpipe, or throat, compoſed of three little griſtles, or peeces of fleſh.

Pomme d'Adam. Adams apple; a certaine yellow fruit that reſembles a ſmall Cowcumber; alſo, the Aſſyrian apple, or Aſſyrian Citron, (round, and twice as big, as a big Orange.)

Adanté. Lying on his face, groueling; leaning on his teeth: Looke Adenté.

Adaptation. An adapting, fitting, or ſuiting of one thing to another.

Adarce: f. A ſalt foame that cleaues vnto reeds, & other marſh hearbs, in drougth, and dric weather.

Adayé. Prouoked, vrged, incenſed, egged, moued vnto wrath: ¶ Pic.

Adayement. An vrging, incenſing, prouoking, egging, mouing vnto wrath: ¶ Pic.

Adayer. To prouoke, incenſe, vrge, egge, ſtir vp, moue vnto wrath: ¶ Pic.

Adayeur: m. A prouoker, a quarreller, a contentious perſon: ¶ Pic.

Adenſe: f. A Leaſe, or eſtate in farme.

Adenſement. A leaſing, or letting out to farme.

Adenſivement. A fee farme.

Addenté. Looke Adenté.

Additament: m. An addition, increaſe, eeking, augmentation, aduantage.

Additaments mammillaires. The part of the braine that lies toward the forehead, and next vnto the noſe, as whence our ſmelling is deriued; alſo the two proceſſes of the Temple-bones.

Addition. An addition, appendix, increaſe, eeking, augmentation, aduantage, acceſſe of more.

Addition beccue. The bone of the elbow (ſo tearmed by ſome Anatomiſts.)

Additions mammillaires; as Additaments mammillaires.

Addomeſtiqué: m. ée: f. tamed, reclaimed, made gentle, inward, inward, familiar, houſall, acquainted with vs.

Addomeſtiquer. To tame, reclaime, make gentle, inward, familiar, houſall; to acquaint with vs; to entertaine, or bring into our houſe.

Addonné: m. ée: f. Giuen, bent, affected, addicted, inclined, applied, deuoted vnto.

s'Addonner à. To giue, bend, addict, affect, apply, deuote, incline, render, yeeld himſelfe vnto.

Le lieu s'addonne ainſi; ſuch is the nature, or qualitie of the place; for ſuch purpoſes only it ſerues, or is fit.

Selon que les choſes s'addonnent. As our affaires ſucceed, as thoſe matters come to paſſe; or, as thoſe affaires, thoſe matters permit, or come to purpoſe.

Addorſé. Indorced; or, ſet backe to backe; a tearme of Blaſon.

Addoſſé. as Adoſſé.

Addouber. To dreſſe, patch, mend; to ſet fitly together; alſo, to arme at all points, or with all his peeces, for the fight.

Addoubeur: m. A dreſſer; patcher, mender.

Addoubeur de mauvaiſes cauſes. A crafty Lawyer; one that prolongs ill cauſes by ſhifts, cauils, and delayes.

Addouci: m. ie: f. Sweetned; aſſuaged, mitigated, qualified, appeaſed, pacified; ſoftened; ſmoothed.

Addoucir. To ſweeten; ſmooth; aſſuage, temper, qualifie; appeaſe, pacifie, mitigate; ſoften, mollifie.

Addouciſſement: m. A ſweetning; ſmoothing; ſoftning; aſſuaging, tempering, qualifying; appeaſing, pacifying.

Addouez homme à homme. Faſtened, claſped, grapled; or, coaped, buſtled, ſcuffled, together.

Addoulci; Addoulcir, &c, as Addouci, Addoucir, &c.

s'Addreſſant. Directing, addreſſing; faſhioning himſelf vnto; medling with.

Addreſſe. as Adreſſe.

Addreſſer. Seeke Adreſſer.

Adduire. To bring forth; or, to bring vnto.

Adebtz. A kind of Seigniorall dutie, within the iuriſdiction of S. Omers.

Adelantade: m. A Lord Deputie, Preſident, or Lieutenant for a Prince in a countrey; (we commonly take it for, an Admirall.)

Adeneré. Prized, valued, ſet to ſale for money; or for which money is made.

Adenerer. To prize, value, rate; to make money of, to ſet to ſale for money.

Adenes. Little kernels in the mouth, or throat, and diſeaſing either of them.

Adenet. (The diminutiue of Adam) little Adam.

Adent: m. A mortaiſe, notch, or indented hole in wood.

Adenté: m. ée: f. Mortaiſed; faſtened, or ioyned by Mortaiſe.

Adenté tout plat à bas. Fallen down flat on his face; layed groueling, lying on his teeth.

Adenter. To mortaiſe, to faſten or ioyne by Mortaiſe; to enchace one thing within another.

Adenter vne eſchelle à vn mur. To faſten; or ſettle a ladder vnto a wall, by the yron hookes which are at the top of it.

Ades. Preſently, out of hand, by and by, incontinently, immediatly.

Adeſer. To touch, or handle ſlightly. ¶ Picard.

Adeſtre: com. Quicke, readie, nimble, actiue, agile; alſo, comely, graceſull, handſome in; able, fit, apt, for any thing he vndertakes.

Adeſtrer. To make fit, able, apt for; quicke, readie, nimble in; to inſtruct, teach, traine, or frame vnto; alſo, to fit, adapt, accommodate; alſo, to accompanie, or follow the humor of.

Adevancer. To preuent, fore-ſtall, ouer-run; to goe, or get before one.

Adeuillé. as Adeullé.

Adeullé: m. ée: f. Heauie, dolefull, ſad, wofull, mournefull; in mournefull weeds, in mourning array.

s'Adeuloir. To be ſad, heauie, dolefull; to mone, to mourne.

Adex. as Adeptz.

Adextre. as Adeſtre.

Adextrer. as Adeſtrer.

Adfiliation. An adopting, an adoption.

Adfilié. Adopted.

Adfirmation. as Affirmation.

Adglutinatif: m. iue: f. Glewie; clammie, cleauing, or ſticking vnto euery thing; alſo, glewing.

Adglutinement. A glewing; a ioyning, cloſing, or faſtening vnto, or together, as with glew.

Adglutiner. To glew; to ioyne, cloſe, or faſten vnto, or together, with glew.

Adgreſſion. Looke, Aggreſſion.

Adherant: m. An adherent, an acceſſarie, partener, or partaker.

Adherant: m. ante: f. Adhering, cleauing, or ſticking faſt vnto; alſo, partaking, ſiding, taking part with.

Adherdre. Seeke, Aherdre.

Adherer. To adhere; cleaue, or ſticke faſt vnto; alſo, to ſide, or take part with.

Adheritance. A poſſeſſion; a Liuerie and ſeiſin.

Adherité. Inſeiſined, put into poſſeſſion of.

Adheritement: m. A giuing poſſeſſion, a making of Liuerie and ſeiſin vnto.

Adheriter. To adueſt, to put into poſſeſſion, to giue poſſeſſion vnto, to make Liuerie and ſeiſin of an inheritance.

Adheſion: f. An adhering, cleauing, ſticking faſt vnto.

Adhorer. To come at a good houre, or in due ſeaſon.

Adjancé: m. ée: f. Fitted, apted, adapted, adiuſted; ordered; trimmed, decked; featly placed, handſomely ioyned, ſuteably matched together.

Adjancement: m. A fitting, apting, adapting, adiuſting, accommodating; a comely trimming, dreſſing, or decking; a iuſt placing, handſome ioyning, ſuteable matching of things together; alſo, handſomeneſſe, aptneſſe, agreeablenceſſe.

Adjancer. To fit, apt, adapt, adiuſt; accommodate; proportion, order, decke, trim; ſet fitly, ranke featly, ioyne finely, match duly, put handſomely together.

Adiante: m. Venus haire, maidens haire, our Ladies haire (an hearbe.)

Adjection: f. An adiection; an addition, or caſting vnto.

Adience. as Adiante.

Adjoinct: m. An Adiunct; an Aſſiſtant, Aſſociate, fellow, companion in a charge, commiſſion, function, or office; alſo, a ioynt heire; and a iointenant; alſo, one that ioynes with another in a ſuit, or action.

Adjoinct: m. cte: f. Adioyned; knit, coupled, ſet, added, (alſo) neere, vnto; neere hand touching.

Adjoindre. To adioyne; ſet, adde, put, applie, or knit vnto; to couple, vnite, aſſociate, match together.

Adjoint. as Adjoinct.

Adjonction: f. An adiunction, addition, or ioyning vnto; alſo, a partaking with an accuſer, or plaintife; alſo, an aſſociation in office, or charge.

Adjour: m. A Commiſſion of Summons, or Adiournement; alſo, the report, or the returne thereof, made by the Sergeant, or Summoner.

Adjourné : m. ée : f. Adiurned, cited, ſummoned, warned to appeare at a certaine day.

Adjournement : m. A citing, ſummoning, warning to appeare at a day; alſo, the Summons, or Proceſſe, whereby a partie is ſo warned; alſo, a growing towards day.

Adiournement Libellé. Seeke Libellé.

Adiournement perſonnel. A perſonall arreſt, or ſeiſure of the bodie.

Adjourner. To citè, ſummon, warne to appeare; to ſerue a proces of apparance on; alſo, to make day, or turne into day; or, as;

s'Adjourner. To wax day, or grow towards day.

Adjourneur : m. A citer, or ſummoner; one that warns, or ſerues a proceſſe on, another to appeare.

Adjouſté : m. ée : f. Added, put, or ſet vnto; alſo, encreaſed, augmented, inlarged.

Adjouſtement : m. An adding, putting, or ſetting vnto; alſo, an increaſing, augmenting, eeking.

Adjouſter. To adde, adioyne, ſet, or put vnto; alſo, to increaſe, augment, eeke; alſo, as Adjuſter; and hence;

Adjouſter vn horologe. To wind vp a clocke.

Adipeux : m. euſe : f. Fattie, full of fat; alſo, breeding fatneſſe.

Veines adipeuſes. Looke, Veine.

Adire : m. A difference.

Adiré : m. ée : f. Wanting, wandered, miſſing, aſtray, out of the way; alſo, left, abandoned, bid farwell vnto.

Adirer. To wander, goe aſtray, be miſſing, or out of the way; alſo, to leaue, abandon, forſake, bid farewell vnto.

Adiſmé : m. ée : f. Tythed, on which a tythe is ſet, for which tythe is payed.

Adiſmer. To tythe; to ſet a tythe on, exact a tythe from.

Adjudicataire : m. He to whom a thing is adiudged, or deliuered by iudgement.

Adjudication : f. An adiudication; an adiudging, or giuing, or deliuerie vnto, by iudgement.

Adjugé : m. ée : f. Adiudged; giuen, or appointed, vnto, by iudgement.

Adjuger. To adiudge; to giue, paſſe, or appoint, vnto, by iudgement.

Adjurateur : m. An adiuror, or earneſt ſwearer; alſo, one that exacts an oath.

Adjuration : f. An adiuration, or coniuration; an earneſt ſwearing vnto; alſo, th'exaction of an oath from others.

Adjuré : m. ée : f. Adiured; coniured; ſworne; or deposed vnto; from whom an oath is exacted.

Adjurer. To adiure; or coniure; to ſweare earneſtly vnto; alſo, to exact an oath of, to put vnto his oath.

Adjuſté : m. ée : f. Adiuſted; iuſtly placed, euenly couched, fitly or aptly ſet, orderly diſpoſed.

Adjuſtement : m. An adiuſting, iuſt placing, apt ſetting, euen couching, fit ioyning, handſome ordering, orderly diſpoſing, of ſeuerall things.

Adjuſter. To adiuſt, place iuſtly, ſet aptly, couch euenly, ioyne handſomely, match fitly, diſpoſe orderly, ſeuerall things together.

Adjutoire. The vpper bone of the arme toward the ſhoulder; ſo called by ſome Anotamiſts.

Admener. To lead, or bring vnto.

Admeneur. Looke, Ameneur.

Admettre. To admit, receiue, intertaine, bring or let in; permit, ſuffer; approoue, allow of.

Admignoter. as Amignoter.

Adminicule : m. An aid, helpe; ſupport, prop.

Adminiſtrateur. An adminiſtrator, gouernour, manager of affaires for another.

Adminiſtration : f. An adminiſtration; gouernment, or charge; a guiding, or diſpoſing of buſines for another.

Adminiſtratoire : com. Adminiſtratorie; adminiſtring, or miniſtring vnto.

Adminiſtrer. To miniſter, or adminiſter; to guide, rule, gouerne, manage, handle, diſpoſe of, a charge, or buſineſſe.

Admirable : com. Wonderfull, admirable, maruellous, miraculous, aboue cuſtome, or expectation.

Admirablement. Admirably; wonderfully, beyond expectation, or wont, maruellouſly, miraculouſly; excellently well.

Admiral : m. An Admirall; a Princes Lieutenant on the ſea.

Admirale : f. An Admiralleſſe (The late Admirall Chaſtillons wife is called ſo in a Hiſtorie of ſome accompt among the French.)

Admiratif : m. Th'admiratiue point, or point of admiration (and of deteſtation) marked, or made, thus!

Admiration. Admiration, wonder, maruelling.

Admirauté : f. An Admiraltie; the office of an Admirall; alſo, th'Admirall Court.

Admiré : m. ée : f. Admired; wondered at.

Admirer. To wonder, admire, maruell at.

Admis : m. iſe : f. Admitted, intertained, receiued, brought or let in; ſuffered, permitted; approoued, allowed of.

Admiſſible. Admittable; admiſſible; fit to be admitted, receiued; allowed of.

Admodiateur. A Leſſor; he that letteth out land to halues, by great, or for part of the crop, increaſe, or profit thereof; alſo, (and more properly) a Leſſee, or Farmer, one that takes lands on thoſe conditions.

Admodiation. A leaſſing, letting out to the halues, or for part of the crop, increaſe, or profit.

Admodier. To leaſſe, farme, or let out land by great, vnto halues, or for part of the crop, increaſe, or profit thereof.

Admoneſté : m. ée : f. Admoniſhed, warned, aduiſed, aduertiſed.

Admoneſtement. A warning, admoniſhment, aduertiſement, aduiſement; a ſhewing, a putting in mind of.

Admoneſter. To admoniſh, warne, aduertiſe; exhort, aduiſe; to ſhew, to put in mind of.

Admoneſteur. An admoniſher, warner, aduiſer, exhorter, aduertiſer.

Admonition. An admonition, exhortation; as Admoneſtement.

Admorti. Looke, Amorti.

Admortir. To dead, ſtint, quaile, aboliſh, extinguiſh, make ceaſe; make diſappeare; to mortaiſe, or ioyne by mortaiſe.

Admortir la foy, &c; vne rente; Looke Amortir.

s'Admortir. A weake, aged, or ſickly perſon, or (by the cuſtome of Chalons*) a villain, to giue himſelfe, & all his goods vnto another, on condition that he ſhall maintaine him, and diſcharge his debts.*

Admortiſſable. as Amortiſſable.

Admortiſſement. A mortaiſing; a diſappearing, or looſing it ſelfe within another; as in the parts of pillars that are ioyned to other pieces; or in pillars made ſo, as many ſeeme to be ioyned in one; alſo, Mortmaine; and, a licence to hold in Mortmaine.

Admortiſſement de foy, & homage. An exchanging of them for other ſeruices; an extinguiſhment of them.

Admortiſſement d'heritage. A paſſing, or giuing of land in Mortmaine.

Admortiſſement real. A certain priuiledge, whereby the biſhop of Theroanne hath all kinds of iuriſdiction vnder the king.

Ad-

Admortiſſement de rente. A redeeming, or buying out, an extinguiſhment, of rent.

Adnection. A knitting, faſtening, ioyning, annexing to.

Adnuicter. Seeke Annuicter.

Adobber. as Addouber.

Adoleſcence: f. Youth, or young age.

Adoleſcent: m. A youth, or young man.

s'Adolorer. To grieue, ſorrow, take griefe, be aggrieued, penſiue, or full of heauineſſe.

Adombré: m. ée: f. Shadowed, ouercaſt, couered.

Adombrement: m. A ſhadowing, ouercaſting, couering; and among Painters, a ſhadowing, or bare pourtraying of a thing.

Adombrer. To adumbrate, ſhadow, ouercaſt; caſt a miſt, or fog ouer; to pourtray, or draw a reſemblance groſſely, as Painters do in their firſt lines.

Adomeſtiqué: m. ée: f. Tamed, reclaimed, made gentle, inward, familiar, houſall, acquainted with; alſo, intertained, brought into, made as one of the houſe.

Adomeſtiquer. To tame, reclaime, make gentle, inward, familiar, houſall; to acquaint with; to intertain, bring into, vſe as one of the houſe.

Adonc. Then, or at that time.

Adonin. face Adonine. a faire ſweet face, ſuch a one as Adonis had.

Adoniſer. To Adonize it; to reſemble Adonis; to imitate, or counterfeit the graces, or beautie of Adonis.

Adopté. Adopted; appointed, or choſen to be another mans child.

Adopter. To adopt; to take, or chuſe for his child one that in nature is not ſo.

Adoptif: m. iue; f. Adoptiue; fit to be adopted; choſen by adoption.

Adoption. Adoption.

Adorable: com. Adorable; worthie, or fit to be adored.

Adorateur. A worſhipper; an adorer; one that prayeth to, or beareth himſelfe towards, another with all reuerence.

Adoration: f. Adoration, worſhip, reuerence in the higheſt degree; a giuing of all honour vnto.

Adorer. To adore, worſhip; reuerence, or honour in the higheſt degree.

Adoſſé: m. ée: f. Leaning, or ſet againſt; alſo, ſet backe to backe; alſo, backed; ſtrengthened on the backe part.

Adoſſement. A backing; a leaning againſt with the backe; a ſetting backe to backe; a ſtrengthening backeward.

Adoſſer. To backe, to ſet backe to backe; to ſtrengthen on the backe-ſide.

s'adoſſer contre. To ſet his backe againſt; to leane againſt with his backe.

Adot: m. A blow, bumpe, or thumpe; alſo, much adoe, trouble, or buſineſſe; alſo, a kind of fiſh.

Il luy donna des adots. he gaue her the gentle thump.

Adoüber. Seeke Addouber.

Adoulcir. as Addoucir.

Adoulciſſement. Seeke Addoulciſſement.

s'Adouloir; &, s'Adoulourer; as, s'Adolorer.

Adpropriance. Looke, Appropriance.

Adquieſcement; &, Adquieſcer; Seeke Acquieſcement; & Acquieſcer.

Adreſſant. Adreſſing, directing; leading, inſtructing, ſhewing the neereſt way vnto.

Adreſſé: m. The meeting of croſſe-wayes.

Adreſſe: f. An adreſſe, la direction; a compendious, and ſhort courſe; a neere, direct, and readie way; alſo, a ſea-marke.

Ie ſçay les adreſſes de la maiſon. I know all the priuat corners in, or priuie wayes vnto, the houſe.

Ie ſeray là mis pour venir aux adreſſes. viz. pour me trouver au beſoing.

Les vignes ont eu adreſſe. The vines haue flouriſhed, or taken kindly.

Adreſſé: m. ée: f. Adreſſed, directed; inſtructed; ſet in the neereſt, and readieſt way.

Adreſſement. An adreſſing, directing; inſtructing, or ſetting in the neereſt, and readieſt courſe.

Adreſſer. To adreſſe, direct; lead; inſtruct; ſet in, ſhew the neereſt, or the readieſt way vnto.

s'Adreſſer à. To reſort vnto, make towards; meddle with, haue a fling at.

Adroict. as, Adroit; or, as Adeſtre.

Adroit: m. ite: f. Handſome, nimble, wheeme, readie, or quicke about; apt or fit for, any thing; alſo, fauourable, propitious, proſperous.

Adſcrire. To aſcribe, attribute, impute, referre; alſo, to inroll, regiſter, accompt, reckon among others.

Adſcrit. Aſcribed, attributed; inrolled, reckoned among.

Adſigné. as Aſſigné.

Advaluation: f. A valuing, rating, or ſetting of a price on.

Advalué: m. ée: f. Valued, rated.

Advaluer. To value, rate, ſet a price on.

Advance. Looke, Avance.

Advancé. Forwarded, aduanced, haſtened; payed before hand.

Advancement. Looke, Avancement.

Advancer. Seeke Avancer.

Advantage. Seeke Avantage.

Advantagement. A furthering, forwarding, profiting, aduantaging.

Adueillé: m. ée: f. Heauie, ſad, mournefull, penſiue, aggrieued, full of ſorrow.

Adveillé. Watchfull; wakefull; awaked.

Advenamment. Comely, handſomely, gracefully, decently, properly, ſightly.

Advenant. l'ad. The lawfull and contingent portion of inheritance, and patrimonie wherein a daughter may ſucceed her inteſtate father; alſo, a ſufficient part of an inheritance, reſerued by a vaſſal, or tenant, of purpoſe to preſerue from homage-doing him that hath purchaſed the reſt.

Advenant bien faict. A portion of inheritance giuen by an elder vnto his younger brother, in recompence of th'vnpartable dignitie which himſelfe retaines.

Le plus que l'advenant. A fourth part of the daughters part, before mentioned, which a father and mother (being noble) may, before the mariage of their eldeſt ſonne, beſtow in frank-mariage with their eldeſt, or firſt maried, daughter.

Advenant. Handſome, proper, comely, decent, neat, gracefull, well-faſhioned, well-behaued; conuenient, well-beſeeming, fitly-ſitting, ſight-fitting.

à l'advenant. Both, to boot, moreouer, beſides, ouer and beſides; alſo, proportionably, or, according vnto.

Logis advenant. A conuenient houſe which the heire of a gentleman, according to the means left him, is to allow vnto the widow.

Advenement: m. A chance, or hap; an arriuing, or comming to.

Advenir. To happen, chance, betide, come to paſſe, fal out, befall.

Cela n'y pourra advenir. That cannot fit, nor furniſh it, cannot attaine vnto it; that muſt faile, or come ſhort of it.

Ia n'advienne que. God forbid that.

s'advenir. To be fit, ſuitable, handſome; to become, to ſit featly, to beſeeme.

Adventif: m. iue: f. biens adventifs. Goods comming, or giuen, by chaunce; had of another, or of a ſtranger; not got by his owne induſtrie, nor from his own parents; caſualties, vnlikely and vnlooked for windfals.

Advents de Noël. The time of Aduent; before Chriſtmas.

Adventure: f. An aduenture, chaunce, hap, lucke, fortune, hazard.

à l'adventure cela n'eſt point. I doubt me whether; tis a queſtion whether yea or no; or, perhaps that is not.

d'adventure. Caſually, by meere chaunce, haply, as hap was, as it happened, by hap hazard.

En adventure giſent grands coups: Pro.

Qui ſçauroit les adventures il ne ſeroit iamais pauvre: Pro. Could men foreſee miſhaps, th'would not be poore; wee ſay, He that did know what would be deare, might grow full rich within a yeare.

s'Adventurer. To aduenture, ieopard, hazard, expoſe himſelfe vnto danger; to trie his fortune.

Qui ne s'adventure n'a cheual ny mule: Pro. Nothing venture nothing haue, ſay we.

Qui trop s'adventure perd cheual & mule: Prov. But he that ventures too farre, looſes all: (Now the queſtion will be, in theſe two prouerbes, Whether is better for a man, to looſe nothing though he get nothing, and to keepe his skin whole; or, to looſe that which he hath gotten, and only haue left him a skin full of holes.)

Adventureuſement. Hazardouſly, aduenturouſly.

Adventureux. Hazardous, aduenturous; that feares no colours.

Adventurier. An aduenturer; one that freely and without compulſion, or charge goes to the warres; alſo, a free-booter, or boot-haler.

Vn Adventurier vagabond. An idle loitering rogue; a hedge-creeper, benne-killer, ſheet-ſtealer.

Adventurier: m. ere: f. as Adventureux.

Advenu: m. uë: f. Chaunced, happened, betided, come to paſſe.

Vne fille bien advenuë. Well prooued, well growne, well come on, well proſpered; well batned, or batled.

Advenuë. An acceſſe, paſſage, or entry vnto a place; alſo, a hap, chaunce, euent, accident.

Adveré. Auerred, verified; Looke Averé.

Adverſaire. An aduerſarie; opponent, enemie; the aduerſe, or contrarie partie.

Adverſité: f. Aduerſitie; afflictions, croſſes, miſhaps, misfortunes.

Adverti: m. ie: f. Aduertiſed, informed, certified, warned, admoniſhed, aduiſed; ſignified vnto; hauing notice, or intelligence, of.

Advertir. To informe, certifie, aduertiſe; warne, admoniſh, aduiſe; to ſend word of; to ſignifie, giue notice, or intelligence, vnto.

Advertiſſement: m. An aduertiſement, ſignification, information, intelligence, notice; a warning, aduiſe, monition, admoniſhment; (In Law, C'eſt vn motif de faict ou de droict, que la partie baille par eſcript ſur vn incident, ou debat ſurvenu en la cauſe, ou apres les eſcritures principales, premieres & ſecondes additions, ou quand le different eſt petit. ¶Ragueau.)

Advertiſſemens. The Bill, Anſwere, and reſt of the Pleadings, or Bookes put into the Court both by plaintife and defendant, thereby fully to informe the Iudges of the ſtate of the cauſe, and of the points and reaſons alledged on both ſides. ¶Nicot.

Advertiſſeur. An aduertiſer, informer, intelligencer, certifier; warner, admoniſher, aduiſer.

Adveſt: m. An aduеſture, inueſture; a Liuerie and ſeiſin.

Adveſtir. To aduеſt, inueſt, cloth with; giue poſſeſſion of; make Liuerie and ſeiſin vnto.

Adveſture: f. An aduеſture, an inueſture; a cloathing, or poſſeſſing with; a deliuering ouer, a making of Liuerie and ſeiſin vnto; alſo, fruit hanging by the root, or ſtanding on the ground; whence;

Adveſture de bled. Corne ſtanding; or ſprung, and put vp to a good height, thereby cloathing the ground all ouer.

Adveu: m. An aduowing, or auouching; an approuing; an acknowledging as, or taking for, his owne; a warranting; pawning of the word, paſſing of credit vpon; alſo, a contract, bargaine, agreement; alſo, a Surуey; or (more properly) a proteſtation, or confeſſion made by a tenant (in words, or in writing) that he holds the things, mentioned in his ſurуey, of the lord vnto whom he deliuers it.

Adveu du pere; ou du mari. Signifies (in ſome paſſages of the French Lawes) the good-will, or conſent of the father; or husband.

Adveu du vaſſal; as before in Adveu; or, a profeſſion, confeſſion, or acknowledgement, of tenure.

Blaſme d'adveu. Looke, Blaſme.

Gens ſans adveu. Vagabonds, rogues, maſterleſs men; ſuch as none will owne, or challenge intereſt in.

Matiere d'adveu. A ſuit, action, or bill of complaint for moueables.

Au ſceu, & adveu de tout le monde. Before the face, in the ſight, or preſence, of all men.

Faictes cela à mon adveu. Doe that on my word, I will be your warrant for it; alſo, follow my humour in that, or, doe as I would haue you in it.

Adveu emporte l'homme. When a priſoner alledges that he is the vaſſall, or vnder the iuriſdiction, of a lord, and deſires to be tried before him, he is commonly ſent vnto him, if the Lord will; or may, by his priuiledges, take notice of the caſe.

Advis: m. Aduiſe, opinion; counſell; ſentence; iudgement; alſo, an information, intelligence, notice, aduertiſement, or inckling giuen of.

Aſſene & advis: Looke, Aſſene.

Il m'eſt advis; or; il me ſemble aduis, que. Me thinkes; it ſeemes vnto me; I am of opinion, or of mind, that.

Adviſagé: m. ée: f. Beheld earneſtly in the face.

Adviſager. To looke in the face; to behold earneſtly, wiſtly to eye, the viſage of.

Adviſé: m. ée: f. Aduiſed; warie, diſcreet, conſiderat, heedfull, circumſpect; alſo, told, informed, warned, admoniſhed.

Mal adviſé n'eſt pas ſans peine: Pro. He thats vncircumſpect wanteth no trouble.

Adviſement: m. Aduiſement, heed, warineſſe, diſcretion, conſideration, circumſpection; alſo, an aduiſing, warning, telling, informing; admoniſhing.

Adviſément. Aduiſedly, heedily, warily, diſcreetly, conſiderately, circumſpectly.

Adviſer. To aduiſe, marke, heed, conſider of, looke to, attend vnto, regard with circumſpection; to thinke, imagine, iudge; alſo, to aduiſe, counſell, warne, tell, informe. Looke, Aviſer.

Adulateur: m. A flatterer, cogger, ſmoother, ſoother, fawner, claw-backe.

Adulation. Adulation, flatterie, fawning, ſoothing, cogging, ſmoothing, blandiſhment.

Adula-

Adulatoire : com. Adulatorie, belonging to flatterie, full of cogging.
Adulte: com. Growne to full age; adultus, past breeching.
Adultere : m. An adulterer; also, adulterie.
Adulterer. To commit adulterie, to play the adulterer, to adulterize it; also, to adulterate, viciate, corrupt.
Advocaſsé : m. ée : f. Pleaded for.
Advocaſseau : m. A Petti-fogger; a ſimple, or poore-ſpirited Aduocat, or Councellor at Law.
Advocaſser. To play the Aduocate, to plead, or argue, for.
Advocaſserie : f. A pleading, or playing of the Aduocate.
Advocat : m. An Aduocate, or Counſellor at Law.
Diſner d'advocat. A large dinner (eaten, not beſtowed.)
Touſiours ouvert, comme la gibbeciere d'un advocat. Sayed of any thing that is alwaies open, and apt to receiue.
A l'advocat le pied en main : Prov. aſcauoir, de perdris, faiſans, chappons &c. to greaſe his fiſt withall.
Bon advocat mauvais Voiſin : Pro. a good Lawyer an euill neighbour.
De ieune advocat heritage perdu : Pro. The young (or vnexperienced) Lawyer hazards what he pleads for.
Longuement proceder eſt à l'advocat vendenger : Pro. Long ſuits are Lawyers harueſts.
Advocatie : f. An Aduocateſhip; the dutie, or place, of an Aduocate; alſo, the countenance, aſſiſtance, or ſupport of a great perſon in a ſuit.
Advoerie : f. as Advoeſon.
Advoeſon : f. Gard, protection, defence, charge, ouerſight of; an anſwering, or vndertaking for, another.
Advoiſon : f. The ſame.
Advolé : m. ée : f. Fled vnto; run quickly towards.
Advolée : f. A flight, or flying vnto; alſo, a place to light on after flying.
Advolement : m. A flying vnto; a ſwift, or quick running towards.
Advoler. To flie vnto, run ſpeedily to, come apace towards.
Advouäiſon : f. An aduowing, auouching; a taking into protection; an anſwering, or vndertaking for; an ouerſight, or charge of.
Advouäteur : m. An aduower, auoucher; anſwerer, vndertaker for; alſo, one that acknowledges, and challenges his beaſt, taken dammage-feſant.
Advoué : m. An adopted child; alſo, a Patron, Guardian, Protector; a defender of, or chiefe dealer for, a Church, Prouince, Towne, &c; alſo, an Atturney, or one that in Court vndertakes, or anſweres, for a Clergie man, widow, priuiledged citizen, &c; alſo, one that anſweres, as champion, a publicke challenge for another.
Advoué : m. ée : f. Aduowed, auouched; approoued, allowed of; warranted, authorized, taken into protection; anſwered, or vndertaken for.
Advouër. To aduow, auouch; approoue, allow of; warrant, authorize; defend, protect; vndertake, anſwer for; owne; acknowledge, confeſſe to be, take as, or for, his owne.
Advouër l'eſpave. To own, & claime, a waiſe, or ſtray.
Advouër vne rente en ſon fief. To acknowledge, and yeeld a rent out of his inheritance.
Ie vous advoue en cela. I approoue your carriage, or proceeding in that; or, I will beare you out in it.
Advouerie : f. Adoption; alſo, the defence, patronage, protection of; vndertaking, or anſwering for; ouerſight, or charge ouer, another.
Advourie. The ſame.
Advoyer. A principall Ouerſeer, Aduocate, Agent, Patron, or Protector of; vndertaker for, &c; as Advoué.
Aduré : m. ée : f. Hardened, ſtiffened, enured vnto.
Adurer. To harden, ſtiffen, make ſtrong, enure vnto.
Aduſte : com. Aduſt; parched, burned, roſted, or toſted (in the Sunne.)
Aduſtible : com. Aduſtible; burneable, waſteable, parcheable.
Aduſtion : f. An aduſtion, burning, parching, roſting, or toſting (in the Sunne, &c.)
Aeditue : m. A Church-warden, or Sexton; the Officer who is to looke vnto a Church, and the Church goods.
Aele. A wing; Seeke Aile. s'Aeler. To be winged; or to get wings.
Aemorrhoïde. A kind of ſerpent, by which he thats bitten, bleeds to death; alſo, the Hemrods, or Piles in the fundament.
Aeré : m. ée : f. Ayrie, of ayre; alſo, aired.
Aereux : m. euſe : f. Ayrie, full of ayre.
Aerien : m. enne : f. Ayrie, of ayre; alſo, of, or belonging vnto, Braſſe.
Aerin. as Airain.
Aerolle : f. A bliſter, or wheale.
Aeromantie. Diuination by the ayre.
Aerugineux : m. euſe : f. Full of, or, like vnto, Verdigreaſe.
Cholere aerugineuſe. Looke, Cholere.
Afaire. as Affaire.
Afaner. To get hardly, or with much toyle; to take exceeding paines for, to ſigh in the laborious getting of.
Affabilité : f. Affabilitie; a kind faſhion of ſpeaking to, a gentle garbe in hearing of, others.
Affable : com. Affable; gentle, courteous, gracious, in words, of a friendly conuerſation, eaſily ſpoken to by, willingly giuing eare to, others.
Affablement. Affably; gently, graciouſly, courteouſly (in ſpeech, or conuerſation.)
Affaçonner. Looke Affaſſonner.
Affadi : m. ie : f. Made or growne vnſauorie, taſtleſſe, wallowiſh, wateriſh; weake; witleſſe.
Affadir. To make or grow taſtleſſe, wallowiſh, wateriſh; weake; vnſauorie; witleſſe.
Affadiſſant. Making wallowiſh, growing taſtleſſe, yeelding an vnſauorie, weake, or wateriſh taſt.
Affadiſſement : m. Wallowiſhneſſe, vnſauorineſſe, taſtleſneſſe; weakeneſſe of ſauor, wateriſhneſſe of taſt.
Affaicté : m. ée : f. Trimmed, tricked, decked, curiouſly dreſſed; refined; reclaimed, ciuillized; made inward, or gentle; tamed; throughly manned.
Affaicter. To trim, tricke, decke, dreſſe curiouſly, make neat, ſpruce, fine; to refine; alſo, to tame, reclaime, breake, make gentle, bring to ciuilitie.
Affaicter vn oiſeau. To man a hauke throughly.
Affaicterie : f. A trimming, tricking, decking, neat, quaint, or fine dreſſing; alſo, neatneſſe, niceneſſe, curioſitie, quaintneſſe; alſo, a breaking, taming, reclayming, ciuilizing, making gentle; (hence) alſo, the throughmanning of a hauke, &c.
Affaire : m. An affaire, buſineſſe, imployment; worke, matter, ſomewhat to doe; alſo, a labour, trouble; charge.

Qui ueut entretenir ſon ami n'ait nuls affaires auec luy: Prov. Let him that will hold a friend, haue little to doe with him.

Affairé: m. ée: f. Full of buſineſſe, much employed; buſie, euer doing of ſomewhat.

Affaireuſement. Very buſily, as one thats full of imployments.

Affaireux. as Affairé.

Affaiſement. Looke, Affaiſſement.

Affaiſſé: m. ée: f. Shrunke, ſunke, weighed down, ouerladen, preſſed downe, as low as it can goe, as flat as it can be; ſetled in the bottome of.

Affaiſſement: m. A quelling; a ſinking, ſhrinking, or yeelding vnder a great burthen; a weighing downe; a ſetling in the bottome of; hence, alſo, the grounds, or dregs in the bottome of liquor, &c.

Affaiſſer. To bow, preſſe, or weigh downe.

s'Affaiſſer. To be ouerladen; to quell, ſinke, ſhrinke, or yeeld vnder a great burthen; alſo, to ſettle, as a heauie thing in the bottome of.

Affaitté. as Affeté.

Affaitter. as Affaicter.

Affaitterie. Looke Affaicterie.

Affaitteur de cuirs. A Skinner, or Leather-dreſſer.

Affamé: m. ée: f. Famiſhed, ſtarued, very hungry, hunger-ſtarued.

Inteſtin affamé. The ſecond ſmall-gut of the Ventricle; alwaies emptie (by reaſon of the many midriffe veines which paſſe from it vnto the Liuer) and therefore tearmed, the Hungrie gut.

Ventre affamé n'a point d'orielles: Pro. The hunger-ſtarued belly wanteth eares.

Vilain affamé demy enrage: Pro. A hungry Boore is halfe a bedlam.

Affamement: m. A famiſhing, ſtaruing, hunger-ſtaruing.

Affamer. To famiſh, to ſtarue, to hunger-ſtarue.

Affan: m. Extreame toyle, or griefe: as Ahan: ¶Lang.

Affaſſonner. To forme, or faſhion; to bring into good proportion; to make handſome, fit, and readie for the purpoſe.

Affaytement: m. Oiſeau de doux affaytement. A hauke thats gentle, and eaſie to be made, or manned; a well natured hauke.

Affayter. as Affaicter.

Affeager. To create a tenure in fee ſimple; to paſſe, alien, or graunt in fee, or, a fief.

Affeblir. as Affoiblir. To weaken.

Affectateur: m. An affector; one that (curiouſly) imitates a faſhion, or takes on him a habit, which either becomes, or befits, him not.

Affectation: f. Affectation; ouer-curious imitation; a fooliſh deſire, or following of, what one hath not, or is not, by nature; alſo, a publicke or legall aſſignement, or appointing of a thing vnto; a faſtening or tying it on; a binding it for, the maintenance, or aſſurance of another.

Affecté: m. ée: f. Affected, fancied, deſired, coueted; aſpired vnto, ſought after; alſo, affectioned, bearing good will, or wiſhing well, vnto; alſo, affectiue; or, as Afeté; alſo, eſpeciall, or of purpoſe; alſo, affected; faſtened or tyed on, deſtinate for, aſſigned or appointed vnto.

Affecter. To affect, fancie; deſire, couet; ſeeke after, aſpire vnto; alſo, to wiſh well, or beare good will to; alſo, to affect; faſten, or tye on; deſtinate (or bind) for; aſſigne, or appoint vnto.

Affecterie: f. as Afeterie; alſo, affectation; or, a curious imitation of.

Affection: f. An affection, liking, loue, good will vnto; a deſire of, or longing after; alſo, a paſſion, perturbation, or trouble of mind; (and hence) alſo a ſickneſſe, diſeaſe, or imperfection (of mind, or bodie.)

Affectionné: m. ée: f. Affectionate, or affectionated; hauing an affection, bearing a good will, to; giuen, addicted; excited, animated, vnto; alſo, beloued, eſteemed, affected.

Affectionnément. Affectionately, with great affection.

Affectionner. To affectionate; beget a liking, breed an affection; excite, incite, or animate, vnto.

s'Affectionner à. To affect, or loue; to addict, or deuote himſelfe; to giue his mind, vnto.

Affectueuſement. Moſt affectionatly; deſirouſly, heartily; greedily, couetouſly.

Affectueux: m. euſe: f. Moſt affectionate; heartie; deſirous of; full of affects, or of affection; full of good will; alſo, bearing a great affection, or much good will, vnto.

Affené: m. ée: f. Fed, or inſeamed, with hay; ſtall-fed.

Affener. To feed or inſeame with hay; to ſtall-feed.

Afferant. (The Participle of the impersonall Affiert) beſeeming, or becomming; alſo, concerning, or belonging to.

Affermable: com. Affirmable, auoucheable; alſo, farmeable, leaſeable, lettable.

Afferme: f. A farming; leaſing, letting out.

Affermé: m. ée: f. Farmed; let or leaſed out; alſo, as Affirmé.

Affermement: m. as Afferme; alſo, an affirming.

Affermer. To farme; leaſe; or let out vnto farme; alſo, to affirme, &c; as in Affirmer.

Affermi: m. ie: f. Strengthened, confirmed, fortified; aſſured; compacted, conſolidated, ſetled, hardened, ſtiffened, cloſed, faſtened; made firme.

Pain affermi. Stale bread.

Affermir. To ſtrengthen, fortifie, confirme; aſſure; compact, conſolidate, ſettle, harden, ſtiffen, cloſe, faſten; make firme.

Affermiſſement: m. A ſtrengthning; compacting, conſolidating, cloſing, ſetling, ſtiffening, hardening.

Affermiſſeur: m. A ſtrengthner; compactor, cloſer, ſetter, faſtener, ſtiffener, hardner.

Afferrer. as Enferrer.

Affertilé: m. ée: f. Fertilized, made fertile.

Affertiler. To fertilize; to make fertile, or fruitfull.

Affeſſé. as Affaiſſé.

s'Affeſſir. To grow wearie; to wax lumpiſh, or heauie.

Affeſté: m. ée: f. Set, ſetled, or pearched on the top of.

s'Affeſter. To pearch, to ſet, or ſettle it ſelfe, on the top of.

Affetardi: m. ie: f. Made, or become ſlouthfull, drowſie, negligent; ſlow, dull; faint-hearted; ouglie to the ſight.

Affetardir. To make ſlouthfull, drowſie, lazie; dull, ſlow, cowardly, faint-hearted; alſo, to make loathſome, or ouglie to the ſight.

Affeté; ou, Affetté: m. ée: f. Craftie, ſubtile, ſlye, wylie, diſſembling; alſo, nice, curious, daintie, quaint, preciſe.

Affeter. as Affaicter.

Affeterie. ou, Affetterie. Craft, ſubtiltie, ſlyneſſe, wylineſſe, diſſimulation, guileſulneſſe; alſo, niceneſſe, daintineſſe, curioſitie, preciſeneſſe, quaintneſſe.

Affeu-

Affeublage: m. Looke Affublage.
Affeubler. Looke Affubler.
Affeurage: m. as Afforage; alſo, a rating, or ſetting of a price on things.
Affeurer. To rate, value at a certaine rate, ſet a certain price on; Looke Afforer.
Affeurré. Foddered, (with ſtraw.)
Affeurrer. To fodder (with ſtraw.)
Affiche: f. A Siquis; a bill ſet vp; or paſted, or faſtened, on a poſt, doore, gate, &c.
Affiché: m. eé: f. Faſtened vpon, fixed, or affixed vnto; alſo, caught, or laid faſt hold on; alſo, performed, or made good.
Affichement: m. A faſtning; a fixing, or affixing vnto; alſo, a catching, or laying faſt hold on; alſo, a making good of a promiſe, or word.
Afficher. To faſten vpon; to fix, or affix vnto; alſo, to ſeize, catch, or lay faſt hold on; alſo, to make good a promiſe, or word.
Affician. To annex, or giue, for a time.
Affidé: m. cé: f. Ingaged; that hath paſt his faithfull promiſe; that hath pawned his faith, and credit.
Affié: m. eé; f. Aſſured, affied, confirmed, affirmed; alſo, planted, ſet, or graffed; affixed, faſtened.
Tous mes biens te ſont affiez par droit; All my goods belong, or are aſſigned, to thee by right; they be all tyed on thee.
Affiement. An aſſuring, affirming, confirming; alſo, a ſetting, planting, graffing; affixing, faſtening.
Affier. To affie, aſſure, affirme on his word; to pawne his faith, and credit on; alſo, to ſtrengthen, or confirme; alſo, to plant, ſet, or graffe; affix, faſten.
Affiert. (A Verbe Imperſonall) it becommeth, or beſeemeth; alſo, it concerneth, or belongeth to.
Affieux: m. A good fellow, a boone companion.
Affilé: m. cé: f. Sharpened, whetted, that hath an edge ſet on it; alſo, decked, dreſſed, or ſtiffened with wire.
Affilement: m. A whetting, ſharpening, or ſetting of an edge on; alſo, a dreſſing, or ſtiffening with wire.
Affiler. To whet, ſharpen, ſet an edge on; alſo, to decke, dreſſe, or ſtiffen with wire.
Affileur: m. A whetter, or ſharpener of edg'd tooles.
Affileure: f. as Affilement; Alſo, the edge, or ſharpeneſſe of a toole.
Affiliant: m. An adopter.
Affiliation: f. Adoption; or an adopting.
Affilié: m. eé: f. Adopted.
Affilier. To adopt.
Affiloire: m. A whetſtone.
Affin: m. A kinſman, or Ally; one with whom affinitie is had, or contracted.
Affin. Aduerb: That, to the end that.
Affinage: m. A fining; or a refining, of mettals.
Affiné: m. cé: f. Deceiued, coſened, beguiled; alſo, brought vnto an end; alſo, fined, purified, refined.
Affinement. A couſening, deceiuing, beguiling; alſo, a fining of mettals.
Affiner. To couſen, deceiue, beguile; alſo, to bring to end, or effect; alſo, to refine, or fine, as mettals; to purifie, or improue them (c'eſt rendre haut, & fin l'Or, &c, qui eſt bas, ſelon le tiltre qu'il faut; ſayes a French man.)
Affineur. A deceiuer, beguiler, couſener; alſo, a refiner, or finer of mettals; a purifier, or improuer of them.
Affinité: f. Affinitie; kindred, allyance; neereneſſe.
Affiniter. To ally; to make of affinitie, or kindred, with;
Affinoire: m. A fining houſe; the roome, ſhop, or place, wherein gold, or ſiluer is vſually fined.

Affiquet: m. Any prettie toy, trinket, or trifle of ſmall value; as a little brooche, flower, button, aglet, &c, ſtucke on the hat, head, hood, or elſewhere; and worne (eſpecially by a woman) for ornament.
Affirmateur. An affirmer, ſoother, auoucher, aſcertainer, auower.
Affirmation. An affirmation, aſſeueration, aſſertion, aſcertaining.
Affirmé: m. eé: f. Affirmed; auouched, ſoothed, auowed; aſſured, aſcertained, ſtood vnto.
Affirmer. To affirme, ſooth, auouch, auow; aſſure, aſcertaine, ſtand vnto. s'Afflaquir. To wax flaggie, limber, feeble; to become looſe ioynted; to faint.
Afflat: m. A blaſt, breath, wind, inſpiration, blowing in.
Afflater. To flatter, blandiſh; allure, or intice with faire ſpeeches; to cog, or gloſe with, to fawne on.
Affleurir l'eau. To go cloſe by the water, as the lee-ſide of ſhips in a ſtrong ſide-wind; Seeke Effleurer.
Afflictif: m. iue: f. Afflictiue, grieuing, moleſting, tormenting.
Peines afflictiues de corps. corporall puniſhments.
Affliction. Affliction, moleſtation, calamitie, croſſes, vexation, trouble, woe, perſecution.
Affligé: m. eé: f. Afflicted, vexed, tormented; exceeding much grieued, moleſted, troubled.
Affliger. To afflict, vex, torment, moleſt, grieue, trouble, exceeding much.
Affloüi: m. ie: f. Blurred, blunted; and hence;
Diamant affloui. That hath loſt it point.
Affloüir. To blurre; alſo, to blunt.
Affluence: f. Affluence, plentie, ſtore, flowing, fullneſſe, aboundance.
Afflux: m. An afflux, or affluence; plentifull acceſſe; or, as Affluence.
Affoiblement. as Affoibliſſement.
Affoibli: m. ie: f. Weakened, enfeebled; decayed in ſtrength; alſo, allayed, delayed, or abated, as the value of coine.
Affoiblir. To weaken, enfeeble, make infirme, depriue of ſtrength, take away the force, or vigour of; alſo to delay, allay, or abate the value of coine.
Affoibliſſement: m. A weakening, enfeebling, depriuing of force, power, ſtrength; alſo, an allaying, or abating of the value of coine.
Affoiſonnement: m. An increaſe, or increaſing of ſtore.
Affolé: m. cé: f. Foyled, bruiſed, wounded, ſore hurt; ſpoiled; vndone, ruined; alſo, gulled, or beſotted.
Affolé d'une iambe, d'un pied, &c; Lame, or maymed, of a leg, foot.
Affolement: m. A foyling, bruiſing, wounding (by ſtrokes;) alſo, a ſpoyling, ruining, vndoing; alſo, a gulling, beſotting, befooling.
Affoler. To foyle, wound, bruiſe, or hurt ſore with blowes; alſo, to ſpoyle, ruine, vndoe; alſo, to beſot, gull, befoole.
Affolure: f. A foyle, bruiſe, wound, ſore hurt; a ſpoyling, ruining, vndoing; an extreame impreſſion, or aggrieuance.
Affoncer. To thruſt farre, or deep, into, &c. as Enfoncer.
Affondé: m. eé: f. Sunke down to the bottome, or lying (as a heauie thing) at the bottome, of.
Affonder: ou; s'Affonder. To ſinke, fall, or go downe to the bottome; as a heauie thing, thats caſt into the water.
Affor; m. A piercing, or broaching of wine, &c.

Afforage:

Afforage : m. The same.
Droict d'afforage. Two pots of wine, &c ; paied vpon the broaching of euerie vessell retailed ; one to the Land-lord , his right for the standing thereof on his ground, and for his leaue to sell it ; another vnto the Magistrat for allowance of the liquor, and for the rate set on it.

Afforagé : m. eé : f. pierced, or set abroach ; also, rated, or whose price is set downe ; licented, or allowed (as good, and wholesome wine, &c ;) to be sould, by a Magistrat, or Land-lord.

Afforer. To pierce, or set abroach a vessell of wine, &c ; or (rather) the Magistrat to set a rate on, and the Land-lord to giue a licence for, the retaile thereof ; or, to take a rate from the Magistrat, and a licence of the Land-lord, for the retaile thereof.

Affouchié : m. eé : f. Put into, layed among, fearne.
Sanglier affouchié. Thats busily rooting for fearne roots ; or, that in searching for fearne roots, plowes vp the ground with his snowt.

Affouler. as Affoler ; And (particularly) a woman to miscarrie, cast her child , or be deliuered before her time, by the violence of blowes (or a fall) receiued.

Affourrager. as Affourrer. To fodder cattell.

Affourrer. To serue, or fodder, cattell with straw, &c.

Affranchi : m. A freed man, free man , or one that is made free.

Affranchi : m. ie : f. Franchised, made free ; discharged, released, deliuered from bondage ; also, reclaimed, tamed ; seasoned sweetened.

Affranchir. To affranchise, free, make free ; giue libertie vnto ; deliuer, or discharge, from seruitude ; release, or rid from charge, or annoyance ; also, to reclaime, season, or sweeten ; to make tame, in season, or fit for vse what was wild, rammish, or harsh.
La verge anoblit, & le ventre affranchit : Prov. Looke Ventre.

Affranchissement : m. An affranchising, or freeing ; a discharging of, or deliuering from, seruitude ; also, a seasoning, sweetening ; taming, reclaiming.

Affranchisseur : m. An affranchiser, freer, freedome-giuer.

Affrequane : f. A Tygre ; (because bred in Affrica.)

Affres. Ie luy ay donné vne mauvaise affres. I haue frighted, scarred, affrayed him exceedingly ; or, I haue put him into his dumpes.

Affreté : m. eé : f. Fastened, clasped ; or, clung'd vnto.

Affreusement. Gastly, terribly, horribly, as one that hath beene scarred ; also, grimly , sternely, sowerly ; fell , frowardly, frowningly , vnder the browes.

Affreuseté : f. Gastlinesse, terriblenesse, horrour in the countenance ; sternnesse, grimnesse, felnesse ; frowning, lowring, sowernesse, or churlishnesse of looke.

Affreux : m. euse : f. Gastly, horride, fearefull, terrible in looke ; grim, sterne, fell, sower, frowning, lowring, looking big on ; of a spightfull, churlish, and vnpleasant countenance.

Affriandé : m. eé : f. Liquorous, or made liquorous, of ; set in a longing after ; (hence) also, allured, inticed, inueagled, tolled , or drawne on by plausible or fayre meanes.

Affriandement : m. A making liquorous of ; also, an alluring , inticing , or tolling on , by plausible, or sweet meanes.

Affriander. To make liquorous of, or, set in a longing after ; also, to allure, inueagle, intice, draw, or toll on, by faire, sweet, or plausible meanes.

Affriolé. as Affriandé.

Affriolement : m. An alluring, or allurement.

Affrioler. as Affriander.

Affriquain. African, of Affricke.
Vent Affriquain. The Southwest wind.

Affrodille : m. Th' Affodill, or Asphodill flower ; also, the plant that beares it ; also, the bulbed root thereof. Looke Aphrodille.

Affronitre : m. as Aphronitre ; Salt-peeter.

Affront : m. An affront, brauadoe, wrong, or abuse, offered to a mans face ; an impudent, and iniurious gullerie ; a bold, scurrile, or cosening part, played a man openly.

Affrontailles : f. Th' ends, or corners of a peece of land abutting vpon other lands, which belong vnto diuers Lords, or owners.

Affronté : m. eé : f. Affronted ; encountred, set vpon ; conteSted, swaggered with ; abused, gulled, openly, or to his face.

Affrontement : m. as Affront ; also, an affronting ; incountring, assaulting of.

Affronter. To affront ; or lye affront of ; to come before, or face to face ; also, to incounter, assault , set vpon ; conteSt, quarell, swagger with ; braue ; wrong, abuse ; cosen , gull, deceiue, impudently , openly , or to the face of.

Affronteur : m. A brauer, affronter, abuser of people to their faces ; a common swaggerer, an impudent, or bold companion ; also, an open, or publique deceiuer, beguiler, cheater, cogging mate ; cousening merchant.

Affublage : m. A cloathing, cladding ; muffling, or enwrapping in ; a hiding, or shrowding vnder, (clothes ;) also, garments, raiments, apparell, clothes.

Affublé : m. eé : f. Clad, or clothed ; muffled, or enwrapped in ; couered, or attired with ; hid, or shrowded vnder (clothes.)

Affublement : m. as Affublage.

Affubler. To cloath, clad, put on ; to attire, or couer with, muffle, or enwrap in, hide, or shrowd, vnder clothes.
Il ne faut estre loup, ny en affubler la peau. Prov. We must neither be, nor seeme, naught.

Affuir. To flie, or recourse vnto for helpe, and succour.

Affuler. as Affubler : ¶ Pic.

Affust : m. The frame, or cariage of a peece of ordnance ; also, as Toile baptiste.

Affusté : m. eé : f. Stocked, fitted with a stocke ; or staffe ; mounted, as artillerie ; furnished with a frame, or carriage.

Affuster. To stocke ; fit with a stocke ; or staffe ; to mount artillerie ; to furnish (it) with a frame, or carriage.

Affutage : m. Frames, carriages, or stockes for artillerie.

Afiliation : f. Adoption, or the conferring on frcmme children all aduantages belonging to naturall ones.

Afrodille. as Affrodille.

Afrodisiace : f. A kind of stone, or minerall of a whitish colour mingled with red.

Afrolitre : m. A kind of light, brittle, and purple coloured Niter.

Afronitre. The same.

Afuselé : m. eé : f. Pointed, or made small towards the point, as a spindle ; fashioned like a spindle.

Afuselement : m. A fashioning of things like spindles.

Afuseler. To fashion, point, or make small towards the end, like a spindle.

Afyer. as Brouiller ; or, as Tromper.

Aga, mon amy ; See, looke friend ; (spoken in mirth, or mockerie.)

Agacé. Egged, vrged, incensed, prouoked, exasperated ; also, alſo, ſet on edge, as a tooth; alſo, blunted, as a weapon.

Agaceant. Egging, vrging, angring, prouoking, exaſperating; alſo, ſetting on edge, the teeth; bluating weapons.

Agacement: m. An egging, vrging, angring, prouoking, exaſperating; alſo, a ſetting of the teeth on edge; alſo, a dulling, or blunting of weapons.

Agacer. To egge, vrge, prouoke, anger, vex, exaſperate; alſo, to ſet the teeth on edge; alſo, to blunt, or dull a weapon, &c.

Agache. as Agaſſe.

Agaillardé: m. ée: f. Growne liuely, iocond, blithe, frolicke.

s'Agaillarder. To be iocond, liuely, blithe, frolicke, merrie.

Agalloche: m. The ſweet wood called, Lignum Aloes.

Agamber. To ſtep, or ſtride ouer.

Aganni: m. ie: f. Withered, faded, conſumed, growne fruitleſſe, depriued of force.

Agannir. To conſume, wither, vade, faile, grow fruitleſſe, looſe all vigour, and force.

Agaric: m. Agaricke; a white, and ſoft muſhrome, or excreſcence growing vpon the Larch tree; alſo, a root in Sarmatia, that helpes diſgeſtion.

Agaric noir. A heauie, poiſonous, and blackiſh kind of Agaricke; full of little ſinewie threads.

Agart. Looke Hagard.

Agaſſe: f. A Pie, Piannet, or Magatapie.

Agaſſé: m. ée: f. as Agacé.

Agaſſer. as Agaçer.

Agaſſeté: f. Bluntneſſe in an edged toole.

Agaſſeur: m. An egger, vrger, prouoker, exaſperater.

Agaſſin. A corne, or agnele in the feet, or toes; alſo, the loweſt bud, or braunch of a vine.

Agaſſure. as Agaſſeté; and, as Agacement.

Agathe. An Agate.

Agathonien: m. enne: f. Wanton, laſciuious, bawdie, full of ribaldrie; (of Agatho, the name of a certaine wanton Minſtrell.)

Agay: m. The marrow of fowle; (a Faulconers tearme.)

Agazer. as Agacer.

Ageancé: m. ée: f. Fitted, adapted, adiuſted, ſet handſomely, placed orderly.

Ageancement. Seeke Agencement.

Ageancer. as Agencer.

Agelaſte: com. Sad, ſullen; that neuer laugheth: ¶Grec.

Agember. as Agamber.

Agencé: m. ée: f. Fitted, apted, adapted, adiuſted, proportioned, accommodated; ordered; dreſſed, trimmed, decked, handſomely; fitly diſpoſed, finely placed, featly ſuited, rightly matched, juſtly applied.

Agencement: m. A fitting, apting, iuſt placing, ſetting in order; an adapting, accommodating; a trimming, dreſſing, decking; alſo, ſutableneſſe, handſomneſſe, good proportion.

Agencer. To fit, apt, adapt, adiuſt, proportion, accommodate; alſo, to dreſſe, trim, decke; to diſpoſe fitly, ſet featly, place finely, ſute rightly, match iuſtly, ioyne handſomely together.

Agenouillé: m. ée: f. Kneeled; on his knees, kneeling.

Agenouiller. To kneele.

A la quenouille le fol s'agenouille: Pro. The foole ſubmits himſelfe to his proud wife.

Agenouillon. Kneeling, or vpon his knees.

Agent: m. An Agent, a dealer, Negotiator, Embaſſador.

Ageſimos. A wondering voyce, or exclamation.

Aggere: m. A heape of ſtones, earth, or turues; and hence, a bulwarke, mount, rampier, made for the defence of a fort, or campe; alſo, a fort, or blockehouſe; alſo, a cauſey, banke, damme, ſea-wall, hill of earth rayſed againſt, or ſeruing to keepe out, waters.

Agglué: m. ée: f. Glued; ioyned cloſe vnto, or together.

Aggluer. To glue; to ioyne, as with glue; to cloſe vnto, or together.

s'Aggluer à. To cleaue, or ſticke faſt vnto.

Agglutinatif: m. iue: f. Of power, or propertie, to glue, or cloſe together.

Agglutinement: m. A gluing, or cloſing vnto, or together.

Agglutiner. as Aggluer.

Aggraffe: f. A booke, a grapple; a haſpe, or claſpe.

Aggraffement. A booking, claſping, buckling, grapling to; a haſping; ſeizing, or taking hold of.

Aggraffer. To grapple, or claſpe with; to booke vnto; to buckle, to haſpe; to ſeize, gripe, take hard, or violent hold of.

Aggrandi: m. ie: f. Greatened, inlarged; augmented, increaſed; preferred, aduanced.

Aggrandir. To greaten, augment, inlarge, increaſe, make great, preferre, aduance.

Aggrandiſſement: m. A greatning, inlarging, increaſe; preferment, aduancement.

Aggrandiſſeur: m. An inlarger, increaſer, augmenter; preferrer, aduancer.

Aggravanté: m. ée: f. Aggrauated, exaſperated.

Aggravanter. To aggrauate, exaſperate, make more hainous, or grieuous.

Aggravation: f. An aggrauation, or aggrauating; alſo, a curſe, excommunication, or execration denounced againſt an obſtinat offendor.

Aggravé: m. ée: f. as Aggravanté; alſo, made heauy, ſurcharged, ſwayed, or borne downe, by ouer-much weight; alſo, grauelled, or, as a ſhip, faſt on the ground.

Aggravé des pieds. Surbated, foundered, foot-beaten.

Aggravé de ſomme. Faſt aſleepe, in a dead ſleepe.

Aggraver. To aggrauate, exaſperate, make more hainous, or grieuous than it was; alſo, to make heauie, ſurcharge, oppreſſe; to ſway, or beare downe, by weight.

s'Aggraver. To be grauelled; to ſticke faſt on ground, or in the grauell.

Aggreable com. Agreeable, acceptable, graceſull, gracious, delectable, welcome, well liked.

Aggréer. To agree, or ſute with; to be acceptable, welcome, or pleaſing vnto.

Aggregé: m. ée: f. aggregated, congregated; ioyned, added vnto.

Aggreger. To aſſemble, aggregate, congregate, gather together; alſo, to adde, or ioyne vnto a ſocietie; alſo, to aggrauate.

Aggrené: m. ée: f. Fed, filled, or inſeamed, with corne, or graine.

Aggrener. To feed, or fill with with corne, or graine; to take vp a horſe, or coult from graſſe, and inſeame him with corne or prouender; Seeke Agrener.

Aggreſſé: m. ée: f. Aſſaulted, aſſailed, ſet on.

Aggreſſement. An aſſaulting, or ſetting on.

Aggreſſer. To aßaile, aßault, ſet on.

Aggreſſeur. An aßayler, or aßaulter; he that giues the onſet, or firſt layes hands on his weapon, to doe another violence.

Aggreſſion. An aggreſſion, aßault, incounter, or firſt ſet- ſetting on.

Aggriffer. as Aggripper; or, as Griffer.

Aggripper. To gripe, ſeize hard, lay ſure hold on.

Agian : m. A bearing cloth for a child; alſo, a beere-cloth for a dead corps.

Agiaux. Ceremonies; Looke Agios; or the Plurall to Agian.

Agiers : m. The ſteps, wayes, or turnings to be obſerued for the readie comming vnto a houſe, or place.

Agile : com. Nimble, agile, actiue; quicke, prompt; of ſupple members, or parts; of a readie ſtirring.

Agilement. Nimbly, actiuely, with agilitie; quickely, promptly, ſupplely, readily.

Agilité : f. Agilitie, nimbleneſſe, actiuitie; promptneſſe, readineſſe, quickneſſe, dexteritie; ſuppleneſſe of members, or of parts.

Agiographe. A holy writing; holy Writ.

Agios. Sacred, holy; ¶Grec. hence;

Faire beaucoup d'agios. To be verie ſcrupulous, or ceremonious; or, rather, to vſe many bleſſings, croſſings, or ſuperſtitious geſtures in the doing of any thing.

Agiotare : m. A holy and bleſſed man.

Agir. To ſue, implead, plead, commence ſuit, bring an action againſt; alſo, to worke, operate, worke effect, haue an operation in.

Agitant. Toſſing, much mouing, reuoluing, wagging, ſtirring vp and downe.

Agitation. An agitation, ſtirring, great motion, much exerciſe, reuolution, working, wagging.

Agité : m. ée : f. Toſſed, wagged, agitated, much moued, ſtirred, exerciſed, reuolued.

Agiter. To toſſe, agitate; wag, ſtir, moue often; to reuolue, worke, exerciſe, verie much.

Agnafile. A kind of Mooriſh Trumpet.

Agnation : f. Kindred by the fathers ſide; alſo, (but leſſe properly) adoption; alſo, a thing that growes beſide, or aboue, the courſe of nature.

Agneau : m. A Lambe.

Blanche d'agneaux. The ſtarre called, white Lambe, or, white Budge.

Autant maniable comme vn agneau. As meeke as a Lambe.

Brebis trop apprivoiſeé de trop d'agneaux eſt tetteé: Prov. The gentle Ewe is ſuckt by too many Lambs; (appliable to an ouer-kind, or too familiar, woman.)

De mal eſt venu l'agneau & à mal retourne la peau: Prov. To naught it goes that came from naughtineſſe.

Agnelé : m. ée : f. Lambed.

Agnelement : m. A lambing; a falling of Lambs.

Agneler : m. The ſame; and thence;

A l'agneler verra on leſquelles ſont prains: Prov. At lambing time we find what Ewes were full.

Agneler. To lambe.

Agnelet : m. A little Lambe; a Lambkin, or young Lambe.

Agnelette. as Agneliere.

Agneliere : f. Th'inmoſt of the three membranes which enwrap a wombe-lodged infant; called by ſome Midwiues, the Coyfe, or Biggin of the child; by others, the childs ſhirt.

Agnelin : m. Lambes ſtarre, Budge.

Agobilles : f. Trifles, niſles, trinkets, traſh, trumperie, paultrie ſtuffe.

Agonarque : m. A Maſter of the Reuels; a Preſident, or chiefe Iudge; a principall author, or director, of publick exerciſes, playes, or games.

Agonie : f. Agonie, griefe, perplexitie, anguiſh, anxietie, vexation of mind.

Agoniſer. To grieue extreamely; to be much perplexed, full of agonie, fraught with anguiſh.

Agoranome : m. The Clearke, or Comptroller, of a Market.

Agoubilles. as Agobilles.

Agoué : m. ée : f. Halfe choked, wel-nigh ſtifled (as one that hath a bone, or gobbet in his throat, which will neither vp, nor downe;) alſo, cloyed, ſaded, ouer-glutted, ouer-full.

Agoure de lin. (The weed) Dodder.

Agouſter. To haue a ſmacke, or taſt of.

Agoutter. To drop, as raine from a houſe eaue.

Agouttis : m. The eauings of a houſe.

Agrandir. as Aggrandir.

Agraffe. as Agraphe.

Agrailir. Looke Agreſlir.

Agrailiſſement. A leſſening; a making thinne, ſmall, ſlender.

Agraphe : f. A claſpe; hooke; brace; grapple; haſpe.

Agrapher. To buckle, grapple, haſpe, claſpe; to hooke vnto; to ſeize, gripe, or take hold of.

Agraphiner. To ſeize, gripe, lay his clawes on, take hold of.

A-gré. Willingly, with a good will.

Agreable. as Aggreable.

Agreableté : f. Agreeableneſſe, acceptableneſſe; comelineſſe, gracefulneſſe.

Agreation : f. An agreement, concord, aſſent, conſent; alſo, an agreeing.

Agrené. Inſeamed, fed, or, filled, with corne.

Agrener. as Aggrener.

Agrener le moulin. To fill the mill hopper (with corne.)

Agrerer. To chuſe, part, or lay out his part of the fruites of his land let out to parts.

Agreſlir. To make, or become thin, leane, ſmall, ſlender; to leſſen, to narrow.

Agreſlir la voix. To ſqueale, or ſqueake; to ſing in a high pitch; to riſe in ſinging.

Agreſsé : m. ée : f. Aſſaulted, ſet on.

Agreſſeur. as Aggreſſeur.

Agreſte : com. Sower, tart, or ſharpe, as verges; alſo, rude; clowniſh, ruſticall, vngentle, booriſh.

Agricole : m. A husbandman, plowman, countrey Farmer.

Agriculture. Tillage, husbandrie.

Agrier : m. droit d'agrier. as Terra[illegible]

Agriere : f. Seeke Terrage.

Agrimenſeur : m. A Surueyor, or meaſurer of land.

Agrimoine. as Aigremoine.

Agriotat. The iuyce, or ſyrop of tart cherries.

Agriotte : f. The ordinarie ſharpe, or tart cherrie; which we alſo call, the Agriot cherrie.

Agripaulme. The hearbe Motherwort.

Agrippine. poudre Ag. Meat that prouokes luſt; leacherous ſtuffe.

s'Agrouper. A horſe to knit, and gather himſelfe cloſe together, carrying himſelfe vpon his hinder parts, and drawing them vp, as if hee would yearke out behind.

Agu : m. uë : f. Keene, ſharpe, ſmall-topped, or pointed; piercing; ſmart; ſubtile, wittie, ingenious; eagre, vehement.

Aguafile : f. A kind of Mooriſh Trumpet.

Aguard. as Hagard.

Aguelette. la tunique a. A thinne ſoft skin, or ſhirt, wherein children are wrapped in the matrix, beſides their bed, or after birth, which is more groſſe.

Aguement. Sharply, keenely; ſmartly; wittily, piercingly.

Aguerriment. Martiall order, warlike diſcipline; alſo, a making, or becomming warlike; a training vp in warfare.

Aguerrir. To make warlike, or fit for the wars; to traine vp in martiall diſcipline.

Aguerriſſant. Making warlike, training vp in warfare.

Aguet: m. An ambuſh, or lying in wait for.
Aller d'aguet en ſes affaires. To go warily to worke; to proceed leaſurely, to take him leaſure in his buſineſſe.

Aguetté. Dogged; watched, waited; lien for.

Aguetter. To watch, dog, lye in wait, or ambuſh for.

Aguigner. To leuell, or ayme at; to leere, winke, or looke with one eye at.

Aguillade. A long, aſh-coloured, great eyed, big-bellied Dog-fiſh, that hath two ſharpe and ſtrong prickles, on her back; and thereof may be tearmed, (as ſhe is by the Germanes) a Thorne-hound.

Aguillan-neuf. An old word compounded of 4 words; au-guy-l'an-neuf. Seeke Auguillanneuf.

Aguillat. A kind of Dog-fiſh; as Aguillade.

Aguille: f. A needle; alſo a long ſmall fiſh, called a Hornebacke, or Horne-fiſh; Looke Aiguille.

Aguillette. A point; Seeke Eſguillette.

Aguilletter. To tye points.

Aguillier: m. A needle caſe.

Aguillon. A pricke, a goade, a ſting; Looke Eſguillon..

Aguillonnement: m. A pricking, or ſtinging; an inſtigation, mouing, prouoking, inciting, or ſetting forward.

Aguillonner. To pricke, ſting; prouoke, moue, incenſe, inſtigate, incite, egge, vrge forward.

Aguillonneur: m. A pricker, or prouoker forward.

Aguiner. as Aguigner.

Aguiſé: m. ée: f. Whetted, ſharpened.

Aguiſement: m. A whetting, ſharpening, or ſetting an edge on.

Aguiſer. To whet, ſharpen, grind, or ſet an edge on.
Pierre à aguiſer. as Pierre Aguiſoire.

Aguiſoire. pierre ag. A whetſtone; a grindſtone.

Aguyon: m. A gentle, pleaſant, or calme wind; called ſo among Brittiſh, and Normand Mariners.

Agyos. Looke Agios.

Ahan: m. The lowd ſighing, and paine-expreſſing time, which wood-cleauers, heauie-loden porters, &c, keepe, with their voices, vnto the blowes they giue, or ſteps they make; hence, extreame labour, great trauell, exceeding toile of body, much anguiſh, vexation, affliction of mind; or any loud, painfull, & ſhort expreſſion therof.

Ahané. Extreamly toiled, trauelled, payned, vexed, perplexed; alſo, ploughed.

Ahaner. To ſigh out; to keepe time with lowd ſighes vnto his toyleſome ſtrokes, or painfull ſteps; alſo to labor, toyle, trauell exceeding hard; alſo, to plough, or breake vp a ſtiffe peece of ground.

Ahannable. terre ahannable. Rich, & tough earable; land that yeelds great encreaſe, but requires much labor, or puts the laborer to much toile, in the tilling of it.

Ahannant. Toyling extreamly, ſighing often through the great paine his worke puts him to.

Ahanner. as Ahaner.

Ahanneux: m. euſe: f. Toyleſome, painefull, moſt labourſome, verie troubleſome; full of affliction, vexation, trauell, anguiſh.

Ahen. as Ahan; alſo, a plough.

Ahennage: m. A ploughing, or breaking vp of (a ſtiffe peece of) ground.

Ahenner. as Ahaner.

Aherdre. To ſnatch, or plucke; to catch, gripe, or take by violence.

Aheurté: m. ée: f. Stiffe, wilfull, obſtinate, that wil forward how deere ſo euer it coſts him.

Aheurtement: m. Obſtinacie, wilfulneſſe, or ſelfewill; ſtiffeneſſe in opinion, ſtubborneſſe, headineſſe.

s'Aheurter. To be wilfull, obſtinate, headie, ſelfewilly, ſtiffe, in a bad matter.

Ahocquer. as Accrocher: ¶Pic.

Ahonti: m. ié: f. Abaſhed, daſht out of countenance; made aſhamed.

Ahontir. To make aſhamed; to abaſh; to daſh out of countenance.

Ahurir. To affright, ſcare; appall, aſtoniſh, amaze, diſmay exceedingly; to make ones haire ſtand annend, or bring him to his wits end, by frighting, or amazing of him.

Ahurté. as Aheurté.

Ahy. Out alas (an Interiection of feare.)

Aj. Oh; ayme; (an Interiection expreſſing ſence of pain, or of ſmart;) or as Ahy.

Aidant: m. ante: f. Aiding, helping, ſuccouring, aſſiſting, releeuing, furthering, forwarding.
Dieu aidant. By the helpe of God, if God proſper my proceedings, or ſpare me life and health; and God wil, if God ſay amen.

Aide: m. An aidant, helper, ſecond, aſſiſtant; Looke Aides.
Vn Aide à Maſon. A Maſons boy, or ſeruant, that reaches him ſtone, and morter as he workes.

Aide: com. Aide, helpe, aſſiſtance; reliefe, ſuccour; ſupport; furtherance, a forwarding; (alſo, a ſubſidie, lone, cuſtome, taxe; a preſtation due from ſubiects to their Soueraigns, and from tenants to their land-lords; generally, any money thats leuied by either (ouer and aboue their ordinarie reuenue) for the warres, or other extraordinarie imployments.
Aides (as in Aide) All kind of Subſidies, lones, taxes, tithes, pecuniarie ſubuentions; and particularly, the ordinarie impoſition of twelue pence in the pound Tour. vpon all ſorts of fruites, prouiſion, and marchandiſe, ſold in any part of France (if they belong not to ſuch perſons as are priuiledged by cuſtome, or charter from the King;) alſo, light-armed ſouldiours imployed for ſeconds; and the forces or troupes which one friend, or colleague, ſends to the ayde of another.

Aides chevels. Three pecuniarie, and caſuall aydes, or dueties, yeelded in Normandie, by euery tenant in fee vnto his Land-lord (if he be noble) the firſt when his eldeſt ſonne is knighted; and thus is tearmed, Aide de chevalerie; the ſecond, towards the mariage of his eldeſt daughter, called Aide de mariage; the third, to helpe to pay his ranſome, when he is priſoner in a warre, wherein he ſerued the king by reaſon of his owne tenure; and this they call Aide de rançon: By the cuſtomes of Amiens, and in ſome other places, onely the two firſt (and thoſe but once during a tenants life) are yeelded: within Ponthieu (and in many other parts of Fraunce) the two firſt whenſoeuer they accrue, the laſt (moſt commonly) but once during a lords time. The moſt common proportion is, ten pounds Pariſis for euery fee held in Peeredome, and for euery whole Knights fee, 60.s'. and ſo ratably, when they are to be apportioned.

Aides couſtumiers. The ſame; and called ſo in the auntient cuſtomes of Normandie.

Aide de l'oſt. Looke Oſt.

Aide de reliefe. The fine paid by euerie tenant vnto his new meſne Land-lord, preſently after the death of the old one, & towards the reliefe, which hee is to pay vnto the lord Paramount.

La Cour des Aides. as in Cour.

Droit d'aide. as Aides chevels; called ſo in the cuſtomes of S. Paul, Arthois, Amiens, Beauqueſne, Doulens, & of ſome other places: In both the Burgundies the ſame proportion is due, by this title, vntó lords for their voyages into the Holy land.

Loyaulx aides. as Aides chevels; tearmed ſo within the dominion of Tours, Lodunois, Poictou, and Lille.

Bon droict a bon meſtier d'aide: Prov. Good right hath (in our dayes) great need of fauour.

Aidé: m. ée: f. Aided, helped, aſſiſted, releeued, ſuccoured; ſupported; fauoured; furthered, forwarded.

Aider. To aid, helpe, aſſiſt; releeue, ſuccour; ſecond; ſupport; fauour; forward, further.

Bon eſt le dueil qui apres aide: Prov. Good is that ſorrow which at length does good; happie the griefe which in the end makes vs happie.

Fortune aide à celuy qui ſe veut aider: Pro. Fortune helpes him that's willing to helpe himſelfe.

Ajencement, & Ajencer. Looke Agencement, & Agencer.

Ajetter vn oiſeau. To caſt, or whiſtle, off a hawke; to let her go, let her flie.

Aiglantier: m. An Eglentine, or ſweet-brier tree.

Aiglas: m. Eaglets, yong Eagles.

Aigle: f. An Eagle.

Aigle de mer. An Oſprey; water Eagle, ſea Eagle.

Petite aigle noire. A Saker.

Pierre d'aigle. An Eagle-ſtone; found in the Eagles neſt; applyed to the thigh of a woman that is in labor, haſteneth her deliuerie.

Aigleron: m. An Eaglet, or yong Eagle.

Aigleſſe: f. An Eagleſſe; a henne Eagle.

Aigneau: m. a Lambe; Seeke Agneau.

Aigneaux. Mannacles; fetters for the hands.

Aignelé: m. ée: f. Lambed.

Aignelement. A lambing.

Aigneler. To lambe; Seeke Agneler.

Aignelet: m. A Lambkin, a little, or yong, Lambe.

Aignelette, & Aigneliere. as Agneliere.

Aignelin. White Budge, white Lambe.

Aigras: m. Veriuyce; (an old word.)

Aigre. A kind of Grub-axe, or inſtrument wherewith roots, and ſhrubs are plucked vp.

Aigre: com. Eagre, ſharpe, tart, biting, ſower; alſo, brittle, or eaſily broken (with a hammer.)

Aigre haleine. A ſtinking (which wee alſo call a ſower) breath.

Mal aigre. A diſeaſe of Hawkes, by wormes that breed in their gorge.

Aigrebel-heur. The name of a certaine ſower apple.

Aigre-douce: f. A ciuile Orange; or, Orange, that is betweene ſweet and ſower.

Aigre-doux: m. douce: f. betweene ſweet and ſower, or, halfe ſweet, halfe ſower.

Aigre-fin: m. A certaine Turkiſh coyne; alſo, a fiſh that reſembles a Whiting; and may be called (according to the Latine Iecorarius) the Liuer fiſh.

Aigrement.. Eagrely, ſharpely, tartly, bitingly, ſowerly; ſeuerely.

Aigremoine: f. The hearbe called Agrimonie, or Egrimonie; and by ſome Liuerwort, (becauſe it is good for a diſeaſed liuer.

Aigremoine Sauvage. Wild Tanſie, Siluer-weed.

Aigret: m. ette: f. Somewhat tart, ſharpe, or eagre.

Syrop aigret. Syrop of vinegar.

Aigrette. (A foule verie like a Heron, but white;) a criell Heron, or dwarfe Heron; alſo, the hearbe Sorrell.

Aigrettes d' Heron. Heron-tops.

Aigreur: f. Sharpneſſe, tartneſſe, eagreneſſe, ſowerneſſe.

Aigri: m. ie: f. Sharpened; exaſperated, aggrauated, grieued, galled; incenſed, prouoked vnto anger.

Aigrir. To ſharpen, ſower; exaſperate; aggrauate; to grieue, gall, ſtirre vp, or prouoke to anger.

s'Aigrir. To wax eagre; ſharpe, tart; angrie.

Aigriſsant. Gauling, incenſing, exaſperating, aggrauating.

Aigrun. Any thing that increaſes, or exaſperates, a diſeaſe, or ſore.

Perſil aigrun. Great water Parſley; Looke Perſil.

Aiguade: f. A watering, a taking in of freſh water; alſo, a place of watering, for ſhippes.

Aigue: f. Water; alſo, a Mare. ¶Lang.

Aigue-marine. Sea-water-greene colour.

Aigueux: m. euſe: f. Wateriſh; or, full of water.

Aiguier: m. A ſinke, or waſhing ſtone, in a kitchin; or, as Ayguier.

Aiguiere: f. An Ewer, or Lauer.

Aiguillat. as Aguillat.

Aiguille: f. A needle; alſo, a Horne-backe, Piper-fiſh, Gane-fiſh, or Horne-fiſh; alſo, the leſſe of the two leg-bones; alſo, a ſpire ſteeple; or Obeliske.

Aiguilles. Short worms that breed in a Hawke, and bring her, without ſpeedie helpe, vnto her death; ſome call them, Back-wormes.

Aiguille de berger. as Aiguille de paſteur.

Aiguille de chariot; &c. The draught tree of a Chariot, &c.

Aiguille muſquée. Muſked Pinkneedle, muſked Storks-bill, or Cranes-bill; Muſcata.

Aiguille de paſteur. Three ſeuerall hearbs are called ſo; the firſt, our Shepheards needle, wild Cheruill, mocke Cheruill, Ladies combe; the ſecond, Storkes bil, Cranes bill, Hearons bill, Pinkneedle, (whereof there be many kinds;) the laſt, Hearbe Robert, (a ſtinking hearbe.)

De fil en aiguille. Euery iot of it, from point to point, from one end to the other.

Enfiler ſon aiguille. Seeke Enfiler.

Fourni de fil & d'aiguille. Readie for any imployment; alſo, neuer to ſeeke for an anſwer.

On ne cache point aiguilles en ſac: Prov. Looke Sac.

Aiguillé: m. ée: f. Of a needle; full of needles; like a needle; wrought, or pricked, with needles.

Aiguillette: f. A point; Seeke Eſguillette.

Aiguillettes d'armes. The hearbe, or graſſe, called Ladies laces, white Cameleon graſſe, painted, or ſtrowed graſſe.

Aiguilletter. To truſſe, or tye, poynts; alſo, to whip, or laſh, with points.

Aiguillier. A needle caſe.

Aiguillon. Looke Eſguillon.

Aiguillonné: m. ée: f. Pricked, ſtung; ſharp, ſharpened, ſmall-pointed, as a pricke or ſting.

Aiguiſement: m. A whetting, ſharpening, or ſetting of an edge on.

Aiguiſer. as Aguiſer.

Aigument. Sharpely, piercingly; ſubtilely, wittily, quickly.

Ail: m. Garlicke, poore-mans Treacle; Seeke Aulx.

Ail maſle. The whole-headed Garlicke.

Ail d'ours. Ramſons, Ramſies, Bucke rammes, Beares garlicke.

Ail porreau. Great mountaine Garlike.

Ail Sauvage. Wild Garlicke, Crow Garlicke, Hearts Garlicke, Stags Garlicke, Snakes Garlicke.

Ail de Serpent. The ſame.

Il amaſſé la diſme de l'ail. Hee hath beene ſoundly cudgeled; (a Poictevin Prouerbe.)

Aile: f. A wing; alſo, the brimme, or brerewood of a hat.

Les ailes d'un foreſt. The ſides or skirtes of a Forreſt.

Les ailes du nez. The noſe-thrils.

Les ailes de poiſſons. The finnes of fiſhes.

A tire d'aile With force of wing; as faſt as hee can flye.

Batre de l'aile. To ſmell ranke, or ſtrong, eſpecially from the arme-holes.

Il ne bat plus que d'une aile. Hee is become lame, hee is halfe vndone, he hath but one ſtring left to his Bow; alſo, hee is wellnigh dead, or a dying.

Chauſſer les ailes. Il leur chauſſa les ailes aux pieds. Hee gaue wings to their feet; hee made them flye as if fire had beene at their tayles.

Rongner les ailes à. To weaken, pull downe, bring vnder, hold ſhort, keepe low.

Tirer de deſſus l'aile. Cunningly to ſteale, purloin, conuey away a thing that was hid, couered, kept cloſe, or warily looked vnto.

Il en tirera pied, ou aile. See Pied.

Voler de haulte aile. To carrie himſelfe proudly, loftily, ambitiouſly; to beare a high ſayle, to ſtand on high points, to flye a high pitch; to meddle with no meane matters.

Ils veulent voler ſans ailes. They would compaſſe great matters without meanes; alſo, they would be held Maſters before they haue ſerued halfe a Prentiſhip.

Ailé: m. ée: f. Winged; ſwift, flying.

Ailées. bailler les ailées à vn cheval. To giue a horſe the head, that he may run the faſter.

Ailer. To giue wings vnto, or ſet wings vpon.

Ailerette. as Aileron.

Aileron. A little wing; or the end of a wing.

Ailerons grands. as Landies.

Aileron petit. as Nymphe.

Ailerons de poiſſons. The finnes of fiſhes.

Ailes: f. Wings; alſo, as Aiſſelles; The arme-holes; alſo, (in Anotamie) the ſides of a womans priuities.

Ailette: f. A little wing.

Aileures: f. Two beames that runne along the hatches of a Shippe, and with the Trauerſins make a long-ſquare hole, whereat the Ship-boat is let downe into the hold; our Ship-wrights name them, Comings, or Carlings.

Aillade: f. Garlicke ſawce; alſo, the ſmell of Garlick; whence;

Il ſent l'aillade. He ſmells of, or like vnto, Garlicke; he ſmells as if he had eaten Garlicke.

Aillaſſe: f. A great wing.

Ailler: m. A Quaile-net.

Ailleurs. Elſewhere, ſomewhere elſe, otherwhere, in another place, or matter.

Ailloignon: m. Great Garlicke.

Ail-porreau: m. Great mountaine Garlicke.

Aimable. as Amiable; alſo, loueable.

Aimant: m. A louer, a ſeruant, a ſweet-heart; alſo, the Adamant, or Load-ſtone.

Aimant: m. ante: f. Louing, affecting, delighting, pleaſing himſelfe in.

Aimantin: m. ine: f. Adamantine; like an Adamant; ſtrong as the Adamant; Iron-drawing; belonging to the Adamant.

Aimé: m. ée: f. Loued, affected, beloued, well liked; delighted, or pleaſed with.

Ils ont aimé mieux. They had leauer, they choſe rather.

Bien a en ſa maiſon qui de ſes voiſins eſt aimé: Prov. He finds all well within, who is beloued without, doores.

Le dernier venu eſt le mieux aimé: Prov. Hee is beſt thought of that comes laſt; a new friend makes the old forgotten; the laſt Suiter wins the wench.

Aime-bal. Liuely, actiue, daunce-louing.

Aime-carnage. Cruell, butcherly, bloudie minded, well pleaſed with ſlaughters.

Aime-esbats. Gameſome, ſportfull, ſports affecting.

Aime-humains. Gentle, charitable, ſociable, men-affecting, mankind-louing.

Aime-loix. Iuſt, Iuſtice-louing, Lawes-affecting.

Aime-lyre. Muſicall, Harpe-louing, Lyre-affecting.

Aime-maiſtre. Obſequious, dutifull, ſeruiceable.

Aime-mars. Martiall, warlike, warre-affecting.

Aime-noiſe. A brabler, vnquiet fellow, contentious companion, wrangling marchant, brawling make-bate; one that loues to ſee, or ſet, others together by the eares.

Aime-noveauté. Inconſtant, humorous, fantaſticall, new things louing, nouelties affecting.

Aime-paix. Peaceable, mild, quiet, peace-louing, reſt-affecting.

Aime-pleurs. Cruell, pitileſſe; alſo dolefull, teares-louing, much giuen, or affected, vnto weeping.

Aimer. To loue, affect, like well of; to delight, or be pleaſed in.

Et l'aime de vous. And I loue it becauſe it was yours.

Aimer & ſçavoir n'ont meſme manoir: Prov. Loue and knowledge liue not together.

C'eſt trop aimer quand on en meurt: Prov. They loue too much who dye for loue; We ſay, loue me little and loue me long.

Iamais graſſe geline n'aima chapon: Prov. A fat wife neuer loued a faint husband.

Iamais tigneux n'aima le pigne: Prov. Neuer did Scabd iade loue the currycombe; nor a corrupt heart correction.

Les folles femmes n'aiment que pour paſture: Pro. Whoores affect your purſe, not you; or, loue you not if you feed them not.

Le pareſſeux aime bien beſongne faitte: Prov. The ſluggard loues alife things done to his hands.

Onques n'aima bien que pour ſi peu haït: Prov. He neuer loued well, that hated for a triſle.

Onques maſtin n'aima Levrier: Prov. A churle neuer cared for gentleman.

Qui aime Bertrand aime ſon chien: Prov. Loue me loue my dog (ſay we.)

Qui bien aime bien chaſtie: Prov. He throughly puniſhes that loues throughly.

Qui bien aime tard oublie : Prov. Sound loue is not ſoone forgotten.

Qui mieux aime autruy que ſoy, au moulin il meurt de ſoif : Pro. He that loues another better than himſelfe, ſtarues in a Cookes ſhop.

Tel cuide aimer qui muſe : Prov. Some thinke they loue who do but dote; or, ſome, though they thinke they loue, but dreame of loue.

Aime-ſilence. Still, hu∫ht, ſilence-louing, noyſe-hating.

Aime-tout. Moſt kind, moſt louing, moſt charitable, all-affecting; or, none (becauſe all) affecting.

Ain. as Haim.

Ainçois. But, rather; before, ere, or ere.

Aines : f. The grine, or groyne of man or woman.

Ains. *as*Ançois.

Ainſi. So, as, euen ſo, euen as, like as, as it were.

Ainſi comme ainſi. Howſoeuer, though it had not beene ſo; alſo, bee it as it bee will; as well as we may; ſo ſo.

Ainſi que. The whileſt, iuſt when, at the time that; alſo, as much, as well as, like as, euen as.

Par ainſi. Therefore, for this, or for that, cauſe.

On luy dit qu'ainſi fuſt que &c. One told him, that the ſigne or token thereof was, that, &c; or that if it fell out, that, &c.

Ainſin. as Ainſi. ¶ Pariſien.

Ainſné. Looke Aiſné.

Ajoindre. To ioyne, adde, put, or applie vnto.

Ajoint : m. inte f. Adioyned, added, put, applyed vnto.

Adjolié : m. ée : f. Pranked, trickt vp, ſet forth, made fine.

Ajolier. To pranke, tricke vp, ſet out, make fine.

Ajoliver. To be merie, buxome, iolly, iocond; to make much of himſelfe; alſo, to pranke, or tricke vp himſelfe, to put on his holyday face, to ſet the better leg before.

Ajourner. To be neere day, to grow towards day; (vieil mot.)

Ajous : m. Furze, Gorſe.

Air : m. The aire, breath, wind which we ſucke vp; alſo the element ayre; alſo, a ſmall blaſt, breath, or puffe of wind; aire; alſo, a tune, ſownd, or ayre in Muſick; alſo, the forme, or ſpecies of a thing; alſo, the fauour, grace, good opinion of men; alſo, the aſpect, preſence, apparance of man; alſo, a good grace, handſomeneſſe, or becomming of what one does; (Il danſe d'un bel air :) In horſemanſhip, a doing, or ſtirring manage, or manage raiſed aboue ground.

L'air de l'oratoire; l'air de uos lettres. The neatneſſe, aptneſſe, delicacie, decorum, pleaſantneſſe thereof.

à demy air. A certaine curuet, or manage, wherin the halfe of a horſe is in the aire, the other on the ground.

Il donna air à ſes entrepriſes. He publiſhed, reueauealed, divulged them, gaue a paſſage or vent vnto them.

Aïr : m. Anger (a word of two ſillables.)

Airaigne : f. A Spider, or Spinner; alſo, a net of wire ſet before, and on the out-ſide of, the glaſſe windowes of Churches, &c.

Airaigneux. Looke Araigneux.

Airain. Braſſe; Looke Arain.

Aire : m. An ayrie, or neſt of Haukes.

De bon aire. Gentle, mild, courteous, debonaire, without gall, that beares no man any malice.

Aire : f. A flat, euen, leuell, peece or plot of ground; (hence) alſo, the floore of a houſe, or barne; alſo, the whole ſuperficies, or ſuperficiall compaſſe, of a plot, or floore; alſo, a bed, plat, or quarter, in a garden; alſo, as Heulet; alſo, the halfe-pace, or landing place of a halfe-pace ſtaire.

Aire des poils. The griſtlie brimme, or edge of the eye-browes.

Aire de vent. An oppoſition of winds, as of the South to the North, &c; a guſh of contrarie winds, at ſea.

Couppé à tire & à aire. Cut cloſe by the ground, or cleane away; and (in the ſale of vnderwoods) cut cloſe by the ſtocke, or wholly away from it.

Airé : m. ée : f. Angrie, chollericke, in a chafe.

Aireau : m. A Plough.

Airée : f. A floore-full, or bed-full of.

Airelles : f. Whurtle berries, or winberries.

Airer. To ayrie; to make a neſt, or ayrie.

Airer. To chafe, or be angrie.

Aireſte. as Areſte.

Airin : m. ine : f. Ayrie; full of ayre; abounding with ayre.

Airon. A Herne, or Heron : ¶ Savoyard.

Airure : f. The earing, or plowing of land.

Ais : m. A planke, or boord.

Compter les aix & ſoliueaux. To trifle out the time, or looſe it altogether.

Aiſance : f. Eaſe, facilitie, readineſſe, eaſineſſe; conueniencie, opportunitie, commoditie; alſo, an eaſe, or eaſefull thing.

Aiſances. (In the Plurall number) A Priuie, or houſe of office.

Aiſceau : m. A Chip-axe, or one-handed plane-axe, wherewith Carpenters hew their timber ſmooth.

Aiſcellaire. as Axillaire.

Aiſcette : f. A little planing axe.

Aiſe : m. Eaſe, leaſure; facilitie; commoditie; delight, pleaſure, full content.

L'on endure tout fors que trop d'aiſe : Prov. Wee ſay, all things may be ſuffered ſauing wealth.

Qui à aiſe tend, aiſe luy faut : Prov. Hee that ſtudies his contentment ouermuch, euer wants it.

Aiſé : m. aiſée : f. eaſie, eaſefull; gentle, facile; free; ſoft; pliant; pleaſant; delightfull; alſo, rich; whence;

Aiſe en ſon meſnage. Of good eſtate, well lined, well to liue; well furniſhed with all houſhold prouiſion.

Choſe aiſée croyable : Prov. Ordinarie things are eaſily beleeued.

Aiſe : com. Cheerefull, glad; contented, in fulneſſe of delight, with great ſatisfaction, at much eaſe; whence;

Ils eſtoyent à table aiſes comme Peres. (A phraſe, whoſe Author hy Peres meant Abbey-lubbers.)

Ils repaiſſent aiſes comme à nopçes. They feed as freely (or cheerefully) as if they were at a wedding.

Chaſcun n'eſt pas aiſe qui danſe : Prov. Euerie one is not merie that dances (viz. that ſeemes merie)

Il n'eſt pas aiſe qui eſt courroucé : Prov. Anger, and hearts-caſe, are vtter enemies.

Il n'eſt vie que d'eſtre bien aiſe : Prov. Hee onely liues that liues contented; or, a lif's no life, without ſtore of contentments.

Aiſéement. Eaſily, lightly, expediently, with facilitie.

Aiſement. The ſame.

Aiſements. as Aiſances.

Aiſer. To be lazie, eaſefull, ſenſuall; to take eaſe, to loue, or liue at, eaſe.

Aiſle. Seeke Aile.

Aiſler. Seeke Ailer.
Aiſleron. Looke Aileron.
Aiſné. Eldeſt, firſt-borne.
Charge, debte, rente &c, aiſnée. The moſt auntient, formoſt, or firſt in date. ¶Normand.
Aiſneage : m. Elderſhip.
Droict d'aiſneage. as Droict d'aiſneſſe.
Aiſneſſe : f. Elderſhip, eldeſtſhip, the being eldeſt, or firſt borne.
Droict d'aiſneſſe. The right, and prerogatiue of the eldeſt child; the portion due, by prime birth, vnto him; which is, the principall houſe, and garden, with the incloſure thereof; and if there be no garden, the Arpent of ground lying next vnto the houſe, or, as farre as a Capon can flye from it; In the reſt he hath but an equall ſhare with the younger: This is his due in many parts, and places of Fraunce; in ſome others they deale otherwiſe, and ſeuerally, according to their ſeuerall cuſtomes.
Aiſſade : f. An inſtrument wherewith Gardeners open, or breake vp, the ground.
Aiſſeau. as Aiſſeul; Alſo, the verie middle, or centre of a pillar from the top to the bottome thereof.
Aiſſeliere. The veine which paſſeth along the arme-hole.
Aiſſellaire. as Aiſſeliere.
Aiſſelle : f. An arme-hole; alſo, a little planke, boord, or ſhingle of wood.
Aiſſeul : m. An axletree; alſo, one of the poles whereon (ſome ſay) the world is turned.
Aiſſi. as Aiſſil.
Aiſſieu : m. An axletree, &c. as Aiſſeul.
Aiſſil : m. A ſingle, or ſhingle of wood, ſuch as houſes are, in ſome places, couered withall.
Aiſtres. as Agiers.
Aitiologie : f. A yeelding, or ſhewing, of a reaſon, or cauſe.
Ajuſté : m. ée : f. Adiuſted; Looke Adjuſté.
Ajuſter. To adiuſt; Looke Adjuſter.
Alabandique. pierre Alabandique. A kind of black ſtone, mingled with purple.
Alachi : m. ie : f. Slackened; hung flagging; fallen downe by weakeneſſe out of it right place; decayed, quailed, faded, failed, growne feeble, or looſe.
Alachir. To ſlacken; to hang flagging downeward; to ſlip, or fall downe, by weakeneſſe, out of it place; to quaile, fade, fayle, decay in ſtrength; growe looſe, feeble, weake.
Alachiſſement : m. A ſlackening; a looſeneſſe, or ſlackneſſe; a quailing, a growing looſe, or feeble; a flagging, or falling downe, through feebleneſſe; a decaying, fading, or fayling in vigor, ſtrength, force.
Alaigre : com. Cheerefull, blithe, iolly, merie, ioyfull, glad, buxome, iocond; alſo, nimble, actiue, luſtie.
Alaigre comme vn papillon. As merie as a cricket (ſay we.)
Alaigrement. Cheerefully, iocondly, blithely, gladly, ioyfully; alſo, luſtily, nimbly, actiuely.
Alaigreſſe : f. Alacritie, cheerefulneſſe, mirth, or merineſſe, iocondneſſe, or ioyfulneſſe of heart; luſtineſſe, nimbleneſſe,
Alaigreté. as Alaigreſſe; alſo, nimbleneſſe, actiuitie, readineſſe, prompteneſſe.
Alaine. as Haleine; Breath, or breathing.
De ſon alaine. Of his faction, or ſide; that is of his owne humour, or applies himſelfe to it; a bird of his owne feather.
Alainer la langue. To hold out the tongue, as a bird, or beaſt, that in extremitie of heat breathes for ayre.
Alaire. Seeke Allaire.
Alaitté. as Allaicté.
Alambic. as Alembic; A Limbeck, or ſtillitorie.
Alambiqué. Extracted, diſtilled, drawne out; alſo, worne, waſted, conſumed.
Alambiquer. To extract, diſtill, draw out.
s'Alambiquer. To conſume, waſt, pine, weare away.
Alampers. A kind of Peach.
Alan. Seeke Allan.
Alandäal. trociſque al. A Trociske made of Coloquintida.
Alangouri : m. ie : f. Languiſhing, fainting, feeble; wearie; lazie, ſluggiſh, lither; alſo, languiſhed, fainted, infeebled; wearied.
s'Alangourir. To languiſh, faint, grow feeble, or wearie, faile in ſtrength, decay in vigour; alſo, to grow lazie, ſluggiſh, lither, idle.
Alantir. as Allentir.
Alarme : m. An Alarum.
Alaterne : m. Fruitleſſe, or barren Priuet.
Albacore. A certaine fiſh in the Indian ſea, which is verie good meat.
Albanois. An Albanian, an inhabitant of Albania; alſo, a light horſeman wearing a high-crowned hat; or (more particularly) the Albanian light horſe, imployed by Popes in their ordinarie garriſons.
Albanois : m. oiſe : f. Albanian; of Albania; belonging, or like, vnto an Albanian; and hence;
Chapeau fait à l'Albanoiſe. An hat with a crowne like a ſugarlofe; an high-crowned hat.
Albaſſan : m. A kind of white and hard ſtone, whereof lime may be made.
Albaſtre. Alleblaſter.
Albaſtrin. White as Alleblaſter; like Alleblaſter; of Alleblaſter.
Albazzan. as Albaſſan.
Albe. as Able.
Albereau : m. A verie hard white free-ſtone, that reſembles th' Albaſſan.
Albergame. The amorous apple, apple of loue, golden apple.
Albergation. A kind of alienation in fee farme, and for a fine, or income.
Alberge. A kind of ſmall Peach.
Alberger : m. A kind of ſmall Peach tree.
Alberger. To alien in fee farme; (as before in Albergation.
Albette. as Ablette. ¶Rab.
Albrenner. To hunt the yong wild Ducke, or the old one when ſhe mootes; to go a ducking.
Albrent : m. A young wild Ducke; alſo, (a mooter, or moulter,) the old one when ſhee mootes, or hath caſt her feathers; alſo, a Pochard; or, as Sarcelle.
Albugine : f. An extraordinarie, or vicious whiteneſſe in the eye; a whitiſh filme in, or ouer an eye.
Albugineux : m. euſe : f. Whitiſh, or reſembling the white of an egge.
Alcali. Sel Alcali. Looke Sel.
Alcange. The hearbe Alcakengie, or Winter Cherrie.
Alcharacte. A Scorpion. ¶Rab.
Alchechange, or Alchequange. Alkakengie, red Nightſhade, Winter Cherries.
Alchermes. A graine wherewith Crimzons are dyed; or, as Alkermes.
Alchimille : f. Lions foot, Ladies mantle, great Sanicle (an hearbe.)
Alcibienne : f. Vipers hearbe, Vipers Buglaſſe, Snakes

buglaſſe, the leſſe wild buglaſſe.

Alcofribas. A greedie glutton; a great deuourer.

Alcoran: m. Mahomets Alcoran; (The word ſignifies a true Law; and is therefore moſt vnfit for that moſt falſe one.)

Alcret: m. as Halecret.

Alebaſtre. Alleblaſter.

Alebaſtrin. Of Alleblaſter; white as, like or belonging to, Alleblaſter.

Alebrenne. A Salamander.

Alebromantie. Diuination by barley meale mixed with wheat.

Alectoire. The Cocke ſtone; a Chriſtall coloured ſtone (as big as a beane) found in the gyzerne, or maw of ſome Cockes.

Alectorophoneme. The ſong, or crowing of a Cocke.

Alectryomantie: f. Diuination by a Cocke; or by the Cocke ſtone.

Alegerir. To lighten, or make light.

Alegerir vn cheval à la main. To bring, or cauſe a horſe to be light borne.

Aleine. as Haleine.

Aleiner. Seeke Halener.

Alemán: m. An Almaine, German, High-Dutchman; alſo, the Almaine, or German language.

Peigne d'Aleman. The hand; or foure fingers and a thumbe.

Querelle d'Aleman. A quarell, or brable, entred into vpon a ſleight, or drunken, occaſion.

Theriaque des Alemans. The iuyce of Ginepar berries, extracted according to art; called ſo, both becauſe it is good againſt poiſon, & becauſe the Germans haue vſed to take it much.

Il n'en entend que le haut Aleman. Tis Greek vnto him; he vnderſtands no part of it; hee is neuer a whit the wiſer by it.

Alembic: m. A Limbeck, or Stillitorie.

Alembiqué: m. ée: f. Diſtilled, or extracted, by Limbecke, &c; Seeke Alambiqué.

Alembiquer. To extract, or diſtill by Limbecke; or as Alambiquer.

Alemelle d'eſpée. as Alumelle.

Alenois. Creſſon Alenois. Kers, garden Creſſes, town Kars, towne Creſſes.

Alenti: m. ie: f. Slackened; looſened; ſoftened; allayed, appeaſed; growne remiſſe; not ſo haſtie, or violent as it was; alſo, weakened, enfeebled.

Alentir. To ſlacken, looſen; ſoften; be allayed, or appeaſed; wax tractable; grow remiſſe; or not ſo haſtie, hard, nor violent as it was; alſo, to be weakened, or infeebled.

Alentiſſement: m. A ſlackening; looſening, ſoftening; allaying, appeaſing; a weakening, enfeebling.

Aleron. A little wing; alſo, a twig, ſprig, or ſmal branch.

Aleſne: f. An awle; or (Shoomakers) bodkin; alſo a ſpotted, and long ſnowted Ray, or Thornebacke, tearmed by ſome, the ſharpe-ſnowted Ray.

Aleſnes. Cockle, Corne-roſe, field Nigella, wild Nigella.

Aleu: m. Libertie, freedome, franchiſe, immunitie; alſo free tenure which holds of no man, and for which no ſeruice, nor fine is due to any; (it hath commonly the addition of, franc; and franc-aleu is alſo, a free ſubiect, or tenant.)

Franc aleu noble. High iuriſdiction, and Seigniorie, held without homage, fealtie, fine, or ſeruice.

Franc aleu roturier. A tenure without iuriſdiction (whereunto it is ſubiect) but otherwiſe (as the other) exempted from all ſeruices, rents, fines, &c.

Aleve. The wild Pine tree; ſo called in Dauphinois.

Aleuf. as Aleu.

Alexandre. Alexander; a proper name; alſo, the hearb great Parſley, Alexanders, or Aliſaunders.

Pied d'Alexandre. The hearbe Bartrane, Bertrain, Pellitorie of Spaine.

Alexandrin. A verſe of 12, or 13 ſillables.

Alexandrin: m. ine: f. Of Alexandria, or belonging to Alexander.

Perſil Alexandrin. The hearbe Alexanders.

Alexitere. A preſeruation againſt poyſon.

Alezan. A ſorrell horſe; or the ſorrell colour of horſes.

Alezan touſtade. A darke reddiſh colour, as of mettall burnt in the fire; a burnt ſorrell.

Algame. Mixtion of gold, and quickſiluer.

Algarade: f. An vnexpected incurſion, aſſault, or brauadoe of horſemen, ſeamen, or other ſouldiours againſt their enemies; any ſwaggering and ſudden floriſh, rauage, tumult, vprore.

Algarie: f. A kind of inſtrument wherewith Chirurgians prouoke vrine; ſome tearme it, a Catheter.

Alge: f. Sea-weed, ſea-graſſe, Reets; a kind of wrinckled, and broad leaued weed, that grows on rocks in the ſea.

Algebre: f. The art of Equation; or of figuratiue numbers; an Art conſiſting both of Arithmetick and Geometrie; alſo, a breach, fracture, diuiſion, ſolution of continuitie, eſpecially in bones.

Algiſié. The Lote, or Nettle tree.

Algoriſme: m. The Art, or vſe of Cyphers, or of numbring by Cyphers; Arithmetick, or a curious kind therof.

Fol d'Algoriſme. A foole by figure, an Aſſe in grain.

Algouſant: m. A Lieutenant.

Alhatrat (In Rabelais, is Auicennaes Alhatraf) a Dragon, or Serpent, whoſe biting wounds, but impoiſons not.

Alhidade. as Alidade.

Aliage: m. The ſtiffening, allaying, or imbacing of gold, or ſiluer, by mingling them with other mettals.

Aliayre. The hearbe, called Iack of the hedge; Looke Alliaire.

Alibi. The being in another place then was obiected.

Alleguer ſon alibi. A priſoner to alledge for his iuſtification his being elſwhere when the fact was committed.

Alibi-forains. Crafty ſhifts, cunning euaſions, or appeals, vſed for the auoiding of an accuſation, or delaying of an action.

Alibis forains. (Rab. All the corners.

Aliboron. A Polypragmon, medler; buſie-bodie; one that hath his hand in euery diſh, an oare in euery boat; alſo, one that pretends skill in all things, and indeed knowes nothing.

Alicacubut. The hearbe Alkakengie, or winter cherrie.

Alican. Boſſu alican. Looke Boſſu.

Alicté. In bed, layed a bed; bedred.

Alicteiment. A lying ſicke in bed; a lying bedred.

s'Alicter. A ſicke man to get himſelfe to bed; or to lye ſicke in bed; or to lye bedred.

Alidade d'un Aſtrolabe. Th'Alhidada of an Aſtrolabe; the rule which turneth on the backe thereof.

Alié: m. ée: f. Allayed, or ſtiffened, as gold, or ſiluer, by other mettals.

Alienation: f. An alienation; a ſelling, putting, or making away of; alſo, an eſtranging, turning, or withdrawing from.

Aliené: m. ée: f. Aliened; alienated, altered; ſold, or made away; eſtranged, or withdrawne from.

Aliené de ſon entendement. Diſtraught, frantick, ſick-braind, out of his little wits.

Alíener. To alien; alienate; alter; to ſel, put, paſſe, or make away; away; also, to estrange, turne, draw, or withdraw from.

Alier tremaillé. A Trammell net, or double net.

Alier. To allay; to stiffen, or imbase gold, &c, by mingling it with other mettals. Looke Allier.

Aligné: m. ée: f. Made straight, as a line; set in a iust, and direct file, or line; drawne, or squared out by line, and leuell.

Homme bien aligné. Well featured, well shapen, well proportioned, as straight as a line.

Alignement: m. A card, a draught, or thing drawne by line and leuell; also, a peece of ground in a street, or by the side of a high way, let by a lord vnto his tenant, (to be inclosed, or built on) by line and measure, to the end that the publique may not be incroached on; also, a making straight as a line; a setting in a iust line; a drawing, or squaring out by line, and leuell; also, the ligning of a bitch, &c.

Aligner. To make straight as a line; place in direct file, set in a iust line; draw or square out by line and leuell; also, to ligne, as a dog, or the dog wolfe, a bitch; also, to ioyne, or couple one plant vnto another, by graffing, &c.

Aliment: m. Food, sustenance, nourishment.

Alimenté. Fed, nourished, sustained, fostered, dietted, cherished.

Alimenter. To feed, nourish, diet, sustaine, foster, cherish.

Alimenteux: m. euse: f. Much feeding, very nourishing, full of nourishment.

Alimonner. To put into, or fasten vnto, the thill of a cart, &c.

Alipte: m. He that, in old time, annoynted wrastlers before they exercised.

Aliqualement. Indifferently, after a sort, so so.

Alis: m. ise: f. Solide, compacted, hard wrought, close layed together; in which there appeare no maner of holes, or pores.

Alise: f. The (sweet and wholsome) fruit, or berrie of the Lote tree; also as Alize.

Alisier: m. The Lote, or Nettle tree.

Alisier gris. The gray Lote.

Alisier rouge. The red Lote; both (and all the kindes thereof) strangers in England.

Aliter. as Alicter.

Alize. Any solide, well compacted, or close wrought thing.

Alkali. A medicinable salt made of the ashes of diuers sorts of hearbes, but most especially of Glassewort. Looke Sel.

Alkatim. The most eminent part of the buttockes. ¶Rab.

Alkerenge. The hearbe Nightshade, or Alkakengie.

Alkermes. A confection made of the decoction, and infusion of silke into the iuice of the graine chermes; (a soueraigne remedie for all swoundings.

Allagant. Washing, watering.

Allaicté: m. ée: f. Suckled; fed with milke.

Allaictement: m. A giuing of sucke, or milke vnto.

Allaicter. To sucke; to giue sucke, or milke vnto.

Allaire. A little walk, or alley, in a wood; or, a tree growing therein.

Allaimbre. Copper. (In Spanish.)

Allan: m. A kind of big, strong, thicke headed, and short snowted dog; the brood whereof came first out of Albania, (old Epirus.)

Allan de boucherie. Is like our Mastiue, and serues Butchers, to bring in fierce oxen, and to keepe their stalls.

Allan gentil. Is like a Grayhound in all properties, and parts, his thicke and short head excepted.

Allan vautre. A great, & ougly curre of that kind (hauing a big head, hanging lips, and slowching eares) kept onely to bait the Beare, and wild Boare.

Allanguir. To make languish, pine, or wast away.

Allant: m. A goer, a gadder; also, a subtile, craftie, wilie; or, a cousening, deceitfull, cheating, fellow.

Allant: m. ante: f. Going, walking, wending, pacing, marching, trauelling, iourneying; proceeding, departing.

Allantoïde. Membrane al. Looke Membrane.

Allarme: m. An alarum.

Allarmé: m. ée: f. Roused, or affrighted, by an Alarum.

Allarmer. To giue an Alarum vnto; also, to rouse, prepare, or affright, by Alarums.

s'Alaschir. as s'Alachir.

Allayé: m. ée: f. Allayed; stiffened, or imbased, as gold, or siluer (coyne) by the mixture of other mettals.

Or allayé au blanc, ou sur le blanc. Gold allayed with siluer.

Or allayé au rouge, ou sur le rouge. Gold allayed with copper.

Allayer. To allay, or mix gold, or siluer with baser mettals.

Alle: f. (The old drinke of England) Ale. Seeke Alles.

Allé: m. ée: f. Gone, walked, went, iourneyed, departed.

C'est bien allé. Matters are in good tearmes; the businesse goes well forward, goes well on.

Alleage: m. as Aliage.

Alleboteur: m. A grape gleaner.

Allebouter. To rake, gather, or gleane after; Looke Halleboter.

Allebrent. as Albrent.

Allechant. Baiting, alluring, tempting, inueagling, inticing.

Allecher. Looke Allicher.

Allecter. To wamble, as a queasie stomacke doth.

Allée: f. A going, walking, wending, pacing; a gate, walke, iourney, march, pace; also, an alley, gallerie; walke, walking place, path, or passage.

Il eut l'allée pour le venir. Hee got his trauell for his paines; he might euen as well haue stayed.

Allegation: f. An allegation, alleadgement, alleadging.

Allege: m. An ease, lightning, disburdenment, easement, helpe towards the bearing of a burthen; a refreshment; assuagement; comfort, solace; any thing that lightens, or lessens a charge, care, griefe, or mischiefe.

Allege: f. A lyter (boat.)

Allegé: m. ée: f. disburdened, lightened, eased; helped; refreshed; assuaged; mitigated; solaced; also, lessened, diminished, extenuated.

Allegeance. as Allege.

Allegement: m. A lightning, disburdening, easing; a lifting vp, or helping to beare, a thing that lyes heauie on; a refreshing; assuaging; mitigating; allaying; solacing; also, a lessening, or impayring of.

Alleger. To lighten, disburden; ease, or discharge, of part of a burthen; to lift vp, or helpe to beare, a loade; to refresh, assuage, mitigate, allay; solace; also, to lessen, diminish, extenuate.

Allegorie: f. An Allegorie.

Allegorique: com. Allegoricall.

Allegoriser. To allegorize it; To vse Allegories.

Allegué : m. ée : f. Alleadged ; produced, vttered, brought forth.

Alleguer. To alleadge ; to vrge, or produce reaſons, arguments, euidence, or authoritie for the proofe of.

Alleinée : f. A breath, ayre, puffe ; a breathing, or puffing.

Allelyon : m. A little ſpread Eagle, or other bird, in blazon, wanting beake, feet, and legs.

Alleman. Looke Aleman.

Allenée. as Alleinée.

Allentir. as Alentir.

Aller. To goe, walke, wend, march, pace, tread ; proceed, iourney, trauell, depart.

Aller par ambages, ou en ambagoye. To vſe many circumſtances, to goe about the buſh.

Aller en appoinctant. as Aller en poincte.

Aller à S. Bezet. To reſt in no place ; continually to trot, gad, wander vp and downe.

Aller au change. Looke Change.

Aller de cholere contre quelqu'un. To raile vpon, inueigh againſt.

Aller au deuant de. To preuent ; meet ; preſent himſelfe before.

Aller au deuant par derriere. To take a wrong, to go a contrarie, courſe.

Aller à l'encontre. To reſiſt, withſtand, repugne ; alſo, to meet.

Aller à l'entour du pot. To vſe idle circumſtances, needleſſe ceremonies ; we ſay, to go about the buſh.

Aller eſchais. To ſhale, to ſtraddle.

Aller par eſcuelles. tout y va par eſcuelles. There is cheere in bowles ; or, the houſe is throwne out at the windowes.

Aller d'une feſſe. Il n'y va que d'une feſſe. Hee workes by halues ; he goes but ſlackly, or vnwillingly, to worke.

Aller de guet à ſes affaires. To go ſlowly, or ſleepily about his buſineſſe.

Aller long. To haue a ſquirt, to ſquatter out behind.

Au long aller. At length ; in continuance, or proceſſe of time, after much ado.

Aller aux meures ſans crochet. Looke Meure.

Aller du pair auec. To goe cheeke by iowle with ; to equall, match, keepe play, hold tacke, with.

Aller & parler. Il ſçait aller, & parler. He is an induſtrious, diſcreet, well-behaued perſon ; he knowes when to ſpeake, how to carrie himſelfe ; any imployment fits, any faſhion becomes, him.

Aller le pas. To pace it, or goe a foot-pace.

Aller à pas menu. To tread gingerly, to mince it like a maid.

Aller de l'un pied ſur l'autre. To affect, or mince it, in gate, pace, or treading.

Aller du pied comme vn chat maigre. To be ſwift, or light, afoot ; alſo, to tread ſoftly, or gingerly.

Aller en poincte. To grow leſſe and leſſe ; to leſſen towards the top, as a ſpire, Pyramides &c.

Aller quant & quant quelqu'un. To hold equall pace ; or, go cheeke by iowle, with.

Aller à la raiſon. To incline vnto reaſon, to ſpeake ſomewhat reaſonably.

Aller à la rengette. pour ſe laiſſer al. For running riot, flying out ; for giuing her luſtfull appetite more ſcope than became her ; for playing a whooriſh tricke or two.

Aller aux requeſtes. Looke Requeſte.

Aller en rond. To turne round, or wheele about ; alſo, to be of a round forme.

Aller au ſaffran. To fall to decay, to grow bankrupt in eſtate, to go downe the weather.

Aller de plus grande ſinglée. A Shippe to make the greater way, or to beare the more ſayles, for ſpeed.

Aller touſjours ſon train. To keep alwayes one place ; to hold on the old courſe ſtill.

Aller à travers champs. To wander ; to goe roaming out of the high, out of the road, out of the right, way.

Aller à la veuë. To goe lodge a Bucke, or harbour a Stagge ; (mornings worke for woodmen.)

Au fort, ou, au pis aller. At worſt, if the worſt fall out, and the worſt come to the worſt.

Au long aller. Seeke Aller long.

Au mieulx aller. Howſoeuer, whatſoeuer fall out ; or, at the beſt, although the beſt befall.

Au par aller. At the length.

S'en aller. To depart, flit, auoid, be gone ; alſo, as Aller.

S'en aller au haut & au long. To runne his Countrey.

S'en aller à la mouſtarde. Tout le monde s'en va à la mouſtarde. Tis common vulgar, diuulged all the world ouer ; (of a booke) waſt paper is made of it, muſtard pots are ſtopped with it, (ſo much the world eſteemes it.)

S'en aller de paire. Ie m'en uay de paire. I will be vnlaid againe.

S'en aller à vn. To agree, conſent, accord ; to come all to one.

On s'en peut bien aller. You may be gone, you may depart when you will ; you may goe ſhake your eares ; the matter is diſpatched, our buſineſſe at an end, here is no more to be done.

Il m'y va de. It touches, or concernes ; it depends vpon, my.

Aller & parler peut on, boire & manger non: Pro. One may viſit a friend ſometimes, but muſt not if hee looke to bee welcome (another time) ſtay long with him.

Aller & venir font le chemin peler: Pro. Much trauelling makes bad wayes.

C'eſt grand peine d'aller à cheval, & vne mort d'aller à pied : Prov. Tis a great trouble to ride, and a death to foot it. (Some lazie fellow, belike, inuented this prouerbe.)

Va ou tu peux, meurs ou tu dois : Pro. Trauel whither thou canſt, but dye where thou oughteſt ; ſee as many countries as thou wilt, ſo thou dye in thine owne.

Ainſi va qui mieux ne peut : Prov. He poorely goes that cannot richly goe ; hee barely liues that cannot brauely liue ; euen ſo goes he that cannot better goe.

Il ne va pas du tout à honte qui de demie voye retourne : Prov. He neuer goes through for ſhame, that turned backe when he was halfeway.

Qui va il leſche, qui repoſe il ſeiche: Prov. He that beſtirres him gets ſomewhat, whereas he that lyes ſtill doth ſtarue.

Qui n'y va n'y chet : Prov. He incurres no daunger that comes not where tis ; come not among blows, your ſkin will be whole ynough.

Qui par tout va par tout prend: Prov. He that goes far gaines much.

Alleran. as Alezan.

Allerion. as Allelyon.

Alles. Ils eurent alles. They had a reputation ; or, they paſſed passed currantly.

Alleud: m. Free hold, free tenure; as Aleu; also, inheritance that comes freely, and by discent, not by purchace; and which one leaues, or may leaue, vnto his heire.

Alleuf. as Aleu; ¶Poicteuin.

Alleure: f. as Allure.

Alleut. A free hold, or free tenure; or, as Alleud.

Alleutier. A free holder, or, free tenant.

Alleyer. A Marchant to declare (vpon his oath) vnto a Toll-gatherer, through whose libertie he passes, what, & how much, ware, and chaffer he caries along with him. ¶Gasc.

Alliage: m. as Aliage.

Alliaire. Sauce alone, Iacke of the hedge; (an hearbe.)

Alliance: f. Alliance; confederation, fellowship, combination; agreement, consent; a league of friendship.

Alliances. Gimmoules, or Gimmoule-rings.

Alliance Theutonique. The Companie, or Corporation of Marchants of the Hanse.

Alliché: m. ée: f. Allured, inueagled, inticed, tempted, drawne, tolled, or brought on by flattering, and faire meanes.

Allichement: m. An allurement, inueaglement, intice-ment, bait; a temptation, or flatterie; or, an alluring, inticing, inueagling, tempting, drawing on by flattering meanes.

Allicher. To allure, inueagle, intice, tempt, toll, draw on, bring vnto, by flatterie, or faire meanes.

Allichoir. as Allichement; (in the first sence.)

Allidade. as Alidade.

Allie: m. An allie, kinsman; confederate; a companion, mate, associate; also, an accessarie, or fellow in an offence.

Allié: m. ée: f. Allied; confederate with; ioyned, coupled, knit, neere vnto in fellowship, and friendship; also, accessarie, or, as farre in as another; also, allayed, or stiffened; as gold, &c.

Allier. To allie, ioyne, knit, couple in fellowship, and friendship; to associate, accord, confederate together; also, as Alier; to stiffen, or mingle gold, or siluer with other mettals.

Allignée: f. A Vine tyed to, or coupled with, an Elme tree, braunch, or stake.

Allignement. as Alignement.

Alligner. as Aligner.

Allitti: m. ie: f. Bedred; or, layd sicke in bed.

Allochons d'un rouët. The teeth, or toothing, of a wheele, in a clocke, &c.

Allode: f. Free possession, free tenure; or, as Alleud.

Allodiale terres allodiales. Free lands, for which no rents, fines, nor seruices are due; of whose soyle there is no lord; which are held immediatly from God; (yet are they (vnlesse they be noble) subiect vnto iurisdiction.)

Alloigné: m. ée: f. Driuen, chased; gone, got, farre from, or farre before.

Alloigner. To chase, or driue farre from, or before.

s'alloigner de sa maison. To abandon, or get far from his house.

Allonge. as Alongement.

Allongement; &, Allonger; as Alongement, & Alonger.

Allotement: m. A parting, diuiding; an allotting, or laying out, vnto euery one his part.

Allotir. To diuide, or part; to allot, or lay out, vnto euery one his part.

Allou. as, Allodial; ¶Namur.

Alloué. as Alleut; also, a Seneschals Lieutenant.

Allouër. To allow, aduow, approue, like well of.

Allouette. Seeke, Alouette.

Allouvi: m. ie: f. As hungrie as a Wolfe; also, fleshed, or, cruell, as a Wolfe.

Alloyandier. ¶Rab. A roster of short ribbes of beefe; seeke Aloyau.

Alloyé: m. ée: f. Seeke Allayé.

Allumé: m. ée: f. Lighted, kindled, set on fire, or on a flame.

Allumelle. Seeke Alumelle.

Allumement: m. A lighting, a kindling, inflaming, a setting on a flame.

Allumer. To lighten, kindle, set on a fire, or on a flame.

Vieilles amours, & vieux tisons s'allument en toutes saisons: Prov. Old loue and brands are kindled in all seasons.

Allume-sang. Bloud-inflaming.

Allumetier: m. A maker, or seller, of matches for tinder-boxes.

Allumettes: f. Matches for tinder-boxes.

Allumeur: m. A kindler, inflamer, or setter on fire.

Allure: f. A gate, pace, traine, treading, or going.

D'une allure. At once; at one, or of equall, length, or motion; also, with one continued gate, motion; breath, or length.

Allusion: f. An allusion, or likening; an alluding, or applying of one thing vnto another.

Alluvion: f. A still increase, rising, or swelling of waters, which in time, and by degrees, growes to a deluge, or inundation.

Alluz. All-out; or, a carouse fully drunke vp.

Almadie: f. as Almande; A kind of boat.

Almanach: m. An Almanacke, or Prognostication.

petits Almanacs. The flowers called Pinks.

Almande: f. An Amande; Also, a little, narrow, and long boat, made of the barke of a tree; and in vse among the sauages of Africke, and India.

Almandine: f. A certaine stone like a Rubie; or a Rubie of the coursest; (for it is much browner in the eye, and rougher in handling, then the best.)

Alme: com. Faire, beautifull, cleere; calme; gracious, propitious; nourishing.

Alme-beau. Goodly, gracious; most cleere, most beautifull, fairely-propitious.

Almicantarat. as Almucantarath. ¶Rab.

Almoire. An ambrie; cup-boord; box. Looke Armoire.

Almucantaraths. Are, in an Astrolabe, certaine circles denoting the heights that be aboue our Hemisphere.

Alocation. An allocation, placing; fitting with, setting in, a place.

Alo; & Alod; as Aleu; ¶Lang.

Alode. Free possession, free tenure.

Alodial. as Allodial.

Aloë: m. as Aloës.

Aloë: f. A Larke.

Aloës: m. The hearbe Aloes, sea houseleeke, sea aigreene; also, the bitter iuice thereof congealed, and vsed in Purgations.

Aloës Cicotrin. The best, most liuer-coloured, most cleere, and most transparent kind of Aloes; called so, of th'Island Succotora, whence it comes.

Aloës hepatique. Looke, Hepatique.

Aloës de vessie: as Aloës Cicotrin; Tearmed so, because it is ordinarily kept in bladders.

Bois d'aloës. The sweet, and precious wood called, Lignum Aloës.

Alogique: com. Vnreasonable, imprudent, inconsiderat.

Aloine. as Alvine.

Alonge: m. as Alongement.

des alonges. Haukes Lunes.

Alongé: m. ée: f. Lengthened; extended, wire-drawn; prolonged, delayed, driuen off.

Alongeail: m. as Alongement.

Alongement: m. A lengthning, drawing out in length, extenſion, prolonging, delaying, driuing off.

Alonger. To lengthen, draw out in length; extend, wire-draw, prolong, proroge, deferre, delay, driue off.

Alonger la courroye. To lengthen out a matter, to prolong a ſuit.

Alonger les eſtriers. Looke Eſtrier.

Alonger les ss. To play falſe in accompts; as, to ſet downe an f (which ſtands for a franc*) in ſtead of an ſ, which ſtands but for a* ſol.

Alongiſſement. as Alongement.

Alopecie. The foxes euill; a diſeaſe cauſing the haire of the head, or beard to fall of.

Alors. adverb. Then; at that time.

Aloſe: f. A Shad (fiſh.)

Aloſer. To colour, or cloake a matter.

Aloud. franc al. as Aleu. ¶Bourgongnois.

Alouër. as Allouër; Alſo to let out to hire; alſo, to appoint, or ſet downe a proportion for expence, or for any other imployment.

Alouette. A Larke.

Alouette de la gorge. The flap that couers the top of the wind-pipe.

Alouette huppée. as Cocheuis.

Alouette de mer. The little ſea foule called, a Purre.

Alouette de pré. The chit, or ſmall meddow-larke.

Petite alouëtte. as Alouette de pré.

Pied d'alouette. The hearbe, larks ſpurre, larks claw, larks heele, larks toes, Monks hood.

Donner la bourde de l'alouette. To miſſe-lead, or traine along from the place he would find; (from the larke, which euer flies fromward her neaſt, when ſhee ſees any bodie eyes her.)

Il penſe que les alouettes luy tomberont en la bouche toutes roſties; He vainely thinkes, that good fortune will come a wooing to him.

Alourdi: m. ie: f. Dulled, beſotted, made blockiſh.

Alourdir. To dull, beſot, make blockiſh.

s'Alouſer. To praiſe, or commend himſelfe; to brag, or boaſt, of himſelfe.

Aloy: m. Th'allay of gold, or ſiluer, coyne; the (mixed) matter, or mettall whereof it is made; alſo, fine bell-mettall; alſo, a kind of larke; alſo, as Aleu.

Aloyau de bœuf. A ſhort rib of beefe, or the fleſhie end of the rib, diuided from the reſt, and roſted; a little piece of (roſted) beefe hauing a bone in it.

Aloyne. as Alvine.

Alozer. as Alouſer; (An old word.)

Alpes. The Alpes; the mountaines which are betweene France, and Italie.

Alpeſtre: com. Mountainous, craggie, wild, hillie.

Alphe: m. A morphue, or ſtayning of the skin.

Alphitomantie. Diuination by barley meale.

Alphonſin. A coyne of gold, worth about ſeuen ſhillings. Sterl.

Alquemie. Alchumie, Alcumiſtrie.

Faire l'alquemie des dentes, ou, auec les dents. To faſt.

Alquequanges. The hearbe Night-ſhade, Alkakengie, Winter-cherries.

Alte. as Halte.

Alteratif: m. iue: f. Thirſt-breeding, thirſt-increaſing.

Alteration: f. An alteration, change, or changing; alſo, thirſt, or drouth.

Altercateur. A brabler, brawler, brangler, wrangler, contentious, or litigious perſon.

Altercation: f. Altercation; brabling, brawling, wrangling, brangling; ſtrife, debate, contention in wordes; contentious proceeding, litigious pleading of one againſt another.

Altere: m. A poiſe of lead, which dauncers on ropes hold in their hands for a counterpeiſe; alſo, a piece of lead to lift vp, for exerciſe.

Alteré: m. The ſpotted, and ſmall-headed Viper Dipſas, whoſe biting cauſeth an extreame, and vnquenchable thirſt.

Alteré: m. ée: f. Altered, changed, varied, different from what it was; falſified, ſophiſticated; alſo, drie, a-thirſt, almoſt dried vp; alſo, extreamely paſſionat, exceedingly angred, or moued; in a chafe, in a fume.

Alterer. To alter, change, varie, turne from what it was; alſo, to adulterate, falſifie, ſophiſticate; alſo, to breed, or increaſe thirſt, or drouth; to make drie, or adrie; to drie vp.

s'alterer. To grow drie, or athirſt; alſo, to fall in a chafe, or grow into choler.

Alteres: f. Vehement paſſions of the mind; ſtrange, and doubtfull conceits floating in the thoughts; alſo, diuine furie; or, inſpirations from aboue, rauiſhing, and tranſporting the ſpirit out of her proper ſeat; extaſies, tranſportations of ſpirit.

Alternatif: m. iue: f. Alternatiue, interchangeable, ſucceeding in courſe, done by turnes, or immediatly one after another.

Alternation: f. An alternation; a ſucceſſion by turne; an interchange; a variation of one immediately after another.

Alternativement. Interchangeably; by courſe, or turns, one preſently after another; one in the necke of another; one for another.

Alterner. To interchange, to doe by courſe, or turnes.

Alterquer. To brabble, wrangle, brawle, chide, brangle, contend in words; to plead one againſt another.

Alteſſe: f. Higheſſe; (the title of a Soueraigne, Duke, or Prince.)

Altier: m. ere: f. Proud, loftie, ſtately, diſdaineſull, haughtie.

Altitonant. Thundering from high, or from aboue.

Alveole. The pit, or hollow part of the iaw, whereinto a tooth is faſtened.

Aluette. The Vuula; a little piece of fleſh in the roofe of the mouth, like a cockes ſpurre; See Gargatte.

Alueux, ou Aluex. as Aleu.

Alvine: f. Wormewood; Looke Abſynthe for the ſeuerall kinds thereof.

Alvineux: m. euſe: f. Bitter as Wormewood; of Wormwood; full of, or fraught with, Wormewood.

Alumelle: f. The blade of a ſword, or knife.

Alumette. Seeke Allumette.

Alumineux: m. euſe: f. Full of Allum; belonging vnto Allum.

Eau allumineuſe. Allum water.

Alun: m. Allum.

Alun d'eſcaille. A kind of Allum thats made of the tranſparent ſtone called, Miroir d'Aſne.

Alun de glace. Roche Allum; See Glace.

Alun de plume. A hard, and white Allum, full of ſtreakes, or flakes; we call it, ſtone Allum, or itching pouder; Looke Plume.

Alun ſaccharin. That is as white as ſugar; or, as

Alun

Alun ſuccrin.
Alun ſuccrin. An Allum compounded of Roſe water, whites of egges, and roche Allum; Italian women vſe it much in their cleanſing, or whitening, imployments.
Aluté: m. ée: f. Bedaubed, beplaiſtered, bemyred, or beſmeared all ouer with clay, durt, or loame.
Aluyne: f. Wormewood.
Aluyne Pontique; & Romaine; as Abſynthe Pontique, & Romaine.
Petite aluyne. Sea Wormewood; eſpecially the white one; and that which is called Sothernwood Wormewood.
Alys. Smooth, ſleeke, poliſhed; an old word.
Alyſſon. The hearbe Madwort, Moonewort, healedog.
Alzan. as Alezan.
Alzatin. ¶Rab. The fat cawle, or kell, wherein the bowels are lapt.
Amadées: m. A certaine Order of Cordeliers, or gray friers.
Amadis. Pinſegreneur d'Amadis. A neat, ſpruce, affecting ſpeaker.
Amadizé: m. ée: f. Quaint, ſpruce, affected, prankt with fine words, full of gay tearmes.
Amadoüé. Flattered, ſmoothed; woon, or inueagled by pleaſing tearmes; pacified, or appeaſed with good, or faire, words.
Amadoüement: m. A flattering, ſmoothing, inueagling, tickling, or lulling aſleepe the mind and affection with pleaſing tearmes; a pacifying, appeaſing, or ſweetning of an angrie, or harſh ſpirit, with good words.
Amadoüer. To flatter, to ſmooth, to gloze with; to allure, intice, inueagle, win, with flattering ſpeeches; to tickle, delight, or lull aſleepe the mind, and affection with pleaſing tearmes; alſo, to ſweeten, or appeaſe a harſh, or angrie ſpirit with faire words.
Amadoüeur: m. A flatterer, ſmoother, glozer, faire ſpeaker.
Amafrose. Blindneſſe cauſed by the obturation of the Opticke ſinew.
Amaigri: m. ie: f. Macerated; made, or growne leane, meagre, thinne, ſlender; ſhrunke, fallen away.
Amaigrir. To macerate, make leane, meagre, thin.
s'amaigrir. To grow leane, wax meagre, ſhrinke, or fall in fleſh, fall away.
Amainer. To ſtrike ſayle; (a ſea tearme.)
s'Amaiſonner. To lodge, houſe, or harbour himſelfe.
s'Amalader. To fall ſicke.
Amalgame. A mixture, or incorporation of quick ſiluer with other mettals.
Amalgamer. To mix, or incorporate, &c; a Chimicall tearme.
Amanché. as Emmanché.
Amande: f. An Almond; alſo, the kernell of a plum-ſtone, cherry-ſtone, &c.
Amandé: m. ée: f. Of Almonds; mingled, or ſeaſoned with Almonds.
Amandier. An Almond tree.
Amandin. A kind of reddiſh marble.
Amanite. The name of a wholeſome toadſtoole.
Amanoté: m. ée: f. Manacled; alſo, furniſhed with a handle.
Amanoter. To manacle; to handfaſt, or bind the hands faſt, with manacles.
Amantelé: m. ée: f. Cloaked; couered with a cloake, or mantle; Seeke Emmentelé.
Amaphroſe. as, Amafroſe.
Amaranthe: f. The flower gentle, Floreamour, Flower valure, purple veluet flower.
Amareur: f. as Amaritude.
Amaritude: f. Bitterneſſe; alſo, extreame harſhneſſe; extreame anguiſh.
Amarrage: m. The great cordage, or tackle of a ſhip.
Amarré. Moored; faſtened, bound, or tied faſt with great ropes.
Amarrer. To tye, bind, faſten, or make faſt with cables, or great ropes; to moore.
Amarres: f. Great anchor-cables; or, ground Tackle.
Amarri: m. The wombe, or matrix of a woman.
Amas: m. A heape, or pile; a great number, ſort, crue, rout; alſo, a Moone-calfe, or Tympanie in a womans wombe; as Mole.
Amaſe. A meſſuage, or tenement. ¶Wallon.
Amaſé: m. ée: f. Houſed, or hauing a tenement on it.
Amaſement: m. A meſſuage, tenement, building.
Amaſſé: m. ée: f. Piled, heaped, gathered together; alſo, taken vp, or, ſtooped for.
Amaſſement: m. A collection; a heaping, or gathering together; a piling one vpon another; alſo, a taking, or gathering vp.
Amaſſe-miel. Honnie-getting, ſweets-gathering.
Amaſſer. To pile, heape; gather, collect together; alſo, to take vp; alſo to ſtoope for.
s'amaſſer. To aſſemble, meet, or ſwarme, together in troupes.
Amaſſer la diſme de l'ail. To be well and foundly cudgelled; or, to doe that for which he is ſure of a cudgelling; (a Poictevin phraſe.)
On ne ſçait pour qui on amaſſe: Pro. Men know not who ſhall ſpend their gettings; or, God onely knowes who ſhall enioy thoſe heapes.
Amaſsereſſe: f. A woman that piles, heapes, gathers; takes vp, or ſtoopes for.
Amaſseur: m. A piler, heaper, gatherer; a taker vp of, or ſtooper for, things.
à pere amaſseur fils gaſpilleur: Prov. See Pere.
Mieux vaut bon gardeur que bon amaſseur: Pro. A warie keeper is better than a carefull getter.
Amaſtiné: m. ée: f. Made, or become dogged, ſurly, churliſh, curriſh.
s'Amaſtiner. To become dogged, ſurly, curriſh, churliſh.
Amateur. A louer, affecter; wooer; an amorous companion.
Amathyſte. The precious ſtone called an Amatiſt.
Amati: m. ie: f. Mated, amated, quayled, abated, allayed; decayed; mortified; faded, vpon withering; alſo, enured, accuſtomed, trained vp vnto.
Amatir. To enure, accuſtome, traine vp vnto; or, as Emmatir; to mate, amate, &c.
Amatrice: f. An Amatrix, a ſhe louer.
Amaurote. A Moore, or one of Mauritania.
Amazé. as Amaſé.
Ambages, or Ambageois. Ambages; circuits, compaſſes, or circumſtances in wordes; a going about the buſh.
Ambagieux: m. euſe: f. Full of ambages, or friuolous circumſtances.
Ambagoye. Aller en ambagoye; Seeke Aller.
Amballage: m. Package; Looke Emballage.
Ambarvales: m. Rogation, or Gang, weekes; religious feaſts, or walkes, wherein the fruits of the earth are prayed for.
Ambaſſade: f. An Embaſſage, an Embaſſie, an Embaſſadorſhip; alſo, a troupe, or companie of ioint Embaſſadors ſent together from a Prince.

Am-

Ambaſſadeur. An Embaſſadour.
Ambe. With, together with, in companie of. ¶Gaſc.
Ambezatz. Ambes ace, or two aces at dice.
Ayant faict ambezatz. Hauing buttered the connie; hauing had that chaunce that no wiſe man would nicke.
Ambi. A certaine woodden inſtrument of two peeces, vſed for the putting of a ſhoulder into ioynt.
Ambier. To goe; (Barrag;) alſo, to compaſſe, or goe about; alſo, to ſue for an Office, labour for promotion, canuas for a place.
Ambigu: m. üe: f. Ambiguous, doubtfull, vncertaine, double; which may be taken in diuers ſences, or diuers wayes.
Ambigüement. Ambiguouſly; doubtfully, vncertainely; of diuers ſences, with double vnderſtanding.
Ambigüité: f. Ambiguitie; doubtfulneſſe, vncertainetie.
Ambitieux: m. euſe: f. Ambitious; greedie of honors; deſirous of promotion.
Ambition: f. Ambition; exceſſiue deſire of honor, preferment, or promotion.
Amblant. Ambling, pacing, racking.
Amble: f. An amble, pace, racke; an ambling, or racking pace; a ſmooth, or eaſie gate.
Aller l'amble, ou, les ambles; as Ambler.
Mettre aux ambles. To make a man readie to doe, or ſpeake, a thing before he know, or be aware, how he was drawne vnto it; alſo, to bring to reaſon, or perſuade vnto reaſonable tearmes, one, that before was froward, or vnreaſonable.
Et plus la mettoit en cett' amble. And put her more into that humor, or, ſet her forward in that veine.
Il y perdit les ambles. That madded him, or made him looſe all patience; alſo, that was beyond his reach, out of his proper element.
Ambler. To amble, pace; racke; to go eaſily, and ſmoothly away.
Ambligone. A blunt angle; or, a triangle one of whoſe angles are blunt.
Ambliopie: f. Dulneſſe, or dimneſſe of ſight.
Ambouchoüer. Seeke Embouchouer.
Ambre: m. Amber.
Ambre blanc. White Amber; one kind therof (thrown by the floating ſea on the Pruthian ſhore) which being giuen to drinke, in wine, vnto a faſting wench, will force her to piſſe, if ſhe haue loſt her maidenhead.
Ambre crud. Raw Amber; Amber as it growes, or as it is, before it be prepared, poliſhed, and made tranſparent (by the fat of a ſucking Pig.)
Ambre gris. Ambergreece, or gray Amber; (the beſt kind of Amber) vſed in perfumes.
Ambre noir. Blacke Amber (the worſt kind of Amber) vſually mingled with Aloes, Labdanum, Storax, and ſuch like aromaticall ſimples, for Pomander chains, &c.
Ambre de Patenoſtres. Bead-amber; the ordinarie yellow Amber.
Ambroiſie. Ambroſia; the food of the gods.
Ambroſie: f. The ſame; alſo, the hearbe called Oke of Cappadocia; and another, called Oke of Ieruſalem.
Ambrum. (Rab.) Seeke Lambrum.
Ambulatif: m. iue: f. Ambulatiue; euer walking, or ſtirring on each ſide; whence;
Vlcere ambulatif. An vlcer, which continually ſpreading it ſelfe, gnaws, frets, and conſumes the ſound parts next vnto it.
Ambulatoire: com. Ambulatorie; vnſetled, remouing from place to place; whence;
Parlement ambulatoire. The Iudges circuit; or, a Court, or Terme, that oft remoues.
Ame: f. The ſoule, or ſpirit; alſo, a ſpirit, or ghoſt; alſo, the mould that is within the bore of Artillerie when tis caſt.
Ameiller. To milke; or ſucke.
Amelette. A little prettie ſoule.
Amelioré: m. ée: f. Bettered, improued, mended; amended, recouered.
Ameliorement: m. A bettering, mending, improuing; amending, recouering.
Ameliorer. To better, mend, improue; amend, reforme, recouer.
Amelot. A kind of ſmall bitter-ſweet apple.
Amenage: m. Carriage; or, the bringing of.
Amendable: com. Amerceable, fineable; that deſerues to be fined, or may be amerced; alſo, mendable, amendable.
Amendaye: f. A groue, or orchard, of Almond trees.
Amende: f. A penaltie, fine, mulct, amerciament; an amends made by an offendor to the law violated, or partie wronged; alſo, a certaine engine, or net to catch fiſh with.
Amendes arbitraires. Fines impoſed at the pleaſure of the Court, and different from Amendes couſtumieres, which are limitted by the peculiar lawes, and cuſtomes of euery Countrey, and Court.
Amende du cas de Nouvelleté: 60 pound Tour. due vnto the king vpon euery writ, or action, of Nouel diſſeiſin.
Amende de la Cour. is in ſome places vii. s. vi. d. Tour. in others, but v. s.
Amendes couſtumieres. Looke, Amendes arbitraires.
Amende curiale. An amercement of an inferiour Court; or, as Amende de la Cour.
Amende enflambée. Whereby an offendor is enioyned to hold a burning torch in his hand while he asketh forgiueneſſe.
Amende de fol appel. is xx. l. Pariſis, after a iudgement giuen, and before, x. l, or more, if need be, at the diſcretion of the Iudges, and in recompence to the party intereſſed by the delaying of the ſuit.
Amende de gage. is vii. s. vi. d. Tour. due by euery vaſſale that hath not deliuered vnto his Lord a ſufficient ſuruey of the peeces he holds (by the cuſtomes of la Perche.)
Amende groſſe. is vi. s. ſterling; or a greater ſumme, rated according to the qualitie of the offence, or omiſſion, for which it is inflicted.
Amende honorable. A moſt ignominious puniſhment inflicted vpon an extreame offendor; who muſt goe through the ſtreets bare foot, and bare headed (with a burning linke in his hand) vnto the ſeat of Iuſtice, or ſome ſuch publicke place; and there confeſſe his offence, and aske forgiueneſſe of the partie hee hath wronged.
Amende de loy. is vii. s. vi. d. Tour.
Amende ordinaire. as Amende groſſe.
Amende ſimple. vi. d, or at moſt, ix. d. ſterling: the vſuall fine, or amerciament, for ſmall faults, or ſleight omiſſions.
Amende ſtatutaire. as Amende couſtumiere; for which looke Amende arbitraire.
Amende de toſt-entrée. is a fine of vi. s'. Pariſ. ſet on the head of euery new Lord of an inheritance Roturier, or Allodial, if he enter into it before he haue been orderly orderly inueſted, and put into poſſeſſion by ſuch as haue iuriſdiction in the place, or territorie, wherein it lyes (by the cuſtomes of Rheims.)

La grande amende. is vi.s. ſterl.

La petite amende. is in ſome places ix. d, in others, but vi.d. ſterl.

Droict d'amende. Looke Droict.

Il eſt de Lorry, ou le battu paye l'amende; (&, C'eſt la loy du païs de Bearn, que le battu paye l'amende: Pro.) He beares away the blowes, and yet muſt pay for the bloudwipe.

Amendé: m. ée: f. Mended, amended, bettered; ſatisfied, made amends for.

Amendement: m. A mending, amendment; amends, recompence.

Amender. To correct, amend, better; alſo, to ſatisfie, recompence, make amends for.

Ie le vous amende. I crie you mercie; Looke, Ployer.

Amendeur. A mender, amender, corrector.

Amené: m. ée: f. Brought, led, fetched in, or vnto.

Amenée: f. The walke, or circuit of a Sergeant, or Baylife, wherein he may arreſt, ſummon, or adiourne; alſo, an arreſt; ſummons, or adiournement, executed by him.

Amenement: m. A leading, or bringing vnto.

Amener. To bring, or lead, vnto; to fetch in, or to.

Amener l'eau au moulin. To draw in gaine, to bring in commoditie; to furniſh with needfull, and profitable things.

Amener les voiles. To ſtrike ſayle, or to take in the ſayles.

Ameneur. A bringer, or fetcher vnto; alſo, a kind of Sergeant, or Baylife in ſome parts of France, belonging to particular Lords.

Amenité: f. Amenitie; pleaſantneſſe, delectableneſſe, delightfulneſſe.

Amenuiſant. Leſſening; or, growing leſſe and leſſe; or, making little.

Amenuiſé: m. ée: f. Leſſened; made little; growne leſſe and leſſe.

Amenuiſement: m. A leſſening; a making little.

Amenuiſer. To leſſen; to make little; alſo, to grow little, or leſſe and leſſe.

Ameos: m. Hearbe William, Ameos, Ammi, Bull-worte, Buſhops-weed.

Amer: m. The gall of a beaſt; &c.

Amer: m. ere: f. Bitter; alſo, full of anguiſh; or harſhneſſe; alſo, moſt deſpightfull.

Amer-doux. A bitter-ſweet apple.

Amerement. Bitterly; moſt harſhly; moſt deſpightfully.

Ameret. Cyder made of bitter apples.

Ameril: m. Corruptly for Emeril; an Emrod.

Amerine: f. Agnus caſtus, Abrahams balme, chaſt or hempe tree, Parke-leaues.

Ameriquain: m. The Neapolitane, or French diſeaſe; called ſo, becauſe it firſt came from America.

Amertume: f. Bitterneſſe; alſo, anguiſh of mind; alſo, extreame deſpightfulneſſe.

Amertumer. To make bitter.

Ameſnagé: m. ée: f. Managed, gouerned, ordered, ſetled, as a houſehold; husbanded, or well handled, as an eſtate.

Ameſnager. To gouerne, rule, order, ſettle, a houſehold; to manage, handle, husband, or diſpoſe of, an eſtate.

Ameſſon. An Hameçon; a booke.

Ameſſonné: m. ée: f. Hooked, hookie, like a booke.

Ameſſures. cas d'am. The reuiling, ſlandering; ſtriking, or fetching bloud, of a man; or, the ſuſpition of an offence, whoſe puniſhment is but pecuniarie.

s'Ameſurer. To keepe within his bounds; to liue within his compaſſe; to hold an euen meaſure in his actions; to be ſober.

Ameté: m. ée: f. Bounded, limitted; meted, or meaſured out.

Ametiſte. The precious ſtone called an Amethiſt.

Amette. A little ſoule, ſpirit, or ghoſt.

Amettre. as Admettre.

Ameubler. as Ammeubler; and as Emmeubler.

Ameubli: m. ie: f. Mooueable; or, which may be remooued.

Ameuri: m. ie: f. Ripened, made ripe.

Ameurir. To ripen, to make ripe.

Ameuté. Chaſſe ameutée. A cloſe running, or hunting, of dogs, together; Looke, Amuté.

Ameuter. To ſemble dogs in hunting, to hold them vp cloſe together; alſo, to agree together, as well-ſorted dogs, in hunting; alſo, to run, or hunt very cloſe together.

Amezeau: m. A Trunke, or Pipe of wood, through which the ſea-water (whereof ſalt is made) paſſes, eyther from the receptacles, tearmed Conches (or Couches) vnto another, that is called Forans; or, from the firſt, and greateſt receptacle, tearmed Iard, into the ſaid Conches.

Ami: m. A friend; a louer, a Paramor; a louing mate, a deere companion.

Vne beauté faicte à l'ami; &, Cheveux friſotez à l'ami. Daintily, quaintly, curiouſly.

Il en eſt bien mon bel ami. He is farre in loue with-all, he likes it paſſing well; and, he would faine haue it, or, be owner of it.

Vn ami veille pour l'autre: Prov. One friend euer watches, or cares, for another.

à rich homme n' en chaut qui ami luy ſoit: Prov. The rich man needs no friends; or needs not care who he takes to friend; or (which is moſt ordinarie, and the moſt true) reſpecteth no mans friendſhip.

Bien part de ſa place qui ſon ami y laiſſe: Pro. He fitly leaues his place, that leaues his friend to keepe it; or (if it was good) that helpes his friend vnto it.

Il n'y a meilleur miroir que le vieil ami: Pro. Seeke, Miroir.

La mort n'a point d'ami, le malade n'a qu'un demi: Pro. The dead haue no friends, the ſicke but faint ones; or, when a man is dead his friends forſake him, and while he is ſicke they care not greatly for him; or, no man loues death, or fully loues the diſeaſed.

Longue demeure fait changer ami: Pro. Long abſence alters affection, breeds forgetfulneſſe, weakens conſtancie, brings in change.

Mieux vaut avoir ami en voye qu'or ny argent en courroye: Pro. We ſay (but with ſome difference) better a friend in court then a penny in the purſe.

On ne peut avoir trop d'amis: Pro. One cannot haue too many (faithfull, and diſcreet) friends.

Parens ſans amis, amis ſans pouvoir, pouvoir ſans vouloir, vouloir ſans effect, effect ſans profit; profit ſans vertu, ne vaut vn feſtu: Prov. Kinred without friends, friends without power, power without will, will without effect, effect without profit, profit without vertue, is not worth a feſcue.

Qui preſte à l'ami perd au double: Prov. viz. both friend and money; To which purpoſe wee haue a certaine (triuiall, but true-meaning) Ryme, which begins with, I lent my money to my friend, and ends with,

with, I loſt both money, and my friend.

Qui veut entretenir ſon ami n'ait nuls affaires avec luy: Prov. Looke, Affaire.

Tenir ne faut pour bon voiſin vn ami de Table, & de vin: Pro. (For when you haue need of him, or when your Table growes needie, he will be ſure to giue you the ſlip.)

Viande d'ami eſt bien toſt preſte: Pro. A friends meat is ſoone readie; (for giuing it willingly, he prouides it quickly; or, one thinkes it not, or muſt not ſeeme to thinke it, long in comming.)

Amiable: com. Amiable, louely; friendly; comely, gracious, exceeding handſome.

Amiableiment. Amiably, friendly, louingly, gently, graciouſly; gracefully.

Amiableté: f. Friendlineſſe, louingneſſe, amiableneſſe.

Amict: m. An Amict, or Amice; part of a maſſing prieſts habit.

Amidon. as Amydon.

Amidonner. To ſtarch.

Amie: f. A loue, a lemman, a ſhee friend, a ſweet-heart; alſo, a certaine ſkaleſſe fiſh, like the Bonito, which hauing ſwallowed a hooke, ſheeres the line aſunder with her teeth, and ſo eſcapes.

Nous verrons au Ieu qui aura belle amie: viz. Who ſhall get the victorie; a Metaphor, from ſuch as fight for their miſtreſſes.

Ia couard n'aura belle amie: Pro. We ſay, faint heart neuer woon faire ladie.

Amieller. To ſweeten; intice, allure, inueagle with honied words; to delight, win, or toll on, by honie, or any ſweet meanes.

Amielleure: f. A liniment, or oyntment, of the thickneſſe, and colour, of honie.

Amiette: f. A little loue; young miſtreſſe, lemman, or ſweet-heart.

Amigdale: f. An Almond; Looke, Amygdales.

Amignarder. To pranke, trim; or, to cocker, feddle, make a wanton of; make much of.

Amignotant. Pampering, cockering, pranking; alſo, ſtroaking, flattering, fawning on, making much of.

Amignotement: m. A pampering, cockering, pranking; alſo, a ſtroaking, flattering, fawning, making much of.

Amignoter. as Amignarder; alſo, to ſtroake; flatter, fawne on.

Amiot. A little friend; alſo a kind of Peare whereof moſt excellent perrie is made.

Amiral. Seeke Admiral.

Amiſſion: f. A loſſe, leeſing, or looſing.

Amitié: f. Amitie, friendſhip, loue, kindneſſe, good will; concord, correſpondencie.

Bonne amitié ſeconde parenté: Pro. Sound friendſhip a ſecond affinitie.

Ammaires. as Ammares, or Amarres.

Amman: m. A Maire, or Bourgomaiſter (among the Swizzers.)

Ammares: f. Great, or ſtrong ropes; anker-cables; alſo, haſpes of yron, or cleytes of wood, &c, as in Auche.

Ammenteller: as, Emmenteler.

Ammeubler. To make moueable; alſo, as, Emmeubler.

Amini. as Ameos.

s'Ammignonner. To wax prettie, fine, ſeat, minion; to pranke, tricke vp, ſet out, himſelfe.

Ammitonné. Lapt in fierre like a cat.

Ammodite. A creeping vermine like a viper, but of a ſandie colour, and full of blacke ſpots.

Ammoniac: m. Ammoniacum (in ſhops) the iuice, or gumme of th' African hearbe, Agaſillis; or of the Cyrenian ferula, or fennell-gyant.

Sel ammoniac. Looke, Sel.

Amneſtie: f. Forgetfulneſſe of things paſt.

Amnie. as Aguelette.

Amobilié. Moueable, remoueable, to be remoued.

Amobilier. To remoue, to make moueable.

Amoderer. To moderate, aſſuage, temper, qualifie; meaſure; alſo, to ſlope, cut ſlope, take downe.

Amodiateur. A farmer.

Amodiation. A farming, a letting to hire, or to halues; Looke, Admodiation.

Amodier. as Amoderer; alſo, as Admodier.

Amoindri: m. ie: f. Diminiſhed, leſſened, extenuated, impaired, appaired; abated; allayed.

Amoindrir. To leſſen, diminiſh, appaire, extenuate, impaire; abate; allay.

Amoindriſſant. Leſſening, abating, diminiſhing.

Amoindriſſement. A leſſening, diminiſhing, impairing, extenuating; abating; allaying.

Amoitir. To moiſten.

Amolir. To remoue, or put away hardly, with paine, or much adoe; alſo, to depart, or goe away.

Amolli: m. ie: f. Softened, mollified; pacified, appeaſed; effeminated.

Amollir. To ſoften, mollifie; make tender, gentle, pliant; alſo, to pacifie, appeaſe, quiet; alſo, to effeminate.

Amolliſſable: com. Fit, or apt to be ſoftened, mollified, made tender.

Amolliſſant. Softning, mollifying; effeminating; quieting.

Amolliſſement: m. A ſoftning, mollifying, making tender; or quiet.

Amome: m. A ſmall, and thicke aromaticall ſhrub, whoſe bloſſomes reſembled white violets, and leaues thoſe of the wild Vine: This true Amomum of th' Ancients, is not found, or not diſcerned, at this day: Plinie cals thus, tree Nightſhade; others (erroneouſly) call ſo the Roſe of Ieruſalem, or, our Ladies Roſe; and ſome, as wiſely, hearbe Robert; but the moſt, Vita longa, or, Ethyopian pepper, which (though it be not the right) is now the moſt currant, Amomum.

Amomite. Encens Amomite. A whitiſh kind of incenſe, which, in handling, becomes ſoft as Maſticke.

Amomon. as Amome.

Amoncelé: m. ée: f. Heaped, piled, compacted; packed, or truſſed vp in a heape.

Amoncelement: m. A heaping, piling, compacting, packing; a gathering together into a heape.

Amonceler. To heape, accumulate, pile, compact; gather, packe, make vp into a heape; to lay on a heape, to lay heape to heape.

Amoneſtement. as Admoneſtement.

Amont. Vpwards.

Païs d'amont, is, among people which dwell neere to riuers, the country that lyes neerer then theirs vnto the heads, or Source, thereof.

Vent d'Amont. The Eaſt wind.

Amoraye. A coyne vſed at Ferara, and worth twelue Quadrins.

Amorce: f. A bayt; alſo, the touch-hole of a peece; or ponder for the touch-hole; alſo, as Eſmorche.

Amorcé: m. ée: f. Baited; allured, inticed, drawn on.

Vne beſte amorcée. A mankind beaſt.

Amorcement: m. A baiting; alluring, inticement.

Amorcer. To bayt; alſo, to allure, beguile, inueagle, intice.

Amor-

Amorceure: f. A bait; a baiting.
Amorcher. To put pouder into the touch-hole of a peece.
Amorti: m. ie: f. Deaded, quenched, quayled, extinguished, ceased, abolished; also, redeemed, or bought out, as a rent charge, &c; also, graunted, or passed away in Mortmaine; also, exchanged by agreement, as, one seruice for another; also, disappearing, dead, gone, or lost, as the part of a piller thats closed within a wall; or, the piece of timber that is, by mortaise, ioyned vnto another piece.
Censiues amorties. Which are not held by homage, and fealtie.
Heritages amorties. Which owe neither homage, fealtie, rent, nor seruice; or, which are held of the church, or by Mortmaine; or, passed away in Mortmaine.
Amortir. To dead, quench, quayle; abolish, dissolue; also, to extinguish; redeeme, or buy out, as a rent charge, &c; also, to graunt, alien, or passe away, in Mortmaine; also, to exchange by agreement, as, one seruice for another; also, as Admortir; to mortaise, or ioyn by mortaise.
s'amortir. as s'Admortir; also, to disappeare.
Amortissable: com. Quenchable, stintable, dissolueable, abolishable, extinguishable; redeemeable.
Amortissement. Mortmaine; also, a licence of, or passing in Mortmaine; also, a deadding, quenching, dissolution, extinguishment, vtter ceasing of; also, a disappearing, or loosing it selfe within another; also, a mortaising, or ioyning by mortaise.
Amortissement de foy, &c; de Rente. Looke Admortissement.
Lettres d'amortissement. A licence of alienation, or of purchase, in Mortmaine, graunted vnto churchmen, corporations, guilds, fraternities, &c; and must be procured by them vpon euery new purchase (generall letters not being sufficient) otherwise th' Imposition de nouveaux Acquests is layd on them, once in euery kings time: And this is good onely from the king, of whomsoeuer the land be held; and for this, a third part of the value is to be allowed him.
Amour: com. Loue, kindnesse, charitie; good will, good liking, affection; also, the name of a certaine Italian sport; for which looke, Iouër.
Amours. The spermaticke vessels of beasts; called so by those that vse to lib, or geld, them.
Estre en amour. (Said of birds that bill, tread, or breed.)
Ie le feray pour l'amour de vous: viz. For your sake, or for the respect I beare you.
Amour de garse, & saut de chien ne dure si l'on ne dit, tien: Prov. Whores and dogs fawne on a man no longer then he feeds them; or, a whores loue, and a dogs leaping continue but while they are fed.
Amour de muge: Pro. Faithfull loue of a wife to her husband; (The female Mullet will rather be caught by fishermen then abandon her Make.)
Amour de putain feu d'estoupe: Pro. (Th'exposition followes) qui luit fort, & dure peu.
Amour de seigneur est ombre de buisson: Prov. The loue of a great man is of small continuance, and dangerous consequence.
Amour, & seigneurie ne se tindrent iamais compagnie: Prov. Loue, and lordlinesse neuer held companie together; a friend, and a lord are incompatible.
Amour apprend les asnes à danser: Prov. Looke Danser.
Amour fait beaucoup, mais argent fait tout: Prov. Loue doe much, but money does all.
L'amour, la rousse, & la galle ne se peuvent celer: Pro. We say, Loue, and the Cough cannot be hidden.
Amour vainc tout fors que coeur felon: Pro. Loue ouercomes any thing but a froward, or spightfull, heart.
En amour est folie, & sens: Prov. In loue there is both dotage, and discretion.
Argent faict rage, & amour mariage: Pro. Money breeds rage, loue mariage.
Au batre faut l'amour: Pro. By beating (the beloued) loue decayes.
D'oiseaux, de chiens, d'armes, & d'amours pour vn plaisir mille douleurs: Prov. Who follow haukes, hounds, armes, or are in loue, for one delight a thousand sorrowes proue.
En cent livres de plaid n'y a pas vn maille d'amour: Pro. In a hundred pound of law there's not a halfepenny weight of loue.
Fy d'avoir qui n'a ioye & d'amours sans monnoye: Pro. Looke Fy.
Il n'est que les premieres amours: Prov. The first loue is the fastest; there is no loue to the first.
Oncques n'y eut laides amours ny belle prison: Pro. Neuer seemd mistresse foule, nor prison faire.
Veilles amours, & vieux tisons s'allument en toutes saisons: Pro. Looke Allumer.
Amoureau: m. A little loue; also, the little god of loue.
Amourescher. To woe (an old word.)
Amourettes: f. Loue-tricks; wanton loue-toyes, ticking, ticklings, daliances; also, the grasse tearmed, Quakers, and Shakers, or quaking grasse.
Aussi bien sont amourettes soubs bureau, que soubs brunettes: Pro. Loue bides in cottages, as well as in Courts.
Amoureusement. Amorously; louingly, affectionately, kindly; gently, courteously.
Amoureux: m. A louer, one that is in loue; a woer.
Amoureux de Quaresme. A Lenten louer; a bashfull, modest, or maidenly, woer.
Amoureux de triqueniques. A paltry louer, a fond woer, a trifling paramour.
Amoureux: m. euse: f. Amorous, in loue, affecting, affectionate, full of loue.
Muscles amoureus. Two muscles (a great one, and a lesse) belonging to the eye, the which they turne round.
Amoustillé: m. ée: f. Seasoned, sweetened, furnished; intertained, or made drunke, with new sweet wine.
Amoustiller. To sweeten, season, or furnish (also, to intertaine guests, or welcome friends) with Must, or new sweet wine.
Amparlier. as Emparlier; a Pleader.
Ampes: f. Raspises.
Ampeser. To starch.
Amphibie: com. Liuing both in water, and on the land.
Amphibliſtroide. The fift thin membrane of th'eye, bringing inward light vnto the Christaline humour.
Amphibole: com. Ambiguous, vncertaine, doubtfull, subiect to controuersie, of a double sence, or meaning, which may be taken sundry wayes.
Amphibolie. as Amphibologie; (and the better word.)
Amphibologie: f. A doubtfull, or double meaning in one, or many words.
Amphisbeine: f. Th' Amphisbena; a small, spotted, and worme-like Serpent, that hath a head at both ends, and biteth, and goeth, both wayes: yet Mathiolus and Greuin hold, that she hath but one head; onely she seemes to haue two, because her tayle resembles her head: the more probable opinion; for no serpent (saith Gesner*) hath, naturally, more heads then one.*
Amphitrite: f. The Sea.

Amphore. An auncient measure of about 36 quarts; it was commonly of earth, had two eares, and was a foot square euery way.

Amphytane. A square, and golden-coloured stone, of the nature of a Loadstone; or more powerfull; for it also drawes gold vnto it.

Ample: com. Full, ample, wide, large, scopefull, spacious, of great compasse; also, copious, abundant; sumptuous; huge.

Fief ample. A whole fief, or knights fee; for a Heriot whereof the Landlord takes his deceased tenants best horse, and part of his armour, or if he had no horse, lx s. Tournois.

Amplement. Amply, largely, widely, spaciously; fully; copiously, abundantly; sumptuously; hugely, verie greatly.

Ampliateur: m. An amplifier, inlarger, increaser.

Ampliation. An inlarging, amplification, increase, augmentation.

Amplié: m. ée: f. Amplified, inlarged; augmented, increased.

Amplier. as Amplifier.

Amplificateur. An amplifier, inlarger; augmenter, increaser.

Amplification: f. Amplification, inlargement; augmentation, increase.

Amplifier. To amplifie, inlarge; augment, increase.

Ampois: m. Starch.

Ampoule: f. A small blister, wheale, powke, or rising of the skin; Looke, Empoule.

Ampoulé: m. ée: f. Beblistered; full of water-poukes, or wheales.

Ampriſe. as Entrepriſe; (corruptly;) An enterprise.

Amputation. An amputation, a cutting away; or paring about; a ridding, or taking away.

Amputé: m. ée: f. Cut away; pared about; rid, or taken away.

Amputer. To cut away, or pare about; to rid, or take away, superfluities.

Amuletier: m. A counter-charmer, wisard, or good witch.

Amulette: f. A counter-charme.

Amurer. as Amarrer; also, to wall vp.

Amuſé: m. éc: f. Amused; put into a muse, driuen into a dumpe; held, stayed, or delayed by a discourse, question &c.

Amuſe-fol: m. One that with vaine pratling, or toying, holds fond people at gaze.

Amuſeller. To muzzle; to close, or couer the mouth with a muzzle.

Amuſement: m. An amusing, or amusement.

Amuſer. To amuse; to make to muse, or thinke of; wonder, or gaze at; to put into a dumpe; to stay, hold, or delay from going forward by discourse, questions, or any other amusements.

s'amuſer ſur la vinaigrette. To stand on trifles.

Amuſeur. An amuser of people; one that holdeth folkes at gaze, or putteth them into dumps.

Amuſoire: m. A thing to wonder at; a gazing stocke; a subiect, or cause, for amusement.

Amuſſe. as Aumuce.

Amuté. Chaſſe amutée. A close running, or hunting of dogs together; or, dogs that be sembled, or held vp close together; also, a well-sorted crie of dogs.

Amy. as Ami.

Amydon: m. Fine wheat flower steeped in water; then strained, and let stand vntill it settle at the bottome; then drained of the water, and dried at the Sunne; vsed for bread, or in brothes it is very nourishing; also, starch made of wheat.

Amye: f. Looke Amie.

Amygdales. Kernels rising in the necke, or vnder the root of the tongue; also, Almonds.

An: m. A yeare, a twelvemonth.

Ans vieux. Old age, decrepit yeares.

En cent ans civiere, en cent ans banniere: Prov. Sometimes a wheelebarrow, sometimes a banner; those that are poore now, may be potent hereafter; no family holds very long at one stay.

Le mal an entre en nageant: Pro. Th'ill (or vnseasonable) yeare comes swimming in; viz. begins with much raine.

Anacampſerote. A certaine hearbe whose touch renueth decayed loue betweene man and man (as some haue imagined.)

Anacarde: m. Th'East-Indian fruit called Anacardium, or Beane of Malaca.

Anacardin: m. ine: f. Of Anacardium; whence; Miel anacardin. A certaine venomous, and caustick oyle found, between the kernell, and outward rinde, of th' Anacardium.

Anacephaleoſe: f. A briefe rehearsall, a recapitulation of things spoken.

Anachorete: m. The Hermit called an Ankrosse, or Anchorite.

Anafile. as Agnafile.

Anagal: m. The hearbe Pimpernell.

Anagnoſte: m. A reader; a Clarke that reades to a writer; a boy that reades to his master, &c.

Anagrammatiſer. To make an Anagram; to frame a conceit, or sentence, of the letters of a name set together.

Anagrammatiſme. A making of Anagrams; or the art of making Anagrams.

Anagramme: m. An Anagram; a Sentence, Poesie, or pretie conceit framed of the letters of a name.

Anagyre. The plant called Beane Trifolie, or Pescod tree.

Analemme: m. An instrument whereby the course, and eleuation of the Sunne is found.

Analogie: f. An Analogie, example, proportion, similitude, conformitie, correspondencie, comparison.

Analogique: com. Analogicall; conformable vnto some other thing; answering in proportion vnto another thing; correspondent.

Analogiſer. To compare, conforme, and ioyne, by affinitie or proportion, one thing with another.

Anangé. Fatall, or of destinie.

Anaphore. An ascention of the planets from the East, by daily course of the firmament; also, a figure called Repetition, when two verses begin with one word.

Anaporique. A kind of circular dyall for the Winter.

Anaquil. as Anafile.

Anarche: com. without kingdome, or commaund; without Prince; without beginning; licentious, vnbrideled, vnruled, vnruly.

Anarchie: f. An Anarchie; a Commonwealth without a head, or Gouernour; a confused state, wherein one is as good as another; also, want of gouernment, libertie, licentiousnesse, dissoluteness.

Anarchique: com. Belonging to an Anarchie; without rule, gouernment; beginning, or order; dissolute, licentious.

Anaſtomoſe: f. The communication of veines with arteries, whereby they helpe one another.

Anate. A ducke, or drake.
Anatematization. as, Anathematiſation.
Anathematiſation: f. An anathematiſation, extreame curſing; vowing, or deuoting vnto the diuell.
Anathematiſé: m. ée: f. Anathematized, curſed vnto the pit of hell.
Anathematiſer. To anathematize, deuote vnto the diuell, curſe vnto the pit of hell.
Anatheme: m. A gift beſtowed, or offering made in a church; alſo, a ſolemne curſe of the church.
Anatheme: com. Execrated, excommunicated, moſt accurſed.
Anatomie: f. Anatomie; a ſection of, and looking into, all parts of the bodie; alſo, an Anatomie, or carkaſſe cut vp.
Anatomique: com. Anatomicall; of, or belonging to, Anatomie.
Anatomiſte: m. An Anatomiſt.
Anatomizer. To anatomize; to cut vp, and looke into, the parts of the bodie.
Ancelle: f. A hand-maid, or maid-ſeruant.
Anceſtres: m. Aunceſtors, predeceſſors, forefathers.
Anche: f. The little pipe, tongue, or tenon, which is the mouth of a Trumpet, Hoeboy, &c; alſo, as Enche.
Anchois; ou Anchoies; The fiſh Anchoveyes.
Ancholie: f. The Columbine (hearbe, or flower.)
Anchoyes. as Anchoies; The fiſh Anchoveyes.
Anchraige: m. Ankorage, ankoring.
Anchre, & Anchré. as Ancre; and Ancré.
Anchuſes: f. Wild Bugloſſe, Orchanet, Alkanet.
Ancien: m. enne: f. Old, auncient; ſtale; of long continuance, of good antiquitie.
Anciennement. Aunciently; oldly, ſtalely; of old, in old time, in time paſt.
Ancienneté: f. Auncientneſſe, oldneſſe, ſtaleneſſe.
Ancoigner. To driue, or thruſt, into a corner.
Ancoigneure: f. A corner, or cone; any thing thats cornered, like a wedge.
Ancon: m. A long, and heauie axe, which in old time ſouldiors vſed to throw at their enemies either before, or iuſt at, their ioyning together in battell.
Ancraige: m. as Anchraige.
Ancre: f. An ankor.
Eſtre à l'ancre. To be idle, or at leiſure; to ſtand, or lye ſtill; to haue nought to doe.
Iecter l'ancre ſacrée. To employ their laſt, or chiefeſt remedies; to fall vnto prayer, or implore the diuine aſſiſtance, when all other meanes doe faile.
Mouiller l'ancre. To caſt ankor.
Ancré: m. ée: f. Ankored, hauing caſt ankor; at an ankor; alſo, made, or faſhioned like an ankor; and hence; Croix ancrée.
Ancrer. To ankor, to caſt ankor.
Ancrier: m. An inkehorne.
Ancrier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to an ankor; or, to an inkehorne; alſo, inkie, yeelding inke, blacke as inke; whence;
Seiche ancriere. Obſcuring the water with her black, or inkie, ſpume.
Ancrouëlle. pie an. A Shrike; Ninmurder, Wariangle.
Andabatiſme: m. A commotion, vprore, hurrie.
Andain: m. A ſtride; or as much ground, or ſpace, as a man can comprehend by ſtriding.
Andains. Rewes of new-mowed hay, &c, lying on the ground, about a pace aſunder.
Andoille. as Andouille.
Andoillers: m. The brow-anklers, or firſt branch of a Deeres head.

Andoſseure: f. The backe, or back-part of; (hence) alſo, the ridge, or couering of the ridge, of a houſe, &c; alſo, an indorſement, or indorſing of.
Andouille: f. A linke, or chitterling; a big hogges gut ſtuffed with ſmall guts (and other intrailes) cut into ſmall pieces, and ſeaſoned with pepper and ſalt.
Il luy rend le nez auſſi plat come vne andouille; Hee ſhames him vtterly; hee daſhes him cleane out of countenance.
Andouillers. as Endouillers, or Andoillers.
Andouillois: m. iſe: f. Of linkes, or chitterlings.
Andouſseure: as Andoſſeure.
Andrin. An ill fauoured blacke colour of a horſe.
Androginé: m. ée: f. Made of both ſexes; growne both man and woman.
Androgyne: com. An Hermaphrodite; one thats both man and woman; or hath the priuities of both.
Aneanti: m. ie: f. Annichilated, abrogated, made void, brought vnto nothing; alſo, weakened, enfeebled, made forceleſſe; ruined, vndone; and hence, deiected, imbaſed, abaſed, deſpiſed, reſpected as nought, or but as a thing of nought.
Aneantir. To abrogate, annichilate, make void, or nothing of; alſo, to weaken, enfeeble, make forceleſſe; ruine, vndoe, bring vnto nothing; and hence, to deiect, imbaſe, abaſe, deſpiſe, reſpect as nothing.
s'Aneantir. To diſeſteeme himſelfe; alſo, to languiſh, or pine away, to grow not worth the ground hee goes on.
Aneantiſsant. Annichilating; bringing to nought; alſo, abaſing, deſpiſing, diſeſteeming, deiecting; alſo, weakening, enfeebling.
Aneantiſsement: m. An abrogating, annichilating, making void, or nought of; alſo, a weakening, enfeebling; ruining, vndoing; bringing to nought; and hence, a deiecting, abaſing, deſpiſing, reſpecting as nought.
Aneau. Seeke Anneau.
Anelet. as Annelet.
Anematiſer. To anathematize, or curſe.
Anemoné. The wind-flower.
Anemoné double. The double ſcarlet wind-flower.
Anemoné ſimple. The purple wind-flower.
Anemophilace. An obſeruer of heauenly rules.
Aneſtie: f. The ſeaſon.
Anet: m. The hearbe called Anet, and Dill.
Anet ſauuage. Wild Dill; alſo, yellow, or little, harrow.
Aneth. as Anet.
Anetin: m. ine: f. Of the hearbe Dill.
Anette. A Ducke, or Dig. ¶Pic.
Aneuriſme: m. A ſoft ſwelling ingendred by the relaxation, or dilation, of an Arterie.
Aneuriſsement: m. An vlcer, or vlceration, in the skin of a ſinew.
Anforge: f. A leatherne wallet; a double male, or budget, to be carried behind a man on horſebacke.
Anfractueux: m. ée: f. Full of turnings, compaſſes, inuolutions.
Anfractuoſité: f. Anfractuoſitie; a manifold (and vneuen) circuit, compaſſe, inuolution, turning, or winding about.
Angar: m. An open ſhed, or houell, wherein husbandmen ſet their ploughes &c. out of the Sunne, and weather.
Angarie: f. Perſonall ſeruice, or drudgerie; that which a man is forced to performe in his owne perſon.

Angarié: m. ée: f. Toyled, vexed, harried; oppreſſed with continuall ſeruices, charges, exactions; forced, or put, vnto much drudgerie, or trauell.

Angarier. To toyle, vex, harrie, hurrie; to oppreſſe, or weare out, with continuall imployments, exactions, charges; to force vnto any drudgerie, or exceſſiue trauaile.

Ange: m. An Angell; Gods immediate meſſenger; our Genius, or the ſpirit (whether good, or euil) that haunts, and accompanies vs.

Ange de Greue. One that hangs in chaynes, or on a gibbet, a good while after he is dead.

Ange de mer. The great, long, rough, and hard-skind, skate-fiſh.

Bonque d'ange. Conſerue, or Sucket, made of the ſtalkes of Lettuce.

Eau d'ange. A kind of delicat compound water.

Aile d'ange, & voix de Diable: Prov. An Angels wing, and deuils voice (the ſtile of a Peacocke.)

Au preſter ange, au rendre Diable. A prouerbe expreſſing the ingratitude, and ill nature, of ſome borrowers, who honour a man when he ſupplies them, and hate him when they are to pay him.

Angele: f. A ſhe Angell; a woman Angell.

Angelique: f. The hearb Angelica; alſo, a kind of white, long, and great fig.

Angelique ſauvage. Wild Angelica, whoſe root wants that ſweet odour which the right one hath.

Angelique: com. Angelicall, Angell-like, belonging to an Angell.

Angellet; &, Angellette: f. A little, or pretie, Angell.

Angelot: m. The cheeſe called, an Angelot; alſo, an Engliſh Angell; alſo, a young, or little, Angell.

Angelot à la groſſe eſcaille. An old Angell; and, by Metaphor, a fellow of th'old, ſound, boneſt, and worthie, ſtampe.

Angelot de mer. as, Ange de mer.

De jeune Angelot vieux Diable: Pro. Of a young Angell an old deuill; many that (while they were yong) ſeem'de wonderous pure, are (now they be aged) moſt prophane.

Angine: f. The Squinſie, or Squinancie.

Anglantine: f. An Eglantine, or ſweet brier; alſo, a certaine wittie game (vſed at Tholouſe) wherein onely Poets contend, and to the beſt doer a ſiluer Eglantine, to the ſecond a Marigold, is giuen.

Angle: m. An angle, cone, or corner.

Angler. To ſhut vp in a corner, bring into a ſtrait, incloſe within a narrow roome.

Anglet: m. An anglet, or angle; a corner.

Grand anglet. The corner of the eye towards the noſe.

Petit anglet. Th'outward corner towards the Temples; tearmed ſo by Anotamiſts.

Angleux: m. euſe: f. Full of angles, or corners; like an angle; corner-wiſe.

Noix angleuſe. A nut that hath a thicke ſhell, and ſmall kernell.

Anglois. An Engliſhman; alſo, a creditor, that pretends he hath much money owing, which is neuer like to be payed him.

Anglué: m. ée: f. Looke Englué.

Angoiſſe: f. Anguiſh, griefe, ſorrow, agonie, perplexitie, vexation of mind, or bodie.

Pommes d'angoiſſe. Choaking apples.

Angoiſſé: m. ée: f. Vexed, grieued, perplexed, filled with anguiſh.

Angoiſſer. To vex, grieue, afflict, perplex, fill with anguiſh, almoſt choake with ſorrow.

Angoiſſeuſement. Moſt painefully, moſt ſorrowfully, with great anguiſh, and agonie.

Angoiſſeuſeté: f. Much anguiſh, choaking ſorrowfulneſſe, great vexation, or painfulneſſe; extreame affliction, agonie, or perplexitie of ſpirit.

Angoiſſeux: m. euſe: f. Full of anguiſh, fraught with ſorrow, moſt perplexed; extreamely afflicting; paine-procuring.

Angonailles: f. Botches, (pockie) bumps, or ſores.

Angonnages: In ſtead of Angonailles.

Angoüé: m. ée: f. as Agoué.

Angoulevent. A ſwallow-wind; one that deuoures wind, as the Cameleon.

Angourie: f. A kind of cowcomber, ſomewhat longer then the ordinarie one; or, as Angurie.

Angouſte. A locuſt, or graſſehopper.

Angué. The hearbe, Wallwort. ¶ Langued.

Anguiliere: f. A pond, or place to keepe Eeles in.

Anguillade: f. A whipping, laſh, or blow, with an Eele, or, with an Eeles skin.

Anguille: f. An Eele.

L'Anguille. The name of the tyde-boat which paſſes betweene Blaye, and Bourdeaux.

Anguille de bois. as Anguille d'haye; or, the buſh Adder, or wood ſnake.

Anguille fine. The female Eele; ſo called in Languedoc.

Anguille d'haye. The hedge, or dunghill, Adder; blackiſh of colour, and not very venomous.

Eſcorcher les anguilles par la queuë. To doe a thing cleane kamme, out of order, the wrong way.

Il y a bien de l'anguille ſous roche. There is ſome miſterie, ſome hidden matter in it; ſome pad in that ſtraw; or, more then all the world can diſcerne.

Rompre l'anguille au genouil. To attempt an impoſſible matter; or, to labour in vaine.

Anguilles de Melun (qui crient avant qu'on les eſcorche:) Pro. Cowardly apprehenders of a miſchiefe before it happen; ſuch as yeeld before the danger, or crie before their paine approch them.

à grand peſcheur eſchappe anguille: Prov. Seeke Peſcheur.

Par trop preſſer l'anguille on la perd: Prov. Wee often looſe things by too much looking to them; or, the faſter you meane to hold a ſlipperie thing, the ſooner it ouerſlips you.

Anguillette: f. A Grig, or little Eele.

Anguillonneux: m. A craftie fellow, ſlye mate, ſubtill marchant.

Angulaire: com. Angular, of a corner, that hath corners; placed, or ſet in a corner.

Anguleux. as Angleux.

Angurie: f. The great long Pompion.

Anguſte: com. Strait, narrow, pinching, ſcant, ſcarce, of a ſmall compaſſe.

Anguſtie: f. Straitneſſe, narrowneſſe; pinching, ſcarcitie, ſcantneſſe; alſo, diſtreſſe, perplexitie, griefe.

Anhelé: m. ée: f. Breathed on; alſo, drawne (as the breath) with difficultie; alſo, much longed for, greatly deſired, greedily aſpired vnto.

Anheler. To breath on; alſo, to fetch wind, or draw breath with difficultie; alſo, to be verie greedie, or deſirous of; to aſpire vnto with great indeuour.

Anhelit: m. Difficult breathing.

Ani. Seeke, Anis.

Anichiler. Seeke, Annichiler.

Aniler. To abate; alſo, to darken.

Anille. The mill-rind of a mill-ſtone; in Blazon; an ink-molyne.

Anilles: m. Crutches for impotent perſons.

Animadverſion: f. An animaduerſion; a marking, or heeding; a conſideration; a iudgement; alſo, a warning, cenſure, chiding, reprehenſion.

Animal: m. An animall; a creature that hath life, ſpirit, and ſence; (more particularly) a beaſt; (wee ſometimes call a blockhead, or gull, an Animall.)

Anime: f. A faſhion of eaſie (becauſe large-plated, and large-iointed) armour; alſo, the name of an aromaticall Eaſt-Indian gumme.

Animé: m. ée: f. Animated; quickened, inſpired with life, or breath; alſo, heartened, incouraged; incited, incenſed.

Animelles: f. The ſtones, cods, or cullions of Lambes, &c.

Animer. To quicken, giue life vnto; inſpire breath, infuſe a ſpirit into; alſo, to animate, incourage, hearten, imboulden; incite, incenſe.

Animeuſement. Couragiouſly, ſtoutly, reſolutely, with a great ſtomacke.

Animeux: m. euſe: f. Stout, hardie, reſolute, couragious, full of heart, mettall, ſpirit; of a bold, and great ſtomacke; that will take no wrong, that will carrie no coales.

Animoſité: f. Animoſitie, ſtoutneſſe, courage, mettall boldneſſe, reſolution, hardineſſe.

Anir. The name of an Indian hearbe, vſed much by Dyers.

Anis: m. The hearbe Aniſe; alſo, the ſeed thereof, Aniſeed; alſo, as Engeance; and hence;

Petis anis. A troupe of little children.

Anis: f. Annis, or Nanne (a proper name for a woman.)

Aniſé: m. ée: f. Seaſoned, or ſweetned with Ani-ſeed; alſo, multiplied, in brood.

Aniſer. To ſeaſon, or ſweeten with Aniſeed; alſo, to increaſe, or multiplie.

Aniveller. To meaſure, leuell, or ſquare by plumbe-line, or plumbe-rule.

Anizé. as, Aniſé.

Annales: f. Annales; annuall Chronicles; yearely relations.

Annaliſte: com. An Annaliſt; a writer of yearely Chronicles, a relator of annuall occurrences.

Annate. The firſt fruits of a Benefice; the profit of a whole yeare after the remooue, or death, of th'Incumbent.

Anneantir. Seeke, Aneantir.

Anneau: m. A ring, or ſignet for a finger; or (more generally) any ring; alſo, the ligament that incircles the wriſt, in forme of a hoope-ring.

L'Anneau d'une clef. The bow (or vpmoſt part) of a key.

à l'anneau. Vpon the marriage.

Il a mis en ſon doigt anneau trop eſtroict; He hath vndertaken a matter, which is moſt vnworthie of him; or which will turne much to his preiudice.

Année: f. A yeare; a yeares time; the ſeaſon within a yeare; alſo, a yeares crop, or increaſe; whence;

La bonne année en peu de temps s'en va, la petite ſe garde: Prov. Good harueſts makes men prodigall, bad prouident.

Annelé: m. ée: f. Ringed, full of rings, made like a ring, ſet, or decked with rings; marked with round, or with ring-like, ſpots.

Cheueux annelez. Haire frizeled, curled, or twirled round, or into round knots.

Anneler. To ring; to curle, or twirle round like a ring; to hooke, hang, claſpe, cloſe, decke, or furniſh, with rings.

Annelet: m. A gimmew, or little ring for the finger; alſo, a hawther; alſo, a mayle, or a ring of mayle; any annelet, or ſmall ring, vſed about apparell, or armour.

Annellé. as, Annelé.

Annexe: f. An annexation, or thing annexed.

Annexé: m. ée: f. Knit, annexed, linked, ioyned, coupled, added, vnto.

Annexer. To annex, knit, linke, ioyne, couple, adde, vnto.

Annicher. To neſtle, or put into a neſt.

Annicheur: m. A neſtler; a neſt-maker; a putter of things into neſts; a ſetter of birds on neſts; and hence;

Docte annicheur de poules. An excellent, or learned, cotqueane.

Annichilé: m. ée: f. Annichilated, annulled, brought vnto nothing.

Annichiler. To annull, annichilate, bring vnto nothing.

Annion. Priviledge d'annion. An yeares protection graunted by the Prince, or Magiſtrate, vnto a debtor.

Anniverſaire: m. An yearely Obit, Trentall, or ſeruice ſaid, at a time certaine, for the dead.

Anniverſaires: m. The winds which ordinarily blow about the dog-dayes.

Annombré: m. ée: f. Counted, reckoned, numbred, told out, or ouer.

Annombrer. To reckon, number, count, tell out, or ouer.

Annoncé: m. ée: f. Declared, ſhewed, aduertiſed, informed, ſignified vnto.

Annonce-iour. Day-denoũncing, light-proclaiming.

Annoncement: m. A ſhewing, declaring, ſignifying, aduertiſing.

Annoncer. To announce, or denounce; to proclaime; declare, ſhew, ſignifie, bring newes, aduertiſe, carrie tidings vnto.

Annonce-ſalut. Health-declaring.

Annonceur: m. An announcer, declarer, proclaimer, ſignifier, aduertiſer; a bringer of newes, a carrier of tidings, vnto.

Annonchali: m. ie: f. Diſeſteemed, neglected, careleſly handled, ill looked vnto; alſo, pined, waſted, worne away; growne careleſſe of himſelfe, not worth the ground he goes on, by his owne careleſneſſe.

s'Annonchalir. To grow careleſſe of himſelfe, or of his own health; (and thereby) to waſt, pine, languiſh, weare away.

Annonciation: f. An annunciation, a denouncement.

Annone. A kind of white, ſoft, ſweet, ſauourie, and kernellie Indian fruit; alſo, meſlin, or grudgins; the corne whereof browne bread is made for the meynie.

Annotation: f. An annotation; a marke, note, obſeruation; title, regiſter; or, a marking, noting; intitling.

Annotation de biens. A ſeiſure of the goods of offendors that appeare not in perſon, or by Atturny, within a yeare after they haue beene ſummoned.

Annoté. Marked, noted, obſerued; intitled; regiſtred; alſo, whoſe goods are ſeiſed; as in Annotation.

Annoter. To marke, note, obſerue; intitle; regiſter.

Annuel: m. elle: f. Annuall, yearely, done euerie yeare.

Annuellement. Annually, yearely, euerie yeare, from yeare to yeare.

Annulaire: m. The Chauncellor of Fraunce; tearmed ſo in old time, when the Kings ſignet was his great Seale.

Annulaire : com. Annular; of a ring; like a ring; round.

Doigt annulaire. The ring finger, or wedding-ring finger; the third finger, or, that which is next vnto the little one.

Ligament annulaire. A certaine muskle, or fleshie band, which compasses th'vpper part of th'instup, and receiues, vnder it, the tennons of the muskles belonging to the fore-part of the leg.

Annullé : m. ée : f. Disannulled, annulled, annihilated.

Annuller. To annull, disannull, annihilate; abrogate, cancell, make void, or of no effect.

Anobli : m. ie : f. Ennobled, made noble, ingentilized, made a gentleman.

Anoblir. To ennoble, make noble, ingentilize, make a gentleman.

La verge anoblist, & le veutre affranchist; Looke Verge.

Anoblissement : m. An ennobling, or ingentilizing.

Anodin. Remedes anodins. Medicines which (by procuring sleepe) take from a Patient all sence of paine.

Anoirci : m. ie : f. Blackned; made, or become, blacke.

Anoircir. To blacken; to make, or grow, blacke.

Anomal: m. ale: f. Inequall, rough, or not euen; also, irregular.

Anombrer. as Annombrer. To number, count, reckon, tell out, or ouer.

Anoncement. as Annoncement.

Anoncer. as Annoncer.

Anonces. The banes of Matrimonie.

Anonchallanti : m. ie : f. Neglected, carelesly handled; also, languishing; also, out of sale, out of request, out of custome, or, which no customers will deale for.

Anonchaly. Neglected; or, as Annonchali.

Anonciade. as Annonciation; whence, Ordre de l'a: An Order of knighthood, instituted in the yeare 1350, by a duke of Sauoy.

Anonexie : f. Looke Anorexie.

Anorexie : f. Inapetencie; the want, or weakenesse of appetite; the loathing of all meat; queasinesse of stomacke.

Anoüé : m. ée : f. Almost choaked, or stifled, by letting downe too great a morsell.

Anoüer. (Almóst) to choake, stifle, strangle with greedie eating, or by deuouring too great a morsell.

Ansarot : m. A certaine bitter Gumme; Looke Sarcocolle.

Anse : f. The handle, or eare of a pot, cup, &c. whereby we take hold thereof; (hence) also, an oportunitie, or occasion; also, a creeke, nooke, bay, gulfe, or arme of the sea; Looke, Anses.

Les bras courbez en anse. With armes a-kemboll.

Vn pot à deux anses: Pro. An equiuocation; a word, &c, of double meaning, or whereof a double construction may be made.

Anse : m. ée : f. Eared; or that hath an eare, or handle.

Ansée: f. A kind of basket hauing two handles, or eares, to be carried betweene two.

Anses : f. Handles, &c, as in Anse (whereof this is the plurall) also, th'ends of ropes tyed snare-wise, or made into nooses.

Ansete. as Anse.

Ansette. A little handle, or eare of a pot, &c.

Ansouple : m. Looke, Ensouple.

Ansule : f. A little handle.

Antartique. The circle in the Sphere called the South, or Antarticke, Pole; which, by reason of th'earths opposition, we cannot, in these parts of the world, discerne.

Ante : f. as Tante; an aunt; also, the cheeke, or iaumbe of a doore; also, as Ente.

Antecesseurs : m. Predecessors, aunce stors.

Anteines : f. The sayle-yard; the crosse peece whereto the sayle is fastened.

Anten. The last yeare.

Des anten. A twelue-month agoe.

Ie te crains aussi peu que les neiges d'anten. I feare thee as much as nothing; I dread thee not at all.

Antenais: m. Shoots, or sprigs of a yeares growth.

Antenne : f. A Sayle-yard.

Antenois : m. A hog, an yearling, or yeare-old sheepe; a lambe of the last yeare.

Anterieur : m. eure : f. Anterior, fore, former, or that is before the former; that goeth, or is set, before.

Anterieurement. Before, formerly, in the fore-part, or former place.

Anthere. The yellow tuft in the middle of a Rose.

Anthoine. Anthonie; a proper name.

Feu S. Anthoine: A swelling full of heat, paine, and rednesse; we call it also, S. Anthonies fire.

Porcelet de S. Anthoine. The vermine, called, a Chesse-lop, or Wood-louse.

Anthosat. Made of Rosemarie.

Anthracite. A precious stone, wherein there seeme to be flames, or sparkes of fire.

Anthromantie. Diuination by the raysing of dead men.

Anthropopathie : f. Humane, or mans, passion.

Antiborée : f. That kind of dyall, which (contrarie to all others) is to be turned towards the North; a North dyall.

Antibust. Ceinct à l'antibust. Girt loosely, carelessely, or after the great-belly fashion, the girdle riding ouer the middle of the bosome; also, girt back-wards.

Antichambre : f. The chamber of Presence in a Princes Court; the great Chamber in a great mans house; any outward chamber which is next, or neere vnto, the bed-chamber.

Anticipant : m. A preuenter, forestaller, anticipator.

Anticipant : m. ante : f. Anticipating, preuenting, forestalling.

Anticipation : f. Anticipation, preuention, forestallment; also, the naturall knowledge one hath of a thing before he see, or heare, it.

Lettres d'anticipation; The Kings letters, or Commission, mentioned in Appel anticipé.

Anticipé : m. ée : f. Anticipated, preuented, forestalled; taken, or gotten before.

Appel anticipé. Th'Appealant preuented; and vrged by the Kings letters, or a speciall Commission (procured by th'Appealee) to shew cause for his appealing sooner then otherwise he would, or should, haue done.

Partie anticipée. The same.

Anticiper. To anticipate, preuent, forestall; take, or get before.

Anticiper les quatorzaines des criées. A Sergeant to make Proclamation before the day appointed for it.

Antidate : m. An Antidate.

Antidaté : m. ée : f. Antidated.

Antidater. To antidate.

An-

Antidore. A requitall, a remuneration; one good turn for another.

Antidotaire : com. Antidotarie; seruing for a counterpoison; treating of counterpoisons.

Antidote : m. An Antidote, or counterpoison; a preseruation against poyson, or cuill ayre.

Antidoté. Furnished with preseruatiues, forearmed with Antidotes, assured from poysons with counterpoisons.

Antidoter. To furnish with preseruatiues, to preserue by Antidotes, to arme, or assure against poyson with counterpoison.

Antienne : f. An Antem, or supplication.

Antifortunal : m. An opposition, or crosse vnto fortune; somewhat against fortune.

Antille de bois. A woodden latch of a doore; or, the ring that serues both to lift vp the latch, and pull the doore too.

Antimoine : m. Antimonie; a certaine white stone, or imperfect mettall (the beginning of siluer, and lead) found in siluer mines; and good for the eyes.

Antimonie : f. Contrarietie, or opposition of two Lawes.

Antinormies. Enormous contrarieties.

Antipathie : f. An antipathie; a contrarietie of naturall humours; a naturall, and extreame disagreement of dispositions; crossing, or contrarie inclinations of seuerall persons, without manifest cause knowne to themselues for it.

Antipelargie : f. The reciprocall loue of children to their parents; or (more generally) any requitall, or mutuall kindnesse.

Antiperistase : f. A mutuall, or generall cohibition, compression, or repulsion of humors, &c, whereby they become the stronger, and the more strongly possesse the parties they are in.

Antiphones : f. The reciprocall voyces, aunsweres, or chaunting of two companies that sing by turnes, as in a Quier.

Antiphonnier : m. The booke of Anthems, (In a Cathedrall Church.)

Antipodes : m. The Antipodes; the people which goe directly against vs, or with the soles of their feet against ours.

Antipodium : m. A surplusage, ouerplus, addition, or aduantage aboue measure.

Antiporte : f. An outward gate; or, a gate that is iust opposite vnto another.

Antiquaille. The Anticke; an Anticke; also, an auntient monument.

Antiquaire : m. An Antiquarie; one that professes, or delights in, the search, or knowledge of Antiquities.

Antiquaire : com. Old, auntient, stale.

Antique. Taillé à Antiques. Cut with Antickes, or with Anticke workes.

Antique : com. Auntient, antique, old, stale.

Antiquement. Auntiently, after the old maner.

Antistrophe : f. An Antistrophe; or alternall conuersion of two things, which be somewhat alike.

Antonnoir. as Entonnoir.

Antonomasie : f. A Pronomination; the vsing of an Epithite, or propertie, in stead of the proper name whervnto it belongs.

Antonomatic : m. ique : f. Excellent.

Antore : f. Yellow Monkes-hood, Aconits Mithridate.

Antrac : m. A carbuncle (stone, or sore.)

Antra[illegible] Extract.

Ant[illegible] caue, denne, grot, cauerne, hole, or hollownes[illegible] the ground.

Anubet : m. The name of an apple, wherof excellent cyder is made.

Anui. To day; all this day.

Anuicter. To deferre, stay, or keepe vntill night; also, to benight, make night, turne into night.

s'Anuicter. To wax night, to grow late, or towards night.

Anuiter. as Anuicter.

Anulaire : m. The Keeper of the Kings Ring, or Signet, called so in old time: Or, as in, Annulaire.

Anulaire : com. Annular; of, or belonging to a ring; Looke Annulaire.

Anullé : m. ée : f. Annulled, disannulled, annihilated, made effectlesse, made voide.

Anullement : m. An annulling, disannulling, annihilating.

Anuller. To annull, disannull, annihilate, abolish, bring to nothing, make effectlesse, make voide.

Anuot : m. A Blind-worme.

Anxieté : f. Anxietie, anguish, vexation, perplexitie, care, carke, sorrow of mind.

Any : m. The hearbe Anise; also, (the seed thereof) Anny-seed.

Aoriste. A Tense : ¶Grec.

Aornement. An ornament, attire, imbellishment, adornment; as Ornement.

Aorner. as Orner; To decke, imbellish, adorne, attire.

Aorolat. as Rolat. (In the customes of la Bourt.)

Aorte. artere aorte. One of the three principall Arteries of the bodie, issuing from the left Ventricle, and broad, end of the heart, whereunto first it giues two others, tearmed Coronales : Some call it the mother of Arteries.

Aouillé : m. ée : f. Cloyed, saded, full gorged, filled that his belly strouts withall.

Aourser. To burne at, or to, the bottome, as a pot, or stuffe in a pot, wherein there wants liquor.

Aoust : m. (The Moneth) August; also, Haruest-time.

Double d'aoust. An ordinarie tax or subsidie payed euery August vnto lords by their villeines, or such as hold land of them by a seruile tenure.

Vallet d'Aoust. A Reaper, or Shearer; a Hind, or Hireling, for the time of Haruest onely.

En Aoust les gelines sont sourdes: Prov. In August Hennes are deafe.

Aousté : m. ée : f. Reaped; also, ripened.

Aouster. To reape, or mow, as men doe in August; also, to ripen, as fruit, or corne does in Summer.

Aousteron : m. A Reaper; or as, vallet d'Aoust.

Aousteux : m. euse : f. Of, or belonging to, August; also, full ripe, as most fruit is in August.

Aparier. Seeke Apparier.

A-part. Apart, alone, singly, solely, priuatly, by himselfe; assunder, one from another.

Apast. Seeke Appast.

Apaster. as Appaster.

Apedeftes. Ignorant people : ¶Rab.

Apens. de guet apens. Wittingly, willingly, of set purpose, with a full intent.

Apensement : m. A full purpose, determination, or intent to do a thing.

Apenser. To purpose, intend, or determine beforeband; to doe a thing willingly, wittingly, or of set purpose.

Apentis : m. A Penthouse; also, an open gallerie, (made round about a Court &c.)

Apercher. To pearch; to set, or sit on a pearch, or branch.

Aperitif: m.iue: f. Of an opening power, or qualitie.
Apert. Apparant, open, euident, plaine, manifeſt.
Loy aperte. as loy apparente.
Apert. See Appert.
Apertement. Openly, plainely, manifeſtly, euidently; apparantly, without diſſimulation.
Apertiſe. Seeke Appertiſe.
Apetiſſant. Daintie; whetting, or inuiting the appetite.
Aphaireſe: f. The figure Aphæreſis; the taking of a letter or ſillable from the beginning of a word.
Aphoriſme: m. An Aphoriſme (or generall rule in Phyſicke.)
Aphorretique: com. Doubtfull, vnſetled in opinion, whoſe mind, or iudgement is at oddes with it ſelfe.
Aphrodille: m. The Affodill, or Aſphodill flower; alſo, the plant that beares it; alſo, the budded root ther-of.
Aphrodille blanc. The white Aſphodill, Dutch Aſphodill.
Aphrodille femelle. The Onion Aſphodill, round-bulbed Aſphodill, female Aſphodill: Some alſo call ſo, the Kings-ſpeare Aſphodill, or little yellow Aſphodill.
Aphrodille maſle. The white Aſphodill, male Aſphodill.
Aphronitre. Salt-peeter.
Aphyer. as Afyer.
Apier: m. A place where Bees are kept, and tended.
Apilé. fort, & apilé. Strong; well ſet, well truſt, well knit, well heaped, together.
Apiſtolé: m. ée: f. Couſened, guld; cuckolded, made a wittall; alſo, baited, nipped, taunted.
Apiſtoler. To couſen, or gull; alſo, to bait, nip, taunt, afflict with bitter girds; alſo, to hornifie, or giue the blow that ſmarts not.
Apitoyer. To take pitie, to haue compaſſion, of.
Aplanir. Seeke Applanir.
Aplanoyer. as Applanir; alſo, to qualifie, tame, calme, make as mild as a Lambe.
Aplegement: m. Suretiſhip; Looke Appleiger.
Aplet: m. A kind of great draw-net, vſed in the fiſhing for Herrings, Mackerels, &c.
Aplomb: m. A perpendiculer, or downe-right fall, ſeat, or forme; a plumpe deſcent.
s'Aplomber. To fall, or ſinke downe plumpe, by reaſon of it owne weight.
Apocalypſe: f. The Apocalipſe, or Reuelation of S. Iohn; and (more generally) any Reuelation; patefaction, denudation.
Apocryphe: m. Th' Apocrypha; Scripture thats not Canonicall; alſo, (moſt properly) an obſcure place, lurking hole, or corner, ſecret thing.
Apogée: m. A ſhrowd, or denne vnder th' earth; alſo, the point of heauen wherein the Sunne, or any Planet, is furtheſt from the center of th' earth.
Apoinct: m. as Appoinct; opportunitie, fitneſſe, &c.
à ſon apoinct. Fitly, for his purpoſe or turne; after his mind, according to his humour.
Apointé: m. ée: f. Pointed, or, ſharpened at the point; alſo, referred, or appointed ouer; as a cauſe, vnto hearing.
Apointement. as Appoinctement.
Apointer. Looke Appoincter.
Apointi: m. ie: f. Pointed; made with a point; ſharpened, or ſmalled, at the point.
Apointir. To point, or make with a point; to ſharpen, or make ſmall, at the point.
s'Apoitronner. To play the coward; alſo, to grow lazie, or ſlothfull.
Apollinaire: f. Henbane.
Apologie: f. An Apologie, defence, purgation, excuſe.
Apologue: m. A (prettie and ſignificant) fable, or tale, wherein bruit beaſts, or dumbe things, are fained to ſpeake.
s'Apoltronner. as s'Apoitronner; (and the better word) to grow cowardly; or, lazie.
Aponeuroſe. The Sinewie ſeperation of the muſcles.
Apophthegme: m. An Apothegme; a ſhort and pithy ſentence.
Apophyſe: f. An eminent production, or outſtanding of ſome true, and inſeperable part of a bone beyond the naturall places confining vnto it; Anotamiſts call it, a Proceſſe.
Apoplectique. One that hath an Apoplexie.
Apoplexie: f. An Apoplexie, or dead Palſie.
Aporetique: com. Euer doubting, neuer certaine in, or aſſured of, any thing; (the cuſtome, or humor of a Pyrrhonian Philoſopher.)
Apoſeme: m. A Decoction of medicinable hearbes, in water.
Apoſtaſie: f. An Apoſtaſie; a reuolting, or falling away from a Religion, duetie, or purpoſe, formerly profeſſed.
Apoſtaſier. To play th' Apoſtata, to Apoſtatiſe it; or, to fall away from his religion, duetie, or purpoſe.
Apoſtat. An Apoſtata.
Apoſtater. as Apoſtaſier.
Apoſtatizer. as Apoſtaſier.
Apoſté: m. ée: f. Suborned; ſet; appointed.
Apoſteme. Seeke Apoſtume.
Apoſtemer. To ſwell, or grow vnto an impoſtume.
Apoſter. To ſuborne, &c; as Appoſter.
Apoſtil: m. as Appoſtile.
Apoſtile, & Apoſtiler; Seeke Appoſtile, & Appoſtiler.
Apoſtolat: m. A Apoſtleſhip; the office of an Apoſtle.
Apoſtoles: f. Letters miſſiue from a prince; alſo, writs, or letters of Appeale ſent by the Iudge appealed from, to him that is appealed vnto; (A tearme (at this day) of Eccleſiaſticall Courts.)
Apoſtolique: com. Apoſtolicall, Apoſtle-like, belonging to an Apoſtle; See Notaire.
Souliers à l'Apoſtolique. Sandalls.
Apoſtolizer. To play the Apoſtle.
Apoſtre: m. An Apoſtle; Embaſſadour; Meſſenger; alſo, the Popes Deleguate for the receiuing of appeals in a forreine Prouince.
Apoſtres. Apoſtles; alſo, as Apoſtoles.
Apoſtrophe: m. ée f. Auerted, wryed, turned aſide; alſo, reuoked, recalled; alſo, apoſtrophiſed; cut off by an Apoſtrophe.
Apoſtropher. To auert, wry, turne aſide; alſo, to reuoke, or call backe; alſo, to apoſtrophiſe; to cut off (by an Apoſtrophe) the laſt vowell of a word.
Apoſtume: f. An Impoſtume; an inward ſwelling full of corrupt matter.
Apoſtumé: m. ée: f. Impoſtumed, or impoſtumated; mattered, ſuppurated, inwardly.
Apoſtumer. To impoſtumate, or impoſtume; to riſe in, or grow to, an impoſtume; to ſuppurate, or matter, inwardly.
Apotherapic. Paſtime, recreation; any exerciſe, or manner of good gouernment after exerciſe.
Apothicaire: m. An Apothicarie.
Apothicairaiſie: com. Of an Apothecarie, made, or miniſtred by an Apothicarie; Apothecarilike.

Apothicairerie: f. Apothecariſhip, the trade, or skill of Apothecaries.

Apoué: m. ée: f. Saded, ſo full as he can eat no more.

Apovrir. To impouerish; Looke Appovrir.

Apozeime, or Apozime. A decoction, of water with diuers ſorts of hearbes and ſpices, vſed in ſtead of a ſyrop.

s'Appaillarder. To ſpend his life in, or giue himſelfe wholly to, whooriſme; to turne leacher, ſmell-ſmocke, bitch-hunter, whooremunger.

Appaiſé: m. ée: f. Appeaſed, pacified, quieted, calmed, qualified.

Appaiſement: m. An appeaſement, or appeaſing; a pacification, quieting, calming, qualifying.

Appaiſer. To appeaſe, pacifie, calme, quiet, qualifie, aſſwage, content.

Aſſez peut pleurer qui n'a nul qui l'appaiſe: Pro. He may weepe his eyes out that hath none to ſtill him.

Appaiſeur: m. An appeaſer, pacifier, peace-maker; calmer, quieter, qualifier, contenter.

Appali: m. ie: f. Growne, or made, pale.

Appalir. To wax pale; alſo, to make pale.

Appanage. Seeke Appennage.

Appanager. as Appennager.

Appané: m. ée: f. That hath had a portion; that hath receiued a childs part; that is alreadie beſtowed, or prouided for.

Appaner. To giue a younger ſonne his portion, or childs part.

Appanner. The ſame.

Appaouvri: m. ie: f. Beggared, impouerished, made poore.

Appaouvrir. To beggar, impouerish, make poore.

Apparagé: m. eé: f. Fitly matched, well paired.

Fille apparagée ſuffiſamment, ou deüement. A maid thats maried vnto her equall, or, thats not diſparaged.

Apparat: m. A preparation, decking, prouiſion, furniture.

Grand apparat. Great coyle, ſtirre, or adoe; much preparation for.

Apparcevoir. Seeke Apperceuoir.

Appareil: m. Preparation, prouiſion, readie-making; a decking, dreſſing, trimming; cooking, ſeaſoning.

Haut appareil. A Gorget; alſo, a Corſlet.

Appareillé: m. ée: f. Prepared, prouided, made readie, trimd vp for; alſo, dreſſed; cooked, or ſeaſoned, (as meat) alſo, armed at all points.

Appareillement: m. A preparing, prouiding, readie-making, trimming vp for; a dreſſing; a cooking, a ſeaſoning; alſo, an arming.

Appareiller. To prepare, prouide, or trimme vp for; to faſhion, or make readie; to make fit for vſe, or ſhew; alſo, to dreſſe, cooke, or ſeaſon (meat;) alſo, to arme, or put on armour.

Appareilleur: m. A preparer, prouider, trimmer vp for; one that makes things readie for vſe, or ſhew; a dreſſer; faſhioner; ſeaſoner.

Appareilleuſe: f. A waiting woman, or chamber-maid, that vſes to dreſſe her Miſtreſſe; alſo, a Bawde.

Apparemment. Apparently, euidently, manifeſtly, openly, plainely, to full view; alſo, ſeeming, or to the ſhew.

Apparence: f. An apparance, or appearance; a ſhew, ſeeming, ſigne, ſignification.

Apparent. Apparant, euident, manifeſt, open, plaine; alſo, excellent, notable, notorious, of great marke, much eminencie.

Apparenté: m. ée: f. Of kin, or neere kinſman, vnto.

Bien apparenté. well allyed, of a good houſe; that hath many, or great, kinsfolkes.

Apparenter aucun. To challenge, or acknowledge any one for a kinsman.

s'Appareſser. as s'Appareſſir.

s'Appareſsir. To grow idle, wax lazie, become ſluggiſh.

Apparfondir. Seeke Approfondir.

Appariation: f. A matching, or pairing; alſo, a perpetuall aſſociation, or correſpondencie of iuriſdiction betweene the king and a lord Spirituall, or Temporall; or betweene a lord Spirituall, and a Temporall, neighbours.

Apparié: m. ée: f. Paired, coupled, matched; equalled; conioyned; compared.

Apparier. To paire, couple, match, equall; ioyne, conioyne, compare, together.

s'Apparier. To couple, or match; as birds doe in the Spring, or a little before they would breed.

Apparietaire. as Apparitoire.

Appariſſant. Appearing; or, as Apparent.

Appariteur: m. An Apparator, Sumner, Purſuyuant; alſo, a hangman.

Apparition: f. An Apparition, Viſion, Phantaſma; alſo, an appearing, or manifeſtation.

Apparitoire: f. Pellitorie of the wall.

Apparoir. To appeare, ſeeme; be ſeene, or ſhew it ſelfe, on a ſudden; alſo, to be apparant, manifeſt, plaine, euident.

Apparoiſſance: f. An appearance, or appearing; a ſeeming, ſhewing, or ſhew; alſo, an eminencie, a paſſing or ſtanding aboue others.

Apparoiſtre. as Apparoir.

Appartenance: f. An appurtenance, an appendant; a proprietie; a due, or thing that belongs vnto.

Il eſt de noſtre appartenance. He is one of our houſe, familie, or followers.

Appartenant. Pertaining, appertaining, belonging vnto.

Appartenir. To pertaine, appertaine; belong, or be due vnto; alſo, to beſeeme.

Apparu: m. uë: f. Appeared, manifeſted, ſeen, or ſhewne on a ſudden.

Appaſt: m. An appaſt, bait; allurement, inticement; alſo, a repaſt, or meale.

Appaſtant. Bayting; alſo, alluring, or inticing by baits; alſo, feeding.

Appaſté: m. ée: f. Bayted; alſo, allured, or inticed, as by a bait, or by the bait of; alſo, fed.

Appaſtelé: m. ée: f. Fed with the hand; alſo, as Appaſté.

Appaſteler. To feed by hand, or with the hand; or, as a bird feeds her yong; alſo, as Appaſter.

Appaſter. To bait; alſo, to allure, or intice, by a bait, or by the bait of; alſo, to feed.

Appaſteux: m. An alluring, inticing, or couſening mate.

Appaſteux: m. euſe: f. Full of allurements, fraught with inticements.

Appeau: m. as Appel; alſo, a bird-call; the reed, or little pipe wherewith fowlers call ſillie birds to their deſtruction.

Appeaux. Chymes; or, the chiming of bells; alſo, Appeales, and, the Court of Appeales.

Appel: m. An Appeale (from an inferior Court, or Iudge, vnto a ſuperiour.)

Appel comme d'abus. An appealing by a temporall perſon from th'Eccleſiaſticall Court, or by an Eccleſiaſticall perſon from a temporall Court, vnto the king, in his high Court of Parliament.

Appel volage. An antient forme of Appeale vſed by ſuch defendants as pretended diſturbance in the poſſeſſion of their inheritance.

Fol appel. An idle, or litigious Appeale; which is finable; Seeke Amende de fol appel.

Contre la mort n'y a nul appel: Prov. Death admits no Appeale; or, none can appeale from death.

Appelant: [illegible] An Appealant, or Appealer, one that appeales; alſo, a caller, or crier vnto; (and hence do Fowlers name a Finch, Appelant; ) alſo, an appeacher, or accuſer.

Viſage d'appelant. A heauie looke, ſorrowfull viſage, pitifull countenance.

Appelant. Calling; appealing; appealant; ſpelling; accuſing.

Appelé: m. ée: f. Called, named, tearmed, cleeped; alſo, appealed from; alſo, ſpealed; alſo, accuſed, appeached, charged with.

Appeler. To call; name, tearme, cleape; whoope for, cry vnto; alſo, to appeale from, or vnto; alſo, to ſpeale, or ſet letters together; alſo, to accuſe, appeach, or charge with.

Appeler comme d'abus. Looke Appel.

Appeler omiſſo medio. To appeale vnto a higher Iudge than him before whom th'Appeale was by due courſe to haue beene brought; as when one appeales from a Preuoſt vnto a Preſidiall Iudge, baulking the Bailli, who is betweene both, and who (excepting againſt th'Appeale) may draw the matter to bee heard before himſelfe: Otherwiſe, it is in Appeales made vnto a Court of Parliament, the proceedings whereof cannot be interrupted by an inferiour iuriſdiction; nor is there any great need they ſhould; for the reuerend Iudges of thoſe high Courts remaund the moſt part of thoſe cauſes vnto their due places, and fine th'Appealants.

Appeler du rolle. To read, or call, ouer in court, the roule, or catalogue of cauſes which are to be heard.

Appellant. as Appelant.

Appellation: f. A calling, or crying vnto; a naming, or tearming; alſo, an Appeale, or appealing; whereof Lawyers make two (generall) kinds.

Appellation extrajudiciaire. An appealing from acts done out of the Court; as, from a publicke Seiſure, Execution, &c.

Appellation iudiciaire. Is from th'Acts, Iniunctions, or Orders paſſed in Court; and muſt be done by ſpeech, and writing; both in theſe two words, l'appelle.

Appellatoire: com. Appellatorie; appealing.

Appellé. as Appelé.

Appellement: m. A calling, naming; ſpealing.

Appeller. as Appeler.

Appelleur: m. A caller, or ſpealer; alſo, the Plouer which in flying leadeth all the reſt.

Appelourder. To counterfeit, adulterate, falſifie, ſophiſticate; alſo, to pollute, ſoyle, ſteine, blemiſh.

Appendice: f. An appendix, addition, label, hang-by.

Appendicule: f. An appendicle, or little appendix.

Appendre. To hang vp, or on high, as offerings to the gods in temples (or vnto Saints in churches) alſo, to depend on, hang by, appertaine, or belong vnto.

Appennage: m. The portion of a younger brother of Fraunce; the lands, Dukedomes, Counties, or countries aſſigned by the king vnto his younger ſonnes, or brethren, for their intertainment; alſo, any portion of land, or money, deliuered vnto a ſonne, daughter, or kinſman, in lieu of his future right of ſucceſſion to the whole, which he renounces, vpon the receit thereof; or, (as Nicod.) the lands, and lordſhips giuen by a father vnto his younger ſonne, and to his heires for euer, a childs part.

Terres tenues en appennage. As it were to vſe only; for the propertie of them is in the crowne; and therefore they cannot be aliened; nor inherited by a woman.

Appennager. To aſſigne, or deliuer ouer vnto a younger ſonne his portion, or childs part.

Apenné. That hath alreadie his portion, that hath receiued his childs part; alreadie prouided for.

Appenner. as Appennager.

Appens: de guet appens. Deliberatly, of ſet purpoſe, wittingly, willingly; See Guet.

Appenſé: m. ée: f. Determined, meant, or thought of before hand; wittingly, and of ſet purpoſe entred into.

Appenſement. A bethinking himſelfe of a matter before he do it; alſo, a full purpoſe, meaning, or determination to do it.

Iour d'appenſenſement, & d'aduis. A time to conſult, or deliberate, of a matter.

s'Appenſer. To deliberate, pauſe, or bethink himſelfe of a thing before he do it; alſo, to determine, or meane it before hand.

Appentis: m. The Penthouſe of a houſe.

Apperceu: m. euë: f. Perceiued, diſcerned, marked, noted, heeded, eſpied.

Appercevable: com. Perceiuable, to be perceiued.

Appercevance: f. A knowledge, perceiuing, or inkling of a matter; an appearance, or marke.

Appercevoir. To perceiue, diſcerne; marke, note, behold, eſpie.

Appert: m. ee: f. Expert, readie, dexter, prompt, actiue, nimble; feat, handſome, in that he does.

Appert (a Verbe Impersonall) il appert. It appeareth, or ſeemeth to be ſo; alſo, it is manifeſt, apparant, certainly ſo.

Appertement. Expertly, readily, promptly; with good facilitie, nimbleneſſe, dexteritie, featneſſe.

Appertiſe: f. Expertneſſe, facilitie, readineſſe, dexteritie, promptneſſe, actiuitie, nimbleneſſe; featneſſe, handſomeneſſe; alſo, proweſſe, valour, good skill, great abilitie in warlike matters.

Appeſanti: m. ie: f. Made heauie, or vnweldie (by weight that is layed on it) much burthened, ſore laden; preſſed, or weighed downe.

Appeſantir. To make heauie, or vnweldie (by laying a great load on;) to weigh, or preſſe downe; to aggravate, burthen, load extreamely.

s'Appeſantir. To wax heauie, lumpiſh, vnweldie, dull, ſlow.

Appeſantiſſement: m. A making heauie, or vnweldy, a weighing, or preſſing downe.

Appeté: m. ée: f. Coueted, luſted for, longed after; fancied, affected, much deſired.

Appetence: f. Appetencie, appetite; a deſire of, or ſtomacke vnto, meat, &c.

Appeter. To couet, long for, luſt after; haue an appetite, ſtomacke, or humour vnto; affect, fancie, deſire much.

Appetiſé: m. ée: f. Leſſened, diminiſhed, abated; impaired, extenuated; alſo, in appetite, hauing a good ſtomacke; alſo, affected, coueted, deſired, with an appetite.

Appetiſſement: m. A leſſening, abating, diminiſhing; impairing, extenuating.

Appetiſſement de meſure. Looke Meſure.

Appetiſſer. To leſſen, diminiſh, abate; impaire, extenuate; alſo, as Appeter.

Appetit:

Appetit: m. An appetite, coueting, desire of, lust after; fancie, affection, humor, stomacke vnto.

Appetit de chien. Looke Chien.

En mangeant l'appetit se perd: Prov. Eating, better than any thing, quells appetite, or abates the stomacke.

En mangeant l'appetit vient: Prov. One shoulder of mutton drawes downe another.

Appetitif: m. iue: f. Appetitiue; full of appetite; much wishing for; also, breading an appetite, or desire vnto it.

Appetits: m. as Eschalotes; Ciues, or Chiues.

Appieceter. To peece, patch, mend; to set a peece, or clap a patch vnto.

Appigres. The nets, hookes, or other implements vsed, by fishers, or fishermen; whence.

Meslieurs n'y trouverent pas grand appigres. They saw there was not much good to be got, much fish to be caught.

Appiler. To heape, or pile, together.

Applané: m. ée: f. Planed, leuelled, smoothed, euened, made plaine.

Applaneur: m. A planer, leueller; layer, or maker of things euen.

Applaneur de draps. The Cloathworker; who with his thistly cards doth smooth, and stroake down clothes.

Applani: m. ie: f. Planed, smoothed, euened, leuelled.

Applanier. To smooth; also, to sooth, or flatter.

Applanieur. m Applanisseur.

Applanir. To plaine, plane, euen, leuell, smooth; to make of equall pitch.

Applanissement: m. A planing, euening, leuelling, smoothing, making equall.

Applanisseur: m. A planer, euener, leueller, smoother; and more particularly, the Cloathworker, who with his cards of tazle smoothes, and stroakes downe clothes.

Applany. Looke Applanir.

Applati: m. ie: f. Flatted; flat, flatting; made plaine, or euen; squashed downe; also, sunke, or shrunke in.

Applatir. To flat, or flatten; to make plaine, or euen; to squash downe.

s'Applatir. To fall, sinke, or shrinke in.

Applatissant. Sinking, shrinking in; making flat, or plaine.

En applatissant. Flatling.

Applatissement. A flatting, a making flat; also, flatnesse.

Applaudir. To applaud, commend, praise highly; or, to clap the hands, or stampe with the feet, in signe of ioy taken in, or liking had vnto, a thing done.

Applaudissement: m. An applause, commendation, approbation, or congratulation, expressed by clapping of the hands, or stamping with the feet.

Applaudisseur. An applauder, commender; flatterer.

Applausement. as Applaudissement.

Applege: f. A reall complaint, or bill of complaint for land.

Applegé: m. ée: f. Pledged, ingaged, obliged, bound, in bonds, become suertie for; vndertaken, or warranted to be good.

Applegement. as Appleigement.

Appleger. as Appleiger.

Appleige: f. as Applege.

Appleigé: m. ée: f. Impledged, obliged, in bonds for &c; as Applegé.

Appleigement: m. A pledging, gaging, pawning, vndertaking, entring into bonds for; also, a reall complaint, or bill of complaint for land.

Appleiger. To become pledge, giue a gage, deliuer a pawne, be suertie, enter into bond for; also, as s'Appleiger.

Appleiger son marche. To assure, warrant, or become bound for the goodnesse of, or the goodnesse of his right in, the thing he sels.

s'Appleiger. To complaine; to present vnto, or put into the court a bill of complaint for land.

Application. An application, apposition, applying, or laying vnto; an inclination, bending, or bowing to; also, a relation, conforming, comparing, with.

Applqué. Applied, put, set, or laied vnto; inclined, disposed, bent, or bowed to; also, conformed, or compared, with.

Appliquer. To applie, incline, bend, bow vnto; to dispose, put, set, or lay to; also, to conforme, compare, associate, with.

s'Appliquer à. To apply, &c, himselfe to, also, to leane, or adhere vnto; also, to humor, or follow the humor of.

Applommé de sommeil. In a sound, heauie, or dead, sleepe; fast asleepe.

Applommer de sommeil. To lay, or lull, fast asleepe; to bring, or cast into a heauie, or dead sleepe; also, to make heauie, lumpish, drowsie, sleepie.

Appoinct: m. Fitnesse, opportunitie; a thing for ones purpose, after his mind, according to his humour; such an occasion, or time, as were it in his choyce, hee would appoint no other.

Appoincté. as Appointé.

Appoinctement: m. A composition, agreement, reconciliation, league, peace, made betweene friends fallen out; also, a sentence, decree, order, or Iniunction, for the possession of a thing in controuersie; also, an appointing, assigning, or graunting ouer vnto; or, an assignement, or grant, of a thing; also, a pointing, or sharpening at the point; also, a rule giuen by a Iudge vpon contestation; and hence;

Appoinctement de faict, ou, en droict. Is (when a suit cannot be iudged presently, or vpon the first hearing thereof; by reason that the contrarie allegations, or crosse pleadings of the parties require further prooues from them, or deliberation of the Court) the referment of a cause vnto a further deliberation, or hearing.

Appoincter. To determine, order, decree, decide; finish, end, a controuersie; to accord, attone, agree, reconcile, make a league, or composition betweene, parties in controuersie; also, to appoint, assigne, or grant ouer vnto; also, to point, or sharpen at the point; also, to referre a cause ouer vnto a further deliberation, or hearing; to giue a rule in a cause.

Appoint: m. as Appoinct.

Appointant: m. ante: f. Determining, deciding, finishing, ending controuersies; agreeing, reconciling parties in controuersie; also, appointing, or assigning ouer vnto; also, pointing, or sharpening at the point.

Appointé: m. ée: f. Determined, ordered, compounded; ended, finished, as a controuersie; agreed, accorded, reconciled, at a point, or peace with; also, appointed, assigned, or granted vnto; also, pointed, or, sharpened at the point; also, referred ouer vnto a further deliberation.

Appointez. Gentlemen of Companies; such as receiue better pay than th'ordinary Sentinels, or Soldiors.

Appointé du Roy de 500 escus par an. Hauing 500 Crownes a yeare pension, or entertainment of the king.

Appointement, & Appointer. as Appointement; & Appoincter.

Appointir. To point; to sharpen, or make small, at the end, or point.

Appointusant. Growing narrow, sharpe, or small, towards wards the end, point, or top.

s'Appointuſer. To grow narrow, ſharpe, or ſmall, towards th'end, point, or top.

Appoiſſonné: m.ée: f. Stored, furniſhed, or fraught, with fiſh.

Appoiſſonnement: m. A ſtoring, furniſhing, or fraughting with fiſh.

Appoiſſonner. To ſtore, furniſh, or fraught, with fiſh.

Apport: m. A carriage, or bringing vnto; alſo, an arriual, or approach; alſo, a landing place; alſo, a reſort, a trouping, or comming to in troups; alſo, the reuenew, gaine, or profit which a thing brings in to it owner.

l'Apport d'une fiancée. The portion in mouables, or immouables brought by a woman contracted, vnto her future husband, ouer and beſides her dowrie; alſo, the goods come vnto her by ſucceſſion from the time of the contract; alſo, the mariage gifts beſtowed on her by him, or others, before the mariage be fully ſolemnized.

Apporté: m.ée: f. Caried; or brought vnto; alſo, arriued at, or, come neere to, the hauen, or ſhore.

Apportement: m. A carrying; or, bringing to; alſo, an arriuing at, or drawing neere vnto, the hauen, or ſhore.

Apporter. To carie, bring, or beare vnto; alſo, to arriue, or approach neere to the hauen, or ſhore.

Chaſque demain apporte ſon pain: Prov. God ſo prouides for all his creatures, that they need not care much for the morrow.

Qui vient eſt beau; qui apporte encores plus beau: Prov. Faire is he that comes, but fairer he that brings; no emptie hand lookes ſo well as a full one.

Trop toſt vient a la porte qui mauvaiſe nouvelle apporte: Prov. Looke Nouvelle.

Apportionner. To apportion; to giue a portion, or childs part.

Appoſé: m.ée: f. Layed, put, ſet on, or neere to, added vnto; aſſigned, or expreſly appointed for.

Appoſer. To lay, to ſet on, or neere to; to put, or adde vnto; to deſtinate, appoint, or make to ſerue for.

Appoſition. An appoſition; an adding, or putting to; a ſetting on, or neere to.

Appoſté: m.ée: f. Appoſted, ſuborned, procured vnderhand; put into, appointed vnto, a buſineſſe, of ſet purpoſe; or, to a place for the purpoſe.

Appoſter. To appoſte, ſuborne, procure vnderhand; to put into, or appoint vnto, a place, or buſineſſe, of ſet purpoſe, or for priuate purpoſes.

Appoſtile. An anſwer vnto a petition, ſet downe in the margent therof; and, generally, any ſmall addition vnto a great diſcourſe in writing.

Appoſtiler. To amplifie, enlarge, or adde vnto a writing; to anſwer a petition in the margent thereof.

Appovri: m.ie: f. Beggared, impoueriſhed, made poore; vndone.

Appovrir. To impoueriſh, beggar, make poore; vndo.

Appovriſſement: m. An impoueriſhment, beggaring, vndoing.

Appreci. A price, rate, value ſet on things; or, as Appreciation.

Rentes à l'appreci. Looke Rente.

Appreciateur. A priſer, rater, valuer, praiſer.

Appreciation: f. A praiſing, or priſing; a rating, valuation, eſtimation of.

Apprecier. To rate, eſteeme, priſe, value, hold at, ſet a price on.

Apprehendre. To apprehend, conceiue, vnderſtand; perceiue, diſcouer, ſpie out.

Apprehenſif: m.iue: f. Apprehenſiue; wittie, of a quick conceit, or nimble vnderſtanding.

Apprehenſion: f. An apprehenſion, or comprehenſion; vnderſtanding, wit, conceit, or conception; a quick diſcouerie of matters.

Apprenant: m.ante: f. Learning, conning, comprehending.

Apprendre. To learne, comprehend, conne; alſo, to teach, or (as we ſay alſo) to learne one a thing; whence;

Apprendre aux poiſſons à nager. To teach fiſhes to ſwimme; (an idle, vaine, or needleſſe labour) we ſay, to teach his grandame to grope ducks.

Apprenti: m. A Prentiſe; learner, new beginner; ſcholler.

Vn apprenti de S. Criſpin. A Shoomaker.

Nouveau apprenti n'eſt pas Maiſtre: Prov. A new Prentiſe is no Maſter; (and therfore a great difference is to be put betweene them, whether it be for vſe, or in eſtimation.)

Apprentiſage: m. A Prentiſhip.

Appreſt: m. A preparation, dreſſing, prouiſion, making in a readineſſe for.

Appreſté: m.ée: f. Dreſſed, prepared, prouided, made readie for.

En bonne maiſon l'on a toſt appreſté: Prov. All things are ſoone prepared in a well ordered houſe.

Appreſter. To prepare, dreſſe, prouide, make readie for.

Apprimer. To initiate, or giue the firſt direction vnto; to enter; imbolden, or flaſh a yong one vpon a thing which before it durſt not meddle with.

Apprins. as Appris.

Appris: m.iſe: f. Taught, inſtructed; nurtured, trained vp; alſo, learned; conned; comprehended.

A peine endure mal qui ne l'a appris: Prov. Hee hardly beares affliction that neuer tried any.

Envis meurt qui appris ne l'a: Prov. Vnwillingly he dies, that hath not thought of death; or, that hath not learnt to die.

Apprivoiſé: m.ée: f. Tamed, reclaimed, made inward, growne familiar, gentle, tractable; houſall.

Brebis trop apprivoiſée de trop d'agneaux eſt tettée: Prov. Looke Agneau.

Apprivoiſement: m. A taming, reclaiming, making inward, tractable, gentle; houſall.

Apprivoiſer. To tame, reclaime, make inward, gentle, tractable, familiar; houſall.

Approbatif: m.iue: f. Approbatiue, approuing.

Approbation: f. An approbation, allowance; confirmation of.

Approchant. Approaching, drawing neere vnto; arriuing almoſt at.

Approche: f. An approach, a drawing neere vnto.

Approché: m.ée: f. Approched, drawne neere to; almoſt arriued at; (alſo, adiourned, cited, or ſerued with proces to appeare: Norm.)

Approchement. An approaching, drawing nigh, arriuing toward, or almoſt at.

Approcher. To approach; to come, or draw neere vnto; to arriue towards, or almoſt at; (alſo, to adiourne, cite, or ſummon to appeare, by proces: Norm.)

Approfité: m.ée: f. Benefited, profited by; turned, or imployed vnto the profit of; alſo, receiued, or gathered, as the reuenew, or fruits of an inheritance.

Approfitement: m. An aduantaging, profiting, bringing of profit vnto; a turning, or imploying vnto the profit of; alſo, a receiuing, taking, or gathering of the reuenew, profits, or fruites of an inheritance.

Approfiter. To profit, or thriue by; to make profit, or gaine of; to bring profit vnto; to turne, or imploy vnto profit; alſo, to receiue, take, or gather the reuenew, profit, fits, or fruits of an inheritance; (In which sence the Normand, and Piccard, Lawyers vse it much.)

Approfondir. To deepen; or, to make more deepe, and hollow; to dig further into.

Appropriance: f. An appropriation, or appropriating; a taking, or conuerting a thing vnto his owne vse.

Approprié: m. ée: f. Appropriated, conuerted vnto his owne vse; also, fitted, apted, applied, matched, conformed, accommodated.

Appropriement: m. A fitting, conforming, accommodating; also, as Appropriance.

Approprier. To fit, match, conforme, approper, accommodate; also, to appropriate, or conuert vnto his owne vse.

Approsse. de grosse approsse. Violently, vehemently, with great strength.

s'Approvisionner. To furnish himselfe with, to prouide himselfe of, necessaries.

Approuvé: m. ée: f. Approued, allowed, auowed; soothed, confirmed, found good, consented vnto.

Approuvement: m. An approuing, allowing, auowing; a soothing; a confirming, a consenting vnto.

Approuver. To approue, allow, auow, find good, like well of, confirme, sooth, consent vnto.

Appui-pot: m. Any thing that stayes, or sustaines, a pot, on the fire.

Appuré: m. ée: f. Cleered, cleansed, purged, clarified, purified; also, discharged, as a debt; passed, or fully made, as an account.

Appurement: m. A cleering, purging, clarifying, purifying; also, the discharging of a debt; the passing, or full-cleering of an account.

Appurer. To cleanse, purge, clarifie, purifie.

Appurer vn compte. To cleere an account, to passe a reckoning, to procure a Quietus est.

Appurer vne debte. To discharge a debt.

Appurer vn emende. To rate, assesse, or tax, an Amerciament.

Appuy: m. A stay, buttresse, prop, rest, or thing to leane on; also, as Appuye.

Appuy d'amis. Support, store, or strength of friends.

Appuy de la bouche, ou de la bride. (In horsemanship) the rest vpon the hand; and hence;

Cheval de bon appuy. A horse of a temperate, and sweet rest vpon the hand.

Appuyal: m. A leaning stocke.

Appuye: f. An open, and outstanding terrace, or gallery, set on th' outside with railes to leane vpon.

Appuyé: m. ée: f. Stayed, propped, supported, sustained, held vp; also, rested, or leaned, on; built, or depended vpon.

Appuyer. To stay, prop, support, sustaine, vnderprop, hold, or beare vp.

s'Appuyer. To rest, or leane on; to build, or depend vpon.

Aprelle. Seeke Asprelle.

Apres. After; following; next vnto.

En apres. Afterwards, hereafter; moreouer furthermore; consequently; so then.

Il estoit tousiours apres le Roy, de. Hee daily solicited the King; he was euer in hand, or earnest with him, to.

Appresdisnées: f. The fees, dueties, or profit accruing vnto Presidents, or Iudges, and their assistants, by giuing of afternoone Orders; or the afternoone sittings, or hearings, wherein they are giuen by them.

Apres-germain. vn cousin apres-germain. A cousin germaine remoued.

Apresté. as Appresté.

Aprique: com. Sunnie, or that lyeth open to the Sunne.

Aprisonner. To imprison, or take prisoner.

Apron. Seeke Aspron.

Apte: com. Apt, fit, suitable, agreeable, well fitting; meet, conuenient.

Aptitude: f. Aptitude; abilitie; also, aptnesse, meetnesse, fitnesse, conueniencie, suitablenesse.

Apvril: m. Aprill; Seeke Avril.

Aquatil: m. ile: f. Aquatile, waterie, lying in the water.

Aquatique: com. Waterish; of, or belonging to, the water; liuing in water.

Aqueduct: m. An Aqueduct, or conduit of water.

Aqueux: m. euse: f. Waterie, waterish, full of water.

Argent aqueux. Quick-siluer.

Humeur aqueux. A humour in the forepart of the eye, of consistence almost like the white of an egge, and set there, to bridle the impetuositie of colours descending vpon the eye, and somewhat to stay the first violent incounters of obiects.

Aquiescer. as Acquiescer.

Aquilin: m. ine: f. Of an Eagle, like an Eagle; as, nez Aquilin; a Hawke nose; a nose like an Eagle.

Pierre aquiline. The Eagle stone; a certaine stone, (found in an Eagles nest) which applied vnto the thigh of a woman that is in labour, is held to giue her much ease.

Aquilon: m. The Northerne wind.

Aquilonal: m. ale: f. Cold, Northerly, subiect vnto the North.

Aquilonien: m. enne: f. Of the North; belonging to the North.

Aquoest. This; or (altogether as rudely) thilke: ¶Gasc.

Aquosité: f. Aquositie, waterishnesse.

Ar. Deux & ar. Deuse ace: ¶Rab.

Arabe: m. An Arabian.

Arabesque: f. Rebeske worke; a small, and curious flourishing.

Arabesque: com. Arabian-like.

Arabic: m. ique: f. Arabian, of Arabia.

Gomme Arabic. Gumme Arabicke; issues from the shrub Acacia, th'Egyptian thorne.

Arable: com. Earable, ploughable, tillable.

Aracte. The greene, most venimous, and bloud-sucking Serpent; Cenchris.

Aragnoide. A small, thinne, and splendant membrane of the eye (not much vnlike a Spinners web) which serues to vnite, and retaine (as the leaden foyle of a looking glasse) the formes receiued.

Aragon. An oyntment made of Brionie roots, wild Cowcumber roots, and other things; good against Crampes and Conuulsions.

Araigne: f. A Spider; a Spinner.

Araigne de mer. as Maie; The greatest kind of crab; also, as Viue.

Le pertuis de l'araigne. A certaine hole in an Astrolabe, that represents the Pole of the world, and with a nayle in the middle thereof, ioynes together all the tables belonging to the Astrolabe.

La toile de l'araigne. A cobweb.

Les araignes ont fait leurs toiles sur nos dents. Our idle teeth by long fasting, are growne full of cobwebs.

Araignée : f. A cobweb ; or as Araigne.
Araigneux : m. euſe f. Full of ſpiders, ſpinners ; or of cobwebs ; alſo, hunting, or feeding on, ſpiders ; whence.
Souris araigneuſe. A Shrew mouſe.
Araignier : m. ere : f. Spiderie ; of, or like, a ſpider, or cobweb.
Tunique araigniere. as Aragnoïde.
Arain : m. Braſſe.
Oeil d'arain. A red, fierce, fierie, or ſparkling eye, ſuch as a Lion hath.
Pierre d'arain. Red Vitrioll ; the ſtone wherewith Braſſe is tried.
Il penſe que nuës ſont pailles d'arain. (Wee ſay of ſuch an Idiot ;) hee thinkes the Moone is made of greene cheeſe.
Araire. A plough. ¶Lionnois.
Araiſonner. Seeke Arraiſonner.
Araiſonner la marchandiſe. To ſet a rate, or price, on it.
Aramine. A fine, or amerciament ſet on a plaintifes, or defendants head, for not appearing.
Aranſor ; as Harenc-ſor ; A red herring.
Araroye. A round, and skreene-like ornament of feathers, worne by the Weſt-Indian Sauages at their backes.
Araſer. as Frayer.
Arbaleſte : f. A Croſſe-bow ; alſo, a Bow-net ; alſo, the ſinewie Croſſe-bow, wherewith a man ſhoots, not deere, but his deereſt.
Arbaleſte à boulet. A Stone-bow.
Arbaleſte à gelais. The ſame.
Arbaleſte de paſſe. The greateſt, or longeſt kind of Croſſe-bow ; or as in Paſſe.
Arbaleſtier : m. A Croſſe-bow-man, one that ſhoots in, or ſerues with, a Croſſe-bow ; alſo, a Croſſe-bow maker.
Arbaleſtrage : m. The ſhooting in a Croſſe-bow.
Arbaleſtrier. as Arbaleſtier.
Arban : m. A dayes worke in euerie weeke, due by ſome Vaſſalls, that hold by Villenage, vnto their Lords.
Arbauſier : m. Th' Arbute, or Strawberrie tree.
Arbaux. Looke Herbaux.
Arbenne : f. A kind of white Partridge (of a Pigeons bigneſſe) thats rough legd, and footed like a Hare; ſome hold, that ſhe is browne in Summer, and onely in Winter, white ; others, that one kind (which liues in plaines, and vallies) is euer browne; and another (which lurkes on the ſhadowie ſides of ſnowie mountaines) alwayes, and all-ouer, white.
Arbitrage : m. An award, or arbitrement ; the ſentence, determination, authoritie, or Office, of an Arbitrator.
Arbitraire : com. Arbitrable ; arbitrating ; alſo, at the will, and pleaſure of another ; and hence ;
Amende arbitraire. Looke Amende.
Arbitrateur : m. An Arbitrator, vmpier, ſtickler ; a friendly compounder of differences (according to equitie.)
Arbitre : m. An Arbitrator (who is to iudge by the ſtrict rules of Law) alſo, will, pleaſure, fancie ; ſcope of mind, libertie of iudgement, freedome of thought.
Arbitré : m. ée : f. Arbitrated, ſtickled ; awarded ; compounded, agreed ; iudged, or adiudged, by award.
Arbitrer. To arbitrate, ſtickle ; award ; compound, agree ; iudge, or adiudge, by award.
Arborateur. A planter, primer, dreſſer, breeder of trees.
Arboré : m. ée : f. Stucke downe, fixed, or planted, as an enſigne into the earth ; ſet vpright.
Arborer. To fix, plant, or ſticke downe into the earth ; to ſet, as a tree, vpright.
Arboriſe. A kind of white free ſtone.
Arboriſer. To ſtudie the nature, to obſerue the properties, of trees.
Arboſier : m. An Arbute, or Strawberrie tree.
Arbouce ; ou, Arbouſe : f. The harſh red berrie, called an Arbute, or tree-Strawberrie.
Arbouſier. as Arboſier.
Arboutan. as Arc boutant. ¶Rab.
Arbre : m. A tree.
L'arbre fourchu. A ſtanding on the head, or on the hands, with out-ſpread legs.
Arbre marin, ou de mer. The greateſt of Starre-fiſhes ; called ſo, becauſe ſhe ſpreads her ſelfe abroad, like a full-branched tree.
l'Arbre d'un moulin. Th' Axletree ; the beame that caries the wheele of a water-mil, and ſailes of a wind-mill.
l'Arbre d'un navire. The Maſte.
Arbre de Paradis. The tree of Paradiſe ; growes in Ægypt, and beares many bloſſomes, all at the top, and yeelding all but one fruit ; which reſembles a Pine-apple, and taſts moſt delicately.
l'Arbre d'un preſſoir. The beame, tree, or timber of a preſſe ; the thickeſt, and longeſt peece of wood belonging to it.
Arbre de vermilion. The Scarlet Oke, or Scarlet Holme Oke.
Arbre de vie. An Aromaticall tree, ſo called.
Arbre trop ſouvent tranſplanté ne porte pas fruict à planté. Looke Planté.
L'arbre ne tombe pas du premer coup : Prov. Though a little man can fell a great Oke, yet falls it not at the firſt blow ; Rome was not built on a day ; nor are great matters atchieued as ſoone as attempted.
De l'arbre d'un preſſoir le manche d'un Cernoir : Prov. (We ſay of one that hath ſquandered away great wealth) hee hath thwitten a mill-poſt to a pudding pricke.
De doux arbre douces pommes. A ſweet tree yeeldeth ſauourie fruit.
Arbreau : m. A ſhrub, or ſmall tree.
Arbret. A little tree.
Arbrier : m. The Tillar of a Croſſe-bow.
Arbriſſeau : m. A ſhrub.
Arbriſſelet. A little ſhrub.
Arbriſſelet d'aigreur. The red Gooſeberrie ſhrub.
Arbuſte : m. A ſhrub ; alſo, a groue of trees that are lopt, and cut.
Arbuſter. To plant a ground with thicke rankes of ſhrubs.
Arbuſtif : m. iue : f. Shrubbie ; alſo, running, or growing vp by the ſide of a ſhrub ; as Iuie, Vines, &c.
Arc : m. A bow ; a hand-bow, or long-bow ; alſo, a vault, or arch in building ; alſo, the circle that enuirons the ball, or apple of the eye ; the bow, or Iris of the eye.
Arc boutant. An arch, bowing pillar, buttreſſe, or poſt, that ſerues to ſhore, ſupport, or vnderſet a building ; alſo, the arke, or arch of a vault ; the couer of a cradle ; the tilt of a boat, &c.
L'arc au ciel. The Rainebow.

Arc à gelet ; ou, à jallet. A ſtone-bow.
L'arc du jour. The whole day, from Sunne riſing to the ſetting thereof.
Arc Turquois. The Turkiſh long bow.
Il a pluſieurs cordes à ſon arc. He hath many ſtrings to his bow (viz. many trades, meanes, helpes, dependancies, or aſſurances, to rely on.)
Paſſer par l'arc S. Bernard. To be beſhitten ; to beray himſelfe.
Desbander l'arc ne gueriſt pas la playe: Prov. The bowes vnbending healeth not the wound (it hath made;) the withdrawing of forces is no amends for the wrongs or harmes, which they haue done.

Arcade : f. An arch, or halfe circle.
Mettre les mains en arcade ſur les coſtes. To ſet his hands a kenbow.

Arc-agelet. Looke arc.

Arcanne : f. Rudle, red chaulke, red oaker.

Arcaſſe : f. The Counter (in the Poope) of a Ship.

Arc-boutant. Looke in Arc.

Arceau : m. A little bow ; bought ; arch ; alſo, a Sadle-bow ; alſo, a Carpenters yard, or workehouſe.

Arceler. Seeke Harcelet.

Arcenal : m. An Arcenall ; an Armorie ; a ſtorehouſe of Armour ; Artillerie ; Shipping, or Ships.

Archade. as Arcade.

Archail. as Archal.

Archal & ; fil d'archal. Yellow laten wire ; or copper wire.

Archant : &, Archat ; as Archal.

Arche : f. A coffer, cheſt ; hutch, binne ; alſo, an Arke ; whence, l'arche de Noë ; alſo, the arch of a bridge, &c ; alſo, the well of the Pumpe of a Ship.

Archecapelein de toute Flanders. The Arch-chaplaine (or as ſome thinke) the Chauncellour of Flanders.

Archediaconé : m. An Archdeaconrie.

Archediacre : m. An Archdeacon.
Crotté en Archediacre. Dagd vp to the hard heeles ; (for ſo were the Archdeacons in old time euer woont to be, by reaſon of their frequent, and toyleſome, Viſitations.)

Archeé : f. A bow-ſhoot ; or, the reach of a bow ; as far as a bow will carrie.

Archelette : f. A little arch, or arke ; alſo, a womans eare-wire.

Archenocher : m. A chiefe Mariner ; the Pilot, or Maſter of a ſhip.

Archepreſtre : m. An Arch-prieſt, High-prieſt, head-prieſt, chiefe-prieſt.

Archer : m. An Archer, or Bowman ; alſo, a Yeoman of the (Kings) Gard ; alſo, one of the Prouoſt Marſhalls attendants, or gard ; alſo, a Warder in a Towne, or fortreſſe ; (whoſe ordinarie weapon, at this day a Halberd, was in old time a bow, and arrowes ;) alſo, a horſeman, who in ſeruice euer accompanies the Gendarme des Ordonnances ; to whom though he be ſomewhat inferiour, and though he haue but halfe as much pay (about twentie pounds ſterl. a yeare) yet is he to be a Gentleman of birth and breeding ; or ſuch a one as hath beene Captaine, Lieutenant, Enſigne, or Sergeant Maior, of a foot companie ſix yeares together : and whoſoeuer will be a Gendarme muſt formerly haue beene an Archer of at the leaſt a yeares continuance (if the ordinances be duely obſerued.)
Archers du guet. The ordinarie watchmen of the towne of Paris ; (who are not Burguers, but a kind of Souldiours ; both appointed, and payed by the King.)
Franc archer. Looke Franc.

Archerie : m. A match of ſhooting, alſo, a field, or ground, to ſhoot in.

Archerot : m. A little Archer, a young Bow-man.

Archet : m. The bow of a Viol, &c.

Archetype : m. A principall type, figure, forme ; the chiefe patterne, mould, modell, example, or ſample, whereby a thing is framed ; an authenticke, or originall draught.

Archiatre : m. A principall Phyſitian.

Archidiacre. An Archdeacon.

Archiduc. An Archduke.

Archier : m. as Archer.

Archifs : m. The Rolls (for the Crowne) or, a place wherein all the Records, Charters, and Euidences that concerne the King, or belong vnto the Crowne, are kept in cheſts, and boxes.

Archimandrite : m. An Abbot ; a Generall, or Gouernour of Hermits ; a Superintendent, or Ouerſeer, of ſuch as reſide in deſart caues, and dennes.

Archimarmitoneraſtique : m. An Abbey-lubber, or Arch-frequenter of the Cloyſter beefe-pot, or beefe-boyler.

Archimbaud. A proper name for a man.
C'eſt la famille d'Archimbaud, plus y en a & pis vaut : Prov. (Said of a ſtate, or family, thats peſtered with rakehels.)

Architecte : m. An Architect ; a Gouernour, Ouerſeer, director ; a chiefe deuiſer, contriuer, or framer, of buildings ; a worke-maſter, or maſter workman, in points of Architecture.

Architecté : m. ée : f. Built, contriued, framed, faſhioned ; ſet, or made vp, as a houſe, &c.

Architecter. To gouerne, ouerſee, direct ; a building ; alſo, to contriue, deuiſe, frame, faſhion ; make, or ſet vp, artificially, a building, &c.

Architectonique : com. Architectiue ; belonging to an Architect, or Architecture.

Architecture : f. Architecture ; the Art, or Science of building ; the framing, or building of a houſe, &c ; alſo, the frame of a houſe, or building ; an edifice, or building.

Architrave : m. The Architraue (of pillars, or ſtone-worke ;) the reaſon peece, or maſter beame (in buildings of timber.)

Archives. as Archifs.

Archool. Duſt ; (of Alchool, an Arabian word.)

Archure : f. A mill-hoope, or mill-caſe ; the open cheſt that holds the mill-ſtones.

Arçoir. as hier au ſoir. Yeſternight ; (a ruſticall word.)

Arçon : m. The arſon, or bow of a ſadle.
Faire vuider les arçons. To caſt off horſebacke, or out of the ſadle.

Arçon : f. A burning, or ſetting on fire.

Arçonné : m. ée : f. Set on horſebacke, or betweene the ſadle bowes ; ſetled, or ſet faſt, in a ſadle.

Arçonner. To faſten, ſetle, or ſet ſure ; as, the breech betweene the bowes of a ſadle.
Arçonner vne vigne. To vnderprop a vine both before and behind.

Arçonneux : m. euſe : f. Of, or belonging to, a ſadle bow ; alſo, fit to hang, or to be carried at, a ſadle bow ; whence ;
Malette arçonneuſe. A capcaſe ; male, budget, &c.

Arçonnier : m. ere : f. as Arçonneux.

Arcotic : m. ique : f. Benumming, ſtupifying.
Arcon : m. A kind of laten, or copper, whereof kettles are made.
Arctique : com. Northerne, or Northerly.
Cercle Arctique. A Circle in our Hemiſpheare, called, the Pole Articke.
Arcture : m. The ſtarre Boötes (which followeth Charls waine.)
Arcuer. To arch; bow, bend; grow compaſſe, or crooked, like an arch.
Arcure : f. An arching, bought, or bow; compaſſe, or bowing.
Ardamment. Ardently, hotly, feruently; earneſtly, eagrely, vehemently; with great heat; paſſion, or deſire.
Ardans : m. S. Hermes fires; the flittering, or going fiers, flaſhes, or flames, which be ſeen by night, and neere vnto waters.
Ardant : m. ante : f. Ardent, hoat, burning; feruent; eagre, earneſt, greedie, vehement, moſt affectionate.
Chambre ardante. Looke Chambre.
Eau ardant. Aqua, or Aquauitæ.
Feu ardant. White Vine, white Bryonie, wild Nep, Tetterberrie; The Wallons, ſayes Gerard, call Garden Nightſhade, feu ardant.
Vin ardant. Aquauitæ.
Ardent. as Ardant.
Ardentement. as Ardamment.
Ardeur : f. Ardour; heat, burning; feruencie; eagreneſſe, earneſtneſſe, vehemencie; greedineſſe; exceeding affection, extreame paſſion.
Ardid. as Ardit.
Ardille : f. Clay, loame, tough mold.
Ardillé : m. ée : f. Dawbed, or done ouer, with clay.
Ardiller. To clay; to dawbe, or doe ouer, with clay.
Ardillier : m. ere : f. Clay, clay-like; of clay.
Terre ardilliere. Tough earth, or clay, whereof brick, and tyle may be made.
Ardillon : m. The toung of a buckle.
Ardit : m. as Liard; A coyne that, worth iij. d. Tourn. ¶Gaſcon.
Ardoir. To burne, or be on fire; to be inflamed, or kindled; (hence) alſo, to be verie earneſt; or hot, in a matter; to loue exceedingly; deſire feruently, couet vehemently, long for verie much; alſo, to inflame, or ſet on fire; as in the Prouerbe,
L'argent ard gent.
Ardoiſe : f. A ſlate.
Ardoiſé : m. ée : f. Slated, couered with ſlates; alſo, ſlatie, or of ſlates.
Ardoiſeux : m. euſe : f. full of, or, filled with, ſlates.
Ardoiſiere : f. A ſlate-pit, ſlate quarrey, ground full of ſlates.
Ardoiſin : m. ine : f. Slatie, or, of ſlate.
Ardoüe : f. A little brooke, or reyne, that gently runnes along a field.
Ardre. as Ardoir.
Ardu : m. uë : f. Hard; painefull, difficult; great, ample, high, ſteepe, daungerous; hard to get on, or come to.
Ardy. as Ardit.
Arechal. fil d'arechal. as Archal.
Areille. as Oreille : ¶Norm.
Arene : f. Sand; grauell.
Aréne. A Theatre for Fencers; a place to iuſt in, ſtrowed with grauell; and hence was that ſtately Amphitheatre of Niſmes, called, des Arenes.

Arenoux : m. euſe : f. Sandie, grauelly; full of ſand, or of grauell.
Arenger. Seeke Arranger.
Areniere : f. A ſand-pit, or grauell-pit; a plot whereout ſand, or grauell is digged.
Arentelles : f. Goſſymere; the long, white, and cobweb-like exhalation, that flyes on the ayre in Sunnie, and Summer, dayes.
Arenuleux : m. euſe : f. Full of ſmall grauell, or ſand.
Arer. To plough, till, eare, the ground.
Arere : f. A plough.
Ares-metys. Preſently, euen now, by and by : ¶Gaſc. ¶Rab.
Areſte : f. The ſmall bone of a fiſh; alſo, the eyle, awne, or beard of an eare of corne; alſo, the edge, or outſtanding ridge of a ſtone, or ſtone-wall.
Areſte du dos. The backe-bone; or, the ridge of the backe.
Areſte d'un eſpee &c. The Creſt, of a ſword, &c; a ſharpe riſing in the middle thereof.
Areſteux : m. euſe : f. Full of ſmall bones; as a Fiſh.
Areteuſe : f. The Hearbe Sorrell.
Arez. Now, preſently, by and by : ¶Gaſc. ¶Rab.
Arfie : f. A Horne-fiſh, Hornebeake, Snacot-fiſh, Gare-fiſh, Piper-fiſh.
Argalice : f. A Raddiſh root.
Argalie : f. A (Chirurgions) ſquirt, or ſtringe; or the inſtrument wherewith he ſearcheth the paſſages of the vrine, or bladder.
Arganete. A Wire-drawers bench.
Argatile. A kind of titling, or titmouſe.
Arge. A lightning, which blaſteth, and maketh black.
Argenocher. as Arche-nocher; Or, one of the Argonauts, who ſayled with Jaſon for the Golden Fleece.
Argent : m. Siluer; alſo, money, coyne, chinkes, gilt; alſo, A gent, in Blaſon.
Argent aqueux. Quick-ſiluer.
Argent de cendrée. Fine, or purified ſiluer, of xj. d. eighteene grains fineneſſe; thus the finers make at firſt into wedges, and marke them with their puncheons, thereby vndertaking for the goodneſſe, and value thereof.
Argent comptant. Readie money; whence;
Argent comptant porte medicine : Prov. Readie money is a readie medicine; or, procures any medicine.
Argent de Cour. Siluer of xj. d. allay (twelue grains baſer than Argent le Roy) heretofore the proportion for all kind of Goldſmithes worke.
Argent mignon. as Argent comptant.
Argent le Roy. The Kings ſiluer; the ſiluer thats vſed, now adayes, for coyne, and Goldſmithes worke; ſix graines in the pennie weight baſer than Argent de Cendrée; (it comes to 47. s. 6. d. Tournois the ounce.)
Faire de l'argent avec les dents. To grow rich by faring hard; by ſtarning the bellie to ſtuffe the purſe.
A beau ieu bel argent. Roundly, in good earneſt, without faining, dalliance, or delay; alſo, as good as is brought, one for another.
Du temps qu'on ſe cacha. pour preſter de l'argent. In good old times when men were loath to publiſh their owne goodneſſe, or the neceſſities of others.
I'en puis parler pour mon argent. I knowe it to my my coſt; I can ſpeake of what I haue paid for.

Il veut avoir drap & argent enſemble. He will haue both my cloath and his owne coine; (applyable to an vnreaſonable chapman, hard bargainer, ſore dealer.)

Le terme vaut l'argent. The Terme is worth the money; (a phraſe moſt vſed by thoſe whom the benefit of a little time makes to neglect the paiments, or puniſhments whereto they be ſubiect.)

Argent ard gent: Prov. Mony burnes many; (viz. the loue thereof enflames their hearts.)

Argent contant porte medicine: Prov. Ready money is a readie medicine.

Argent faict guerre: Prov. viz. It moues men to begin, and enables them to follow, it.

Argent faict perdre, & pendre gent: Prov. Looke Perdre, or Pendre.

Argent faict rage, & amour mariage: Prov. Coyne moues men vnto rage, loue vnto mariage.

Argent faict tout: Prov. All (earthly) things are commanded, and compaſſed, by it.

Argent frais, & nouveau ruine le Iouvenceau: Pro. Th'aboundant, or free vſe of money ruines youth.

l'Argent quand l'orge: Prov. One for another: when we haue their ware let them haue their money.

Argent receu le bras rompu: Prov. Looke Bras.

C'eſt argent qu'argent vaut: Prov. Nothing but money is money-worth.

En argent ſoit le capital de celuy là qui le veut mal: Prov. (Belike, becauſe the keeping of it is both ſinfull, and caſuall.)

Quand argent faut tout faut: Prov. He that wants money wants all things.

Qui a argent a des chapeaux: Prov. Moſt men ſalute the monyed man; or, he that hath money hath moſt things.

Qui n'a argent en bourſe ait du moins du mel en bouche: Prov. He that cannot pay let him pray.

Amour faict beaucoup, mais argent faict tout: Pro. Loue is potent, but money omnipotent.

Bon marché tire l'argent hors de la bourſe: Prov. Good cheape commodities are notable picke-purſes.

Deſolation paroiſt toſt en argent avancé, &c. Looke Deſolation.

Femme, argent, & vin, ont leur bien, & leur venin: Prov. Money, wine, and women, haue good and bad things in them.

Mieux vaut avoir ami en vôye qu'or n'argent en courroye: Prov. A friend on the way is better than a penie in the purſe.

Nul n'a trop pour ſoy de ſens, d'argent, de foy: Prov. Looke Foy.

Quelque ſçavoir que ſoit on l'hommes, s'il n'a de l'argent, on s'en mocque: Prov. The skilfulleſt, wanting money, are but ſcorned.

Qui combat avec les armes d'argent eſt aſſeure de vaincre: Prov. He that doth fight with ſiluer armes is ſure to ouercome.

Argentangine: f. The ſiluer Squinzie; a diſeaſe wherwith many beſides Demoſthenes (to whom it was firſt obiected) haue beene troubled.

Argenté: m. ée: f. Siluered ouer; couered with, or enchaced in, ſiluer.

Aſtre Argenté. The Moone.

Argenter. To ſiluer ouer; to gild, or couer with ſiluer, tinne, or lead; alſo, to enchace or incloſe, in ſiluer.

Argenterie: f. The Maſterſhip of the Wardrobe; alſo, a banke of exchaunge; alſo, a ſiluer myne; alſo, any ſtuffe, plate, or Iewels of ſiluer; as (in churches) cups, chalices, croſſes, &c; ſiluer ſtuffe; alſo, a veſtrie, preſſe, or cheſt, wherein ſiluer ſtuffe, or plate is kept; alſo, a cupboord of ſiluer plate.

Argenteux: m. euſe: f. Siluerie; of ſiluer; full of money, or ſiluer; that hath ſtore of ſiluer.

Argentier: m. A Steward, Purſe-bearer, or other Officer, that layeth out money for his Maſter, or hath the charge of his Maſters money; alſo, a Banker, one that lendeth, or exchangeth, money for gaine; alſo a Cup-bearer.

Argentier du Roy. The Maſter of the Wardrobe; Or Gentleman of the Robes; an Officer that keepes, and giues an account of all the Robes, garments, and clothes made for the kings owne wearing, for his Wardrobe, or chamber; or to be giuen away.

Agentiere: f. The place wherein mettalls are tried, before coyne be made of them.

Argentin: m. ine: f. Argentine, ſiluerie, of ſiluer, ſiluerlike.

Chardon argentin, Argentine, Siluer-Thiſtle, Oat-Thiſtle, Gumme-Thiſtle, Cotton-Thiſtle, the wilde white Thiſtle.

Argentine: f. Wild Tanſie, Siluer weed.

Argerite. The (Siluer-coloured) foame of tried lead.

Argilier: m. The Ponticke Acatia; (a Thornie ſhrub.)

Argiliere: f. A clay-pit; or, a plot wherein Potters clay is gotten.

Argille: f. Potters clay; fat mould; a fattie, or clammie earth, whereof pots, &c, may be made.

Argillette: f. Fine clay, or mould.

Argilleux: m. euſe: f. Clayiſh: full of a fat mould, or clay; made of a clammie, or fat clay; clammie, or fat, as Potters clay.

Arglantier: m. An Eglantine tree, or plant.

Argolet: m. A light horſeman.

Argot: m. The Spurre of a Cocke; the deaw-clawe of a dog, &c; the heele, or talon of a hog.

Argoté: m. ée: f. Hauing ſpurres; armed, or furniſhed, as a Cocke, with ſpurres; alſo, brabled, contended, conteſted, wrangled.

Argoter. To ſpurre; to fight with ſpurres; alſo, to brable, conteſt, wrangle, contend with.

Argoteur: m. A wrangler, brabler, cauiller, contentious perſon.

Argoteure. as Ergoture.

Argoteuſe: f. A ſcould; a wrangling, or cauilling houſewife.

Argoüil: m. A ring of yron.

Argouſin. The Lieutenant of a Gallie.

Argu. la teſte pleine d'argu. Full of anger, perplexitie, diſpleaſure; fraught with fretfull proclamations.

Tu ne me parles que d'argu. Thy words are nought but cauils, thou doeſt nothing but brable with me.

Argué: m. ée: f. Argued, pleaded, reaſoned; reproued, rebuked, chidden.

Arguër. To argue, plead, reaſon; diſpute; diſcuſſe, or examine by argument; alſo, to chide, reproue, reprehend, rebuke; alſo, to incenſe, vrge, or prouoke vnto anger.

Argueur: m. An arguer, or pleader.

Arguillonneux: m. euſe: f. Litigious, contentious; full of ſubtile cauilling.

Argument: m. An argument; reaſon, or proofe; a ſubiect to write, reaſon, or ſpeake, of; alſo, the ſumme of a written matter; the ſummarie, or ſubſtance of a Booke, or Chapter; alſo, a coniecture, presumption; iust occasion, sure token.

Arguties: f. Sharpe quirkes, or subtilities, subtill words, wittie sayings.

Argyrite. Looke Argerite.

Ari: m.ie: f. Dryed vp, full soaked, wholly drained; withered; without sap, or humor; whose naturall moysture is spent, or consumed.

Aride: com. As Ari. Dry, withered, without sap.

Aridelle: f. A leane, or carrian tit; an ill fauoured fleshlesse iade; also, an Anotamie, or bodie whereon there is nought left but skin, and bone.

Aridité: f. Drinesse; witheredneſſe; want of humour, lacke of moisture.

Arietant. Ramming, iurring, leacherous; euer fighting, or leaping; as a Ramme, at rut.

Arignée. Seeke Araignée.

Arigot. as Argot; also, a (musicall) Recorder.

Aristocratie: f. An Aristocratie; the gouernment of Nobles; or of some few of the greatest men in a State.

Aristocratique. Aristocraticall, ruled by Nobles, gouerned by some few great men.

Aristocratiquement. Lordly, Aristocratically.

Aristolochié: f. Hartwort, Birthwort.

Aristolochie clematite. Climing Birthwort.

Aristolochie longue. Long Birthwort, or male Birthwort.

Aristolochie ronde. Round, or female Birthwort.

Arithmeticien: m. An Arithmetician.

Arithmetique: f. Arithmeticke; the art of numbers, or of numbering.

Armaire: com. A Cupboord, Ambrie, little presse; any hole, or box contriued in, or against, a wall; any small hollow roome, or place, wherein things may be set, laid vp, and kept; Looke Armoire.

Armaison: f. cecy eſt plus d'armaison que cela. This is more strong, better armed, fitter for fight, or to endure a fight, than that.

Armateur: m. An Armer, a prouider of armes, or weapons for; whence;

Armateurs de navires. Such as vndertake to furnish shipping with powder, bullets, nayles, chaine-shot, wild-fire, &c.

Arme: f. A weapon; Looke Armes; also, as Ame; (in Languedoc.)

Armé: m.ée: f. Armed, harnessed; furnished with arms, prouided of weapons; fortified, fenced.

Poisson armé. A shell-fish.

Armée: f. An armie, or hoast.

Armelin: m. The (hate-spot) Ermelin, or Ermin.

Armement: m. An arming; also, warlike prouision, as powder, bullets, chaine-shot, wild-fire, &c, for shipping.

Armer. To arme, or harnesse; to put on, or clad in, armour; to furnish with armes, or weapons; to strengthen, fortifie, fence; to prouide for, or against warre.

Cheval qui s'arme. That armes, or defends himselfe, (by clapping his bit vnto his breast, whereby the curbe hath little or no power ouer him.)

Contre la nuict s'arment les Limaçons: Prov. viz. Put forth their hornes.

Armeries. as Armoires.

Armes: f. Harnesse, armour; weapons; armes offensiue, and defensiue; also, Armes; Cognisances, or Scutcheons of armes; also, the two great tuskes, or tushes of a wild Boare.

Armes d'ast. Any weapons, that are vsually hurled, or cast at an enemie; or, as;

Armes d'hante, ou d'haste; (most properly) such weapons as haue long heads, and handles; as darts, iauelins; pikes, or speares, &c.

Cotte d'armes. A Coat-armour; also, a Heraulds coat.

Espée d'armes. Looke Espée.

Faicts d'armes. Acts, or feats of Chiualrie; deeds of prowesse; warlike, or valourous atchieuements.

Homme d'armes. A man of armes; one that serues in compleat armour, on a great horse.

Faire armes. To fight; also, to fight most valiantly.

Il en parla comme vn escolier d'armes. Hee spake of it ignorantly, improperly, impertinently, or he knew not what.

D'oiseaux, de chiens, d'armes, & d'amours, pour vn plaisir mille douleurs: Prov. Who fall in loue, or follow Hawkes, hounds, armes, for one delight sustain a thousand harmes.

Armet: m. An Helmet, or (horsemans) head-peece.

Armeurerie: f. Armorie; armor; armes.

Armeures. as Armures.

Armilles: f. Th'yron rings, or braces, wherein the gudgeons of a (wheeles) spindle turne; also, certaine little round members in pillars, &c.

Arminette: f. as Erminette.

Armoire: com. as Armaire; An ambrie; cupboord; box; little booke-presse; &c; (and hence) also, the Pix wherein the Sacrament is kept.

Armoire tournant. The round, and turning box (contriued in a Nunnerie wall) whereby the sisters receiue (vnseene) either gifts, or necessaries.

Armoires: f. The flowers called Sweet-Iohns, or Sweet-Williams, Tolmeyners, and London tufts.

Armoirie: f. An armorie, or store-house for armes.

Armoiries. Armes, Cognisances, Scutcheons, coats of armes; also, as Armoires.

Armoirié: m.ée: f. Grauen, or charged with armes; set thicke with Scutcheons of Armes; bearing armes.

Armoise: f. The hearbe called Mugwort, or Mothewort.

Armoise mince-fueilles, ou à petites fueilles; thinleaued Mugwort.

Petite armoise. The same, and a third, or lesse kind thereof.

Armoisin: m. Taffata.

Armoisin: m.ine: f. Of Taffata; silken.

Armoisine: f. as Armoisin: m.

Armoniac. Armoniacum; a Gumme issuing from the Cyrenian Ferula, or Fennell-giant.

Armoniac. Of, or seasoned with, Armoniacum.

Sel Armoniac. Looke Sel.

Armonie: f. Seeke Harmonie.

Armorial: m.ale: f. Belonging vnto armor; or expressing, or setting out ones armes.

Armorier: m. An Armorer, or Harnesse-maker.

Armories. as Armoires.

Armottes: f. A broth, or pap, made of meale steeped in liquor, and sodden vntill it be thicke.

Armoux. choux armoux. A kind of greene Coleworts whose leaues are of an ouall forme.

Armoyer. To tip, or decke the haft of a knife, or handle of a sword, with any worke: (vieil mot.)

Armoyse. Mugwort; Looke Armoise.

Armoysine. as Armoisine.

Armure: f. Harnesse, or Armour for the bodie.

L'armure d'un poisson. The shell, or scales of a fish.

Armures. (As vsuall as in the Singular number) arms, harnesse, armour for the bodie.

Arné:

Arné: m. ée: f. Weake-backed, feeble-rained, loose-ioynted; vnfit, or vnable to please a woman.
Arneat. The rauenous bird, called a Shrike, Nynmurder, Wariangle.
Arnement: m. A weakening, straying, or breaking the reines of.
Arner. To weaken, enfeeble, straine, crush, breake the reines, or backe, of.
Arnogloſſe. Plantaine, Waybrēd.
Arollé: m. ée: f. At it, at worke, whoſe hand is in.
Aromat. as, Aromatique.
Aromates. Spices, fragrant Simples.
Aromatic rozat. A certaine ſweet pouder, good for the ſtomacke and heart.
Aromaticité: f. Sweet ſauour, pleaſant ſmell, pleaſing taſt; as, of ſpices.
Aromatique: m. An aromaticall Simple, or compound.
Aromatique gariofilé. A certaine compoſition wherein there are cloues; good for the paſſions of the heart.
Aromatique: com. Aromaticall, ſpicie, odoriferous, fragant, ſweet-ſmelling.
Aromatizé: m. ée: f. Perfumed, aromatized, ſpiced; ſeaſoned, or ſweetened with ſpices.
Aromatizer. To aromatize; to perfume, ſeaſon, or ſweeten with ſpices, or fragrant Simples.
Aron. The hearbe Aron, Calues foot, Ramp, Starchwoort, Cuckoe-pint, Prieſts pintle.
Aronde: f. A tronke to ſhoot in; alſo, as Arondelle.
Arondeau: m. A young Swallow.
Arondelet. as, Arondeau.
Arondelle: f. A Swallow.
Arondelle de mer. The flying fiſh called the ſea Bat, or ſea Swallow; alſo, a kind of mullet, called otherwiſe, Faulcon de mer.
Arondelle de riuage. Looke, Hirondelle.
La grande arondelle. The great, blacke, and ſcriching, Martin.
L'herbe d'arondelles. Celandine, great Celandine, Swallowwort, Tetterwort.
Queuë d'arondelle. See Queuë.
La venuë des arondelles. is about the two and twenteith of March.
Aroy: m. A plough.
Arpailleur: m. A ſeller of old trinkets, or of old yron; alſo, a finer of mettals, or gold-finer.
Arpent: m. An acre, or furlong of ground; the moſt ordinarie one called (ſometimes) L'arpent de France, is 100 perches ſquare (or euery way) after 18 feet to the perche.
L'arpent de bois; containes, in moſt places, two roods and a halfe; the rood 40 perches; the perch 24 feet; and the foot 24 ynches.
L'arpent de bois de Bourgoigne. containes 440 perches.
L'arpent de Clermont. is in moſt places 100 Verges, in others but 70; after 26 feet to the verge.
L'arpent de Dunois. is of 100 perches, after 20 feet to the perch.
L'arpent de France. as before, in Arpent.
L'arpent de Nevers. is foure quarters ſquare; the quarter tenne fadomes; the fadome ſix ordinarie feet.
L'arpent de Paris. is 100 perches ſquare after 22 feet to the perche; (yet is not this proportion of the Perche generall; for in ſome places about Paris it containes 25 feet, and in others (after the ordinarie rate) but 18.)
Arpent de la Perche. containes 100 perches, the perche 24 feet, the foot 13 ynches.
Arpent de Poictou. is 80 paces ſquare.
L'arpent Romain. is 240 feet long, and 120 feet broad.
Arpentage: m. A ſuruey taken of land.
Arpenté: m. ée: f. Surueyed, or meaſured, as land; alſo, runne.
Arpentement. A ſurueying, or meaſuring of land.
Arpenter. To meaſure, or ſuruey land; alſo, to run.
Arpenterie: f. A ſurueying, or meaſuring of land.
Arpenteur: m. A ſurueyor, or meaſurer of land.
Arpilleux: m. Rauenous, deuouring.
Arquebouſade. as Arquebuſade.
Arquebouſe, & Arquebouſier. as Arquebuſe, and Arquebuſier.
Arquebuſade: f. The ſhot of a caleeuer, or harquebuſe.
Arquebuſe: f. An harquebuſe, caleeuer, or hand-gunne.
Arquebuſe de chaſſe. A fowling peece.
Arquebuſe à croc. An harquebuſe a-crocke (ſomewhat bigger then a musket.)
Arquebuſe à fuſil. A Snap-haunce.
Arquebuſe à grand reſſort. A French harquebuſe.
Arquebuſe à rouët. A fire-locke, or Peece that goes with a fire-locke.
Arquebuſier: m. An harquebuſier, or ſmall-ſhot; one that ſerues with an harquebuſe, or caleeuer.
Arquemie. Seeke, Alquemie.
Arquer. To arche; to bend, crooke, or bow like an arch, or bowe.
Arrabler. To rape, and rend; to rauine, rob, ſpoile; to get by hooke or by crooke; (an old word.)
Arraché: m. ée: f. Rooted vp; drawne, torne, plucked out, or vp by the root; pulled away by violence.
Arrachement: m. A rooting vp; a drawing, tearing, plucking, vp by the root; a pulling away by violence.
Arrachement d'une voulte. The root, bottome, or beginning of a vault; as Tas de charge.
D'Arrache-pied. Continually; without intermiſſion, without diſcontinuance, together.
Arracher. To root vp; to draw, teare, plucke vp by the root; to pull away by violence; to plucke out.
Il arrache les bonnes herbes, & plante les mauvaiſes. He reuiles the good, and flatters the bad; or, he ſupplants vertue, to ſupport vice.
Arracheur: m. A puller, tearer, rooter vp.
Arrachis: m. as Arrachement.
Arrager. as Enrager.
Arraiſonné: m. ée: f. Reaſoned, talked, diſcourſed, fallen in ſpeech with.
Arraiſonnement: m. A reaſoning, talking, diſcourſing with.
Arraiſonner. To reaſon, conferre, talke, diſcourſe, fall in ſpeech, enter into tearmes, with.
Arramir. To ſiweare.
Arrangé: m. ée: f. Ranked, ranged, diſpoſed, ordered, arrayed, digeſted, ſorted, ſet in it place.
Arrangement. An ordering, ſorting, ranging, ranking.
Arranger. To ranke, range, diſpoſe, order, ſort; array; diſgeſt; ſet in it right place, rowe, or array.
Arrapant. Suddenly, and violently plucking, or ſnatching away.
Arraper. To take by violence; to ſnatch away; to gripe, or plucke away on a ſuddaine.
Arraſſade. A Salamander.

Arré: m. ée: f. Beſpoken, or, for which earneſt hath beene giuen.

Arre: com. Tart; or, choaking, as a wild peare.

Arrecer. as Arreſter; alſo, as Frayer.

Arreche. as Areſte.

Arréement: m. Good array, order, equipage.

Arrement: m. A giuing of money in earneſt, or beforehand.

Arremens. Ce ſont les dernieres expeditions, & Actes de Iuſtice faicts entre parties litigantes. ¶Rageau.

Arrené: m. ée: f. Reined; borne vp (as a horſe) by his reines.

Arrengé: m. ée: f. Ranged, ranked, ordered, diſpoſed.

Arrengement. Looke Arrangement.

Arrenté: m. ée: f. Rented; let, or taken, vpon rent.

Arrentement: m. A renting, or letting out vpon an yearely rent.

Arrenter. To rent, to let out for rent; alſo, to take at a rent.

Arrer. To giue in earneſt, in hand, or beforehand; alſo, to giue earneſt for; to buy, or conclude a bargaine, by giuing of earneſt.

Arrerage: m. An arrerage; remainder, &c; as Arrierage.

Arrerager. To fall, grow, come, into arrerages.

Arrerailles: f. Latewardſeed; corne thats ſowed late in the yeare, or in the Spring.

Arres. Earneſt; mony giuen for the concluſion, or ſtriking vp, of a bargaine.

Reprenons nos arres. Looke Erres.

Arreſtement. The riſing, or ſtiffeneſſe of the yard; prick-pride; a ſtanding.

Arreſter. The yard to riſe, and grow, ſtiffe, or to ſtand.

Arreſt: m. An Arreſt, Sentence, Decree, Order, or finall iudgement of a Court; alſo, an arreſt; a ſeiſure of, or execution ſerued vpon, a mans perſon, or goods; alſo, the Reſt whereon a man of armes ſetleth his lance; and generally, any reſt, ſtop, or ſtay for a thing.

Arreſt de pont. An Engine that goes with a vice, and hinders a draw-bridge, once downe, from being pulled vp againe.

Tu n'as non plus d'arreſt qu'un ieune veau. Thou art as giddie as a ſucking calfe.

Arreſte: f. as Areſte.

Arreſté: m. ée: f. Stayed, ſtopped, arreſted; ſetled; alſo, detained, with-held from; alſo, decreed, determined, reſolued.

Arreſte-bœuf. The hearbe Reſt-harrow, pettie-Whinne, graund-furze, Cammocke.

Arreſtement: m. A ſtopping, arreſting, ſtaying; ſetling; determining.

Arreſte-nef. Ship-ſtaying, bark-ſtopping, boat-arreſting.

Arreſter. To ſtay, ſtop, arreſt; ſettle; alſo, to determine, decree, reſolue of; alſo, to detaine, or with-hold from.

s'arreſter. To ſtay, reſt, ſtop at, abide in, a place; alſo, to pawſe on; alſo, to reſolue.

Arrhemens. as Erres, or Erremens.

Arrierage: m. An arrerage; the reſt, or the remainder of a payment; that which is vnpayed, or behind.

Arrieré: m. ée: f. Caſt, come, or fallen, behind; behind-hand.

Arriere. Behind, backward; alſo, aloofe, or farre from; alſo (imperatiuely) backe, or get you backe; alſo, Againe! Yet more! What, ſo often? or, Will you neuer haue done? (ſaid in anger vnto an importunate repeater of vnpleaſing motions) alſo, moreouer, furthermore, beſides, ouer and beſides.

Pour vn petit n'avant n'arriere. A little breakes no ſquare; It makes no matter though wee miſſe a little.

Arriereban: m. A Proclamation, whereby thoſe that hold of the king by a meſne tenure, are ſummoned to aſſemble, and ſerue him in his warres; different from Ban, whereby ſuch are called as hold immediately of him; (alſo, the whole troupe of thoſe meſne tenants, or vnder-vaſſals ſo aſſembled) ¶Ragueau; The Author of Guidon general des financiers holds, the contrarie, that Ban is for meſne, and Arriereban for immediat, tenants; Others imagine, that Ban ſummons Roturiers, or yeomen; Arriereban, gentlemen, or ſuch as hold noble fiefs; Some ſay, that Ban is the firſt ſummons, Arriereban, a ſecond, vnder penaltie; Others by Ban vnderſtand ordinarie ſeruice, by Arriereban extraordinarie; and, in old time, ſuch as were called by the Ban, ſerued at their owne charges fortie daies; during which, or afterwards, vpon vrgent occaſions, th' Arriereban, or a ſecond Proclamation was made, enioyning them to ſerue in that manner fortie daies more; Howſoeuer, at this day, theſe two words are moſt commonly ioyned together, and comprehend both the gentleman, and yeoman; th'immediate, and the meſne, tenant. Looke Ban.

Arriere-boutique. A back-ſhop; or back-roome, vſed for priuat wares, or working in.

Sans arriere-boutique. Plainely, openly; wholly; without flinching, dodging; diſſembling, or double-dealing.

Il a vne arriere-boutique; &, Il ſe reſerue vne arriere-boutique. He diſſembles, or ſuppreſſes as yet his courage, or cunning; he reſerues, or ſpares them for a laſt caſt, or for his laſt effort.

Arriere-cenſive: f. A meſne tenure in an eſtate, or land, that is Roturier, or held by a Roturier; or, held by Cens; a meſne Cenſive.

Arriere-chambre: f. A backe-chamber; an inner, or withdrawing chamber.

Arriere-coin: m. A backe corner; a ſmall, priuat, hidden, or inner roome; or, a hidden roome in a backe corner.

Arriere-court: f. A backe-yard, or baſe-Court.

Arriere-demandé. Sleightly demaunded, ſlowly asked, or, long before he were asked for.

Arriere-fais: m. The ſecondine, or after birth; the three skins wherein an infant lyes wrapped while it is in the wombe, or when it comes into the world.

Arriere-feudal. Seigneur ar. A meſne Lord.

Arriere-fief: m. A meſne fief; a fief that is held of, or depends on, another, or higher fief. Looke Fief.

Arriere-foin: m. A latter mathe; or, lateward hay.

Arriere-foncier. as Surfoncier.

Arriere-foſſé: m. A backe ditch, or dike; an outward dike; alſo, as Reffiron.

Arriere-garde. The reregard of an armie; alſo, the wardſhip of one that holds by Knights ſeruice of a ward.

Arrieregarend. C'eſt le garend du garend; ¶Ragueau.

Arriere-main: m. A blow giuen backward, or with the backe of the hand; alſo, the profit made of an Office (beſides fees) by ſecret bribes, and exactions; priuat vayles.

Arriere-nepveu: m. A great graund-child, the ſonne of a graund-child.

Arriere-ouvert: m. erte: f. Wide open.

Arriere-poinct: m. A backe-ſtitch.

Arriere-

Arriere-poincté: m. ée: f. Back ſtitched, wrought with back-ſtitch.
Arriere-poincter. To worke back-ſtitch; to ſet a back-ſtitch.
Arrierer. To goe backward; alſo, to ſet backe.
Arriere-ſaiſon. Later math; a late harueſt, a late-ward yeare.
Arriere-taille: f. A ſecond, or later tax; a further impoſition.
Arriere-vaſſal. An vnder-vaſſall; a vaſſall vnto a vaſſall.
Arriere-uaſſeur. An vnder-vaſſall; or, an vnder-villaine; a vaſſall, or villaine vnto a vaſſall, or villaine.
Arrigateur: m. A waggoner, or chariot-driuer.
Arriger. s'ar. To riſe, or ſtand vp ſtiffe, as the yard.
Arrivé: m. ée: f. Arriued, abboorded, come vnto.
Arrivée: f. An arriuall, acceſſe, abboord, or comming to.
Arrivement: m. An arriuing, or comming to.
Arriver. To arriue, abboord, or come vnto.
Arrobe: f. A iarre; a veſſell, or meaſure, which, in the weight of ordinarie marchandiſe, comes to twentie fiue pound.
Arroches. Orache, Orage, golden hearbe.
Arroches de mer. A certaine hoarie, gray, or mealie-coloured plant, called ſea Orage.
Arroches ſauvages. Wild Orage, All-ſeed.
Arrogamment. Arrogantly, preſumptuouſly.
Arrogance: f. Arrogancie; preſumption; vaunting, pride, ouer-weening.
Arrogant: m. ante: f. Arrogant; preſumptuous; ouer-weening; proud, or, that proudly attributes too much vnto himſelfe.
s'Arroger. To arrogate, or aſcribe too much vnto himſelfe; to preſume, or boaſt, more of himſelfe then hee ſhould.
Arrollé: m. ée: f. At worke, or, whoſe hand is in.
s'Arroller. To fall, or ſet himſelfe, to worke; to be at worke, or be willing to worke.
Arrondir. To round, make round, turne round.
Arrondir les eſperons. To ſpurre a horſe in turning, moſt on the ſide whereon he turnes.
Arrondiſſement: m. A rounding, making round, or turning round.
Les Arrondiſſemens d'un habillement. The pieces, or ſhreds that are cut off in the rounding of a garment.
Arroſé: m. ée: f. Bedeawed; beſprinkled; gently wet, or moiſtened; a little watered.
Arroſement: m. as Arrouſement.
Arroſer. as Arrouſer.
Arroſeur: m. A bedeawer; a beſprinkler; a gentle waterer of.
Arrouë. as Arrobe.
Arrouler. To rowle, or tumble towards; to bring with rowling.
Arrouſable: com. Fit to be watered, beſprinkled, bedeawed.
Arrouſage: m. as Arrouſement.
Arrouſé: m. ée: f. Bedeawed, ſprinkled, moiſtened, gently wet, or watered.
Arrouſement: m. A bedeawing, ſprinkling, moiſtening; gentle wetting, watering.
Arrouſer. To bedeaw, beſprinkle; wet, moiſten, water gently.
Arrouſoir: m. A watering pot.
Arrouter. To ſet in the way, put into the way.
s'Arrouter. To aſſemble in troupes, to gather together in routs, to make a riot.
Arroy: m. Order, array; equipage, furniture.
Arroyé: m. ée: f. Arrayed; furniſhed, in full equipage.
Arroyer. To array; furniſh; put in order, equipage.
Arrudir. To make rude, clowniſh, vnciuile, barbarous.
Arrumé: m. ée: f. Carte arrumée. A ſea-card, wherein all the quarter winds, or trauers boords, are delineated.
Arrumer. To delineate, or ſet out, in a ſea-card, all the Rums of winds.
Arruner. To ranke, ſort, range, diſpoſe, put in order, ſet in array.
Arry avant. On afore, away there hoe; (from the Carters cry, Arry, & hori ho.)
Ars. les ars: m. The breaſt, or briſket of a horſe.
Ars: m. arſe: f. Burnt; ſcorched, parched, conſumed with heat, or fire.
Arſacide: m. as Aſſaſſin.
Arſeirole: f. A little, red, ſower, and peare-like fruit, that comes of a Hawthorne grafted on a Quince.
Arſel. as Arzel.
Arſenic: m. Arſenicke, Orpiment, Orpine (the naturall one is of two ſorts; th'one red, th'other yellow; whereas;).
Arſenic cryſtallin; is compounded of ſalt, and litle pieces of Orpiment, and thus termed, becauſe it is, as Chriſtall, tranſparent.
Arſon: m. as Arceau; or, as Arçon.
Art: m. An art, ſcience; trade, craft, miſterie, occupation; alſo, skill, cunning, workmanſhip; alſo, craft, ſubtiltie, deceit, guile.
Arts de vents. as Rumbs.
L'homme qui a de l'art poſſede ſa part: Prov. He that hath wit, will haue a ſhare in euery thing.
Qui ſçait l'art ſerre la boutique: Prov. Th'enuious workeman often hides his cunning.
Qui ne ſçait l'art ſerre la boutique: Pro. The bungler, to ſeeme cunning, makes it daintie.
Artail: m. as Orteil.
Artemon: m. The mizen Maſte, or ſayle, of a ſhip.
Artere: f. An Arterie, pulſe, panting veine; a skinnie, round, and hollow veſſell, whereby the vitall ſpirit, mixed with bloud, is conueyed from the heart vnto all parts of the bodie.
Artere aorte. The great Arterie, mother Arterie, or mother of Arteries. Looke Aorte.
Artere axillaire. Th'arme-hole-Arterie; or, a left branch of th' Aorte, from which it aſcends obliquely towards th'arme-hole; where after it hath ſent it branches to the higher ribs, and other adiacent parts, it deſcendeth downe to the bought of the cubit.
Artere carotide. Iſſues from th' Axillaire, and is diuided into two branches; th'inward, and greater, which goes vnto the braine; the outward, which paſſeth vnto the Larinx, tongue, noſe, eyes, and muſcles of the temples.
Artere cervicale. An Arterie in the nape, or hinder part, of the necke; iſſues from the Sousclaviere, and goes thence through the neck-bone vnto the braine.
Artere cœliaque. Iſſues from the bodie of the great Arterie, and is diuided into three branches; Looke Cœliaque.
Arteres coronales. Two little branches of the great arterie, and left by it vnto the left ventricle, and broad end, of the heart.
Artere crotaphique. See, Crotaphique.

Ar-

Artere crurale. Th' arterie of the thigh, among whose muscles it diuides it selfe.
Artere cubitale. The cubitall arterie, a branch of th' Axillaire.
Artere cystepatique. A branch of the Cœliaque, goes vnto the liuer, and the gall.
Artere diaphragmatique. Issues from the trunke of the great arterie, and thence goes vnto the Diaphragma.
Artere Epigastrique. A branch of the Iliacke arterie; distributes it selfe among the muscles of th' Epigastre.
Artere Gastrepiploique. A branch of the Cœliaque, whence it goes vnto the ventricle, and th' Epiploon.
Arteres gemelieres. The twin arteries; two small ones, which descend vnto the ioint of the knee betweene the processes of the thigh bones.
Artere grande. as, Aorte.
Artere honteuse. Issues from the great arteries descendent branch, and bestowes it selfe among the priuities.
Artere hypogastrique. A branch of th' Iliacke; distributes it selfe among the parts of th' Hypogastre.
Artere Iliaque. Th' Iliacke arterie, or, descendent branch of the great one.
Arteres intercostales. Two arteries; an vpper; which bestowes it selfe among the muscles that be between the foure highest ribs; and, an vnder one, which goes vnto euery muscle that is betweene the rest of the ribs.
Arteres Lumbaires. The loyne-arteries; issue from th' Aorte vnto all the parts of the loynes, giuing life vnto the marrow of the backe bone, and sending as many branches vnto the ioints thereof as there be holes in it.
Artere Mamillaire. The pap-arterie; issues from the trunke of th' Aorte.
Arteres Mesenteriques. Looke, Mesenterique.
Arteres Planteres. Two branches of the thigh arterie (the which they diuide in the middle of the leg) an inward one, which descends to the ioint, or setting on of the foot, and passing along the sole, ends in fiue branches, whereof two serue for the great toe, two for the second toe, and one for the middle toe; Th' outward (as th' inner) ends also in fiue branches; two whereof it bestowes on the little toe, two on the next vnto it, and one on the middle one.
Artere de poulmon. The wind-pipe.
Artere radiale. A second branch of th' arme-hole-arterie, whence it bestowes it selfe on the Radius, or the vpper, and greater bone of the arme.
Artere renale. The kidney arterie; issues out of the Aorte, and enters into the kidney, bringing vnto it the seroßtie of th' arteriall bloud.
Artere sacrée. A branch of the great arteries descendent branch; goes vnto the marrow which is in the Os sacré.
Artere sousclaviere. Th' ascendent branch of the great arterie.
Artere spermatique. The spermaticke arterie; goes from the bodie of th' Aorte vnto the testicles, and there ioynes with the veine that gouernes those parts.
Artere splenitique. The spleene arterie, or greatest branch of the Cœliaque, whence it goes vnto the spleene, and therein ends.
Artere temporelle. Th' arterie of the temples.
Artere thorachique. The breast arterie; issues out of the great arteries ascendent branch, and goes vnto the anterior muscles of the breast.
Artere veineuse. The veinie arterie; one of the three principall ones of the bodie; issues from the left ventricle of the heart, and carries thence to the lungs bloud for their nourishment.
Aspre artere. The wind-pipe.
Trachée artere; or, Trachiartere; the same; called also, the pipe of the lungs; is one of the three principall arteries in the bodie; and th' instrument of breath, and voice; it begins at the Larinx, and enas at the lungs, or lights.
Arterial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, arteries.
Arterieux: m. euse: f. Full of arteries.
Veine arterieuse. Looke, Veine.
Arteriotomie: f. An incision of arteries.
Arthetiques: f. Cowslips, or Oxslips.
Arthritique. Ive arthritique. Hearbe Iue, ground Pine, field Cypres, Forget-me-not.
Arthrodie: f. An halfe coniunction of two bones; the head of the one being but halfe lodged within the cauitie of th' other.
Artialiser. To make artificiall; or, to make an art of.
Artichau, & Artichaud. as, Artichault.
Artichauliere: f. A Bed, or Plot set with Artichockes.
Artichault: m. An Artichocke.
Artichault sauvage. The wild Artichocke, or prickly Artichocke; also, the white thistle, milke thistle, our Ladies thistle.
Artichaut: as Artichault.
Article: m. An article; a head, principall clause, title, or point of a matter; also, a Summe, or Item of a Summe, in accounts; also, a ioint, or knuckle.
Articulaire: com. Of, or in, the ioints; belonging to a ioint.
Douleur articulaire. Paine, or ache in the ioints; and (more particularly) the Gout.
Articulation. A growing, springing, or shooting vp from knot to knot, from ioint to ioint; also, the hurting, or bursting of young ioints; the staring of trees, whose yong shoots are beaten of by tempest, or hurt, and bruised by rude, and vnskilfull handling.
Articulé: m. ée: f. Articulated, articled; set downe in, reduced vnto, articles; distinguished, summarily handled, particularly, and precisely described; also, iointed, or knotted.
Voix articulée. A distinct voice, a voice thats easie to be vnderstood.
Articuler. To articulate, article, reduce into articles, diuide, or distinguish by seuerall heads, titles, or summes; precisely, and particularly to describe, or point out.
Artien: m. An Artist; or one that studies, or professes, artes.
Artiere: f. The Sharpling, Stickling, or Stick'ebacke; (a small fish.)
Artifice: m. Skill, cunning, workmanship; also, craft, subtiltie, guile, deceit.
Artificiel: m. elle: f. Artificiall, skilfull, cunning, workmanly, workemanlike.
Artificiellement. Artificially, cunningly, workmanly.
Artificieux: m. euse: f. Artificiall, full of art.
Artifier. Artificially to forge; to make by art, or craft.
Artiller. To furnish with Ordnance, or Artillerie.
Artillerie: f. Artillerie. Ordnance.
Artillerie cardinale. is (among sea-men) a peece of Ordnance of a very wide bore.
Artillier: m. A Bowyer, or Bow-maker; also, a Fletcher; or one that makes both bowes, and arrowes.
Artillier du Roy. The Kings Bowyer, or Fletcher; an officer officer in ordinarie; who makes not onely these instruments of shooting, but also, all manner of artificiall fireworkes.

Artinion. A little sayle, called otherwise, Trinquet.

Artiron: m. A little, round, and greenish worme, not much vnlike a lowse, and ordinarily cleauing, in great numbers, to the leaues of Coleworts, and other plants, the which in time they deuour.

Artisan: m. An artificer, workman, handicrafts man; also, an artist, or artisan.

Artison. as Artiron; also, a kind of moth; also, a wood-worme; also, as Teigne, the skurfe of a scald head; so tearmed, because the part infected with it seemes to be moth-eaten, or worme-eaten.

Artisonné. Moth-eaten, worme-eaten.

Artiste: m. as Artisan; also, an artist, or Master of art.

Artistement. as Artificiellement.

Artoir: m. The great toe.

Artre: f. A moth; also, a kings-fisher.

Artres des boulengiers. A kind of butterflies, or great white mothes, which liue altogether in bake-houses, or mylls.

Artre grise des bois. The vermine called, a Wood-lowse.

Artrose: f. A naturall, and moueable connexion of bones.

Artuson. A corne-deuouring weeuill; or, as Artison.

Arzel: m. A horse with a white foot on the right, or further side.

As. An Ace at dice, or cards.

Demeurer entre deux & as. To rest on vncertaine tearmes, to bee doubtfull of his successe; not to know what will betide him.

Respondre entre deux & as. Looke Deux; or, Az.

Asare: m. The hearbe Folefoot, Haslewort, Asarabacca.

Asarine: f. Italian Asarabacca.

Asarole: f. A kind of small, and prickly medlar tree, bearing a lesse, and harder fruit then the ordinarie one; Seeke Azarole.

Asbetin. of Asbestinum; a kind of line, or flax, that wil not be burned, and yeelds a cloth which fire scoures better then water.

Ascalabe. The venomous beast called Stellio, or, the starrie Lizard.

Ascalaue, & Ascalavette. as Ascalabe.

Ascaride: f. A kind of small round worme, which breeds in the bowels.

Ascavanté. Instructed, fully informed, made skilfull in, or throughly acquainted with.

Ascavanter. To informe, or instruct throughly, to let know, giue to wit, make skilfull in, or fully acquainted with.

Ascavoir. To wit, that is to say.

Ascendant: m. A kinsman in ascent; as the vnkle is to the nephew, &c.

Asche: f. The hearbe Smallage; Looke, Ache.

Aschée. A ground-worme, or grub.

Aschet. as, Aschée.

Ascite. A kind of Dropsie, which makes the belly sound like a bottle, when one strikes on it.

Ascles: f. Shiuers, or splinters of wood, breaking. ¶Langued.

Ascouter. as Accouter; or, as Escouter.

Aserches: f. wild prickmadam, stone-crop, wormegrasse.

Asereiner. To cleere, or cheere, vp.

Asgrandissement. as, Aggrandissement.

Asinin: m. ine: f. Asse-like; of, or belonging to an Asse.

Chardon asinin. The white thistle, milke thistle, our Ladies thistle.

Concombre asinin. The wild, or spirting, Cowcomber.

Asmatique: com. Pursie, short-winded, breathing with difficultie.

Asme: m. Difficultie of breathing, short-wind; a painfull, or hard drawing of the breath, accompanied with a wheezing, puffing, or pursinesse.

Asne: m. An Asse; also, a little fish with a great head, called, a Bull head, or Millers thumbe; also, a dunce, blockhead, sot, loggarhead, dull-pated fellow.

Asne d'Inde. The beast Rhinoceros; or (as some will haue it) th'Vnicorne.

Coq à l'asne. A Libell, Pasquine, Satire.

Cul d'asne. The name of a daintie fish.

Dos d'asne. à dos, ou, en dos d'asne. Ridgill-backed; bowed, boughtie, or bowing; highest in the middle.

Miroir d'asne. A kind of tender, and transparent white stone; as Talc.

Oreille d'asne. Th'hearbe Comfrey, knit-backe, knitwort, blacke wort.

Oreille d'asne: Pro. The part, or dutie of a seruant; to heare all his angrie master sayes without replying; from the nature, and custome of an Asse, that (whatsoeuer noise is made about him) only claps downe his eares, and followes on his way.

Pas d'asne. The hearbe Folefoot, Coltsfoot, Horsefoot, and Hallfoot; also, a certaine ring, or hoope, of yron in the forecastle of a ship; also, a fashion of a Port, or Vpset in the mouth of some bits.

Persil d'asne. Wild Cheruill, mocke Cheruill, great Cheruil, Asse parsely, Myrrhis Cashes, Caxes, or Kexes.

Pont aux asnes. Any shift, euasion, helpe at a pinch for th'ignorant; any ease, or direction vnto dull, or vnlearned people, for the resolution of difficulties which otherwise they cannot conceiue; as, a Dictionarie; and, in Logicke, the conuersion of Propositions.

Avoir de l'asne. Il y aura icy de l'asne. Here will be some foolish coyle, some idle sturre, or other.

Braire avec les asnes. To follow the fashion, or doe what others doe, how absurd, or sottish soeuer it be.

Brider l'asne par la queuë. To do things out of order; to goe the wrong way to the wood, or to worke.

Cholere comme vn asne à qui l'on attache vne fusée aux festes. As angrie as an Asse with a squib in his breech.

Demander de la laine à vn asne. To aske for a thing where tis not to be had.

Desferrer l'asne. To vnshoe the Asse; wee say, to ride the wild mare.

Faire de l'asne pour avoir du bran. Looke, Bran.

Laissons aux asnes les chardons. Let Asses feed on thistles, dunces on dull stuffe, dull wits on drie matters.

Mener l'asne. To be laughed at, or little accounted of by all men that see, or meet him.

Monter sur l'asne. To breake, become bankrupt, renounce his owne goods: (A Phrase deriued from an auncient custome, whereby such as broke were compelled to ride backward on an Asse through the towne they dwelt in, holding his tayle in their hands, in stead of a bridle.)

On y va comme asnes desbastez: (Of those that meet at stollen lecherie) they goe to it hotely, furiously, with a terrible appetite; (for Asses discharged of their burthens, vnsadled, and set at libertie, are the frukest creatures aliue.)

Saulter du coq à l'asne. To digresse from the matter, or, to leape suddainely, and disorderly, from one matter to another.

Tirer

Tirer pets d'un aſne mort. To make a dead aſſe fart; to worke impoſſibilities.

Aſne d'Arcadie broute chardons,& ortie,&c. Pro. *Looke,*Ortie.

L'aſne qui brait le plus, eſt celuy qui mange le moins: Prov. Th'aſſe that brayeth moſt eateth leaſt.

Vn aſne n'entend rien en Muſique: Pro. An aſſe is but a bad Muſician; or,cannot iudge of Muſicke.

à lauer la teſte d'un aſne on ne perd que le temps, & la lexive: Pro. In vaine one ſtriues to make learned a ſottiſh,or make honeſt a graceleſſe,perſon.

à la preuve l'on eſcorche l'aſne: Prov. Looke Eſcorcher.

à qui eſt l'aſne ſi le garde: Prov. Let him that owes a thing looke to it.

à qui eſt l'aſne ſi le tienne par la queue: Prov. See Queue.

à rude aſne rude aſnier: Pro. A ſtubborne ſeruant nèeds a froward maſter; a curſt wife a curbing husband; a rebellious ſubiect a rigorous Souueraigne.

à vilain charbonnée d'aſne: Prov. A churle would haue churles fare, groſſe meats,courſe entertainment.

Amour apprend les aſnes à danſer: Prov. Looke Danſer.

Aſſez va au moulin qui ſon aſne y envoye: Prov. He may be ſaid to doe a thing that ſets his man about it.

Chantez à l'aſne il vous fera des pets: Prov. The ignorant blockhead ſcornes both Muſicke, and the Muſes; or,as wee ſay, Claw a churle by the breech, and he will beray your fiſt.

Deux orgueilleux ne peuvent eſtre portez ſur vn aſne: Prov. One poore aſſe cannot carrie two proud ones.

Il ne faut pas lier les aſnes auec les cheuaux: Pro. Churles aïe not to be matcht, or ſorted, with gentlemen.

On n'aura ia bon aſne vieil: Pro. A ſlugg,or dullard growne old is worſe then naught.

On ne fait boire à l'aſne quand il ne veut: Prov. Men force not th'aſſe (but aſſes men) to drinke.

Plus d'un aſne à la foire a nom Martin: Prov. We ſay (with a ſmall reſemblance of ſence) there be more maids then Malkin, or, more maids then one be called Malkin.

Pour vn poil Martin perdit ſon aſne: Pro. The puniſhment, or taxation of thoſe that vpon a ſmall occaſion enter into a great contention; as this poore man did,who laying a wager that his aſſe was all white,was ſhewed a blacke haire on him,and ſo,like an aſſe,loſt his aſſe,which was the wager.

Pour vn poinct Martin perdit ſon aſne: Prov. *A ſmall omiſſion,or error may turne a man to much preiudice; Looke,*Poinct.

Qui à aſne tend à aſne vient: Prov. He that will, may, ſoone ynough, proue an aſſe.

Qui femme croit, & aſne mene, ſon corps ne ſera ia ſans peine: Prov. He that beleeues a woman, and leads an aſſe,will neuer be in quiet.

Sous ombre d'aſne entre le chien au Moulin: Pro. (So many a knaue ſneakes into good places in companie, or vnder the pretext,of honeſt men.)

Tel aſne tel aiguillon: Prov. Such as the aſſe, his goad.

Aſnée: f. An Aſſe-load of.

Aſne-fueille. A kind of Origan,which Aſſes loue exceeding well.

Aſnerie: f. Sottiſhneſſe, dulneſſe, ignorance, doltiſhneſſe, blockiſhneſſe; any impertinent, or Aſſe-like, pranke.

Aſneſque: com. Aſſe-like; ſottiſh, dull, ignorant, blockiſh.

Aſneſſe: f. A ſhee Aſſe.

De petit eſguillon poinct on bien grande aſneſſe: Prov. Great beaſts are pricked forward with ſmall goads.

Aſnichon: m. A young aſſe.

Aſnichons. Two little ſtarres in the ſigne Cancer.

Aſnier: m. One that drìueth,or dreſſeth,Aſſes.

Gros aſnier. A iolthead, blockhead, loggarhead; a fellow of a heauie mettall, groſſe capacitie, dull ſpirit.

A rude aſne rude aſnier: Pro. A rude knaue is to be awed by a rough controller.

A l'hoſpital les bons ouvriers, en dignité les gros aſniers: Pro. Looke Ouvrier.

Aſnier. To ride vpon an Aſſe.

Aſnon. as Aſnichon. A young Aſſe; alſo,the little water-vermine called,a Bull-head.

Aſnonner. To fole,or bring forth,an Aſſe.

Aſoté: m. ée: f. *Sotted, beſotted, doting on. Looke,*Aſſoté.

Aſoter. To ſot, beſot, make dote on,bring too farre in loue with.

Aſpalathe: m. *A kind of prickly ſhrub, whoſe maſſiue, ruddie, and aromaticall wood is vſed by Perfumers: ſome, erroniouſly,haue thought it to be red Saunders; others the Rhodian wild Oliue tree; and Gerard cals Engliſh Galingale,*Aſpalathum.

Aſpalier. as Eſpallier.

Asparge. as Aſperge.

Aspect: m. An aſpect,regard,ſight; the viſage,or countenance.

Asperer. To ſharpen,exaſperate,aggrauate,make rough, churliſh,angrie.

Asperge: m. The hearbe Sparage,or Sparagus; alſo,the young,and tender ſprig,or ſhoot of any plant.

Asperge de marais. Marſh Sparage.

Asperges montagnars. Mountaine Sparagus; a kind of wild one.

Asperge paluſtre. as Aſperge de marais.

Asperges pierreus. Stone Sparage, wild Sparagus.

Asperge ſauvage. The ſame.

Aspergement: m. A beſprinkling; a poudering, or bepoudering.

Asperger. To beſprinkle; pouder, bepouder; to ſprinkle, or ſtrew water,or duſt vpon.

Asperget: m. A holy-water ſprinkle.

Aspergiere: f. A bed of Sparagus.

Aspergoutte: f. The hearbe Featherfew, Feuerfew, Whitewort.

Aspergoutte menuë,ou mineur. Starrewort, Cudwort, Sharewort.

Aspergule: f. Clauer, Gooſegraſſe.

Aspersé: m. ée: f. Beſprinkled,or bedeawed with.

Aſperſion: f. A beſprinkling,or bedeawing; an aſperſion.

Aſperſoie: f. A holy-water-ſprinkle made of briſtles.

Aspertule: f. Clauer, Gooſegraſſe.

Asphalthe. as Bitume.

Asphodile. The Daffadill, Affodill, or Aſphodill flower; alſo,the root,or bulbes thereof.

Asphrodille. as Aſphodile; or,as Aphrodille.

Aspic: m. The Serpent called,an Aſpe.

Aspic cornu. A sand-coloured Serpent, full of blacke spots; his head (with muzzle vpturned) is bigger then a vipers; in all other parts he is very like-her.

Aspic sourd. (Th' Aspe, sayes Gesner, by reason of her exceeding drought, is also accounted deafe; although she be very quicke of hearing.)

Aspic: m. The hearbe Spikenard, or Lauander Spike; especially the common, or blew-floured one.

Aspic Celtique. French Spikenard, mountaine Spikenard.

Aspic d'outre mer. Indian Spikenard; or, the true Spikenard; for th'others (especially the French one) are but bastards.

Aspiration: f. An aspiration; a blowing, breathing, drawing of breath.

Aspiré: m. ée: f. Breathed, blowne; also, desired, aspired vnto; also, noted, or pronounced with an aspiration.

Aspirer. To breath, blow, fetch wind, draw breath; also, to desire, couet, ayme at, aspire vnto.

Aspre. A Turkish coyne of siluer, in value little more then our penny, or iust as the French Sous; for 60 of them goe to a Seraph, which is worth about a French Crowne.

Aspre: com. Sharpe, tart; harsh, vnpleasant in taste; rude, rugged, rough, in handling; biting, pricking, or grieuous to be felt; churlish, austere, surly, seuere, vntractable, rigorous, in proceeding; fierce, eager, earnest, vehement, very hot, or forward, in any matter.

L'aspre artere. The wind-pipe.

Lieu aspre. A craggie, ill-fauoured, vneuen place; a place ill to be gone in, traueld on, passed ouer.

Asprelle: f. Horse-tayle, Shaue-grasse (an hearbe.)

Asprement. Sharpely, eagerly, tartly; harshly, vnpleasantly; roughly, ruggedly; seuerely, rigorously, austerely, vntractably; surlily, churlishly; vehemently, earnestly, ardently, fiercely.

Aspresse: f. as Aspreté.

Aspreté: f. Sharpenesse, eagernesse, tartnesse; harshnesse, vnpleasantnesse; roughnesse, ruggednesse; austeritie, rigor, seueritie; surlinesse, vntractableneſſe, churlishnesse; fiercenesse, vehemencie, earnestnesse, extreame desire to doe a thing.

Asprir. To sharpen; exasperate, aggrauate, incense; to make rough, harsh; churlish, angrie.

Aspriſſement. A sharpening, exasperating.

Aspron: m. A little, rough-finned, and Gudgeon-like fish, found onely in that part of the Rosne which is betweene Vienne, and Lyons.

Assablé: m. ée: f. Grauelled; filled with sand; also, stucke in, or run on, the sand.

Assabler. To grauell, to stick in the sand; to fill with sand; to take in sand, as a boat.

Assabliſſement. A shole, shelfe, or hill of sand, appearing aboue water.

Assagi: m. ie: f. Become wise, growne discreet.

Assagir. To make wise, discreet, sage.

Assagiſſement: m. A becomming, or making, wise.

Assaieret. Pillules d'assaieret. Pills made of Hiera, Masticke, Mirablans, Aloës, and the syrrup of Stœchas; (tearmed so by the Arabian Phisitions, and from them by all others.)

Assail'ant: m. A Challenger at Tilting, &c; also, an Assailant, or Assailer: whence;

Rien ne vaut l'assaillant s'il n'est fort, & vaillant: Prov. It boots not to assaile, if strength, or courage, faile.

Assaillant. Assaying, setting on.

Assailli: m. ie: f. Assaulted, assayed, set vpon; also, challenged at Tilt, &c.

Homme assailli à demi vaincu: Pro. He thats assayled is halfe ouercome (tis good therfore to be beforehand with an enemie.)

Assaillir. To assayle, assault, or set vpon; also, to challenge at Tilt, Barriers, &c.

Assaisonné: m. ée: f. Seasoned, made sauourie.

Assaisonnement: m. A seasoning, tempering, making sauourie, giuing a good tast vnto.

Assaisonner. To season, temper, make sauourie, giue a good tast vnto.

Assaisonneur. A seasoner.

Assassin: m. An appoasted manslayer, cut-throat, murtherer; one that kils another for gaine, or vpon hope, or promise, of reward.

Assassinat: m. A murther, or murtherous act committed for gaine, or in hope of a reward; also, a suddaine assault, made of set purpose, and with a murtherous intent, although th'assaulted be not killed.

Assassinateur. as Assassin.

Assassiné. Murthered, slaine, killed; also, assaulted, or set on with a murtherous intent.

Assassinement: m. A killing, slaying, murthering; also, an assaulting with a murtherous intent.

Assassiner. To slay, kill, murther for gaine, or vpon hope, or promise, of reward; also, to assaile, or set on with a murtherous intent.

Assation: f. A rosting, or concoction by a forraine, or outward, and drie heat.

Assavanter. To instruct, informe, certifie, let know, giue to wit, make fully acquainted with.

Assault: m. An assault, assaying, setting on.

Assavoir. as Asçavoir. To wit; that is to say.

Assauvagi: m. ie: f. Made wild, become rude, growne sauage.

Assauvagir. To make wild, skittish, or wood.

Asse: m. Th'ancient Romanes As; a copper coyne worth somewhat more then a pennie sterl.

Asse douce. The sweet gumme that issues from the scarified, or cut stalks, and roots of th' African and Cyrenian Laserpitium, or Laserworte.

Asse fetide. The stinking iuyce, or gumme, which issues from the Laserwort that growes in Syria, Media, Armenia, and Lybia: Apothecaries call it, Asse fœtida.

Assecher. as Asseicher.

Assediacre. An Archdeacon; Ironically.

Asslée: f. A Woodcocke.

Asséeur: m. A cessor, in matter of taxes, &c.

Asseiché: m. ée: f. Dried, growne or made drie.

Asseicher. To drie; to make, or wipe, drie.

Asseller. To goe to the stoole.

Assemblage: m. An assembling; a setting, closing, ioyning, couching of many pieces together; also, the worke made of many pieces so ioined; in-layed worke; also, the whole furniture of a r[illegible]e, &c.

Assemblé. Assembled, gathered, met, flocked, trouped; incountred, come, drawne together; ioyned, couched, closed, set, put, pegged; heaped, packed, compacted together.

Assemblée: f. An assembly, congregation, companie; a meeting, or drawing of people together, as at a hunting; (hence) also, a hunting, or a troupe of hunters; also, a Proclamation, publicke Summons of, or commaund vnto, souldiors, to meet, or make their Rendevous at a certaine place, and thence to goe into the field; also, the fight, coaping, or incounter of two armies.

Assemblement: m. as Assemblée; also, a ioyning, setting, gluing, packing, or couching of things together.

Assembler. To assemble, draw, get, or gather together; to ioyne, put, set, couch, close, glue, peg, packe, or compact, together.

s'Assembler. To assemble, meet, flocke, troope; draw, gather, or come, together.

Assembler vne Armée. To raise an armie.

Assembler le Conseil. To call a counsell.

Assembler à l'ennemy. To fight, buckle, coape, or incounter, with th'enemie.

Ce qu' assemble pille pille desassemble tire tire: Prov. That which rapine gathers, reuelling disperses.

Assemblure: f. as Assemblement.

Assence. Assent, consent. (An old word.)

Assencement; &, Assenceur. as Acensement, & Acenseur.

Assene: m. An assignation, or laying out of a dower, or ioynter, for a widow, or wife.

Assene, & advis. A portion, or gift bestowed by a father on his younger sonnes, or on his daughters, for their preferment.

Assené: m. ée: f. Strucken, hit, raught, or touched home; also, proportioned, squared, measured out; also, seised on, taken into his owne hands.

Assenement: m. A striking, hitting, reaching, touching home; also, a proportioning, squaring, or measuring out; also, a seisure, or seising.

Assener. To hit, strike, reach, or touch home; also, to proportion, measure, or square out; also, to seise, or take into his owne hands.

Assenne. as Assene.

Assenner. as Assener.

Assens: m. A certaine profit made of forrests, and high-growne woods; as the Pawnage, Mastage, &c.

Assentation: f. Assentation, flatterie, colloguing.

Assentatoire: com. Flattering, soothing, colloguing.

Assentement: m. An assent, or consent; also, the sent of a hunted beast, a sent in hunting.

Assenti: m. ie: f. Assented, agreed, accorded vnto; also, sented, smelt, winded.

Assentir. To assent, agree, accord vnto; also, to sent, or wind; to take the wind, or sent, of.

Asseoir. To set, settle, place, plant; also, to cesse, or tax.

s'Asseoir. To sit, or set him downe.

Asseoir son iugement sur. To giue his opinion, or interpose his iudgement, on.

Asseral. A kind of Turkish drug.

Asseré: m. ée: f. Steeled; made of, tempered with, Steele.

Asserrenté: m. ée: f. Sworne, bound by oath; or, put vnto his oath.

Asserrementer. To sweare, put vnto an oath, bind by oath, take th'oath of.

Asserrer. as Serrer.

Asserteur: m. A claimer, or challenger; also, a maintainor, protector, defendor, of another.

Assertion: f. An assertion, affirmation, auerment; also, a demonstration, or document.

Assertivement. Affirmatiuely, demonstratiuely, resolutely, as one that will stand to what he sayes.

Asservagi: m. ie: f. Inthralled, subiected, submitted vnto, tyed in seruile bonds.

Asservagir. To inthrall, or subiect vnto; to make slauish, or seruile; to bring vnto bondage, or tye in seruile bonds.

Asservi: m. ie: f. Subiected, inthralled, submitted; made seruant vnto, or the slaue of.

Asservir. To subiect, inthrall, submit; make seruant vnto, or the slaue of.

Asservissage: m. Thraldome, or, an inthralling of; and hence, land bound for a debt; or, such a binding thereof.

Asservissement: m. An asseruanting, subiecting, inthralling; a subiection.

Assesseur: m. A Iudge Laterall, or, an Assistant vnto a Iudge; one that sits in Court, as an associate with, or an aduisor of, him; and more particularly, an Assistant vnto a Prouost Marshall, or Lieutenant criminell.

Assessoriat: m. Assistance, or by-sitting; th' office, dutie, or place, of a Iudge Laterall, Assistant, or Assesseur.

Asseulé: m. ée: f. Abandoned, forsaken, left solitarie, or alone.

Asseuler. To abandon, forsake, leaue without companie, leaue alone.

Asseur. For, Asseuré; as;

Qui a peur il est asseur: Prov. He that feares, is assured; hee that feares false ground, treads surely; or, false measure, workes safely.

Asseurance: f. Surenesse, assurance, trust, confidence; securitie; boldnesse, hardinesse; also, as Asseurement.

Asseuré: m. ée: f. Bold, feareless, hardie, dreadless; confident, secure; stable, firme, constant, certaine; also, assured, setled, confirmed; also, affirmed.

Il n'est pas asseuré qui trop haut est monté: Prov. He is not safe thats got too high; hee sits not sure that sits too high.

Asseurement: m. The Peace, or good behauior graunted vnto one against another, who, if he breake it, commits felonie (by some customes in France; ) also, protection, safegard, or safeconduct.

Asseurément. Boldly, assuredly, confidently, securely, trustfully, dreadlesly, without flinching, or feare; certainely, stably, firmely, constantly.

Asseurément chante qui n' a que perdre: Prov. Looke Chanter.

Asseurer. To assure, settle, confirme, fasten; resolue; to giue securitie vnto; also, to protect, safegard, safeconduct; graunt the Peace against; also, to lay vp in a safe, or sure place; also, to vndertake for the safetie, or suretie of; to warrant; also, to ascertaine; affirme, auouch.

Asseurer vn oiseau. To make, or man a hauke throughly; L'asseurer au Iardin &c; To set her out in a garden &c. to weather.

Asseureté: f. as Asseurement.

Assez. Inough, sufficiently; very well, as much as needs; also, a competent quantitie, or number, of.

Assez a qui bon credit a: Pro. A good name is wealth sufficient.

Assez a qui se contente: Pro. He hath ynough thats pleased.

Assez y a si trop n'y a: Prov. Inough is as good as a feast; or, too much of any thing is good for nothing.

Assez boit qui a dueil: Pro. He drinks ynough that mournes; (yet we say, Sorrow is drie.)

Assez consent qui ne dit mot: Pro. He that gainesayes not, giues his full consent; (of the same vessell is;)

Assez octroye qui mot ne dit.

Assez demande qui se plaind: Pro. He that bemones his wants, hath begd sufficiently.

Assez demande qui bien sert: Pro. A faithful seruant asks ynough; what his words do not aske, his worth doth.

Assez dort qui rien ne fait: Pro. As good sleepe altogether as doe nothing.

Aſſez en dit qui apporte bonnes nouvelles: Prov. He that hath told good newes, needs tell no more.
Aſſez eſcorche qui tient le pied: Pro. Looke Pied.
Aſſez gaigne qui malheur perd: Prov. He gets ynough that balkes ill lucke; or, that looſes nothing.
Aſſez ieuſne qui pauvrement vit: Prov. He that feeds barely faſts ſufficiently.
Aſſez parens aſſez tourmens: Prov. The more kinſmen the more afflictions.
Aſſez peut pleurer qui n'a nul qui l'appaiſe: Pro. He may weepe till his heart ake, that hath no bodie to appeaſe him.
Aſſez ſçait qui ſçait vivre & ſe taire: Prov. Looke Sçavoir.
Aſſez va au moulin qui ſon aſne y envoye: Prov. He's guiltie ynough of an offence that appoints his man to commit it.
Aſſez veille qui bien fait: Prov. Looke Veiller.
De petit petit, & d'aſſez aſſez: Prov. From much take much, from little take a little.
Rien n'a qui aſſez n'a: Prov. He that hath not ynough hath nothing; or, he that couets more then he hath enioyes not what he hath.
Aſſidu: m. uë: f. Daily, frequent, oft, continuall; diligent, ſerious, laborious.
Aſſiduellement. Daily, continually, frequently, commonly, often.
Aſſiduement. as Aſſiduellement.
Aſſiduité: f. Aſſiduitie, frequencie, oftenneſſe, diligence, continuance in.
Aſſiegé: m. ée: f. Beſieged, beleaguered.
Aſſiegement de ville. A beſieging, or beleaguering, of a towne; a ſiege, or leaguer.
Aſſieger. To beſiege, to beleaguer.
Aſſiegeur: m. A beſieger, a beleaguerer.
Aſſiement: m. A ſitting.
Aſſier: m. Steele.
Aſſiete. as Aſſiette.
Aſſiette: f. A trencher-plate; alſo, the ſeat, ſcite, or ſituation of a houſe, or place; alſo, a plot for, or the platforme of, a building; alſo, a couch, bed, courſe, or laine of ſtone, &c, in building; alſo, a ſitting; alſo, land ſurueyed and ſet out to th'vtmoſt rate; or th'vtmoſt rent raiſed, and extent layed, vpon land, for the payment of a debt, &c.
Aſſiette à dorer. Size to gild with, gold ſize.
Aſſiette de taille. A ceſſement, or ceſſing of a tax.
Monnoye de bonne aſſiette. Of a good forme.
Paſtez d'aſſiette. Small Paſties, or Pies, ſerued in, at the firſt courſe, vpon Plates.
Vin vendu en aſſiette. Wine vttered, and drunke, by pints, or quarts, &c, in a tauerne.
Aſſignal: m. Land aſſigned, or layed out vnto a woman for her iointer, or dower; and which ſhe enioyeth vntill ſhe haue leuied as much as ſhe brought with her.
Aſſignal de rente. Rents aſſigned vnto a woman for the ſame purpoſe.
Aſſignat. m. An aſſignation, or appointment; a diſtribution of, a limitation, or allotment, vnto; alſo, a day giuen, or place appointed.
Aſſignation: f. An aſſignation, aſſignement, appointment; a diſtribution; an aſſigning, or appointing ouer; a diſtributing.
Se donner aſſignation. (Two, or more) to appoint a certaine place for their meeting.
Aſſigné: m. ée; f. Aſſigned; appointed, ordained, or deputed, for; allotted, layed out, ſet or put, ouer vnto; alſo, ſeiſed, or taken, as forfeited, into his owne hands.
Aſſigner. To aſſigne; appoint, ordaine, or depute, for; to allot, lay out, ſet or put, ouer (alſo, to giue day) vnto.
Aſſigner ſa main au fief de ſon vaſſal; &, Aſſigner à ſon fief les terres de ſon vaſſal; To ſeize, enter vpon, or take into his owne hands, as forfeited, th'inheritance of his vaſſall.
Aſſillonnement: m. A making of baulkes in plowing.
Aſſillonner. To baulke, or plow vp in baulkes.
Aſſimenter. To cement, cloſe, or glue together.
Aſſimilation: f. A comparing, likening, reſembling; an application, or applying of things, together.
Aſſimilativement. By compariſon, ſemblably, in like manner.
Aſſimilé: m. ée: f. Likened, reſembled, compared, vnto.
Aſſimiler. To compare, liken, reſemble, apply things together.
Aſſis: m. Aſſeſſements, or, impoſitions.
Aſſis: m. iſe: f. Set, ſitting; ſeated, placed, ſetled, fixed, planted; alſo, limitted, appointed; alſo, taxed, ceſſed, or aſſeſſed.
Oiſeau trop haut aſſis. Whoſe ſtaulkes (or legs) are too long.
Il a le cœur aſſis en bonne part. He is honeſt, faithfull, reſolute, valiant.
Il n'y a pas bien aſſis ſes lunettes. He hath miſtaken the matter; or, he hath not looked into it ſo throughly as he might, ſo diligently as he ſhould, haue done.
Aſſiſe: f. An Aſſiſe, or Seſſions (a word moſt vſed, as our Aſſiſes, in the plurall number) alſo, the cuſtomarie fine thats taken, in Brittanie only, for certaine beaſts found dammage feſant; alſo, as Aſſize.
Aſſiſes de Iuſtice. Are, by the cuſtomes of Normandie, aſſemblies of knights, and other diſcreet, and ſubſtantiall men, in companie of a Bailly, at a place, and for a time, certaine.
La grande aſſiſe. is held by a Seneſchall, or Bailly.
La petite aſſiſe. is held by a Preuoſtall, or inferior, Iudge.
Droict d'aſſiſe de ſix deniers. vj.d. Tour. Due vnto the towneſhip of Tournay vpon euery pottle of wine retayled within it.
Aſſiſes: f. The ſolemne, or ordinarie Aſſiſes, Seſſions, or ſittings of Iudges; alſo, as Aſſis, ſubſtan.
Aſſiſtance: f. Aſſiſtance, helpe, ſupport, countenance, preſence of men in helpe of their friends; a ſtanding to in extremitie.
Aſſiſtant: m. An aſſiſtant; a helper; a ſtander by.
Aſſiſté. Aſſiſted, helped, aided, defended; ſtood by, or vnto.
Aſſiſté de pluſieurs autres. Accompanied with, or followed, by many others.
Aſſiſter. To aſſiſt, helpe, defend, aid, countenance; alſo, to accompanie, aſſociate, be at, or be preſent at, ſtand by, or vnto.
Aſſize: f. as Aſſiſe; alſo, a courſe of ſtones, or bricks, in building.
Aſſociable: com. Companable, ſociable, aſſociable, fit to hold fellowſhip with.
Aſſociation: f. An accompanying, aſſociation, ſocietie, fellowſhip.
Aſſocié: m. ée: f. Aſſociated, accompanied, conſorted, kept much with.
Aſſocier. To aſſociate, accompanie, hold ſocietie, or fellowſhip, conſort, or keepe much, with.
Aſſode: com. Waſted, or much broken by ſickneſſe; forlorne, wearie of his life, careleſſe of himſelfe.

Assolé : m. ée : f. Sunned ; seasoned, hardened, or dried in the Sunne ; also, setled, (as a horse, &c,) vpon all his feet.

Assoler. To sunne ; to season, harden, or drie in the Sun.
s'Assoler. To settle himselfe vpon all his feet.

Assommeiller. To cast into a slumber.

Assommé : m. ée : f. Felled, stricken, or knocked, downe ; also, cast into a heauie sleepe ; also, cast vp, or summed, as a reckoning.

Assommer. To fell, strike, or knocke downe ; to ouerbeare with blowes ; also, to cast into a heauie sleepe ; also, to summe, or cast vp a reckoning.

Assommeresse. main ass. A heauie, or dead hand, that knockes or fels downe whatsoeuer it strikes.

Assommeur : m. A knocker, feller, or beater, downe.

Assopi : m. ie : f. Layed, brought, lulled, asleepe ; cast into a sleepe ; also, dulled, benummed, made senceless, as one that sleepes ; also, quieted, pacified, appeased ; qualified, calmed, assuaged ; also, represted, suppressed, extinguished.

Assopir. To lay, bring, or lull, asleepe ; also, to benumme, dull, make senceless, as one that is asleepe ; also, to quiet, pacifie, appease, calme, assuage ; also, to suppresse, represse, extinguish, put vnder foot.

Assopissement : m. A laying, bringing, or lulling asleep ; also, a dulling, benumming, making senceless ; also, a quieting, pacifying, appeasing, assuaging ; also, a repressing, suppressing, extinguishing.

Assorbir. To drinke, soke, or sucke, vp.

Assortable : com. Sortable, suitable ; fit to sort, or to be suited, withall.

Assorti : m. ie : f. Sorted, assorted, suited, matched ; also, furnished, or garnished fully.

Assortiment. as Assortissement.

Assortir. To sort, assort, suit ; match, equall ; dispose, order seuerall things handsomely ; also, to furnish, or store with all sorts of.

Assortissement : m. Stuffe, or furniture ; also, a sorting, or suiting of things together ; disposition ; also, a furnishing, or storing with all sorts of.

Assoté : m. ée : f. Sotted, besotted, doting on, too farre in loue with.
Il en est plus assoté qu' un coquin de sa bouteille : Sayd of one that foolishly affects a thing too much.
Il en est plus assoté qu' un fol de sa Marotte. The same.

L'Assotée de. A mans Sweet-heart, or Mistris, on whom the foole dotes.

Assoter. To sot, besot, make dote on, bring too farre in loue with.
s'Assoter de. To dote on, or, be extreamely in loue with.
Il n'est si bon qui femme n'assote : Prov. The best man may be gulled by a woman.

Assotir. To make, or become, sottish, doltish, foolish.

Assotter. as Assoter.

Assoubjectir. To assubiect, make subiect, subdue, bring vnder.

Assouchement : m. A genealogie, stocke, progenie.

Assoupir. as Assopir.

Assoupli : m. ie : f. Supplied, macerated, made soft, or pliant.

Assouplir. To supple, macerate, make soft, tender, pliant.

Assourdi : m. ie : f. Deafened ; made, or growne, deafe.

Assourdir. To deafen, or make deafe.

Assourdissement : m. A deafening, or making deafe.

Assouvager. To assuage ; quiet, still, pacifie.

Assouvi : m. ie : f. Filled, contented, satiated, satisfied ; also, glutted, saded, cloyed.

Assouvir. To fill, content, satiate, satisfie ; also, to cloy, glut, sade.

Assouvissement : m. A filling, contenting, satiating, satisfying ; also, a glutting, sading, cloying.

Assubjectir. as Assoubjectir.

Assuefaction : f. An accustoming, enuring ; or continuance in a thing.

Assumpter. To take vp from below vnto a high place ; to take vp into heauen.

Assumption. An assumption, or taking vp into a high place ; also, the Minor in a Syllogisme.
L'assumption nostre Dame. A solemne holiday kept by the Church of Rome the 15 of Angust ; wee tearme it our Ladie day in haruest.

Assus. (Adverb.) On, or vpon ; whence ;
Mettre assus vne trahison à. To accuse of, or charge with, treason ; to lay treason to the charge of.

Ast. Armes d'ast. Weapons to be cast ; as darts, &c ; looke Armes.

Astace : m. A Lobster.

Astalabote. as Ascalabe. ¶Rab.

Astelles. as Attelles.

Astellier : m. A Stall.

Asterion : m. The name of a certaine hound-fish, or dog-fish, whose coat is full set with starre-like spots.

Asterique : com. Starrie, starre-like ; of, or belonging vnto, a starre.

Asteure. as, à cett' heure ; Presently, euen now.

Asthmatic : m. ique : f. Pursie, short-winded, that often and with paine fetcheth breath.

Asthme : m. Pursinesse, short-windinesse ; an often, painefull, or difficult breathing, or breath-drawing.

Astillier : m. A worke-house for Masons ; a Carpenters yard.

Astipulateur : m. A Record, or Witnesse ; also, an accorder with, or assenter vnto, another ; also, an assistant, helper, fauourer.

Astivité : f. Craft (in buying and selling ;) mechanicall subtiltie.

Astour. Seeke Atour.

Astragale : m. A huckle-bone, or bonket ; the first bone of the instup ; also, the Game thats played with huckle-bones ; also, a smal, and round member in Architecture, sometimes plaine, sometimes wrought, sometimes wrythen ; and tearmed by our workemen, an Astragall, or small Boultell ; also, the Plant, or Pulse, called, the Milke vetch.

Astragalomantie. Diuination by huckle bones.

Astraict : m. as Abstraict.

Astrantie : f. The hearbe Maisterwort.

Astrapade : f. The Strappado.

Astre : m. A Starre, a Planet ; also, destinie, fate, fortune, hap.
Astre argenté. The Moone.
Astre cornu. The same.
L'Astre du iour. The Sunne.

Astreinct : m. cte : f. Bound, tyed, or knit hard ; in sure bonds ; also, costiue, or belly-bound ; also, forced, compelled, constrained.

Astreindre. To bind fast ; to tye, or knit hard ; to wrap in sure bonds ; also, to make costiue, or belly-bound ; also, to force, compell, constraine.

Astrelabe. Looke Astrolabe.

Astringeant. Astringent, astrictiue ; binding, making costiue.

Astro-

Aſtrolabe: m. An Aſtrolabe; a flat-round inſtrument, whereby the ſeuerall motions of heauenly bodies, and the length, height, and breadth of any other thing, may be diſcerned and found out.

Aſtrologie: f. Aſtrologie; a reaſoning, or ſpeculation of heauenly motions.

Aſtrologien: m. as Aſtrologue.

Aſtrologue: m. An Aſtrologer; a skilfull diſcourſer, or ſtudious beholder, of celeſtiall motions.

Aſtronome: m. An Aſtronomer; a teacher, or profeſſor, of the knowledge of ſtarres, or heauenly motions.

Aſtronomie: f. Aſtronomie; knowledge, or, profeſſion of the knowledge, of ſtarres.

Aſtronomien. as Aſtronome.

Aſtrucier: m. An Oſtridger; one that keepes or catches, Oſtridges.

Aſtruſer. To preſſe, or keepe downe.

Aſtuce: f. Craft, ſubtiltie, guile, deceit, couſenage.

Aſtut: m. ute: f. Aſtute, craftie, ſubtill, wylie, guilefull.

Aſur: m. Azure; skie-colour, or, the ſtuffe whereof it is made.

Aſur d'Acre. Naturall Azure, as it is taken out of the Mine.

Aſur d'Alemaigne; Germane Azure; is an exhalation of ſiluer Mines; from the tops and ſides of whoſe ſtones it is choicely ſcraped, and gathered.

Aſur de Levant. as Aſur d'outre mer.

Aſur d'outre mer. Beyond-ſea Azure; the beſt kind of Azure, made of Lapis Lazuli, and reſiſting both fire, and water.

Cendrée d'aſur. The whiteſt kind of Azure.

Pierre d'aſur. Lapis Lazuli; or, the Lazull ſtone.

Vert aſur. A colour betweene a blonket, and a greene; found in mines of the copper which is mingled with ſiluer; and an excellent purger of melancholie.

Aſurer. To dye, paint, ſtaine, or colour, with azure.

Aſurin: m. ine: f. Skie-coloured; cleere as the skie; blew, or wanne like azure; of, or belonging to, azure.

Aſyle: m. A Sanctuarie; a priuiledged place; a place of refuge for the afflicted, or offendor; a place of libertie, franchiſe, freedome.

Aſyinbole: com. Shot-free, or ſcotfree; that payeth nothing for his victuals.

Atabal. as Attabale; alſo, a tymbrell, or little braſen drumme, to daunce by.

A-tant. Forthwith; incontinently.

Ataraxie: f. Reſolution, conſtancie, vnmoueableneſſe of iudgement; alſo, tranquilitie, or quietneſſe of mind.

A-tard. Late, ſlowly.

Ataſtre. The plaine part, or face of an Architrave; alſo, a large fillet, or bend in a pillar, &c.

Atedier. Seeke Attedier; to wearie.

Atelles. as Attelles.

Aterinoyé. as Attermoyé.

Atermoyement: m. A giuing of dayes for the payment of a ſumme.

Aterrer. To throw, or ouerthrow, to daſh, or caſt downe, to the earth; alſo, to couer, or ouerwhelme, with earth; alſo, to ruine, oppreſſe, wrong extreamely.

s'Aterrer. To grow earthie, or full of earth; to be ouergrowne, or choaked vp, with earth.

Athanaſie. The hearbe Tanſie.

Athaner. To kill. ¶Bourg.

Athée: m. An Atheiſt; one that beleeues there is no God.

Atheïſme: m. Atheiſme; infidelitie; the denying of, or not beleeuing in, God.

Atheïſte. as Athée.

Atheïſterie. as Atheiſme.

Athelan: m. A very ſmall fiſh in the riuer Laiz neere Montpellier.

Atheronne. A little paineleſſe impoſtume, whoſe matter is like vnto pap.

Athle: m. A miſerable, wretched, or languiſhing fellow.

Athlete: m. A champion, at wraſtling, running, and ſuch other common games of ſtrength, actiuitie, or ſleight.

Athletique: com. Champion-like, belonging to a champion; ſtrong, ſwift, actiue, as a champion.

Atifer. Seeke Attifer.

Ativelles: f. Trinkets, tyres, or attyres.

Atizer. Seeke Attiſer.

Atome: m. A moate in the Sunne; a thing ſo ſmall, that it cannot be diuided.

Atour: m. An attire; alſo, a French hood.

Toile d'atour. Lawne.

Atourneresſe: f. as, Attourneresſe.

Atout. With, together with.

Atrabiliaire: com. Subiect, or belonging to melancholy, or blacke choller; or, as Atrebiliaire.

Atrainer. To traile, drag, or draw along vnto.

Atre: m. A harth.

Il n'y a rien en ſa maiſon ſi froid que l'atre. Hee keepes a very poore houſe; his cheere is as cold as his chimney (in which there came no fire this ſeuen yeare.)

Qui a Maraſtre a le diable en l'atre: Prov. As good haue a diuell to his dam as a ſtepdame.

Atrebiliaire: com. Compoſed of melancholy, and blacke choller; or, as Atrabiliaire.

s'Atriſter. To mourne, wax heauie, become ſorrowfull, grow ſad.

Atroce: com. Moſt cruell, pittileſſe, fell; fierce, terrible, horrible to behold; alſo, outragious, hainous, extreame.

Atrocement. Moſt cruelly, pittileſly; felly, fiercely, terribly, horribly; alſo, outragiouſly, hainouſly, extreamely.

Atrocité: f. Atrocitie, great crueltie, fierceneſſe, fellneſſe; terribleneſſe, horribleneſſe; alſo, outragiouſneſſe, extremitie, hainouſneſſe.

Atrophe: com. In a conſumption; one with whom his meat dowes not, or to whom it does no good.

Atrophie: f. A conſumption that comes by a fearefull eating of too little, or a greedie deuouring of too much.

Atrophié: m. ée: f. One thats in ſuch a conſumption; or as Atrophe.

s'Atrophier. To conſume, waſt, pine, grow leane, weare away.

Atruander. Seeke Attruander.

Atſens. Bounds, meeres, limits; ¶Wallon.

Attabale. A kind of brazen drumme, vſed by the Mooriſh horſemen.

Attache: f. A thing faſtened on, or tyed vnto, another thing; as a Libell, Proclamation, or publicke Edict paſted on the corner-poſtes of ſtreets, or ſet vp in open places, that all perſons may take notice thereof.

Attache d'un cheual. The ſtanding, or tying vp of a horſe in an Inne (or any ſuch like place) for which ſome ſmall conſideration is to be giuen to the Inne-keeper, or owner.

Levrier d'attache. An Iriſh, or great, greyhound.

Attaché: m. ée: f. Faſtened, tyed, clapt vpon; ſet, annexed, knit; alſo, grapled, vnto; alſo, medled, quarrelled, brabled; fought with.

Attaché par les carrefours. Publikely excommunicate; or, outlawed by proclamation; alſo, defamed by libels ſet vp on euery poſt.

Attachement. A tying, faſtening, annexing, binding, knitting, ſetting vnto.

Attacher. To tye, faſten, claſpe, knit, bind, annex, vnto, to ſticke, or ſet vp, to hang, or clap vpon, a poſt, wall, &c.

s'attacher à. To coape, deale, meddle, ſcuffle, grapple, quarrell, fight, brabble with.

Attainct. Seeke Attaint.

Attaincte. as Attainte.

Attaindre. To reach, or attaine vnto; to touch; hit, or ſtrike, in reaching; alſo, to ouertake, or fetch vp, in going &c; alſo, to get, procure, obtaine; bring to paſſe; alſo, to attaint, or conuict; alſo, to appeach, accuſe, or charge with.

Attaint: m. te: f. Raught, attained vnto; touched; hit, ſtrucken; ouertaken, fetched vp; alſo, gotten, procured, obtained; alſo, tainted, attainted, conuicted; alſo, appeached, accuſed of, charged with.

Il eſt attaint. He is taken; he's farre in loue; he is but a gone, or is no more his owne, man.

Attainte: f. A reach; hit, home touch; blow, or ſtroke; alſo, a deſignement, intention, purpoſe, pretence; alſo, a gentle nip, quip, or iert; a ſleight gird, or taxation.

Tirée d'attainte. A ſhot within reach, or leuell.

Nul n'y oſoit donner attainte. None durſt attempt it, or deale with it; no one durſt venture on it.

Attalenté: m. ée: f. as Entalenté; or, prouoked vnto, put into a longing of.

Attalenter. To egg, prouoke; put into a longing; to ſet the deſire on worke, to giue it an edge, or appetite.

Attaque: f. An aſſault; incounter, skirmiſh, fight; a violent meeting of two armies, or enemies.

Attaqué: m. ée: f. Incountred, ſcuffled or medled with; aſſaulted, or ſet on.

Attaquer. To aſſault, or ſet on; to incounter, coape, ſcuffle, any way to meddle, with.

Attavanat: m. A horſe thats flye-bitten onely on the flanke, or on the necke.

Attayne: f. Moodineſſe, anger, teſtineſſe, pettiſhneſſe, (vieil mot.)

Attayneux: m. euſe: f. Moodie, angrie, froward, pettiſh, teſtie.

Attediation: f. A toyling, wearying; cloying, or troubling with too much of one thing; alſo, a loathing, wariſomeneſſe, tediouſneſſe.

Attedié: m. ée: f. Toyled, wearied; cloyed, or troubled with too much of.

Attedier. To toyle, wearie; annoy; make loath; cloy, or trouble with too much of one thing.

Atteinte. Looke Attainte.

Attelage: m. Harneſſe for a Draught, or Teame, &c, or for the cattell that draw it; all the furniture vnto it, or them, belonging; alſo, a Licence graunted, by th'officers of a forreſt, vnto a Potter, Glaſier, Tyler, Turner, Smith, Aſh-maker, &c, for the taking of Earth, Wood, or Minerals, for their ſeuerall vſes.

Attelé: m. ée: f. Spanged, or faſtened, as a horſe, &c, vnto a Plough, Chariot, Coach, Cart, &c.

Attelements: m. Th'attirals, harneſſe, geeres, or furniture, belonging to draught horſes, or oxen; or vnto that which they draw.

Atteler. To ſpang, yoake, or faſten a Horſe, Ox, &c, vnto a Chariot, Plough, Coach, or Cart; to put them into it; alſo, to harneſſe them for it.

Attelier: m. A worke-houſe, or ſhop for an artificer.

Attelle: f. A ſplent, or ſticke to make a ſplent of.

Attelles: f. The haumes of a draught horſes collar; the two flat ſticks that incompaſſe it.

Attenance: f. A dependancie vpon, a belonging vnto; alſo, as Attente; hope, expectation.

Attenant: m. ante: f. Belonging, or appertaining to; adioyning vnto; depending on; holding, or cleauing, by.

Attendant: m. An attendant, retayner, waiter.

Attendans. Aſhlers; binding ſtones, (in Maſonrie.)

Attendant: m. ante: f. Attending, waiting on; expecting; tarrying, ſtaying, for.

Attendant que. Whileſt that.

Attendre. To attend, wait, ſtay, tarrie; expect, looke for; to daunce attendance on.

s'attendre à. To truſt, reſt, relye, depend, vpon.

Attendre la venue du boiteux. To ſtay for Iohn Long the Carrier; to tarrie long for that which comes but ſlowly.

De ce que tu pourras faire n'attends autruy: Pro. Bid not another doe that which thou canſt do thy ſelfe; or, build not, relye not, on anothers doing of that which &c.

Pour neant recule qui malheur attend: Prov. In vaine he retires that attends miſhap (which if it muſt come, hurts leaſt being met with.)

Qui attend il a fort temps: Prov. He that attends hath time ynough; or to him that waits all time ſeemes tedious.

Qui s'attend à l'eſcuelle d'autruy il diſne ſouvent bien tard: Prov. He that waits on another mans trencher, makes many a late dinner.

Qui bon maiſtre ſert bon loyer en attend: Prov. Hee that ſerues a good maſter, hopes for a good reward.

Qui fol envoye fol attend: Pro. He that imployes a foole, expects a foole.

Tout eſt fait negligemment là où l'un à l'autre s'attend: Prov. Nothing is well done where one altogether truſts vnto, or relyes vpon, another.

Tout vient à point qui peut attendre: Prov. He that can ſtay his time, ſhall compaſſe any thing.

Attendrir. To ſoften, mollifie, make tender, gentle, plyant.

s'attendrir. To grow tender, ſoft, gentle; nice, faint, effeminate.

Attendriſſement: m. A ſoftening, mollifying, making tender.

Attendu: m. uë: f. Attended, waited, ſtayed on; expected, looked, tarried for.

Attendu que. Seeing that.

Petit diſner longuement attendu n'eſt pas donné, mais chèrement vendu: Pro. We buy too deerely meat we ſtay long for; or, a little meat long ſtayed for's decrely bought; (The like may be ſaid of any benefit, or fauor.)

Attendue: f. An attendance, or attending.

Attenir. To retaine, detaine, with-hold, keepe, or ſtay, backe.

s'attenir à. To belong vnto; to depend vpon; alſo, to be linked, or ioyned in conſanguinitie with.

Attentat: m. A proceeding in ſuit notwithſtanding an appeale; alſo, a taking (by the plaintife, or defendant) to his owne vſe part of a thing which the Court hath wholly ſequeſtred; any attempt made, or courſe held on, contrarie to a publicke Order.

Attente: f. Expectation; hope, deſire of; an attending, ſtaying, tarrying for; alſo, a preiudicate opinion.

At-

Attente d'un edifice. Th'inchoation, or vnperfect beginning of a building, giuen ouer before it be finished.

Laiſſons celuy la en attente. Let vs leaue him alone (to his hopes; or, to picke ſtrawes, or pull dayſies.)

Sans autre attente. Incontinently; without more tarrying, delay, or ado.

Attentes d'une muraille, &c. Denting parts, or peeces of a wall &c.

Table d'attente. A plate of copper, &c, whereon ſome notable inſcription, or other thing, is engrauen; alſo, a flat peece of marble, &c, charged with the like ſtuffe, and ſet (as the other, moſt commonly) on the outſide of a roome, or building.

Attenté: m. ée: f. Attempted, enterpriſed; eſſayed, proued, put vnto triall.

Attenter. To attempt, enterpriſe; eſſay, proue, begin, put into triall; alſo, a plaintife, or defeendant to conuert vnto his vſe or benefit part of the thing in ſuit, notwithſtanding a former ſequeſtration thereof made by the Court.

Attenter au prejudice l'appel. To goe on with his ſuit notwithſtanding the Appeale of the aduerſe partie.

Attentif: m. iue: f. Attentiue, liſtening, heedfull carefull, diligent; vigilant; earneſtly bent vnto, exceedingly ſet vpon.

Attentiuement. Attentiuely, carefully, heedfully, wiſtly.

Attenu: m. uë: f. Bound, or beholden to.

Attenuation: f. An attenuation, or extenuation; a leſſening, impairing, diminiſhment; a making thinne, ſlender, weake.

Reſpondre par attenuation. Looke Reſpondre.

Attenué: m. ée: f. Diminiſhed, leſſened, impaired, waſted, extenuated; made thinner, ſmaller, ſlenderer; weaker.

Attenuer. To leſſen, diminiſh, impaire, appaire, waſt; extenuate; to make thinner, ſlenderer; weaker.

Attenuri: m. ie: f. Made thinne, ſlender, ſmall; or as Attenué.

Attenurir. To make thinne, ſlender, or ſmall; to miniſh, extenuate, leſſen, impaire.

Atteriſſement: m. An ouerthrowing to the earth; a couering with earth; a ſurrounding, or ouerwhelming by the earth.

Atterinoyé: m. ée: f. That hath a terme, or time granted for the paiment of a debt; alſo, put off from terme to terme, from time to time.

Atterraſſeur: m. An ouerthrower (to the earth;) a ruiner, vndoer, oppreſſor.

Atterré: m. ée: f. Couered with, ouerwhelmed, ouerthrowne to, the earth; ruined; oppreſſed.

Atterre-eſpi. Corne-burying, eare-ouerwhelming.

Atterrer. To couer, or ouerwhelme with earth; to ouerthrow vnto the earth; or, as Aterrer.

s'Atterrir. To rot vnto earth; or, by lying on the earth, or by rotting on the earth; to become as earth; alſo, to fall vnto the earth.

Atterriſſement. as Atteriſſement.

Atteſtation: f. An atteſtation; affirmation, calling to witneſſe; a iuſtification by witneſſes.

Atteſté: m. ée: f. Atteſted; proteſted, auouched, affirmed; teſtified, witneſſed, iuſtified by witneſſe.

Atteſter. To atteſt; auouch, affirme, proteſt, call to witneſſe; alſo, to teſtifie, witneſſe, confirme by witneſſe.

Atteyner vn chien ſur. To ſet a dog at, or turne a dog vpon.

Attiedi: m. ie: f. Warmed, made luke-warme.

Attiedir. To warme; to make luke-warme.

Attiffé: m. ée: f. Decked, pranked, tricked, trimmed.

Attiffement: m. A pranking, decking, tricking, trimming of.

Attiffer. To decke, pranke, tricke, trim, adorne.

Attiffets: m. Attires, or tires, dreſſings, trickings, attirals.

Attiler. as Attiffer.

Attiltré: m. ée: f. Suborned, appoaſted; inſtructed beforehand, taught the matter he hath to ſay.

Attiltrer. To ſuborne, or appoaſt, inſtruct, or teach before hand; to informe, or forewarne of, the matter he is to deliuer.

Attiné: m. ée: f. Prouoked, vrged, irritated, incenſed; alſo, fleſhed, or faſtened on.

Attiner. To prouoke, vrge, irritate, incenſe againſt; alſo, to fleſh, or faſten on.

Attinté: m. ée: f. Decked, tricked, trimmed, pranked; alſo, fine, ſpruce, compt, neat; alſo, fitted, ſet right; or (as an arrow on the bow-ſtring) nocked.

Attinter. To decke, pranke, tricke, trimme; alſo, to fit well, ſet right, place iuſt.

Attiquets: m. Little notes, or tickets.

Attirail: m. A great mans retinue, traine, attendants, followers.

Attirantons: m. An Artificers tooles, or inſtruments.

Attiraux: m. Plough-geeres; the tooles, or inſtruments belonging to a plough.

Attiré: m. ée: f. Drawne to; tolled on; inuited, inticed, allured vnto.

Attirement: m. A drawing to; a tolling on; an inuiting, inticing, alluring vnto.

Attirer. To draw, or bring to; to toll, or lead on; alſo, to inuite, intice, allure vnto.

Attiſé: m. ée: f. Kindled, or ſtirred, as fire.

Attiſe-feu: m. A fire-kindler, or fire-ſtirrer; and (metaphorically) a ſtirrer vp of ſtrife, a firebrand of contention, a raiſer of ſedition.

Attiſe-querelle: m. A brabling make-hate; a renewer, a reuiuer of old, and ouer-worne quarels.

Attiſer. To kindle (a fire;) to ſtirre the fire; to lay one cole, or brand neere vnto another.

Attiſer le feu avec l'eſpée. To prouoke an angry perſon extreamely.

Attiſonné: m. ée: f. Scorched, or halfe burnt; blackiſh, or duskie-coloured, as a firebrand, &c.

Attiſonner. as Attiſer.

Attorné: m. ée: f. Dreſſed, attired, trimmed, decked, adorned.

Attorner. To attire, dreſſe, decke, adorne, trimme, trick, pranke, ſet out.

Attouche: f. A gentle touch; alſo, a glaunce at, or ſhort mention of.

Attouché: m. ée: f. Gently touched, handled, or felt ſoftly; lightly, or ſlightly mentioned.

Attouchement: m. A gentle touching, light handling, ſoft feeling of; alſo, as Attouche.

Attoucher. To handle gently, touch lightly, feele ſoftly; alſo, to mention briefely, glaunce at ſleightly; meddle, or deale with but a little, any way.

Attour: m. A French-hood; alſo, any kind of tire, or attire for a womans head.

Damoiſelle d'attour. The waiting woman that vſes to dreſſe, or attire, her miſtreſſe.

Attouré: m. ée: f. Tired, dreſſed, attired, decked, trimmed, adorned.

Attour-

Attournance : f. An Atturneyſhip ; or, the following of a cauſe by an Atturney ; alſo, as Attournement.
Attourné : m. ée : f. as Attouré ; alſo, atturned, as a tenant.
Attournée : f. as Attournement ; Alſo, a letter of Atturney.
Attournement : m. An attiring, dreſſing, decking ; alſo, the Atturnement of a tenant.
Attourner. To attire, decke, dreſſe ; alſo, to atturne, as a tenant.
Attournereſſe : f. A waiting-woman, or chamber-maid, that vſes, or helpes, to attire her miſtreſſe.
Attourneur : m. A Groome of the Chamber ; one that waits in the chamber, to dreſſe his Maſter, or Miſtreſſe.
Attrabilaire. as Atrabiliaire.
Attractif : m. iue : f. Attractiue ; inticing, alluring ; of power, or propertie, to draw vnto.
Attraction : f. An attraction ; a drawing to.
Attrahiere : f. Eſcheatage ; or, an Eſcheat ; Looke Eſtrayeres.
Attraict : m. An attraction, or attractiue ; a bait, allurement, inticement, inueaglement.
Attraiement : m. An attracting, or drawing vnto ; alſo, an alluring, inticing, inueagling.
Attraire. To attract, or draw vnto ; alſo, to allure, intice, inueagle, toll on ; moue, or prouoke vnto, by faire meanes.
Attraire teſmoins. To produce witneſſes.
Vn dormir attrait l'autre : Prov. One ſleepe draws on another.
Attrament. Inke ; or bleach for Shoomakers.
Attrapé : m. ée : f. Caught, intrapped, apprehended ; ouertaken ; taken tardie, or in the manner.
Toſt attrapée eſt la ſouris qui n'a pour giſte qu'un pertuis : Prov. Looke Souris.
Attraper. To intrap, catch, apprehend ; ouerreach, ouertake, take tardie, or in the manner.
Attraperie : f. A catching, intrapment, intrapping.
Attrapoire : m. An intrapping, or catching ; alſo, a trap, the inſtrument, or meanes, whereby one is intrapped.
Attrayamment. Attractiuely, alluringly, inticingly.
Attrayant. Attracting, attractiue, leading, or drawing vnto ; alluring, inticing.
Attrayement. as Attraict ; or, as Attraiement.
Attrayeres : f. Eſcheats ; Looke Eſtrayeres.
Attrectation : f. A ſoft, and often handling, touching, feeling.
Attrempance : f. Soberneſſe, temperance, modeſtie, ſtaiedneſſe, gouernment ; moderation in behauiour, or humour.
Attrempé : m. ée : f. Tempered, moderated, well gouerned ; of a temperate, or ſtayed humour ; alſo, moiſtened, ſoaked, well ſteeped in liquor ; alſo, mixed, or ſeaſoned with.
Attrempement : m. A temper, moderation, euen meaſure, iuſt proportion, modeſtie, moderate diſpoſition, ſtaied behauiour ; alſo, a moiſtening, ſteeping, or ſoaking in liquor.
Attrempément. Temperately, moderately, modeſtly ; patiently ; ſtayedly, coolely, faire and ſoftly, ſoberly.
Attremper. To temper, moderate, vſe a iuſt, and euen meaſure ; alſo, to mix, or ſeaſon ; alſo, to moiſten, ſoke, or ſteepe in moiſture.
Attribué : m. ée : f. Attributed, imputed, giuen, or laied, vnto ; charged with ; put vpon.
Attribuer. To attribute, impute, or put vpon ; to charge with ; to giue, or lay vnto.
s'Attribuer. To challenge, aſſume, or take vpon him.
Attributif : m. iue : f. Attributiue ; attributing.
Attriſté : m. ée : f. Agrieued, growne ſad, made ſorrowfull.
Attriſte-coeur. Heart-ſadning, thoughts-grieuing.
Attriſter. To agrieue, make ſad, heauie, ſorrowfull.
Attrit : m. ite : f. Rubd, fretted, waſted, worne away.
Attrition : f. A rubbing, fretting, wearing.
Attroupé : m. ée : f. Trouped, in troupes.
s'Attrouper. To aſſemble in troupes, or companies ; to troupe together.
s'Attruander. To loyter, grow lazie, become ſluggiſh, wax an idle truant.
Aturré à vn' opinion. Reſolute, or obſtinate in, an opinion ; fully bent to defend, or follow it.
Au (a Maſculine Article ; or, a Prepoſition bearing th'energie of a Maſculine Article) is euer ſet before Maſculine Nownes that begin with a conſonant, and ſignifies, In the ; to the ; at the ; on the ; &c, as in A.
Avachi : m. ie : f. Looſened, ſlackened ; quailed, faded, growne flaggie ; failed in liuelineſſe, vigour, vehemencie.
s'Avachir. To looſen, ſlacken, grow flaggie ; quaile, fade, faile of it former liuelineſſe, vigour, and vehemencie ; to wax faint, feeble, heartleſſe ; to hang downe the head.
Avail : m. A wild Boare.
Availlon : m. A kind of ſhell-fiſh.
Avaindre. To take, or draw out ; to bring, or lead forth ; alſo, to touch, to reach vnto.
Aval. Downe, or downeward.
Vent d'aval. A Weſt-South-Weſt wind ; or a Weſterly wind that ſomewhat inclines to the South.
Avalanche. as Avallanche.
Avaliſque. Auant, be gone ; fie vpon it : Langued.
Avallage : m. A letting, putting, or laying, downe ; alſo, a ſwallowing, or ſwilling downe ; alſo, a fall, or a falling downe, as of riuers, or other waters ; alſo, a Porters hire, for the laying of wine downe into a ſellor.
Avallanche : f. A great falling, or ſinking downe, as of earth &c.
Avallaſſe : f. An inundation ; alſo, a ſwallowing gulfe, or deepe ſwallow.
Avallé : m. ée : f. let, put, layed, caſt, felled, fallen, down ; ſwallowed, ſwilled, gulped, downe ; alſo, cut off, or cut downe.
Boyau avallé. The diſeaſe called, Burſting.
Avallé en tetaſſe de vieille. Swagging, like an old wiues dug.
Les cheveux nonchalemment avallez. Their haire hanging careleſly about their eares.
Avallement : m. A letting, putting, or laying downe ; a letting fall downe ; alſo, a ſupping vp, a ſwallowing, or ſwilling downe ; alſo, a cutting off, or downe.
Avaller. To let, put, lay, caſt, fell, downe ; to let fall downe ; alſo, to ſup, or gulpe vp ; to ſwill, or ſwallow downe ; alſo, to cut off, or downe ; whence ;
Il luy avalla l'eſpaule d'un coup d'eſpée. He claue one of his ſhoulders from his bodie ; or, at one blow he ſtroke off one of his ſhoulders.
Il luy avalla ſa robbe de deſſus les eſpaules. He pulled, or plucked his gowne ouer his ſhoulders.
La lice avalla ſon ventre. The Bitch growes big with whelpe ; or, the whelpes within her make her belly almoſt touch the ground.
Avaller gros, & maſcher dru : Prov. (As we ſay,) to ſtumble at a ſtraw, and leape ouer a blocke.
Avalleur : m. A letter, layer ; filler, cutter, downe ; a gulper, gulper, ſwiller, or ſwallower, downe of.

Avalleur de biens. A prodigall glutton; one that conſumes his owne, or other mens eſtate, by immoderat eating, and drinking.

Avalleur de frimats. An idle fellow; a man of ſmall worth, or capacitie; a careleſſe companion.

Avalleurs de pois gris. Looke Pois.

Avalloire. A hole, trap-doore, window, &c, to let a thing downe by into a lower roome.

Avalloüere. as Avalloire.

Avalluation: f. A valuation, or valuing; a rate, price, or value ſet downe.

Avalluer. To value, rate, priſe; to ſet a price on; to hold at a rate.

Avalument: m. as Avalluation.

Avance: d'avance. In hand, giuen before hand, or in part of a greater ſumme.

Faire avance. To further, to forward; to get, or ſet, forward.

Avancé: m. ée: f. Forwarded, forward, in good forwardneſſe, got, or put, forward; furthered, aduanced, accelerated, haſtened, ſhortened by haſt; alſo, giuen in hand, or before hand; alſo, thriuen in, or profited by.

Avanceant. Forwarding, furthering, ſetting forward, putting out, or on; aduancing, haſtening, accelerating; giuing in hand, or before hand.

Avancement: m. A forwarding, ſetting forward, putting on, or out; a giuing in hand, or before hand; a haſtening, or accelerating; alſo, an aduancing, a getting, or going forward, a proceeding, progreſſion, paſſing on; alſo, aduancement, preferment, promotion.

Avancer. To forward, ſet forward, further, put on; alſo, to haſten; and, to ſhorten, or cut off by haſt; alſo, to aduance, prefer, promote.

s'Avancer. To proceed, go on, get forward; alſo, to thriue, increaſe, preuaile in, profit by.

Avancer argent. To giue money in hand, or afore-hand.

Avancer le doigt. To put forth, or ſtretch out, a finger beyond his fellowes.

Avancer vn terme de loüage. To pay before the day, or giue before hand.

Le iour s'avance. The day approaches, or breakes.

Avanceur: m. A forwarder, aduancer; haſtener, accelerater; alſo, a foregoer.

Avanchaye: f. A groue of Oziers, or of ſuch like trees.

Avanger. To ſatisfie, ſuffice, ſerue the turne; to furniſh throughly, to beare the whole charge of.

Vous n'avanger rien. You goe no whit forward.

Nous avons tant de vin que nous ne pouvons avanger à boire. We haue more wine than we are able, or know how, to drinke.

Avant: m. The time of Aduent; which is about a moneth before Chriſtmas.

Avant. Is ſome times an Aduerbe of time; and then ſignifies, before, or ere, and forward; and ſometimes of place, (then commonly following, bien ) and ſignifies; forth, forward, inward, deepely in, farre in.

Avant la main. In hand, or before-hand.

Avant que proceder. A prolonging, or deferring of ſentence, or of proceeding when the ſuit is readie for ſentence.

Eſtre bien avant de feſte. To liue merily, or in iollitie.

Mettre en avant. To aduance, put forward, preferre; alſo, to propound, open, declare, what he hath to ſay.

Venir en avant. To come, aduance, or ſtep forth; to grow, increaſe, thriue, preuaile, proceed, come forward in the world.

Pour vn petit n' avant n' arriere: Prov. A little breakes no ſquare; no matter for a little.

Avantage: m. An aduantage, oddes; ouerplus; addition, eeking; a benefit, furtherance, or forwarding; alſo, a mounting-blocke; a blocke to get on horſebacke by.

`A l'avantage. Excellently, or exceeding well.

D'avantage. Moreouer, further, furthermore; elſe, beſides, ouer and beſides, aboue and beſides, with odds, more than meaſure.

Avantagé: m. ée: f. Aduantaged, hauing the aduantage of; alſo, benefited, priuiledged; aduanced, furthered.

Bien avantagé en nez. Noſed with aduantage, well noſe-growne, hauing a Gnomicall, or goodly long, Noſe.

Avantager. To aduantage, giue aduantage vnto, further, ſet forward; aduance, benefit, doe good vnto.

Avantageuſement. Aduantageouſly, with great aduantage; eaſefully, profitably, well for a man.

Avantageux: m. euſe: f. Aduantageous, eaſefull, commodious, bebouefull; alſo, verie forward, full of forwardneſſe.

Avant-bras. A vambrace; armour for an arme; alſo, the part of the arme that extends from the elbow to the wriſt; alſo, the vnderbone of that part.

Avant-chien. The leſſer dog-ſtar, which appears when dog-dayes begin.

Avant-conceu: m. euë: f. Fore-conceiued, formerly deuiſed.

Avant-cour. An outward, or little, Court before the portall, or gate, of a great houſe.

Avant-courement. A forerunning; preceding, foregoing.

Avant-coureur: m. A forerunner, Auantcurror.

Avant-coureux: m. as Avant-coureur.

Avant-coureux: m. euſe: f. Forerunning, precedent.

Avant-garde. The Forward, or vaunt-gard, of an armie.

Avant-hier. The day before yeſterday; two dayes agoe.

Avant-jeu: m. An aſſay, triall, or proofe before a game begin.

Avantin: m. The arme, or braunch of a vine, climing, or brought along from tree to tree.

Avantjoüeur. A Prologue, he that beginneth, or playeth before, the game, Enterlude, or Commedie.

Avant-iugé. as Preiugé.

Avant-logis: m. A roome, or lodging in the forepart of a houſe, ſtanding alone; an outward gate with lodgings in it; alſo, a Court-yard, or comming in; and, a Court, Porch, or Portall, before a houſe.

Avant-main. The forepart of the hand; or, that part which is betweene the wriſt, and the knuckles.

Avant-mur: m. An auantmure; fore-wall, out-wall, or outward-wall.

Avant-parleur: m. A fore-ſpeaker; or one that is too forward to ſpeake.

Avant-pas: m. The ſtart, or an aduantage, in a race, or Courſe.

Avant-penſer. To premeditate, or bethinke himſelfe before-hand of.

Avant-perſe. The greateſt kind of Abrecocke; or as;

Avant-peſche. Th'Auant-peach, or haſtie peach; ruſſet on one ſide, and red to the Sunne-ward, yet bigger than th'ordinarie red Peach; it comes timely, and eats delicately; and therefore ſome call ſo, the greateſt kind kind of Abrecocke.

A V B

Avant-pied. The part of the foot thats next to the toes, and consisteth of fiue bones.

Avant-poignet. So much of the hand as is between the wrist and the knuckles.

Avant-portail: m. A foreporch; an outward portall; a porch at the vtter doore of a house.

Avant-propos: m. A Prologue.

Avant-proumenoir: m. An open lodge, or close walke for suitors, &c, before the doore of a great house.

Avant-toict. An house-eaue, or easing; as Severonde.

Avanture. Avanturer. Avantureux. Avanturier. Seeke Adventure, &c.

Avare: com. Auaricious, greedie, couetous, vnreasonably desirous of, vnsatiably thirsting after, money, &c.

Avarement. Auariciously, greedily, couetously.

Avarice: f. Auarice, couetousnesse; an vnreasonable desire of, an insatiate thirst after, money, &c.

Avarice fait petit monceau: Prov. Small is the heap that auarice affoords (when wealth comes either to be displayed, or distributed.)

Avarice rompt le sac: Prov. Looke Sac.

Quand tous pechés sont vieux avarice est encores ieune: Prov. The loue of wealth continues yong when all sinnes else grow old.

Avaris: m. Decay of wares, or marchandise; leckage of Wines; also, the charges of the cariage, or measuring thereof; also, the fees, or veiles of a Cooke, &c.

Avaritieusement. Auariciously, couetously, greedily.

Avaritieux: m. euse: f. Auaricious, full of auarice.

Avau l'eau. Downe the water.

Aubades. Morning Musicke; such as fidlers play vnder chamber windowes.

Les vieilles gens qui font gambades, à la mort sonnent des aubades: Prov. Looke Vieil.

Aubain: m. An alien, stranger, forreiner; properly such a one as is borne in a countrey so neere ours, as notice may conueniently be taken of his originall, and name; therein differing from Espaue, who comes one knowes not whence.

Aubain: m. ine: f. Strange, forreine, of another countrey; also, casuall; due, comming, or falling by escheat.

Aubaine: f. Escheatage; also, an Escheat; land, or substance falling to the King, or Lord, by the death of strangers, or illigitimation of bastards; any such casualtie; (but especially, the first) also, forreinnesse, strangenesse; the estate, or condition of a forreiner, or straunger; (Anciennement aucuns ont prins le mot d'aubaine pour desherance: ¶Ragueau.)

Droict d'aubaine. Escheatage; the right of succession in the estate of all strangers dying in France, without naturalization, and French-borne issue: (This right is, or should be onely the Kings; yet diuers Lords incroach vpon it; and some, who haue high iurisdiction, challenge thereby the goods of all, though naturall Frenchmen, which haue dwelt within their libertie as forreiners, or not free thereof.

Aubaineté: f. Escheatage.

Aubanité. The same.

Aubans: m. The shrowds, of a ship.

Aubarede: f. A groue, small copse, or small wood.

Aube: f. The dawning, or breake of day; Seeke Aubes.

L'aube d'un bast. Is, the same in a packsadle, that Arçon is in a great sadle.

L'aube d'un prestre. A Priests Albe.

A l'aube des mousches. Some two or three houres after Sunne-rise; or, when the Sunne beginnes to bee hot.

En mes aubes. In my infancie, or swathing clothes; when I was in my cradle.

Aubeau: m. The white Poplar, or Peplar tree.

Aubec: m. The pith, sap, or heart of wood, and timber; ¶Bourdelois.

Aubeine. as Aubaine; Also, a kind of grape.

Aubel. as Aubeau.

Aubeliere: f. A huffler, a nifle, a whimwham.

Aubenable: com. Subiect vnto Escheatage; or vnto Droict d'Aubaine.

Aubenage: m. Escheatage; as Aubaine.

Droict d'aubenage. as Droict d'aubaine; Or a kind thereof; and is, in some parts of Fraunce, a new purse, and iiij. d. in it; in others a pound of wax due vnto the Lord Iusticer of the Bailiwike, Libertie, or Mannor wherein a stranger, or forreiner dyes: In some places this duetie is leuied foure and twentie houres after the stranger is buried; in others, before he be carried vnto buriall.

Auber. To flit, stirre, shift, remoue from place to place; (a rusticall word.)

Aubere: m. A Dapple-gray horse; also, a hobbie.

Aubereau: m. The hawke tearmed a Hobbie; also, a kind of Eagle.

Auberet. as Aubereau: ¶Savoyard.

Aubergade. as Queste.

Auberge: f. A kind of small Peach also, a lodging house, or dwelling place; also an Inne.

Aubergé: m. ée: f. Lodged, housed, harboured, inned.

Aubergeon. as Haubergeon.

Auberger: m. Th' Auberge Peach tree.

Aubert: m. Money, coyne, siluer, chinkes: ¶Barrag; also, a Haubert.

Aubes: f. The short boordes which are set into th'outside of a water-mills wheele; we call them, ladles, or aueboords.

Aubespin: m. The white-thorne, or Hawthorne.

Aubicon: m. A kind of great fig; which, being sooner ripe, is more estemed, than any other.

Aubier: The pith, sap, or whitest and softest part of timber, subiect vnto worme-eating.

Aubifoin: m. A Turkish stone; also the weed Blew-bottle, Blew-blaw, Corne-flower, Hurtsickle.

Grand aubifoin. The great Blew-bottle.

Petit aubifoin. The common Blew-blaw, or Blew-bottle.

Aubin. as Aubier; Also, the white, or gleare, of an egge.

Aubinage. as Aubaine; or Aubenage.

Aubour. as Aubier.

Aubourt: m. A kind of tree tearmed in Latine, Alburnus; (it beares long yellow blossomes, which no Bee wil touch.)

Aubun d'eeuf. The white of an egge.

Aucaigne. as Ocaigne; Dogs leather well dressed.

Auche: f. A round haspe of yron, or cleit of wood, wherin the barrell of a windles turneth.

Aucteur. Seeke Autheur.

Auctorisation. Looke Authorisation.

Auctorisé. Authorised; established, set in authoritie.

Auctoriser. as Authoriser.

Aucun. Some bodie, some one; any, any one.

Aucunement. Somewhat; after a sort, in a manner; so, so.

Aucunesfois. Sometimes, now and then; otherwhiles; at one time or other.

Audace: f. Audacitie, boldnesse, hardinesse, courage, mettall, stomacke; also, rashnesse; presumption, saucinesse, cineſſe, audacioufneſſe.

Audacieuſement. Boldly, aduenturouſly, courageouſly, hazardouſly, daringly; audacioufly; raſhly, preſumptuouſly, ſaucily.

Audacieux: m. euſe: f. Bold, ſtout, hardie, aduenturous, hazardous, couragious, full of mettall, ſtomacke, valour; alſo, audacious, daring, ſaucie, malapert, preſumptuous; raſh.

Audience: f. An audience, or hearing; a report, or examination of letters patents, &c, in Chancerie; alſo, the reuenue of the Chancerie ſeale.

Tenir l'audience. To examine, or heare read, letters patents, &c, before they bee ſealed, or abſolutely paſſed.

Audiencé: m. ée: f. At a hearing, come to a hearing; alſo, examined, or heard read, as a letters patents, &c, before th'inſealing, or abſolute paſſing thereof.

Audiencier: m. A hearer, or giuer of audience; alſo, an Officer in the Chancerie, that examines, or heares read, all letters patents, &c, before they paſſe the ſeale, and deliuers them out, being ſealed; he alſo receiues the fees of the ſeale, and thereout payes all wages, and ſtipends aſſigned vnto the Offices, and defrayes all the ordinarie charges, of that Court; (an Vſher, or Cryer is alſo, in ſome Courts, tearmed Audiencier, but with the addition of Huiſſier.)

Le grand audiencier de France. The chiefe Audiencier of France, and chiefe paimaſter of all Chancerie Officers; for vnto him the inferiour Audiencier (in each Parliamentall Chancerie one) payes ouer, euerie halfe yeare, that which he hath receiued.

Auditeur: m. An Auditor, hearer, hearkener, liſtener; alſo, an Auditor, or Examiner of Accompts, in th'Exchequer; (of whom looke Auditeur des Comptes;) alſo, a Magiſtrat, or Officer, before whom all contracts of ſale, or aſſignation of rents, are (in ſome places) acknowledged, paſſed, and authoriſed.

Auditeurs du Chaſtelet de Paris. Certaine pettie Iudges, who determine finally, and without oppoſition, or appeale, of ſuch perſonall cauſes as are brought before them, and exceed not the value of xx. l. Pariſis, beſides coſts of ſuit.

Auditeurs des Comptes. Are ſixteene in the Exchequer, or Chamber of Accompts eſtabliſhed at Paris; and fewer in the reſt of the Parliamentall Exchequers: Theſe muſt take no manner of gift of any Accomptant; nor, without expreſſe order from the court, examine, or make report of, two accompts for one thing. The Court being ſet, they muſt not goe forth (nor at any time out of the towne) without leaue, vnleſſe it be when a kinſman, or ally of theirs giues in his accompt, for then they muſt ariſe, and be gone without bidding: The Court being riſen, they are the laſt that ſtay, and are not to leaue any bodie in the chambers thereof behind them.

Auditif: m. iue: f. Auditiue; of a hearing propertie, or faculti e.

Audition: f. A hearing.

Audition, & cloſture des comptes. Th'examination, and allowance, of Accompts by an Auditor.

Auditoire: m. An audience, auditorie; aſſembly, or companie of hearers; alſo, a Court, or hall of audience; a Seſſions houſe, or Shire hall.

Auditoire des maiſtres des Requeſtes. The Court of Requeſts; or, the Court wherein the titles of Offices are determined.

Audroict. With, or towards; alſo, ſtraight by, directly vpon, or all along through.

Ave. as Have; Dry, leane, witherrd.

Avec. With, withall, together with.

Avec le temps. At length, in time, in th'end.

D'avec. From.

Aveille: f. The hiue-Bee, or hony-Bee.

Aveindre. Seeke Avaindre.

Aveine. as Avoine; Oats.

Pain d'aveine. Iannocks; or, oaten bread; alſo, the name of a certaine Bourrough in Normandie.

Avelaignier: m. A Filbeard tree.

Avelaine: f. A Filbeard.

Avelaine des Indes. The drunken date; a medicinable fruit; called by th'Arabians (and in ſome ſhops) Faufel.

Avelaine rouge. The red-skinned Filbeard; the right Ponticke Filbeard.

Avelane. as Avelaine: ¶Langued.

Avellaine. as Avelaine.

Aven. as Avoir. Wealth, ſubſtance, goods, riches.

Avenage: m. Certaine quarters, or a quantitie, of oats paied vnto a Lord, or Land-lord in lieu, or acknowledgment, of ſome other dutie; Alſo, as Aubenage.

Bourgeoiſie d'avenage. Looke Bourgeoiſie.

Avenages. Oats, prouender.

Avenaire: com. An alien, ſtranger, forreiner.

Avenant. Seeke Advenant.

Avenat: m. Oat-meale; or, oat-meale flower.

Avene. as Avoine; Oats.

Avenement. as Advenement.

Aveneray. as Aveneron.

Aveneri: m. Oaten ſtraw, or ſtubble.

Aveneron. Wild oats, barren oats, hauer, or oat graſſe.

Aveneux. Strangers, forreiners; (an old word.)

Avenger. Seeke Avanger.

Avenier: m. ere: f. Oatie, belonging to oats; feeding on oats.

Avenir. as Advenir.

Aventure. as Adventure; à l'avent: cela n'eſt point. I doubt, or, tis a queſtion, whether that be; or, perhaps that is not.

Avenue. as Advenue.

Averé: m. ée: f. Auerred, aduouched, affirmed, verified; witneſſed; alſo, ſearched, or ſifted out.

Averément: m. A iuſt eſtimation of things; alſo, an averring, auouching, verifying; alſo, a ſearching, or ſifting out.

Averer. To auerre, auouch, verifie, witneſſe; alſo, to ſearch, or ſift out.

Averlan: m. A good fellow, a mad companion, merie Greeke, ſound drunkard.

Avernal: m. ale: f. Helliſh, of hell pit.

Averne: f. Hell; or, (as we ſay) the pit of hell.

Averon. as Aveneron.

Averroncation: f. A purging, or weeding; a turning, putting, or taking away, of euill things; a diuerting of miſchiefes; alſo, an appeaſing.

Averronquer. To purge, or weed; to turne, put, or take, away euill; to diuert miſchiefes; alſo, to appeaſe.

Avertin: m. Frenzie, lunacie; giddineſſe, dizzineſſe; a turning round about, or a lunacie, in beaſts, manifeſted by their often turning; alſo, ſtubbornneſſe, obſtinacie, ſullenneſſe, wilfulneſſe, diſobedience.

s'Avertiner. To become giddie; franticke, lunaticke; ſullen, ſelfe-willy, ſtubborne.

Avertineux. Dizzie, giddie; franticke, lunaticke, fantaſticall; alſo, moodie, humorous; wilfull, obſtinate, ſtubborne, ſullen.

Aveſprement: m. A drawing towards euening; the eue- euening-tide.

Aveſprer. To draw towards euening, to grow neere night.

Il Aveſprit. Th'euening approches; it growes almoſt, or it drawes towards, night.

Avet: m. A Fyrre tree.

Avette. A little Bee.

Aveu. Seeke Adveu.

Aveuëment: m. A view; the firſt appearance, repreſentation, or comming in ſight of.

Aveugle: com. Blind, ſightleſſe, without eyes, depriued of ſight, or of his eyes; alſo, ignorant, or in an errour.

Il en parle comme vn aveugle de couleurs. Hee ſpeakes of it like a blind man of colours; viz. ignorantly, at randome, he knowes not what.

Vn aveugle meine l' autre en la foſſe: Prov. An ignorant Paſtor leads an ignorant ſheepe headlong into hell.

Vn borgne eſt Roy au païs des aveugles: Prov. An ordinarie ſcholler is held a great Doctor by the ignorant multitude; and a meere ſwaggerer a tall ſouldiour by women, and children.

Aveuglemént: m. Blindneſſe, darkeneſſe, want of ſight; alſo, ignorance, errour; alſo, a blinding of the eyes, a darkening of the vnderſtanding.

Aveugler. To blind, hudwinke, depriue of eyes, or ſight.

Aveugleté: f. Blindneſſe; as Aveuglement.

Aveuglette. à Aveuglettes. Blindly, blindfold, in ignorance, at randome.

Aufegue: f. (A kind of) pale-red wheat.

Auge: m. A trough; alſo, a manger; alſo, a Plaiſterers tray.

C'eſt vn porc à l'auge. He commonly feeds till he be readie to burſt withall.

Augée: f. A trough-full, manger-full, or trayfull of.

Auget: m. A little trough, manger, or tray.

Augibis. (The name of) a grape, whereof an excellent raiſin is made.

Augive: f. An ogiue; a wreath, circlet, round band, in Architecture.

Branches d'augives. Branches ogiued; or, limmes with ogiues.

Augmentatif: m. iue: f. Augmentatiue; able, fit, or eaſie, to increaſe.

Augmentation: f. Augmentation, increaſe; amplification; an increaſing, augmenting; amplifying.

Augmentateur. An increaſor, augmentor; inlarger, amplifier.

Augmenté: m. ée: f. Augmented, increaſed; inlarged, amplified.

Augmenter. To augment, increaſe; amplifie, inlarge.

Augué. as Hieble; Wallwort: ¶Langued.

Augure: m. Diuination, ſoothſaying, or coniecture of things to come, by birds; alſo, a fore token, preſage, prophecie, forewarning.

Augurement: m. A diuining, ſoothſaying, auguriſing.

Auguſtins. The Auſtine Friers; or blacke Friers, of the order of S. Auſtine.

Au-guy-l'an-neuf. The voyce of country people begging ſmall preſents, or new-yeares-gifts, in Chriſtmas; (An ancient tearme of reioycing, deriued from the Druides; who were woont, the firſt of Ianuarie, to goe vnto the woods, where hauing ſacrificed, and banqueted togethet, they gathered Miſletow, eſteeming it excellent to make beaſts fruitfull, and moſt ſoueraigne againſt all poiſon.)

s'Aviander. To feed, or victuall himſelfe.

Avictuaillé: m. ée: f. Victualed; furniſhed with, prouided of, victuals.

Avictuaillement. A victualling.

Avictuailler. To victuall; to furniſh, or ſtore, with victuals.

Avide: com. Greedie, couetous, hungrie, rauenous, glutenous, vnſatiable; eagar, deſirous.

Avidement. Greedily, hungrily, eagarly, rauenouſly.

Avidité: f. Greedineſſe, couetouſneſſe; extreame luſt, ardent affection, eagar deſire.

Avier. To ſet in the way; alſo, as Aviver.

Avignon. vent A. as Aguyon.

Avigouri: m. ie: f. Vigorous, luſtie, able, ſtrong; alſo, enabled; made luſtie, ſtrong, vigorous.

Avilé: m. ée: f. Imbaſed, diſeſteemed, made vile; grown cheape, fallen in price.

Avilener. To diſgrace, diſhoneſt, or do a villanie vnto.

Aviler. To deſpiſe, diſeſteeme; imbaſe, make vile, or cheape; to pull downe the price of, to bring to a low price.

Avili: m. ie: f. as Avilé.

Auilier. To fill vp wine veſſels, which by working haue eiected part of their liquor.

Aviliſſement: m. An imbaſing, diſgracing, diſeſteeming

Avillonné. for Environné; ¶Poictevin; alſo, affronted; vexed, moleſted, harried.

Avillonnement: m. An affronting; vexing, harrying, moleſting.

Avillonner. To affront; vex, harrie, trouble, moleſt.

Aviné: m. ée: f. That hath taken too much wine; alſo, giuen to drinking of wine; alſo, winie; or taſting like wine; or, turned into the nature of wine; alſo, filled, or ſeaſoned, with wine.

Aviner vn vaiſſeau. To fill, or ſeaſon, a veſſell with wine.

Aujourd'huy. To day; this day; alſo, now, at this time.

Aujourd'huy caiſſier, demain caſſé: Prov.

Aujourd'huy en chere, demain en biere: Prov.

Aujourd'huy facteur, demain fracteur: Prov.

Aujourd'huy marchant, demain meſchant. Prov.

Aujourd'huy marié, demain marri: Prov.

Aujourd'huy monſieur, demain mourcheur: Pro.

Aujourd'huy Roy, demain de rien: Prov.

Aujourd'huy Seigneur, demain ſinge ord: Prov.

Aujourd'huy Threſorier, demain treſarriere. A Prouerbe expounded, as all the reſt, elſewhere.

Aviron: m. An oare, or skull.

Avironner. To row with oares; (an old word.)

Avis. Looke Advis.

Aviſé: m. ée: f. Aduiſed, warie, conſiderate, heedfull, diſcreet, circumſpect; alſo, tould, warned, informed, hauing notice, or intelligence of.

Aviſement: m. Aduiſement; heed, warineſſe, forecaſting, diſcretion, circumſpection, conſideration; alſo, an aduiſing, warning, telling, informing.

Aviſément. as Adviſément.

Aviſer. To marke, heed, ſee, looke to, attend vnto, regard with circumſpection; to conſider, aduiſe of, take aduice on; to thinke, imagine, iudge; alſo, to aduiſe, counſell, warne, tell, informe, do to wit, giue to vnderſtand.

On y aviſera. We will thinke of it; we will conſider, or ſee, what may be done in it.

De tout s'aviſe à qui pain faut: Prov. Hunger makes men induſtrious; want makes them looke narrowly, and throughly, about them.

On s'aviſe tard en mourant: Prov. When death approaches, proches, had-I-wiſt comes too late.

Qui bien ſe cognoit peu ſe priſe, qui peu ſe priſe Dieu l'aviſe: Prov. Looke Priſer.
Vn fol aviſe bien vn ſage: Pro. Looke Sage.
Aviſion nocturne. A nightly dreame, or viſion.
Avitaillé. as Avictuaillé.
Avitin. Biens avitins. Goods that come by inheritance, and whereunto the eldeſt ſucceedeth; heire-loomes.
Avivé: m. ée: f. Quickned, reuiued, made liuing, whereinto breath is put; whereunto ſpirit is giuen.
Aviver. To quicken, make liuing, put breath into, giue ſpirit vnto.
Avives. The Vives; a diſeaſe in horſes.
Avivre vn corps. as Aviver.
Aul. vn aul; as ail; Garlicke; Seeke, Aulx.
Aulbain. Looke Aubain.
Aulbereau. as Albereau. A kind of hard white ſtone, fit for building.
Aulberge. as Auberge.
Aulbespin: m. The white thorne, or hawthorne.
Aulbin: m. An alien, ſtranger, forreiner; as Aubain.
Aulbinage: m. as Aubenage.
Aulmoſne. Seeke Aumoſne.
Aulmoſné. as Aumoſné.
Aulnage: m. Ell-meaſure, the meaſuring with an ell; alſo, meaſure.
Aulnaye. An Alder-groue, or place to plant Alders in.
Aulne: m. An Aller, or Alder tree.
Aulne: f. An Ell; the meaſure ſo called; (The moſt common one in France is three foot, ſeuen ynches, and eight lines in length.)
Aulne de Bourdeaux. is foure foot, and (very neere) a halfe, long.
Aulne de Dijon. is but two foot, and a halfe.
Aulne des marchans de draps de ſoye; is halfe an ynch ſhorter then the common, or ordinarie, Ell.
Aulne de Paris. is three foot, & two thirds of an ynch, and about the fiftieth part of a foot, long; (this is the iuſt length of it at this day; heretofore, as appeares by ſome Cuſtomes, it hath bin 3 foot, 8 ynches, and 4 lines long.)
Aulne de Provins; as Aulne de Dijon; two foot, and a halfe.
L'Aulne du Roy. is (as th' ordinarie one) three foot, ſeuen ynches, and eight lines.
Au bout de l'aulne faut le drap. There is but iuſt meaſure, or, no more then needs.
Il a vn'aulne de boyaux vuidés pour feſtoyer ſes parens. He is a hungrie, or greedie ſtarueling.
Il meſuroit le peril à l'aulne de la peur. His feare made the danger ſeeme the greater.
Il prenoit la meſure de leurs habits d'une dure aulne. He cudgelled them ſoundly; or, dealt extreamly with thē; (we ſay, when one hath lamd another, he hath taken the meaſure of his ſhoulders with a good cudgel.)
Il ſçait combien en vaut l'aulne. He knowes well ynough whereof they are made, what worth they are of, what ſtuffe there is in them.
Tout au long de l'aulne. Fully, wholly, ſoundly, throughly; whence;
Ie vous en bailleray tout le long, ou, tout du long de l'aulne. I will pay you home; (euer ſpoken angrily, and in euill part.)
Aulné: m. ée: f. Meaſured by the Ell.
Aulnée: f. Helicampane, Scabwort, Horſeheale.
Aulnée champeſtre. Wild, or field, Helicampane.
Aulner. To meaſure by the Ell.
Aulneur: m. A meaſurer by the Ell.
Aulnoye: f. An Alder groue.

Aulonnes: f. Ouldernes, Medrinacks, Pouledauies; the canuas whereof ſayles for ſhips are made.
Aulonnier: m. A certaine ſhrub that beares a fruit like vnto, but ſomewhat bigger then, a Raſpis, or Strawberrie; and therefore I thinke it may ſafely be called, the Strawberrie tree.
Aulvent. as Auvent.
Aulx: m. Garlicke; Looke Ail.
Herbe aux aulx. Sauce alone, or, Iacke of the hedge.
Le mortier ſent touſiours les aulx: Pro. Th' ill impreſſions made by nature, or bad habit got by cuſtome, are ſeldome, or neuer, worne out.
Aulx; as Autres; others. ¶Gaſc.
Aulx-oignon. Great garlick; or, great mountain garlick.
Aumaille: f. Great cattell; or any kind of Neat, as Oxen, Kine, &c.
Aumelette d'œufs. An Omelet; or pancake made of egs.
Vireurs d'aumelettes. Idle fellowes, vaine companions, or, cotqueanes; people that buſie themſelues, or loue to be medling, in baſe, or vnworthie imployments.
Aumoire: m. A cupboord; ambrie; almes-tub.
Aumonner. as Aumoſner.
Aumoſne: f. An almes; a deuotion; a gift beſtowed, with a charitable reſpect, on the poore.
Pure aumoſne. That which in our Law is called Frankalmoine.
Eſprit touſiours à l'aumoſne, & à l'hoſpital. A moſt beggarly, and lame wit.
Aumoſné. Giuen in almes, beſtowed to charitable vſes.
Aumoſner. To beſtow in almes, or free gift; to giue a charitable almes, or vnto charitable vſes.
Aumoſnerie: f. An Almes-houſe.
Aumoſnier: m. An Almner, or Amner; alſo, an almes-giuer; in old time a Legatarie was called ſo.
Aumoſnier: m. ere: f. Charitable, almes-giuing, good or liberall to the poore.
Aumoſniere: f. An almes-purſe; or little purſe wherein we carrie ſmall money for the poore.
Aumuce: m. An ornament of furre worne by Canons.
Aumuſſe. as Aumuce.
Aumuſſé. Wearing an Aumuce.
Aunaye: f. An Alder groue, or thicket of Alders.
Aune: m. An Aller, or Alder tree.
Herbe de l'aune. Helicampane, Scabwort, Horſeheale.
Aunée: f. as Herbe de l'Aune.
Auner. To make one, or, to ioyne in one; (an old word.)
Aunir. To cloſe, or ſhut vp.
Aunon. A Keeling (fiſh.)
Aunoye: f. as Aulnaye; an Alder groue.
Avoie: f. A ſloe-worme, or blind-worme.
Avoier. as Advoué.
Avoine: f. Oats.
Avoine folle. Wild oats, barren oats, hauer, oat graſſe.
Avoine ſauvage. Barren oats, wild oats.
Avoine ſterile. Red darnell, wall barley, way Bennet.
Poures avoines. as Avoine folle.
Bailler de l'avoine pour du foing. To returne a good turne with vſurie; or, to be better then his word.
Fais luy bien gaigner ſon avoine. Put him to it roundly, make him come off luſtily, take your full penniworths out of him.
Elles ne hennifloient apres autre avoine. That only was their deſire, they longed for nothing more, their minds ran vpon nothing elſe.
Manger ſon avoine en ſon ſac. To ſnudge it; or churliſhly to eat all his meat all alone; (from Moyles, who haue bags of prouender hung ſo cloſe to their noſes, that none but themſelues can come at it.)

Il ne perdra point l' avoine à faute de brailler. He will want no commoditie which clamorous, or importunate, words can get him.

Avoine touillée croiſt comme enragée: Pro. Looke Touillé.

Avoir: m. Wealth, ſubſtance, meanes, goods, riches, poſſeſſions, abilitie.

Fy d'avoir qui n'a ioye, & d'amours ſans monnoye: Pro. Looke Fy.

Avoir. To haue; to hold, occupie, vſe, poſſeſſe, enioy; alſo, to containe; alſo, to be.

Avoir beau. Looke afterwards; or, in Beau.

Avoir bec. Ils n' ont que le bec. They are nothing but words; or the beſt thing in them is but a little tatle; or, they haue no more of a man in them but the face, outſide, preſence.

Avoir bon bec. To ſpeake diſcreetly, or warily; to be circumſpect in his ſpeeches; to heed well what he ſayes (eſpecially in a time of danger, or during an examination.)

Avoir le bec gelé. To play mumbudget; to be tongue-tyed; to ſay neuer a word.

Avoir le bond. To be coſened, cheated, gulled; to haue the gentle thumpe.

Avoir bouche à Cour. To eat and drinke ſcotfree; to be in ordinarie at Court.

Avoir bonne bouche. To be ſecret.

Avoir la bouche fraiche. Tant vous avez la bouche fraiche! Good Lord what quaint tearmes, what goodly words you vſe! Ironically.

Avoir ſon Cardinal; ou, ſon cas. A woman to bee troubled with her monthly flux.

Avoir ſa chemiſe; &, ce qu' elle doit avoir. The ſame.

Avoir le cœur net de. To be fully ſatisfied in, throughly reſolued of.

Avoir ſon compte. To be merrie, liuely, iolly, light hearted, at eaſe; as one that hath paſt a troubleſome accompt, or is cleere of a comberſome reckoning, and knowes alreadie what he is to truſt vnto.

Avoir les dents à machecoulis. Looke Dent.

Avoir le fèu à la feſte. To be hot, haſtie, cholericke, fierce, furious; forward, hazardous, aduenturous.

Avoir le filet. To be tongue-tyed.

Avoir du foin aux cornes. Il a du foin aux cornes; He beares hay in his hornes; he is a ſhrewd, fierce, curſt, or dangerous fellow to meet with; See, Foin.

Avoir froid. To be cold.

Avoir froid aux pieds. To be iealous; or, as in Froid.

Avoir haine à. To hate, or beare hatred vnto.

Avoir les mains derriere le dos. To be lazie, idle, negligent, careleſſe, retcheleſſe, not to paſſe, not to care, how the world goes.

Avoir ſa male ſemaine. A woman to haue her flowers.

Avoir ſon Marquis. The ſame.

Avoir ſon mois. The ſame.

Avoir le Moyne. Nous avons le Moyne. We haue ill lucke; or, we are coſened, guld, poopt.

Avoir du nez. S'il a du nez. If there be any ſence, conceit, or iudgement in him.

Cela n'a point de nez. There is no wit, no ſauour, no garbe at all in that.

Avoir la ſalle. To be whipt in publicke, as breeching boyes are ſometimes in the hals of Colledges.

Avoir ſon temps. A woman to be troubled with her monthly diſeaſe.

Avoir la teſte prez du bonnet. To be hot, haſtie, cholericke; alſo, to be craftie, ſubtill, wylie.

Avoir vent en pouppe. To proſper, to proceed happily, to lead the world in a ſtring, to haue the world at will.

Avoir bon vent. To be long-breathed; alſo, to haue a readie wit; quicke ſent; perfect ſmelling.

Avoir leur vin. Avoir ſon vin. Looke Vin.

Avoir la vogue. To beare ſway, to rule the roaſt.

Il n'a garde de faire cela. Hee cares not greatly for doing that; or, I beleeue he will take heed how he does it.

Il y a bien Monſieur pour toy. I might be Maſter (or Lord) in thy mouth well ynough.

Il y a de l'oignon. There is a pad in that ſtraw; ſomewhat is amiſſe among them.

Qu'auez vous à plorer? What ayles you, or, what cauſe haue you, to weepe?

Il y aura icy de l'aſne. We ſhall be troubled with ſome fooliſh coyle, or vaine buſineſſe.

I'ay beau attendre! Here's goodly tarrying ſure! I ſtay to much purpoſe indeed! (Ironically) alſo, as in;

Ils l'avoient beau flatter. They were faine to ſpeake him faire.

Aſſez a qui ſe contente: Prov. Contentment is treaſure ynough; nor needs he more thats pleaſed with what he hath.

Aſſez a qui bon credit a: Prov. A good report is a ſufficient portion.

Aſſez y a ſi trop n'y a: Prov. There is ynough where there is not too much; (a difference betweene ſufficiencie, and ſuperfluitie.)

Bien a en ſa maiſon qui de ſes voiſins eſt aimé: Prov. Well doth he liue within, who is beloued without, dores.

Il faut avoir mauvaiſe beſte par douceur: Prov. A miſchieuous, froward, or curſt beaſt muſt be reclaymed, caught, or woon, by faire meanes.

Qui a argent a des chapeaux: Pro. Looke Argent.

Qui a bon voiſin a bon matin: Pro. Good neighbors affoord kind ſalutations, vſe friendly greetings, giue good dayes, or the time of the day.

Qui a compagnon a maiſtre: Prov. He that hath a fellow-ruler, hath an ouer-ruler.

Qui n'a argent en bourſe ait du moins du miel ou bouche: Prov. Let him that cannot ſpend freely ſpeake faire.

Qui n'a cœur ait iambes: Prov. Let him that dares not fight vſe flight.

Le frere veut que ſa ſœur ait, mais que rien du ſien n'y ait: Pro. The brother loues to ſee, but not to make, his ſiſter rich.

Mieux vaut vn tenez que deux vous l'aurez: Pro. Better is one thing in poſſeſſion then two in expectancie.

s'Avoiſiner. To approch, draw neere, ſeat himſelfe hard by, be neighbor vnto.

De graſſe cuiſine pauvreté s'avoiſine: Pro. A great houſekeeper is next dore to a beggar.

Avoye: f. A Blind-worme.

Auque: m. A Gooſe. ¶Langued.

Aure: f. as the Latine, Aura; a ſoft, gentle, coole wind, or aire.

Aureille: f. An eare. Seeke Oreille.

Aureillons: m. The Mumpes.

Aurelles: f. Whoortle berries, Wyn-berries, Bill-berries, Bull-berries.

Aurelles rouges. Red Whoorts, red Whoortle-berries.

Aureole. Seeke Laureole.

Auriculaire: com. Auricular, of the eare.

Doigt auriculaire. The little finger.
Veine auriculaire. The eare veine; runs vp along by the kernels which are vnder the eare, and is there diuided into two branches, the one whereof mounts vp before the eare, and the other behind it; Surgeons open it against the deafenes, pain, & vlcerations of the eares.
Auriflamme. as Oriflambe.
Avril: m. Aprill.
Poiſon d'Avril. A Mackerell (fiſh;) alſo, a young baud, or, a Page employed by his maiſter in baudie ſeruices.
Aurillage: m. An impoſition layed (in ſome parts of France) vpon the profit thats made of Bees.
Auriol: m. The greateſt kind of the fiſh Turdus; on the backe of a ruddie, on the bellie of a leaden, colour; and full of blacke, and wan ſpots all ouer; ſome hold it to be the Goldenie.
Auriou: m. as Auriol.
Auripeaux: m. the Mumpes.
Aurislage. as Aurillage.
Auroeſne. The hearbe Sothernwood.
Avron: m. Wild Oats, barren Oats.
Auron: m. as Auronne.
Auronne: f. The hearbe Sothernwood.
Auronne femelle. Female Sothernwood, great Sothernwood, mountaine Sothernwood; ſome alſo call ſo, dwarfe, or ſweet, Sothernwood.
Auronne de jardin. Garden Sothernwood.
Auronne masle. Male Sothernwood, champian Sothernwood, the leſſe Sothernwood.
Aurore: f. The morning.
Aurorin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, the morning; alſo, early.
Auſé. Looke Oſé.
Auſpice: m. A ſigne, token, ſignification, or preſage of future things by the flight, or other motion, of birds; alſo, fortune, lucke; or, a luckie beginning of matters.
Auſſi. Alſo, likewiſe, as, euen as.
Auſſi bien ne faittes vous rien. For, or becauſe, you doe nothing.
Auſtere: com. Auſtere, ſeuere, ſterne, rigorous; rude, rough, ſoure or harſh of diſpoſition, pitileſſe.
Auſtereiment. Auſterely, ſternely, ſeuerely, rigorouſly; rudely, roughly, ſourely, harſhly, without pitie.
Auſterité: f. Auſtereneſſe, auſteritie, ſterneneſſe, rigour, ſeueritie; ſoureneſſe, roughneſſe, rudeneſſe, harſhneſſe of diſpoſition; want of pitie.
Auſterons. as Aouſterons; alſo, the fruits of Auguſt, or harueſt; corne.
Auſtour: m. as Autour.
Auſtral: m. ale: f. Southerly; of, or belonging to, the South.
Auſtre: m. as Auſtrie.
Auſtrie. The South, or Southerne, wind.
Auſtrin: m. ine: f. Of the South; warme as the South.
Auſtruche: f. An Auſtridge, or Oſtridge.
Autan: m. A Southerne wind.
Autant. as much; as well; ſo, ſo much, ſo well; as many; ſo many.
Il n'en falloit plus qu'autant. He wanted, or, there wanted, but as much more. ¶Rab.
Il ſe retira avec autant de nez. He got him away with ſhame ynough; (a ſpeech wherein this word is expreſſed with the hand;) Looke Nez.
Autel: m. An Altar.
Authentique: com. Authenticke, authenticall, of good authoritie; approued, or allowed, by authoritie.
Seel authentique. Looke Scel.
Authentiqué. Authorized, made authenticall.
Authentiquer. To make authenticke; to authorize, or giue authoritie vnto.

Autheur: m. An author, actor, cauſer, founder; th'originall inuentor, the firſt deuiſer, of a thing; alſo, an author, or writer of bookes; alſo, he that ſels with warrantie.
Tel autheur tel œuvre: Prov. Looke Oeuvre.
Authoriſation: f. An authorization, or authorizing; an allowing by authoritie.
Lettres d'authoriſation. Letters patent, whereby a woman is authorized, in th'abſence, or vpon the refuſal, of her husband, to follow his ſuits, & manage his eſtate.
Authoriſer. To authorize, allow by authoritie, put in authoritie, giue authoritie vnto.
Authorité: f. Authoritie, ſway, power; credit, reputation, dignitie, eſtimation; alſo, reuerence, grauitie.
Authrice: f. An Autrix, Authreſſe, or Actreſſe.
Autins: m. Vines which grow vp along trees, or, as hops, twining about long Poles.
Autographe. Written with his owne hand, or, by him that ſent it.
Autom. as Automne.
Vent d'Autom. The South wind.
Automate. Any thing that goes by a vice, or peiſe, yet ſeemes to moue of it ſelfe.
Automnal: m. ale: f. Of Autumne, belõging vnto harueſt.
Roſe automnale. A Muske Roſe.
Automne: m. Autumne, or harueſt time.
Violette d'Automne. The Paunſie.
Automnel. as Automnal.
Autour: m. is (generally) a ſhort-winged hauke; and particularly, the Goſhauke.
Demy Autour. A kind of leane, little, and cowardly goſhauke, or ſhort-winged hauke.
Autour. About, round about, in a round.
Autre. Another, other, ought els, any beſides; different from the former (but in ſome eſpeciall, not any generall, reſpect.)
L'autre d'apres. The ſecond, or next.
A l'autre. Now ſhall I be troubled againe; or, this fellow comes to trouble me as much as the former did.
Autrement. Otherwiſe, els, on other termes; except that, if not on any other condition.
Autres-fois. Heretofore, in times paſt; ſometime; at another time; Looke, Fois.
Autruy. Another mans, belonging to another; alſo, other men, others.
Faire d'autruy cuir large courroye. To cut a large thong of another mans leather.
Robbe d'autruy ne fait honneur à nulluy: Prov. No apparrell can truly grace him that owes it not; or, as in Robbe.
Tout a eſté à autruy, & ſera à autruy: Prov. All came from, and ſhall goe to, others.
Autumnal. as Automnal.
Autumne. Seeke Automne.
Auvent: m. A penthouſe of cloth, &c, before a ſhop window, &c.
Auvernas. A kind of blacke grapes; tearmed otherwiſe (by reaſon of their hue) Morillons.
Auviez. as Aleſve; A kind of wild Pine.
Avulſe: com. Plucked away, pulled of.
Auxerrois: m. as Megle.
Auxiliateur: m. A helper, aider, aſſiſter.
Axillaire: com. Of, or belonging to, th'arm-hole; whence;
Artere axillaire. Th'arm-hole Arterie; Looke Artere.
Veine axillaire. The liuer veine; or, a great branch of the hollow veine conueyed vnder the cannell bone, and through th' arme-hole into th' inner part of th' arme, where tis diſperſed.

Axionomantie: f. Diuination by a hatchet, and leat burnt. ¶Rab.
Axonne: f. as Axunge.
Axunge: f. Tallow, fat, seame, greaſe (properly of ſwine;) alſo, oyntment (thereof.)
Ayant. (The Participle of Auoir*) hauing; holding; enioying.*
Ayde. as Aide; helpe, aid, aſſiſtance.
Ayeul: m. A grandfather.
Ayeule: f. A grandmother.
Aygue: f. Water. ¶Langued.
Ayguier: m. A gutter, ſinke, or ſewer. ¶Langued.
Ayguiere: f. An Ewer, or Lauer.
Aymant; as, Aimant; an Adamant, or Loadſtone.
Aymer; as, Aimer; To loue, &c.
Aynets: m. Little rods, or twigs, wherein herrings are threaded, and layed on hurdles to be redded.
Ayré: m. ée: f. Ayred.
Ayſement: m. A lakes, or Priuie.
Aysle: f. as, Aile; a wing.
Az. An ace at cards, or dice.
Demeurer entre deux & az. Looke, As.
Reſpondre entre deux & az. To frame ſuch a cunning anſwer betwixt yea and no, that a man cannot tel what to make of it; a Metaphor taken from a dye that ſtands edgeling, ſo as tis doubtfull what chance it will yeeld.
Azagaye. as Zagaye.
Azarole: m. A ſmall Medlar-tree, called, the three-graind Medlar, or Neapolitane Medlar tree.
Azaron. An hearbe; as, Cabaret.
Azez, gayes: in ſtead of, Azagayes. ¶Rab.
Azile. as Aſyle. A Sanctuarie.
Azime: com. Sweet, vnleauened, without leauen; ſincere.
Azimuth. An Azimuth, or Verticle circle, which diſcends from the Zenith.
Azur. Seeke Aſur.
Azuré. A certaine blewiſh, and long-legd ſpider, full of poyſon, and very dangerous.
Azuré: m. ée: f. Azured, of azure, painted or coloured with Azure.
Azurer. To make Azure; to paint, or colour with Azure.
Azurin: m. ine: f. Azurie, blonket, skie-coloured, Azure-like.

B

B The letter, B. In Muſicke, the Note, or Cliffe, called Befabeemie; whence;
De b carre en b mol: Prov. In diſcourſe, to ſhift often, idly, and on a ſuddaine, from one ſubiect vnto another.
Baaillant. Gaping, yawning.
Baaillement: m. A gaping, or yawning; wide opening, or going aſunder.
Baailler. To gape, to yawne; to open, or ſpread wide.
Baaillon: m. A gag.
Baaillonner. To gag.
Ba-bat: m. A panting, or often beating.
Babaye: f. Faire la babaye. To gape, or make a mouth at.
Babbiner. See Babiner.
Babeurre: m. Whig, or butter-milke.
Babil: m. Bable, tatle, pratle, chat; babling, iangling, chattering, ouer-much talking.
Babillard: m. A babler, tatler, prater, pratler, chatterer, iangler, word-monger; talkatiue companion; one whoſe tongue neuer lyes (and yet he often lyes.)
Babillard: m. de: f. Babling, tatling, talkatiue.
Babillarde: f. A title-tatle; a pratling goſſip; a babling houſwife; a chatting, or chattering Minx.
Babiller. To bable, pratle, tatle, chatter, iangle, talk ouermuch, vſe too many words.
Babillerie: f. as Babil.
Babillons: m. The players that hang to the port of a bitt.
Babine: f. The lip of a beaſt, as of a dog, beare, horſe, cow, &c.
Babiner. To play with the lips; to pratle, or talke hard.
Babiole: f. A trifle, whimwham, guigaw, or ſmall toy, for a child to play withall.
Babioles. Trifles, niſles, trinkets, toyes; alſo, faire (but deceitfull) tearmes.
Babion: m. A Babion, or Baboone.
Baboin: m. as Babion; alſo, a trifling, buſie, or craftie knaue; a crackrope, waghalter, vnhappie rogue, retchleſſe villaine.
Baboiner. as Babouïnner.
Baboles. as Babioles.
Babort. The Larboord of a ſhip.
Babote: f. A certaine little blacke Caterpiller, which in drie ſeaſons breeds on the hearbe Saint-foin.
Babou. Faire la babou. To bob, or, to make a mow at.
Babouïn. as Baboin; alſo, a frozen place, whereon boyes vſe to ſlide; a ſliding place.
Baiſer le babouïn. See Baiſer.
Babouïnner. To baboonize it; to play the Monkey; to vſe apiſh or fooliſh tricks, waggiſh or knauiſh prankes; alſo, to deceiue, coſen, gull.
Babouïnnerie: f. Apiſhneſſe, fopperie, foolerie, childiſh trifling, baboonizing; alſo, an vnhappie tricke, waggiſh part, knauiſh, wilie, or buſie pranke; alſo, a deceit, coſenage, gullerie.
Babouleur: m. A babler; a reporter of trifles, a teller of lyes.
Baboye: f. A fib, or fable; a fooliſh tale ill-fauoredly told.
Baboyer. To blabber with the lips; to famble, to falter; alſo, to fib, fable, tell fooliſh tales.
Bac: m. A great ferry-boat, or horſe-boat; alſo, an open veſſell of Copper, and full of water, for wine-pots to ſtand in at meale times.
Droict de bac. Ferriage; the money thats due at a ferrie vnto the Lord, or Owner, of the boat.
Bacbuc. A bottle. ¶Rab.
Baccal: m. A Weeſill.
Baccar. Th'hearbe Haſlewort, Folefoot, Aſarabacca.
Bacces: f. Berries.
Bacchanaleries: f. Bacchanals, Bacchus feaſts, ſhrouing, wakes, feaſts.
Bacchanales. as Bacchanaleries.
Bacchanaliſer. To rage, play mad pranks, fare like mad men; (as the prieſts of Bacchus were wont to do when they celebrated his feaſts.)
Bacchaniſante: f. An enraged, or furious, woman.
Bacchante. as Bacchaniſante.
Bacche. A kind of wild Peare.
Bacchique: com. Belonging vnto Bacchus.
Bacclé: m. ée: f. Barred, or boulted on the inſide (with a ſhort woodden boult.)
Baccler. To barre, boult, or ſhut cloſe, on th'inſide (with a ſhort boult of wood.)
Baccolant. Playing at titter totter; riding the wild Mare; tottering, ſwinging, often lifting vp and downe.
Baccoler. To play at titter totter, or at totter-arſe; to ride the the wild Mare; as children who ſitting vpon both ends of a long Pole, or Timber-log (ſupported only in the middeſt) lift one another vp and downe; hence, alſo to tottar, ſwag, ſwing, lift, or heaue often vp and downe.

Bacées: f. as Briſées.

Bacelle. as Chaſtelleine. An old word.

Bachat: m. A Baſſa; a chiefe Commaunder, Gouernour, or Officer, vnder the great Turke.

Bachelage: m. Bachelerſhip, prentiſhood.

Bachelerie: f. A bacheler ſhip; the degree, eſtate, condition of an Eſquire, or Bacheler.

Bachelette: f. A young, and marriageable girle, maid, or wench. ¶Pic.

Bachelier: m. A bacheler; a youth of ſixteene, or eighteene yeares of age; alſo, he that hath paſſed Maſter in a trade, but is not yet ſworne of the Companie; alſo, a Batcheler of Art; alſo, a title of gentrie inferiour to Banneret, and ſuperiour to Eſcuyer; a young gentleman that aſpires vnto Knighthood, and the priuiledge of bearing a Banner in the field; alſo, the Lord of a caſtle, fort, great houſe, or Place, that is deriued from (but in iuriſdiction equall with) an Earledome, Vicountie, or Baronie.

Bachelier en buſche. A woodden loggarhead.

Bachelier, m. ere: f. Bachelerly, bacheler-like; of, or belonging to, a bacheler.

Chevalier bachelier. Marched vnder other mens colours, and had twice as much pay as th'Eſquire.

Bachevaleureux. as Chevaleureux.

Bachot: m. A wherrie; or ſmall ferry-boat.

Bachoüe: f. A kind of flat-ſided basket, of wicker, cloſe wouen, and pitched in th' inſide; vſed in time of Vintage.

Bacille: f. The hearbe Sampire; or, as Baſſille.

Bacilles doubles. The double Crowfoot, or Bachelers buttons.

Bacinet. as Baſſinet. The hearbe Crowfoot.

Baclé: m. ée: f. Cloſe bolted; ſhut, or made vp on the inſide.

Bacler. To bolt, cloſe, or ſhut cloſe, on the inſide, with a ſhort woodden bolt.

Bacon: m. Bacon, or (the fat of Bacon) Lard.

Bacquaige. as Bagage.

Bacquet: m. A pale, or bucket; alſo, a ſmall and ſhallow tub, vſually ſet vnder a wine veſſell, or the ſpout, or cocke of a fountaine, to receiue the liquor that diſtils, or deſcends, from it.

Bacqueter. To lade, or draine a riuer, or other water, with pales, or buckets.

Bacquier: m. A hog fed in the ſtye; a ſtye-fed hog.

Bacul: m. A Crupper for an Aſſe, or Moyle.

Bacule: f. A ſquare, and heauie dore (commonly) hanging, and held vp, by chaynes, a pretie diſtance without the maine gate of a fortreſſe, and let fal (as a Portcullis) in a trice, with a whurrie, and to the confuſion of them it reaches, or lights on; alſo, as Baſcule.

A la bacule. The riding of the wild mare; alſo, the puniſhment of miſſes in ſome games, to be clapt on the bumme with a batting-ſtaffe.

En bacule. Hanging aſlope, as the Bacule.

Baculer. To bumpe on the Poſteriorums with a Bat; or, as Baccoler.

Badauderie: f. Sottiſhneſſe, fopperie, doltiſhneſſe.

Badaudiſe. as Badauderie.

Badault: m. A foole, dolt, ſot, fop, aſſe, coxcombe; gaping hoydon.

Badé: m. A crie, as of hounds. ¶Breton.

Badecoquille: f. The name of a ſmall ſhell-fiſh.

Badelaire: m. A ſhort, and broad back-ſword, bending towards the point like a Turkiſh ſcimitar.

Badelori: m. as Badault.

Badelorié: m. ée: f. Beſotted; made a gull, or foole.

Badigoines: f. The great, and hanging lips, or ſlowching chaps of beaſtes (eſpecially horſes) or of beaſtly fellowes.

Badin: m. as Badault; alſo, a Iugler; Tumbler; or any ſuch ſport-maker.

Badin enfariné; & Badin ſans farine. A notable coxcombe, an Aſſe in graine; alſo, a foole, or Vice in a play.

Aller en badin. To goe ſlowly, as one that ſeemes to count the ſteps he ſets.

Eſcholier babillard prez le feu, & badin hors la claſſe: Prov. Looke Eſcolier.

Badinage: m. Fooleric, fopperie; toying, tumbling, iugling; any kind of apiſh gambolling.

Il eſt fait au badinage. He hath his part readie, his leſſon at his fingers end; he hath got the tricke of it; he is throughly inſtructed how to handle the matter, how to carrie the complot.

Badinement. Fooliſhly, apiſhly, ſottiſhly, foppiſhly.

Badiner. To play the foole, or Vice; to vſe apiſh trickes, and toyes; to tumble, or iuggle; to trifle it any way.

Badiner les perdris. To driue Partridges into a Tunnell.

Badinerie: f. as Badinage.

Badiſin: m. The water Lillie, or water Roſe.

Badoüiner. C'eſt, Beſongner come vn Aſne. ¶Rab.

Baffoüé: m. ée: f. Hoodwinked; alſo, deceiued; alſo, beſmeared; alſo, baffled, diſgraced, vnworthily handled, iniuriouſly vſed, reuiled, reproched.

Baffoüer. To hoodwinke; alſo, to deceiue; alſo, to beſmeare; alſo, to baffle, abuſe, reuile, diſgrace, handle baſely in tearmes, giue reprochfull words of, or vnto.

Baffray. as Baffroy.

Baffroy: m. A Beacon; or a watch-tower of timber, &c; alſo, an Allarum Bell; and, the greateſt Bell in in a Church; and chiefeſt clocke in a Towne; alſo, a Baſilic of timber, whereout beſiegers beat the beſieged.

Bafoüé. as Baffoüé.

Bagage: m. The cariage of an armie; luggage, bag, and baggage; alſo, the carters, boyes, and Mulettiers, that looke vnto it.

Bagagier: m. A carrier of ſouldiors baggage, or luggage.

Bagaſſe: f. A Baggage, Queane, Iyll, Punke, Flirt.

Bagatelle: f. A toy, trifle, nifle, thing of ſmall value.

Bagatelleries: f. Triflings, toyings, idle trickes, or, tricks of Legerdemaine.

Bagateur: m. A maker of playing cards.

Bagatin: m. A baſe Italian coyne of Braſſe; worth about the ſixteenth part of our penny.

Baglon: m. as Baillon; a gag.

Bagnoire. as Baignoire.

Bagois: m. Gibridge, fuſtian, ſtrange talke; idle tatle.

Bagos: m. A man-baud; a Ribauld.

Bague: f. (as properly) a ring, or iewell ſet with one precious ſtone, or more; alſo, the Ring whereat gallants run with launces; (whence, Courir la bague; to run at the Ring;) alſo, the reward beſtowed on, or prize gained by, him that does the beſt in a publicke Game, or Exerciſe; as tilting, wreſtling, running, leaping, &c; (and hence;)

Il a gaigné la bague. He hath woon the ſpurres, or carried away the Prize; the victorie, or day, is abſolutely his.

Bagues. (The plurall) is taken, ſometimes for iewels, or any ornament of gold, or ſiluer belonging to, or worne by, a woman; and ſometimes for our whole ſubſtance, or ſtuffe; hence; moy, mes gens, & mes bagues; myſelfe, my people, and goods; hence alſo,

Bagues ſauves. With bag and baggage, ſafe and ſound, ſcotfree; without the loſſe, waſt, or expence, of any thing.

Bagué: m. ée: f. Beiewelled; inriched, adorned, or furniſhed, with iewels; alſo, tucked, or truſſed, vp.

Baguenaude: f. A (forme of) ridiculous ryming, or verſifying vſed (and thus named) in old time.

Baguenaudes. Bladder nuts, S. Anthonies nuts, wild Piſtachoes; alſo the cods, or fruit of baſtard Sene; alſo (the fruit of red Nightſhade, or Alkakengie) red Winter cherries; (all which being of little, or no value, cauſe this word to ſignifie) alſo, trifles, niſles, toyes, paltrie traſh.

Baguenauder. To triſle, toy, dally with, idle out the time.

Baguenaudeur: m. A triſler, toyer, dallier, loyterer, lingerer; a vaine, or idle, companion.

Baguenaudier: m. The Sene tree, or baſtard Sene; a ſhrub which hath bin miſtaken for the true Sene; moſt improperly; for it onely reſembles it, and is not (howſoeuer we name it) any kind thereof, ſayes Gerard.

Baguer. To inrich, adorne, or furniſh, with iewels; alſo, to truſſe, or tucke, vp; (whence;)

Trouſſer, & baguer. To packe vp (his) bag, and baggage.

Baguette: f. A wand, ſwitch, riding rod, whisking rod; alſo, a (houſehold) ſtewards, or principall officers, white rod; alſo, a little iewell; alſo, the (ſleight) cloth Penniſtone; alſo, a ſmall braſſe coyne in Gaſconie.

Baguette d'arquebuſe. The ſcouring ſticke.

Baguette de Veneur. A hunting Pole.

Commander à baguette. To commaund (like a ſteward) abſolutely, peremptorily, or with authoritie.

Si tu veux cognoiſtre vn villain baille luy la baguette en main: Pro. The way to diſcerne a (knaue, or) clowne, is to giue him authoritie.

Baguetté. Beaten with a rod, or wand; alſo, commaunded, ouer-ruled, awed.

Baguetter. To commaund like a ſteward; alſo, to ſtrike with a ſticke, or wand.

Baguetteux: m. euſe: f. Wandie, full of rods, wands, or ſwitches.

Baguier: m. The male Bay-tree (ſo tearmed about Montpellier.)

Bahu: m. A trunke (to carrie, or keepe, things in.)

Bahutier: m. A trunke-maker.

Bahutier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a trunke; whence;

Cheual bâhutier. A Sumpter-horſe, or trunke-horſe.

Bai; & Baiard; See Bay; & Bayard.

Baie: f. A berrie; See, Baye.

Baigner. To bathe; wet, moiſten; waſh.

Il ſe baigne en ces nouvelles. Theſe newes doe him good at the heart; he battles with them; he takes exceeding delight in them.

Baignerie: f. A bathe; a priuat roome to bathe in.

Baigneur: m. A bather; wetter, moiſtener.

Baigneux: m. euſe: f. Bathing; or, that vſeth much bathing.

Baignoire: m. A bathing-tub; alſo, any great and open veſſel made like a bathing-tub; and (hence) the tub whereinto new wine fals out of the Preſſe.

Baignolet: m. A little bath; bathing houſe; or, bathing tub.

Bail: m. A guardian, or gouernour, of a Ward, or (as a husband) of a wife; alſo, ſuch a wardſhip, tuition, gouernment; alſo, the Deed, Inſtrument, or Leaſe, whereby a thing is paſſed, or let, vpon a certaine rent; alſo, a giuing, graunting, yeelding, paſſing ouer in farme, or by leaſe; See, Garde.

Bail à ferme. A leaſe for yeares; eſpecially ſuch a one, as gines the leſſor power to reenter for non-payment of the rent.

Bail à ferme d'heritage. A fee-farme; (with like clauſe of reentrie.)

Bail de Iuſtice. The publicke magiſtrats letting, or ſetting of land, &c, (ſeiſed by order of Law) or of Wards lands; or of the rights of the kings Demaine; or of the profits of his woods, and forreſts.

Bail à louage. A chattell, or moueable hired out for a certaine time, and with clauſe of reentrie, as before.

Bail de mariage. The wardſhip, or gouernment which a husband hath (de Iure) of his wife, and of her whole eſtate.

Bail naturel. The wardſhip a father or mother hath of their child.

Tenir le Royaume en bail. To be Protector of the Kingdome; or to haue the Regencie, or Gouernment thereof.

Bail: m. baille: f. Bay (of colour.)

Baile: m. The Bailife, or Magiſtrate of a village; ¶Langued. alſo (in Gaſconie) a Iaylor; or one that lookes to a Priſon; or an Officer that hath power onely to apprehend, and keepe, malefactors.

Baile: f. A nurſe. ¶Langued.

Bailif: m. as, Bailli.

Baillarge. A kind of ſmall barly.

Baille: m. A Steward, or Ouerſeer of; a Solicitor, Atturney, or vndertaker for, a Church, Towne, Corporation, Communaltie, &c; alſo, as, Bailli; alſo, an ordinarie Bailife, or Sergeant.

Baillé: m. ée: f. Giuen, graunted, conferred, beſtowed; yeelded ouer, paſſed away; alſo, preſented, offered, exhibited vnto.

Il luy l'a baillé belle. He hath payed him ſoundly, he hath giuen it him home; or, hee hath ſerued him a touch indeed; alſo, he hath faire and mannerly couſened him.

Baillement: m. A giuing, graunting, beſtowing; dealing, deliuering, conferring; alſo, a preſenting, or exhibiting vnto.

Bailler. To giue, beſtow, conferre, graunt; yeeld ouer, deliuer, deale, or paſſe away; alſo, to preſent, offer, exhibite vnto.

Bailler à aucun tout du long de l'aulne. To courſe one ſoundly, to handle him ſhrewdly, to pay him home.

Bailler de l'avoine pour du foin. To returne a benefit with vſurie, to be better then his word.

Bailler balliuernes. To cog, foiſt, lye.

Bailler belle; Baille luy belle (of one that hath done, or ſpoken fooliſhly) faire befall him; let him euen haue it a Gods name. Ironically.

Bailler bonne, vous la baillez bonne; (neere the ſence of bailler belle) True Roger, wiſely brother Timothie; See, Bon.

Bailler le boucon. To poyſon.

Bailler le bouquet. To bid one do in his turne that which others haue done before him (In some parts of France, when a feast is ended, whereat neighbours haue met, and beene merrie together, the master thereof deliuers vnto some one of the company a nosegay, & thereby tyes him to make the next.)

Bailler bris contre Robert. Looke Bris.

Bailler des canards à la moitié. To cousen, beguile, conicatch; to play the mountebanke.

Bailler des cassades. To flout, frumpe; lye, cog; deceiue, gull, well-meaning people.

Bailler des plus cornues. Looke Cornu.

Bailler la Diane. Souldiours to rouze their enemies with a hot mornings allarum; to giue a Camisadoe.

Bailler vne entorce. To offer hard measure, to giue a shrewd wring, a cruell pinch, a vile blowe vnto.

Bailler des febues à my-croist. To deceiue, cousen, gull, conycatch; to play th'impostor.

Bailler le fil. To flatter, cog, smooth, glose with; (à vn couteau; to set an edge on it.)

Bailler foin en corne. To giue one the boots, to sell him a bargaine.

Bailler du foin à la mule. To deceiue, beguile, gull, conycatch.

Bailler griefs. To open ones grieses, to complaine of wrongs done him, before a Court, or assembly; to exhibit vnto the Court a relation, or complaint of these things.

Bailler la haire. To play a shrewd tricke, ill pranke, hard part; to serue an euill touch.

Bailler par les iouës de. To lay sure hold on; also, to enter deepely; imbarke himselfe farre; plunge at first into the middle of.

Bailler la main. To reach a hand; Looke Main.

Bailler le moine. To crampe; also, to bring ill lucke vnto.

Bailler le Moine par le col. To hang, or twitch vp.

Bailler mornifle sur les levres du Roy. To coine false money.

Bailler sur le mouffle. To lay on the lips, to pash on the snout, to giue a dash on the mouth.

Bailler sur le nez du Roy. To coyne false money.

Bailler vne oeillade. To winke, or cast a wanton eye, at.

Bailler du plat de la langue. To sooth, smooth, flatter, cog with.

Bailler vne mauvaise secousse à vn. To shake, or swing one cruelly; to do him a mischieuous turne.

Baillet: m. A pale red, or flesh cõlour; also, a horse that hath a white spot, or starre, in his forhead.

Baillet: m. Baillette: f. Of a pale red, or flesh colour.

Vache baillette. A pide cow, red and white.

Vin baillet. A pallet, or pale Claret, wine.

Baillette: f. A Pochard, or Widgion; or, a little water-fowle, that somewhat resembles the Teale; also, a lease, or graunt; and, a leasing, or letting to farme.

Bailleur: m. A giuer, granter, bestower; dealer, distributer, deliuerer; presenter, exhibiter.

Bailleur de bons iours. An ordinarie saluter of euery one he sees, or meets; a fawning, or populer fellow; a cogging, or glosing companion.

Bailleur de Canards à la moitié; ou, de febues à my-croist. A cousening lacke; a mountebanke; a deceiuer, impostor, conycatcher.

Bailleures. Looke Baillieures.

Bailli: m. A Bailife (but of much more authoritie than ours) a Magistrat appointed within a Prouince, or precinct certaine, to execute iustice, maintaine the peace, and preserue the people from oppression, vexation, and wrong: To which end he takes notice of treasons committed, false money coyned; robberies, and murthers done; rebellions, or seditions raised; vnlawfull, or populer assemblies made; Armes borne, or souldiours leuied, without warrant; Protections, or Sanctuaries violated; Pardons, and Charters abused; Faires, markets, freedomes, and other priuiledges vsurped, or vniustly stood on: Hee makes proclamations in his owne name; he calls the Ban, and Arriereban; leads those that he raised by it; and appoints th'ordinarie musters of his Prouince: hee determines Appeales from the sentences of Prouosts, and other inferior Iudges, at Assises, whereof he is the principall Iudge; and is thereby held the most proper Iudge for Gentlemen, who haue euer pretended that their causes must bee decided at Assises; and yet for all this, (and though hee may haue a Lieutenant) he is but a Deputie, either vnto the king, or vnto some lord; euery one whereof (vnto the Chastellain) hath, or may haue, a Bailli within his territories.

Baillis de France. Were but foure in old time, when the French kings had ioyned to their demains but foure townes, viz. Vermendois, Sens, Mascon, and S. Pierre de Moustier (all other the townes, and Bailiwikes of France being then in the possession of Dukes, or Earles) and therefore the Bailies of those townes are to this day called, les 4 anciens Baillis de France, thereby to differ somewhat from the rest of the Bailifes royall, whereof there are now very many.

Baillis de Prouinces. The Bailifes of Prouinces, or of superiour Bailiwikes; The Bailifes of Dukes, Marquesses, and Earles; called so in difference from those that belong to Vicounts, Barons, and Chastellains; which are inferiour vnto, and oftentimes depend on, the other.

Baillis Royaux. The Bailifes Royall, whereof (as I haue said) there be very many (by reason of the reunion vnto the Crowne of th'ancient Dukes, and Earles estates; and otherwise by new erections,) who besides other prerogatiues challenge th'entire decision of royall, and priuiledged, cases.

Grands baillis. as Baillis de Prouinces.

Le grand bailli d'Henault. The chiefe Iustice of that countie.

Bailliage: m. A Bailiwike; the office, iurisdiction, or authoritie of a Bailli; also, the Prouince, or precinct wherein he gouernes; and sometimes (absolutely) a Prouince; In some old authors, and customes it also imports, as much as, protectiue iustice; and euer holds a more honourable ranke than simple, or ordinarie iurisdiction.

Bailliage du Palais. Is (at Paris) a iurisdiction ouer Marchants, & Tradesmen, which owe for their wares within that citie, and the liberties thereof.

Droict de bailliage. Power to keepe Assises; or to haue vnder him a Bailli, and a superiour seat, or Court, of iustice for the decision of such great causes as, in due course, belong not to an ordinarie iurisdiction; This power euerie Lord of dignitie (from the Duke to the Chastellain) hath; and had withall (for the decision of smaller causes) a Court of ordinarie iurisdiction, and a Iudge thereof called Iuge, or Garde de iustice, vntill the yeare 1573; when by an ordinance (made at Paris, but confirmed at Roussillon) they were enioyned to content themselues with onely one iurisdiction in one place; which though it bee gouerned, almost in one forme, by one, and the same Iudge, yet keepes hee still two seuerall Courts, or Sessions; an ordinarie one, and the Assises.

two

Bailliager: m. ere: f. Attending on, or, belonging to, a Bailife, or Bailywike.

Baillie: f. Seigneurie, gouernment, authoritie, rule ouer, protection of; also, a Bailiwike, or country Iusticeship; the place, function, charge of a Bailife, or countrey Iustice; administration of iustice; and (as Bailliage*) the Shire, Prouince, precinct, and compasse of countrey wherein he gouernes.*

Lettres de baillie. Are (according to the stile of Normandie*) letters, writs, or obligations, authorizing him to whom they are directed, to proceed to execution vpon the goods, or possessions, of another.*

Baillif: m. A Bailife; or, as Bailli.

Bailliſſeur. A Guardian, Tutor, Gouernor of a Ward; he that hath the Wardship of a Gentleman.

Bailliſtre: m. as Bailliſſeur; especially, one that is a collaterall kinſman to the Ward; or his mother, or grandmother againe maried.

Bailliſtrerie: f. The wardship, tuition, or gouernment of an heire within age.

Bailliveau. as Baliveau.

Baillon: m. A gag.

Baillonner. To gag; and sometimes as Baailler; to yawne.

Baillot: m. A trough.

Bailly. as Bailli.

Baimaux. (En l'ordonnance du Roy Charles 5, de l'an 1376; faicte pour le reiglement des forests) False printed for, Balliueaux; Standers; trees left standing in forests for increase.

Bain: m. A bath.

Bain de Marie. Maries bath; a Cauldron, or Kettle full of boyling water; or, a distilling by the heat therof.

Chevalier des bains. Looke Chevalier.

Baiocque: m. A small Italian coyne worth two (Italian) pence.

Baioque. as Baiocque.

Bair. as Vair; A kind of furre; or, that which in Blason is called Verrie.

Bairer. as Baiſer.

Baiſé: m. ée: f. Kissed, smouched; smacked.

Baiſe-main: m. A kissing of the hand, in courtesie, or signe of submission; also, a fine, or (in lieu thereof) a peece of money (greater, or lesse, as the custome is) paid vnto a Lord, at the sealing, or making, of a lease; also, the spirituall reuenue of the Church, as offerings, &c.

Baiſement. A kissing.

Baiſe-nue. High, tall, cloud-kissing, reaching to the clouds.

Baiſer: m. A kisse.

Baiſer. To kisse, to smoutch, to smacke.

Baiſer le babouïn. Basely to submit himselfe, doe reuerence, or yeeld respect, vnto an vnworthy thing.

Baiſer la porte, ou la ſerrure, ou le verrouil de l'huis du fief. A vassall to kisse the gate, &c, of the principall Manor house of his absent Lord, in lieu of the homage he should otherwise haue done him, had he bin present.

Baiſeret: m. A little kisse, or prettie smacke.

Baiſeur: m. A kisser, smoutcher, smacker.

Baiſler. as Baailler.

Baiſotté: m. ée: f. Often kissed.

Baiſotter. To kisse often.

Baiſſant. Humbling, stooping, inclining, bowing or bending downewards.

Baiſſant la teſte. Holding downe his head; also, preparing himselfe vnto, or being readie for, the combat.

Baiſſe de mareſt. A low bottome which the water hath turned vnto a marish; a bog, or quagmire.

Baiſſé: m. ée: f. Stooping, inclining, declined, bowed downe, humbled; deiected, abased, brought low; let fall.

A teſte baiſſée. Desperatly, headlong, without care what may betide him, or whether hee sinke, or swim; also, resolutely, or with prepared force.

Baiſſement: m. A bowing downe, laying downe, bringing low, letting fall; an humbling, stooping, inclining, declining.

Baiſſer: m. An humbling, &c; as Baiſſement.

Baiſſer. To bow downe, lay downe, bring low, let fall, humble, deiect, abate, abase.

Se baiſſer. To stoope, to bow downe, decline, bend, or incline downewards.

Baiſſer bois. Ils baiſſerent bois. They put their launces in their rests.

Baiſſer ſes cornes. To humble himselfe, to let fall his crest; or, as Baiſſer la teſte.

Baiſſer le front. To hold, or bow downe, the head, in signe of humblenesse, or of submission.

Baiſſer la teſte. The same; also, to settle, or prepare himselfe vnto an exploit, or combat; (from the custome of horned beasts, that bow downe their heads, when they are to meet an enemie) hence, also;

Tu ne doibs ia baiſſer la teſte. Thou shouldest not be so resolute, so hardie, so forward for the matter.

A la hauſſe qui baiſſe. Looke Hauſſe.

Le iour ſe baiſſe. The day growes old; it waxes late, or farre on the day.

Baiſſieres: f. The grounds, or lees of wine; also, any drinke when it drawes low; the dregges of any such liquor.

Bal: m. A daunce; a dauncing; Reuels, or, a Reuelling.

Balade. A ballet.

Baladin: m. A common dauncer of galliards, and other stirring, or liuely Ayres.

Balaffre: &c; as Balafre; &c.

Balafre: f. A slash ouer the face; a king Harry cut; a gash, or wipe, ouer the snowt.

Balafré. Slashed, or cut ouer the face.

Balafrer. To slash, or cut ouer the face.

Balafreux. A cutter, swaggerer, swashbuckler.

Balafrure: f. A slashing; or, as Balafre.

Balaine: f. A Whale, or, the Whirlpoole, (a kind of Whall.)

Balan: m. As the latine Balanus; any kind of Acorne; or, any thing made like an Acorne.

Balan myrepſique. Th'aromaticall, and oyly nut, or Acorne, called, Ben.

Balance: f. A ballance; a paire of weights, or ballances; also, one of the twelue signes in the Zodiacke.

Eſtre en balance. To doubt, wauer, totter in opinion; be vncertaine, or in suspence, what to say, or thinke, what way to hold, what course to take.

Peſer en ſeuere balance. To examine very strictly.

Balancé: m. ée: f. Ballanced, weighed, peised, pondered; also, shaken, or tottered.

Balancer. To ballance, weigh, peise; ponder; also, to stagger, or wauer betweene two opinions; (any way) to shake, or totter.

Le cerf balance. So say French Hunters, when a Stag runs first one way, and then another, without any certain, or outright course in his flight; we say, he beats vp and downe, or flies round.

Balanceur. A balancer; a weigher of things in a ballance.

Balanceux:

Balanceux : m. euſe : f. Belonging to a ballance ; alſo, full of ballances.
Balancier : m. A ballance maker ; alſo, the ballance of a clocke.
Balancier : m. ere : f. Of, or belonging to, a ballance.
Balancieur : m. as Balanceur ; Or th'Officer that weighes money as ſoone as it is coyned.
Balancines : f. The lifts ; two ſmall cords belonging to the ſprit ſaile of a ſhip.
Balane : f. Any kind of Acorne ; or thing made like an Acorne ; as the top of a mans yard, &c ; See Balan.
Balauſte : The bloſſome, or flower of the wild Pomegranet tree.
Balay : m. A broome, or beeſome ; alſo, a Balleis Rubie.
Donner trois tours de balay par la cheminée. Look Baley.
Nettoyer au balay. To make cleane worke, to ſweepe all away.
Balayer. To ſweepe, or make cleane, with a broome.
Balayeures : f. as Balieures.
Balayeuſe : f. A drudge, or ſweeping wench.
Balbucie : f. A ſtutting, or ſtammering.
Balchon : m. A Balcone ; a little Terrace on the top of a houſe, ouer a gate, or before a window.
Balcon. as Balchon.
Baldachin : m. The Canopie thats caried ouer a prince ; or, a cloath of eſtate.
Baldaquin. The ſame.
Baldaquin : m. An yron, and open creſſet, full of pitched wreathes.
Bale : f. A bullet ; alſo, a ball ; alſo, a packe, as of marchandiſe ; alſo, the chaffe of wheat, or other corne ; hence ;
Pain de bale. Chaffe bread, vnraunged bread, the courſeſt kind of bread.
Baleine : f. A whall.
Balenchoüeres. The childiſh game called, titter totter.
Balenes : f. Whall bones ; Whall-bone bodies ; French bodies.
Baler. To daunce.
Baleſtrier : m. ere : f. Croſſebow-like, of a croſſebow.
Balet : m. A beeſome, or broome.
Four balet. A maulkin.
Balevolter. as Baleuoter.
Balevoter. To wag, wauer, flicker, as a ſtreamer in the wind.
Baleuſtres : m. Looke Baluſtres.
Baley. as Balet ; A broome beeſome.
Donner trois tours de baley par la cheminée. To ſwing a broome three times about a chimney (a ceremonie vſed by witches a little before they go vnto their diuelliſh aſſemblies.)
Balié : m. ée : f. Swept, or made cleane, with a broome.
Balier. To ſweepe ; or make cleane, with a broome.
Balieure : f. A ſweeping, or making cleane, with a broome.
Balieures. Sweepings ; the filth, or duſt thats ſwept out of a roome ; (hence) alſo, any traſh, outcaſt trifles, or things of no value.
Balievres : f. The chaps (of a man, or beaſt.)
Baligaut : m. An vnweldie lubber, great lobcocke, huge luske, miſhapen lowt, ill fauoured flabergullion.
Baliſe. as Baliſſe ; Or, a certaine marke ſet vp, for the direction of ſaylers in a nauigable riuer.
Baliſſe. A Beacon.
Baliſte : f. An ancient engine, or kind of ordnance, wherout ſtones, were throwne.

Balivaginer. To prattle, or babble ; to vſe too many words.
Baliveaux. Standers ; trees left in a wood for th'increaſe, and preſeruation thereof.
Baliverne : f. A lye, fib, gull ; (bailleur de balivernes. Looke Bailleur) alſo, a babling, or idle diſcourſe.
Baliverner. To cog, foiſt, lye, talke idle, vainely, or to no purpoſe.
Balladin. A dauncer ; as Baladin.
Balladiner. To daunce high, or liuelily.
Balladinerie : f. High, or liuely dauncing, as, of galliards, Corantoes, or Jigges.
Ballay. A balleys Rubie.
Balle. as Bale.
Balles. Twelue times twelue dozen ; or twelue groſſe.
Ballet : m. A cape of a cloake ; alſo, as Appentis ; alſo, a dauncing.
Balletrou : m. A ſweepe-hole ; Membre viril : ¶Rab.
Ballié : m. ée : f. Swept, cleanſed, made cleane.
Ballier. To ſweepe ; to make cleane (with a broome, &c.)
Ballieur : m. A ſweeper.
Ballieures. Looke Balieures.
Balliveaux : m. Standers, or trees left ſtanding after a wood ſale.
Balliverne. as Baliverne.
Ballizer vne Riviere. To rake, ſcowre, or cleanſe a riuer.
Ballocher. To totter ; as one that goes on a rope, or narrow bridge.
Ballon : m. A fardle, or ſmall packe.
Ballot : m. A little packe.
Ballotage. A rifling, or lotterie ; a caſting of lots ; a chuſing by lots.
Ballote. as Balotte ; Alſo, blacke Horehound, ſtinking horehound.
Ballottement : m. A caſting of lots ; a triall of matters by lotterie.
Ballotter. To caſt lots ; to chuſe officers, and magiſtrats ; to paſſe, or daſh lawes propounded ; to condemne, or abſolue th'accuſed, by lots, or lotterie.
Ballouëtter. To toſſe, as a ball ; to turne, or tumble a thing often, and into ſundrie places.
Balluque : f. Gold ore, or gold vnfined ; alſo, a veſſell whereinto gold is powred.
Balluſtres : m. as Baluſtres.
Balme. Looke Baulme.
Balme : f. A caue, denne, hole, grot.
Baloffe : f. A courſe bed, or mattreſſe filled onely with chaffe, ſtraw, and ſuch like ; or, as Balouffe.
Baloié : m. ée : f. Swept ; or, made cleane, with a broome.
Balon : m. A little ball ; or packe ; alſo, a football, or baloone.
Balong. (Sub, & Adiec.) See Barlong.
Balongue : f. A trough, or veſſell, ground, plot, or figure, which is much more long than broad.
Balongue cornue. Is of vnequall forme, and vnlike both in the length of the ſides, and breadth of the ends.
Balongue droicte. Is more long than broad, but of equall proportion both in length and breadth.
Balorde : com. as Balourde.
Balorderie : f. Sottiſhneſſe, blockiſhneſſe, dull folly, ignorant fopperie.
Balot : m. A little packe, or fardle.
Balotade : f. A bounding, or bounſing ; as, of a football, or high-going horſe.
Balote : m. ée : f. Bounded, or bounſed high from the ground ; ground; also, tossed, as a football.

Baloter. To bound, or bounse high from the ground, like a football; also, to tosse, as a football.

Balotte: f. A little bullet, or pellet; also, a small button, or ball, in the mouth of a bit; also, one of those little stones, partie coloured beanes, or marked balls, which heretofore were, and (as at Venice the balls yet) are, vsed for lots, in the election of Magistrats; and hence;

Donner sa balotte à. To giue his voyce to, yeeld his consent vnto.

Balotter. as Ballotter.

Balouste: f. The chaffe of oates, or barley; or, as Baloste.

Balourde: com. Sottish, blockish, fvolish.

Baloyer. as Ballier. To sweepe.

Balroter. To froth in bubbles.

Balsamine: f. The Balsam apple (whose oyle doth close vp wounds like Balme.)

Balsane: f. as Balzane.

Balser. To bound.

Balthée: m. A belt; arming girdle, or sword girdle.

Balustre: f. as Balauste.

Balustres: m. Balisters; little, round, and short pillars, ranked on the outside of Cloisters, Terraces, Galleries, &c.

Balzan: m. A horse that hath a white leg, or foot.

Balzane: f. The white of a horses leg, or foot; also, (more generally) a white spot, or marke in any part of his bodie.

Bambelotier: m. as Bimblotier; Or, a Brooch maker.

Ban: m. A Proclamation by voyce, or with sound of trumpet; an edict, or ordinance published; the pleasure, or commaundement of a Lord proclaimed; also, a Proscription, Outlawrie, Banishment; or, a Proclamation of Outlawrie, or of banishment; generally any publike Summons, Conuocation, Notification, or Denouncement; also, a Fief, or Mannor, within the territorie whereof the Lord may cause Proclamations to be made; also, the territorie, precincts, liberties, or limits of iurisdiction, belonging to a towne.

Bans arbans. as Bians.

Ban & Arriereban. A Proclamation whereby all (except some priuiledged Officers, and citizens) that hold their lands of the Crowne, are summoned to meet at a certaine place, there to attend the king whithersoeuer, and against whom soeuer he goes; (Looke Arriereban) (At this day those that list not attend him in person (which in old time they were tied to do) may for a small fine stay at home.)

Ban de moulin; four; &c. as Bancage.

Ban de vendanger. A Proclamation for the beginning of Vintage; which is (commonly) appointed, and limited by the publike Magistrate.

Cloche du ban. The common bell, whereby the people is assembled.

Droict de ban à vin. Looke Vin.

Vn four, ou moulin à ban. A common ouen, or mill whereat all men may, and euerie tenant and vassall must, bake, and grind.

Seigneur du ban. The Lord of such an ouen, or mill.

Trois bans francs, à Namur. A priuiledged time, during which no debtor may be arrested, nor goods attached, but for contracts made within that time.

Donner au ban. To prostitute; make common for, expose vnto the vse of, euery bodie.

Mettre au ban. To banish, or outlaw by proclamation; also, as, Donner au ban; or, to giue a thing in pray to any one that will take it.

Banc: m. A bench, banke, forme, seat; (and particularly) the seat of a rower in a Gally, or Barge; also, a long shole, shelfe, or sandie hill in the sea, against which the waues doe breake.

Bancs. Crosse walls of stone made (in vineyards which be planted on the steepe sides of hills) to keepe the earth from falling; also, the Banes of Matrimonie.

Ie n'en iray pas du banc au feu. I will not stirre an inch, I will not moue a iot, I will not goe one foot, for it.

Bancage: m. The circuit of countrey within which the inhabitants are bound to repaire vnto one certaine mill, ouen, wine-presse, &c, paying a fee for their seuerall vses vnto the Lord thereof; also, the Royaltie, or priuiledge of hauing such a mill, &c; also, the reuenue, or benefit made of it.

Bancelle: f. A little bench, forme, seat, or banke.

Bancquage. as Bancage.

Bandage: m. A binding; also, a swath-band; also, the gaffle of a crossebow; also, a truckle for a pully; also, a bending, as of a bow.

Bande: f. A band; properly, a long and narrow peece of any stuffe; hence, a welt, or gard; a fillet, or haire lace; a swathing band for a child; a fascia, swath-band, or tye-band, for a wound; a bend in Armorie; the streak of a cart wheele; also, a band, or companie of souldiours; a troupe, or crue; a faction, or combination, of any other persons.

Vne bande de larde. A flitch, or side of bacon.

Clou à bandes. A streake nayle.

Bandé: m. ée: f. Bent, as a bow; bound, swathed, or tied with strings, laces, bands; filletted; also, garded, or welted; also, bandied, or combined together.

Bandeau: m. A fillet, head-band; little band.

Bandée: f. as Ban de vendanger: ¶Bourbonnois.

Bandelette. A little band, or string; also, a small troupe; a handfull of men.

Bander. To bend a bow, &c; also, to bind, swaddle, swath, tye with bands, fasten with strings; also, to bandie, at Tennis; also, to gard, or welt a garment.

A Bander & à racler. By hooke, or crooke; in all extremitie.

Coucher tout à bander, & à racler. To set all on sixes and seuens; to set his whole rest vpon a desperat game.

Iouër à bander & à racler contre. To bandy against, at Tennis; and (by metaphor) to pursue with all insolencie, rigour, extremitie.

Se bander contre. To bandie, or oppose himselfe against, with his whole power; or to ioyne in league with others against.

Ils se bandent à faire vn entreprise. They are plotting a conspiracie together.

Banderet. A Captaine of a quarter in a good towne.

Banderolle: f. A little flag, or streamer; a Penon worne on the top of a launce by a horsman that would be gallant.

Banderolle de Monfaucon. One that hangs on a paire of gallowes.

Bandie. as Bancage; also, a priuiledge of some Lords, to forbid all the inhabitants of such a circuit all maner of selling their wines, for fortie dayes together, that in the meane while they may the better vent their owne; (la Marche.)

Bandier. The Lord, or owner of th'aforesaid Royaltie.

Bandier. four bandier. as four à ban.

Bandiere. as Banniere.

Bandiment. as Ban; Or a proclaiming; outlawing; bani- baniſhing.

Bandon : m. Leaue, libertie, licence, ſufferance, free ſcope to do a thing.

A bandon. At large, roaming, roauing, at randome.

Prinſe de beſtes à bandon. The ſuffering other mens cattell, for hire, to graze all ouer his paſtures.

Grand bandon grand larron : Prov. Much libertie brings men to the gallowes ; or, great libertie breedes much theeuerie.

Bandouilleres: f. A musketiers bandooleers; or charges, like little boxes, hanging at a belt about his necke.

Bandouillier : m. A robber by the highway ſide ; alſo, any one that bears a ſcrip, or wallet; or his girdle ſcarfe wiſe ; alſo, a musketier.

Bani : m. ie : f. Baniſhed, exiled ; confiſcated ; Looke Banni.

Banie : f. An exile, or baniſhment ; alſo, a confiſcation ; Looke Bannie.

Banier. four, ou, moulin banier ; as four à ban. Looke Bannier.

Baniere. as Banniere.

Banir. To baniſh, exile, relegate ; alſo, to proſcribe ; confiſcate, ſeize. Looke Bannir.

Baniſſement : m. A baniſhment, exile ; exiling, baniſhing ; ſeizing, confiſcating.

Banlieuë : f. The circuit of a league (or thereabouts) from a towne, or Mannor houſe (being the precinct, and liberties thereof) within which, if it be the kings, the ordinarie Iudge of that place, if a Lords, he, or his ordinarie officer, may make Proclamations, and exerciſe what other iuriſdiction they haue.

Banlieuë de moulin. The compaſſe of ground whoſe inhabitants muſt carrie their griſt vnto a common, or Lords mill : (In Brittaine it contains 120 cords length from the mill, and euerie cord 120 foot.)

Bannage: m. A Proclamation, or publike crie for a thing; alſo, as Bancage.

Bannal : m. ale : f. Common ; which any one may, and euerie one (reſiding within that libertie, or precinct) muſt, vſe, and pay for the vſe of ; Looke Bannier.

Bannalité : f. The reuenew, or benefit of a common Ouen, Mill, Wine-preſſe, &c ; alſo, the libertie, or circuit of countrey wherein a Lord hath any of thoſe, or the like royalties ; alſo, the royaltie it ſelfe.

Banners : m. Ground keepers ; thoſe that are appointed to looke vnto, and keepe beaſts out of grounds, at times wherein they are not to be eaten : ¶Bourgognois.

Banne : f. A Maund, Hamper, Flasket, or great Basket.

Bannée : f. Droict de bannée ; as, Bancage : ¶Pic.

Banneret : m. A Banneret, or Knight banneret (inferiour to a Baron, and better than an ordinarie Knight) a title (the priuiledge whereof was to haue a banner of his own for his people to march, & ſerue vnder) giuẽ by the kings of France to ſuch as had ten Vaſſals, and means to maintaine à troupe of horſe ; or vnto any gentleman that had valiantly carryed himſelfe in two royall battels ; neglected, after that Charles the ſixth had made 560 of them at the ſiege of Bourges.

Banneret : m. ette : f. As Bannal : (¶Wallon) alſo, belonging to a Knight banneret ; whence ;

Dame bannerette. The widow, or inheritrix of a Knight banneret.

Bannerie : f. Baſe, or low, iuriſdiction ; (an old word.)

Droict de bannerie. The royaltie of a common ouen, mill, preſſe, &c, whereto tenants of, and dwellers within, a libertie, or Mannor, are to reſort.

Bannerolle. as Banderolle.

Banneux. Of, or belonging to a flasket, or hamper.

Banni : m. ie : f. Baniſhed, exiled ; confined ; alſo, outlawed ; alſo, ſeized; or confiſcated ; alſo, publiſhed, cried, or proclaimed ; whence ;

Contract banni. A contract publiſhed in Court.

L'oſt banni. as Ban, & Arriereban : ¶Norm.

Bannie : f. as Ban ; Or, a ſeiſure, confiſcation, interdiction, outcrie of goods, &c ; or, the baniſhment, or outlawrie, of a man, proclaimed.

La bannie d'une ville. The territorie, or extent and compaſſe of territorie, belonging to a towne.

Droict de bannie. as Bannalité.

Le temps des bannies. The ſeaſon wherein common medowes are not to be eaten by any cattell.

Vignes eſtans en bannie. The Vintage whereof is proclaimed by the Lord of the iuriſdiction.

Bannier : m. ere : f. as Bannal ; Common, &c.

Seigneur bannier. A Lord that hath the royaltie, or priuiledge of a common mill, ouen, preſſe, &c ; or, that may preſcribe vnto his vaſſals, tenants, and any other within his libertie, their time of vintage, and of ſale for their wines.

Subjects banniers. Such as are bound to grind at a Mill, or to bake in an Ouen belonging to another.

Taverne banniere du Seigneur. The place, or houſe wherin a Lord may (as he may in moſt parts of France) retaile his wine fortie dayes before any other (that dwels in the ſame libertie) his.

Taureau bannier. A common, or town, bull; for whoſe leacherie the Lords of France (who loue to haue their owne freely) exact a fee of their poore tenants.

Banniere : f. A Banner, ſquare Enſigne, or Standard ; alſo, a rag, or ſhread of cloth, &c ; (In old time certaine Lordſhips, or Mannors were tearmed Bannieres.)

Banniere d'Orleans. A ragged coat, or torne garment.

Cheualier à banniere, ou, de bannier. A Knight Banneret.

Droict de banniere. as Droict de bannerie.

En cent ans civiere en cent ans banniere: Prov. In one hundred yeares a Banner, in the next a wheelebarrow ; the family which at this day is held rich and noble, may within an age become both poore in eſtate, and meane in account.

Bannir. To baniſh, exile, expulſe ; outlaw, proſcribe ; ſeize, confiſcate, by publicke act, or proclamation.

Baniſſement. A baniſhment, exilement, relegation, expulſing ; proſcribing, outlawing ; ſeizing, confiſcating.

Bannon. as Banon.

Banon : m. The ſeaſon wherein the cattell belonging to a whole towne is turned out into, or may feed all ouer, common paſtures : ¶Norm.

Cela eſt en banon. That is common, or for euery bodies vſe.

Banoyement: m. A proclaiming, or publiſhing, by ſound of Trumpet, &c.

Banquage. as Bancage ; alſo, as Bandie.

Banque : f. A banke, where money is let out to vſe ; or lent, or returned by exchange ; alſo, the table whereon ſuch money is told.

Banquerotier. A bankrupt.

Banqueroutte : f. A breaking, or becomming bankrupt.

Banqueroutier. A bankrupt.

Banquet : m. A banket ; alſo, a feaſt ; alſo, part of the cheeke of a bit.

Apres grand banquet petit pain : Prov. After feaſting sting fasting.

Il n'est banquet que d'homme chiche: Prov. Looke Chiche.

Banqueté: m.ée: f. Banketted, feasted.

Banquetement: m. A banketting, or feasting.

Banqueter. To banket, or feast it.

Banqueterie: f. as Banquetement.

Banqueteur: m. A banketter; or feaster.

Les grands banqueteurs font rarement de beaux faits d'armes: Prov. Great banketters doe seldome great exploits.

Banqueteux: m.euse: f. Full of, or belonging to, bankets, or feasts.

Banquetterie. as Banquetement; or, a banquet.

Banquier: m. A Banker, an Exchanger; also, a bench-cloth, or a carpet for a forme, or bench.

Banquier: m.ere: f. as Bannal.

Bans. The banes of Matrimonie; also, as Rangs.

Bapteſme: m. Baptisme.

Baptisé: m.ée: f. Christened, baptised; also, appointed, ordained; also, taxed, limited.

Baptiser. To christen, to baptise; also, to appoint, or ordaine; also, to tax, or limit.

Baptiser son appellation. An appealant to publish his grieuances, and vnto what Iudge he will appeale, before he proceed actually in the appeale.

Baptiser possessions contraires. A defendant in a suit of Novel disseisin to propound, oppose, & alleadge his possession against the complaint of his aduersarie.

Baptismal: m.ale: f. Baptismall; of, or belonging to, baptisme.

Baptistaire. as Baptistere.

Baptiſte. S. Iean Baptiſte. S. Iohn Baptist.

Baptiſte. Toile bap. Cambrick; or, a kind therof, much worne by Nunnes in their vailes.

Baptistere: m. A font; also, a Christening, or Baptizing; also, as Papier baptistere.

Baptistere: com. Belonging to a font, or, vnto Christening.

Papier baptistere. The Church booke wherein Christenings be recorded.

Baque: f. A berrie.

Baquelette: f. A yong wench, mother, girle: Pic.

Baquet: m. A pale, or bucket; also, a small, shallow, and open tub; See Bacquet.

Baqueter. as Bacqueter.

Bar: m. The fish called, a Base.

Baradon: m. A drone, or dorre-bee.

Baragant: m. Dutch Grogeran, or Valentien Grogeran.

Barat: m. Cheating, deceit, guile, cousenage, lying, or falshood, in bargaining; also, a barter, scourse, trucke, exchange.

Baratelle: f. as Cagnole.

Barater. To cheat, cousen, beguile, deceiue, lye, cog, foist, in bargaining; also, to trucke, scourse, barter, exchange.

Barateur: m. A deceiuer, cheater, cousener; cogger, foister, lyer, (in bargaining;) also, a barterer, trucker, exchanger.

Barateux: m.euse: f. Deceitfull, craftie, cheating, full of lyes, or of slie deuises, in bargaining.

Barathre: m. An Abisme, or deepe gulfe, whence there is no returning; (hence) also, Hell.

Baratier: m.ere: f. as Barateux.

Baratte: f. A churne.

Barbacane: f. A casemate; or a hole (in a parrapet, or towne wall) to shoot out at; some hold it also to be, a Sentrie, Scout-house, or hole; and thereupon our Chaucer vseth the word Barbican for a watch-tower, which in the Saxon tongue was called, a Bourough-kenning.

Barbaian. The great horne owle.

Barbare: com. Barbarous, rude, vnciuile, rustically, ignorant.

Barbarement: m. Barbarously; rudely, vnciuilely, ignorantly.

Barbaresque. as Barbare; Or, clowne-like, like a barbarous fellow.

Barbaresquement. Barbarously, vnciuilely, rudely, clownishly; without manners, respect, or knowledge.

Barbarie: f. Barbarie (a part, or Prouince, of Affricke;) also, barbarisme; also, the trade of a Barber.

Barbarie de Biscay. The name of a great bitter-sweet apple.

Cancre de Barbarie. See Cancre.

Pomme de Barbarie. A kind of faire, sappie, & well tasting, apple.

C'est vne vache de Barbarie, qui ne recognoit que son propre veau: Prov. Applied vnto such, as respect, or know not any, but their own family, friends, and kindred; a rude, ignorant, barbarous humor.

Barbarin: m. A small riuer Barbell; also, the sea Barbell, bearded Mullet, or sore Mullet.

Barbarine: f. A peece of coyne worth about six Sous.

Barbarisme: m. Barbarisme, inciuilitie, inhumanitie; a rude word, an vngentle deed.

Barbasse: f. A filthie great, or goat-like, beard.

Barbassé. vn bouc barbassé. A bearded goat.

Barbaude: f. Beere; Brewers liquor.

Barbaudier: m. A Brewer.

Barbe: m. A Barbarie horse.

Barbe: f. A beard; also, that part of a horses nether iaw whereon the curbe doth rest.

Barbes. Looke after Barberousse.

Barbe de bouc. The hearbe Goats-beard; called also, Starre of Ierusalem, Josephes flower, Noone-tide, and Goe-to-bed-at-Noone (for the flower thereof euer closes about noone.)

Barbe de chevre. Meadswort, Meadsweet, Queene of the medowes, (an hearbe.)

La barbe d'vn coq. A Cockes rattles, or waddles.

Barbe de forests. Water Plantaine; (some hold, that Sopewort, or Brusewort is called so, but they are in an errour, sayes Mathiolus.)

Barbe de Iupiter. Kneeholme, Butchers broome.

Barbe de prestre. as Barbe de bouc.

Barbe regnard. Goats-thorne; the shrub whose root yeeldeth Gumme dragagant.

A sa barbe. To his teeth, in his presence, before his face; also, mauger his beard, in despight of him; also, to his disgrace.

Faire barbe. To assemble together in troupes (as bees doe before, or about, the doore of their hiue a little before they swarme) a phrase in vse among the boores of Languedoc.

Faire barbe de foarre à. To deceiue, delude, abuse; depriue of his due; (especially in matters of religion wherein this phrase is most, and best, vsed; but then in stead of Barbe there must be Gerbe; Looke Gerbe.)

Faire la barbe à. To barbe, trimme, shaue; also, to beard, affront, or braue to the teeth; to resist, make head against, withstand publikely.

Mettre en barbe à. To oppose vnto, confront with, set against.

Reprenons nostre chevre à la barbe. Let vs take hold

where we left; or, let vs returne to our matter againe.
Trouver en barbe. To meet in the teeth with.
Barbe de fol: Prov. See Fol.
Barbe raſe, pied ferrat: Prov. Cleerely, all charges borne, all things diſcharged, and done.
Barbé: m. ée: f. Bearded, hauing a beard.
Rouget barbé. A ſea Barbell; or, ſore Mullet.
Barbeau: m. The riuer Barbell; and (at Bourdeaux) the ſea Barbell; alſo, a little beard.
Barbecane. as Barbacane.
Barbel: m. as Barbeau.
Barbelé. Bearded; alſo, full of ſnags, ſnips, iags; notches; whence;
Fleſche barbelée. A bearded, or barbed, arrow.
Barbelotte: f. A hedge Toad, a land Toad.
Barbelu: m. uë: f. Bearded, beardie; or, as Barbelé.
Barber. To barbe, ſhaue, trim; to cut the beard off.
Se Barber. To grow bearded, or to get a beard; alſo, to (begin to) root, or, to get ſmall haire-like ſprigs in growing, at the root.
Barberie: f. Barbing; the act, or art, of Barbing; alſo, a Barbers ſhop; alſo, (the name of) a certaine round, great, and good apple.
Barberies: f. Pinks, or ſops in wine, feathered Gillovers, ſmall Honeſties.
Barbaries ſauvages. Wild Williams, marſh Gillovers, Cuckow Gillouers.
Barberiot. The name of an apple thats leſſe, and yeelds better cyder, than la Barberie.
Barberouſſe: m. A red bearded fellow.
Barbes: f. Puſhes, or little bladders, vnder the tongues of horſes, and cattell, the which they kill if they be not ſpeedily cured.
Barbes aux veaux. The barbles; a white excreſſence which, like the pip in chickings, growes vnder the tongues of calues, and hinders them from ſucking.
Barbet: m. A little, young, or budding beard; alſo, a ſmall riuer Barbell; alſo, a water-ſpanell, or any ſhag-baird dog.
Pour Venus advienne barbet le chien. Looke Venus.
Barbet: m. ette: f. Rough, or ſhag-haired, like a water-dog.
Barbeter. To grunt, mutter, murmure; or as Barboter.
Barbette: f. A ſmall beard; alſo, a water-bitch, or ſhag-haired bitch.
Barbidant. Part of a womans, &c.
Barbier: m. A Barber, alſo, a Chirurgion; alſo, a certain fiſh, as Poiſſon ſacré.
Vn barbier rait l'autre: Prov. One knaue trimmes; excuſes, helpes; ſoothes, or flatters, another.
Ieune barbier, & vieil medecin: Prov. A young Chirurgian, and an old Phyſitian, (are commonly the beſt.)
Au ſanglier le barbier: Prov. Looke Sanglier.
Barbiere: f. A Barbers wife; a barbareſſe; a woman, or ſhe, Barber.
Barbillon: m. A little Barbell; alſo, the beard of an eare of corne; alſo, the leſſe fin of a fiſh; alſo, the barbe of a broad-arrow head, or any the like iagged thing.
Barbillons. The Frounce; (a diſeaſe bred in the tongues of hawkes by a cold rheume.)
Barbillonné: m. ée: f. Bearded, barbed; iagged, rough by the iagges, or notches it hath on it.
Dard barbillonné. A dart that hath a forked, or barbed, head.
Barbin: m. A little beard.
Barboire: m. A maske, or mummerie; alſo, a viſard.
Barbolle. Part of a womans, &c.
Barbon: m. A Barbell fiſh.
Barbot: m. The wallowing of a ſeething pot.
Barbotage: m. A confuſed fumbling, or mumbling vp of words.
Barbote: f. An Eele-powte; or, as Lote d'eau douce.
Barboté: m. ée: f. Mumbled, or muttered, as words betweene the teeth.
Eſpice barbotez. Bearded eares of corne.
Barboter. To mumble, or mutter words betweene the teeth; alſo, to wallow like a ſeething pot.
Barboter de peur, ou de froid. (The teeth) to ſhake, or quake for feare; to chatter, or didder for cold; to ſay an Apes Paternoſter.
Barbotin: m. ine: f. Beardie, or bearded.
Barbotine: f. Wormeſeed.
Barbotte: f. The chinne peece of an helmet.
Barbouillage: m. A rude mingle mangle, gallymaufrey, or confuſed hotchpot; alſo, as Barbouillement.
Barbouillé: m. ée: f. Confuſedly iumbled, or hudled together; alſo, ſpotted, blotted, beraied, beſmeared, begrimed all ouer.
Barbouillement: m. A confuſed iumbling of ſundrie things together; alſo, a beſmearing, beraying, bedaſhing.
Barbouiller. To iumble, confound, huddle, or mingle ill fauouredly; alſo, to blot, ſpot, ſmut, beſmeare; bedaſh all ouer.
Barbouilleries: f. Traſh, riffraffe; ſundry things of ſmall value iumbled, or hudled together.
Barbouilleur: m. A diſorderly iumbler, hudler, mingler; alſo, a blotter, ſpotter, ſmutter, beſmearer of.
Barbuteur: m. A Sicophant, a picketbanke, a priuie whiſperer, a cloſe detracter, a ſecret tale-teller.
Barbu: m. uë: f. Bearded; beardie; hauing a beard; full of, or ouergrowne with, beard.
If barbu. Looke If.
Homme roux, & femme barbuë de cinquante pas les ſaluë, (vne pierre ou poing, followes; becauſe they are held verie dangerous people.)
Barbuë: f. The bearbe Gith, or garden Nigella; alſo, a kind of leſſe Turbot, or Turbot-like fiſh, called by ſome, a Dab, or Sandling.
Barbu-marſés. Amelcorne, Starchcorne; or, as Eſcourgeon.
Barbute: m. A man of Armes; tearmed ſo in old time, becauſe he ordinarily wore a Barbute.
Barbute: f. A riding hood; a Montero, or cloſe hood, wherewith trauellers preſerue their faces and heads from froſt-biting, and weather-beating, in Winter; alſo, the beaver of an helmet; alſo, a Bay berrie; alſo, the hearbe Nigella; or, the ſeed thereof; alſo, a ſtopple, bung; or ſpigot.
Barc: m. A kind of ſmooth red earth, whereof veſſells were made in old time.
Barce. as Berche.
Barchaux: m. Great barkes, or, the great boats called, lyters.
Barche: f. A little barke, or pinnace.
Bardable: com. Barbable; fit, or able to beare a barbed furniture, or armor.
Bardache: m. An Ingle; a youth kept, or accompanied for Sodomie.
Bardechiſer. To commit Sodomie; to bugger, to ingle.
Bardacoculé. Seeke Bardococulé.
Bardane: f. The Clote, burre-docke, or great burre; alſo, the noiſome, and ſtinking vermine, called, a Punie.

Bardane la grande. The burre-dock, clote bur, great burre.

Petite bardane. The louse-burre, ditch-burre, lesse burre docke.

Barde: f. A long saddle for an Asse, or moyle, made onely of course canuas stuffed with flockes.

Iavelin de barde. A barbed Iauelin, for a horseman.

Bardé: m.ée: f. Barbed, or trapped, as a great horse; also, bound, or tied ouer, and acrosse.

Barde: com. Blunt, blockish, dull-witted, hard-headed, sottish.

Bardeau: m. A shingle, or small boord, such as houses are couered with.

Bardelle: f. A Bardello; the quilted, or canuas saddle, wherewith coults are backed.

Barder. To barbe, or trap, horses; also, to bind, or tye acrosse, ouercrosse, or ouerthwart.

Bardes: f. Barbes, or trappings, for horses of seruice, or of shew.

Bardeure: f. A trapping of a horse; also, an ouerthwart binding, or tying.

Bardococulage: m. A being armed, or couered all ouer, with cowles; Monkerie; or a Monkish habit.

Bardococulé: m.ée: f. Dressed or armed in, adorned or couered with, a cowle, or Monkes hood.

Bardou: m. A sot, a blockehead, a dull fellow; (an old word.)

Baretter. as Bariner; To churne.

Barge: f. A certaine fowle, that hath no spleene; shee is onely somewhat lesse than a Curlue, but otherwise resembles her; also, the banke of a riuer, or water.

Barguignard. A bargaining, or chaffering person; or as Barguigneur.

Barguigne: f. A bargaine; or a wrangling, and dodging in bargaine-making.

Barguigner. To chaffer; to bargaine; or (more properly) to wrangle, dodge, haggle, brabble, in the making of a bargaine.

Apres besongne faitte le fol barguigne: Prov. The foole beginnes to wrangle when his worke is ended; or, When worke is ended fooles fall out about it; (viz. for want of agreeing before hand.)

Barguigneur: m. A dodger, or hagler, a wrangling bargainer; one that vses to cheapen much, and buy nothing; or, vses many words about a thing, but comes not neere the price of it.

Baricaue: f. as Barricaue.

Baricquer. To bray like an Elephant.

Baril. as Barril.

Barillet. A little barrell.

Barillier: m. A maker of barrels; also, an officer that tends, and lookes to, the caske of a great mans sellor.

Bariner. To churne butter.

Bariquade: f. as Barriquade.

Barique: f. The halfe of a Queuë, or Poinson; a vessell somewhat bigger than our barrell.

Bariqué: m. ée: f. Barricadoed.

Bariquelle: f. A skiffe, or little boat, like a Wherrie, or scull.

Bariteau: m. A Siue made of haire.

Baritonnant. Wagging, dangling; also, braying.

Baritonner. To wag, or dangle, vp and downe; also to bray like an Elephant.

Barizel: m. A Captaine, or leader of Catchpoles; an ordinarie Prouost Marshall.

Barlong: m. A vessell, plot, or proportion thats of more length than breadth; See Balongue.

Barlong: m.gue: f. More long than broad; or, longer in one place than in another.

Barlonguer. To make; or grow, or be, more long than broad.

Barlue: f. A glimmering; or a dimme, duskie, or imperfect light; also, pur-blindnesse.

Barme: f. The banke of a riuer, &c.

Barnabé: m. (A proper name) Barnabie.

A la S. Barnabé la faux au pré: Prov. (That is about the eleuenth of June.)

Barnage: m. All the traine, stuffe, and equipage of a great person carried, and going, along with him in a progresse, or iourney. Looke Bernage.

Barnez. The Nobilitie, or Barons; (an old, and seldome vsed, word.)

Barocco. Barocco; the name of a Syllogisticall mood in Logicke; Hence (with an equiuocall allusion to the word Broc) The Tiplers phrase;

Conclure in Barocco. To draw a moist conclusion out of a Tankerd, or Flagon; to conclude by quaffing, or with a carouse.

Baron: m. A husband (Pic. and in our Law;) also, a Baron, or Lord Baron: In which sence it hath two significations; one generall, for an immediate vassall of the Crowne, (whether he be Duke, Marquesse, Earle, or Prince,) that hath not any right, or priuiledge, of Soueraignetie; (whence, les Barons de France: ) Another speciall, for a Baron, or the Lord of a Baronie (see Baronnie) whose ranke is (as in England) next below a Vicounts; (if their tenures be equall; for otherwise a Baron that holds immediatly of the King, or of a royall Countie, &c, goes before a Vicount that holds of a Countie, &c, which is not royall;) and howsoeuer next aboue a Lo. Chastellains. In old time les Barons were th'ordinarie Magistrats of France; and the title grew so common, that all Hauts Iusticiers (especially such, as had incroached vpon le Droict de Ressort) vsurped it: At this day (no lesse commonly) the eldest sonne to the Lord of a village, is in many Prouinces tearmed, le Baron; And no better than the Burghers of some priuiledged townes, as Bourges, &c, do stile themselues Barons; (which degrees of Barons very often deserue to be Englished, Bare-ones;) The Lo. Baron may, of himselfe wall and fortifie the principall village of his Baronie; and keepe the keyes of the gates thereof whether th'inhabitants will or no; and in time of daunger, appoint a Captaine therin; but this with their consents.

Parez vn heriffon il semblera Baron: Prov. Good, (or gay) clothes will make a Monkie seeme a Monsieur.

Baron: m.onne: f. (Sain & baron) Of the male kind; also, manly, hardie, strong.

Barone: f. A Baronnesse; the Ladie of a Baronie, or wife of a Lo. Baron.

Baronie: f. as Baronnie.

Baronnie: f. A Baronie; a Lordship of dignitie, superiour to a Chastelenie, and inferiour to a Vicountie; Some define it, Any chiefe Seigneurie, next vnto the Soueraigne, held immediately of the Crowne; Others, A title peculiar to certaine Seigneuries that are held onely of the King, and haue no other title; which definition agrees best with the moderne; and th'other with the ancient, French Baronies, whereof originally there were but three, viz. Bourbon, Coucy, and Beaujeu; all held immediatly of the Crowne, and at length made Dutchies, Marquesates, or Earledomes; so that they haue left almost no markes of, nor matches to, themselues behind them: For all, or the most of the the moderne Baronies are but the members of some Dutchie, or Countie (vnited, a good while agoe to the Crowne; or of later time erected, by the King) and are held (those by a direct, these by a dependant, Tenure) onely of the king, as, or in respect of, one of them: yet are they but little inferiour to th'ancient ones in other points; for being erected at first in emulation, or by the patterne, thereof, either by the old Dukes, or Earles (who hauing vsurped the absolute soueraignitie of their territories, would also haue their Barons as well as the King had his) or since the reunion of their estates to the Crowne, by Kings, they conferred on them all kind of (subalterne) iurisdiction, and authoritie; which they still retaine; and in the right thereof haue (or should haue) each of them a Bailli, &c; as also, a walled, or fortified towne, and the gouernement thereof; a colledge, or Collegiate Church; an Abbey, or Priorie; an Hospitall; Forest; Faires, or Markets; a Travers, or Through-toll; a publicke seale for contracts, and diuers other priuiledges belonging to them: At this day, an inheritance, or Lordship, worthie of this title, must comprehend at the least three Chastellenies, all vnited together, that they may be held by one homage of the King.

Barque: f. A barke, little ship, great boat.

Barquerot: m. A sayler, or skipper in, a steeresman vnto, a barke.

Barquette: f. A little barke; a boat.

Barrage: m. as Barriquade; Also, a passage toll, or through-toll; so tearmed of the barre that ordinarily stands on the way wherein tis payable.

Barragoüin. Pedlars French, fustian language; any rude gibble-gabble, or barbarous speech; (tis compounded of two Brittish words, barra, bread; and goüin, wine.)

Barragoüiner. To speake fustian; to vse a language that no bodie vnderstands.

Barraté: m. ée: f. Churned; or, tossed, as butter is in the churning.

Barraut: m. A little barrell; or vessell, holding (most commonly) 36 Parisian pintes; and therefore not much different from our kilderkin, or beer-firkin of 36 quarts; also, a water bag, or budget.

Barre: f. A barre, or sparre, for a doore; also, the crosse-barre thats on the head of a peece of caske; generally, any barre; also, a hawkes pearch; also, the part of a horses nether iaw wheron his bit resteth (a little aboue his tushes.)

Barres. The martiall sport called Barriers; also, the play at Bace; or, Prison Bars; also, (in the stile of pleading) defences, and exceptions (whether dilatorie, or peremptorie) propounded in order; or, as we say, pleaded in barre.

La barre de parlement. The barre without which Aduocates, or Councellors do plead; (hence it seems are ours called Vtter-barresters.)

La barre du timon. The whip of the Rudder (of a ship.)

Le barre d'vne ville. The barres of a towne.

Auoir barre sur. To haue the aduantage, or get the start of; to be before hand with; Prendre barre sur. The same.

Donner barres à. To stop, to stay the course, or current of.

Planter à la barre. To plant the slips of vines in order, either two together, or one against another, or one by one, as we set willowes.

Retraict de barre, ou de Cour. Looke Retraict.

Barré: m. ée: f. Barred, sparred; boulted; grated, lattised.

Os barré. Looke Os.

Barreau. A little barre, or sparre; a boult; also, the bar of a Court whereat Lawyers plead.

Barreaux. Grates, or strong lattises (of wood, &c,) in a house, prison, or ship.

Le barreau des Pairs. The most honourable barre in the Court of the Parisian Parliament (celuy qui est pres la cheminée de la Chambre dorée) whereat the Aduocates of a Peere of France do plead.

Les Gens de barreau. Barresters, Aduocates, Councellors, pleading Lawyers.

Barrer. To barre, or sparre; to boult; also, to lattice, or grate vp.

Barres. Looke Barre.

Barretade: f. Cap-courtesie, hat-reuerence; the vailing of the bonnet; the putting off of the hat, or cap, in a salutation, &c.

Barrette: f. A cap, or bonnet.

Parler à sa barette. To expostulate with him face to face; to speake home, and to his teeth, vnto him.

Barrez. The Carmes, or White Friers were called so in old time, by reason of certain clokes (crosse garded with white, and blacke) which then they wore.

Barricade. See Barriquade.

Barricadé: m. ée: f. Barricadoed; stopped vp by a barricado.

Barricave: f. A hole, pit, or hollow place aboue ground; also, a low bottome, steepe valley; or deepe path, in a wood, or valley.

Barriere: f. A rayle, or barre; also, a stop, or let.

Barrieres. The rayles, or lists within which a Tilting, Turnay, &c, or single combat is to be performed.

Barriere de Charpentier. A great peece of timber borne vp, gibbet-like, by two posts, and set before the doore of a great house to the streetward.

Faire barriere à. To stop, hinder, let; also, to backe; also, to shrowd, or shield.

Barril: m. The (French) barrell; a vessell which (holding 72 Parisian pintes) comes neere to the Beere kilderkin, (which holds 72 of our quarts.)

Nourri dans vn barril. Brought vp in a Tub (a speech vsed to the disgrace, or as a description, of a simple, ignorant, vnexperienced, and home-bred boydon.

Barrillet: m. A little barrell; a ferkin, or halfe barrell.

Barriquade: f. A barricado; a defence of barrels, timber, pales, earth, or stones, heaped vp, or closed together; and seruing to stop vp a street, or passage, and to keepe off shot, &c.

Barrique: f. The halfe of the Queuë, or Poinson; a vessell thats somewhat bigger than our barrell.

De Corsaire à Corsaire n'y pend que barriques rompuës: Prov. Nought's to be got of a roauer but trash, or blowes.

Barriqué: m. ée: f. Barricadoed; stopped, fortified, or defended by barricadoes.

Barriqueau: m. A ferkin; or, halfe of the Barrique.

Barriquer. To barricadoe; to stop, fortifie, or defend with barricadoes.

Barrit: m. The braying, or cry of an Elephant.

Barroir: m. A Turrell; th'Oager wherewith Coopers make holes for the barre-pinnes of a peece of caske.

Barrot: m. A ferkin, or bansket.

Barroyements: m. Delayes in Law, vsed for the better instruction, furnishing, or strengthening of a cause.

Barroyer. To vse delayes (as in Barroyements.)

Barry. as Barrill; also, a kind of fireworke in a woodden case, fashioned (like a spindle, or caske) thicke in the middle, and small at both ends.

Bas: m. The base, bottome, depth, or lowest part of; also, as Bast; a packesaddle.

Vn bas de chausses. A stocking, or netherstocke.

Le bas de la Couverture d'vne maison. The eaues, or easings of a house.

Vn bas de manches. An halfe sleeue.

Le plat du bas. (viz. Of the lower end of the table) est tousiours le primier vuide; Prov. Looke Plat.

Bas: m. Basse: f. Low, base; humble; deepe, vnder; dejected, abiect.

Bas bord, ou, bord bas. The larbord, or left side of a ship.

Basse heure. assez basse heure. Verie late, furre in the night.

Basse Iustice. Looke Iustice.

Bas de poil. Of poore estate, of small meanes; of little authoritie.

Chambre basse. A priuie, or house of office.

Cour basse. A base Court; or the Court of a Lord, who hath no other than base, or low iurisdiction.

Facultez basses. qui a les facultez basses. Poore, of meane estate; whose fortunes are at a great ebbe.

Main basse. A bad hand, course chance, &c; Looke Main.

Bas (Aduerb.) Vnder, low, below.

Haut & bas la cheminée. The ordinarie cry of chimney-sweepers in France.

Taillables haut & bas. Taxable at the will and pleasure of their Lord.

Vole bas de peur des branches. Looke Branche.

Basane. Looke Bazane.

Basané: m. ée: f. Duskie, swart, blackish, of a tawnie hue; also, smutched, bedusked.

Basaner. To bleake, smutch, beduske, make swart, browne, or blackish.

Basanne: f. A sheepes skin tawed; See Bazane.

Basard: m. A market place, wherein things are sold.

Basauchieux. Lawyers Clerkes; or as, Basochiens.

Baschat: m. A Bassa; a chiefe commaunder vnder the Turke; also, a kind of vaulted sinke.

Baschelier. for Bachelier: Rab.

Basclé. Barred; stopped, shut vp; See Baclé.

Bascule: f. A swipe, scoope, or put-gally to draw vp water withall; also, as Bacule.

Basculer. To set vpon his taile; to bump, or beat on the taile; to giue an arseposse vnto; also, as Baccoler.

Basculle: f. as Bascule.

Bas-de-fesses. Low buttockt; arse-fallen.

Base: f. A base, or basis; a foot, ground, foundation, vnto.

Base du coeur. The flat, or broad part thereof; which in the bodie stands vpward.

La base de la teste. The root, or bottome of the head; or, as Os basilaire.

La base des yeux. The root of the eyes.

Baselic: m. A Basiliske, or Cockatrice; also, the (long) peece of ordinance called, a Basiliske; also, the hearbe Basill; (for which looke Basilic.)

Basenne. as Bazane; also, as Bassenne.

Basenné: m. ée: f. Duskie, swart, browne, blackish, darke-tawnie; also, smutched, bedusked, made swart, &c.

Basennier: m. A marchant, sellor, or dresser, of coloured sheepes skinnes; as in Bazane.

Basennier: m. ere: f. as Basenné (in the first sence.)

Basilaire. Os Basilaire. The nape, or nuke (bone) the cuneall, or fundamentall bone of the head; Looke Os.

Basilic: m. The hearbe Basill; also, as Basilisc.

Basilic citronnier. Middle Basill, or Citron Basill.

Basilic d'eau. Water basill, fish basill; beares a white blossome, and a small blacke seed of a sharpe taste; the whole plant yeelds a milkie, and sweet iuyce.

Basilic gentil. Basill gentle, bush basill, some also call stone basill so.

Basilic gyrofflé. Bush basill, fine basill.

Basilic menu. The small wild basill, called by Herbalists, Acynos.

Basilic sauvage. Basill mint, wild basill, vnprofitable basill.

Grand basilic. Great garden basill, basill royall.

Petit basilic. as Basilic gentil.

Basilique. A royall palace; a princes court, honour, house; also, a shire-hall, guild-hald, or spacious place in a citie, wherein Councels be held, and Iustice administred, by the publick Magistrates.

Basilique. veine bas. The liuer veine.

Basilisc: m. A Basiliske, or Cockatrice.

Basique: com. Low, fundamentall, belonging to the basis, or bottome of.

Baume: m. Balme, balsamum; or, more properly, the balsamum tree, from which distils our balme (or Opobalsamum; for little, or no true balme is now adayes brought into these parts of the world.)

Basoche: f. The whole troupe, or companie of Lawyers Clearks in the palace of Paris, hauing among them a king, and their peculiar lawes; hence also, reuell, misrule (for these fellowes are none of the soberest); also, a certaine baudie Court, wherein wiues that beat their husbands, are censured.

Fief de la Basoche. Il tient du fief de la B. He is a pratling, or iangling Lawyer; or (as a Lawyers Clerke) an vnruly copesmate; or, his wife is his master.

Roy de la Basoche. The Master of Misrule, or chiefe man among the Clerkes, when they make their shewes.

Basochiens: m. Reuellers, or associates vnto Masters of Misrule; and, Lawyers Clerkes (who for the most part are verie vnruly) or, such as belong vnto the baudie Court aforesaid, (in Basoche.)

Basquain: m. as Basque (in the first sence onely.)

Basque: m. A Biscayan; one that dwells, or was borne, in Biscay, or about Bayonne, neere Biscay; also, a Lackey, or foot-boy; so called, because many that are of that profession in France come from that countrey; also, a bastard.

Tour de Basque. Cleanly conueyance, legerdemaine; a nimble tricke, deceitfull part, cheating pranke.

Basque: f. as tour de Basque; Also, a sudden affright, or scarring.

Basque de pourpoint. The skirt of a doublet.

Basquine. A Vardingale of the old fashion; or a Spanish Vardingale; See Vasquine.

Basquinier. See Vasquinier.

Base: f. A basis; the base, or foot of a pillar; also, a bottome, or low ground; also, a great Salt bag.

Les basses de la mer. The shallowes, flats, and fallings of tides, in the sea.

Base. contre. The base-part in Musicke; also, hee that sings, or beares it.

Base-cour: f. A base Court, a backe Court for the household, or for household vses; an inner yard, or barton, wherein poultrie is (or may be) kept.

Bassecule. as Bascule.

Base-

Baſſe-danſe : f. A meaſure.
Baſſement. Baſely, lowly, deiectedly, humbly, poorely; alſo, vnder, low, below.
Baſſenne : The mizzen ſaile of a ſhip.
Baſſeſſe : f. Baſeneſſe, lowlineſſe, abiect humbleneſſe; alſo, lowneſſe.
Baſset : m. A terrier, or earthing beagle; alſo, a low ſtoole; alſo, a dwarfe, or very low man.
Baſſe-taille : f. Raiſed, or imboſſed imagerie, wherin the repreſentation is made, not of, but vpon, the whole peece.
Baſſeté : f. Baſeneſſe, abiection; too much humilitie.
Baſſeur : f. Humbleneſſe, lowlineſſe.
Baſſier : m. The tub that receiues tap-droppings; or, a tub to put lyes, or the dregs, or bottomes of wine, &c, in.
Baſſiere : f. The ſame.
Baſſieres. The bottomes, grounds, or lees of wine; dregs that be ſetled in the bottome of wine, &c.
Baſſille : f. Rocke Sampire, Creſtmarine.
Baſsin : m. A baſon to waſh in; alſo, a ſcull, or ſleight, & baſon-like headpeece, vſed at barriers.
Des Baſſins. as Baſsinets; Crowfoot.
Baſſin à ſelle percée. The pan of a cloſe ſtoole.
Baſſin d'vne balance. The ſcowle of a balance.
Cracher au baſsin. To lay out, or pay downe readie coine; alſo, to giue fees; or beſtow a reward in hand; alſo, as in Cracher.
Baſsine : f. A deepe, or baſon-like, and footleſſe, poſnet, vſed moſt by Conſeruers, or Comfet-makers.
Baſſiné : m. ée : f. Warmed, fomented; rubbed, or chaſed vntill it grow warme; alſo bathed, or waſhed with warme liquor.
Baſſinement : m. Warming, a fomentation, or fomenting; a rubbing, chafing, or heating; a bathing, or waſhing, in warme liquor.
Baſsiner. To warme, foment; rub, chaſe, hug, heat a thing vntill it be full warme; alſo, to bath, waſh, or heat in warme liquor.
Baſsinet. (The hearbe) Looke Baſsinets.
Baſſinet. A little bowle, a ſmall baſon; alſo, the ſcull, ſleight helmet, or headpeece, worne in old time, by the French men of armes; and hence, a man of Armes (in which ſence it is euer vſed in the Plurall number.)
Le baſſinet d'vne 'arquebuſe. The Firepan, or touch-pan.
Le baſſinet d'un reſchaut. The pan of a chafing diſh.
Baſsinets : m. The flower Crowfoot, King-cob, gold crap, yellow craw, butter flower; There be many kinds of it, & that which we call, Batchelers buttons, is one (the double one) of them.
Baſſinets blancs. White Crowfoot, Vrchin Crowfoot.
Baſſinets d'eau. Water Crowfoot, marſh, Crowfoot.
Baſſinets de marais, ou, des prez. The marſh Marigold.
Petis baſsinets. Little Celandine, Pilewort, Figwort; ſo called, becauſe the flower of it ſomewhat reſembles the Crowfoot; otherwiſe, no kind thereof.
Baſsinoire : f. A warming pan.
Baſt : m. A pannell, or packſaddle.
'A baſt vuide. renvoyé à b. Emptie handed; with a flea in his eare; as wiſe as he came; without effecting, or getting what he went for.
De quelque coſté que le baſt vire. Howſoeuer matters be carried, in what ſort ſoeuer they be handled.
Ventru à plein baſt. Swagbellied, gorbellied, full paunched.

Baſtage : m. A certaine toll exacted by ſome country Lords for euery horſe that paſſes by them ſadled with a packeſaddle, though he carrie nothing elſe; for if hee doe, they take toll both for his ſaddle, and his burthen.
Baſtance. Sufficiencie; what is ynough.
Baſtard : m. A baſtard; the brood of a whoore; the ſon of the people; one that came in at the window; alſo, a courſe bowlter for cheat bread; alſo, as Baſtardeau.
Bon baſtard c'eſt avanture, mais meſchant c'eſt de nature : Prov. A baſtard may bee good, but nature makes him bad.
Baſtard : m. de : f. Baſtardly, baſe borne, misbegotten; falſe, adulterate, counterfeit; not rightly bred; vnlawfully begotten.
Couleur baſtarde. A weake, faint, pale, wan, decaied colour.
Eſpée baſtarde. A ſhort ſword; or a ſword that is not long ynough.
Feneſtre baſtarde. A falſe window.
Baſtardage : m. Baſtardie, baſtardiſme.
Baſtardaille : f. Baſtardie; alſo, baſtards, or, a true, or knot of baſtards.
Baſtarde : f. A demie Cannon, or demie Culuerin; a ſmaller peece of any kind.
Baſtardeau : m. A damme, or water-ſtop, made of piles, &c.
Baſtardie. as Baſtardiſe. (Norm.
Baſtardiere : f. A ſeed plot, nurſe garden, or nurſerie, wherein yong trees are ſet to bee afterwards remooued.
Baſtardiſe : f. Baſtardie, baſtardiſme; the breeding; ſtate, condition, qualitie, of a baſtard; alſo, the ſucceſſion of baſtards, or that which falls to the king by the death of a baſtard.
Baſte : f. A wily ſleight or ſubtiltie, a craftie pranke; an odde tricke, or ſhrewd turne; alſo, the skirt of a doublet, &c.
Baſté : m. ée : f. Sadled with a packeſaddle.
Baſte. (A Verbe Imperſonall;) No more, tis ynough, it ſufficeth, be how it be will.
Baſteau. as Bateau.
Baſtelé : m. ée : f. Jugled; buffoonized; tumbled; idly talked; alſo, toſſed vncertainely vp and downe.
Baſteler. To iugle, or tumble; alſo, to play the buffoone, or foole; to talke verie much, and verie idly; alſo, to toſſe, or wander vncertainely vp and downe.
Baſtelerie : f. Jugling; tumbling; puppet-playing; any ſuch fooliſh paſtime, or legerdemaine; alſo, buffooniſme.
Baſtelet : m. A little boat.
Baſteleur : A iugler, tumbler, puppet-player,; one that profeſſeth any of thoſe arts; alſo, one that leades bears, apes, baboones, or dauncing dogges about the countrey, and gets a ſcuruie liuing by them.
Baſteleuſe : f. A woman that makes a profeſſion of Jugling, Tumbling, and ſuch other idle; or baſe exerciſes.
Baſteliere : f. as Bateliere.
Baſter. To ſaddle with a pannell, or packeſaddle; alſo, to looke, or gaze, as out of a window; alſo, to ſerue, or ſuffice.
Tant que l'ame me baſtera au corps. Whileſt I haue breath in my bodie.
Baſti. Looke Baſty.
Baſtier : m. A maker of packeſaddles; alſo, a baſe lubberly fellow.
Baſtier : m. ere : f. Vſually bearing, or ſadled with, a packeſaddle.

Baſtilde : f. The fortreſſe, or fortification tearmed a baſtillion, or baſtile.

Baſtille. as Baſtilde; or, a fortreſſe, or caſtle furniſhed with towers, donion, and ditches; (in Paris, la Baſtille is as our Tower, the chiefe priſon of the kingdome.)

Baſtillon : m. A baſtillon, or little fortreſſe.

Baſtiment : m. A building, frame, houſe, or edifice; alſo, a compoſition, or compaction of many things together.

Baſtine : f. The skirt of a doublet, or coat; alſo, a pad; alſo, as Bardelle; alſo, a packſaddle.

Baſtion : m. (The fortification tearmed) a Baſtion, or Cullion-head.

Baſtionner. To fortifie with Baſtions.

Baſtir. To build, make, frame, erect; raiſe, or ſet vp; alſo, to compoſe; contriue, deuiſe.

Baſtir à quelqu'vn ſon roulet. To teach one before hand what he ſhall ſay or doe.

Denier ſur denier baſtit la maiſon : Prov. Pennie vpon pennie builds the houſe; by little and little great matters are effected, great workes finiſhed.

Baſtiſſage : m. A frame, a compoſition; a building, making, framing.

Baſtiſſant : m. ante : f. Building, framing, making, rearing, erecting; compoſing; contriuing.

Baſton : m. A ſtaffe, bat, cudgell, trunchion; club; alſo, a ſword, and (more generally) any weapon of offence; alſo, a Battune, in blazon; alſo, a ſtay, prop, ſupporter.

Baſton d'Adam. Adams weapon; a mans yard.

Baſton cornu. A battle-axe.

Baſton à deux bouts. A quarter ſtaffe; or, a ſtaffe which hath a pike at both ends.

Baſton à feu. A Harquebuſe, Caleeuer, muſket, &c.

Baſton paſtoral. Water plantaine; or as Verge à berger.

Baſton de potence. Looke Potence.

Baſton rompu. à baſtons rompus. A cutting, pinking, lacing, &c, croſſe billet faſhion.

Baſton royal. A kingly Scepter.

A dague & baſton. Large meaſure, heaped meaſure, meaſure with aduantage.

Le tiers coup de baſton. The third (and laſt) knock of the Cryers ſtaffe in an Outrope; and hence (metaphorically) that action, or effect, which abſolutely carries a matter.

Par rain, & baſton. By a bough and a bat; (a faſhion of Liuerie and Seiſin vſed in ſome places.)

Eſtourdi de baſton. Looke Eſtourdi.

Entendre le ru du baſton. To be a cunning Fencer, old beaten ſouldior; of much experience in the world.

Faire mordre au baſton. To make the more eagar; or make to bite at the offered bait.

Mettre la main au baſton. To diſpoſſeſſe himſelfe of an inheritance, by the deliuerie of a little rod or ſticke to him vnto whom he paſſes it.

Saulter le baſton. To do the deed; or, to performe, with reſolution, an ineuitable exploit.

Sçauoir bien le tour du baſton. To be ſubtile, craftie, cunning, of great experience; to know well how things are to be carried, or, how the world goes.

Tirer au baſton. To ſtruggle, wraſtle, tug, ſtriue, contend; alſo, to fight, or lay about him.

Baſton porte paix quant & ſoy : Prov. A good bat makes peace where it comes; The like is:

Comme vn faquin porte faix, ainſi le baſton la paix.

Autant vaut aller à pied, que de cheuaucher vn baſton maigre: Prov. As good go a foot as ride on a leane iade.

Qui de maſtin fait ſon compere plus de baſton ne doit porter: Prov. He that makes a maſtiue his goſſip need not carrie a cudgell about him.

Tel porte le baſton dont à ſon regret le bat on: Many a one prouides a rod for his owne taile, or wears a bat wherewith himſelfe is beaten.

Baſtonnade : f. A baſtonadoe; a banging, or beating with a cudgell.

Baſtonnadé : m. ée : f. Banged, bethwacked with a cudgell.

Baſtonné. as Baſtonnadé; Cudgelled.

Baſtonneau. A little ſtaffe, trunchion, cudgell, bat; a ſticke, or great rod, or wand.

Baſtonnée : f. The ſtroake of a pumpe in a ſhip.

Baſtonnement : m. A beating, or banging with a cudgell.

Baſtonner. To ſtrike, beat, bang, bethwacke with a cudgell; to giue the baſtonadoe vnto.

Baſtonnet. as Baſtonneau; Alſo, the baſtonet of a bridle.

Baſtonnier : m. A ſtaffe-bearer, or Vergier; alſo the carrier of the Crucifix in Proceſſions; alſo, a great man in any company.

Baſtonnier : m. ere : f. Of, or belonging to, a ſtaffe, &c; alſo, bearing a ſtaffe; and hence,

Sergent baſtonnier. A Mace-bearer, or Sergeant of the Mace.

Baſty : m. A territorie, or demeſne, belonging to a place.

Baſty : m. ie : f. Builded, made, framed, compoſed, reared, or ſet vp.

Bat : m. A ſtroake, or beating.

Batable : com. Beatable; batterable; worthy, or apt, to be beaten; which will indure hammering, as mettall; or may be battered with cannon, as a fortreſſe; &c; alſo, quarelſome, contentious, litigious; (for ſuch a one comes by many a knocke, and wil, now and then, put vp all he comes by.)

Batail de cloche. A mill clapper.

Bataille : f. A battell, or fight betweene two armies; alſo, a battell, or maine battell; the middle battallion, or ſquadron of an armie, wherein the Prince, or Generall, moſt commonly, marcheth; alſo, the whole army; and ſometimes alſo, any ſquadron, battallion, or part, thereof.

C'eſt belle bataille de chiens, & de chats; chaſcun a des ongles: Prov. The faireſt battels are performed with edged tooles: (but that is onely when the combatants are not worth keeping.)

Battaillé : m. ée : f. Battelled, fought; alſo, clappered, or hung with a clapper.

Batailler. To battell, wage battell; fight, ſtriue, contend.

Bataillon : m. A battallion, or ſquadron (of footmen.)

Batallier : m. ere : f. Battelling; for battels; of, or belonging to, battells.

Batalogie : f. Effeminate, obſcene, or ſcurrile, diſcourſe.

Batans d'vn poiſſon. The gill of a fiſh.

Batant. as Batail; A bell clapper; alſo, a batant; the peece of wood, that runnes all along vpon the edge of the lockeſide of a doore, gate, or window.

Vne port à deux batans. A fowlding, or two leaued, doore.

Batant. (partic. of batre;) beating; battering; thraſhing.

Il arriua tout batant vers. He came verie haſtily, or very lately, towards; or (as in this phraſe) Ie viens de là encores tout batant: I come thence but euen now; or, I pant ſtill through the haſt I made thence; or, it may be ſeene by my panting what haſt I made, how lately I came, from thence.

Il les chaſſa tout batant. Hee purſued them verie hard; &, Il les a mené batant iuſques dans les portes de la ville. He gaue them a hot, and bloudie chace, euen vnto the gates of the towne.

Bat-beurre: m. A Churne-ſtaffe.

Bate: f. A Rammer; a Pauers beetle; a Dawbers beater; th'inſtrument wherewith floores of earth are ſetled, and beaten leuell.

Bateau: m. A boat.

Bateau mere. Looke Mere.

Eſtourdi de bateau. Extreamly benummed, and therby vnfit, or vnreadie, for a ſuddaine imployment.

Nous menerons le bateau d'un'autre ſorte. We will handle the buſineſſe, or carrie the matter, after another manner.

Batelage: m. Iugling, Legerdemaine.

Batelée. vne batelée de, &c; a boatfull of.

Batelereſque: com. Iugling, or Iugler-like.

Batelerie: f. as Baſtelerie.

Batelet: m. A little boat, or skiffe.

Bateleur. as Baſteleur.

Batelier: m. A boatman, ſhipman, skipper.

Bateliere: f. A ferrie-woman, or boat-woman.

Batellé. Clappered; ſaid of a Bell; in Blaſon.

Batemare: f. A wagtayle, or water Swallow.

Bateiment: m. A beating, thwacking, lamming, bumping, ſwindging, battering; alſo, a threſhing.

Le batement de la mer. The working of the ſea; alſo, the ebbing thereof.

Baterie: f. A beating; or batterie.

Bateur: m. A beater, cudgeller, ſwindger; alſo, a threſher.

Bateurs d'eſtrade. The forragers, or forerunners of an Armie.

Bateur d'or. A gold-drawer, or gold-layer.

Bateur de pavez. An idle, or continuall walke-ſtreet; a ietter abroad in the ſtreets; one that ſees the towne ſerued when honeſt men are in bed; a laſciuious, or vnthrifty, night-walker; generally, any looſe or mad youth, diſſolute or diſorderly yonker.

La grange eſt prés des bateurs. (Said of a Nunnerie thats neere vnto a Fryerie;) the Barne ſtands neere the Threſhers.

Batiſé. as Baptiſé.

Batiture de fer. The skales that flye from yron in the hammering thereof.

Batoir: m. A rammer, or pauing beetle; alſo, a Launderesſes batting ſtaffe; alſo, a threſhing floore, or threſhing place; alſo, a fulling Mill.

Batre: m. (Subſtantiuely) a beating; and hence;

Au batre faut l'amour: Prov. Much loue is loſt by them that beat their loues.

Batre. To beat; thwack, bumpe, ſwindge, cudgell, belamme; alſo, to batter. (Frapper eſt d'un coup donné, batre de pluſieurs coups iterez. Nicot.)

Batre de l'aile. To ſmell ranke, or ſtrong; (eſpecially at th'arme-holes.)

Ne batre plus que d'une aile. To be halfe vndone; to reſt but vpon one only aſſurance; to haue but one helpe left him.

Batre le beurre. To churne.

Batre le bled. To threſh.

Batre aux champs. To forrage, to make a road, to ſeek for bootie, or a prey abroad.

Batre les chemins. To belay the way, as purſetakers and boothalers doe.

Batre le chien devant le Lyon. To puniſh a meane perſon in the preſence, and to the terror, of a great one.

Batre ſa coulpe. See Coulpe.

Batre les draps. To full clothes.

Batre l'eau. To looſe his labour, or imploy his time to no purpoſe.

Batre les eaux. A Deere to take ſoyle.

Batre leur eau. To diſgeſt, or ſhake-down, their drinke, (by exerciſe) as horſes which be ridden two or three miles after they haue beene watered.

Batre les flancs. To pant hard for want of breath.

Batre à froid. To worke out a thing with great paines, or toyle, as a Smith, that frames a thing out of cold yron; alſo, as Branſler la pigue.

Batre la laine. To leacher, to haire-beat it.

Batre la lictiere. A horſe to reſt, or continue long, in the ſtable.

Batre le pavé. See Pavé.

Batre à tout poulmon. To pant extreamely, to be almoſt out of breath.

Batre les rues. To reuell, iet, or ſwagger vp and down the ſtreets, a nights.

Batre le tambour avec les dents. To chatter, didder, ſay an Apes Paternoſter.

Se batre. To fight, combat, bicker, goe to it (at ſharpe.)

S'en batre les ioues. To repent throughly, or afflict himſelfe cruelly, for.

Ils ſe faiſoient batre à credit. They got themſelues a cudgelling without any purpoſe; or, being out of loue with their eaſe, they would needs take vp a cudgelling on their credits.

Occaſion trouve qui ſon chat bat: Pro. He that will beat his cat, inuents a cauſe for't.

Qui ueut batre ſon chien trouve aſſez de baſtons: Prov. (Almoſt of the ſame ſence; or as we ſay;) Tis an eaſie matter to find a ſtaffe to beat a dog withall.

Tel porte le baſton dont à ſon grand regret le bat on: Prov. Many a one carries about him a cudgell for his owne ſhoulders.

Bat-ſain. A rude allarum giuen to a whole countrey by ringing, and beating of pots, kettles, baſons, &c.

Battans d'un poiſſon. The gylls of a fiſh.

Batte: f. The boulſter of a Saddle.

Les battes d'une porte. as les Batans.

Battecul: m. A great linnen vaile, ſuch as Nunnes weare.

Batteler. To ingle, &c; as Baſteler.

Battelerie: f. as Baſtelerie.

Batteleſſifue: f. The little yellow water-wagtaile.

Battequeuë. The ſame.

Batterie: f. as Baterie; alſo, a Platforme for batterie.

Batteur. See Bateur.

Battier: m. A hackney, or hired iade.

Battre. Looke Batre.

Battu. Looke Baru.

Battue: f. A beating, or ſtroke with the feet, in a ſetled, and proportioned time; (a tearme of horſemanſhip.)

Batture: f. A ſtripe, a ſtroke; a beating.

Batture de bronze. The skales that flye from braſſe while it is hammered.

Battus. Looke Batus.

Batu: m. uë: f. Beaten; knocked, thwacked, bumped; ſwindged, belammed, cudgelled; alſo, battered; alſo, threſhed; alſo, churned.

Batu de mauvais vent. Vnfortunate, vnhappie, disgracefull; euer hindered, or crossed by one mischiefe or other.

Le batu paye l'amende. Looke Amende.

De telles verges ils sont tous batus. The same disease afflicts, or sickenesse infects, them all.

Autant pleure mal batu que bien batu: Pro. As much weepes he thats but sleightly, as he thats shrewdly, beaten; (whereunto agrees;)

Mal batu longuement pleure: Prov.

Tel menace qui est batu: Prov. One may threaten, and be well swindged whē he hath done; (we say, threatened folkes liue long.)

Batuë: f. as Battue.

Bature. A beating; stripe &c; as Batture; or, Batement.

Batus. An order of Friers, which in their nightly Processions whip their owne backes extreamely; (A sect of people bearing this name, and whipping themselues twice in the day, and once in the night, were driuen out of Germanie by Charles, sonne to the Emperor Henry the seuenth.)

Bau. La navire a tant de pieds de bau. The ship is so many foot broad, or wide.

Bau de bite. The forepike; the part of a ship wherein the Bitts are placed.

Bavard: m. A driueller, or slauerer; also, a babler; also, a flouter.

Bavarder. To driuell, or slauer; also, to bable; also, to scoffe, or flout at.

Bavardise: f. Slauering; also, a babling; also, a mockerie, gullerie, flout, or ieast.

Bavasse: f. An idle tale, vaine tatle, bible bable.

Bavasser. To prattle, tattle, bable, vse many words.

Baubance: f. Looke Bobance.

Baube. A pratler, babler, iangler, tatler.

Bauboyant. Parolle tremblante, & bauboyante; Faultring.

Bauc: m. A fot, asse, doult, dull-pated noddipeake, heauie-headed cokes, grosse-headed coxcombe.

Baucal, or Baucale: m. A glasse-violl, water-glasse, or cruze; (great bellied, long necked, and narrow mouthed.)

Bauch. as Bauc.

Bauche: f. A rew, ranke, lane, or course, of stones, or bricks, in building.

Baucher. To chip, hew, or square, timber, &c; also, to ranke, order, array; lay euenly.

Baucheron: m. A cleauer, chipper, or squarer of timber; he that doth the first work thats to be done vpon a piece of timber.

Baucie: f. The root of a Parsenip, or Carrot. (v.m.)

Baud: m. baude: f. Bold, insolent, impudent. (v.m.)

Baude: com. Merrie, blithe, iocond, iolly, cheerefull, glad, full of glee.

Baude-bite. Looke Bau.

Baudement. Merrily, iocondly, blithely, iollily, in all freedome, and fulnesse, of ioy.

Baudere d'une sallade. The beauer.

Baudet: m. An asse; or a tearme for an asse; whence, a blockhead, a sot, a doult, a dull fellow.

Baudiner. Two to ride vpon one asse, or horse; also, to teach, vnskilfully, one knowes not what; to do, any way, like an asse.

Baudir. To gladden, hearten, reioyce, exhilerate, cheere vp.

Baudoüinage. Asse-leatherie; th'act of generation performed by an asse.

Baudoüiner. To doe, leacher, or ingender, like an Asse.

Baudrayer. as Baudroyer.

Baudrayeur. as Baudroyeur; also, a belt, or baudricke, maker.

Baudrer. as Bailler. (v.m.)

Baudri. as Baudrier, substan.

Baudrié. Curried, and coloured, as a Cow-hide.

Baudrier: m. A hide, skin, or peece, of dressed, curried, and coloured Cowes leather; also, a belt, baudricke, or sword-girdle of that leather.

Baudrier. To dresse; currie, and colour, the hides of kine, &c; also, to make belts, or baudricks.

Baudroy: m. A rauenous, and ougly fish, called, the Sea-toad.

Baudroyer. To dresse, or currie leather, &c; as Baudrier.

Baudroyerie: f. (Th'art of) dressing, or currying of leather; also, baudrick-making; also, a place, or street, wherein curriers, or belt-makers, dwell.

Baudroyeur: m. A leather-dresser; a currier, and colourer of leather; also, a maker of belts, or baudricks.

Baudryeur. as Baudroyeur.

Bauds: m. A kind of white hounds; Looke Souilliard.

Bauduffle: f. The great rush wherewith poore houses are thatched; also, litter, or bedungued straw.

Bave: f. Foame, froath; slauer, driuell.

Baver. To foame, froath; slauer, driuell at the mouth; also, to famble, or falter in speaking; also, to toy, dally, trifle, ieast.

Baverelles: f. The players of a horses bitt.

Baverette: f. A bib, mocket, or mocketer to put before the bosome of a (slauering) child.

Baverette à babillons. The plate whereat a bitts players hang; the flap to hang the players at.

Baverie: f. A foaming, froathing, slauering, or driuelling at the mouth; also, a trifling, toying, ieasting; idle talking; flouting, mocking.

Baverole: f. A bib; as Baverette.

Baverotte. as Baverette.

Bavesche: f. The socket of a candlesticke, &c.

Bavette. as Baverette.

Baveur. as Bavard.

Baveuse: f. A certain skaleless fish, that couers her selfe when she lists with her owne foame.

Baveusement. Foamingly, slaueringly, froathily.

Baveux: m. euse: f. Froathie, foamie, foaming.

Plus baveux qu'un pot à mousterde. We say, foaming at the mouth like a boare.

Bauffrer. To rauine, deuour, eat greedily.

Bauffreur: m. A rauener, deuourer, glutton, greedie feeder.

Bauffreure: f. A rauening, deuouring, greedie feeding.

Apres les premieres baffreures. After the first bits greedily let down; or, after we had stayed our stomacks with a snatch or two.

Bauffroy: m. A watch-tower; or, as Beffroy.

Bauge: m. Dawbing, or morter, made of clay, and straw; also, a heape of durt, or of mud; also, a Slough; or, the place wherein a wild bore hath wallowed, or lien.

Retirer les hommes des bauges. To withdraw men from sensualitie, beastly liuing, or filthie humors.

Baugeart: m. A scowndrell; a scuruie, or beastly companion.

Baviere: f. A bib, &c; as Baverette; also, a Germane Dukedome, called Baveere.

Baviere d'un armet. The beauer of a helmet.

Faire

Faire le voyage de Baviere. To get the Pockes; or, to trauell for them.
Bauldrier. as Baudrier.
Bauldrieur. Looke Baudrieur.
Bauldroy: m. The sea-toad, or diuell of the sea; an ougly, and rauenous fish.
Baulme: m. Baulme; also, Balme-mint, Speare-mint, Garden-mint.
Baulme crespu. Crispe balme, crosse mint, curled mint.
Baulme sauvage. Horse-mint, wild mints, water-mints.
Baulme: m. Baulme, or Balsamum. Looke Basme.
Baulme de Iesus Christ. An excellent balme, made of the best oyle, and old wine.
Bois de baulme. The sweet wood of the Balsame tree.
Baume: m. as Baulme.
Baume: f. A hole, denne, caue, grot.
Bavois: m. A Table, or Paper, containing th' estimate of the rights of Seigneuriage, Foiblage, and Brassage, according to the seuerall rates of gold, siluer, and bullion, then currant, or made currant by the kings Ordinances.
Bavoler. To wag, wauer; flicker, or flye low, like a gnat in Vintage time.
Bavolet: m. A Billiment, or head-attire, worne by the women of Picardie; also, a Shittle-cocke.
Bavoleté. Chambriere bavoletée. A shittle-braind, or giddie-headed wench; also, one that weares a Bavolet.
Bavon: m. A bib, mocket, or mocketer, for the bosome of a slauering child, &c.
Bavouer. as Bavois.
Bauracineux: m. euse: f. Salt; or clammie; (from the minerall Borax; which the Arabians tearme Baurach.)
Baus: m. as Bauds; also, the beames, or floore-timbers, of a ship; the great pieces of timber that lye from side to side, within the Hould.
Bausme: m. The Baulme tree, or Balsame tree; also, Baulme it selfe; Looke Baulme.
Bausouins: m. Streamers (in ships, &c.)
Baut: m. Baude: f. as Baude; iocond, merrie, blithe.
Bay: m. Baye: f. Bay, of colour.
Le bay à miroir. A bright-dapled bay.
Bayard: m. A man that gapes, or gazes earnestly at a thing; a flye-catcher, a greedie and vnmannerly beholder.
Bayarde: f. A woman that earnestly beholds, greedily eyes, eagerly lookes, and in looking gapes, at a thing; a gazing housewife.
Bayart: m. as Bayard; also, a basket, or dosser, vsed for the carrying of earth, and fastened, for the same purpose, about the necke with two leatherne thongs.
Bayart: m. arde: f. as Bay, (whence wee also tearme a bay horse, a bayard.)
Baybaye: f. A scornefull moe, or mouth made.
Baye: f. A lye, fib, foist, gull, rapper; a cosening tricke, or tale; also, a berrie; also, the cloth called Bayes; also, a bay of land.
Repaistre de bayes. Looke Repaistre.
Bayer. To gape, or open the mouth very wide; also, to stand gaping, and gazing about, as home-bred boidons doe when they come into an honourable presence; (hence) also, to behold wistly; also, to couet greedily, eagerly to gape after; Looke Béer.
Bayeul: m. as Bahu; a Trunke.
Bayeure: f. A gaping, or yawning; a holding, or setting of the mouth wide open.
Bayle: m. as Bailli, or as Baile; a Bayliffe. ¶Gasc.
Bayonnette: f. A kind of small flat pocket-dagger, furnished with kniues; or a great knife to hang at the girdle, like a dagger.
Bayonnier. as Arbalestier. (an old word.)
Bazane: f. Sheepes leather dressed like Spanish leather, and coloured red, greene, or yellow, &c, for shoes, or the couerings of bookes.
Bazaner. as Besanner; also, to blot, staine, or besmeare, (as with blacking;) to bleake, to beduske.
Se bazaner. To wax bleake, tawnie, swart, blackish.
Bazanne. as Bazane.
Bazaveresque: f. The name of a delicate Italian Peare thats ripe in August.
Baze: f. A Basis, or Base; the ground, foundation, root, or foot of a thing; Looke Base.
Bazenne. as Bazane.
Bazette. Toile baz. (Linnen) cloth which is but halfe white, or hath not beene throughly whitened.
Bazilles: f. Rocke Sampire, Crestmarine.
Bazoche. Looke Basoche.
Beant: m. ante: f. Gaping, opening the mouth wide; also, gazing wistly, vnmannerly, or affectionately at.
Bearn. A Prouince of Aquitaine, seated at the root, or foot, of the Pyrenean mountaines.
Cape de Bearn. See Cape.
C'est la loy du pays de Bearn que le batu paye l'amende: Prov. The custome of Bearne is, that he thats beaten shall pay for the bloudwipe.
Beat: m. ate: f. Happie, blessed, holy, sacred; perfect; excellent.
Beat pere. as Beaupere.
Habit de beat; ongles de chat: Prov. A wolfe in a sheepes skin.
Beatifié: m. ée: f. Beatified; made blessed.
Beatifier. To beatifie; to make blessed, sacred, or happie.
Beatiles: f. as Beatilles.
Beatilles: f. Trinkets, or vaine toyes, wherewith finicall people decke themselues; trifles, nifles, odde attires; also, women of a low stature.
Beatitude: f. Beatitude, blessednesse, happinesse, felicitie, fulnesse of perfection, perfect goodnesse, or tranquilitie.
Beau: m. as Beauté; (whence;)
Quand beau vient sur beau, beau perd sa beauté: Prov. Beautie set off by beautie lookes beastly; or, beautie vsed as a foyle to beautie soyles it.
Beau: m. belle: f. Beautious, faire, beautifull; seemely, comely; proper, handsome, gracefull; of a goodly presence, of a sweet aspect, of a pleasing dye, or hue.
Belle dame. A kind of Dwale, or sleeping Night-shade.
Tout beau. Take you leisure, soft and faire, not too fast; hold there hoe; ynough's as good as a feast.
A beau ieu bel argent. Round play, in good earnest, in good proportion; to good purpose; or, one for another; as in;
A beau ieu beau retour. A tit for a tat, a tut for a tush, as good euery whit as was brought.
I'ay beau attendre. I stay to much purpose; here's goodly tarrying sure; I shall but loose my labor, how long soeuer I tarrie.
Il a beau faire chois de. He hath good leaue to chuse.
Il a beau se leuer tard. He may lye long ynough; he may get vp as late as he will. Seeke Leuer.
Ils l'avoyent beau flatter. They were glad, or faine, they held it their best course, to flatter him.

Baillez

Baillez luy belle. Goodly betide him; some bodie spit in his mouth, for now he hath hit it sure.

Il luy l'a baillé belle. He hath sold him a bargaine, he hath giuen him the boots, a gleeke, or gudgeon.

Il l'avoit failli belle. He scaped faire, or missed it narrowly; he was very neere it, he was very like to haue had, or hit, it.

Beau chanter souvent enuye: Prov. Sweet singing often loathes us.

Belle chere &c. Looke Chere.

Belle chose est tost ravie: Pro. A goodly thing is quickly snatched up.

Belle femme mauvaise teste: Pro. Faire women either curst, or cruell, be.

Les beaux hommes au gibet: Pro. The gibbet makes an end of proper men.

Petites pucelles sont ensemble belles: Prov. Looke Pucelle.

Qui viét est beau, qui apporte encores plus beau: Prov. No man's esteemd so faire as he that comes full-handed.

Beaucoup. Much, greatly, a great deale; also, many.

Beaucoup offrir à vn qui peu demande, c'est luy nier tout à plat sa demande: Prov. To offer much to him that asketh little, is flatly to denie him the little he asketh.

Trois beaucoup, & trois peu destruisent l'homme: Pro. viz. To speake much, and know but little; to spend much, and haue but little; to presume vpon much, and deserue but little.

Beau-fils: m. A step-sonne, or sonne in law; Seeke Fils.

Beau-frere: m. A brother in law.

Beau-pere: m. The title of a Frier which is a Confessor; also, a father in law; also, a father that hath bestowed all his children in mariage.

Beaupré. The sprit-sayle of a ship.

Beauregard: m. A Summer house, or Graunge; a house for pleasure, and recreation.

Beauté: f. Beautie, faireness, sweetnesse of fauor; comelinesse, goodlinesse, gracefulnesse.

Beauté Grecque. See Grec.

Beauté sans bonté est comme vin esventé: Prov. Beautie without goodnesse is like wine that hath taken wind.

Beauté de femme fascheux resveille-matin: Prov. A (wanton) womans beautie breeds a restlesse morning.

Beauté & folie vont souvent de compaigne: Prov. Beautie and folly are often matcht together.

Fy de ieunesse, & de beauté desgarnie d' humilité: Pro. Looke Fy.

Quand beau vient sur beau beau perd sa beauté: Pro. Beautie layed on beautie lookes beastly.

Beauvois. The name of a fruitfull red Vine.

Bec: m. The beake, or bill of a bird, &c; also, a Point of land at which two riuers meet.

Bec à broüet. A little pratling peart girle; a prattle-basket.

Bec d'Asne. A toole belonging to a Mason.

Bec de Cane. A kind of Pinsers, made like a duckes beake; and toothed within to hold a bullet (for the drawing out whereof it is vsed) the more firmely; See Cane.

Souliers à bec de cane. Old-fashioned shoes hauing long peakes, like beakes, sticking out for their toe-peece.

Bec de Cicoigne. The hearb Storks-bill, Pink-needle, Cranes bill, Hearons bill.

Bec de Corbin. A Pensioners halberd, or pollax; also, a Surgeons toole made like the beake of that bird; also, the anterior production of the shoulder blade; so tearmed by some Anatomists.

Bec de cigne. A Swans-bill; a Pinser, or Instrument, wherewith Surgeons pull bullets, &c, out of the bodie.

Bec de faulcon. A fashion of Pollax borne by the Peeres of France, and by the French kings Pensioners; Looke Faulcon.

Bec de grue. as Bec de Cicoigne; also, a Surgeons toole made like a Cranes bill.

Bec iaulne. See Bejaune.

Bec de la lampe; The socket, or snuffe of the lampe.

Bec large. as Bec de Cane.

Bec de lezard. An instrument wherewith Surgeons draw out bullets, and the splents of bones.

Bec de lieure. An vpper lip cleft vp to the nose.

Bec d'oye. Wild tansie, siluer weed; also, the Porpoise, or Sea-hog.

Bec de perroquet. A Parrats beake; a Pinser which opens, and shuts with a Vice; and serues to pull splints of bones, and other hard things, out of the bodie.

Coup de bec. A peck, bob, iob, or stroke with the beake of an angrie bird; and (metaphorically) a flout, scoffe, gird, nip, cut; also, a mischiefe, iniurie, or ill turne, done; also, a kisse.

Oiseau de bec. A Parasite, or Buffoone.

Tour de bec. A kisse; also, a word of the mouth.

Avoir bon bec. To speake discreetly, answere warily, aduisedly, or cunningly.

Avoir le bec gelé. To be tongue-tyed, silent, husht, as if his lips were frosen together.

Elles n'ont que le bec. They are all tongue, they can doe nought but prate, bable, tatle; or, they are but a little snout-faire, all their rest is not worth looking at.

Il a bien d'autre paille au bec. There's other kind of stuffe in him; he is another manner of man, then you thinke of.

Faillir par le bec. sa cause ne faillira par le bec. His matter will not be lost for want of words.

Faire le bec à vn. To teach one before hand what he shall say.

Il luy passa la plume par le bec. He drew his penne through his lips; he baffled, rid, gulled, abused him.

Tenir le bec en l'eau. To dally with; to delay, amuse, or hold in suspence.

Il n'a pas tenu le bec en l' eau. A man may safely say, he is drunke; but he that sayes, with water, wrongs him.

Becasse: f. A Woodcocke; See Beccasse.

Becasseau, Becassine, & Becasson. A Snite, or Snipe.

Beccane. A kind of blacke grape which yeeldeth an excellent wine.

Beccard. The female Salmon.

Beccasse: f. A Woodcocke.

Beccasse de mer. The sea Pie; also, a kind of fish.

Beccasse petite. A Snite, or Snipe.

Beccassé: m. ée: f. Gulled, abused, woodcockised, made a woodcocke.

Beccasseau: m. A Snite; also, a little Woodcocke.

Beccassine: f. as Beccasseau; a Snite, or Snipe.

Beccasson: m. The same.

Beccu: m. ue: f. Beaked; hauing a beake; beake-like; sharpe, or hooked, as a birds bill.

Addition beccuë. The elbow; tearmed so by some Anatomists.

Bec-

Beccuſſe: f. A tumult, vprore, hurrie, hurliburly.
Becdaſſe. ¶Rab. as Beccaſſe.
Becdoye. A Dolphin.
Becfigue. The daintie little bird, called by ſome, a Gnat-ſnapper, or Fig-eater; (I rather thinke, that wanting the bird, as we doe, we want alſo a name for it.)
Beche: f. An inſtrument of Husbandrie, &c, hauing a crooked, or in-bending, and beake-like, head; and vſed for the opening, or breaking vp, of hard, or ſtony ground, whereinto the Beſche (or ſpade) cannot enter.
Bechebois: m. A Speight, or Wood-picker.
Bechée: f. A beake-full, or bill-full of; alſo, the pecking of an angrie bird.
Becher. as Beſcher.
Bechet. as Brochet; A Pike-fiſh.
Bechevet. teſte à teſte Bechevet. The play with pins, called, heads, and points; alſo, the lying of two in a bed, the one right, the other with his head at the feet; See Beſchevet.
Becheur. as Beſcheur.
Bechique: f. A medicine for the Cough.
Bechiſtre. A tempeſt, or ſtorme.
Bechu: m. uë: f. Beaked; hauing a beake, like a bird, hooked, or ſharpe, as a beake.
Bechus. A kind of deformed thing in the ſea, thats neither fiſh, nor plant, yet ſeemes to moue of it ſelfe. ¶Langued.
Becquade: f. A pecke, iob, or bob with a beake.
Becque: f. A ditch, or trench made vpon the high way; (alſo, as Beche. ¶Norm.)
Becqué. Beaked; a tearme of Heraldrie.
Becquebo. A Woodpecker, or Highaw.
Becquée. as Bechée.
Becquefigue. as Becfique.
Becquer. To pecke, or bob with the beake.
Becquet. The name of an apple thats good to be eaten raw; alſo, a Pike (fiſh); Looke Bequet.
Becquetant: m. ante: f. Pecking, as a bird; alſo, nodding with the head; alſo, playing, or checking, like a horſe, with the mouth.
Faim becquetante. Biting, or pricking, hunger.
Becqueté: m. ée: f. Pecked, or iobbed at.
Becquetement: m. A pecking; alſo, a nodding; alſo, a checking with the mouth.
Becqueter. To pecke, like a bird; alſo, to nod with the head; alſo, a horſe to play, or checke with the mouth.
Becquillon: m. A little beake, or bill.
Becu. as Bechu.
Bedacier: m. ere: f. Beadle-like; of, or belonging to, a Beadle.
Bedaine: f. A ſhort barre of ſteele, or of yron; alſo, a forked arrow for a Croſſe-bow; alſo, ill lucke; alſo, a fat guts, or gorbellie; alſo, the belly; and hence;
Prendre bedaine ſur la plaine. To take the meaſure of his belly on the ground; or, to fall on his belly.
Bedat. bois b.ou vedat. An incloſed wood; a wood that lyes not open, or, is not common.
Bedaud: m. A fedle, minion, fauourite; a dilling, or darling.
Mon petit bedaud. My pretie ape, my little bullie.
Bedeau: m. A Beadle; a Verger; alſo, (in Normandie, and other places) an vnder Bayliffe, or yeoman to a Sergeant; or Catchpole inferior to the Sergeant.
Bedegar: m. Our Ladies thiſtle.
Bedengue. A certaine apple, that yeelds moſt excellent cyder.
Bedier: m. A doult, ſot, cokes, ninnie, noddie.
Deniers avancent les bediers: Prov. Money aduanceth Meacockes.
Bedon: m. A Tabret; alſo, the belly.
Mon bedon. My pretie rogue, my ſweet bully.
Ce que dit le bedon, a de credit ſon: Prov. The belly muſt alſo be liſtned vnto; the appetite beares great ſway in all humane actions.
Bedondaine: f. That part of the belly which is between the nauell, and priuities.
Bedonner. To play vpon a taber.
Bedoual. as Bedouau.
Bedouau. A young Brocke, or Badger; alſo, a ſea-cob, or ſea-gull.
Bedoue. A Gray, Brocke, Boſon, Badger.
Bée: f. The bleating of a ſheepe; alſo, a hole, ouerture, or opening, in the wall, or other part, of a houſe &c.
Bée. gueule bée. Gaping, with an open mouth.
Beelant. A ſheepe. ¶Barr.
Beellement: m. A bleating; or, the crie of a ſheepe.
Beeller. To bleat, or crie, like a ſheepe.
Beement: m. A gaping.
Been: m. An Arabian Plant, of two kinds, viz. a white, and a red one; (which difference is bred onely by their roots.)
Been blanc. The white (Arabian) Bene; Some of our moderne Herballiſts call frothie Poppie, or ſpatling Poppie, white Bene.
Been rouge. The red (Arabian) Bene; the ſame Herballiſts call, red Valerian, or Cow-baſill; and others, Limeworte, or Catch-flye, red Bene; all improperly.
Béer. To gape, or open the mouth very wide; Looke Bayer.
Béer contre vn four. is, in effect, as much as, To halt before a criple, or ſpeake Latine before clerkes.
Beffé: m. ée: f. Deceiued, mocked, gulled.
Beffler. To deceiue, mocke, or gull, with faire words, &c.
Beffleries: f. Fooleries, mockeries, gudgeons, gulleries.
Beffroy: m. A Beacon, or, a Watch-tower, from which things may be diſcerned farre off; alſo, an Allarum bell; alſo, a ſuddaine feare; alſo, a place wherein wild beaſts are kept; Looke Baffroy.
Begauder. To loyter.
Begayement: m. A fambling, or maffling in the mouth; and (moſt properly) the imperfect pronunciation of a child, that begins, or but learnes, to ſpeake.
Beguayer. To famble, fumble, maffle in the mouth; to ſpeake imperfectly, or, as a child, that but begins to ſpeake.
Begude: f. A Cote, Cottage, thatched ſhed, or ſhelter.
Begue: f. A Sea-mew.
Begue: com. Fambling, fumbling, maffling in the mouth; imperfectly, or childiſhly, ſpeaking.
Navire begue. A ſhip whoſe ſtemme, beake, or noſe is pointed with yron, or braſſe.
Beguée: m. as Beguer.
Beguef: m. A Sergeant, or Officer, that executes the Commaundements giuen, and Commiſſions ſent out, by the publicke Magiſtrate. ¶Bearnois.
Begueyement. as Begayement.
Begueyer. as Beguayer.
Beguin: m. A Biggin for a child.
Beguines: f. An Order of Nunnes, or religious women, who commonly be all old, or well in yeares.
Beguiner. To put on a Biggin.
Beguoyement. as Begayement.
Behen. A very cordiall root; of two ſorts; white, and red; Looke Ben.
Behiſtre. A horrible ſtorme, or tempeſt in the aire. ¶Pic.

Behiſtreux: m. euſe: f. Tempeſtuous, raging, ſtormie.
Behourd: m. A Iuſte, or Tourney of many together with launces, and battleaxes; alſo, a buſtling, or bluſtering noyſe.
Behourdir. To iuſt together with launces, &c, to make a buſtling, or bluſtering noiſe.
Behourdis: m. A buſtling, rombling, iuſting of many men together; alſo, a bluſtering of winds.
Feu de behourdis. A bone-fire.
Bejaunage: m. Simplicitie, want of experience, lacke of knowledge, vnskilfulneſſe; doltiſhneſſe, ſottiſhneſſe.
Bejaune: m. A nouice; a late prentiſe to, or yong beginner in, a Trade, or Art; alſo, a ſimple, ignorant, vnexperienced, Aſſe; a rude, vnfaſhioned, home-bred hoydon; a ſot, ninnie, doult, noddie; one thats blankt, and hath nought to ſay, when hee hath moſt need to ſpeake.
Payer ſon bejaune. To pay his welcome; a fee exacted, by ſchollers, of ſuch as are newly admitted into their ſocietie.
Bejaunerie: f. as Bejaunage.
Bejauniſe: f. Simplicitie, young ignorance, vnskilfulneſſe, want of experience; ſottiſhneſſe, doltiſhneſſe.
Beignet; Corruptly, for Bignet. ¶Rab.
Beille. as Begue.
Beillottes: f. Akornes; or, Oake-apples.
Beiſle: m. Th' Orelop, or vnder-hatches, of a ſhip.
Bel: m. belle: f. Faire &c; as Beau.
Belaud. as Bedaud; or, a fedle, minion, fauourite.
Belenne. A certaine little, skale-leſſe, great-headed, ſmall-mouthed, and ſharpe-beaked, fiſh of the Mediterranean, or Grecian ſea; and there but rare; in our ſea neuer ſeene.
Beler. as Beeller. To blayte.
Beleter. as Beeller.
Belette: f. A Weeſill.
Belette Iſtide. Authors agree not what beaſt this is; The old ones, and moſt of their interpretors hold it to be the Ferret; others, a Fitch, or Fullmart; others (leaſt probably) an Otter, or water Weeſill.
Beliard: m. A Ramme.
Belic. A kind of red, or gueules, in Blazon.
Belier: m. A Ramme; alſo, th' ancient Engine of batterie ſo called.
Belier marin. The ſea Ramme; a great, and rauenous fiſh, enemie to fiſhermen.
Beliers d'un preſſoüer. The branches; the two greateſt beames of a Preſſe.
Chiches de belier. Rammes Citches, blacke Citches.
Couille de belier. A ball made of a Rammes cod.
Belin. as Belier. A Ramme.
Maſcher en belin. To mumble, as one that wants teeth.
Beliné: m. ée: f. Rammed; alſo, coſened, beguiled, gulled.
Beliner. To ramme; alſo, to coſen, beguile, deceiue, gull.
Belinge: m. as Tiretaine. ¶Norm.
Beliſtraille: f. A crue of beggars; a baſe, or beggarly crue.
Beliſtre: m. A beggar, vagabond, ſcowndrell, ragamuffian, poore knaue, needie rogue.
Beliſtreau: m. A little, or young beggar.
Beliſtréement. Beggarly, beggingly, baſely, vagabondlike.
Beliſtrer. To beg from dore to dore; to play the beggar, or baſe fellow.
Beliſtrerie: f. Begging, beggarie, beggarlineſſe; alſo, a leud, baſe, or filthie act; alſo, a thing of little, or no worth.
Beliſtreſſe: f. A woman Beggar; a Doxie, Morte, baſe Queane.
Belitreſſe. (Adiectiuely) begging, importunate, beggarlike, or beggarly.
Belitraille. as Beliſtraille.
Belitre. as Beliſtre; a beggar; &c.
Belitrer. as Beliſtrer; to beg; &c.
Belitrerie. as Beliſtrerie.
Bellaſtre: com. Fairiſh, reaſonably faire, paſſable, ſoſo, ſomewhat like.
Bellateur: m. A Warrior; a profeſſed Souldier.
Bellatrice: f. A Virago, or Warrioreſſe.
Belle. The feminine of Bel, or of Beau; Looke Beau.
Belle-dame. Great Nightſhade; or, a kind of Dwale, or ſleeping Nightſhade.
Belle-fille: f. A ſtep-daughter; (Locke Fille;) alſo, the name of a certaine great, and white ſweet apple.
Bellement. Fairely, beautifully; alſo, ſoftly, gently, eaſily, at leiſure, by little and little.
Belle-mere: f. A ſtep-mother, or (moſt properly) a mother in law; as, the wiues mother, in regard of the husband, &c.
Belleque: f. A Coot.
Bellette. as Belette.
Bellettement. Pretily; alſo, faire and ſoftly; at leiſure, by little and little.
Belle-videre. The flower called Blew bells; or, as Belvedere.
Bellic. as Belic.
Bellin. as Belin.
Belliqueuſement. Martially, warlikely; warfaringly.
Belliqueux: m. euſe: f. Warlike, martiall, valorous, full of proweſſe, valiant in armes; warfaring, fit for warre.
Belliric: m. A round Mirabolan plumme, ſomewhat leſſe then the Chebule.
Belliſtrandie: f. Beggarie, vagabondrie, roguerie.
Belliſtrandier: m. A beggar, a great needie rogue.
Bellocier. A Bullace tree, or wild Plum-tree.
Bellot: m. otte: f. Prettie, iolly, ſomewhat faire, neat, handſome.
Ma Bellotte. My prettie Pigsnie.
Belluge: f. as Belugue.
Belotte. as Belette. A Weeſill.
Belouze: f. The lower hazard in a Tenis-court.
Belvedere. A certaine ſhrub which growes to a mans height, in the proportion of a faire tree, full of pleaſant greene boughes reſembling branches of Hyſope; it may very well be Broome tode flax, which by Italians is called, Belvidere.
Belugue: f. A ſparke, or ſparkle of fire; (Provenç.) alſo, as Milan marin.
Beluſteau: m. A boulter, or boulting cloth.
Belutage: m. A ſifting, or boulting of meale.
Beluteau: m. A boulter, or boulting cloth.
Belutement. as Belutage.
Beluter. To boult; alſo, to ſwiue.
Belzoin. as Aſſe douce; or, as Benjoin.
Bemol. B flat; (a tearme of Muſicke;) Seeke B.
Ben. (of one ſyllable) an aromaticall nut, or akorne, whereof the Perfumers oyle of Benne is made; ſome call it, the oylie Akorne.
Be'n. (of two ſyllables) a certaine Arabian Plant, of two kinds, the one bearing a white, the other a red root; both vſed, and held very cordiall; ſome (improperly) call ſpatling, or frothie Poppie, white Bene; and red Valerian, Valerian, or red cow-Basill, Behenrubrum; See Been.

Benarric. The little black-headed bird called, a Gnat-snapper.

Bende; Bendelette. See Bande & Bandelette.

Bender. as Bander.

Bene. A measure of coales, worth about three sous.

Benedict: m. te: f. Blist, happie, blessed.

Huile benedict. Oyle extracted by distillation from tyles, or brickes, which haue beene steeped some time in very old oyle.

Benediction: f. A benediction, benison, blessing; a wishing of all good lucke vnto.

Benefice: m. A benefit, fauour, pleasure, good office, good turne; also, a Benefice; also, a Prize, or Billet in a Lotterie; (in old time a fief was also called, Benefice.)

Benefice à simple tonsure. The place of a Prebend, or Canon; any Benefice, or spirituall liuing, that is without a charge of soules.

Beneficence: f. Liberalitie, bountie, beneficence, pleasure-doing.

Beneficial: m. ale: f. Belonging to a Benefice.

Beneficié. An Incumbent, or beneficed man; one that hath a Benefice.

Beneficience: f. Beneficence, liberalitie; a bestowing of fauours, a conferring of benefits, a doing of pleasure any way.

Beneficier: m. as Beneficié.

Beneficier. To giue a Benefice; also, to conferre benefits, bestow fauors, doe pleasures, good offices, good turnes.

Benest. as Benet.

Benestier: m. A holy-water pot, or stocke.

Benet: m. A simple, plaine, doltish fellow; a noddipeake, a ninnyhammer, a pea-goose, a coxe, a sillie companion.

Benevole: com. Well-willing, friendly, kind, gracious, fauourable; gentle, courteous.

Benevolence: f. A well-willing, or good will; a fauour, kindnesse, beneuolence.

Benict: m. icte: f. Blessed, holy, blissefull; See Benist.

Benignement. benignely, gently, courteously, fauourably, graciously, kindly; liberally, bountifully.

Benigneté: f. Benignitie, humanitie, gentlenesse, courtesie, grace, fauour, kindnesse, bountie, goodnesse.

Bening: m. Benigne: f. Benigne, gentle, courteous, gracious, fauourable, kind, good, liberall, bountifull.

Benjoin: m. The aromaticall gumme, called Benjamin, or Benzoin.

Benjoin francois. The hearbe Maisterworte, or false Pellitorie of Spaine.

Benir. To blesse; to wish well vnto.

Benir la table. To say grace.

Benisson. A blessing, or benison.

Benist: m. Beniste: f. Holy, blessed.

Eau beniste de Cave. Good drinke.

Eau beniste de Cour. Good words. Looke Eau.

Pain benist. Holy bread. Looke Pain.

Benistre. as Benir.

Benne: f. A Binne; or, as Banne; also, a great sacke for corne, or coales; also, the head, or horns of a Stag.

Bennel: m. A Tumbrell, or close cart; a dung-cart, or dung-pot.

Bennerie: f. Base, or low iurisdiction (called so in old time.)

Benoict: m. Bennet (a mans name;) also, as Benet.

Benoict: m. cte: f. Looke Benist.

Benoicte: f. Hearbe Auens, Bennet, or blessed.

Benoist. as Benet, & as Benoict.

Benoistier: m. A holy-water pot, or stocke.

Benoitte. as Benoicte.

Benzoin. as Benjoin.

Bequarre, b, sharpe, (a terme of Musicke.)

Beque: f. A sea-cob, or Sea-gull.

Bequée. as Bechée.

Bequebo: m. A wood-pecker, or highawe. Pic.

Bequenauld: m. A prattle-basket; a prating boy.

Bequenaulde: f. A pratling girle.

Bequer. as Becquer.

Bequeru: m. A weeuell, or little blacke, and corne-deuouring vermine.

Bequerut. A kinde of Oliue.

Bequet: m. The fish called a pike; also, the name of a sowrish aple; as Becquet.

Bequet de mer. A daintie, little, and long-nosed rock-fish; not very common, nor aboue sixe fingers long.

Bequilles: f. Crutches, for lame persons.

Bequillon: m. A little beake, or bill of a bird, &c.

Bequu. as Bechu.

Ber. An old word, signifying as much as, haut Seigneur; or Baron, also, as Berceau; a cradle; and, hence;

Apprins au ber dure iusques au ver: Pro. Men loose not till they dye the dy their youth sets on them.

Berangene: f. A certaine Spanish fruict, that resembles a peare, and growes neere the ground like a Melon.

Berberis. The barberie tree.

Bercail: m. A flocke, as of sheep, &c.

Bercé: m. ée: f. Rocked, shogged, or wagged vp and downe, as in a cradle.

Ie suis tout bercé de cela. I am throughly acquainted with that; Looke, Berse.

Berceau: m. A cradle; also, an arbor, or bower in a garden; also, a case of tinne, wood, barke, &c; wherein a broken member is incloséd, thereby to repose it, and keep it in the iust forme which it hath pleased the Surgeon to giue it.

Bercement: m. A rocking; shogging, swinging.

Bercer. To rocke in a cradle, also, to shog, or swing; See Berser.

Berche: f. The peece of ordnance called, a Base.

Bercherie: f. Prouision, or Store, of Bases (in a ship.)

Berchot: m. The little wrenne; our Ladies henne.

Berdin: m. The shell-fish called, a Lympyne, or a Lempet.

Berée: f. A spinke, sheldaple, chaffinch.

Bergamasque. Il boucle sa feme à la Bergamasque. As the (Italian) Bergamasks, who buckle vp their wiues &c. with a deuice like a trusse for a burst man.

Bergamotte: f. A yellow peare with a hard rind, good for perrie; also, the delicate Italian small peare called, the Bergamotte peare.

Berger: m. A shepheard.

Bourse de berger; as Malette de berger.

Malette de berger. The herbe shepheards purse, shepheards scrip, picke-purse, toywood, coosewed, or caseweed.

Verge à berger. The tazle, or fullers thistle; also, water plantaine.

Vn berger à peu de bruit gardant les brebis à la Lune. sayd, of one that hangs in chaynes.

Bergere: f. A Shepheardesse.

Bergerette: f. A drinke made of old hard wine, and honnie.

Bergerie: f. A ſheepe-fold, ſheepe-coat, or ſheepe-houſe; alſo, the skill, or trade, of keeping, feeding, and graſing of ſheepe.
Bergerolle: f. A young ſhepheardeſſe.
Bergeronnette: f. The little bird called a Wagtaile; alſo, a young, or little, ſhepheardeſſe.
Bergerotte. as Bergerolle. A young ſhepheardeſſe.
Bergier. as Berger.
Bergiere: f. A ſhepheardeſſe.
Berichot. as Berchot. A Wren.
Bericles. Corruptly for Beſycles. A paire of ſpectacles. ¶Rab.
Beril. as Berille.
Berille: m. A Berill; a ſix-ſquare precious ſtone, of an oylie, or ſea-greene, colour.
Berlaffe: f. A ſlaſh, gaſh, deepe cut, great wound.
Berlaffé: m. ée: f. Slaſhed, gaſhed, wounded extreamely.
Berlaffer. To ſlaſh, gaſh, wound extreamely.
Berlan: m. A common tipling houſe; a houſe of gaming, or of any other diſorder.
Compaignons du berlan. Pot-companions, ale-knights; diſordered vnthrifts; a knot of idle, and graceleſſe fellowes, that, ouer a pot, vſe to cenſure, and deride all Eſtates.
Berlandier. An ordinarie haunter of dicing, or tipling houſes; alſo, the keeper, or owner, of one of them.
Berle: f. The great water Parſenip, great water Parſely, or ſalade Parſely; called alſo, Belders, and Bell-rags.
Berlin. as Berdin.
Berlingaſſe: f. A peece of coyne worth about vj. d. ſterling.
Berlingue. as Berlingaſſe.
Berlong. as Barlong.
Berluë: f. The being ſand-blind, or purblind; dulneſſe, or dimneſſe of ſight.
Berlué. Purblinded, made ſand-blind.
Berluement: m, Purblindneſſe; or, as Berluë.
Berluquer. To triſle out the time (a word ſometimes vſed at Play.)
Bernadet: m. A kind of ſmall-headed, great-eyed, wide-mouthed, rough and thick-skinned, dog-fiſh.
Bernage: m. The carriage, prouiſion, houſehold-ſtuffe, equipage, furniture, traine, followers of a princes court, or campe; alſo, the neceſſarie carriage, baggage, or luggage belonging to an armie, or any other companie; alſo, noblenеſſe, courteſie, gallantnes of humor, open-heartedneſſe; alſo, Meſlin, or ſeuerall ſorts of corne mingled; whence;
Bled bernage; Looke Bled.
Bernagoë: f. A Carpenters Wimble, or Dible.
Bernaque. The foule called a Barnacle.
Bernard. A proper name; Bernard; alſo, a light-braind, or ſhittle-headed fellow.
Bernard l'hermite. A kind of ſmall, and (of it ſelfe) naked Crabfiſh, or Crayfiſh; as Branchuë.
Paſſer par l'arc S. Bernard. To beray himſelfe.
Berne: f. A Siue, or Vanne; alſo, a great kettle; alſo, a kind of Mooriſh garment, or ſuch a mantle as Iriſh gentlewomen weare.
Berné: m. ée: f. Vanned, or winnowed, as corne; alſo, canuaſſed, or toſſed in a Siue; alſo, mocked, flouted, ridden, abuſed, ieaſted at.
Il a eſté berné. He hath beene ſoundly toſſed, throughly canuaſſed; (a phraſe moſt commonly applied to an ignorant, or dull-headed fellow, that hath prouoked a learned penne, or tongue, to fall aboord him.)
Berner. To vanne, or winnow corne; alſo, to canuaſſe, or toſſe in a ſiue; (a puniſhment inflicted on ſuch as commit groſſe abſurdities;) alſo, to flout, mocke, deride, ride, abuſe, ieaſt, ſcoffe at.
Bernie: f. Rug; alſo, a mantle thereof.
Berretin: m. A little cap, or bonnet.
Berröette: f. A Wheelebarrow.
Bers. as Ber (vieil mot) or, as Berceau; ¶Vandom.
Bers de chariot. The ſides, rackes, or rayles of a chariot, or waggon.
Berſaut: m. A Quintaine, or Whintaine, for countrey youths to run at.
Berſé. Rocked in a cradle; Seeke Bercé.
Il l'a ſi longuement berſé qu'il l'a endormy en ſon opinion. He hath by his faire words, and long perſuaſions, layed aſleepe his iudgement, and woon him to be of his opinion.
Berſeau. A little cradle; or as Berceau.
Berſer. To rocke, in a cradle; to ſhog, or ſwing vp and downe.
La teſte luy berſe en gondolle. His head totters like a boat in a ſtorme.
Bertaudé: m. ée: f. Curtalled; alſo, notched, or cut vneuenly.
Bertauder. To curtall a horſe; to cut off his eares and taile; alſo, to notch, or cut the haire vneuenly.
Berthe: f. The name of a French queene, which was an excellent houſewife; whence the Prouerbe,
Au temps paſſé Berthe filoit. The greateſt women did in old time ſpin.
Bertonneau. A Bret, or Turbot. ¶Norm.
Bertouder, or Bertourder. as Bertauder.
Bertouſer. The ſame.
Bertrand: m. Bertrand (a proper name for a man.)
Os Bertrand. The ſhare-bone; or, the coniunction of the great bones which flanke the ſides, and whereunto the thigh-bones are faſtened.
Roy Bertrand. The (little) Wren.
Deſchauſſer Bertrand. To be drunke, mellow, cup-ſhotten; to whip the cat, ſhoo the gooſe, or ſee the deuill.
Qui aime Bertrand aime ſon chien: Pro. Loue me, loue my dog.
Beryl. as Beril.
Beſace: f. A wallet, ſcrip, ſatchell, bag, pouch, or poake.
Mettre à la beſace. To beggar, impouerish, vndoe, ouerthrow the eſtate or fortunes of, turne out of houſe and harbour.
Qui plus deſpend qu'il ne pourchaſſe il ne luy faut pas de beſace: Prov. (Although the vnthrift needs no pocket, yet may he, in good time, carrie a wallet.)
Beſacier: m. The bag-bearer, or wallet-bearer of a begging, or beggarly companie.
Beſaguë: f. A (double-tounged) mattocke.
Beſanner. To giue leather a graine, in dreſſing; or to dreſſe a ſheepes skin like Spaniſh leather; alſo, as Bazaner.
Beſant: m. A Beſant; an auncient peece of golden coyne (worth fiftie pounds Tourn.) thirteene whereof the French kings were accuſtomed to offer at the Maſſe of their Conſecration in Rheims; to which end Henry the ſecond (after ſome diſcontinuance of that cuſtome) cauſed the ſame number of them to be made, and called them Byſantins; but they were not worth aboue a double ducket the peece.
Beſas. Aumes-ace, on the dice.
Beſch: m. A Southweſt wind. ¶Rab.
Beſchage: m. An opening, or digging vp, of the ground (with a Beſche.)

Beſche: f. A Spade.
Beſché: m. ée: f. Pecked, or picked at; alſo, digged, opened, or broken vp, as the earth (by a Beſche.)
Beſche-bois: m. The bird called a Speight, Heigh-haw, or Wood-pecker.
Beſchement: m. A digging, opening, or breaking vp of the earth; alſo, a pecking, or picking at.
Beſcher. To pecke, or picke, as a bird; alſo, to dig, open, or breake vp the earth (with a Beſche.)
Beſchevet: m. as much as Double chef, or Double chevet; Looke Bechevet.
Beſcheur: m. A digger, or deluer; a labouring man.
Beſeau: m. That ſide of a loafe which in the ouen cloue to another loafe, and thereby wants cruſtineſſe. (¶ Pariſien.)
Besfler. as Beffler.
Beſiale. champ b. A common field, ground, or paſture; a Common; Looke Boſialle.
Beſicles. as Beſycles; a paire of Spectacles.
Beſiclier. A Spectacle-maker.
Beſier: m. The hearbe Orage.
Beſle: m. as Beiſle.
Beſinus: m. A ſot, a doult, gull, woodcocke, lobcocke, aſſe.
Beſoche: f. as Hoyau; Looke Bezoche.
Beſoing: m. Need, neceſſitie, want, or great vſe, of.
Beſoing fait vieille trotter: Pro. Need makes the old wife trot.
Qui a beſoing de feu le cerche avec le doigt: Pro. Looke Feu.
Beſoing. Needfull, behooſefull, expedient, neceſſarie.
Beſongnant. Working, labouring, trauelling; buſying himſelfe.
Beſongne: f. Worke, buſineſſe, an affaire; labour, trauell.
Beſongnes de nuict. Ones night-geere.
Beſongne taillée. Seeke Taillé.
Le temps des beſongnes. Harueſt time, reaping time.
Apres beſongne faitte le fol barguigne: Pro. Wiſe men doe the worke, and fooles agree for it.
Apres beſongne repos & denier: Prov. Eaſe and wealth ſucceed labour; Seeke Denier.
Le pareſſeux aime bien beſongne faitte: Pro. The ſluggard loues to find worke done to his hands.
Nul ne fait ſi bien la beſongne que celuy à qui elle eſt: Prov. No man followes a buſineſſe ſo well as he to whom it belongs.
Beſongné: m. ée: f. Wrought, laboured, trauelled in, buſied, occupied, fully employed.
Beſongner. To worke, labour, trauell in; to buſie, occupie, vſe, or imploy throughly; alſo, to doe, or teacher with.
A peu parler bien beſongner: Pro. The moſt work's done with feweſt words; or, the fewer words the more worke.
Beſongnette: f. A little worke, ſmall buſineſſe, trifling affaire.
Beſot. A dilling, or ſwill-pough; the laſt, or yongeſt child one hath.
Beſq. as Viſc.
Beſquée. as Bechée.
Beſſe: f. A ſhouell headed with yron; or as Beſche.
Beſſieres: f. The tiltings, dregs, or bottomes of low-running wine &c.
Beſſon: m. A twinne.
Beſſon: m. Beſſonne: f. Twinne, twin-like, borne together, both of a birth.
Amande beſſonne. Two almonds in one ſhell.
Beſtail. Cattell; See Beſtiail.
Beſte: f. A beaſt; alſo, a ſot, luske, doult, lurdaine, loobie, blockhead; beaſtie, or dull, fellow.
Beſtes blanches. Sheepe, Goats, &c.
Beſtes de compagnie. Troupes of wild Swine, conſiſting of the Sowes, and young Bores, who follow their dams vntill they be about 18 months old.
Beſte douce, ou fauve. a fallow Deere, red Deere, Roe, Goat; any harmeleſſe game; (Our huntſmen call the Buck, Doe, Rayndeere, Elke, Beare, Otter, and Martron, beaſts of the Chaſe of the ſweet foot.)
Beſte legiere; a Stag, Hind, Buck, Doe, Roe, Rayndeere.
Beſtes mordantes. The Wolfe, Bore, Otter, Fox &c.
Beſte noire. A wild Swine.
Beſte puante. A Fox, Otter, Badger, Polecat, &c; any vermine; (Our huntſmen call the Roe, Fox, Gray, Fulmart, Fitch, Polecat, Squirrell, and white Rat, beaſts of the Chaſe of the ſtinking foot:)
Beſte rouge. as Beſte douce; Beſté rouſſe; the ſame.
Beſtes de ſomme. Horſes, Cammels, Moyles, Aſſes.
Beſtes de voiture. Carriers, or cart-horſes; draught-horſes, or oxen; pack-horſes.
Faire la beſte à deux dos enſemble. To leacher.
Prendre du poil de la beſte. To take a remedie for a miſchiefe from that which was the cauſe thereof; as to go thin clothed when a cold is taken; or in drunkennes to fall a quaffing, thereby to recouer health, or ſobrietie; neere vnto which ſence our Ale-knights often vſe this phraſe, and ſay, Giue vs a haire of the dog that laſt bit vs.
Vivre en beſte. Looke Vivre.
Bonne beſte s'eſchauffe en mangeant: Pro. We ſay, quicke at meat quicke at worke; or, he that eats apace, commonly works apace.
Telle beſte telle teſte: Pro. Looke Teſte.
C'eſt folie de ſe prendre aux femmes, & aux beſtes: Pro. Tis but a folly to quarrell with women, and beaſts.
En vieille beſte n'y a point de reſſource: Pro. Of an old beaſt there is no recouerie; when an old man runs into errors, or looſes the vigour of his ſpirit, there is no hope in him either of amendment, or of reinforcement.
Il faut avoir mauvaiſe beſte par douceur: Pro. Look Avoir.
Le loup ſçait bien que male beſte penſe: Prov. One knaue knowes well the thoughts, or ſhifts, of another.
Beſteau: m. as Batail. The clapper of a Bell.
Beſtelette. A little beaſt.
Beſtement. Beaſtly, filthily; witleſly; heartleſly; dully, beauily, luskiſhly, lurdaine-like.
Beſterie. as Beſtiſe.
Beſtiail; or, Beſtial: m. Beaſts, or cattell of any ſort, as Oxen, Sheepe, &c.
Beſtiail privé. The beaſts which we feed, and put into the houſe a nights; tame cattell; as Oxen, Kine, Calues, Sheepe, Hogs, &c.
Beſtial: m. ale: f. Beaſtly, filthie; ſenſuall, vicious, rude.
Beſtialité: f. Beaſtlineſſe, filthineſſe, ſenſualitie, rudeneſſe.
Beſtiole: f. A little beaſt.
Beſtion: m. as Beſtiole.
Beſtiſe: f. Sottiſhnes, dulnes, blockiſhnes, want of ſpirit.
Beſtocquer. To ſtab, foyne, thruſt, giue a ſtoccado vnto; (an old word.)
Beſtourner. To amaze, aſtoniſh, make dizzie; (an old word.)
Beſycle, or Beſycles: f. Spectacles.
Beſyclier: m. A Spectacle-maker.

Besyn. Well nigh whittled, almost drunke, somwhat ouerseene. (v. m.)
Bete. Looke Bette.
Betelle: f. A certaine Indian Sallate hearbe, that resembles the Gilliflower plant; or, bastard Pepper, called among th'Indians Betle, & Betre.
Betoine: f. Betonie, Sarxiphagon (an hearbe.)
Betoine coronnaire, ou de couronnes. The Cloue Gilliflower.
Betoine sauvage, as Armoires; sweet Williams.
Beton: m. Beest; the first milke a female giues, after the birth of her young one.
Betosne. as Betoine.
Betourne: com. Dizzie, or giddie in the head. (v.m.)
Betrescher. To trim, tackle, make tight, a ship, &c; also, to decke, adorne, tricke vp; set, ranke, or dispose things orderly, or handsomely; (an old word.)
Bette: f. des bettes. The hearbe Beet, or Beets.
Bette blanche. The common white Beet, or best kind of Beets
Bette estrangere. The Roman, or strange, red Beet.
Bette noire. The blacke Beet, or worst kind of Beets; (Mathiolus & Dodoneus call the common red Beet Beta nigra.)
Bette des prez. as Bette sauvage.
Bette rouge. The common red Beet; also, as;
Bette Romaine. The Roman, or strange, red Beet.
Bette sauvage. Hearbe Pirola, Winter-greene, wild Beets.
Bette-rave. A kind of delicate red Parsenip, which, boyled, yeelds a sweet vermillion sap.
Bettes. Beets, &c, (as before in Bette;) also, tipling, sipping, bowsing, quaffing; and hence;
Entrer en bettes. To grow merrie, or mellow in drinking; or to fall a chattering, as gossips do when they haue drunke hard, together.
Beturre: f. A sinke-hole.
Beu: m. beuë: f. Drunke, bowsed, bibbed, tipled, swilled, quaffed; sucked vp; receiued, or soaked in.
Apres beu dodo: Prov. After drinke rest.
Beuf: m. An Oxe, a Beefe; Beefe; Looke Bœuf.
Beuffroy: m. A watch-tower, or high place fit for discouerie; See Beffroy.
Beufle: m. A Bufle, Bugle, or wild Oxe.
Prendre vn beufle par le museau: Pro. To performe a hard, or hazardous, exploit.
Beugler. as Bugler.
Beur. moyne beur. A lubberly Monke; or in stead of Beuveur; a quaffing Monke.
Beuratte: f. A Churne.
Beurée. The name of a very tender, and delicat Peare.
Beurichon. A Wrenne.
Beuriere: f. A Churne; also, as Beurriere.
Beurre: m. Butter.
Bas de beurre. Buttermilke.
Tour de beurre. One of the three famous towers of S. Maries church in Roan; built with the mony that was payed by those of that dioceese, for a dispensation to eat butter in Lent.
Vn Seigneur de beurre combat bien vn vassal d'acier. A Prouerbe expressing the great oddes a lord hath of his tenant.
Beurrette: f. A Churne.
Beurreux: m. euse: f. Butterie; fattie; greasie; full of butter.
Beurrier: m. A butter man.
Beurrier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, butter.
Vn pot beurrier. A butter pot.
Beurriere: f. A butter woman.
Beuvailler. To drinke excessiuely, or very often; to swill, quaffe, tiple.
Beuvande: f. Small wine, household wine, seruants wine.
Beuvereau: m. A sipper; a small drunkard.
Beuverie. Excessiue drinking, swilling, quaffing, bowsing, trolling of the bowle.
Beuveron. A riuer in the Prouince of Solongne; called so, because in Summer it is all drunke vp by the earth; also, a drench, or mash for a horse.
Beuveter. To drinke, to sip, to sup.
Beuvette. See Buvette.
Beuveur: m. A drinker, swiller, quaffer; a tosse-pot.
Cela sent son beuveur d'eau. One may well discerne by that how strict, spare, or poore, a diet he keepes; or, that sauors of a poore, or starued, spirit.
Prodigue, & grand beuveur de vin, n'a du sien ne four, ne moulin: Pro. The tipling vnthrift keepes nor myll, nor ouen.
Beuvoire de Venus. The fullers thistle, or Cazle.
Beuvrage: m. Beuerage, drinke.
Bezanne. as Bazane.
Bezant: m. An auncient coyne of gold; Looke Besant.
Bezans. Besants, in Blason; (they must euer be round, whole, and of mettall.)
Bezanté d'or. Bezanted Or.; or, charged with Besants; a tearme of Blason.
Bezarder. To dye. ¶Barrag.
Bezer. A Cow to run vp and downe, holding vp her taile, when the brizze doth sting her.
Bezet. Aller à Sainct Bezet. To trot, gad, runne, or wander vp and downe, like one that hath a brizze in his tayle.
Bezoard: m. A Beazar stone; (breeds in the maw of the Goat called, a Beazar.)
Bezoche: f. is, in some countries, the instrument of Husbandrie, tearmed in others, Hoyau. Looke Hoyau.
Bezole: f. The name of a certaine fish, thats found (only) in the Lake of Geneva.
Biains. as Bians (in Anjou.)
Biais: m. Byas, compasse, a slope, or sloping.
Biais passé. (So do workmen call) a gate, or dore made byas.
Ie ne le prends pas de ce biais. I meane it not this way, I take it not in this manner.
Il ne s'y print pas de bon biais. He went not the right way to worke; he tooke not a right course in the matter.
Biaisant: m. ante: f. Crooking, byasing, sloping, fetching a compasse.
Biaisement. Crookingly, obliquely, byas-wise, aslope, with a compasse.
Biaiser. To crooke, stand aslope, fetch a compasse, go awry, make about; or, as Bihayser.
Biaiseure: f. Slopenesse, byasnesse, compasse, obliquenesse, or obliquitie.
Bians: m. Daies works both of men, and beasts, due vnto Landlords by all tenants (who are no gentlemen) within the Countie of Poictou.
Biaque. Ceruse, or white lead, wherewith women paint.
Biarn: m. A white cloth of course wooll with interwouen streakes of blew, whereof the countrey people about Languedoc make cloakes.
Biaut. A kind of Britisli course garment, or iacket, worne loose ouer other apparrell.
Bibaille: f. A present, fayring, New-yeares gift.
Bibelots: m. Hucklebones; or, the play at hucklebones.

Biberon: m. A tipler, quaffer, bibber, ſucke-ſpiggot; alſo, an Ewer; alſo, an inſtrument wherewith Surgeons draw milke from womens breaſts; alſo, a tap, or faucet.
Bibet: m. A Gnat. ¶Norm.
Bibette: f. A wheale, or bliſter.
Bible: f. A Bible.
Bibliopole: m. A Booke-ſeller, or Stationer.
Bibliotheque: f. A Librarie.
Biblot: m. as Bibelot; or a ſmall ſquare peece, in checker-worke, or whereof checker-worke is made.
Bibul: m. The ſtalke of great Hemlockes, vſed by the country people of ſome places in ſtead of a canne, or pot, to drinke in.
Bibule: f. Blotting, or browne, paper.
Bicarne: m. The great Veriuice grape.
Bichard: m. A Hind calfe; or, a red Deere calfe.
Biche: f. A Hind; the female of a Stag.
Biche de mer. as Cabrole.
Pied de biche. The gaſte of a Croſſe-bow; or, the end thereof.
Il a mangé de la biche blanche. Said of one that is light-witted, ſhittle-headed, giddie-brain'de.
Bichecoter. To leacher it.
Bichecoterie: f. A leacherous tricke, a laſciuious part; firkerie, an odde pranke, or ierke, in whooriſme.
Bichet: m. A meaſure for corne, &c, holding about two Pariſian buſhels, or rather (according to th'vncertainetie of meaſures) of no certaine ſcantling; for in the countrey neere Lyons it weighs about 70 pound; in other places but 54; and,
Bichet de marrons. (a ſacke full of great Cheſtnuts) weighs but 36 pound.
Bicheteau: m. A little Hind calfe.
Bichette de Lyon. The halfe of the Bichet; or, a iuſt buſhell of Paris.
Bichot. as Bicheteau; alſo, a meaſure for corne vſed in Burgundie, and containing about fiue of their buſhels.
Bichotterie; as Bichecoterie.
Bicle; as Bigle. ¶Rab.
Bicoque: f. A little paltrie towne, hold, or fort; not ſtrong ynough to hold out a ſiege, nor ſo weake as to be giuen vp for words.
Bicorne: com. Double-horned, hauing two hornes.
Bicornu: m. uë: f. as Bicorne.
Bicque: f. A Goat; or, as Biche.
Bidault de calebute; See Bidet de, &c.
Bidaulx: m. Cowardly ſtraglers after an armie; or, as Bidaux.
Bidaux. Footmen, ſouldiors. (veil mot.)
Bidenté. Double-toothed; that hath two teeth.
Bidet: m. A little nag, or curtall; alſo, a ſmall Piſtoll.
Bidet de culebute. Membre viril.
Bidon: m. A great cage, or open basket to keepe, or feed, pullein in.
Bidonne: f. A kind of ſea Purſlane that growes in great plentie on the Venetian ſhores.
Biece: f. A ſpade; or as Beche.
Biecer. To digge, delue, or open the ground with a ſpade, or Beſche.
Bien: m. Wealth, ſubſtance, cheuiſance, riches, poſſeſſions, goods; a patrimonie; alſo, a benefit, pleaſure, fauor, good office, or good turne; alſo, goodneſſe, honeſtie, vertue, ſinceritie; alſo, a good thing.
Biens au ſoleil. Lands, leaſes, houſes, cattell; ſuch goods, or poſſeſſions as lye without dores. Looke Soleil.
Biens vacans. Waiſes, ſtrayes, wrecks; a purſe, or treaſure found; any land, or thing, that neuer had owner; or hath beene loſt, or abandoned, by the owner.
Gens de bien. Honeſt, and (among ſouldiors) valiant people.
Cela ſent ſon bien. That is comely, ſeemely, decent, orderly, well done, euen as it ſhould be.
C'eſt du bien de vous. This is of your courteſie or fauour ſir.
Bien perdu bien connu: Prov. Goods loſt good knowne; we diſcerne not the worth of things vntill we be depriued of them.
Les biens de fortune paſſent comme la lune: Pro. Fortunes goods are flitting like the Moone.
Vn bien acquiert l'autre: Prov. One good thing begets another.
De bien commun on ne fait pas ſouvent monceau: Prov. Men often grow not rich by publicke treaſure.
Grand bien ne vient pas en peu d'heure: Pro. Great matters are not compaſt in a moment.
Nul bien ſans haine: Prov. No good thing vngrudgeo'ut.
Quand les biens viennent les corps faillent: Pro. When goods encreaſe the body decreaſes; moſt men ere they grow rich are old.
Qui le bien voit, & le mal prend, fait folie en bon eſcient: Prov. He that diſcernes the good, and chuſes the bad, merits a bable.
De gens de bien vient tout bien: Prov. From good men comes all goodneſſe.
Les gens de bien ſont touſiours bien, ont touſiours bien, ſont touſiours bien: Prov.
Dieu donne biens, & bœuf, mais ce n'eſt pas par la corne: Pro. Looke Bœuf.
On doit dire du bien le bien: Prov. Of good things we muſt giue good words.
Bien. adverb. Well, good, right, content; fitly, aptly, commodiouſly; fully, throughly; in good caſe, with good reaſon, as it ſhould be.
Bien de par Dieu. On then; to it I pray you; in Gods name be it.
Bien à faire. Much to doe.
Bien au net. Exactly, perfectly.
Bien que. Although, albeit that; ſuppoſe, or put the caſe that.
Auſſi bien ne faittes vous rien. For, or becauſe, you doe no good in it. ¶Rab.
Et bien. Well then agreed, I will then; alſo (interrogatiuely) Will you? What meane you? What ſay you? What doe you purpoſe to doe?
Ou bien. Or elſe; otherwiſe.
Que bien que mal. Indifferently, reaſonably, ſo ſo, one way or other; I know not how.
Eſtre bien enſemble. To agree wel, to be good friends.
Il leur print bien que. They had good luck, they might thanke God, or it fell out well for them, that.
Cela ſent ſon bien. That is comely, ſeemely, decent, orderly, well done, euen as it ſhould be.
Bien a crié la loup qui ſa proye reſcoult: Pro. He complaines to ſome purpoſe that recouers what he complaines for.
Bien a en ſa maiſon qui de ſes voiſins eſt aimé: Pro. He liues well at home that is beloued abroad.
Bien courroucé de peu pleure: Prov. He that is angred throughly ſheds few teares.
Bien de ſa place part qui ſon ami y laiſſe: Prov. He fitly leaues his roome that leaues a friend in't.

Bien pouſſé longuement chancelle: Prov. Looke Chanceller.
Qui bien aime chaſtie: Prov. He that loues throughly puniſhes throughly; or, he that loues well, payes home when he puniſhes.
Qui bien aime tard oublie: Pro. Seeke Aimer.
Qui bien eſt ne ſe bouge: Prov. He thats well had beſt hold him ſo; or, let not things fitly placed be remoued.
Qui bien fera bien trouvera: Prov. He that does well ſhall ſpeed well.
Qui bien gaigne,& bien eſpargne deuient tantoſt riche: Prov. He that gets much,and ſpares much, will ſoone be rich.
Qui bien tire deux en a.: Prov. Looke Tirer.
Qui bien veut mourir bien viue: Prov. He that would die well had need to liue well.
Qui bien veut parler bien doit pourpenſer: Prov. Looke Pourpenſer.
Qui bien veut payer bien ſe doibt obliger: Prov. He that meanes to pay truly giues good ſecuritie.
Biendiſance: f. Eloquence,well-ſpeaking.
Bien-en-allée: f. A farewell; ¶Pariſien.
Bienfaict: m. A benefit, good turne,pleaſure,kindneſſe, fauour.
Bienfaict n'eſt iamais perdu: Pro. One neuer looſes by doing courteſies.
Bienfaicteur. A benefactor; a beneficiall friend; one that doeth a good turne,or great pleaſure.
Bienheuré. Happie,proſperous,fortunat.
Bienheurer. To make happie, proſperous, fortunat.
Bienheureté: f. Bleſſednеſſe,happineſſe,felicitie,proſperitie.
Bienheureux: m. euſe: f. Happie,fortunat,proſperous, bliſſe-full, bleſſed.
Bien-public: m. The Commonwealth; alſo,a faire title giuen to a foule rebellion of the Earle of Charrolois, and other French Lords, againſt Lewis the eleuenth.
Biens. Looke Bien.
Bienſeamment. Comelily,agreeably, well-beſeemingly, with good correſpondencie.
Bienſeance: f. A comelineſſe,becomming, ſeemelineſſe, agreeableneſſe; alſo,congruitie,correſpondencie.
Eſtre à la bienſeance de. To lye fit for; as land &c.
Bienſeant: m. ante: f. Comely, ſeemely, agreeable, well-beſeeming, well-becomming; alſo, congruous, or correſpondent; befitting,or well ſitting.
Bienveigner. To welcome, receiue gladly, intertaine kindly.
Bienvenement: m. A welcome,or welcomming.
Bienvienner. To welcome; as Bienveigner.
Bienvenuë: f. A welcome; hence, Payer ſa bienvenuë. To pay his welcom,as ſchollers do at their firſt entrance, or admiſſion,into a ſchoole.
Bienvoulu: m. uë: f. well beloued,well thought of,exceedingly well liked.
Bienvueillance: f. Fauor,good liking,heartie good will.
Bienvueillant: m. ante: f. Well-willing, fauourable, courteous,friendly,bearing good will,or affection vnto.
Biere: f. A coffin for a dead corpes; alſo, the drinke, Beere.
Aujourd'uy en chere,demain en biere: Pro. To day a man,to morrow none; (ſay we.)
Au cerf la biere, au ſanglier le barbier: Prov. (For thoſe beaſts hard layed too,lay hard about them.)
Biés. Byas; Looke Biais.
Bieure: m. The beaſt called a Beauer; alſo, the waterhorſe; alſo,a kind of gooſe-like water-foule, that ſpoyles much fiſh,and is but very courſe meat.
En petite eau ſouvent on trouve grand bieure: Prov. Great worth is often found in things of ſmall apparance.
Biez. as Biais. Bias.
Bife. A counterfeit iewell; alſo,as Biffe.
Bifé: m. ée: f. Raſed, defaced,blotted,or put out.
Bifement: m. A raſing, defacing,blotting,or wiping out.
Biffe: m. A foole,aſſe,doult,woodcocke,coxcombe,ninnyhammer; alſo, as Bife; or one that ſeemes, or would ſeeme wiſe,and yet is,and euer will be,fooliſh.
Biffer. To deface,blot,raſe,wipe out.
Bifferie: f. A defacing,raſing,wiping,or blotting out; alſo, any thing, that though it looke faire, is of little worth.
Biffeure: f. A raſing, defacing,or blotting out.
Biforme: com. Double-formed; that hath,or is of, two ſeuerall formes,or ſhapes.
Biformité: f. Biformitie, double forme, a duple or twofold ſhape.
Bifourché: m. ée: f. Double-forked; diuided into, or conſiſting of, two (forked) parts.
Bifre: m. as Bievre.
Biforcation: f. A biforcation; a forking; a forked partition, diuiſion,or forme.
Bigame: m. Twice married,who hath had two wiues.
Bigarré: m. ée: f. Diuerſified,varied,mingled,of many colours,of ſundrie hues,motley-like.
Oeil bigarré. Looke Oeil.
Bigarreans. A kind of cherries, which be halfe white, halfe red.
Bigarrément: m. A variation,or diuerſifying, as in colours.
Bigarrément. Diuerſly, of ſundrie colours, motley-like.
Bigarrer. To diuerſifie,varie,mingle,or make,of ſundrie colours.
Bigarrer ſes propos. To diſcourſe of diuers and ſundrie matters at once; or, to run odly, and fantaſtically, from one matter vnto another.
Bigarreure: f. Varietie,or diuerſitie,as of ſundry colours mingled together.
Bigarruge: f. Motley colour. (v. m.)
Bigaut: m. An aſſe,foole,noddie,ninnie; or as Bigot.
Bigearre,or Bigerre: com. Odde, humorous, fantaſticall.
Bigearrement. Odly,humorouſly, fantaſtically.
Bigearrer. as Bigarrer.
Bigearrure. as Bigarreure; alſo,odneſſe of humor,fantaſticalneſſe.
Bigerrerie: f. A difference,or varietie of colours,faſhions,or opinions,in one ſubiect; alſo, fantaſticalneſſe, or odneſſe,of humor.
Bigle: com. Skenning,ſquinting, looking askew, or nine waies at once.
Bigleiment. Squintingly,skemingly,askew.
Bigleſſe: f. A ſquinting wench.
Bigne: f. A bumpe, knob, riſing, or ſwelling after a knocke.
Bigne: com. Club-footed,or crump-footed.
Bignets: m. Little round loaues,or lumpes made of fine meale, oyle, or butter, and reaſons; bunnes, Lenten loaues; alſo,flat fritters made like ſmall pancakes.
Bignoter. as Binoter.
Bigorne. A Smiths anuile hauing two horne-like nookes, or corners.
Bigorneau. A Periwincle; or,as Nerite; (¶Breton.
Bigornet. as Bigorneau.

Bigot. (An old Norman word (ſignifying as much as, De par Dieu; or our, for Gods ſake) made good French, and ſignifying) an hypocrite, or, one that ſeemeth much more holy than he is; alſo, a ſcrupulous, or ſuperſtitious fellow.

Bigotage: m. Hypocriſie, holines only in ſhew; alſo, ſcrupulous curioſitie, ſuperſtitious deuotion.

Bigotation. as Bigotage, or Bigotiſe.

Bigotie; or, Bigotiſe: f. Hypocriſie; ſuperſtition, too much curioſitie, or ſcruple of conſcience.

Bigotte. Chauſes à la bigotte. Cloſe, or ſtrait venitians tyed below the knee; Prieſts breeches.

Bigotté: m. ée: f. Turned hypocrite, or, made full of ſcruple.

Bigotter. To make ſuperſtitious, to fill with hypocriſie; or, to infect with too much ſcruple of conſcience.

Biguarruge. as Bigarruge.

Bihay. de bihay. Bias, awry, crooking, obliquely, aſlope, with a compaſſe; Looke Biais.

Bihayſer. To crooke; to go by bias, fetch a compaſſe, ſtand aſlope, turne awry; alſo, to place bias, put compaſſe, make aſlope, ſet awry.

Bihore. A word, or voice wherewith French carters haſten on their horſes.

Bihoreau: m. A kind of little Heron, which haunteth rocks, and hilly places, and hath a peake of feathers falling backward on the hinder part of his head.

Bijon: m. Liquid rozen; tarre.

Bile: f. Choller, gall; anger, fretfulneſſe; melancholy intermixed with choller.

Bileux: m. euſe: f. Angrie, chollericke, teaſtie, full of gall, full of rancor.

Billard. as Billart.

Billard, pied billard. A ſplay foot.

Billardier: m. ere: f. Baker-legd; that hath crooked legs, or goes in at the knees.

Billart: m. A ſhort and thicke trunchion, or cudgell; hence, the cudgell in the play at trap; and, a billard, or the ſticke wherewith we touch the ball at billyards; alſo, a baker-legd fellow.

Bille: f. A ſmall bowle, or billyard ball; alſo, a young ſtocke of a tree to graft on; alſo, a lingot, wedge, or gad of mettall; alſo, money, coine, chinkes; (Baragouïn) alſo, a kind of ſea fiſh, that hath a white line running along from her gills to her taile; otherwiſe, reſembling a Pearch.

Danſer en bille. To daunce verie luſtily.

Ce n'eſt bille pareille. This is no euen match; the coin is not of like allay.

Cela courra bille pareille. That ſhall run the ſame courſe, vndergo the ſame hazard; that ſhall taſt, or be partaker, of whatſoeuer betides the other.

Billebarré: m. ée: f. Croſſe barred.

Billeboquet: m. A cord, or line (hauing at either end, and in the middle, a ſticke faſtened vnto it) wherewith Gardeners meaſure out their beds, and borders; alſo, a Bob; a bullet hanging by a line from the middle of a ſtick hollowed at the one end, or both, for the receiuing thereof.

Biller. To play at Billiards; alſo, to faſten the rope of a boat to the wood which runs ore-croſſe the hammes of the horſes that are to draw it.

Billeron. la Maille billeron; Looke Maille.

Billet. A little bill, note, or ticket (ſtucke vp on a poſt, or doore;) as Etiquet.

Billette: f. A billet of wood; alſo, a little bowle, ſomewhat longer than an ordinarie one; alſo, a paſſage toll, or through-toll; ſo called of a little log thats hung on a tree for a ſigne, or to giue warning, therof.

Billettes d'une eſpieu. Croſſe barres of yron, or ſteele, ſomewhat aboue the head of a boare ſpeare, to keepe it from running too farre, and therby the beaſt from comming too neere him that aſſailes him.

Bille-vezées: f. Traſh, trifles, toyes, nifles.

Billion: m. A million of millions.

Billon: m. A twig, or ſhute of a full yeares growth; alſo, baſe, cried downe, or called in, coyne, which either hath no ſiluer in it, or not ſo much as it ſhould haue; alſo, the mettal wherof baſe coyn is made; whence, Monnoye noire is alſo tearmed, Monnoye de billon; & the ſiluer that hath aboue a ſixt part of Empirance, or allay in it, is held no better than Billon.

Billonnage: m. A melting, or making of Billon; alſo, (more particularly) a changing of one peece of coine for another, or of one kind of coyne into another; an vnauthoriſed altering, melting, or imbaſing of coyne.

Billonné: m. ée: f. Melted, or made into, Billon; alſo, changed, as a bad peece of coine for a good one, or, as a good one into a bad one; altered, melted, and (in the melting) imbaſed, as coyne (without warrant for it.)

Billonnement: m. as Billonnage.

Billonner. To make of, or melt into, Billon; alſo, (more particularly) to change a bad peece of coyne for a good one, or a good one into a bad one; to alter, melt, & (in the melting) to imbaſe, the kings coyn, without any warrant for it.

Billonneur: m. An ordinarie melter of coine, or mettal into Billon; alſo, a changer of bad coyne for good, or of good into bad; one that without authoritie, and to make a gaine to himſelfe, alters, or melts, and (in melting) imbaſes, coine.

Billos. Certaine impoſts leuied vpon wines: ¶Breton.

Billot: m. A billet, blocke, or log (of wood;) alſo, a wedge, lingot, or lumpe (of mettall;) alſo, as Piece à pommette.

Homme neuf, & de billot. A rude, or vnfaſhioned; a raw, or vnexperienced, fellow.

Bimauve: f. The marſh mallow, mooriſh mallow, white mallow.

Bimauve ſauvage. Mouſe mallow, wild mallow, Veruine mallow, cut mallow, Simons mallow.

Bimbeloté: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with paultrie ware, or pedling ſtuffe.

Bimblotier: m. A paultrie Pedler; or, as Brimblotier.

Binage: m. as Binement.

Binaire. nombre binaire. The number of two.

Binarchie. The ioynt rule, or equall authoritie, of two Princes in one countrey.

Binart: m. A wry-neckt fellow.

Biné: m. ée: f. Digged, laboured, or weeded, as a vine; turned vp as the ground in a vineyard, the ſecond time.

Binement: m. A labouring, digging, or grubbing vp of weeeds, &c; the ſecond worke done in vineyards as ſoone as the vines haue branched, and put forth their cluſters.

Biner. To labour, or turne vp, the ground; to digge, or grub vp, weedes, &c, in vineyards, the ſecond time; (eſpecially in May; when commonly the vines haue put forth.)

Bineur: m. A labourer, digger, turner vp of the ground, grubber vp of weeds, in vineyards.

Bingu. Troubled, moleſted, vexed: ¶Gaſcon.

Binoire.

Binoire. as Biſnoire.
Binotage : m. The ſecond tilth, earing, or digging of ſoyle.
Binotement. as Binotage.
Binoter. To till, eare, dig, land, or vineyards, the ſecond time.
Binotis : m. as Binotage.
Bios. God : ¶ Gaſc. ¶ Rab.
Bipartient. Parting, or diuiding into two.
Bipedal : m.alc : f. Double footed ; alſo, two foot long, or wide.
Biquoquet : m. The peake of a Ladies mourning hood. (v. in.)
Birer. as Virer : ¶ Gaſc.
Birraſque : f. A high-going ſea, or tempeſt at ſea, cauſed by whirle-winds, and accompanied with guſtes of raine.
Bis : m. biſe : f. Browne, duskie, ſwart, blackiſh.
Pain bis. Rye bread, courſe bread, browne bread.
Pierre biſe. Looke Pierre.
Roche biſe. A hard, and blewiſh rocke, or quarrey, of ſtone.
Ou à bis, ou à blanc. By hooke or by crooke, one way or another.
Biſacquier : m. A ſcrip-carrier, or wallet-bearer.
Biſaguë. as Beſaguë.
Biſantin. as Beſant : So tearmed of Byſantium, or Conſtantinople, where it was firſt currant, as it is alſo at this day in moſt parts of Aſia.
Biſarme : f. as Guiſarme.
Biſayeul : m. A great great grandfather.
Biſ-blanc. Wheaten, or cheat bread.
Biſcantine : f. Drinke made of Bullas, or ſloes.
Biſcapit. is (among Exchequer men) a double imploiment of one ſumme, in an account, &c.
Biscaye : f. A vantage at Tenis.
Biſchard. A fawne, or hind-calfe.
Biſchet. as Bichet.
Bisclant. Squinting, looking askew.
Biſcle. as Bigle.
Biscoter. To ſwine.
Biſcuit : m. A bisket ; bisket bread.
S'embarquer ſans biſcuit. To goe abroad without bisket ; to enter into an action without ſufficient prouiſion ; to vndertake that which he wants meanes, or abilitie, to performe.
Manger avec vne faim de biſcuit. To eat very greedily.
Biſcuteau : m. Small, or fine bisket bread.
Biſe : f. A North wind.
Biſe traverſe. A North-weſt, or North-eaſt wind.
Biſe : f. A delicate Italian fruit that reſembles the Naveau.
Biſe. (The feminine of Bis ; ) Looke Bis.
Biſeau : m. A bezle, bezeling, or ſcuing ; ſuch a ſlopeneſſe, or ſlope forme, as is in the point of an yron leauer, chizle, &c.
Le bord de la foſſe ſe ravallera en biſeau. Shall bee made ſcarſing.
Biſet. as Bizet.
Biſeté : m. ée : f. wrought, or ſtript with plate, as ſome kind of ſtuffes be.
Biſette : f. Plate (of gold, ſilver, or copper,) wherewith ſome kinds of ſtuffes are ſtripped.
Biſexte : m. The Biſext, or leape yeare ; which comes by one day added in foure yeare.
Biſner. as Biner.
Biſneur. as Bineur.
Biſnoire : f. A grubbing forke, or grubbing axe ; a forked, or double tongued mattocke, or pick-axe.
Biſon : m. The Biſon ; a kind of bulch-backt, rough-maned, broad-faced, and great eyd, wild Oxe, that will not be taken as long as he can ſtand, nor tamed after he is taken.
Biſongne. as Biſon ; Alſo, a filthie knaue, or clowne ; a raskall, biſonian, baſe humored ſcoundrell.
Biſoüart : m. A paultrie Pedlar, who in a long packe, or maund (which he carries, for the moſt part open, and (hanging from his necke) before him) hath Almanacks, Bookes of newes, or other trifling ware, to ſell.
Biſque : f. A fault, at Tennis.
Biſac : m. A wallet.
Biſſe : f. An Adder.
Manier en biſſe. as Serpeger ; When a horſe manages as an Adder goes, wrigling, wagling, or gliding.
Biſſeſtre. Ill lucke ; (from Biſſexte, which is held vnluckie.)
Biſſexte : m. The Biſſext ; the leape yeare ; or, one day added in foure yeare.
Biſsines. Silken words, ſpruce tearmes.
Biſſole : f. as Bizole.
Biſtarde : f. The great bird called, a Buſtard.
Biſtorie : f. A kind of crooked, ſharpe-pointed, and double-edged launcet, vſed by Chirurgians in th'opening of ſores, &c.
Biſtorié : m. ée : f. Crooked, hooked, boughtie, awrie.
Biſtorin. as Biſtorie.
Biſtorte : f. Biſtort, Britannica, Snakeweed, Paſtions, Oiſterloit.
Biſtorte grande. Female Adderwort, or Snakeweed.
Biſtorte petite. Male Adderwort, or Oiſterloit, ſmall Snakeweed.
Biſtortier : m. A rolling-pin, or peſtle, of wood.
Bite : f. The hearbe called Beets ; Looke Bete.
Prendre du potage de la bite. To take in ſome oyle of man ; to do that a maid ſhould not do.
Bites : f. The bits ; two great woodden pegs whereto the cable is faſtened when an anker is let fall.
Bitume : m. Bitumen, held by ſome to bee a faſt, and clammie earth, lome, or clay, ſomewhat reſembling pitch, and of the nature of brimſtone ; by others, (more probably) a fat skum, or foame driuen by the wind, and waues, on the bankes of the Paleſtinian lake, Mare Mortuum ; whence commeth onely the beſt (for other waters alſo yeeld Bitumen) though verie rarely: Our ordinarie ſhop Bitumen is but a compoſition of Pitch, Petriolum, and ſome other ſuch like ſimples, howſoeuer Apothecaries would make men beleeue it is the Paleſtinian Bitumen (¶ Mathiolus.)
Bitume Apollonien. Apollonian Bitumen (inferiour to the Paleſtinian) is alſo, the foame of a certaine water, thats neere vnto the citie Apollonia (now Valonia*) in* Epirus.
Bituminer. To annoint, beſmeare, or mingle with Bitumen.
Bitumineux : m. euſe : f. Full of Bitumen ; alſo, glewie, ſlimie, clammie, faſt cleauing, as Bitumen.
Treffle bitumineux. Clauer gentle, Treacle clauer, Pitch Trefoyle, ſlinking Trefoyle.
Bivet. faire bivet. To take the end of a low-burnt candle out of the ſocket, and with a drop of tallow make it ſticke vpon the edge of the candleſticks noſe.
Bizarderies : f. Fantaſticall trickes, odde parts, humorous rous prankes; alſo, traſh, niſles, triſles, toyes.

Bizarre: com. Fantaſticall, toyiſh, odde, humorous, giddie headed, ſelfe conceited, haire braind; alſo, diuers, or diuerſified in faſhion, or in colour; and hence;

Habillement bizarre. A garment of motley, or of ſundrie colours, diſtinguiſhed by ſeuerall peeces.

Bizarrément. Odly, fantaſtically; of ſundrie faſhions, of diuers colours.

Bizarrerie: f. Fantaſticalneſſe, toyiſhneſſe, humorouſneſſe; alſo, a conceited toy, an odde pranke, a fantaſticall tricke.

Bizarreure: f. Diuerſitie of colours, or faſhion in one ſubiect.

Bizart. as Bizarre.

Bize. as Biſe; The North wind; alſo, a kind of ſmall Tunnie, or fiſh like a Tunnie.

Bizeau d'une pinſe de fer. The ſloping point, end, or tongue of an yron leauer; Looke Biſeau.

Bizet: m. A kind of ſmall Stockedoue, or Queeſt, reſembling a Partridge, but much worſe meat.

Bladier: m. A Marchant, or Ingroſſer of corne.

Bladier: m.ere: f. Of, or belonging to, corne.

Blaffard: m. arde: f. Pale, wanne, lew, bleake of colour, of a decayed hue.

Oeil blaffard. Looke Oeil.

Blaffaſtre: com. Somewhat pale, wanne, or decayed in colour.

Blaier. Seigneur blaier. The Land-lord that may amerce all ſuch forreiners, as turne their cattell into the waſt grounds, or vaines paſtures, belonging vnto his Lordſhip; which without his permiſſion (payed for) they ought not to haue done.

Blaime: com. Pale, wanne, bleake, whitiſh, dead coloured.

Blaimeur: f. Paleneſſe, wanneſſe, bleakeneſſe; a dead, or whitiſh colour.

Blaimir. To wax pale, bleake, wanne, white.

Blaireau: m. A Badger, Gray, Boaſon, Brocke.

Blairie. Droict de blairie. A Lords power to fine any forreiners, that turne their cattell into the vaines paſtures of his Manor, without his leaue, and permiſſion; or as in Blayrie.

Païs de blairie. A corne countrey; a countrey abounding in corne, or that hath great ſtore of corne growing in it.

Blanc: m. A blanke, white, whiteneſſe, or white thing; the white, or marke of a paire of buts; a blanke of paper; a blanke in a lotterie; alſo, white lime, or whiting for walls, &c; alſo, the halfe of a Sol, a peece of money which we call alſo, a blanke; alſo, the whiter ſide of a skinne of parchment; or, that ſide which cloue to the fleſh:

Blanc de chapon, perdris &c. The brawne of a Capon, &c.

Blanc d'eau. The white water Lillie, water Roſe, white Nenuphar.

Blanc d'Eſpaigne. Ceruſe, or white Lead, wherewith women paint.

Blanc de plomb. The ſame.

Blanc de Pouille. The ſame.

Grand blanc. Is worth a Sol, or two ordinarie ones.

Allayé au blanc, Or allayé au blanc. Gold allayed with ſiluer.

Armer à blanc. To arme with white, and compleat armor.

Ou à bis, ou à blanc. By hooke or by crooke, by right or by wrong, one way or another.

Celuy qui n'a point de blanc en l'oeil. The Diuell; alſo, a cleane Gentleman; one that hath neuer a croſſe to bleſſe him with.

Mettre à blanc. To ſtrip into his ſhirt; to rifle of, or turne out of, all.

Mettre haut le blanc à la butte. To hold a vendible thing at a high rate; alſo, to propound vnto one a matter, which is aboue his reach, or capacitie.

Toucher au blanc. To ſtrike the white; to hit the naile on the head.

Blanc: m. Blanche: f. White; alſo, hoarie.

Blanc bois. Box, Poplar, Aſpe, Alder, and other ſuch trees, whoſe wood is no timber.

Bois blanc. Priuet, Pimprint: ¶Lionnois.

Blancs yeux. gens aux blancs yeux. Cowards, daſtards, faint-hearted, white-liuered, meale-mouthed fellowes.

Carte blanche. A blanke. See Carte.

Dimanche de blanches. Palmes-Sunday.

Eſpée blanche. A naked, or vnſheathed (alſo, a bloudleſſe, or peaceable, ſword;) whence;

Cela ne ſe fait point à l'eſpée blanche. That thing's not done without ſound bobs, or bloudwipes.

Fievres blanches. The Agues wherewith maidens, that haue the greene ſickeneſſe, be troubled.

Fleurs blanches. The Whites (a feminine diſeaſe.)

Iournée blanche. A Holy-day, or play-day.

Ligne blanche. The lower part of the bellie where the muſcles thereof doe end (a tearme of Anotomie.)

Menton blanc. (Whence) la vertu ne fut iamais à menton blanc. Neuer had white, or hoarie chin, viz. neuer decayed, or grew old.

Monnoye blanche. White money; coyne of braſſe, or copper, ſiluered ouer.

Nihil blanc. Seeke Nihil.

Oeuvre blanche. The making of all kind of yron tooles, as wedges, hedging bils, hatchets, &c, wherwith wood is cut.

Pieds blancs. Il a les pieds blancs. He paſſes euery where freely, or without paying ought, (from a cuſtome they haue in France, to take no toll for ſuch horſes as haue foure white feet.)

C'eſt le cheval aux quatre pieds blancs. May from the ſame reaſon beare the ſame ſignification; yet is it moſt vſed to expreſſe, a Companion that promiſes much, and performes nought; or ſuch a one as fails his friend at a pinch; (Looke Cheval.)

Pomme blanche. A pale apple.

Solz, ou livres blancs. As before, in Monnoye blanche. Siluer Sous, or two ſhilling peeces of ſiluer.

Tunique blanche. One of th'eyes principall tunicles; comes from th'inner skinne of th'eye lids, imbraces all the eye, and bindes it vnto the parts that bee about it.

Blanc-doux. A white ſweeting; (an apple whereof excellent cyder is made.)

Blance: f. White wheat, ſquare eared wheat.

Blanchards: m. An order of Friers, who goe ordinarily in white ſheets, and weare neither hats nor ſhooes.

Blanchaſtre: com, Whitely, whitiſh; pale, wan, ſomewhat white, inclining to white.

Blanche: ſans Blance; Alſo, the Queene Dowager, ſo called of the people of France, becauſe ſhe euer mourned in white; a faſhion altered at the funerall of Henrie the ſecond by the late Queene Mother; alſo, whiting, or white liming.

Des blanches. A kind of the fiſh, called Bleaks.

Blanche d'aigneaux. White lamme, or white budge.

Blancheaſtre. as Blanchaſtre.

Blanche-puce. The Sea ground-Pine (a whitiſh hearb.)

Blanche-

Blanche-putain. The hearbe Ranke-goat, or ſtinking Motherwort.
Blanche-pute. as Blanche-puce.
Blanche-queuë. The rauenous Kite called, a Ring-taile.
Blanchet : m. A blanket for a bed ; alſo, white wollen cloth ; alſo, a peticote thereof ; alſo, the apple called, a white ſweeting.
Blanchet: m.ette : f. Whitiſh ; or, a little white.
Blanchette : f. Fine white flower of wheat.
Blancheur : f. Whiteneſſe.
Blanchi : m.ie : f. Blanched, whited, whitened; alſo, ſorted, or ſhifted, with cleane linnen.
Blanchiment. as Blanchiſſage.
Blanchir. To blanch, white, whiten, make white ; alſo. to whiten, or grow white ; alſo, to ſort, ſuite, or ſhift, with cleane linnen.
Blanchiſſage : m. A whitning ; a whiting, or white-liming ; a pargetting white ; alſo, a blanching.
Blanchiſſeur : m. A white dauber, or white limer ; alſo, a whitener of clothes.
Blanchiſſeuſe : f. A Laundreſſe, or woman that vſes to whiten clothes.
Blancque : f. A blanke in rifling, or, in a lotterie ; and hence ;
Ieu de la Blanque. A rifling, or lotterie.
Blancs-manteaux. White cloakes ; an order of begging Friers ; Looke Manteau.
Blanculet : m. A Whittaile ; or bird of her bigneſſe, thats verie fat, and very good meat.
Blande : f. A Salamander ; called ſo of her ſlow, or ſoft, gate.
Blandi : m.ie : f. Blandiſhed, flattered, ſoothed, ſmoothed, glozed with, fawned on ; allured, inueagled with faire words.
Blandices : f. Soothings, flatterings, blandiſhments; allurements, inticements.
Blandir. To blandiſh, flatter, ſooth, gloſe with, fawne on, make faire weather vnto, pleaſe, delight, or tickle the affection with faire words ; alſo, to inueagle, allure, intice, by gentle tearmes, or meanes.
Blandiſſant. Soothing, ſmoothing, glozing with, pleaſing, flattering, fawning on ; inueagling, alluring, inticing, with faire words.
Blandiſſement : m. A blandiſhment ; a ſoothing, ſmoothing, tickling of the mind, and affection with tearmes of flatterie ; a clawing, a glozing with ; an inueagling, alluring, inticing by faire words.
Blandiſſeur : m. A blandiſher, gloſer, ſoother, ſmoother, flattering ſycophant, or claw-backe ; alſo, an allurer, inticer, inueagler (by words, &c.)
Blandureau : m. The white apple, called (in ſome part of England) a Blaundrell.
Blanque. as Blancque; Alſo, a coyne thats worth about a penie Tour.
Blanquet. A kind of the beſt white wine of Languedoc.
Blanquette. The name of a delicate white Summer peare.
Blaphard ; & Blaphaſtre. as Blaffard ; & Blaffaſtre.
Blareau. as Blaireau.
Blaſmable : com. Blamable, rebukeable, reproouable; worthie to be cenſured, or found fault with.
Blaſme : m. Blame, rebuke, a checke ; a cenſure ; a reproofe, chiding, reprehenſion, redargution ; alſo, an imputation, ill report, or diſcommendation.
Blaſme d'adveu. The faults, omiſſions, errours, abuſes found, or quoted by a Lord in the Suruey deliuered him by his tenant.
Blaſmé : m. ée : f. Blamed, rebuked, chidden, taxed, ſhent, reproued, cenſured, condemned ; diſallowed, diſcommended, accuſed, found fault with.
Blaſmer. To blame, rebuke, checke, taxe, chide, reproue, reprehend ; cenſure ; accuſe, diſallow, diſcommend, condemne, find fault with.
Blaſmer l'adveu. A Lord to diſallow of, wrangle about, or, vtterly to refuſe as faultie, or defective, the ſurvey deliuered him by his tenant.
Blaſon : m. Armes, or, a coat of Armes ; alſo, the ſcutchion, or ſhield wherein Armes are painted, or figured ; alſo, Blazon, or the blazing of Armes ; alſo, prayſe, commendation, &c.
Blaſon funebre. A funerall Oration.
Blaſonnant : m. ante : f. Blazing Armes ; alſo, praiſing, extolling, commending ; alſo, (the contrarie) reproching, diſpraiſing, detracting from.
Blaſonné : m. ée : f. Blazed, as a coat, or ſcutchion of Armes ; alſo, praiſed, extolled, commended ; alſo, (the contrarie) diſpraiſed, reproached, detracted from.
Blaſonner. To blaze Armes ; alſo, to praiſe, extoll, commend ; or, to publiſh the prayſes, diuulge the perfections, proclaime the vertues of ; alſo (the contrarie) to reprooue, diſpraiſe, derogate, or detract from ; (In which ſence we alſo vſe the word, blaze.)
Blaſonneur : m. A Herauld ; or, ſkilfull blazer of Armes ; alſo, a reuiler, detracter, euill ſpeaker, foule mouthed fellow.
Blaſphemateur : m. A blaſphemer ; a reuiler of God ; a railer on goodneſſe.
Blaſphematoire : com. Blaſphematorie, blaſphemous.
Blaſpheme : m. Blaſpemie ; an opprobrious reuiling of God, or goodneſſe; any horrible execration, or great, and cauſeleſſe oath, wherein Gods name is abuſed.
Blaſphemé : m. ée : f. Blaſphemed.
Blaſpheмer. To blaſpheme, curſe, reuile God, or his workes, (as they be his.)
Blaſſer. To foment, moyſten, or, bath gently with the hand a hurt (eſpecially about a horſe.)
Blatir. To knit, contract, gather vp, draw, or ſhrinke in, himſelfe.
Blattaire. Mothe-mullein (an hearbe.)
Blatte : f. A certaine moath which gnawes both cloth, and bookes ; alſo, a beetle ; alſo, a kind of red wheat ; alſo, a ſilkeworme ; alſo, as Belette.
Blatte byſance. The ſmall, ſmooth, and long ſhell of a certaine fiſh, vſed in perfumes, and called in ſhops, Onyx, &, vnguis odoratus.
Blattier : m. A marchant, or ingroſſer of corne.
Blavée : f. Corne land ; or, land which hath corne growing on it.
Blavelles. as Blaveoles.
Blaveoles : f. Blew bottles, Blew blawes, Corne flowers.
Blaves. as Blaveoles ; Or, wild Poppie.
Blavier : m. ée : f. Of, or belonging to corne, or corne land.
Sergent blavier. An Officer that watches, and looks vnto corne grounds vntill they be reaped, or cut.
Blaureau. as Blaireau.
Blayer. Seigneur blayer. A Lord that hath Droict de blayrie.
Blayeries : f. Corne lands, corne grounds, corne countries.
Blayrie : f. A corne ground, or corne countrey ; alſo, the feeding feeding of cattell vpon corne lands, a raking with cattell ouer corne lands; alſo, the ſeaſon (from th'Annunciation to th'end of Harueſt) wherein cattell may, in ſome places, be turned, by ſome priuiledged perſons, into common corne grounds.

Droict de blayrie. Libertie, to turne his cattell a grazing into common corne grounds; or, as in Blairie.

Blé. as Bled.

Blece-eſprit. (For, Bleſſe-eſprit) Soule-hurting, ſpirit-wounding.

Bleceure: f. as Bleſſure.

Bleche: com. Flaggie, ouer ſoft; puft vp with an vnſound fulneſſe.

Blecque-pomme blecque. An apple thats too ripe, or too mellow.

Bled: m. (Any manner of) corne; and particularly (or when tis vſed without addition) wheat.

Bled barbu. A kind of Panicke, tearmed by ſome, Turkie Hirſe, by others, out-landiſh Panicke, or bearded wheat; alſo the ordinarie bearded wheat.

Bled bernage. Meſlin, or moulture corne; Wheat, Rie, and Barley mingled; alſo, corne that grew on a mans owne land, or in his owne ſoyle; corne of that countrey, or of a certaine countrey.

Bled frime. Horſe-flower, Oxe-wheat, Cow-wheat; Blacke-wheat.

Bled d'Inde. as Bled de Turquie.

Bled leger. Spelt, or Zea; a corne which makes light and ſauoric, but not verie nouriſhing, bread.

Bled locar. Saint Peters corne; (a kind of wall Barley.)

Bled meſtail. Meſlin; Wheat, Rye, and Barley, mingled.

Bled Marſés. March corne; any corne thats vſually ſowed in March; alſo, as Excourgeon.

Bled mouture. Moulture corne; or Meſlin.

Bled noir. Blacke wheat, Cow-wheat, Oxe-wheat.

Bled poullart, & poullé. as Bled locar.

Bled rouge. Ordinarie red wheat; called by ſome Kentiſhmen, Duck-wheat, and Normandie wheat.

Bled Sarraſin. French wheat, Bucke-wheat, Bolymong (a verie courſe graine;) alſo, as Bled de Turquie.

Bled tremés. March corne, Summer corne; ſuch corne as is ripe within three monethes after it is ſowen.

Bled turguet. Amelcorne, Starch-corne.

Bled de Turquie. Turkie corne, Turkie wheat; (whereof there be diuers kinds, differing in colour.)

Traite de bleds. An impoſition of iij. pounds x. ſhillings Tour. vpon euerie tunne of wheat (and ratably, vpon all ſorts of graine) tranſported.

Manger ſon bled en herbe. To turne his cattell into his corne before it be eared; or, to ſell his corne on the ground, and ſpend the money before it be ripe; to ſpend his rents before they be due, his reuenew before it come in; waſtfully to conſume, or ſend packing, his patrimonie.

Prendre entre la haye, & le bled. To ſurpriſe, or take vnprouided.

A quelque pris qu'eſt le bled. How deere ſoeuer it coſt me, how hardly ſoeuer I come by it, what price ſoeuer I giue for it.

En petit champ croiſt bien bon blé: Prov. Small fields haue good corne growing in them.

On ſeme les bleds à l'auanture: Prov. viz. Not knowing whether they will come vp or no.

Bledier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, corne.

Terre blediere. Corne ground; land that beares corne, or abounds therein.

Bleme. as Bleſme.

Blemy. Growne pale, wan, bleake, white.

Blepharoïde. Tunique ble. One of the eyes little tunicles, whereby the waterie humour is diſtinguiſhed from the glaſſie one.

Blereau. as Blaireau. A Badger.

Bleſme: com. Pale, wanne, bleake, whitiſh, dead coloured.

Se loger ſur le bleſme. Seeke Loger.

Bleſmet: m. ette: f. Somewhat pale, a little wan.

Bleſmi: m. ie: f. Growne pale, wan, bleake.

Bleſmer. To looke pale, grow wan, wax bleake, whitiſh, dead coloured.

Bleſmiſſement: m. Paleneſſe, wanneſſe, bleakeneſſe; alſo, a looking, or waxing, pale, wan, bleake.

Bleſmiſſeure: f. as Bleſmiſſement.

Bleſſable: com. Woundable.

Bleſſé: m. ée: f. Hurt, wounded; vlcerated; whoſe fleſh is cut, or bruiſd; whoſe skin is fretted off.

Bleſſer. To wound, or hurt; (whether by a bloudwipe, dry blow, or bruiſe) to vlcerate, or fret off, the skin.

Bleſſer l'hnnoeur de. To depraue, or detract from; to blemiſh the reputation of.

Tel tue qui ne penſe que bleſſer: Prov. Some kill ſuch as they would but hurt.

Bleſſure: f. A wound, or hurt; an (offenſiue, or painfull) blow, cut, bruiſe, or skarre; alſo, a wounding, or hurting.

Blet: m. A blocke, doult, luske, ſot, hoydon, lobcocke.

Blete: f. A turfe, or peat: ¶Norm.

Blette: f. The hearbe called Blite, and Blits; alſo, as Belette.

Blette blanche. The great, or ordinaric (white) Blite.

Blette d'Eſpaigne. Spaniſh Beets; or th'ordinarie Blites; (an hearbe that hath neither ſauour, taſt, nor ſtore of qualities.)

Blette grande. The great red Beet, or Blite.

Blette noire. as Blette rouge.

Blette rouge. Th'ordinarie red Blite.

Blette. poire blette. An ouer-ripe peare; a peare thats rotten, or vnſound at the heart.

Bleu: m. bleuë: f. Blew.

Bleüaſtre: com. Blewiſh, or ſomewhat blew.

Bleüet: m. Blew-bottle, Blew-blaw, Corne-flower, Hurt-ſickle.

Bliſtres. as Beliſtres; Alſo, the hearbe called Bleets.

Bloc: m. A groſſe, great, or generalitie; the whole of; or a heape of diuers wares hudled together; alſo, a block, or log.

En bloc. Summarily, by great, in the whole.

En bloc, & en taſche. One with another, tag and rag, all together.

Blocaille: f. Rubbiſh, ſhards, ragged ſtones; any groſſe ſtuffe, whereof rude walls (or morter for ſtone walls) are made.

Bloccage: m. as Blocaille.

Bloccageux: m. euſe: f. Full of ſhards; rubbiſh, &c.

Bloccaillé. as Blocaille.

Bloccailleux. as Bloccageux.

Blocul: m. The chiefeſt pole that vpholdeth a tent; alſo, a little fort, or block-houſe.

Blond: m. blonde: f. Light yellow, ſtraw coloured, flaxen; alſo, (in hawkes, or ſtags) bright tawnie, or deer-coloured.

Blondelet: m. ette: f. Yellowiſh, pale yellow, ſomewhat flaxen haired.

Blondir. To grow light yellow, flaxen, or ſtraw coloured.

Blon-

Blondoré : m.ée : f. Of a golden yellow.
Blondoyement : m. A making, or becomming light yellow.
Blondoyer. as Blondir.
Blondurel. The Blaundrell apple.
Bloquaille. as Blocaille.
Bloquer. To ſhut in, or block vp; to beſiege, beſet, or compaſſe on all ſides; alſo, to conclude, or make vp a bargaine.
Bloquil. as Blocul (in the firſt ſence.)
Bloſse. poire bloſſe. An ouer mellow peare; a peare ſo ſoft as it is readie to rot.
Blot. as Bloc.
Bloti : m.ie : f. Squat, ſkowked, hidden; lying, or kept cloſe.
Blotir. To ſquat, skowke, or lye cloſe to the ground, like a daring Larke, or affrighted fowle; alſo, to hide, or keepe, cloſe.
Blotte. as Bloutre.
Blotter. To blot, ſtaine, blemiſh, defile.
Bloty : m.ye : f. Squat; laid cloſe; kept cloſe.
Blouquette. See Bouclette.
Blouse : f. A cloſe Tennis court, or a Tennis court in a hall, hauing a houſe on either ſide to ſerue on; ſo called at Orleans.
Bloutre : f. A clod, or clot of earth.
Bloutré : m. ée : f. Cloddie; full of clods.
Bloutroer : m. A Rowler; the round woodden inſtrument wherewith allyes are ſmoothed; walkes planed; and clods broken.
Bloutroir. as Bloutroer.
Bluard : m.arde : f. Gray, skie coloured, blewiſh.
Bluet : m. Blew-blaw, Blew-bottle, Corne-flower, Hurt-ſickle.
Bluette : f. A little ſtreake, or ſparke of heat, in the aire, when the ſeaſon is verie hot; and, more generally, any ſparke, or ſparkle of a flame.
Bluetter. To ſparke, or ſparkle; to caſt out, or yeeld forth ſparkes, or ſparkles.
Blute. as Bluet.
Bluté : m. ée : f. Boulted, alſo, toſſed, or ſwungd vp & downe.
Bluteau : m. A boulting cloth.
Bluter. To boult meale; alſo, to ſwing vp and downe, as a Baker doth his boulting cloth.
Bluterie : f. A boulting tub; alſo, a boulting.
Bluteur. A boulter of meale.
A bon bluteur May propice : Prov. A wooer ſpeeds (oft times) the better for his weapon.
Bluttage : m. A boulting of meale, &c.
Bluttement : m. A boulting; alſo, a ſwinging vp and downe.
Blutté. as Bluté.
Blutteau. as Bluteau.
Blutter. as Bluter; To boult, &c.
Blutteur. A boulter of meale; See Bluteur.
Bluttis. A boulting tub; or a roome to boult meale in.
Bluttoir : m. The ſame.
Bo. as Bois; Wood: ¶Pic.
Boage : f. A place in Abbies, &c, full of drawers, wherein they lay vp Copes, &c.
Bobance : f. Riot, luxurie, vnthriftneſſe, exceſſiue ſpending, immoderate expence; (and becauſe that humour is commonly accompanied with pride, it ſignifies) alſo, inſolencie, ſurquedrie, proud or preſumptuous boaſting.
Bobancer. To Riot, ſquander, waſt, outlaſh; alſo, to boaſt.
Bobancier : m. An vnthrift, riotous waſter, ſuperfluous ſpender, immoderate ſtroy-good, luxurious or exceſſiue ſquanderer; (And becauſe ſuch a one is, commonly, proud of his (as he preſumes) liberalitie, it ſignifies) alſo, a proud, ſaucie, boaſting, or inſolent, aſſe.
Bobans : m. Riot, luxurie, waſting, vnthriftineſſe, exceſſiue ſpending, ſuperfluous, or immoderat expence; or as Bobance.
Bobelin : m. A patch, botch, peece, ſet on a ſhooe, or garment.
Bobeline : f. An old patched ſhooe, or garment.
Bobeliner. To cobble, patch, botch, or mend an olde thing.
Bobelineur : m. A cobler, botcher, patcher, mender of old things.
Bobine : f. A quill for a ſpinning wheele; alſo, a skaine, or hanke of gold, or ſiluer thread.
Bobulaire : com. Big, huge, vnweldie like an Oxe.
Bobulaires : f. Toyes, traſh; dotings, doltiſh things.
Bocage : m. A groue, thicket, or ſmall wood; a place thats ſtored, or ſet thicke with trees; whence;
Païs de bocage. A wood-land countrey.
Bocager : m.ere : f. Grouie, wooddie; of, or belonging to groues, thickets, woods; alſo, frequenting, or affecting thickets, groues, or woods.
Bocageux; as Bocager; Or, full of thickets, groues, or woods.
Bocagier : m.ere : f. Wooddie, grouie; &c; as Bocager.
Bocal : m. A Viol; or any ſuch (big-bellied, long-necked, and ſmall-mouthed) veſſell, of earth, or (the more properly) of glaſſe; for water, wine, &c.
Boccabrevé : f. The name of a certaine apple.
Boccaner. as Boucaner.
Boccaſin : m. Boccaſin; or, a kind of fine buckeram, that hath a reſemblance of taffata, and is much vſed for lining; alſo, the ſtuffe Callimanco.
Boce. Looke Boſſe.
Bochaſſe. A wild Cheſtnut.
Bocie : f. A lymbecke, or ſtillitorie.
Boclus. Looke Bouclus.
Bocon. as Boucon.
Bocque : f. A kind of great-eyed Cackerell fiſh, the which hath on her back many golden, and ſiluer-hued ſtreaks running along from her neck to her taile; alſo, a floud-gate, or ſluce.
Bocquer. To butte, or iurre.
Bocquet : m. A groue, or thicket; a little wood.
Bode : m. A young Bull.
Boëſſeau : m. as Boiſſeau.
Boëſſelet. as Boiſſelet. A little buſhell.
Boëte; & Boëtte; Looke Boiſte; alſo, ſmall, or houſehold wine.
Boëtouyer. To limpe, hault, be lame.
Boëttelette : f. A little box.
Boeuf : m. An Ox; a Beeſe; alſo, beeſe.
Boeuf bran, ou brane. A kind of wild Oxe in Prouence, and Langued. vnreclaimable, and onely good for the ſhambles.
Boeuf de dieu. A Wren.
Boeuf de mer. The Seale, or Sea-calfe; alſo, a ſea monſter that reſembles an Oxe.
Langue de boeuf. The leſſe, and rougher, kind of Bugloſſe, called Oxe-tongue, and Lang-de beef.
Mort aux boeufs. A certaine hearbe whereof if an Oxe do eat he dies immediately of the ſquinſie; and therefore we may call it Oxebane.
Mouche aux boeufs. A brizze, gadbee, Oxe flie.
Oeil de boeuf. An out-ſtrouting, or great-goggle eye; alſo, the hearbe Oxe-eye; alſo, the hearbe called fooliſh Mathes,

Mathes, vnſauorie white Cotula, and white vnſauorie Camomill; Seeke Oeil.

Pennache de boeuf. A goodly paire of hornes.

Teſte de boeuf. A ioulthead, iobernoll, cods-head, grouthead, logerhead; one whoſe wit is as little as his head is great.

Homme de porc, & de boeuf. A groſſe, baſe, rude, vnciuile, or vnmanerly, churle; a clunch, a cluſterfiſt.

Prendre vn boeuf par les cornes. To vndertake a dangerous exploit.

Quiter vn boeuf pour prendre vn oeuf. To quit an Oxe for an egge; or, as our fenne-men, rather catch a ducke than feed an Oxe.

Tourner la charrue contre les boeufs. We ſay, to ſet the cart before the horſe; Looke Tourner.

Le boeuf las marche ſouef: Prov. The wearie Oxe goes ſlowly; men that are beaten to the practiſe of the world are calme, and moderate in their proceedings.

Le boeuf par la corne, & l'homme par la parole: Prov. Se lient, is vnderſtood; (for in forreine countries Oxen are yoked by the hornes.)

Le boeuf ſalé faict trouver le vin ſans chandelle: Prov. The ſalt beefe-eater needs no candle to find his liquor withall; or ſalt beefe is your onely lantorne in a darke ſellar.

Le grand boeuf apprend à labourer au petit: Pro. The old Oxe teaches the young to draw; wee ſay (with ſome ſmall difference) the young cocke croweth, as he the old heareth.

Les grands boeufs ne font pas les grandes iournées: Pro. The greateſt Oxen rid not moſt worke; we ſay, the greateſt crabs are not all the beſt meat.

Au pauvre vn oeuf vaut vn boeuf: Prov. An egge is as deere to a poore man, as an Oxe to a rich; or, a poore man is as well content with an egge as with an Oxe.

Dieu donne biens & boeuf, mais ce n'eſt pas par la corne: Prov. God giues things plentifully and without perill.

Il ne faut iouër au boeuf: Prov. An Oxe is no fit, or no ſafe, play-fellow.

Mieux vaut en paix vn oeuf qu' en guerre vn boeuf: Prov. Seeke Oeuf.

On a beau mener le boeuf à l'eau s'il n' a ſoif: Pro. In vaine is an Oxe led to the water if he be not athirſt; we ſay (with ſome difference of ſence) a man may lead his horſe to the water, but cannot make him drinke vnleſſe he liſt.

Pas à pas le boeuf prend le lievre: Pro. A patient, & moderat proceeding, effects great matters.

Bogue. as Bocque; Alſo, the bunch, top, tuft, or huske wherein the ſeeds of hearbs are incloſed; (whence) alſo, the rough, or prickly rind of a greene cheſtnut.

Bogue ravel. Seeke Ravel.

Bohade. as Bouãde: ¶ Auvergnois.

Bohourd. as Behourd.

Bohourder. as Behourder.

Bohu. Emptie, vacant: ¶ Rab.

Boicheron: m. A wood-cleauer, or wood-feller.

Boie: f. A kind of great water-ſnake, that vſes to ſucke whole beards of kine.

Boiffer. To bungle vp, or ſlubber ouer, things in haſt.

Boiffeur: m. A bungler vp, or ſlubberer ouer, of things in haſt.

Boileau. An ordinarie drinker of water.

Boiler. as Vouloir; To will: ¶ Gaſc.

Boileſve. as Boileau.

Boire: m. Drinke, beuerage.

Il ſe ſent vn peu de boire. He is ſomewhat muſtie, a little mellow, almoſt ouerſeene (in drinke.)

Boire. To drinke, bouſe, bib, ſwill, quaffe, tipple; to ſucke, or ſwallow vp; to receiue, or ſake in; alſo, to ſmell, or vent, an ill ſauour.

Boire ſa bride. A horſe to draw vp his bit into his mouth with his tongue.

Boire la goutte ſur l'ongle. To leaue but one onely drop in the cup.

Boire a-lut. To drinke all out, all vp; to leaue iuſt nothing.

Boire ſon mors. as Boire ſa bride.

Boy le vin comme Roy, boy l'eau comme Taureau: Pro. For th'one vſes not to drinke much, th'other will drinke no more than he needs.

Aſſez boit qui a dueil: Prov. He hath drinke ynough that hath ſorrow ynough; or, as in Dueil.

A petite fontaine boit on à ſon aiſe: Prov. In a meane eſtate moſt eaſe.

Aller & parler peut on, boire enſemble & manger non: Pro. A man may viſit, & conuerſe with a friend, but muſt not, if he meane to keepe him, feed with him; the beſt way to preſerue a friend, is, not to be verie inward with him.

Apres compter il faut boire: Prov. The reckoning ended we muſt drinke together; (a Dutch concluſion.)

Apres tout dueil boit on bien: Pro. (So tipling ſucceedeth teeene.)

Celuy de bon ſens ne jouït, qui boit & ne s' en reſjouït: Pro. He that in drinking feels no pleaſure, his wits be ſurely out of meaſure.

Qui a fait la faute ſi la boive: Prov. Let him that did amiſſe be puniſhed.

Qui bon l'achepte bon le boit: Pro. He that buyes good wine drinks good wine.

Qui n'a laine bovie à la fontaine: Pro. Let him that hath no wealth drinke at the well.

Tel eſt petit qui boit bien: Pro. Though he be little he can tipple.

Tel fait la faute qu'un autre boit: Pro. One commits the fault which another is blamed for.

Vne fois l'année l'on s'appreſte à boire: Pro. Once in a yeare a man prepares himſelfe to drinke; (viz. of his owne wine, in vintage time.)

Bois: m. Wood; alſo, a wood; alſo, a ſtaffe, launce, or ſpeare; alſo, the head, or hornes of a deere.

Bois d'aloë. th'aromatical wood called Lignũ Aloes.

Bois de baulme. The ſweet wood of the Balſam tree.

Bois bedat. Looke Bedat.

Bois blanc. Priuet; (called ſo at Lyons) alſo, as Blanc bois.

Bois de brin. Round, or vncleft-ſmall-wood (of what kind ſoeuer.)

Bois de carde. Small billets; or wood thats like, but leſſe than, billets.

Bois chablis. Windfalls; Looke Chablis.

Bois de charpente. Timber.

Bois pour charrons. Yple plankes.

Bois de coupe. See Coupe.

Bois cuict. Charcoale.

Bois debout. The branch (of a vine) left growing (when all the reſt are lopped) for a future yeares increaſe.

Bois de deluge. Okẽ trees, or timber, which hauing bin lõg ouerwhelmed in water, are become as black as Ebony

Bois d'eſcaille. The heart of wood, or of timber (ſo called by Ioyners.)

Bois d'eſquine. The knottie, and medicinable root of a certaine (Indian) bullruſh.

Bois à faucillon. Bruſh wood, ſmall wood.

Bois flotte. A float-boat; of wood, or timber, fastened together, and conueied down a streame vnto the place where it is to be sold or vsed.
Bois flotté. The same.
Bois fruictier. The branch of a tree, or plant, which beareth fruit; a fruit-bearing branch.
Bois de fustée. Branchlesse wood; naked, or powld, trees.
Bois gentil. The plant Mezereon, Germane Olive-spurge, Dwarfe-Bay.
Bois de haute fustaye. High trees, tall & great trees, goodly woods; properly, such as haue not beene cut, nor lopped of at the least 30 yeres before; Looke Fustaye.
Bois Hierosme. The name of a certaine tender and delicate peare.
Le bois d'une lict. A bedstead.
Bois mort. All kind of dead, and drie wood in forrests; firewood.
Bois mosle. as Bois de moulle; especially in the last sence.
Bois de moulle. Billets; logs; or log-wood; great firewood of a certaine size; or any wood that hath beene assized by a Mouleur.
Bois d'oeuvre. Great timber, or wood, squared, and readie for vse, or worke.
Bois puant. Stinking beane-trefoile; (a shrub.)
Bois de quartier. Quarters of timber; or timber for quarters.
Bois reuenant. A copse, or yong wood.
Bois sainct. Gwacum, Pock-wood.
Bois de sap, ou de sapin. Deale planks, deale boords.
Bois de serpe. Wood of ten yeres growth, or vpwards.
Bois taillis. Copse-wood, vnder-wood; such wood as is felled, or cut euery seuen or eight yeares.
Bois de touche. A holt, groue, or thicke Tuft of high trees (growing neere a house, & gracing the seat therof.)
Bois vedat. as Bois bedat; Looke Bedat.
Blanc bois. Box, willow, Poplar, Aspe, & other smaller trees, whose wood is not fit for timber-worke.
Gentil bois. Wild line, wild flax.
Long bois. A pike, launce, or speare.
Mort bois. Willow, Thorne, Alder, Broome, Ginepar; generally, all trees that either beare no fruit, or no profitable fruit.
Grand abbateur de bois. A great bugbeare, kill-cow, scarre-crow.
Ie cognois bien de quel bois il se chauffe. I know well ynough what helps he vseth, what meanes he relies on; or, I know very well what stuffe there is in him, what matter he's made of; what course hee followes, what maner of life he leads.
Il est du bois dont on le fait. Said of a dull fellow, or of one that is no other than he is made, or hath nothing but what is put into him.
Faire de bois flesches. Il ne sçait plus de quel bois faire flesches. He is at the last cast, at his wits end, at his vtmost; he knowes no longer what course to take, what meanes to vse, what shift to make.
Faire de tout bois flesches. To vse euery thing, or entertaine any thing, that serues his turne, or makes for his purposes.
Faire haut le bois. Souldiors to stop and make a stand, aduancing their pikes; also, to drinke hard, carouse lustily, quaffe apace.
Faire visage de bois à. To shut, or clap to, a doore against; in stead of a welcome to shut out of doores.
Pour fendre le bois il fit des coings du bois mesme He made the mans owne meanes &c, the instruments of his ruine.
Mettre le doigt entre le bois, & l'escorce. To intrude himselfe, or looke too far into, the businesses, or controuersies, which are betweene two neere friends; also, to set them at ods, or together by the eares.
L'oeil tendu au bois. Warily, watchfully, circumspectly; aduisedly; as one that tends, heeds, or lookes well to, his charge, or businesse.
Vn oeil au bois l'autre à la ville. Seeke Oeil.
Porter bien son bois. (A horseman) to carrie, or wield his staffe with a good grace.
Elle porte bien son bois. She is of a comely, stately, gallant carriage; or, shee hath a tall, straight, or vpright bodie, and as well she beares it.
Porter des fueilles au bois. To carrie leaues to the wood; to powre water into the sea.
Retourner au champ du bois. To fall vnto his former ill course, or pace; to returne to his old haunt, or vomit.
La victoire sera comme il plaira au bois qui aura bonne beste. He shall win the victorie that can best bestirre himselfe, or lay about him.
Bois laid, & inutile porte le fruict pretieux: Prov. (Meant of the vine) so may a foule, and foolish mother beare an excellent daughter.
Bois ont oreilles, & champs oeillets: Prov. Some beare, and see him, whom he heareth, nor seeth not; but fields haue eyes, and woods haue eares, ye wot; (¶ Heywood.)
Le bois acquiert le plain. Seeke Plain.
Tout bois vaut busches: Prov. All wood is worth logs.
A conseil de fol cloche de bois: Prov. For woodden consultations woodden bells.
Il fait mauvais aller au bois quand les loups s'entremangent: Prov. Tis ill going to the wood when wolues (are so hungrie, that they) eat one another.
La faim chasse les loups hors du bois: Prov. Hunger driues wolues out of the wood; or (as we say) breaks downe stone walls.
Pour neant va au bois qui marrein ne cognoist: Pro. To no purpose he vndertakes a businesse that vnderstands not the substance, effect, or end, of it.

Boise: f. A log, or great peece of wood; and (more particularly) a brace, of timber.
Boisé: m. ée: f. Hafted, or trimd with box.
Boisseau: m. The (French) bushell; (and the 12 part of a Septier*) is somewhat lesse than our* London pecke, & a halfe; for a Boisseau of wheat weighes 20 pounds; our pecke of wheat meale 14.
Boissel d'ozier. A weele, or weere of Ozier twigs.
Boisselet: m. A small (French) bushell; or, the halfe of a Boisseau.
Boisselier: m. A maker, or seller of Boisseaux.
Boissiere: f. A hedge, thicket, or plot of Box trees.
Boisson: f. Drinke; any liquor wherewith our thirst is quenched; and particularly, small houshold wine.
Boissonnerie: f. Excessiue drinking; swilling, quaffing.
Boiste: f. A box; pix; forset; little casket; also, a chamber for a peece of ordnance; also, as Auche.
Boiste de gouvernail. The socket of a Rudder.
La boiste d'un os. The hollow panne wherein a huckle-bone is lodged.
Lance à boiste. A launce with a blunt, or burre head; a tilting staffe.
Es petites boistes met on les bons onguens: Prov. Sweet ointments are in little boxes put.

Boiſtelette: f. A little box, or pix.
Boiſtemént: m. A limping, halting, lameneſſe, of a leg.
Boiſtément. Limpingly, haltingly, lamely.
Boiſter. To limpe, halt; be lame, vnperfect, maimed of a leg.
Boiſteux: m. euſe: f. Limping, tripple, halting, lame of a leg.
Attendre la venue du boiſteux. To expect a matter thats ſlow, or long in comming.
Clocher deuant les boiſteux. See Clocher.
Boiſtuſant, Limping, halting.
Boite. as Boiſte.
Ce vin eſt en ſa boite. This wine is drinkable, in ſeaſon to be drunke, fit to be drawne.
Boitement. A limping, or halting.
Boiter. To limpe, to halt.
Boiteux. as Boiſteux.
Boitouſer. To limpe, halt; be lame of a leg.
Boitte: f. as Boiſte; &, as Boite.
Boitte de foing. A bottle of hay; (v.m.)
Bovin: m. A wine drinker; one that drinks nothing but wine, or wine for the moſt part.
Bol: m. Th'aſtringent, and medicinable red earth, or minerall, called Bolearmenie; alſo, as Bolus.
Bol Oriental; &, Bol Armenien Oriental. Oriental Bolearmenie; the beſt, and trueſt kind of Bolearmenie, miniſtred (with good effect) againſt all poiſons, and in peſtilent diſeaſes; and more red than the ordinarie one, which ſhould rather bee tearmed Sinopian red earth than Bolearmenie; Looke Rubrique Sinopique.
Bolar: m. A kind of Aſpe-reſembling tree; called thus about Tours.
Bolarmene. Bolearmenie.
Bole d'Armenie. The ſame.
Bolet: m. A little muſhrome, or toadſtoole; as, Bolete.
Bolete: f. A little toadſtoole, or muſhrome; white without, red within, and the beſt meat of all others.
Bolieure: f. A lip, or chap.
Boline: f. The Boline; a rope vſed when a ſhip ſayls with a ſide wind, or goes neere a wind; whence;
Vent à la boline. A ſide, or ſcant wind.
Boliner. To ſayle by a wind, or cloſe vpon a wind; to lay tacke aboord.
Bolleau. as Bouleau.
Bollettes de Cypres. Cyprus nuts, or Clogs.
Bolouër: m. A bulwarke.
Bolus: m. A gobbet; morſell, mouth-full; as much as one can let downe at once; alſo, clay which hath no minerall ſubſtance in it.
Bombance: f. as Bobans; Alſo, a bragging, or vaunting.
Bombarde: f. A Bumbard, or murthering peece.
Bombarder. To diſcharge a Bumbard; to batter, or murder with Bumbards.
Bombardier. A Bumbardier, or gunner that vſeth to diſcharge murthering peeces; and, more generally, any gunner.
Bombaſin: m. The ſtuffe Bumbaſine; or any kind of ſtuffe thats made of cotton, or of cotton, and linnen.
Bombycine: f. The ſecond, and worſe kind of the Leuant Manna, being alſo, commonly, ſophiſticated.
Bon: m. The goodneſſe, good, or beſt of a thing; the height, principall part, or point, of a matter.
Le bon de l'argent. The ſurpluſage, or ouerplus of the money.
Le bon fut. The beſt, or, onely ſport of it, was.
Au bon du coup. When moſt good may be done in the matter; or, when it is time to do a mans beſt in it.
Avoir du bon. Il veut touſiours avoir du bon. He will euer be in the right; in diſpute he muſt alwayes be yeelded vnto.
Faire bon avec. Il faict bon avec luy. He is a good maſter, his ſeruice (or companie) is worth the hauing.
Faire bon pour. To anſwer, or giue his word for; alſo, to play the game of.
Tenez moy bon. Hold me play, keepe me tacke, ſtand to me, continue with me.
Bon: m. Bonne: f. Good, honeſt, vertuous, vpright, ſincere; alſo, apt, orderly, meet, fit; right; currant; holeſome, plauſible, fauourable, gracious, propitious; alſo, valiant, hardie, couragious; alſo, able, durable; ſufficient.
Bon homme; & bonne femme. A title commonly beſtowed on an old man, or woman in reuerente of their age; whereupon ſome will merily anſwer to ſuch as thinke to grace them with that title, Ie ne vas pas encores au baſton.
Bon temps. Proſperitie; alſo, merriment; or, time ſpent in merriment.
Bailler bonne. Il luy l'a baillé bonne. He hath plagued him throughly, he hath tickled him ſoundly, he hath paid him home, he hath dealt extreamly with him; alſo, he hath giuen him a notable gudgeon.
Vous la baillez bonne, True Roger; now you haue hit it; now you pay it home; Irronically.
Eſtre en ſes bonnes. To be in a good mood, plauſible humor, pleaſant vaine; alſo, to be kindly diſpoſed.
Il la luy garda bonne. He owed him a good turne; alſo, (the contrarie) he bore him a grudge, a long time after, for it.
Tenir bon. To hold good, to continue faithfull, or conſtant in a matter.
Iouer à bonne veuë. To play ſure play, ſtand on ſafe tearmes, hazard little or nothing, know well ynough what he does.
Tout à bon. Throughly, fully.
Trouver bon. To approue, applaud, like, allow of.
Bon Advocat mauvais voiſin: Prov. A good Councellor an ill companion.
Bonne beſte s'eſchauffe en mangeant: Prov. A good beaſt eats apace; or, as we ſay, good at meat good at worke.
Bon charron tourne en petit lieu: Prov. A skilfull carter turnes in a narrow corner.
Bon chaſteau garde qui ſçait ſon corps garder: Pro. He is a ſufficient warder that can defend his own bodie.
Bon cœur ne peut mentir: Pro. An honeſt heart cannot, a worthy heart wil not, vtter, or be th'author of, vntruthes.
Bon droict a bon meſtier d'aide: Prov. Good right hath need of great helpe; (ſo much ado haue men (in this vniuſt age) to recouer, or keepe, their owne.)
Bon eſt le dueil qui apres aide: Prov. Happie is that ſorrow which is rewarded with happineſſe.
Bon eſt le lievre dont la peau couſte cent ſols: Pro. Seeke Lievre.
Bon eſt le medecin qui ſe ſçait guarir: Prov. He is a good Phyſitian that can heale his owne infirmitie.
Bon gaignage fait bon potage: Pro. Look Potage.
Bon gré mal gré va le preſtre au Sené: Prov. (Some will expound this by a prouerbe of ours; he muſt needs go whom the diuell driues.)
Bon guet chaſſe malaventure: Pro. Good watch preuents misfortune; (faſt bind faſt find, ſay we.)
Bonne iournée fait qui de fol ſe delivre: Pro. he does an excellent dayes work that rids himſelfe of a foole.
Bonne la maille qui ſauve le denier: Prov. Well is is that halfepenie ſpent that ſaues a penie.

Bon marché tire l'argent de la bourſe: Prov. A cheape commoditie picks a cuſtomers purſe.

Bons mots n'eſpargnent nul: Prov. A good mans words are no way partiall; good words pay home.

Bonne mule mauvaiſe beſte: Prov. A good huswife is commonly no ſheepe.

Bons nageurs ſont à la fin noyez: Prov. Looke Nageur.

Bon païs mauvais chemin: Pro. In a fruitfull ground there is filthie going; in the beſt ſoyle the worſt way.

Bonne parole bon lieu tient: Prov. Good ſpeech finds good entertainment; wins great preferment.

Bon ſang ne peut mentir: Prov. A worthy nature cannot conceale it ſelfe. Looke Mentir.

Bon vin bon vinaigre: Prov. Good wine (yeelds) good vinegar.

Bon vin mauvaiſe teſte: Pro. Strong wine makes a weake braine; or, makes a man apt to brabble; (for we ſay of thoſe that after drinking fall to ſwagger; their wine begins to worke.)

A bon chien bon os: Prov. A good dog merits a good bone; Looke Chien.

A bon demandeur bon refuſeur: Prov. A bold aſker is beſt matched by a reſolute denier.

A bon entendeur ne faut qu'une parole: Pro. The wiſe vnderſtand a man by one word.

A bon iour bon oeuvre, & bonnes paroles: Pro. A good day would be ſolemnized with good works, and good words.

A bon vin il ne faut point d'enſeigne: Prov. Good wine draws cuſtomers without any help of an iuy-buſh.

Apres bon vin bon cheval: Pro. Looke Cheval.

Aux bons meſchet il: Prov. The honeſter man the worſe lucke.

De bon terroir bon vin: Prov. A good ſoyle yeelds good fruit.

En bonne maiſon l'on a toſt apreſté: Pro. In an orderly, or plentifull houſe all things are ſoone made readie; or, we ſeldome tarie for our victuals.

Femme bonne qui a mauvais mary a bien ſouvent le coeur marry: Pro. Looke Femme.

Il n'eſt ſi bon qu'auſsi bon ne ſoit: Prov. The beſt man hath his match; the pureſt his Peere; one may be euerie way as good as another.

Il n'eſt ſi bon que femme n'aſſotte: Prov. The wiſeſt man's aſſotted by a woman.

Il n'eſt ſi bon qui ne faille: Pro. The beſt men commit faults; the wiſeſt, errors.

Le mauvais emporte le bon. Seeke Mauvais.

Qui bon l'achepte bon le boit: Pro. He that will go to the price of, or take pains for, good things, may enioy good things.

Qui bons lopins mange bons lopins le ſuyvent: Pro. Proviſion follows him that loues to fare well.

Qui bon maiſtre ſert bon loyer en attend: Pro. He that ſerues a good maſter looks for a good reward.

Qui bon vin boit il ſe repoſe: Prov. He that drinks good wine takes good reſt.

Qui a bon voiſin il a bon matin: Pro. Look Matin.

Tel a bonne cauſe qui eſt condamné: Prov. A iuſt cauſe may be ouerthrowne by an vniuſt ſentence.

Toute choſe qui eſt bonne à prendre eſt bonne à rendre: Pro. Any thing thats good to be taken may wel be reſtored.

Bonace: f. as Bonaſſe.

Bonace: com. Calme, quiet, ſtill, faire.

Bonadies. A good-morrow, good-day, good euen.

Vn donneur de bonadies. One thats ſent vp and downe to carie ſalutations, or complements; alſo, a popular, or liberall, ſaluter of euery one he meets.

Bonadres, for Bonadies. ¶Rab.

Bonaſſe: f. A calme; faire, ſtill, or quiet, weather at ſea,

Bonaſſe: com. Calme, ſtill, quiet; faire.

Bon-creſtien. poire de b. A delicate Winter peare, in ſhape reſembling our baſtard warden.

Bond: m. A bound, a rebound; a hop, skip, leape, iumpe from the earth.

Auoir le bond. Il eut doucement le bond. He had the genile thumpe.

Donner le bond à. In wraſtling to ouerthrow, or giue a fall vnto.

Faire vn faux bond; Elle a faict vn faux bond. She hath got a crack; ſhe hath plaid falſe, or trod her ſhooe awry.

Il m'a faict vn faux bond. He hath dealt falſly, or trecherouſly, with me.

Perdre la volée pour le bond. To looſe an opportunitie, by neglecting it, vpon a hope that it will returne.

Que de bond que de volée: Pro. By booke or crook; by right or wrong; any way; by any meanes; no matter how ſo we haue it; or, what by one means and another.

Bonde: f. A bung, or ſtopple; alſo, a ſluce, or floudgate; and hence, alſo, the yate-ſtang, or beame thats pulled vp, when a mill is to be ſet agate.

Laſcher la bonde à. To giue libertie, or free paſſage, vnto a violent thing.

Bondelle. A kind of fiſh thats not much vnlike a great Smelt; or, the leaſt kind of the fiſh Vmble, well known by thoſe of Geneua, in whoſe lake it breeds.

Bondener. To reaſon, argue, diſpute; alſo, to grumble.

Bondi: m. ie: f. Bounded, rebounded; leaped, iumped, ierted, skipped (ſuddenly, and ſwiftly) vpward.

Bondir. To bound, rebound; to leape, iumpe, iert, skip, riſe (ſuddenly, and ſwiftly) vpward.

Bondiſſement: m. A bounding, rebounding, leaping, iumping, ierting, skipping vpwards.

Bondon: m. A bung, or ſtopple.

Bondonné: m. ée: f. Shut, or ſtopped vp with a bung, or ſtopple.

Bondonner. To ſhut, or ſtop vp with a bung, or ſtopple.

Bondrée: f. A kind of ſhort winged Eagle, that preyes altogether vpon fiſh, frogs, rats, and ſerpents; ſome call her, a Harrower.

Bone: f. as Borne: ¶Pic.

Bon-enten-tu. A good conceit, readie iudgement, ripe wit, quicke vnderſtanding.

Bon-Henry. The wild ſorrell called, Roman ſorrell, round ſorrell, and Tours ſorrell; alſo, the hearbe, good Henry, good king Harry, and Allgood.

Bonhort. as Behourd; A Iuſt, or Turney, wherein many runne together.

Bonifié: m. ée: f. Made good; alſo, benefited, inriched, made wealthie.

Bonifier. To make good; to do good vnto, or vpon; to benefit, inrich, make wealthie.

Boniton: m. The fiſh called, a Bonitoe; ſeene moſt commonly playing in troups before a tempeſt.

Bonnage. as Bornage.

Bonnaire: com. Gentle, courteous, affable; mild; without malice, faithfull, ſincere.

Bonnairement. Gently, mildly, courteouſly; ſincerely, faithfully, with an open heart.

Bonnaireté: f. Gentleneſſe, mildneſſe, courteſie, humanitie, affabilitie, good nature; alſo, ſinceritie, faithfulneſſe, plaine dealing, openheartedneſſe.

Bonne. as Borne.

Bonne-grace: f. Th'vppermoſt flap of the down-hanging taile of a French-hood; (whence belike our Boongrace.)

Bonnement. Well, fitly, aptly, handſomely, conueniently, orderly, to the purpoſe.

Bonnes-dames. The hearbe Orage, or golden hearbe; alſo, Beets.

Bonnet: m. A bonnet, a cap.

Bonnet à la cocarde. See Coquarde.

Bonnet à croppiere. a ſquare cap; a three cornerd cap

Bonnet de fer. An yron ſcull, or ſallade.

Bonnet à la Marabaiſe. A flat cap.

Bonnet de Preſtre. Spindle-tree, Prick-wood, Prick-timber; or as;

Bonnet quarré. The wild cherrie which groweth on the tree whereof Butchers make their pricks.

Bonnet à quatre braguettes, ou gouttieres. A (four-cornered) ſquare cap.

Bonnet verd. A faſhion of greene cap which ceſſionarie bankrupts were, not long ago, enioyned to weare in publique aſſemblies, thereby to be the better knowne and auoyded.

Du temps des hauts bonnets. In old time, when men being rude and ſillie, had not the wit to apparell themſelues handſomely; and hence;

Langage du temps des bonnets, ou des hauts bonnets. An old wiues tale; or a ſtale, obſolete, or ouer-worne language; a faſhion of ſpeaking thats old, and quite out of faſhion.

La teſte prés du bonnet. Avoir la teſte prés, &c; To be hot, haſtie, chollerick; alſo, to be craftie, ſubtile, cunning.

Prendre le bonnet. To commence Maſter of Arts, or take a degree; (hence) alſo, to take on him the gouernment of himſelfe; to waiue all tutorly Iuriſdiction; to refuſe, or haue no need of, further tutoring.

Rire ſous le bonnet. To laugh in the ſleeue.

Bonneter. To put off his cap vnto.

Bonnetier: m. A Capper, or Bonnet-maker; a knitter of caps, a cap knitter.

Bonneton. A little cap, or bonnet.

Bonnette: f. The bonnet of a ſayle.

Bonnette trainereſſe. A drabler; a peece added vnto the bonnet, when there is need of more ſaile.

Bonniere: f. A proportion, or meaſure of land, not much differing from th' Arpent.

Bon-lieu. The name of a Priorie in Burgundie.

Bons-enfans. (The name of) a moſt ancient colledge in th'Vniuerſitie of Paris; firſt called in all congregations, & hauing the firſt, or higheſt, place in all aſſemblies.

Bons-hommes. An order of Friers; as Minimes.

Bonté: f. Goodneſſe, honeſtie, ſinceritie, vertue, vprightneſſe; alſo, bountie, liberalitie; alſo, valour, proweſſe, courage.

Beauté ſans bonté eſt comme vin eſventé: Pro.

Booie. The water Serpent Boas; which vſeth, to ſucke kine, as long as they are milch, and afterwards to deuoure them.

Boolingue. as Boulingue.

Boote. Bootes; a ſlow mouing ſtarre, ſeated in the North Pole, neere vnto Charles waine, the which it followes.

Boque. as Bocque.

Boquet: m. A groue, or ſmall thicket of trees.

Borax: m. Borax, greene earth; Looke Borrais.

Borborigme: m. The rumbling, or croaking of the guts; alſo, the murmuring noiſe yeelded by running waters.

Bord: m. The welt, hem, or ſeluedge, of a garment; (and hence) the welt, or turneoner of a corke ſhoe; alſo, the ſide, edge, brinke, brim, ſhore, of a pit, of a hole, of a riuer, of a water, of the ſea; alſo, th'end, concluſion, or laſt caſt of a matter.

Bords. Ribbons; thicke boords nailed to th'outſide of the floore-timbers of a ſhip.

Bord bas, ou bas bord. The larboord, or left ſide of a ſhip.

Bord plat, or, plat bord. In a ſhip, is the edge of the bridge, from the maine maſt vnto the fore-caſtle, vpon which the great ordnance is placed.

Grain ſur bord. Scant meaſure; hard ſtriken meaſure, of corne, or ſalt.

Oultre bord. Exceſſiuely, beyond meaſure.

Il eſt ſur le bord de la foſſe. He is a drooping, old, decrepit creature; he is alreadie at the pits brinke; hee hath alreadie one foot in his graue.

Prendre bord. To take land, to go aſhore.

Bordage. as Bord; Alſo, a baſe, drudging, or ſeruile tenure; villenage.

Droict de bordage. The drudgerie, or baſe ſeruices, reſerued by ſome Lords vpon the letting of their cottages, or ſmal tenements; which cannot be giuen, ſold, nor engaged by the poore ſlaues that haue taken them.

Borde: f. A little houſe, lodging, or cottage of timber, ſtanding alone in the fields, eſpecially one thats built on wheeles, & may be quickly remoued from field to field; alſo (more generally) any ſcattered houſe, lodge, or village in the country; and (in ſome parts of France) any meſſuage, farme, or farme-houſe; alſo, a ſtalke of pilled hempe.

Bordé: m. ée: f. Bordered, garded, welted; alſo, imbrodered; alſo, ſtopped, or ſtayed; whence;

Nous ſommes bordez à midy. We left work at noon; (ruſtically.)

Bordeau: m. A brothell, or bawdie-houſe; the Stewes.

Bordelage: m. Brothelling, wenching, whoore-hunting.

Bordeler. To hunt whoores, to bannt baudie houſes.

Bordelier: m. A wencher, whoore-munger, whoore-hunter, haunter of baudie houſes; alſo, as Bourdelier.

Bordeliere: f. A certaine freſh-water fiſh, that reſembles a Breame, and hath neither teeth, nor tongue.

Bordelois. The name of a verie great grape.

Border. To border, gard, welt; alſo, to imbroder; alſo, to ſtay, ſtop, leaue off, giue ouer; whence;

Border les avirons. To hold vp the oares, or to ſurceaſe rowing.

Bordereau: m. A note, breefe, ticket; alſo, an accompt; a bill, or booke, of accompts.

Borderie: f. A quantity of earable ground furniſhed with competent medow and paſture, and containing altogether, in moſt parts of Poictou but two; and in fewer foure, Oxe-gates, or Oxe-gangs.

Bordeur: m. An Imbroderer.

Autant pour le bordeur. So much for that; yea marrie ſir now you haue hit it; Or, one good turne requires another; or, I would I were able to requite you ſir; all irronically; and the laſt the moſt proper; this phraſe (wherin there is an alluſion to Bourdeur, a lyer) being fitly vſed, as a wiſh, by thoſe, that could find in their hearts to pay a lyer in his owne money.

Bordeux: m. euſe: f. Full of, ſeruing for, or belonging to, hemmes, edges, brimmes.

Bordier: m. A villaine, or cottager; one that holds by a ſeruile, baſe, and drudging, tenure; alſo, a farmer.

Bordieux: m. Small tenements, little cottages, cotes.

Bordonné. Looke Bourdonné.

Bords. Looke Bord.

Bordure: f. A border, welt, hemme, or gard of a garment;

and particularly, the turneouer, or ſide betweene the ſole and vpper-leather of a corke ſhooe.

Borée. The North-eaſt wind.

Borgne : com. One eyed, or, that hath but one eye.

Vne chambre borgne. That hath but one window, and is thereby with the darkeſt.

Eſguillette borgne. A point that hath but one tag.

Inteſtin borgne. The blind gut; the firſt of the three great guts in the belly, ſeated on the right ſide, a little vnder the kidney; and ſo full of turnings, & foulds, that it ſeemes endleſſe.

Veine borgne. Looke Veine.

Ie le vous envoyeray par le borgne. I will ſend it by Iohn Long the Carrier; you ſhall haue it when I know not what elſe to do with it.

Vn borgne eſt Roy au païs des aveugles: Prov. He that ſees but little ouerrules them that ſee nothing.

Borgner. To winke with one eye, and looke with another; as thoſe, that would diſcerne a thing through a narrow hole; or, as Borgnoyer.

Borgneſſe : f. A woman that hath but one eye.

Eſguillette borgneſſe. as Eſguillette borgne.

Borgnet : m. ette : f. Halfe blind; almoſt blind, or hauing wellnigh loſt the vſe of one eye.

Borgnoyer. To want an eye; to looke, or ſee but with one eye; to winke with, or faine himſelfe blind of, one eye; alſo, to glow, glote, or loure.

Borgue. as Naſſe; A weele, for fiſh.

Borlet. See Bourlet.

Bornage : m. The bounds, or limits, of; whence;

Bornage de Hercules. The ſtraits of Giblaltarre.

Droict de bornage. The royaltie, or priuiledge of placing meeres, appointing limits, laying out bounds for other mens lands.

Bornal de miel : m. A hony combe.

Borne : f. A bound, limit, meere, march; the end, or fartheſt compaſſe of a thing.

Mais là ne faut faire but ne borne. But there wee muſt not ſtop, nor pauſe; thats no place to ſettle in, ſtay at, or dwell on.

Au bout la borne : Prov. Th'end tryes all; at length we ſhall ſee what will be done.

Borné : m. ée : f. Bounded, limited; apportioned; proportioned; ſtinted; whoſe part or portion is appointed him.

Borner. To limit, bound, aſſigne marches, appoint meeres vnto; to apportion; ſtint, proportion; to ſort out a part for; to allot, or lay out a certaine portion, or proportion, which is not to be exceeded.

Borneur : m. A limiter, bounder; apportioner; ſtinter, proportioner.

Bornion à miel. A honie combe; or, bees neſt full of honie.

Borrache. A Spaniſh borachoe, or bottle of leather.

Borrais, ou Borras : m. Borax, or greene earth; a hard and ſhining minerall, or humor congealed in mynes; There is alſo an artificiall one, made of Roche Allum, Armoniac, and other things; both vſed by Goldſmiths.

Borras blanc. White Borax; found (as Mathiolus thinks) in ſiluer mynes.

Borras iaulne. Yellow Borax, found in gold mynes, and fitteſt for Goldſmithes.

Borras noir. Blacke (and the worſt) Borax; found, moſt commonly, in leaden mines.

Borras Pierreux. Vnrefined Borax, as it comes out of the rocke, or mine.

Borras verd. Greene Borax; the beſt, and moſt medicinable kind thereof; found (eſpecially that which is of a darke greene colour) in braſſe mynes.

Borraſque. as Bouraſque.

Borret : m. A yearing, or young beaſt thats about a yeare old: ¶Auvergnois.

Borrette : f. A heyfer, or fillie, thats about a yeare old.

Borriere. vache borriere. A cow that hath a calfe running after her.

Borrugat. The ſea fiſh called otherwiſe, Maigre, ¶Baionnois.

Bortiere : f. (Corruptly, for Portiere) the female Salmon, greater, and fuller of red ſpots than the male, and hauing the end of her nether iaw hooked, or bending vpwards, whereas his is ſtraight.

Bos. as Bois : ¶Pic.

Boſc. The name of a drie ſower apple; alſo, as Bois : ¶Pic.

Boſcage. as Bocage.

Boſcal. A little wood, or foreſt.

Boſialle. champ b. A peece of ground, or common (without any houſe vpon it) wherein diuers haue certaine, and ſeuerall parts.

Boſne : f. as Borne.

Boſné. Bounded, limited.

Boſquet : m. A thicket, groue, or little wood.

Boſquillon : m. A wood-feller, billet-maker, hedge-mender; a labouring man that fells wood, makes billets, &c, and mends, or lookes vnto, the hedges, or incloſures of a wood.

Boſsé d'une rouë. The naue of a wheele. Seeke Moyeu.

Boſſe : f. A bunch, or bumpe; any round ſwelling, vpriſing, or puffing vp; hence, a wen, botch, bile, or plague-ſore; alſo, a bulch in the backe; alſo, a knob, knot, or knurre in a tree; alſo, a hillocke, molehill, ſmall hill, or barrow of ground; alſo, a boſſe, or imboſſing in workemanſhip; alſo, the firſt putting out of a deeres head formerly caſt; which our wood-men call, if it bee a red deeres, the burle, or ſeale, and, if a fallow deeres, the button; (the which is alſo applied vnto the other.)

Boſſe de terre. as Truffe.

Sot en boſſe, & platte peinture. A foole in print, aſſe in graine, compleat coxcombe, abſolute hoydon.

La male boſſe. A plague-ſore, peſtilent botch, contagious bile.

Desrobber la boſse à S. Roc. To filtch, or ſteale any thing (how meane ſoeuer) that comes in his way.

Boſsé : m. ée : f. Swollen, riſen, bunchie, bulched, puffed vp; knobbie, bulked, or bumped out.

Boſſeler. To dindge, or bruiſe, to make a dint in veſſell of mettall, or in a peece of plate.

Boſſelure : f. A bruiſe, dindge, or dint, in a peece of plate, or mettall.

Boſſetier : m. A boſſe-maker; a ſtud-maker.

Boſſette : f. A little bunch, or knob; alſo, a little heape, riſing, or ſwelling of earth; alſo, a boſſe, or bullion ſet on a booke; alſo, a ſtud on any part of a horſes furniture.

Boſſis : m. High grounds; or, little hills raiſed by the hands of men.

Boſſu : m. uë : f. Hulch backt, crump-ſhouldered; knobbie, knappie; ſwelling, puffed vp, riſing vneuenly, crookedly, vnhandſomely.

Meſnage boſſu. A diſordered family wherein all is confounded, or awry.

De nouveau Medecin cimitiere boſſu : Prov. A new Phyſitian breeds a fat churchyard.

Veau mal cuit, & poulets cruds font les cimitieres boſsus : Prov. Raw veale, and chickens fill churchyards.

Boſſuër. To make bulch, crumpe, or crooked; to ſweil, or puffe puffe vp vneuenly, and vnhandſomely.

Bot: m. A woodden ſhooe, or patten. ¶ Poict. alſo, as But. ¶ Norm. alſo, a luncheon, or (illfauored) big peece of.

Bot. Illfauoredly-round; whence;

Pied bot. A ſtumpe or club foot.

Botaige. temps de botaige. is from the ninth of October to the laſt of Nouember.

Botanique: com. Hearball; of, or belonging to hearbes, or, to skill in hearbs.

Botanomantie: f. Diuination, or witchcraft by the vertue of hearbes.

Botargues: f. The hard rowes of the Murene, or of a kind of Mullet, ſalted, and then dried, and eaten to prouoke drinking.

Bote: f. A boot; alſo, a faggot, a bundle; a bottle.

S'ils penſent ainſi ils bruſlent leurs botes. They are farre wide, or much too blame, if &c; or (as we ſay) I ſmell them hither.

Tous les deux y laiſſeront les botes. They can neither of them ſcape with life, they will both miſcarrie, or die, in the place.

Boté. Booted; See Botté.

Boteau. A bundle, or bottle, as of hay, &c.

Boteler. To botle, or bundle vp; to make into botles, or bundles.

Boteleur: m. A maker of botles, or of bundles.

Boter. To boot, pull on boots, or put boots on; alſo, to prune, or cut of the ſuperfluous branches of a tree.

Bothoral: m. ale: f. Whealie, poukie, puſhie.

Botine: f. A buskin, or Summer boot.

Botineur: m. A buskin-maker; alſo, one that continually weares boots, or buskins; as a Monke, or any ſuch creature, who being not ſatisfied with wearing them aliue, will needs be buried in them, dead.

Botryte: f. Cadmia in grape-like cluſters, gathered from the roofes of copper-houſes, or ouer the furnaces wherein copper is ordinarily melted, or made.

Botte: f. The veſſell which wee call, a Butt; alſo, as Bote.

Botté. Booted.

Gens bottez de foin. Silly clownes, rude ſwaynes, ignorant boores, home-bred hinds.

Botteler. as Boteler.

Botter. as Boter.

Botterol: m. A Toad. (vieil mot.)

Bou. A boyling, or bubling.

Bouade: f. The worke of two oxen, or vſe of a ſmall cart, due certaine daies in Summer by tenants (that hold by ſocage, or villenage) vnto their landlords, for the labouring, and dreſſing of their vineyards.

Bouban, & Boubance. Looke Bobance.

Boubax. The name of a kind of Oliues.

Bouc: m. A male Goat, or bee Goat; alſo, the engine of batterie called a Ramme; alſo, a barſh, hard, and thicke Spunge.

Bouc d'eſtain. The Alpian, and long-hornd wild goat, or beaſt like a goat, called (in Latine) Ibex.

Barbe de bouc. Goats-beard, Starre of Ieruſalem, Noone-tide, Goe-to-bed at noone; (an hearbe.)

Couillon de bouc. See Couillon.

Eſpine de bouc. Goats-thorne (whoſe root yeeldeth Gum-dragagant.)

Langue de bouc. wild bugloſſe, wall bugloſſe, ſnakes bugloſſe, Vipers bugloſſe, Vipers hearbe.

Oeil de bouc. The little ſhell-fiſh called, a Lympine, or Lempet; Seeke Oeil.

Yeux de bouc. Gogle eyes; rolling eyes.

De bouc eſtourdi. Raſhly, turbulently, with a hurrie,

Traire les boucs. To looſe time, or ſpend it fruitleſly.

Boucal: m. as Bocal; alſo, a vent for the fire, or heat, of a furnace.

Boucan: m. A woodden gridiron, whereon the Cannibals broile peeces of men, and other fleſh.

Boucané: m. ée: f. Ridden by a goat; alſo, roſted, broyled, or ſcorched on a woodden gridiron.

Boucaner. To doe like a goat; to imitate the goat; alſo, to broyle, or ſcorch on a woodden gridiron.

Boucanier: m. ere: f. Old, ſtale, paſt date, out of vſe, out of ſeaſon.

Boucaſſin. as Boccaſin.

Bouccaiart: m. Plaine Chamlet, vnwater Chamlet; or, as Moncaiart.

Bouchard. A kind of great-eared browne wheat.

Bouchарde: f. A Maſons hammer, or picke, pointed at both ends like a diamond.

Bouchaſſes: f. Wild, or baſtard, Cheſtnuts.

Bouche: f. A mouth; alſo, a paſſage, entrie, entrance, or ouerture, into.

Bouches à feu. Spit-fires; Artillerie, Ordnance.

Bouche freſche. Looke Frez.

La bouche, & les mains. Homage, and fealtie; or, the ceremonies vſed in the doing thereof.

De broc en bouche. Immediatly, ſpeedily, ſuddainly, out of hand, in a trice, while tis hot.

Avoir bouche à Court. To eat and drinke ſcotfree; to haue budge-a-Court, to be in ordinarie at Court.

Avoir la bouche fraiche. Looke Fraiche.

Avoir la bouche à pleine main. A horſe to be neither too hard, nor too ſenſible, of mouth; thereby giuing the hand a full reſt.

Avoir bonne bouche. To be ſecret; to keepe counſell.

Elle a la langue en la bouche non en la bourſe (of a pratling huſwife) her tongue is euer at hand I warrant you.

Dire de bouche. To tell, or vtter expreſſely, to make eſpeciall mention of in ſpeech, to declare vnto in plaine, and open tearmes.

Faire la bouche à. To inſtruct, or giue a man his leſſon, beforehand.

Faire la petite bouche. To ſimper; Il ne faiſoit point la petite bouche. He neither diſſembled, nor was loth to vtter it; he ſpoke it openly, plainly, freely ynough.

On y doit fermer la bouche, & ouvrir la bourſe; viz. When almes are to be giuen.

Garder pour la bonne bouche. To reſerue a thing as the beſt for the laſt bit; to keepe it long of purpoſe to make vp his mouth withall.

Gouverner bien la bouche. To be temperat in diet.

Large de bouche, & eſtroict de ceincture. That promiſes, or offers, much, but put vnto it, will part with little or nothing.

Moderer ſa bouche. To feed moderatly, to eat ſoberly, or no more then ſhall doe him good.

Parler de quelqu' un en bonne bouche. To ſpeake well, or giue a good report of one; en male bouche; to reproch, raile on, reuile one.

Tromper vn corbeau à bouche beante. See Corbeau.

Venir l'eau à la bouche. Cela luy fit venir l'eau à la bouche. That made his teeth water, or, ſet him on a longing.

Bouche freſche pied ſec: Prov. He that would liue a long time, muſt keepe both his mouth coole, and moiſt, and his feet warme, and drie.

De

De la main à la bouche ſe perd ſouvent la ſoupe: Prov. Betweene the hand and lip the morſell's loſt.

Entre la bouche & le cueillier ſouvent advient grand deſtourbier: Prov. Betweene the cup and the lip (ſay we, with the Latine Poet) many miſchances happen.

Qui n'a argent en bourſe ait du moins du miel en bouche: Prov. Looke Avoir.

Selon ta bourſe gouverne ta bouche: Pro. Gouerne thy mouth by thy meanes.

Table ſans ſel, bouche ſans ſalive: Prov. A table without ſalt, and a mouth without ſap; Looke Table.

Bouchée: f. A morſell, or mouth-full of.

Bouchelette: f. A little mouth.

Bouchement. See Bouſchement.

Boucher: m. A Butcher, or ſlaughter-man.

Boucher. To ſtop; See Bouſcher.

Boucherie: f. A Butchers ſhambles, ſtall, or ſhop; alſo, a butcherie, ſlaughter, diſmembring, or renting aſunder of a liuing creature.

Droict de boucherie. Looke Droict.

Boucheron. See Bouſcheron.

Bouchet: m. A kind of broth for a ſicke bodie; alſo, the ſweet drinke, Hydromel; or, a drinke made of water ſweetned with ſugar and cinnamon; or as;

Eau de bouchet. A certaine compound water, which with that of Corianders, makes a kind of Hipocras.

Bouchette: f. A little mouth.

Bouchier: m. A Butcher, or ſlaughter-man.

Bouchimbarbe: f. Goats beard, Ioſephs flower, Starre of Ieruſalem, Noone-tide, Goe-to-bed-at-noone; (an herbe.)

Bouchon: m. A ſtopple; alſo, a wiſpe of ſtraw, &c; alſo, the buſh of a tauerne, or alehouſe.

Bouchons. The little knots which be in fine wooll, or fall from it in ſpinning.

Bouchons de Chenilles. Cluſters, or bunches of Caterpillers.

A bouchon. Groueling; lying with his teeth downeward; or, couched vpon his face; as he is that lyes down at the play called Hot-cockles.

Il me donna le bouchon d'une bouteille. He gaue me a very trifle, or a thing not worth taking.

Se mettre à l'ombre des bouchons. To get him into a Tauerne; to take ſhelter, or ſanctuarie, in a Taphouſe.

Bouchonné: m. ée: f. Rubbed, wiped, or ſtuffed, as a horſe with wiſpes of ſtraw.

Bouchonner. To rub, wipe, or ſtuffe, as a horſe, with wiſpes of ſtraw.

Bouchonnet: m. A little wiſpe, or ſtopple.

Bouchonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of ſtopples; wiſpes of ſtraw; tauerne-buſhes; woollie knots; bunches, cluſters.

Bouclas: m. Birche.

Boucle: f. A buckle; alſo, a buble made by ſeething liquor.

Tenir ſous boucle. To reſtraine, hold in awe, keepe vnder, or in order.

Bouclé: m. ée: f. Buckled; faſtened, cloſed, ioyned, as with a buckle; alſo, rung, as a mare; alſo, cuffed, buffetted; alſo, ſwolne, hulching, riſing, or bearing out, in the middle, as a buckle.

Cela eſt ſerré, & bouclé. That matter is fully ended.

Boucler. To buckle; to cloſe, or faſten, as with a buckle; alſo, to ring a mare, thereby to keepe her from the horſe; (alſo, to buffet, or cuffe) alſo, to ſwell, riſe, or beare out in the middle; alſo, to finiſh, end, performe, ſhut vp.

Il boucle ſa femme à la Bergamaſque. Looke Bergamaſque.

Bouclette: f. A ſmall buckle.

Bouclier: m. A buckler.

Bouclier Barcelonnois. A footmans targuet, or ſhield.

Bouclier de l'eſtomac. The triangular griſtle that growes to the bottome of the breaſt-bone, and from the middle thereof hangs ouer the ſtomacke.

Levée de bouclier. A great ſtirre about a ſmall matter; huge preparation for a ſleight action; much adoe about little or nothing.

Faire bouclier de. To truſt in the defence; relie on the protection of; to ſaue, ſhaddow, ſhrowd, or ſhelter himſelfe vnder.

Bouclure: f. A buckling; alſo, a ſwelling, or bearing out, in the middle; alſo, a buffetting.

Bouclus: m. Trenches, or ditches.

Boucon: m. A bit, morſell, mouthfull; eſpecially ſuch a one as is empoiſoned; and hence,

Bailler le boucon. To poyſon.

Bouconnier: m. A poyſoner, one that giues an inuenomed bit.

Boucque. as Bouche. Pic. whence;

Boucque du haut venture. The mouth, or hole of the ſtomacke, next vnder the breaſt bone.

Boucquet: m. as Bouquet.

Boucquine. A rammiſh, or laſciuious queane.

Bouc-ſoufflé. as Bourſoufflé.

Boudin: m. A pudding.

Boudmal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, a pudding.

Boudine: f. The nauell.

Boudrée. as Bondrée.

Bouë: f. Durt, mud, mire; filth, dung, ordure; bealing, mattar.

Bouë de fer. The ſmall flakes that flye from hot yron when tis beaten.

Bouée: f. A Boy for an anchor.

Bouër. To beale, to mattar; alſo (among Mintmen) C'eſt refrapper les carreaux pour les arrondir.

Bouerande: f. The weed Cammocke, Reſt-harrow, petie Whinne, ground Furze.

Bouëte: f. as Bonnette.

Bouëtte: f. A little box; alſo, as Brouëtte.

Bouëur: m. A ſcauinger; one that carries away the ſweepings, and durt of ſtreets, in carts.

Bouëux: m. euſe: f. Durtie, myrie, ſlymie, muddie; filthie, full of mattar, bealing, ordure.

Boufage. as Bouffage.

Boufément. Puffingly, ſwellingly, outſtrouting.

Boufeux: m. A great eater, a greedie feeder; one whoſe cheekes are ſwolne by exceſſiue diet, or ſwell exceedingly whenſoeuer he diets.

Bouffage: m. Any meat that (eaten greedily) fils the mouth, and makes the cheekes to ſwell; cheeke-puffing meat.

Bouffances: m. Puffes in a garment, &c.

Bouffant. Puffing, blowing; ſwelling vp, ſtrouting out; alſo, burgenning, or waxing big.

Bouffard: m. arde: f. Often puffing, much blowing, ſwelling vp, ſtrouting out; alſo, ſwelling with anger; or, in a great chafe, in a monſtrous fume.

Bouffe: f. The part of our cheekes which we puffe vp in blowing, or feeding; a ſwollen, or ſwelling cheeke.

Bouffé: m. ée: f. Puffed, blowne; ſwolleu vp, or out; growne big.

Bouffée: f. A puffe; a ſuddaine, violent, and ſhort blaſt;

a berrie, or guſt of wind; alſo, a ſhort, and violent fit.

Bouffée de feu. A flaſh of fire; ſuch a one as comes out of the mouth of a canon, &c, when it is ſhot off.

Bouffemént: m. A puffing; blowing; ſwelling vp, or out; a bourgeonning, a waxing big.

Bouffément. as Boufément.

Bouffer. To puffe, blow; ſwell vp, or ſtrout out; to burgen, or wax big.

Bouffer de courroux. To ſwell with anger; to be in his fumes.

Boufeux. as Boufeux.

Bouffi: m. ie: f. Swollen, puffed vp, ſtrouting out.

Hareng bouffi. A full-roed herring.

Oeil bouffi. An extreamely ſwolne eye that mooues with difficultie, and hath loſt it naturall and liuely colour.

Bouffiné: m. ée: f. Eaten greedily, or with full and puft-vp cheekes.

Bouffir. To puffe, or blow vp; to make to ſwell, or ſtrout out: or, as Bouffer.

Bouffiſſure: f. A ſwelling, or puffing vp, a ſtrouting out; alſo, a kind of dropſie.

Buffon: m. A buffoon, ieaſter, ſycophant, merrie foole, ſportfull companion; one that liues by making others merrie.

Danſer les buffons. To daunce a morris.

Bouffonner. To buffoonize it; to play the foole, ieaſter, Buffoone; baſely to get a liuiug by ieaſts, or ieaſting.

Bouffonnerie: f. Bouffooniſme, ieaſting.

Bouffonneſque. Buffoone-like.

Bouffonneur. as Bouffon.

Boufron: m. A Cuttle-fiſh.

Boug: m. The little, and venomous greene frog, or hedge toad.

Boug coupé. A Tortoiſe.

Bouge: m. A ſwelling, ſtrouting, or ſtanding out in a flat peece of worke; hence, the boſſe of a buckler; and, a belly, or out-leaning in the middle of a wall, &c; and, a little roome, or cloſet, built without the wall of a chamber.

Bouge: f. A budget, wallet, great pouch, male, or caſe of leather, ſeruing to carrie things in behind a man on horſebacke.

Il a bien remply ſes bouges. He hath gained exceſſiuely, he hath feathered his neaſt exceedingly.

Bougé: m. ée: f. Stirred, budged, remoued, parted from.

Bougeon: m. A bolt, or arrow with a great head.

Bouger. To ſtirre, budge, ſtir, remoue, part from.

Raſibus; qui bouge? The words of a certaine game; Looke Raſibus.

Qui bien eſt ne ſe bouge: Prov. Let not him budge that finds himſelfe well ſeated.

Tel penſe voler qui ne ſçauroit bouger: Prov. He meanes to flye, yet cannot moue a wing; (ſaid of an ouerweening ambition, which though it want all meanes attempts all matters.)

Bougeron. as Bougre.

Bougetier. A budget-maker; or, a maker of little wooddeu coffers &c. as in Bougette.

Bougette: f. A little coffer, or trunke of wood, couered with leather, wherewith the women of old time carried their iewels, attires, and trinkets at their ſaddle bowes, when they rid into the countrey; now gentlemen call ſo, both any ſuch trunke; and the box, or till of their Cabinets wherein they keepe their money; alſo, a little male, pouch, or budget.

Bougie: f. A ſearing candle; alſo, a ſize, or ſmall round candle vſed in churches; Looke Poincte.

Bougié. Seared with a wax-candle.

Bougier. To ſeare with a wax-candle.

Bougiron: m. A Buggerer, a Sodomite.

Bougironné: m. ée: f. Buggered, abuſed by a Sodomite.

Bougironner. To bugger; to commit (horrible) Sodomie.

Bougnette: f. The ſmooth and long-tailed Ray, called the Forkfiſh.

Bougoir: m. A long candleſticke (of mettall) for a ſize, or (ſmall) wax-candle.

Bougonner. To bungle. ¶Orleannois.

Bougonneur: m. A bungler.

Bougrande: f. Cammocke, Reſt-harrow, ground Furze, petitie Whinne.

Bougre: m. as Bougiron.

Bougrerie: f. Buggerie, Sodomie.

Bougrin: m. ine: f. Buggering; or, fit for buggerie; whence;

Chauſſes à la bougrine. Strait venetians, without codpeeces.

Bougriſque: com. Buggering, committing Sodomie.

Bouhourd. as Behourd.

Bouhourdi premier & ſecond. The firſt and ſecond Sunday in Lent.

Bouillamment. Hotly, eagerly, feruently, with a boyling deſire.

Bouillant: m. ante: f. Boyling, ſcalding hot.

Bouilli: m. Any broth, or boyled meat.

Bouilli: m. ie: f. Boyled, ſodden.

Bouillir. To boyle, or ſeeth; alſo, to buble in ſeething.

Bouillon: m. Mullein, Wooll-blade, Long-wort, High-taper, Torches, Long-beard, Bullocks Long-wort, Hares-beard.

Bouillon blanc. Baſe white Mullein, whereof there be two kinds, one with broad, the other with narrow, leaues.

Bouillon Lychnite. Candle-weeke Mullein.

Bouillon noir. Baſe blacke Mullein.

Bouillon ſauvage. Wild Mullein; hath leaues like Sage, and yellow ſhining flowers.

Bouillon: m. A boyling, bubling, or buble; alſo, a broth, or boyled meat; alſo, durt, myre; and, a plaſhing, or daſhing; alſo, oaten grout; a kind of ſmall drinke made of Oats; alſo, a great and long ſhip-nayle; alſo, a ſtudde; any great-headed, or ſtudded nayle.

Bouillons. Puffes, in a garment, &c.

Bouillon de fleurs, & fruicts. A thicke bunch, or cluſter of ſundrie leaues, fruits, and flowers, ſeeming to grow altogether out of one ſtalke.

Bouillon de fumée. vn gros b. A cloud of ſmoake.

Bouillon de ſang. A clot of bloud.

Bouillonné: m. ée: f. Boyled, bubled; ſurged; alſo, trimmed, or ſet out, with puffes.

Bouillonnement: m. A boyling, a bubling, a ſurging, a ſeething ouer.

Bouillonner. To boyle, buble, ſurge, ſeeth ouer; alſo, to make puffes in a garment.

Bouillonneux: m. euſe: f. Boyling, or bubling; alſo, durtie, myrie, plaſhie; alſo, full of puffes.

Bouillu. as Bouilli.

Boujon: m. A boult; an arrow with a great, or broad, head.

Bouïotte: f. A pigeon-hole in a doue-cote.

Bouïs: m. Box; or the Box tree.

Bouïs d'aſne. The Box thorne, prickly Box, Aſſe Box tree.

Bouïs eſpineux, ou piquant. The ſame.
Grand bouïs. Great Box, or, the Box tree.
Petit bouïs. Dwarfe Box, ground Box.
Bouiſſiere: f. A Box-plot; a banke, or ground ſet, or ſtored, with Box.
Boukimbarbe. as Bouchimbarbe.
Boulanger. as Boulenger.
Boular: m. The little round neaſt of a Martin, Titmouſe, &c.
Boulay: m. A Birch tree.
Bouldure d'un moulin. The conduit, or fall-trough, wherein the wheele goes.
Boule: f. A Bowle (to play with; or to drinke in.)
Boule veuë. A certaine play at Bowle-caſting, wherein if the Bowle be at any time out of ſight, the caſter looſes; whence;
Iouër à boule veuë. To deale ſurely, worke on ſure grounds, make a warie bargaine, meddle with that for which he ſees good warrant.
Le coup valoit bien la boule. See Coup.
Tenir pied à boule. To apply his buſineſſe; to hold hard, or keepe cloſe to it.
Bouleau: m. Birche; alſo, a ſmall Bowle; and hence,
Les bouleaux d'un vis. The circles, or circling of a Scrue.
Boulengé: m. ée: f. Baked, made into bread.
Boulenger. To bake, make bread; or make into bread.
Boulengerie: f. A baking; alſo, a bakehouſe.
Boulengier: m. A baker.
Pet de boulengier. A fart in ſyrrup.
Boulengiere: f. A woman baker; alſo, as Boulengerie; a bakehouſe.
Bouler. To bowle.
Boulerot: m. A little round, blackiſh, and fennie Gudgeon, that liues continually in mud.
Bouleſche: f. A great fiſh-net, called a Scene, or Seyne.
Boulet: m. A bullet; alſo, as Bolete; a Muſhrome.
Boulet noir. A beanie, poyſonous, and blackiſh kind of the Excreſcence, called Agaric.
Arbaleſte à boulet. A Stone-bow.
Boulette: f. A little Bowle.
Boulettes de Cyprés. Cypres nuts, or clogs.
Boulever; ou, Bouleverd: m. A Bulwarke.
Bouleverſe: f. A ſubuerſion, ouerturne, ouerthrow.
Bouleverſé: m. ée: f. Subuerted, ouerturned, ouerthrowne.
Bouleverſement: m. An ouerturning, ſubuerting, ouerthrowing.
Bouleverſer. To ouerturne, or turne topſie turuie, to ſubuert, to ouerthrow.
Bouleverſeur: m. An ouerturner, ſubuerter, ouerthrower.
Boulevert: m. A Bulwarke.
Boule-veuë. Seeke Boule.
Boulge, & Boulgette. as Bouge, & Bougette.
Boulie: f. Pap, or broth, for children.
Cela ſent ſa boulie, viz. is childiſh, fond; raw, rude.
Boulieux: m. euſe: f. Full of, or belonging to, pap; alſo, feeding much on, or fed very much with, pap.
Boulime: m. as Boulimie.
Boulimie: f. A greedie hunger, an vnſatiable appetite, by diſeaſe, proceeding from the coldneſſe of the ſtomacke.
Boulin: m. A pigeon-hole in a doue-cote.
Boulinage: m. A ſayling with a ſide wind; a laying of tacke aboord.
Bouline: f. A Boline, or Tacke; alſo, as Boulingue.
Aller à la bouline. To ſayle with a ſide wind.
Boulingue: f. A top-ſayle.
Boullauſe: f. A Poute, or Eele-poute.
Bouller. To cog, foiſt; beguile, deceiue, couſen; alſo, to box, or pommell, with the fiſts. (v. m.)
Boulligni. An Italian coyne worth about ij.d. ſterl.
Boullon. as Boulon.
Boullonné: m. ée: f. Puffed, or drawn out with puffes.
Bouloers d'vn vis. The circles, or circling of a Scrue.
Bouloirs. as Bouloers.
Bouloire: f. A bowling alley.
Boulon. A long, big, and big-headed peg of wood, wherewith Carpenters ioyne great peeces of timber together.
Boulon de fer. A great pin of yron, ſuch as tradeſmen ſhut in their ſhop-windowes withall.
Boulongnois. as Boulligni.
Boulouër: m. A bulwarke, fortreſſe, or ſtrong hold. (v. m.)
Boulture: f. A ſeething, a boyling, a bubling.
Boune. as Borne.
Bouquanier. as Boucanier.
Bouqué: m. as Bouquet.
Bouque d'Ange: f. Conſerue, or ſucket, of Lettice ſtalkes.
Bouquer. To kiſſe another mans thumbe; to take, or giue, a tucke, or kiſſe; alſo, to ſtrike ſayle, or pay cuſtome, as ſhips, in paſſing by ſome places, are bound to doe.
Bouquet: m. A noſegay, or poſie of flowers, &c; alſo, a lock of wooll; alſo, a huckle-bone; (alſo, a great Prawne, (Norm.) alſo, a loope-hole in a wall.
Branſle du bouquet. The noſegay daunce, or kiſſing daunce (for there is much kiſſing in it.)
Bailler le bouquet. See Bailler.
Elle a mis le bouquet ſous l'oreille. (Of a widow) ſhe would faine be had, woon, or married; (of a whore) ſhe may (for money) be had, woon, or vſed; (In France, when they ride, or lead, out horſes, which they would ſell, they vſe to ſticke poſies vnder their eares.)
Bouquetier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, noſegayes, noſegay-like.
Bouquetiere: f. An hearbe-wife; ſuch a one as vſes to ſell, or to preſent, noſegayes.
Bouquin: m. A Kid; alſo, the hairie buſh, or Pubes.
Cornet à bouquin. A (Muſicall) Cornet.
Vn vieux bouquin. An old booke; alſo, an old ſcholler; or, one that hath red ouer many old bookes.
Bouquin: m. ine: f. Leacherous, laſciuious; alſo, ranke, rammiſh, goat-like.
Bouquiner. To grow hairie about the priuities; alſo, to be as laſciuious, or ſmell as ranke, as a goat; alſo, to be bookiſh, or, to read much in old bookes.
Bourache: f. A Borrachoe; or bottle (of leather) alſo, a candle-caſe; alſo, an engine (like a candle-caſe) wherewith fiſh is caught.
Bourachon: m. A ſmall Borrachoe; a little candle-caſe; alſo, a drunkard, or Toſſe-bottle.
Bouras: m. The towe of hempe; the courſeſt part of any ſuch like ſtuffe.
Bouraſque: f. A ſtorme, tempeſt, guſt, or flaw of wind.
Bouraſſe: f. A Borrachoe, or (Spaniſh) bottle of leather.
Bourbe: f. Mud, myre, durt; alſo, as Bourbier.
Bourbelier: m. The breaſt, or Eſſay of a wild Swine.
Bourbeter. as Bourbetter; alſo, to mutter, grunt, murmure.
Bourbeteux: m. euſe: f. Louing the mud, as a ducke, &c; alſo, full of mud.

Bour-

Bourbette. A ſmall freſh water fiſh, that altogether liues on, and lyes in, mud.

Bourbetter. To wallow in mud; to paddle, or pudder, in the myre.

Bourbeux: m. euſe: f. Muddie, or full of mud; filth, durt.

Bourbier: m. A muddie place, a ſlough, or puddle full of durt, and mud.

Bourblier. as Bourbelier.

Bourbonnois: m. oiſe: f. Of Bourbon.

Tarte Bourbonnoiſe. A deepe ſlough, bog, or quagmire; a ſtable (of ill intertainement) for a horſe.

Bourboulenc. The name of a Vine.

Bourcier. fief bourcier. as fief bourſal; (par la Couſtume des Chartres.)

Bourdaine: f. A certaine low, and vpright-branched (French) hedge-tree, whoſe wood is very weake, and light, bearing a berrie (of the bigneſſe of a haw) firſt pale, then red, at length blacke; exceedingly loued by Stags.

Bourdant: m. ante: f. Ieaſting, bourding; trifling, toying; foiſting, cogging with, gulling of, people.

Truffant bourdant. Betweene ieaſt and earneſt.

Bourde: f. A ieaſt, fib, tale of a tub.

Donner la bourde de l'Alouette. Seeke Alouette.

Bourdé: m. ée: f. Graueled, as a cart, &c.

Bourdelage: m. A Tenure in the dominion of Nevers, whereby the tenant is bound to pay vnto his Landlord an yearely rent in money, corne, and feathers, or in any two of them; which if he omit three yeares together, he forfeits his eſtate; In Bourbonnois it is as Taille Réelle.

Bourdelais. A certaine Vine, or grape that yeelds verie ſoure wine; and therefore is it vſually ſet about arbors, more for the ſhadow, then for the fruit it yeelds.

Bourdelaſier. Full of ieaſts, or of tales.

Bourdelier. Let out, or held in Bourdelage; alſo, holding by, or ſubiect vnto, it.

Seigneur bourdelier. The Lord vnto whom Bourdelage is due.

Bourder. To toy, trifle, dally; bourd, or ieaſt with; alſo, to cog, foiſt, gull, ſell a bargaine, giue a gudgeon vnto; alſo, to quip, gird; mocke, ſcoffe at.

Bourdereau. as Bordereau.

Bourdes: f. Sybs, fibs, rappers, lyes; toyes to mocke apes; tales to gull aſſes with; alſo, ſcoffes, ieaſts, gibes, cuts, quips; and hence;

Ce ſont les pires bourdes que les vrayes: Pro. The trueſt ieaſts ſound worſt in guiltie eares.

Bourdeur: m. A mocker, ieaſter; cogger, lyer, foiſter, ... er of people.

Bourdican: m. A begging frier.

Travailler en bourdican. To trudge vp and downe, to trot to and fro, to toyle like a horſe, neuer to reſt.

Bourdin: m. The ſhell-fiſh called a Limpin, or Lempet.

Bourdon: m. A Drone, or Dorre-bee; alſo, the humming, or buzzing of bees; alſo, the drone of a Bagpipe; alſo, the big end of a club, &c; alſo, a Pilgrims ſtaffe; alſo, a walking ſtaffe hauing a ſword, &c, within it; (ſometimes) alſo, a Pike, or Speare.

Le bourdon d'un moulin à vent. A wind-mill poſt.

Chanter en faux bourdon; See Faux-bordon.

Demeure à bourdon planté. A fixed dwelling, a ſetled reſidence in a place.

Bourdonnaſſes: f. A faſhion of great hollow launces vſed in old time.

Bourdonné: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with, or made like to a Pilgrims ſtaffe; alſo, buzzed, or hummed.

Bourdonnement: m. A buzzing, or humming, as of Drones, &c.

Bourdonner. To buzze, or humme like a Drone, &c.

Bourdonneſque: com. Humming, buzzing, Drone-like.

Bourdonneur: m. A hummer, or buzzer; alſo, one that playes on a Bagpipe.

Bourdonniere: f. The gudgeon that's in the top of the barre, or hindge-band, of a gate.

Bourelet. as Bourlet.

Bourellé: m. ée: f. Tormented, tortured, extreamely vexed.

Bourellement: m. A torture, torment, cruell racking; extreame vexing.

Bourellément. Moſt cruelly, with much torment.

Boureller. To torture, torment, vex horribly.

Bourellerie: f. as Bourellement, or Bourrelerie.

Bouret. A kind of ſhell-fiſh.

Bourg: m. A Bourough, or great Towne (without wals, or ditches.)

De bourg en bourg. Wandering, like a rogue, from bourough to bourough; or, from one good towne to another.

Bourgade: f. A village, hamlet, ſmall borough.

Bourgage: m. A townſhip, or bourroughſhip; the inhabitants of houſes in lands belonging to a towne, or bourough; alſo, an eſtate, or tenure in Burgage, held either of the king (as our Borough Engliſh) or of other Lords of the Borough, and ſubiect to no other then the cuſtomarie and accuſtomed rents, or ſeruices thereof.

Bourgalois: m. A Spaniſh coyne worth about xviij d. ſterl.

Bourgamaiſtre: m. A Mayor, or Burgamaſter; the principall Magiſtrate, or Officer, in a citie, or good towne.

Bourgeois: m. A citizen, townes-man, burguer, burgeſſe; alſo, a freeman, in any place.

Bourgeois d' Amphitrite. A fiſh; a freeman of the ſea.

Bourgeois du Comte de Nevers. His freed men; who payed vnto him an yearely rent of xij d. Tourn. and in regard of their freedome vnder him, were to renounce all other lords.

Le Bourgeois d'un Navire. The owner of a ſhip.

Bourgeois du Roy. The kings burgeſſe, or freeman; a lay, and true-borne, yeoman; (for neither gentleman, clerke, nor baſtard muſt he be) at firſt of a ſeruile, now of a free, condition; yet ſubiect vnto all proceedings of Iuſtice, though with ſome priuiledge; for, in many parts of France, he muſt not be impleaded in any Court but the Kings; and elſewhere (in inferior courts) onely vpon reall actions.

Francs bourgeois. Free Burgeſſes; thoſe that pay no yearely fines for their freedome, nor ſo many ordinarie amerciaments of courts as others; though they doe ſome other ſeruices, and yeeld other contributions, as others, vnto their lords.

Selon la ville les bourgeois: Prov. Such towne ſuch townesmen.

Bourgeois: m. iſe: f. Burguerly, citizen-like; belonging to a citizen, burgeſſe, burguer.

Caution bourgeoiſe. Citie ſecuritie, or ſecuritie of rich, and reſident citizens.

Pain bourgeois. Crible bread; bread that's betweene white and browne; See Pain.

Bourgeoiſie: f. A burguerſhip, or burgeſſeſhip; the eſtate, or condition, of a burguer, or burgeſſe; alſo, burguers, guers, burgeſſes, freemen, towneſmen, citizens; or a crue, or the whole companie thereof; alſo, a boroughſhip; and, the liberties, freedome, or priuiledges belonging to a towne, or borough.

Bourgeoiſie d'avenage. A certaine quantitie of Oats leuied to the kings vſe, of thoſe, who are made free of the towne of Mehun ſur Eure in Berry.

Droict de bourgeoiſie. Freedome; alſo, an yearely dutie, or fine of xij d. Paris: payed vnto the king by free burgeſſes; who in lieu thereof may refuſe to anſwer in any court, but his, any perſonall action, or complaint whatſoeuer; except it be for an offence committed at that preſent, or three months before their freedome obtained. (This Dutie is alſo called, Devoir de bourgeoiſie.)

Droict de bourgeoiſie de la Baſſée ſous Lille. An yearely rent, or dutie of iiij d, payed by euerie freeman.

Droict de bourgeoiſie de la Chaſtre en Berry. A certain yeerely ſumme, and a henne, payed by euery freeman vnto the lord of that place.

Droict de bourgeoiſie de Sèdan. is xx d. a yeare; and when he is made free (if he be the ſonne of a freeman) ij s. vj d; or (if a forreiner) v s. payed vnto the Duke of Buillon.

L'entrée de la bourgeoiſie de Calais. A dutie of xxv francs, payed by euery one that is made a burgeſſe, or freeman, of Calis.

Bourgeon: m. The young bud, ſprig, or putting out, of a Vine; alſo, a pimple in the face.

Bourgeon de laine. A locke of wooll.

Bourgeons. Writlings, or critlings; the ſmalleſt, and moſt vntimely apples or peares; tearmed ſo by the Normane Fruiterers.

Bourgeonné: m. ée: f. Budded, burgeonned; put, ſprung, ſprouted out.

Bourgeonnement: m. A ſpringing, budding, putting out.

Bourgeonner. To bud, ſpring, or ſprout out; to burgeon, put, or ſhoot out.

Bourgeonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of buds; richly ſet with pimples.

Bourget: m. A round ſtoole.

Bourgrain: m. Buckeram.

Bourgeſpine: f. Buck-thorne, Way-thorne, laxatiue Ramme.

Bourguignon: m. A Burgonian, one of Burgundie; alſo, the name of a Vine, whereof there bee diuers kinds.

Bourguignon blanc. The moſt fruitfull of all white Vines.

Bourguignon cinquain. as Foirard.

Bourguignon noir. as Neraut.

Bourguignotte: f. A Burganet, Huſkin, or Spaniſh Murrion.

Bourjaſſotte: f. The name of a certaine figge.

Bouringue. as Boulingue.

Bourjon. as Bourgeon; a bud, &c.

Bourjonner. as Bourgeonner.

Bourleſque: com. Ieaſting, merrie, pleaſant, flouting, gibing.

Bourlet: m. A wreath, or a roule of cloth, linnen, or leather, ſtuffed with ſtockes, haire, &c; alſo, the hood worne by Graduats, Lawyers, and Citizens, at their aſſemblies; alſo, a ſupporter (for a Ruffe &c) of Satin, Taffata &c, and hauing an edge like a roule.

Cerveaux à bourlet. Hooded braines, or, ſuch as haue better-ſtuffed hoods then heads; and (more particularly) ignorant Lawyers, vnskilfull plodders, Pettifoggers.

Bournage. as Bornage.

Bournal: m. A honny-combe.

Bournois. as Bournal; or, a Bee-neaſt, or Bee-hiue, full of honny-combes.

Bourrabaquin: m. A great carouſing glaſſe, faſhioned like a Cannon, Horne, or in ſome other anticke manner; (ſometimes) alſo, a Bourrachoe.

Bourrache. as Bourroche.

Bourrachiere. Corneille bour: A Roiſton Crow.

Bourrachon: m. A tipler, quaffer, toſſepot, whip-canne; alſo, a little Bourrachoe.

Bourrade: f. A tempeſt, or ſtorme; alſo, the cuffing, or ruffling of a bird by a haulke; alſo, the toſſing, or muzzling of a hare by a greyhound before he beare her.

Bourranflé. Puffed vp, ſtrouting out, with flocks, &c.

Bourraquin. as Bourrabaquin; or, a Bourrachoe.

Bourras: m. as Borrais; alſo, ſilke-raſh; alſo, groſſe, or courſe, canuas.

Bourraſſer. To baſtinade, beat, bclamme, bethwacke.

Bourre: f. Flockes, or lockes of wooll, haire, &c, ſeruing to ſtuffe ſaddles, bals, and ſuch like things; alſo, the downe, or hairie coat wherewith diuers hearbes, fruits, and flowers are couered; alſo (leſſe properly) any ſuch traſh, as chaffe, ſhales, huskes, &c; alſo (leaſt vſually) the couering, clothing, or backe-part, of a man.

Bourre de ſoye. Towe of ſilke, or the courſeſt ſilke; comes of the balls which the wormes haue pierced.

Raiſins qui ſont encores en bourre. Grapes that are as yet in the bloſſome, or, ſo young as they haue no forme.

Faire bourre voler. To play much at Tennis (the ball being meant by bourre, wherewith it is ſtuffed) alſo, to vſe much, or ſpend much at, any coſtly game, paſtime, or exerciſe.

Bourre. A Ducke. (Norm.

Bourré: m. ée: f. Stuffed, or ſtopped with haire, flockes, &c; alſo, beaten, thumped, cudgelled; alſo, ſtopped.

Bourreau: m. An executioner; a hangman.

Bourrée: f. A bauin, or faggot, of twigs; a bundle of any ſuch like ſtuffe.

Bourrelé: m. ée: f. Tortured, tormented; executed; extreamely vexed.

Bourreler. To torture, torment; execute; vex extreamely; See Bourreller.

Bourrelerie: f. A torturing, tormenting; executing; th' office of a hangman; alſo, an extreame vexation.

Bourrelet. See Bourlet.

Bourrelier: m. A maker of horſe-collars.

Bourrelier: m. ere: f. Tormenting, torturing, executing with cruelties; vexing extreamely.

Bourreller. To torture, torment, execute cruelly; vex extreamely.

Il bourrelle la beſongne. (Said of a bungling artificer) he ſpoyles both worke and ſtuffe.

Bourrer. To ſtuffe with ſtocks, and haire; alſo, to beat, or thumpe; alſo, to ſtop.

Bourrette: f. The vppermoſt part of the clue, or ball of ſilke yeelded by the ſilke-worme; the courſeſt of ſilke.

Bourreux: m. euſe: f. Full of ſtockes, &c.

Herbe bourreuſe. Cudweed, Chaffeweed, Cotton-weed.

Bourrier: m. as Bourre; alſo, weeds; and generally, any filth; as ſweepings, or vnprofitable, and houſe-defiling, traſh.

Il y a de bourriers en ſa fluſte. All is not well with him; ſomewhat's amiſſe in the matter.

Bour-

Bourriquet: m. A kind of tombrell, or dung-cart; alſo, ſuch a title for an Aſſe as lade is for a horſe; and hence; Harry bourriquet. Words wherewith the Millers, &c. in France driue forward their Aſſes.

Bourroche: f. Bourrage.

Bourru: m. uë: f. Flockie, hairie, rugged, high-napped.

Vin bourru. New ſweet wine; ſuch as is not yet ſetled after vintage; or, new, thicke, vnfined (white) wine.

Bourry. Moyne bourry. as Moyne beur.

Bours de chevres. Stables, or pennes, for goats.

Bourſal: m. A younger brother.

Bourſal: m. ale: f. Of a younger brother; whence;

Fief bourſal. The inheritance, or portion of inheritance, belonging to a younger brother.

Bourſalement. Tenir b. By the title of youngerſhip; different from that of the elder brother, who is to do homage vnto the Lord for the whole inheritance.

Bourſavit: m. A prick-purſe, or purſe for a pricke; alſo, a kind of big leatherne purſe, worne by many right before their codpeeces.

Bourſaul: m. The Cane withie, or, Cane Willow.

Bourſaut: m. A little purſe.

Bourſaux: m. Younger brethren.

Bourſe: f. A purſe; alſo, a bag, ſatchell, pouche; alſo, a caſe; any thing made of leather to put, or keepe tooles, or other implements in; alſo, a ballocke, or, the outward skin wherein the cod is contained; alſo, a purſe-net; alſo, the place of a Pentioner in a Colledge (we call it a Schollerſhip, or Fellowſhip;) or in the Chancerie, or Exchequer; alſo, the Penſion it ſelfe; ſo tearmed, becauſe it is commonly deliuered in a Purſe vnto the partie that hath it.

Bourſe de berger. Shepheards purſe, poore mans Parmacetie, Toyworte, Pickpurſe, Cooſeweed.

Bourſe Couſtumiere. A yeoman, or cuſtomarie tenant; or, a purchaſe made by a yeoman, or cuſtomarie tenant.

Bourſe de Curé. as Bourſe de berger.

Bourſe deſliée. Readie money; or, money diſburſed, or payed downe for a thing.

Bourſe de Paſteur. as Bourſe de berger.

Clameur de bourſe. An action brought for the recouerie of an aliened inheritance. ¶Norm.

Demarche de bourſe. The ſame.

Rouge bourſe. A Robin red breaſt; (called ſo in Savoy.)

Elle a la langue en la bouche, non en la bourſe. (Said of a tatling huswife, whoſe Clicket is euer wagging) ſhe is not tongue-tied, I warrant you.

Faire bourſe à part. To keepe houſe, or make a houſehold, apart, and without any communitie of goods, or of eſtate with others.

Tous les priſonniers s' en ſont fuys de ſa bourſe. Looke Priſonnier.

Venir entre la bourſe & les deniers. To preuent, foreſtall, come betweene and home. Seeke Venir.

Abbé & convent ce n'eſt qu'un; mais la bourſe eſt en divers lieux: Pro. Looke Abbé.

Belle hoſteſſe c'eſt un mal pour la bourſe: Pro. A faire hoſteſſe brings in a foule reckoning.

Le petit gain emplit la bourſe: Prov. Wee ſay, light gaines make heauie purſes.

Qui biengaigne, & biendeſpend, ne luy faut bourſe à mettre argent: Pro. He needs no purſe, that ſpends, as well as gets, much; or, that ſpends as much as hee gets.

Qui n' a argent en bourſe ait du moins du miel en bouche: Pro. Looke Argent.

Selon ta bourſe gouverne ta bouche: Prov. Meaſure thy appetite by thy abilitie.

Bourſé: m. ée: f. Purſed, impurſed; incloſed, or ſhut vp, as in a purſe; bulching, or bearing out, as a full purſe; bunted.

Bourſeau. A little bliſter, bumpe, or ſwelling, ſuch as riſes of a knocke, or after nettling.

Bourſelle: f. A Mariners Compas, or Dyall.

Bourſer. To purſe, impurſe; incloſe, or ſhut vp, as in a purſe; alſo, to gather, make bulch, or beare out, as a (full) purſe; to bunt, or leaue a bunt in a ſayle.

Bourſeron. A little purſe; bag, pouche.

Bourſet de devant. The fore-ſayle.

Bourſet de hune. The top-ſayle of a ſhip.

Bourſeteux: m. euſe: f. Purſe-like; belonging to a purſe; full of purſes.

Bourſette: f. A little purſe.

Bourſettes de la ſemence. The ſeed veſſels; as Paraſtates.

Ietter la bourſette. A hauke, taken out of the Mue, to be fully cleanſed, and purged before ſhe be ſlowne.

Bourſeux. as Bourſeteux.

Bourſicouter. To make a purſe, gathering, or collection.

Bourſier: m. A Pentioner; or, one that hath an yearely Penſion in a Colledge; or out of the fees comming in by a Court of Iuſtice; (and ſuch are the Kings Secretaries, and Clerkes of the Chancerie, whoſe intertainment is payed them out of the profit made by the Great Seale.)

Bourſiller. To contribute euery one his pennie; to make a purſe, or lay their monyes together, as Mummers, &c, vſe to doe; alſo, to put his hand into his purſe, or take ſomewhat out of his purſe.

Bourſillon: m. A little purſe.

Bourſin. A certaine little rope that ſerues to fetch in the ſprit-ſayle.

Bourſon: m. A little purſe; caſe; bag.

Bourſoufflade: f. Windie pride, idle vanitie.

Bourſouflé: m. ée: f. Swolne, puffed, or blowne vp, as with wind.

Bourſouffler. To ſwell with wind, to puffe, or blow, vp.

Bourſouffleure: f. A ſwelling of the guts, or of any other part, by windineſſe; any ſwelling, puffing, or blowing vp.

Bouſant: m. A Buzzard, or bauld kyte. ¶Savoyard.

Bouſat. as Bouſant.

Bouſchement: m. A ſtopping, eſtoppell, obſtruction.

Bouſcher. To ſtop, obſtruct, ſhut vp; alſo, to hoodwinke.

Les fruicts ſe bouſchent. Said when the bloſſomes of a tree are cloſed (or nipped) by cold, ſo that no fruit comes of them.

Bouſcheron. A bill-man; alſo, a faggot-maker.

Bouſchon: m. A ſtopple; See Bouchon.

Bouſe de vache: f. The dung of a Cow; a Cow-turd, or Cow-ſhard.

Bouſée: f. The ſame.

Bouſet. petit bouſet. A little odious fellow; a paltrie crop of a Cow-turd.

Bouſfler. To puffe vp, or blow wind into.

Bouſille: f. (perhaps as Bouſin) daubing, or ſtuffe to daube with.

Bouſiller: m. A dauber.

Bouſiller. To daube; alſo, to bũgle, or ſlubber a thing ouer.

Bouſin: m. A ſoft, and mouldering, ſubſtance, that cleaues to the outſide of free-ſtone, in Quarries; and is vſually taken, or pilled, from the ſtone before it be wrought.

Bouſinier. pierres bouſinieres. Soft, and mouldering, or melting away in water, or by weather; (for thoſe be properties of the Bouſin.)

Bouſſade: f. The rot, or plague, among ſheepe. ¶Langued.

Bouſſe: f. The bunch of a Cammels backe; or (generally) as Boſſe.

Bouſſin: m. A bit, cantill, mammocke, morſell. ¶Gaſc.

Bouſſole: f. A Pilots Dyall, Compaſſe, or Quadrant.

Bouſſu. as Boſſu.

Bouſt: m. A tombe, ſepulchre, graue; a place wherein a dead bodie hath beene buried, or burned.

Bouſtargues. as Botargues.

Bout: m. The end, head, point, top, or tip, the extreame, or vtmoſt, part (in the length) of a thing; hence, the chape of a ſcabberd; the head of an arrow, &c.

Les bouts des coſtez. Stitches in the ſides.

Baſton à deux bouts. A Quarter-ſtaffe; or, a Lope-ſtaffe, wherewith Low-countrey men leape ditches.

Vne corde à trois bouts. A threefold rope.

Bout cy bout là. Bungarly, diſorderedly, ſlouenly; here a peece, and there a patch.

A chaque bout de champ. Still, euermore, euerie where, in each place, at all times.

Du bout des levres ſeulement. Sleightly; nicely, daintily; from the teeth outward, onely with the tip, edge, or outſide, of the lips.

Tout à bout. On euery ſide, at euery turning, euerie where.

Il eſt au bout de ſa corde. He can doe no more, he can goe no further; he may put vp his pipes, goe ſhake his eares.

Ils ſont au bout de la roye. They are at their wits end, at their laſt helpes; they haue ſpent their pouder; they haue no more to ſay.

Gaigner le haut bout. To take, or ſet himſelfe in, the higheſt place of a table; alſo, (in contentions, or trials) to get the vpper hand, carry away the beſt prize, win the ſpurres.

Il ne peut au bout de l'an nouër les deux bouts de ſa ſerviette enſemble. Hee liues very barely; hath nought but from hand to mouth; cannot ſpare a dogge a bone, at the yeares end.

Recerchons le bout de noſtre fuſée. Let vs returne to our matter.

Il ne regarde plus loing que le bout de ſon nez. He is a careleſſe, idle, lazie, dull, improuident fellow.

Se tenir ſur le bon bout. To ſtand vpon his good parts, behauior, or birth.

Se tenir ſur le haut bout. To ſtand vpon his pantofles, or on high tearmes.

Au bout la borne: Pro. At length we ſhall reſolue, or ſettle, vpon ſomewhat.

Au bout de l' aulne faut le drap: Prov. Seeke Aulne.

Boutade: f. A ſtarting; a ſuddaine, violent, and vnexpected paſſion, or ſtirring; alſo, as Boutée.

Boutage. droict de boutage. A certaine dutie, or fee, exacted by the Lord of Breci (a member of Bourges) for the wine retayled within his iuriſdiction.

Boutant: m. A Buttreſſe, or ſhore-poſt.

Boutant: m. ante: f. Thruſting, putting, forcing, puſhing forward; alſo, budding, or putting forth.

Arc boutant. Looke Arc.

Boutargues. as Botargues.

Bouté: m. ée: f. Thruſt, forced, puſhed forward; alſo, budded, or put forth.

Boute-cul: m. A Monke, or Frier, thats but a nouice, or newly entred into Orders; called ſo by the common people.

Travailler en boute-cul. as Travailler en Bourdican; Looke Bourdican.

Boutée: f. A put, puſh, thruſt; a iert, brunt; ſhocke; violent attempt, vehement eſſay; alſo, a putting, ſpurting, ſprouting, or budding, forth.

A boutées. as par boutées; alſo, by heaps, or troupes.

Par boutées. By fits, or puſhes; not all at once; eftſoones, now and then.

Par pluſieurs boutées. Many and ſundry times one after another; by diuers efforts made one in the necke of the other.

Boute-feu: m. A Bouteſeu; a wilfull, or voluntarie firer of houſes; alſo, a firebrand of ſedition, a kindler of ſtrife and contention; one that loues to ſet, and ſee, men together by the eares.

Boutefoire. A certaine ſhitten yew-game.

Boute-hors: m. The play called, Thruſt out the harlot; (wherein the weakeſt euer come to the worſt.)

Bon boute-hors. A good wit, conceit, vnderſtanding; or, a good vtterance, a ready tongue, a quicke deliuerie.

Bouteille: f. A bottle; alſo, a buble raiſed on the water, by a drop of raine, &c.

Il en eſt plus aſſotté qu' un coquin de ſa bouteille. He is more fond of it then a beggar is of his diſh.

Il m'a baillé le bouchon d'une bouteille. See Bouchon.

Il s'enyvre de ſa propre bouteille. He is too farre in loue with his owne good parts; or, he abuſes them to his great ſhame, and confuſion.

Terre loing de ſoy n' apporte que flaſcons & bouteilles: Pro. Grounds lying a farre off, breed nought but flaggons and bottles; (viz. extraordinarie expences.)

Bouteillerie: f. A cupboord, or table, to ſet bottles on; alſo, a cupboord, or houſe, to keepe bottles in.

Bouteillette: f. A ſmall bottle, or buble.

Bouteillier: m. A butler; alſo, a bottleman, or yeoman of the bottles; alſo, a bottle-maker.

Grand bouteillier. The great Butler of France; an honourable Officer, but out of date, euer ſince Charles the ſeuenths time.

Bouteilliere: f. A Tympanie in, or ſwelling of, the lower part of the bellie, by reaſon of much water, or wateriſh humor, gathered together in it.

Boutement: m. A thruſting, putting, puſhing forward:

Boutement des feu. A malicious firing of houſes.

Bouter. To thruſt, put, force, puſh, forward; alſo, to haue a ſtrong breath (a faulconers tearme) alſo, to bud, or put forth, as a tree in the Spring; alſo, to roote, as a Swine.

Bouter cap à la mer. To caſt about to ſea-ward; a ſhip to make towards the maine.

Bouter de loo. To lay tacke aboord.

Bouter ſelle. To ſaddle; to clap a ſaddle on a horſes backe.

Bouter au vent. To beare roomeward; or, to fill the ſayles with wind.

Bouter vent devant. To goe too neere the wind.

Bouter vent en penne. To bring a ſhip vpon the Lee.

Bouter en la vie. To ſayle directly into a port, or barred hauen.

Si boute tel feur telle vente. The thing is ſold as it was bought, let goe as it came; or (more careleſſely) no matter, tis well ynough, let be how't will, come on't what can.

Bouterolle: f. The chape of a ſheath, or ſcabberd.

Boute-

Boute-ſelle. (The word for horſemen to prepare themſelues) to horſe.
Boute-vent des Alchymiſtes; a hole, or vent, in the top of their furnaces.
Bouteuſle: f. A buble.
Bouteure: f. as Boutture.
Bouticle. as Boutique; alſo, a well, or lepe, for fiſh.
Bouticlier: m. A ſhop-keeper; or, he that looketh to a ſhop.
Boutiffle: f. A buble of water, &c.
Boutignan. The name of a kind of Olive.
Boutilier. as Bouteillier.
Boutine: f. The nauell.
Boutique: f. A ſhop.
Courtant de boutique. A Prentice, or ſhop-boy.
La grande boutique. The Law; or, the profeſſion thereof; or the Hall (as ours at Weſtminſter) wherein it is practiſed; (called ſo, belike, becauſe many things may be had in it for money.)
Madamoiſelle de la boutique. Seeke Madamoiſelle.
Qui ſçait l'art ſerre la boutique. A prouerbe taxing th'enuie, or ſqueamiſhneſſe of cunning Artiſts, who, for the moſt part, conceale from the world their excellent gifts.
Qui ne ſçait l'art ſerre la boutique: Prov. (Imperatiuely) let him that hath no skill ſhut vp his ſhop; (ſo vnfit, and vnſafe a thing it is for a man to deale in a trade which he knoweth not;) or, as in Art.
Qui tient boutique doit parler à chaſcun: Prov. Shopkeepers muſt be courteous; or, ſuch as haue ware to ſell muſt haue words at will.
Boutis: m. The rooting of a wild Bore; alſo, as Boutement.
Boutoir: m. A Farriers Buttreſſe.
Bouton: m. A button; alſo, a bud of a Vine, &c; alſo, a locke of wooll.
Bouton de feu. An actuall cautere headed like a button.
Boutons à queuë. Long buttons; ſuch as are laid on clokes &c.
Bouton de verolle. A pockie botch; or a high, and eminent pimple, burſting out in any part of a bodie infected with the pockes.
Cautere à bouton. See Cautere.
Serrer le bouton à. To reſtraine, keepe ſhort, or beare a hard hand ouer.
Boutonné: m. ée: f. Buttoned; budded; cauterized; ſet thicke with pimples, or pockie botches.
Boutonnement: m. A buttoning; a budding; a cauterizing.
Boutonner. To bud, ſpring, or ſprout out; alſo, to button, or claſpe; alſo, to cauterize, or ſeare with an actuall cauter.
Boutonnerie: f. A buttoning, or claſping; alſo, a budding, or ſprouting out; alſo, a cauterizing.
Boutonnet: m. Rupture-wort, Burſtwort; (an hearbe.)
Boutonneur: m. A Buttoner; or an inſtrument wherewith buttons are pulled through their ouer-ſtrait holes.
Boutonniere: f. A button-hole.
Boutouër: m. The ſnout of a wild Swine.
Bouts. A great bottle; or, as Oudre. (v.m.)
Bouttice. An aſbler, or binding ſtone (in building.)
Boutton. Looke Bouton.
Boutture: f. The ſlip of an hearbe; the ſprig of a plant; a budding, or putting out, in either.
Bouvaux. The name of a kind of figs.
Bouveau: m. A bullocke; a little Oxe, or Bull.
Bouvelt: m. A young Bull, or Bull-calfe.
Bouvi. qui ſent le bouvi. Smelling like an Ox.
Bouvier: m. A Cow-heard, a Neat-heard; a keeper of Oxen.
Bouviere: f. A ſmall, round, bright-coloured, little-mouthed, and toothleſſe, fiſh, of the riuer Seine; ſeldome eaten, becauſe very bitter.
Bouvillon. as Bouveau.
Bouvine: f. All kind of Oxen; Neat, Oxen.
Bouyau. A bowell, gut, inteſtine; See Boyau.
Bouys: m. The ſhrub, called Box.
Bouys d' aſne. Box-thorne, prickly Box, Aſſes-Box, thorne Box.
Bouys eſpineux. The ſame.
Bouys poignant. Knee-hull, Knee-holme, Pettigree, butchers Broome.
Bouze. as Bouſe; Cow-dung.
Bouzine: f. A ruſticall Trumpet, or wind-inſtrument, made of pitched barke.
Boyau: m. A bowell, gut; entrall, inteſtine.
Boyau avallé. Burſting, or burſtneſſe; (the bowels being fallen downe into the cods.)
Boyau culier, ou cuillier. The right gut, or arſe-gut (one of the three principall guts.)
Boyau gaſté. The hurt of the draught gut (a diſeaſe among Oxen.)
Gras boyau. as Boyau culier; In beaſts called, the Inche-pinne, or Inne-pinne.)
Le long boyau. The long gut; the third gut from the Ventricle; the thin, or ſmall gut, wherein the Chylus waxing thicker, beginneth to reſt; alſo, the name of a fertile plaine in the Iſle of France.
La Maiſon de Monſieur boyau. Said of a houſe thats ſlated before, and thatched behind.
Il a vn aulne de boyaulx vuides pour feſtoyer ſes parens. He hath a monſtrous ſtomacke, a terrible appetite, a hungrie gut of his owne.
Boye: m. An Executioner, a Hangman.
Bozel: m. A thicke, or great boultell (commonly) in, or neere vnto, the Baſis of a pillar.
Bozine: f. as Bouzine.
Braailler. as Braire; to bray like an Aſſe.
Braçal. See Braſſal.
Braçats: m. Braſſes, or Vambraſſes; armor for the armes.
Brace: f. A meaſure of fiue foot; or, as Braſſe.
Bracelet: m. A bracelet; alſo, the wriſt of the arme.
Bracelets. Short linkes, and buttons, ſet to either ſide of the vpſet, or port, of a bitt; or, the watering chaine of a bitt.
Brachet: m. A kind of little hound.
Brachial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, an arme.
Brachialement. With maine force of armes; with all the ſtrength he hath.
Brachieux. as Brachial.
Braconnier: m. A hunter.
Bracque. The name of a field neere Paris, wherein the ſchollers of the Vniuerſitie vſe to ſolace thẽſelues. Rab.
Bracqué. Looke Braqué.
Bradypepſie: f. Slow concoction; or, a painfull, and but halfe diſgeſtion, of meat.
Bragard: m. arde: f. Gay, gallant, flaũting; vain; alſo, pert, or dapper; alſo, braggard, bragging, braggadochio-like.
Bragardement. Gayly, gallantly, flauntingly, vainely; alſo, pertly; alſo, braggardly, braggingly, vauntingly.
Bragarder. To braue, or flaunt it; to weare gay attire, to goe gay; alſo, to brag, vaunt, ſwagger.
Bragardiſe: f. Brauerie, gayneſſe, flaunting, proud vanitie; alſo, bragging, vaunting, ſwaggering.

Bragmarder. To draw, or imploy, his whineyard; to leacher.

Brague: f. A kind of Mortaise, or ioyning of peeces together.

Bragues. Short (and close) linnen breeches worne next vnto the thighes.

Braguer. To flaunt, braue; brag, or iet it.

Braguerie: f. Wanton tricking, lasciuious brauerie, or pranking; also, flaunting; bragging, swaggering.

Braguesques: f. Large venitians hauing codpeeces, and gathered, or full of stuffe, at the knees.

Braguette: f. A codpeece.

Bonnet à quatre braguettes. A square, or foure-cornered, cap.

Bragueur. as Bragard.

Brahiers. as Brayers; Linnen breeches.

Brailler. as Braire. To bray like an Asse, &c.

Il ne perdra point l'auoine à faute de brailler. He will not loose any commoditie for want of words.

Brain: m. The branch of a tree.

Braire: m. An Asse-like braying; a roaring, rude yelling, loud balling, vnmeasureable crying out.

Braire. To bray like an Asse; to bawle, yell, cry out laudly; rudely, vnmeasureably.

Braire avec les asnes. To follow the fashion, how rude soeuer it be.

Braise: f. A burning coale; quicke fire of coales; or hot imbers; also, a kind of inflamed swelling, full of rednesse.

Saulter de la poile, & se ietter dedans les braises. From ill to worse; from the frying-pan into the fire.

Braisier: m. A liue-coale; or, burning coales.

Braisillonner. To rost, or seeth vpon quicke coales, or imbers; or, as Brasillonner.

Braisiner. as Bramer; to roare.

Braisset. as Graisset; the greene toad.

Brame: f. A Breame.

Brame de mer. The sea Breame (called so at Paris, where it is ordinarie) also, the Guilt-head, or Goldennie (and diuers other fishes of that kind are also called so by the inhabitants of the sea coasts.)

Bramé: m. ée: f. Brayed, roared, yelled, cried out with a harsh voice.

Bramer. To bray, roare, yell, or crie out with a harsh voice.

Bran: m. The branne of Wheat; also, as Bren; a turd.

Bran de Iudas. Freckles in the face.

Faire de l'Asne pour avoir du bran. To play the foole, or make an asse of himselfe, in hope of gaine, or victuals.

Farine du Diable n'est que bran: Prov. Looke Farine.

Tousiours truye songe bran: Pro. The filthie glutton still dreames of his belly.

Truye aime mieux bran que Roses: Prov. The Sow loues draffe better then delicacies.

Bran. bœuf bran. A kind of vnreclaimeable wild Oxe, in Provence, & Languedoc.

Branc d'acier: m. A cuttleasse, or courtelax.

Brancal: m. The sides of a wagon, the shafts of a litter; the two beames, or poles, whose fore-part makes the Thill; also, a horse-litter, or close litter; and (generally) any such thing that hath armes, or out-bearing sidebeames, and is to be carried by, or betweene, two; also, as Brancar.

Brancar. as Brancal; also, a branch of Corrall; also, the crosse-barre of a hilt.

Brancas: m. as Brancal.

Brance. Bearded red wheat.

Branchage: m. Branchinesse; thicknes, or store of branches; also, branches, boughes; also, Linage; or the branch of a Pettigree, &c; as Branche.

Branchages. as Branchieres.

Branche: f. The branch, or bough of a tree; also, the gill of a fish; also, the cheeke of a bit; also, a collaterall degree, or side, of kinred; Linage; or, a branch, or line, of a Pettigree.

Branche d'augiues. Looke Augive.

Branche hircine; as,

Branche vrsine. Brank-ursin, Beares-foot, Beares-claw, Beares-breech (an hearbe.)

Droict de branche de Cyprés. Looke Cyprés.

Il se tient seulement à l'estoc sans s'amuser aux branches. He holds him onely to the substance, without respecting circumstances.

Vole bas de peur des branches. Flie low, or be stopt by the branches; beare a low saile, or bee run vnder water; a middle, or moderate course is little subiect vnto enuious crossings.

Brancheage: m. as Branchage.

Brancher. To sit vpon a branch; to light vpon a bough; to take a tree; to take stand in a tree, as a hauke; to pearch, as a phesant.

Brancher vn larron. To twitch a theefe vp at a bough, to hang him vp at a tree.

Tant que tige faict souche elle ne branche iamais. As long as there are any heires of an elder Prince of the bloud, the younger cannot inherit the crowne.

Branchet. Espervier branchet. A brancher, or young hauke, newly come out of the neast.

Branchette: f. A little branch.

Branchier: m. ere: f. Haunting, or liuing among, branches; pearching, or sitting, on boughes; also, of, or belonging to, a branch, or bough.

Espervier branchier. A brancher, or young hauke, newly come of the neast.

Branchiere: f. A Passage-toll, or through-toll; so called, because the little log thats a signe therof (as in Billette) hangs on the branch of some tree or other.

Branchieres. The out-places, or parts of the high way, wherein the said logs, or billets, haue beene, a long time, hung vp.

Branchillon. A little branch.

Branchu: m. uë: f. Branchie, branched, full of branches, or boughes.

Branchuë: f. A kind of small red Cray-fish, which bred without a shell of it own, seises on some other, and therein continues, getting at length a resemblance of the fish it belonged vnto.

Branchure: f. A branch.

Brand. as Branc.

Brandes: f. Heathie grounds.

Brandif: m. iue: f. Brandishing, shaking, flourishing; lustie, liuely, stirring.

Il mangea vn gigot de mouton tout brandif, viz. wholly, or all whole.

Brandillé: m. ée: f. Brandled, tottered, wagged, shaken, swong, swagged; also, glistened, or flashed.

Brandillement: m. A swinging, wagging, swagging, shaking, tottering vp and downe; also, a glistening, or flashing.

Brandiller. To brandle, wag, shake, swing, totter; also, to glisten, or flash.

Brandilloir: m. A swing.

Brandilloire: f. The same.

Bran-

Brandir. To caſt, or hurle with great force, or violence; to make a thing ſhake, or quauer, by the force it is caſt with; alſo, to brandiſh; to ſhine, or gliſter with a gentle ſhaking, or ſoft mouing.

Brandon: m. A torch, firebrand, great creſſet, lanterne, or light ſet vp; alſo, the buſh of a Tauerne, or Alehouſe; alſo, a ſtaffe topped with ſtraw, and pitched downe by a Landlord into his tenants ground, in ſigne of an arreſt, or ſeiſure for ſeruices omitted, or his rent vnpayed.

Brandon doré. The Sunne.

Brandonné: m. ée: f. Stucke downe, as a ſtaffe of ſtraw, on land, in ſigne of an arreſt, or ſeiſure; or, ſeiſed, as land by that ceremonie.

Brandonner. To ſeiſe land by pitching downe into it a ſtaffe topped with ſtraw; as before in Brandon.

Brane. bœuf brane. A kind of wild and vnreclaimeable Ox in the countries of Languedoc, & Provence; fit onely for the Shambles.

Branlage: m. A kind of toll, or tax.

Branler. See Branſler.

Branquar. as Brancar; alſo, the edge of the decke of a ſhip.

Branque vrſine. Brankurſin, Beares-brecch, Beares foot, Beares claw (an hearbe.)

Branque vrſine ſauvage. Wild Acanthus, wild Beares-breech.

Branqueté: m. ée: f. Rifled, ranſacked; oppreßed.

Branqueter. as Branſquetter.

Branque-vrſine. Brank-urſin, Beares-breech (an hearbe.)

Branſcat: m. Spoyle, rauage, ranſacking; oppreſſion, extreame wrong.

Branſlant: m. ante: f. Brandling; ſhaking, ſwinging; tottering; ſhogging, wagging; reeling, ſtaggering; wauering.

Chariot branſlant. Looke Chariot.

Branſle: m. A totter, ſwing, or ſwindge; a ſhake, ſhog, or ſhocke; a ſtirring, an vncertain and inconſtant motion; alſo, a brandling, &c; as in Branſlement; alſo, a brawle, or daunce, wherein many (men, and women) holding by the hands ſometimes in a ring, and otherwhiles at length, moue all together.

Le branſle contrainct. The ſhaking of the ſheets.

Le branſle de la corde. A ſwing in a halter; or, the rope-ſwing (which few men take with a good will.)

Aller de grand branſle. To moue apace, to goe very faſt.

Il eſt en branſle ſi. Tis doubtfull, or vncertaine whether yea or no; the matter hangs in ſuſpence, or is yet in the ballance.

Sonner les cloches en branſle. To ring out the bels.

Branſlé: m. ée: f. Brandled; tottered; ſhaken, ſwung; ſhogged, wagged; reeled, ſtaggered; waued, wauered; often ſtirred, or moued from ſide to ſide; alſo, trembled, quaked.

Branſlement: m. A brandling; tottering; ſhaking, ſwinging; ſhogging, wagging; reeling, ſtaggering; wauering; often, and vncertaine mouing from ſide to ſide; alſo, a trembling.

Branſlement des dents. Looſeneſſe of the teeth.

Branſler. To brandle; totter; ſhake, ſwing; ſhog, wag, reele, ſtagger; waue, wauer; nod often, ſtirre apace, moue vncertainely, or inconſtantly, from ſide to ſide; alſo, to tremble, or quake.

Branſler au manche. To be looſe in the helue, or heft; to ſtagger, wauer, ſhake, or flinch, vpon a triall; to want courage, or grow faint-hearted, in a time, or at the point, of execution; reſolution to faile a man when he hath moſt need of it.

Branſler la pique. To frig, to wrigle it.

Branſler la teſte. To ſhake the head, in ſigne of contempt, ſcorne, mockerie, or diſcontentment.

La teſte luy branſle. Said of one that is much afraid; and of one whoſe head by drinking is become too heauie for his bodie.

L'Armée branſle. The army begins to giue, or to looſe, ground; begins to totter, or to fall into diſorder.

Branſloire: com. Any thing that ſhakes, ſhogs, or ſwings a man vp and downe; any thing that makes him reele, totter, or ſtagger; alſo, a brandling, &c; as in Branſlement; and hence;

Branſloire d'enfans. A faſhion of tottering vſed by ſchoole-boyes, vpon one forme layed (with the feet vpwards) ouercroſſe another.

Branſquetter. To rifle, rauage, ranſacke; to ſpoyle, or take in a towne by violence; to oppreſſe, wrong, or grate vpon, extreamely.

Braque: m. A kind of ſhort-tayled ſetting dog; ordinarily ſpotted, or partie-coloured.

Braqué. Bent, leuelled, or planted, as Artillerie, againſt a place; alſo, braked, as hempe.

Braquemar. ou, Braquemard. A woodknife, hangar, whineyard.

Braquer (l'artillerie) contre. To leuell; bend; or plant (artillerie) againſt.

Braquer du chambre. To brake hempe.

Braquer vn chariot. To turne, ſet, or bend, a chariot on the right, or left hand.

Bras: m. An arme, of the bodie; of a riuer, of the ſea; alſo, the foreleg of a horſe.

Bras (plural.) The two ſmall ropes that paſſe through the end of the Bolt-ſprit yard, and ſerue to hale in the ſayle; our mariners name them, Clulings.

Bras de l'antenne. The Tyes; the tackling that holds, and ſtayes the ſayle-yard.

Le bras ſeculier. Secular authoritie, lay iuriſdiction; ciuill magiſtracie, or the ciuile magiſtrate.

Les bras d'un Scorpion. The cleyes, or clawes, of a Scorpion, &c.

Chaire à bras. A chaire with elbowes.

Grand bras. The whole arme, and hand.

Homme de bras. An artificer, labourer, handicrafts man; one that gets his liuing by the labour of his hands.

Petit bras. The vpper part of the arme from the elbow to the ſhoulders.

Vallet à bras. Looke Vallet.

Bras à bras. Arme in arme; louingly, or equally, together.

Les bras croiſez. Idly, lazily, ſlouthfully, negligently, careleſly.

Bras deſſus & bras deſſous. Freely, affectionatly, with ſtrict, or earneſt imbracements, moſt familiarly.

A tour de bras. Throughly, fully, ſoundly; with maine ſtrength, or confident authoritie.

Se laiſſer aller ſous les bras d'autruy. To relie vpon another.

Canonizé gros comme le bras. Canonized as ſure as a club. (Ironically.)

Il iette la pierre, & cache le bras. He does the moſt miſchiefe, and would be leaſt ſeene in it.

Bras à la poictrine, iambe en geſine: Prov. Thoſe parts, being hurt, muſt haue reſt; the one in a ſcarfe; the other in bed, or on a ſtoole.

A l'or le feu fort, au fort bras la luicte: Prov. The worth of gold is tried by fire, the ſtrength of an arme by wreſtling.

Argent receu le bras rompu: Prov. He that payes for worke beforehand, lames his workeman; or, hath it but lamely done.

Braſer. To skue, or chamfret, viz. to ſlope the edge of a ſtone, as Maſons doe in windowes &c, for the gaining of light.

Braſer l'argent; C'eſt, la repaſſer vn peu ſur la braiſe.

Braſier: m. A burning coale, quicke fire of coales; hot embers.

Braſillé: m. ée: f. Roſted, broyled, or boyled with a quicke fire; alſo, broyled, or heated much.

Braſiller. To roſt, broyle, or boyle on quicke coales, or hot embers; alſo, to broyle, or heat much.

Braſillonner. To broyle, or boyle with a very quicke fire; alſo, to broyle extreamely, burne out, or be on a light fire.

Braſſage: m. The fee which the Maſters of the Mint haue out of euery ſort of money coyned; as out of euery marc (or eight ounces) of gold xxv s. Tourn. and vpon euery marc of Douzains vj s. vj d. Tour. out of which they allow a certain proportion, in reſpect of euery ſort, vnto the Grauers, Monyers, and other workmen; which proportion of theirs is alſo tearmed Braſſage.

Braſſal: m. An Archers bracelet, or bracer; alſo, a vambrace, or peece of armour for the arme; alſo, the woodden cuffe, or bracer worne by Balloone-players.

Braſſart. as Braſſal.

Braſſat. The ſame.

Braſſe: f. A fadome, or arme-full; or meaſure of fiue foot.

Braſſe de foing. is to be fiue foot ſquare euery way.

Pain de braſſe. A great houſehold loafe (of courſe bread) a loafe as big as one can fadome.

Braſſé: m. ée: f. Brewed; alſo, deuiſed, plotted, contriued.

Braſſée: f. A fadome, an arme-full, as much as one can hold within, or carrie in, his armes.

Braſſelet: m. A bracelet, wreſt-band, or bracer; alſo, an arming gantlet, that reaches vp almoſt to the elbow; alſo, the wriſt.

Braſſer. To brew, or make beere; alſo, to plot, contriue, deuiſe.

Il ne ſçavoit pas quel brouët ſe braſſoit, avec vn autre. He knew little, what priuat match was in making, what ſecret bargaine was a beating, what an odde pranke was a forging, with another.

Braſſerie: f. A brewing; alſo, a contriuing.

Braſſeur: m. A Brewer; alſo, a plotter, contriuer, deuiſer.

Braſſier: m. A Braſier; alſo, a ſling; alſo, a cudgell; alſo, the tub that receiues the droppings of a tap; alſo, a labouring man.

Braſſiere: f. A waſt-coat, for a woman; or a child; alſo, (but leſſe properly) the doublet ſome women doe weare in childbed; alſo, the arme, or branch of a riuer; alſo, a brace; one of the ſtaues whereby men turne the beame of a Crane, &c.

Braſſin: m. A brewing.

Braſſique: f. Cole, or Coleworts.

Braſſique marine. The ſea Cole, or ſea Colewort; miſtaken by ſome for ſea Bindweed, or Scottiſh Scuruie-graſſe.

Brater vn chariot. as in Braquer.

Bravache. (ſoldat bravache) A Reiſter, Cutter, Swaggerer, Swaſh-buckler; one thats euer vaunting of his owne valour.

Bravacherie: f. An vnſeemely, or vnſeaſonable, cutting, roiſting, ſwaggering; alſo, a fond boaſting, vaunting, bragging of his owne valour.

Bravade: f. A brauado; a ſwaggering pike, or quarrell; a boaſtfull affront; a glorious ſhew of challenge, or daring.

De bravade. (alſo) in a brauerie.

Brave: m. The reward, or prize for him that hath done beſt in playes, or games.

Brave: com. Braue, gay, fine, gorgeous, gallant (in apparrell;) alſo, proud, ſtately, loftie; braggard; magnificall, ſumptuous; alſo, valiant, hardie, ſtout, couragious, that will carrie no coales.

Faire le brave. To ſtand on tearmes, or vpon his pantofles; to boaſt of his owne worth; to preferre himſelfe before others.

Bravement. Brauely, gallantly, finely, gaily; ſumptuouſly, gorgeouſly; magnifico-like; alſo, proudly, haughtily, loftily; alſo, ſtoutly, valiantly, couragiouſly; alſo, diſcreetly.

Braver. To braue, abuſe, affront, ſwagger with.

Se braver. To braue it, or play the Gallant; alſo, as Faire le brave.

Braverie: f. Brauerie, gallantneſſe, gorgeouſneſſe, or coſtlineſſe in apparrell; alſo, as Bravade.

Braveux: m. He that giues the prize to the beſt doers in an exerciſe.

Bray: m. Ship-pitch, or a kind thereof; alſo, Mault.

Brayant: m. ante: f. Braying, yelling, or crying, like an Aſſe; alſo, braying, pounding, bruſing.

Brayart: m. A braying, yelling, roring, or crying Aſſe.

Braye: f. A cloſe linnen breeke, or vnder-ſlop (Looke Brayes) alſo, a truſſe, a ſwathell, or halfe-ſlop of linnen, or leather, worne by ſuch as are burſt; alſo, a clout for a childs backſide.

Brayes. Short (and cloſe) breeches, drawers, or vnderhoſe, of linnen, &c, worne for cleanlineſſe, &c, next vnto the skin; alſo, Barnacles for a horſes noſe.

Braye à chauſſe. A kind of fiſh-net, made ſomewhat like a breeke, or ſlop.

Braye de cocu. A Cowſlip, or Paigle.

Fauſſe braye. A falſe-bray, or out-wall, in a fortreſſe.

Fauſſes brayes. The ſtraps that hang downe on either ſide of a horſes furniture.

Brayé: m. ée: f. Brayed, pounded, bruiſed; kneaded, as dough; braked, as hempe; grauen, as a ſhip.

Brayement: m. A braying, pounding, bruiſing; braking; alſo, an Aſſe-like braying, yelling, or crying out; alſo, a grauing, or pitching of a ſhip.

Brayer: m. as Braye.

Le brayer d'une Chevre. The Vdder of a ſhee Goat.

Le brayer d'un oiſeau. The Brayle, or pannell of a hauke.

Brayer. To bray, poune, bruiſe; alſo, to knead dough with a ſtaffe; alſo, to bray, yell, or crie, like an aſſe.

Brayer du lin. To brake, or dreſſe flax.

Brayer vn navire. To graue, picke, or pitch, a ſhip.

Brayere: f. A Flax-wife.

Brayes. Looke Braye.

Brayette: f. as Braguette; alſo, the tryall, tongue, or cocke, of a Ballance.

Brayetter. La langue me brayette. My tongue trips, or falters.

Brayetter la chemiſe. To accommodate the ſhirt betweene the legs (paſſing the fore-skirt behind, and the hinder before) that it be not comberſome.

Bray-

Brayeul : m. The parts, or feathers, about a hawkes fundament, called by our Faulconers the brayle in a short-winged, and the pannell in a long-winged, hauke.
Breant. The bird called, a Siskin.
Brebiail : m. Sheepe; Ewes.
Brebiaille : f. The same.
Brebiette : f. A little sheepe, or ewe.
Petite brebiette tousiours semble ieunette : Pro. The little sheepe seemes euer yong.
Brebis : f. A sheepe; properly, an ewe.
Brebis de rebut. An old, or diseased sheepe, thats not worth keeping; wee call such a one, a drape, or culling.
Courage de brebis (le nez en terre, followes) To it hearts; courage my Lads; (an ironicall, or sportfull phrase of encouragement.)
Brebis contées mange bien le loup : Pro. The wolfe eats counted, as well as vncounted, sheepe; (appliable vnto a beastly fellow, that respects nothing but the glutting of his filthy appetite.)
Brebis trop apprivoisée de trop d'agneaux est tettée : Prov. An ouer-kind man, or woman get more followers, than it stands with his ease, or her honestie to keepe.
Ou brebis sont laine est : Prov. Where sheepe are wooll is.
Depuis que la brebis est vieille le loup la mange bien : Prov. A wolfe can eat a sheepe though shee bee old.
Deux loups mangent bien vne brebis : Prov. Two wolues deuour one sheepe with ease.
En la peau de brebis ce que tu veux y escris : Pro. One may write what he will in a sheepes skin; (sheepe endure any thing.)
Entre Beaucaire, & Tarascon ne paist ne brebis, ne mouton : Prov. Looke Tarascon.
Il n'est pas tousiours saison de brebis tondre : Pro. Sheepe-sheering is not euer in season; silly people must haue some time allowed them to thriue in; so will their fleeces, at length, be worth clipping.
Pendant que les chiens s'entregrondent le loup devore la brebis : Prov. Church-mens contention is the diuels haruest.
Qui se fait brebis le loup le mange : Prov. Those that will needs be sheepe the wolfe deuours; hee that like a sheepe carries himselfe, like a sheepe shall be fleeced, foulded, and fed on.
Tandis que la loup muse la brebis entre au bois : Prov. While the wolfe studies the sheepe escapes; while the cruell consult, the innocent ouerslip them; (hereby is also noted th'inconuenientie of an opportunitie neglected; and their slownesse, or dulnesse taxed, who go to councell when they should fall to action.)
Breborions : m. Old dunsicall bookes; also, the foolish charmes, or superstitious prayers, vsed by old, and simple women, against the tooth-ache, &c; any such tired-barc, and mustie, rags of blind deuotion.
Breche : f. A bracke, or breach in a wall, &c.
Breché : m. ée : f. Breached; full of brackes, full of breaches; or hauing a breach made in it.
Brechedent : m. A tooth-gaper; one that wanteth diuers teeth; or, as Breschedent.
Brechet : m. The brisket.
Brecheure d'une riviere. A breach in a riuer.
Bredaille : f. A great paunch, or belly : Pic.
Bredailler : m. A gorbelly, gorrell, gulch, fatguts.
Brediner. as Bredouiller.
Bredouillard : m. arde : f. Faultering, gabling, maffeling, imperfectly speaking.
Bredouille : f. A lurch at cards, or tables.
Estre en bredouille. To be tipled, or tipsie.
Ma petite bredouille. My prettie rogue, my little knaue (a tearme vsed much by the nurses of France.)
Bredouillement : m. A faultering, or maffling; an ill-fauoured speaking, imperfect pronounciation.
Bredouiller. To maffle, or faulter; to speake, or pronounce imperfectly.
Bref : m. as Brevet; A breefe, note, short writing; also, as Brief; a writ, &c.
Droict de Brefs. Certaine pecuniarie duties paid vnto the Kings Receiuers, or farmors in the Ports of Brittaine, euer since the yere 1566, when they were granted by a prouisionall Arrest of the Parliament there, in regard (as it seemes) of the Kings writs, licencing the passage of vessels out of those Ports; hence;
Bref d'année. Is for vessels of the burthen of fiue Tunnes and vnder; which pay vij.s.vj.d.Tour.
Bref de conduicte & de victuailles. Is giuen for vessels that be of burthen from nine to nineteene Tunnes; These pay 50.s.Tour.
Bref de victuailles. Is for vessels that be from fiue to nine Tunnes burthen; and these yeeld 17. s. 6. d. Tour.
Tous briefs. Must be had for such vessels as be of 19 Tunnes, or vpwards; and for them, 110.s. paid.
Bref. See Brief; Short, &c.
Brefve : f. Looke Breve.
Bregmatis : Os bregmatis. (Latine words vsed much by French Anatomists:) Looke Os.
Brehaigne : f. A barren woman, or female; or, (Adiectiuely) barren, sterill.
Brei : m. as Bret (The fowlers engine.)
Breil de forest. A thicke growne wood, or corner of a forrest, wherein great wild beasts vse to lurke.
Breits. as Bray.
Brelafé. Looke Balafré.
Brelan : m. A house of gaming, tipling, or of any such disorder; Looke Berlan.
Brelandier : m. An ordinarie haunter of gaming, or tipling houses; also, the master, or keeper of such an vngodly house.
Brelengue. as Brelingue.
Brelingue : f. A peece of coyne worth about eight pence sterling.
Breller. To batfowle; to catch birds by batfowling; also, to twinkle, or glitter.
Brelles. Ciues, chiues; or, ciuet, and sweth.
Breluë. Il a la breluë. His eyes are dazled; See Berlue.
Bremant. Il n'a enfant ne bremant, Hee hath nor child, nor chicke to care for; he liues without any manner of charge.
Bremer. as Bramer.
Bremme : f. as Brame; A Breame.
Bren : m. A turd, mans dung, excrement, ordure; Looke Bran.
Brenasserie : f. Scuruie shitten sturre, or stuffe.
Breneux : m. euse : f. Beshitten, all-to-berayed; full of turd, filth, ordure.
Bresche. The name of a verie hard, and sundrie coloured marble.
Breschié : m. ée : f. as Breché.
Breschedent. An irronicall allusion to President; or, as Brechedent.
Bresil : m. The wood Brasill; also, beefe long salted, and hung by the fire till it become red; Martlemas beefe.

Bre-

Bresillé: m. ée: f. Made red, as, or with, Brasile wood.
Boeuf bresillé. as in Bresil; Martlemas beefe.
Bresin: m. The hooke of a crane; and, in a ship, the canne-hooke.
Bressaudes: f. The crispie mammocks that remaine of tried hogs grese.
Bressaux. A kind of fine cakes, or wafers; or, as Pain de Quinque.
Bresse: f. as Broisse; A brush; also, a thinne leafe, or cake, as, of wax, &c.
Bresseron: m. The Sow-thistle.
Bressille des yeux: f. The twinkling of the eyes.
Bressiller. To twinkle with the eyes.
Bret: m. A little engine (made of two slickes ioyned together) wherewith fowlers catch small birds, the whilst they wonder at an Owle, thats set of purpose to amaze them; also, as Bray.
Bret. Estre, ou parler, bret. To stammer, stut, or speake indistinctly.
Bretaudé. Curtalled.
Bretauder. To curtall; See Bertauder.
Breteler. To brabble, chide, brawle, scowld, berate.
Breteleur: m. A brabler, chider, brawler, or wrangler; a litigious, or vaine talker.
Bretelles d'une hotte. The arms, or handles of a basket, or maund; (In France they are commonly made of a peece of a girth.)
Breteque. as Bretesque.
Bretesche. The same.
Bretesque. A publicke place in a towne, wherein outcries, and proclamations are ordinarily made; also, a port, or portall of defence, in the rampire, or wall, of a towne.
Brethecque. The same.
Breton. A Britan; An Inhabitant of Britanie.
Breton Bretonnant. The low Britan, who speakes halfe Welsh, halfe Saxon, all barbarously.
Breton Gallo, ou Gallot. The high Britan, who speakes French, but verie corruptly.
Saut de Breton. Looke Saut.
Bretonnant. Speaking thicke and short; also, (but lesse properly) stammering, faultering, maffling in the mouth.
Breton bretonnant. Looke Breton.
Bretonner. To speake thicke and short; or, as wee say, nine words at once; also, to stammer withall.
Brette: f. A (Fencers) foyle.
Bretté: m. ée: f. Notched, indented, jagged, or toothed, like a saw.
Bretteſsé: m. ée: f. Imbattled; adorned, garnished, or furnished with battlements.
Bretteſse: f. The battlements of a wall.
Bretture: f. An indenting, iagging, notching.
Bretueil: m. Th'yron peece called a Fowler, or Port-peece.
Brevade: f. as Brevet.
Breve: f. The mettall which is, at one time, deliuered vnto a Coyner, or money-maker, to be wrought; called thus, because the quantitie thereof is briefely specified in a Ticket.
Brevet: m. A breefe, note, breuiate, little writing, short declaration, ticket; or bill of ones hand; also, as Brief; Sub.
Estre enferré aux brevets des marchands. To bee furre in their bookes.
Hauſſer le brevet. To come off more liuely, to stretch the purse strings.
Brevetade. as Brevet.

Breveter. To abreuiate, epitomize, reduce into breefes, or breuiates.
Breviaire: m. A Breuiarie, or Masse booke; also, a breuiarie, summarie, compendious abridgement.
C'est matiere de breviaire. Tis holy stuffe I tell you; irronically: ¶Rab.
Il est au bout de son breviaire. He is at a plunge, or nonplus; he hath no more to say; (from ignorant Priests, that can say no more than they find in their Seruice booke.)
Il est clerc iusques aux dents, il a mangé son breviaire. He makes a shew of learning, but indeed hath none in him; or, as in Clerc.
Breuil: m. A thicke growne forrest, wood, or greue, haunted by great wild beasts.
Breulet: m. An engine of two slicks (gouerned by a small cord) wherewith Fowlers catch little birds.
Breuſle: f. A dish, or footlesse cup, or bowle, of Tinne.
Breuſté: for Brousté; Broosed, or knapped off.
Breuvage. as Bruvage.
Breuvoer: m. Liquor; or, any liquid stuffe, thats fit to be made into drinke.
Breze. as Braise.
Brezil. as Bresil.
Breziller. To twinkle, or glitter; as the Sunne beames in a hoat season.
Bribe: f. A peece, lumpe, or cantill of bread giuen vnto a begger.
Il n'est vie que de coquins quand ils ont assemblé leurs bribes: Prov. There is no life (no mirth) to that of a company of beggers, hauing laied their scrips together.
Briber. To beg his bread; also, to rauine, deuoure, eate greedily; (from the sound made by the lips of a horse that eats prouender.)
Bribeur: m. A begger, a scrap-crauer; one that begs victuals from doore to doore; also, a greedie deuourer, a rauenous feeder.
Bribonner ſes oraiſons. To mumble vp his prayers, like an old man.
Briborions. Prayers mumbled vp; or, as Breborions.
Bric. prendre au bric. To take at aduantage; to catch hold of an vnaduised word, and make thereof a confession; also, to giue a dead lift, or sore blow at the last.
Brichet: m. The brisket, or breast-peece.
Bricole: f. A bricke wall; a side-stroake at Tennis (wherin the ball goes not right forward, but hits one of the walls of the Court, and thence bounds toward the aduerse partie) also, a kind of engine wherewith, in old time, they beat downe walls; also, as Bricolle.
Il m'a ioué d'une bricole. He hath played mee sore, or foule, play; offered me hard, or odde, measure; dealt extreamly, or cunningly, with me; also, he hath deceiued, or disappointed, me.
Bricoler. To tosse, or strike a ball sidiwayes; to giue it a bricke wall (at Tennis;) also, as Bricoller; also, to banke, at bowles.
Bricolle: f. as Bricole; Also, a kind of toyle for wild beasts.
Bricoller. To tosse, or strike a ball sidewayes; to giue it a bricke wall, at Tennis; (Hence) also, to reele, stagger, or make indentures, in going; and, to be violently carried ouerthwart, or sidewayes; also, to turne short (as a Swallow, &c, does, in flying;) also, to leacher.
Bricot: m. The stumpe of a shrub, or little tree; an vpsticking stub of a late cut shrub, or tree.

Bri-

Bricoteau. A quoyte of ſtone (v.m.)
Bridaveaux : m. Hollow, round, and wreathed cracknels of fine flower, ſugar, ſalt, and yoalkes of egs, incorporated together with water, and white wine.
Bride : f. A bridle; alſo, a border, or carkanet of gold, and pearle for a womans head, (in the hinder part whereof tis cloſed;) alſo, a kind of drinking veſſell.
Bride de Chapeau. A ſtay, for a hat; a ſtring put vnder the hat-band.
Bride à oeilleres. Looke Oeillere.
Bride de Soulier : as in Souliers à bride.
Brides à veaux. Fopperies; gulleries; groſſe tricks, or lyes; vnlikely tales, or things; alſo, halters; alſo as Bridaueaux.
Souliers à bride, ou à brides. Sandals; or woodden pattins held vnto the foot by one, or more ſtrings (tearmed brides*) which faſtened on both ſides of their ſole, thence runne, and rayne, ouer th'inſtup.*
A bride avallée: As faſt as he can driue; as faſt, or as much, as he can.
Abandonné ſur la bride. Hanging vpon the hand; (a Horſemans phraſe.)
Fort en bride. Stout, headſtrong, ſtubborne; ſurly; vnruly.
Laſcher la bride à. To carrie a gentler hand vpon; to afforde more ſcope, o giue more libertie, vnto.
Ie vous en mets la bride ſur le col. I giue you full power ouer it; I abandone it wholy vnto you.
Tenir en bride. To reſtraine, to hold in.
Bridé : m. ée : f. Bridled; bitted; reſtrained, ruled, moderated, held vnder, kept in order.
Brider. To bridle, bit; reſtraine, moderate, rule, hold-vnder, keepe in order.
Brider l'aſne, ou ſon cheual par la queuë. To goe the wrong way to worke, to doe a thing by contraries.
Brider la mule à. To waite on, attend the leaſure of, or doe baſe offices for.
Se Bride de ſerment. Looke, Serment.
Bridon : m. A ſnaffle.
Bridoye : A gooſe-bridler; (a nickname for a Lawyer ¶Rab.
Brief : m. A writ, or breefe; a ſhort mandamus, iniunction; commiſſion &c.
Brief de Iudgement; as Dicton de Iudgement.
Brief d'obligation & de debt. The firſt copie, note, or ſcedule of an obligation, deliuered in paper vnto a creditor by the notarie that drew it.
Droit de briefs. Looke Bref.
Brief : m. brieue : f. Breef, ſhort, ſuccinct, compendious, of little length, of ſmall continuance.
Le plus brief eſt le meilleur : Pro. The ſhorter the better (in bad things.)
Brief. Adverbially; as.
A brief parler. To be ſhort; in a word; the ſumme of all is; not to trouble you with many words, not to hold you ouer long.
De brief. Shortly, anon, forthwith, incontinently, by and by, within a while, ere it be long.
En brief. Briefly, ſhortly, ſuccinctly, compendiouſly, in few words.
Brienart : m. Poore folkes drinke, made of branne, leauen, and water.
Briere. as Bruyere.
Brievement. Breefely, ſhortly, ſuccinctly, compendiouſly; ſtraitly, in a narrow compaſſe, in a little roome.
Brieveté : f. Breuitie, ſhortnes, ſuccinctnes, compendiouſnes.

Brifaut : m. A haſtie deuourer, a faſt eater, a rauenous feeder, a greedie glutton.
Brifeau. as Brifaut.
Brifée : f. A morſell, bit, ſnatch, mouthfull (eaten greedily.)
Brifer. To deuoure, eate haſtily, feed rauenouſly, or like a hungrie glutton.
Brifeur. as Brifaut.
Briffaux : m. Rauenous feeders, haſtie deuourers.
Briffeur : m. as Brifaut.
Brigade : f. A troope, crue, or companie.
Brigader. To accompany, or aſſociate, one another; to troope, or keepe companie, together.
Brigaille : m: A noteable ſmel-ſmocke, or muttonmungar, a cunning ſolicitor of a wench.
Brigand : m. A footman armed, or ſeruing, with a brigandine (In old time when thoſe kind of ſouldiors marched, they held all to be good priſe that they could purloyne from the people; and thereupon this word now ſignifies) alſo, a theefe, purſe-taker, high-way robber.
Brigandage : m. A robbing, theeuery, purſe-taking, bootehaling, vniuſt pillage.
Brigande : f. as Brigade (v.m.)
Brigandeau : m. A yong, or ſmall theefe; a filcher, a pilferer.
Brigander. To rob, to take a purſe; to theeue it by the highway ſilde.
Brigandereau. as Brigandeau.
Briganderie : f. A theeuing; purſe-taking; robberie by the highway.
Brigandin. as Brigantin.
Brigandine : f. A Brigandine; a faſhion of (ancient) armor, conſiſting of many iointed, and skale-like, plates, very plyant vnto, and eaſie for, the bodie; (ſome, leſſe properly, confound it with (Haubergeon) a coate, or ſhirt, of mayle.)
Brigant. as Brigand.
Brigantin : m. A low, long, and ſwift Sea-veſſell; bigger then the fregat, and leſſe then a foiſt, and hauing ſome 12 or 13 oares on a ſide : we call it alſo, a Brigantine.
Brignon : m. The name of an excellent plum, whereof there be two kinds, a bigger and a leſſe.
Brigue : f. A canuas, priuate ſuite, vnder-hand labouring for an office, &c; (hence) alſo, debate, contention, altercation, litigious wrangling about any matter.
Brigue de Metz. A peece of coyne worth 10 pence Tourn.
Brigué : m. ée : f. canuaſed, or laboured for, vnderhand; alſo quarrelled, contended, wrangled about.
Briguer. To canuas, make priuate ſuite, labour vnderhand, for an office, &c; alſo, to quarrell, contend, wrangle about matters; alſo, to ſharke, or take purſes by the high-way ſide.
Briguerie : f. A priuate canuaſing, ſecret labouring, vnderhand ſuing for an office, &c; alſo a litigious debating, wrangling, or contending for matters; alſo, a ſharking, robbing, purſe-taking.
Briguet : m. A mungrell; whence (alſo) a man thats nobly borne but of one ſide.
Brigueur : m. One that priuately labours, or vnderhand ſues, for the aſſiſtance, or fauor of others; hence; a canuaſer for an office, &c; alſo, a quarrelſome, contentious, or ligitious, perſon; alſo, as Brigand.
Brihat : m. One that is hot, and loud.
Bril : m. A glitter, ſparkle, twinkle; or glittering &c.

Bril-

Brillant. les brillants des femmes. The iewels which they weare in their haire; and their gliſtering petticoats of changeable colours.

Brillant. Glittering, ſparkling, twinkling, ſhining.

Brillement: A glittering, ſparkling, twinkling, as of the ſtars; alſo, a batfowling.

Briller. To glitter, twinkle, ſparkle, as a ſtarre, or like a good diamond; alſo, as Breller, to batfowle.

Briller apres. Greedily to couet, or luſt after.

Les chiens brillent bien. Satd of luſtie, or well-metled hounds, which nimbly caſt about, or (as in French) Sont legiers à la queſte.

Brillonner. as Briller.

Brimbalatoire. See Brimballatoire.

Brimbalé: m.ée: f. Tumbled headlong; throwne down topſie-turuie; alſo, ſhaken, ſwagegd, quagged.

Brimbaler. To tumble downe headlong, to fall downe topſie-turuie; alſo, to ſhake, ſwag, or quag, as a great dug, or th'vnſound fleſh of a foggie perſon.

Faire brimbaler les cloches. To ſet the bells a-gate.

Brimbales: f. The bells worne by cart, or carriers, horſes.

Brimballatoire: com. Swagging, wagging, ſhaking, or quaking, ill-fauouredly, or loathſomely.

Brimballer. as Brimbaler.

Brimballotier. See Brimblotier.

Brimbeur: m. A paultrie pedler.

Manteau de brimbeur. A mantle, or cloke of rug, or courſe frize.

Brimblotier: m. A paultrie pedler; one that hath nought but traſh to ſell; alſo, a ſpangle-maker.

Brimborions. as Breborions; alſo, the knackes, iagges, nifles, bawbles, wherewith fooles caps, &c, are garniſhed.

Il dit ſes brimborions; (for Breviaire) He ſayes ouer his whole Pſalter; or, he mumbles to himſelfe his fond, and ſuperſtitious, deuotions.

Brimboter. To mumble, putter, mutter, grumble, or babble vnto himſelfe.

Brin: m. A (little) ſlip, or ſprig, of an hearbe, &c; alſo, a corne of ſalt; and more generally, any ſmall ſubſtance, deale, or bit of a thing.

Bois de brin. Round, or vncleft wood.

Brin à brin. by peece-meale; or by little and little.

Il n'eſt vn ſeul brin eſtonné. He is not a iot, not a whit, not at all, aſtoniſhed.

Brindelles de balay. The ſprigs, or twigs, of a beeſome.

Bringue: m. A drinking to.

Bringuenarder. To ſwiue.

Bringuenarilles. wide noſethrils: ¶Rab.

Bringuenaudée: f. A common hackney, a wench thats often ſwiued.

Brioche: f. A brake for hempe; alſo, a rowle, or bunne, of ſpiced bread: ¶Norm.

Brioler. To glide, or ſlide, on the yce.

Brionie: f. Brionie, white vine, wild nep, tetter berrie; See Bryonie.

Brique: f. Bricke; alſo, a plate, leafe, or wedge of mettall faſhioned like a bricke.

Laver vne brique. To labour in vaine; or, to looſe both time, and labour.

Briquer. To ſet, or lay brickes; to worke, build, or fortifie with bricks.

Briquerie: f. A brick kill; a houſe, or place wherin brick is made.

Briquet: m. as Briguet; Alſo, a yong hare.

Briqueterie: f. Brick-worke, laying of bricks; alſo, a brick kill.

Briquetier: m. A Bricklayer.

Briquettes: f. Nifles, trifles, little toyes.

Briqueux: m. euſe: f. Brickie; full of bricks; fit for brickes.

Briquier. A brick-maker; bricke-ſeller.

Bris: m. A bracke, breach, or great leake, in a ſhip.

Droict de bris. Th'Admiraltie of a ſea coaſt; which giues a man all wrackes, or ſhipwracks.

Bailler bris contre Robert. Ie luy bailleray bris &c. I will call him Jacke if he call me Gill; I will giue him altogether as good as he brings.

Courir au bris. To run to wracke, to bee in danger of ſhipwracke.

Ie feray tel bris de toy que tu as merité. I will make that ſhipwracke of thy reputation, or eſtate, which thy lewdneſſe deſerues.

Briſable: com. Burſtable, breakeable, brayable.

Briſans: m. The foamie breaking of the ſea againſt rocks, or banks of ſand.

Briſant: m. ante: f. Breaking, burſting, beating, braying into peeces.

Quartiers briſans. The quarters of the Moone, in the waine.

Briſche: f. A buſh made of lime twigs, and a ſtale hung at it to draw birds vnto it.

Briſcoter. To leacher.

Brise: f. A peece of ground, thats new broke vp for tillage; (and hath lien long vntilled.)

Briſé: m.ée: f. Broken, burſt; brayed, beaten in peeces; alſo, rent, or torne off; alſo bruiſed or cruſhed extreamly; (in Blaſon, oppreſſed, or charged with;) alſo, interrupted; alſo, infringed, or violated.

Chaire briſée. A foulding chaire.

Saiſine briſée. Th'occupation, and vſe, of an inheritance taken by the tenant, notwithſtanding the ſeiſure thereof made by the Lord.

Somme briſée. A broken ſumme with odde money; or, a whole ſumme with ouerplus.

Vis briſée. A ſtaire that hath foure or fiue ſteps vpright, then turnes, and hath as many forward another way; or, a ſtraight ſtaire with halfe paces.

Briſée: f. A breach, brack, rupture; alſo, a ſtep, track, or footing.

Briſées. Boughes rent by hunters from trees, and left in the view of a deere, or caſt ouerthwart the way wherin he is likely to paſſe, therby to hinder his running, and to recouer him the better; Our wood-men call them, Blinkes.

Reprenons nos briſées. Let vs returne vnto our former way, buſineſſe, diſcourſe, &c.

Retournons par nos briſées. The ſame.

Ie ne vay plus ſur vos briſées. I trace you no more, I follow your footing no longer; or, I am no longer your competitor, concurrent, corriuall.

Briſe-grain. Corne-breaking, graine-cruſhing.

Briſe-gueret. Fallow-breaking, mold vp-tearing.

Briſement: m. A breaking, braying, beating to peeces; a rending, or tearing off; ſore cruſhing, or bruiſing; a violating, infringing; an interrupting.

Briſe-ponts. Bridge-breaking (of a riuer) all downe-breaking.

Briſer. To burſt, breake; bray; beat in peeces; alſo, to plucke, rend, or teare off, or vp; alſo, to cruſh, or bruiſe extreamely; alſo, to interrupt, or breake off; alſo, to violate, or infringe.

Briſer le fer aux dents. Il penſe briſer le fer aux dents.

dents. He ſtrugling againſt too ſtrong an oppoſition, thinks to performe impoſſibilities.

Briſe-tour. Tower-breaking, tower-ſplitting.

Briſette: f. A little ſcale, or huske; a little ſplint, or ſhiuer, broken off any thing.

Briſeur: m. A burſter, breaker; brayer, beater in peeces; a tearer off, a plucker vp; a violater, an infringer.

Briſeure. as Briſure.

Briſeux: m. euſe: f. Breaking, braying, cruſhing, burſting aſunder.

Dents briſeuſes. The tuskes, tuſhes, or dogs teeth.

Briſgoter. (¶Rab.) as Briſcoter.

Briſſeures: f. Broken peeces.

Briſure: f. A breach, burſt; breaking, or beating in peeces; alſo, a plucking, renting, tearing off, or vp; alſo, an extreame cruſh, bruiſe, cruſhing, or bruiſing; alſo, a broken peece of; alſo, an addition, in armorie, for the diſtinction of brothers; as, a Labell, halfe Moone, Mullet, &c.

Brit. prendre au b. Looke Bric.

Britanique: f. Brittannica, Biſtort, Snakeweed, Paſhions, Oiſterloite; (an hearbe.)

Brive: f. A bridge. (v.m.)

Britaſcher. I'ay oüi britaſcher d'une telle choſe. I haue heard ſome ſuch muttering.

Briz: m. A bracke, breach, or leake, in a ſhip, &c; Looke Bris.

Brize. for Bize. The North wind: ¶Rab.

Brizer. as Briſer.

Broc: m. A ſteane, great flagon, tankard, or pot; holding (moſt commonly) twelue Pariſian pintes.

De broc en bouche. Suddenly, incontinently, while tis hot.

Brocar: m. Satin ſtript, or purfled, with gold.

Brocard: m. A quip, gird, or cut; a ieaſt, flout, ſcoffe, gibe, mocke; alſo, as Brocar; and as Brocart.

Brocardé: m. ée: f. Quipped, cut, or ieaſted at; ſcoffed, mocked, flouted, gibed.

Brocarder. To quip, cut, gird, reach ouer the thummes; ieaſt at; flout, mocke, ſcoffe, deride, or gibe at.

Brocarderie: f. A cutting, quipping, nipping; ieaſting at; flouting, mocking, ſcoffing, deriding, gibing at.

Brocardeur: m. A quipper, ſcoffer, mocker, flouter, derider, giber, or ieaſter at.

Brocart: m. A two-yeare-old Deere; which if he bee a red Deere, we call a Brocket; if a fallow, a Pricket; alſo, a kind of ſwift ſtag, which hath but one ſmall branch growing out of the ſtemme of his horne; alſo, as Brocard.

Brocatel: m. Tinſell; or thin cloth of gold, or ſiluer.

Brocelles. as Broſſailles.

Bróchant: m. ante: f. Broching, ſpitting, ſtitching.

Brochant ſur le tout. Ouer all; (ſpreading, or diſplaying it ſelf, is meant, but omitted, by our Blaſonners.)

Brochard: m. A peg, or pricke, of wood.

Broche: f. A broach, or ſpit; alſo, a (great) ſtitch.

Broches. The piles (in the fundament;) alſo, the tusks, or tuſhes, of a horſe; or wild bore.

Broche de mer. The Spit-fiſh.

Couper broche à. To preuent, or take away th'occaſion of.

Vendre vin à broche. To retaile, or draw wine; to vtter, or ſell it, by pot-fuls, &c.

Broché: m. ée: f. broached, ſpitted; alſo, (groſely) ſtitched; ſowed, or ſet with (great) ſtitches.

Brocher. To broach, to ſpit; alſo, to ſtitch (groſſely) to ſet, or ſowe with (great) ſtitches.

Brocher vn cheval des eſperons. To ſpurre him, to ſtrike him with ſpurres; alſo, to ſpurre him hard, almoſt to ſticke him with ſpurring.

Brochereux: m. Little Pickerels.

Brochet: m. A Pike (fiſh;) alſo, a faucet, or quill for a wine veſſell.

Brochet de mer. The ſea Pike, the Cod-fiſh; alſo, the Spit-fiſh; or, as Bequet de mer.

Ils iettent les gardons pour tirer des brochets. They forgoe an egge to gaine an Oxe; or, ſmall, for great, matters.

Brocheton: m. A Pickerell, or ſmall Pike (of the length of a foot; or vnder.)

Brochette de bois, &c; A pricke, or peg of wood, &c.

Brochette d'argent. A little wedge of ſiluer.

Brochoir: m. A (Farriers) ſhooing hammer.

Brode: m. Broth, pottage, brue.

Brode: f. A blacke, ſwart, or Sunne-burnt, wench.

Pain de brode. Browne bread.

Brode. langage brode. A looſe, laskie, ſquattering, ſcruuie; alſo, an effeminate, language, or ſpeech.

Brodé: m. ée: f. Imbrodered.

Robbe d'argent brodé de merde. Iuſtinians Inſtitutes; (called ſo becauſe of the filthie Commentaries made on them.)

Brodequin: m. A buskin.

Les brodequins. Buskins, or bootes (filled with hoat oyle, &c,) whereinto the legs being put are extreamely tormented.

Broder. To imbroder.

Brodes. A cloke, or mantle, of leather.

Brodeur. as Bordeur.

Brodeure. as Bordure.

Brodier: m. The arſe, bumme, taile: ¶Norm.

Broiſſe. A bruſh; Looke Broſſe.

Brommart: m. arte: f. Drowſie.

Broncher. as Bruncher.

Bronchique. muſcle b. One of the foure muſcles which open the Larinx.

Brondes: f. Greene boughes, or branches, of trees; browzing for cattell; or browze-wood.

Bronze: m. Braſſe.

Bronzé: m. ée: f. Braſon, braſſie, made of, or couered with, braſſe.

Bronzer. To Braze; to make of, or couer with, braſſe.

Broſſailles: f. Little buſhes of thornes; alſo, little bundles of twigs, or ſtickes faſhioned like bauens, or fagots; alſo, little looſe ſtickes remaining in a place where fagots, or bauens haue beene laded, or layed.

Broſſailleux: m. euſe: f. Full of little buſhes, or looſe ſtickes.

Broſsant. Threeding a wood, ruſhing through it; alſo, bruſhing.

Broſse: f. A buſh; alſo, a buſhie ground, or thornie groue; alſo, the head-bruſh thats of a whitiſh, or ſtraw-coloured heath, (now moſt in vſe among the better ſort;) alſo, a bruſh of wire; alſo, a flax-combe, or hetchell.

Broſſer. To threed a wood, runne through buſhes, ruſh through thickets; alſo, to bruſh, or make cleane with a bruſh; alſo, to combe, or hetchell flax, &c.

Broſſer bien vn cheval aux Tournois. To manage a horſe gallantly in Turneyes.

Broſſettes: f. Small heath whereof head-bruſhes are made.

Brot. as Broc; A flagon, or great tankard.

Vn brot de vigne. The bud of a vine.

Brotonne. Male Sotherwood.

Brou: m. The outward huske of a greene walnut.

Remaſcher

Remaſcher ſon brou. To chaw the cud.

Brouäilles : f. waſhings of diſhes; alſo, guts, and garbage of fowle; any ſuch outcaſt traſh.

Brouaz : m. as Brouhaha.

Broudier. as Brodier.

Broue : f. A little white clowde.

Brouée : f. A miſt, or fog; alſo, as Brouhaha; or Boutade; a bluſtering or violent paſſion, or perturbation.

Brouër : m. as Brouée (in the firſt ſence.)

Brouët : m. Potage, or broth; alſo, any liquor, podge, or ſauce, of the thickneſſe, or conſiſtence of that whereof our pruine-tarts are made.

Bec à brouët. A little peart, and pratling girle.

Il ne ſçavoit pas le brouët qui ſe braſſoit auec vn autre. (Poore man) he knew not that he was bought and ſould by others; or, what croſſe match was in hand vnder-hand with others.

Brouëter. To ſet a wheelebarrow a-gate; to labor with, or carrie things in, a wheelebarrow.

Brouëtte : f. A wheelebarrow; alſo, a tacke-nayle.

Brouëtteur : m. One that workes with a wheelebarrow.

Brouſter. To ſnurt, or ſniſter with the noſe, like a horſe.

Brouhaha : m. A bluſter; hurry, hurlyburly.

Brouhoux : m. Stormes, bluſters; hurlyburlies.

Brouil : m. as Brou.

Brouillar : m. A cold miſt, or fog.

Brouillard : m. arde : f. Confounding, iumbling, diſordering, ſhuffling, or hudling matters in an vnquiet, or ilfauored, manner.

Papiers brouillars. Blotting, or waſt papers; looſe papers, wherein we write things careleſly, or at randome.

Brouillas : m. A miſt, or fog.

Brouillaſſer. as Brouiller (extremement.)

Brouillaſſeur : m. as Brouilleur (in the higheſt degree.)

Brouillé : m. eé : f. Iumbled, confounded, il-ſhuffled, diſorderly hudled, hurryed, troubled; marred in the mingling.

Oeil brouillé. An eye wherein, by ſome great wound or inflammation, all the humors are mingled, and iumbled together; which cauſeth the ball, or aple, to appeare of diuers colours.

Oeufs brouillez. Whoſe ſubſtance is mingled, & beaten together with a little vargis; and ſo vſed, eyther for ſauce, or as an Omelet.

Brouiller. To iumble, trouble, diſorder, confound, marre by mingling together; to hudle, tumble, ſhuffle, things il-fauoredly; to make a troubleſome hotchpotch; to make a hurry, or great hurliburly.

Brouiller les cartes. To diſorder, confound marre buſineſſes; alſo, to keepe a foule coyle, a filthy ſtirre.

Il ne fait que brouiller. (Of one that playes on an Inſtrument) he doth but fumble, or ſlubber ouer the leſſon he playes.

Brouillerie : f. A confuſion; a troubleſome, or diſordered ſhuffling, iumbling, hudling, tumbling of things together.

Brouilleur : m. A confounder, iumbler, hudler, diſorderly ſhuffler, or mingler of things together; a troubleſome, or vnquiet perſon; one that by ouerdoing marres whatſoeuer he does.

Brouillis : m. A confuſion; a confounding; a iumbling; a diſorderly hudling, il-fauored ſhuffling, vnquiet tumbling of things together; an il-compounded mixture; confuſed peſterment; intricate or perplexed hurry, trouble, hurlyburly.

Brouillis de procez; Pettifoggerie; a diſordering, or intangling, of cauſes to make them the more litigious.

Brouillon. as Brouilleur; alſo, one that broaks in euerything, whereby he may get but a pennie.

Broüiné : m. eé : f. Blaſted, or burnt with miſts.

Broüir. To rumble, ruſtle, bluſter; alſo, to humme.

Broüiſſement. as, Bruiement; alſo, a humming.

Brouſer. To brouze, knap, nible off, leaues, buds &c.

Brouſſaille : f. A thornie, buſhie, or bryerie, ground, plot, or groue.

Brouſſin : m. A bunch, or knurre, in a tree.

Brouſt : m. A brouzing, nibling, knapping off of buds, ſprigs, leaues, &c; alſo, brouze-wood; or a ſprig, tendril, bud, &c; a yong branch, or ſhoote, fit to be brouzed on.

Qui ſuit le brouſt. A ſmel-feaſt, or trencher-friend; one that daily hauntes other mens well-furniſhed tables.

Brouſter. as Brouter.

Brout. as Brouſt.

Broute : f. The roote of the box-tree, ſeaſoned, and fit for vſe.

Brouteiment : m. A brouzing.

Brouter. To brouze; to knap, or nible off the ſprigs, buds; barke &c. of plants; alſo, as Brouëter.

Ou la Chevre eſt liée faut qu'elle broute : Pro. Looke Chevre.

Brouteur : m. A brouzer; alſo, as Brouëtteur.

Brouteur : m. eure : f. Brouzing; nibling, knapping of ſprigs, buds &c.

Brouteure : f. A brouzing.

Broutilles : f. Beggars ſcraps.

Broutique : f. A monkey. (v.m.)

Broutonner. as Boutonner; to bud.

Brouy : m. ie : f. Burned, parched; withered by extreame heat.

Brouyr. To parch, burne, wither with ſcorching heate.

Broyé : m. eé : f. Pounded, brayed, beaten ſmall, broken into little peeces.

Broyement : m. A braying, pounding, beating ſmall.

Broyer. To pound, bray, beate ſmall, breake into little peeces.

Broyer de l'eau en vn mortier. To looſe labour.

Broyeur : m. A brayer, pounder, beater of things vntill they be broken ſmall.

Bru : f. A daughter in Law; a ſonnes wife.

Bruant : m. A certaine little beautifull, and dul-ſighted bird; enemy to horſes, whoſe neighing he counterfeits; ſome call him, a yellow-hammer, or yowlring.

Bruchet : m. The craw-bone, or merrie thought, of a bird.

Bruel : m. The Brayle, or Pannell of a hauke.

Brueil. The ſame.

Bruge-eſpine : f. Buck-thorne, way-thorne, laxatiue ramme.

Brugier. To bellow, yell, roare, make a hideous noiſe. (v.m.)

Brugne : f. A faſhion of Corſelet, or Brigandine, vſed in old time.

Bruiant. as Bruant.

Bruiement : m. A rumbling, ruſtling, bluſtering; clattering, creaking, cracking, croſhing.

Bruiment. The ſame.

Bruine : f. A hot miſt that blaſteth, and burneth, plants.

Bruiné : m. eé : f. Blaſted, or burned with miſt; alſo, hoarie, as a thing thats couered with a miſtie ryme; and hence;

Friteaux bruinez de ſucre-candy. Glazed ouer with ſugar candy.

Bruine-

Bruinement: m. A blasting, or burning with hot mists; also, a glazing ouer.

Bruiner. To blast, or burne with hot mists; also, to glaze, or set a hoarie glosse on.

Bruineux: m. euse: f. Full of hot blasting mists.

Bruire. To rumble; rustle; bluster; clatter, crash; to sound very lowd, & very harshly; to make a lowd humming noise; also, as Brugier.

Comme l'on bruit. As the bruit is, as the world reports, as the talke goes.

Bruit: m. A bruit; a great sound, or noise; a rumbling, clamor, cracking, creaking; also, a rumour, common tale, publike voice, fame, reputation, report, the talke of people, the speech abroad.

L'un a le bruit, l'autre lave la laine: Prov. Th'one hath the credit, th'other the trouble; or, th'one gets the credit, th'other takes the paines.

Qui a bruit de se lever matin peut dormir iusques au soir: Prov. He that is thought to rise betime, may lye abed till noone.

Brule-langue. See Brusle-langue..

Brulure: f. Blight, Brant-corne; (an hearbe.)

Brumal: m. ale: f. Winterie; winter-like; Northerne; done on, or like to, the shortest winter-day.

Bruman: m. A sonne in law; the husband of a daughter.

Brunbay. Browne bay, or darke bay.

Brume. The shortest day in the yeare; also, the middest of Winter; also, Winter.

Brumestre. The name of a kind of vine.

Brun: m. brune: f. Browne, duskie, swart; obscure, or darke of colour.

Bruncheiment: m. A tripping, or stumbling.

Bruncher. To trip, or stumble.

Brune: f. A browne wench, a lowsly nut-browne woman; also, the euening twylight, or edge of the euening; cock-shoot time.

Bruneau. Clos bruneau. The bumme, arse, nocke-androe.

Brunet: m. ette: f. Browniſh, somewhat browne.

Fille brunette est de nature gaye, & nette: Prov. A nut-browne girle is neat, and blith, by nature.

Brunette: f. A nut-browne girle; also, a kind of small bird, like an Owsell; also, fine blacke cloth; whence;

Aussi bien sont amourettes soubs bureau que sous brunettes: Prov. Loue playes his pranks as well in Cotes as Courts.

Brun-fauve: com. Deere-coloured; or of a darke lyon-tawnie.

Bruni. le b. d' vn Cerf. The burnishing of a Stags head.

Bruni: m. ie: f. Burnished, furbished, pollished; also, obscured, bedusked, made browne.

Brunie: f. as Brugne. (v. m.)

Brunir. To burnish, furbish, or polish; also, to beduske, obscure, make browne.

Brunissеure: f. A burnishing, or burnishment; a furbished neatnesse, or polished brightnesse.

Bruniſſoir: m. A burnishing brush, or sticke; or, a burnisher, polisher, furbisher.

Bruniſſure: f. A burnishing, furbishing, polishing.

Brusc: m. Butchers-broome, Pettigree, Knee-holme, Knee-holuer; (a shrub.)

Brusc: m. usque: f. Looke Brusque.

Bruſlable: com. Burnable; fit, or easie to bee burned.

Bruſlant: m. ante: f. Burning, firing, inflaming.

Bruſlé: m. ée: f. Burnt, fired, inflamed; singed, scaulded, scorched.

Bruſle-fer. Iron-burning (an ordinarie nickename for Smithes.)

Brusle-grain. Corne-burning, graine-firing.

Bruſle-langue. Tongue-scorching, tongue-inflaming.

Bruſlement: m. A burning, firing, inflaming; scorching, singing, scaulding; a being on fire; a consuming with fire.

Bruſler. To burne, fire, inflame; singe, scauld, scorch; to be on fire; to consume with fire.

Bruſler la chandelle par les deux bouts. Disorderedly to waste, and consume his substance; to spend hee cares not how, nor what; also, (contrarily, but lesse properly) to wire-draw it, play the micher, make a thing goe too too farre.

Ils bruſlent leur bottes s'ils pensent ainsi. They are in a foule errour, forget themselues too much; or, they runne into a great inconuenience, by thinking so.

Se bruſler à la chandelle; &; Il se vient bruſler à la chandelle; Looke Chandelle.

De trop prez se chauffe qui se brusle: Prov. Hee warmes himselfe too neere that burnes himselfe.

Tel se cuide chauffer qui se brusle: Prov. Some thinking but to warme, doe burne, themselues.

Bruſleur: m. A burner, fyrer, inflamer, scorcher, scalder.

Habillé comme vn brusleur de Maisons. Dressed like a tattered, and desperat, rogue.

Bruſlure: f. A burning; or burnt place; also, as Brulure.

Bruſque: com. Briske, liuely, quicke; also, rash, haire-braind, headie; also, wild, fierce, rude, barbarous, vnciuile, harsh.

Mesure bruſque. A swift measure, or fast time in Musicke.

Vin bruſque. Wine of a quicke, sharpe, or smart tast.

Bruſquement. Quickly, liuely; rashly, headily; fiercely, wildly; rudely, harshly.

Bruſquet: m. ette: f. Somewhat briske, &c.

Vin bruſquet. Very small, and sharpe wine.

Brut. argent brut. Foule, ragged, and rough siluer, as it comes out of the mine.

Caverne brute. A rude, craggie, shapelesse, deme.

Diamond brut. A Diamond that neuer was cut, or is newly taken out of the rocke; a rough Diamond.

Brutal: m. ale: f. Beastly; wild, rude, sauage, brutish; filthie.

Brutalement. Brutishly, beastly, wildly, rudely, sauagely; filthily, foulely.

Brutalité: f. Brutishnesse, beastlinesse, rudenesse, inskishnesse; filthinesse.

Brute-bonne. A certaine great, and soone-ripe peare, of an ill-fauoured shape, but of an excellent tast.

Bruteſſe. as Brutalité.

Bruthier: m. A Buzzard, or Bauld-kite.

Iamais tu ne feras d' vn bruthier vn esperuier: Prov. A bald, and beastly kite will neuer proue good hawke.

Brutif. as Brutal; Also, rash, rechlesse; heedelesse.

Qui parle brutif. One that falters, maſſles, fumbles; or ſpeaks ſo thicke, and faſt, that few can vnderſtand him.

Brutivement. Brutiſhly, rudely, ſauagely; alſo, faulteringly, ill-fauouredly; alſo, raſhly, beedleſly, recbleſly.

Bruvage: m. Drinke, beuerage.

Bruy. as Brouy.

Bruyan: & Bruyant: m. A yellow hammer; or, as Bruant.

Bruyant: m. ante: f. Rumbling, ruſtling, bluſtering; alſo, roaring, ſkreaking, yelling.

Faiſan bruyant. The great blacke Moore-cocke; or, as Coq de bois.

Bruyement. as Bruiment.

Bruyere: f. Heath, ling, bather, whereof bruſhes bee made (in which ſence tis commonly Plurall;) alſo, a heath, or heathie ground; alſo, the great Ægyptian Tamariske, the fruit whereof reſembles Galls.

Bruyere ſauvage. The leſſe, and fruitleſſe Tamariske of Ægypt.

Bruyereux: m. euſe: f. Full of heath, ling, or bather.

Bruyné. Looke Bruiné.

Bryonie: f. Brionie, white vine, wild nep, tetter berrie.

Bryonie noire. The wild vine, blacke Brionie, our Ladies ſeale.

Bryonie ſauvage. The ſame.

Bryonnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, Brionie; and hence;

Vigne bryonniere. as Bryonie.

Bu. as Beu.

Apres bu dodo: Prov. After liquor lazineſſe.

Buanderie: f. A Laundrie; a place to waſh bucks in.

Buandiere: f. A Laundreſſe, or buck-waſher.

Bubailer. To gape, to yawne.

Bubbe. as Bube.

Bube: f. A puſh, wheale, bliſter, waterie bud, bunch, or bumpe.

Bube ſauvage. A malignant ſcabbie puſh (in quality reſembling a Carbuncle) which makes the skin red, and at length eats, and frets it extreamely.

Buberiges. Dogs leekes; or, the hearbe that bears the purple ſtarrie Jacint.

Bubelette: f. A little red bunch, or pimple on the noſe, &c.

Bubette: f. A little wheale, puſh, or bliſter.

Bubon: m. A great bunch, puſh, botch; a plague-ſore; pock-ſore, Winchеſter-gooſe.

Buc: m. A buske; plated bodie, or other quilted thing, worne to make, or keepe, the bodie ſtraight; See Buſq, or Buſte.

Bucail. The courſe mill, or graine, called French wheat.

Buccail. as Bucail.

Buccinateur: m. A Trumpeter.

Buccine: f. A Cornet, or Trumpet for the warres; alſo, the horne of a cowheard, or ſwineheard; alſo, the ſhellfiſh called, Venus-ſhell.

Saſſe bonne farine ſans tromps ne buccine: Pro. Doe not publiſh, nor boaſt of, the good things you enioy; vnleſſe you meane that greatneſſe, enuie, or too much companie, ſhall deprive you of them.

Buce: f. A certaine wine veſſell, containing about halfe a pipe; or, as Buſſe.

Buche de bois. A legge, backe ſtocke, or great billet; See Buſche.

Droict de buche. Looke Droict.

Bucheron: m. A wood-cleaver, or wood-feller; one that makes fagots, bauens, or billets, in woods for hire.

Bucheronner. To cleaue, or cut downe, wood; to make fagots, &c, in wood.

Buchettes: f. Sprigs, twigs, little ſticks.

Buchier: m. A ſtalder, wood-houſe, or wood-pile.

Buchs. The name of a Gaſcon countrey (not farre from Bourdeaux, and) full of Roſen-Pine-trees; whence;

Chandelles de Buchs. Candles of Roſen, vſed by the poorer inhabitants both of that countrey, & of Armignac.

Bucine. as Buccine.

Buclandere: f. A kind of Dutch boat, or barke.

Bucolic: m. ique: f. Heardman-like; of, or belonging to, a heardſman, or a heard of neat.

Bucoliquement. Heardman-like.

Bucquer. as Buquer; Alſo, to butte, or iurre.

Buée: f. Lye wherewith clothes are ſcowred; alſo, a buck of clothes.

Buer. To waſh a bucke; to ſcower with lye.

Buffe: f. A buffet, blow, cuffe, boxe, or whirret on the eare, &c.

Buffelin: m. ine: f. Buffe-like; of, or belonging to, a Buffle.

Buffer. To puffe, or blow hard; alſo, to ſpurt, or ſpout water on.

Buffet: [illegible] A court-cupboord, or high-ſtanding cupboord; alſo, a cupboord of plate; (Hence) alſo, as much plate as will furniſh a cupboord.

Buffeté: m. ée: f. Wrought rough, or ſhagge, like Buffe; alſo, buffeted, or well cuffed; alſo, deaded, as wine that hath taken wind, or hath beene mingled with water.

Buffeter. To make rough, or ſhagge, like buffe; alſo, to buffet, or cuffe; alſo, to marre a veſſell of wine by often taſting it before it be broached; or, to fill it vp with water, after much wine hath beene ſtollen, or taken, out of it.

Buffeteurs de vin. Such Carmen, or Boatmen, &c, as ſteale wine out of the veſſels they haue in charge, and afterwards fill them vp with water.

Buffetolt: m. The fiſh called a Lumpe, or Paddle, or ſea-Owle.

Buffle: m. The buffe, buffle, bugle, or wild oxe; alſo, the skin, or necke, of a buffe; See Beufle.

Bufflée: f. as Buffe. (v.m.)

Buffler. To deceiue.

Buffroy. as Baffroy; or, Beffroy.

Bufon: f. A toad.

Bugie. The barke of a Barbarie tree; (a tearme vſed by Simpliſts.)

Bugle: m. Bugle, middle Conſound, middle Comfrey; (an hearbe.)

Qui a du bugle, & du Sanicle, fait au Chirurgien la nique: Prov. So excellent are thoſe hearbes in the cloſing, and curing of wounds.

Buglement: m. A lowing, or bellowing.

Bugler. To low, or bellow.

Le ventre me bugle de faim. My belly croakes, or cries out, through hunger.

Bugleux: m. euſe: f. Often, or much lowing; full of bellowing.

Bugloſat. Of Bugloſſe; made of Bugloſſe.

Bugloſſe: f. (Garden) Bugloſſe.

Bugloſſe ſauvage. Wilde Bugloſſe; whereof there

there bee diuers kin[ds]
ſtone Bugloſſe; and or wall Bugloſſe.

Bugnets. as Bignets.

Bugrande; ou, Bugr[ande]
pettie whinne, ground

Bugrate. as Bugrand

Bugrunde. The ſame.

Buie: f. A water-pot, o

Buire: f. An oyle glaſſ

Buirette: f. A cruet, o

Buiſart: m. A Buzzard

Buiſine: f. A little pipe.

Buiſſart. as Buiſart;
Poinſon; Looke Poi

Buiſſine: f. as Buiſine

Buiſſon: m. A buſh; t
thicket, buſhie ground

Buiſſon à connils.
vnto, and for the prou

Meure de buiſſon
berrie.

Roſe de buiſſon.
Roſe.

La beſte a là ſon bu lodge, or laire.

Tirer le ſerpent du b

Amour de Seigneur
The loue of a great ma
gerous.

En petit buiſſon tro little bodie (of) harbou head much wit.

Il n'y a ſi petit buiſſo
The leaſt buſh hath it

Buiſſonnages: m. Bu
plots, buſhie places.

Buiſſonnailles: f. Buſh

Buiſſonné: m. ée: f. B
ſhes; alſo, lodged in, ret buſhes, or buſhie places.

Buiſſonner. To dog, w lodge) among buſhes.

Buiſſonnet: m. A litt
ket.

Buiſſonneux: m. euſe buſhes.

Buiſſonnier: m. ere: f
quenting, or haunting,
buſhes; and hence;

Faire l' eſchole buiſ ant, or ſeeke birdes ſchoole.

Buiſſonniere: f. A buſ
thicket of buſhes, bryers

Bulbe: m. A Bulbus; a
ly) a root that is round, one ouer the other, as particularly) the ſcallio

Bulbe ſauvage. Dog
medow Saffron.

Bulbe vomitif. The
er; ſome alſo call ſo,
dill; others, the ruſh
roots of all Daffadils
all of them prouoke vom

Bulbeux: m. euſe: f.

there bee diuers kinds; as, Alkanet, or Orkanet; and ſtone Bugloſſe; and Snakes Bugloſſe, Vipers Bugloſſe, or wall Bugloſſe.

Bugnets. as Bignets.

Bugrande; ou, Bugrane: f. Reſt-harrow, Cammocke, pettie whinne, ground Furze.

Bugrate. as Bugrande.

Bugrunde. The ſame.

Buie: f. A water-pot, or pitcher.

Buire: f. An oyle glaſſe, violl, or cruze.

Buirette: f. A cruet, or little violl.

Buiſart: m. A Buzzard, or Bald-kite.

Buiſine: f. A little pipe; a conduit pipe; a water pipe.

Buiſſart. as Buiſart; Alſo, the veſſell called (otherwiſe) Poinſon; Looke Poinſon.

Buiſſine: f. as Buiſine.

Buiſſon: m. A buſh; thorne, brier; alſo, a groue, couert, thicket, buſhie ground.

Buiſſon à connils. A (priuat) warren for conies, neere vnto, and for the prouiſion of, a mans houſe.

Meure de buiſſon. A blacke-berrie, or bramble berrie.

Roſe de buiſſon. The dogges Roſe, wild Roſe, bryer Roſe.

La beſte a là ſon buiſſon. There the beaſt vſeth to lodge, or laire.

Tirer le ſerpent du buiſſon. Looke Serpent.

Amour de Seigneur eſt ombre de buiſſon: Prov. The loue of a great man is either momentarie, or dangerous.

En petit buiſſon trouve on grand lievre: Prov. A little bodie (oft) harbours a great heart; and a ſmall head much wit.

Il n'y a ſi petit buiſſon qui ne porte ombre: Prov. The leaſt buſh hath it ſhadow.

Buiſſonnages: m. Buſhes; or, buſhie grounds, buſhie plots, buſhie places.

Buiſſonnailles: f. Buſhes; thornie groues.

Buiſſonné: m. ée: f. Buſhie; thicke with, or full of, buſhes; alſo, lodged in, retired into, or withdrawn among, buſhes, or buſhie places.

Buiſſonner. To dog, watch, or lye in wait for, (alſo, to lodge) among buſhes.

Buiſſonnet: m. A little buſh; thorne; groue, thicket.

Buiſſonneux: m. euſe: f. Buſhie, thornie, full of buſhes.

Buiſſonnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to buſhes; frequenting, or haunting, buſhes; liuing, or lurking, among buſhes; and hence;

Faire l' eſchole buiſſonniere. To play the truant, or ſeeke birdes neſts when bee ſhould bee at ſchoole.

Buiſſonniere: f. A buſhie groue, plot, or ground; a thicket of buſhes, bryers, thornes.

Bulbe: m. A Bulbus; a bulbed, or onion, root; (generally) a root that is round, and hath many pills, or diuiſions, one ouer the other, as th' onion, leeke, ſaffron, &c, (and particularly) the ſcallion.

Bulbe ſauuage. Dogs-bane, Corne-leeke, wild or medow Saffron.

Bulbe vomitif. The root of the muſkie Grape-flower; ſome alſo call ſo, Narciſſus, or the white Daffadill; others, the ruſh Daffadill (Though the bulbed roots of all Daffadils might as well bee called ſo; for all of them prouoke vomit.)

Bulbeux: m. euſe: f. Bulbed; round headed like an onion, &c.

Bule: f. A bliſter, or bubble.

Buler. as Bugler; Alſo, the Pope to write, grant, or ſend a Bull; to execute, or excommunicate, by Bull.

Buletin. as Bulletin.

Buliſtẽ: com. Of, or belonging to a Bull; or, as Buliſte.

Bullage: m. The ſealing of cloath; the marking thereof with a ſeale of lead.

Bulle: f. A Bull; a Writ, Commiſſion, or letter ſealed with lead, and ſent from the Pope; any ſuch Papall, and leaden, diſpatch.

Bullé: m. ée: f. Sealed with lead, as a Bull; ſtamped, as the leaden ſeale of a Bull; alſo, that hath obtained the Popes Bull for ſome particular aduancement, or priuiledge to himſelfe.

Bulleteau: m. A boulter, or boulting cloth.

Bulleter. as Bluter. (v. m.)

Bulletin: m. A bill, ticket, cocket; a billet in a Lotterie.

Bulletins: m. (Among the Gray Friers are) ſuch as haue beene reformed by the Popes Bulls.

Bullette: f. as Bulletin.

Bullettes. Such bubbles, or bobs of glaſſe as women weare for Pendants at their eares.

Bulliſte: m. A writer, or a maker of Bulls; or as Buliſte.

Bullonner. To runne, boyle, or burſt, out in great abundance; (an old word.)

Bullot. A certaine great, yellow, and ſower, apple.

Buon: m. The beake of an Ewer, or pot; the mouth of a cruet, violl, &c; alſo, a little oyle pot.

Bupreſte. The venomous blacke flie called, a long-leg, or wag-leg.

Buquer. To knocke, or to rap, at a doore.

Bur: m. as Bureau.

Bur: m. Bure: f. Browne, ruſſet, darke coloured.

Burail: m. as Burat; Silke-raſh.

Burail croiſé. Silke ſay.

Burail ſimple de Flanders, & vni. Silke Moccadoe.

Burat: m. Silke-raſh; or any kind of ſtuffe thats halfe ſilke, and halfe worſted.

Burat baſin. Silke Bombaſie.

Burat creſpu. Silke Curle; or Curle.

Burate: f. That which remaines in a churne after the beſt butter is taken out; which ſtrained through a linnen cloath, and well ſalted, and wrought vntill it grow verie thicke, is kept in earthen pots for the vſe of the meynie; alſo, as Burat.

Burbarin. An alluſion to Buſtarin: Rab.

Bure: f. as Bureau; (in the firſt ſence.)

Bureau: m. A thicke and courſe cloth, of a browne ruſſet, or darke mingled, colour; alſo, the table thats within a court of Audit, or of Audience (belike, becauſe tis vſually couered with a carpet of that cloth) alſo, the Court it ſelfe; alſo, the hearing, or deciſion, of cauſes in (ſuch a) Court, whence;

Ventre de bureau. One that feeds groſely.

Le prochain bureau. The next day of hearing.

Mettre ſur le bureau. To fall a talking of; or to bring vpon the ſtage.

Mettre le proces ſur le bureau. To bring the ſuit vnto a hearing.

Auſsi bien ſont amourettes ſous bureau que ſous brunettes: Prov. Loue trickes are played (loues rites performed,) as well by poore as rich, folkes; (or) as well in poore as rich, clothes.

Ventre de velours, robbe de bureau : Prov. A velvet belly clads the backe in rug.

Bureau : Adiect. Browne russet; or, darke browne, as the cloth, Bureau.

Burellé d'argent & d'azur ; (We blaze it thus) he bears so many closets argent, and azur.

Buret : m. The purple-fish : ¶ Langued.

Burette : f. A little cruet, violl, or bottle for oyle, or vinegar.

Buretté : m. ée : f. (In stead of Beluté*) boulted.*

Burez : m. as Buret.

Burgan : m. A welke, winkle, periwinkle; or, a generall tearme for most of those snaile-like shell-fishes.

Burgrave : m. The Captaine, or Gouernour of a fortresse.

Burguespine. as Bourguespine.

Burin : m. A grauing sticke, or yron.

Buriné : m. ée : f. Carued, ingrauen, intailed ; also, pierced.

Buriner. To carue, graue, intayle ; also, to pierce.

Burineur : m. A caruer, grauer, intailer.

Buriot : m. A yong duckling newly crept out of the shel : ¶ Norm.

Burler. as Hurler ; Also, to ieast with ; or flout at : ¶ Rab.

Burlesque : com. Jeasting, or in ieast, not serious ; also, mocking, flouting.

Burne : f. The solitarie place, or corner, wherein an Owle sits in the day time.

Burnie. main-burnie. Ward, gard, custodie. (v.m.)

Buron : m. A poore cottage.

Burre. as Beurre. Butter.

Burré. Buttered.

Burrer. To butter.

Burrier : m. A seller of butter ; also, a great eater of butter; a butter-box.

Burriere : f. A butter-wife ; a wench that sels, or eats, much butter.

Bursauli : m. Cane-withie, with the yellowish barke.

Busard : m. A Buzzard.

Busc : m. A buske ; or, as Buc; Seeke also for Busq ; and, Buste.

Buschailles : f. Small twigs, or sprigs.

Busche : f. A log, a backe stocke; a great billet.

Droict de busche. Looke Droict.

C'estoit vne busche en son oeil. That was a beame in his eye, a blocke in his way ; a great impeachment to his plots ; a hinderance to his proceedings.

Tortue busche faict droit feu : Prov. A crooked log makes a straight fire.

Tout bois vaut busches : Prov. Any wood is as good as a log.

Verde busche faict chaud feu : Prov. A greene log makes a hot fire.

Buscheron. as Bucheron.

Buscheter. To gather stickes for the fire.

Buschettes : f. Small stickes, or sprigs.

Buschilles : f. Little sticks, twigs, or sprigs.

Buschoier. To gather stickes ; get wood.

Buse : f. A hole ; also, a Buzzard.

Busine : f. The pipe of a Cesterne, or conduit; (See Buisine ; ) also, a bagpipe ; or as Buzine.

Busq. as Buc.

Au vieux busq. After the old cut.

Busque : f. Fortune, chance, lucke; or, as th'Italian Busca ; a shifting, filching, prowling, catching by hooke or crooke ; also, a buske ; or buste.

Busquer. To shift, filch, prowle, catch by hooke or crooke.

Busquer fortune. To go seeke his fortune.

Bussart : m. The vessell called, otherwise, Poinson ; Looke Poinson.

Busse de raisins. A drie-fat, or great (and hogs-head-like) vessell wherein Raisins bee put, or transported.

Bust. as Busc ; or, as Buste (in the first sence.)

Bustarin : A great lubber, thicke druggell ; cowardly luske, dastardly slaberdegullion.

Buste : m. as Buc ; Or, a bust ; the long, small, (or sharp-pointed) and hard-quilted belly of a doublet ; also, the whole bulke, or bodie of a man from his face to his middle ; also, a tombe, or sepulchre.

Bustofer : m. vngros b. A luske, loggerhead, lowt, slowch.

Bustuaire : com. Burnt, as a dead bodie ; or, craving, expecting, affecting, the sacrifice of mens bodies : ¶ Rab.

But : m. A but, or marke; (and particularly, the pricke thats in the middest of the Carreau in a bowling alley) also, a scope, reach ; purpose, end.

But à but. Of equall estate, on like tearmes, at euen hands, without any oddes at all.

Mais là ne faut faire but, & borne. But there wee must not pause ; thats no place to stop at, or settle in.

Buté : m. ée : f. Touched at, or by, th'end of.

I'ay buté à vne pierre. I haue knockt, hit, struck my foot against a stone.

Buter. To touch at th'one end ; to abut, or ioyne vnto, by th'end ; also, to put, or thrust, away.

Buteux. Of, or belonging to, a but ; full of buts.

Butin : m. A bootie, prey; or spoile, taken.

Butinant. Bootehaling, preying, making spoyle of.

Butinement : m. A boote-haling, preying on, making spoyle of.

Butiner. To prey, get bootie, make spoyle of, to bootehale it, to liue, or gaine by pillage.

Butineur. A bootehaler, preyer, pillager ; one that liues of the spoile.

Butineux. Full of prey, spoyle, bootie; , or as Butinant.

Butoesne : f. Hearbe Bettonie.

Butor : m. A Bittor.

Butte : f. A but, or marke, to shoot at ; also, a place appointed in open market for the sale of goods in execution.

Mettre haut le blanc à la butte. To demaund of one the resolution of a matter which is aboue his capacitie ; also, to set a high price on a thing that would be sold.

Buttet : m. as Hotte ; Sauing that it is made of a coursser Ozier, called du Plomb, or Plion ; and th' Hotte of a finer Wicker close wrought.

Buvable : com. Drinkable ; fit to be drunke of.

Buvage : m. as Bruvage.

Buveau : m. A kind of Squire, or Squire-like Instrument, hauing moouable, and compasse, branches ; or, th'one branch compasse, and th'other straight; some call it a Beuell.

Buvereau : m. A bibber, supper, or sipper; one that drinks little, and often.

Buverie : f. A drinking; bibbing, sipping, bowsing.

Buveter. To bib, sip, sup ; drinke but a little and often ; or, but a little at once; or, by little and little.

Buvetier : m. A certaine Officer, that gathers money for the Indges Collations.

Buvette : f. Small houshold wine.

Buvettes. Sippings, tiplings; and particularly the Iudges drinkings, or Collations.
Buvetter. as Buveter.
Buvotter. The same.
Buxolle: m. The diall, or compasse, whereby a ship is guided.
Buydon: m. Such a cage, coupe, or open basket (of wicker) as Poulters keepe, and feed their chickens, or other fowle in.
Buye. as Buie. A water pot, or pitcher.
Buyele: m. as Buxolle.
Buyer. A Box-tree, or shrub.
Buyrette: f. as Burette.
Buys: m. Box; Looke Bouis.
Buyſé: m. ée: m. Bored, full of holes; or, that hath holes made into it.
Buyſer. To bore, pierce, make holes into, or make full of holes.
Buyſine. as Buiſine.
Buytronne: f. A furnace to melt, and fine, ſiluer in.
Buyzart. Looke Buiſart.
Buzart. A Buzzard, or Bald-kite.
Buze. A Buzzard, or Bald kite; alſo, as Buſe.
Buzine: f. A bagpipe; or, a clownes trumpet; a clownish inſtrument, made of pitched barke, and ſounding like a trumpet: ¶Gaſc. alſo, as Buſine.
Byble: f. as Bible.
Byrraſque: f. A turbulent, and high-going ſea, or horrible tempeſt at ſea; as Birraſque.
Byrantin. A peece of coyne worth a double ducket, or thereabouts; Looke Beſant; & Biſantin.
Byze. The ſea-fiſh, Bonito.

C

CA. Is ſometimes an Aduerbe of Place, and ſignifies, hither, to this place, this way; ſometimes an Interiection of calling, or commaunding; where one bids another come vnto him, (and then ſignifies, approach, draw neere, come hither;) or to giue him ſomewhat; (then ſignifying, lets ſee there, giue me that, reach hither;) or to follow him (and then ſignifies, follow hoe, come after, &c.) This Ca is pronounced as Sa.
ça en arriere. Formerly, in former times, heretofore.
ça & là. Diffuſedly, ſcatteringly, now here now there, hither and thither; in ſcattered troups, looſe companies.
Caable. as Cable. A wind-fall.
Cabab: m. The chucking, chutring, or iouking of a Partridge.
Cababezancé. Loaden with bags, and wallets; alſo, commented on; (a word coyned by Rab.)
Cabaçet: m. as Cabaſſet.
Cabal: m. The money, or marchandiſe which one takes of another, to yeeld him the halfe, or third, or fourth, part of the gaine thats made thereof.
Cabalanizer. To drinke like a horſe; to ſwill, gull, quaffe, tipple extreamely.
Cabale: f. The Iewes Caball; or, a hidden ſcience of diuine myſteries, which the Rabbies affirme, was reuealed, and deliuered, together with the Law, vnto Moſes, and from him deriued, by ſucceſſiue relation, vnto poſteritie; (yet is it, in truth, no better than a vaine rabble of their owne traditions.)
Tenu ſecret comme Cabale. Concealed as a ſpeciall myſterie.
Cabalin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, a horſe.
Ongle cabaline. Seeke Ongle.
Cabaliſte: m. A Cabaliſt; a profeſſor, or vnderſtander, of the Iewes traditions.
Cabaliſtique: com. Cabaliſticall; of, or belonging to, the Iewiſh Caball, or Iewiſh traditions.
Caban: m. A gabardine, or cloake of felt.
Cabane: f. A cote, or cottage; alſo, a ſhed, or cabin made of boughes.
Cabaret: m. An Ale-houſe; a tipling, and victualling houſe, tent, or booth; alſo, the hearbe Haſlewort, Fole-foot, Cabaret, Aſarabacca.
Suppoſt de cabaret. An Ale-knight, Ale-houſe-haunter, lick-ſpigot, common tipler, ordinarie drunkard.
Cabaretier: m. A ſutler, common victualler, Ale-houſe-keeper; alſo, as ſuppoſt de Cabaret.
Cabaretter. To frequent Ale-houſes.
Cabas: m. A fraile (for raiſins, or figs.)
Vn vieil cabas. An old fraile wherein figs, &c. haue beene; alſo, an old, or decayed woman, that hath been a good fellow in her dayes.
Cabaſſé: m. ée: f. Frayled; put, or packed vp in a frayle; heaped, or boorded vp together, as in a frayle.
Cabaſſeau. as Cubaſeau.
Cabaſſer. To fill a fraile with raiſins &c; to put, or pack vp, in a frayle; alſo, to heape, or boord vp together, as raiſins, &c, in a fraile.
Cabaſſet: m. A ſleight helmet, or casket.
Cabaſſet de papier. A long hood, or Myter, of paper.
Cabaſſon: m. A certaine little, toothleſſe, and great headed, fiſh.
Cabat. as Cabas.
Cabau. as Cabal.
Cabeillau: m. Freſh cod.
Cabeçon. as Caveçon.
Cabeſtan: m. The Capſtane of a ſhip.
Cabilaud: m. The Cheuin; (tearmed ſo by French Pur-ueyors.)
Cabillau: m. Freſh cod.
Cabinet: m. A cabinet, or casket, for iewels, &c; alſo, a cloſet, little chamber, or wardrobe, wherin one keeps his beſt, or moſt eſteemed, ſubſtance; alſo, an arber in a garden.
Cabinet d'Allemagne. A kind of ſtandiſh, or a ſmall cabinet ſeruing for, or hauing in it, a ſtandiſh.
Le cabinet du Roy. The priuie chamber.
Cabirotade. as Capirotade.
Cabirots: m. The ſperme, or ſpawne, of Sturgeons, ſpread vpon bread, and eaten with vinegar, oyle, and pepper.
Cable: m. A cable, or great rope.
Cable: f. A wind-fall; a tree ouerthrowne by wind, or tempeſtuous weather.
Cabochard: m. arde: f. Headie, wilfull, obſtinate, giddie, fantaſticall, haire-braind.
Caboche: f. The Head: ¶Pic.
Caboche bien tymbrée. A well-garniſhed head-peece, well-tackled braine-panne, a ſtayed, or diſcreet pate.
Cabochenu. as Cabochard.
Caboches. A rebellious crue of Pariſians in Charles the ſixts time; called ſo of their captaine, whoſe name was Simonet Caboche.
Cabocheux. as Cabochard; Or, whoſe head is full of toyes; whoſe courſes are wholly guided by the fond deuiſes of his owne braine.
Cabochon de pierre precieuſe. The bengil, collet, head, or higheſt part of a ring, or iewell, wherein the ſtone is ſet; alſo, the boſſe, or riſing of the ſtone it ſelfe; alſo, a fooles hood.

Cabot: m. The Gull-fiſh, Bull-head, Millers-thumbe.

Cabote: f. as Cabot; Or, (more properly) a Gurnard.

Cabre: f. A Goat.

A la cabre morte. Vpon his necke.

Cabrer. To reare, or ſtand vpright on the hinder feet; to riſe high before; as a Goat, or Kid that brouzes on a tree.

Cabrer ſur le devoir. To bee reſtie, or backward in duetie (from a iade that reares vp when he ſhould goe forward.)

Cabril: m. A yong Kid.

Cabriole. as Capriole.

Cabriolé: m. ée: f. Capered.

Cabrioter. To caper, to cut a caper.

Cabrol: m. An iſſue made for a fiſtula.

Cabrole: f. A certaine blew-backed, white-bellied, and ſmall-mouthed fiſh.

Cabucé: m. ée: f. Headed, like a cabbidge.

Caburlaut: m. A Gull, Bull-head, Millers-thombe: ¶Tholoſain.

Cabus: m. uce; ou, uſſe: f. Headed, round headed; great headed; and, hence,

Choux cabus. A Cabbidge.

Laictuës cabuces, ou cabuſſes. Leaued, or headed Lettuce.

Cabuſſer. To cabbidge; to grow to a head; or, grow round and cloſe together, as a Cabbidge.

Cacaber. To chucke, or iouke, as a Partridge; to counterfeit the voice of a Partridge.

Cacaſlement de poule. The cackling of a hen.

Cacaſangue: f. The bloudie flix.

Cache: f. as Chaſſe: ¶Pic. Alſo, a biding hole, hidden corner; or nooke out of the way.

Caché: m. ée: f. Hidden, concealed, kept ſecret; in couert, in corners; lurking in ſome odde nooke or other; conucied away.

Il eſt mal caché à qui le cul paroiſt: Prov. Hee is ill hid whoſe taile appeares; he worſe diſſembles whoſe worſt parts appeare.

Mal eſt caché à qui l'on voit le dos: Prov. Hee ill conceales himſelfe that ſhewes his backe; or as the former.

Cachebugade: f. Æthiopian Hartwort, Seſeli of Æthiopia; (A ſhrub thats alwayes greene.)

Cache-col. A veluet attire, or ornament for the necke, much worne by the women of France, in ancient time when their gownes were cut low before.

Cachectique: com. In a conſumption; that pineth away, nothing he eateth doing him good.

Cachelaid: m. A maske, or muffler.

Cachelet. as Cachelaid.

Cachemaille: f. A money box.

Cachement: m. A biding, concealing, or keeping cloſe.

Cachément. Cloſely, priuily, couertly, vnder-hand.

Cachemi-tula. A play wherein one muſt keepe a thing priuately deliuered him, and another find out the keeper among many others; which doing he is rewarded, otherwiſe puniſhed.

Cache-muſeau. A kind of ſlawne; or, as Caſſemuſeau; alſo, a muffler, or maske, for the face.

Cache-nez. A maske, or muffler.

Cacher. To hide, conceale, keepe ſecret; conuey away; to couer, to ſuppreſſe; (alſo, as Chaſſer: ¶Pic.)

Cacher en la mer. To ſend into the ſea; a ſhip to go ſo low before, that at euerie puſh forward ſhe is like to thruſt her noſe into the ſea.

Il iette la pierre, & cache le bras. He does miſchiefe, but will not be ſeene, nor ſeeme, to haue any hand in it.

Du temps qu'on ſe cachoit pour preſter de l'argent. In time of honeſt ſimplicitie, and innocent confidence; when men were more carefull to conceale others neceſſities, than to ſecure their owne debts.

On ne cache pas aiguilles en ſac: Pro. Needles are not hidden, or laid vp in ſacks.

Cachereau. as Chartulaire.

Cachet: m. A ſeale, or ſignet.

Cachet du Roy. The priuie ſignet; wherein is not, as in ours, any ſeale vſed, but onely the kings name ſtamped in characters of ſiluer, and afterwards couered with inke by one of the Secretaries; (this ſtampe is moſt commonly kept by the Conſtable; ſometimes by a fauorite.)

Cacheté: m. ée: f. Sealed.

Cacheter. To ſeale, as a letter.

Cachette: f. A lurking hole, or corner; a cloſe nooke, ſecret place, hiding hole; alſo, a denne, or couert.

En cachette. Priuily, cloſely, ſecretly, couertly, hiddenly, vnder-hand, in hugger mugger.

Cacheur: m. A hider, concealer; ſuppreſſer.

Cachexie: f. An euill diſpoſition of the bodie (gotten by long ſickneſſe, ill diet, or bad phyſicke;) which makes the patient no whit the better for any thing he eates.

Cachile. Sea-rocket.

Cachoire. as Chaſſoire: ¶Pic.

Cachot. as Caquot; Alſo, a couert for Deere, or denne for a rauenous wild beaſt.

Cachotte: f. as Cachette; Or, the hole in a priſon; ſometimes alſo, a graue; and hence;

Il a eſté mis aujourd'huy en ſa cachotte. Hee was buried to day.

Cachotté: m. ée: f. Layed in the hole, of a priſon.

Cachry: m. Roſemarie ſeed (Mot Barbare.)

Cacidoine. The pretious ſtone called, a Calcedonie.

Cacochymie: f. Euill diſgeſtion; or, ill iuyce in the bodie.

Cacoëthe: m. A kind of moſt venomous, and incurable bile, or ſore; or, a bile, or ſore thats ill to bee cured.

Cacolique. (An irronicall alluſion to Catholique; otherwiſe of little or no ſence.)

Cacologie: f. Euill ſpeech; railing, reproach, reuiling, detraction.

Cacophonie: f. An ill, harſh, or vnpleaſing ſound (in words;) a vitious vtterance, or pronounciation.

Cacque. as Caque; A cag.

Cacqueter. as Caqueter.

Cacquetoire. See Caquetoire.

Cad d'eau: m. A great fall, or ſhowre of raine.

Cadaliec. as Chaſlit; A bedſtead: ¶Langued.

Cadarce pour faire capiton. The low, or courſeſt part of ſilke, whereof ſleaue is made.

Cadaſtre. An auncient rent-roll, Regiſter, or Suruey, ſpecifying what lands be Roturiers, and thereby ſubiect vnto the (kings) Taille.

Cadavre: m. A carkaſſe, or dead bodie.

Cadavreux: m. euſe: f. Carkaſſe-like; leane, skraggie, fleſhleſſe; alſo, putrified, ſtinking, rotten.

Cade: f. The crimzon, or prickly Cedar: ¶Langued.

Cadeau: m. A great capitall, or text, letter; alſo, as;

Cadel: m. A caſtling, a ſtarueling; one that hath need much cockering, and pampering.

Ca-

Cadelé: m. ée: f. cockered, pampered, fedled, cherished; much made of.
Lettres cadelées. Great, capitall, or text letters.
Cadeler. To cocker, pamper, fedle, cherish, make much of; also, to write a Text hand; or, make a capitall letter, or great letters.
Cadenat: m. A Padlocke.
Cadence: f. A cadence; a iust falling, round going, of words; a proportionable time, or euen measure, in any action, or sound.
A chacune cadence. At euery turne, euer and anon.
Cadene: f. An yron chayne.
Cadet: m. A younger brother (among Gentlemen.) ¶Poict.
Cadmie: f. Cadmia; is either minerall, or artificiall; the first, of two kinds; the one, a stone, participates of no mettall (though it be needfull to the parting of some mettals) the other hath some affinitie with copper, or with siluer. The artificiall one comes of the smoake, or sparkles, that arise from furnaces wherein copper is melted, and made; and hereof there bee diuers kinds.
Cadran. as Quadran.
Caducité: f. Frailtie, weakenesse, aged feeblenesse.
Caduque: com. Fraile, caduke, feeble, ruinous, readie to fall, vnable to support it selfe.
Eaux caduques. Water that runs ouer a Poole; or, out of the wast pipes, or spouts of Conduit heads.
Cæsarien: m. enne: f. Looke Cesarien.
Cafard: m. An hypocrite; a counterfeiter of, or dissembler in, religion, deuotion, pietie; one that seemes, but is not, holy; especially, a Preacher, or preaching Frier; who in his teaching respects his owne, or his Orders, profit, more then his auditors; also, as Caffard.
Cafard: m. arde: f. Hypocriticall, dissembling, seeming holy, pious outwardly, deuout onely in shew.
Cafarde. à la cafarde. Hypocritically.
Cafarder. To pretend deuotion, play the hypocrite, seeme godly, counterfeit holinesse; looke demurely, precisely, religiously, and speake piously, but meane impiously; to preach often, but more to profit himselfe, or his Order, then his auditors.
Cafardie: f. Hypocrisie, outward holinesse, pretence of zeale, shew of conscience, counterfeiting of deuotion; often preaching for priuat respects.
Cafardise: f. The same.
Cafas. A kind of course Taffata.
Cafetin. sucre cafetin. Refined Sugar.
Cafezate. A certaine little, reddish, most venomous, and malignant serpent, that lurkes (most commonly) among the leaues of trees, and thence flies at any man, or beast, that passes vnder them.
Caffard. A moath, or beetle that flyes by night; also, as Cafard.
Caffardise. as Cafardie. Hypocrisie.
Cagade: f. A vaine, and effectlesse flourish; a scruuie, shitten, idle boast, or boasting.
Cagarel, ou Cagaret. A Cackerell (fish.) Looke Iuscle.
Cagarole de mer. A Periwincle. ¶Langued.
Cagasangue. as Cacasangue.
Cage: f. A Cage.
Cage d'osier. A wicker cage; also, a Lattice window of wicker.
Mieux vault estre oiseau de bois que de cage: Pro. (The difference betweene libertie, and thraldome.)
Cageois: m. A countrey clowne, lynd, boore; a cottager, or one that dwels in a rusticall cote.
Cageoler. To prattle, or iangle, like a Iay (in a cage;) to bable, or prate much, to little purpose.
Cageoleur: m. A great, and idle, pratler; one that (like a Iay in a cage) iangles much to no purpose.
Cagerotte: f. A Chesforde, or Cheesfatt (of wicker.)
Cagnard, Cagnardier, &c. See Caignard, &c.
Cagnasse: f. A great bitch.
Cagne: f. A bitch.
Cagnesque, Parler cagn. To speake doggerie.
Cagnole: f. The rauenous, and ougly dog fish, called (of the fashion of her head) the Mallet-fish.
Cagnot. A little dog; and particularly, a kind of little dog-fish, that hates men extreamely. ¶Lang.
Cagnot blau. Another, of a light blew colour; otherwise much resembling the former; the blew dog-fish.
Cagot: m. An hypocrite, or dissembler; also, a white leaper.
Cagoterie. Hypocrisie; also, white leprosie.
Cagouille: f. A deaw-snayle.
Cagoulle: f. A Monks hood, or Cowle. ¶Norm.
Caguemaille: m. A filthie snudge, greedie wretch, miserable scrape-good, couetous hylding.
Cagueraffe: m. A base micher, scruuie hagler, lowsie dodger; or, a cruell extortioner, greedie catch-good, rauenous oppressor.
Cahin-cahau. as Qu-'a-hu qu-'a-ha.
Cahier. as Cayer. ¶Rab.
Cahot: m. The iumpe, hop, or iog of a coach, &c, in a rugged, or vneuen, way.
Cahoter. To iumpe, iog, or hop, as a coach in vneuen way.
Cahuaille. A companie of Owles; an Owlish companie. ¶Rab.
Cahuët. as Cahot; also, the backe point, or flap, of a friers Cowle.
Cahuette: f. A little cottage; also, as Luette.
Cahuot. as Cahot.
Cahute: f. A little house, cote, or cottage.
Cahutelle: f. The same; (or a diminutiue thereof.)
Caiche: m. As the Italian, Catzo; membre viril. ¶Rab.
Caignard: m. A lazie vagabond, lowsie bedgecreeper, slothfull scowndrell; tottered, or beggarly, rogue.
Caignarder. To play the idle rogue; or (like a nastie and slothfull beggar) lye, and lowse himselfe, vnder a hedge, or in the Sunne.
Caignardier: m. as Caignard.
Caignardiere: f. A hedge-whore, lazie queane, lowsie trull, filthie curtall, Doxie, Morte.
Caignart: m. as Caignard; also, a nastie, and filthie place, or corner, wherein beggars lye in the Sunne, or lowse themselues; the haunt of idle vagabonds; and hence, are some bridges about Paris (vnder which such rogues are wont to lurke) so called.
Caigne: f. A bitch.
Caigne (an Interiection of wonder) tush! Gods me! Gogs my wounds! is it possible?
Caignon: m. The chyne, or hinder part of the necke; (an old word.)
Caignot. as Cagnot; also, a little dog, a fyfling curre.
Cailhete: m. A cockney.
Caillat. as Caillé.
Caillé: m. Curds; curded milke, or, the curds of milke.
Caille: f. A Quayle; also, a round head &c; as in Cailles (next after Cailler.)
Caille coiffée. A woman.
Herbe aux cailles. Plantaine, Weybred.
Mo[illegible]s cailles. A Rayle.

Roy

Roy des cailles. The ſame.
Chaud comme vne caille. (Of a very hot complexion) as hot as a Quayle.
Caillé: m. ée: f. Curded, curdled; coagulated, congealed, thickened.
Enfant caillé. A fat purſie fellow.
Caillebotes: f. Curds; the curds of milke.
Cailleboteux: m. euſe: f. Full of curds.
Lieux cailleboteux. Craggie, ſtonie, rockie, or flintie places; places made vneuen, or vneaſie, by manie ſtones.
Caillement: m. A curding, curdling, coagulating, congealing, thickening.
Cailler. To curd, or curdle; to coagulate; congeale as, turne into, curds.
Cailles. Round beads, wherewith Frenchmen play at Trou-madame; and whereof the Trou-madame is tearmed Paſſe-caille.
Cailleteau: m. A chacke ſtone, or little flint ſtone.
Caillette: m. A foole, ninnie, noddie, naturall.
Caillette: f. A Rammes cod; alſo, the outward skin of the cods; alſo, a ſmall bead; as in Cailles; or the diminutiue of Caille.
Caillouëux. as Cailloteux.
Caillon: m. A dot, clutter, clot, or congealed lumpe of flegme, bloud, &c.
Caillorоſat: m. A Lording apple; alſo, a certain greene, and great peare of a pleaſant taſt.
Cailloté: m. ée: f. Curded, curdled; clotted, congealed, thickened, turned.
Cailloter. To curd, or curdle; to congeale, thicken, or turne; as milke, &c.
Cailloteux: m. euſe: f. Flintie; full of hard, and ſharpe little ſtones.
Caillou: m. A flint ſtone.
Caillouët. The name of a very ſweet peare.
Caillouëux: m. euſe: f. Flintie; full of ſmall, hard, and ſharpe ſtones.
Caimand: m. A beggar; one that goes a begging, or craues almes, from dore to dore.
Caimander. To beg; to go a begging, to beg from dore to dore.
Caimanderie: f. Extreame pouertie, beggarlineſſe, beggarie, the ſtate of a beggar; the art, action, or vſe, of begging.
Caimandiſe. as Caimanderie.
Caioler. as Cageoler.
Cajollerie: f. A iangling, prating, babling, chattering.
Caion. A young, or little hog. ¶Lyonnois.
Caire: f. The viſage, countenance, looke, aſpect, repreſentation of the face.
Cairin: m. A Turkie Carpet; ſuch a one as is brought from Caire in Ægypt.
Caiſne: f. A bitch.
Caiſne. as Caigne.
Caiſſans. The ſide-teeth, called, the Grinders. ¶Langued.
Caiſſe. as Caſſe; alſo, a drumme; alſo, the pit, or trench, wherein ſtones gathered of corne-lands are buried; See Quaiſſe.
Caiſſier: m. A cheſt-maker; alſo, a cheſt-keeper, or treaſurer; whence;
Aujourd'huy caiſſier demain caſſé: Prov. To day in caſh, to morrow caſhiered.
Cal: m. A thicke, and vnſenſible skin, or brawnie hardneſſe of skin, comming on the much-vſed parts of the hands, or feet.
Le cal de la conſcience. Hardneſſe of heart, an obdurate ſpirit, a ſeared conſcience.
Calabace: f. as Calebaſſe.
Calage: m. The caulking of a ſhip; alſo, Ocham, or the towe, wherewith it is caulked.
Calamar: m. A Pennar; alſo, the Calamarie, or ſleeue-fiſh.
Calame: m. A cane, reed; wheaten, or oaten ſtraw; pipe, flute; &c. as the Latine Calamus.
Calame aromat. The ſweet Arabian reed, or cane, tearmed, Calamus odoratus, or the Aromaticall reed.
Calament: m. The hearbe Calamint.
Calament aquatic. Water Calamint; (hath a larger ſtalke, greater branches, and longer leaues, but leſſe vertue, then the other kinds.)
Calament d'eau; ou, de marais. The ſame.
Calament de montagne. Mountaine Calamint, buſh Calamint, hoarie Calamint.
Calament ſauvage. Wild Calamint, corne Calamint, wild Penniryall, wild Pollie.
Calamenthe: f. as Calament.
Calaminaire. pierre Calaminaire. A yellowiſh minerall, or ſtone, whereby copper is turned into braſſe; or, as Calamine.
Calamine: f. A certaine yellow minerall ſubſtance, which fire conſumes, but melts not; mixed with copper, it changes it into a fine braſſe, that lookes like gold; alſo, the heauier foyle of braſſe, or copper; which comes of the ſparkles, and ſmoake that ariſe from the furnace, and cleaue to the roofe, and vpper ſides, of the houſe, wherein it is melted; alſo, a kind of apple.
Calamiſtrer. To frizle, curle, or criſpe the haire.
Calamite: m. The Adamant, Loadſtone, or Magnes-ſtone; alſo, a kind of Cadmia, or the ſtuffe that cleaues vnto the yron rods wherewith melting copper is ſtirred.
Calamité: f. Calamitie, miſerie, wretchednеſſe, great trouble, much woe; misfortune, aduerſitie; miſchiefe, extreame hurt, or damage.
Calamite. Of, or belonging to, reeds; or kept in reeds; whence;
Storax calamite. The beſt kind of Storax, brought from Aleppo, and kept in canes, or in the leaues of reeds.
Calamiteuſement. Wretchedly, miſerably, miſchieuouſly, to his great trouble, much woe, extreame hurt.
Calamiteux: m. A wretch, poore ſnake, miſerable perſon, moſt vnfortunate fellow.
Calamiteux: m. euſe: f. Wretched, miſerable, wofull; miſchieuous; moſt vnfortunate, fraught with troubles, full of calamitie.
Calande. A Weuell, or Mite, among corne.
Calandre. as Calendre.
Calandré: m. ée: f. as Calendré.
Calangement: m. An accuſing, an appeaching; a challenging for, a charging with, faults.
Calanger. as Chalanger, or Calenger.
Calar. as Caler, alſo, to be ſilent, leaue talking, deſiſt from babling. ¶Gaſcoon.
Calate: f. A gentle, or eaſie deſcent in ground; alſo, a peece, or plat of ground ſo deſcending, ſo declining.
Calathe: m. A basket, pannier, or bumper of oziers; alſo, a veſſell to bring milke, or cheeſe to market in; alſo, a cup for ſacrifice.
Calcante: m. Vitriol.
Calcination: f. A calcination, or calcinating; a reducing of mettals vnto pouder by the fire; a purifying of mettals, or minerals, by fire.

Cal-

Calcinatoire: com. Calcinatorie, calcinating; or, which calcinateth.

Calciné: m. ée: f. Calcinated, burnt vnto dust, reduced by fire, vnto pouder.

Calcinement: m. as Calcination.

Calciner. To calcinate; burne to dust, reduce vnto pouder, by fire, any mettall, or minerall.

Calcioler. To beat, or stand much on a matter; to repeat, or vrge a thing often, thereby to make it the better vnderstood, or remembred.

Calcite. as Chalcite.

Calcitrer. To kicke, spurne, wince, fling, let flye, yerke out behind, or with the heeles; also, to be stubborne, disobedient, obstinate, or, obstinate in disobedience.

Calçons: m. Short, and close linnen breeches, drawers, vnder-slops.

Calcul: m. A calculation, computation, reckoning; an accompt, or casting of accompts; also, the Stone in the bladder, or (more properly) in the reines.

Calculateur: m. A reckoner, calculator, caster of accompts.

Calculatoire: com. Calculatorie, calculating.

Calculement: m. A calculating, reckoning, accompting.

Calculer. To calculate, reckon, accompt; number, make a computation.

Calderon. A kind of long, and round Whall.

Cale: f. A Bay, or Creeke of the sea, entring, or eating, into the land; also, a kind of little cap; also, a little peece of wood put vnder a log, or peece of timber, thereby to make it lye the better.

Calebasse: f. A bottle made of an emptied gourd; or, as Callabasse.

Calemar. as Calamar.

Le calemar d'un retraict. The funnell of a priuie.

Calendes: f. Calends; the first day of euery moneth.

Calendre: f. The corne-deuouring Mite, or Weeuill; also, the Calander, or greatest kind of Larke; in Paris the great Thrush is (erroniously) called so.

Calendré: m. ée: f. Gnawne, or deuoured, as corne by Weeuils; also, sleeked, or smoothed ouer, as linnen cloth, &c.

Calendrer. To sleeke, smooth, plane, or polish (linnen cloth, &c.)

Calendrerie: f. A sleeking, smoothing; planing, polishing.

Calendrier: m. An Almanacke, or Calender.

Calendrine. pierre calendrine. A Sleeke-stone.

Calenge. A claime; a challenging of, or making title vnto; also, a challenge; also, a complaint, accusation, or vrging of an offence against; also, an arrest, or apprehension of a man by a Sergeant; also, a seisure of, or complaint against, beasts that are found Damage fesant.

Calengé: m. ée: f. Claymed; challenged; accused, appeached, complained of, charged with an offence, or trespasse; also, arrested, apprehended; seised.

Calenger. To clayme, challenge, demaund, make title vnto; also, to challenge; accuse, appeach, complaine, charge with, call in question for, an offence, crime, or trespasse; also, to arrest, apprehend; seise, attach.

Calengié. as Calengé. ¶Wallon.

Calepinages: m. Dictionaries.

Calepiner. To interprete, or translate, exactly, or word by word.

Calepinerie: f. A true, iust, and precise interpretation, or translation of euery single word.

Caler. To loosen, or let downe, a hard, or high-stretched thing; and hence;

Caler les voiles. To strike sayle; and (metaphorically) to yeeld, submit, or accommodate himselfe vnto the season.

Calessons. as Calçons.

Calfactif: m. iue: f. Heating, or warming; of propertie, or power to heat, or to warme.

Calfat: m. An officer in a Galley that lookes to the caulking thereof.

Calfater. as Calfeutrer.

Calfaterie: f. The caulking of a ship; the stopping of the holes and chinkes thereof with Ockam, or Towe; or a stopping in of Ockam, or Towe betweene each boord, or plinke, on the outside thereof.

Calfateur. as Calfat; or, the caulker of a ship.

Calfatin: m. The seruant of a Calfat, or caulker of a galley.

Calfeutrage: m. The caulking of a ship; or as Calage.

Calfeutré: m. ée: f. Caulked; whose chinkes are stopped, or the distances of whose plankes are filled, with Ockam, or Towe.

Calfeutrer. To caulke a ship; to stop, or fill the rifts, or chinkes thereof with Ockam; or to stop in Ockam &c. betweene each planke thereof.

Calfeutreur de Navires. A caulker of ships.

Calfourchons. à cal. as, à cheuauchons. Astraddle, or bestriding.

Calfreter. as Calfeutrer. ¶Rab.

Calibistris. The priuie parts, or members.

Calibre: f. A qualitie, state, or degree; or, as Qualibre.

Calibrer, se calibrer à. To equall, compare, set himselfe in the ranke of, peize himselfe in balance with; esteeme himselfe as good, value himselfe as much, rate himselfe as high as.

Calice: m. A Challice, or drinking cup.

Le Calice d'une rose. The Calix, or cup of a rose; whereby the yellow part, and leaues of the flower are contained, and held in together.

Calicules. Little cups, or goblets; also, the rough shells of Chestnuts; also, the parings of a Corne, or Kernell; also, little skins vpon the eye, liuer, or any other tender part of the bodie.

Calidité: f. Heat, warmth, hotnesse.

Caliges: f. Stockings, or netherstockes; also, greaues, leg-harnesse, or armour for the legs; fore-fold startups, being full of nayles in the bottome; also, breeches, or slops; and hence;

Faire caliges, ou caligas. To beray his hose; or to lay somewhat in them that should not be there.

Caligineux: m. euse: f. Dimme, obscure, mistie, almost darke.

Caliginosité: f. Obscuritie, dimnesse, blindnesse, darkenesse.

Calimini: à cal. Secretly, closely, priuily, in hugger-mugger.

Calin: m. A beggarly rogue, or lazie vagabond, that counterfeits one disease, or other, in hope that men will pitie him, and giue him somewhat.

Calinaire. A loue, leyman, or sweet heart. ¶Provenç.

Caliot. The name of a certaine Peare.

Callabasse: f. A great gourd; also, a bottle made thereof.

Callafater. as Calfeutrer. ¶Rab.

Calland. A customer vnto a shop. ¶Pic.

Callate: f. A descending, or declining plot; a sideling, or sloping peece of ground; the side (in the descent) of a hill.

Calle: f. A Bay, or Creeke of the sea, &c; as Cale; also, the hold of a ship.

Callebasse: f. A great Gourd; also, a bottle made of the emptied rinde thereof.

Callebotes. Curds; or, as Caillebotes.

Callebouté: m. ée: f. Curded, or beestie, as the milke of a woman thats newly deliuered.

Calle-feutré: m. ée: f. Caulked, or full rigged; See Calfeutré.

Caller. as Caler; also, to kittle, as a cat.

Calles. as Cal; or, Cornes in the feet, or toes.

Calleux: m. euse: f. Hard, or thick-skinned, by much labouring.

Callibordes: f. Crutches.

Callifourchons. as Calfourchons.

Callique: f. A certaine fish, that resembles a little shad; and is taken most about Montpelier.

Callosité: f. Callositie, or, a brawnie hardnesse of the skin.

Calmar. as Calamar.

Calme: com. Calme, still, quiet, peaceable, faire; gentle, vnmoued; without storme, without surges.

Calmement. Calmely, quietly, peaceably; stilly, fairely, gently.

Calmer. To calme, appease, pacifie, quiet, still.

Caloches. as Galoches; woodden shooes, or pattens.

Calomniateur. A calumniator, malicious detractor, craftie, and false accuser.

Calomnie: f. A calumnie; false accusation, forged imputation, spightfull detraction; malicious inuention, or surmise deuised for the trouble, or disgrace of another.

Serment de calomnie. An Oath taken, sometimes, in personall actions, both by the plaintife that he sues not, and the defendant that he answeres not, with any purpose to calumniate, or vex his aduersarie, but because he imagines himselfe in the right.

Calomnié: m. ée: f. Calumniated; accused falsely, charged maliciously, appeached wrongfully, reuiled iniuriously; vniustly reproached, slaundered, or detracted from.

Calomnier. To calumniate; slaunder, detract from; to reproach vniustly, accuse falsely, charge maliciously, appeach wrongfully; to impeach the credit, blemish the fame, indanger the fortune of another, by forged imputations.

Calomnieusement. Calumniously; slanderously.

Calomnieux: m. euse: f. Calumnious, detracting, reproachfull, slaunderous; full of malice, falsehood, or forgerie in accusations.

Caloniere: f. A pot-gunne made of a Quill, or Elder sticke.

Calosité. as Callosité.

Calote. as Calotte.

Calotte: f. The paper, or cloth which women put about their flax on the distaffe; also, a Coife, or halfe Kerchiefe for a woman; also, a little light cap, or night-cap, worne vnder a hat.

Calquas. as Carquois; a Quiuer. (v.m.)

Calsons: m. Close linnen breeches.

Calvainier. as Calvanier.

Calvaire: m. The (bare) skull, or skalpe of the head.

Calvanier: m. A hynde, or hireling, for the time of harueft.

Calvatré: m. ée: f. Laid all along (like a lozell, or lubber) on his backe.

Calvau. pomme de Calvau. A certaine apple, that hath a blackish rinde.

Caly: m. A kind of hearbe; as Kali.

Calyce: m. as Calice. A cup, or chalice.

Calyce. Chalice-like; or, made like a chalice.

Calyphe: m. A Caliph; a name, or title of Office, and of Dignitie, in Ægypt; (in old time the Caliphes were Lords of Caire; now they are but subiects.)

Camail: m. A hood to couer the head in foule weather; also, a ribbon, lace, or string to tye vp the haire with; or, such a ribbon as one of our knights of the Order weares about his necke; also, a blacke, or purple Ornament, (somewhat resembling a captaines Gorget) worne by a Pontifical Bishop aboue his Rochet, and reaching as low as the bending of his arme.

Camamine: f. The hearbe Cameline, or Treacle Mustard.

Camar. as Camard; or, borne with a flat nose.

Camard. nez camard. A flat nose.

Camarine: f. A filthie, and stinking lake in Sicilie; also, a certaine stinking hearbe, that prouokes vomit.

Camarre: f. A Martingale for a horse; or, as Camorre.

Camayeu: m. The precious stone called a Sardonix; also, a brooche.

Camayeux antiques. Medals; or, old, and auncient images of mettall, molten, and cast into the forme of brooches.

Cambouy. as Camboy.

Camboy: m. The blacke, and oylie grease, of a wrought cart-wheele; some call it, the Gome.

Cambray, ou, Toile de Cambray. Cambricke.

Cambre: com. Crooked, boughtie, bowed, cambrell-like; vaulted, arched, bent or built arch-wise.

Cambré: m. ée: f. The same.

Souliers cambrez. Shooes which haue hollow, raised, or Polonian heeles.

Cambrer. To bow, crooke, bend; vault, arch, or build arch-wise.

Cambreure: f. A bought, vault, arch; or, as Cambrure.

Cambrure: f. A bowing, crooking, or bending; a vaulting, or building arch-wise; or as Cambreure.

Cameau. as Chameau; a Cammell.

Cameleon: m. A Camelion; a beast, which (as many thinke) feeds on nought but the ayre.

Camelin. aller le camelin. To pace like a Cammell; the right, and left foot behind following the left, and right before.

Camelin. sauce cameline. A certaine daintie Italian sauce.

Cameline: f. The hearbe Cameline, or Treacle Mustard.

Camelot: m. Chamlet; also, Lisle Grogeram.

Camelot à ondes. Water Chamlet.

Camelot plenier. Vnwater Chamlet.

Cameloté: m. ée: f. Of Chamlet; waued like water Chamlet.

Se Cameloter. To grow rugged, or full of wrinckles; to become waued, like Chamlet.

Camemine: f. The hearbe Cameline, or Treacle Mustard.

Camerade: f. A Camerade, or chamberfull; a companie that belongs to, or is euer lodged in, one chamber, tent, cabin.

Cameraire: m. A chamberlaine; a groome of the chamber.

Camerisse: m. A Comerade; or, chamberfellow.

Camessine: f. A kind of Peare.

Camiere: f. (The name of) a certaine sweet Apple.

Ca-

Camille. A
Rab.

Camin. as Ch

Caminée. as

Camion: m. men pinne in vsed by the Muserole for Camisade: f.

dain assaulti because the weare shirts in their shirts wraps a child

Camisole: f. robe, or garm
their coronati

Camomille: f
Camomille
den Camomill
Camomille
Maithe, Rosea
Camomille
low Maywee
Camomille
corne-flower
Camomille
stinking Mai
hound.
Camomille
mill; like vnt mill.

Camorre: f. A
ron, for an vn

Camote: f. Th
very good me

Camouard: m

Camoufflet: held vnder th

Camp: m. A Field.
Camp arrest abiding still i field, or to best
Camp clos.
Camp ouve tell or combat
Camp volan footmen, kept Le camp luy
rie; the field

Campagne:
leuell peece of

Campaignard
in; of, or belon

Campaigne:

Campal: m. al
campe, or field

Campane: f.
a Limbecke, o which resemb
Mettre la ca at oddes, to the eares.

Campanel: m
the mouth of Campanelle:

bell.

Camille. A Messenger (in the Hetrurian tongue.) ¶Rab.

Camin. as Chemin. ¶Pic.

Caminée. as Cheminée. ¶Pic.

Camion: m. The small, and short Pinne wherewith women pinne in their ruffes, &c; also, a kind of little cart vsed by the vinegar-makers of Paris; also, a small Muserole for a horse.

Camisade: f. A Camisado, canuas, or cold Pie; a suddain assaulting, or surprisall of the enemie (so tearmed, because the souldiors that execute it, most commonly weare shirts ouer their armours, or take their enemies in their shirts;) also, the thin filme, or skin, which inwraps a child in the bed, or after-birth.

Camisole: f. A Waistcoat (for a man;) also, a certaine robe, or garment of linnen, worne by the French kings at their coronations.

Camomille: f. The hearbe Camamell, or Camomill.

Camomille blanche. White sweet Camomill, or garden Camomill.

Camomille à fleur purpurée. Red Camomill, red Maithe, Rosearubie, Adonis red flower.

Camomille jaulne: Yellow sweet Camomill; also, yellow Mayweed, or, golden Cotula.

Camomille saffranée. Golden corne-flower, yellow corne-flower; the wild, or corne Marigold.

Camomille sauvage. Wild Camomill, May-weed, stinking Maithes; some also call so, the hearbe Horehound.

Camomille vulgaire. The common, or wild Camomill; like vnto, but nothing so sweet as, garden Camomill.

Camorre: f. A sharpe, and double-edged Cauesson of yron, for an vnruly horses nose.

Camote: f. The name of an Indian root, which rosted, is very good meat.

Camouard: m. An ougly flat-nosed fellow.

Camoufflet: m. A Snuft, or cold Pie; a smoakie paper held vnder the nose of a slug, or sleeper.

Camp: m. A Campe; an Hoast, or Armie lodged; a Field.

Camp arresté. A fortified, setled, or standing campe, abiding still in one place, whether it be to keepe the field, or to besiege a fort.

Camp clos. Looke Champ.

Camp ouvert. A plaine or open place, wherein a battell or combat hath beene, or may be, fought.

Camp volant. An armie of light horse, or light armed footmen, kept for, and imploied in, rodes.

Le camp luy est demeuré. He hath gotten the victorie; the field is his.

Campagne: f. A plaine field, large plaine, wide and leuell peece of ground.

Campaignard: m. arde: f. Fieldie, keeping, or liuing in; of, or belonging to, the fields.

Campaigne: f. A plaine field, &c. as Campagne.

Campal: m. ale: f. Campall; of, in, or belonging to, a campe, or field.

Campane: f. A bell; also, the hearbe Elycampane; also, a Limbecke, or Stillitorie; or the vpper part thereof, which resembles a Bell.

Mettre la campane au chat. To make a iarre, to set at oddes, to begin a quarrell, to bring together by the eares.

Campanel: m. A Campanell, or Bell-fashioned rowle in the mouth of a bitt; also, a Bell bitt.

Campanelle: f. as Campanel; also, a little tinging bell.

Campanelle à cul de bassin. A Campanell, made compasse like the breech of a cannon, or outside of the bottome of a bason.

Campanelle à cul plat. A Campanell, whose broad end is made flat, and plaine.

Campanette: f. Withiewind; Bindweed, hedge-bels; also, the Peach-bell, or, Steeple-bell flower; also, the white Daffadill, or Narcissus.

Campanettes blanches. White Peach-bels, or Steeple-bell-flowers; also, great smooth Bindweed, or Hedge-bels.

Campanotte jaulne de Bourgongne. The yellow Daffadill.

Campart. as Champart.

Campeger. To incampe, or pitch a campe; also, to reside, or dwell in the fields.

Camper. To campe, to incampe, to pitch a campe.

Camphre: m. The gumme tearmed, Camphire.

Camphre artificiel. Artificiall Camphire, is such, as hath beene refined, and whitened in the Sunne, or by fire.

Camphre en rose. Naturall Camphire, is such, as hath not beene touched by fire.

L'odeur de camphre chastre l'homme: Pro. (Such power hath that Simple, diuers wayes, to make a man chast.)

Camphré: m. ée: f. Camphired; made of, or mingled with, Camphire; and hence,

Eau camphrée. Camphire water.

Camphrer. To make of Camphire; to dresse, mingle, or annoint with, Camphire.

Campiger. as Campeger.

Campole. The name of a certaine white grape, which hath very white kernels.

Campoles: f. The Tendrels, or twyning sprigs, of plants.

Campos. The leaue to play, or a vacation time, for schollers.

Il a prins campos. He hath betaken him to the wide, and broad fields; or, he is flatly run away.

Camus: m. camuse: f. Flat-nosed.

Il fut rendu bien camus. He was very much ashamed, extreamely out of countenance, exceedingly put downe; whence;

Des harangueurs bien camus. Blanked, grauelled, or driuen to a Non-plus.

Camuser. To flatten, or quash downe, the nose; to breake the bridge of the nose; to make flat-nosed.

Camuserie: f. The being flat-nosed.

Camuset: m. ette: f. Somewhat flat-nosed.

Camusette: f. A little flat-nosed Elfe.

Canabassement: m. A canuassing; or, a curious examination, searching, or sifting out, of matters.

Canabasser. To canuasse, or curiously to examin, search, or sift out, the depth of a matter.

Canabasserie: f. as Canabassement.

Canabel: m. A kind of earth (like vnto the smallest sand) which (as Arabians report) fals with raine from the skie.

Canadelle: f. The smallest of rock-fishes, beautified with spots of sundry colours, and very good meat.

Canaille: f. Dogs; a kennell, or companie of dogs, a knot of curres; also, a base crue, roguish troupe, rascall companie of scoundrels; the dregs, or off'alls, of the people; persons of no worth, value, nor vertue.

Canal: m. A channell, kennell, furrow, gutter; also, a conduit pipe.

Le canal de la bouche d'un cheval. The hollow part wherein his tongue lyes.

Le

Le canal de colomnes. A hollow creuiſe, or ſtrake, grauen in pillars; a chamfring, or channell, in pillars.

Canaliere: f. A delicate Italian peare thats ripe in the beginning of Iune.

Canard: m. A Drake.

Pied de canard. The hearbe Gooſefoot, or wild Orache.

Vendeur de canards à moitié. A couſener, guller, cogger, foiſter, lyer.

Canarin: m. A Canarie bird.

Canart. as Canard.

Grace de S. Canart: Prov. A gift of that which the giuer cannot keepe.

Cancame: m. as Lacque; an Armenian gumme vſed by Dyers.

Cancelareſque: com. Chancerie-like; of, or belonging to, the Chancerie.

Cancelation: f. A canceilation, or cancelling; a defacing, effacing, raſing, blotting, or croſſing out of (a thing written;) alſo, a forgetting.

Cancelé: m. ée: f. Cancelled, razed; effaced, croſſed, or bloted out.

Canceler. To cancell, croſſe, raze; deface, efface, blot or put out.

Cancelle: m. as Branchue.

Canceller. as Canceler.

Cancre: m. A crab-fiſh; alſo, the ſigne in the Zodiacke, tearmed Cancer; alſo, a canker; or, a hard, and vneuen ſwelling, of an ougly, blackiſh, or blewiſh colour; alſo, an ancient engine of batterie, whoſe ſtrong and yron head was made like a crab.

Cancre de Barbarie. The greateſt kind of crab, round, and very rough-ſhelld, ſhort-legd, ſlow a land, very ſwift in the water; and by old authors tearmed Mæa, or Maia.

Cancre ſquinade. Looke Squinade.

Cancre! (an Interiection of denying, or forbidding) fie; warre that; what a pox meane you; &c.

Candelabre: m. A candleſticke.

Candelette. A Suppoſitarie. ¶Langued.

Candeur: f. A bright, or ſhining whiteneſſe; alſo, courteſie, gentleneſſe, integritie, ſincerities, faire dealing, vprightneſſe.

Candidat. A flatterer, ſoother, ſmoother; one that euer makes it faire weather.

Candide: com. White, faire, bright, orient; alſo, proſperous, happie, fortunate; alſo, gentle, courteous, faire conditioned; alſo, vpright, ſincere, innocent.

Candidement. Whitely, fairely, in white; fauourably, gently, mildly; faithfully, vprightly, ſincerely, without fraud, malice, or enuie.

Se Candir. To candie, or grow candide, as ſugar after boyling.

Cane: f. A ducke; alſo, a meaſure for cloth, being a yard, or thereabouts; alſo, a canne, or ſuch like meaſure for wine; alſo, a meaſure of fiue foot and tenne ynches, for land.

Cane de bois à bruſler. A certaine quantitie of, or ſcantling for, firewood.

Cane d'une campane. The loweſt part of a bell, whereon commonly there is a wreath, border, or line made.

Cane d'Inde. is bigger then our ordinarie ducke, and differs from it in colour, and figure (the drake ſomewhat reſembling a Turkie cocke, eſpecially in the head) as alſo from all other fowle, in being dumbe.

Cane de mer. A ſea-fowle that reſembles a young, or ſmall, gooſe; and hauing a white ring about her necke, is alſo tearmed, Cane au colier blanc.

La petite cane. The wild duck, leſſe then the tame one.

Bec de cane. See Bec; alſo, a little inſtrument vſed in grafting en eſcuſſon.

Eſtonnez comme canes. Skared like a companie of duckes.

Faire la cane. To ducke, like a coward, when a blow is in comming; to play leaſt in ſight when blowes are a dealing; to hide, or abſent himſelfe, from a bickering, or battell, wherein he is much intereſſed.

Canebaſſe. as Calebaſſe; a bottle made of a gourd.

Canelé: m. ée: f. Channelled, fluted, furrowed, ſtraked.

Caneler. To flute, ſtrake, furrow, channell; to cut hollow rewes, or gutters into (ſtone, or timber.)

Caneleure: f. A fluting, channelling, ſtraking, furrowing; gutter-worke (in ſtone, or timber.)

Caneliere: f. A reed-plot; a ground thats full, or ſet full, of reeds.

Canelle: f. (Our moderne Cannell, or Cinnamon; (Looke Cinnamome) alſo, the faucet, or quill of a wine veſſel; alſo, the cocke, or ſpout of a conduit.

Canellé: m. lée: f. Of Cinnamon, of a Cinnamon colour; alſo, made of, or ſeaſoned with, Cinnamon.

Canelline: f. A little cannell, pipe, or hollow rod.

Canelure: f. A channelling, or furrowing in ſtone, or in timber; a fluting.

Canepetiere: f. A certaine daintie land-fowle, that reſembles a Buſtard, or the Partridge called Arbenne; onely ſhee is not ſo big as that, nor rough-footed as this.

Il fait de la canepetiere. He (cowardly) hides himſelfe in euerie hole; or ducks at the appearance of euery danger.

Canepin: m. The thinne inner rind of the barke of the Linden, and th'outward of the coat of a Birch, tree, written on in old time in ſtead of paper; alſo, th'outward thinne, and white pilling, of a dreſſed ſheepes skin.

Canepineuſe. The barke, or inner part of a ſugar cane.

Caner. To ſquirt.

Canet. A yong ducke; or, a wild ducke.

Caneter. To waddle, or goe, like a ducke; alſo, to breed yong duckes.

Canetier: m. ere: f. Of a ducke, like a ducke; catching duckes; feeding, or preying, on duckes.

Canetille: f. (Gold, or ſiluer) Purle; alſo, a ſmall purle of needle-worke; or, a ſmall edging (bone) lace; alſo, a freckle, or, the freckledneſſe of a face.

Canetillé: m. ée: f. Set, wrought, or inriched, with purle; alſo, edged with a ſmall (needle-worke) purle, or bone lace; alſo, freckled.

Caneton: m. A duckling; yong ducke, or drake.

Canette: f. A little ducke; yong ducke; wild ducke; alſo, a little canne, or cruſe; alſo, the quill of a ſpinning wheele.

Canette d'eſtang. A kind of ſmall wild ducke, that haunts meares and great ſtanding waters.

Canevas; ou, Canevers: m. Canuas.

Canjar. as Caniard.

Caniard: m. A Sea-cob, or Sea-gull.

Canichon. A little ducke, or drake; a duckling.

Caniculaires. (les jours ca.) The dog-dayes.

Canidé. A certaine bird, whoſe backe and taile is blew, necke and belly yellow.

Canif: m. A pen-knife.

Canin: m. ine: f. Dogged, doggie, of dogs, dog-like.

Convulſion canine. The crampe of the mouth; or, a forced, and painfull wrying of the mouth.

Dents

Dents canines. A mans tuſhes; or, the teeth wherewith he breakes his meat.
Roſe canine. A wild Roſe. Looke Roſe.
Caniſſe: f. A little table, or hurdle, of reeds, whereon fruits are dried, or ſilkewormes fed.
Canivet: m. A Penkniſe.
Cannamelle: f. The ſweet cane, or ſugar cane.
Canne: f. A reed, or cane; alſo, an Hebrew meaſure of nine foot; (the ordinarie one; for, Canne du Sanctuaire, was teane) alſo, a kind of long Pipe vſed in diſtillings.
Spodon de canne. Looke Spodon.
Canneau du col: m. The nape of the necke.
Canneſſe. as Canelle.
Canne petiere. See Cane petiere.
Cannetille. as Canetille.
Canniſade: f. A cage, or basket, of reeds.
Canniſſe: f. as Caniſſe.
Cannoniquement. See Canoniquement.
Cannule: f. A little cane, reed, pipe, or hollow ſtraw, through which one may ſucke, blow, or conuey, any moiſture, ſmoake, pouder, &c.
Cannule parfumatoire. as Canon parfumatoire.
Cannulé. Hollowed like a reed, or cane; or, as Canelé.
Canolle: f. A haukes Narell; one of the little holes whereat ſhe drawes in, and lets out, her breath.
Canon: m. A Law; a Rule, Decree, Ordnance, Canon of the Law; alſo, a publicke, and authenticall Rowle, or Catalogue; alſo, the Gunne tearmed, a Canon; alſo, the barell of any Gunne; and (more generally) any Inſtrument, or thing, that is long, and hollow, as the barell of a Gunne; alſo, the ſound-boord of an Organ; alſo, a Graffe; (Seeke, Enter en Canon;) alſo, a Canon-bitt for a horſe; alſo, a little Ducke, or Drake.
Canon de Caſſe. The cod, or pipe of Caſſia fiſtula.
Canons de Chauſſes. Cannyons.
Canon parfumatoire. A long funnell (ſtrait, or crooked, as the parts for which it is to be vſed) wherewith Surgeons perfume, bathe, or moiſten the Narrels, eares, fundament, &c.
Canon pevier. A Canon Peuier, or Perrier; a great murthering Peece of a wide Bore, and thin barell, charged (moſt commonly) with a ſtone.
Canon de ſuls. A Kex, or Elder ſticke; alſo, a Potgunne made thereof.
Bailler le canon. To deceiue, gull, couſen.
Canonicat: m. A Canonſhip, or Canons place, in a Cathedrall church.
Canonique: com. Canonicall, authenticall; orderlie, according vnto rules; alſo, receiued, or put into the Roll, Catalogue, or Liſt of.
Canoniquement. Canonically, authentically; alſo, orderly, in due forme, true ſeaſon, right manner.
Canoniſte: m. A Canoniſt; a Profeſſor of, or Practiſer in, the Canon Law.
Canonization: f. A canonization, or canonizing.
Canonizé: m. ée: f. Canonized, made holie, or a Saint; receiued, or put into the catalogue of Saints; alſo, made Canonicall.
Canonizer. To canonize; to make holie, or a Saint; to receiue, or put into the catalogue of Saints.
Canonner. To ſhoot at, or beat, with a Canon; alſo, as Enter en Canon.
Canonnier: m. A Canoneer, or maiſter Gunner.
Canonniere: f. A loope-hole, or port-hole, for a peece of Ordnance; alſo, a Potgunne.
Canore: com. Shrill, ringing; harmonious, melodious, of a pleaſant, or pleaſing ſound.

Canteau. as Chanteau. ¶Pic.
Canthare. A certaine duskie, and muddie ſea-fiſh, that neuer changes her mate; alſo, a great lug, or Tankard.
Cantharide: f. The venomous greene flye Cantharides; (which breedes in the tops of the Aſh, and Oliue, trees.)
Cantharidiſe: f. A confection of Cantharides.
Canthenot: m. A certaine tawnie, and vnſauorie, ſea-fiſh. ¶Langued.
Canthon. as Canton.
Canthonniere. as Cantonniere.
Canton: m. A corner, or croſſe way, in a ſtreet; alſo, a Canton, or Hundred; a Precinct, or circuit of Territorie, wherein there be diuers good townes, and villages; (This word is proper to Helvetia, or Switzer-land; which, at this day, conſiſts of thirteene ſuch Cantons.)
Cantonné: m. ée: f. Cantonned, or cantonnized; ſeuered from the reſt of their fellows, and fortified, or quartered apart.
Se Cantonner. To canton, or cantonnize, it; to ſeuer themſelues from the reſt of their fellowes, or from the bodie of a State, and fortifie, quarter, or erect a new State, apart.
Cantonniere: f. A Doxie, common hackney, hedgewhore; one that will lye downe vnder any ſtall, or in any corner of a ſtreet.
Canule: f. A little cane, reed, or pipe. See Cannule.
Canus. A kind of ſtrong-toothed, and pearch-like ſea-fiſh, purple on the backe, and on all other parts of a colour, betweene red, and yellow; liues altogether among rocks, and ſtones; and is very good meat.
Cap: m. A Promontorie, Cape, hill, or nooke of land outſtretched into the ſea; a head of land lying out into the ſea; alſo, the head, or niple of a ripe Impoſtume.
Cap d'Eſcadre, ou d'Eſcouärde. A Corporall.
Cap de mouton. (in a ſhip is) a certaine flat peece of wood bored full of holes, and ſeruing to ſtiffen, or ſtretch out, the maine ſheate; we call it, the Rammes-blocke.
Bouter, ou faire cap à la mer. To put backe into the maine, for feare of running vpon ſhallowes, or comming too neere the ſhore.
Capable: com. Capable, ſufficient; large, big, wide; apt to receiue, or take into it; able to hold, or containe within it; alſo, of good capacitie, apprehenſion, vnderſtanding.
Capacité: f. Capableneſſe, largeneſſe, receiueableneſſe; alſo, capacitie, wit, vnderſtanding; ſufficiencie.
Caparaſſon: m. A Capariſon.
Caparaſſonné: m. ée: f. Capariſoned; furniſhed with, prouided of, attired in, a Capariſon.
Caparaſſonner. To capariſon; to furniſh with, prouide of, dreſſe or attire in, or put on, a capariſon.
Caparis: m. The Caper tree, or ſhrub.
Capdaſtre. A Subſidie booke; a Regiſter of taxes, or of tributes; or, as Cadaſtre. ¶Langued.
Cap-deſcadre: m. A Corporall.
Capdeul: m. A gentlemans chiefe houſe; falling (almoſt euery where) vnto the ſhare of the eldeſt heire.
Cape: f. A Mariners gowne; or, a ſhort, and ſleeueleſſe cloake, or garment, that hath, in ſtead of a cape, a capuche, behind it; alſo, a hood, or large, and ſquare peece of water Chamlet, &c, wherewith women preſerue their heads from wind and raine. See Cappe.
Cape de Bearn. A ſhort, and ſleeueleſſe gown of courſe white cloth, vſually worne by the poorer inhabitants of that countrey.
Capeau: m. (in ſome of the outward parts of France) as Chapeau; and hence;

Capeau carnu, ou charnu. The ſea-Nettle; called ſo about Marſeillis.
Capéer. as Cappéer.
Capel: m. A little hat; or as Chapeau. ¶Norm.
Capelan: m. A Chapleine; or, the poore Curate of a Chappell; alſo, the Codfiſh; or, a kind thereof.
Capelettes: f. The heads of Cloues.
Capelin: m. as Capeline.
Capeline: f. A little flat, round, and narrow-brimd hat, vſually worne by ſhepheards, meſſengers, footmen, &c; In old time ſouldiours wore yron ſculs of that faſhion, and name, which bred the Phraſe;
Il eſt homme de capeline. He is a man of action, full of courage, fit for an enterpriſe; he is a worthie, or gallant fellow.
Capellan. as Capelan.
Capeluchon. as Coqueluchon.
Capendu. pomme de cap. A certaine apple which is leſſe, and more delicious, then the Pepin.
Caperaſſon: m. A Capariſon.
Capeſolde. as Capeſoulde.
Capeſoulde: m. A Gentleman of a Companie; or one that hath extraordinarie Lendings; alſo, extraordinarie Lendings, or entertainment.
Capettes: m. The poore Schollers of Montagu Colledge in Paris.
Caphard; &, Capharder. See Cafard, & Cafarder.
Capharde: f. An hypocriticall wench.
Capharderie. as Cafardie; Hypocriſie.
Caphetan: m. A kind of courſe, or groſſe, Taffata; alſo, a long caſſocke of the ſame.
Capietrement. Priuily, cloſely; theeuiſhly, ſtealingly, by ſtealth.
Capifou. A play which is not much vnlike our Harry-racket, or Hidman-blind.
Capilaire: com. Hairie, full of haire, belonging to haire.
Capilament: m. A haire, little ſtreake, or flaw, in a ſtone, &c.
Capillaire: f. The hearbe Venus haire, Maiden haire, or, our Ladies haire.
Capillaire. as Capilaire.
Capirotade: f. A Capirotadoe; or, ſtued meat, compounded of Veale, Capon, Chicken, or Partridge, minced, ſpiced, and layed vpon ſeuerall beds of Cheeſe.
Capiſcos: m. Schoolemaiſters, Regents, of Schooles. ¶Gaſc.
Capitaine: m. A Captaine, Leader, or Commaunder of a companie of ſouldiors; or of a ſhip of warre; alſo, a Ring-leader.
Capitaines du charroy de l'Artillerie. Be twentie; (choſen out of the frontier Prouinces, or as neere them as may be) who are to prouide, vpon occaſion of ſeruice, foure thouſand draught horſes, a thouſand carters, and fiue hundred carts, or chariots, each in a like proportion; The yearely entertainment of euery one of them is two hundred pounds Tour. which he hath (as well in peaceable times as in warlike) payed him by the Receiuer of the Tailles of the Election wherein he reſides: In time of ſeruice he hath alſo fiftie ſhillings Tour. a day, for himſelfe, and twentie ſhillings for his deputie, towards the defraying of euery cart prouided by him; and this from the Threſorier des frais extraordinaires de l'Artillerie.
Capitaine de la Porte. The Gentleman Porter, Groome Porter, or chiefe Porter, of the Kings houſehold.
Capitaine du Roy, ou du Royaulme. A title of dignitie beſtowed onely vpon Princes; as Dukes, Marqueſſes, Earles.
Le grand capitaine des gens de pied. See Colonel general de l'Infanterie Françoiſe.
Capitainerie: f. A Captaineſhip; the Authoritie, Office, or Place, of a Captaine.
Capitaineſſe. An Admirall Galley, or Ship.
Capital: m. Wealth, worth; a ſtocke, a mans principall, or chiefe, ſubſtance; alſo, a captaine, or commaunder.
En argent ſoit le capital de celuy là qui te veut mal: Prov. Let money be thy enemies whole ſtocke; Looke Argent.
Capital: m. ale: f. Chiefe; capitall; mortall, moſt hainous, deadly, death-meriting; worthie of diſgrace, or of great puniſhment.
Lettres capitales. Text letters, great letters.
Capitalité: f. Capitalneſſe; or, a capitall fact, or offence.
Capitation: f. Head-ſiluer, Pole-money; a ſubſidie, tax, or tribute, payed by the Pole.
Capitau: m. A Captaine, or Commaunder. (v.m.)
Capitaux. are numbred, in the 75 Article of the Cuſtomes of Bourdeaux, among Earles, Vicounts, and Barons.
Capite. A Cabbin in a ſhip.
Capitel: m. A ſtrong compounded Lye, whereof cauters and other violent remedies are made.
Eau de capitel. A ſtrong corroſiue made of that Lye.
Capiton: m. Capiton; courſe ſleaue (ſilke.)
Se Capitonner de. To couer his head with.
Capitouls: m. are (in Tholouſe) twelue principall magiſtrats; whereof the firſt is to be a Gentleman (of that Prouince) the reſt Lawyers, and ſubſtantiall Marchants.
Capitouls d'Orleans. The Sheriffes of Orleans; or, as les Eſchevins.
Capitulaire: m. A capitular decree, a capitall Ordinance.
Capitulaire: com. Capitular; of, or belonging to, a chapter; alſo, capitall.
Aſſemblée capitulaire. A Chapter held, by the officers of a Cathedrall church.
Capitulairement. Capitally; alſo, in Chapter, or, with full conſent of the Chapter.
Capitulant: m. ante: f. Hauing a voice in Councels, Aſſemblies, Conuocations, Chapters; alſo, capitulating.
Capitulation: f. A capitulation; an article of agreement.
Capitulé: m. ée: f. Capitulated; agreed vpon, diſtinguiſhed by Articles, or Chapters.
Capituler. To capitulate; agree vpon articles; to diſtinguiſh by Articles, or Chapters.
Capituleur: m. A capitulator.
Capnomantie: f. Diuination by ſmoake riſing from an altar, whereon Incenſe, or Poppie ſeed, is burned.
Capolie: f. A certaine Indian fruit much like a Cherrie.
Caporal: m. The Corporall of a band of ſouldiors.
Capot: m. A White Leaper; alſo, as Cappot.
Cappe: f. A ſhort cloake, or looſe, and ſleeueleſſe garment, which hath in ſtead of a Cape, a Capuche behind it; alſo, a kind of long, and Muskle-like ſhell-fiſh; alſo, the name of a ſmall, round, and ruddie apple. See Cape.
Cappe à femme. A large hood of water Chamlet, &c, worne by citizens wiues, &c, in foule weather.
Singler à la Cappe. as Cappéer.

Cappé: m. ée: f. Hooded; or, that hath a short, and capuched, cloake on.
Pigeons cappez. Ruffed Pigeons; the top of whose neckes is enuironned with a ruffe, or border, of feathers.
Cappéer. A ship to lye a-try; also, to goe very neere the wind.
Cappet. noirs cappets. Looke Chapeaux noirs.
Cappette: f. A little hood; or cloake, hauing a capuche in stead of a cape.
Cappiettement. for Capietrement. ¶Rab.
Cappot: m. A countrey cloake, or course, and scantie cloake; also, as Capot.
Cappres. des cap. The fruit Capers.
Cappres d' Alexandrie. Egyptian Capers; the best Capers; brought from Alexandria.
Capprier: m. A plot set with Caper shrubs; or, as Caprier.
Capres: f. (The fruit) Capers.
Caprice: f. A humor, caprichio, giddie thought, fantasticall conceit; a suddaine will, desire, or purpose to doe a thing, for which one hath no (apparent) reason.
Capricieux: m. euſe: f. Capricious, humorous, fantasticall, conceited, giddie-headed.
Capricorne: m. Capricorne; one of the twelue Signes, (containing twentie starres.)
Caprier: m. A Caper shrub, or Caper plant.
Capriere: f. A Caper plot, bed, or ground.
Caprifice: m. A wild Figge-tree.
Caprimulge: m. A Goat-milker; an vnluckie, and Gull-resembling Night-bird, that suckes Goats, and mortifies their vdders.
Caprin. le caprin. Goats; the kind, or nature, of Goats; also, Goats flesh.
Caprin: m. ine: f. Goatie; of a Goat; like a Goat.
Capriole: f. A caper in dauncing; also, the Capriole, sault, or Goats leape (done by a horse;) also, the hearbe Manna-grasse, or Deaw-grasse; also, as Pied de Corneille.
Capriot: m. A caper in dauncing.
Caprioter. To caper, to cut a caper.
Capſe: f. A coffer, cheſt; box; case.
Capſetin: m. A little coffer, or cheſt; a casket, or box.
Capſoos: m. The rights, and royalties belonging to the Lord of a Place. ¶Bearnois.
Capſule: f. A little cheſt, or coffer; a casket, box, or forsett.
La capſule du cœur. The skin Pericardium; wherein the heart lyes; and hence;
Le cœur me tremble dans ſa capſule. I am afraid at the very heart.
Captieuſement. Captiously, cauillingly; ouer-curiously; also, craftily, deceitfully, cautelously.
Captieux: m. euſe: f. Captious, cauilling; too curious; also, deceitfull, craftie, fraudulent, cautelous.
Captif: m. iue: f. Captiue; taken in, imprisoned by, warre; also, seruile, subiect, that hath lost his libertie.
Captiuer. To captiuate; take in, imprison by, warre; also, to restraine of libertie, bring into seruitude, make a slaue of.
Captivité: f. Captiuitie, thraldome; imprisonment; losse of libertie.
Capture: f. A capture, or taking; an arrest, or seisure; an arresting, or seising; also, a bootie, or prey; also, little or small game.

Capuchon: m. A Capuche; a Monks Cowle, or Hood; also, the hood of a cloake; also, one of the six muscles whereby the shoulder-blades are moued.
Capucin: m. A Capucine Frier (of S. Frances Order) weares neither shirt, nor breeches.
Capucinage: m. The Profession, Order, Estate, or life of a Capucine.
Capulaire: m. A coffin for a corse.
Caputions: m. Monkes; or, Capucine Friers.
Caque: m. A Cag; or, the fourth part of a Muid; (a barrell, or vessell, wherein saults-meats, pitch, rosen, &c, are vsually carried, or kept.)
Caqueduc: m. A niggard, nicher, miser, scrape-good, pinch-pennie, penny-father; a couetous, and greedie wretch.
Caquerel. A sprat, or pickled herring; or as Cagarel.
Caqueroles: f. The shels of Snayles, Periwincles, and such like. ¶Rab.
Caquerolierie: f. A shore full of little shels. ¶Rab.
Caquerotier: m. A catcher, eater, or owner, of shell-fish.
Caqueſangue: f. The bloudie flix.
Caquet: m. Pratling, tatling, babling, tittle tattle, much talking.
Caquetard: m. A pratler, babler, tatler, long-tongue.
Caqueté. Tatled, pratled, babled, chattered.
Caqueter. To tatle, bable, pratle, chatter, prate, vse many words.
Caquetereau: m. A pratle-basket, a tatling iacke.
Caqueteur. as Caquetard.
Caqueteuſe: f. A pratling huswife.
Caquetiere: f. The same.
Caquetoire: m. A place wherein women meet, and pratle together; as a myll, an ouen, a gossips feast, &c; also, the seat whereon they vse to sit at such a meeting.
Caquettement: m. A tatling, cackling, babling, pratling.
Ca-queue: f. The hearbe Horse-tayle, Shaue-grasse, Pewter-wort.
Caquots: m. White Leapers, infected inwardly; (for their faces are very cleere, and faire.)
Car: m. A Carre, Cart, or Waine. ¶Picard.
Car. For, because; (also) insomuch as, considering that, seeing it is as it is.
Carabaſſe: f. as Callabaſſe; a Gourd; or a bottle made thereof; (also, a Grit, Grampell, Pungar-fish. ¶Marseillois.)
Carabaſſé: m. ée: f. Much vsed, or carried vp and downe, as a Gourd-bottle is.
Carabe: f. A Corracle, or little round Skiffe, made of Ozier twigs wouen together, and couered with raw hides; also, yellow Amber.
Carabin: m. A Carbine, or Curbeene; an Arguebuzier armed with a morrian, and breast-plate, and seruing on horsebacke.
Carabinage: m. An assault made, or action performed, by Carbines.
Carabiner. To shoot, hit, or knocke, with a Petronell, or horsemans Peece.
Caracol: m. A Snayle; (whence;)
Faire le caracol. (Souldiors) to cast themselues into a Round, or Ring.
Caractere: m. A Caracter; letter, figure, or forme of writing; also, a marke, token, signe, seale, impression, or print in a thing.
Caracteré: m. ée: f. Caractered, or caracterized; imprinted, printed, ſtamped with a (peculiar) marke, figure, letter.

Caracterer. To caracter, or caracterize; to make, print, characters, letters, figures; alſo, to imprint, ſtampe, ſet, fix a marke, or ſigne on.

Caraffe: f. A certaine ſumme of money, payed as a Paſſage Toll, or dutie, vnto th' Arabian boot-halers, by ſuch as trauell, without a ſtrong Caravan, towards the Holy land, &c.

Caramot: m. A Prawne; or, as;

Caramote: f. The greateſt kind of Prawne; ſomewhat reſembling, and little leſſe then, our Creuice. ¶Marſeillois.

Carance: f. Want, or lacke of.

Carance de biens. A Note, or Teſtimoniall (vnder diuers hands) ſignifying, that ſuch a one hath no goods nor chattels in ſuch a place.

Caraque. See Carraque.

Carasse: f. A huge, or great face.

Carat: m. A Carrat; among Goldſmiths, and Mintmen, is the third part of an ounce; among Iewellers, or Stone-cutters, but the 19 part; for eight of them make but one Sterlin, and a Sterlin is the 24 part of an ounce.

Fol à 25 carats (dont les 24 font le tout.) An egregious foole, a foole beyond all proportion; (the fineſt gold being but of 24 Carrats.)

Carathement. A charming of a mans child-getter.

Caravane: f. A Carauan, or Conuoy of Souldiours, for the ſafetie of Marchants that trauell by land.

Caravelle: f. A Caruell; (the little ſhippe ſo called.)

Clou à Caravelle. See Clou.

Caravellon: m. A ſmall Caruell.

Caravene: f. A little Boat, or Skiffe, made like a Trough, and (moſt commonly) of one piece.

Caravirée: f. A wry-mouthed, or wry-faced wench; or one that often makes wry mouthes, or ill fauoured wry faces.

Carbaſſat: m. Wet ſucket, made of the vpper part of the long white Pompion, cut in ſlices.

Carbaſſe: f. The Crab-fiſh tearmed, a Pungar.

Carbau: m. The Cabot fiſh.

Carbonade: f. A Carbonadoe, a raſher on the coales; alſo, a ſlaſh ouer the face, which fetcheth the fleſh with it.

Carboucle. A Carbuncle.

Carcaillon: f. A corne-deuouring Mite, or Weeuill.

Carcamouſſe: f. The battering Engine, called a Ramme.

Carcan: m. A Carkanet, or collar of gold, &c. worne about the necke; alſo, an yron chaine, or collar, wherein an offendor is tyed by the necke to a poſt, and (in that poſture) expoſed vnto publicke view.

Carcant. The ſame.

Carchiophe: m. An Artichoke.

Carcinome. A canker; See Cancre.

Carcois: m. as Carquois; alſo, the head, or vpper part of a Maſt, where the cords that hold the ſayle vnto the yard, paſſe through certaine Pullies.

Cardaire. A kind of Thornebacke, full of ſmall prickles. ¶Langued.

Cardamome: m. Cardamomum; Graines, or Graine of Paradiſe; alſo, Ethyopian Pepper.

Cardamome moindre. The leaſt kind of Graines.

Cardanalizé. See Cardinaliſé.

Carde. A thiſtle Finch; alſo, the white thiſtle, whereof ſome kinds of Cardoons are made; alſo, the Cardoon it ſelfe.

Cardes. Cards for wooll, &c; working cards.

Carde de montagne. The white Carline thiſtle.

Bois de carde. See Bois.

Cardé: m. ée: f. Carded (as wooll, &c.)

Carder la laine. To card wooll.

Cardeur de laine. A wooll-carder.

Cardiaque: com. Heartie, heart-eaſing, cordiall, comforting the heart; alſo, pained in the ſtomacke, wrung at the heart; alſo, in a conſumption, and continuall ſweat, by the indiſpoſition of the heart, and parts about it.

Cardier: m. A Card-maker.

Cardinal: m. A Cardinall, of the Church of Rome.

Cardinal en Greve. One thats beheaded in the Greue at Paris.

Elle a ſon Cardinal. She hath her flowers.

Il a eſté fait Cardinal ſans s'en aller à Rome. He hath got a red cap without a Cardinallſhip; viz. hee hath loſt his head.

Cardinal: m. ale: f. Chiefe, principall, of the firſt ranke.

Artillerie cardinale. Ordnance of the wideſt bore; or, as Cardinale.

Vent cardinal. One of the foure principall winds; as Eaſt, Weſt, North, or South.

Vertus cardinales. Cardinall vertues; viz. Wiſdome, Iuſtice, Fortitude, and Temperance.

Cardinalat: m. A Cardinallſhip.

Cardinale: f. A kind of Artillerie for ſhipping, leſſe then the Culuerine, and deuiſed at firſt by the Cardinall of Lorraine.

Cardinalin: m. A little, or young Cardinall.

Cardinaliſé: m. ée: f. Red, redded, made of a red or skarlet hue; in a red or skarlet habit, ſuch as Cardinals weare.

Cardons: m. Cardoones; the ſtalkes of Artichokes, or of the white thiſtle, buried in the ground, or otherwiſe vſed, to get them a whiteneſſe; (excellent meat.)

Caré: m. as Ableret.

Care: m. A certaine diſeaſe that benummes the head, and makes the whole bodie more ſenceleſſe then an Apoplexie; or, a deepe ſleepe, or ſleepineſſe, ioyned with weakneſſe of the braine, ſences, and motion.

Care: f. The face, viſage, countenance, looke, aſpect.

Carence: f. Want, lacke of; See Carance.

Carene: f. The Keele of a ſhip.

Careſme: m. Lent.

Careſme entrant. Shroue-tueſday.

Careſme prenant. Shrouetide; Faſtnes; or Shroue-tueſday.

Plaidoyé de careſme prenant. A wanton, baudie, laſcinious plea, or argument.

Amoureux de careſme. A Lenton louer; a baſhfull, modeſt, or maidenly woer; one thats afraid to touch his miſtreſſe.

Figue de careſme. A drie figge, Frayle figge, Lenten figge.

Sainct de careſme. Looke Sainct.

Violette de careſme. The ordinarie blew, or March Violet.

I'y ay preſché ſept ans pour vn careſme. I know the place well, and am full well knowne there.

Careſme-entrant, &, Careſme-prenant. See Careſme.

Ca-

Careſſe: f. A cheering, cheriſhing, welcomming, friendly intertainment, hugging, blandiſhment, kind vſage, making much of.

Careſſer. To cheriſh, hug, make much of, intertain friendly, vſe kindly, make good cheere vnto.

Caret. fil de caret; Packthread.

Carfou: m. The peale which we alſo tearme Curfue, being of one bell, and about eight or nine of the clocke at night.

Cargade: f. as Cargaiſon.

Cargaiſon: f. The fraight, fraught, or lading, of a ſhip.

Cargue: f. A charge, or onſet, giuen on an enemie.

Carguer. To charge; alſo, to lade; alſo, to leane all on one ſide; (in which ſence it is moſt vſed by Mariners.)

Cariage. Le c. The carriage, luggage, baggage; all the neceſſarie prouiſion of an armie, &c, carried with, or after, it.

Caribe. The moſt biting kind of Indian pepper.

Caribot: m. A lunchion, or big peece, as of bread, &c.

Carie: f. Rottenneſſe, or putrifaction in wood by long continuance; a worme in wood; corruption in any thing.

Se Carier. To rot, putrifie, corrupt.

Carieux: m. euſe: f. Rotten, putrified, worme-eaten; corrupted.

Carillon: m. A chyming of bels; a knell.

Ie te frotteray à double carillon. I will beat thee like a ſtockfiſh, I will ſwinge thee while I may ſtand ouer thee.

Carillonné: m. ée: f. Chymed, or knowled.

Carillonner. To chyme, or knowle, bels.

Carillonneur: m. A chymer, or knowler, of bels.

Carimari carimara. ¶Rab. See Carymari.

Carine: f. The keele of a ſhip.

Cariol: m. as Cariole.

Cariole: f. The root of a horſes tayle, or the bone thereof; the rumpe-bone.

Cariophillate: f. Hearbe Auens, Bennet, or bleſſed.

Cariſi. The name of a certaine Peare; alſo, the perrie made thereof.

Carizé. Kerſie.

Carler. as Carreler.

Carlin. An Italian coyne worth fortie Quadrins.

Carline: f. The Carline, or Carline thiſtle; erroniouſly confounded, by ſome Authors, with our Ladies thiſtle.

Petite carline. The low, or little, Carline (thiſtle.)

Carlingue: f. The ſtep of a Maſt; the peece of timber wherein to the foot thereof enters.

Carlonne. Vivre à la Carlonne. To deale plainly.

Carlure: f. as Carrelure.

Carnaignole: f. An Apricocke.

Carne: m. A verſe; alſo, a charme; alſo, the horne-beame, or yoake tree; alſo, a white Frier.

Carmelitains: m. The Carmelites; an Order of white Friers.

Carminatif: m. iue: f. Wind-voiding, wind-diſſoluing, windineſſe-correcting; alſo, fleſh-taming, luſt-abating.

Carminificateur. A verſifier; a maker of verſes.

Carnouſſal: m. A kind of Turkiſh ſhip.

Carnacier: m. ere: f. Fleſhie, of fleſh; bloudie, cruell; fleſh-deuouring, bloud-affecting; liuing, or feeding on fleſh; alſo, as Carnaſſier.

Carnage. Fleſh time, the ſeaſon wherein tis lawfull to eat fleſh; ¶Pic: alſo, a ſlaughter, butcherie, killing, ſlaying, murther of men.

Carnages. Fleſh, fleſh-meat, fleſh ware, prouiſion of fleſh.

Carnagier. as Carnacier.

Carnallage: m. as Carnage; a killing; a ſlaying; a ſlaughter; eſpecially of beaſts; as in Carnaller.

Carnaller. To kill, butcher, ſlay; ſlaughter; eſpecially beaſts found damage-feſant (which the partie dammaged in ſome places, and caſes, may lawfully do) and eat, or ſell their fleſh.

Carnaſſeries: f. Fleſhie matters.

Carnaſſier: m. ere: f. Plumpe, fleſhie, full, well batied, well fed; alſo, as Carnacier.

Carnaval: m. Shrouetide; alſo, a licentious, or diſſolute ſeaſon.

Carnavalée: f. A wench thats growne as licentious, or is vſed as licentiouſly, as the Carnaval; (ou, qui eſt chevauchée tout le long du Carnaval.)

Carne: f. An edge, or corner.

Carne de teſtons. A quarterne of Teſtons, conſiſting of foure, or of fortie.

Carneau: m. A battlement (of a wall.)

Carnelé: m. ée: f. Imbattled; hauing battlements.

Carnelle: f. The ſtampe of a peece of coyne.

Carneller. To ſtampe, or coyne, a peece of coyne.

Carnet. as Cayer.

Carniforme: com. Of a fleſhie ſubſtance, or forme; like fleſh.

Carnoſité: f. Carnoſitie, Fleſhlineſſe, fulneſſe of fleſh.

Carnu. Looke Charnu.

Carobe. as Carrobe, or Carrube.

Carocher. A coachman.

Carolle: f. A kind of daunce wherein many daunce together; alſo, a Carroll, or Chriſtmas ſong.

Caroller. To daunce, to reuell it; to ſing carrols.

Carolus: m. A peece of white mony, worth x d. Tour. or a iuſt Engliſh penny.

Carolus de Bezançon. A ſiluer coyne; and is worth about ix d. ſterl.

Carolus de Flandres. Another, worth about iij s. ſterl.

Carooler. To inroule.

Caroſſe: f. A caroſſe, or caroach.

Carote: f. The Carrot (root, or hearbe.)

Carote ſauvage. Daucus, wilde Carrot, birds neaſt.

Carotes. The hearbe Carroway, and Carroway ſeed; ¶Dodoneus.

Carotide. A branch of the great Arterie; which after it hath mounted a little by the ſide of the necke, diuides it ſelfe into two branches; one (inward and the greater) goes vp to the braine; the other (outward) beſtowes it ſelfe on the Larinx, tongue, noſe, eyes, and muſcle of the temples.

Carouges: f. Carobs, or Carob-beanes, and Carob-beane cods; tearmed alſo, S. Iohns bread.

Carous. A carouſſe of drinke.

Carouſſer. To quaffe, ſwill, carouſſe it.

Carozze. as Caroſſe; a caroach, or great coach.

Carpaſe: m. A certain plant, whoſe iuice, being drunke, procureth ſleepe, and in ſleeping ſtrangleth; (A report of auncient Herbariſts; for the moderne ones either make no mention of it, or, confeſſe they know it not.)

Carpe: m. The wriſt, or firſt part of the palme of the hand.

Carpe: f. A Carpe (fiſh.)

Carpe de mer. The ſea-Carpe; ſomewhat blacker then the freſhwater one, but otherwiſe very like vnto her.

Saut de la carpe. A turning top-ouer tayle.

Carpeau: m. A young Carpe.

Carpendu. pomme de car. The apple called, a Shorte-ſtart.

Carpie: f. The yoke tree, horne-beame, hard beame, yoke Elme, Witch haſell; (alſo, as Charpie, ¶Pic.)

Carpion: m. A kind of long-headed, ſlender-bodied, blacke-backed, and white-bellied Trout; hauing very ſmall ſcales poudered (eſpecially towards the backe) with blacke and red ſpots; and growing not to aboue a foot in length.

Carpionne: f. as Carpion.

Carpir. as Charpir. ¶Pic.

Carpobalſame: m. The fruit of the Balſamum, or Balſame, tree.

Carpot. The halfe, or part, of the fruit, or profit of a vine-yard, yeelded as a rent by the tenant, vnto the lord, thereof.

Carquan: m. A carcanet; a (rich) chaine for the necke.

Carquant. The ſame; or (both) as Carcan.

Carquaſſe: f. A carkas, or dead corpes; the dead bodie of any creature; and hence, a Catch, Pelt, or dead bird, to take downe a Hauke withall.

Carquois: m. A quiuer for arrowes.

Carquois: m. iſe: f. Of a quiuer, belonging to a quiuer, kept in a quiuer.

Carrabin. as Carabin.

Carracon: m. A ſmall (but ſtrong) carricke.

Carraque: f. The huge ſhip tearmed a carricke.

Carraquon. as Carracon.

Carrat de bois à baſtir. A certaine quantitie of timber.

Carré. A Square; a ſquare peece in Cutworke, or Networke; a ſquare bed in a garden.

Oeil de carré. A ſide, or leering eye; alſo, a proud, ſurlie, ſtatelie, big looke.

Carre. le Carre d'un rocher. The edge, or corner of a rocke.

Carre: f. as Caire.

Carré: m. ée: f. Squared; ſquare.

Carre: com. Square; broad.

B carre. B ſharpe (in Muſicke.)

De b carre en b mol. Inconſtantly, or vncertainely; from one ſubiect to another.

Carreau: m. (is generally) a little Square; (particularly) a Diamond, or Picke at cards; alſo, a cuſhion; alſo, a bed in a garden; alſo, the ſquare of a Pillar (or as Plinthe;) alſo, a pauing tyle; alſo, a coping, or planchet of mettall, before it be rounded, or coyned; alſo, a taylors preſſing-yron; alſo, a ſquare ſtone layed in leuell with, and at each end of, a bowling alley, and in the middeſt thereof a pricke ſet, as the marke whereat (in France) they bowle; See Quarreau.

Carreaux. The bends, or wales, of a ſhip.

Franc du carreau. A certaine boyiſh Game, for counters.

Frizer les carreaux. To ſtrike a ball vnder the Line, at Tennis.

Carrefour: m. as Quarrefour.

Carreler. To paue with ſquare tyles, or brickes; alſo, to ſole, or coble, ſhooes.

Carrelet: m. A (kind of broad, and ſhort) Plaice; alſo, a ſea-fiſh that reſembles a herring, and is (moſt) ſeene before a dearth, or plague.

Carrelure: f. A ſole; or, the ſoling of a ſhoo.

Carrelure de ventre. Meat, belly-timber, belly-cheere.

Carrer. To ſquare; to make broad, or ſquare.

Se Carrer. To ſquare it; to looke ſtately, ſurly, or bigge on't.

Carreure: f. A ſquare; alſo, breadth, or ſquareneſſe; alſo, a ſquaring; alſo, a making broad, or ſquare.

Carrier: m. A finder of ſtones, or quarries of ſtones; alſo, a ſtone-digger, a quarrey-man, a worker in Quarries.

Carriere: f. An high way, rode, or ſtreet (Langued.) alſo, a quarrey of ſtones; alſo, a Careere, on horſe-backe; and (more generally) any exerciſe, or place for exerciſe, on horſebacke; as, a horſe-race, or, a place for horſes to run in; and, their courſe, running, or full ſpeed therein.

Carriere de Valois. is eight foot broad.

Lance de carriere. Seeke Lance.

Donner carriere à ſon eſprit. To recreate his ſpirit; or, to ſet his wits a running, his conceit a gadding, his thoughts on a gallop.

Se donner carriere. To raunge, ſtye out; giue himſelfe ſcope; or to recreate himſelfe; to run himſelfe out of breath.

Faire le loup à la carriere. See Loup.

Parfaire ſa carriere. To finiſh his careere, to run out his courſe, to end his race.

Prendre bien ſa carriere. To part readily from the hand into a ſtrait, and ſwift, careere.

Carrillon: m. A chyming, or knowling of bels. See Carillon.

Carrillonner. To chyme, or knowle bels; to make a knell.

Carrobe: m. The Carob; Carob-beane, or Carob-beane cod, S. Iohns bread; alſo, as Carrube.

Carroce; &, Carroche. As Carroſſe; a Carroche.

Carrochier; ou, Carrocier. as Carroſſier.

Carroſſe. A caroach, or great coach.

Carroſſier. A caroach-driuer; a coachman.

Carrot de Galien. Looke Cerat.

Carrote: f. as Carote.

Carroube: m. as Carrobe; alſo, as Carroubier.

Carroubier: m. The Carob tree, or Beane tree.

Carrouge. as Carrobe.

Carrouſelle: f. A little hollow reed.

Carrozze: f. A caroach.

Carrozzier: m. A caroach-man, a coachman.

Carrube: m. as Carrobe; alſo, a ſmall weight (among Mintmen, and Goldſmiths) making but the 24 part of an ounce.

Cartame: m. Baſtard-Saffron, Mocke-Saffron, wild Saffron, Saffron Dorte.

Cartame ſylveſtre. Wild baſtard Saffron.

Cartaſonne. The Indian, whole-hoofed, and black-horned, Vnicorne.

Carte: f. A paper, or peece of paper; alſo, a card; alſo, a childs Horne-booke, or Abcee; alſo, a Pickadill, or ſupporter, of Paſteboord couered with linnen.

Carte blanche. A Blanke; and hence;

Donner la carte blanche à. To offer to receiue, or ſubmit himſelfe vnto, any conditions.

I'en laiſſe la carte blanche à eux. I leaue them to debate debate it; I leaue the decision, (or disposall) thereof to them.

Brouiller les cartes. Looke Brouiller.

Le premier en carte. Th'eldest, or, the first thats dealt vnto, at cards.

Cartée: f. A (letter of) defiance, or challenge, for a (single) combat.

Cartel: m. as Cartée.

Carteranche: f. A certaine measure for salt.

Carthame: m. Bastard Saffron, wild Saffron, mocke Saffron, Saffron dort.

Carthame sauvage, ou sylvestre. Wild bastard Saffron.

Carthellages. Square peeces of free stone.

Cartibe. A square table of stone, but somewhat more long than broad.

Cartibes d'vn moulinet. The ferrels, or bands of yron whereby the ends of a windlesse are strengthened.

Cartilage: m. A gristle, or tendrell of the eare, or nose; or such a skin as is betweene the toes of geese, duckes, &c.

Cartilagineux: m. eusse: f. Gristly; full of tendrels, or gristles.

Cartisannier: m. A maker of (playing) cards.

Cartoche. as Cartouche; also, a (cartridge, or roll (in Architecture.)

Carton: m. The thicke paper whereon Painters draw sometimes; and that whereof some fannes are made; also, a square peece thereof, or of pastboord; (also, a Carter, or carre-man: Pic.)

Cartons d'une Selle. The skirts of a saddle.

Cartophilaces. Law-bookes, auncient Records, authenticall writings; also, the roome, chest, or presse, wherein such writings be kept.

Cartouche: f. The cornet of paper whereinto Apothecaries, and Grocers put the parcels they retaile; also, a Cartouch, or full charge, for a pistoll, put vp within a little paper, to be the readier for vse; also, a peece of pastboord, or thicke paper, stuffed (in a round, or puddinglike forme) with bullets, &c, and to be shot out of a great peece; also, as Cartoche.

Cartoufle. (The name of) a shrub, that beares a Mushrome-like fruit; also, the fruit it selfe.

Cartuche. as Cartouche.

Cartulaire. A great paper-booke; or, as Chartulaire; also, as Reslve.

Cartulaire: com. Cartular; of, or in, paper; proper vnto paper, or paper-bookes.

Iuges cartulaires. Iudges that giue their sentences in writing.

Carvi: m. Carowayes, or Caroway seed.

Carvi sauvage. Wild Cheruill, or wild Carowayes.

Caruncule: f. A little peece of flesh.

Carymari carymara. Fained words expressing a great coyle, stirre, hurlyburly, or the confused muttering of a rude companie.

Caryote: f. A Date.

Cas: m. A Case, cause, matter, thing; also, a crime, offence; fact; also, esteeme, account, reckoning of; also, the priuities (of man, or woman.)

Cas fortuit. A hap, or chance.

Cas previlegiez. as Cas royaux.

Cas royaux. Royall cases; causes wherein the king is interessed for the preseruation of his rights, or the maintenance of his authoritie; such as bee Treasons of all sorts against (humane) Maiestie; the violation of passports, or of protections, granted by himselfe, or by the Officers of the Crowne; disturbance offered vnto any of his Officers, in the execution of their charges, or vnto any that goe vp and downe about his businesse; Violence vsed, riots committed, or armes borne, in vnlawfull assemblies; all causes that concerne his rights, reuenue, finances, coyning, officers, ordinarie seruants; Churches (cathedrall, or others of royall foundation, or therwise priuiledged; the execution of letters patents, & of Commissions, or Iniunctions vnder the great seale; and generally, all causes that depend on les droicts royaux; for which, looke Droict.

Avoir son cas. A woman to be in her flowers.

Ce sera bien vostre cas. This will fit you well, or bee for your turne.

Cas sur cas n'a point de lieu. (A ground in law) if a thing be seised by one, it cannot bee reseised by another, vntill the former haue tried his title vnto it.

Cas: m. casse: f. Hollow, or broken sounded; hoarse like a bell that hath got a craze, or the voyce of one that hath got a cold.

Casal: m. A huge, or great house; a Mannor house; also, a village, or hamlet.

Casanier: m. A house-doue, or home-bred sluggard; one that neuer stirres out of his owne doores.

Casaque: f. A cassocke, mandilian, long coat.

Casard: m. arde: f. Home-bred, house-louing; euer keeping within doores; also, tame, or kept about a house.

Cascaret: m. A furious, and boyling tide, or sea, that sometimes comes in (betweene Bourdeaux and Rochel) surging, and roaring, and ouerturning the barkes which be in the way thereof.

Cascavelle: f. A roundelay, or countrey song.

Case: f. (Is properly) a poore house, tenement, or cottage; (and sometimes) any house, or dwelling place.

Doublet en case. A corner point taken with two men at Tables.

La Case monstre le Messer: Prov. as, La Maison fait cognoistre le Maistre.

Caseiforme: com. Made (round, and flat) like a cheese.

Casemate: f. A case-mate; a loope, or loope-hole, in a fortified wall.

Caseret: m. A cheese-fat, or chesford, to make a cheese in.

Casette: f. A little house; a cote, or small cottage.

Casier. as Caseret.

Casine: f. A cote, a little cottage, or country house.

Casois: m. A countrey clowne, boore, clunch, hinde; a home-bred boydon; a rusticall house-doue, an ignorant, or idle clustersist.

Casole: f. A posnet; also, a kind of narrow-mouthed pot, somewhat like a perfuming pot.

Casque: f. The head-peece tearmed a caske, or casket.

Casquet: m. The same; or, a little one.

Cassable: com. Fraile, brittle, easie to be broken.

Cassade: f. A gudgeon, frumpe, mocke, flout, gull, cousening part, cheating pranke, deceitfull tricke; whence;

Avoir la cassade. To be gulled; or, to swallow a gudgeon.

Cassant: m. ante: f. Frayle, brittle, easie to be broken; also, quashing, cassing, breaking, infringing.

Estoffe cassant. Rending stuffe.

Cassard: m. A chest-like couer, a case-like receptacle; also, a Buzzard.

Cassation: f. A cassation; a quashing, cassing, breaking; abrogating, annulling, infringing.

Cassaudes

Cassaudes: f. Daisies; or, Bruizewort.
Casse: f. The drug, or spice tearmed Casia; or as;
Casse aromatique. The aromaticall wood, barke, or bastard Cinnamon, tearmed Casia.
Casse de bois. The same.
Casse des iardins. A sweet hearbe; which is held to be Lauender spike.
Casse laxative. Casia fistula, Pudding pipe.
Casse nigre. as Casse laxative.
Casse: f. A box, case, or, chest, to carrie, or keepe wares in; also, a Marchants cash, or counter; also, any chest, casket, or cabinet; also, a coffin, or shrine; also, a dripping-pan; also, an open mouthed pan, or vessell of earth, &c, fit to boyle things, or set plants, in; also, the hollow part of the sole of a horse-foot.
Casse pointuë. A fashion of a small boyling panne, which hath a narrow, or pointed bottome.
Cassé: m. ée: f. Broken, burst, quasht in peeces; also, cassed, casseered; cancelled; also, decayed, worne, or broken with age.
Voix cassée. A weake, hoarse, or whizzing voyce.
Aujourd'uy caisier demain cassé: Prov. To day in request, to morrow cassed.
Casse-loix. Lawes-infringing, disorderlie, exorbitant, outragious.
Casse-moeurs. Manners-breaking, rude, sauage, unciuile.
Casse-mussaux. Cheese-cakes; or, a kind of thick, and three-cornered, or horned cakes, made of butter, egges, and cheese.
Casse-noix: m. A cracke-nut, or nut-cracker; also, a kind of little mountaine Daw, speckled, as an old Starling, all ouer with white.
Casse-pot: m. A sport wherein (the gamesters standing in rowes) one tosseth an earthen pot at another, who if he catcheth it not, falling it breakes, and hee forfeyteth.
Casser. To breake, burst, crash in peeces, quash asunder; also, to casse, casseere, discharge, turne out of seruice, depriue of entertainment; also, to infringe, annull, cancell, abrogate.
Casser la noisille. To cracke the nut; also, to cogge a Dye.
La langue humaine n'a point d'os, & casse poictrine & dos. A Prouerbe expressing the force of a malicious, enraged, or infected tongue.
Qui a des noix il en casse, & qui n'en a il s'en passe: Prov. Many, when they haue superfluities, can vse them, and when they haue none, can want them.
Casserie: f. A breaking, or quashing; a discharging; an infringing, or cancelling.
Casserins: m. Tills, drawers, or boxes in a presse, or cabinet.
Casseron: m. The Sleeue, or Calamarie; a fish, thats somewhat longer than the Cuttle, or Sea-cut, but otherwise resembles her; also, a vessell somewhat like a posnet, but without feet.
Cassetin: m. A little chest, casket, or cabinet; small forcer, cash, or counter; box, till, or drawer.
Cassette: f. A little shallow box, case, or vessell made of boords to put flowers, or branches of small trees in; also, a small casket, chest, cabinet, or forcer; also, a box, till, drawer; also, a small coffin, or shrine; also, a little trough for birds meat; also, a little frying pan.
Casseur: m. A breaker, burster, quasher; casser; canceller.
Casseure: f. The battering, or cracking of a vessell; any breaking, or bursting in peeces; also, a cassing, discharging, cancelling.
Cassidonie: f. A Cassidonie; a base, and brittle stone, of small value, though it shine like fire; also, a kind of excellent marble.
Cassier. The tree that beares the fruit Casia.
Cassignon: m. A pump, or thin-soled shooe.
Cassine: f. A banketing house; a graunge, out-house, or Summer-house in the fields; also, a little ware-house; also, a little Terrace-garden, or garden before a window.
Cassoire: f. A whip: ¶Pic.
Cassole: f. A coffin, box, or casket for perfumes; &c; also, as Casole.
Cassolette. A little chest, coffin, box, or casket to put sweet, or precious things in; also, a kind of smal pot with a narrow mouth, resembling a perfuming pot; also, a little pipkin, or posnet.
Cassolle. as Casole; or Cassole.
Casson: m. A great chest, binne, hutch, or standard.
Cassonade: f. Powder Sugar; especially, such as comes from Brasile.
Cassure. as Casseure.
Castadour: m. A Pioner.
Castagnettes: f. Finger-knackers, wherewith Players, &c, make a prettie noyse in some kind of daunces.
Castagneux: m. The little water-fowle, called a Dobchicke, or Dydopper.
Castagnole: f. A big finned, and chestnut-coloured sea-fish, in season about the Spring time, but then withall so common, that the better sort of people care not for it: ¶Marseillois.
Castagnon. A certaine fish that maketh a nest in the water; See Roquau.
Castaign: m. aigne. Chestnut-coloured; of, or like a chestnut.
Castaigne: f. A scallop-like peece of yron in the midst, or mouth, of an old fashioned bit.
Castaloigne. A Spanish couerlet, or rug.
Caste. Looke Chaste.
Castillan: m. A Spanish waight proportionable vnto the Peso, which in gold comes to viij. s. sterling, in siluer to iiij. s. or thereabouts.
Castillaniser. To imitate or affect Spanish fashions, or humors; to play the Spaniard; (hence) also, to speake big, stand on proud tearmes, take verie much vpon him.
Castille: f. Castile (the noblest part of Spaine;) also, contention, debate, brabling, altercation; whence, Ils sont en Castille. There is a iarre betwixt them; and;
Prendre la castille pour autruy. To vndertake another mans quarrell.
Pierre de castille. Lime-stone.
Castillier: m. The wild Gooseberrie shrub.
Caston: m. The beazill, collet, or head of a ring, &c; wherein the stone is enchaced.
Castor: m. The beast called a Beuer.
Castorée: m. as Castoreum.
Castoreum. The stinking oyle of Beuers stones; or rather an oylie liquor, contained in two pouches which cleaue vnto either side of the Groine of both male, and female, Beuers; (each of those pouches being as big as a large henne egge, whereas the stones of the male are no bigger than a cocks stones, and one fastened vnto his backbone.)
Castrametation. The pitching, or measuring out, of a campe.
Castromantie. Read Gastromantie: ¶Rab.

Casuel : m. elle : f. Casuall, accidentall; vncertaine, transitorie; happening by chance.
Parties casuelles. The sale of Offices, or the reuenue which the king makes thereof; Seeke Partie.
Casuellement. Accidentally, casually, by hap, or habhab; vncertainly; transitorily.
Casuiste : m. A casuist; one that writes of the cases of conscience.
Catachrese : f. The abuse, or necessarie vse of one word for lacke of another more proper.
Catachrestique. Abusiue; or vsed, though improper, for want of that which would be more proper.
Catadoupes. as Catadupes.
Catadupes. The falls of Nilus; or, certaine high places where that riuer violently falling, makes a roaring, or horrible noise.
Cataglottiser. To kisse with the tongue.
Cataglottisme. A kisse, or kissing with the tongue.
Catagmatique : com. Of, or belonging to broken bones, or the breaking of bones; also, healing, or closing such breaches.
Catalepsie : f. A disease comming of the braine, distempered with drinesse, and cold.
Catalogue : m. A Catalogue, list, rowle, Register, Kalender, enumeration, recension, recitall of names, matters, &c.
Catalongne : f. A (white) Spanish rug; or, a course couerlet of Catologna.
Cataminy. womens flowers.
Cataplasme : m. A cataplasme, or poultis; a (soft, or moist) plaister.
Cataplasme de chair de vautour avec les vifs. Wee say, a plaister of warme guts (wherein leacherie is meant.)
Catapuce grande. The hearbe Kicke, or Ticke, Recinus, Palma Christi.
Catapuce petite. Garden Spurge.
Catapulte : f. A sling, or warlike engine, whereout great arrowes, or darts were shot.
Cataracte : f A violent fall of waters from a high and steepe place; also, a strong yron-bound chest, open in the top, and set with pikes in the bottome, thereby to sticke fast, and steadily where it is to stand; (vsed especially in water-workes;) also, a Cataract, or web in the eye.
Catarré. See Catarrhé.
Catarrhe : m. A rhewme, or catarre.
Catarrhé : m.ée : f. Troubled with rhewme.
Catarrheux : m.euse : f. Rhewmaticke, full of catarres, or of the rhewme.
Catastre. as Cadastre.
Catastrophe. A Catastrophe, conclusion, last act, or part of a play; the shutting vp of a matter; also, th'vtter ruine, subuersion, destruction, fatall, or finall, end of.
Catecliſme. A deluge, illuvion, or inundation : ¶Rab.
Catefique : com. Sad, heauie, sorrowfull, in melancholie, full of pensiuenesse, and hanging downe the head withall; (vsed in my Author (by one that would haue spoken learnedly) for short winded, or troubled with the Tisicke.)
Catagide. An ayrie inflamation : ¶Rab.
Categorique : com. Cathegoricall; plaine, authenticall, alreadie resolued on.
Categoriquement. Cathegorically, plainely, roundly, without wrangling, to the purpose.
Catel. A chattell; or, a thing, which (though of it selfe it be immouable) is diuided, deuised, and held, as a mouable; or as Cateud.
Catelongne : f. as Catelonne.
Catelonne : f. A white Spanish rug; or, a course, and rough couerlet of Catalogna (in Spaine.)
Catepleure : f. A crosse sayle; (such as is vsed in Carauels, Gallies, Hoyes, &c;) a smacke, or mizzen sayle.
Caterolle : f. A rabbets nest; or, the hole wherin a (Doe) conie keeps, and feeds her yong ones.
Caterve : f. A rout, crue, band, troupe, vncertaine number, confused multitude.
Cateud. A chattell; or, not onely a mouable (which may follow a bodie, and be remoued from place to place) but also, any immouable, that is no inheritance.
Cateul. as Catel.
Cathartique. A purgatiue, or euacuatiue; a purging medicine.
Cathechiser. To catechise.
Cathedral : m. ale : f. Cathedrall; of, or belonging to, a Cathedrall church; and hence;
Eglise cathedrale. A Minster, or Cathedrall church.
Cathedrant : m. ante : f. Sitting as Iudge, or moderator.
Cathedratique. A certaine fee, or duetie, belonging to a Bishop when he is first inuested into his sea.
Cathegorie : f. A predicament.
Cathelane. The name of an excellent plum; whereof there are three kinds, the greene, white one, and violet one.
Cathene : f. A chaine; whence; Mat de cathene. A furious, or enraged foole.
Catheretique : com. Eating, or gnawing away superfluous, and ouer-eminent flesh, or skin.
Catherinaire. The hearbe Tobacco.
Catherine. The bramble berrie, blacke-berrie; dewberrie; the berrie of the haire bramble, or heath bramble.
Catherinettes : f. Certaine prettie flowers (lesse than pinkes) growing in clusters, or many together on one stalke.
Cathet : m. Cathete : f. Perpendicular, plumpe downe
Catheux. A kind of mouables, although they adhere to the soyle, or be fastened to a house.
Catholicon. A certaine composition in Physicke, so tearmed, because it purges all kind of humors.
Catholique : com. Catholicke, vniuersall, generall.
Catholisation : f. The being, or becomming a Catholicke.
Catholizer. To catholikize it, play the Catholicke, become a Catholicke.
Cati : m. ie : f. Clapped close vnto, thrust hard together; hard, or close wouen; (for it is a weauers tearme.)
Catilinisme. Catilinisme, conspiracie.
Catinimi. In corners, vnder-hand, in hugger mugger.
Catir. To close, to settle, to thrust hard together, in weauing; (for it is a weauers tearme.)
Catoblepe : f. A kind of Basiliske, or venomous worme, which with her sight kils a mile off.
Catoire. A bee-hiue.
Catonien : m. enne : f. Graue, seuere; grim, austere; censuring euery bodie.
Catons. des ca. Catkins, cattails, aglets, or aglet-like blowings of nut-trees, &c.
Catopromantie : f. Diuination by a looking glasse.
Catouiller. as Chatouiller; To tickle : ¶Pic.
Cattel. A chattell, or mouable : ¶Wallon.

Droict

Droict du meilleur cattel. A Heriot: the beſt beaſt a Tenant hath, at the time of his death, due vnto his Landlord.
Cavailler. as Cavallier.
Cavain: m. A hole, caue, hollownes, hollow place, hollow way.
Cavalcade: f. A riding, or, a road of horſe; whence;
Faire la cavalcade. To courſe, or raunge vp & downe on horſebacke.
Cavalcador. A Horſeman, a Rider.
Cavale: f. A mare.
Cavaler. To ſtaulke, to dog; See Cavaller.
Cavalet: m. A long hollow ſticke, through which they vſe, in ſome places, to blow the fire, in ſtead of bellowes.
Cavalier: m. A horſeman, or man of armes; a caualeere; alſo, a gallant; a noble, or worthie, fellow.
Cavalin: m. A litle horſe.
Cavalle: f. A mare.
Cavallé: m. ée. f. Ridden; trauelled on; toyled; alſo, ſtaulked, or dogged.
Cavaller. To ride; alſo, to trauell, toyle, vſe like, or as, a horſe; alſo, to ſtaulke, or dog.
Cavallerie: f. Horſemanſhip; alſo horſemen.
Cavallet des planches. The higheſt, or moſt-raiſed, part of garden-beds.
Cavallette. A kind of Locuſt.
Cavallier: m. A high platforme in a fortreſſe, to plant great peeces on; alſo, as Cavalier.
Cavallin. as Cavalin.
Cavalot. A certein coyne worth about iij.s. alſo, a nag, or little horſe.
Caubare: m. A ſandie coulored and verie venomous ſerpent, of a cubits length.
Caucheaux. Taxes payed vnto Lords in Henault towards the maintaining of common bankes, or cauſeyes.
Caucheinare. The diſeaſe called the Night-mare.
Cauche-poulet, or Cauche-vieille, as Cauchemare.
Caucher. To hatch, or ſit on; to broode, or ſit ouer; as hennes do their chickens; or, as Cauquer; to tread a henne.
Cauciage. as, Caucheaux.
Caudataire: com. A traine-bearer; one that beares vp the traine of a great perſon.
Caudelée: f. A cawdell: (in la Beauſſe.)
Cauderet: m. A hot bath; called ſo in the countrey of Bearn, where Chaude is pronounced, Caude.
Caudice: m. The ſtocke, ſtumpe, or bodie of a tree, or ſhrub.
Cave: f. A caue, cellar, vault, or hollow place in the ground.
Eau beniſte de cave. wine; ſtrong drinke.
Marier la cave & le puis. To mingle wine and water together.
Cauë: f. A Chough, or Iacke-daw: ¶Pic.
Cavé. Holloweu, made hollow; digged into.
Caveau: m. A litle caue, or ſellar.
Cavechure: f. A haulter; or, thing to haulter with: ¶Pic.
Caveçon: m. A cauechin, or cauеſſon, for a horſes noſe.
Cavedal: m. The principall ſumme lent out to vſe.
Cavelade: f. A kind of ray-fiſh of a verie hard ſubſtance, (and therefore none of the daintieſt.)
Cavelot: m. A prop, ſtay, or treſſle: ¶Pic.
Cavement: m. A hollowing, or making hollow; an excauation; a digging into.
Cavenne de bergier: f. a Shepheards cote; litle cottage, or cabine made of turues, ſtraw, boughes, or leaues.
Caver. To hollow, or make hollow; to dig into.
Cavereau: m. A little caue, or ſellar.
Caverne: f. A denne, cauerne, grot; hollow place; lurking hole, priuie corner.
Caverneau: m. A little caue, or cauerne.
Caverneux: m. euſe: f. Hollow, full of dennes, caues, holes; alſo, dwelling in caues, abiding in dennes, lurking in holes.
Caveſanne: f. A caueſan, falſe-raine, or head-ſtraine (commonly of ſilke) to lead, or hold, a horſe by.
Caveſche: f. The head (barbarouſly.)
Caveſine. Frowardly. (v.m.)
Caveſot: m. A Pole-head, or Bull-head; the little black vermine whereof toads, and frogs do come.
Caveſſane. as Caveſanne.
Caveſſine: f. A martingale for a horſe.
Caveſſon. as Caveçon.
Cavette: f. A little ſellar; alſo, a little caue, denne, vault, hole, vnder ground.
Caüette: f. A Chough, or Jack-daw: ¶Pic.
Caveure: f. A hole, a hollow; a hollowing.
Cauhare. See Caubare.
Cavier. Seigneur c. A Landlord, or Lord of the ſoyle, who hath low iuriſdiction ouer his tenants.
Cavillateur: m. A wrangler, cauiller, contentious fellow.
Cavillation. A cauill; a wrangling propoſition, ouerthwart reaſon; alſo, a cauilling.
Cavillatoire. Wrangling, cauilling.
Caviller. To cauill, wrangle, reaſon croſſely, ſpeake ouerthwartly.
Cavillon. A kind of litle Mullet.
Cavin: m. A hollow way, or dry brooke.
Cavine: f. The bottome of the mouth wherein the root of the tongue is.
Cavité: f. A cauitie, hollowneſſe; hollow way; or hollow place.
Caule: m. The ſtalke, or ſtemme of an hearbe; alſo, the hearbe Colewort.
Caulebaſſe: f. A gourd; or, a bottle made of the rind thereof.
Caulodis: m. Cabbidges.
Cault. as Chaud; Hot: ¶Pic. alſo, as Caut; craftie.
Caumas. Hot: ¶Gaſc.
Cauné. The name of a kind of vine.
Caune. A certaine fiſh, not much vnlike vnto a Pearch.
Cauny. as Peneux (at Tours.)
Cauque: f. A tent (for a wound;) and hence;
Quand la fille peſe vn auque on luy peut mettre la cauque: Prov.
Cauqué: m. ée: f. Trodden, as a henne; tented, as a wound.
Cauquemare. as Cauchemare: ¶Pic.
Cauquer. To tread a henne, as a cocke doth: ¶Norm. alſo, to tent a wound: ¶Gaſc.
Cauquier. as Cauquer: ¶Pic.
Causaïan: m. A wrangler, brangler, brabling or litigious perſon.
Causateur: m. A Suiter, a partie contending; a partie in a ſuit, or in law.
Cauſativement. Litigiouſly; alſo, cauſatiuely, or, for a cauſe.
Cauſe: f. A cauſe, reaſon, or occaſion; alſo, a caſe, matter, buſineſſe, or ſuit in law.

Tel a bonne cauſe qui eſt condemné : Pro. A good cauſe often ſpeeds but badly ; or right ſometimes is condemned as wrong.

Cauſer. To cauſe ; bring, or be the occaſion of ; alſo, to contend, wrangle, brawle, ſtriue together in words ; alſo, to prattle, babble, talke idly, reaſon fooliſhly, vſe much ſpeech to little purpoſe.

Cauſereſſe : f. A ſcowld, a brabling woman ; alſo, a tatling huſwife, pratling goſſip.

Cauſerie : f. A pratling, talking, babling ; idle ſpeech, vaine talke, tedious diſcourſing.

Cauſeur. as Cauſaian ; alſo, a babler, pratler, tatler, iangler, idle talker ; one whoſe tongue neuer reſts ; alſo, in old law-bookes) as Cauſateur ; a partie in a ſuit, or in law.

Cauſeuſe : f. as Cauſeuſſe.

Cauſſe d'vn Ayſement. The bottome of a iakes ; the roome, or place wherein th'ordure lyes.

Cauſtique : com. Cauſticke ; burning, ſcaulding, ſcorching the skinne ; alſo, ſmacking of ſalt, or, of a ſharpe taſt.

Caut : m. caute : f. Craftie, ſubtile, wilie, ſly ; warie, aduiſed, cunning, circumſpect.

Cauteleuſement. Cautelouſly, ſubtily, cunningly, ſlily, craftily, deceitfully, ouerreachingly.

Cauteleux : m. euſe : f. Cautelous, deceitfull, guilefull, craftie, couſening ; full of ſleights, wiles, fetches, reaches.

Cautelle : f. A wile, cautell, ſleight ; a craftie reach, or fetch, guilefull deuiſe or endeuor ; alſo, craft, ſubtiltie, trumperie, deceit, couſenage.

Cauteller. To deceiue, beguile, couſen, ouerreach.

Cautement. Slily, craftily, cunningly, ſubtily, warily, circumſpectly, aduiſedly.

Cautere : m. A cauter ; a ſearing hot yron ; or, (more generally) any thing thats applied to burne, and is burning, or boyling, hot.

Cautere actuel. An actuall cauter ; ſuch a one as burnes actually, and incontinently ; as, ſcaulding oyle, red-hot mettall ; wood through-burnt, &c.

Cautere à bouton. The button cauter ; ſmooth, and headed like a button ; fit to cauterize a part, whereof the skinne is onely to be opened for an iſſue.

Cautere circulaire. The circular cauter ; is made of fiue pointed buttons, ſet round, or in a ring, thereby to worke the more effectually.

Cautere claval. A certain cauter that goes little deeper than the skinne.

Cautere cultellaire. The knife cauter ; is like a knife with a thicke back, which holding the heat long makes it in working the more effectuall.

Cautere dactilaire. The date cauter ; ſo called, becauſe faſhioned like a date ſtone.

Cautere dorſal. The backe cauter ; or, that kind of knife-like cauter which cuts but on th'one ſide.

Cautere emporte-piece. The wimble-cauter ; round, hollow, and cutting ; and fit to cauterize, with leaſt flux of bloud, the skinne of the head when tis to be opened by a Trepane.

Cautere enſal. The ſword-cauter ; made like the point of a two-edged ſword.

Cautere olivaire. The oline cauter ; tearmed ſo, becauſe made like an oliue ſtone.

Cautere à platine. The plate cauter ; a kind of flat cauter, wherewith members cut off are ſeared, to preuent corruption, and Gangrenes.

Cautere potentiel. A potentiall cauter ; is any cauſticke, or burning medicine, ſalue, or compound, and is tearmed otherwiſe Ruptoire, and Veſicatoire.

Cautere punctual. The punctuall, or pointed cauter ; is almoſt ſquare, and altogether ſharpe pointed, and fit to open impoſtumes.

Cauteriſation : f. A cauteriſation, or cauterizing.

Cauterizé : m. ée : f. Cauterized ; burned, ſeared, or cloſed vp with fire, or fierie medicines.

Cauterizer. To cauterize ; to ſeare, burne, or cloſe vp with fire, or fire-hot inſtruments, yrons, ointments, medicines, &c.

Cauteſſe : f. as Cautelle.

Caution : f. A caution ; a ſuertie, pledge, or bayle for ; alſo, bailing, ſuertiſhip, ſecuritie.

Caution bourgeoiſe. Looke Bourgeois.

O la bonne caution : ¶Iron. He is an honeſt man ſure ; I would not take his word for a button.

Cautionnage. as Caution ; Bailing, ſuertiſhip.

Cautionné : m. ée : f. Bayled, bound with ſuertie, that hath put in ſuerties.

Cautionner. To be bound, become ſuertie, enter into baile.

Cautionneur : m. A ſuertie, pledge, baile.

Cauvette. A chough, or Jacke-daw : ¶Pic.

Cay. as Quay ; Alſo, a Semy-colon ; vſed in the end of an imperfect period, and marked thus |;|.

Cayer : m. A quire of written paper ; a peece of a written booke diuided into equall parts.

Caymander. as Caimander.

Caymanderie. as Caimanderie.

Caymant : m. A certaine great Lizard, or Crocodile that liues in hot riuers.

Cayreux : m. euſe : f. Worme-eaten, or moath-eaten.

Cayſſeron. A little cheſt, or coffer of wood : ¶Langued.

Cayſſon : m. A wooden cheſt, or coffer : ¶Langued.

Cazole. as Caſole.

Cazot : m. A cote, or ſmall houſe.

Ce. (A Pronowne demonſtratiue) this ; alſo, that ; alſo, it ; and, (going before any (plurall) termination of the Verbe Eſtre) theſe, or thoſe : Put after that Verbe, in a queſtion, tis as the Latine Interrogatiue Ne ; as, eſt ce ma femme ? ſera ce demain qu'il viendra ? Is this my wife or no ? or, Is not this my wife ? What ? will he come to morrow ? or, Will he not come to morrow ? Looke Cet.

Ceans. Here within ; in this place ; in this houſe.

Cebo : m. A little hulch-backt, miſhapen, or ill-fauoured ſtarueling.

Ceci. as Cecy.

Ceciliane : f. The water chaine of a bit.

Cecilie : f. The blindworme, or ſloworme.

Cecine : f. Beefe growne drie, & red with long hanging by the fire ; Martlemas beefe.

Cecité : f. Blindneſſe, darkeneſſe ; vncertaintie.

Cecy. (A Pronowne demonſtratiue) this, this here, euen this, this very thing.

Ceder. To yeeld, grant, or giue place to ; to giue, grant, or make ouer vnto ; To leaue, or part with.

Cedre : m. The Cedar tree.

Cedre aigu. The crimzon, or pricklie Cedar.

Cedre Lycien. The rough Cedar of Lycia.

Cedre Phoenicien. as Cedre aigu.

Cedre ſapin. The Cedar of Libanus ; the great cone-bearing Cedar.

Grand Cedre. The ſame.

Petit Cedre. The little, or low Cedar ; the crimzon, or pricklie Cedar.

Cedrelate : m. The great Cedar.

Cedriac. A kind of Pome-citron, called ſo in Prouence.

Cedride : f. The fruit, or berrie of the low Cedar.

Cedrie : f. The rozen, or pitch that iſſues from the great Cedar.

Cedrin : m. The ſiskin ; a little yellowiſh bird that reſembles the Canarie bird ; but ſings more, and more ſweetly, than ſhe.

Cedule : f. A cedule ; a ſcrowle, hand-writing, or priuat inſtrument in writing ; a bill, obligation, acquitance, &c, ſigned onely with his hand that paſſeth it ; alſo, an addition, or ſcrowle annexed vnto a Teſtament, or other deed.

Ceguë : f. Hemlocks.

Ceinct : m. A girdle ; a band, or ſtring to hold a thing in with.

Ceinct : m. cte : f. Girt, begirt, beſet about ; enuironed, incompaſſed, incloſed, held, or hemd in on all ſides.

Ceinctes : f. The bends, or wales of a ſhip ; the thicke ledges that compaſſe th'outſides thereof.

Ceincture : f. A girdle ; alſo, the waſtband of a hoſe, or doublet.

Ceincture ardente. The fierie Zone, ſeated between the two Tropickes, and ordinarily called, Torrida Zona.

Ceincture à bourſe. A large, and double belt, &c, vſed in old time, both as a purſe, and a girdle.

Ceincture à crouppiere. A belt, arming girdle, or ſword girdle of the old faſhion.

Ceincture dorée. A golden girdle ; (in former times worne onely by ſuch as went for honeſt women ; for noted whoores were forbidden it ; yet,

Bonne renommée vaut mieux que ceincture dorée : Prov. A good report excells all ornaments.

Ceincture de dueil. See Dueil.

La ceincture de la Royne. A certaine pecuniarie right, or taxe due vnto the Queene of France ; Looke Royne.

Abandonner ſa ceincture. A woman to giue ouer the adminiſtration, or diſpoſition of her deceaſed and indebted husbands goods ; (a phraſe appliable alſo vnto any Adminiſtrator ; See Quiter la ceincture ; apres.)

Iecter ſa ceincture à terre. Looke Iecter.

Les mains pendues à leur ceincture : Ils penſent qui leurs femmes tiennent les mains, &c. They thinke their wiues liue peakingly at home, and pull ſtrawes, plucke daiſies, picke ruſhes, or blow their fingers ; generally the phraſe imports, an idle, and lazie faſhion, or poſture.

Parler deſſous la ceincture. A certaine tricke in priſons ; Looke Parler.

Large de bouche, & eſtroict de ceincture. Open mouthed, but cloſe handed.

Il a perdu ſa ceincture. He hath neither money, nor meanes left him ; all is gone.

Les pouces à la ceincture. Idly, ſloathfully, careleſly ; or, as Les mains penduës à leur ceincture.

Quiter la ceincture. To breake, to fall bankrupt, to giue ouer his trade, to ſhut vp his ſhop windowes ; (In old time when men wore their gownes cloſe girt about them (as the Romanes did, and of latter dayes our countrey-men) bankrupts were forbidden wearing of girdles, that the decay of their eſtate being made notorious, their deceitfull fetches might be preuented ; And euen in theſe times, if a man want a girdle, ſome will merily demaund, if he be not bankrupt.)

Ceincturé : m. ée : f. Girt.

Ceincturer. as Ceindre ; To gird, or put on a girdle.

Ceincturette. A little girdle.

Ceincturon. Looke Ceinturon.

Ceindre. To gird, begird ; enuiron, incompaſſe, hold, or hem in on all ſides.

Ceint : m. te : f. Looke Ceinct.

Ceinture. Looke Ceincture.

Ceinturier : m. A girdle-maker.

Ceinturon : m. A ſhort, or ſmall girdle ; alſo the ſtrap, or ſide-peece of a paire of hangers.

Ceiſan. A vaſſall, or ſubiect vnto a Lord : ¶ Bearnois.

Cela. (A Pronowne demonſtratiue of the ſecond, and third perſon) that, euen that ; alſo, the act you wot of.

Celade : f. A Sallate, or headpeece.

Cele. A kind of preſerue.

Celé : m. ée : f. Hidden, concealed, kept ſecret ; couered, diſſembled.

Celebration : f. A celebration, ſolemnizing, celebrating ; alſo, a renowning ; a making famous, or glorious.

Celebre : com. Famous, renowmed, glorious, honourable.

Celebré : m. ée : f. Celebrated, or ſolemnized with great aſſemblies ; alſo, magnified, renowmed, exceedingly honoured.

Celebrer. To celebrate, or ſolemnize, with great aſſemblies of people ; alſo, to magnifie, make renowmed, ſpread abroad the reputation, or fame of.

Celebrité : f. Celebritie ; glorie, honour, renowme, famouſneſſe, a good name, a great report in the world.

Celément. Secretly, couertly, biddenly, priuily, by ſtealth.

Celer. To hide, conceale, keepe ſecret, couer, cloake, diſſemble.

Celerier : m. The Yeoman of a ſellar.

Celerin : m. A little, yellow-headed, and white-bodied fiſh, liuing in the ſea (and in ſome lakes) and reſembling the Sardinos ſo neere, that many take it to bee the ſame.

Celerité : f. Celeritie, ſpeedineſſe, haſt, ſwiftneſſe, lightneſſe, nimbleneſſe.

Celeſte : com. Celeſtiall, heauenly, diuine.

Paön celeſte. A wild Peacocke.

Celeſtiel : m. elle : f. Celeſtiall, heauenlie.

Celeume. The ſhowt, or noyſe that Mariners make when they weigh anker, or do any other office in the ſhip with ioyned ſtrength ; an encouraging ſound.

Celiac : m. aque : f. Whence ; Le flux celiac. A continuall thinne flux cauſed by the weakeneſſe of the ſtomacke, and accompanied with fretting, or paine in the belly.

Maladie celiaque. An extreame weakeneſſe, and diſabilitie of diſgeſtion, in the ſtomacke, accompanied with a moſt thinne, or waterie flux.

Celiaque : com. Troubled with belly-ache, or fretting, and a continuall flux proceeding from the weakeneſſe of the ſtomacke.

Celibat : m. Single-life ; the condition, or eſtate of an vnmaried perſon.

Celibe : com. Vnmaried, ſingle ; ſolitarie, alone.

Celidoine : f. The hearbe Celandine, Tetterwort, Swallowwort ; Looke Chelidoine.

Celier : m. A ſellar, or (more properly) a roome, aboue ground, to lay wine in ; for your vault vnder-ground, is better expreſſed by, Cave.

Celique. as Celeſte.

Celivage : com. Heauen-faire ; heauen-affecting ; wending, ding, or bending, towards heauen.

Celle: f. The house, or mansion of, and a communitie of goods among, villeines, or persons of a seruile condition; their children also, being at schoole, or in seruice, by their parents appointment, are said to be, en la Celle.

Celle. The feminine of Celuy; she.

Cellerage. Sellerage; a duetie payed for the laying of wine into sellars.

Ceilerier: m. A Butler, Drawer; Yeoman of the Sellar.

Celoce. A kind of swift Brigantine, or Pinace, deuised, at first, by the Rhodians: ¶Rab.

Celsitude: f. Celsitude, highnesse, excellencie; (tearmes conferred on Princes.)

Celuy: m. celle: f. The same.

Celuy-là. That same (man, &c.)

Ciment: m. Cement; a strong, and cleauing morter, made (for the most part) of tyles, potshards, glasse, flint, the drosse of yron, &c, beaten to dust, and incorporated with lime, oyle, grease, rozen, and water; Looke Ciment.

Cemetiere: m. A churchyard.

De nouveau medecin cemetiere bossu: Prov. An vnexperienced Physitian fattens the churchyard.

Veau mal cuict, & poules creuds font les cemetieres bossus: Prov. Raw veale, and chickens make fat churchyards.

Cemiterre. A Scimitar, or Turkish sword.

Cenacle. Looke Senacle.

Cencer. To recken, esteeme, account among his reuenue; to number, tell, muster; also, to rate, assesse, taxe, value, prize.

Cenchre: m. A greenish Serpent, or Snake, whose bodie is couered all ouer with skales, and spots resembling Millet seeds; (those that be stung by him fall into a Letargie, and sleeping, die;) or as;

Cenchrite. A greene, and swift-gliding Serpent, big about the head, verie small towards the tayle, and full of Mill-resembling spots (onely) on the bellie; or as Cenchre.

Cenchryne. as Cenchrite.

Cencive. as Cens; Also an inheritance held by, or subiect vnto, Cens; also, the title of; or a Tenure by, Cens.

Cendre: f. Ashes; cynders; imbers.

Cendre gravelée. Ashes made of the burnt lees, or dregs of wine.

Cendre des Orfevres. as Cendrées des Orfevres.

Le jour des Cendres. Ashwednesday.

Quittons les cendres. Lets quit our vnworthie stay, or sluggish life, at home.

Cendré: m. ée: f. Ashie, ash-like; of ashes; also, ash-coloured.

Cendrée: f. A melting, or purifying of siluer, &c, in ashes; also, a wedge, barre, lumpe, or ball of siluer, &c, so melted; also, an ash-heape; and, a place, or thing, burnt vnto ashes.

Cendrées, & laveures des Orfevres. The ashie mammockes, or bits of mettall, and drosse found, after a melting, in a Goldsmithes furnace, and among the sweepings of his shop; These the Finer puts into a vessell, and hauing washed them, pickes out that which is worth ought from among them.

Argent de cendrée. Fine, or purified siluer (of xj. d. eighteene grains finesse) which the finers make at first into wedges, and marke them with their puncheons, thereby vndertaking for the goodnesse, and value thereof.

Cendrée sauvage. Wild Marierome, groue Marierome, Organ, Origanie.

Cendreux: m. euse: f. Ashie, full of ashes; also, pale, wanne, lew, of a dead, colour or complexion; also, lither, sluggish, idle; whose nose is euer hanging ouer the fire; and hence;

Au Chat cendreux jamais ne tombe rien en gueule: Prov. The idle house-doue neuer getteth ought.

Cendrier: A maker, or seller of ashes; also, a place to keepe, or corner to throw, ashes in; also, a sluggard, slowbacke, idlesbie; house-doue; one that sits lurking in the chimney corner.

Cendroyé: m. ée: f. Burnt vnto, or turned into, ashes.

Cendroyer. To burne vnto, or turne into, ashes.

Cene: f. A supper; (a word not much vsed but by those of the Religion, who thereby meane, the Lords Supper.)

Cenglade: f. A yerke, lash, or stripe with a girth.

Cengle: f. A girth (for a horse;) Looke Sangle.

Il en avoit tout le long des cengles. Hee was coursed, cudgelled, or chidden soundly; also, hee had taken in his full lading of liquor.

Cenglé: m. ée: f. girt, girded.

Cengler. To gird, or girth.

Cenotaphe: m. A monument, hearse, or emptie tombe erected in memorie, or to the honour, of a great Person.

Cens: m. Rent of Assise, Quit rent, old rent, chiefe rent; the first pecuniarie charge thats layed on conquered, or vnrented land, as a signe, or in acknowledgement, of the direct Seignorie of him that grants it: This charge had it originall from the first conquest of Gallia by the French; whose Princes giuing whole territories vnto their Captaines, they made a diuision thereof among their souldiours, and the naturall inhabitants of the countrey, on condition, that those should assist, and attend them in the warres (which condition, being a trust, they intitled, Fief*) and that these should till their land, and pay vnto them for it such yearely rents, or tributes, as they had formerly yeelded the Romanes (by whome those rents, &c, were tearmed* Census;) and thus this charge imposed at first as a resemblance of former seruitude, continues to this day a marke of a base, or seruile, Tenure.

Cens capital. A chiefe, or capitall Cens; chiefe rent.

Cens à cherchage. Which must bee demaunded by Lord Censuel, or his deputie, of the Tenant, or detayner of the inheritance, that yeelds it; therein different from that Cens which is payable at a place, and day, certaine.

Cens à cher pris. A racked Cens, which verie neere counteruailes the yearely reuenue of the land, and which being extraordinarie, and chargeable to the tenant he is thereby discharged of the Ventes, and Relevoisons, which the ordinarie Cens carries with it.

Cens à iour nommé. Looke Nommé.

Cens mort. A Cens seck, or dead Cens; a Quit rent; which, besides it selfe, yeelds the Lord no manner of profit, or aduantage, at the death, or change of the tenant; (This Cens is no signe of direct Seignorie.)

Cens à queſte, ou requerable. as Cens à cherchage.
Cens rogo. The ſame.
Cens truant. A Cens ſecke, or dead Cens; a Quit Cens, or Quit rent; of no profit, or aduantage (other than what comes by it ſelfe) to the Lord, or owner thereof.
Chef Cens. A chiefe Cens, or chiefe rent.
Cher cens. Looke Cens à cher pris.
Droict cens. The firſt, capitall, or chiefe Cens; tearmed ſo belike, becauſe tis a marke of direct Seignorie.
Gros cens. A ſurcharge of Cens vpon a ſecond grant of land, which by reaſon thereof ſtands doubly charged; viz. both with the firſt Cens, which euer followes it; and with this, which euer exceeds the firſt; and is proportionable in ſome reſpects vnto a Fee-farme rent.
Menu cens. The firſt, capitall, or chiefe Cens; tearmed ſo becauſe tis commonly payed by pence, and halfepence; or exceeds not a verie ſmall proportion.
Premier cens; &, pur cens. The ſame; or, a Quit rent, a chiefe rent; a Cens of Aſſiſe.
Cenſable: com. For which, or to whom, Cens is due; alſo, which may be charged with Cens.
Cenſe: m. as Cens; alſo, a generall, and publicke valuation of priuate mens goods, and poſſeſſions.
Cenſe: f. A farme; alſo, Fee-farme.
Cenſé: m. ée: f. Reckoned, eſteemed, accounted; numbred, muſtered, among; alſo, rated, ſeſſed, taxed, valued, prized.
Cenſeable: com. For which, or to whom, Cens is due; alſo, which may be charged with a Cens.
Cenſer. To reckon, eſteeme, account among his reuenue; to number, tell, muſter; alſo, to rate, aſſeſſe, taxe, value, prize.
Cenſeur: m. A Cenſor; or Comptroller; a Maſter of diſcipline, reformer of manners, puniſher of diſorders.
Cenſier: m. A farmer, or Fee-farmer; one that payes a Quit rent, or chiefe rent for the land he holds; (generally) one that holds by the title of Cens.
Cenſier: m. ere: f. Of Cens; yeelding Cens; or, to whom Cens is due.
Iuſtice cenſiere. as Iuſtice Cenſuelle.
Cenſif: m. An inheritance, or eſtate in land thats held by Cens; alſo, the Seigneurie thereof.
Cenſif: m. iue: f. Cenſiue; held by the title of Cens; or for which Cens is due.
Cenſive: f. as Cens; Alſo, an inheritance held by, or ſubiect vnto, Cens; alſo, the title of, or a tenure by, Cens.
Cenſivement. By Cens; by the title of Cens.
Cenſivier. A farmer, or fee-farmer; one that payes a Quit rent, or chiefe rent for the land he holds; (generally) one that holds by the title of Cens.
Cenſorin: m. ine: f. Cenſor-like, cenſorious; auſtere, ſeuere, controlling, vnpartially correcting.
Cenſuel: m. elle: f. Cenſuall; of, or belonging to Cens; held by the title of Cens; whereto Cens is due; in regard whereof Cens is paied.
Iuſtice cenſuelle. Baſe, or low iuriſdiction, belonging to a Lord by reaſon, or for the recouerie, of his Cens, and Cenſuall rights.
Retraict cenſuel. Seeke Retraict.
Cenſure: f. A cenſure; admonition, animaduerſion, reproofe, reprehenſion (that includes a puniſhment;) a denouncement, or ſentence, of puniſhment.
La cenſure tourmente les Pigeons, laiſſant aller les Corbeaux libres: Prov. Cenſure tormenteth Doues, and freeth Rauens (ſo comes weake innocencie to the blocke, whileſt powerfull wickedneſſe is winked at.)
Cenſurer. To cenſure, controll, admoniſh, reproue with authoritie; to pronounce, or denounce a heauie ſentence againſt (an offendor.)
Cent. A hundred.
Centaure: m. A Centaure; one that is halfe a man, and halfe a horſe.
Centaurée. The hearbe Centorie.
Centaurée majeur. Great Centorie.
Centaurée mineur. Small Centorie, common Centorie.
Petite centaurée. The ſame.
Centeine: f. A hundred; the number, or proportion of a hundred; a Band, or companie of a hundred.
Par centeines. By hundreds, hundred by hundred, in great number, many together.
Centenaire: com. Of a hundred, containing the number of a hundred, of a hundred yeares continuance, a hundred yeares old.
Centenier: m. A Centurion, a Captaine, or Commaunder of a hundred ſouldiors, &c.
Centeſimer. To count, or cull out, by hundreds.
Centidoine: f. Centinodie; Knot-graſſe, Way-graſſe, Birds-tongue, Swines-graſſe, Bloud-wort, S. Innocents hearbe.
Centieſme: m. A hundreth; a rate, or proportion, of a hundreth; a bundle, or troupe, containing a hundreth.
Droict de centieſme. The hundreth part of a ſubiects goods, or the value thereof, exacted by ſome Soueraigne Lords.
Centieſme: com. The hundreth of.
Centine d'une roue: f. The boxe (or hole) of the naue of a wheele.
Centoire: f. The hearbe Centorie; as Centaurée.
Centon: m. A rapſodie; a confuſed heape, or collection of many different things; a mingle mangle of many matters in one booke.
Centonifique: com. Confuſedly heaping, or hudling many ſeuerall things together; making one worke of many different peeces.
Centre: m. A center; the verie middeſt, or point in the middeſt, of any round, or circled thing.
Centurie: f. A centurie, or hundreth of; alſo, a certaine quantitie of, or meaſure for, ground, amounting to two hundreth Iugera, or furlongs.
Cep: m. The ſtocke of a tree, or plant; alſo, a log, or clog, of wood; ſuch a one as is hung about the neck of a ranging curre.
Des ceps. A paire of Stockes for malefactors; alſo, (but leſſe properly) ſhackles, boults, fetters, &c.
Cepée: f. An hearbe thats verie like vnto Brooke-lime, or water Pimpernell (if it be not the ſame.)
Cependant. Neuertheleſſe, yet notwithſtanding, yet for all that; Cependant que. The whileſt that.
Ceper vne muraille. To vndermine, dig, breake, or cut downe a wall, at the foot.
Cephale: m. The Pollard fiſh.
Cephaleonomanie. Diuination by an aſſes head broyled on coles: Rab.
Cephalique: com. Good for the head, curing a diſeaſed head; of, or belonging to, the head.
Veine cephalique. The head Veine; Locke Veine.
Cepier: m. A goaler; one that lookes to the ſtocks; or hath charge of them, or of thoſe that are in them.

Cepride:

Cepride: m. Baulme.
Ceramite. Potters earth: ¶Rab. alſo, a pretious ſtone of the colour of a tyle.
Ceranvienne: f. A certaine pretious ſtone thats alwaies verie moiſt, and ſeemes to ſweat.
Ceraſte. A moſt venomous ſerpent, called otherwiſe (and the more properly in French) Serpent cornu; See Cornu.
Cerat: m. A Plaiſter made of Waxe, Gummes, &c, and certaine oyles; wee alſo, call it, a Cerot, or Searecloth.
Cerat ſandlin. The purple clout wherewith Cookes dye their Gellie; or, a Searecloth made of Saunders.
Ceraunobule. Thundering with Bulls; as the Pope.
Cerceau: m. A circle, ring; hoope; a round, or a round compaſſe; alſo, the Sercell, or Sarcell (feather) of a hawkes wing.
Cerceau craquetant. The ierting circle which a Peacocke makes with his taile, or a Turkie-cocke with his wings.
Cercelé: m. ée: f. Hooped; incircled; compaſſed with a round or circle; ſtreaked, or ſcored round as a circle.
Cerceler. To hoope, incircle; compaſſe with a round, or circle; ſtreake, or ſcore, round as a circle.
Cercelle: f. (The water-fowle called) a Teale.
Cerceller. as Cerceler.
Cercerelle: f. A rattle, clicket, or clapper; alſo, a kaſtrell, ſuckwind, ſteingall; alſo, a Teale.
Cercereulle. as Cercerelle (in the laſt ſence.) (v.m.)
Cerche: f. A ſearch, inquiſition, inquirie, ſeeking after.
Cerche ralongée. Th'inſtrument wherewith Maſons round, and faſhion, pillars.
Cerché: m. ée: f. Searched, ſought; hunted, inquired after; felt, groped, ſounded; traced.
Cercheſi. Looke Sercifi.
Cerchement: m. A ſearching, ſeeking, hunting, inquiring after; alſo, an inquiſition, or examination.
Cercher. To ſeeke, ſearch, hunt, looke, or inquire after; to trace, feele, grope, ſound.
Cercher le brouſt. To hunt after feaſts, to play the paraſite, or ſmell-feaſt.
Cercher chappe cheute. Looke Chappe.
Cercher midi ou il n'eſt qu'onze heures. To looke for a thing which is not, or, before it is, to bee had; alſo, to make faults of triſles; alſo, to ſeeke after his owne hurt, or to purchaſe his owne harme.
Cercher en vn mouton cinq pieds. Curiouſly to looke for more at a mans hands than hee is able to performe.
Cercher noiſes pour noiſettes. To pick a quarell out of triſling occaſions.
Qui m'aura perdu ne m'aille cercher en ce païs là. (A phraſe, whereby one ſignifies his vtter miſlike of a countrey.)
Chacun cerche ſon ſemblable: Prov. Euerie perſon ſeekes his Peere.
Il cerche trop bas la charité qui fouille prez des feſſes: Prov. The charitie is too baſe that ſtoopes ſo low as the buttockes; or, hee lookes too low for charitie that gropes about the buttocks.
Le fol cerche ſon malheur: Prov. The foole indeuors to make himſelfe vnhappie; or, the foole ſtudies his owne miſhap.
Qui a affaire de feu le doit cercher; & qui a beſoing de feu le cerche avec le doigt: Prov. We ſay, (with ſome little difference) Let them that bee acold blow at the cole.
Cercheur: m. A ſeeker, ſearcher; inquirer, tracer, hunter, looker after; a feeler, groper, ſounder.
Cercle: m. A circle; a compaſſe, a round; alſo, a hoope for caske; Looke Cicle.
Cercle finiſſant. Th'Orizon; a circle that dinideth the viſible part of heauen from that which to vs is inviſible.
Cercle vertical. Seeke Vertical.
Il y quarre le cercle. His ſquaring is there out of ſquare.
On ne cognoiſt point le vin aux cercles: Pro. The goodnes of wine is not known by the faſhion, or ſtrength of the hoops that begird it.
Cerclé: m. ée: f. incircled, compaſſed; begirt; bound, or hooped about.
Cerclet: m. A little circle; round, compaſſe; hoope; alſo, a ſmall wreath of Ozier twigs, to ſet vnder a diſh on a table.
Cerclet à feu. A wreath, or circlet of wild-fire; a fire-worke made like a wreath, or circlet.
Cerclouëre: f. A paire of weeding tongues.
Cercot: m. A ſauegard.
Cercueil: m. A coffin; alſo (but not ſo properly) a beere; alſo, a tombe, graue, ſepulchre.
Cerebelle, for Cervelle: f. The hinder part of the head wherein the memorie is lodged.
Cerebrin: m, ine: f. Headie, raſh, giddie, according to his owne braine, after his owne fancie, or humor.
Cerelle: f. A kind of pleaſant pertie, made of the peare Carifi.
Ceremonial: m. ale: f. Ceremoniall; of, or belonging to, ceremonies.
Ceremonie: f. A ceremonie; a rite, cuſtome, or faſhion in, or about, religion.
Ceremonieuſement. Looke Cerimonieuſement.
Ceremonieux. Ceremonious; full of ceremonies.
Cerf: m. A ſtag, a red deere; a hart.
Cerf ramé. A raine deere.
Cerf volant. The great horned beetle, or bull-flie.
Corne de cerf. Hartshorne, Sandwort, Buckehorne plantaine, Crowfoot plantaine, hearbe Ivie, or Eve.
L' herbe au cerf. Harts-fodder; ſuppoſed to bee a kind of wild Parſenip.
Langue de cerf. The hearbe Harts-tongue, or ſtone Harts-tongue; ordinarily miſtaken for, and made all one with, Scolopendria.
Oeil de cerf. A kind of wild Parſenip, that beares a red flower, and is not ill to be eaten.
Poil de cerf. The dunne, ſandie, or deere, colour of ſome horſes &c.
Ronce de cerf. Rough Bindweed.
Faire le cerf de. To paſſe a thing ſleightly ouer, to make no conſcience, nor account, of it.
Au cerf la biere, au ſanglier le barbier.: Prov. (So dangerous a beaſt is an enraged ſtag.)
Cerfouëtte. Looke Serfouëtte.
Cerfouïr. To dig the ground about the roots of trees; or as Sarfouïr.
Cerfueil: m. The hearbe Charuell, or Cheruill.
Cerf-volant. The great horned beetle, or bull-flie.
Cerille: f. A ſmall tittle, or addition to the foot of a

C (as in ç) which makes it be pronounced as an S.

Cerimonialement. Ceremonially, reuerently, religiously.

Cerimonie. A ceremonie; a rite, custome, or fashion in, or about, religion.

Cerimonieusement. Ceremoniously, with great reuerence, many ceremonies, much ado.

Cerimonieux: m. euſe: f. Ceremonious; affecting, following, or full of, ceremonies.

Cerin: m. as Serin. A small bright-greene bird.

Cerin-perſe. A bright skie-colour.

Ceriſaye: f. A cherrie garden; an orchard of cherrie trees.

Ceriſe: f. A cherrie.

Ceriſes d'outre mer. The berries of the hearbe Nightſhade, called by our Hearbariſts, winter cherries.

Faire d'une ceriſe trois morceaux. To eat nicely, feed daintily; to mince it, or make it goodlie.

C'eſt folie de manger ceriſes avec ſon ſeigneur: Prov. No wiſe man will be very familier with one that is much better, or mightier than himſelfe; beſides, hee that eates cherries with his maſter gets not many good ones.

Le Pigeon ſaoul trouve les ceriſes ameres: Pro. Looke Pigeon.

Ceriſée: f. The reuenue that comes in, or profit thats made, by cherries.

Ceriſier: m. A cherrie tree.

Ceriſier bas, ou petit. The dwarfe cherrie tree.

Ceriſin: m. The little bird called a Siskin.

Cerne: m. A circle, round, compaſſe; incloſure; a turning round, fetching a compaſſe, wheeling about.

Cerné: m. ée: f. Incircled, compaſſed with a circle; inuironed, or incloſed round about; alſo, rounded, compaſſed, or wheeled about.

Cerneau: m. The kernell of a nut, &c.

Cerneau d'aulx. A cloue of garlick.

Cerner. To incircle, compaſſe with a circle; inuiron, or incloſe round about; alſo, to make a round, fetch a compaſſe, wheele about.

Cerner les arbres. To make a round ſlit, or inciſion into the barkes of trees; to open or cut them round about.

Cerner des noix. To crack Wallnuts; or, to open them, and picke out their kernels, with a Cernoir.

Cernoir: m. A little blant, and hulch-backt yron toole, or knife, (of ſome two fingers length, & hauing a woodden handle about an inch thick, and three fingers long) wherewith countrey people cut ripe wallnuts in two (while they are yet in the ſhale) and picke out the kernels.

De l'arbre d'un preſſoir le manche d'un cernoir: Prov. To make of a verie great, a verie ſmall, thing, by often handling, or altering, & euer cutting away, ſome peece or other, of it.

Ceroeſne. as Ceroine.

Ceroine: f. Any ointment, or plaiſter, whereof rozen, or wax are the principall ingredients.

Ceromantie: f. Diuination, or ſoothſaying, by wax put into water.

Cerot: m. A ſeare-cloth; or plaiſter made of wax, gum, or other cleauing ſimples.

Cerouënne: f. Any ointment, or plaiſter, whereof wax or rozen are the chiefe ingredients.

Cerquemage. as Cerquemanage.

Cerquemanage: m. An aſſignement of bounds, a limitation of marches, an appointment of meeres betweene the lands of ſeuerall (priuate) men; or betweene priuat mens lands, and thoſe which belong to the publike; as commons, high-wayes, riuers; &c.

Cerquemané: m. ée: f. Bounded, limited, whoſe marches are appointed, whoſe meeres aſſigned, and ſet, by publicke Officers.

Cerquemanement: m. An aſſigning of bounds, an appointing of marches, a ſetting of meeres betweene land and land.

Cerquemaner. To limit, aſſigne, or ſet meeres, appoint marches, lay out the bounds of land.

Cerquemaneurs: m. Certaine ſworne Officers, who haue authoritie to ſet, or plucke vp, meeres and bounds betweene ſeuerall mens poſſeſſions; and to examine, & reforme incroachments made vpon high-wayes, commons, riuers, &c.

Cerre: m. Th'vnprofitable wild oke, tearmed, the Holme oke.

Cerres: f. as Serres; A hawkes talants; alſo, the pulſe called great Chichlings, or flat peaſon; Looke Pois Cerre.

Cerres ſauvages. Wild Chichlings, milke Vetches.

Cerreſine: f. Gumme; or, liquor becomming like rozen, or gumme.

Certain: m. A certaintie, certaine truth, ſureneſſe, aſſuredneſſe.

Teſmoing de certain. A witneſſe that aſſures, or ſaies he knowes, all he ſayes.

Certain: m. aine: f. Sure, doubtleſſe, vnauoidable; aſſured, moſt true, vnfained; approued; cleere, manifeſt; appointed, determined; firme, ſteadie, faſt; conſtant, faithfull, truſtie.

Certaines perſonnes que. Certaine, or ſome perſons that, &c.

Certainement. Certainly, doubtleſly, ſurely, aſſuredly, verily, in truth, queſtionleſſe; vnauoydably; cleerely, manifeſtly.

Certaineté. as Certitude.

Certe. à la certe. Certainly, doubtleſly, queſtionleſſe.

Certeau à deux teſtes. The name of a verie tender and delicate peare.

Certes. Surely, verily, truly, &c; as Certainement.

A certes. In ſooth, in earneſt, roundly, throughly, to purpoſe, without dalliance, or delay.

Certificateur: m. A certifier, aſcertainer, aſſurer; alſo, an Informer, or notice-giuer.

Certification: f. A certificat, a paſſeport; alſo, a certification, aſcertaining, aſſuring of.

Certifié: m. ée: f. Certified, aſſured, aſcertained; informed, or aduertiſed of; made acquainted with.

Certifier. To aſſure, auouch, aſcertaine; alſo, to certifie, informe, aduertiſe, or ſend word of; giue notice, or intelligence, vnto.

Certioré: m. ée: f. Certified, informed, aduertiſed of, made acquainted with.

Certitude: f. A certaintie; an aſſured notice, or true knowledge of.

Cerve: f. A Hind.

Cerveau: m. The braine.

Cerveaux à bourlet. Ignorant Lawyers, dunſicall pleaders, pettifoggers.

Cerveaux enfroquez. Monkes, or Fryers.

Cerveau mal cuict. A light, giddie, raſh, humorous, fantaſticall, or ill-digeſted diſpoſition.

Petit cerveau. as Cervelet.

Avoir le cerveau vn peu gaillard. To be humorous, toyiſh, fantaſticall, new-fangled.

Estre en cerveau. To be in his right wits; to be stayed, well-aduised, and out of aduise, resolute, or secure; to be prouided against all chances, armed for all essayes, readie for whatsoeuer shall befall.

Ceruelat: m. An excellent kind of dry saucidge that resembles our blacke pudding, but that it is somewhat thicker, and shorter; and is eaten could in slices.

Ceruelet: m. The hinder part of the braine, next to the nape of the necke; makes but a tenth of the whole, and is diuided from the rest by Dura, & pia, Mater.

Ceruelin: m. ine: f. Brainlesse, headdie, wilfull, giddie, fantastical, harebraind.

Ceruelle: f. The braine; or, hinder part of the head wherein the memorie is lodged; the seate of the memorie.

Ceruelle à double rebras. A dunce, blockhead, iobernoll, ioulthead, thicke-skinne, dull fellow; one that is obstinately sottish; one into whom no wit can be beaten, no vnderstanding driuen.

Gens de cervelle, ou (qui sont) bien en cervelle. Wise, or stayed people; such as haue sound braines, or good heads.

Tenir en cervelle. To keepe in awe, or in play; to arme with heed by often allarums; to harrie, hould buisied or in breath.

Cervelliere: f. A scull, or sallet, of iron.

Cervical: m. ale: f. Belonging to the nape, or hinder part, of the necke.

Artere ceruicale. Secke, Artere.

Veine cervicale. A branch of the Sousclauiere, which passing along by the transuerse processes of the neck-ioynts, goes vnto the membrane called, Dura mater, and ends in it.

Cervier. Loup Cervier. See Loup-cervier.

Cervinespine. The shrub way thorne, buckthorne, laxatiue ram.

Cervoise. Beere: f.

Ceruse: f. Ceruse, or, white lead, wherewith women paint; differs from Lithargie (called also, white lead) for this is made of the grossest lead, as it is in the mine; that, of lead refined, out of the mine.

Ceruseux: m. euse: f. Full of Ceruse; beplaistered all ouer with fard.

Ces: m. A stay, cessing, lequing, forbearing; also, a putting to silence, or forbidding to proceed.

Ces (The plurall of Ce:) Theis.

Cesarien: m. enne: f. Cesar-like; of, or belonging to Cesar.

Enfantement Cesarien. The birth of a child, by cutting him out of his mothers womb, without the death of eyther.

Section Cesarienne. Such a cutting.

Cesarine. Tondu à la Cesarine. Cut or powled round with, or like a dish; (an old fashion yet in vse with some old men.)

Cesolfié: m. eé: f. Sad, pensiue; troubled, perplexed, vexed in mind; Rab.

Cessation: f. A cessation, ceasing, stay, pause, intermission, discontinuance, resting, or leauing off for a time; a vacation; also, lingering, slackenesse, loitering, sloath.

Cesse: f. The same.

Sans cesse. Vncessantly, without stint or ceasing, perpetually, continually; also, excessiuely, immoderately, out of all cesse and crie.

Cessé: m. ée: f. Ceased, surceased, left off, discontinued, intermitted, forborne, staied, held backe, or giuen ouer for a time; also, lingered, slackened, loitered.

Cessement: m. Looke Cessation.

Cesser. To cease, forbeare; stop, stay, pawse, leaue off, giue ouer; to surcease, discontinue, intermit, rest a while, hold backe for a time; also, to linger, loyter, slacken, play the sluggard.

Cessible: com. Yeeldable, resignable, abandonnable.

Cession: f. Yeelding vp, or giuing ouer; an abandonment of, or departure from; and particularly, a giuing of place.

Cession des biens. An abandonment of his owne goods, or a renouncement of his title to another mans, thereby to bee but out of the reach, or danger, of creditors; This must bee done (especially in the first case) by the debtor himselfe (vngirt, and bare headed) in the presence of a full Court: After which hee is not constraynable to pay his creditours more than can bee raysed by the sale of his goods.

Cessionnaire: com. A cessionarie; one that abandons, or giues vp his goods as aforesayde (in Cession de biens) who though hee looseth his credit thereby, yet is hee not held so base as a bankrupt.

Cessiouner. To eat betweene meales; to take an afternoones repast: Norm.

Cest: m. ceste: f. as Cet.

Ceston: m. A studded girdle, which (in old time) the Bridegroome put about his Bride as soone as they were maried, and tooke off when they went to bed, together.

Cestrin. A kind of yellow stone whereof beads are made.

Cestuy. (A Pronowne Demonstratiue) this man; also, hee.

Cestuycy. (With addition of that locall Aduerbe) this man here; this verie man, this same man.

Cesue: f. The sap of trees; Looke Seve.

Cesure: f. A cutting, section, diuision.

Cet: m. cette: f. This; that; it; as Ce; but with this differenee; that whereas Ce is put before words that begin with a consonant, or H pronounced (as in naturall French it is) Cet precedes those which begin with a vowell, or with H vnpronounced (as in words deriued from the Latine.)

Cetacé. poisson cetacée. Of the kind of Whales.

Cete. as Cette; The feminine of Cet.

Ceterach: m. The hearbe Scale-fearne, Stone-fearne, Finger-fearne, Miltewast.

Cethin. A kind of wood that corrupts not.

Cetier de bled. A quarter of corne; or as Septier.

Ceton: m. A rowell for a bruised, or impostumed horse.

Cetuy. Looke Cestuy.

Cevadere: f. The sprit saile of a ship.

Ceucheter. To whisper in the eare.

Ceve: f. A whetstone.

Ceves: f. Chiues, chibols.

Cevotes. The same.

Chaas. (Monosillab.) Is the space, and length betweene beame and beame, wall and wall, in building; or a bay of building; also, the lust of kine after the bull; also, Weauers starch.

Chabins: m. The sheepe of Berry (whose wooll is verie thicke, and as long as goats haire.

Chable : m. A cable, or great rope.
Chable : f. as Cable, fem.
Chablis. bois chablis. Wind-falls; the trees, or branches of trees, which the wind hath ouerthrowne.
Chabot : m. The little fish called a Gull, Bullhead, or Millers-thumbe; also, the little water vermine called, a Bullhead.
Chabre : m. The Cray-fish tearmed, a Pungar.
Chabrer. To reare vpright; or, to rise high before; as a goat that would reach to a bough.
Chace. Looke Chasse.
Chacer. as Chasser; To hunt &c.
Chaceur. A hunter, &c; Looke Chasseur.
Chacie : f. Blearednesse, or bleare-eyednesse; a running, or waterishnesse of the eyes, accompanied with a painefull shooting, and rednesse.
Chacieusetè. as Chacie (In extremitie.)
Chacieux : m. euse : f. Bleare-eyed; whose eyes are full of water, and bloud-shot.
Chacun. (Looke Chascun*) each one, euerie man.*
Chacunerie : f. Euery ones owne; that which particularly concernes, or belongs vnto, euery one.
Chacun à sa chacunerie. Euerie one to his owne home, or about his owne businesse.
Chaffauder. To scaffold, or set vp scaffolds; also, to set vpon scaffolds; or shew vpon a scaffold.
Chaffault : m. A scaffold.
Chaffourré : m. ée : f. Disguised, blotted, blurred, besmeared, marred; scribled.
Chaffourrer. To disfigure, blot, blurre, marre, besmeare; also, to scribble, or write ill-fauouredly.
Se chaffourrer. To disfigure, &c, himselfe; also, to be drunken.
Chafouyn : m. A Polecat.
Chafourrer. Looke Chaffourrer.
Chagrigner. Looke Chagriner.
Chagrin : m. Carke; melancholie, care, thought; perplexitie, heauinesse, anxietie, pensiuenesse, vexation, or anguish of mind; also, a disease, or maladie; especially, such a one as comes by melancholie.
Chagrin : m. ine : f. as Chagriné; Or pensiue, heauie, sad, melancholike, out of quiet.
Chagriné. Vexed, grieued, perplexed, disquieted.
Chagrinement. Pensiuely heauily, sadly, carkingly, carfully, in melancholie.
Chagriner. To vexe, disquiet, grieue, trouble, perplex, fill with care, heauinesse, melancholie, anguish.
Chagrineux : m. euse : f. Carefull, carking; pensiue perplexed, heauie, sad, ful of anxitie, fraught with anguish, all melancholie.
Chahuant. as Chathuant.
Chaine : f. A chaine; Looke Chene.
Chaine de drap, ou de Tisserand. The woofe of cloth; the thread which in weauing runs ouercrosse it.
Chaine de S. Philibert. A counterfeit chaine.
Chainette. A little chaine.
Chainon d'une chaine. A linke of a chaine.
Le chainon du col. The naupe, or (more properly) the chine-bone, of the necke; Looke Chesnon.
Chair : f. Flesh.
La chair dure. The hard, and white part of an oyster, which cleaues to the shell, and is couered with fish; the root of an oyster.
Il y a plus de chair que de sauce. Their companie growes fulsome; there's much more flesh than sauce among them.
Perdre la chair pour les os. To loose essentiall, for idle, things, the flesh for the bones.
Prendre chair. To battle, get flesh, wax fleshie, grow into good liking, become fat and faire.
Tremblant entre cuir, & chair. As vnder Cuir.
Amour se nourrit de ieune chair : Prov. Yong flesh is food for loue, loue battles with yong flesh.
Ieune chair, & vieil poisson : Prov. Yong flesh, and old fish (are daintiest.)
Plus prés est la chair que la chemise : Prov. Our women say, neere is my petticoat but neerer is my smocke.
Toute chair n'est pas venaison : Prov. All flesh is not venison; euery man is not to be affected, esteemed, trusted, or vsed; euery saying is not sooth, euery worke not of worth.
Chair-bouillé : m. A sodden fellow; or one whose flesh doth looke as if it had beene sodden.
Chair-bouillé : m. ée : f. Like sodden flesh; or, sodden as flesh.
Chaircuicterie : f. The market, or place, where bacon, or any kind of hogges-flesh may bee had readie boyled.
Chaircuictier : m. A Cooke that selleth all kind of bacon, porke, or hogges-flesh readie boiled; also, a bungler; an vnskilfull workeman, or tradesman.
Chaircuiterie; &; Chaircuitier. as Chaircuicterie; &; Chaircuictier.
Chaircuité : m. ée : f. Hacked, hewed, malled; cut as small as flesh vnto the pot.
Chaircuter (à coups d'espées.) To hew, cut, backe, or chop as small as flesh to the pot.
Chaire : f. A chaire; also, a pulpit for a Preacher.
Chaire brisée. A foulding chaire.
Chaire percée. A close-stoole.
Dire en chaire. To preach.
En defaut de sage le fol monte en chaire : Prov. A foole, for want of wiser, steps into the roome.
Chaise, or Chaize : f. A pulpet.
Chaiz. Low warehouses, or sellars to lay marchandise in: ¶ Bayonnois.
Chalamine. as Calamine.
Chalan : m. A wood-boat, or barge; a kind of midling boat, vsed (most) in the carrying of wood vp & downe riuers.
Chaland, ou Chalant. A customer vnto a Marchant, or shop.
Chalandise : f. Custome, customing, vsuall trading vnto one ship.
Chalanger. To claime, challenge, make title vnto, set in foot for; also, to accuse of, charge with, call in question for, an offence; &c; as Calenger.
Chalant : m. A great barge; a Westerne barge; or, as Chalan.
Chalant de. Caring, passing, carking, taking thought for.
Chalcide. A kind of spotted Lezard which is very venomous, and yet being taken in drinke, healeth the hurt she made.
Chalcidique. Lisard Chalcidique. The same.
Chalcite. The recrement of brasse, cleauing to the sides of the furnaces wherein tis purified; (This is artificiall Chalcitis; for there is also, a naturall one, a caustick, and corrosiue minerall, that somewhat resembles brasse; is full of long, and shining veines; growes commonly next vnder Misy (another minerall) and is of much vse in eye-medicines; against corrosiue vlcers, inflamations of the iawes, and offensiue tumors in other parts.)
Chalemeler. To play on a little pipe.
Chalemelle : f. A little pipe made of a reed, or of a wheaten,

ten,or oaten,ſtraw.

Chalemie: f. as Chalemelle.

Chalenée: f. A boat-full,or barge-full of.

Chalenger. as Chalanger.

Chaleur: f. Heat,warmth,hotneſſe; boyling; vehement paſſion,fierie affection.

Faire venir en chaleur: To make a bitch proud, or ſault.

Chaleureux: m. euſe: f. Hot,fierie,ſcalding,burning; feruent; full of heat; full of hotneſſe.

Chalibé: m. ée: f. Steeled; done ouer with ſteele; wherein ſteele is quenched; belonging vnto ſteele.

Chalict. Looke Chaſlit.

Chaline: f. A little thunder,in a morning; ¶Poict: alſo, dryneſſe,drought,or drie weather. (v.m.)

Chaliſſier: m. A maker of Bedſteads.

Challer. A hare to be bagd,or breed young; alſo,to ſhale, or vnſhell,Nuts,&c.

Chaloir. ſe cha. de; to paſſe,care,take thought for.

Ne te chaille. Care not,be of good cheere man,take no thought for the matter.

Qui peut il chaloir quant a la diſpute? What of that,what skils it,what matter makes it,of what conſequence,or importance can it be,in the diſputation?

Chalon: m. as Chalan; alſo,a kind of fiſh-net.

Chaloppes: f. The huskes, parings,or ſhalings,of a nut, or nut-kernell.

Chaloupe: f. A Shallop,or ſmall boat.

Chaluc. A kind of Mullet which delighteth much in her owne tayle. ¶Lang.

Chalumeau: m. A ſmall reed,or cane; alſo, the ſtemme of an hearbe; alſo,a wheaten,or oaten ſtraw; or,a pipe made thereof.

Chalumeux: m. euſe: f. Knottie,or full of knots, as a reed,or the ſtaulke of ſome hearbes.

Chamade: f. The ſounding of Trumpets; a call,or ſummon by the ſound of Trumpets; and hence;

Sonner la chamade. To ſound a parley; alſo, to ſummon,challenge,call on.

Chamæciſſe: f. Spurge time.

Chamaeleon blanc. The Carline,or Carline thiſtle.

Chamaeleon noir. The blacke Chameleon thiſtle.

Chamailler. To ſtrike,hacke,hew,ſlaſh with ſwords, or other weapons vpon armour,or armed men.

Chamailleur: m. A ſlaſher,backſter,ſwaſh-buckler.

Chamaillis: m. The reſounding of ſtroakes, or blowes, or the claſhing ſound of blowes,in a battell, or skirmiſh of armed men; alſo,ſuch a battell, fight,bickering,skirmiſh.

Chamaras: m. The hearb Scordium,water Germaunder,Garlicke Germaunder.

Chamarier: m. A certaine Officer,at Lyons.

Chamarre: m. A looſe,and light,Gowne (and,leſſe properly, a cloake) that may be worne aſwaſh, or skarſewiſe; alſo,a ſtudded garment.

Chamarré: m. ée: f. Laced thicke,all ouer; aſlope,orecroſſe, or billet-wiſe; alſo, ſtudded, or ſet thicke with ſtuds.

Chamarrer. To lace thicke,all ouer; aſlope,orecroſſe,or billet-wiſe.

Chamarreure: f. A thicke lacing aſlope, ouercroſſe, or billet-wiſe; alſo, a ſtudding, or ſetting thicke with ſtuds.

Chamarrier. as Chamarier.

Chambellage: m. An Income; a dutie,or fine payed,of courſe, vnto a Landlord vpon euery change of tenant; alſo, a fee thats due vnto the chiefe vſher of the Chamber of Accompts,vpon euery homage made by one of the Kings tenants.

Chambellan: m. A Chamberlaine; alſo,a Gentleman, Groome, or Vſher of the Chamber (eſpecially the firſt; for the other two are more properly tearmed, Valets de Chambre.)

Chambellenage. as Chambellage. ¶Breton.

Chambre: m. Hempe.

Chambre: f. A Chamber; Lodging,Roome,in a houſe; alſo, a Law-Court, or Court of Iuſtice; or the Roome wherein tis vſually kept; alſo, the box of the naue, or ſtocke,of a wheele.

Chambre aiſée. A Priuie, Iakes, houſe of Office; a Cabinet,or little corner to ſet a cloſe ſtoole in.

Chambre ardente. A chamber, or court (in euery Parliament one) wherein thoſe of the Religion haue bin cenſured,and adiudged vnto the fire.

Chambre des Aydes. The roome wherein the Court of Aydes is kept (In Paris there be two of them.)

Chambre baſſe. as Chambre aiſée.

Chambre des Comptes. The court of Accompts, or of the Exchequer; In euery towne of Parliament there is one of them; and in that of Paris,two roomes,and a double Bureau: In old time there was but one in France (at Paris*) and then certaine Lords,Officers of the Crowne,and of the priuie Councell, (two whereof, a Clarke,and a lay Lord, ſate as Preſidents) were appointed to looke vnto the Accompts: Afterwards it was made (as now it is) an ordinarie, and ſoueraigne Court, conſiſting of Preſidents, and their Aſſiſtants,* Maiſtres des Comptes (in other Courts tearmed Counſellors) and other Officers, peculiar to it ſelfe: Montpellier was the next towne of Parliament that got one; and after it the reſt, at ſundrie times, got theirs.

Chambre du Conſeil. A ſoueraigne and extraordinarie Court, conſiſting of two Preſidents, and eight or tenne Counſellors (halfe whereof belong to the Court of Parliament, and the other halfe to the chamber of Accompts) who heare, and determine finally ſuch complaints as are made by ſuitors againſt the arreſts, and decrees of that chamber; and otherwiſe take order,that the proceedings thereof be not,without great cauſe,hindered, or oppugned.

Les Chambres de la Cour. are as well,all the inferior Officers,Counſellors, or Commiſſioners that belong to a Court, as the roomes wherein it is vſually kept.

Chambre aux deniers. as Chambres des monnoyes.

Chambre du Domaine. A Court whereto Appeales are made from la Chambre du Threſor.

La Chambre dorée. The principall Chamber, or Court,of the Parliament,wherein the chiefe Preſidents heare and determine the weightieſt cauſes; tearmed ſo,becauſe the vpper ſeeling thereof is gilt.

Chambre de l'Edict. as Chambre mipartie; called ſo from an Edict (of the yeare 1594*) whereby it was eſtabliſhed.*

Les Chambres des Enqueſtes. The Chambers, or Courts of Enqueſts; whereof there be diuers in the Parliament of Paris, for the examination,and triall of ciuill cauſes, and appeales, by witneſſes,and other euidences.

Chambre de femmes. A Nurſerie, or priuat roome onely for women.

Chambre haute. A dining chamber.

La Chambre mipartie. A Court of Iuſtice eſtabliſhed in diuers good townes of France, in fauour, and for the righting,of them of the Religion, whereof the one one halfe of the Iudges are, and the other halfe Papists.

Chambre des monnoyes. A Soueraign Court, wherein the currantneſſe, weight, and value of moneyes are examined; and the diſorders, faults, and offences of Mintmen, Coyners, Clippers, &c, puniſhed. This Court hath two Preſidents, and eight generall (aſſiſtant) counſellors (beſides inferiour Officers) belonging to it; and pretends it ſelfe as auncient as the court of accompts, or to haue beene incorporated into the ſame (whereto there yet belongs a roome that hath a furnace within it, and is tearmed La Chambre des monnoyes.) In old time moneyes were made in 25 French townes, and all they called Chambres des Monnoyes; but there are not ſo many at this day.

La Chambre nouvelle. A certaine late-erected Court of Iuſtice, conſiſting of twentie Preſidents, and Counſellors, beſides inferior Officers.

Chambre des Requeſtes. The Court of Requeſts; whereof there be two; the one of good antiquitie; the other (conſiſting of two Preſidents, and eight Counſellors, &c.) erected in the yeare 1580.

La Chambre Royale. A Court erected of purpoſe for the examination of the dealings and carriage of Financiers, or Exchequer men.

Chambre du Threſor. Was in old time a place of generall Recett for the reuenue of the Kings demeane, attended on by le Changeur du Threſor, a Controller, and two clarkes; Now tis a court wherein the Treaſurers of France, aſſiſted by eight Counſellors, heare and determine all ſuits that concerne, or happen by reaſon of, the ſaid demeane; alſo, the Rolls; or the place wherein all the principall Charters, and Euidences of France are kept.

La Chambre des vacations. An ordinarie Court (kept euery vacation) by certaine ſelect Iudges for the determining of pettie cauſes.

Arriere chambre. Looke Arriere-chambre.

La grande chambre des Enqueſtes. The great, or principall chamber of Enqueſts.

La grande chambre du plaidoyé. as, La Chambre dorée.

La nouvelle chambre des Enqueſtes. The new, or laſt-erected, Court of Enqueſts.

Robbe de chambre. A night-gowne.

Vuides chambres font Dames folles: Pro. Emptie chambers make women play the wantons.

Chambrée: f. A Camerade; a chamberfull of; a companie that belongs to, or lyes in, one chamber.

Chambrerie: f. A Chamberlaineſhip; the eſtate, place, or office of a Chamberlaine.

Chambrette: f. A little chamber, a ſmall roome.

Chambreux: m. euſe: f. Much louing, or liuing in, a chamber.

Chambrier: m. A Chamberlaine in an Abbey, or in an Inne; alſo, a Chamberlaine, or one of the chamber, vnto a Prince.

Grand Chambrier. The Lord Chamberlaine (whoſe Office was by Francis the firſt ſuppreſſed, and the fees, profits, rights, and iuriſdiction thereof annexed vnto the demeane of the Crowne, Anno 1545.)

Chambriere: f. A chamber-maid, or maid-ſeruant, (moſt commonly) one of the meaneſt ranke, and of baſeſt imployment; or one that ſerues as a drudge, or kitchin-wench, in a houſe.

En Moiſſons Dames chambrieres ſont: Prov. Ladies are but drudges, or wait on themſelues, as long as Harueſt laſts.

Chambrillé: m. ée: f. Chamberie; full of inner roomes, or chambers.

Chambrillon: m. A little roome, ſmall chamber.

Chambrillon: f. A little, or young chambermaid, or kitchin-wench.

Chameau: m. A Cammell.

Paſture de chameau. The reed, or ruſh, tearmed Camels hay, and Squinant.

Donner le fardeau ſelon le chameau. To proportion a load vnto his ſtrength that is to beare it.

Chamedrée: f. Germander, Engliſh Treacle (an hearbe.)

Chamelée: f. Widow-wayle (a ſhrub.)

Chameleon: m. Looke Chamaeleon.

Chamelier: m. A Camell-keeper; or, Camell-driuer.

Chame. A kind of cockle, or ſmall, and round ſhell-fiſh, the which in eating inflames the mouth like Pepper.

Chamion: m. A little dray, without wheeles, whereon the vinegar-makers of Paris drag along their Lees.

Chamois: m. A wild Goat, or Shamois; alſo, the skin thereof dreſſed, and called ordinarily Shamois leather.

Champ: m. A field, land; open, or plain peece of ground; and (by metaphor) any large, and copious ſubiect for diſcourſe; alſo, as Camp.

Champ de bataille. A place of battaile between two armies, or of combat betweene two champions.

Champ boſialle. A common field. See Boſialle.

Champ clos. A place rayled in, or incloſed, as a Tilt-yard, for ſingle combats.

Champ ouvert. A plaine, and open field, or place, wherein a battaile hath beene, or may be, fought.

Champ de relais. A fallow ground, a lay land; a field that lyes a yeare together plowed, but vnſowed.

Champ verré. Velours champ verré. A Verry-coloured, or partie-coloured, Veluet.

La clef des champs. Libertie; Seeke Clef.

La porte des champs. The backe-dore of a countrey houſe.

Sur le champ. Preſently, immediately, incontinently, forthwith, out of hand, at that very inſtant.

Le champ luy eſt demeuré. He hath got the victorie, woon the field; (for he that after a battaile keepes the field, though he haue loſt the more men, is held the maiſter.)

A chaſque bout de champ. Still, euer, in each place, which way ſoeuer one turne him.

Aſſez de champ pour faire glane. Roome ſufficient for many to helpe themſelues in; aduantages enow for them to take hold of; ſtuffe good ſtore for them to gaine by; matter ynough to be wrought on, gathered, or picked out, after others haue done withall.

Aller aux champs. To goe into the countrey.

Ayant vn oeil aux champs, & l'autre à la ville. Seek Oeil.

Courir les champs en pourpoint. To run like a bedlam, to courſe vp and downe like a mad man.

Donner les champs à. To giue libertie vnto.

Donner la clef des champs à. To diſmiſſe, let go, ſend out, giue libertie vnto.

Gaigner les champs. To ſhew a faire paire of heeles, to flye his countrey, to run away.

Mettre quelqu' un aux champs. To prouoke one to anger, to put him into a chafe, to put him into choler, to make him as mad as a March hare; alſo, to ſet one a-flote, to put him into a great conceit of himſelfe; to make make him goe the faſter on, or giue the more forward; alſo, to diſmiſſe him, put him forth, or ſend him abroad, into the world.

Se mettre aux champs. To braue it in ſhew, to put the better leg before; to ſet cocke a hoope, or himſelfe out to the vtmoſt; alſo, to giue himſelfe ſcope, libertie, roome ynough.

Bois ont oreilles, & champs oeillets: Prov. Woods haue their eares, and fields their eyes; ſo apt, and able is euery place to detect cloſe villanie.

En petit champ croiſt bien bon bled: Prov. Good corne growes very well in little fields; or (better) verie good corne growes in little fields; excellent ſpirits are often lodged in exile, or ſmall, bodies.

Champagne. The name of a Prouince in France.

Droict de Champagne. The fees due vnto the Officers of the Chamber of Accompts, out of farmes let in that Prouince; viz. two ſhillings ſterl. out of ſuch as are worth a hundred pounds, or leſſe; and foure ſhillings for thoſe that exceed that rate.

Champaigne. as Campaigne; alſo, a field, in armourie; whence;

Champaigne potencée. is that which our Blaſoners tearme, a Barre miere.

Champar, ou champart. Field-rent; halfe, or part, or the twelfth part, of a Crop due, by bargaine, or cuſtome, vnto a Landlord, and taken off the ground for him, before the farmer lead any; alſo, a field, or cloſe; alſo, a greene lying before a countrey houſe.

Champarter. To diuide a field (or the crop of a field) by euen, or due, parts; to lay out vnto euery one his portion therein.

Champartereſſe. grange ch. whereinto, the part of a crop due by the right of Champart, is layed.

Champarteur. A diuider of fields, or field-rent; one that ſhares out vnto euery one his due part of, or portion in, a crop.

Champartir. as Champarter.

Champayage: m. A running, or grazing of cattell in the fields; whence;

Vn tel a champayage en tel lieu. Hath going for his beaſts in ſuch a place.

Champayer. To reſide, or continue among fields; alſo, to wander in, or walke ouer, the fields; alſo, to field it, or carrie abroad into the fields; alſo, to run, feed, graze, or paſture in fields; alſo (actiuely) to put cattell on a ground, or turne them into the fields, to let them goe therein.

Champé d'aſur. Azure, or, the field Azure. (Blaſon.)

Champeſtre: com. Fieldie, plaine, champian; of, or belonging to, the fields; alſo, clowniſh, ruſticke, booriſh, homelie; bred in the countrey, liuing among fields; alſo, wild, rude, ſauage, hagard, vnreclaimed, vnciuile, barbarous.

Champeyer. as Champayer.

Champi: m. Champiſſe: f. Baſtard, or baſe-borne; ¶Bourbon. alſo, couſening, cheating, nimble-fingered; alſo, ſeeming, but not being, honeſt.

Champicerie; vn tour de champicerie; a cheating pranke; a tricke of nimble knauerie, or of Legierdemaine.

Champignon: m. A Muſhrum, Toadſtoole, Paddockſtoole.

Champignons de pourceaux. The white, or yellowiſh muſhrums, which may be eaten; In Latine they are alſo called, Fungi ſuilli; and by Latine Phyſitions, porcini; we may therefore lawfully call them, Hogs Muſhrums, or Swines Muſhrums.

Champion: m. A Champion; one that fights a publicke combat in his owne, or another mans, quarrell.

Champis. Looke Champi (the plurall whereof it is.)

Champleure. as Chantepleure.

Champoyer. as Champayer; to continue in the fields, &c.

Chance: f. A chance, hap, aduenture, hazard; alſo, the game at dice called Mumchance, or ſuch another.

Il n'eſt chance qui ne retourne: Pro. All chances doe returne one time or other.

Chanceler. Looke Chanceller.

Chancelerie: f. A Chauncerie Court; the Chauncerie; the Seale Office, or Court of euery Parliament, and Preſidiall Seat.

Les Chanceleries Preſidiales. The meaneſt Courts of Chauncerie in France; whoſe ſeales are different from, and leſſe then, the ſeales of other Chanceries; and are not imployed but in ſome few Writs, or Letters, for cauſes that be vnder the value of 250 pounds Tourn. Nor is any ſuitor tyed to vſe them, but may procure his Writs to be ſealed either in the great Chauncerie, or in that which belongs to the Parliament, within the iuriſdiction whereof he liues.

La grande Chancelerie. The great Chancerie; euer attendant on the Kings perſon, and gouerned by the Lo. Chancelor of France.

Les petites Chanceleries. The Chanceries of Parliaments, and Preſidial ſeats, are indifferently tearmed ſo, in difference of la grande Chan. The ſcales of theſe Chaunceries are gouerned by les Gardes des ſeaux in abſence of the Maiſters of Requeſts, who in their Circuits, aſſigned them by the Lord Chancello viſit, at leaſt, once a yeare, euery one of theſe Chanceries.

Chancelier: m. A Chancellor: The Lord Chancellor is the principall Magiſtrat of France (as ours of England) and is, in his iudgements, exempted from the iuriſdiction, or cenſure of Parliaments (as ours vncontroulable by the common Law;) On him depends the ordering, and diſpoſition of Iuſtice; the eſtabliſhment of good, and ſacred Lawes; the reformation of ſuperfluous, and abrogation of vnprofitable, Edicts; and the putting downe of all Offices that be offenſiue to the People, or chargeable to the State: He hath the keeping of the kings (great) Seale; and by the vertue thereof either paſſes, or may put backe, ſuch Letters Patents, and Writs, as are preſented vnto him.

Chancelier de Geneviefve. An Officer in the Vniuerſitie of Paris, who hath authoritie to examine, and licence, Maiſters of Art.

Chancelier de noſtre Dame. Another, who hath authoritie ouer Diuines, Lawyers, Phyſitions, &c, and puniſhes vnruſie ſchollers, of what degree ſoeuer.

Chanceliere: f. A Chancelors wife.

Chancellant: m. ante: f. Staggering, reeling; ſtutting, ſtammering.

Chancellement: m. A ſtaggering, reeling, wauering in gate; a ſtutting, ſtammering, faultering, in ſpeech.

Chanceller. To reele, ſtagger; wauer, make indentures; alſo, to ſtammer, ſtut, faulter in ſpeech.

Bien pouſſé longuement chancelle: Pro. He ſtaggers long that's thruſt with a ſtrong hand.

Il vault mieulx tresbucher vne fois, que toujours chanceller: Prov. Better fall at once, then ſtagger alwayes; better to erre altogether, then alwaies to wauer; better to ſtep in for once, on the wrong ſide, then ſtill ſtill to doubt what ſide he ſhall follow.

Chancellerie. as Chancelerie.

Chanceux: m. euſe: f. Fortunate, hapfull; ſucceſſiue.

Chanci: m. ie: f. Muſtie, fuſtie, ſtinking, or vnſauourie with age, or ill-keeping.

Chanciſſeure. Looke Chanſiſſeure. Fuſtineſſe.

Chancre: m. A Canker; a painefull, hard, ouglie, and vneuen ſwelling which blackens, and inflames, the veines that are about it.

Herbe au chancre. Turneſole, Wartworte, Heliotropium.

Chancreux: m. euſe: f. Cankarie, cankared; full of Cankers.

Boſſe chancreuſe. A cankered byle; pockie ſore, Wincheſter gooſe.

Chandeleur. La feſte de la Chandeleur. Candlemas day; the Purification of the bleſſed Virgin.

Chandeleuſe. la Chan. The ſame.

Chandeleux: m. euſe: f. Full of candles, of a candle, belonging to a candle.

Chandelier: m. A Candleſticke; alſo, a Chaundler, or Candle-maker, or Candle-ſeller; alſo, Candlemas day.

Mis au chandelier. Intertained, receiued, accepted of; vſed, imployed, ſet on worke.

Il en tuera dix de la chandelle, & vingt du chandelier. Looke Chandelle.

Aujourd'huy Febvrier demain Chandelier: Prov. (For Candlemas day is euer the ſecond of Februarie.)

Chandelier: m. ere: f. Belonging to a Chaundler, Candle, or Candleſticke.

L'herbe chandeliere. The Colewort is called ſo by ſome; by others (perhaps more properly) the hearbe Mullein; Seeke Herbe.

Chandelle: f. A candle, a ſize; a light, or taper.

Chandelles de Buchs. Roſen candles, vſed by the poorer ſort of people neere vnto Bourdeaux.

'A la chandelle; By candle-light; in extremitie, or at the point of death, when a man is readie to giue vp the ghoſt (for then the Romaniſts light candles, vpon a conceit that euill ſpirits are driuen away thereby.)

'A la chandelle allumée. The ſame; or, before all be gone; while there is time, or any life in it; whileſt it is in handling, or may be had.

'A la chandelle eſteincte. Too late; when a thing is paſt recouerie; after all is gone, or the buſineſſe done; (This Phraſe, and the former, ſeeme deriued from Outropes; wherein after the firſt offers made, a candle is lighted at the bidding of more; after which, that being put out, another is alſo lighted, when a third part more is bidden; and when twice as much, another; which onee put out, the thing is inſtantly deliuered ouer.)

Bruſler la chandelle. par les deux bouts. To waſt, or ſpend, things diſorderedly; to ſquander hee cares not how, nor what; alſo (but leſſe properly) to play the micher, nigardize it, goe very neerely to worke.

Se bruſler à la chandelle. Sayd of one that giues ſo much for a farme &c. of the Kings (which is let by Outcrie, who will giue moſt, while three pound of Wax candles laſt lighted) that he looſes verie much by it; This Phraſe is alſo taken otherwiſe, as in that which followes.

Il ſe vient bruſler à la chandelle. The light he hath receiued, ruines him; or, that which might haue directed, comes to ruine, him; alſo, he hath diſcloſed his own knauerie, he hath bewrayed himſelfe.

Emporter à la chandelle. To carrie a thing cleere away by offering the moſt for it. (Looke in 'A la chandelle eſteincte.)

Gaſter vne chandelle pour trouver vn petit mouchon. To ſpoyle much in ſearch after a little.

Il en tuera dix de la chandelle, & vingt du chandelier. Hee will doe wonders, hee will cut them into many peeces, hee will make minced meat for Crowes of their carkaſſes; no man will be able to ſtand before him, hee is growne ſo fell, fierce, or furious; (Ironically.)

Le jeu ne vaut pas la chandelle. It will not quit coſt; there will be nothing got by him that toyles, or deales, in it.

Il y avoit à chaque Sainct ſa chandelle. There was for euery Saint his candle; euerie one had ſomewhat, more or leſſe, beſtowed on him.

Monter au grenier ſans chandelle. To light in a turd.

'A la chandelle la Chevre ſemble Damoiſelle: Pro. By candle-light a ſhee Goat ſeemes a Gentlewoman; (where, by the candle, is meant a mans owne affection, or the opinion of another; either of which followed wholly in the choice of a wife, hath often proued erronious.)

Au plus debile la chandelle en la main: Prov. (We ſay) he that worſt may holds the candle.

Il n'y a ſi petit Sainct qui ne deſire ſa chandelle: Prov. There is no man in authoritie, how ſmall ſoeuer, but lookes for the reſpect thats due vnto him.

Chanes. le grand chanes. May-weed, wild Camomill, ſtinking Maithes.

Chanfrain de Cheval d'armes. The front-ſtall, headpeece, or forhead-piece, of a barbed horſe.

Chanfrain (creux.) A chanfering; or, a channell, furrow, hollow gutter, or ſtreake, in ſtone-worke, &c.

Chanfron: m. The name of an Italian coyne, worth about xx d.

Change: m. Sumacke, leather Sumacke, or Curriers Sumacke. (a ſhrub.)

Change: m. A change, transformation, metamorphoſis; exchange; alteration, innouation; conuerſion; alſo, a Banke of Exchange, or Place wherein money is exchanged, and commodities bartered for; alſo, a wrong Deere (in hunting,) or the heard whereinto a purſued Deere is gotten.

Aller ou change: Il va au ch. is ſaid of a married man, or fornicator, that leaues his owne wife, or wench, and frequents the companie of other women.

Garder le change. Hounds to purſue onely the game they began with; hounds to ſticke to their owne, or old game; to run, or hunt, their owne.

Prendre le change. Hounds to riot, or to run riot; to flye out at a wrong Deere, and leaue that which was firſt rowſed.

Changé: m. ée: f. Changed; transformed, metamorphoſed, altered, varied; conuerted; innouated; alſo, exchanged, interchanged, chopped, bartered, ſcoorſed.

Changeant. Changing, transforming; altering, varying, exchanging, interchanging.

Changement: m. A changing, transforming, altering, varying; conuerting; innouating; alſo, an exchanging, interchanging, chopping, ſcoorſing, bartering; alſo, a kind of ſhadowing; Looke Nuage.

Changer. To change, transforme, alter, varie; innouate, conuert; alſo, to exchange, interchange, trucke, ſcoorſe, barter, chop with.

Changer de main. To ſhift a thing out of one hand into into another; and (in matters of inheritance) to haue a new Lord, or owner.

Changer de note. Looke Note.

Changer de poil. To mend his manners, to alter his former diſpoſition, to become a new man.

Tel change qui ne gaigne pas: Pro. Many change for the worſe.

Changeur: m. A changer, exchanger, banker; alſo, a tole-taker, or gatherer of tribute.

Changeur du Threſor. The Kings Receiuer generall, called ſo in old time; at this day, Threſorier du Domaine.

Chanoine: m. A Canon in a Cathedrall Church.

Chanoinerie: f. as Chanoinie.

Chanoinie: f. A Canonſhip; the place of a Canon.

Chanſi: m. ie: f. Muſtie, fuſtie; almoſt rotten, putrified; vnſauourie through age, or long keeping; alſo, mouldie, hoarie, vinewed.

Chanſiſſeure: f. Muſtineſſe, fuſtineſſe; putrefaction; alſo, hoarineſſe, mouldineſſe, vinewedneſſe.

Chanſon: f. A Song; Ayre; Ballade; Lay, Roundelay, Virelay; alſo, a Poeme, or Diſcourſe, in Meeter.

Chanſon de Ricochet. A Song, Play, Tale, or Diſcourſe, thats endleſſe, and hangs ill together; or, whereof one part confutes, or contradicts, another.

Chanſon de Robin. A merrie, and extemporall ſong, or faſhion of ſinging, whereto one is euer adding ſomewhat, or may at pleaſure adde what he liſt; hence, alſo, any tedious, or endleſſe diſcourſe, &c.

Ces chanſons procedent de la meſme cornemuſe. All theſe matters haue but one head, all theſe buſineſſes but one originall.

On luy demanda la chanſon. (Spoken ieaſtingly of one thats but newly come out of priſon, where hauing been (as a bird in a Cage) incloſed, he may perhaps haue learnt to ſing.)

En vne chanſon n'y a qu'un bon mot: Prov. And thats the laſt (in the opinion of harſh, and barbarous, people.)

Chanſonet: m. A Canarie bird; or as Sanſonet.

Chanſonnette: f. A little ſong, a prettie aire; a ſleight, or light note, or tune.

Chanſonneur: m. A great ſinger of ſongs.

Chanſonnier: m. ere: f. Alwaies ſinging, full of ſongs.

Chanſons. Colombine flowers.

Chanſtié: m. as Chantier; a Gauntrie, or Stilling.

Chant: m. A Song, Ayre; Caroll, Ballade; Lay, Roundelay, Virelay; alſo, a Poeme, or Diſcourſe, in Ryme.

Chant Royal. A kind of ancient Poeme dedicated to the honour of Jeſus Chriſt, or of his Mother; and concluding with ſome fiue or ſix verſes, commending, or directed vnto, one Prince or other, not formerly mentioned.

Chanté: m. ée: f. Sung, chaunted; warbled; crowed; reſounded; commended, or deſcribed in Meeter, or in Verſe.

I'ay chanté à ſon han. I haue ſpoken with him. ¶Barrag.

Chanteau: m. A corner-peece, or peece broken off from the corner, or edge of a thing; (and hence) alſo, a gobbet, lumpe, cruſt, or cantell of bread, &c; alſo, a quarter, or the quarter-peece, of a garment.

Le Chanteau part le vilain: Pro. See Vilain.

Chantel. as Chanteau. ¶Lang.

Chantellage: m. A certaine fee due vnto ſome Lords for the Gauntries whereon wine that is ſold hath ſtood.

Chantelle. Les quattre deniers de chantelle. Foure pence payed euery yeare, within Bourbonnois, by certaine villains vnto their Lords, in acknowledgement of their ſeruile Tenures.

Chantement: m. A ſinging, reſounding, chaunting; warbling; crowing.

Chantepleure: f. A garden Pot, or Gardeners watering Pot; alſo, the cocke of a ceſterne; alſo, a certaine deuice, or Engine, for the emptying of a water-veſſell; made of two Lattin pipes (of equall bignes, and length), ioyned together at the one end, and thence diuiding themſelues, into the forme of a forke.

Chantepoulet: m. The leſſer Centorie, Earth-gall, Feauerworte; (Iunius.)

Chantepoulets. as Armoires; Sweet Williams, Tollmeyners, London Tufts. (Mathiolus.)

Chanter: m. A ſinging, or chaunting; whence;

Beau chanter ſouvent ennuye: Prov. Euen choice delights are often tedious.

Chanter. To ſing; reſound; chaunt it; warble, as a bird; crow as a cocke, &c; alſo, to deſcribe, or commend, in verſe.

Chanter en faulſet. To faine; alſo, to ſing louder and louder, or higher and higher; to riſe from note to note, in ſinging.

Chanter deuant la feſte. To triumph before a victorie.

Chanter l'hymne du Cigne. To ſing, ſpeake, or vtter, his laſt.

Chanter pouilles. To ſcold, reproch, reuile, raile on.

Chantez à l'aſne, il vous fera des pets: Prov. Sing you to an Aſſe, and he will fart vnto you; beſtow any good thing on a churle, and if he do requite it, it ſhall be in one filthie manner or other.

Aſſeurement chante qui n'a que perdre: Prov. He boldly chaunts it that hath naught to looſe; wee ſay; and who doth ſing ſo merrie a note as he that cannot change a groat? (This Prouerbe will alſo afford worthier expoſitions.)

On ſe laſſe de bien chanter: Pro. Seeke Laſſer.

Tel chante qui n'a ioye: Pro. Many a one ſings that is full ſorrie; (Thoſe that, againſt their wils, ride vp Holborne, oft verifie this Prouerbe.)

Chanterelle: f. The treble, in ſinging; alſo, a treble ſtring, or bell; alſo, a ſmall bell for a chyme.

Chantereme: f. A greene frog, land toad, hedge toad.

Chantereſſe: f. A Chauntereſſe; a woman that ſings, or ſings much.

Chanterie: f. Chaunting, ſinging; Muſicke; alſo, a Chaunterie; the place, degree, or office, of a Chaunter.

Chanterre: m. An ordinarie Poet, rymer, or verſifier, ſo tearmed in old time.

Chanteur: m. A ſinger, a Chaunter; alſo, a ſmall, white-breaſted and red-bellied forreſt-bird that ſings very much.

Chantier: m. A Wood-mongers, or Tymber-ſellers, yard; alſo, a Staulder, or Wood-pile; alſo, a Vine-ſupporting pole, or ſtake (whether it ſtand vpright, or lye, as a croſſe barre, ouerthwart; and (hence) alſo, as Treillis, or a rayle for the ſame purpoſe; alſo, a Stoope, or Pile, vnderpropping the banke of a riuer; alſo, a Gauntrie, or Stilling, for Hogs-heads, &c, to ſtand on; alſo, a Treſle to ſaw Tymber on.

Chantier de bois. A ſtaulder, woodſtacke, pile of wood.

Leurs Navires eſtoyent en chantier. Their ſhips were on the ſtockes, or in the docke.

Chan-

Chantillonné: m. ée: f. Chaunted; ſung roundly, or merrily.

Chantillonner. To chaunt it; to ſing roundly, or merrily.

Chantonner. as Chantillonner.

Chantourné: m. ée: f. Turned round, as the ſhell of a ſnayle; or often in and out, as the courſe of a brooke in a meddow.

Chantournement: m. The wrigling, eddie, or often, and vncertain turning in and out of the courſe of ſmall riuers.

Chantourner. To wryth, or turne often in and out, like a ſmall ſtreame in a plaine field, or meddow.

Chantre: m. A chaunter, a ſinger; alſo, a Chaunter in a Queere, or Cathedrall Church; alſo, as Chavaſſine; alſo, a white-breaſted, and red-bellied forreſt-bird that vſes to ſing very much.

Chantrerie. as Chanterie.

Chanure: m. Hempe.

Chanure ſauvage. Baſtard Hempe, wild Hempe, Nettle Hempe.

Chanureux: m. euſe: f. Hempen, Hempie; of Hempe; full of Hempe.

Chanurier: f. A Hempen cloſe; or, yard wherein Hempe is ſowed.

Chaos: m. A Chaos; a confuſed, or diſorderlie heape; a huge, immenſe, and formeleſſe Maſſe, or mingle-mangle of ſundry things hudled together.

Chape: f. A Cope; alſo, the locket of a dagger, &c; Looke Chappe.

Chapeau: m. A hat; hood, or bonnet for the head; alſo, a garland of flowers, &c.

Chapeau à l'Albanoiſe. A high-crownd hat; a hat with a crowne like a ſugar-loafe; or of the Spaniſh blocke.

Chapeaux blancs. A multitude of ſeditious, and mutinous Rebels of Flanders, in Charles the ſixts time.

Chapeau cornu. A certaine deformed, and pricklie fiſh, called, the great ſea Nettle. ¶Provençois.

Chapeau de mer. The ſame.

Chapeaux noirs. The flowers of Lonchitis (an hearb, whereof both Dioſcorides and Pliny make mention; yet Mathiolus proteſts he neuer could find it, nor heare of any that of late had found it:)

Chapeau de Roſes. Looke Chapel.

Chapeau rouge. A Cardinals hat; alſo, the bloudie necke of a headleſſe carkas; whence;

On luy a fait porter le chapeau rouge. They haue cut off his head.

Chapeau de Triomphe. A round garland worne about his head that triumphed.

Qui a argent a des chapeaux: Pro. He that is rich is reuerenced; or, he that hath money wants neither hat, nor hood; he that hath ſtore of coyne hath ſtore of all needfull commodities.

Chapel. as Chapeau; a hat; a garland.

Chapel de Roſes. A ſleight, incompetent, or leſſe-then due Portion, giuen a maid by her father vnto her mariage. ¶Lodunois.

Chapelain: m. A Chaplaine; alſo, the Curate of a Chappell.

Chapelainie: f. A Chaplainſhip; alſo, the cure, or charge of a Chappell; alſo, the liuing, or glebe, that belongs thereto.

Chapelé: m. ée: f. Chipped; as bread; or, as Chapplé.

Chapeler (du pain.) To chip (bread;) alſo, as Chappler.

Chapelet: m. A Chaplet; garland, wreath for the head; alſo, a couer, copping, or topping (made like a Chaplet) for any thing; (Hence) alſo, a nayles head; alſo, a haukes hood; alſo, a paire of beads; alſo, a wreath, or circlet of wicker, &c; to ſet vnder diſhes at meale-times; alſo, the breech of a Gunne.

Chapelet du genouil. The ball of the knee.

Chapelet du iarret. The bought of the hamme; the cambrell bogh of a horſe.

Danſer en chapelet. To daunce in a round, ring, or circle.

Chapelier: m. A Hat-maker; alſo, a maker of Garlands.

Chapelier: m. ere: f. Of a Chaplet, hat, or garland; becomming, or doing well in, a Chaplet, hat, or garland.

Chapeliere: f. A woman that makes hats, or garlands.

Chapeline. as Capeline.

Chapelis. Looke Chapplis.

Chapelle: f. A Chappell; Oratorie; little Church; alſo, alſo, a Lymbecke, or Stillitorie.

Chapelures: f. Chippings of bread.

Chaperon: m. A hood, or French hood (for a woman;) alſo, any hood, bonnet, or lettice cap.

Chaperon à bourlet. Such a hood as Lawyers and citizens weare on their ſhoulders vpon ſolemne dayes.

Chaperon de fou. A fooles cap ſet out with hornes, eares, ill faces, and other ſuch fopperies.

Le Chaperon d'une Trepane. The head, or hood of Trepane, whereby it is hindered from entring further then he liſts that holds it.

Vn Chaperon fait à l'en veux. A notable whipſter, or twigger; a good one I warrant her.

Le moule à chaperon. A womans pate.

Deux teſtes en vn chaperon. Two men of a like, or the ſame, humor, will, and diſpoſition; two mindes, or hearts, agreeing in one.

Il bailla à ſa femme dronos, & chaperon de meſme. He bangde, belammed, thumped, ſwadled, her.

Qui n'a point de teſte, n'a que faire de chaperon: Prov. He that hath no head needs no hood.

Chaperonné: m. ée: f. Hooded, hauing a hood on.

Pigeon chaperonné. A ruffed, or copped, Pigeon.

Chaperonner. To be bare, or vncouer his head before; to cap, or put off his cap vnto; alſo, to hood, or put a hood on.

Chaperonnier: m. Looke Chappronnier.

Chaperonnier: m. ere: f. Hooded; hooding.

Herbe chaperonniere. Wild Larks-heele; or, Monkshood with the purple flower.

Chaperonniere: f. Looke Chapperoniere.

Chaperonnieze: f. A poore ſlut, a dragle-tayle.

Chapiteau: m. The top, head, or chapter, of a Pillar; alſo, the vpper part of a Limbecke.

Chapitre: m. The Chapter of a booke; alſo, a Chapter, or aſſemblie of the Deane, Prebends, Canons, and other Officers, of a Cathedrall Church.

Pain de Chapitre. Looke Pain.

Avoir voix en chapitre. To be heard with much attention, and reſpect; to beare great ſway in an aſſemblie.

Chapitré: m. ée: f. Schooled, cenſured, checked, reproued.

Chapitrer. To ſchoole, correct, reproone, checke, take vp; alſo (leſſe properly) to beat, bruiſe; chop, or cut in peeces.

Cha-

Chapitreur de foin: m. A skarre-crow, bugbeare; one that threatens much, and does but a little.

Chapler. as Chapeler; to chip bread; or, as Chappler.

Chaplis. as Chapplis; also, bread-chippings; also, the small peeces that flye from stones in the hewing; we call them rags.

Chapon: m. A Capon; also, as Chappon.

Chapon de mer. The Rochet; or, a kind of red Gurnard.

Vol d'un chapon. is the Aker, or Arpent (or such a like proportion) of land, that lyes next vnto a Mannor house, or capitall Messuage, and fals euer (if there bee not a competent garden &c.) together with it, vnto the share of the eldest sonne. Looke Cheze; & Vol.

Coucher en chapon. To goe verie soone to bed a-nights; or, to get him to bed as soone as he hath supped.

A qui chapon mange chapon luy vient: Pro. He that eates good meat shall haue good meat.

Iamais putain n'ayma preud hom, ny grasse geline chapon: Pro. Neuer did whore loue honest man, nor wanton wife her weake man.

Iamais tigneux n'aymia le pigne, ny chapon crester geline: Prov. See Crester.

Si tu te trouves sans chapon sois content de pain & d'oignon: Prov. If thou hast not a Capon, feed on an Onyon.

Chaponné: Guelt, made a Capon; cut, as a Capon.

Chaponneau: m. A Caponet, or young Capon.

Chaponner. To cut Capons; to gueld.

Chapoté: m. ée: f. Hacked, or whitled; also, bagled, or dodged about the price of; busied in manie things to small purpose.

Chapoter. To hacke, or whitle; also, to bagle, paulter, trifle, or dodge, about the price of; also, to piddle, meddle, or busie himselfe in many things, and doe nothing well.

Chappe: f. A (Churchmans) Cope; also, a Iudges Hood; also, the helme (or head) of a Limbecke; also, the chape, or locket of a scabberd; also, the top, or crowne, on the top, of a Bell; also, a Mill-boope, or Mill-case; the open chest wherein the stones do run.

Cercher chappe cheute. To picke, or be desirous of, a quarrell; to looke, or spie, what fault he may find.

Debatre de la chappe à l'Evesque. To contend, or brable about trifles; or for things which belong vnto others. Looke Debatre.

Chappel: m. A Hat; a Garland. ¶Auvergnois.

Chappel d'argent; as, Garlande d'Argent.

Chappelainie: f. A Chaplaineship; the estate, or place of a Chaplaine, or of the Curate of a Chappell.

Chappelet. Looke Chapelet.

Chappelier: m. A maker of Hats; or, of Garlands.

Chappelier: m. ere: f. Looke Chapelier.

Chappeliere: f. A woman that makes Hats; or Garlands.

Chappelet: m. Looke Chapelet.

Chapperon. as Chaperon.

Chapperonniere: f. A chambermaid, spinster, kitchinmaid, meane wench, homelie huswife.

Chappier: m. A Cope-maker.

Chappins: m. Choppines; a kind of high slippers for low women.

Chapplé: m. ée: f. Hacked, hewed, slashed; also, chipped; as bread.

Chappler. To hacke, hew, slash vpon, or in pieces; also, to chip; as bread.

Chapplis: m. The hacking, hewing, and slashing thats among armed men when they incounter; also, bread-chippings; and, the chipping of bread.

Chappon: m. A slip, small twig, or shoot of a plant, or tree. ¶Bourg. also, as Chapon.

Chappoté: m. ée: f. Dodged, paultred, bagled; also, hacked, or whitled.

Chappron. as Chaperon. A hood.

Chappronner. as Chaperonner.

Chappronniet. Faulcon bon chappronnier. That takes the hood gently, or will easily be hooded.

Chappuis. Looke Chapuis.

Chapron. as Chaperon; and (in Rabelais) a hooded foole.

Chaptel. A lease of a beast, and of the whole increase thereof, made for a certaine time, and price; or, a beast let out to the halues.

Chaptels deniers. The principall summe, and charges a purchaser hath payed, and beene at, for land which the next of kinne offers to redeeme.

Chapuis: m. A Carpenter; one that deales with tymber, or with tymber-worke. ¶Dauph. & Lionnois.

Chapuiser. To play the Carpenter; to worke Carpenters worke; to deale with tymber.

Char: m. A Carre, Waggon, Wayne, or Chariot.

Characie. Garden Spurge.

Charactere. A Caracter; Figure; &c; See Caractere.

Charadrien. A certaine bird, which earnestly beholding one that is sicke of the Laundice, or beheld by him, heales him.

Charanson. as Charanton.

Charansonné: m. ée: f. Gnawed, eaten into, or eaten vp, by weeuils.

Charanton: m. A Mite, or Weeuill.

Charaveau: m. A Beetle.

Charbon: m. A coale; also, a Carbuncle, or Plague-sore.

Le charbon. The first lines, or lineaments of a picture; (tearmed so, belike, because most Painters draw them with a peece of Charcoale.)

Charbon blanc. A kind of coale made of the wood of the Crimson, or pricklie, Cedar.

Charbon de terre. Sea-coale, or Pit-coale.

Faire charbon de tout bois. To imploy, or make vse of, euerie thing.

D'un sac à charbon ne peut sortir que de la poussiere noire: Prov. A coale-sacke yeeldeth nothing but blacke dust; Blacke thoughts can none but balefull acts produce.

Charbonné: m. ée: f. Painted, marked, written, with a coale; collowed, smeered, blacked with coales; (hence) also, darkened.

Charbonnée: f. A Carbonado, or collop of, &c.

A vilain charbonnée d'asne. Looke Asne.

Charbonner. To paint, marke, write, or smeare, with a coale; to collowe; to bleach, or make black, with a coale.

Si vous ne le voulez croire charbonnez-le. See Croire.

Charbonnerie: f. A Coale-pit, or, Coale-mine; also, a Coale-house.

Charbonnesque: com. Coalie, of Coales.

Charbonneux: m. euse: f. Coalie, full of coales, all to becollowed; also, full of Carbuncles, or Plague-sores.

Charbonnier: m. A Collier.

Ce sont sacs de charbonniers qui se noirciſſent l'un l'autre: Pro. These fellowes corrupt, by accompanying, one another.

Charbonniere: f. as Charbonnerie; also, a Colliers wife, or wench.

Charbot: m. A Beetle.

Charbot de bœuf. The venomous blacke, and beetle-like flye called, a long-leg, or wag-leg; a deadly morsell to the beast that lickes him vp.

Chardon: m. A thistle; also, a Cardoone, or the staulke of an Artichoke, which buried in the earth in the end of August, proues excellent meat towards Christmas.

Chardon argentin. Oat-thistle, Gumme-thistle, Cotton-thistle, wild white thistle, Argentine, or siluer, thistle.

Chardon asinin. The white thistle, wild Artichoke, or our Ladies thistle.

Chardon benoict. Holy thistle, blessed thistle, Carduus benedictus.

Chardon à cent testes. The hundred-headed thistle, field Eringus, Leuant sea Holme, Champian sea Hollie; (a stranger, as yet, in England.)

Chardon estoillé. The stone thistle, Caltrop, starre thistle.

Chardon à foullon. The Tazell, Fullers thistle, Card Tazell, Venus baſon.

Chardon franc. The Artichoke.

Chardon marin. The sea thistle, sea Hollie, Eringus.

Chardon de nostre Dame. Our Ladies thistle, white thistle, milke thistle.

Chardon pignolat. Fullers thistle.

Chardon roullant. as Chardon à cent testes.

Chardon sauvage. as Chardon argentin; or, the ordinarie wild thistle.

Chardon testu. The hundred-headed thistle, or field Eringus.

Chardons de treillis de fer. A kind of yron defence, made thistle-like, or full of prickles, to keepe a wall from being scaled.

Laissons aux asnes les chardons. Let Asses feed on thistles; leaue vnto poorer spirits dull conceits.

Qui semè les chardons recueille des espines: Pro. He that sowes thistles reapes thornes.

Chardonner le drap. To raise, or lay the nap thereof, to dresse it, with the Tazell.

Chardonnereau: m. The barre of a dore; the peece, band, or plate, that runnes along on the hindge-side of some dores.

Chardonneret: m. A Goldfinch, or thistle Finch.

Chardonnerette: f. The thistlie, or pricklie Artichoke.

Chardonnet: m. Our Ladies thistle, milke thistle, white thistle; also, a Goldfinch.

Chardonnette: f. The wild, or pricklie, Artichoke; also, a kind of sauce for Kid.

Formage à la chardonnette. Cheese, whose milke was curded with the iuice of the wild Artichoke; or, a Lenten cheese, made of egges, and the spawne of fishes, and curded with the iuice of that thistle.

Chardonniere: f. A plot, or garden of Thistles, Artichokes, or Tazels; also, as Chardonnereau.

Chardous: m. Chardoones; or, the staulkes of Artichokes.

Chardousse: f. The white Cameleon, or white Carline, thistle.

Chardousse noire. The blacke Cameleon thistle.

Chardrier. as Chardonneret.

Charée. as Charrée.

Charenson: m. The (corne-deuouring) Mite, or Weeuill.

Charesse; &, Charesser. See Caresse, & Caresser.

Chareti: m. A waggon-house; a houell to set waines vnder.

Charetier: m. A Carter, or Carman.

Charetin. as Chareti.

Charette: f. A Chariot, or Waggon.

Charevastre: m. An Ash-cloth, Nash-cloth, or Buck-cloth.

Terny comme vn charevastre. As pale as an Ash-cloth.

Chargais: m. A certaine vnluckie bird of a browne, and (in some parts) of a white, colour. ¶ Savoyard.

Charge: f. A Load, Burthen, Fardle; also, a charge, hinderance, or cause of extraordinarie expence; an Office, Commission; Dignitie, Estate; Place, or Imployment, of charge; a busines, or matter giuen in charge; also, the charge of a Gunne; also, a charge giuen vpon the enemie; also, an accusation, imputation, or fault layed to the charge of; also, a Poultis, or moist plaister.

Charge Palatine. The Stewardship of an imperiall Court.

Charge Vilaine. as Roture (called so in old time.)

Tas de charge. Looke Tas.

Chevaucher sa charge. To ride circuit, as a Iudge, &c.

Chargé: m. ée: f. Charged, loaden, burthened, onerated; put vnto charges; assaulted, or charged, as an enemie; accused, or charged, as an offendor; also, that hath charge of.

Chargé à poids de marc. Throughly tipled, soundly whittled, that hath taken his liquor to purpose; that hath his full load, or carriage of it.

Chargé de la plus fine. The same; or delicately cupshotten; or as in Fin.

Le cerf a chargé sa venaison. The Stag is verie fat.

Cheval chargé de teste, ou de col. A heauie-headed, or hard-borne, horse.

Couleur chargée. A verie deepe colour.

Temps chargée. A gloomie, cloudie, ouer-cast, and raine-threatening season.

Laisser passer les plus chargez. To take no thought, passe the time merrily, let the world slide; (whilest others pine away through care;) or, suffering others, the whilest, to busie, charge, and torment themselues with cares.

Chargeant: m. ante: f. Heauie, burthensome, troublesome, expensiue; also, charging, loading, burthening.

Charger. To charge, burthen, onerate, load; lye heauie on, lay on, or lay load vpon; also, to trouble, charge, or put vnto charges; also, to giue charge vnto, bestow a charge on; also, to charge, assault, or set on.

Charger toutes les voiles. To clap on all the sayles.

Ie ne charge de rien. I will take nothing vpon me.

Qui n'a cheual, ne chariot, il ne charge pas quand il veut: Prov. He loads not when he lists that wants both horse, and cart.

Chargnure: f. as Charnure.

Chargue: f. as Chargue.

Chariage: m. Carriage; Carriages, Carts, or Waggons laden with prouision.

Charier. To Cart; to carrie, or conueigh in a Cart.

Charier droit. To tread straight, to take a right course; to behaue himselfe honestly, sincerely, vprightly; or, discreetly, warily, aduisedly.

Chariot: m. A Chariot, or Waggon; also, the seuen starres, or Charles wayne.

Cha-

Chariot branſlant. The Waggon, Coach, or Caroache, that hangs by leathers; a hanging Chariot.
Compagnon bien parlant vaut en chemin chariot branſlant: Prov. Agrees with the Latine, Comes facundus in via pro vehiculo eſt.
Qui n'a cheval ne chariot, il ne charge pas quand il veut: Pro. Hee often wants of his will, that wants wherewithall.

Chariotage: m. Waggonnage; the riding in, or carrying by, wagons, &c.

Chariotte: f. A ſmall Chariot, or toy that runs on wheeles, and teaches, or helps young children to goe; alſo, a kind of Litter borne vp by an axletree, and two wheeles; vſed heretofore by citizens wiues, who were not able, or not allowed to keepe ordinarie Litters.

Charitable: com. Charitable; bountifull to the poore, liberall to the needie, mercifull to thoſe in miſerie; good vnto all.

Charitatif: m. iue: f. as Charitable; alſo, doing charitable deeds; or, inclining vnto charitie.

Charité: f. Charitie, loue, mercifulneſſe; pitie on, goodneſſe vnto, the afflicted, or poore; alſo, loue, or good will vnto, agreement or concord with, neighbours; heartie friendlineſſe maintained, good offices continued vnto, or among, all; alſo, a bad word giuen, imputation caſt on, ill turne done one; and hence;
Ce ſont des charitez qu'il m'a monſtré. Such are the fauors, and friendlie offices which he hath done me in my abſence; (Ironically.)
Il cerche trop bas la charité en fouillant ſi prés des feſtes. Charitie is too high a vertue to be looked for ſo low as the buttocks.
Charité oingt, & peché poinct: Pro. Charitie comforteth, ſinne afflicteth.

Charivaris: m. A publicke defamation, or traducing of; a foule noiſe made, blacke Santus rung, to the ſhame, and diſgrace of another; hence, an infamous (or infaming) ballade ſung, by an armed troupe, vnder the window of an old dotard married, the day before, vnto a young wanton, in mockerie of them both; alſo, a manner of catching, or killing of Stockdoues by night.
Charivaris de poelles. The carting of an infamous perſon, graced with the harmonie of tinging kettles, and frying-pan Muſicke.

Charlaide. Stout, valiant, warlike; reſembling, or holding of, Charles; (a name, wherein the French (by reaſon of the worth of ſome kings of theirs) do very much glorie.)

Charlatan: m. A Mountebanke, a couſening drug-ſeller, a pratling quack-ſaluer, a tatler, babler, fooliſh prater, or commender of trifles.

Charlataner. To couſen, beguile, gull; cog, foiſt; play the Mountebanke; to prattle, bable, tattle fooliſhly.

Charlatanerie: f. Couſening, or gulling ſpeech; cogging, foiſting, lying; extreme commendation of a trifle, thereby to make it the more ſaleable.

Charlater. Looke Charlataner.

Charlaterie: f. Charlatiſme; or, as Charlatanerie.

Charlot: m. A Curlew.

Charme: m. The Yoake tree, Yoake Elme, Horn-beame, Witch-haſell, Hard-beame; alſo, a Charme, Spell, Incantation, Enchantment; alſo, a Stuble ground.

Charmeau: m. A young, or little Yoake tree.

Charme-cœur. Raviſhing, heart-charming, thoughts-inchaunting.

Charme-peine. Griefe-charming, ache-inchaunting, paine-appeaſing.

Charmer. To charme; to inchaunt.

Charmereſſe: f. An Inchauntreſſe, Witch, or Wizard.

Charme-ſoing. Care-inchaunting, paines-allaying.

Charme-ſouci. Comforting, care-charming, cark-appeaſing.

Charmeur: m. A Charmer, an Inchaunter, a Wizard.

Charmeuſement. Charmingly, inchauntingly.

Charmoye: f. A groue of Yoakes, or of Horne-beame trees.

Charnage: m. Fleſh-time; the ſeaſon wherein fleſh is eaten; alſo, fleſh, or fleſh-meat.

Charnalité: f. Senſualitie, fleſhlineſſe, carnallneſſe.

Charnaut: m. Fleſh-time; the ſeaſon wherein fleſh may be eaten.

Charnié: m. A ſtake, prop, ſtay, pole, to ſupport a Vine.

Charnie: f. A Plaine, Downe, open, or vnincloſed, ground.

Charnier: m. A Churchyard, or chanell houſe; a place wherein dead bodies are layd, or their bones kept; alſo, a little ſtake, pole, or prop; alſo, a poudering tub; and hence;
Plus rouillé que la claveure d'ũ vieil charnier; &,
Le viſage leur reluiſoit comme la claveure d'un charnier. Sceke Claveure.
Il fera trembler le lard au charnier. He will doe wonders; or, he will terrifie them wonderfully. (Ironically.)

Charniere: f. A hindge; alſo, a knuckle, or turning ioynt; alſo, a certaine Deuice, or Engine, whereby a woodden leg, or arme is made to moue; alſo, as Chardonnereau.
La charniere des genoux. The whall-bone, or whirle-bone, of the knees.

Charnu: m. uë: f. Fleſhie; groſſe, corpulent, quarrie, thicke.
Capeau charnu. The ſea Nettle.

Charnure: f. Brawne, fleſhineſſe, fulneſſe of fleſh, the ſubſtance of boneleſſe fleſh; the fleſhie parts of the bodie.
La charnure d'herbes. Their pith, or pulpe; or the knottie, or big ſwelling of (ſome of) their ſtaulkes, and rootes.

Charongne: f. A carrion; a ſtinking carkas; putrified fleſh.

Charongneux: m. euſe: f. Full of carrion; ſtinking of raw, and putrified, fleſh.

Charongnier: m. ere: f. Affecting, or feeding on, carrion; as Kites, Curres, &c.

Charopper. To boyle one ſort of liquor nine or ten times ouer; (a word moſt vſed by Syrrop-makers.)

Charpentailler. To cut, hack, hew; as a Carpenter doth Tymber.

Charpentaire: f. as Herbe au Charpentier; alſo, the ſea-Onyon.

Charpente: f. A frame of Tymber (for a houſe, &c.)
Bois de charpente. Tymber.

Charpenté: m. ée: f. Wrought, or built, by a Carpenter; made, or framed of Tymber; alſo, cut, or hewed, as Tymber by a Carpenter; and hence; hacked, ſlaſhed, mangled, or wounded (in manie places of the bodie.)

Charpenter. To play the Carpenter, worke Carpenters worke; make, build, or frame, of Tymber; alſo, to cut, or hew as Carpenters doe Tymber; and hence; to hacke, ſlaſh, mangle, or wound in many places of the bodie; alſo, to rumble, or make a great noiſe in a roome, by remouing of heauie things.

Charpenterie: f. Carpentrie, Carpenters worke; the trade of a Carpenter; Architecture of tymber.

Charpentier: m. A Carpenter, a Wright.

Herbe au charpentier. Prunell, Carpenters-hearbe, Sickle-worte, Hooke-heale, Selfe-heale; also, Rib-worte, Lambes tongue, small Plantaine, &c; Looke Herbe.

Charpi: m. Lint, or downe (of linnen.) Looke Charpy.

Charpi: m. ie: f. Tosed, or towsed; uncluttered, or pulled out (as a thicke locke of wooll;) also, drawne gently, as wooll, in the spinning; also, hatchelled, or hackelled; refined on the hatchell, or flaxcombe.

Charpie: f. as Charpi. Lint.

Charpir de la laine. To tose, or towse it; to pull out, or asunder, the thicke locks thereof; also, to draw it (gently) in spinning.

Charpir du lin. To hackle, or hatchell flax; to refine it, by hatchelling, or on the flaxcombe.

Charpy: m. Lint.

Charpy de Nature. A Cobweb.

Charrau: m. A Cart-way; Rutt-way.

Charrée: f. Buck-ashes, the ashes whereof Lye hath bin made; also, a little twelue-footed water-worme, much hunted after by Trowtes, and therefore vsed by fishers as a bayt for them.

Charreton: m. A little chariot.

Charette: f. A Chariot; a Wagon.

Chasse à la charrette. is by a Chariot (and the driuer thereof couered with leauie boughes) wherein one lyes, readie with a Peece, or Bowe, to shoot at Deere, while they gaze at the sight; or stop at the noyse, of the wheeles.

Mangeur de charrettes ferrées. A terrible cutter, swaggerer, bugbeare, swashbuckler; one that will kill all he sees, and eat all he kils.

Charriable: com. Carriable; which may be carried on waynes, or in waggons.

Charrié: m. A Bucking cloth, or Nash-cloth.

Charrié: m. ée: f. Carried, conueyed by cart, &c.

Charrier: m. as Charrié.

Charrier. To carrie, or conuey by cart, waine, chariot, or waggon. Looke Charier.

Charriere. as Carriere.

Charron: m. A Waggon-maker, Cart-wright, or Cart-maker; also, a Waggon-man, Wayne-man, or Carre-man; one that driues, or goes with, a Cart, Wayne, or waggon; whence;

Bon charron tourne en petit lieu: Prov. A good carter turnes in a narrow corner; a wise fellow quits himselfe well in time of extremitie, or, shifts himselfe easily out of an extremitie.

Charronnerie: f. Cart-worke, Cart-making; Carre-directing, or driuing.

Charroy: m. Carriage, Portage, Waynage, Wagonnage; the carrying of things by Wayne, Cart, or Waggon; also, a cart, or other cariage; also, a Cart-load, Chariot-load, or Wagon-load of.

Charroyer. To carrie in, or transport by, a Wayne, or Cart.

Charruage: m. The furniture belonging to a plough; the plough-geeres; also, tilled, or plowed land.

Droict de charruage. as Suitte de disme.

Charruë: f. A Plough.

Tourner la charruë contre les bœufs. To doe things preposterously.

Charruë de chien ne vaut rien: Prov. The plough that a dog drawes is not worth the driuing.

Charrué: m. ée: f. Tilled, plowed.

Charruër. To till, eare, plow.

Charte: f. as Carte; also, the Charter of a Towne, or Corporation.

Charté: f. as Certé. Deerenesse, &c.

Charté: m. ée: f. Hauing a Charter, holding, or held by Charter.

Chartée: f. A Cart-load, or, Cart-full of.

Chartepartie: f. A Charter-partie, or bill of lading.

Charterie: f. A carterlie, or churlish, tricke; also, a Houell to set carts vnder.

Chartier: m. A Carter, Carreman; Waine-man, Waggon-man.

Il iure comme vn chartier. He sweares like a Carter; (we say, like a Tinker.)

Il n'est si bon chartier qui ne verse: Pro. The best of them sometimes ouerturnes his cart; or, (as we say) the best Cart may ouerthrow.

Chartil: m. The frame of a Cart, Wayne, or Waggon, without the wheeles.

Chartin. The same.

Charton: m. A Waggoner, or Chariot-driuer.

Chartre: f. A Charter (&c, as in Chartres;) also, a Prison; or, the darkest, or worst roome in a Prison; the Hole, or Dungeon; also, a Consumption; whence;

Deuenir, ou estre en chartre. To fall into, or be in, a consumption; to languish, pine, waste, or wither away; (Metaphorically, from such as hauing beene long pent vp in a close prison, looke, for the most part, most pitifully on it.)

Chartres: f. Charters; auncient Rolls, publike Records, Pleadings, Deeds, Instruments, or Euidences, concerning either the Crowne, or Countrey; or, a Comminaltie, or Corporation.

Tresor des chartres. The Rolls.

Chartrier: m. A Iaylor; also, a prisoner.

Chartulaire: m. A Terrier, or Coucher-booke.

Charvi. Looke Chervis.

Châs. Looke Chaas.

Chas. à chas vn; Scarce one, but one, onely one.

Chascun: m. une: f. Euerie one, all, each; Looke Chasque.

Chascun a sa guise. Euery one as he likes, &c.

Chascun a son tour: Pro. Euery one hath his turne, course, time.

Chascune: f. Looke Chacunerie.

Chascunerie, or Chascuniere. Looke Chacunerie.

Chaseret: m. A Cheesfat, or Cheese-fat.

Chasereux: m. euse: f. Belonging to the Cheesfat.

Chasier: m. A Cheese-presse; or as Chasiere; a Cheese-hecke.

Chasiere: f. A Cheese-hecke; the long and round racke whereon cheese is dryed; and the great, or grated Saue hung, by a pulley, to the top of a Dayrie-house, or Store-house; and seruing to keepe cheese, white-meates, and other belly-timber in.

Chaslict: m. A Bedstead.

Chasmate: f. A Casemate in fortification; a murthering house placed in the ditch, to plague the assaylants, of a fortresse.

Chasque: com. Each; or as Chascun; (but with some difference; for this goes euer before a Substantiue; as, chasque chose, chasque livre, chasque lieu, &c; the other is most commonly, as a Substantiue, alone; chascun le voit; chascun à part, &c.

A chasque mercier son panier: Pro. Euery one must looke to his owne charge; or, beare his owne burthen.

Chassa-

Chaſſable: com. Chaſeable; fit to be chaſed, purſued, hunted after.

Chaſſe: f. A hunting; a chaſe, purſuit, or following of; a ſearch for, inquirie after; alſo, a chaſe at Tennis; alſo, a Millers walke, or circuit, wherein he may lawfully fetch griſt vnto his Mill; alſo, (in water-workes) that which forceth the water out, or giueth it force to burſt out; any violent expulſion, expreſſion, putting forth, driuing out; alſo, a Shrine for a Relicke, or other (held) ſacred thing; alſo, that thing, or part of a thing, wherein another is enchaſed; and hence;

La chaſſe d'un Raſor. The handle of a Raſor.

La chaſſe d'une Roſe. The greene ſprigs on the bottome, or backſide, of a Roſe.

La chaſſe des ſouldes. Looke Soulde.

La chaſſe d' un trebuchet. The ſhrine of a paire of gold weights; the hollow wherein the Cocke, Tongue, or Tryall playeth.

Arbaleſte de courte chaſſe. That carries, or ſhoots, leuell but a little way.

Harquebouſe de chaſſe. A fowling peece.

En chaſſe. A bulling; as a Cow thats wanton.

Marquez bien cette chaſſe. Heed well that paſſage, marke well the point, whereof I haue informed you.

Retourner ſes chaſſes. A hauke, when ſhe hath flown out, at her height, to come in againe.

C'eſt vne Chaſſe ou le veneur eſt prins: Pro. Said of the ill (but deſerued) ſucceſſe of a falſe Accuſation; or of any Enterpriſe, that proues hurtfull to the vndertaker, or deuiſer of it; wee ſay of ſuch a one; hee hath made a rod for his owne tayle.

Il n'eſt chaſſe que de vieux levrier: Prov. An old dog hunts ſureſt, bites ſoreſt, holds what he catches, kils what he reaches.

Chaſſé: m. ée: f. Chaſed, purſued; hunted after; put to flight; driuen away; reiected, or caſt off; expelled out of.

Chaſſe-boſſe. Hearbe-willow, or Willow-hearb, Looſeſtrife.

Chaſſe-chien: m. The Clarke, or inferiour Officer, of a Church; who (beſides his authoritie ouer dogges) diſtributes the holie-bread, and begs for the (maſſing) Prieſt.

Chaſſe-corneille: f. A kind of ſmall fowling peece.

Chaſſe-crainte: com. Feare-expelling.

Chaſſe-diable. Saint Iohns worte, Saint Iohns graſſe.

Chaſſe-ennui. Care-expelling, cheering vp.

Chaſſe-erreur. Error-expelling, zealous of truth.

Chaſſe-fievre: f. Germaunder, Engliſh Treacle; an hearbe.

Chaſſe-mal. Miſchiefes-expelling, ill-things out-driuing.

Chaſſe-marée: m. A Rippier.

Chaſſe-meſſe: f. A fire-locke; or horſemans peece that goes off by a fire-locke, and is charged with Quarter-ſhot of ſteele; ſo tearmed, becauſe firſt vſed by them of the Religion.

Chaſſe-monſtre: com. Monſter-purſuing (an Epithite for Hercules.)

Chaſſe-mort: com. Preſeruatiue, death-expelling.

Chaſſe-nuë. Skie-cleering.

Chaſſe-ordure: com. Cleanſing, purging, filth-expelling, filthineſſe out-driuing.

Chaſſe-pape. as Chaſſe-meſſe. (A word deuiſed in the late ciuile warres.)

Chaſſe-peine. Toyle-expelling; cares-excluding; as wine, and gold, &c.

Chaſſe-peſte. ſubſtan. as Chaſſe-boſſe.

Chaſſe-peſte. adject. Plague-expelling.

Chaſſe-poulx. Wild blacke Ellebore, or Beares-foot.

Chaſſer. To chaſe, or driue away; to expell, reiect, caſt off, or put away; alſo, to hunt; or, follow after; to purſue, or giue chaſe vnto.

Chaſſer apres les mouches. To ſpend the time moſt vainely, idly, fooliſhly; to as little purpoſe as may be; or, to looſe time altogether.

Autant vaut celuy qui chaſſe & rien ne prend, comme celuy qui lit & rien n'entend: Pro. As good hunt and take nought, as read and vnderſtand nought.

Chaſſe-rage. The hearb wild Creſſes; or, Dittanie, Dittander, Pepper-wort.

Chaſſe-rat. A certaine harmeleſſe Serpent, called ſo, becauſe ſhe, commonly, feeds on Rats.

Chaſſereſſe: f. A huntreſſe.

Chaſſeret: m. A little hunter.

Chaſſerie: f. Hunting; a chaſing.

Chaſſerot: m. otte: f. Much giuen to hunting.

Chaſſeteron. A verie ſmall cheſt, or coffer, of wood.

Chaſſeton: m. A Scrichowle; alſo, a little cheſt of wood.

Chaſſeur: m. A hunter, a chaſer; one that ſeeketh, or traceth out, others.

Chaſſeur de mouches. A kill-flye; a Braggadochio; alſo, a vaine or idle fellow.

Deſjuner de chaſſeur. A large, or great, breakefaſt (eaten.)

Meſle de chaſſeur. A ſhort, or ſoone-ſayed, Maſſe.

Chaſſie. Looke Chacie.

Chaſſieuſeté: f. Extreame bleare-eyedneſſe.

Chaſſieux: m. euſe: f. Bleare-eyed; whoſe eyes doe runne continually.

Chaſſis: m. A frame of wood for a window; (hence) alſo, a woodden, paper, or linnen, window; and, the bands, or borders that are on either ſide of a dore, gate, or window; alſo, a Printers Tympane.

Chaſſiſſé. Feneſtre chaſſiſsée. A window that is couered with Paper, or Linnen cloth, in ſtead of glaſſe.

Chaſſitier: m. A maker of woodden, or paper, windowes; or of frames, for paper, or linnen, windowes.

Chaſſoire: f. A Carters whip, or whip to driue horſes.

Chaſſot: m. The Gull, Bull-head, or Millers thumbe; (a fiſh.)

Chaſtaigne: f. A Cheſnut.

Chaſtaigne chevaline. The horſe Cheſnut; or, a kind of great blacke Cheſnut; rounder and ſweeter, but leſſe ſauourie, then the ordinarie one.

Chaſtaigne d' eau. The water Nut, Saligot, water Caltrop.

Chaſtaigne femelle. The ſmall, or wild Cheſnut.

Chaſtaigne marine. The ſea Vrchin (a little ſhell-fiſh;) ſome alſo call ſo, the water Caltrop.

Chaſtaigne maſle. as Marron; the great, or domeſticall Chesnut.

Chaſtaigne de mer. The ſea Vrchin.

Chaſtaigne de riviere. as Chaſtaigne d'eau.

Il en plumera la chaſtaigne. Hee will ſmart, or pay deerely, for it; it will coſt him deerely; Seeke Plumer.

Chaſtaigneraye: f. A Groue, Plot, or Orchard of Cheſtnut trees.

Chaſtaignier: m. A Cheſſen, or Cheſtnut, tree.

Chaſtain. Cheſtnut-colour, Liuer-hue.

Chaſte: com. Chaſt, luſtleſſe, continent, honeſt of bodie; pure, vndefiled; inuiolated, not diſtained with filth, or any (vnlawfull) Venerie.

Chaſteadun. The chiefe towne of the Countie of Dunois; whoſe inhabitants being as raſh, as quicke ſpirited, gaue beginning to the prouerbiall phraſe.

Il eſt de Chaſteadun. He replies too haſtily; he is too quicke of conceit; preſuming he vnderſtands all ones meaning by one word, he often miſtakes all.

Chaſteau: m. A caſtle (is properly, a houſe furniſhed with towers, incompaſſed by walls, and ditches; and ſtrengthened by a Mount, or Donjon in the middeſt; yet the French Courtiers tearme ſo any houſe of the kings;) alſo, a Rooke at Cheſſe.

Chaſteau deuant. The fore-caſtle of a ſhip.

Faire des chaſteaux en Eſpaigne. To build caſtles in the aire (ſay we;) to muſe he knowes not about what; to beſtow the time in friuolous contemplations; to bee full of wandering, and vain imaginations; to propound vnto himſelfe, or others, moſt idle, or impoſſible, exploits; (for there are but few Caſtles in the main land of Spain; or if more were to be built, who hath to do withall but the Spaniard?)

Chaſteau abbatu eſt à demi refaict: Prov. A caſtle once throwne downe is halfe repaired.

Bon chaſteau garde qui ſçait ſont corps garder: Prov. A good fort guards he, that himſelfe can guard.

Chaſtel: m. as Chaſteau; alſo, a kind of Peare whereof excellent Perrie is made; alſo, a chattell; or, ſtuffe, goods, moueables.

Deniers chaſtels. Looke Chaptels.

Chaſtelain: m. A Lord Caſtellain; the Lord, or owner of a caſtle, or of a fortified houſe; or of a territorie, vnto which Caſtle-like Iuriſdiction, and Royalties, belong; inferiour to a Baron in ranke (though in few points of Rights) and the meaneſt Lord of dignitie that is; alſo, the Gouernour, Captaine, Conſtable, or Iudge, of a Caſtle, or of a Towne that hath, or hath had, a caſtle in it; ſuch as be, at this day, Les Chaſtelains des villes de Dauphiné, Auvergne, and Poictou; as alſo thoſe of the countrey of Foreſts (wherein there be Iudges of this name, whoſe Iuriſdiction exceedes not matters of threeſcore ſhillings value;) And as now in theſe Prouinces Les Chaſtelains are, euen ſo heretofore in all others they were, but Officers, (Captaines, or Iudges) placed by Dukes, or Earles (that had large Territories) within their principall, and moſt remote Bouroughes, to containe the inhabitants in obedience, or to adminiſter Iuſtice vnto them, in ordinarie matters (for they were allowed to exerciſe no other then baſſe Iuſtice in villages, and moyenne in townes;) Thus hauing the commaund of Places, and being farre from their Lords, they incroached, by degrees, on the Inheritance, and Seignorie thereof, and ſo became of Officers, abſolute Lords; turning all duties, and rights, which formerly they yeelded vnto their founders, into a bare Tenure; or holding (as vaſſales, or tenants) that of them, which at firſt (as Miniſters, or Deputies) they held vnder them: And afterwards not contented with La Baſſe or moyenne Iuſtice, they vſurped La haute; and (more then that) all ſuch extraordinarie, or two-fold Iuriſdiction as the Barons of thoſe times had; and held it vntill the yeare 1573. (Looke Droict de Bailliage;) Alſo, the Iudge, or Steward of a Lord Caſtellains Courts.

Grand chaſtelain. A Lord Baron; called ſo in many places, from the conformitie that is betweene the Eſtates of a Baron, and a Chaſtelain, who hath vſurped (almoſt) all Baron-like Rights, and Royalties.

Chaſtelain: m. aine: f. Of, or belonging to, a Caſtle; Caſtleſhip, Caſtlewicke, or Caſtleward.

Chaſtelainerie: f. as Chaſtellenie; or the Stewardſhip of a Lord Caſtellains courts.

Chaſtelet: m. A little Caſtle, Fort, or Hould; alſo, a Court, or Auditorie, of Iuſtice; a Guild-hall, or (ordinarie) Seſſions houſe, within a citie, wherein both ciuile, and criminall cauſes are heard, and determined by a Lieutenant, or Prouoſt (royall) and certaine Aſſiſtant Conſeillers; alſo, a priſon (for great perſons;) alſo, the childiſh game Cobnut; or (rather) the throwing of a Ball at a heape of Nuts, which done, the thrower takes as many as he hath hit, or ſcattered.

Le petit Chaſtelet. The name of a priſon.

Chaſtellain. Looke Chaſtelain.

Chaſtellé: m. ée: f. Caſtellated (a tearme of Blaſon.)

Chaſtellenie: f. A Caſtle-wicke, or Caſtleſhip; the Tenure, or Honour of a Caſtleſhip; the Eſtate, Iuriſdiction, or Dignitie of a Lord Caſtellain; a kind of Seigniorie thats held of ſome other then the king, or not directly of the Crowne, and hath all (ſubalterne) Iuriſdiction annexed vnto it. (In reſpect whereof, Toutes les Iuſtices ayans plein Territorie, & entier commandement ſont appellées Chaſtellenies; and in old Law-bookes this word often ſignifies, L'enclaue, & diſtroict de toute pleine, & entiere Iuſtice, ſayes a learned Frenchman;) And though it be inferiour to a Baronnie in point of dignitie, and ſometimes ſubiect in Tenure (ſome Chaſtellenies being held of Barons) and haue a farre leſſe Territorie belonging to it (for a Baronnie ſhould containe at leaſt three Chaſtellenies) yet doth it reſemble it in all Priuiledges, and Royalties; except that of the walled, or fortified towne; in ſtead whereof, the Lord Caſtellain may haue a caſtle, or fortified houſe; and hath power to debarre any one from building ſuch another within his Territorie, though the King haue graunted the other a Licence to doe it.

Droict de chaſtellenie. So is Droict de Bailliage called in the cuſtome of Meaux; becauſe it belongs vnto Lords Caſtellains.

Chaſtellerie. as Chaſtellenie.

Chaſtement. Chaſtly, continently, honeſtly, modeſtly, without luſt.

Chaſteneraïe: f. A plot, or ground full of Cheſtnut trees.

Chaſteté: f. Chaſtitie, continencie, luſtleſneſſe.

Chaſtiable: com. Chaſticeable; fit to be chaſtiſed.

Chaſtié: m. ée: f. Chaſtiſed, puniſhed; corrected.

Chaſtier. To chaſtiſe, puniſh; correct.

Qui bien aime bien chaſtie: Prov. He that loues throughly, payes home when he puniſhes.

Qui ne chaſtie culot ne chaſtie culaſſe: Prov. He that cenſures not ſmall faults, ouerſees great ones; or, he that will not amend ſmall faults, cannot amend great ones.

Chaſtieur: m. A Chaſtiſer, Puniſher; Corrector.

Chaſtiment: m. Chaſticement, puniſhment, correction.

Chaſti-villain. A whip, ſcourge, or cudgell for a knaue; alſo, a Caſtle, or Citadell in, or neere, a good Towne.

Cha-

Chastrable: com. Geldable; fit to bee gelt, speyed, or splayed.
Chastré: m. ée: f. Gelt, speyed, cut, lib'd, splayed.
Vn arrest chastré. Part whereof is reuoked by way of interpretation, or declaration of the Court that made it.
Porc chastré. A hog, or barrow hog.
Chastrement: m. A gelding, libbing, speying, splaying.
Chastrer. To geld, lib, cut, spey, splay.
Chastrer les arbres. To pierce them at the foot, therby to make them void th'ill humors which are in their stocke, and branches; also, to discharge them of noysome, and superfluous branches, or buds.
Chastrer les mouſches à miel. To driue a hiue of Bees.)
Chastrer le parc. To cull th'oldest sheepe out of a flocke, and furnish it with as many yong ones.
Chastreur: m. A gelder, libber, speyer.
Chastrure: f. as Chastrement; Also, the art, or manner of gelding.
La chastrure d'un saulx. The superfluous buds, or twigs which haue beene cut, or pulled, from it.
Chasuble: f. A chasuble, a fashion of cope thats open onely in the sides; and is worne at Masse both by the Priest (who hath it round) and his assistant Deacon, and Subdeacon, who haue it square, in the bottome.
Chat: m. A cat, a pusse.
Chat fourré. A Pettifogger, or paultrie Lawyer.
Chat garanier. Looke Chat-garanier.
Chat huant. An Owle, or Madge-howlet; Looke Chat-huant.
Chat de mer. The smallest (kind of) Dog-fish.
Herbe au chat, ou, de chat. Nep, or Nip, cats Mint.
Herbe aux chats. The same; also, as Ortie puante.
Oeil de chat. Calues-snout, Snapdragon (an hearbe;) also, a certaine white gemme; (Looke Oeil;) also, a cats-eye; or sight that is as good by night as in the day; also, a great, and out-strouting eye.
Patte de chat. Ground ivie, cats-foot, alehoofe, tunehoofe. Gill creepe by the ground.
Pied de chat. A kind of port, or vpset of a bit, made like a Cats foot.
Poil de chat. A whitlow in the finger; also, the festering sore, tearmed a cats-tayle.
Poire chat. The name of a wholsome, sweet-smelling, and sharpe-tasting peare.
Sault du chat. The cat-leape; a certaine tricke done by Tumblers, and vaulters vpon a table set aslope against a wall.
Acheter chat en poche, ou en sac. We say, to buy a pig in a poke.
Aller du pied comme vn chat maigre. To be light, or swift of foot; also, to tread lightly, nicely, softly, gingerly, as if he went on egs.
Avoir vn oeil à la poisle l'autre au chat. To heed as well what will decrease, as what doth encrease, his gaine.
Donner à manger au chien, & au chat. To keepe a plentifull house.
Entendre le chat sans dire minon. To haue a good conceit, quicke apprehension, readie understanding; to know without telling what is to be done.
Esveiller le chat qui dort. To incense an angrie bodie when he is at quiet; to set th'ill minded on mischiefe; to rub a hidden sore; to remember a forgotten fault.
Plus esveillé qu'un chat qu'on fouette. More quick, or nimble, than a whipped cat.
Iecter le chat aux iambes à. To cast an imputation, to lay the whole blame, and shame of an offence, on.
Mettre la campane au chat. To begin a quarell, to raise a brabble, make a iarre, set at oddes, or together by the eares; we say also, in the same sence, to hang the bell about the cats necke.
On ne prend pas tels chats sans mouffles. (Sayed of a strong towne, or stout person;) they will not bee forced, or fetched in easily; they will scratch those that offer to catch them, and therefore go prouided for them.
Vous l'eussiez fait passer par le trou du chat. You had made him doe wonderfull matters; or any thing. (ironically.)
Chat eschaudé craint l'eau froide: Prov. The scalded cat feares water though't be cold.
Le chat a faim quand il ronge du pain: Pro. The cat is hungrie when a crust contents her.
Au chat cendreux iamais ne tombe rien en gueule: Prov. An idle house-doue neuer gets preferment.
Au chat lescheur bat on souvent la gueule: Prov. The lickorous cat hath many a rap.
A bon rat bon chat: Prov. Two knaues well met, or matched.
Celuy a bon gage du chat qui en tient la peau: Prov. Hee's sure of a cat that hath her skin.
C'est belle bataille des chiens, & des chats, chacun a des ongles: Prov. Looke Bataille.
Les rats se promenent à l'aise là ou il n'y a point de chats: Prov. Where cats are wanting rats in freedome walke.
Occasion trouve qui son chat bat: Prov. Wee say (with some difference) a man may easily find a staffe to beat his dog.
Tant dort le chat qu'il se resveille: Prov. See Resveiller.
Trop tard se repend le rat entre les pattes du chat: Prov. When punishment's inflicted repentance comes too late.
Chat-chastel, ou chateil. A defensiue engine of warre, somewhat resembling the Roman Testudo, and grown (as it) altogether out of vse.
Chate: f. A she-cat, or doe-cat; also, a certaine Engine, wherewith fish is (forbidden to be) caught.
Chatel: m. A chattell, or mouable: ¶Norm.
Chatemite. An hypocrite; a counterfeiter of holinesse, religion, deuotion.
Chatemiterie: f. Hypocrisie; a fayning of zeale, a counterfeiting of holinesse, religion, or deuotion.
Chatemitiquement. Hypocritically.
Chatemitte. Looke Chatemite.
Chatepeleuse: f. A corne-deuouring mite, or weeuell.
Chat-fourré: m. A Lawyer; or Pettifogger (who commonly weares a gowne furred with wild cat: ¶Rab.
Chat-garanier: m. A Polecat; or, a kind of wild Cat that haunts warrens.
Chat-huant: m. The great (rough-legd) Owle; also, the Horne-coot, or Horne-owle.
Chat-huant plombé. A small, and leaden-coloured Owle, very common in Lorraine.
Petit chat-huant. An Owlet; or the little (rough-legd) Owle.
Chatillons: m. Small fresh-water Lampreyes; called so at Tholouse.
Chaton: m. The Beazill, Collet, head, or broadest part of a ring, &c, wherein the stone is set; also, the paulme, or flower of a willow; Looke Chatton.
Chaton de l'oeil; as Orbite.
Chatonner. To kittle, or bring forth yong cats.
Chatonnie: f. A waggish tricke, a knauish or vnhappie pranke;

pranke ; alſo, the art of pilfering, or nimming.

Chatouille : f. A (certaine) fiſh, thats verie full of ſmall bones, and therefore dangerous meat.

Chatouillé : m. ée : f. Tickled ; gently, or with pleaſure, touched ; alſo, flattered ; ſoothed, pleaſed with prayſes.

Chatouillement : m. A tickling ; a pleaſant, or gentle touching, a delightfull moving ; alſo, flatterie, a ſoothing ; praiſing, ſmoothing.

Chatouiller. To tickle, to touch gently, ; to glad, or ioy by touching ; to moue with pleaſure, to prouoke with delight ; alſo, to flatter, claw, ſmooth, praiſe, pleaſe with faire words.

Se chatouiller pour ſe faire rire. To flatter, and pleaſe himſelfe with fond hopes, and vaine imaginations ; alſo, to forge idle, and vnſeaſonable ieaſts for himſelfe to laugh at if others will not.

Chatouilleux : m. euſe : f. Tickliſh ; tickle ; quaint, nice, daintie, preciſe ; loath, backward ; odde, prepoſterous ; wayward, froward ; keene, ſoone cutting, dangerous to be touched, ill to be handled, hard to be dealt with.

Chatouilleux à la pointe. Quicke on the ſpurre, or, quickly anſwering the ſpurre.

Chatouilloir : m. Any tickliſh part of the bodie, eſpecially the ſide.

Chatrin : m. A Goaler (an old word.)

Chat-rocher. A kind of Doggefiſh.

Chatte : f. A ſhe cat, or doe cat.

Toute chatte a ſon febvrier : Pro. Euerie man hath his madding fit ; or, a ſeaſon there is, wherein many women may be woed, if not wonne.

Chattement : m. A kitling ; a breeding, or bringing forth kitlings, or yong cats.

Chattemiterie. Looke Chatemiterie.

Chatton : m. A kitling, or yong cat.

Des chattons. The Catkins, Cattails, aglet-like blowings, or bloomings, of nut-trees, &c.

Chatus. A kind of vine.

Chauäns : m. Howlets, little Owles.

Chavaſſine : f. A meaſure, or quantitie, of land, containing in length 120 foot, and in breadth 30 ; an Oxegang, or dayes worke for two plough-Oxen ; alſo, the end of a cloſe, or furrow, where the plough turneth.

Chauce. as Chauſſe.

Chauceaux. Taxes paied, or fees allowed, vnto ſome Lords in Henault, for the maintenance of the common bankes, or cauſeyes.

Chaucée. Looke Chauſſée.

Chauchage. Looke Chauſſage.

Chauché. Troden on ; troden downe ; alſo, troden, as a henne by a cocke.

Chauche-mare. The diſeaſe tearmed the Night-mare.

Chaucher. To tread, as a cocke doth a henne ; & hence, to tread on, or downe.

Chaud : m. A heat, hot ſeaſon, hot place.

Chaud : m. de : f. Hot ; feruent, ardent ; alſo, teaſtie, cholericke, in a chafe, in a fume ; alſo, vehement, violent, fierce, eagar, earneſt ; haſtie, furious.

Chaud mal. A continuall feauer ; or, burning Ague.

De fievre en chaud mal. From ill to worſe ; out of the frying pan into the fire.

Fer chaud. A marking yron, ſearing yron, red-hot yron.

A chaude colle. In anger, in choller, while the bloud is hot, or vp ; alſo, looke Chaude-colle.

Il a les pieds chauds. Hee is luſtie, liuelie, gameſome, frolicke, wanton ; alſo, he babbles, or brabbles, much.

Il ne trouve rien de chaud ; Or, Il ne trouve rien trop chaud, ny trop peſant. He will take, or vndertake any thing ; nothing (whereof profit may be made) comes amiſſe vnto him.

Chaude : f. vne chaude. A heating, as of yron in the fire ; alſo, a fierce onſet, a violent aſſault.

A la chaude. In a chafe, in heat, in choller.

Chaudeau : m. A Caudle ; or, warme broth.

Chaude-colle : f. Saltneſſe, leacherouſneſſe, geereitch.

A chaude-colle. Hotly ; Looke in Chaud.

Chaudement. Hotly ; ardently, feruently ; angrily, fiercely, furiouſly ; eagarly, earneſtly, vehemently ; roundly, in haſt, in great heat.

Chauderon : m. A Cauldron, or kettle.

Le chauderon machure la poiſle ; one friend, or kinſman defames, diſgraces, or detracts from, another.

Covercle digne du chauderon. Like maiſter like man ; or bad intertainment for a bad gueſt ; the puniſhment his leudneſſe deſerued.

Chauderonnée : f. A cauldron-full of.

Chauderonnerie : f. Fleſh (or fiſh) thats ordinarily boiled in cauldrons, or kettles.

Chauderonnier : m. A Copper-ſmith ; Kettle-maker ; Tinker.

Chaudet : m. A warme place.

Chaudiere : f. A great cauldron, or kettle.

Chaudot : m. A heat, or hot thing.

Chaudron : m. A kettle, or cauldron ; Looke Chauderon.

Chaudronnée. A kettle-full of.

Chaudronnier. Looke Chauderonnier.

Chaveniere. for Cheneviere. A hempe-yard, or hempen cloſe.

Chauet. in ſtead of Cahuët : ¶Rab.

Chauffage : m. Fewell ; heating ſtuffe, or ſtuffe to heat with ; alſo, a heating.

Droict de chauffage. A certaine quantitie of fewell, due vnto diuers officers of the (French) kings woods, (but denied by the laſt king, vnto ſome of them.)

Chauffe-cire : m. A Chafe-wax (in the Chauncerie, &c.)

Chauffe-con. as Chauffe-dos ; (called ſo becauſe homelie women vſe to warme their nether parts before ſuch poore chimneyes ;) or a ſtoue ; ſuch a one as a Dutch woman, in Winter-time, ſets betweene her legs as ſhe ſits.

Chauffe-dos : m. A faſhion of ſmall, and low chimney, which hath but a hole, in ſtead of a funnell, for the voiding of ſmoke.

Chauffe-pied : m. A foot-ſtoue ; a little and low ſtoue that ſerues to keepe the feet warme.

Chauffer. To heat, warme, chafe.

Chauffer la cire. To endure a long expectation of a benefit, or fauour, promiſed.

Ie cognois bien de quel bois il ſe chauffe. I know him as well as he that made him ; I know well ynough what ayles him, what he would haue, what hee can doe.

De trop preſs ſe chauffe qui ſe bruſle : Prov. Hee ſtands too neere the fire that burnes himſelfe.

Tel ſe cuide chauffer qui ſe bruſle : Prov. Some, thinking but to warme, do burne, themſelues.

Chaufferette, or Chauffette : f. A chafing-diſh.

Chauffour. Looke Chaufour.

Chauffourrer. To soyle, blot, marre, disfigure, bismeare; Looke Chaffourrer.

Chaufour : m. A lime kilne; a hole wherein lime hath beene made, or, whence the stuffe that makes it hath bin digged.

Chaufournier : m. A lime burner, or lime maker; also, one that works onely with lime, and chalke.

Chaufrain. as Chanfrain.

Chauguette. as Eschaugette; A watch-tower.

Chauld. Looke Chaud.

Chaulde. Looke Chaude.

Chauliere : f. A plot, or bed, of cabbidges in a Garden.

Chaulmage : m. The cutting, or mowing of straw, or stubble.

Chaulme : f. Straw; or the stemme of corne.

Chaulmer. To picke, or gather vp straw; also, to cut, or mow, stubble.

Chaulmeur : m. A gatherer, or picker vp, of straw; a cutter, or mower of stubble.

Chaulsepot. A certaine little bird.

Chaulx : f. Lime.

Chaulx metallique. Is made (especially that kind whereof Enamell is compounded) of two parts of lead, and one of Cornewall-Tinne, well calcinated together in an ouen of reuerberation.

Chaumeny : m. ye : f. Mustie, mouldie, vnseasonable : ¶ Gasc. ¶ Rab.

Chaumer. as Chaulmer; &, as Chommer.

Chaumes. Desart, or vntilled, grounds; lay lands; or, as Terres Chaumieres.

Chaumier : m. ere : f. Strawie, of straw.

Terres chaumieres. Stubble grounds.

Chaumin : m. ine : f. Stubblie; made of; or, couered with stubble.

Chaumine : f. A thatched cote, or cabbin.

Chaumoufflet : m. Bumbast put into a cornet of paper, then kindled, and the smoke thereof put into the nosethrils of a sleeper; wee call it, a choaking pie, or cold pie.

Chaussage : m. Shooe-money; expence in shooes; (also, in hose) also, hosen, or shooes.

Chaussant : m. ante : f. Shooing, putting on shooes.

Marroquin chaussant. Gentle, yeelding, retching.

Chausse : f. A hose; a stocking, or netherstocke (Bas de Chausse) also, a breeke, or breech; (in which sence it is most commonly plurall) Haut de chausses.

Chausse d'un aysement. The bottome of a iakes; the roome, or hole, whereinto the ordure falls.

Chausses à la bigotte. Looke Bigotte.

Chausses à la bougrine. Strait Venitians without codpeeces.

Chausse de clistere. A glister bag.

Chausses à la Garguesque. Gregges, or Gallogaskins.

Chausses à la gigotte. A fashion of very close Venitians; old fashioned Venitians.

Chausse d'hypocras. The felt or cloth, through which that wine is distilled.

Chausses en poincte. Peeces of cloth wherewith Apothecaries clarifie their syropes; vsed in stead of the felt.

Chausses à queuë de merlus. Round breeches with strait cannions; hauing in the seat a peece like a fishes tayle; and worne by old men, schollers, and such like niggardlie, or needie, persons.

Chausses à Tabourin. Big, out-standing, or out-strouting, breeches; or the Swisse round hose, whose panes resemble the outside of a Taber.

Braye à chausse. A kind of fish-net made somewhat like a wide hose.

Courtes chausses. Women; (belike, because many of them weare short breeches, and few of them long stockings.)

Tirer les chausses. To kicke vp the heeles; to make a dye.

A courte chausse longue laniere : Prov. (So that what wants in the one may bee supplied by the other.)

Le vin va sans chausses : Prov. Wine weares no breeches; a drunkard conceales nothing.

Chaussé : m. ée : f. Hosed; shod; that hath hose, or shooes on, or put on.

Chaussée : f. A woman that weares breeches; also, the causey, banke, or damme, of a pond, or of a riuer; also, the leuell, or superficies of the earth, whereout a wall first appeares aboue ground; (Looke Rez.)

Tel mur est abbatu à rez de chaussée. Is ouerthrowne flat, or made leuell to th'earth.

Chausse-pied : m. A shooing-horne.

Chausse-pot. Looke Chausse-pot.

Chausser. To shooe, to shod, to serue, fit, or furnish with shooes; also, to hose; to put on, or fit with, hose; or (lesse properly) gloues.

Chausser les ailes aux pieds, ou, les esperons aux talons à. To course, or giue hard chace vnto; also, to make to scud, runne, or flie a mayne; also, to make forward, or earnest, in pursuite of.

Il me chaussa bien les esperons enuers le Roy. He made me, by the tales I heard he had told of me, hye me towards the King.

Il y chaussa bien mal ses lunettes. He mistooke exceedingly, or was much ouerseene, therein.

Il me chausse à moins de poincts que. He makes me inferior vnto; or makes lesse to serue my turne then.

Chaussetier : m. A hosier, or hose-maker.

Chaussetrape : f. A Caltrop; or iron engine of warre, made with foure pricks, or sharp points, whereof one, howsoeuer, it is cast, euer stands vpward; also, the starre-thistle; (called (also) the Calthrop) also the water Calthrop, water Nut, Saligot; also, a Trapdoore.

Chausse-trappe. The same.

Chaussettes : f. Short linnen breeches, drawers, or vnder-hose.

Chaussettes à estrier. Stirrup stockings.

Chaussleure : f. A hosing, or shooing; also, hosen, or shooes; Looke Chaussure.

Chaussion : m. A litle hose; also, a socke.

Chaussure : f. A hosing, or shooing; also, hosen, or shooes.

Ils ont rencontré chaussure à leur pied. They haue met with stuffe for their purpose; or, they haue met with their matches; Ils ont trouvé ch : &c. The same.

Le vin n'a point de chaussure : Pro. Wine euer goes bare breeched; the drunkard discouers all thats within, or about, him; any man may see his hart, and (if he haue a mind) his arse.

Chauve : com. Bauld, bauld headed, bauld pated.

Chauve d'esprit. Bauld-spirited : that hath as little wit in, as he hath haire on, his head.

Chauver. To wax bauld.

Chauver des oreilles. To clap downe the eares, as a horse, or asse doth, when he is angrie, or intendeth mischieue; also, to make a signe with the eares.

Chauve-

Chauveſouris : m. A Batt, Flittermouſe, Reremouſe.
Chauveſouriſſier : m. The bat-wing bone (in the lower part of the head) ſo called, becauſe it ſpreads, or is made like the wing of a bat.
Chauveté : f. Bauldneſſe ; bauld-patedneſſe (and hence) alſo, the bareneſſe of a place whereon nothing growes.
Chauvir. To wax bauld.
Chauviſſant. Waxing bauld ; alſo, ſmiling, or ſmoyling.
Chauviſſer. as Chauvir ; Alſo, to ſmile, or ſmoyle.
Chaux : f. as Chaulx ; Lime.
Chaziere : f. Looke Chaſiere.
Cheant. Falling, or tumbling downe.
Cheau : m. A whelpe, or cub.
Chebule. The biggeſt kind of the Mirabolan plumme ; (is long, and ſomewhat like a peare, or a ſmall leymon.
Chedins : m. The chiefe, or head-men of the pariſh ; called ſo by the barbarous peaſant.
Chef : m. The head (of a man or woman,) alſo, a Chiefe, or Generall ; a head, or principall Commaunder ; alſo, the end of a place, time, or buſineſſe ; alſo, as Chef lieu.
Le chef des armes d'une maiſon. Is, the eldeſt brother of a houſe, or the moſt ancient houſe in a familie, which giues th'armes thereof without any difference.
Chef d'oeuvre. A Maiſter-peece, or Maiſters peece ; any principall peece of worke, or of workemanſhip.
Fief en chef. A Fief held in Chiefe, or in Capite.
La piece du chef. A French coyfe.
A chef de piece. In th'end, at length ; alſo, as one would wiſh it.
Venir à chef d'un' affaire. To compaſſe, finiſh, or ouercome, a buſineſſe.
Venir à chef de ſon intention. To obtaine, or attaine to, his purpoſe ; to compaſſe, or accompliſh his deſire.
Venir à chef d'un mauvais marchand. To fetch ouer or preuaile againſt, an euill cuſtomer.
Le pied ſaiſit le chef. Looke Pied.
Chef. Chiefe, principall ; capitall ; paramount ; Hence ;
Chef cens ; chef lieu ; chef mets ; chef ſeigneur, &c.
Chefcier : m. The Threaſurer, or keeper of a Veſtrie.
Chef-gros : m. Shoomakers thread.
Chef mois : m. A chiefe Mannor houſe : Norm.
Cheintre : f. A baulke, or ſwathe of graſſe, along a hedge, or high-way.
Chegros : m. Shoomakers great thread.
Chelhydre. Looke Chelydre.
Chelidoine : f. Celandine ; (an hearbe, whereof there be two kinds.)
Chelidoine la grande. Celandine the greater, common Celandine, Tettarwort, Swallowwort, Swallowes hearb.
Chelidoine mineure. Little Celandine, or, Celandine the leſſe, Pilewort, Figwort.
Chelme : m. A knaue, a skellam.
Chelſydre. Looke Chelydre.
Chelydre. A moſt venomous, and ſtinking Snake, or Serpent ; rough-ſcaled, broad headed, and of a darke tawnie colour.
Chemage : m. The paſſage toll, or through-toll, thats payed at Sens.
Chemard : m. arde : f. Sad, penſiue, melancholicke, pining away by thought, and careſulneſſe.
Cheme. An ancient meaſure holding about two ſpooneſuls.
Chemer. To decreaſe, or be (as the Moone) in the waxe ; to languiſh, grow leane, waſt, pine, or fall away through care, thought, griefe, anguiſh, or anxietie of mind.
Chemicher. To whimper.
Chemier : m. The eldeſt, or chiefe heire in a diſcent ; who is to do homage, and ſuch other primarie dueties for the whole land that is diſcended.
Chemin : m. A way ; a tract, or path to go in ; a ſtreet, or cauſey to trauell in ; a road ; rut ; paſſage ; courſe, traine ; iourney.
Chemin chaſtellain (de Boullenois.) Is 20 foot broad.
Chemin de Clermont. Is 32 foot broad.
Chemin d'eſcole. The longeſt, or furtheſt way.
Chemin forain de Boullenois. Is fifteene foot broad.
Chemin S. Iacques. The white ſtreake in the skie, tearmed, Via lactea, or, the Milkie way.
Chemin Royal. The Kings high-way ; which by the cuſtomes of ſome places may be made 60 foot broad ; in others it is to be narrower ; as ;
Chemin Royal de Vallois. Is but 30 foot broad in arrable grounds, and 40 in woods.
Chemin vicomtier (de Boullenois.) Is thirtie foot.
Chemin voiſinal. Is to be eight foot broad.
Le grand chemin. The ordinarie high-way ; (which by the cuſtomes of Tours, Lodunois, and other places, muſt be ſixteene foot broad ; in ſome countries much more ; as ;
Le grand chemin de Boullenois. Muſt be ſixtie foot broad.
Le grand chemin de Bourgongne. Is to bee thirtie foot broad.
Le grand chemin peageau. By the cuſtome of Anjou, and Maine, muſt bee foureteene foot broad.
Le grand chemin Royal de Boullenois. Is ſixtie foot broad.
Le grand chemin Royal de Clermont. Is to bee 64 foot broad.
Tout d'un chemin. All vnder one.
Batre les chemins. To way-lay, or lie in wait for, paſſengers ; to rob on the high-way.
Couper chemin à. To barre, ſtop, croſſe, preuent, foreſtall.
Gaigner chemin. To make ſpeed, go faſt, ride hard, rid away apace.
Il nous faut deſpeſcher de cela, comme d'un mauvais chemin. We muſt rid that as wee would an ill way ; we muſt rid our hands of that as we would our feet of ill way ; ſuch worke ſhould as quickly be rid off, as ill way would be rid ouer.
Aller & venir font le chemin peler : Prov. Seeke Aller.
Il ne ſe tort pas qui va plain chemin : Prov. Hee goes not much awry that keepes the high road way.
Qui a florin, rouſſin, & Latin par tout il trouve le chemin : Prov. He that hath ſtore of money, a learned tongue, and a good horſe, cannot miſſe his way.
Qui trop ſe haſte en cheminant, en beau chemin ſe fourvoye : Prov. Hee that goes too faſt failes in a faire way ; we ſay, faire and ſoftly goeth far.
Semelles, & du vin paſſent chemin : Pro. Shooes, and wine rid way.
Cheminant. Walking, wending, iourneying, trauelling.
Qui trop ſe haſte en cheminant en beau chemin ſe fourvoye : Prov. The ouer-haſtie traueller miſſes a plaine way ; we ſay, the haſtie man ſeldom wants woe

(now

(now a greater woe than the misse of way cannot befall him that hath cause to make hast.)

Cheminé : m.ée : f. Walked, went, gone, trauelled, iourneyed.

Cheminée : f. A chimney; also, a chimney-peece of Tapistrie; or of Masons worke.

Haut & bas la cheminée. Chimney-sweepe; the crie of chimney-sweepers.

Licentié sous la cheminée. An vnlearned Graduate; one that does his acts in tenebris, or steales a degree.

En petite cheminée fait on bien grand feu : Prov. In little chimneyes good big fires are made.

Cheminer. To walke, wend, go; trudge, iourney, trauell.

Cheminer en pas d'Abbé. Looke Abbé.

Autant chemine vn homme en vn iour comme vn Limaçon en cent ans : Prov. A man goes as far in a day as a snaile in an age; some men can dispatch more businesse in one day than others in many.

Cheminieux : m.euse : f. That walkes much; also, belonging to a way; or to a chimney; or full of chimneyes.

Cheminier : m.ere : f. Of, or belonging to, a Chimney.

Chemise : f. A shirt, or smocke.

Chemise de cloche. The mould wherein a bell is cast.

Chemise de drap. A waistcoat.

Chemise de necessité. An inchaunted shirt which (as some superstitious people imagine) preserues men from all hurt in battailes, and eases women in their trauell.

Avoir sa chemise. A woman to haue her flowers (for tachée de sang is vnderstood.)

Il leur porta vne chemise blanche. He brought them a cleane shirt; viz. hee raised them with a mischiefe, roused them with a vengeance; he gaue them a sound camisadoe.

Il m'en souvient autant que de ma premiere chemise. I remember it as well as the houre I was borne in.

Torcher à autruy le cul de sa chemise. To giue one a pig of his owne sow; to affoord him helpe out of his owne meanes; (we vnderstand by the action expressed in this phrase, the doing of a good, and a bad turne together; because though one thing be wiped another is berayed.)

Il faut discerner la peau de la chemise : Prov. Wee must distinguish things which bee neere, from those which be further off, vs.

Plus pres est la chair que la chemise : Prov. Looke Chair.

Chemisette : f. A little shirt, or smocke; also, a waistcoat; also, a couering for a booke.

Chemissant. Whimpering.

Chenal : m. A channell, or gutter.

Chenant : fleur de chenant. A certaine flower whereon Camels vse to feed.

Chenarde : f. Wild Saffron.

Chene. as Chaine. A chaine; also, a Corbell of stone-worke.

Chenets : m. Andirons.

Chenevel : m. The name of a certaine fresh-water fish.

Chenevi : m. Hempseed.

Cheneviere : f. A hempe-yard, or hempen-close; also, a hempen staulke; also, a hempe countrey, or place wherein much hempe growes.

Chenevilles : f. The broken staulkes, or stemmes of hempe.

Chenovette : f. A hempen staulke, or stemme.

Chenil : m. A dog-kennell.

Chenillaux : m. Yong Caterpillers.

Chenille : f. A Caterpiller.

Chenille de mer. A sea Caterpiller; (of two kinds, th'one a verie great fish, th'other, a small, and footlesse Insect.)

Chenille de pins. A little, reddish, and hairie worme, that breeds in the tops of Pine branches.

Chenilles veluës. Certaine great, hairie, and darke-red wormes, or caterpillers, that feed altogether vpon the roots of corne, and hearbes.

Chenille de vigne. The little hairie, and many-footed worme, called the Vine-fretter.

Chenillé : m. ée : f. Of, or belonging to, Caterpillers; also, Caterpiller-like; also, full of, or wrought with, Caterpillers; and hence;

Taffetas chenillé. A kind of stript, or waued, Taffata.

Chenillier : m. An instrument wherwith Gardners pull downe Caterpillers.

Chenin : m. as Chenil; A dog-kennell.

Chenin : m. ine : f. Dog-like; of, or belonging to, a dog.

Raisins chenins. A kind of great red grapes, fitter for medicines than for meat.

Taisson chenin. A kind of Badger, that is footed, and snowted like a dog, and willingly feeds on flesh, and carrion, as a dog.

Chenu : m.uë : f. Gray, hoarie, white-headed, old.

Vin chenu. Mustie wine.

Cheoir. To fall; to tumble downe; also, to happen, chance, or fall vnto, as an inheritance, or escheat.

C'est tout vn de cheoir, & de trebucher : Pro. A man had as good fall outright as stumble.

Qui n'y va n'y chet : Prov. He that climbes not fals not; he that ventures not failes not.

Qui plus haut monte, qu'il ne doit de plus haut chet qu'il ne voudroit : Prov. He that climbes higher than he should falls lower than he would.

Qui rien ne porte rien ne luy chet : Prov. He that carries nothing looses nothing; or, nought falls from him that hath nought.

Chepage : m. A Goaler; or, Goalership.

Chepier : m. A Goaler.

Cher : m. ere : f. Deare, leefe, well-beloued, best-affected, much esteemed, verie acceptable, or precious vnto; also, deare, costlie, of a great rate, or price, for which much is paied.

I'aimerois aussi cher. I had as leue, I would as soone, I could be as willing; plus cher; rather, sooner, with a better will.

Fille trop veuë, robbe trop vestuë, n'est pas chère tenue : Prov. A maid often seene, and a garment oft worne are meanely alike esteemed of.

Chercée : f. A kind of earth-Alpicke.

Cherchage. A seeking, or searching for; an inquirie after.

Cens à cherchage. Looke Cens.

Cherche ralongée. Looke Cerche.

Chercher. Looke Cercher.

Chercuictier. Looke Chaircuictier.

Chere : f. The face, visage, countenance, fauour, looke, aspect of a man; also, cheere; victualls, intertainment for the teeth.

Chere lie. Seeke Lie.

Faire bonne chere à. To intertaine kindly, vſe friendly, welcome heartily, make good cheere vnto.
Faire grande, ou ioyeuſe chere. To be paſſing merie; to liue moſt pleaſantly, and plentifully; to make great cheere.
Faire mauvaiſe chere. To frowne, powt, lowre, ſell ſowſe, hold downe the head; alſo, to liue barely, feed meanely; make put poore, or courſe cheere.
Belle chere, & coeur arriere: Prov. A willing looke, and vnwilling heart.
Belle chere vault bien vn mets: Prov. A heartie welcome is worth halfe a feaſt.
La belle chere amende beaucoup l' hoſtel: Prov. The ill-fauoured houſe is much amended by the well-fauoured owner.
Aujourd'huy en chere demain en biere: Prov. To day glad, to morrow dead.
Il n'eſt vie que de faire bonne chere, mais la fin n'en vaut rien: Prov. The life ſpent in good cheere hath a faire beginning but a foule end.
Cherer. To cheere, to cheriſh, &c; Looke Cherir.
Chereté. as Cherté.
Cherfueil: m. The wood-bind, or honie-ſuckle.
Cheriſſable: com. Cheriſhable, fit to be cheriſhed.
Chennaye: f. A wood of ſcarlet oakes; alſo, as Charmoye.
Cherme. The ſcarlet oake, or ſcarlet holme oake; alſo, as Charme.
Chermes. The ſcarlet-berrie, or ſcarlet graine.
Chermiſin. as Chermes.
Chermine: f. The fruit, or berrie, of the ſcarlet oake.
Cherpi: m. A rag, or clout of linnen; or as Charpie.
Cherquemmage. as Cherquemanage.
Cherrée: f. Buck-aſhes; or, as Charrée.
Cherſydre. An Adder; or (more eſpecially) the land Adder.
Cherté: f. Deerenеſſe, dearth, ſcarcitie, want of.
Cherubin: m. A Cherubin.
Rouge comme vn cherubin. Red-faced, Cherubin-faced, hauing a fierie facies like a Cherubin.
Chervis: m. The root Skirret, or Skirwicke.
Chervis grand. A Parſnip.
Chervis ſauvage. The wild Parſnip; or wild Skirret.
Petit chervis. The ordinarie Skirret root.
Cheſaux: m. The rubbiſh of decayed houſes; or, (the Plurall of Cheſal*) manſions, houſes.*
Cheſmer. To decreaſe, wane, leſſen, abate, grow to want; pine, languiſh; decay, fall away.
Cheſnaye: f. A wood, groue, or thicket of oakes.
Cheſne: m. An oake; alſo, as Chaine.
Cheſne forchu. The ſtanding on the head: ¶Rab.
Cheſne vert. The barren ſcarlet oake, holme oake, or French oake; a tree that's euer greene.
Petit cheſne. The hearbe Germaunder, Engliſh Treacle.
Petit homme abat grand cheſne: Prov. A little man fells a great oake; (ſo may a meane perſon ruine a mightie prince.)
Chesneau: m. A kind of water-ſnake, mortall enemie to oakes; alſo, a yong oake.
Cheſneteau: m. A little yong oake.
Cheſnette: f. as Petit cheſne; Germaunder; alſo, a little chaine.
Cheſneux: m. euſe: f. Of oake; or, full of oakes.
Cheſnon: m. The chine.
Cheſtif. Looke Chetif.
Cheſtivement. Wretchedly, miſerably, vnfortunately; poorely, needily, baſely, beggerly; alſo, ſcarcely, ſcantly; with much paultring, or pinching; alſo, knauiſhly, curſtly, ſhrewdly; badly, naughtily, lewdly; caytiue-like.
Cheſtiveté: f. Miſerie, wretchedneſſe, vnfortunateneſſe, or, a forlorne eſtate; poreneſſe, beggerie, bareneſſe, needineſſe; alſo, want, ſcarcitie, pinching, ſcantineſſe; alſo, curſtneſſe, knauerie, ſhrewdneſſe; badneſſe, lewdneſſe, naughtineſſe.
Cheſtreux: m. euſe: f. Poore, miſerable, in ill array.
Cheſtron. as Chetron.
Chet-doux. Gently-falling.
Chete: f. The height, or depth of a ſhip from the vpper decke to the keele; Hence; Le navire a tant de pieds de chete. The ſhip is ſo many foot deepe in hold.
Chetif: m. iue: f. Caitiue, wretched, miſerable, vnfortunate, forlorne, poore, needie, bare, beggerlie; alſo, ſcarce, little, paultrie, ſcantie, ſmall; alſo, knauiſh, curſt, ſhrewd; naughtie, bad, lewd; and hence;
Qui envoye chetif à la mer, il n'en rapporte poiſſon ne ſel: Prov. He that ſends a bad ſeruant to ſea, hath ſmall returne of his venture.
Chetivement. Poorely, barely; wretchedly, miſerably, as one that is forlorne; alſo, badly, lewdly, naughtily; alſo, curſtly, ſhrewdly; alſo, ſcantly, ſcarcely, with much pinching.
Chetiver. To pine, make wretched, bring to want; lay miſerie, inflict pouertie, on.
Chetiveté: f. Looke Cheſtiveté.
Chetivoiſon: f. Wretchedneſſe, miſerie, pouertie.
Chetron: m. The till of a coffer, or cheſt.
Cheu: m. Cheuë: f. Fallen, tumbled downe; in the lapſe; alſo, happened, chanced, fallen vnto; alſo, ſhrunk, diminiſhed; growne leſſe.
Chevage. An yearely duetie, fine, or fee of 12. d. Pariſis paied to the kings vſe, within the iuriſdiction of Vermandois, and elſewhere, by euerie baſtard, ſtranger, forreiner, and affranchiſed perſon, whether he be, or haue beene, maried.
Cheval: m. A horſe.
Cheval aquatique. A certaine beaſt that liues in the riuer Nilus (in his backe, mane, and voice, reſemblin, a horſe, and therefore ſo tearmed.)
Cheuaux de couble. Paires, or couples of horſes; Coach-horſes, &c.
Cheval courant. A running horſe; whence;
Cheval courant eſt vn ſepulchre ouvert: Prov. (So much danger is his necke in that rides him.)
Cheval fondu. A kind of play like our truſſe.
Cheval Hongre, ou chaſtré. A gelding.
Cheval de haras. A Stallion.
Cheval de louäge. A hackney.
Cheval marin, ou de mer. The Sea-horſe (a great and long-footed fiſh; alſo, a kind of ſmall ſea Inſect, or fiſh, whoſe foreparts are ſomewhat like a horſes.
Cheval de paille. That feeds on ſtraw in ſtead of hay; whence;
Cheval de paille cheval de bataille: Prov. For ſuch horſes are commonly the hardeſt, and hardieſt.
Cheval qui porte derriere. A double horſe, or double gelding.
Cheval de poſte. A Poſt-horſe; alſo, a dunce, lobcock, or loggerhead.
Cheval aux quatre pieds blancs. A horſe that hath foure white feet; A marke which diuers vtterly miſlike; and hence;
C'eſt le cheval aux quatre pieds blancs. He premiſes ſes much, and perſormes little; or he failes at a pinch; he giues it ouer when there is moſt need of him; (Looke Blanc.

Cheval du Regne. A courſer of Naples.

Cheval de rencontre. Looke Rencontre.

Cheval de riviere. The water horſe; &c, as Hippopotame.

Cheval de ſelle. A ſaddle horſe; or, a readie horſe; a horſe that may ſafely bee backed, ridden, trauelled on.

Cheval de ſervice. A great horſe, or horſe of ſeruice; Looke Service.

Vaſſal à plein cheval de ſervice. One that enioyes, or holds by, a whole Knights fee.

Cheval ſommier, ou de ſomme. A Sumpter horſe.

Cheval teſte de more. A roane, or dapple-gray horſe with a blackiſh head.

Cheval de traict. A drag-horſe, draught-horſe, cart-horſe, coach-horſe; &c.

Chevaux traverſans. Looke Traverſant.

Cheval de trompette. One thats not afraid of ſhadowes; one whom no big, nor bugs words can terrifie.

Cul de cheval. The ouglie fiſh called a Sea Nettle.

Dragée aux chevaux. Blocke-wheat, or bolimong; See Dragée.

Fer de cheval. A horſe-ſhoe; alſo, a kind of axſeed, or the ſmall pulſe called horſe-ſhoe.

Pas de cheval. The hearbe ſole-foot, coults-foot, horſe-foot, hallfoot, bullfoot, horſe-hooſe.

Queuë de cheval. The hearbe horſe-willow, cats-taile, horſe-taile, ſhaue-graſſe; See Queuë.

Sergent à cheval. Looke Sergent.

Brider ſon cheval par la queuë. To goe the wrong way to worke; or, to do a thing cleane kamme.

Eſtre à cheval. Il eſt à cheval. He rides, or is on horſbacke; alſo, he ſtands on hautie tearmes; or, hee is ſet on cockehorſe; hee is all a boight, hee now begins to flaunt it.

Eſtre bien à cheval. To ride comely, to ſit a horſe with a good grace.

Il n'eſt ſi bon cheval qui n'en deviendroit roſſe. It would anger a Saint, or iade the beſt man that liues, to be thus troubled.

Monter ſur ſes grands chevaux. To ſwagger exceedingly, to beare himſelfe hautily, to ſtand vpon his pantofles, to vſe loſtie tearmes; to be preſently on the top of the houſe with a man.

Parler à cheval. To ſpeake vpon aduantage, on good ground, or, as one that is ſure of the better end of the ſtaffe; (hence) alſo, to vſe proud, ſcornefull, or diſdainfull words.

Prendre vn cheval par les crins. To worke wonders, doe great matters, performe (almoſt) impoſſibilities.

Cheval faict, & valet à faire: Prov. A made horſe, and a man vnmard, are fitteſt for vſe: The like is;

Cheval faict, & femme à faire: Prov.

Cheval Roigneux n'a cure qu'on l'eſtrille: Prov. A ſcabd horſe loueth not the curricombe; (nor an infected heart, correction.)

A grand cheval grand gué: Prov. A great horſe muſt haue a great foord.

A l'aiſe marche à pied qui mene ſon cheval par la bride: Prov. Troubles are but trifles vnto them, that haue meanes enow to eaſe, or ſtrength enough to ouercome, them.

A ieune ſoldat vieil cheval: Prov. Looke Soldat.

Apres bon vin bon cheval: Prov. The pot hath made him valiant, and of a free humour; now that he hath drunke hard he dare ſwagger with any man, or cenſure euerie man.

Il n'eſt cheval qui n'ait ſon meſhain: Prov. There is no creature perfect; euerie one is in ſome part, or point faultie, or defectiue; The like is;

Il n'eſt cheval qui n'ait ſa tare: Prov. &;

Il n'y a cheval ſi bien ferré qui ne gliſſe: Prov. The beſt-ſhod horſe doth ſlip ſometimes.

Iamais coup de iument ne fit mal à cheval: Prov. When women ſtrike men it is not to hurt them; or, men ſeldome-times catch hurt by womens blowes.

Il ne faut pas lier les aſnes avec les chevaux: Pro. Aſſes muſt not be tied vp among horſes; nor vnworthie people conſorted with the worthie.

Les maladies viennent à cheval, & s'en retournent à pied: Prov. Seeke Maladie.

Les mouches vont tousjours aux chevaux maigres: Prov. Flies are euer moſt buſie about leane horſes; ſo are Purueyors, and Promooters with the pooreſt, or leaſt powerfull, ranke of people.

On touche tousjours ſur le cheval qui tire: Prov. We ſay, folke alway call on the horſe that will carrie; the willingeſt are ſoreſt laied vnto.

Oncques bon cheval ne devint roſſe: Prov. Seldome hath a good horſe turned iade; a worthie fellow will neuer prooue coward, nor knaue; no age can weaken, no daunger appall, no paine afflict, no offer infect, him.

Ouvrier mediocre a cheval: Prov. Seeke Ouvrier.

Qui n'a cheval ne chariot il ne charge pas quand il veut: Pro. He cannot do what he would that wants wherewithall; beggers muſt not be chuſers.

Qui ne s'adventure n'a cheval ny mule: Prov. He that hazards nothing winneth nothing; faint heart neuer got faire Ladie.

Qui trop s'adventure perd cheval & mule: Prov. Seeke Adventurer.

Trop preſſer fait le cheval reſtif: Prov. To take too much of, or preſume too much on, a friend, is the way to make him loath you, and to make you looſe him; or, as in Preſſer.

Chevaler. To watch, eſpie, obſerue, or dog; to hunt, or follow after; alſo, to checke, chide, reprooue, ſchoole, courſe; alſo, in horſemanſhip, to incavalar, or, a horſe to lap one leg ouer another.

Chevalereſſe. Knighlie; knight-like; alſo, of, or belonging to, a Knight.

Chevalereusement. Valiantly, valourouſly, doughtily, ſtoutly, manfully, couragiouſly; knight-like.

Chevalereux: m. euſe: f. Cheualrous, doughtie, valourous, valiant, couragious, manfull, ſtout bold.

Chevalerie: f. Knighthood; th'order of Knighthood; alſo, cheualrie, doughtineſſe, valour, proweſſe; alſo, a bold attempt, hardie enterpriſe, manlie, or gallant act.

Aide de Chevalerie. as in Aides chevels.

Droict de chevalerie. The priuiledge of Knighthood, or being made a Knight; due vnto ſome Officers, and Magiſtrates in France, as here vnto the Lord Maior of London.

Chevalet: m. A Nagge, or little horſe; alſo, the Bridge of a Lute, Violl, &c; alſo, the woodden logge whereon a Tanner ſcrapes his hides; (wee call it, his beame;) alſo, a ſawing Treſſle; also, a kind of racke, or stretching torture.

Chevaleter. as Chevaler; To dog, &c.

Chevaleureux. Looke Chevalereux.

Chevalier: m. Signifies properly, a horseman; one that rides, or is, on horseback (and hence, also, a Gendarme, or man of Armes;) but particularly, and more commonly, a Knight, or Cavaleere; (In France the title of Chevalier is, often, a bare title of honour, and ordinarily conferred on great Officers (whether of the short, or long, Robe,) and on the Lords of great, and meane Seignories; All which may qualifie, and stile themselues Knights, as well as ordinarie Gentlemen may tearme themselues Esquiers:) Also, a daintie water-fowle, as big as a Stockdoue, and of two kinds, the one red, the other blacke; Also, the Knight-apple, somewhat bigger than an egge, and streaked all ouer with red; Also, a raising, or small heap of earth, or of clods; a ridge made by a straddling labourer, that fetches, with his mattock, &c, the earth betweene his legs, to such a height, that he seemes on horseback; also, a small & whitish crab, somewhat spotted with red, and so swift, as a footman can hardly ouertake her.

Chevalier Bachelier. A Knight Batchler; Looke Bachelier.

Chevalier des bains. A Knight of the Bath; so called, because bathing is the principall ceremonie of his admittance into that order.

Chevalier banneret. Looke Banneret.

Chevalier de Cornovaille. A Cuckold.

Chevalier au drappeau quarré. A Knight Banneret; called so in mockage.

Chevalier errant du Royaulme de Logres. A Knight errant of England; or one of King Arthures Knights.

Chevalier du guet. The Captaine of the watch; as in Guet.

Chevalier honoraire. In difference from a Knight of any one of the orders; Looke Honoraire.

Chevalier des loix. A Lawyer, or meere Scholler knighted.

Chevalier de S. Martin. The little spotted flie, called Ladie-beune, or, a Ladie-cow.

Hier vachier, huy chevalier: Prov. Looke Vachier.

Pour l'amour du chevalier baise la Dame l'Escuyer: Prov. The Ladie kisses her man for his Masters sake.

Chevalin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to a horse; whence;

Bestes chevalines. Horses, mares, or coults, of what kind soeuer.

Chastaignes chevalines. A kind of great, round, and blackish chestnuts; called so, because they are good for short-winded horses.

Orges chevalines. A kind of winter barlie; called so, because the blades thereof in the Spring are good to purge, and fatten, horses.

Chevaline: f. The hearbe called Horse-taile, or shaue-grasse.

La chevaline. Horses, horse-flesh, or, the kind of horses.

Chevalot: m. A trefle, or prop of wood; &c; as Chevalet; also, a coyne of Guelderland, worth about iij.s. sterl.

Chevance: f. Chewisance, wealth, substance, riches, goods.

Chevauchable: com. Rideable; easie to be rid on; fit to be rid in.

Chevauché: m. ée: f. Rid, bestrid, ridden, rid on; rid ouer, or vnto; and hence;

Terre chevauchée est a demy mangée: Prov. The reuenue of land thats often rid vnto is halfe consumed in riding charges.

Chevauchée: f. A riding, trauelling, iourneying, a road or course, a coursing to and fro, on horseback; (hence) also, a Princes progresse; a Judges circuit, &c; also, a furnishing with horses to ride on.

Les chevauchées des Prevosts des Mareschaux de France. The roads made by them ouer hills, through dales, narrow passages, and other suspected places, thereby to cleere the countrey, and high-wayes of rogues, and robbers, whom as soone as they take they trusse vp.

Droict de chevauchée. Looke Droict.

Chevauchement: m. A riding; or, as Chevauchée.

Chevaucher. To ride, or bestride a horse; to travell on horseback; also, to make a road, or iourney with forces of horse and foot, against an enemie; also, to swiue a woman.

Chevaucher sa charge. To ride circuit, as a Judge, &c.

Chevaucher la chevre en la vallée. To vndertake a dangerous taske, or matter which he is most like to fayle in; Looke Chevre.

Chevaucher la corde. The ball (at Tennis) to hit the line, and to get ouer it (but with much adoe.)

Chevaucher à la genette. To ride with verie short stirrups; to sit squirting on horseback with legs drawn vp almost vnto the saddle.

Chevaucherie: f. A riding; a swiuing.

Chevaucheur: m. A horseman; a rider; also, a Post-maister, or one, that keepes post-horses; whence;

Chevaucheurs d'escuyrie. Postes for the Packet;

Sergent chevaucheur. A certaine Officer in the kings forrests.

Chevauchon. à chevauchons. Astraddle, stradling, or bestriding, as a man, a horse.

Chevecerie: f. The Vestrie, or Treasurie of a church; the place wherein the lights, and ornaments vsed in it, are layed vp, and kept.

Cheveche: f. An Owle, or Madge-howlet; th'ordinarie rough-footed, and short-taild Owle.

Chevecher: m. The Keeper, or Treasurer of a Vestrie; a Sexton; or, as Chevecier.

Chevecherie: f. The Vestrie; or, as Chevecerie.

Chevechier. as Chevecier.

Chevecier: m. The Treasurer, or Keeper of the Vestrie in a Cathedrall, or Collegiat Church; an Officer that hath charge of the wax, lights, and ornaments vsed therein.

Chevedage. feu, & che. A dwelling house, or household.

Cheveil. as Chevel.

Chevel. Chiefe, principall: Norm.

Aides chevels. Looke Aide.

Fief chevel. A noble inheritance held in Capite, and capable of iurisdiction.

Lieu chevel. A Manor house, or chiefe house.

Cheveler. To sprig, or sprigle; to root, or put forth a hairie, or small, root.

Cheveliere: f. A haire-lace; also, a dressing of haire.

Chevelu: m. uë: f. Hairie, full of haire, rugged with haire, wearing long haire.

Estoille cheveluë. A blazing starre.

Loy cheveluë. A Law forbidding all men to weare long haire, except the Princes of the blood, and their posteritie; posteritie; It was made by king Clodion the hairie; continued vnto King Pepins time, and then disannulled.

Chevelue: f. A sucker; a small imp of a plant springing from the root thereof, or of itselfe rooted.

Chevelure: f. A hairie bush, or locke; hairinesse, long haire; also, the fibers or hairie threeds that hang at the roots of plants.

Chevesche: f. An Owle; as Cheveche.

Chevesne: m. The Cheuin, or Pollard-fish.

Chevestre: m. A rope, halter, coller for the head; a head-stall, or head-straine (especially for a cow, calfe, &c; for Licol is more proper to horses, moyles, &c, and more vsed.)

Chevestreux. licol chevetreux. Binding, or strayning the head.

Chevet: m. A boulster (for the head.)

Hausser le chevet de &c. To raise the price of a thing; to bid more for it, or value it higher, than before.

Chevetain: m. A Captaine, Commaunder, Leader; a Chiefetaine.

Chevetain: m.ine: f. Chiefe, commaunding ouer; aboue, or ouer others: ¶ Norm.

Chevetier. Looke Chevecier.

Cheveul: m. The haire of a mans, or womans head; also, a locke, bush, or tuft of haire.

Cheveux de Venus. Venus haire, our Ladies haire, true maidens haire, blacke maiden haire; (an hearbe.)

Faire les cheveux à. To powle, barbe, trimme; cut the haire.

Vouloir prendre vn homme ras par les cheveux. To hope for more from a man than hee hath meanes to get, or th'other to giue.

Cheuf. as Chetif; An old word.

Chevi: m. ie: f. Compassed, preuailed with, shifted withall, done goood vpon; tamed, reclaimed, subdued, brought in or vnder; also, compounded, or agreed withall.

Chevillage: m. A pegging, or pinning; peggage, pinnage.

Cheville: f. A peg, or pinne of wood; also, a botch in a verse.

Cheville du pied. Th'ankle-bone.

Compter des chevilles. To attend long in hope of a good turne, or preferment promised; See Compter.

Pendre son manteau à foible cheville. To aske aduice of a foole, almes of a begger; or, to trust in, or depend on, vaine hopes, weake helps.

A chasque trou vne cheville: Pro. For euerie fault an excuse, for each obiection an answer; for any mischiefe a remedie, helpe, euasion.

A tel pertuis telle cheville: Prov. Said of any thing thats fitted, or suited in it kind.

Chevillé: m.ée: f. Pegged, pinned; fastened with pegs, ioyned with pinnes.

La teste d'un cerf bien chevillée. A Stags head, wel furnished, set, pinned.

Cheviller. To peg, to pin; to fasten, ioyne, or close with pegs, or pinnes.

Chevilleur: m. A pegger; also, a sorcerer, that holding his finger in a hole, and muttering certaine superstitious words, will hinder a man from pissing, vntill his finger be remoued.

Chevilleure: f. A pegging; a fastening with pegs.

Chevilleures. The broches of a Deeres head; all the pegs aboue the two lowest.

Chevillures. as Chevilleures.

Cheviniau: m. A Cheuin.

Chevir. To compasse, preuaile with, shift withall, doe good vpon; also, to tame, reclaime, ouerrule, bring in or vnder; also, to compound, make an end, come to an agreement, with.

I'en cheviray bien. I will bring him to reason, to my bent, vnto my will; I shall do well ynough with him.

Ils ne pouvoyent tous chevir en la maison. They could not all be lodged, or there was not roome ynough for them all, in the house.

Chevissance: f. An agreement, or composition made; an end or order set downe, betweene a creditor, and debtor.

Chevolée: f. A sprig, twig, or small imp of a plant; also, a fiber, or haire-like thread growing vnto the root of a plant.

Chevoler. To sprig; to put forth sprigs, or haire-like fibers, as the roots of plants do.

Chevre: f. A she-goat; also, a bag-pipe; also, the engine called by Architects, &c, a Fearne.

Barbe de chevre. Meadeswort, meadesweet, Queene of the medowes (an hearbe.)

L'herbe aux chevres. Shrub-trefoyle, milke trefoile, Citisus bush, tree trifolie.

Laictues de chevre. A kind of wild lettuce, called Lambes-lettuce, and corne-sallade.

Oeil de chevre. An eye full of white spots; or, one that hath too much white, or a pearle in it; a wall eye.

Pied de chevre. The end of a gaffle of a crossebow; also, the stay, or prop of a ladder, whereby tis both held steadie, and kept from leaning too hard on what tis set against; also, a leauer pointed like the foot of a goat.

Verd de chevre. A kind of sand whereof Painters make their greenes.

A la chevre morte. With heeles, or bellie, vpwards.

A pied de chevre. Aslope, or bias.

Cheuaucher la chevre en la vallée. To vndertake a dangerous taske, or enter into a businesse which he is verie like to faile in; (for he that rides downe a hill on a goat (a beast that stoops, and hath short legs before) can hardly come, without tumbling, to the bottome of it.)

Il luy a mis les chevres en sa court. He hath put him in a terrible feare.

Prendre le chevre. To take pepper in the nose; to take a thing in dudgeon, or in snuffe.

Reprenons nostre chevre à la barbe. Let vs returne vnto our former discourse, worke, matter, businesse.

A la chandelle la chevre semble belle: Prov. Hee that chuses a wife by candle-light, or by other eyes than his owne, may perhaps be fouly deceiued.

Ou la chevre est liée faut qu'elle broute: Prov. The goat must brouze where she is bound; where a man is setled he is to seeke meanes to liue.

Tant gratte la chevre que mal gist: Prov. He keeps such a stur, he makes so much ado, to be well, that he is the worse for it: In old time a certaine goat painfully scraping the earth to get her selfe an easefull couch, turned vp a knife, wherewith presently after her throat was cut in a sacrifice; (This prouerbe is fittest applied vnto such, as ruine, or incommodate themselues by being too busie, or too curious, in what kind soeuer.)

Chevreau. A Kid, or yong Goat.

Chevreaux. Certaine starres which rise about the eight and twentieth of September, and get them gone againe towards the euening of the nine and twentieth.

Chevreau sauvage. A Roe.

Chevre-fueille: f. The wood-bind or honie-ſuckle.
Chevre-pied. Clouen-hooued, goat-fuoted; an Epithite for a Satyre.
Chevreté: m.ée: f. Kidded; fallen as a yong kid; alſo, enraged, horne-mad, almoſt wood.
Chevreter. To kid, or bring forth yong kids; alſo, to be in a rage, almoſt wood, or horne-mad; to grow madde with anger, and deſpight; (from a goat, which in his time of beat is madde for luſt.)
Chevrette: f. A little goat; alſo, a wild goat; alſo, a great prawne; alſo, a little and low andiron; alſo, a Robinet, or ſmall peece of ordnance, of a ſize betweene the Fauconnet, and Arguebuze a crocke.
Chevreul: m. A Roe, or a Roe-bucke; alſo, a wild goat; (which is alſo called;)
Chevreul ſauvage. A Shamois, or wild goat.
Chevrie: f. A bag-pipe.
Chevrier: m. A Goat-heard, one that keepeth, or looketh vnto, goats.
Chevrin: m.ine: f. Goatie; goat-like; of a goat.
Cheurme: f. Looke Chiorme.
Chevron: m. A Kid; a Chevron (of timber in building;) a rafter, or ſparre.
Chevronde. Looke Severonde.
Chevronneau: m. A ſmall rafter, little chevron.
Chevronot: m. The ſame.
Chevrot: m. A Kid; a yong, or little Goat; Roe; or Shamois.
Chevrotin: m. Kids-leather.
Tirer au chevrotin. To eat, or drink exceeding much; alſo, to vomit (by that exceſſe.)
Chevrottement: m. The breeding, or bringing forth of Kids.
Chevrotter. To breed, or bring forth (as a ſhe-Goat) a Kid.
Cheuſſon: m. A corne-deſtroying mite, or weeuell.
Cheûte: f. A fall, a lapſe; an ouerthrow.
Cheute de l'oeil. The fall of the eye; is, when it is cleane out of it hollow ſeat; eſpecially, if either an iſſue, or blow hath beene the cauſe thereof.
De grand vilain grande cheute: Prov. The greater a bad man is the more ſcandalous, and hurtfull are his vices, and therefore, the more headlong, and infamous, his fall.
Chez. chez moy. With me, at, or in my houſe.
De chez moy. From me.
Chezal: m. A chiefe Manſion, or Mannor houſe.
Cheze: m. The part or portion of an inheritance of courſe belonging vnto the eldeſt heire, ouer and beſides his ſhare in the reſt; which is by the cuſtomes of Tours, the two Arpens of ground lying next without the wals, and ditches of a Gentlemans caſtle, or chiefe houſe; and foure Arpens ſo lying about the caſtle, or houſe of an Earle, Vicount, or Baron; by the cuſtomes of Lodunois it is otherwiſe called, Le vol d'un Chapon; and is as farre as a Capon can flie from the chiefe Manor houſe of a Gentleman; and the three Septerées of ground lying next without the ditches of a Barons caſtle.
Chezeau: m. A Gentlemans chiefe houſe; houſhold, or familie.
Chi. as Ci: ¶Pic.
Chiabrena. A ſhitten come ſhite; a paultrie ſhitten ſiſſig; a nice, and ſcuruie wench.
Chiappon: m. A kind of port in the mouth of a bit; as Pas d'Aſne.
Chiard: m. A ſhitten fellow; a ſtinking rogue; a ſcoundrell; a ſcuruie companion.

Chiaſſe: m. Droſſe, dregs, froath, of mettall.
Chiaſſer. To ſhite; alſo, to be too curious.
Chic. de chic à chic. From little to little.
Chicambault: m. The luffe-blocke; a long, and thicke peece of wood, whereunto the foreſayle, and ſprit-ſayle are faſtened when a ſhip goes by the wind.
Chicaner. To wrangle, or pettifog it; to ſpoyle, or perplex a cauſe with craftie, and litigious pleading; alſo, to write a verie faſt hand.
Chicanerie: f. Wrangling, pettifogging; litigious, or craftie pleading; the perplexing of a cauſe with trickes; or the peſtering thereof with (ſubtile, but) impertiment, words.
Chicaneur: m. A wrangling Atturney, or Pettifogger; a buſie, craftie, litigious, and verball, follower of cauſes.
Chicaneus; &, Chicanous. The ſame.
Chichard. as Chiche.
Chicharou: m. Baſtard Mackerell: ¶Saintongnois.
Chiche: com. Miſerable, niggardlie, niggiſh, neere, pinching, ſparing, hard, ſtrait-handed.
Vn chiche. A wretch, pinch-pennie, pennie-father, couetous hilding; one that would not part with the paring of his nayles.
Autant deſpend chiche que large: Prov. The wretch conſumes as much as the great ſpender.
Ce que chiche eſpargne large deſpend: Prov. That which the micher ſpares the waſter ſpends.
Homme chiche iamais riche: Prov. Looke Riche.
Il n'eſt banquet que d'homme chiche: Prov. Wee ſay, there is no feaſt to the miſers; and by a miſers feaſt we meane, a plentifull, though a rare, one.
Chiche-face: m. A chichiface, micher, ſneake-bill, wretched fellow; one out of whoſe noſe hunger drops.
Chiche-maille. A dodger, niggard, pinch-pennie, pennie-father; one that will ſtand whole houres hagling about a halfe-pennie.
Chichement. Miſerably, niggardly, hardly, couetouſly, with a ſtrait, or cloſe hand.
Chiches: m. Ciches, chiches, red cich, ſheepes-cich-peaſon; a pulſe thats ſomewhat leſſe than the ordinarie ſmall peaſe.
Chiches de belier. Small blacke ciches faſhioned like Rammes heads, and thereupon called, Rammes ciches, and, blacke cich.
Chiches colombins. White ciches.
Chiches de montaigne. Milke vetches, mountaine ciches.
Chiches noires. Rammes ciches, blacke ciches.
Chiches rouges. Red ciches, &c; as Venereïques.
Chiches ſauvages. Wild ciches; alſo, milke vetches.
Chiches venereïques. Red ciches (the moſt luſt-prouoking kind of them all.
Chicheté: f. Niggardlineſſe, miſerie, hardneſſe, pinching, too much dodging, needleſſe parſimonie, thrift, or ſparing.
Chichorée: f. Succorie; Looke Cichorée.
Chicot. A ſtub, or ſtumpe; or as Chiquot.
Chicotin. The herbe Orpin, Liblong, or Liuelong.
Chicotrin. as Chicotin; or, as Cicotrin.
Chief. Chiefe, principall, capitall; Looke Chef.
Chien: m. A dog; alſo, a baſe, filthie, or ſhamefull, fellow; alſo, the Snaphaunce of a Piſtoll.
Chien d'Artois. A Terrier.
Chien de bergier. A ſhepheards curre.
Chien cerf. A hart-hound.
Chien de chaſſe. A grey-hound.
Chien couchant. A ſetting dog.

Faire le chien couchant. To play the coward, or baſe fellow; to humble, or deiect himſelfe too much in the preſence of another.
Chien courant. A great hound, bucke-hound, barrier; any hound.
Chien de damoiſelle. A pupſie, little dogge, fiſting curre.
Chien dogue. A maſtiffe.
Chiens gretfiers. as Bauds.
Chien de S. Hubert. A kind of ſtrong, ſhort-legd, & deepe-mouthed hound, vſed moſt for the hunting of the Fox, Badger, Otter, &c.
Chien de mer. The Sea-hound, or Dog-fiſh that (ſomewhat) reſembles a Lamprey.
Chien de metairie. A bandog, or countrey curre.
Chiens muts. The hart hounds Bauds, tearmed ſo, becauſe being croſſed by a change, they neuer open till they light on their firſt game.
Chiens d'oiſeaux. Spaniels.
Chiens publiques. So were in old time thoſe called, who had the letting, and ſetting of the ſubſidies granted, and taxes due, vnto the king.
Chien terrier. as Baſlet; A Terrier.
Appetit de chien. A moſt vnſaciate appetite; a ſtomacke which, though it lay in vnto vomiting, ſtill would haue more.
Choſe de chien. A paultrie thing; a matter of no value, or conſequence; a trifle; traſh, trumperie.
Chou de chien. Dogs Cole, wild Mercurie, dogs Mercurie.
Couillon de chien. See Couillon.
Dent au chien. Harts-horne Plantaine, Crowfoot Plantaine; alſo, (and the more properly) Cooch-graſſe, Quitch-graſſe, Dog-graſſe; Looke Dent.
Dent de chien. Cooch-graſſe, Quitch-graſſe, Dogs-graſſe; alſo, the hearbe Dandelion, Prieſts crowne, Piſſeabed; alſo, grudge, repinning, ill meaning.
Dents de chien. A mans tuskes, or tuſhes; on either ſide two, next vnto the foure fore-teeth.
Diſner de chien. A meale made onely of bread, & water; or wherein there is nothing drunke but water.
Eſguillettes de chien. Courſe leather points, made of a dogs skin.
Herbe à chien. Dogs-graſſe, Cooch-graſſe, Quitch-graſſe; or, (as ſome interpret it) the hearbe Dogs-tongue, or Hounds-tongue.
Langue de chien. The hearbe Dogs-tongue, Hounds-tongue, Hounds-piſſe.
Mort aux chiens. Medow Saffron; alſo, the hearbe Dogs-bane.
Mouche à chien. A ticke, or tike.
Oignon de chien. A baſtard kind of the ſtarrie Jacinth, called, Dogs-leeke; alſo, as;
Porreau de chien. Leeke of the vine, wild Leekes, French Leeke, dogs Leekes.
Ris de chien. A diſloyall, or treacherous, ieering; a laughing on him whoſe throat he wiſhes cut.
Ronce de chien. The Hep-tree; Looke Ronce.
Teſte de chien. Calues-ſnowt, Snapdragon; alſo, Fleawort.
Teſticule de chien. The hearbe Dogs-ſtones, Dogs-cullions, Dogs-teſticles, Standle-wort, Stander-graſſe, baſtard Satyrion.
Entre chien & loup. In twilights, or cock-ſhoot time, (when a man can hardly diſcerne a dog from a wolfe.)
A vn autre chien avec cet os. Make that offer to, beſtow that kindneſſe on, ſome other.
Auſſi toſt preſt qu'un chien auroit fauté vn eſcha-lier. As ſoone as dog would haue leaped ouer a doore-ſill; or, as in Eſchalier.
Batre le chien devant le lion. To puniſh a meane man in preſence of, and for an example vnto, the mightie.
Donner à manger au chien & au chat. To keepe a bountifull houſe.
Dormer en chien. To ſleepe faſting in the Sun when it is at the higheſt; or to ſleepe immediately before dinner, or ſupper.
Iecter ſon lard aux chiens. To ſpend his fortunes idly, vnworthily, waſtfully; to beſtow much on hungrie, baſe, and ſcuruie, people; to lauiſh it vnreaſonably, to ſquander all away.
Il veut beaux chiens à peu de pain. Hee would bee well attended on for little wages.
Oſter les chiens pour venir à bout du troupeau. Looke Troupeau.
Perſonne ne luy demanda, es tu chien es tu loup. No man ſaluted, eyed, reſpected, him; no man asked him what, nor whither, he would; no man ſpoke to him, no one looke notice of him.
Tirer du foin aux chiens. To vomit, ſpue, caſt, ſell oakes, pull hay for dogs.
Tout d'une venue comme la iambe d'un chien. We ſay, All of a bigneſſe, like a poſt; or a churne.
Chien enragé ne peut longuement vivre: Prov. A madde dog cannot long time liue.
Chien eſchaudé craint l'eau froide: Pro. The ſcaulded dog feares euen cold water; (ſomewhat like our, A burnt child dreads the fire.)
Chien hargneux a touſiours les oreilles deſchirées: Prov. A common brabler comes by many a knock; quarelſome lads are ſeldome without blacke eyes, broken pates, or ſcratcht faces.
Chien qui abbaye ne mord pas: Prov. The dogge that barkes much bites little; a great prater, a weake performer.
Chien ſur ſon fumier eſt hardi: Prov. A dog (we ſay, a cocke) is valiant on his owne dung-hill.
A bon chien bon os: Prov. A good dog deſerues a good bone; a good ſeruant good intertainment; but;
A vn bon chien n'eſcheut onques bon os: Pro. A good dog neuer lights on a good bone; or, the worſt bones euer fall to the beſt dogs ſhare; the honeſt man hath ſtill the worſt lucke.
De toute taille bon chien: Pro. There are ſome able men of all ſorts, and ſizes.
Deux chiens ne s'accordent point à vn os: Prov. Two dogs neuer agree about one bone; churles will not part, nor part with, any thing.
Mauvais chien iamais ne veut compagnon en cuiſine: Prov. Greedie, or ill-natured people cannot indure competitors, or companions.
Mauvais chien ne trouve ou mordre: Prov. No place affoords a liuing to a curre; the ſlothfull knaue, or bungler, thriues no where.
A mauvais chien ne peut on monſtrer le loup: Prov. An ill dog hates to looke on a wolfe.
A mauvais chien la queuë luy vient: Prov. An ill weed growes apace.
Souvent à mauvais chien tombe vn bos en gueule: Prov. An vnworthie fellow oft lights on worthie fortunes; or, the verier knaue the better lucke.
A meſchant chien court lien: Prov. A froward curre muſt be tied ſhort; a curriſh fellow well fettered; (ſo will they doe leaſt hurt.)

`A petit chien petit lien: Prov. Weake passions need but weake restraints.

`A rude chien dur lien: Prov. Violent humors must be stopped by hard curbs; churlish people awed with curst vsage.

Vn viell chien iamais ne jappe en vain: Prov. The old dog neuer barketh (aged experience neuer aduiseth,) in vaine.

Il n'eſt chaſſe que de vieux chiens: Prov. There is no hunting to the old dogs; or, no dog hunts like the old one.

Charruë de chien ne vaut rien: Prov. Looke Charruë.

En lict de chien n'y a point d'oingture: Prov. Looke not for ciuet in a dogs kennell.

`A chair de loup ſauce de chien: Prov. The beſt ſauce for courſe meat is hunger (or) the fitteſt intertainment for a knaue, a cudgell.

C'eſt belle bataille de chiens & des chats; chacun a des ongles: Prov. Looke Bataille.

D' oyſeaux, de chiens, d'armes, & d'amours, pour vn plaiſir mille douleurs: Prov. The pleaſure got by hawkes, hounds, loue, and armes, are deerely bought with millions of harmes.

Eau, & pain eſt la viande du chien: Pro. Bread and water is meat good ynough for a dog (though not for a man.)

En fin les loups tuent le chien qui tue les loups: Prov. At length the buſie bodie comes vnto his bane.

Nature fait chien tracer: Prov. Looke Tracer.

Pendant que les chiens s'entregrondent le loup devore la brebis: Prov. While Churchmen brabble, Satan feeds on ſoules.

Quand vn chien ſe noye chaſcun luy offre à boire: Prov. When a dog's a drowning euerie one offers him drinke.

Qui a le loup pour compagnon porte le chien ſous l' hocqueton: Prov. Let him thats matcht with a knaue gō well prouided for him.

Qui aime Bertrand aime ſon chien: Prov. Loue me loue my dog; (ſay we.)

Qui ſe couche avec les chiens, ſe leue avec des puces: Prov. They that lye downe with dogs riſe vp with fleas; In filthie companie what can one gaine but filth?

Qui veut avoir bon chien il faut qu'il le nouriſſe bien: Prov. He that will haue a good dog muſt feed him well; he that deſires a good ſeruant muſt vſe him well.

Qui veut batre ſon chien trouve aſſez de baſtons: Prov. It is an eaſie matter to find a ſtaffe wherewith to beat a dog.

Qui veut tuer ſon chien luy met la rage ſus: Prov. When a bad Prince would be rid of a good ſubiect, or ſeruant, the tricke is, to lay treaſon to his charge.

Sous ombre d'aſne entre le chien au moulin: Pro. (So gets the knaue admittance where otherwiſe hee ſhould be excluded.)

Tandis que le chien chie le loup s'en va: Prov. While the dog ſcummers the wolfe ſcuds away.

Tandis que le chien crie le loup s'enfuit: Prov. While the dog bawles the wolfe eſcapes; (thus by delaying and tatling an enemie oreſlips him, and many aduantages others.)

Tel le chien nourrit qui puis mange la courroye de ſon ſoulier: Prov. Some breed vp thoſe that proue their bane.

Tel ſeigneur tel chien: Pro. Like maſter like man.

Chien-cerf. A hart-hound.

Chien-dent. Couch-graſſe, Quich-graſſe, Dogs-graſſe; alſo, a noble ſtinker; a looſe, diſſolute, or idle good fellow.

Chien-dents. as Dents de chien; The tuſhes.

Chieneſſe: f. Dogs; a brood, or number; the kind, or nature, of dogs.

Chien-lict. A ſhiteabed; a ſhitten fellow, beaſtlie companion, filthie ſcoundrell, ſtinking iacke, ſcuruie mate.

Chienne: f. A bitch.

Chiennée: f. The hearbe Dogs-bane, or, medow Saffron; alſo, a litter of whelpes.

Chienner. To whelpe.

Chiennerie: f. A dog-houſe, or dog-kennell.

Chienneſſe: f. Dogs; a brood, litter, or number; the kind or nature, of dogs.

Chiennet: m. A little dog.

Chienneté. Whelped.

Chienneter. as Chienner. To whelpe.

Chienneterie: f. Doggiſhneſſe; the kind, or nature of dogs.

Chiennetier: m. A dogge-keeper; yeoman fewterer, Groome of the Hunt, one that lookes vnto hounds.

Chiennette: f. A yong, or little, bitch.

Chien-rage. The hearbe Dogges-bane; or medow Saffron.

Chier. To ſhite, cacke, ſcummer, vntruſſe the points, goe to the ſtoole, doe that which no bodie can doe for him.

Chier dans le panier, pour le mettre ſur l[illegible]ſte. To diſgrace a thing, of purpoſe, to obtaine it the eaſier; to intertaine one neere tearmes that whereof one hath formerly giuen moſt vile tearmes.

Autant chie vn boeuf que mille moucherons: Pro. As much dungs one oxe as a thouſand flies; one rich man may ſpend more than many poore ones.

Tandis que le chien chie le loup s'en va: Prov. While the dog ſcummers the wolfe eſcapes.

Chietins. as Theatins; An order of Prieſts, in credit about Pope Clement the ſeuenths time; and of more antiquitie, by ſome few yeares, than the Ieſuites.

Chifetier: m. A ſeller of old ſtuffe, clothes, clouts; or, one that cries vp and downe ſuch trumperie to bee ſold: ¶Norm.

Chiffe: f. A clout, old rag, ouer-worne, or off-caſt, peece of ſtuffe.

Chiffant. Whizzing; hiſſing; whiſtling.

Chiffiement.: m. A whizzing; whiſtling; hiſſing.

Chiffler. To whiſtle; hiſſe, or whizze.

Chiffon: m. A little clout, rag, or peece, of ouer-worne ſtuffe.

Chiffre. as Chifre; Alſo, an engine to catch fiſh with (forbidden.)

Chiffrer. Looke Chifrer.

Chifre: m. A Cypher; a figure, or number; the figures of 1, 2, 3, 4, &c; alſo, a ſtrange caracter, figure, or forme of writing, not (eaſily) vnderſtood by any but him that inuented it, and ſuch as he hath acquainted with it.

Le Chifre d'un Prince. The liſt, or catalogue of a Princes Cyphers, deliuered (and expounded) vnto ſuch as he would haue to vnderſtand him.

Chifré: m. ée: Cyphered; written in cyphers, or in ſtrange and vnknowne caracters; alſo, calculated, or examined, as an accompt, by cyphering.

Chifrer. To cypher; to write in cyphers; to expreſſe his meaning in ſtrange, and vnknowne caracters; alſo, alſo, to calculate, or examine, an accompt, by cyphering.

Chignon: m. The Chyne, or chyne-peece of the necke; alſo, a knot, or knurre in a peece of Wood, or Tymber.

Chigros: m. Shoomakers thread; or, a tatching end. ſ

Chil. as Chile.

Chilagogue: f. A choler-purging medicine.

Chile: m. The Chilus, or white iuice (of diſgeſted meat) whereof our bloud commeth. Looke Chyle.

Chilifier. To concoct, diſgeſt, or turne into a milkie, or white iuice.

Chiller. To ſeele, or ſow vp the eyes; as Siller.

Chilleure: f. A ſeeling, or ſowing vp of the eyes.

Chilonique. à la Chilonique. Briefely, ſuccinctly, compendiouſly; (from one of the Grecian wiſemen, Chilo, who in all his ſpeeches, and writings was verie ſhort.)

Chimagrée: f. A wry-mouth, &c. Looke Simagrée.

Chimeres: f. Chymeraes, idle conceits, friuolous thoughts, fond wiſhes, fruitleſſe imaginations, caſtles in the ayre, things that neuer were.

Chimeric: m. ique: f. Imaginarie, altogether in fancie, that neuer was nor will be, onely in conceit.

Chimie: f. Melting; or Extraction; the ſecond part of Alchymie.

Chimique: com. Chimicall, or Alchymiſticall; extractiue, melting.

Chimolie. terre chimolie. A kind of earth that is good againſt burning, and hot impoſtumes.

Chinage. as Chemage.

Chinchille: f. A little, Indian, and Squirrell-like beaſt, which hath a verie ſmooth, and wholeſome, skin.

Chine: f. A red, and ſpungious Indian root, good againſt the Gout.

Chinfreneau: m. A ſlampe, iert, wipe; thumpe, knocke, bob.

Chinon du col: m. The nape of the necke; or as Chignon.

Chinquer. To quaffe, ſwill, tiple, carouſe, drinke extreamely.

Chiolé: m. ée: f. Whelped.

Chiorme: f. A banke of Oares; or, the whole companie of ſlaues, Rowers (in a Galley;) alſo, the noiſe they make in rowing; alſo, (in a ſhip) the Saylers; and, the noiſe they make, in weighing of ankers, and hoiſing vp of ſaile-yards.

Chiot: m. A whelpe, or little dog.

Chipault. il eſt tout chipault. He is all to be ragged, and rent.

Chipoter. To dodge, miche, paulter; trifle; &c; as Chapoter.

Chipoterie: f. Dodging, miching, paultering; trifling, fidling, fooliſh medling.

Chipoutou: m. A niggard; a micher, dodger, paulterer; a miſer, pinch-pennie, ſcrape-good, penniſather. ¶Gaſc.

Chippe. A barke, or ſhip; alſo, an old clout, ragge, or patch.

Chiquaner. Looke Chicaner.

Chiquanique: com. Wrangling, litigious, pettifogger-like.

Chiquanourris. peuple ch: Craftie pleaders, or pettifoggers; wrangling, or litigious followers of cauſes.

Chiquanous. A litigious pleader, craftie pettifogger.

Chiques. as Chiches. ¶Picard.

Chiquenaude: f. A fillip; flirt, or bob giuen with the finger, or nayle.

Chiquenaudé: m. ée: f. Fillipped; flirted; bobbed with the finger.

Chiquenauder. To fillip; to flirt, or bob, with the finger.

Chiquenie. as Squenie.

Chiquetant. Cutting, ſhredding, iagging; cutting into ſhreds, gaſhes, iags.

Chiqueté: m. ée: f. Cut, gaſhed, iagged, hacked.

Chiqueter. To cut; gaſh, iag, hacke.

Chiqueteur: m. A cutter.

Chiquetteres: f. Cuttings, iags, or ſhreds of cloth.

Chiqueture: f. A cutting; a gaſh, cut, garſe; a launcing, ſhredding, ſlitting.

Chiquot: m. A ſcale in the root, or end of a nayle; alſo, a ſprig, or ſhoot of a tree; alſo, the ſtumpe of a tooth.

Chiquoter. To ſift, ſearch, or ſeeke out; alſo, to, hacke, with a knife, &c.

Chiragre: f. Hand-gout; the gout in the hands.

Chiroacte. Nimble of hand, quicke fingered. ¶Rab.

Chiroaine. Looke Ciroeſne.

Chirographaire. Creancier chirographaire. That hath for his aſſurance a Bill, or Note vnder the debtors hand.

Chiromantie. Palmiſtrie; a gueſſing at ones fortune by the markes, or making, of his hand.

Chiromantien. A Palmiſter, a Fortune-teller.

Chiron. as Ciron.

Chirurgial: m. ale: f. Belonging vnto Surgerie.

Chirurgie: f. Surgerie.

Chirurgien: m. A Surgeon.

Choc: m. A ſhocke, a brunt; a buſtling, or hurrying together; a violent incounter, or coping of armed, and angrie, ſouldiors.

Chocailler. as Chocquailler.

Chochepierre. A kind of Nowpe, or Bullfinch, that feeds moſt on the kernels of Cherriſtones.

Chocquailler. as Choquer; (eſpecially in the laſt ſence) to drinke, tiple, quaffe, &c.

Chocquer. Looke Choquer.

Choenes. porteurs de choenes. So doe ſurueyors and meaſurers of land call thoſe that goe before them, and carrie their lines, or chaines, and rods wherewith they meaſure.

Choerin: m. A ſhoate, or barrow pig.

Choëur: m. The Quire of a Church; alſo, a round, ring, or troope of ſingers, or dauncers; or of Auditors, or Spectators of thoſe, or the like Exerciſes.

Enfans de choëur. Quirreſters.

Choier. Looke Choyer.

Choine: m. A loafe of white bread. ¶Norm.

Choir. Looke Cheoir.

Chois: m. A choice, election, picking, or culling out; alſo, ſtore, abundance, Gods plentie, good choice.

Choiſi: m. ie: f. Choſen, elected; culled, picked out from others; alſo, ſeene, or diſcerned, a farre off.

Choiſir. To chuſe, elect; cull, or picke out; alſo, to ſee, or diſcerne, a farre off.

Il ne choiſit pas qui emprunte: Prov. Borrowers muſt not be chuſers.

Qui avec ſon ſeigneur mange poires, il ne choiſit pas des meilleures: Pro. Looke Poire.

Choiſon: f. Opportunitie, occaſion; alſo, as Foiſon.

Choiſne: m. A loafe of white bread. ¶Norm.

Cholagogue: f. The thin, or ſmall gut, wherein the Chilus

Chilus thickening beginneth to reſt; or (adiectiuely) of, or belonging thereto.

Chole: f. Choler, anger, gall, ire.

Cholere: f. Choler, anger, fuming, teſtineſſe, chafing, ſtomacke, moodineſſe; alſo, the complection, or humor, tearmed, choler.

Ronger vne cholere en ſon eſprit. To fret.

Cholére: com. as Cholerique.

Cholereux. as Cholerique; or full of choler.

Cholerique: com. Cholericke, angrie, teſtie, fuming, chafing, pettiſh, ireſull, in a rage, as hot as a toaſt.

Cholique: f. The Collicke; a painfull windineſſe in the bellie, or ſtomacke.

Cholique pierreuſe. A paine like the Collicke, and cauſed by the Stone in the Kidneyes.

Choliqueux: m. euſe: f. Full of, or much troubled with, the Collicke.

Chomer. Looke Chommer.

Chommable. iour chommable. A day of reſt, a play day.

Chommage: m. A ceaſing from worke, a reſting, a making holyday; a lying idle, and out of vſe, as money which is not currant.

Chommer. To make hollyday, ceaſe from worke; play for want of worke; reſt, lye idle, and out of vſe; alſo, as Manquer; or, to want; whence;

Nous en chommerons encor de pareil. Wee ſhall not haue the like in haſt.

Chondrille: f. Gum-Succorie.

Choner. as Chommer, or Chopiner. ¶Rab.

Chonquetage: m. A Round gone about, or View taken of, the Kings Woodſales, by the principall officers of his forreſts, thereby to come to the knowledge of the offences (if any) committed by thoſe that haue been put in truſt withall.

Choper. To trip, or ſtumble; to be faultie; erre, or miſſe in footing.

Qui chope & ne tombe, adjouſte à ſon pas: Pro. He that ſtumbles without falling, gets the more forward.

Chopine: f. A Chopine; or the Pariſien halfe pint; almoſt as big as our whole one; (At S. Denis, and in diuers other places about Paris, three of them make but one pint.)

Approbation faitte ſur chopine. An allowance giuen, or paſſed, ouer the pot.

Chopiner. To tiple, quaffe, ſwill, plie the pot, drinke all day, or whole dayes, long.

Chopinette: f. A ſmall cup, or Chopine.

Choppe. Poire choppe. Which by ouerripeneſſe grows ſoft, and is almoſt vnſound at the core.

Choppement: m. A ſtumbling, a tripping.

Chopper. Looke Choper; alſo, a peare to grow ſoft, or almoſt vnſound at the core.

Choquar. A Chough; or, Corniſh Chough. ¶Valeſien.

Choquer. To giue a ſhock; violently, & with a hurrie to cope, knocke, incounter, buſtle, or ioyne battell, together; alſo, to quaffe, carouſe, tiple, toſſe the pot.

Choquer ſa teſte contre la muraille. To runne his head againſt the wall.

Chorage: m. A keeper of Players garments.

Chorde. See Corde.

Chordé. as Cordé.

Chore: m. A companie of ſingers, or dauncers; any number, aſſembly, or whole companie; as the Chorus between euerie Act in a Tragedie.

Choreal: m. ale: f. Frequenting, or belonging to, a Queere.

Choret: m. A ſhote, or barrow pig; a young hog.

Choriaux: m. Queeremen, ſingingmen, quirreſters.

Chorion. as Arrierefaix; or, the cutmoſt of the three skins, whereof the Secundine conſiſts.

Choriſte: m. A Choriſt; a ſinging man in a Queere.

Chormes des naufs. The Saylers, or Mariners. Locke Chiorme.

Choſe: f. A thing; a matter; a cauſe; meane; caſe, affaire, deed; alſo, ſtuffe, geere, ſubſtance, goods, poſſeſſions.

Choſe accouſtumée n'eſt pas trop priſée: Prov. We prize not much the thing w' are vſed vnto.

Choſe bien donnée n'eſt iamais perduë: Prov. A thing diſcreetly giuen is neuer loſt.

Choſe faitte conſeil prins: Prov. When a thing is done aduiſe comes too late; a thing once done cannot be vndone; the care is alreadie taken.

Choſe qui plaiſt eſt à demy venduë: Prov. Ware that doth pleaſe is halfe ſold (when tis ſeene.)

Petite choſe de loing poiſe: Prov. We ſay, light burthen farre beauie; a little thing borne farre growes heauie.

Chou: m. The hearbe Cole, or Coleworts.

Chou blanc. as Chou cabu.

Chou cabu. Cabbage, white Colewort, headed Colewort, leafed Cabbage, round Cabbage Cole.

Chou cabu rouge. Red Cabbage Cole.

Chou de chien. Dogs Cawle, Dogs Mercurie, wild Mercurie.

Chou creſpus. Curled garden-Coles; ragged, criſped, winckled Coleworts.

Chou fleuris, fleurs, & floris. The Collyflorie, or Cypres Colewort.

Chou griſeaſtre. A kind of gray-leaued Colewort that ſeldome cloſes, and is of little worth.

Chou marin. The ſea Cole; (the ſea Withywind, ſea-Solefoot, and Scottiſh Scuruie-weed is tearmed ſo by verie manie writers; but moſt improperly; for the right ſea Colewort differs verie much from it, or anie kind of Bindweed.)

Chou naveau. The rape Colewort.

Chou noir. The blacke, or ſwart Cole.

Chou petit. The ſmall, and ſlender Cole.

Chou pommé, ou à pommes. The ordinarie Cabbage.

Chou rouge. The bitter red Cole; or, the garden red Colewort.

Choux de Savoye. Ruffed, or curled Sauoy Coleworts; (there is alſo a ſmooth kind of them, tearmed, Sauoy Coles.)

Chou ſauvage. The wild Colewort, or, wild ſea-Cole.

Choux tannez. Wild red Coleworts; (fitter for medicine then for meat.)

Choux verds. Wrinckled, or ruffed greene Coleworts.

Petit chou. as Chou petit. Alſo, a puffe-cake, or loafe, made of butter, cheeſe, fine meale, and yolks of egges; (There be two kinds of them; one round, and plumpe like an apple; the other alſo round, but much flatter.)

Chou pour chou. One good turne for another.

Ie n'en donneroye pas vn chou. I value, or weigh it not; I care not for it; I would not giue a ruſh, a figge, a chip, for twentie ſuch.

Il en fait ſes choux gras. Hee gets well by it, makes his aduantage of it, feathers his neaſt with it.

Souffler les choux en dormant. To puffe in ſleeping.
Quand le chou paſſe le cep le vigneron meurt de ſoif: Prov. Looke Paſſer.
Chou. An Interiection expreſſing a ſence of a ſuddaine and extreame heat, or cold; alſo, a voice wherewith we driue away Pulleine.
Choüan: m. A Pollard, or Cheuin fiſh. (Angevin.)
Choüans: m. as Chauäns.
Choüart. Winſing, kicking, fluiſſing, flying out; and hence;
Maiſtre Iehan Choüart. A mans yard.
Chouca. A Chough, or Iacke Daw.
Chouchette: f. The Chough, Cadeſſe, Daw.
Choüé: m. ée: f. Diſappointed, fruſtrated, deceiued.
Chouëtte: f. An Owlet; or, the little Horne-Owle; (a theeuiſh night-bird;) alſo, a Chough, Cadeſſe, Daw, Iacke-Daw.
Chouëtte rouge. The Corniſh Chough; the red-legd Chough.
Choul: m. as Chou. Cole.
Chouquet: m. A blocke.
Chouquette: f. A Chough, Cadeſſe, Iacke Daw.
Chou-rave. The rape Colewort.
Chourme: f. Looke Chorme, or Chiorme.
Chouzer. To ſwyne; (a countrey word.)
Choyer. To ſpare, forbeare, ſaue, not to vſe; to refraine, abſtaine, withhold himſelfe from; to preſerue, cheriſh, haue a great care of.
Chraies: f. Wild Peares, choake Peares.
Chran: m. A ſmall kind of the fiſh Glaucus, couered with little ſhining ſkales of a golden blew colour. ¶Marſeillois.
Chras. as Chraies.
Chreſme. See Creſme.
Chreſmer. To annoint with holie oyle.
Chreſtien: m. A Chriſtian.
Poire de bon Chreſtien. A great Winter Peare, called by ſome, the Euſebian Peare. Looke Poire.
Parlez Chreſtien. Speake plainely, or ſo as wee may conceiue you; deliuer your mind in ſome language which we vnderſtand.
Chreſtien: m. enne: f. Chriſtian; of a Chriſtian, profeſſing Chriſtianitie.
Chreſtienné: m. ée: f. Chriſtened, baptiſed.
Chreſtiennement: m. A chriſtening, or baptiſing.
Chreſtiennément. Chriſtianly, Chriſtianlike.
Chreſtienner. To chriſten, or baptiſe.
Chreſtienté: f. Chriſtendome, or Chriſtianitie.
Chriſocolle. as Chryſocolle.
Chriſt. Chriſt, Sauiour.
Baume de Ieſus Chriſt. Looke Baume.
Herbe de Chriſt. Blacke Hellebore, Chriſts wort, Chriſts hearbe.
Paulme de Chriſt. The hearbe Kicke, Ricinus, Palma Chriſti.
Chriſte-marine. Sampire, rocke Sampire, Creſtmarine.
Chriſtianiſme: m. Chriſtianitie.
Chriſtianizé. Chriſtianized, chriſtened, made a Chriſtian.
Chriſtodin: m. A new Chriſtian, poore Chriſtian, ſimple Chriſtian.
Chronique: com. Temporall, or, returning at a certaine time.
Chroniques: f. Chronicles, Annales; generall, or yearelie relations of the chiefe matters acted, or happening, in a countrey.
Chroniqueur: m. A Chronicler, Annaliſt, Hiſtoriographer.
Chroniſte. as Chronicleur.
Chronographie: f. A deſcription of the times.
Chronologie: f. A Chronologie; a deſcription, or numbring, of time.
Chronologiſte: m. A Chronologiſt, or Chronicler; a deſcriber of times.
Chryſocolle: f. Gold-ſolder; Borax, greene earth, (whether artificiall, or minerall) as Borrais.
Chryſocome. Gold flower, Gods flower, Goldylockes, golden Stechados (an hearbe.)
Chryſogone: com. Gold producing.
Chryſolaine: f. Orage, Orache, golden hearbe.
Chryſolite: m. A Chryſolite; a kind of Iaſper of a golden luſtre, or colour.
Chryſopaſe: f. A Chryſopaſe; a greene precious ſtone that yeelds a golden luſtre.
Chryſopatie. The ſame.
Chuat: m. A whelpe.
Chucas. as Chouca; a Chough.
Chucas rouge. A Corniſh Chough.
Chucheté: m. ée: f. Whiſpered.
Chucheter. To whiſper in the eare.
Chuchoté. Looke Chucheté.
Chue: f. A Chough, Daw, Cadeſſe. (Savoyard.)
Chupper. To ſup, or ſucke, vp.
Churle: f. The white field Onyon, or Starre of Bethelem.
Churquette: f. A mouſe-trap. ¶Pic.
Chut. as Cheu.
Chyle: m. The Chylus, or white iuice of diſgeſted meat; the matter whereof our bloud is made: (The word originally ſignifies, a iuice concocted by heat vnto a conſiſtence that holdes both of moiſture, and dryneſſe.)
Chyloſe: f. An expreſſion, confection, or diſgeſtion of ſap, or iuice; alſo, a thicke, or creamie ſap, expreſſed.
Chymerique: com. Fond, vaine, imaginarie, onely in conceit, Chymericall, Chymera-like.
Chymie: f. The ſecond part of Alchymie; melting; Extraction; (much vſed for Alchymie it ſelfe.)
Chymique: com. A Chymiſt, or Alchymiſt; a Melter; or an Extractor, of Quinteſſences.
Chymique: com. Chymicall; melting; extractiue, quinteſſentiall; whence;
Sel chymique. Salt made of the quinteſſence, or fineſt ſubſtance, of any thing.
Chymiſtique: com. Chymiſticall, quinteſſentiall.
Chyſt. as Kyſt.
Ci. Here, in this place, in this matter.
Ci pris ci mis. Done ſpeedily, preſently, incontinently, quickly, out of hand; as ſoone done as ſpoken, no ſooner ſaid but done.
Ciané: m. ée: f. Azure, bright-blue of colour.
Ciathe: m. A ſmall cup, or meaſure among the auncient Romans, containing foure ſpooneſuls: about the weight of it Authors diſagree; ſome ſaying it was twelue drammes; others, that it was but tenne; and others, (the moſt probably) that it was two Carrats, and fifteen graines (of our weight) more then tenne.
Ciboile. as Ciboire.
Ciboire: m. A Pix; the box, or cup wherein the Sacrament is put, and kept in Popiſh churches.
Ciboule: f. A Chiboll, or hollow Leeke.
Cicatrice: f. A Cicatrice, a skarre; a skin bred vpon a

a wound, sore, or vlcer.

Cicatricé. Looke Cicatrizé.

Cicatricer. as Cicatrizer.

Cicatrisatif: m. iue: f. as Cicatrizé; also, cicatrizing, skarre-breeding, skinne-bringing.

Cicatrizé: m. ée: f. Cicatrised; skinned; skarred; also, full of skarres; that beares about him the markes of many wounds.

Cicatrizer. To cicatrize; to skinne; to skarre; to set a a skinne, make a skarre on; bring to a skinne, heale vp to a skarre.

Cicerolles: f. Small Cichlings, or Chichlings; small pettie Ciches; In Latine they are tearmed Cicera, which Gerard holds to be, yellow wild Fitches.

Cices: f. Ciches, Chiches, red Cich, Sheepes Cich peason; Looke Chiches.

Cicharou: m. Looke Chicharou.

Cichenie. Looke Sequenie, or Squenie.

Ciches: f. Ciches, Chiches, red Cich, Sheepes Cich peason; Looke Chiches.

Cichorée: f. The hearb Succorie.

Cichorée blanche. White Succorie; also, garden Endiue.

Cichorée des champs. Field Succorie, wild Succorie.

Cichorée de Iardin. Garden Succorie; or, as Scariole, garden Endiue.

Cichorée iaulne. Yellow Succorie (a wild kind thereof) also, Haukeweed; also, Dandelion, Succorie Dandelion, Pissabed.

Cichorée sauvage. Wild Succorie; whereof there be diuers kinds.

Cichorée verrueuse. Gumme Succorie; or, a kind thereof, that hath a blackish, and Rampion-like root; and takes away warts, being eaten in Salades.

Cicle: m. A Sheicle; an Hebrew coyne, or weight of two drammes, worth about foureteene pence sterling.

Cicle du Sanctuaire. Was twice as much as the ordinarie one; foure drammes in weight; in value, two shillings foure pence sterl.

Cicle: m. A Circle, Compasse, Round.

Cicle Lunaire. The Golden Number; or, full course, or compasse of the Moone, performed in nineteene yeares.

Cicle solaire. The reuolution, or full course of the Sunne, performed in, and consisting of, eight and twentie yeares.

Cicogne: f. A Storke; also, a Swype, or Scoope to draw water out of a Pit, or shallow Well.

Bec de cicogne. Hearbe Pinke-needle, Storkes-bill, Cranes-bill, Hearons-bill.

Contes de la cicogne. Idle histories; vaine relations; tales of a tub, or, of a rosted horse.

Cicogneau: m. A young Storke.

Cicoigne; &, Cicoigneau; as Cicogne, & Cicogneau.

Cicotrin. The hearbe Orpin; Liblang, Liuelong.

Aloës cicotrin. The best kind of Aloes; of a cleere, shining, and browne-yellow colour, tearmed so of the Island Succotora, whence it comes.

Cicotriné. Looke Cicrotiné.

Cicrotin: m. A kind of extraordinarie fine searce.

Cicrotiné: m. ée: f. Verie finelie searced.

Cicutaire: f. Mocke Cheruill, wild Cheruill, great Cheruill, Asse Perseley, Myrrhis Cash, Cax, or Kex; also, Hemlockes.

Cidrage: m. Ciderage, Peachwort, dead Arsesmart, dead Culerage.

Cidre: m. Cyder; drinke made of apples.

Cic, for Scie; a Saw.

Ciel: m. Heauen; also, the Skye, Welkin, Firmament; (in the plurall number Cieux) also, a canopie for, and, the Testerne, and Valances of, a Bed; also, the canopie that is carried ouer a Prince as he walkes in state; also, the inner roofe of a roome of State; (In all which sences, &c, the plurall is, Ciels.)

Cielin: m. ine: f. Heauenlie, of heauen, diuine; also, belonging to the Firmament; or to a Canopie, Testerne, or vpper seeling.

Cier. as Scier. To sawe.

Cierge: m. A big wax candle. Seeke Poincte.

Cieure: f. Saw-dust. Looke Sieure.

Cigale: f. A thicke, broad-headed, and mouthlesse flye, which ordinarily sits on trees, & sings (after her shreaking fashion) both day and night; liuing onely of the dew of heauen, which shee drawes into her by certaine tongue-like prickles, placed on her breast; she hath both old, and cold countries; and therefore we neither haue her, nor name for her.

Cigale de mer. A gray-eyed, thin-shelled, white, and (almost) transparent fish (of the kind of Creuïses or Insects of the sea) hauing two crimson, and eye-like spots vpon her (broad) tayle, and on either side of the vpper part of her bodie three feet, besides a long arme, the cley whereof is so hard, that picktooths are oftentimes made of it.

Babillard en cigale. Pratling like a Parrat (say we.)

Ferrer les cigales. To spend the time in trifles; to take vpon him foolish businesses; to labour vainely, or in vaine.

Cigaler. To chirpe, sing, chatter, like a Cigale.

Cigne: m. A Swan.

L'herbe du cigne. The Swans hearbe; growes (by Cardans report) in a Scottish lake tearmed Morania, and neuer rots.

Chanter l'hymne du cigne. To sing his last.

Cignean: m. anne: f. Swan-like; of a Swan.

Cigogne. as Cicoigne. A Storke.

Ciguë: f. Hemlocke, Homlocke, hearbe Bennet, Kex.

Cil: m. The brimme (or the single ranke of haire that growes on the brimme) of an eye-lid; the haire of an eye-lid; also, the twinckling, or nimble motion, of the eye-lids; and sometimes (but lesse properly) an eye-lid.

Cil. (vsed sometimes, in stead of Celuy) he, that same man, that verie man.

Cilindre: m. A Rowler; a round and long instrument of wood, wherewith husbandmen breake clods, and Gardeners smooth their alleyes, &c.

Cillement: m. A winking, twinckling, or beckening with the eye; also, a seeling, or hoodwinking of the eyes.

Ciller. To winke often; to twinckle with the eyes; to becken, or make a signe, by mouing the eye-lids; also, to seele, or sow vp, the eye-lids.

Cillier. faulconc. Whose eyes are seeled, or sowed vp; a seeled Hauke.

Cillier. To seele, or sow vp the eye-lids.

Cimaise. Looke Cymaise, or Cymace.

Cimasulte. Caruing that resembleth rowling waues. Rab.

Cimbale: f. A Cymball. Seeke Cymbale.

Cime: f. The top, or knap, of a Plant.

Ciment. Cement; a strong, and cleauing morter, made

(most commonly) of Tyles, Potshards, Flint, Glasse, the drosse of yron, &c, beaten to dust, and incorporated with lime, oyle, grease, rosin, and water.

Ciment royal. An excellent Cement, or Solder, vsed by Goldsmiths; (heretofore Mintmen compounded a Cement for the tryall of gold, and tearmed it so.)

Cimenté: m. ée: f. Cemented; soldered, closed, or ioyned by Cement.

Cimenter. To cement; to solder, close, or ioyne together with Cement.

Cimet: m. as Cime; the top of a plant, or tree.

Cimeterre: m. A scymitar, or smyter; a kind of short, and crooked, sword, much in vse among the Turks.

Cimettes. Looke Cymettes.

Cinier: m. The vpper part of a rumpe of Beefe, &c, next, or neere, vnto the chine.

Iouër du cinier. To leacher.

Cimitiere: m. A Churchyard.

De nouveau medecin cimitiere bossu: Prov. An vnexperienced Physition fattens the Churchyard.

Veau mal cuict, & poules cruds font les cimitieres bossus: Pro. Raw Veale, and Chickens make fat churchyards.

Cimmerique. Tenebres Cimmeriques. Cimmerian (viz. perpetuall, or continuall) darknesse.

Cimolée. terre Cimolée. as Terre Cimolie.

Cimolie. terre Cimolie. Fullers earth; a kind of chalk; in lieu whereof (at this day not found, or not knowne) men foist in the thickened grounds, or bottome of the water of Grindlestones.

Cimolienne. Terre Cimolienne. The same.

Cin de bois. A knot, or knurre, in wood.

Cinabre. as Cinnabre. Synoper; Vermillion; or, a kind of Lybian Minerall, redder then Vermillion. Look Cinnabre.

Cinabrin: m. ine: f. Red, ruddie (as Vermillion.)

Cincinatule: m. One that continually frizles, or curles his haire; one whose head is frizled, or curled (by art;) any such effeminate, or spruce, youth.

Cincture. as Ceincture. A girdle.

Cindre: f. (The same.)

Cindré: m. ée: f. Girt; also, spotted; also, supported.

Cindrer. To gird; also, to spot; also, as Cintrer.

Cinefaction: f. A reducing into, a burning vnto, ashes.

Cinge. Looke Singe.

Cinglant. Saying, cutting the sea.

Cingler. Looke Singler.

Cinit: m. The little bird called, a Siskin.

Cinnabrisé: m. ée: f. Mingled, or coloured, with Cynoper.

Cinnabre: m. Cynoper, Vermillion, Sanguinarie; is either naturall (a soft red, and beauie stone found in Mines) or artificiall (the more common, and better coloured) made of calcinated Sulpher, and Quicksiluer.

Cinnamé: m. ée: f. Cinnamonized; sweetened with Cinnamon; or sweet as Cinnamon.

Cinnamome: f. Cinnamon: (Some learned men are of opinion, that the true Cinnamon of the Ancients (being a wood, and not, as ours, the barke of a tree) is hardlie to be found at this day; and that the rinde, or barke, which we commonly hold to be Cinnamon, is much inferior vnto it, and should rather be tearmed, Cassia, and Canella.)

Cinq. Fiue.

Cinquaine: f. The name of a certaine Vine, that thriues not in a moist soyle.

Cinquante. Fiftie.

Cinquantenier: m. A certaine Officer, or Magistrate in Paris, that somewhat resembles, in his authoritie, our Aldermans Deputie; also, a Captaine, or Commaunder of fiftie men.

Cinquantiéme. The fiftieth.

Cinquiener. To yeeld fiue for one.

Cinquiéme. The fifth, or fift.

Cintre: m. A Centrie, or Mould for an Arch; the frame of wood whereon it is built, and whereby it is vpheld in the building.

Cintrer. To mould an Arch; to build it on, or (in the building) to vphold it with, a Centrie, or frame of tymber.

Cinturin. Looke Ceinturon.

Cion. A great tempest, or whirlewind vpon the sea; also, as Sion, or Scion.

Cipres: m. The Cypresse tree. Looke Cyprés.

Cipricimi (compounded of foure words.) Looke Ci.

Cipsule: f. as Capsule.

Circée: f. A kind of Nightshade, that beares manie small blacke flowers (not easily found now-a-daies.)

Circombilivagination: f. A circumbiliuigation, circular motion; going round, wheeling about.

Circombilivaginer. To turne, goe round, wheele about; and (in discourse) to vse many circumstances.

Circoncir. To circumcise.

Circoncis: m. ise: f. Circumcised.

Circoncision. Circumcision, the cutting of the fore-skin; also, the nation, or generation of the Iewes.

La Circoncision. New yeares day.

Circonference: f. A circumference, compassing, or bringing about.

Circonflex. Accent circonflex. Looke Accent.

Circongirer. To turne, twirle, wheele about.

Circonjacent: m. ente: f. Lying about; situate, or abording, on each side of.

Circonlocution: f. A circumlocution; a tedious paraphrase, or description; a going about the bush (in words.)

Circonscript: m. te: f. Circumscribed, limitted, bounded; appointed; restrained; made briefe, short, succinct; also, deceiued, beguiled, fetcht ouer; also, abolished, raced, put out.

Circonscription: f. A circumscription; limitation, measuring, bounding; restraint, or prescription of compasse; also, guile, deceit, cousenage.

Circonscrire. To circumscribe; to restraine, or hold within certaine limits; to limit, appoint, or measure out bounds vnto; also, to cheat, beguile, deceiue, fetch ouer.

Circonspection: f. Circumspection; heed, aduisement, prouidence, warinesse; a vigilant consideration, a diligent looking round about.

Circonstance: f. A circumstance.

Circonstancié. Circumstanced; furnished with circumstances; or, compassed, as with circumstances.

Circonvenir. To enuiron, or incompasse; and hence; to circumuent, fetch in, or ouer, to beguile, deceiue, cousin, intrap, compasse with great sleight.

Circonvention: f. Circumuention, deceit, cousenage; an intrapping, beguiling, wylie compassing, or fetching ouer.

Circonvenu: m. uë: f. Enuironed, incompassed, come about; also, circumuented, fetched in or ouer; deceiued, beguiled, cousened, intrapped.

Circonvoisin: m. ine: f. Neighbouring, neere, hard by,

by, lying close vnto, neere adioyning to.

Circonvolution: f. A circumuolution; a wrapping, or foulding; also, a rowling, or tumbling, about.

Circuir. To circuit; enuiron, incompasse, or goe about; also, to inwrap, infould, inclose.

Circuit: m. A circuit, compasse, going about; a round course, or race.

Circuit: m. ite: f. Enuironed, incompassed, gone about; also, inwrapped, infoulded, incloſed.

Circuition: f. A circuition; a circular course, or motion.

Circuition de paroles. A circumlocution, paraphrase, great circumstance of words; a going about the bush.

Circulaire; com. Round, circular, orbicular, compassing about, in a ring; belonging to a circle, round, ring.

Cautere Circulaire. See Cautere.

Circulairement. Roundly, orbicularly, circularly, with a compasse, in a circle.

Circularité: f. Circularitie, roundnesse, orbicularnesse.

Circulateur: m. A leaster, Iugler, Impostor; one that delights, or deceiues with fables, tricks, and sleights, the people gathered about him.

Circulation: f. A circulation; a subliming, or extracting of water, or oyle by a Lembicke &c; tearmed so, because the vapour, before it be resolued into either, seemes to goe round, or circle-wise.

Circulatoire: com. Circulatorie; circulating; subliming; extracting, or seruing for extraction; whence;

Vaisseau circulatoire. A Lembicke, Stillitorie, &c.

Circulé: m. ée: f. Circulated; sublimed, extracted; (exactly) distilled.

Circuler. To circulate; sublime, extract, or distill (exactly.)

Ou se circulent les humeurs. Wherein the humors make many a circle, before they produce, or be resolued into, any water &c.

Cire: f. Wax; also, a combe of wax in the hiue.

Cire d'Espaigne. Hard-wax; or, as Lacre.

Cire gommée. Wax mingled with Rosin and Turpentine.

Cire jaulne. Yellow wax; is vsed onely in the Chaunceries of France.

Cire minerale. Piſſaſphalte is called so in some places.

Cire verde. Greene wax; wherewith the writs, and other dispatches of inferiour Courts; as also, all Charters, Perpetuities, and generall Pardons graunted by the King, are sealed.

Droict de cire. is eighteene pence Tourn. in euerie pound aboue twentie, giuen, or agreed vpon, for a wood-sale; due vnto the King in regard of the lights which are (said to be) spent while the bargaine is in making.

A yeux de cire. Tender; easily melting, or quickly shedding teares.

Chauffer la cire. To attend long for a promised good turne.

Faire vn nez de cire à. To plie, or applie a thing at pleasure; to giue it any forme that is for his turne, or serues his purposes.

Ciré: m. ée: f. Waxed; seared; dressed, couered, closed, or mingled with wax.

Cirement: m. A waxing; a searing; a dressing, closing, couering, or mingling, with wax.

Cirer. To wax; to seare; to dresse, couer, close, or mingle with wax.

Cirette. The name of a certaine Peare, that yeelds most excellent Perrie.

Cireux: m. euse: f. Waxie; of wax; full of wax.

Cirier: m. A Wax-chandler.

Cirier: m. ere: f. Waxie, of wax.

Cirine: f. as Gyrine.

Ciroesne. A Seare-cloth; or any plaister, or ointment whereof Wax, Rosin, or Gummes, and Wine are the principall Ingredients.

Ciron: m. A Hand-worme.

Mais dont me vient ce ciron icy entre ces deux doigts? But whence comes this worme betweene these two fingers? (A knauish question from as knauish an action; to put the fore finger of one hand betweene the first, and second finger of the other; vnder pretence, that a worme makes the place itch, but with a purpose to make hornes at the partie of whom the question is asked.)

Cironnier. Main cironniere. A hand that is full of, or troubled with, wormes.

Cirop: m. Sirrup.

Cirque. A place in Rome, wherein the people sate to behold Playes, Games, and publicke Exercises.

Cirre: m. A tuft, or locke of curled haire; also, the featherie tuffe, creſt, or cop on the heads of some birds; also, the small staulke of some hearbs (as Withywind, &c;) intangled like a bush of haire; also, the hairie substance cleauing vnto oysters.

Cirsotomie: f. The cutting, or opening of the corrupt veines, called Varices.

Cisaille: f. The clipping of coyne presently after the stampe.

Cisaillé: m. ée: f. Clipped, or cut with sheeres, or sizars; also, whose flesh is nipped off with hot pincers.

Cisailler. To clip, or cut with sizars, or sheeres; also, to nip, or pull off the flesh with hot pincers.

Cisailles: f. Garden sheeres; a Gardeners clipping sheeres; any great sheeres.

Cisé: m. ée: f. Carued; wrought with a chisell, or grauing yron.

Ciseau: m. A Surgeons Launce, Launcet, or Instrument of Incision; also, a chisell, or grauing yron.

Ciseaux: m. Sizars, or (little) sheeres.

Le drap, & les ciseaux luy sont delivrez: Prov. The whole matter is put vnto him; all is at his owne disposition, or in his owne hand; he may now be his owne caruer; he may now both part and chuse.

Ciselé: m. ée: f. Carued, or grauen with a chisell; also, clipped, or cut with sizars.

Ciseler. To carue, or graue with a chisell; also, to clip, or cut with sizars.

Ciselet: m. A little sizar, or chisell.

Ciseleure: f. Chisell-worke; or as Cizelleure.

Ciſellage: m. A clipping with sheeres, or sizars.

Ciste: m. The plant called Cistus, and Hollie Rose.

Cisteaux: m. An Order of white Friers (instituted in the yeare 1090) who vnder their (vpmost) white habit weare a blacke one; and red shoes.

Cisterne: f. A Cesterne.

Cisternin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, a Cesterne.

Cisternon: m. A little Cesterne.

Cistophore: m. An auncient corne worth about two pence farthing.

Cistre: m. A kind of brazen timbrell.

Cisure. Looke Scissure.

Citadelle: f. A Citadell; a streng Fort, or Castle, that serues ſerues both to defend, and to curbe, a citie.

Citadin: m. A Citizen, Burgeſſe, Burguer, freeman in a citie.

Citation: f. A Citation, Summons, warning to appeare; alſo, a citing, adiourning, ſummoning.

Cité: f. A Citie; a walled, and incorporate Towne, being the ſeat, and ſea, of a Biſhop, and hauing a Cathedrall Church within it.

Cité: m. ée: f. Cited, ſummoned, adiourned, warned, to appeare; alſo, alledged, or cited as a Text.

Citer. To cite, ſummon, adiourne, warne, ſerue with a writ, to appeare; alſo, to cite, or alledge, as a Text.

Citouart. as Zedoare; a certaine root verie like to Ginger.

Citoyen: m. A Citizen, Burguer, Burgeſſe, freeman of a Citie.

Citoyennerie: f. A Citizenſhip, the freedome of a Citie.

Citre. The worſt kind of Pompion; blacke of colour, and continued in gardens, onely for the ſeed, which is medicinable; the reſt is throwne vnto hogs.

Citrin: m. ine: f. Of a Citron, Citron-like, pale-yellow, as a Citron.

Concombre citrin. A Citrull, or Citrull Cowcumber.

Couleur citrine. A Citron colour, pale Orange colour; pale-yellow.

Myrobalan citrin. The yellow, or Citron, Myrobalan.

Citrinité: f. Pale-yellowneſſe; or, a pale yellow.

Citron: m. A Citron, Pome-Citron.

Citronne: f. Baulme, ſweet Baulme (an hearbe.)

Citronnelle: f. A kind of ſmall Baulme, of a faire greene colour, and verie good in a Sallet.

Citronnier: m. A Citron tree.

Citronnier: m. ere: f. Citron-like; of a Citron.

Baſilic citronnier. Citron Baſill, middle Baſill.

Citrouille: f. A Citrull; a Citrull Cowcumber, or Turkiſh gourd; a kind of great Melon, in colour, and forme reſembling a Citron.

Citrulle. The ſame.

Civade: f. The Shrimpe, or beard-fiſh; alſo, Oats, or Prouender for horſes.

Civadier: m. The fourth part of a Quarteron. ¶Langued.

Civadiere: f. The ſprit-ſayle of a ſhip.

Civé: m. A kind of blacke ſauce for a Hare. Looke Sivé.

Cive: f. A Scallion; or vnſet Leeke.

Civelle: f. A Lamprill; the ſmall, or freſh-water Lamprey. ¶Lyonnois.

Civets. des c. Slices of bread toaſted, then ſoaked an houre or two in water and wine; then ſtrained, and ſpice put to them; an excellent ſauce; we may call them, ſippets.

Civette: f. Ciuet; alſo, (the beaſt that breeds it) a Ciuet cat; alſo, a Chiue, little Scallion, or Chiboll.

Civettien: m. enne: f. Perfumed with, or ſmelling of, Ciuet.

Civiere: f. A hand-barrow; (to carrie mucke, &c, on) alſo, a Beere (to carrie a dead corps on.)

Civiere à col. A necke-barrow, or Beere-like ſhrine, whereon Images, and Relickes, are carried in Proceſſions, &c.

En cent ans civiere en cent ans banniere: Prov. See Banniere.

Civil: m. ile: f. Ciuill, courteous, gentle, mannerlie, well-behaued; alſo, temperat, mild, quiet; alſo, towne-bred, or, burguerlike; alſo, politicke, lay, ſecular, ciuill.

Cauſe civile. A priuat cauſe; or, ſuch a one, as is neither Eccleſiaſticall, criminall, nor capitall; but concerns a mans eſtate.

Fruicts civils. Are ſuch as are gathered, or taken by the courſe of right, and without any helpe of nature; as hire for houſes, wages for offices, arrerages of rent, &c.

Iour civil. The ciuill day; continues from Sunne-riſing to Sunne-ſet. Looke Iour.

Lieutenant civil. See Lieutenant.

Nuict civile. Begins when the day ends, from Sunne-ſet vnto Sunne-riſing.

Partie civile. A priuat man; one that is lyable to any action; alſo, an ordinarie Suitor, or Client.

Partie civile & formée, ou intereſſée. He that followes a criminall action, only in reſpect of, or to get ſome amends for, a wrong done to himſelfe.

Requeſte civile. Seeke Requeſte.

Civilement. Ciuilly, gently, courteouſly; in a good faſhion, decent order, comelie manner; alſo, mildly, quietly, temperately; alſo, according to Order, Iuſtice, and Law.

Civiliſé: m. ée: f. Ciuilized; made ciuile; framed, or trained vp, to ciuilitie.

Civiliſer. Looke Civilizer.

Civilité: f. Ciuilitie, gentleneſſe, humanitie, courteſie; alſo, modeſtie, mildnes; quietnes of diſpoſition, and faſhion.

Civilizer. To ciuilize, bring to ciuilitie, make ciuill; to tame, quiet, reclaime.

Civilizer vn criminel. To change his Indictment into an action; to turne a criminall, into a ciuill, cauſe.

Civois: m. A bed of Scallions; or of vnſet Leekes.

Civot: m. A Scallion; or vnſet Leeke.

Cizaillé: m. ée: f. Clipped, or cut, with ſizzars.

Cizailler. To clip, or cut with ſizzars, or ſheeres.

Cizailles: f. as Ciſailles.

Cizelé: m. ée: f. Carued, or grauen with chizels.

Cizeler. To faſhion, carue, or graue with a chizell; alſo, to cut, or clip with ſizzars.

Cizellage: m. as Ciſellage.

Cizelleure: f. Chizell-worke; caruing, or ingrauerie with the Chizell.

Clabaud: m. A name for a hound; alſo, the barke, or barking, of a bawling curre.

Clabauder. To barke; bawle, raile at; ſpightfully to accuſe, or ſpeake againſt.

Clabauderie: f. A barking, bawling, rayling; an enuious accuſing, a ſpightfull reproching.

Claboſſer. To hoyſe, or toſſe vp and down; alſo, to bedaſh, or beray, with durt.

Clac: m. A clicket, or clapper; any thing that makes a clacking, or clattering noiſe; hence (moſt properly) the clacket that frights away birds from fruit-trees, &c.

Clache: f. A certaine Engine wherewith (ſmall) birds are caught.

Claguet: m. The name of a faire, ſappie, & ſauorie apple.

Claigner. Looke Cligner.

Claim: m. A publicke demaund, or claime; a pretence of title vnto land, &c; alſo, a Declaration, or Bill of Complaint put, or preferred, into a Court.

Clain: m. as Claim; alſo, an Arreſt, or ſeiſure of a debtors goods, vpon an Execution; alſo, a fine of xx d, or of three ſolz Tourn. due vnto Iuſtice for the ſeiſure of beaſts damage-feſant; alſo, a penaltie (in ſome places, of xx d. Tourn. in others, of xxx d. Pariſis) inflicted on the partie that yeelds by confeſſion in Court before the ſuit come to conteſtation.

Clair: m. as Clarté; or, a cleere thing; whence;

Clair de la Lune. Moone-light, or Moone-ſhine.

Clair d'un oeuf. The white of an egge.

Clair: m. ire: f. Cleere, light, ſhining, bright. as Cler.

Clair-coulant. Cleere-gliding, cleere-ſtreaming, running cleere.

Clairement. Cleerely, brightly; euidently, plainly.

Clairet: m. ette: f. Somewhat cleere, bright, or ſhining.
Eau clairette. A water (made of Aquauite, Cinnamon, Sugar, and old red Roſe water) ſoueraigne againſt all the diſeaſes of the wombe.
Vin clairet. Claret wine; (is commonly made of white and red grapes mingled, or growing, together.)

Clairins: m. A certaine Order of Cordeliers, or Gray Friers.

Clairon: m. A Clarion; a kind of ſmall, ſtrait-mouthed, and ſhrill-ſounding Trumpet, vſed (commonly) as a Treble vnto the ordinarie one.
`A pain, & oignon trompette, ne clairon: Prov. Hard fare, poore dyet, courſe Acates require neither State in the ſeruing, nor Muſicke in the eating; or, the ſound of forraine Trumpets is but ſeldome heard in a poore, and barren State.

Claironner. To ſound a Clarion; alſo, to ſqueake, ſqueale; ſpeake ſhrilly, ſmally, or with an effeminate voice.

Clamable: com. Claimeable, challengeable.

Clamant: m. A claimer, a challenger; one that makes title vnto land, &c; alſo, a Creditor, that ſeizes his debtors goods vpon an Execution.

Clamant: m. ante: f. Calling, crying out; alſo, claiming, or challenging.

Clame: f. A fine leuied, in ſome places, vpon thoſe that deferre the payment of their debts; alſo, the fine payed vnto Iuſtice, or a Lord hauing iuriſdiction, for the ſeiſure of beaſts found Damage feſant; alſo, as Clain.

Clamé: m. ée: f. Claimed, challenged, demaunded; called, or cried out; ſpoken aloud, or with a high voice.

Clamer. To call, crie, ſpeake aloud, or out; alſo, to claime; to make a claime to, or lay in a claime for; to challenge, demaund, pretend a title vnto; alſo, to arreſt, or ſeize, his debtors goods.
Clamer en garend, ou en garieur. To demaund a thing by way of poſſeſſion, or of propertie; or, to complaine, in Court, of the wrongs which haue beene done him thoſe wayes.
Clamer à Iuſtice. To exhibit a claime, or demaund; or, to preferre a Bill of Complaint vnto a Court.
Clamer ſon ſubiect de ſerve condition qui ſe veut advouër d'autre ſeigneur; c'eſt, le pourſuivire.
Il le clama fils de putain. He called, or cleaped, him whoreſon.
Se clamer en Cour ſuzeraine de Cour inferieure. To addreſſe himſelfe, for the more expedition, vnto a ſuperior Court, though he were ſummoned by an inferiour.

Clameur: f. A clamour, crie, outcrie, exclamation, ſhout, roaring; alſo, a claime vnto, a challenge, or demaund of, a publicke ſuit for, a thing.
Clameur d'Haro. Looke Haro.
Clameur pour le Seigneur Iuſticier. The fine that is aue vnto him vpon the ſeiſure of beaſts found Damage feſant within his Iuriſdiction.
Forte clameur. Looke Fort.

Clamme: f. A Pilgrims Cloke, Pelt, or Gabardine.

Clamporte. as Cloporte.

Clanche: f. The latch of a dore.

Clandeſtin: m. ine: f. Clandeſtine, cloſe, priuie, ſecret, hidden.

Clandeſtinement. Priuily, ſecretly, cloſely, vnder hand, in huggar muggar.

Clangueur: f. A ſkreaking, ſhrillneſſe, or ſhrill noiſe; a ſkriking, ringing, loud reſounding.

Clangueux: m. euſe: f. Shrill, ſkriking, ſkreaking, loudly ſqueaking, ringing, reſounding.

Clanponniere. as Clapponniere.

Clapier: m. A Clapper of Conies; a heape of ſtones, &c, whereinto they retire themſelues; or (as our clapper) a Court walled about, and full of neaſts of boords, or ſtone, for tame Conies; alſo, a Rabbets neaſt: (In old time Baudie houſes were alſo tearmed, Clapiers.)
Clapiers d' vlcere. The Sinus, boſomes, or angles of an Vlcer; the many croſſe, or ouerthwart holes wherein it putrifies as it goes.

Clapoir: m. A botch in the Groyne, or yard; a Winchеſter Gooſe.

Clapoire: f. The ſame.

Claponnice. as Clapponniere.

Claponnier: m. The ſame.

Clappetter. To clap on with the hand.

Clapponniere: f. The huckle, paſtle, or paſterne, bone of a beaſt.

Claque-dent: m. A lazie rogue, idle luske, ſlouthfull idlesbie; one that will rather ſtarue with cold, and hunger, then worke to get heat, or meat.

Claquer. To clacke, to clap, to clatter; to craſh; to crack; to creake.
Claquer les dents. To gnaſh the teeth; or, to chatter, or didder, like an Ape, thats afraid of blowes.

Claquet. The name of an Apple whereof excellent Cyder is made.
Claquet de moulin. The Clapper, or clacke, of a Mill-hopper.

Claquetant: m. ante: f. Clacking, clapping, clattering; chattering; craſhing; cracking, creaking.

Claquetement: m. A clattering, clacking, craſhing, chattering, creaking, clapping.

Claqueter. as Claquer.

Claquetis: m. A clattering, clacking, clapping; a craſhing; a cracking; a creaking; a chattering.

Claquette: f. A Lazers Clicket, or Clapper.

Claré: m. as Eau Clairette.

Claret. Vin claret. Claret wine.

Clarifié: m. ée: f. Clarified, cleered, fined, purified.

Clarifier. To clarifie; cleere, fine, purifie.

Clariné. vache clarinée d'Azur. A Cow with Azur bels hanging about her necke; our Blaſonners ſay no more but, the bels Azur.

Clarté: f. Cleereneſſe, light, brightneſſe, luſtre, tranſparancie.

Clas: m. as Glas; a knell, or wofull noyſe.

Claſſe. A ranke, order, or diſtribution of people according to their ſeuerall degrees; In Schooles (wherein this word is moſt vſed) a forme, or Lecture reſtrained vnto a certaine companie of Schollers, or Auditers; and hence,
Eſcolier babillard prez le feu, & badin hors la claſſe: Pro.

Claſsique: com. Claſſicall; formall, orderlie, in due, or fit ranke; alſo, approued, authenticall; chiefe, principall.

Clavaire: m. A kind of Receiuer, or Officer that lookes to the receit, of the Kings demeſne.

Claval. Cautre Claval. See Cautre.

Clavaller. To ſettle, or ſtrengthen, the yong ſhoots, or ſlips of a vine againſt the furie of ſtrong winds.

Clavandier: m. A porter, or key-bearer; one to whom keyes are committed to be kept; alſo, the chaine whereon women vſe to weare their keyes.

Clavandiere: f. A ſhe porter, key-keeper, or key-bearer.

Clavarins. An Order of blacke Friers, which weare two great paper keyes vpon their habits.
Claudication: f. A limping, halting, lameneſſe.
Claudition: f. as Claudication.
Claveau: m. The Scab among Sheepe; alſo, the Haunſe, or Lintell of a doore; alſo, a claſpe, hooke, or buckle.
Clavelade: f. A Thornebacke. ¶Langued.
Clavelé: m. ée: f. Scabbed, or infected with the ſcab, as a ſheepe; alſo, nayled, or faſtened with nayles; alſo, rooted ſurely in.
Herbe clavelée. Paunſie, hearbe Trinitie, Hearts-eaſe.
Raye clavelée. The Rocke Ray; or, as Raye bouclée. Seeke Raye.
Clavelée: f. The ſcab among ſheepe; alſo, the ſcabbineſſe of a horſes legs.
Claveler. To nayle, or faſten with nayles; to ſettle, or ſet, faſt in.
Clavellé: m. ée: f. as Clavelé.
Claveller. See Claveler.
Claveſſins: m. Claricords, or Claricols.
Clavet: m. as Clavelée. (In the firſt ſence.)
Clavette: f. The Cannell bone, or Craw-bone; alſo, a Spring-pinne; the little peece of yron wherwith tradeſmen keepe in the yron pinnes of their ſhop-windowes; alſo, the Capſquire, or Fore-locke of the carriage of a Canon; or (more properly, that which faſtens it) the fore-locke key.
Clavette du pied. The heele, or hinder bone of the foot.
Claveure: f. A key-hole; or all that part of a locke wherein the key turnes, or playes; alſo, a chinke, or cranny.
Plus rouillé que la claveure d' un vieil charnier. More ruſtie then the key-hole of an old poudering tub.
Le viſage leur reluiſoit comme la claveure d' un charnier. Their faces gliſtened (with greaſe) like the locke, or key-hole, of a poudering tub.
Clavicules: f. The kannell bones, channell bones, necke-bones, craw-bones; extending (on each ſide one) from the bottome of the throat vnto the top of the ſhoulder.
Clavier: m. A key-chaine; or chaine for keyes, or chaine whereat keyes are hanged.
Clavier d'une eſpinette, &c. The keyes of, or, a ſet of keyes for, a paire of Virginals.
Claviere: f. A key-keeper, or key-carrier; a woman that hath charge of all the keyes in a houſe.
Clavin: m. A little graple, or hooke like a claw.
Claune. as Mare; a Poole, or Pond of ſtanding water.
Clauſe: f. A Clauſe, Period, concluſiue ſentence, or concluſion.
Clauſtier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Cloyſter; liuing in a Monaſterie, or Cloyſter.
Clauſtral. as Clauſtier.
Prieur clauſtral. The Prior, or Head of a Frierie; an ordinarie Prior.
Clauſule: f. A little clauſe; end, concluſion.
Claye: f. A hurdle, or lattice of (Ozier) twigs, &c; alſo, a (watled) gate, or yate, in a hedge.
Clayer. To wattle with rods, or with reeds, &c; to compaſſe, hedge or cloſe in, make or ſhut vp, with watlings, hurdles, lattices, &c.
Cléé: m. éée: f. Watled, latticed, hurdled; incompaſſed, hedged or cloſed in, made or ſhut vp, with watlings, hurdles, lattices, &c.

Clef: f. A Key; alſo, a brace to hold beames together; alſo, a knot, or ſcutcheon in the middeſt of a vault, whereat (in Tymber-worke) the ends of the poſts doe meet; and (in Maſonrie) the courſe of Stone-worke ends; alſo, a Cliff in Muſicke; alſo, the middle wedge of a boot-laſt.
Les clefs. as Clavicules.
Clef d'arbaleſte. The Gaffle of a Croſſe-bow.
La Clef d'une fontaine. The head of a Fountaine, or Conduit.
La clef de la main. The wriſt.
La clef d' une porte. The Pendall, or key-ſtone of a gate; the ſtone which hangs downe ſomewhat below it fellowes iuſt in the middle of the Arch.
Clef ſurpenduë. The Scutcheon; the peece of wood, or ſtone that knits vp an Arch, or Vault, and hangs downe in the verie middle thereof; the key of an Arch deepelie carued.
Le jeu des clefs. A kind of Shuffle-boord play with keyes, a kniues-point being the marke.
Donner la clef des champs à. To diſmiſſe, diſcharge, let goe, ſet at libertie, ſend out.
Mettre les clefs ſur la foſſe. A widow to refuſe, and waiue, the goods, or her part in the goods, left by her indebted husband, by laying her keyes on his graue as ſoone as it is couered, and renouncing her ſaid part, in the preſence of a Notarie publicke.
Prendre la clef des champs. To get oût, giue it ſelfe roome, take libertie, ſlip, by a priuat way, away.
Cleigner. as Cligner. To twinckle, or winke often.
Clematide. as Clematite.
Clematite: f. A third kind of the hearbe Hartwort, or Birtwort, called, climing Birthwort.
Clemence: f. Clemencie, mildneſſe, meekeneſſe, mercifulneſſe, benignitie, pitie, fauor.
Clement. Clement; gentle, mild, gracious, benigne, humane; meeke, mercifull, pitifull, eaſily-pardoning, ſoone-forgiuing.
Clepſydre: f. A Gardeners watering pot; alſo, an houre-glaſſe, or veſſell which meaſureth houres by the running of water, or ſand thereout; alſo, an Aſtronomicall inſtrument wherewith the meaſure of Starres is taken.
Clepſydrie: f. A proportionable, iuſt, or limitted running, or diſtilling, as of water out of a Clepſydre, or of ſand in an houre-glaſſe.
Cler: m. clere: f. Cleere, bright, lightſome, tranſparent, pure-coloured; ſhining; alſo, perſpicuous, plaine, apparant, euident, eaſie to be diſcerned.
Laict cler. Whey.
Toile clere. Lawne.
Cler ſemé. Rare, thin-ſet, growing not thicke, whereof there are, or grow, but verie few.
Clerc: m. A Clarke; a ſcholler, or learned perſon; hence; alſo, a Churchman (who ſhould be learned;) alſo, a Clarke in an Office; a Lawyers Clarke; and generally, any Penneman.
Clercs de la Chambre. The Kings principal, or domeſticall, Secretaries; (tearmed ſo in old time.)
Clerc des fiefs. The Kings, or any other lords, Atturney is called ſo; becauſe he keepes a Regiſter of the homages their vaſſals are to do, and of the duties they are to pay.
Clerc ſolut. A lay, or ſecular Churchman (Qui n' a qu' une ſimple tonſure, & n' eſt lié a l' eſgliſe) as a Deacon, Prebend, Canon, &c.
Clerc tonſuré. A Prieſt, a Shaueling; one that's fully entred into Orders.
Pas de Clerc. A fooliſh tricke, impertinent act, fond part; any childiſh, or ignorant proceeding in matters of the world.

Vin des Clercs. Looke Vin.

Clerc iuſques aux dents. Well red in a porridge-pot, an excellent Clarke in a Cookes ſhop.

Iamais danſeur ne fut bon clerc: Prov. See Danſeur.

Il en parle comme vn clerc d' armes. Hee ſpeakes thereof ignorantly, ſimply, without proofe, or skill; onely by heareſay.

On croit d' un fol bien ſouvent, qu' il ſoit Clerc pour ſes veſtemens: Prov. Handſome, or decent apparrell makes fooles oft paſſe for wiſe men.

Tout ce que le Clerc laboure folle femme deuore: Pro. All that the ſcholler gaines his wench conſumes.

Clerceliere: f. A kind of courſe ribban wherwith countrey wenches gird themſelues; alſo, a ſtring, or chayne, wherewith women hang their keyes to their girdles.

Cleré. A kind of red Hypocras.

Clerement. Cleerely, brightly; apparantly, euidently.

Cleres-voyes: f. Lattices, or ſecret holes to ſpie out at; croſſe-barred windows (of wood or yron) through which one may ſee, and not be ſeene.

Clergé: m. The Clergie.

Clergez. The Officers of Iuſtice (who either are, or ſhould be learned) were called ſo in former times.

Clergeau: m. A pettie Clarke, vnder Clarke, or young Clarke.

Clergeon: m. as Clergeau; or, a Singing man, or Quireſter, in a Queere.

Clergeſſe: f. A learned woman.

Plume clergeſſe. A learned penne.

Clergie: f. Learning, skill, ſcience, Clarkeſhip.

Il a des muids de clergie en la teſte. (So were they wont, in old time, to ſay of, a great learned man;) Hee hath a buſhell of learning in his head.

Mieux vaut plein poing de bonne vie qu' avoir plein muy de clergie: Prov. Better a little honeſtie then a great deale of learning.

Clerical. privilege clerical. The priuiledge of the Clergie, of his Clergie, or of a Clarke. Looke Clericature.

Clericalement. Clarkely, Prieſt-like, Scholler-like.

Clericature: f. Clarkeſhip; or, the being a Clarke, or Prieſt, or in Orders.

Privilege de Clericature. The priuiledge of the Clergie; which is, to be tried before the Ordinarie, and not before any temporall Iudge.

Alleguer ſa clericature. To alledge his Orders, and claime the priuiledge of his Clergie; or, to appeale from a Ciuile, or lay Iudge vnto his Ordinarie.

Clerté: f. as Clarté.

Cleſché. as Cliſſé.

Clicquettes: f. Clickets; or flat bones, wherewith a prettie ratling noiſe is made. See Cliquette.

Clide: f. A woodden Engine of warre (now out of vſe) which holding by a counterpoiſe, hurld out, when it was looſed, a great number of ſtones.

Clie. as Claye; a hurdle, or yate, in a hedge.

Client: m. A Clyent, or Suitor; a Noblemans Retainer, or Follower, the ſcope of whoſe attendance, or dutie is, to be protected.

Clientelle: f. Protection, countenance, defence, tuition, ſafegard; alſo, number, or ſtore of clients.

Clifoire: f. A Plaiſterers Tray, or Boſſe.

Cligné. Winked, or twinckled as with the eyes.

Clignement des yeux: m. A winking, or twinckling with the eyes.

Clignemuſſet. The childiſh play called Hodman blind, Harrie-racket, or, are you all hid.

Cligner les yeux. To winke, or twinckle with the eyes.

Clignetter. To twinckle, to winke often, and thicke.

Clignottement: m. An often winking, or twinckling with the eyes.

Clignotter. as Clignetter.

Climactere: com. Climatericall; whence;

L'an climactere. The Climatericall yeare; euerie ſeuenth, or ninth, or the 63 yeare of a mans life; all very dangerous, but the laſt, moſt.

Climacterie de 63 ans. The Climatericall, or dangerous, yeare of 63, at which age diuers worthie men haue died.

Climat: m. A Clyme, or Clymate; a diuiſion in the Skie, or Portion of the world, betweene South and North.

Climatere. l'an climatere. See Climactere.

Climée: f. Cadmia, Braſſe-oare.

Clin d'oeil: m. The twinckling of an eye.

Clincaille. Chinkes, money, coyne. (v.m.)

Cline-muſette: f. The game called Hodman-blind; Harrie-racket; or, are you all hid.

Clinique: com. One that is bedred; or ſo ſicke that he cannot riſe.

Clinquaille. as Clincaille.

Clinquallerie: f. A chinking, clinking, ringing of much money; or of many pannes and skellets together; alſo, coyne, or (as we ſay) chinkes.

Clinquant: m. Thinne plate-lace of Gold, or Siluer.

Clinquet. as Cliquet; alſo, a certaine tricke in wreſtling.

Cliquaille. as Clincaille.

Cliquefoire. A Squirt.

Cliquer. To clacke, clap, clatter, clicke it.

Cliquet: m. The ring, knocker, or hammer of a dore; alſo, a Lazers clicket, or clapper; alſo, a certaine Engine to catch fiſh withall.

Cliqueter. as Cliquer; or as Cloquer.

Cliquetis: m. as Cliquettement.

Cliquette: f. A clicket, or clapper; ſuch as Lazers carrie about with them; alſo, a childs rattle, or clacke.

Cliquettes. as Caſtagnettes.

Cliquettement: m. A clicketting, clattering, clapping, clacking; chattering.

Cliſſe: f. A little wreath of wicker, to ſet vnder a diſh on the Table; alſo, a wattle, or hurdle of willow, or ozier twigs.

Treillis de cliſſe. A Lattice, or Grate of wicker.

Cliſſé: m. ée: f. Made of wicker; plaited, or watled with ozier, or willow twigs.

Cliſtere. See Clyſtere.

Clitie. Or de Clitie. A Marigold.

Clitoris: m. A womans Priuities.

Cliver. To bow, leane, or hang outward, as the Cliffe, or ſteepe ſide of a hill; (an old word.)

Cloaque: f. A common Sinke, or Sewer in a towne.

Cloche: f. A Bell, or Clocke; to ring, or ſtrike; alſo, the vpper part of a Lymbecke, wherein the vapours are gathered, and reſolued into water; alſo, a little Bell-reſembling veſſell, wherein Peares are ordinarily ſtewed, or ſodden.

Cloches de S. Laurens. Great bliſters riſing in the face, through heat.

Herbe aux cloches. Withywind, Bindweed, Hedge-bels.

Mettre la cloche au chat. To ſet people together by the eares.

C'eſt

C'eſt le ſon des cloches. This is a matter that may be varied, or turned at pleaſure.

A conſeil de fol cloche de bois: Prov. Call fooles to counſell by a woodden bell.

Cloche-man. Mouton cl. A Bell-weather.

Clochement: m. A halting.

Cloche-pied. à cloche-pied. Haulting, limping, lamely.

Clocher: m. A Bell-founder.

Clocher d'egliſe. as Clochier.

Clocher. To hault, or limpe; to be lame, or goe lamely, of a leg; alſo (in ſome places) to ring, or toll a Bell; to make a bell ſound, or ſtrike.

Clocher devant les boiteux. To applie himſelfe vnto the (faultie) humors of others, with a purpoſe to indeere, or deceiue them; alſo, to ſpeake Latine before Clarkes; or (more generally) to ſhew cunning, vſe tricks, diſſemble, or play the knaue any way, in preſence of thoſe that are as skilfull as himſelfe; (In all which ſences we alſo vſe the ſame Prouerbiall phraſe;) to hault before a cripple.

Clocher des deux coſtez. To hault with, or on both ſides; inconſtantly to doubt, or be vncertain, whoſe part he ſhall take, what ſide he ſhall follow; or, to follow now the one, then the other ſide, without holding touch with, or doing good vnto, either.

Ie ſçay bien de quel pied il cloche. I know his diſeaſe or defects well enough.

Clocherie: f. A ringing, or peale of Bells.

Clochetier: m. A Bell-founder.

Clochette: f. A little Bell; alſo, Withiewind, &c, as Campanette.

Clochier: m. A Steeple; alſo, a Pariſh, Borough, or village; and ſometimes (in a large ſence) a Biſhopricke, or Dioceſſe.

Cloiſier. as Cloiſonneur.

Cloiſin: f. A cloſure, or incloſure.

Cloiſon: f. Any thing that incloſeth, as a hedge, pale, or rayles; and (moſt properly) a mud wall.

Cloiſonneux: m. A maker of mud wals, or incloſures.

Cloiſonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of, or belonging to, mud wals, hedges, or incloſures.

Cloiſtral: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, an Abbey, or Cloiſter.

Cloiſtre: m. A Cloiſter; a round walke or incloſure (couered ouer head, and) enuironed with pillars; alſo, an Abbey, Priorie, Religious houſe; alſo, as Coloſtre.

Clomaſſoles: f. The defence which a horſe makes with his nether lip, or gummes, againſt his Bitt.

Cloniſſe: f. The little, ſharpe, and muddie cockle, termed, a Palour.

Cloper. as Clocher.

Clopiner. To limpe, or hault. (v.m.)

Cloporte: m. A Woodlouſe, Cheſlop, Kitchin-bole.

Cloquer. as Clocher. To limpe, hault, goe lamely.

Se mocque qui cloque: Prov. He mocks that worſt may; ſome ieaſt at other mens defects, and yet are moſt defectiue.

Clorre. To cloſe; incloſe, hedge in, ſhut vp; alſo, to finiſh, accompliſh, perfect, make an end of; alſo, to ſtop, to barre; to preuent.

Clorre comptes. To paſſe, conclude, or finiſh Accompts.

Clorre le pas. Qui cloſt le pas. That concludes, or giues a full reſolution of, or end to, the controuerſie; (ſaid moſt properly of one, that leaping furtheſt, both ends the ſport, and wins what he leapt for.)

Clorre le pas à. To interclude, barre, ſtop, ſet a blocke in the way of.

En vain plante qui ne cloſt: Prov. In vaine hee plants that hedges not.

Clos: m. A Cloſe, or Field incloſed.

Clos bruneau. The tayle, arſe, nock-androe.

Clos: m. cloſe: f. Cloſed, incloſed; hedged in, ſhut vp; alſo, barred, ſtopped; foreſtalled, preuented; alſo, finiſhed, fulfilled, perfected, accompliſhed.

Clos, & muni de toutes parts. Armed at all points; furniſhed to all purpoſes; prepared againſt all attempts.

Eſtat clos. ſon eſtat eſt clos. The offices, or places of his houſe are all beſtowed.

Ville cloſe. A Citie, or walled Towne.

A clos yeux. Blindfould, hoodwinkt.

Cloſcuau: m. The Neſtling, or Neſt-cockle; the laſt-hatched bird in a neaſt.

Cloſerie: f. An Incloſure, or thing incloſed.

Cloſier: m. A hedger; an incloſer.

Cloſporte. as Cloporte.

Closser. To clocke like a henne.

Cloſſer les grains. Many ſtalkes, or eares to ſhoot vp, or come from one graine of ſeed.

Cloſtier. as Clauſtier.

Cloſture: f. An incloſure; an incloſement of, or incloſing with, hedges, pales, &c; alſo, a concluſion, cloſing, finiſhing, or ſhutting vp; as, of ſpeech, of accompts, &c.

Clot: m. Iouër au clot. To play at Harry-racket, or Hide and find.

Clou: m. A Nayle; alſo, a corne (in a foot, or toe;) and hence, the Pinne (in the bottome of a Haukes foot.)

Clou à bandes. A ſtreake-nayle.

Clou de caravelle. A great nayle, at leaſt a foot long; vſed in ſhips.

Clou à crochet. A Tentar hooke.

Clou d'eſtoupe. A ſpeake, or ſheathing nayle; vſed in ſhips.

Clou de girofle. A Cloue.

Clou à hape. A clowte Nayle.

Clou de manguiere. A ſcupper nayle; vſed in ſhipping.

Clou à ſoufflet. A tacke-nayle; or the ſmall nayle wherewith bellowes are made vp, or mended.

Ie n'en donneroye pas vn clou à ſoufflet. I would not giue a pinne, a chip, a ruſh, for it.

A cloux de diamant. Moſt faſt, moſt ſure, not to be ſtirred, impoſſible to be looſed.

Compter les cloux. See Compter.

Riuer ſes cloux à. Ie luy ay bien riué ſes cloux. I haue giuen him his full payment; or, I haue fitted him with an vnanſwerable replie; I haue puzled, or ſetled him with a ſound anſwer.

Vn clou ſert à pouſſer l'autre: Pro. One nayle ſerues to driue out another; one friend imployed to ſupplant the other.

Cloüage: m. A nayling.

Clouclouquer. To clocke; as a henne, that hath (or would haue) chickens.

Cloüe: f. A blocke.

Cloüé: m. ée: f. Nayled; faſtened, ioyned, ſet on with nayles.

Raye cloüée. The rocke Ray, or buckled Ray.

Clouëment: m. A nayling.

Clouër. To nayle; to faſten, ioyne, or ſet on, with nayles.

Clouër à cloux de diamant. See Clou.

Clouſtre: m. A cloyſter in an Abbey, &c; or, as Cloiſtre.

Clouët : m. A little nayle ; a tacke nayle.
Clouëur : m. A nayler.
Clouëure : f. A nayling.
Clouïr. To open, and produce young ones, as egges that haue beene ſitten on their full time.
Clouïſſe : f. as Pelarde. ¶Marſeillos.
Clouſſer. as Cloſſer.
Clouſſeuſe : f. A clocking henne, or henne that vſes to clocke much.
Cloutier : m. A nayler, a nayle-ſmith; a ſeller or maker of nayles.
Cloye. as Claye. A hurdle, &c.
Clucher. as Cloſſer. To clocke.
Clye. as Claye ; a hurdle, or lattice of wicker, &c.
Clypſedrie. Looke Clepſydre.
Clyſtere : m. A gliſter.
Ie luy appreſteray vn clyſtere barbarin. I will prouide for her bellie a plaiſter of warme guts. ¶Rab.
Clyſteriſé : m. ée : f. Cliſterized ; applied as, or, made into, a gliſter ; conueyed by a gliſter vp into the guts.
Clyſteriſer. To applie a gliſter; to conuey by gliſter vp into the guts ; alſo, to make, or put a thing into, a gliſter.
Clytoris : m. as Clitoris.
Coäc : m. The croaking, or crie of frogs.
Coäcervation : f. A coaceruation, or heaping together.
Coädjuteur : m. A coadiutor, helping fellow, or fellow helper.
Coädunation : f. A coadunation, gathering, aſſembling, uniting, ioyning together.
Coägulation : f. A coagulation, congealing, or curding ; a turning vnto curd.
Coäguler. To coagulate ; curd, or congeale into a curd ; to ioyne together, or make to ioyne.
Coaille : f. Coarſe wooll ; mot Berruyer.
Coäine. as Coenne.
Coäleſcer. To cloſe, ioyne, or grow together againe.
Coärcté : m. ée : f. Strained, preſſed, or thruſt hard together ; reſtrained, or brought within a narrow compaſſe.
Coärcter. To ſtraine, preſſe, or thruſt hard together ; to reſtraine, or bring within a narrow compaſſe.
Coäſſer. To croake, or crie as a toad, or frog.
Coät : m. The vnderling, ſtaruelyng, or writling of a beaſt; the wrecking, or neſt-cockle, of birds.
Coäugmenté : m. ée : f. Increaſed together ; or, much increaſed.
Coäxer. as Coaſſer.
Cobbir. To bruiſe, or breake into peeces. ¶Rab.
Cobeter vne cloche. To toule a bell ; or, to ring it not full out, but ſo, as it ſtrikes onely the one ſide.
Cobter. as Cobeter, or Copter.
Coc : m. See Coq.
Cocard : m. A nice doult, quaint Gooſe, fond, or ſaucie cokes, proud, or forward Meacocke. See Coquard.
Cocarde. bonnet à la cocarde. A Spaniſh cap ; or cap made after the old faſhion. See Coquarde.
Cocardeau : m. A proud Aſſe, pert Gull, ſhutten Sauce-box ; one that hath better ſtore of clothes on his backe, then of wit in his head.
Coccognide. The blacke Camelcon thiſtle.
Coche : m. A Coach.
Coche : f. A nocke, notch, nicke, ſnip, or neb ; (and hence) alſo, the Nut-hole of a Croſſe-bow ; alſo, a young Sow, or Sow-pigge, alſo, a fuſtilugs ; a woman growne fat by eaſe, and lazineſſe ; alſo, a ſpell, or ſplint.
Coché : m. ée : f. Nocked, notched, nicked, ſnipped, farrowed.
Front bien coché. That is high on both ſides of the foretop.
Pillules cochées. A certaine compoſition of Pills, which purge the head verie ſtronglie.
Cochelin : m. A kind of cake full of notches, and giuen in ſome parts of France (as about Blois) vnto children for New-yeares-gifts.
Cochenille. Cutchaneale, wherewith Skarlet is dyed.
Cochepierre. A bird like a Bull-finch, that feeds moſt on the kernels of cherriſtones.
Cocher : m. A Coachman.
Cocher : m. ere : f. Of a Coach, or Coach-houſe ; whence ;
Porte cochere. A Coach-houſe dore.
Cocher. To nicke, nocke, or make notches, as on a tally ; (alſo, to haue to doe with a woman. ¶Pic.)
Cochet : m. A Cockerell, or cocke chicke ; alſo, a ſhote, or ſhete, Pigge.
Cochevis : m. The copped Larke ; the Larke that hath a little tuft ſtanding on her head.
Cochier : m. A Coachman.
Cochiere : f. A Coach-woman ; a woman that driues a Coach.
Cochin : m. A Pigge.
Poiſson, gorret, & cochin, vie en l'eau, & mort en vin. Wateriſh Acates require much wine both for their dreſſing, and diſgeſtion.
Cochon : m. A Pigge.
Gras comme vn cochon. (We ſay the ſame) as fat as a Pigge.
Manger le cochon enſemble. To complot, agree in a plot, ioyne in a conſpiracie together ; (belike in old time when conſpirators met to conferre, and conclude, their principall diſh was a Pigge.)
Rappeler le cochon. To repeat the words wherwith he began ; to come to the matter againe.
Cochonné : m. ée : f. Pigged, farrowed.
Cochonner. To farrow, to pigge ; to breed, or bring forth pigges, as a Sow ; alſo, to cocker, cheriſh, nouriſh daintily, make a fedle of.
Cochonnet : m. A ſhote, or ſhete pigge, a prettie big pigge.
Cochonniere : f. A Sow ; or Sow-pigge.
Cocles. des c. as Coquelourdes.
Cocluchon. as Coqueluchon.
Cocodrille : m. See Crocodile ; a Crocodile.
Cocque : f. A Cockle.
Cocque de Cyprés. A Nut, or Clog, of the Cypres tree.
Cocque d'ocuf. An egge-ſhell.
Cocqueter. as Coqueter.
Cocquillé : m. ée : f. Shellie, ſhell-like ; or, as Coquillé.
Cocu : m. A Cuckoe ; alſo, a Gurnard, or Curre-fiſh ; alſo, a Cuckold. (See Coucou.)
Cocu cocuant. A Cuckold-maker, a Graffe-borne.
Cocu cocuë. A Cuckold, or Wittall.
Brayes de cocu. Cowſlips, pettie Mulleins, Palſeworts.
Pain à cocu. The ſmalleſt, and daintieſt red Muſh-rome.
Pain de cocu. Cuckoe-bread, Alleluya, Stubworte, ſoure Trefoile, Wood-ſorrell, Wood-ſowre.
Il vaut mieux eſtre cocu que coquin : Pro. See Coquin.
Cocu : m. cocuë : f. Cuckolded ; made a Cuckold, or crooked.
Mary cocu. The hedge-Sparrow ; called ſo, becauſe ſhe hatches, and feeds the Cuckoes young ones, eſteeming them her owne.
A l'enfourner on fait les pains cocus : Pro. Loaues get their crookedneſſe at the ſetting in. Looke Pain.

Cocu-

Cocuäge : m. A cuckoldſhip ; the being a cuckold.
Cocuant. Cuckolding, cuckoldmaking, horne graffing.
Cocuë : f. Hemlocke, homlocke, hearbe bennet, kex.
Cocuye. See Cucuye.
Cocytide. hõmme cocytide. A lim of the diuell ; a moſt fell, cruell, or belliſh fellow.
Codicilaire : com. One that is elected vnto, or inſtituted into, a benefice, &c, by Codicile.
Codicile : m. A Codicile, ſcedule, bill annexed.
Codicillaire. as Codicilaire.
Codignat : m. Codiniack, or Marmalade of Quinces.
Codignat de four. Bread.
Coeffe : f. A quiſe, or coyſe ; alſo, a night-cap ; See Coiffe.
Coeffé. Coyſed ; See Coiffé.
Coeffer. To coyſe, weare a coyſe, put on a coyſe ; See Coiffer.
Coeffure : f. as Coeffe.
Coegal : m. A fellow, or match vnto, one thats in all points equall to another.
Coeliaque : com. as Celiaque.
Artere coeliaque. A maine braunch of the great Arterie, from which it deſcends vnto the Midriffe, and intralls.
Coelibat. Looke Celibat.
Coeneux : m. euſe : f. Mirie, durtie, filthie.
Coënne de lard : f. The skinne of bacon ; See Coiſne.
Coepeller. To chip wood. (v.m.)
Coëque : m. A coopartner, or coopercener.
Coërtion, ou Coërction. A reſtraint, compulſion, conſtraining ; a keeping in ſubiection.
Coeſte : m. A verie thicke, and great gloue, vſed by the auncient Grecians in their Theater combats.
Coeſton. The ſame.
Coëternel : m. elle : f. Coeternall.
Coétivé : m. ée : f. Fomented, cheriſhed, kept warme.
Coétivement : m. A keeping warme, a cheriſhing, fomenting, or preſeruing in naturall heat.
Coétiver. To foment, or keepe warme ; to cheriſh, or preſerue, in naturall heat.
Coëval. ſes coëvaux. His equalls in age ; thoſe that be as old as he.
Coeur : m. A heart ; alſo, the heart, mind, thought, affection ; inward conceit, fancie, or opinion ; alſo, courage, mettall, ſtomacke ; alſo, the core of fruit ; alſo, the Queere of a Church ; alſo, the heart-reſembling cherrie, called, the French, or Spaniſh, cherrie ; alſo, the vpper, larger, and more ſencible, orifice of the ſtomacke.
Coeur d'hyuer : au fin coeur d'hyuer. In the depth, or middeſt, of Winter.
Enfant de coeur. A Quireſter, or ſinging boy.
Herbe de coeur. Heart-wort, or Heart-mint ; The Picards call Sage, and Conſlip of Jeruſalem, ſo.
Par coeur. By heart, by roat, readily, without booke, without miſſing.
Mon coeur luy eſt, ou fait, mal. I beare him a grudge, I like him not, I cannot abide him.
Avoir le coeur. Il a le coeur aſsis en bonne part. He is an honeſt, gallant, valiant, worthie, fellow.
Il en aura le coeur net. He will be fully ſatisfied in, reſolued of the matter.
Mettre corps, & coeur. To labour, ſtriue, indeuor by all the meanes he hath.
Cela leur mit le coeur au ventre. That cheered, heartened, encouraged them.
Sentant bon coeur. Growing ſtout, recouering his ſtomacke, taking heart at graſſe, or, feeling his heart come to him.
Tenir ſon coeur. To beare a grudge, owe a ſpight vnto ; to carrie a ſpleene a long time againſt.
Coeur content, & manteau ſur l'eſpaule : Prov. The heart content, and cloke throwne ouer the ſhoulder ; (either becauſe the contented man weares it ſo in ſollitie ; or becauſe he cares not greatly how hee weares it.)
Le coeur fait l'oeuvre ; non pas les grand iours : Prov. Not length of day, but ſtrength of heart, rids worke.
Le coeur ne veut douloir ce que l'oeil ne peut veoir : Prov. What the eye ſees not, the heart rues not.
A coeur dolent l'oeil pleure : Prov. Teares in the eyes, ruth in the heart.
A povre coeur petit ſouhait : Prov. Little things content low thoughts ; or, an humble heart is humble in deſires.
Belle chere, & coeur arriere : Prov. A faire looke, and falſe thoughts ; or, a froward looke, and frowning thoughts ; one that ſpeakes me faire, and wiſhes my throat were cut.
Bon coeur ne peut mentir : Prov. An honeſt heart cannot diſſemble ; Seeke Mentir.
En petit ventre grand coeur : Prov. A great heart in a little bodie ; great courage in a ſmall corps.
Ioye triſte, & coeur travaillé : Prov. All ioy hath ſad effects in troubled hearts.
Quand les yeux voyent ce qu'ils ne veirent oncques, le coeur penſe ce qu'il ne penſa oncques : Prov. Vnwoonted obiects breed vnwoonted thoughts.
Qui n'a coeur, ait jambes : Prov. He that dares not truſt to his hands had beſt truſt to his heeles ; or, he that dares not fight may do well to flie.
Coeuret : m. A little heart.
Coeur-failli : m. A lazie, ſlothfull, faint-hearted, white liuered, creature ; a flincher ; one that hath not the courage to end what he hath begun.
Coferruminer. To mingle, ioyne, or ſolder, yron with other mettalls.
Coffre : m. A coffer, cheſt, hutch, arke ; alſo, the bulke, or cheſt of the bodie.
En coffre ouvert le juſte peché : Prov. Opportunitie makes, or warrants, a thiefe.
Coffré : m. ée : f. Put into a cheſt, or coffer ; alſo, impriſoned, or layed vp.
Coffrer. To put into a cheſt, or coffer.
Coffrer aulcun en priſon. To impriſon ; to caſt, and keepe in priſon ; to lay vp cloſe, or where he ſhall ſee no light.
Coffret : m. A casket, cabinet, forſet ; a little cheſt, or coffer.
Coffrier : m. A coffer-maker ; alſo, a Cofferer vnto a Prince.
Cofin : m. A coffin ; a great candle-caſe ; or any ſuch cloſe, great, and round Vtenſile of wicker.
Cofin à roupies. A womans maske.
Cofinet : m. A little coffin, basket, or box (of wicker, &c.)
Cogitation : f. A cogitation, thought, imagination, conſideration, purpoſe, proiect.
Cogiter. To cogitate, thinke, muſe, imagine, conſider, contemplate, caſt in the mind ; ſtudie on, aduiſe himſelfe, deuiſe with himſelfe ; intend, purpoſe, determine, mind.
Cognaciere : f. A Quince tree.
Cognation : f. Cognation, affinitie, alliance, kindred, parentage.

Cogneu : m. euë : f. Knowne, kenned, diſcerned, perceiued, vnderſtood; noted, notable, notorious, of note; acknowledged, owned, aduowed.

Choſe perduë eſt lors cogneuë : Prov. The worth of things is knowne when they be loſt.

Cognil : m. The baſtard Tunnie fiſh; or, as Coguoil.

Cognoiſſance : f. Knowledge; acquaintance, familiaritie with; skill, cunning, experience in; a notice, or notion; an intelligence, vnderſtanding, or apprehenſion of; alſo, a deed, or ſcedule of acknowledgement, or confeſſion of a debt, &c; alſo, a badge, or cogniſaunce.

Cognoiſſant. Knowing; vnderſtanding; apprehending, perceiuing; alſo, wiſe, cunning, learned, expert, skilfull, well ſeene, in.

Cognoiſtre. To know; vnderſtand; skill, wot well, or be aſſured, of; be fully acquainted with; to kenne, diſcerne, apprehend, perceiue; alſo, to confeſſe, acknowledge; aduow.

Cognoiſtre d' vne cauſe. To take notice of, deale in, or intermeddle with, a ſuit, or cauſe, depending in law.

Qui ne te cognoiſtroit (bonne beſte!) If a man knew thee not thou wouldſt make him beleeue thou wert a verie Saint; I know thee but too well.

Se cognoiſtre en Medecine. To haue inſight, or prettie skill, in Phyſicke.

L' herbe qu' on cognoiſt on la doit lier à ſon doigt : Prov. (For it is moſt vnſafe to deale with vnknowne medicines.)

La Maiſon fait cognoiſtre le Maiſtre : Prov. By the houſe one may gheſſe at the owner; by the faſhion, or gouernement thereof, what his abilitie, and humor is.

On cognoiſt le diable à ſes griffes : Prov. Looke Diable.

Qui bien ſe cognoiſt peu ſe priſe, qui peu ſe priſe Dieu l'aviſe : Prov. Who knowes himſelfe himſelfe deſpiſes, the ſelfe-deſpiſer God aduiſes.

Cognoſcitive : f. The facultie of knowing, vnderſtanding, diſcerning; an apprehenſiue propertie.

Coguoil : m. A fiſh like vnto a Mackerell, but greater, and thicker; or as Cognil.

Coherence : f. A coherence, or coherencie; a cleauing, or ſticking of matters together; a hanging thereof one vpon another; a knitting, vniting, or faſtening thereof one vnto the other.

Cohertion : f. as Coërtion.

Cohibé : m. ée : f. Reſtrained, ſtopped, repreſſed; curbed, held in, kept vnder.

Cohiber. To reſtraine, ſtop, let, repreſſe; curbe, hold in, keepe ſhort or vnder.

Cohier : m. The female oake; (which beares a longer and broader leafe, and a ſhorter and leſſe nouriſhing acorne, than the male.

Cohorte : f. A cohort, or companie, band, or troupe, of ſouldiours.

Cohourde f. A goord.

Cohüe : f. A hall to plead in; a Seſſions-houſe, or ſhire-hall : ¶ Brett. & Norm.

Coi : m. The crie, or grunting, of pigges, and young ſwine.

Coi. as Coy; Quiet, ſtill.

Coiaux : m. Returned, or hip, rafters (in Building.)

Coiche : f. The feathering of an arrow. (v.m.)

Coiffant. Putting on a coife; or any other thing as a coyfe; alſo, beſotting; or gulling, beguiling, deceiuing; (Looke ſe Coiffer.

Coiffe : f. A coife, caple, or cap, for the head : alſo, the fat pannicle, or kell, wherein the bowels are lapped.

Coiffe d'une tour. The couering, or higheſt out-ſet windowes, of a tower.

Coiffé : m. ée : f. Coifed, attired with a coife; alſo, gulled, beguiled, abuſed; alſo, filled, or poſſeſſed; and, peſtered, or beſotted, with.

Cailles coiffées. Women.

Il eſt né tout coiffé. Borne rich, honourable, fortunate; borne with his mothers kercher about his head; wrapt in his mothers ſmocke, ſay we; alſo, hee is verie maidenlie, ſhamefac'de, heloe.

Coiffer. To coife, or put a coyfe vpon; alſo, to begnile, gull, couſen, deceiue.

Se coiffer de folles opinions. To intertaine, or put on fond opinions; to beſot himſelfe, or to fill, poſſeſſe, or peſter his head, withall.

Coignacier : m. The great, or peare, Quince tree.

Coignant : m. ante : f. Wedging, faſtening with a wedge, driuing, or knocking faſt in.

Coignaſſe : f. A female Quince, or peare Quince; the greateſt kind of Quince.

Coignaufond. Knocking, leacherie, Venerie : ¶ Rab.

Coigné : m. ée : f. Wedged; driuen, or knocked in; ſtamped, coyned.

Coigneau. Priuet, or Primprint; called ſo at Fontainebleau.

Coignée : f. An hatchet, or axe.

Ietter le manche apres la coignée. To throw the helue after the hatchet; to looſe courage in aduerſitie; or after one loſſe to make wilfull ſhipwracke of all.

Contre coignée ſerrure ne peut : Pro. Weake locks cannot reſiſt ſtrong hatchets.

Coigne-feſtu : m. An idle fellow; one that ſpends his time and trauell to no purpoſe; or, one, that will neither do good himſelfe, nor ſuffer others to do any.

Coigner. To wedge, to faſten with a wedge; to driue hard, or knocke faſt in, as with a wedge; alſo, to ſtamp, or coine.

Coigner feſtus. To looſe his time, or ſpend it to no purpoſe.

Coigner ſes larmes. To ſuppreſſe, or hold in his teares by force.

Coignet. A litle wedge; alſo, a little cone, or corner.

Coigniaux. A kind of ſmall, and bright-greene vermine, which ſharke off, and cut in peeces, the tendrels, and grapes, of Vines.

Coignier : m. A Quince tree.

Coignoir : m. A wedging toole; a Wedger.

Coin as Coing; alſo, the cry, or grunting off pigs, and yong Swine; alſo, the ſpawne, row, or egs, of fiſh, Caterpillers; &c.

Coin de beurre. A cake, or diſh (of the ordinarie faſhion of our pound) of butter.

Coin de mer. A kind of Mullet fiſh.

Se Coincher. as, ſe Conchier.

Coiue. as, Coënne; The skinne of Bakon; alſo, a thick filme, or skumme, ſuch as is vſually on a ſtanding, and ſtinking pudle.

Coing : m. A wedge; alſo, a quince; alſo, an angle, nooke, or corner; alſo, a coyne, or ſtamp, vpon a peece of coyne.

Coing de beurre : See Coin.

Enter au coing. To lodge a graffe in the clefted top of a ſtocke.

Pour fendre le bois il fit des coings du bois meſme. Looke Bois.

Tous frappez à vn meſme coing. All made in one mould, mould; all ſtamped with one figure; all birds of a feather.

A dur, ou mauvais noeud mauvais coing: Prov. Sayd of a ſwaggering, or litigious fellow, matched with one, in his owne kind, worſe then himſelfe.

Fol eſt qui de ſon poing faict coing: Prov. He is a foole that makes a wedge of his fiſt; as did ſtrong Milo; who attempting to riue aſſunder a great tree which lay in a foreſt halfe clouen, and held open with wedges, they ſlipping downe it cloſed, and incloſed his hands ſo faſt, that he could not pull them out, but quickly became a pray vnto wild beaſts; whereupon this prouerb calls any man foole, that preſumes too much on his owne ſtrength, or knowes not the right vſe of his owne things.)

Meſchante vie quiert le coing: Prov. An euill-liuer would euer be lurking.

Coingné: m. ée: f. as Coigné.

Coinquination: f. A coinquination, or coinquinating; a ſoyling, defiling, polluting; defaming.

Coinquiné: m. ée: f. Coinquinated; ſoyled, polluted, defiled; alſo, defamed.

Coinquiner. To coinquinate; pollute, ſoyle, deſile; alſo, to defame.

Coint: m. cointe: f. Quant, compt, neat, fine, ſpruce, brisk, ſmirke, ſmug, daintie, trim, tricked vp.

Cointelligent. Hauing intelligence, holding priuat correſpondencie, with.

Cointement. Quaintly, comptly, finely, ſprucely, neatly, trimly, daintily.

Cointiſe: f. Quaintnes, comptnes, neatnes, trimnes, fines, ſprucenes, daintines.

Coipeau: m. A chip.

Vin de coipeau. See Vin.

Coiraux: m. Fat oxen; ſuch as haue bene fed both in the houſe, and field.

Coiſne. as Coënne. The skinne of Bacon; and, th'outward hard rinde, or skinne, of any ſuch thing.

Coiſſin: m. A cuſhion; alſo, a pillow.

Coiſtre: f. A tick for a bed.

Coiti: &; Coitis: as Coitte; or, the blue-ſtreaked ſtuffe whereof tis made,

Coitte: f. The tick of a bed.

Coitte-pointe: f. A Quilt, or quilted couering, for a bed.

Col: m. The neck; a necke.

Col du bras. The wriſt.

Col de grue. Cranes-bill, Storkes-bill, Heatons-bill, Pinkneedle; an hearb.

Col d'un os. The necke of a bone; the ſlendereſt part thereof, hauing a broad, or bigge part next vnto it.

Col d'oye. The port, or vpſet of ſome Bits, made round, and bowing like the neck of a gooſe.

Col du pied. The inſtep.

Col rompu. The neck-burſt; a ſmall halfe-riſing in the midle of the mouth of ſome bits.

Col d'une Vigne. The ſtock of a Vine; or, as Courſon.

Tordre le col à. To skorne diſdaine, contemne, looke askew on.

Colac: m. The ſhadfiſh: ¶Langued.

Colaphiſer. To box, or buffet.

Colas. A Deriuatiue, or diminutiue of Nicolas; whence;

Dieu colas faillon. By Saint Nicholas; or for Saint Nicholas ſake; ¶Lorrainois. Rab.

Colatoire du nez. The ſpungie bone through which the ſniuell paſſeth from the braine into the noſethrils.

Colature: f. An expreſſion, or straining; alſo, a colature; the thing ſtrained; or, a thinne liquor which hath paſſed through a ſtrainer.

Cole: m. A ſtormie, or tempeſtuous gale of wind.

Cole: f. Anger, choller.

Colere: f. See Cholere.

Colet. as Collet.

Coleté: m. ée: f. Imbraced about the neck; alſo, wraſtled, ſtriuen, or ſtrugled with.

Coleter. To imbrace about the necke; alſo, to wraſtle, ſtriue, or ſtrugle with.

Coleuvre, as Couleuvre; An Adder.

Coleuvrée. as Coulevré.

Coliart. A kind of ſmooth, and ſtraw-coloured Ray-fiſh.

Coliaux. The name of a kind of Oliues.

Colier. See Collier.

Colimbades. Small pickled Oliues.

Colimbales. The ſame.

Colin: m. Collin; a proper name (and a deriuatiue of Nicholas; ) alſo, a Sea-cob, or Gull; (or as Collin.)

Colin tampon. The Drumme-ſound of the Suiſſers march.

Grand colin. A diſgracefull tearme of the ranke of Maraud, beliſtre, coquin, &c.

Gros colin. Branne, or the great of the ſiftings of corne; alſo, dogs meat made of it.

Coline. as Colline; A little hill.

Colique: f. The Chollicke; a painfull windineſſe in the ſtomacke, or entrails.

Colique: com. Of the Chollicke, belonging to the Chollicke.

Coliqueux: m. euſe: f. Full of, or ſubiect vnto, the Chollicke.

Coliſée: m. A Coloſſus, or Coliſeum.

Colitor. The name of a certaine Vine.

Collane: f. A neck-lace.

Collateral: m. ale: f. Collaterall; not direct, on th'one ſide.

Muſcles collateraux. Two muſcles in the mouth, one bringing the tongue, the other drawing the Larinx, a-to-ſide.

Vent collaterall. A ſide wind, or quarter wind, at ſea.

Collateralité: f. Collateralitie, or collateralneſſe.

Collateur: m. A Patron; or, any officer who hath the beſtowing of Benefices.

Collation: f. A comparing, or examining of one thing by another; alſo, a collation, rere-ſupper, or repaſt after ſupper; alſo, a collation, conferring, or gift of a Benefice.

Collation de Moyne. A Monks nuncheon; as much as another man eats at a large meale.

Collationné: m. ée: f. Compared with, or examined by, another; alſo, hauing made, or, intertained with, a collation; alſo, conferred, or beſtowed (as a Benefice.)

Collationner. To examine a copie by the originall; to confer, or compare one writing, or thing, with another; alſo, to collation it, or make a rere-ſupper, to banquet, or take a repaſt (after ſupper;) alſo, to giue, confer, beſtow a Benefice.

Collaudation: f. A mutuall commendation, praiſing, extolling.

Collaudé: m. ée: f. Collauded; praiſed, or commended with others.

Collauder. To collaud, prayſe, extoll, commend, with others.

Colle:

Colle : f. Anger, choller ; also, as Colline ; or, as in Colles.

A chaude colle. In anger, in choller, in hoat bloud, or while the bloud was vp.

Colle : f. Glue ; also, solder ; also, the vnprofitable corners of hides, and skinnes, cut off in the dressing.

Colle de bouche. Mouth glue, water glue ; (the best kind of glue.)

Colle de cerf. as Forte ; White, and cleere-coloured glue ; made of the skinnes of all kind of foure-footed beasts.

Colle de farine. (Stationers) past.

Colle forte. Ordinarie white glue ; as in Colle de cerf.

Colle à or. Borax, or greene earth ; vsed in the souldering of gold.

Colle à pierres. Cement ; made of ordinarie marble, Parian marble, and the strongest glue.

Colle de poisson. Mouth glue, water glue.

Colle de taureau. The strongest kind of glue, vsed by Carpenters, Joyners, &c.

Collé : m. ée : f. Glued ; soldered ; pasted ; fast ioyned, surely closed.

Collectage : m. A collecting, or gathering together.

Collectanes : m. A certaine Order of Franciscans, or Grey Friers.

Collecte : f. A collection, leuie, gathering.

Collecteur : m. A Collector, leuier, gatherer of.

Sergent collecteur. Looke Sergent.

Collectif : m. iue : f. Collectiue, gathering, or that gathereth.

En nom collectif. All together, one with another.

Collection : f. A collection, or gathering together.

Collée : f. A necke-imbracement, an imbracing about the necke ; a greeting, or welcome, expressed by such an imbracement ; also, a dust, thumpe, or blow, in the neck ; and hence ;

Donner la collée. To knight.

College : m. A Colledge.

Collegue : m. A Colleague, fellow, or copartener, in Office.

Collement : m. A gluing, or soldering together.

Coller. To glue ; solder ; past ; ioyne, or close vp, surely.

Collerage : m. Collerage ; a pecuniarie duetie exacted, in some places, for the collers worne by wine-drawing horses, or men.

Collerette de femme. A small necke-ruffe, neckercher, or neck-band, (worne by women.)

Colles : f. Crosse walls of stone, &c, in some vineyards ; Looke Bancs.

Collet : m. The throat, or forepart, of the necke ; also, the coller of a Ierkin &c ; the cape of a cloke ; the neckepeece of any garment ; also, a kind of ginne, or snarle, wherewith Conies are caught (most commonly by the necke.)

Collet de chimise. A shirt-band.

Collet de femme. A neckercher.

Collet de marroquin. A Spanish-leather Ierkin.

Collet de mouton. A necke of mutton.

Vn collet à peignoir. A large raile which women put about their neckes when they combe themselues.

Mettre la main sur le collet à. To stay, arrest, or seize on ; to take one prisoner.

Colletages : m. Taxes, aides, and subsidies leuied of the people.

Colleter. To imbrace about the necke, &c ; See Coleter.

Colletier : m. A Ierkin-maker.

Colletin : m. A Ierkin.

Colleur : m. A gluer.

Colleure : f. A gluing ; or soldering ; a sure closing.

Colleux : m. euse : f. Glewie, full of glue, cleauing as glue.

Collier : m. A coller (or chaine) of gold, &c, for the necke ; also, a dog-coller ; horse-coller ; &c ; any coller.

Colliers. Earings, or clues ; the strings wherewith the bottome of a sayle, or the bonnet, and the tacke, or sheat, are tied together.

Vous estiez le chien au grand collier. You were the onely noted man, th'onely kill-cow, th'onely terrible fellow ; (rustically.)

Tirer au collier contre. To contend, striue, wrastle hard with.

Colligance : f. A binding, tying, or knitting together.

Colligé : m. ée : f. Gathered, or brought together ; also, vnited, or assembled.

Colligence. as Colligance ; Or, a gathering, or bringing together.

Colliger. To gather, or bring together ; also, to vnite, or assemble in one.

Collin : m. A long beaked Riuer-fowle, of a beautifull grayish colour ; also, as Colin.

Colline : f. A little hill.

Colliquatif : m. iue : f. Subiect to the chollicke.

Colliquation : f. A colliquation ; a consumption of the radicall humor, or substance of the bodie ; also, a melting, resoluing, or dissoluing.

Collique passion. The Chollicke ; See Colique.

Colliqueux : m. euse : f. Sicke, or full, of the Chollicke.

Collision : f. A knocking, dashing, clapping, beating together.

Collitigant : m. ante : f. Wrangling, iangling, going to law together ; at suit one with another, litigiously handling one another.

Collizée. See Colisée.

Collobe : m. A kind of sleeueless vpper garment in fashion among the old Romans.

Collocation. An orderly placing, setling, or disposing of things together.

Colloir : m. Colloire : f. A cullander, or strainer.

Colloque : m. A conference, communication ; consultation.

Colloqué. Set, setled, placed, disposed ; applied, bestowed.

Colloquer. To place together ; to settle in, or assigne to, one, and the same ranke ; to dispose, put, set, bestow, applie, fitly, equally, orderly.

Colludant : m. One that doth any thing by couin, or collusion ; a deceiuer, a double dealer.

Colludant : m. ante : f. Colluding, dealing by couin, or, doubly dealing.

Colluder. To collude ; to make shew of one thing, and do the contrarie ; to deale by couine, and collusion ; to betray his cause vnto an aduersarie ; to plead doubly, and further his aduersaries cause, thereby to deceiue a third person.

Collusion : f. Collusion, fraud, couine, deceit, guile, double dealing ; a shew of disagreement, or controuersie with one, thereby to deceiue another.

Collyre : m. A (liquid) medicine for the eyes ; or a medicine applied to the eyes in a liquid forme ; also, a kind of Samian earth, whereof, among other things, eye-medicines are made.

Colo-

Colobe: m. A ſhort, and ſleeueleſſe garment, or iacket, in faſhion among the auncient Romanes; alſo, a furred hood, or tippet, worne by graduate Prieſts.

Colocaſie. The hearbe Aaron, wake Robin, Calues-foot, Cuckoe-pint, Prieſts-pintle; alſo, the root of the Ægyptian beane.

Colocinthe. as Coloquinte.

Colon: m. The fift, or great gut Colon, wherein the Chollicke breedeth; alſo, a colume, or member of a ſentence.

Colom: m. A Doue, Pigeon, Culuer.

Grand colomb. A Queeſt, or Stockdoue.

Colombage: m. Boord-worke on th'outſide of walls, &c; or, the boording, or boords, betweene which mudde walls, &c, are made.

Colombain: m. ine: f. Doue-like; of the nature of Doues; of, or belonging to, Doues.

Colombe: f. A benne Pigeon, or, female Pigeon.

Colombe de Tonnelier. A toole of his, which reſembles a plane turnd vpſide-downe.

Pied de colombe. A kind of Cranes-bill, or Pinke-needle called, Pigeons-foot, or Doues-foot.

Colombeau: m. A little yong Pigeon.

Colombelle: f. A Pigeon, or yong doue.

Colombier: m. A doue-cote.

Cela chaſſera les pigeons du colombier. That will driue away your (ſillie) clients, or Cuſtomers; or that will force irreſolute folke out of their hold.

Colombin. The hearbe Colombine; alſo, Colombine, or doue-colour; or, the ſtuffe whereof tis made.

Colombine: f. A whitiſh, and ſpungie ſtone, found in leaden mines; alſo, a delicate Italian peare, thats ripe in Auguſt.

Colomne: f. A columne, or piller.

La colomne du nez. The bridge of the noſe; or the whole bone thereof.

Colomneux: m. euſe: f. Full of columnes, full of pillers.

Colonie: f. A colonie; a countrey, or citie, which people are ſent to inhabite; alſo, the people ſo ſent, and ſetled; alſo, a Grange, Farme-houſe, or Farmers houſe.

Colonnation: f. A pillering, or making of pillers.

Colonnel: A Colonell, or Coronell; the Commaunder of of a Regiment.

Colonnel general de l'Infanterie Francoiſe. The Coronell Generall of the French foot; whoſe place was in old time conferred, at the beginning of a warre, on ſome valiant, and experienced Captaine (therefore tearmed le grand Capitaine des gens de pied) and againe taken from him as ſoone as th'armie was caſſed; But it hath ſince beene made an office perpetuall, or ordinarie, and of the Crowne.

Colophone. The hearbe Scammonie; alſo, as Reſine Colophonienne.

Colophonien: m. enne: f. Reſine Colophonienne. Clarified, or hard Rozen; ſuch as wee rub Violl ſtickes withall.

Coloquinthe: f. The wild, and flegme-purging Citrull Coloquintida.

Coloration: f. A colouring; a ſhadowing.

Coloré: m. ée: f. Coloured; ſhadowed.

Tiltre coloré (en matiere de Benefices) eſt reputé celuy qui vient du vray, & ordinaire Collateur, duquel l'incapacité n'eſt cogneuë; & la poſſeſsion priſe en vertu d'iceluy eſt ditte colorée: ¶Code Henry.

Coloſsal: m. ale: f. Huge, mightie, Coloſſus-like.

Coloſſe: m. A Coloſſe, or Coloſſus; a huge image, or ſtatue.

Coloſſien: m. enne: f. Coloſſus-like; of, or belonging to, a Coloſſus; alſo, as Coloſſal; and hence;

Fais coloſſien. A moſt heauie, or mightie burthen.

Coloſtration: f. Coloſtration; or, the indiſpoſition of infant-ſtomacks, by the ſucking of beeſt.

Coloſtre: m. The firſt milke, tearmed beeſt, or beeſtlings; accompted dangerous for ſome two, or three dayes, in which time it vſually is drawne out.

Colot. Iean Colot; The name of a certaine merie Artificer in Troyes, who ordinarily wore about him three kniues in one ſheath, all not worth a good ſheath; whereof the Prouerbe;

Les couſteaux Iean Colot, l'un vaut l'autre. Like to our; Neither barrell better herring.

Colouvrine: f. A Culuerin.

Colporté. Carried on the neckes, or ſhoulders of men.

Colporter. To carrie vpon the necke, or ſhoulders (as a coarſe vnto buriall, &c.)

Colporteur: m. A paultrie Pedler; as Biſouart.

Columb. as Colomb.

Columelle. The vuula; or a ſpungious fleſh reſembling a cockes ſpurre, and hanging downe in the bottome of the rooſe of the mouth; alſo, the ſwelling thereof.

Colure: m. An imperfect circle in the Spheare, wherof there be diuers (all imagined to meet in the Poles) but the two principall ones, are;

Le colure des equinoxes. Goes through the beginnings of Aries, and Libra.

Le colure des ſolſtices. Goes through the beginnings of Cancer, and Capricornus.

Colure: f. The necke, or creſt, of a horſe.

Colure de vignes. as Coulure.

Colymbades. Oliues (as we haue them) preſerued in pickle.

Combat: m. A combat, conflict, battell, bickering, fight; ſtrife, debate, contention, extreame iarring.

Combatant: m. A combatant, combater, fighter; a champion, that is to fight a combat; or ſouldiour inrolled, and readie for the battell.

Combatant; part. Combating; fighting, bickering, battelling.

Combateur. as Combatant; A combater; &c.

Combatre. To combate, fight, bicker, battell; to conflict, skirmiſh, contend, ſcuffle with; alſo, to ouercome in combate.

Combatre ſon ombre. To fight with his owne ſhadow; to be angrie without cauſe, or, bee knowes not at what; alſo, to reuile, or ſlaunder the abſent; alſo, to forge, or deuiſe things, & afterwards diſgrace, or raile at them.

Combatre contre la plume. To ſtriue in vaine.

Qui combat avec armes d'argent eſt aſſeuré de vaincre: Prov. Thoſe that with ſiluer weapons fight are ſure to ouercome.

Qui ſe combat n'eſt pas mort: Prov. He that doth fight's not dead.

Combatu: m. uë: f. Combated, fought, bickered, battelled; contended, ſtriuen, conflicted, skirmiſhed.

Combe: f. A narrow valley, or paſſage betweene two hills; wherein commonly theeues do lurke.

Combiberon: m. A fellow drunkard, or companion in drinking.

Combien. How; how much, how great, how many; &c.

Combien que. Although, albeit that, howſoeuer that.

Non combien mais comment bien; not how much, or how long, but how well.

Com-

Combinage: m. A combination, coupling; vniting, or ioyning of paires; or of seuerall things, together.

Comble: m. Fulnesse, aboundance, heaped measure; the chiefe point, whole summe, summarie, or accomplishment of; also, the roofe of a house, &c.

De fonds en comble. Fully, wholly, throughly; vtterly; from the top to the bottome.

Comblé: m. ée: f. Heaped full of, or filled vp with; also, fullfilled, accomplished; made, or closed vp; rooved, roofed.

Comble: com. Full to the top; or vp to the roofe.

Combleau: m. A great cable, vsed about the carriage of a peece of ordnance; wee call it, the breeching.

Comblement: m. A heaping, vp-filling, or filling vp to the top; a fulfilling, accomplishing; making, or closing, vp.

Combler. To fill, or heape, vp; also, to accomplish, fulfill; saciate; make, or close, vp.

Celuy est bien mon Oncle qui le ventre me comble: Prov. Hee's my best vncle, who fills my bellie most.

Comblette: f. The cleft, or diuision of a red Deeres foot.

Combourgeois: m. A fellow citizen.

Combourgeoisie: f. Fellow-bourgesseship; a communitie of freedome betweene th'inhabitants of one citie; or betweene two cities, and their inhabitants.

Combré: in stead of Cambré: (in some editions of Bartas.)

Combrecelle: f. A tumbling tricke, or Sommer-sault, wherein the heeles are cast ouer the head; also, reciprocation of venerie.

Combreselle. The same.

Combustible: com. Combustible, soone fired, easie to be burned.

Combustion: f. A combustion, burning, or consuming with fire; also, a tumult; and hence;

Entrer en combustion avec. To make a stirre, to raise an vproare, to keepe an old coyle against.

Comedie: f. A Comedie; a Play, or Enterlude (that begins in dissention, or sorrow, and ends with agreement or meriment.)

Comestible: com. Comestible, eatable, fit to bee eaten.

Comete: f. A commet, or blazing starre.

Comette: f. as Comete.

Cometteux: m. euse: f. Like vnto a comnet; of a commet; or full of commets.

Comic. as Comique.

Comin: m. The hearbe Cummine.

Comique: com. A Comedian, Player, Stage-Player.

Comique: com. Comicall; Comedie-like; of, or belonging to, a Comedie; intreated of in Comedies.

Comite: m. The Captaine, Gouernour, or Maister of a Gallie; or, an Officer that lookes to the sure chaining of the slaues; whom sometimes he incourages, but more commonly scourges, vnto their businesse; also, the Boteswaine of a ship.

Command: m. Commaund, power, authoritie; the absolute sway, rule, or disposition of a thing; also, a Mandamus, or an Iniunction for possession, &c; also, an inuyner, commaunder.

Commande: f. as Commende; Also, the maine, or maister cable of a ship, whereby it is moored fast vnto a key, &c; also, a thing left in trust with, or committed vnto the charge of, another.

Droict de commande. y. d. Parisis taken yearely by some Lords of euerie one of their widowes (that holds by Villenage) in acknowledgement, and preseruation, of the right of their authoritie ouer them.

Commandé: m. ée: f. Commaunded, bidden; charged; appointed, prescribed, inioyned; also, ruled, gouerned, domineered ouer; also, recommended, or committed ouer vnto the charge, or care of.

Commandement: m. A charge, commaund, precept, rule, commaundement, prescription, appointment; also, a Proclamation, Mandamus, decree, or ordinance, passing from such as are in authoritie.

Commander. To commaund, bid, charge, appoint, prescribe, inioyne vnto; also, to rule, sway, gouerne, commaund; also, to recommend, or to commit ouer vnto the care of another.

Commander à baguette. To commaund absolutely, wholly, peremptorily.

A Dieu vous command. God be with you; fare you well.

Commanderesse: f. A commaundresse, gouernesse, ruleresse; also, authoritie, rule, commaund.

Commanderie: f. A commaunderie, or commaundership; the place, or office of a Commaunder (of one of the Orders.)

Commandeur: m. A commaunder, bidder, appointer; prescriber of lawes vnto others; also, a Commaunder, Ruler, Gouernor, Maister, ouer others.

Commandeurs de l'Ordre du S. Esprit. Are ix. viz. Foure Cardinals, th'Amner, and foure other Prelates of note; who haue greater authoritie, and larger priuiledges, than the knights, or the rest of the brethren of that order.

Comme: f. See Gomme.

Comme. As, euen as, euen like as, much like vnto, as much as.

Comme à cette heure. About this time aday.

Comme ainsi fust que. It being so, or, admit it were so.

Comme celà. Thereabouts.

Comme en serois ie si &c. In what a case, in what a pickle, in what tearmes should I be? how should I doe it, what course should I take, what shift should I make, if, &c.

Commedial: m. A fine, or merie, discourse.

Commemorable: com. Commemorable, memorable, worthie to be mencioned, fit to be remembred.

Commemoration: f. A commemoration, mentioning, rehearsing, remembring, putting in mind of.

Commemoré: m. ée: f. Commemorated, mentioned, remembred; rehearsed, recorded.

Commemorer. To commemorate, remember, mention, rehearse; record; also, to aduertise, or put in mind of.

Commencé: m. ée: f. Commenced, begun, vndertaken, entred into.

Commencement: m. A beginning, a commencement, an ouerture, an entrance into.

Commencement n'est pas fusée: Pro. Things are not done as soone as begun; or, things are not therfore compassed because they are vndertaken.

A tout il y a commencement; ou; il y a commencement par tout: Prov. Euerie thing hath a beginning.

Sur petit commencement on fait grande fusée: Prov. Of small beginnings are great matters raised.

Vn fol fait touiours le commencement: Prov. The foole begins, but perfects not, a worke; when hee hath begun, he hath done.

Commencer. To commence, begin, take in hand, vndertake, take, enter into, make an ouerture vnto.

Tel cuide avoir fait qui commence: Prov. Some thinke they haue done when they are to begin; or, when they haue but begun; or, some are new to begin, when they thinke they haue done, a businesse.

Commendaces: f. Funerall Orations; prayers made for the dead; verses made in praise of the dead.

Commendataire: m. A commendatarie; one that hath, or sues for, a Commendum.

Commendataire: com. Commendatarie; giuen in, enioyed, or enioying by, Commendum.

Abbé commendataire. A Secular Abbot; one that hath an Abbey in Commendum, and yet was neuer Monke, nor Priest.

Commende: f. A Commendum; or Benefice giuen in Commendum.

Commendereſſe: f. as Commandereſſe.

Commenial. (¶Rabelais l. 4. chap. 44.) A barbarous or ieasting repetition of the word comme going some two lines before, and vsed by Frier John.

Commensal: m. A companion at table; a soiourner, or dailie guest.

Les commensaux de la maison du Roy. Such officers as be in ordinarie, or haue bouche (which we call budge) à Court.

Commensalité: f. Commensalitie; a continuall feeding together at one table.

Commensuration: f. Commensuration; a ioynt measuring.

Comment: m. as Commentaire.

Comment. How, in what sort, after what fashion, by what meanes, for what reason, in what manner.

Le comment a nom de sa femme. His wiues how-should-I-call-it: ¶Rab.

Commentaire: m. A comment, commentarie, glosse, exposition.

Commentateur: m. A commentator, or commenter; a glosser, expositor, or expounder of a text.

Commenté: m. ée: f. Expounded, commented on.

Commenter. To comment, to write commentaries; to expound.

Commerage: f. Gossiping; the acquaintance, affinitie, or league that growes betweene women by christening a child together, or one for another.

Commerce: m. Commerce, intercourse of trafficke; familiaritie, or acquaintance gotten; correspondencie, or intelligence continued, betweene people, in dealing, or trading, together.

Leurs offices tombent en commerce. Their offices are saleable, vendible; set to sale; to be bought, and sold.

Commere: f. A she-gossip, or godmother; a gemme.

Commere de fesses. A bed-broaker, an arse-gossip; a gossip for all buttocke-matches, or, in all baudie meetings.

Vin de commeres. A sweet, and pleasant wine.

Tout y va par compere, & commere. All things are carried among them by fauour, and friendship; like good drunken gossips, they will do any thing one for another.

Commerer. To gossip it, to play the gossip.

Commesurable: com. Measurable together, or with one and the same measure.

Commettre. To commit, referre, giue ouer, assigne, or inioyne a charge, or businesse vnto; also, to appoint, or delegate vnto a charge, or businesse; also, to doe, commit, or perpetrate an offence.

Commettre son fief. To forfeit his inheritance.

Se commettre à. To commit, betake, or yeeld himselfe ouer vnto; to venture vpon.

Commeu: m. euë: f. Moued, or stirred much; troubled, disturbed; chased; shaken.

Commin: m. Cummine (seed, or hearbe.)

Commination: f. A commination; an extreame, or vehement threatning.

Comminatoire: com. Comminatorie; threatfull, threatening much.

Commine: m. ée: f. Threatned extreamely, menaced vehemently.

Comminer. To threaten extreamely, menace vehemently.

Comminué: m. ée: f. Brayed small; beaten, or broken, into small peeces; also, diminished, minished, lessened.

Comminuer. To bray small; to beat, or breake, into small peeces; also, to lessen, minish, diminish.

Commis: m. A committee; one thats appointed to examine, or decide, a matter; also, a Deputie in an office; also, a Commissioner; also, a Commissarie; also, a forfeiture.

Commis: m. ise: f. Assigned, appointed, delegated; also, referred, vnto; also, done, acted, committed, as an offence, &c; also, forfeited.

Commise: f. A forfeiture, or forfeiting.

Droict de commise. The right, or power a Landlord hath to confiscate, seise, or enter on the land held by his vassall, or tenant, who disauowes him, giues him the lye, or commits felonie.

Commiseration: f. Commiseration; compassion; a sencible apprehension, or pitie taken of other mens miseries.

Commissaire: A Commissioner; one that receiues his authoritie by Commission; hence, a Iustice, or Commissioner, of the peace; who is to inquire after faults, disorders, and trespasses committed; also, a Iudge Delegate; also, a Iudge, or Arbitrator appointed to examine, determine, or accord, a priuate controuersie; also, an Ouerseer, Sequestrator, or seller of goods, authorized thereto by the Magistrate; and one, that hath, by the same authoritie, the possession, and keeping of lands, that are seized by publike order, giuen him.

Commissaires de l'artillerie. Are a certaine number of Commissioners, or Commissaries, one whereof the Master of the Ordnance asignes to euerie Prouince of Gouernment for th'ouerseeing of th'Ordnance that is therein.

Commissaires du Chastelet. Are, in Paris, little other than our London Scauengers; for their principall office is to looke that the streets bee kept-cleane, and well paued.

Commissaires des fermes. Certaine Officers, who looke that the farmes of the Aides be well passed, and the reuenue thereof duely paied.

Commissaires des guerres. Commissaries, or Muster-masters of armies: these must be Gentlemen, such as haue beene Gens d'armes des ordonnances (at the least) six yeares; and are commaunded onely by the Marshalls of France, or, in their absence, by the Kings Lieutenants generall.

Commissaires des Monstres. The same; or ordinarie Muster-masters.

Commissaires des Vivres, & Munitions. Generall Ouerseers, appointed, by Commission, to looke that the victualls prouided for armies, and garrisons, bee iustly distributed, and disposed of.

Les grands commiſſaires des procez. A ſelect companie of the Preſidents, and Counſellors (or aſſiſtants) of a Court, who ordinarily pronounce Iudgements, and make decrees.

Les petis commiſſaires des procez. Are others, who by th'appointment, and limitation of the Court, examine the proues, or contradictions, and dates of euidences, bookes, depoſitions, &c; and thereof making a report, proceed no further.

Repaiſtre en commiſſaire. To feed plentifully, or apace, at other mens tables, or charges.

Traicté en commiſſaire. That hath both fiſh and fleſh ſet aſure him; or, as we ſay, intertained like a Lord.

Commiſſion: f. A commiſſion, or delegation; a charge, Mandate, commaundement, or warrant, for th'exerciſing of iuriſdiction, &c, giuen by letters patents, or vnder a publicke ſeale.

Elle a touſiours quelque commiſſion par la ville. Said merily of a woman thats euer gadding abroad.

Commiſſure: f. A commiſſure, or ſeame in a boane, (as in the ſkull;) alſo, any neere cloſing, ioyning, or couching of things together.

Commiſtion: f. A commixtion; a mixing, or mingling of ſeuerall things together.

Committimus: lettres de com. Speciall commiſſions, directed, in the behalf of priuiledged perſons, vnto their peculiar Iudges.

Commodat: m. A loane, or lending.

Commode: com. Commodious; conuenient; proper, apt, meet, fit.

Commodement. Commodiouſly; conueniently; aptly, fitly, meetly; to the purpoſe, as one would haue it.

Commoderation du corps. A good diſpoſition of the whole bodie; a correſpondencie, or equall proportion, of good temper in euerie part, or member thereof.

Commodité: f. Commoditie, vtilitie, profit, benefit, thrift; alſo, aptneſſe, fitneſſe; conueniencie, eaſe, handſomeneſſe.

Commoditer. To thriue, gaine, grow rich, preuaile; benefit, or accommodate, himſelfe.

Commotion. A commotion, tumult, ſtirre, vprore, burly burly; a perturbation; trouble, diſquietneſſe.

Commourans. Dying together.

Commourir. To die together, or one for companie of another.

Commouvoir. To vex, trouble, diſturbe; ſhake, moue, raiſe, or ſtirre vp; (alſo, to riſe, or ſtirre) together againſt.

Commué: m. ée: f. Changed, altered; bartered, exchanged.

Commuer. To change, alter; barter, trucke, exchange one thing for another.

Commun: m. A people, the common people; a comminaltie; a corporation; alſo, a thing thats common, or enioyed in common; whence;

Commun n'eſt pas vn: Pro. Common things are no one mans things; or, that which is common belongs to no man.

Ouvrage de commun ouvrage de nul: Prov. All mens worke is no mans worke; or, that which is done for many is acknowledged by none.

Qui ſert commun nul ne le paye, & s'il defaut chaſcun l'abbaye: Prov. The ſeruice done to a people no man rewards, the diſſeruices euery man rails at.

Commun: m. une: f. Common, publicke, vulgar, generall, that belongs to one as well as to another; alſo, much vſed.

Chemin commun. The high way, road way.

Chiens communs. Hounds that will deale with any kind of game.

Veine commune. Looke Veine.

De bien commun on ne fait pas ſouvent monceau: Prov. Men ſeldome raiſe great heapes of publicke treaſure.

Communal: m. A common, or great peece of vntilled land.

Communauté: f. The comminaltie, or common people; alſo, communitie, participation, fellowſhip, ſocietie, fraternitie; good correſpondencie, neere familiaritie one with another; alſo, a ſocietie, brotherhood, corporation, or companie incorporate; alſo, a commoning, or holding in common with others.

Commune. la com. The common people, the vulgar, the riude and raſcall multitude; alſo, a commons, common field, or towne field.

Communes. Companies of footmen leuied, and taken out of villages.

Communément. Commonly, vſually, ordinarily, generally, publikely, in common, with common conſent.

Communicable: com. Communicable; fit for, applicable vnto; alſo, conuerſable, affable.

Communicatif: m. iue: f. Familiar, courteous, affable, eaſie to be ſpoken with; alſo, communicatiue, or whereof many are to haue part.

Communication: f. A communication, or conuerſation; a talking, a conſultation; alſo, a participation, imparting, or making common a thing with others.

Communier. To communicate, to receiue the Communion.

Communion: f. A Communion, fellowſhip, mutuall participation.

Communiqué: m. ée: f. Communicated, participated, imparted; alſo, conferred, talked, or communed, with.

Communiquer. To communicate, participate, impart, mix with, take, or giue part of; alſo, to conferre, talke, or commune with; to reueale a councell, or ſecret vnto.

Commutatif: m. iue: f. Commutatiue; bartering, trucking, exchanging one with, or for, another.

Compacte: com. Compacted; well ſet, knit, truſt, pight, or ioyned together.

Compacture: f. The compacture, ſolide frame, ſubſtantiall ioyning of all the parts of a thing together.

Compagn. as Compagnon: ¶ Rab.

Compagnable: com. Companable, friendlie, ſociable, conuerſable.

Compagne: f. A ſhe mate, fellow, friend, companion.

C'eſt vne bonne compagne. She is a ſociable wench, a good merrie laſſe; (a phraſe not taken altogether ſo ill as our good fellow would be.)

Compagnie: f. Companie, fellowſhip, ſocietie; alſo, a crue, rout, aſſemblie, conſort, or knot of; alſo, a companie, or band of ſouldiors.

Compagnie Françoiſe. Wenches (in the opinion of a wanton Prieſt.)

Beſtes de compagnie. Yong wild ſwine which follow their dammes, in great troups, vntill they be about 18 moneths old, and then leaue them, and with them, this title.

Compagnon: m. A companion, aſſociate, fellow, mate, colleague, partner, or copartner; alſo, an acceſſarie in an offence.

Compagnon d'armes. A companion, or fellow in armes; (a tearme of more eminencie than, Compagnon de guerre.)

Cõpagnon de guerre. he that ſerues in the ſame action, on, armie, and armes, and vnder another.

Compagnon de meſtier. A
ficer that hath not ſet vp for h

Petit compagnon. An vpſta
ſcoundrell, baſe fellow; a ſcur
Groome.

Demandez le à mon comp
menteur que moy. We ſay, as le a theefe or no.

Compagnon bien parlant v ot branſlant: Prov. (Neere to cundus in via pro vehiculo eſt

Qui a compagnon a maiſtr tied vnto companie is tired with therefore the way to be abſolute

Compagnonné: m. ée: f. Ac conſorted, fallen in companie, with.

Compagnonner. To accompan be familiar; ioyne in fellowſhip, cheeke by iowle, with.

Compaignie: Compaignon: Compagnon; &c.

Compaing. as Compagnon: ¶

Companage: m. Meat, acates, food except bread, and drinke.

Comparagé: m. ée: f. Compared

Comparager. To Paragon, or co

Comparaiſon: f. A compariſon; gonings; a likening, or conferring

Comparé: m. ée: f. Compared, pa with; equalled, matched, confe bought, or paied for, deerely.

Comparence: f. An apparance, a

Comparent: m. An appearer.

Comparer: m. Le comparer d a mans life; or, the buying of a thin of.

Comparer. To compare, liken, confe
paragon, proportion one with, or buy, or pay deerely for; and hence
Ie le te feray bien comparer. I or pay ſoundly for it; I will cauſe repent it.

Comparition: f. A comparition;
ring, or repreſenting of himſelfe t

Comparoir. To appeare; to pre alſo, to aſſiſt, or be preſent at.

Comparoir vne faute. To be p
for a fault.

Comparoiſtre. as Comparoir.

Comparſonnier: m. A fellow Off

Comparti: m. ie: f. Diuided, pa parts.

Compartiment: m. A comparte or peece) in building (eſpecially o border in a garden; alſo, a partit portionable diuiſion.

Compartir. To diuide, part, or put

Compartiſſant: m. A copartner

Compartiſſant. Diuiding, or par

Comparuit. An act, order, or teſt apparance of a partie.

Comparution: f. An apparance

Compas: m. A compaſſe, a circle of compaſſes.

Compaſsé. Compaſſed, begirt, inc

on, armie, and armes, and vnder the same colours, with another.

Compagnon de mestier. A Fourneyman; an artificer that hath not set vp for himselfe.

Petit compagnon. An vpstart, meane companion; scoundrell, base fellow; a scuruie, saucie, or proud Groome.

Demandez le à mon compagnon qui est aussi menteur que moy. We say, aske my fellow whether I be a theefe or no.

Compagnon bien parlant vaut en chemin chariot branslant: Prov. (Neere to the Latine, Comes facundus in via pro vehiculo est.)

Qui a compagnon a maistre: Prov. Hee that is tied vnto companie is tired with controlements; (And therefore the way to be absolute is, to be alone.)

Compagnonné: m. ée: f. Accompanied, associated, consorted, fallen in companie, ioyned in fellowship, with.

Compagnonner. To accompanie, associate, consort, be familiar, ioyne in fellowship, walke together, goe cheeke by iowle, with.

Compaignie: Compaignon: &c; as Compagnie, Compagnon; &c.

Compaing. as Compagnon: Pic.

Companage: m. Meat, acates, victualls; all kind of food except bread, and drinke.

Comparagé: m. ée: f. Compared, or paragoned with.

Comparager. To Paragon, or compare, with.

Comparaison: f. A comparison; a matching, or paragoning; a likening, or conferring of things together.

Comparé: m. ée: f. Compared, paragoned, proportioned with; equalled, matched, conferred together; also, bought, or paied for, deerely.

Comparence: f. An apparance, an appearing.

Comparent: m. An appearer.

Comparer: m. Le comparer du corps. The price of a mans life; or, the buying of a thing with the losse thereof.

Comparer. To compare, liken, confer together; to equall, paragon, proportion one with, or by, another; Also, to buy, or pay deerely for; and hence;

Ie le te feray bien comparer. I wil make thee smart, or pay soundly for it; I will cause thee to rue, bewaile, repent it.

Comparition: f. A comparition; an apparance, appearing, or representing of himselfe to open view.

Comparoir. To appeare; to present, or shew himselfe; also, to assist, or be present at.

Comparoir vne faute. To be punished, or pay deerly, for a fault.

Comparoistre. as Comparoir.

Comparsonnier: m. A fellow Officer, or fellow labourer.

Comparti: m. ie: f. Diuided, parted, put into equall parts.

Compartiment: m. A compartement; a square (table, or peece) in building (especially of stone) also, a bed, or border in a garden; also, a partition, or equall, and proportionable diuision.

Compartir. To diuide, part, or put into equall peeces.

Compartissant: m. A copartner, or fellow-partner.

Compartissant. Diuiding, or parting with.

Comparuit. An act, order, or testimoniall, signifying the apparance of a partie.

Comparution: f. An apparance; or as Comparition.

Compas: m. A compasse, a circle, a round; also, a paire of compasses.

Compassé. Compassed, begirt, incircled; also, measured, by compasses.

Compassement: m. A compassing, incircling, turning round; also, a measuring by compasses.

Compasser. To compasse, incircle, begird; also, to turne round; also, to make a circle, or compasse; also, to measure, or square out by compasse, or compasses.

Compassion: f. Compassion, pitie, mercie.

Compassionnaire: com. Compassionarie, compassionate, hauing compassion of.

Compassionner. To take compassion, to haue pitie of.

Compatibilité: f. Compatibilitie; a concurrencie, accord, agreement together; a mutuall induring of, or bearing with, one another.

Compatible: com. Compatible, concurrable; which can abide, or agree together; or indure, or beare with, one another.

Compatir. To suffer, indure, abide, or beare with, one another; to agree, concurre, accord, together.

Compatriote: m. Ones countrey-man.

Compensable: com. Able to recompence, or make amends for.

Compensation: f. Satisfaction, recõpence, equal amends

Compense: f. as Compensation.

Compensé: m. ée: f. Recompensed, or satisfied (with a like measure, proportion, store, &c.)

Compenser. To satisfie, recompence, make amends vnto, with the like.

Comperage: m. A gossipship; a gossiping of, or between, men; th'affinitie, or friendship gotten by their christening of children.

Compere: m. A gossip.

Compere d'oribus. A superficiall friend, or cõpanion.

Compere prestez moy vostre sac. Words vsed in a certaine Yew-game.

Tout y va par compere, & commere. All things there do go by friendship.

Compere de la Pouille couste & despouille: Pro. Seeke Pouille.

Entre deux comperes se perdit le fossoir: Pro. Our neerest friends oft make vs the worst accounts; so may a cosen safely be tearmed a couseners.

Qui de mastin fait son compere plus de baston ne doit porter: Prov. He thats in league with a churle hath no need of a cudgell.

Compermutant: m. A changer, scoorser, barterer, interchanger.

Compermutant: m. ante: f. Changing, scoorsing, bartering, interchanging.

Compermutation: f. A change, exchange, interchange.

Compermuté: m. ée: f. Changed, exchanged, interchanged.

Comperre. as Comparer; To buy, or pay decrely for.

Competemment. Competently, conueniently, sufficiently, meetly well; a prettie deale, or time; also, aptly, fitly, agreeably.

Competence: f. Competencie; conueniencie, sufficiencie; apinesse, fitnesse, agreeablenesse; also, a concurrencie, or competitorship; and hence;

Venir en competence avec vn autre. To striue or contend for, to make equall claime to, a thing, with another; to challenge, couet, or sue for, a thing as well as another; also, to paragon, or compare himself, or, to be laid in equall ballance with, another; to make, or hold himselfe euery way as good as another.

Competent. Competent, sufficient; able, full, conuenient.

Competer. To be sufficient for, suitable with, agreeable vnto; also, to belong, or appertaine to; also, to demaund, or sue for the same thing that another doth.

Competiteur : m. A competitor, concurrent, fellow suitor, or seeker for.

Compilation : f. A compilation, or compiling; also a rapsodie, a booke, treatise, or collection, of sundrie matters, heaped together.

Compilé : m. ée : f. Compiled, heaped together.

Compissant : m. ante : f. Staying to pisse at euery post; bepissing euery place; all-to-bepissing.

Compissé : m. ée : f. Bepissed, all to bepissed.

Compisser. All to bepisse; to pisse euery where, or bepisse euerie place he comes in, euerie corner he comes neere.

Compite : m. A crosse way, or place where diuers waies doe meete; as, the corner of a street, &c.

Complaignant : m. A complainant, or complayner; properly, one that complaines, of an Offence committed, vnto a Magistrate, or court, of Iustice; referring to them the prosecution, and punishment thereof, and refusing to medle further in it.

Complaignant : m. ante : f. Complayning; playning, or finding himselfe aggrieued; or expressing his griefe.

Complaindre. To playne, complaine; bemone, bewaile, finde himselfe aggrieued, or expresse his griefe.

Se Complaindre en matiere de saisine, & de nouvelleté. To bring a writ of Nouel disseisin against.

Complainte : f. A plaint, complaint, moane, lamentation; also, an accusation, or bill of complaint.

Complainte de Novelleté. A Writ, or Action of Nouel disseisin (must be brought within a yeare of the disseisin.)

Ramener la complainte sur les lieux. To procure a Iudge to heare, examine, and determine a controuersie vpon the land in controuersie.

Complaire. To please, like, delight; serue, obserue, be obedient, or obsequious vnto; conforme, or apply himselfe to the humors of.

Complaisance : f. Delight, pleasure; fulnesse of, or fellowship in, ioy.

Complaisant : m. ante : f. Obsequious, obseruant, soothing, (and thereby) pleasing.

Complant : m. A vine plant; also, a place thats planted with yong vines; the nurserie of a vineyard; also, verjuice; also, as Complanterie.

Tenir vignes à complans. Which is, on condition to plant new, or preserue the old, vine-plants; or, to yeeld vnto the Lord a certaine portion of the fruits, and reuenue, of the vine-yard.

Complanté : m. ée : f. Planted, or stored with yong plants.

Complanter. To plant a vine-yard; to store it with vine-plants; to set new, or preserue old vine-plants; also, to lay out, or deliuer ouer, a Lords part, or share, in the fruits of a vine-yard let by him vnto parts, or halues; or to let a vine-yard in that manner.

Complanterie : f. A letting out of a vine-yard to halues, or for part of the fruit thereof; also, the part, or portion due vnto the Landlord by such a lease, or estate made.

Complexion : f. The complexion, making, temper, constitution of the bodie; also, the disposition, affection, humors, or inclination of the mind; also, as Simploce.

Complexionné : m. ée : f. Complexioned; made, framed, composed; of complexion, or constitution; disposed; affected, inclined.

Corps bien complexionné. well fashioned, or tempered, well set together; of a good constitution, of an excellent composition.

Malcomplexionné. Ill disposed, affected, inclined; of leud behauior, bad manners, and worse conditions.

Complication : f. A complication, or folding together.

Complice : m. A Complice, confederate, companion (in a leud Action.)

Complicité : f. A conspiracie, a bad confederacie.

Complie : f. The complyne; or, a part of the Popish Euensong.

l'heure de complie : Seeke, Heure.

Compliqué : m. ée : f. Foulded, enwrapped, intangled together.

Comploter : m. A complot, conspiracie, couin, confederacie, packe, or compacting together.

Comploté : m. ée : f. Complotted, conspired, packed betweene, or among.

Comploter. To complot, conspire, combine or packe together.

Comploteux : m. euse : f. Full of, or addicted vnto, complots, or complotting.

Componé. La bordure componée. A border Gobonnie, in Blason.

Comporté : m. ée : f. Comported; indured, borne, suffered; behaued, maintained, sustained.

Comportement : m. Comportment, behauior, carriage, the bearing of himselfe.

Comporter. To indure, beare; suffer; also, to extend, or ly (in Surueying.)

Se Comporter. To carrie, beare, behaue; maintaine, or sustaine, himselfe.

Composé : m. ée : f. Composed, compounded, made, framed; disposed, ordered, digested; written, or done in verse; also, accorded, agreed, attoned, compounded, reconciled.

Composer. To compound, make, frame; dispose, order, digest; to write verses, compose, or poetize it; also; to accord, attone, reconcile aduersaries; or, to compound, finish, take vp, their differences, and hence;

Composer auec. To agree, take an order, make an end, fall to attonement, come to a composition, with.

Composer son esprit contre les afflictions, &c; To frame, enure, or settle, his mind to resist griefes, indure crosses, beare mischances.

Composeur : m. A composer, poet, writer, maker; a setter in Musicke.

Compositeur : m. as Composeur; also, a Printers Compositor, he that setteth the letters for the Presse; also, an Arbitrator, stickler, vmpier, frendlie compounder of differences.

Composition : f. A composition; making, framing; a confection, compositure; compounding; also, a worke, or booke, or the writing of a worke, or booke; also, an accord, composition, attonement, agreement; also, a Quietus est, or generall acquitance from the king to a Treasurer, &c.

Compossesseur : m. A compossessor; a ioint possessor; one that enioyes, or hath part in, a thing with another.

Composte : f. A condiment, or composition; a wet sucket, (wherein sweet wine was vsed in stead of sugar) also, a pickled, or winter Sallet of hearbes, fruits, or flowers, condited in vinegar, salt, sugar or sweet wine, and so keeping all the yeare long; any hearbes, fruit, or flowers in pickle; also pickle it selfe.

Porter le bras en composte. To carry the arme in a Scarfe.

Composté : m. ée : f. Compounded; bedrugged; mingled, or made of condiments, or compound stuffe; also, pickled.

Composter. To compound, sophisticate, bedrug; to season with, or make of, condiments; also, to pickle.

Com-

Comprehenſion: f. A comprehenſion, containing; apprehenſion, vnderſtanding of.

Comprendre. To comprehend, containe, compriſe, compaſſe; to perceiue, vnderſtand, apprehend, attaine vnto the knowledge of; to conceiue, to be capable of.

Comprer. as Comparer; To buy: Pic.

Compreſſe: f. A boulſter, pillow, or fould of linnen, to bind vp, or lay on, a wound.

Comprimé: m. ée: f. Preſſed, ſqueezed, thruſt, cloſed, or ſtrained hard together.

Comprimer. To preſſe, to ſqueeze, to thruſt, cloſe, or ſtraine, together.

Comprimeur: m. A preſſer, thruſter, ſqueezer together.

Comprins: m. inſe: f. Compriſed, comprehended, contained within the compaſſe, or limits, of.

Compromettre. To compromit, or put vnto compromiſe.

Compromis: m. A compromiſe; a mutuall promiſe of aduerſaries to referre their differences vnto arbitrement; or, a priuate power to end a controuerſie, giuen by the mutuall conſent of the parties in controuerſie.

Compromis: m. iſe: f. Compromitted, put vnto compromiſe.

Compromiſſaire: m. He vnto whom a controuerſie is compromitted.

Comptable: com. Accountable, accountant; lyable vnto account.

Comptant. Counting, accounting, reckoning numbring.

Argent comptant. Readie money; Looke Argent.

Bailler comptant. To giue readie money; to pay preſently, out of hand, or downe in hand.

Compte: m. An account, a reckoning; a computation, or calculation; a number; alſo, a reſpect had, regard made, of; alſo, the reaſon, or cauſe of a matter; alſo, a fib, gull, tale; an idle, or vnlikelie tale, hiſtorie, relation; (See Conte.)

La chambre des comptes. The Court of Accounts; the Exchequer, or Exchequer chamber.

Homme de bon compte. One that is true in all his dealings; a right honeſt man.

Ligne de compte. Seeke Ligne.

Perle de compte. A Paragon; a faire, great, Orientall Pearle.

Rouë de compte. A notch-wheele (in a watch, or clocke:)

Petis comptes. Trifling words, ridiculous tearmes, toyes to mocke Apes withall.

A ton compte. As thou telleſt it; or, as thou thinkeſt, or makeſt account; according to thy reaſon.

Hors de compte. Se voyant hors &c; Seeing, that he had miſt of his reckoning; or, that matters anſwered not his expectation.

Abreger ſon compte. To make the matter ſhort.

Avoir ſon compte. To be merie, iollie, liuelie, light-hearted, all-a-hoight; Looke Avoir.

C'eſt le compte. This reckoning fals out right.

Il eſt bien au compte de la douzaine. He is a ſorie fellow, ſillie mate, ſimple companion.

Servir dieu par compte. That is, iuſt ſo many times a day, weeke, moneth, yeare, &c, and no more.

Tenir compte. To score, or keepe reckoning.

Tenir compte de. To prize, reſpect, eſteeme, regard, make reckoning of.

Trouver ſon compte. Ie trouve mõ compte. I haue reaſon for it; or, it appeares by my reckoning; I know it well ynough; I am certaine of it; my conceit of it falls out right.

A vieux comptes nouvelles diſputes: Pro. Old accounts breed new diſputations (whereto, either their diſorder, or the forgetfulneſſe of thoſe they concerne, makes them verie ſubiect.)

Qui vit à compte il vit à honte: Prov. Hee liues but ſhamefully that reckons all he ſpends; (yet is there verie little difference betweene a gallant that knowes not how, and a gull that cares not what, he ſpends.)

Compté: m. ée: f. Told, reckoned, numbred, counted, calculated, accounted.

Comptement: m. A counting, telling, reckoning, numbring, calculating, accounting.

Compter. To count, account, reckon, tell, number; to calculate, or caſt, an account; alſo, to make, or giue vp, an account; alſo, to fib, fable, cog, talke vainely, chat idly, tell a fooliſh, fabulous, or vnlikelie, tale.

Compter les ais, & ſouliveaux. To picke ſtrawes, to looſe time, or ſpend it to ſmall purpoſe.

Compter les chevilles. When one makes another wait a little too long at his doore before he open it, the Frenchmen ſay, c'eſt luy faire compter les chevilles; viz. To mocke, or amuſe him to no purpoſe; and when they wil threaten to make one attend long for the thing he deſires, they ſay, Ie te feray compter des chevilles; (I will make you coole your heeles before you haue it;) and hence, are moſt Courtiers tearmed, grands compteurs de Chevilles.

Compter les cloux. The ſame; or, to looſe time; or conſume it in idle feaſting.

Compter ſans ſon hoſte. (We ſay the ſame) to reckon without his hoſt; Looke Hoſte.

Qui compte ſans ſon hoſte, il faut qu'il compte deux fois: Prov. Hee that reckons without his hoſt muſt reckon twice; he that concludes, or determines of, buſineſſe, without the priuitie, or preſence of him whom it moſt concerns, is like ynough to heare of it, or be troubled with it, at leaſt once more.

Vne fois faut compter à l'hoſte: Prov. Our account muſt be made, our reckoning paid; (our liues examined, our vices cenſured) one time or other.

Apres compter il faut boire: Prov. Looke Boire.

C'eſt vn marchant qui prend l'argent ſans compter, ni peſer. One of Saint Nicholas Clerks; or an arrant theefe.

Comptereau: m. A booke of accounts; a bill of reckoning.

Compteur: m. A reckoner, counter, accounter; a caſter of accounts; alſo, the Numerator; or figure that ſtands aboue the line, in an Arithmeticall fraction.

Compteur de chevilles. An ordinarie, or thred-bare Courtier; as in Compter les chevilles.

Comptoir: m. A Counter, or Table to caſt accounts on.

Comptoir de chemin. A box, cabinet, or little coffer to carrie letters, or other writings in.

Compulſé: m. ée: f. Compelled, forced, conſtrained vnto.

Compulſer. To compell, force, conſtraine vnto.

Compulſoire: f. A compelling, or compulſion; alſo, an inſtrument or meanes of compulſion; alſo, a commiſſion inioyning a Regiſter, Notarie, or Clerke, to deliuer the contracts, pleadings, acts, orders, or iudgements which a ſuiter hath need of.

Compunction: f. Compunction, remorſe; the pricke, or ſting of conſcience.

Compurgateur: m. A compurgator; one that by oath iuſtifies the (innocencie) report, or oath, of another.

Compuſiſte: m. A computiſt, or computatiſt; a reckoner, calculator, or counter of.

Comte: m. A Count, an Earle. As soone as the auncient Frankes had woon Gallia from the Romanes, their kings appointed some of their principall followers, (by the names of Comtes*) to be the Gouernours, and Iudges of Prouinces; and others (by the same title) of good townes; giuing them withall the territories thereof, to be held of them as* Fiefs; and so they became both Officers, and vassals; yet were they neither but at the will of their Soueraigne, or, at most, not longer than during their owne liues; But within a while they found means to make their Fiefs hereditarie; and afterwards procured their gouernments to bee annexed vnto their Fiefs; and at length (taking aduantage of the misfortunes, weakenesse, or facilitie of their Princes) incroached on the Soueraigntie of them both: (In all which time the Earles of Prouinces were no whit inferior vnto Dukes; hauing as large dominions as they, and Earles of townes vnder them as well as they; besides that, the Gouernours of diuers Prouinces (as Normandie, Britaine, and others) were as often called Earles, as Dukes.) Being at this height, and thereupon growing emulators, and sometimes th' enemies, of kings, they on the other side tooke a course, at first by the Parliament, (setled at Paris) to abridge part of the royalties; and afterwards by Escheats, Confiscations, or mariages, to reunite vnto the Crowne the whole Estates, of as many of them, (whether Earles, or Dukes) as yet acknowledged any dependancie on them by Homage, or otherwise; (The rest, either at first (as Lorraine, and Savoy) hauing vsurped an absolute Soueraigntie; or since by mischances (as Burgundie, and Flanders, by the imprisonment of Francis the first) being alienated from the Crowne;) And creating other Earles, haue graunted them only a iurisdiction, or soueraigntie (if so they will haue it) thats wholly controllable by the Parliaments, and subiect vnto themselues.

Comte d'Estable. Was in old time the title of the Maister of the Horse; and hence (doe some persuade themselues) was the name of Conneſtable deriued.

Comte du Palais. Was the title of the Lord High Steward of the Kings house; now tearmed, Le Grand Maistre de France, & de la maison du Roy.

Comté: m. A Countie, Shire; Earledome: (In France it is to haue foure Baronnies, and euerie Baronnie the estates of, at the least, tenne Gentlemen, belonging to it: ¶Nicot. But by an Edict, made in the yere 1579, and grounded on a decree of the Priuie Councell the tenth of March 1578 (though confirmed onely in the Parliament of Britaine) it was enacted, That an Earledome should consist of two Baronnies, and at the least three Chastellenies (which countervaile one Baronnie) or of one Baronnie, and six Chastellenies; all vnited together, and held, by one homage, of the King.)

Con. A womans &c.

Conare: m. A kernell (resembling a Pine-apple) that stickes to th' outside of the braine.

Concassé: m. ée: f. Squashed, or burst into peeces.

Concasser. To squash, dash, bruise, or burst in peeces.

Concathenation: f. A concathenation; chaining, or linking of things together.

Concathenature. The same.

Concathené: m. ée: f. Concathenated; chained, or linked together.

Concathener. To concathenate; to linke, or chaine, to tie, as with linkes, or chaines, together.

Concavé: m. ée: f. Hollowed, made concaue.

Concavité: f. A concauitie; hollow bowing, or boughtie hollownesse.

La concavité des cieux. The round firmament, or cope of heauen.

Concedé: m. ée: f. Granted, consented, or yeelded vnto.

Conceder. To grant, consent vnto; beleeue.

Concentrer. To ioyne in one center.

Concentrique: com. Hauing one, and the same center.

Concept: m. as Conception.

Conceptacle: m. A conceptacle; any hollow thing, which is apt to receiue, hold, or containe.

Conception: f. A conceit; also, sence, apprehension, iudgement, vnderstanding; also, the conception, or conceiuing, of women with child; whence;

La conception nostre Dame. The conception of our Ladie; a solemne holy-day kept by the Church of Rome on the eight of December.

Concerner. To concerne, touch, import; appertaine, or belong vnto.

Concert de Musique. A consort of Musicke.

Concerté. Consorted, accorded, agreed together.

Concerter. To consort, or agree, together.

Concession. A concession, grant, or granting; a leaue, permission, sufferance.

Conceu: m. euë: f. Conceiued; apprehended, gathered, vnderstood; also, conceiued, or a breeding in the wombe.

Concevoir. To conceiue, apprehend, vnderstand; also, a female to conceiue, or breed yong (bones) in her womb.

Conchambrier: m. A chamber-fellow, a comerade.

Conche: f. A kind of bason, or open vessell resembling a bason; as Coquille; also, as the Latine Concha, the shell of a muscle, cockle, &c; also, order, equipage, or furniture; whence;

Estre bien en conche, ou en bonne conche. To be well clothed, handsomely attired, in good fashion or order, in fit equipage or array.

Conches. certaine receptacles for sea-water (as in Amezeau.)

Conchier. To beshite, bedung, besquatter, beray.

Conchilion: m. Any shell-fish, or scaled fish, with whose bloud purple is died; but especially one (bearing scales) which yeelds a reddish-purple, or scarlet colour.

Concierge: m. A house-keeper; he that keepes a great mans house, or lookes to the stuffe that is therein; also, a Keeper, Goaler, Warder of a prison; also, a principall, rector, chiefe maister, or gouernor of a publique exercise, or schoole.

Conciergerie: f. The name of the common goale belonging to Paris; hence, also, a prison, or goale.

Concile: m. A Councell; an assemblie, Session, or suting of counceilors; also, a (generall) Councell (for Church matters.)

Conciliabule. A conuenticle; a small, or priuate assemblie.

Conciliateur: m. A reconciler, peace-maker, procurer of fauour, and goodwill for, or betwixt others.

Conciliation: f. A conciliation, a reconcilement, or procuring of fauour; an attone-making; an agreement, reconciliation, vnion, league of friendship made among such as were foes.

Conciliatrice: f. A conciliatrix, reconciliatrix; a woman that reconciles those that were enemies.

Concilié: m. ée: f. Attoned, vnited, accorded, agreed, or made friends with; reconciled vnto.

Concilier. To attone, reconcile, accord, or make friends together;

together; to ioyne, o

Concilipete. One tha sell.

Concion: f. An ass called together; also and addressed, vnto

Concis: m. ise: f. Co pendious.

Concitateur: m. A ker, stirrer, or quic

Concitation: f. A uoking; a raising, r vnto.

Concitatrice: f. A resse.

Concité: m. ée: f. C raised, stirred, or qui

Conciter. To concite ward, prouoke; rais

Concitoyen: m. A

Conclave: m. A con or chamber; a secre that (for it is seldome in the Cardinalls as Pope; also, the assem

Conclu: m. uë: f. C solued on.

A ces fins conclu.

Conclure. To conclud on.

Conclure in Baro

Conclure à la ma adiudge, or condem ment, to conclude th death.

Conclusion: f. A co on, determination; th

Prendre conclusio un criminel. To vrg soner; to lay sore vnt

(C' est le Procureu prennent leurs co la peine, & reparat paration de son ho dammages, & intere Concoction: f. Con or seething (of meat i

Concombre: m. A

Concombre asini

Concombre citri ber, a Pome Citrull.

Concombre long Cowcumber.

Concombre mar lon.

Concombre sauv ting Cowcumber, To

Concombre Turc Turkie Cowcumber, and hauing a more s dinarie one.

Concombriere: f. ground wherein Cow

Concomitance: f. ciation with, compan

Concordat: m. An pacification, peaceab agreement; and par together; to ioyne, or knit in loue one with another.

Concilipete. One that is going towards a generall counsell.

Concion: f. An assemblie, or congregation of people, called together; also, the Oration, or Speech deliuered and addressed, vnto them.

Concis: m. ise: f. Concise, briefe, short, succinct, compendious.

Concitateur: m. An incitor, incensor, vrger, prouoker, stirrer, or quickener vp vnto.

Concitation: f. A concitation; inciting, vrging, prouoking; a raising, rousing, stirring, or quickning, vp vnto.

Concitatrice: f. A concitatrix; incitresse, prouokeresse.

Concité: m. ée: f. Concited; incited, vrged, prouoked; raised, stirred, or quickened, vp vnto.

Conciter. To concite; incite, excite; vrge, pricke forward, prouoke; raise, quicken, or stirre, vp vnto.

Concitoyen: m. A fellow Citizen.

Conclave: m. A conclaue, or Closet; an inner parlour, or chamber; a secret, or priuate roome; and especially that (for it is seldome vsed but to expresse that) wherein the Cardinalls assemble about the election of a new Pope; also, the assemblie it selfe.

Conclu: m. uë: f. Concluded; decreed, determined, resolued on.

A ces fins conclu. See Fin.

Conclure. To conclude; decree, determine, resolue vpon.

Conclure in Barocco. See Barocco.

Conclure à la mort. To giue sentence of death; to adiudge, or condemne vnto death; or, in an Argument, to conclude that the partie accused is worthie of death.

Conclusion: f. A conclusion; end, issue, close; resolution, determination; the Epilogue, or last part of.

Prendre conclusions rigoureuses à l' encontre d' un criminel. To vrge the Euidence hard against a prisoner; to lay sore vnto him; to put him to his neck-verse; (C' est le Procureur du Roy, & la Partie ciuile qui prennent leurs conclusions: Celuy-la conclud à la peine, & reparation publique; cestuy-cy en reparation de son honneur (s'il y eschet) & en despés, dammages, & interests: ¶ Code Henry.)

Concoction: f. Concoction; good digestion; a boyling, or seething (of meat in the stomack.)

Concombre: m. A Cowcumber.

Concombre asinin. as Concombre sauvage.

Concombre citrin. A Citrull, or citrull Cowcumber, a Pome Citrull.

Concombre long. The crooked, long, or Adders, Cowcumber.

Concombre marin. The round Pompion, or Melon.

Concombre sauvage. The wild Cowcumber, Spirting Cowcumber, Touch-me-not.

Concombre Turquois. A muske Melon; also, the Turkie Cowcumber, some what resembling a Pompion, and hauing a more solide, and firme pulpe then the ordinarie one.

Concombriere: f. A bed of Cowcumbers; a plot of ground wherein Cowcumbers grow.

Concomitance: f. Concomitancie; fellowship, or association with, companie together.

Concordat: m. An accord, agreement, concordancie pacification, peaceablenesse; also, an Act, or Article of agreement; and particularly, the solemne Act, or booke of agreement, that passes betweene the Pope, and the French king touching the disposition of Benefices.

Concorde: f. Concord, accord, harmonie; peace, agreement, quietnesse; a composition.

Concorder. To accord, compound, pacifie, quiet, agree; also to liue in peace, and concord together.

Concreé: m. ée: f. Bred, composed, made, created together; also, congealed, compacted, gathered close together

Concréer. To breed, compose, make, or create together.

Se concréer. To be bred, composed, made, &c; also, to thicken, congeale, curd, or close together.

Concret: m. A coniunction, or conglutination; an intirenesse, or intire thing.

Concret: m. ete: f. Concrete; hardened, thickened, compacted, congealed, conioyned together.

Concretion. A compaction, conglutination, congealement, thickning, ioyning, curding, clottering, fastening together.

Concubin: m. A man vnlawfully kept, and vsed, by a woman.

Concubinage: m. Concubinage; the keeping of a whore for his owne filthie vse.

Concubinaire. enfant concubinaire. A bastard borne of a concubine; a whores sonne, the brood of a whore.

Concubine: f. A concubine, a leyman; a woman vsed ordinarily, as a wife.

Conculcation: f. A Conculcation, or treading vnder foot; a suppression, or extreame keeping vnder.

Conculqué: m. ée: f. Oppressed; trodden vnder foot.

Conculquer. To oppresse, or tread vnder foot; to bruise, or weare with often treading, or stamping on.

Concupiscence: f. Concupiscence, lust, feruent desire, greedie appetite vnto.

Concupiscible. faculté concupiscible. The vnreasonable, or sensuall part of the soule, which couets meats, drinkes, and all sorts of delights beyond measure.

Concurrence: f. A concurrence, or concurrencie; an agreement, of seuerall matters, or in circumstances (all comming to one point, or ayming at one thing;) a running, meeting, or ioyning, in course, together.

Iusques à la concurrence de sa debte; to the value, or quantitie of his debt; vntill it be fully satisfied, or run vp.

Concurrent: m. A concurrent, corriuall, competitor.

Concurrent: m. ente: f. Concurrent, concurring, agreeing with, ioyning or meeting in course, running together.

Concusseur. as Concussionaire.

Concussion: f. Concussion; publicke extortion, close rapine; an extorting of gifts by a false shew of authoritie, or imposition of crimes; any violent, and vniust procurement of bribes; also, a ioulting, or knocking one against another.

Concussionaire: m. A Concussionarie, or publicke extortioner; one that (counterfaiting an authoritie) extorts gifts from men by threatning to punish, or prosecute their offences; or any officer, or Magistrate, that will neither do right, nor giue good words vnlesse he be soundly bribed.

Condamnation; & Condamnatoire. as Condemnation, & Condemnatoire.

Condamné; & Condamner. See Condemné, & Condemner.

Conde: m. A butler; or, a yeoman of the Larder; ¶ Rab.

Con-

Condemnade. A kind of Card-play, like vnto Lanſquenet. ¶Rab.

Condemnation: f. A condemnation; a damning or condemning.

Condemnation d'amende. An amercing, or putting to a fine.

Paſſer condemnation. To giue ouer a ſuit, to yeeld vnto an agreement, to deſiſt from brabling, in Law.

Il paſſa condemnation de tout ce qu' ils deſiroyent. He graunted, or yeelded vnto, whatſoeuer they required.

Condemnatoire: com. Condemnatorie, condemning; amercing, fining.

Condemné: m. ée: f. Condemned, damned, ouerthrowne in Law; alſo, amerced, fined, put vnto his fine.

Vn lieu condemné. An vncouth, or vnacceſſable place.

Tel a bonne cauſe qui eſt condemné: Prov. Hee thats i'the right oft times receiues the foile.

Condemner. To condemne, or damne; to ouerthrow in iudgement, ouercome by Law.

Condemner à l'amende. To amerce, fine, or put vnto his fine.

Condenſé: m. ée: f. Thickened, made thicke, compacted, or cloſed together.

Condenſe: com. Condenſe; thicke, cloſe together.

Condenſer. To thicken, or make thicke; to gather, or flocke together.

Condenſité: f. Condenſitie, thickneſſe, hardneſſe, cloſeneſſe.

Condeſcendre. To condeſcend, vouchſafe, yeeld, graunt vnto.

Condeſcendu: m. uë: f. Condeſcended; vouchſafed; graunted, or yeelded vnto.

Condignac. as Codignat; Marmalade of Quinces. ¶Rab.

Condigne: com. Condigne, well-worthie.

Condignement. Condignely, worthily, honeſtly; as it behoueth.

Condile. as Condyle.

Condiſciple. A ſchoole-fellow, or fellow diſciple.

Condition: f. A condition, couenant; law, or bargaine conditionall; alſo, the propertie, nature, diſpoſition, manner, one vſeth, or is of; alſo, ones eſtate, fortune; place; birth; qualitie, (eſpecially meane, or baſe.)

Ie ne ſçay pas les conditions du ieu. I know not the lawes of the Game.

Conditionaire: com. Conditionarie, conditionall, vpon condition, vnder couenant, couenanting.

Conditionnel. as Conditionaire.

Conditionnellement. Conditionally, vpon, or vnder, a condition.

Condol: m. A ridge, or raiſing of earth.

Condoloir. See Condouloir.

Condonné: m. ée: f. Giuen freely, forgiuen, pardoned.

Condonner. Freely to giue; to pardon, or forgiue.

Condore. The name of a great, ſtrong, and rauenous Indian bird.

Condot: m. as Condol.

Condouloir. To ſorrow, or moane with, to ſympathize with the griefe, or paine of.

Conducteur: m. A Conductor, Leader, Guide, Ringleader; alſo, a Captaine.

Conductrice: f. A Conductreſſe.

Conduict: m. A Conduit; alſo, a gutter, or trench of ſtone, &c, whereby the water, or courſe of a riuer is turned, and fetcht into, or by, any place.

Conduicts de fleuves. The heads of riuers.

Conduicte: f. A conduct, conduction, guiding, leading, bringing on; a trayning, or gouernment; alſo, a managing, or handling.

Conduicte de l'eſprit. The inclination, motions, or ſway of the mind.

Conduire. To conduct, lead, guide, bring on; gouerne, ſway, rule, wholly diſpoſe of; alſo, to handle, or manage.

Conduire ſourdement vne Orne. Looke Orne.

Conduiſeur: m. A Leader, Guider, Conductor.

Condui-ſomne. Sleepe-conducting, ſilent, quiet.

Conduit: m. ite: f. Conducted, led, guided, brought on; trained, gouerned; ſwayed, wholly diſpoſed of.

Conduit: m. as Conduict.

Conduite: f. as Conduicte.

Condyle: m. The tuberioſitie; out-ſwelling, roundneſſe, or knots, of the thigh, knee, ankle, elbow, or knuckle-bones; alſo, a blow with the fiſt; a box, or cuffe.

Condylome: m. A ſwelling, or excreſcence of fleſh (like vnto little warts, or the ſtones of a raiſin, or figge) in the fundament, or in a womans priuities.

Cone: m. A Cone; a Geometricall bodie; or any figure, that is broad, and round below, and ſharpens towards the top.

Coneſtable. See Conneſtable.

Coneſtablie: f. A Conſtableſhip; alſo, a Captaineſhip, or gouernment held in Peerdome; alſo, a companie, band, or battalion of Souldiers.

Confanon. A Standard, or Banner, &c; as Gonfanon.

Confanonier: m. A Standard-bearer.

Confanons. The wild Poppie.

Confection: f. A confection, or compoſition; a mingling; a confecting, or comfet making.

Confederation: f. A confederation, or confederacie; the making of, or entring into, a league with others; alſo, a complot, or conſpiracie.

Confederez. Confederate, in friendſhip, entred into a league, together; alſo, ioyning in a plot, or conſpiracie.

Conference: f. A conference; alſo, a compariſon.

Conferer. To conferre, commune, deuiſe, or talk, together; (conferer enſemble;) alſo, to contribute, or be at a-like, and equall charge with another; (conferer avec vn autre.)

Confermé: m. ée: f. Confirmed, ſtrengthened, fortified, ſetled; hardened; incouraged, aſſured; ratified, eſtabliſhed; auouched, auerred for truth.

Confermer. To confirme, ſtrengthen, fortifie, ſettle, harden; aſſure; eſtabliſh, ratifie, make good; incourage, comfort; auouch, or auerre for truth.

Confeſſe: f. as Confeſſion.

Aller à la confeſſe. To goe to ſhrift.

Confeſſé: m. ée: f. Confeſſed; acknowledged, yeelded vnto; diſcouered, reuealed, bewrayed; alſo, ſhriuen.

Confeſſer. To confeſſe, acknowledge, yeeld vnto; reueale, diſcouer, bewray.

Se confeſſer au preſtre. To be ſhriuen.

Confeſſeur: m. A Confeſſor, or ghoſtlie father.

Confeſſion: f. A confeſſion, or acknowledgement; a reuealing, or bewraying, of a ſecret.

Confeſſion auriculaire. Shriuing, auricular confeſſion.

Confeſſionnaire: com. Confeſſionarie, belonging to, or treating of, auricular confeſſion.

Confeſſionnat: m. An act of confeſſion tending to abſolution.

Confez. Confeſſed, ſhriuen.

Confiance: f. Confidence, truſt, aſſurance, hardineſſe.

Confiant. Truſting, hauing confidence in, building vpon.

Confidant: m. A friend to whom one truſts, in whom he hath confidence, on whoſe aſſiſtance he relyes; a ſecond in a ſingle combat, ſuch a one as a man takes into the field with him.

Confident. as Confidant.

Confidentiaire: com. Trecherous, faith-breaking, truſt-deceiuing.

Confidentionnaire. as Confidentiaire.

Confier. To truſt, beleeue, haue confidence in; aſſure himſelfe of; build, rely, or depend, vpon.

Confiez de Cour. as Pairs de la Cour.

Configuration: f. A likeneſſe, or reſemblance, of figures.

Confin: m. ine: f. Neere, neighbor, confining, or adioyning, vnto; bounding, or bordering, vpon.

Confinant: m. ante: f. Confining, bounding, bordering, abbutting, adioyning, lying neere vnto; alſo, confining, baniſhing.

Confiner. To confine; to abbut, or bound vpon; to abboord, adioyne, lye neere vnto; alſo, to aſſigne limits, appoint marches, lay out bounds vnto; alſo, to confine, relegate, baniſh into a certaine, or limitted, place.

Confire. To preſerue, confect, ſoake, or ſteepe in; alſo, to ſeaſon, reliſh, or giue ſauor vnto.

Confirmatif: m. iue: f. Confirmatiue, confirming; eſtabliſhing, ratifying; aſſuring; auouching.

Confirmation: f. A confirmation, ſtrengthening, ſetling, aſſurance; ratification, eſtabliſhment; alſo, a hartning, or incouragement; alſo, an auouching, or auerrall of a thing for truth; alſo, confirmation, Biſhopping, or (as the vulgar) Biſping.

Droict de confirmation. The fine, or fee due, by all Officers of the kingdome of France, vnto the King at his firſt comming to the Crowne, for confirming them, by his Letters Patents, in their places.

Confirmé. as Confermé.

Confirmer. See Confermer.

Confis: m. Any thing that hath beene ſoaked, or ſteeped; any pickled, or preſerued thing.

Confiſc: m. A confiſcation, or thing confiſqued.

Confiſcation: f. A confiſcation; a publick ſeiſure; alſo, a forfeiture.

Confiſeur: m. A Confector, Preſeruer, or Conſet-maker.

Confiſqué: m. ée: f. Confiſcated; ſeiſed to publicke, or vnto the Princes, vſe; alſo, forfeited; loſt by, or made ſubiect to, forfeiture.

Confiſquer. To confiſcate; to ſeiſe, as forfeited vnto the Princes, or common, Treaſurie; alſo, to forfeit.

Confiſſable: com. Fit to be ſteeped, ſoaked, preſerued, confected.

Confiſſeur: m. A Confector, Conſet-maker; Preſeruer.

Confit: m. ite: f. Steeped, confected; fully ſoaked, wholly imbrued with.

Confit en amertume. Whoſe heart is full of bitterneſſe; a moſt dolefull perſon, a moſt wofull man.

Confit en malice. A moſt vngracious fellow; one that hath gotten a full habit of wickedneſſe; one that's obdurate in, or giuen ouer to, nequerie; one that minds, or is made of, nought but villanies.

Confiteure: f. A confecting, preſeruing; ſteeping, ſoaking; ſaucing, ſeaſoning; alſo, a confection, condiment, preſerue; and hence;

Confitures. Confets, ionkets, all kind of ſweet-meats; and, moſt properly, fruits, bloſſomes, leaues, ſtalkes, &c, of plants, preſerued whole; Preſerues.

Conflagration: f. A conflagration; a generall burning, or conſuming with fire.

Conflant: m. A place whereat two riuers meet.

Conflé: m. ée: f. Blowne, or, puffed vp. See Gonflé.

Conflict: m. A conflict, skirmiſh, bickering, or battell.

Confluant. as Conflant.

Confondre. To confound; diſorderly to mingle, or tumble together.

Conformateur: m. A conformer; a maker of things like one another, and fit altogether.

Conformation: f. A conforming; a framing, faſhioning, or diſpoſition of things to a likenes betweene themſelues, and a fitneſſe altogether.

Conforme: com. Conformable, conforme, agreeable vnto; agreeing, or of a like faſhion, one to the other.

Conformé: m. ée: f. Conformed; made apt for, fitted with, faſhioned like.

Conformément. Conformably, accordingly, thereafter.

Conformer. To conforme; fit with; faſhion as; make apt for, like to, proportionable vnto; alſo (ſimply) to make, frame, faſhion, proportion.

Conformité: f. Conformitie, conformeableneſſe; a reſemblance, likeneſſe, fitneſſe, or befitting.

Confort: m. Comfort, ſolace, conſolation; an incouragement, or cheering vp; an eaſing, or mitigating of griefe; the application of ſtrength vnto weakeneſſe, thereby to inforce it.

Confortatif: m. iue: f. Comfortatiue; of power, or propertie, to comfort.

Conforté: m. ée: f. Comforted, eaſed, ſolaced; ſtrengthened; ſupported.

Conforte-main. The ſtrengthening, and confirmation of an inferior perſons ſeiſure by the ſuperiors aſſiſtance; as when a Lord, hauing ſeiſed an inheritance held of him, prayes in aide of the King (or a Meſne Lord of the Lord Paramount) and procures it, for the better aſſurance of his poſſeſſion.

Donner conforte-main. To helpe, ſuccour, aide, aſſiſt; to lend a helping hand vnto.

Conforter. To comfort, ſolace, recreate; to encourage, or cheere vp; alſo, to confirme, helpe, ſtrengthen, reinforce.

Comforter vne playe. To corroborate a wound by fomentations, or other (externall) applications.

Confoulant. *A certaine village hard by Paris; tearmed ſo, becauſe two riuers (*Marne, and Seine*) meet at it.*

Confrairie: f. A Fraternitie, Brotherhood, Fellowſhip, Societie; a Companie of one trade, or profeſſion.

Le pain benist de la confrairie. Bobbes, thumpes, thwackes, blowes.

Confreres: m. Fellowes of one, and the ſame Companie, or Societie.

Confrontation: f. A confronting, or bringing face to face; alſo, a reading, or examining of the depoſitions of accuſers in preſence of the accuſed.

Confronté: m. ée: f. Confronted, brought face to face; examined, compared, conferred one by another; layed neere together.

Confronter. To confront, or bring face to face; to examine, mine, or compare, one by another; to conferre, or lay, seuerall things together.

Confronter teſmoins. To confront witneſſes; to bring accuſers, or accuſing witneſſes, before the accuſed; and, to examine them, or to read and examine the euidence they haue giuen in, or depoſitions which they haue made, in his preſence.

Confus: m. uſe: f. Confuſed, diſordered; budling, indiſtinct; alſo, confounded, troubled; abaſhed, amazed, diſmayed, put or daſht out of countenance.

Confuſément. Confuſedly, vndiſtinctly, without order; one with another.

Confuſion: f. A confuſion, or diſorder; a rude mingle-mangle, chaos, hurly-burly; a confounding; alſo, a thick Ruffe thats worne cloſe before.

Confuté: m. ée: f. Confuted, conuinced, refelled, diſproued, ouercome in arguing.

Confuter. To confute, conuince, refell, diſproue, ouercome in arguing.

Confuter vn teſmoing. To diſgrace, confound, puzle, blanke him; to put him out of countenance, or, driue him to a Non-plus.

Congé: m. Leaue, licence, permiſſion; graunt of libertie, diſcharge, diſmiſſion; alſo, a paſport.

Congé de Cour. Looke Renvoy.

Congé deffault. A diſmiſſion vpon default; (Se donne à l'appellant, qui a eſté anticipé, contre l'anticipant defaillant; Quia fungitur vice rei, & actoris. ¶Ragueau.)

Congé de Morteſaiſon. Looke Morteſaiſon.

Congé ſimple. A ſimple diſmiſſion, or diſcharge out of a Court; (S'obtient par vn defendeur contre vn demandeur non comparant, ou à faute de repliquer: & par l'intimé contre l' appellant défaillant qui a voit relevé, & adſigné. ¶Ragueau.)

Il me donna congé de ma chambre. He gaue vp my chamber.

Congeable: com. Diſmiſſeable, licenſable, diſchargeable.

Domaine congeable. Which the poſſeſſor is to leaue when his Landlord pleaſes; a demayne held at will.

Congedié: m. ée: f. Diſmiſſed, diſcharged, licenced, that hath leaue to be gone.

Congedier. To diſmiſſe, diſcharge, licence, giue leaue vnto, permit to goe, ſuffer to depart.

Congedier vne armée. To breake vp an armie.

Congelation: f. A congelation, congealing, freezing; alſo, the diſeaſe tearmed Catalepſis, viz. a ſuddain detention, or occupation of the bodie, and mind; the Patient continuing in the ſame forme, and holding the ſame poſture, which he had when he was taken with it.

Congelé: m. ée: f. Congealed, frozen, cloſed, together.

Congeler. To congeale; to be frozen, or cloſe together with freezing, &c.

Congemination: f. A congemination, doubling, often repeating; (whence) alſo, as Epizeuxe.

Congeneré: m. ée: f. Congenerated; begotten, or ingendred together.

Congiaire: m. A dole; a largeſſe, or liberall gift (of money, or victuals) vnto the people.

Congie: m. A veſſell among the ancient Romanes containing ſome foure pints and a halfe, of Pariſien meaſure; or very neere our gallon.

Conglutination: f. A conglutination; a ioyning, a knitting, a cloſing, or gluing together.

Conglutiné: m. ée: f. Conglutinated; glued, cloſed, or knit with.

Conglutiner. To conglutinate; ioyne, glue, cloſe, knit with, or together.

Congnoiſtre. See Cognoiſtre.

Congratulation: f. A congratulation, or verball reioycing with one for his good fortune.

Congratulé: m. ée: f. Congratulated, reioyced with.

Congratuler. To congratulate; or, in words, to reioyce with another for his good fortune.

Congre: m. A Congar, or Cungar (fiſh.)

Congreé: m. eée: f. Congealed, thickened, curded, gathered cloſe together, clottered; compact, made hard.

Congréement: m. A congealing, curding, thickening, growing, or clotting together.

Se Congréer. To congeale, thicken, curd, cloſe; gather, compact together.

Congregation: f. A congregation; aſſemblie, or company of people gathered together in a publicke place.

Congregé: m. ée. f. Congregated, gathered, aſſembled together.

Congréger. To congregate, gather, aſſemble together.

Il ſe congrége en pierre precieuſe. It growes, or congeales into, a precious ſtone.

Congreſſion: f. Companie, congreſſion with others; or, as Congrez; an aſſemblie, meeting, &c.

Congrez: m. A ſolemne aſſemblie, or meeting; alſo, an incounter, coaping, or ſcuffling together.

Conjectural: m. ale: f. Coniecturall; which may be gathered by gheſſe, or ſcand at by coniecture.

Conjecturalement. Coniecturally, by gheſſe, or coniecture, habnab, hittie-miſſie.

Conjecturant: m. ante: f. Coniecturing, gheſſing at.

Con. le lion par les ongles. See Lion.

Conjecture: f. A coniecture, or geſſe; a iudgement giuen, or conceit taken, on vncertain grounds, or at randome.

Conjecturé: m. ée: f. Coniectured, gheſſed, imagined; deemed, diuined.

Conjecturer. To coniecture, gheſſe, diuine; to iudge, or imagine by.

Coniguer. To ſcratch, or claw.

Conillart. A certaine very tender, and delicat peare.

Coniller. To play the coward, or lurke in corners; to ſeeke a hole to hide his head in; to ſneake, or ſlinke from place to place, as a coward that boults from buſh to buſh.

Conilliere: f. A Conny-hole, or Conny-borow.

Conioignant: m. ante: f. Ioyning, vniting, combining, coupling with, or together.

Conjoinct: m. cte: f. Ioyned, conioyned, combined, coupled, united, knit, ſure with.

Conjoinctement. Ioyntly, wholly, together, as well the one as the other.

Conjoindre. To conioyne, combine, couple, counite; to ioyne, aſſociate; faſten, knit; marrie, make ſure with, or together.

Conjonctif: m. ifue: f. Coniunctiue; ioyning, coupling, combining, uniting with, or together.

Membrane conjonctiue. The white of the eye; or, the skin that couers it.

Conjonction: f. A coniunction; combination, coupling, or knitting together; alſo, the part of ſpeech tearmed, a Coniunction.

Conjoüi. Congratulated, or gladded with.

Se Conjoüir. To congratulate, or be glad with.

Conjouïſſement. A congratulation; or reioycing with.

Se Conjoyr. as Conjoüir.

Conjoyſsement. as Conjouïſſement.

Conife, Flea-bane, or Flea-bane Mullet, (an herbe.)

Con-

Conjugal: m. ale: f. Coniugall and wife, or vnto wedlocke; ioy ther, as man and wife in wedloc

Os conjugal. as Os Iougal.

Conjuger. To play the part of a vſe, his owne wife.

Conjunction. as Conjonction.

Conjuncture: f. A coniuncture

Il venoit en vne fort mauvaiſe came when all things were clea quite out of ioint.

Conjurateur: m. A conſpirator.

Conjuration: f. A conſpiracie; confederacie againſt; alſo, a co ring.

Conjure: f. as Conjuration; a calling of people together.

Conjuré: m. ée: f. Coniured; a ſought, or intreated; alſo, coniure warned, ſummoned, or called toge againſt.

Conjurer. To coniure; adiure; beſe vehemently; alſo, to coniure, or ex to conſpire; complot; ioyne in a againſt.

Conjurer la Cour; ou ſes ho warne, a Court; to ſummon, or ſen ther.

Connaturel: m. elle: f. Connat all alike; alſo, agreeable to the nat

Conneſtable: m. A Conſtable; maiſters of the Kings Horſe, and taine bands ingariſonned in fronti forts of importance, were tearme At this day the Conſtable of Franc ſheer of that Crowne, eſpecially ons, whereof, in his Princes abſen be) the Generall; He alſo keepes t does him homage for it.)

Conneſtablie: f. A Conſtableſhip; of a Conſtable; alſo, a Captaineſ held in Peerdome; alſo, a Squadro of ſouldiors.

Connexé: m. ée: f. Knit, ioyned ther.

Connexion. A connexion; ioyning ſing together.

Connexité: f. as Connexion.

Connil: m. A Connie, a Rabbet.

Connille: f. A Doe Connie.

Conniller. See Coniller.

Connilleur: m. A coward; one ſight, or hides his head in a hol ſeene.

Connin: m. as Connil. A Connie.

Connin, & vilain avec la main: membred with the hand, a knaue the fiſts, are much the ſooner eate

Conniniere: f. A Connigrey, or war

Connivé: m. ée: f. Winked at; borne with, ſeene and not ſeene ſent.)

Connivence: f. A conniuence, o rance, toller ation, permiſſion; a (by conſent.)

Conniver. To winke at; ſuffer, t to ſee and not to ſee; to make as th nor knew ought of the matter.

Conjugal: m. ale: f. Coniugall; belonging vnto man and wife, or vnto wedlocke; ioyned, or yoaked together, as man and wife in wedlocke.

Os conjugal. as Os Iougal.

Conjuger. To play the part of a husband; to know, or vse, his owne wife.

Conjunction. as Conjonction.

Conjuncture: f. A coniuncture; a ioyning together.

Il venoit en vne fort mauvaise conjuncture. Hee came when all things were cleane off the bindges, or quite out of ioint.

Conjurateur: m. A conspirator.

Conjuration: f. A conspiracie, complotment, priuat confederacie against; also, a coniuration, or coniuring.

Conjure: f. as Conjuration; also, a summoning, or calling of people together.

Conjuré: m. ée: f. Coniured; adiured; earnestly besought, or intreated; also, coniured, or exorcised; also, warned, summoned, or called together; also, conspired against.

Conjurer. To coniure; adiure; beseech earnestly, intreat vehemently; also, to coniure, or exorcise (a spirit;) also, to conspire; complot; ioyne in a priuat confederacie, against.

Conjurer la Cour; ou ses hommes. To call, or warne, a Court; to summon, or send for, his people together.

Connaturel: m. elle: f. Connaturall; naturall vnto all alike; also, agreeable to the nature of.

Connestable: m. A Constable; (In former times the maisters of the Kings Horse, and the captaines of certaine bands ingarisonned in frontier townes, and other forts of importance, were tearmed, Connestables: At this day the Constable of France is the principall officer of that Crowne, especially in warlike Expeditions, whereof, in his Princes absence, he is (or should be) the Generall; He also keepes the Kings Sword, and does him homage for it.)

Connestablie: f. A Constableship; the Office, or Place, of a Constable; also, a Captaineship, or Gouernment, held in Peerdome; also, a Squadron, Band, or Batallion, of souldiors.

Connexé: m. ée: f. Knit, ioyned, tyed, trussed together.

Connexion. A connexion; ioyning, knitting, tying, trussing together.

Connexité: f. as Connexion.

Connil: m. A Connie, a Rabbet.

Connille: f. A Doe Connie.

Conniller. See Coniller.

Connilleur: m. A coward; one that playes least in sight, or hides his head in a hole for feare of being seene.

Connin: m. as Connil. A Connie.

Connin, & vilain avec la main: Prov. A Connie dismembred with the hand, a knaue well pummelled with the fists, are much the sooner eaten, or amended.

Conniniere: f. A Connigrey, or warren of Connies.

Connivé: m. ée: f. Winked at; tollerated, suffered, borne with, seene and not seene (of purpose, or by consent.)

Connivence: f. A conniuence, or winking at; a sufferance, tolleration, permission; a seeing, and not seeing (by consent.)

Conniver. To winke at; suffer, tollerate, beare with; to see and not to see; to make as though he neither saw, nor knew ought of the matter.

Connoissance: f. Knowledge. See Cognoissance.

Connoistre. To know. See Cognoistre.

Connon: m. A long Dray, or Cart, hauing at the fore-end a Pulley for the drawing vp of loading. ¶ Pic.

Conoëidal: m. ale: f. Cone-like, broad, and round at the bottome, and sharpe at the top.

Conopée: f. A Canopie; a Tent, or Pauilion.

Conquassé: m. ée: f. Stamped, pounded; broken, split, quashed in pieces.

Conquasser. To powne, breake, or bruze; to stampe in a morter; to split, or quash in peeces; or, as Concasser.

Conque: f. Shell-fish; also, the shell it selfe; sometimes the pearle found in a shell-fish; also, a certaine measure for corne, of 58 pound weight.

Conquerable: com. Conquerable, vanquishable, subdueable, winneable.

Conquerant: m. A conqueror, or ouercommer; a subduer, a vanquisher.

Conquereur. as Conquerant.

Conquerir. To conquer, subdue, vanquish, ouercome; ouermaister, bring vnder obedience; also, to get, purchase, win, acquire (during mariage, or iointly with another.)

Conquerre. as Conquerir.

Conquest: m. An Estate, or Purchase compassed by a mans owne industrie, labour, or meanes; also, a thing got, or matter come by, wherein another is to haue a share; (therein differing from Acquest.)

Conqueste: f. A Conquest; the subduing of a forraine countrey; or, the inlarging of his owne dominions by the winning of other mens.

Conquesté: m. ée: f. Conquered, subdued; woon, gotten, purchased.

Conquester. as Conquerir. To subdue, conquer; win; get, purchase.

Conquis: m. ise: f. Conquered; subdued, vanquished, woon; ouermaistered, ouercome, wholly brought vnder; also, gotten, acquired, purchased (as in Conquerir.)

Conroy: m. Stuffe throughly tawed, or curried.

Conroyé: m. ée: f. Curried, tawed, or dressed, as leather; rough-hewed, chipped, squared, or fashioned as tymber; also, well wrought; well sadned, or setled, by working.

Conroyement: m. A currying, or dressing of leather; a chipping, or squaring of tymber.

Conroyer. To currie, tame, or dresse, as leather; also, to chip, rough hew, or square, as tymber; and (metaphorically) to worke throughly; or, to sadden, or settle together by a through working.

Conroyeur: m. A Currier; a Leather dresser.

Consacré: m. ée: f. Consecrated, hallowed, dedicated, deuoted vnto.

Consacrer. To consecrate, hallow, dedicate, or deuote vnto.

Consalme de mer. The great horse-muskle.

Consanguinité: f. Consanguinitie, neerenesse in bloud, kindred by birth, or bloud.

Consaul. as Conseil. (an old word.)

Conscachance: f. A full knowledge, or notice of.

Conscachant de. Fully acquainted with, or priuie vnto; hauing notice, or knowledge enough of.

Conscience: f. Conscience; the testimonie of our owne knowledge, the witnesse of our owne thoughts; a remorse, or a remorsefull remembrance, of.

Conscience à pont levis. A very large conscience; the humor of such as dare commit, or will admit of, any villanie.

Char-

Charger ſa conſcience. To commit a wicked, or lewd act.

Faire conſcience de. To ſticke at, or make a ſcruple of.

Qui veut la conſcience monde, Il doit fuir le monde immonde: Prov. Looke Monde.

Conſcientieuſement. Religiouſly, deuoutly, with a good conſcience; curiouſly, ſcrupulouſly.

Conſcientieux: m. euſe: f. Conſcientious; godlie, deuout, religious, of a good conſcience, full of conſcience; alſo, ſcrupulous, timerous, curious.

Conſcinomantie. Diuination by a ſiue, and a paire of ſheeres. ¶Rab.

Conſecutif: m. iue; f. Conſecutiue, or conſequent; next or immediatly ſucceeding, enſuing neceſſarily, certainly following.

Conſecution: f. A conſequence, or conſequent; an order, ſucceſſion, following; a neceſſarie iſſue, or enſuing.

Conſecutivement. Conſequently.

Conſeigneur: m. A fellow Lord; a Partner, Aſſociate, equall in dominion, or ſeignorie.

Conſeil: m. Counſell, aduiſe; a iudgement, or opinion demaunded, or giuen; alſo, a Court, Companie, Aſſemblie, or Aſſociation of Counſellors; The bodie of the Counſell; whence;

Conſeil des Affaires. The Counſell of State; the Priuie Counſell; held ordinarily in the Kings cloſet, and moſt commonly a mornings, or at his getting vp; when the Packets of forraine Princes, Embaſſadours, and Gouernors of Prouinces be opened, and reſolutions taken as well vpon them, as vpon other important, and State-affaires of the time; the ouerture, and diſpatch whereof is committed ouer vnto the principall Secretaries, who euer attend his Maieſtie in this Counſell, either alone, or with ſuch Lords as he pleaſes extraordinarily to call vnto it.

Conſeil d'Eſtat. An aſſemblie of Counſellors, wherein, when it concerns matters of warre, the Conſtable, when cauſes of Iuſtice, the Chancelor, be Preſidents; and the Princes of the bloud, Peeres of France, Officers of the Crowne, Gouernours of Prouinces, chiefe Preſidents of the Parliaments, and (by ſpeciall fauour, or commiſſion from the King) other great Perſonages, be aſſiſtants; yet none, with any obligation of ordinarie attendance, but a few of them (commonly of the long Robe) who haue penſions allowed them for it. This Counſell is thus tearmed when it is aſſembled about publicke, and important buſineſſes; for vpon other occaſions it is tearmed otherwiſe.

Conſeil eſtroit. as Conſeil des Affaires.

Conſeil des finances. as Conſeil d'Eſtat; when it is aſſembled about the ordering, or diſpoſing of the Kings Reuenue.

Conſeil privé. as Conſeil d'Eſtat; but called thus when it is aſſembled about particular controuerſies, or cauſes betweene partie and partie, and of ſome reſemblance with thoſe, which are determined at our Counſell Table.

Conſeil ſecret; & Conſeil ſecret d'Eſtat; as Conſeil des Affaires.

Le grand conſeil. A Court compoſed of foure Preſidents (who are withall to be Maiſters of Requeſts) and twentie Counſellors; which determine ordinarily of appeales from the Prouoſt of the Kings houſehold; and extraordinarily of ſuch cauſes as be referred vnto them by commiſſion from Le Conſeil privé.

Le privé conſeil. as Conſeil privé.

Nos gens ne parlent pas en conſeil, viz. They gape ſo loud that all the houſe rings of them.

A conſeil de fol cloche de bois: Prov. For woodcocks counſels woodden bells.

Choſe faicte conſeil prins: Prov. For things alreadie done the care's alreadie taken; matters once paſt it's bootleſſe to talke of them; a buſineſſe ended ends diſpute about it.

De choſe perdue le conſeil ne ſe remue: Pro. Aduiſe is idle when a thing is loſt; or when things are loſt why ſhould we aske aduiſe?

Il peche ſagement qui fait folie par conſeil: Prov. Looke Pecher.

La nuict donne conſeil: Prov. Night giues aduiſe; We ſay, take counſell of your pillow.

Pour neant demande conſeil qui ne le veut croire: Prov. In vaine he counſell askes that will not truſt in't.

Conſeiller: m. as Conſeillier.

Conſeiller. To counſell, aduiſe, direct; perſuade, admoniſh, warne.

Se conſeiller à. To demaund counſell, take th'aduiſe, aske th'opinion, craue the direction, of.

Se conſeiller ſur. To examine, weigh, ponder; to adviſe, deliberate, conſult of.

Conſeillerie: f. A Counſellorſhip; the place, or office of a Counſellor, or Conſeillier.

Conſeillier: m. A Counſellor; one that giues his aduiſe, or deliuers his opinion, vpon a doubt propounded, buſineſſe diſcuſſed, or cauſe to be determined; hence, a priuie Counſellor vnto a Prince; a Senatour in a citie; and an Aſſiſtant in a Court of Iuſtice; alſo, (in Normand-French) an Aduocate, or Counſellor at Law.

Conſeillier de ſon oreille. Said of a priuie Counſellor, whoſe aduiſe his Prince euer likes well, and loues to heare often; one that frames his wordes to fit the well-knowne humour of his Prince; one that, in reſpect thereof, is very gracious with him, or hath his eare.

Conſemblable: com. Very like vnto, much reſembling, matching with.

Ses conſemblables. His fellowes, conſorts, complices, companions.

Conſentant: m. ante: f. Conſenting, or partaking, with; acceſſarie, or agreeing, vnto; approuing, or allowing, of.

Conſentant du cas. A conſenter, acceſſarie, partaker.

Conſentement: m. A conſent; an agreement, or accord, vnto; an approbation, or allowance, of.

Conſentir. To conſent; accord, or agree, vnto; iumpe, or concurre, with; approue, or allow, of.

Aſſez conſent qui ne dit mot: Prov. He conſents enough that ſayes nothing; (Many, who know not much more Latine, can ſay, Qui tacet conſentire videtur.)

Tel conſent qui ſe repent: Prov. Some yeelding (in haſt) repent (at leiſure;) or, ſome agreements proue agreeuances.

Conſequemment. Conſequently; ſucceſſiuely, by courſe, in order; thereafter.

Conſequence: f. A conſequence, conſequent, (neceſſarie) ſequele.

Vne matiere de conſequence. A matter of importance, moment, or weight.

Conſequent: m. ente: f. Conſequent, following, ſucceſſiue, ſucceeding, orderlie, well ranked, in conſequence, fitly hanging together.

Con-

Conſequentieux: m. euſe: f. Moſt important, full of conſequence.

Conſequutif: m. iue: f. Conſecutiue; or as Conſecutif.

Conſerte: f. A conference.

Conſerté: m. ée: f. Ordained, made, ſtirred, or ſet, vp.

Conſertion: f. A ioyning, coupling; interlacing, intermingling.

Conſervateur: m. A Conſeruator; Preſeruer, Maintainer; Defendor, Protector; Sauer, or Sauior.

Conſervateur Apoſtolique. The Popes Conſeruator in Vniuerſities; an Officer that both vpholds the priuiledges graunted, by the Church of Rome, thereto; and takes notice of all the Eccleſiaſticall controuerſies, and cauſes therein.

Conſervateur des foires de Lyons. A Magiſtrate, who hath iuriſdiction ouer all manner of debtors, for commodities taken vp at any of the ſaid Fayres.

Conſervateur Royal. The Kings Conſeruator in Vniuerſities; an Officer that both maintaines the priuiledges graunted by the Crowne vnto them; and is their Iudge of all cauſes, and controuerſies that be meerely ciuile, or lay. (In Paris the Prouoſt of the Citie alwaies holds this place.)

Conſervation: f. A conſeruation; keeping, maintaining; preſeruation; defence, protection.

Conſervatoire: f. Th' Office of a Conſeruator; his Court, or the roome wherein he vſeth to keepe it.

Conſervatrice: f. A Conſeruatrix; Preſeruereſſe; Protectrix, Defendereſſe.

Conſerve: f. Preſeruation, gard, ſafe cuſtodie, keeping; alſo, a Conſerue, as of Roſes, Violets, &c.

Conſerve de grain. A caue, pit, or hole vnder ground, to keepe corne in.

Navires de conſerve. Ships of a Fleet, or of one conſort.

Conſervé: m. ée: f. Conſerued; kept, garded, maintained, preſerued, ſaued; protected, defended, vpheld.

Conſerver. To conſerue; keepe, gard, maintaine, preſerue, ſaue; defend, protect, vphold.

Conſerve-ſanté. Holeſome, or health-preſeruing.

Conſiderable: com. Conſiderable; to be conſidered, aduiſed on, or thought of.

Conſideratif: m. One that does things with conſideration, and aduiſement.

Conſideration: f. Conſideration; aduiſement; alſo, diſcretion; circumſpection, heedfulneſſe, carefulneſſe; alſo, an examination, or diſcuſſion of.

Conſideré: m. ée: f. Conſidered, thought of, aduiſed on; examined, pondered, perpended, reuolued, weighed in the mind.

Conſideréement. Conſiderately, aduiſedly, diſcreetly, circumſpectly; with great conſideration, vpon a good, or a ſafe, ground.

Conſiderer. To conſider, aduiſe vpon, thinke of; examine; ponder, perpend, reuolue, or weigh in the mind.

Conſierge. See Concierge.

Conſignation: f. A conſignation; preſentation, exhibiting, deliuerie in hand, or into the hands of; alſo, the gaging, or laying downe of a ſtake, or pawne.

Conſignature: f. A conſignature; a full ſtamping, or abſolute ſignature of.

Conſigné: m. ée; f. Conſigned; preſented, exhibited, or deliuered in hand, or into the hands of; alſo, deliuered, or appointed ouer; alſo, deliuered, or layed downe, as a ſtake, pawne, or gage.

Conſigner. To conſigne; preſent, exhibite, or deliuer, in hand, or into the hands of; to deliuer, aſſigne, or appoint (abſolutely) ouer; to deliuer, gage, or lay downe, as a pledge, pawne, or ſtake.

Conſilles. Two conduits, or pipes in the throat.

Conſimilitude: f. Conſimilitude; likeneſſe, concurrence, equalitie, agreement together.

Conſin: m. A Mite, or Weeuell.

Conſire: f. The hearbe Comfrey, Conſound, Aſſeeare, Knitbacke, Backwort.

Conſire moyenne. Middle Conſound, middle Comfrey, browne Bugle; alſo, the Daiſie.

La grande conſire. Great Comfrey, &c; as Conſire.

Petite conſire. The little wild Daiſie, called otherwiſe, Bruiſewort; alſo, the hearbe Prunell, Carpenters hearbe, Selfeheale, Hookeheale, Sicklewort.

Conſiſtence: f. A conſiſtence, or being; a reſidence, or ſetling.

Conſiſter. To conſiſt, be; reſt, reſide, abide; to ſettle, ſtand ſtill, or at a ſtay.

Conſiſtoire: m. A Conſiſtorie; a Counſell houſe of, or Counſell held by, Prelats; a ſeſſion, ſitting, or aſſemblie of Eccleſiaſticall perſons.

Conſiſtorié: m. ée: f. Cenſured, or determined of, in Conſiſtorie.

Conſiſtorier. To cenſure, or determine of, in Conſiſtorie.

Conſolateur: m. A conſolator, ſolacer, comforter; alſo, a Corbell (in building;) or, as Conſole de baſtiment.

Conſolation: f. Conſolation, comfort, ſolace.

Conſolde: f. Comfrey, or Conſound, Wall-wort, Aſſeeare.

Conſole de baſtiment: f. A Corbell, or pendant of ſtone; a bracket, or cartridge, of timber.

Conſolé: m. ée: f. Conſolated, comforted, ſolaced.

Conſoler. To comfort, ſolace; cheriſh, or cheere vp.

Conſolidation: f. A conſolidation, a ſtrengthening, ſound-making; a cloſing, or ioyning vp, as of a wound.

Conſolidé: m. ée: f. Conſolidated, made ſound, healed, or cloſed vp.

Conſolider. To conſolidate, or make ſound; to heale, or cloſe vp, as a wound, or vlcer.

Conſommé: m. ée: f. Conſummated, accompliſhed, perfected, fulfilled, finiſhed; ſummed vp.

Conſommé en Grammaire. A perfect, or abſolute Grammarian.

Conſommé en bonnes lettres. A ſound (and generall) Scholler.

Conſommer. To conſummate, accompliſh, perfect, finiſh, fulfill; to make, or ſumme, vp.

Conſonance: f. Conſonance, accord, harmonie, concordance, agreement, good proportion.

Conſonant. Conſonant, accordant, harmonious, agreeing in ſound, conſorting with.

Conſone. A Conſonant.

Conſonet. To accord, conſort, agree, or ſound, alike.

Conſors: m. Conſorts, mates, fellowes, complices, partakers, companions; alſo, neighbours, whoſe lands lye together.

Conſorte: f. ma Con. My wife, yoake-mate, bedfellow.

Conſoulde: f. The hearbe Comfrey, Conſound, Aſſeeare, Knitbacke, Backwort.

Conſoulde moyenne. Middle Conſound, middle Comfrey, browne Bugle; alſo, the great white Daiſie.
Conſoulde royale. Larks beele, Larks ſpurre, Larks toe, Larks claw, Monks hood, Kings Conſound.
La grande Conſoulde. Comfrey Confound, great frey, &c, as Conſoulde.
La petite Conſoulde. The ordinarie little Daiſie, and Bruiſewort; or, as Petite Conſire.
Conſourde. as Conſoulde.
Conſpection: f. A conſpection, ſeeing, beholding.
Conſpiration: f. A conſpiracie.
Conſpiré: m. ée: f. Conſpired; contriued, or complotted; entred into a conſpiracie, with others.
Conſpirer. To conſpire; to enter into a conſpiracie; to ioyne, or agree, in a plot, or opinion, with others.
Conſtamment. Conſtantly, ſtedfaſtly, firmely, ſtably, vnremoueably, perſeueringly, euer alike, in one manner.
Conſtance: f. Conſtancie, ſtabilitie, ſtedfaſtneſſe, firmeneſſe, vnremoueableneſſe, perſeuerance, ſtrength of continuance.
Conſtant. Conſtant, ſtedfaſt, firme, ſtable; durable, ſure, ſetled, vnremoueable, perſeuering, euer the ſame.
Conſter. Il conſte. (as the Latin Impersonall Conſtat*) it is cleere, plaine, certaine, euident, manifeſt, apparant; generally agreed on, out of all doubt, without any manner of controuerſie.*
Conſtellation: f. A conſtellation, or aſſemblie of ſtarres together in one ſigne.
Conſternation: f. Conſternation, aſtoniſhment, diſmay; a great, or ſtupifying, feare.
Conſterné: m. ée: f. Aſtoniſhed, diſmayed, amazed, amated, deiected in courage, heart-fallen; afraid.
Conſterner. To aſtoniſh, diſmay, amaze, dull, deiect, amate; affray.
Conſtipé: m. ée: f. Conſtipated; coſtiue, or bound in bellie.
Conſtitu: m. An order, inſtitution, decree, ſentence, conſtitution, ordinance, act, ſtatute; a matter throughly enacted, or determined.
Conſtituant: m. He that appointeth to his place, or ſetteth in his roome, ſome other.
Conſtituant: m. ante: f. Conſtituting, making, creating; ordaining; appointing, aſſigning vnto; eſtabliſhing; ſetling, or confirming in.
Conſtitué: m. ée: f. Conſtituted, made, ordained, created; appointed vnto, eſtabliſhed, ſetled, confirmed, in; alſo, concluded.
Conſtitué priſonnier. Taken priſoner; alſo, arreſted, apprehended.
Conſtitué ſur vn'affaire. Imployed as a Committee, or Commiſſioner, in a matter.
Rente conſtituée. A rent vpon morgage; or, a rent thats raiſed vpon, or procured by, money.
Conſtituer. To conſtitute, make, ordaine, create; appoint, or aſſigne vnto; alſo, to ſettle, eſtabliſh; or, confirme, in.
Conſtituer vne Rente ſur. To raiſe a rent vpon; or, to charge with a Rent.
Conſtituëur: m. A conſtitutor, maker, ordainer, appointer, eſtabliſher, enactor.
Conſtitutif: m. iue: f. Conſtitutiue; making, ordaining, enacting, appointing.
Parties conſtitutives de l'homme. The parts whereof he conſiſts.
Conſtitution: f. A conſtitution, act, order, decree, determination, ordinance, appointment; alſo, the rayſing of a Rent; alſo, the conſtitution, temper, or complexion of the bodie.
Conſtruction: f. A conſtruction; compoſition, building, framing; alſo, a conſtruing, or expoſition of words.
Conſtruict: m. icte: f. Made, built, framed; alſo, conſtrued, or expounded.
Conſtruire. To build, make, frame, found; alſo, to conſtrue, or expound, words.
Conſtupration: f. A conſtupration, rauiſhing, deflouring, defiling of a woman.
Conſtuprer. To conſtuprate, rauiſh, defloure, defile a woman.
Conſubſtantial: m. ale: f. Conſubſtantiall; of the ſame ſubſtance, or ſtuffe whereof another is made.
Conſubſtantialité: f. Conſubſtantialitie; the being of the ſubſtance whereof another is made.
Conſuivre. See Conſuyvre.
Conſul: m. A Conſull. (The old Romanes choſe yearely two Conſuls, to gouerne their citie, and command their Armies: In Paris, Les Conſuls are fiue honeſt, and ſubſtantiall citizens, who determine all caſes of debt (not exceeding 500 l. Tour.) betweene Marchant, and Marchant; Their authoritie continues but a yeare, and the vtmoſt puniſhment they can inflict is but impriſonment: In moſt Cities of Aquitaine the chiefe Gouernors are tearmed Conſuls; the reſt of the good townes in France haue ſuch Conſuls as Paris, by the names of, Les Iuges, & Conſuls des Marchands.)
Conſulat: m. A Conſulſhip; the office, or place, of a Conſul.
Conſultatif: m. iue: f. Conſultatiue; conſulting.
Qui a voix conſultative. Who (in a Court, or Counſell) propounds his opinion, deliuers his aduice, or giues his voice, as an Aſſiſtant; but neither concludes, nor determines, as Iudge.
Conſultation: f. A conſultation; a ſolemne deliberating, or diſcuſſing of; a deliberation, aduiſement, or pawſing, on.
Conſulte. as Conſultation.
Conſulté. Conſulted, deliberated, pondered of.
Conſulter. To giue, or take, aduiſe; to conſult, or deliberate; ponder, or thinke of; reſt, or pauſe on, the matter.
Conſulteur: m. A conſultor; a counſellor; an aduiſer; a demaunder, or giuer, of aduiſe.
Conſumé: m. A Coulis.
Conſumé: m. ée: f. Conſumed, waſted, ſpent out, worne away, brought vnto nothing.
Conſumer. To waſt, conſume, ſpend out, weare away, deſtroy, bring vnto nothing.
Conſumption: f. A conſumption; deſtruction; conſuming, waſting, wearing out; pining away.
Conſuyvre. To ouertake, reach, attaine vnto; alſo, to get, obtaine, atchieue.
Conſyre: f. See Conſire.
Contablerie: f. A Conſtableſhip; the office of a Conſtable; or, place wherein his office is kept.
Contact: m. A mutuall touching, or carnall feeling, one of another.
Contadin: m. A countreyman, hind, ſwaine, clowne, boore, husbandman.
Contagieux. Contagious, infecting, peſtilent.
Contagion: f. Contagion, infection, peſtilent ſickneſſe.
Contaminé: m. ée: f. Defiled, polluted, contaminated; ſtained, violated.
Contaminer. To defile, pollute, contaminate; to ſtaine, diſtaine, violate.
Contant. Telling, declaring, deliuering, reporting; alſo, counting, numbering, reckoning.
Argent contant. Sheere money, readie coyne.
Argent contant porte medecine. Looke Argent.

Vous vous abuſez contant. You abuſe your ſelfe openly, plainly, extreamely.
Vous avez perdu tout contant. You haue flatly, vtterly, abſolutely, loſt.
Conte: m. An Earle. See Comte.
Conté: f. An Earledome. See Comté.
Conte: m. A ſtorie, relation, hiſtorie; tale, fib, fable. See Compte.
Contes de la Cigogne. Fooliſh, idle, vaine, fantaſticall, ſtories; tales of a tub, or of a roſted horſe.
Contes de la quenouille. Old wiues tales.
Fin de conte. To be briefe, to conclude, to come to an end; or, in the end of his tale.
Ils en font leurs contes. It is their common table talke; tis growne to be a publicke, or ordinarie ieaſt among them.
Vn conte attire l'autre: Prov. One tale drawes on another.
De ſot homme on n' en peut faire vn bon conte: Prov. A ſots whole life affoords not one good tale.
Conte: m. An account. See Compte.
Ie ſçay le conte de mon argent. I know how much money I haue.
Contemné: m. éc: f. Contemned, deſpiſed, ſcorned, neglected, ſet at naught.
Contemnement: m. A contemning, deſpiſing, ſcorning, neglecting, ſetting at naught.
Contemner. To contemne, ſcorne, deſpiſe, neglect, make light of, ſet at nought.
Contemneur. A contemner, deſpiſer, ſcorner; a diſdainefull perſon; one that ſnuffes at euery thing, and likes nothing, or one that neglects, or diſeſteemes, another.
Contemperé: m. ée: f. Seaſoned, mingled, tempered together.
Contemperer. To temper, ſeaſon, qualifie, mingle one thing with another.
Contemplateur. A contemplator, great thinker, ſerious beholder of matters.
Contemplatif: m. iüe: f. Contemplatiue, muſing, thinking much, mind-beholding, meditating.
Contemplatifs: m. Certain Friers (of S. Marie Maudlins Order) who feed on all ſorts of fleſh, and weare blacke vpper habits, and white vnder ones.
Contemplation: f. Contemplation, deepe conſideration, inward beholding of, profound muſing on, a matter.
Contemplé: m. ée: f. Contemplated, deeply conſidered, or muſed on.
Contemplement: m. A contemplating, deepe conſidering, profound muſing; ſerious beholding of.
Contempler. To contemplate, muſe, or meditate vpon; to behold ſeriouſly, to view with great earneſtneſſe, or affection.
Contempleur. as Contemplateur.
Contemporain: m. aine: f. Of a like time, equall age, one ſtanding; that liues in the ſame time.
Contempt: m. Contempt, ſcorne, deſpight, neglect.
Contemptible: com. Contemptible, abiect, baſe; fit to be ſcorned, neglected, diſdained, ſlightly regarded.
Contenance: f. The countenance, looke, cheere, viſage, fauor; geſture, poſture, behauior, carriage; preſence, or compoſition of the whole bodie; alſo, the fanne, or little skreene, which women hold before their faces, to preſerue them from the ſcorching heat of a great fire; alſo, the ſmall looking glaſſe which ſome Ladies haue vſually hanging at their girdles; alſo, one of their Snuffkins, or Muffes; (called ſo in times paſt when they vſed to play with it for feare of being out of countenance.)
Contenancé: m. ée: f. Countenanced, fauoured, graced.
Maintien contenancé. Graceſull audacitie, comelie boldneſſe; a conſtant, and pleaſing ſet, or garbe of the countenance.
Contenancer. To countenance, fauor, grace, maintaine, giue countenance vnto; alſo, to frame, or ſet the face handſomely; to giue it a graceſull and conſtant garbe.
Contendre. To ſtriue, contend, brable, debate, wrangle, iarre, be at oddes, or variance, with.
Contenir. To containe, hold, or comprehend; alſo, to bridle, reſtraine, moderate; keepe in.
Se contenir. To reſraine, forbeare, withhold from.
Content. Content, ſatisfied, pleaſed with what he hath; alſo, indifferent, which takes all things well.
Coeur content & manteau ſur l'eſpaule: Prov. In an honeſt eſtate, how meane ſoeuer, there is great contentment to be found. See Coeur.
Contenté: m. ée: f. Contented, ſatisfied, ſatiated, fully pleaſed, throughly appeaſed.
Contentement: m. Satisfaction, contentment, full pleaſure, or delight in; alſo, indifferencie.
Faire contentement. To doe one reaſon, or giue him ſatisfaction.
Contenter. To content, ſatisfie, ſatiate, fulfill the mind, or appetite; alſo, to pleaſe; quiet, pacifie.
Se Contenter. To liue at reſt, be in peace, reſt at eaſe; to quiet, pleaſe, content himſelfe with.
Aſſez a qui ſe contente: Prov. We ſay, a contented mind is a great treaſure; or, is worth all.
Contentieuſement. Contentiouſly, litigiouſly, debatefully, with much wrangling.
Contentieux: m. euſe: f. Contentious, debatefull, wrangling, litigious, full of controuerſie.
Contention: f. Contention, ſtriſe, debate, variance, controuerſie, quarrelling; brawling, iarring, brabling.
Contentor. Droict de Regiſtre, ou de con. is xl. s. Tour. vpon euery Charter; The fee of the Audienciers of Chaunceries.
Contenu: m. uë: f. Contained, comprehended; held in.
Contenuë: f. Capacitie; or, a containing.
Conter. To tell, ſay, ſpeake, report, deliuer, declare, expreſſe, relate, reckon vp.
Tu m'en veux conter. Thou art diſpoſed to talke.
Tu nous en contes bien. Tis a wiſe tale you tell vs; or, ſuch a tale piſt a gooſe.
Vn homme qui conte vingt & onze. A coxcombe, noddypeake, ſunnyhammer.
Contereau. as Comptereau. A bill of reckoning, &c.
Conterolle: m. as Contreroolle.
Conteſſe: f. A Counteſſe; the wife of an Earle.
Conteſtablement. By way of proteſtation.
Conteſtation: f. A conteſtation; a proteſtation, taking, or calling to witneſſe; alſo, a conteſting, ſtriuing, debating, reaſoning, brabling about a matter; alſo, a conteſtation againſt; a gainſaying, denying, or waging, of Law.
Conteſtation de cauſe. An opening, before a Iudge, the points contained in the Bill and Anſwer.
Conteſtation en cauſe. A Rule giuen by the Iudge vpon the ſaid opening; or the waging of Law by the defendant, hauing made a default, or being put from his other helpes.
Conteſtation feinte, is but a flouriſh or ſhew of conteſtation, by reaſon, or vertue, of defaults.

Conteſtation vraye. A reſolute, or peremptorie conteſtation made by both parties.

Conteſté: m. ée: f. Conteſted; proteſted; called, or taken to witneſſe; alſo, debated, reaſoned, argued, brabled about; alſo, denied, gainſayed, conteſted againſt.

Conteſter. To conteſt; call, or take to witneſſe, make an earneſt proteſtation, or complaint vnto; alſo, to brable, argue, debate a matter with; alſo, to denie, gainſay, conteſt againſt.

Conteſter la cauſe. To open before a Iudge the chiefe points of the bill and anſwer.

Conteur: m. An idle talker, vaine ſpeaker, ordinarie teller of old wiues tales; alſo, as Compteur; alſo, a Counſellor, or Atturney intertained for the pleading, or opening of a cauſe in Court.

A fol conteur ſage eſcouteur: Prov. A fooliſh talker had need to find a wiſe hearer; or, let him talke neuer ſo fooliſhly, they are wiſe enough that heare him.

Contexte: m. A context; a whole web, compoſition, worke; or, an interlacing, ioyning, or weauing together; alſo, the forme, or ſtile of a Proces, Booke, or Diſcourſe.

Par vn contexte. Altogether; with one tenour, in one manner; without any interruption, or intermiſſion.

Contigu: m. uë: f. Neere adioyning, faſt by, cloſe together, touching one another.

Contigué: m. ée: f. Ioyned; layed neere, or cloſe vnto.

Contin. Mon contin. My countreyman.

Continemment. Continently, ſoberly, chaſtly; ſparingly; with much temper, and moderation; abſtemiouſly.

Continence: f. Continencie, ſobrietie, forbearance of, abſtinence from, pleaſure.

Continent. Continent; ſober, moderate; abſtinent, abſtemious, delights-forbearing.

Continu: m. uë: f. Continuall, perpetuall, day by day, without intermiſſion, or interruption; intire, whole.

Continu à faire quelque choſe. Diligent, laborious, euer at it, perſeuering in it.

Fiévre continuë. A continuall feuer, whoſe fit neuer ceaſeth till the diſeaſe, or diſeaſed, end.

Continuätion: f. A continuation, or holding on without any ſtop, or intermiſſion; a perſeuerance.

Continuë: f. as Continuätion.

A la continuë l'eau cave la pierre: Prov. At length, or in continuance of time, the water pierceth ſtone.

Continué: m. ée: f. Continued, held on; perſeuered in; prolonged, drawne out in length, perpetuated.

Continuël: m. ëlle: f. Continuall, perpetuall, vnſtinted, without intermiſſion, daylie, that euer dureth.

Continuëllement. Continually, inceſſantly, without ſtop, or ſtint; perpetually, euerlaſtingly, for euer.

Continuër. To continue, laſt, hold out; proceed, perſeuer, hold on; to perpetuate, prolong, draw out in length.

Continuïté. Continuation; a wholeneſſe; an intireneſſe, or intire coniunction.

Solution de continuïté. The diuiſion of a whole part, or thing.

Contoir: m. A Cloſet, or Counting-houſe.

Contorſion: f. A contorſion; a wrything, wreſting, drawing, or pulling awry.

Contorſion de maſchoire. A diſeaſe whereby the lower iaw is drawne altogether awry.

Contour: m. le contour d'une ville. The compaſſe, or whole round of territorie, or ground, lying next vnto, and about, a towne.

Contourements fievreux. The turnings, toſſings, and other vnquiet ſtirrings of thoſe that haue an ague.

Contournable: com. Plyable; which may be turned any way.

Contournant. Turning, wheeling, winding about.

Contournant la teſte comme vn Singe qui avalle pillules. Wheeling his head like a Mare ouer thiſtles.

Contourné: m. ée: f. Turned round, wheeled, or compaſſed about.

Contournement: m. A nimble turning, or winding.

Contourner. To round, turne round, wheele, compaſſe about.

Contract: m. A contract, bargaine, agreement; a coaping; treatie; couenant.

Contractation: f. A bargaining, contracting, couenanting with.

Contracte: m. as Contract.

Contracté: m. ée: f. Contracted, bargained, agreed; coaped, or couenanted with.

Contracter. To contract, bargain, agree; to coape, chaffer, couenant with.

Contraction de nerfs: f. The Crampe; a conuulſion, or ſhrinking of the ſinewes.

Contracture: f. A contraction, ſtraitening, gathering, or drawing vp narrower and narrower; a making ſmaller in one place then in another.

Contradiction: f. A contradiction, gainſaying, thwarting; a croſſe word, or ſpeech.

Contrahant: m. ante: f. Contracting, or making a contract.

Contraignable: com. Conſtrainable, compellable.

Contraigneur. A forcer, compeller, conſtrainer.

Contrainct: m. cte: f. Conſtrained, compelled, forced, thruſt, or put, on againſt his will.

Le branſle contrainct. The ſhaking of the ſheets.

Contrainćte: f. Conſtraint, violence, compulſion.

A toute contrainćte. Moſt ſtrictly, in all extremitie.

Sans contrainćte. Freely, willingly, of his owne accord.

Contrainctement. Forcibly, violently, by compulſion, by conſtraint.

Contraindre. To conſtraine, compell, force, thruſt forward, or againſt his will.

Contraire: com. Contrarie, aduerſe; againſt, much diſagreeing; alſo, directly oueragainſt.

Au contraire. Contrariwiſe, on the other ſide, or part, much otherwiſe; alſo, oueragainſt.

Contrarié: m. ée: f. Contraried, croſſed, impugned, thwarted, reſiſted, withſtood, or ſtrouen againſt.

Contrarier à. To contrarie, croſſe, thwart, impugne; reſiſt, withſtand, ſtriue, or be againſt.

Contrarieté: f. Contrarietie; extreame difference, maine oppoſition, mightie diſagreemrnt.

Contraſte: m. Withſtanding, ſtrife, contention, difference, repugnance.

Contraſté: m. ée: f. Withſtood, ſtriuen, contended againſt.

Contraſter. To ſtriue, withſtand, contend againſt.

Contravention. as Contrevention.

Contre. (Subſtantiuely, as) faire le contre. To ſecond, aſſiſt, helpe forward; and (in Muſicke) to beare the burden; or ſing the Plaineſong whereon another deſcants. Looke Faire.

Con-

Contre. Against, contrarie to; much oppugnant, opposite, or in opposition, vnto; also, ouer-against, on the other side; also, towards; as, Contre disner; contre la nuict; and sometimes in composition; as in Contrebas, Contremont, &c.

Il estoit tout contre. He was very neere, or hard by; also, he was right ouer against, them.

Halener contre. To blow vpon.

Contr-'adveu: m. An Answer, or Opposition to a Bill of Complaint for possession of moueables.

Contreadveu. See Contr-'adveu.

Contre-advoué: m. ée: f. Owned, or claymed by seuerall parts, one saying tis his, another that tis his.

Contr'amour: m. A holie, and honest loue; opposite vnto the lasciuious, & dissolute passion, which is commonly tearmed loue.

Contr'animé: m. ée: f. Animated, or incouraged, against.

Contr'antidote: m. A remedie, or poison against a preseruatiue; a counterantidote.

Contr'applegement. An Answer, or Opposition, to a Bill of Complaint for the possession of an immoueable.

Contrebalance: f. A counterbalance, or counterpeise.

Contrebalancé: m. ée: f. Counterbalanced, counterpeised.

Contrebalancer. To counterbalance, or counterpeise; to weigh against; or to esteeme by; to make of equall weight with.

Contrebande. Marchandise de contrebande. Marchandise that is forbidden (by Proclamation, &c.)

Contrebarre: f. A counterbarre; the long (outward) barre, wherewith some (two-leaued) doores and windowes, and the most shop-windowes, are shut in.

Contrebarré: m. ée: f. Counterbarred; barred, or shut in, on the outside; also (in Blason) counterbarrie.

Contre-bas. Downeward.

Contre-base: f. A counterbase; the lowest part of a Basis; or the part, or peece, whereon it stands.

Contre-basse: f. The Base part in Musicke.

Contrebondi. Rebounded, leaped backe or against.

Contrebondir. To rebound; leape backe, or against.

Contreboutant. as Contrefort.

Contrebouté: m. ée: f. Vnderpropped, borne vp, or borne against.

Contrebouter. To vnderprop, support, beare vp, or, beare against.

Contrecarre: f. A counterstrength, opposition, resistance, defence; (also, a reasoning, or arguing) against; also, comparison, or equalitie.

Contrecarré: m. ée: f. Set, or opposed against; also, compared, equalled, or layed in ballance with.

Contrecarrer. To resist, withstand, contrarie, set, or oppose himselfe against; also, to paragon, equall, compare, set in euen ballance with.

Contrecedule: f. The counterpane of a Scedule.

Contrechange: m. A counterchange; mutuall changing, or crosse exchange.

Contrechangé: m. ée: f. Counterchanged, exchanged acrosse.

Contrechanger. To counterchange, or exchange acrosse one thing for another.

Contrechanter. To record in singing; to answer in the same note, or tune.

Contrecharger. To countercharge; to interchange burthens, or accusations.

Contrechifre: m. A countercypher; a note explanatorie of particular cyphers; or, as, Le Chifre d'un Prince.

Contrechifrer. To answere cyphers with cyphers; also, to expound cyphers; also, to requite priuat affection in a priuat fashion.

Contrecoeur. as Contrecueur.

Contrecourbé: m, ée: f. Bent fromward, or one from the other.

Contrecourber. To bend one from another, as wrestlers doe their backes.

Contrecueur: m. Loathing, irkesomenesse; also, the backe of a chimney.

Cela me vient à contrecueur. That goes against my stomacke; my thoughts loath, mind hates, heart abhorres, it.

Contredict: m. A contradiction, gainesaying; refutation, confutation; a crosse answer; a replication; a prouing of the contrarie.

Contredict: m. icte: f. Contradicted, gainesayed; thwarted, contraried in words; refelled, refuted, confuted.

Contredigué: m. ée: f. Fenced, or fortified with bankes and ditches against bankes and ditches.

Contrediguer. To fence, or fortifie with banks and ditches; or, to oppose, or set vp, banks against banks.

Contredire. To contradict, gainesay, thwart, crosse, contrarie in words; also, to refell, conuince, confute.

Contredisant: m. ante: f. Crossing, contradicting, thwarting, gainsaying; quarrelsome, contentious, contrarie, crosse.

Contredise: f. as Contredite.

Contredite: f. A contradiction, or crosse speech.

Contrée: f. A Countrey, Land, Region, Part, Coast, Quarter.

Contr'effort: m. A counter effort; or effort vsed against force; a withstanding, striuing, resistance, indeuour against a strong, and stirring, aduersarie.

Contr'elider. To counterhit, counterstrike, counterdash, countersquize; to breake a stroke, or dash, &c, with a stroake, or dash &c.

Contr'escarpe: f. A counterscarse, or countermure in a fortified towne.

Contr'eschangé: m. ée: f. Counterchanged.

Contr'eschanger. as Contrechanger.

Contr'escript: m. A reply vnto a former writing; a writing repugnant; a confutation, or treatise written against; also, a copie.

Contr'escript: m. ipte: f. Confuted, written against; also, copied, written out.

Contr'escrire. To confute, or write against; also, to copie, or write out.

Contr'-essay: m. A second essay, a further triall of.

Contr'estang: m. A Poole-damme; a backe-poole, or counter-pond; a great ditch, or hollow ground, whereinto the water of a Pond, thats to be fished, is let.

Contr'ester. To withstand, resist, contend with; to repugne.

Contrefaict: m. icte: f. Counterfeit, adulterate, [illegible]ed, forged, false; also, deformed, disfigured, mishapen, ill fauoured; crooked, hulchbacked; or (as we say) a changeling.

Contrefaire. To counterfeit, imitate, resemble, faine.

Contrefaire le loup en paille. See Loup.

Se contrefaire. To dissemble, or disguise himselfe, to seeme other then he is.

Contre-fenestre: f. A woodden window (on the outside of a glasen one) a counter window, or outward window.

Contrefente: f. The bruiſe, or craze of a bone in another, or oppoſite, part to the place where the blow (that cauſed it) was giuen; this happens, eſpecially, in the skull.

Contreferme. A counter-affirmation, or coũter-auouchment; an affirmation of that whereof another affirmes the contrarie.

Contrefermé: m. ée: f. Counter-affirmed, counter-auouched; the contrarie whereof is affirmed, or auouched.

Contrefermer. To oppoſe an affirmation vnto an affirmation; to affirme the contrarie of that which another hath affirmed; a Law-tearme.

Contrefeu: m. An yron backe, or Plate for the backe, of a chimney.

Contre-fil. à contre-fil. Contrariwiſe, cleane kamme, or againſt the haire.

Contrefineſſe: f. Counter-cunning, deceiuing of the deceiuer; the meeting with as craftie a knaue as himſelfe.

Contreflaté: m. ée: f. Whoſe flatterie is requited, or anſwered with flatterie.

Contreflater. To returne one faire word, or flatterie for another; to flatter as faſt as another.

Contreflux: m. An ebbe, or ebbing; the fall, or going out, of a Tide; or a checke, or ſtop, vnto a Tide.

Contrefort. (in Architecture) a Buttreſſe, prop, or ſhore-poſt; an vp-bearing arch, or pillar.

Contrefortuner. To arme againſt the iniuries of fortune; to make ſhift for one (howſoeuer the world goe.)

Contrefrontail: m. The brow-peece, or vpmoſt poſt, of a dore; a haunſe, or breaſt ſummer.

Contregage: m. A counter-gage, or counter-pawne; (Que aucuns ſeigneurs ont pretendu, pour pouvoir de leur auctorité faire prinſes, quand on leur avoit fait tort. ¶Ragueau.)

Contre-garde: m. An vnder Warden, or counter-warden.

Contre-garde des monnoyes. An Officer of the Mint; who takes notice, and keepes a reckoning, of the mettall that is deliuered in to be coyned; and afterward ouerſees the working thereof, together with the Warden, whoſe place he executes, (as the other his) in abſence.

Contregardé: m. ée: f. Kept, ſaued, preſerued, made much of, looked well vnto.

Contregarder. To keepe, ſaue, preſerue, conſerue, looke well to, make much of.

Se contregarder. To reſerue, ſpare, or forbeare himſelfe; to take his eaſe.

Contrehaſtier: m. A Racke, to turne ſpits on.

Contrehaulte: f. as Haultecontre.

Contr-'imiter. To reſemble, imitate, counterfeit; or to imitate one that imitates him.

Contr-'invective: f. A counter-inuective; an anſwer to an inuective.

Contrejoüeur: m. A counter-player; an aduerſarie, or opponent, in play.

Contre-lettre: f. A counter-letter, or counter-maund; a retractation of a letter by letter; and particularly, a priuat releaſe, or acquittance, in diſcharge of a Bond paſſed; or a priuat diſcharge of a dutie, or ſeruice acknowledged, before a publicke Notarie.

Contre-lettre ſecrette. Notice giuen in writing from a buyer vnto a ſeller, of a priuat agreement made between them, contrarie to the tenor of the deed they haue paſſed before a Notarie; or, a priuat agreement made betweeee two that are contracted, without the knowledge, or conſent of their kindred that were preſent at the contract.

Contrelouër. To returne praiſe with praiſe, or a good word for a good word; to commend one that hath commended him before; to ſcratch the backe of one who hath alreadie clawed his elbow.

Contrelutté: m. ée: f. Wraſtled, ſtriuen, contended againſt.

Contrelutter. To wraſtle, ſtriue, contend againſt.

Contre-maiſtre: m. The Maiſters mate in a ſhip.

Contremanche: f. A falſe ſleeue, halfe ſleeue, or, drawer ouer a ſleeue.

Contremand: m. A countermaund; a reuocation, or contradiction of a former commaund.

Contremandé: m. ée: f. Countermaunded; contradicted.

Contremandement: m. A countermaund, or countermaunding.

Contremander. To countermaund; to recall, or contradict, a former commaund.

Contremarque: f. A countermarke.

Contremejane. The ſecond mizen, or after-mizen, of a ſhip.

Contrementir. To ſet one ly againſt another.

Contremettre. To oppoſe; obiect, lay, ſet, or wage againſt.

Contremine: f. A countermine; a mine digged, by defendants, within a fortreſſe, to meet with another made by the enemie, without it.

Contremineé: m. ée: f. Countermined.

Contreminer. To countermine.

Contremont. Vpward; alſo, vp; as,

Contremont l'eau. Vp the water, directly againſt the ſtreame.

Contremonté: m. ée: f. Mounted, or got vp againſt.

Contremonter. To mount, or goe vp againſt.

Contremunir. To fortifie inner, or binder parts, thereby to ſuſtaine the outward, or forward, ones; alſo, to repaire ſuddainely ſuddaine ruines; as in a ſiege.

Contreoffrir. To change his offer; to offer otherwiſe then before; or, to make an offer contrarie to that he made before.

Contreouvrier: m. One that works againſt another.

Contrepan: m. A pledge, gage, or pawne, eſpecially of an immoueable; (It is commonly the eight pennie of the worth of land, as it is rented) or as Hypotheque.

Contrepané: m. ée: f. Pledged, pawned, engaged.

Contrepaner. To pledge, pawne, engage an immoueable; alſo, as Compenſer.

Contrepant. A gage; or counterpane; or as Contrepan.

Contrepenſé: m. ée: f. Diſliked, or diſtruſted after liking, or truſt; thought otherwiſe of then before.

Contrepenſer. To thinke otherwiſe then he hath done; to diſlike a thing which he hath affected, or diſtruſt thoſe whom he hath relyed on.

Contrepenſeur: m. A counterthinker; one that thinks otherwiſe then, or contrarie to, that he hath done; one that changes, or doubts of, the conceit, or aſſurance hee hath had of a thing.

Contrepeſant. Counterpeiſing; counteruailing.

Contrepeſé. Counterpeiſed.

Contrepeſer. To counterpeiſe; counteruaile, weigh in equall ballance.

Mal poiſe qui ne contrepoiſe: Prov. He peiſeth ill that counterpeiſeth not; he vſes not good lucke aright that thinkes not of, or prouides not for, ill lucke.

Contrepeter. To anſwer one cracke with another; alſo, to counterfeit, or play the counterfeit.

Con-

Contrepicqué: m. ée: f. Cou
ked, counternipped.

Contrepicquer. To returne gi for a nip; or, one pricke for an

Contre-pied. That which we c whence;

Tenir contrepied à. To ſet, another mans, thereby to ſtop h ther; to croſſe, or impeach all enterpriſes of another.

Contrepleige: m. A Counterſu to ſaue a ſuretie harmeleſſe.

Contrepleigement: m. A co
ritie giuen to a ſuertie.

Contrepleiger. To ſaue a ſure terband, &c; To giue him a ſecuritie.

Contreplié: m. ée: f. Bent, bow made ſtraight thereby.

Contreplier. To bend, bow, or f
ſet ſtraight by ſuch a bending, e

Contrepoids. as Contrepois.

Contrepoil. à contrepoil.
wrong way, cleane contrarie, q ça que ie t'eſpluche à cont
cher.

Contrepoinct: m. The backe ſ alſo, a quilt, counterpoint, (qui croſſing, difference, oppoſition;
ſong (in Muſicke.)

A contrepoinct; ou à cont
ting, with quilt ſtitch, or in a qui ward and forward, interchang then another; alſo, croſſely, th trarie-waies.

Contrepoincte: f. as Contrep

Contrepointé: m. ée: f. Qui backe ſtitch; alſo, interchange forward; croſſed, ſtood againſt, c with.

I'ay la peau toute contrepoi skinne-coat hath receiued as m hath ſtitches.

Contrepoincter. To quilt, to w
worke with the backe ſtitch; al backeward and forward; alſo, t vnto, ſtand oppoſite againſt, bee

Contrepointier: m. A Quilte

Contrepoint; & Contrepo poincte; & Contrepoincter.

Contrepointerie: f. The ſhop o
terpoint-maker.

Contrepois: m. Counterpois, ground, or plaine-ſong, in Muſic

Bailler contrepois. To counte
euen or equall weight.

Marcher à contrepois. To w and leuell; to proportion, or mea

Contrepoiſon: m. A counterpoi or preſeruatiue againſt poiſon.

Contreporteur: m. as Biſoüar
he carries his packe, or burthen

Contrepotencé: m. ée: f. Count
Blaſon.)

Contrequarre. as Contrecarre

Contrequerant: m. A riuall, c

Contrequicténce: f. A counter-

Contrerepliqué: m. ée: f. Repli

Contrepicqué : m. ée : f. Countergirded, counterpricked, counternipped.

Contrepicquer. To returne gird for gird ; to giue a nip for a nip ; or, one pricke for another.

Contre-pied. That which we call Counter in hunting; whence ;

Tenir contrepied à. To set, or hold his foot against another mans, thereby to stop him from going any further ; to crosse, or impeach all he may the designes, or enterprises of another.

Contrepleige : m. A Countersuretie ; one thats bound to saue a suretie harmelesse.

Contrepleigement : m. A counterband ; or, the securitie giuen to a suertie.

Contrepleiger. To saue a suretie harmelesse by counterband, &c ; To giue him a countersuretie, or other securitie.

Contreplié : m. ée : f. Bent, bowed, or foulded backe ; made straight thereby.

Contreplier. To bend, bow, or fould backe ; to make, or set straight by such a bending, &c.

Contrepoids. as Contrepois.

Contrepoil. à contrepoil. Against the wooll, the wrong way, cleane contrarie, quite kamme.

ça que ie t'espluche à contrepoil. Seeke Esplucher.

Contrepoinct : m. The backe stitch, or quilting stitch; also, a quilt, counterpoint, (quilted) couering ; also, a crossing, difference, opposition ; also, a ground, or plain-song (in Musicke.)

A contrepoinct ; ou à contrepoincts. By a quilting, with quilt stitch, or in a quilted fashion; also, backward and forward, interchangeably ; now one way then another ; also, crossely, thwartly, oppositely, contrarie-waies.

Contrepoincte : f. as Contrepoinct.

Contrepoincté : m. ée : f. Quilted, wrought with the backe stitch ; also, interchanged, set backeward and forward; crossed, stood against, opposed, or in opposition with.

I'ay la peau toute contrepoinctée de coups. My skinne-coat hath receiued as many knockes as a quilt hath stitches.

Contrepoincter. To quilt, to worke the backe stitch, or worke with the backe stitch; also, to interchange, or set backeward and forward ; also, to crosse, thwart, oppose vnto, stand opposite against, bee in opposition with.

Contrepoinctier : m. A Quilter, or quilt-maker.

Contrepoint ; & Contrepointer ; as Contrepoincte; & Contrepoincter.

Contrepointerie : f. The shop of a Quilter, or Counterpoint-maker.

Contrepois : m. Counterpois, equall weight ; also, a ground, or plaine-song, in Musicke.

Bailler contrepois. To counterpoise, balast, make of euen or equall weight.

Marcher à contrepois. To walke formally, or by line and leuell ; to proportion, or measure out his steps.

Contrepoison : m. A counterpoison, antidote, medicine, or preseruatiue against poison.

Contreporteur : m. as Bisoüart (So tearmed, because he carries his packe, or burthen before him.)

Contrepotencé : m. ée : f. Counterpotencie (a tearme of Blason.)

Contrequarre. as Contrecarre.

Contrequerant : m. A riuall, competitor, concurrent.

Contrequitance : f. A counter-acquittance.

Contrerepliqué : m. ée : f. Replied againe, or against.

Contrerepliquer. To replie againe, or against.

Contrerolle : m. A controlement, or contrarolement; the copie of a roll (of accounts &c;) a Paralell of the same qualitie and content, with th'originall; also, a controlling, or ouerseeing ; and, th'Office of a Controller, or ouerseer ; also, a Controller, or ouerseer.

Contrerollé : m. ée : f. Controlled, ouerseene, obserued ; also, the copie whereof is taken, and kept.

Contreroller. To controll ; obserue, ouersee, spie faults in ; also, to take, and keepe a copie of a roll of accounts ; to play the controller any way.

Contrerolleur : m. A Controller ; obseruer, ouerseer ; properly, an Officer, that takes notes, or keepes a roll, of another Officers accounts, thereby to discouer him if he do amisse.

Contrerolleurs des Aides. Controllers of th' Aides, looke that the Esleus, Assessors, Collectors, and Receiuors of Subsidies doe their dueties ; of all the particulers whereof they must euerie yeare send a roll into the Chamber of Accounts.

Contrerolleur de l'Audience de France. The Controller of the Chancerie attendant on the kings person; vnto whom les, Contrerolleurs des Chanceleries (whereof there is in euerie Court of Chauncerie one) send halfe-yearely a particular account of the reuenue of the Seale receiued in their seuerall places.

Contrerolleurs du Domaine. Controllers of the Kings Demaine ; one established in euerie seat of ordinarie Receit for the Demaine ; who is to assist at the said Receit ; at the making of leases of farmes ; and at the sales of wood, wine, corne, hay, fish, &c, got in the Kings lands ; and is to take notice of all escheats, dueties, and rights of Seigneurie, due, or occurring thereby; and keepes a reckoning of all works, reparations, almes, costs of suit, and other charges, defrayed by th'ordinarie Receiuors : Of all which he makes a roll, and sends it vnto the Treasurers generall, who thereby keepe in awe the said Receiuors.

Contrerolleur general de l'Artillerie. The Controller generall of th'Ordnance ; next in place, and degree vnto the Lieutenant : he keepes a Register of all munition that comes into, or goes out of, the store ; and Inuentories (deliuered vnto him by the Warden generall) of all that remaines in particular Fortresses, &c ; and certifies them, with his controlement of them, euerie yeare, into th'Exchequer.

Contrerolleur general du Domaine. One established in euerie generalitie by Henry the third in the yeare 1581, and suppressed again by himselfe in the yere 1584.

Contrerolleurs generaux des finances. One in euerie generall Receit, who lookes that the kings money be payed ouer by the particular Receiuors (or farmers) vnto the generall one ; to which end they are to bring vnto him the others acquitances, which if they omit, or slacke, he informes the Treasurers generall who the fault is in. The money being paied, he keepes one key of the chest wherein tis layed, and the Receiuor generall (in whose house it stands) another ; this vntill, amounting vnto a round summe, they both together see it conueyed vnto th'Exchequer. Of all which, as also of euery sort of coyne so conueyed, and of the charge of leuying, and conueying it, he is to send a roll, or Inuentorie into the Chamber of Account.

Contrerolleur general des guerres. Tearmed also, Secretaire, & Con. general des guerres. The Controller generall of the warres ; Looke Secretaire.

Con-

Contrerolleurs des Mines. Controllers of the mines; euery one whereof is bound to send, from yere to yere, one Roll, or controlement (containing the proportion of siluer, which hath beene deliuered by the Master of the mines vnto the masters of the mint, or otherwise drawn from, and fined within, the said Mines that yeare) vnto the Receiuers, or Treasurers within whose charge the Mines are; and another vnto the chiefe Maister of the Mint.

Contrerolleurs provinciaux, ou ordinaires, des guerres. Prouinciall, ordinarie, or inferior Controllers of the warres; must, in the seuerall Prouinces assigned vnto them, be present at all Musters, and fifteene dayes after euerie one, send vnto the Controller generall a summarie thereof, containing, the iust number of the men that were mustered, and an account of the moneys paid, or laid out thereat.

Conteroolle: & Contreroolleur; as Contrerolle, &c.

Contrerufe: f. A counter-sleight; a wile for a wile; one tricke in lieu of another.

Contre-sanglot: m. A Tab; the leather whereto a girth is fastened; a girth-leather.

Contrescarpe. A counterscarse, or countermure.

Contrescedule: m. The counterpane of a Schedule.

Contreschange: m. A counterchange, interchange, crosse exchange.

Contrechangé: m. ée: f. Counterchanged.

Contreseel: m. A (little) seale put vnto a labell, &c, whereby diuers writings alreadie sealed are ioyned, or closed together; a counter-seale.

Contreseeller. To seale the labell, &c, whereby sealed writings are ioyned, or fastened together.

Contresigné: m. ée: f. Subsigned; signed after, or vnder, the signature of another.

Contresigner. To subsigne; to signe a letter, &c, or put his name, or set his marke vnto it, after, or vnder, another; (so doe the French Secretaries of State set their names vnto letters Patents, vnder the Kings.)

Contresing: m. A subsignature; a hand, name, or marke, set to a letter, &c, vnder another; a subscription made lower than th'other.

Contresommer. To reuoke, or countermaund, a Summons, or Citation.

Contresonné: m. ée: f. The contrarie whereof is sounded.

Contresonner. To sound the contrarie, or to the contrarie.

Contre-soufflé: m. ée: f. Counter-blowne, crosse-blown; blowne on both sides, or blowne vp two contrarie wayes.

Contretaille: f. The one part of a tallie, or score, alreadie marked, or notched; also, the Counter-tenor part, in Musicke, and he that sings, or beares, it.

Contretaluër. To oppose banke vnto banke, or causey against causey; to resist, or strengthen, as with a double banke, or causey.

Contretemperament: m. A crosse, or contrarie temper; whence;

Faire vn contr. à la nature. To alter nature.

Contre-temps. Ill, or false time; or, motions out of time.

Contreteneur: m. The Counter-tenor part in Musicke.

Contretenir. To hold, or hale, against; also, to challenge, quarell, debate for, pretend title vnto, a thing against another.

Contretenon de potence. A stop (in a watch, or clock.)

Contretenu. Held against, or on th'other side; also, claimed, challenged, quarelled for, pretended vnto.

Contreteste. faire contreteste à; To withstand, resist, make head against.

Contretiré: m. ée: f. Drawne against; also, drawne after the patterne of.

Contretirer. To tug, hale, pull; hurle, throw, fling, against; also, to draw after the patterne of.

Contretrahison: f. A counter-treason; treason against treason.

Contretrancher. To conter-trench, or fortifie against an enemie intrenched.

Contretraversant: m. ante: f. Counter-crossing, counter-trauersing.

Contreval. Downeward; also, downe.

Contrevenant: m. ante: f. Swaruing, transgressing, departing from; going, or doing against an agreement, promise, or bargaine; also, crossing, thwarting, contradicting; resisting.

Contrevengé: m. ée: f. Fully reuenged.

Contrevenger. To reuenge one blow, or iniurie, with another.

Contrevenir. To swarue, transgresse, decline, go, or depart from; to do contrarie to promise, or otherwise than was agreed; also, to crosse, thwart, contradict, resist, or be against.

Contrevent: m. A contrarie mind.

Contreventer. To hold against the wind: Rab.

Contrevention: f. A swaruing from a promise, or contract; a going against ones word; also, a thwarting, contradiction; resistance.

Contrevenu: m. uë: f. Swarued, transgressed, gone from his word, or agreement; also, crossed, thwarted, resisted, opposed against.

Contre-vitre. A counter-window, outward-window, or fence for a glasse window.

Contreuvé. A fib, leasing; tale of inuention; or matter inuented.

Contribuable: com. Contributable; fit, able, or accustomed, to contribute; liable, or subiect vnto contribution.

Contribué. Contributed.

Contribuer. To contribute, to giue, or disburse together, to make a common purse, to lay their moneyes together.

Contributeur. A contributer.

Garend contributeur. See Garent.

Contribution: f. A contribution; a ioynt gift of many; also, as Desconfiture; A distribution, or sharing of a debtors, or bankrupts goods among all his creditors.

Contristé: m. ée: f. Grieued, afflicted, made sorrowfull.

Contrister. To grieue, sadden, afflict, make sorrowfull.

Contrit: m. ite: f. Contrite, aggrieued, remorsefull, most penitent, or sorrowfull, for misdeeds.

Contrition: f. Contrition, remorse, repentance; heartie sorrow, inward lamenting for, a painefull apprehension, or memorie of, offences.

Controle, & controolle. as Contrerolle.

Controngle: f. The Deaw-claw, or water-claw of dogs, &c.

Controversé: m. ée: f. Litigious, in controuersie; full of strife, and controuersie; also, gainsaid, called in question, disputed against; made, or handled as, a controuersie.

Controuerse: f. Controuersie, variance, debate, strife, altercation.

Con-

Controuvé: m. ée: f. Fained, forged, inuented, deuiſed.

Controuvement: m. A faining, fibbing, lying; a matter inuented, meere imagination, forged ſtuffe.

Controuver. To faine, forge, deuiſe, inuent, imagine, out of his owne braine.

Contr-'ouverture. A counter-opening; See Contr'ouvrir.

Controuveur: m. A fainer, forger, inuenter, deuiſer, lyer.

Contr'ouvrir. To open counter, to make a reuoltion; to pierce, or open a thing (as a part of the bodie) either farre off, or oppoſitely againſt, the place th'ouerture is intended for.

Contumace: f. Stubborneneſſe, obſtinacie, wilfulneſſe, peruerſeneſſe; diſobedience, contempt.

Contumacer. To deale ſtubbornely, be peruerſe; follow his owne will; diſobey, or rebell againſt his ſuperiours; to make a contempt; alſo, to iudge, or proceed againſt, as diſobedient, obſtinate, rebellious; to puniſh, or cenſure, a contempt.

Contumax: m. ace: f. Stubborne, ſullen, refractarie, rebellious, contemptuous, diſobedient; obſtinate, ſtiffe-necked, headſtrong, wilfull, headie, ſelfe-willie: (The French Lawyers make, deux eſpeces des contumax; The firſt, ſuch as after three ſeuerall, and publike, ſummons refuſe to appeare; the ſecond, thoſe that appearing ſtand mute, and will not anſwer; A ſilence which imports a confeſſion.)

Contumelie: f. Contumelie; reproach, an outrage in words; a ſpightfull reproofe, iniurious checke, ſcandalous or ſlanderous rebuke.

Contumelieuſement. contumeliouſly, reproachfully, in deſpightfull tearmes.

Contumelieux: m. euſe: f. Contumelious; reproachfull, deſpightfull, outragious or moſt iniurious, in words.

Contundre. To beat, knocke, thumpe, bruiſe, pound, or ſtampe in peeces.

Contuſion: f. A knocking, thumping, bruiſing, beating, pounding, ſtamping.

Contuteur: m. A Joynt Tutor, or Gardein.

Conu: m. uë: f. Knowne, &c; as Cogneu.

Convaincre. To conuict, conuince, take tardie, prooue faultie; find in the manner.

Convaincu: m. uë: f. Conuicted, conuinced; taken tardie, proued faultie, found in the manner.

Convaleſcence: f. A recouerie of health, ſtrength, and and vigor; a waxing ſtrong againe.

Convalidé: m. ée: f. Recouered, reſtored vnto health, growne well againe.

Cõvalider. To recouer, to reſtore vnto health, or ſtrength.

Convaſſal: m. A fellow vaſſall.

Convenable: com. Conuenient; apt, fit, meet for; agreeable, ſutable, according vnto; proper, comelie, decent, beſeeming, ſeemlie.

Convenablement. Conueniently; aptly, fitly, agreeably, ſutably, properly, to the purpoſe; decently, ſeemingly; well.

Convenance: f. An accord, concordance, agreement, condition; couenanting; alſo, conueniencie, proportion, handſomeneſſe, agreeableneſſe.

Convenancé: m. ée: f. Couenanted; agreed; promiſed, contracted vpon couenants.

Convenancer. To couenant, bargaine, contract, agree with, promiſe vnto, vpon couenants.

Convenant: m. A couenant, or agreement vpon couenant; a conditionall bargaine, or contract; a faithfull, and publicke, or ſolemne promiſe.

Convenant: m. ante: f. as Convenable; Alſo, agreeing, ſuiting with; befitting, beſeeming.

Convenir. To aſſemble, meet, or come together; alſo, to befit, beſeeme, ſort well vnto; to be meet, proper, or conuenient for; alſo, to agree, conſent, accord with; alſo, to couple, conclude, ioyne; come to the point.

Convenir en juſtice. To bring in ſuit, conuent before a Judge, enter an action againſt.

Il me convient. I muſt, I ſhould, I haue need, tis neceſſarie for me; proper, or belonging to me.

Convent: A Couent, Cloiſter, or Abbey of Monkes, or Nunnes.

Abbe & convent ce n'eſt qu'un; mais la bourſe ſe garde en divers lieux: Prov. An Abbot and Couent though but one bodie haue ſeuerall mindes, ends, or meanes.

Pour vn Moine ne faut convent: Prov. One onely Monke deſerues not an Abbey; or, one Swallow makes not a Summer.

Conventicule: m. A conuenticle; a little, or priuate, (and, moſt commonly, vnlawfull, or ill-affected) aſſemblie.

Convention: f. A couenant, contract, bargaine, agreement; alſo, a ſuing, impleading, or conuenting before a Judge; and, hence;

Cecy n'eſt pas de facile convention. This is hard to be compaſſed by ſuit of law.

Conventioné. as Conventionel.

Conventionel: m. elle: f. Contracted, couenanted, agreed vpon; or paſſed by contract; done by agreement, vnder articles, or couenants.

Intereſt conventionel. Intereſt, or vſe for the lone of money, &c; as in Intereſt.

Propre conventionel. Seeke Propre.

Conventuël. prieuré conventuël. A Priorie wherein there are Friers.

Conventuëls: m. An order of Obſervantin Friers; not altogether ſo ſtrict as the ordinarie ones.

Convenu: m. uë: f. Aſſembled, met, or come, together; alſo, couenanted, promiſed; accorded, or agreed vnto; alſo, impleaded, ſued, conuented or called, before a Judge.

Convereau: m. A fiſh that ſomewhat reſembles, but is leſſer than, th' Aloſe.

Convers: vn con. A conuertite; one that hath turned to the Faith; or is woon vnto a religious profeſſion; or hath abandonned a looſe to follow a godlie, a vicious to lead a vertuous, life.

Converſation: f. Converſation, commerce, great acquaintance, familiaritie, aſſociation, with.

Converſe: f. A Nunne (that formerly hath beene of looſe behauiour, or hath, in her time, beene a good one.)

Converſer avec. To converſe, or be much conuerſant, aſſociate, or keepe much companie, with; to haunt, frequent, reſort often vnto.

Converſion: f. A converſion; alteration, change; a turning; revolution, compaſſe, or courſe of things.

Converſion Sainct Paul. A Holy-day kept by the Church of Rome the xxv. of Ianuarie.

Converti: m. ie: f. Converted, altered, changed, turned, transformed, tranſlated.

Convertir. To convert; alter, change, transforme, turne; tranſlate.

Convertiſſement: m. A converting, turning, altering, changing.

Convertoir. Part of the head, or chapter of an Ionian pillar.

Con-

Convexe : com. Crooked, bowing, or bending downe on euerie ſide, as an Arch, &c.

Convexion : f. The crookedneſſe, or bending of a hollow thing turned downeward.

Convi : m. A banquet, feaſt, great ſupper, or dinner; whereto acquaintants, and friends are inuited.

Convice : m. A reproach, railing word, biting tearme, ſpightfull ſcoffe, deſpightfull gird, or glaunce, malicious taunt.

Convié : m. ée : f. Inuited, or bidden vnto a feaſt.

Conviement. An inuiting, or bidding vnto a feaſt.

Convient. il con. que vous ; (Impersonally) you muſt, or ſhould; it beſeemes, or behooues you; See Convenir.

Convier. To inuite, or bid, vnto a feaſt, &c.

Convitieux : m. euſe : f. Reuiling, reproachfull, rayling, maliciouſly taunting, deſpightfully girding at.

Convocation. A Conuocation; an aſſemblie, or calling together.

Convoitable : com. Couetable, fit to be coueted, or luſted after.

Convoitant. Coueting, deſiring, longing for, luſting after.

Convoité : m. ée : f. Coueted, deſired, affected, longed for, luſted after.

Convoitement : m. A coueting, deſire, luſt; a ſtomack, or appetite vnto.

Convoiter. To couet, deſire, affect greedily, wiſh, or long for, thirſt, or luſt after.

Qui tout convoite tout perd : Prov. He that couets all looſes all.

Convoiteux : m. euſe : f. Couetous, greedie, deſirous of, longing for, luſting after.

Convoitiſe : f. Couetouſneſſe, concupiſcence; an earneſt deſire, a reſtleſſe affection, greedie thirſt, vnſatiable luſt, after.

Convoler en ſecondes nopces. To marrie a ſecond wife (in haſt.)

Convoqué : m. ée : f. Called, aſſembled.

Convoquer. To call, or aſſemble many together.

Convoy : m. An accompanying; a following, waiting, or attending on (eſpecially in mariage, and buriall matters;) alſo, a conuoy, or companie of ſouldiours, or ſhips, for the wafting, or ſafe-conducting of paſſengers.

Convoyé : m. ée : f. Conuoyed, accompanied; followed, waited, attended on.

Convoyer. To conuoy, or accompanie; to follow, wait, or attend on.

Convulſion : f. A convulſion; a plucking vp, or ſhrinking, as, of the ſinewes in a crampe; alſo, a prickng, or ſhooting ache.

Conyle : f. Great Cheruill, ſweet Cheruill, mirrhe Cheruill.

Conyſe. The hearbe Flea-bane, or Flea-wort; of three kinds.

Conyſe grandé. Great Flea-wort.

Conyſe moyenne. Flea-bane Mullet.

Conyſe petite. Dwarfe, or ſmall Flea-bane.

Coöperer. To worke, effect, or labour, with.

Cope gorgée, in ſtead of, Gorge coupée : ¶Rab.

Copeaux. as Coupeaux ; Chips.

Copelle : f. as Coupelle ; A Teſt, or Coppell.

Copellé : m. ée : f. Teſted; melted, or fined, as ſiluer, in a Teſt, or Coppell.

Copené. face copenée; A Feſſe Gobonie, (a tearme of Blazon.)

Copet : m. as Couperet.

Cophin : m. A basket, skep, or ſmall pannier of wicker; See Cofin.

Copie : f. The copie of a writing; alſo, ſtore, plentie, abundance of.

Copié. Copied, written out; alſo, flowted.

Copier. To copie, or write out; alſo, to flowt, ſcoffe, deride, ride, mocke, gibe at; to play the knaue with in words, &c.

Copiere. Herbe copiere. as Oeil de Ceif.

Copieuſement. Copiouſly, plenteouſly, abundantly, greatly, at large, in great meaſure.

Copieux : m. A well-ſpoken, or Courtlie perſon; (a word miſuſed by clownes;) alſo, a flowting, or ieaſting companion; whence;

Les Copieux d'Angers. (Th' Angeuins being held great flowters.)

Copieux : m. euſe : f. Copious, abundant, plentifull; great large, full; well furniſhed, throughly prouided of.

Copioſité : f. Plentie, ſtore, abundance, fulneſſe, copiouſneſſe.

Copiſte : m. A maker of Counterpanes, a writer out of copies.

Coppe. A meaſure; the halfe of a Burgonian Buſhell.

Coppé. as Coupé ; Cut.

Coppeau. as Coupeau. A chip.

Copper. To cut; See Couper.

Coppeter. To ring all-in, or the laſt peale.

Coppier. To rouſe, and ſtretch out himſelfe, as one that goes about an exerciſe, or to try a maſterie; (an old word.)

Coppon : m. A pecke; or, the eight part of a Pariſien buſhell.

Cops. A certaine fiſh verie like vnto a Sturgeon.

Copté : m. ée : f. Tolled, or ſtrucken only on the one ſide, as a Bell, &c.

Copter. To toll, or ſtrike only on one ſide; as a bell, when it is not fully rung out.

Copuland : m. A coupling, or ioyning together; or as Copulaſſe : ¶Rab.

Copulaſſe. An exerciſe in Schooles; when ſchollers diſpute, and he that hath done beſt is placed higheſt.

Copule : f. A coniunction, a ioyning, or coupling together.

Coq : m. A cocke; (vn coq;) alſo, the Dorce, or Saint Peters fiſh; (le coq;) alſo, Coſtmarie, Balſamine, Alecoaſt; alſo, (and the more properly) Dittanie, Dittander, Pepperwort (du coq.)

Coq à l'aſne. A libell, paſquin, Satyre.

Coq de bois. A blacke, and rough-legd Moore-cocke, full twice as big as ours, and liuing altogether in the mountaines.

Coq d'eſgliſe. A Weather-cocke.

Coq d' Inde. A Turkie; a Turkie-cocke.

Creſte au coq. The hearbe Coxcombe, Pennie-graſſe, yellow and white Rattle; alſo, the hearbe Clarie.

Pied de coq. Hedge Fumitorie, Hennes-foot; alſo, baſtard Parſley; alſo, the hearbe Crow-foot, Kings-cob, Gold-cup, Gold-flower, Butter-flower (the ſingle one; the double one being ordinarily called) double Crow-foot, or Batchelers buttons.

Elle chante le coq. Said when a henne crowes.

Il n'y fera rien, non plus que le coq ſur les oeufs. (Whereon he cannot by any meanes be brought to ſit.)

On n'y a iamais ouy le coq chanter. Said of an vnhaunted, and vnhabited place.

Sauter du coq à l' aſne. To run, without order, out of one matter into another.

Ia

Ia ne chante le coq si viendra le iour : Pro. Though the cocke neuer crow, day will come.

Coqu : m. A cuckow, or cuckold ; See Cocu.

Coquage : m. Cuckoldrie, the state of a cuckold.

Coquar : m. An egge; or egge shell ; or, as,

Coquard : m. A proud gull, peart goose, quaint fop, saucie doult, malapert coxcombe, rash or forward cokes.

Mieux vaut l' ombre d'un sage vieillard que les armes d'un ieune coquard: Prov. The shadow of an aduised grandsire is better than the sword of an aduenturous goosecap.

Coquard : m. Coquarde : f. as Coquart.

Coquarde. bonnet à la coquarde. A Spanish cap, or fashion of bonnet vsed by the most substantiall men of yore ; (I earmed so (perhaps) because those that wore of them grew thereby the prouder, & presumed the more of themselues) also, any bonnet, or cap, worne proudly, or peartly on th'one side.

Coquardeau : m. A proud asse, bold goose, fond sauce-box ; one that hath more wealth than wit, or is much more forward than wise.

Coquardise : f. Fond pride, saucinesse, presumption, malapertnesse ; vnaduised peartnesse, iollitie, cheerefulnesse, cocketnesse.

Coquart : m. arde : f. Foolishly proud, saucie, presumptuous, malapert; vndiscreetly peart, cocket, iollie, cheerfull ; more bold than welcome, forward than wise.

Coquasse : f. A kettle, or chafer.

Coquassier : m. A seller of egge-shells; also, a maker, or seller of kettles, or chafers.

Coquatris : m. A Basiliske, or Cockatrice.

Coque : f. A cockle ; also, a bump, or knob on the forehead ; also, an egge-shell, &c.

Coque de Levant. The small medicinable shel called in shops, Vnguis odoratus.

Nulle noix sans coque : Prov. No nut without a shell.

Coquefredouille : m. A meacocke, milkesop, sneaksbie, worthlesse fellow.

Coquelicon : m. Cocke-crowing ; the song of a cocke.

Coquelicoq. as Coquelicon ; Also, the wild Poppie, Corne-rose, red Corne-rose.

Coqueliné : m. ée : f. Dandled, fedled, cockered, pampered, made a wanton of.

Coquelinement : m. A dandling, fedling, cockering.

Coqueliner vn enfant. To dandle, cocker, fedle, pamper, make a wanton of, a child.

Coquelineux : m. euse : f. Fantasticall, brainesicke, humorous, moodie, giddie, shittle-headed; whose head is full of crochets.

Coquelourdes : f. The Wind-flower ; also, the bastard Wind-flower, Passe-flower, Pasque-flower, Flaw-flower ; also, the flower called, Rose-campion.

Coqueluche : f. A hood ; also, the Coqueluchoe, or new disease; which troubled the French about the yeares 1510, and 1557; and vs but a while agoe.

Coqueluchon : m. The Capuche, or hood of a cloke; also, a weather-hood.

Coqueluchonné : m. ée : f. That weares a hood, or a Spanish Capuche.

Coquemare : f. The disease called the Night-mare.

Coquemart : m. A brazen pot, or chafer, hauing a couer.

Coqueplumet. A proud cockescombe, a starrecrow ; a wag-feather ; one that swaggers, or stalkes vp & down the streets, with a top like a fore-horse ; or, one who, by th'authoritie of his high feather, presumes he may ouerrule, or put downe, a whole street.

Coquer. To play the cocke, to tread hennes like a cocke.

Se coquer contre. To knocke himselfe, or runne his head against.

Coquerelles : f. Red Night-shade, Alkakengie, Winter-cherries.

Coqueret : m. The name of a certaine red, and verie sweet apple, thats ripe about Allhallowtide.

Coquerets. des co. as Coquerelles.

Des Coquerettes. The same.

Des Coquerez. The same.

Coques. des coques : f. Cockles.

Coquet : m. A Cocke-boat ; also, a weather-cocke.

Coqueté. Cackled, or chucked; also, strowted, or swaggered.

Coqueter. A cocke to call his hennes; or to chucke, as a cocke among hennes ; also, to swagger, or strowt it, like a cocke on his owne dung-hill.

Coquetier : m. A seller of egges, or of egge-shels.

Coquette : f. A pratling, or proud gossip ; a fisking, or sliperous minx; a cocket, or tatling housewife; a titifill, a flebergebit.

Coquillade : f. A certaine little, slender, scalesse, small mouthed, and grey-eyed sea-fish, liuing among rocks.

Coquillage : m. Shell-worke ; worke made of, or trimd with, shells.

Coquillant. Making, or vaulting, like a shell.

Coquillard. as Coquardeau; Also, a small vessell wheron, in Paris, they serue reare egges vnto the table.

Coquillard : m. arde : f. Shellie, full of shells.

Coquille : f. The shell of a fish ; of a snaile ; of a nut ; or of an egge ; also, a boat-bason, or any open vessell thats fashioned like a bason, or Scallop-shell ; also, a French-hood ; also a measure containing fiue spoonefuls.

Coquille de S. Iacques. The Scallop fish ; also, a Cockle.

Coquille de S. Michel. A Cockle.

Coquille de Prestre. The bearbe Chickeweed ; or a kind thereof, held by Dodoneus to be the right Mouse-eare.

Coquille sabottée. The Yealke ; a shell-fish called so, because it somewhat resembles a Top.

Large coquille. A Scallop.

Bailler de coquilles. A cousener, cheater, conie-catcher, impostor, mountebanke; Hence, also,

Dresser vne coquille. To deuise a gulling tricke ; to inuent a cheating deuise ; to lay a snare for a fole.

A qui vendez vous vos coquilles ? followed by, à ceux qui viennent de S. Michel ? Why should you thinke to cousen vs, that are as cunning as your selues ? tis ill hauling before a cripple.

Coquillé : m. ée : f. Set thicke with shells ; also, made, or fashioned, like a shell.

Pain coquillé. A fashion of an hard-crusted loafe, somewhat like our Stillyard Bunne.

Coquiller. To vault, bow, or fashion, a thing like a shell ; also, as Recroquiller.

Coquilleux : m. euse : f. Shellie, full of shells.

Coquillier : m. ere : f. Hauing a shell, or bearing a shell; of, or belonging to, a shell.

Coquilliere : f. A woman that (now) makes biggens, and caps; (but whose chiefest worke, in times past was the French-hood Coquille.)

Coquillon : m. A little shell ; or hood ; also, a fooles hood ; or a hooded foole.

Coquimbert qui gaigne pert. A game at cards ; like our loosing Lodam.

Coquin : m. A beggar, poore snake, needie wretch, tattered rogue, lousie vagabond that begs from doore to doore;

doore; any baſe ſcoundrell, or ſcuruie fellow; alſo, as Egau.

C'eſt vn grand cas la fureur de deux coquins à vne porte. A prouerbe meant, as well of th'ordinarie iarring, and thwartings that paſſe between two ambitious Competitors, as of the ſcoulding, or other ſcuruie ſturre made by two hungrie, and enuious beggers at a mans doore,

Il n'eſt vie que de coquins: Prov. There's no life to the beggers; Looke Vie.

Il vaut mieux eſtre coquu que coquin: Prov. Better be a cuckold than a beggerlie knaue.

Coquin: m. ine: f. Beggerlie, needie; louſie; roguiſh, vagabond-like.

Mouton coquin. A Bell-weather.

Pigeon coquin. A tame Pigeon.

Elle entrejetta la jambe coquine. She interpoſed her wanton, laſciuious, or harlots, leg.

Coquine: f. A begger-woman; alſo, a cockney, ſimper-decockit, nice thing.

Coquineau: m. A ſcoundrell, baſe varlet, beggerlie raſcall, beaſtlie fellow.

Coquiner. To beg, to craue like a begger; to play the rogue, or baſe raſcall.

Coquinerie: f. Beggerie, begging; alſo, roguerie, knauerie, baſeneſſe; or baſe humors; alſo, meats that are more toothſome than holeſome; forced meats.

Coquiol: f. A degenerate Barlie, or weed, commonly, growing among Barlie, and called, Hauer-graſſe.

Coquu. as Cocu.

Cor: m. A Hunters horne; a Bugle, or Hutchet; alſo, a corne in the foot; alſo, the hard, and hornie ſwelling in horſes, tearmed, the Sit-faſt.

Cors. The broches of a Deers head; all the pegs ther-of from the ſecond, or third vpwards.

Cor de mer. The Sea-horne; a ſhell-fiſh that ſomewhat reſembles a horne.

A cor & à cry. By Proclamation; alſo, by might and maine, with beaue and hoe; eagerly, vehemently, ſeriouſly.

Corail: m. Corrall; (growes in the ſea, like a thicke ſhrub, and is then of a greeniſh colour; taken thence, it waxeth verie hard, and (after it hath been dreſſed) becomes red, and ſmooth; (There is alſo a white, a black, and a yellow, kind of Corrall.)

Coralin: m. ine: f. Corralin, of Corrall, like vnto Corrall.

Coraline: f. Sea-moſſe, Corralline, or Corrall-moſſe.

Corapei. A Princes cloth of Eſtate.

Corbat peſcheret. A Cormorant: ¶Dauph.

Corbature. as Courbature.

Corbau: m. The Cabot fiſh; or, as Corp.

Corbeau: m. A Rauen; alſo, a Corbell (in Maſonrie;) and, a bracket, or ſhouldering peece (in timber worke;) alſo, a certaine warlike inſtrument; alſo, the broyled bone of a leg, or ſhoulder, of mutton, hauing ſome fleſh left about it.

Corbeau d'eau. A Cormorant.

Corbeau de mer. The ſame; or, the ſea-Rauen.

Corbeau du nuict. The Night-Rauen.

Corbeau peſcheret. A Cormorant.

Repaiſtre les corbeaux. To hang in chaines; or, to lie vnburied in the fields.

Tromper vn corbeau à bouche beante. To couſen a greedie fellow of a bit which he gapes after; or, as in Tromper.

De mauvais corbeau mauvais oeuf: Pro. Of an ill bird, an ill brood.

La cenſure tourmente les pigeons laiſſant aller les corbeaux libres: Prov. Cenſure torments Pigeons, and frees Rauens; and hence are Lawes compared vnto Cobwebs; little flies are caught in them, great ones breake through them.

Corbeil. The name of a towne that is not far from Paris; and hence the prouerbiall phraſe;

Prendre Paris pour Corbeil. To take an apple for an oiſter; to miſtake the matter quite and cleane.

Corbeille: f. A wicker basket, or maund; alſo, a doſſer.

Qui fait corbeille il fait panier: Pro. He that makes a basket makes a pannier; he that can do one thing can do another.

Corbeillée: f. A basket-full of.

Corbeilleux: m. euſe: f. Belonging to a basket or maund; alſo, full of baskets, &c.

Corbeillon: m. A little basket, pannier, or maund.

Corbieu. Gogs heart.

Corbigeau: m. A Cormorant, or Sea-Rauen.

Corbillat: m. A yong Rauen.

Corbillon. as Corbeillon.

Corbin: m. A (carrion, or carre) Crow.

Bec de corbin. A Pentioners halberd, or pollaxe; alſo a Chirurgions toole, called a Crowes-bill; See Bec.

Os corbin. A certaine hollow bone in the crupper of a Deere.

Pied de corbin. The hearbe Crow-foot, Kings-cob, Gold-cups, Gold-flower, Butter-flower.

Corbiné: m. ée: f. Stollen, filtched, purloined, lurched; alſo, polled, exacted, extorted; extreamely vſed.

Corbiner. To ſteale, filtch, purloine, lurch; alſo, to poll, extort, or exact more than is due.

Corbinerie: f. Stealing, filtching, lurching; alſo, polling, exaction, extortion.

Corbinet: m. The crooking of Rauens, or Crowes.

Corbineur. A filtcher, lurcher, poller, exacter.

Corbineurs du Palais. Lawyers, and Clerkes; which ordinarily fleece, lurch, poll, and ſpoile, poore ſuiters.

Corcalihat: m. The crie of Quailes.

Corceſque: f. A kind of broad-headed Faueline, or dart.

Corchiere: f. The battlement of a wall; alſo, (in a gallie) as Courſie.

Cordace. A kind of country daunce: ¶Rab.

Cordage: m. Cordage, ropes; or ſtuffe to make ropes of.

Cordaille de navire. Tackling.

Corde: f. A cord, rope, halter; a twiſted ſtring, band, or line; alſo, as Tendon.

Corde de bois. A certaine meaſure, or quantitie, of wood (whether fagots, or billets) laid together, eight, or ten foot in length, about foure in height, and hauing at either end two ſtakes to hold it in.

Corde du bras. The greateſt, and moſt notable, branch of the ſhoulder veine.

Corde d'un Cordelier. A grey Friers girdle; or, the knotted cord wherewith he girds himſelfe.

Cordes du iarret. The ham-ſtrings.

Haut mal de la corde. A hanging.

Homme de ſac & de corde. One for whom the gallowes grone; Looke Sac.

Avoir deux cordes à ſon arc. To bee furniſhed with two helpes, to haue a double hope of ſucceſſe, in his buſineſſe; (we alſo vſe the ſame phraſe.)

Bailler à vn la corde pour ſe pendre. Cunningly to giue one an aduantage which if he vſe will turne to his preiudice.

Coucher ſous corde. In game, &c, to ſtake downe readie coine; from Tennis-players, that lay the money they play for vnder the line.

Elle n'eſt ſi fine que la corde n'y apparoiſſe. As cunning as ſhee thinkes her ſelfe, her tricks may be diſcerned: (a metaphor from cloth, whoſe thread may be ſeene.)

Il eſt au bout de ſa corde. He is at the end of his meanes; he hath ſhewed his vtmoſt skill in the matter; he can do no more to it, ſay nought elſe of it, goe no further in it.

Il y aura beau ieu ſi la corde ne rompt. Wee ſhall haue good ſport if the line breake not; s. if all things continue as they are, or hold, that are now, good.

Pendant que la corde eſt au puis. While the matter is hot; while there is opportunitie; while your hand is in.

Plus couſte la corde que le ſardeau. Said when the charges of law, or trafficke, &c, exceed the principall, or diminiſh ones ſtocke.

A groſſe larron groſſe corde: Prov. A ſtrong halter for a ſtrong theefe.

A longue corde tire qui d' autruy mort deſire: Prov. Hee that longs for another mans death, hath a long (or a cold) ſuit of it; We ſay, he that waits for dead mens ſhoone ſhall goe long barefoot.

Qui plus qu'il n'a vaillant deſpend il fait la corde à quoy ſe pend: Pro. Who more than he is worth doth ſpend, he makes a rope his life to end.

Cordé. Corded; twiſted as a cord; bound with cords; alſo, out of ſeaſon; (a Metaphor from Lampreyes, which being out of ſeaſon haue a hard ſtring in their backes.)

Cordeau: m. A Carpenters chalked, or Oakered, line.

Cordeau courant. A Gardeners line; the line wherwith he meaſures out his plots, and beds.

Cordeau volant. The ſame.

Cordée: f. A ſtring-full of; alſo, a ranke, row, liſt, file.

Cordelé: m. ée: f. Twiſted, or made into cords.

Cordeler. To twiſt, or make roapes; or make into cords, ropes, &c.

Cordelette: f. A ſmall cord; a twine, or packthread; a twiſted lace, line, or ſtring.

Cordeleux: m. euſe: f. Cordie, cord-like; full of cords.

Cordelier: m. A Grey Frier (of the Order of S. Francis) a Cordelier; alſo, twiſt.

Monnoye de Cordelier. Thankes; or a Benedicitee; (for Grey Friers are to carrie no money about them.)

Cordeliere: f. A Grey Friers girdle (made of a peece of a rope full of equally-diſtant knots;) Hence, any knotted thread, or ſtring; and the blacke, and knotted necke-lace (no better than a ſtring) worne by ſome Gentlewomen; alſo, knotted cord-worke in Imbroderie, &c; alſo, a Nunne of Saint Francis his Order; alſo, a row, file, courſe, ranke of ſeuered, or ſeuerall things; and hence;

Vne longue cordeliere de montaignes.

Cordelle: f. as Cordelette; A little cord, or twiſted ſtring.

Tirer en ſa cordelle. To win vnto his faction; allure, or draw, vnto his ſide.

Corder. To twiſt, or make ropes; alſo, to bind, or packe vp with ropes, or cords; alſo, to meaſure with ropes, or cords.

Cette Lamproye ſe corde. This Lampry is out of ſeaſon; (by hauing a hard ſtring in her backe.)

Cordeur de terres. A Surueyor; or Meaſurer of lands.

Cordial: m. ale: f. Cordiall, heartie; ſincere, vnfained; affectionate; alſo, heart-ſtrengthening, heart-comforting.

Les trois fleurs cordiales. Roſes, Bourage, and Bugloſſe.

Cordiale: f. The hearbe Motherwort, (good againſt the throbbing, or exceſſiue beating of the heart.)

Cordialement. Cordially, heartily; truly, faithfully, with the whole heart.

Cordialeuſé: m. ée: f. Heartie, cordiall; full of heart, or heartineſſe; alſo, heartened, cheered; well comforted, or encouraged.

Cordialité: f. Cordiallneſſe, heartineſſe, heartfulneſſe.

Cordiaque: com. cordiall, heart-comforting, mind-cheering.

Cordier: m. A Roper, a Cord-maker.

Deſmarche de cordier. A ſtepping, or going, backwards.

Cordillat d' Eſpagne. A kind of twiſted ſtuffe made of fine wooll.

Cordilles. The yong frie of Tunnie.

Cordon: m. A ſtring, twine, twiſt; one of the twiſts of a rope, or corde; alſo, a wreath; and, thence, an out-ſtanding wreath, or edge of ſtone (commonly diſtinguiſhing the ſeuerall ſtories) on th'outſide of a building.

Cordon de chapeau. A (wreathed) hatband.

Cordons d'une trompette. The cordines, or ſtrings of a Trumpet.

Tel larron tel cordon: Prov. Such theefe, ſuch halter; a puniſhment befitting th'offence.

Cordonné: m. ée: f. Twiſted, twined, plaited; wreathed; alſo, made as, or into, a cord.

Cordonner. To twine, twiſt, plait; wreath; alſo, to make as, or into, a cord.

Cordouan: m. Cordouan leather; (which is properly, a Goats skin tanned.)

Cordouannerie: f. Shoo-making, the trade of a Shoomaker; alſo, the part of a towne wherein Shoomakers worke; Shoomaker-row, Shoomaker-ſtreet.

Cordouannier: m. A Shoomaker; a Cordwainer.

Cordouanniere: f. The wife of a Shoomaker; or woman that is a Shoomaker.

Cordueil: m. Hearts-griefe, teene, anguiſh, heartie ſorrow.

Cordule: m. A kind of verie ſmall water-Newt, or Lizard, miſtaken, and oft miſ-uſed, in ſtead of the Scinque.

Core: f. The broad peece thats betweene the croſſe-bars of the hilt of a ſword.

Corée de pourceau. A ſwines gullet, or a hogs haſlet.

Corgeal: m. ale: f. Choaking; of a choaking propertie, or qualitie.

Coriace. (The feminine of Corias;) as tough as a hide; as hard as leather.

Corial: m. A Singing-man, Quire-man, or Quirreſter.

Coriandre: m. The hearbe, or ſeed Coriander.

Corias: m. ace: f. As tough as leather, as hard as a hide.

Corions de ſouliers: m. The latchets of ſhooes.

Corlieu: m. A Curlue.

Corlis. as Corlieu.

Corman: m. The greedie water-fowle tearmed a Cormorant; alſo, the Cabot fiſh.

Corné. A drinke, or wine made of the Sorbe apple; it ſurpaſſes in goodneſſe Perrie, or Cider; and comes neereſt, of any of thoſe kinds, vnto white wine.

Corme: f. The Seruice, or Sorb-apple.

Cormier: m. The Seruice tree, Sorb-apple tree.

Cormorant: m. as Corman.

Cornabon. A muſicall Cornet; or ſuch a wreathed inſtrument: Rab.

Cornadiz d'Eſpaigne. Baſe peeces of money, thirtie ſix of them being worth but one Douzain.

Cornage: m. Hornage; an yearely duetie of corne exacted by the Lord Chaſtelain of Berri (in the iuriſdiction of Bourges*) vpon euerie Oxe that labours in the Winter-corne-ground which is within his territorie.*

Cornaline: f. The Cornix, or Cornaline; a fleſh-coloured ſtone that is eaſie to bee grauen on, and therefore much vſed in ſignets.

Cornalique: com. Cuckoldlie, cuckold-like.

Cornard: m. A cuckold, or horned beaſt; one of the forked Order.

Cornardiſe: f. Cuckoldric.

Corne: f. A horne; alſo, horne; alſo, the hooſe of a beaſts foot; alſo, the Sit-faſt; (a hard, or hornie ſwelling in the backe-part of a horſe) alſo, a corner; limit, or bound.

Corne boeuf. The hearbe Fenegreeke.

Corne de cerf. Buckhorne Plantaine, Crowfoot Plantaine, Harts-horne, Sandwort, hearbe Ivie, or Eue.

Cornes du front. The ſwelling, or out-bearing, of the bone of the temples on either ſide of the forehead.

Corne prendre. To wax proud.

Avoir du foin aux cornes. Il a du foin aux cor. He is a fierce; proud; ſturdie, ſurlie mate; a ſhrewd, curſt, vnſociable campanion; a dangerous fellow to deale with.

Bailler foin en corne. To deceiue, couſen, gull, giue a gleeke, ſell a bargaine.

Baiſſer les cornes. To humble himſelfe, to let fall his creſt; to yeeld, ſtoope, ſtrike ſaile.

Haulſer, ou, leuer la corne. To grow proud, wax hautie, become loftie, (or liuelie) begin to take ſtate vpon him.

Prendre vn boeuf par les cornes. To vndertake, or performe, a dangerous act.

Dieu donne biens, & boeuf, mais ce n'eſt pas par la corne: Prov. Looke Boeuf.

Corné. Horned, hauing hornes.

Corne-boeuf. The hearbe Fenegrecke.

Cornée de l'oeil. The hornie Tunicle wherein the apple of the eye is placed; ſo called, becauſe both in colour, and conſiſtence, it reſembles a thinne, and tranſparent, horne.

Corneille: f. A Crow; alſo, a Cornill berrie.

Corneille emmantelée. The Roiſton Crow, or Winter Crow, whoſe backe, and bellie are of an aſhie colour.

Corneille ſauvage. The ſame.

Pied de corneille. Crowfoot Plantaine, Buckehorne Plantaine, Coronop Plantaine, Hearbie Ivie, Hartes-horne.

Putain fait comme la corneille, plus ſe laue, & plus noire eſt elle: Prov. A whoore is like a Crow; the more ſhee waſhes her the blacker ſhee is; viz. the more ſhe excuſes, the more ſhe betraies, her ſelfe; or, in ſtriuing to iuſtifie, ſhe condemnes, her ſelfe.

Cornelle. as Corneole.

Cornement des oreilles. The glowing, or tingling of the eares.

Cornemuſe: f. A Bagpipe; alſo, as Cornuë; the veſſell, or Lymbecke whereby oyles are extracted from Gummes, wood, or metals.

Toutes ces choſes procedent de la meſme cornemuſe. All theſe things come from one head, runne from one ſpring, haue one and the ſelfe-ſame originall.

Cornemuſeur: m. A Bagpiper.

Corneole: f. Willow-hearbe, Looſe-ſtrife, Water-willow.

Corne-pied. Hooſed, horne-footed.

Corner. To ſound a Cornet, to wind a Horne; alſo, to ſtinke, or ſmell muſtily, as meat that hath taken wind.

Cela cornoit priſe. That finiſhed the chace, that made a full end of the matter.

Les oreilles me cornent. My eares glow, or tingle.

Cornes. as Cornilles.

Cornet: m. A Cornet, a Trumpe; a little Horne; alſo, a ſea-Cut, or Cuttle-fiſh; or, as Caſſeron, about Bayonne; alſo, as, Sifflet.

Cornet à bouquin. A Muſicall Cornet.

Cornet à encre. An Inkehorne.

Cornet de papier. The Cornet, or Coffin of paper, wherein a Grocer makes vp his retailed parcel of Spice &c.

Corneté: m. ée: f. Scarified, or cupped.

Corneter. To cup, or ſcarifie with horned cups.

Corneteux: m. euſe: f. Vſed in cupping, or ſcarifying.

Cornette: f. A Bugle, Hutchet, or little Horne; alſo, a Doctors Tippet; alſo, a Cornet of horſe; and, the Enſigne of a horſe-companie; alſo, a faſhion of Shadow, or Boonegrace, vſed in old time, and at this day, by ſome old women; alſo, the tuft, or tipping, of a Hawkes Hood.

Les cornettes d'un arc. The hornes, or hornie tips of a long Bow.

La cornette baſſe. An old-faſhioned Shadow, or Boonegrace; (as in th'originall.)

La cornette d'un chaperon. The Cornet of a Frenchhood.

Corneur: m. A Horner; a winder of a Horne.

Corniat: m. The Iuice, or Syrop of Cornill berries.

Cornice: f. The corniſh, or brow of a piller, or wall.

Corniche: f. A kind of little Sea-cut, or Cuttle-fiſh; or, as Cornichet; alſo, the corniſh, or brow of a wall, piller, or other peece of building.

Cornichet: m. The ſleeue, or Calamarie (fiſh.)

Cornichon: m. A little Horne; alſo, a Deeres head while it is young, or but new put out; alſo, a play at Quoites, wherein a peece of horne is led, or layed for the marke; or a play at Bowles with a Miſtreſſe (for commonly they play at Prickes) tearmed Cornichon.

Cornier: m. as Cornillier; Alſo, a Horner.

Cornier: m. ere: f. Belonging to, ſtanding in, the corner; angular.

Pieds corniers. Looke Pied.

Corniere: f. A corner; alſo, a ſhe horner.

Cornillat. A little yong Crow, a neſt Crow.

Cornillé: m. ée: f. Furred, or butted with hornes.

Corniller. To hurre, or butt with the hornes.

Cro-

Cornilles: f. Cornill berries.

Cornillier: m. The long cherrie tree; Cornillier maſle.

Cornillier femelle. Hounds Prick-tymber tree; Gaten, or

Cornillier ſauvage. The ſam

Corniole: f. Part of a Stags th the Vuula; See Gargatte.

Cornoaller: m. The Cornill tr

Cornoalles: f. Cornill berries.

Cornoiller. as Cornillier.

Cornoilles: f. Cornill berries.

Cornoüaille: f. Cornewall; o land; alſo, a part of Low Britt

Chevalier de Cornoüaille. heaſt, one of the forked, or corn

Eſtaim de Cornoüaille. See

Voyager en Cornoüaille. one of the head men of his pari

Cornu: m. A kind of Serpent; a

Cornu: m. uë: f. Hornie, hor hornes; bearing, or wearing ho boughtie, like a horne.

Argument cornu. A fantaſti nent, ill-made argument.

Aſpic cornu. Looke Aſpic.

Aſtre cornu. The Moone.

Baſton cornu. A Battle-ax (o

Bonnet cornu. A cornered, or

Pain cornu. A loafe that is no corners, or faſhioned illfauour ſides.

Perle cornuë. A ragged pearl

Pois cornus. A kind of flat, o either Sheepes Ciches, or Dodo led alſo, flat peaſon.

Serpent cornu. A ſand-colour two, or (as Iulius Solinus rep hornes on his head, and his hind which make him ſeeme to hiſſe a almoſt incureable.)

Bailler des plus cornuës. Il v will tell you many a loud ly.

Fuſt il plus Diable qu'il n'eſt terrible indeed then he is in ſhe

Ie le rendray plus Diable qu' put him in greater feare than he

A l'enfourner on fait les pai careleſſe, erronious, or ignorant diſorders the whole courſe of it, it; of the ſame ſence is;

Qui mal enfourne tire les pai that begins vnſeatly ends ill-fau

Cornuaille. as Cornoüaille.

Cornuchet. A little Cornet.

Enter en cornuchet. Looke

Cornuë: f. A kind of bending Li of glaſſe, varniſhed, and leaded tracting of oyles out of hard and mettalls, &c; alſo, as Malar net.

Cornüette: f. The ſmall Pulſe c wort, Axfitch, and Hatchet fitch Cammis.

Corolaire: m. A Corollaire; a ſu dition to, vantage aboue meaſ largeſſe beſtowed on the people playes.

Cornilles: f. Cornill berries.
Cornillier: m. The long cherrie, wild cherrie, or Cornill tree; Cornillier maſle.
Cornillier femelle. Hounds-tree, Dog-berrie tree, Prick-tymber tree; Gaten, or Gater, tree.
Cornillier ſauvage. The ſame.
Corniole: f. Part of a Stags throat; or, as Gargatte, the Vuula; See Gargatte.
Cornoaller: m. The Cornill tree; as Cornillier.
Cornoalles: f. Cornill berries.
Cornoiller. as Cornillier.
Cornoilles: f. Cornill berries.
Cornoüaille: f. Cornewall; one of the ſhires of England; alſo, a part of Low Brittaine; whence;
Chevalier de Cornoüaille. A Cuckold, a horned beaſt, one of the forked, or cornuted, Order.
Eſtaim de Cornoüaille. Seeke Eſtaim.
Voyager en Cornoüaille. To weare the horne, to be one of the head men of his pariſh.
Cornu: m. A kind of Serpent; as Serpent cornu.
Cornu: m. uë: f. Hornie, horned; cornuted; hauing hornes; bearing, or wearing hornes; alſo, crooked, or boughtie, like a horne.
Argument cornu. A fantaſticall, friuolous, impertinent, ill-made argument.
Aſpic cornu. Looke Aſpic.
Aſtre cornu. The Moone.
Baſton cornu. A Battle-ax (of the old faſhion.)
Bonnet cornu. A cornered, or ſquare, cap.
Pain cornu. A loafe that is not round, but made with corners, or faſhioned illfauouredly, and with vncuen ſides.
Perle cornuë. A ragged pearle.
Pois cornus. A kind of flat, or ſquare, peaſon; being either Sheepes Ciches, or Dodoneus his Cichelings, called alſo, flat peaſon.
Serpent cornu. A ſand-coloured Serpent, which hath two, or (as Iulius Solinus reports) foure Snayle-like hornes on his head, and his hinder parts full of ſkales, which make him ſeeme to hiſſe as he goes; (his biting is almoſt incureable.)
Bailler des plus cornuës. Il vous en baillera, &c. He will tell you many a loud ly.
Fuſt il plus Diable qu'il n'eſt cornu. Were he more terrible indeed then he is in ſhew.
Ie le rendray plus Diable qu'il n'eſt cornu. I will put him in greater feare than he puts others.
A l'enfourner on fait les pains cornus: Prov. A careleſſe, erronious, or ignorant entrance into a buſines diſorders the whole courſe of it, and, in concluſion, mars it; of the ſame ſence is;
Qui mal enfourne tire les pains cornus: Prov. He that begins vnfeatly ends ill-fauoredly.
Cornuaille. as Cornoüaille.
Cornuchet. A little Cornet.
Enter en cornuchet. Looke Enter.
Cornuë: f. A kind of bending Limbecke (like a Bagpipe) of glaſſe, varniſhed, and leaded within; vſed for th'extracting of oyles out of hard and drie things, as wood, mettalls, &c; alſo, as Malarmat, a kind of Gurnet.
Cornüette: f. The ſmall Pulſe called Axe-ſeed, Axe-wort, Axfitch, and Hatchet fitch; alſo, horned wild Cammin.
Corolaire: m. A Corollaire; a ſurpluſage, ouerplus, addition to, vantage aboue meaſure; alſo, a ſmall gift, or largeſſe beſtowed on the people at publicke feaſts, and playes.

Coronal: m. ale: f. Coronall, Crowne-like; of, or belonging to, a Crowne.
Artere coronale. Seeke Artere.
Commiſſure coronale. The Coronall Suture, or ſeame, which compaſſes the forehead, or forepart of the ſcull, in forme of a halfe circle.
Os coronal. Seeke Os.
Veine coronale. A branch of the hollow veine, ſo tearmed, becauſe it enuirons the heart in forme of a Crowne; there is alſo another of that name, a branch of the Spleene veine; as Stomachique.
Coronne: f. A Crowne, or Garland, &c.; See Couronne.
Corp: m. A blackiſh ſea-fiſh, whoſe head ſhineth almoſt like gold; ſome tearme it a Cabot.
Corpaut. A pot: ¶Barrag.
Corporail: m. The Corporall; the fine linnen wherein the Sacrament is put.
Corporalier: m. A Pix, or box for the foreſaid linnen, or Sacrament.
Corporance: f. Corporature; the quantitie, faſhion, or conſtitution of the bodie.
Corporel: m. elle: f. Corporall, bodilie, perſonall.
Veine corporelle. as Mediane.
Corporellement. Corporally, bodily, perſonally; in perſon; without Atturney, or Deputie.
Corporence: f. as Corporance.
Corporu: m. uë: f. Corpulent, big-bodied, groſſe, fleſhie, well fed, of a great ſtature.
Corps: m. A bodie, a corps; the whole bulk, or ſubſtance, of; alſo a volume; alſo, a companie, or corporation; alſo, as Vaiſſeau corpulent; alſo, (in cloth, or ſtuffe) ſubſtance, tacke, ſtuffineſſe.
Le corps d'un arbre. The ſtocke, or bodie of a tree.
Vn corps de cuiraſſe. A Corſelet.
Corps de garde. A Court of gard, in a Campe, or Fort.
Vn corps d'hoſtel. The bodie, or heart of a houſe; that part wherein the chiefe roomes, and lodgings, are contriued.
Le corps d'un navire. The Hull of a Ship.
Femme de corps. A Villeineſſe, or woman of a ſeruile condition.
A corps perdu. Deſperatly, furiouſly, headlong, without any care of his owne ſafetie.
Droguer le corps. To make an Apothecaries ſhop of his bellie.
Excuſer aucun par ſon corps. To fight in another mans quarell; to defend another mans innocencie with the hazard of his owne bodie.
Logez ſous noſtre corps. viz. Vnder our roofe, or couert; at our charge, or allowance.
Marcher en corps. as la Cour marche en corps; All the Officers of the Court go along together.
Mettre corps & coeur. To labour tooth and naile, to indeuour by all meanes poſſible.
Prendre au corps. To arreſt; or, take priſoner.
Bon chauſteau garde qui ſçait ſon corps garder: Prov. Looke Chaſteau.
Homme endormi corps enſeveli: Prov. There is no difference betweene a dead, and a ſleepie, bodie; or, as good be dead outright, as aliue, and do nought.
Quand les biens viennent les corps faillent: Prov. Moſt mens liues are neere ſpent before they haue got any thing to ſpend.
Corpſet: m. A little bodie; alſo, a paire of bodies, or, a womans bodies.
Corpulence: f. Corpulencie, groſſeneſſe, fatneſſe, bigneſſe of bodie.

Corpulent : m.ente : f. Corpulent, grosse, big-bodied, quarrie, fat.
Vaisseau corpulent. The bodie, or the lower part of a Limbecke; that which containes the stuffe which is to be distilled.
Corratage : m. Brokage; also, horse-scoorsing; also, cousenage; or, as Courretage.
Corraterie : f. A broking; also, horse-scoursing; also, cousening.
Corratier : m. A Broker; also, a horse-scoorser.
Corraye : f. as Courroye; A thong, or belt of leather.
Correct : m. correcte : f. Correct, congruous, perfect; good, pure, neat.
Correctement. Correctly, purely, neatly, with congruitie, without fault.
Correcteur : m. A reformer, corrector, controller, amender, fault-finder.
Correcteur des comptes. An Officer that examines and controlls, or passes, th' accounts of the Receiuors, vnder-Treasurers, & others the like accountants of the Exchequer; (there are foure of them belonging to the Chamber of Accounts.)
Correction : f. A correction, reformation, controlement.
Corregiole : f. as Corrigiole.
Correlaire : m. An addition, aduantage, surplusage, ouerplus of measure; or, as Corolaire.
Correlatif : m.iue : f. Correlatiue.
Corrente. A strait of the sea, as that of Gibraltar, of Magellan, &c; where commonly it runnes violently.
Correspondance : f. A correspondencie; a mutuall agreement, or answer; a resemblance, or equalitie of humors, affections, qualities, quantitie.
Correspondant : m. A suretie.
Correspondant : m.ante : f. Correspondent; answerable, or according vnto; equall, or agreeable with, in all points.
Correspondre. To correspond, hold correspondencie with; be correspondent vnto; to accord, consent, agree all together; to run one, and the same course together; or, to resemble, answer, equall; to be like, answerable, or equall, in all points.
Corret : m. An agnaile, or little corne, vpon a toe.
Corriasse. as Coriace.
Corridor. A curtaine, in fortification.
Corrigé : m.ée : f. Corrected, amended, reformed; improued; redressed, straightened.
Corriger. To correct, amend, reforme, redresse, better; straighten.
Corrigiole : f. Male Knot-grasse, Swines-grasse, Birds-tongue.
Corrion : m. A latchet, strap; little thong, or belt of leather.
Corroboré : m.ée : f. Corroborated, strengthened, fortified, confirmed.
Corroborer. To corroborate, strengthen, fortifie, confirme.
Corrodé : m.ée : f. Gnawen, worne, or fretted away, about the sides.
Corroder. To gnaw, bite; weare, or fret away, about the sides, or edges.
Corrompable : com. Corrumpable, corruptible, peruertable, deprauable.
Corrompereſse : f. A corruptresse, a woman that mars others.
Corrompeur : m. A corrupter; deprauer, defiler, misleader, peruerter.
Corrompeur de filles. A deflowrer of maids, a filthie leacher.
Corrompeuſe : f. She that mars, or misleads, others.
Corrompre. To corrupt, rot, putrifie taint; marre, spill, spoyle; deprane, infect, viciate; inuert, peruert, mislead; also, to bribe; suborne, or win, by gifts.
Corrompu : m. A dissolute youth, vnthriftie packe, riotous yonker, loose mate, notable wag, terrible wencher.
Corrompu : m. uë : f. Corrupted, tainted, putrified; marred, spoyled; infected, viciated; misled, peruerted; also, bribed; woon, seduced, or suborned, by bribes.
Corrompu comme la feſſe d'un Postillon. Looke Postillon.
Corrompure : f. A corrupting, or corruption; also, wast, losse, or spoyle by corruption.
Corrosé : m.ée : f. Corroded; fretted, bitten, gnawen, worne or wasted about, or on th' edges, or sides.
Corrosif : m.iue : f. Corrosiue; biting, gnawing, or fretting away (on th' edges, or sides.)
Corrosion : f. A corrosion; a fretting, gnawing, or biting away (on th' edges, or sides.)
Corrosivité : f. as Corrosion; or corrosiuenesse.
Corroye : f. See Courroye.
Corrude : f. Stone Asparagus, mountaine Sperage.
Corrugation : f. A corrugation, a wrinkling, or furrowing of the skin; a frowning.
Corruptelle : f. A corruption, deprauation; falsification.
Corruptement. Corruptly; to the spoyle, marring, or putrifaction of.
Corruptible : com. Corruptible; subiect vnto corruption; easie to be corrupted.
Corruption : f. Corruption; putrifaction; also, a marring, deprauing, peruerting, vitiating; also, a falsifying.
Corruptrice : f. A corruptrix; a woman that marres, or misleads, others.
Cors. The Plurall of Cor; See Cor.
A cors & à cri. By Proclamation, or, with hue and crie; also, by might and maine, with beaue and hoe, earnestly, eagerly, vnbemently, seriously.
Corsage : m. The forme, habit, or constitution of the bodie.
Gens de corsage. Villeins; or such as hold their land by a slauish, and seruile tenure.
Corsaire : m. A courser; as Courtier; also, a pyrat.
De corsaire à corsaire n'y pend que barriques rompues: Pro. Nought is to be got of rouers but trash, or blowes.
Corselet : m. A verie little bodie.
Corser. To imbrace, take, or hold, by the bodie; to catch, take, or lay, hold of the bodie.
Corsesque : f. A kind of broad-headed Iauelin, Gleue, or Dart.
Corset : m. A little bodie; also, a paire of bodies (for a woman.)
Corsu : m. uë : f. Grosse, flesbie, corpulent, big-bodied.
Corsyre. A kind of hearbe.
Cortine. See Courtine.
Corueable : com. Liable, or subiect vnto base, and personall seruices; bound to performe, or of whom a Landlord may exact, certaine dayes workes in the yeare.
Corvée : f. A boone, or bound; a toilesome, and drudging dayes worke; lent vnto a friend; or (the more properly) due by a vassall, or tenant; and to be done, either (and most properly) in his owne person, or by

by his cattell, plough, the house, of his Lord duetie for which ther hence;
Faire corvée. To do that knowes he shall n
Faire vne grande co
Corybanter. Madly t Cymball, and wagging Priests; also, to sleep
Corybantiant. So run
Corymbe : m. An Ivie
Coryphée : m. The firs the chiefe of an Order man; hence, the lead in any manner of know others.
Coscossons : m. Curd
Coscoté : m. ée : f. Sp
Coscotons : m. Fresh c
Cosmographe : m. A whole world.
Cosmographie : f. Cos the whole world.
Cosmo-vague : m. A out the world.
Cossats de febues, pois &c.
Cosse : f. as Gousse; A Rammes in their fight; of a ship; also, as Cost
Cossé. Butted, iurred.
Cosser. To but, or iurre,
Cossi : m. The warbling
Cosson : m. A mite, or w
Cossonnerie : f. The m Paris.
Cossot. as Cosson.
Costu : m.uë : f. Codded
Cost : m. du cost. Costma
Costal : m.ale : f. Belong
Costaner : m. Costmarie
Costau : m. A little hill.
Costaux de mõtaign taines.
Costé : m. The side (of an on; also, a coast, or quar
Haut costé. A Surloyn
De costé. Sideling, sid
Clocher des deux cost
Couper des deux cost bet on both sides, interta hopefull, tearmes.
Dormir sur les deux co Looke Dormir.
Coste : m. Th' Arom Costus.
Coste : f. A rib; also, the stemme, or staulke of an &c; also, a little hill, o or land by the sea side; a
Les costes. The wedge the sides of a Boot-tree,
Coste à coste. Equall cheeke by cheeke.
Costeau. as Costau.
Costelette : f. (The Dim side, &c.

by his cattell, plough, or teame, in the ground, or about the house, of his Lord, or Landlord; also, any seruice of duetie for which there is no recompence expected; and hence;

Faire corvée. To do a thing with an ill will, as one that knowes he shall not be rewarded for his paines.

Faire vne grande corvée. See Courvée.

Corybanter. Madly to run vp and downe, playing on a Cymball, and wagging his head, like one of Cybeles Priests; also, to sleep with open eyes.

Corybantiant. So running; or sleeping.

Coryмbe: m. An Ivie berrie.

Coryphée: m. The first in a ranke, the best at a game, the chiefe of an Order; a President, Principall, or prime man; hence, the leader of a daunce; and, hee that in any manner of knowledge excells, or exceeds, all others.

Coscossons: m. Curdes; or as Coscotons.

Coscoté: m. ée: f. Spotted, or pounced.

Coscotons: m. Fresh cheese; or as Coscossons.

Cosmographe: m. A Cosmographer, or describer of the whole world.

Cosmographie: f. Cosmographie; or the description of the whole world.

Cosmo-vague: m. A wanderer, or traueller throughout the world.

Cossats de febues, pois &c. The huskes, or cods of beans &c.

Cosse: f. as Gousse; A huske; also, the iurring of two Rammes in their fight; also, the vpper part of the mast of a ship; also, as Coste; a rib.

Cossé. Butted, iurred.

Cosser. To but, or iurre, as fighting Rammes.

Cossi: m. The warbling note of a Swallow.

Cosson: m. A mite, or weeuell.

Cossonnerie: f. The market for Fowle, or Venison, in Paris.

Cossot. as Cosson.

Cossu: m. ue: f. Codded, husked, hulled.

Cost: m. du cost. Costmarie, Balsamine, Alecoast.

Costal: m. ale: f. Belonging to the sides, or the ribs.

Costamer: m. Costmarie, or Alecoast.

Costau: m. A little hill.

Costaux de mõtaignes. The sides, or skirts of mountaines.

Costé: m. The side (of any thing;) also, a partie, or faction; also, a coast, or quarter.

Haut costé. A Surloyne.

De costé. Sideling, sideways.

Clocher des deux costez. Looke Clocher.

Couper des deux costez. To play with both hands, bet on both sides, intertaine both parties with good, or hopefull, tearmes.

Dormir sur les deux costez. To barrell vp sleepe; Looke Dormir.

Coste: m. Th' Aromaticall, and medicinable root Costus.

Coste: f. A rib; also, the side of a man, &c; also, the stemme, or staulke of an hearb; also, a cloue of garlick, &c; also, a little hill, or descent of land; also, a coast, or land by the sea side; also, the tow of fine silke.

Les costes. The wedge-like peeces of wood wherwith the sides of a Boot-tree, or Boot-last are inlarged.

Coste à coste. Equally, in euen ranke, side by side, cheeke by iowle.

Costeau. as Costau.

Costelette: f. (The Diminutiue of Coste) a little rib, side, &c.

Costelettes de porc. The Sparribs.

Costereauls. A nickname giuen vnto certaine footmen, that serued the kings of England in their French warres; or as Cotereaux; or Cottereaux.

Costié: m. ée: f. Sided, on a side, of the one side; also, tainted, or (applied vnto fruit) bruised.

Costier: m. ere: f. Side, sideling; of, or on, a side.

Costiere. à costiere. Aside, sideling, sidewaies.

Costin. huile costin. An oyle made of Costus (a medicinable root) or, of the hearb, Alecoast.

Coston: m. The staulke of an hearbe; also, the Aromaticall root, Costus; (the best kind whereof, being white and light, comes from Arabia; the second, light and blacke, from the Indies; and the third, beauie & yellow, from Suria.)

Coston bastard. The root of Chirons Allheale.

Costoyé: m. ée: f. Accoasted, sided, abborded; coasted, or gone along by.

Costoyer. To accoast, side, abbord; to bee, or ly, by the side of; also, to coast along by, or goe by the coast of.

Cotée: f. A Coot, or Moore-henne.

Coter. To quote; See Quoter.

Cotereaux. as Costereaux; Or, a certaine crue of peasantlie outlawes, who, in old time, did much mischiefe vnto the Nobilitie, and Clergie.

Coteret: m. A fagot made of great stickes, or clouen wood; also, a kind of peasantlie weapon vsed in old time; also, a vessell containing 48 pintes of Neuers measure.

Coterie: f. Companie, societie, association of countrey people; or, as Cotterie.

Cothurne: f. A fashion of high-soled buskin vsed by the auncient Tragedians; also, a high, and loftie stile, as of a Tragedie.

Cothurné: m. ée: f. Shod with high pantofles, or, wearing high-soled buskins, as in a Tragedie.

Cotice. as Cottice.

Cotignac: m. Codinniack; Conserue, or Marmalade of Quinces.

Cotile: ¶Rab. as Cotyle.

Cotillon: m. A Petticoat.

Cotine: m. Venice Sumach, silken Sumach, red Sumach.

Cotis: m. The sparribs of a porke.

Cotisation. See Cottisation.

Cotiser. See Cottiser.

Cotivet: m. The vpper part of a hennes, or capons, necke.

Cotollaire. in stead of Corolaire: ¶Rab.

Coton. as Coston.

Cotouere. as Cottoire.

Cotte: f. A coat, or frocke; also, as Quote; also, a ticke for a bed.

Cotte d'armes. A Coat-armor; a long coat worne ouer armor.

Cotte de femme. A Kirtle.

Cotte de mailles. A shirt of maile.

Ils tiennent cotte & ligne. They haue both ends of the staffe, the law in their owne hands; or, the world at will.

Femme sotte se cognoist à la cotte: Prov. Looke Femme.

Cotté: m. ée: f. Coated; that hath gotten, or put on a coat; also, (of a hawke) full, or well mued; also, whose sides are underpropped, sustained, or underset.

Cotte-maillé. Armed with a coat of maile.

Cotter. (as Accoter.) To underset, sustaine, underprop, hold vp the side of.

Cottereaux: m. Takers, outlawes, freebooters, highway-robbers, peasant-fleecers, church-ransackers; (an old word; See Cotereaux.)

Cotterie: f. A base, ignoble, and seruile tenure, or tenement, not held in fee, and yeelding only rent, or if more, but cens, or surcens at most; as Possession Roturiere, or de main-ferme.

Cottice: f. A Cottice, or Battune; a third part lesse than a Bend, in Blazon.

Cottier: m. ere: f. as Roturier; Or, yeelding only rent, and cens, or surcens, and no better dueties, nor seruices; also, base, ignoble, seruile, not held in fee; or, held, or holding, by a seruile, base, and ignoble tenure; (for this word is euer opposed vnto feudal, noble, & franc; and, like enough, is an originall to our cottager.)

Iuge Cottier. Before whom a Cottier is, or ought to be, tried.

Cottierement. Ignobly, basely, Roturier-like, seruily, not in fee, onely for rent, or cens, or at most, surcens.

Cottir. To iarre, butt, rush, iustle, knocke heads together.

Cottisation: f. A Cottisation, assessement, or taxation.

Cottisé: m. ée: f. Taxed, assessed, rated at his part.

Cottiser aucun. To tax, assesse, rate, or set downe his part of paiment.

Cottité: f. A particular mans rate, part, or portion of an assessement, or imposition.

Cottization; &, Cottizer. as Cottisation; & Cottiser.

Cottoire (de Perles.) A chaine (of Pearle.

Cotton: m. Bumbasie, cotton.

L' herbe à cotton. as Cottonniere.

Manne de cotton. The worst kind of Manna, resembling flockes of bumbasie.

Cottonné: m. ée: f. Bumbasted, or stuffed with cotton.

Cottonner. To bumbast, or stuffe with cotton.

Cottonner le moule du pourpoint. To feed soundly, or excessiuely.

Cottonneux. Cottonnie, full of cotton; soft as cotton; ouergrowne with a white, soft, or cotton-like downe.

Cottonniere: f. The hearbe Chaffeweed, Cudwort, Cudweed, Cotton-weed, pettie Cotton.

Cottouere. as Cottoire.

Coturniqué: m. ée: f. Bebuskined, in buskins: Rab.

Cotyle. An ancient measure containing about 24 spoonfuls.

Cotyledons: m. The mouthes, or ends of the Menstruall veines, whereby the superfluous bloud of all the bodie falls into the wombe, & giues nourishment vnto the child there (if there be any.)

Cou: f. A whetstone.

Couäné: m. ée: f. All foamie, or froathie.

Coüanne. as Couënne.

Coüard: m. A coward, a dastard, a cow.

La coüard n' aura belle amie: Prov. Faint heart neuer woon faire Ladie.

Mieux vaut coüard que trop hardi: Prov. Tis better to be a coward than foole-hardie.

Couard: m. arde: f. Cowardlie, dastardlie, vnmanlie; timerous, fearfull, white-liuered, heartlesse, faint hearted.

Plus couard qu'un Lievre. More heartlesse than a Hare.

Hardie langue coüarde lance: Prov. as in Langue.

Coüardement. Cowardly, dastardly, heartlesly, timerously, fearfully.

Coüarder. To be a coward, or play the coward.

Coüardise: f. Cowardise, dastardie, cowardlinesse, vnmanlinesse, faint-heartednesse, timerousnesse.

Couat: m. The vnderling, writling, starueling, or dwarfe, of any beast, or bird.

Coubde: m. as Coude; The Elbow.

Coubdée. as Coudée.

Couble. chevaux de couble. Paires, or couples of horses; coach horses; draught-horses.

Coubte. The Elbow.

Couchable: com. Fit, easie, or possible to be lien on.

Couchant. Couchant, couching, lying; laying along.

Couche: f. A bedstead; also, a couch, or bed; also, a (square high) bed in a garden; also, a womans lying in (child-bed;) also, the Post, or most of a sute, at cards; also, a set, lay, or stake, at any game.

Couches. A childes clowts; also, receptacles, or ponds for sea-water (as in Amezeau;) also, a womans lying in.

Vn lict à triple couche de plumes. A bed stuffed with three course of feathers one aboue the other.

Panneau de couche. as Sommier.

I'entends le pair & la couche. I vnderstand the matter throughly.

Prins au pair, & à la couche. Beset, intangled, indaungered, ouertaken, at losse, in extremitie, on all hands.

Couché: m. ée: f. Couched, layed along, lying; also, couched, mentioned, or set downe in writing; also, staked, or set, at play.

Couché à quatre pattes. Prostrated, layed all along, or vpon all foure.

Couché en estat. Being made Officer; qui n'est couché en l'estat: Baulked, omitted, passed in election, and not chosen.

Couché entre l'enclume & les marteaux. Seated in the middest of dangers; or, inuironed on all sides, with dangerous mischiefs; pestered, perplexed, afflicted which way soeuer he turne him.

Couchement: m. A couching, lying, or laying downe.

Couche-m'-icy. The weed called Dodder.

Couchenil: m. Cuchannele.

Coucher. To couch, or ly (also, to lay) downe, or along; to goe (also, to get, bring, or haue) to bed; also, to mention, or set downe in writing; also, to plant, or set a root, or slip, flat along within the ground; also, to stake, at play.

Coucher de belles. Ils en couchent de belles. They write goodlie matters sure; tis sweet stuffe that they set downe; ironically.

Coucher en chappon. To go earely to bed.

Coucher soubs corde. To stake downe readie coine; See Corde.

Coucher à l'enseigne de l'estoille. To lye without doores all night.

Coucher tout à bander & à racler. To venture all on desperat tearmes, to set all on sixes and seuens.

Se coucher, abouchon. To lie groueling, to sleepe on the face.

Se despouiller avant que se coucher. Said of him that in his life time giues his heires absolute possession of all he hath.

Qui se couche avec les chiens se leue avec des puces: Prov. From filthie companie what can one bring but filth?

Couchette: f. A little bed; a couch, or bed of ease.

Mignon

Mignon de couchette. A Carpet-Knight, one that euer loues to be in womens chambers.
Coucheur: m. A coucher, ſtaker; layer downe of; alſo, a Bedfellow.
Couchille. The tree that beares the graine Kermes, wherewith Skarlet is dyed; wee call it, the Skarlet Oake.
Couchine. The name of a certaine apple.
Coucombre. A Cowcumber. See Concombre.
Coucon. The little bottome, or clue of ſilke ſpunne by the ſilkeworme.
Coucou: m. A Cuckoe.
(I'ay beau luy remonſtrer;) ie ne fais non plus que le coucou aux cannes. No wordes terrifie him, or preuaile with him.
Coucourbe. as Coucourde.
Coucourde: f. A round Gourd; alſo, a kind of large Stillitorie; or, as Courge.
Coucourelle. The name of a certaine Fig.
Coude: m. The elbow.
Coude de la branche. The elbow, or out-bearing of the branch of a Bit.
Os du coude. The vnder bone of the arme, from the elbow to the wriſt.
Il y a mis la main iuſques au coude; &, il a entré en la paſte iuſques aux coudes. He hath gone very farre in the matter; he is vp to the eares in it.
Plier le coude. To drinke hard, to ply the pot apace; or, to fall to chat ſeriouſly, to ſettle himſelfe to talke; (for, ſuch as doe ſo, commonly leane vpon their elbowes.)
Pouſſer du coude. Proudly to iuſtle, and ſhoulder euerie one that comes in his way.
Coudé: m. ée: f. Bowed, or crooked, or ſtanding, elbow-wiſe.
Coudée: f. A cubit; (extends from the elbow to the end of the middle finger; and is in ordinarie meaſure, a foot and a halfe.)
Coudées franches. Elbow-roome, free libertie.
Coudée Geometrique. Containeth ſix ordinarie cubits.
Coudée royale. is three fingers longer then the ordinarie one.
Coudéer. To iog, or ioult with the elbow.
Coudepied. The inſtup.
Coudoyer. as Coudéer.
Coudraye: f. See Couldraye.
Coudre: m. A Haſell; a ſmall Nut tree; a Filberd tree; (for this word comprehendeth all thoſe kinds of ſmall Nut trees.)
Coudre: f. A ſmall Nut, a Haſell Nut; and a Filberd; (for it comprehends them all.)
Coudre franche. A Filberd.
Coudré: m. ée: f. Tanned, ſteeped in a Tanfat.
Coudre. To ſow; to ſtitch together.
Coudre la peau de regnard à celle de lion. To attempt that by craftie, which he cannot get by forcible, meanes.
Ie ne ſçay quelle piece coudre à cecy. I know not what remedie to apply vnto this, nor what art to vſe in the repaire of it.
Coudrer. To tanne; to ſteepe, or ſtiffen, in a Tanfat.
Coudrier: m. A ſmall Nut tree, of what kind ſoeuer.
Coudroir. A Tanfat, or Tanpit.
Couë: f. as Queuë; a tayle.
Coué: m. ée: f. Tayled, hauing a tayle.
Couënne de lard. The skin of Bacon.
Couët: m. (The name of) a certaine little apple.
Couëts. Two ropes belonging to the mizen ſayle of a ſhip.
Couëtte: f. A ticke (to ly, or ſit on;) as Coitte.
Coufler. To ſwell, or be puffed vp.
Cougourde: f. A Bottle-Gourd; the round Gourd whereof Bottles are made.
Cougourle. The ſame.
Couhourde. The ſame.
Couillage: m. A Tribute payed in times paſt by Prieſts for Licences to keepe wenches.
Couillards: m. as Clides; or, certaine round, and ringed pieces of yron, which in old time they vſed to ſhoot out of ſhips.
Couillatris. Well hangd (betweene the legs.)
Couille: f. A mans yard; alſo (but leſſe properly) a cod, ballocke, or teſticle; alſo, a long, lanke, and lubberlie coward; a heartleſſe, faint-hearted, or white-liuered ſlimme.
Couille barbe. A certaine little apple, which is red on the one ſide; and yeelds an excellent Cyder.
Couille de belier. A kind of ball made of a Rammes cod.
Couille au chien. as Couillon de chien.
Couille à l'Eueſque. A kind of ſallet hearbe.
Couille au loup. Wild Prickmadame, Wormegraſſe, great Stonecrop.
Les couilles luy pendent à faute de gibbeciere. He hath taken too much of the lower ſheet; or he is tame enough by this time: (Spoken of a young man, after hee hath beene married ſome two or three moneths.)
Couille-barbe. See Couille.
Couilleu. Stoned; or, that wants not his ſtones.
Couillon: m. A cod, ſtone, teſticle, cullion.
Couillon de bouc. Goats ſtones, Goats cullions; (an hearbe.)
Couillon de chien. Dogs-ſtones, Dogs cullions, Gandergooſe, Standlewort, Standergraſſe, Ballock-graſſe, Adders graſſe, baſtard Satyrion.
Couillon de preſtre. Spindletree, Prickwood, Pricktymber.
Couïnne. as Couënne. The skin of Bacon.
Couïonnade. as Coyonnade.
Coulac. The Shad fiſh; (called ſo in Bourdeaux.)
Coulagion: f. The running of a ſore, &c.
Les Coulans d'un jardinier. A Gardeners lines, wherewith he meaſures out his beds, and plots.
Coulant: m. Le c. d'une Riviere. The ſtreame of a riuer.
Vn coulant d'eau de mer. An arme of the ſea.
Coulant: m. ante: f. Gliding, ſlipping, flowing gently along.
Vaine doucement coulante. A ſweet ſmooth veine in Poetrie, &c.
Coulde. as Coude. The elbow.
Couldée. as Coudée; alſo, a certaine crooked toole belonging to Maſons.
Couldier: m. A dwarfe; one thats no higher then three horſe-loaues, one thats but a ſhafiment high.
Couldoye. à c. Made with an out nooke like an elbow.
Couldraſſe: f. A hedge toad, or land toad.
Couldray: m. as Couldraye.
Couldraye: f. A Wood, Groue, or Orchard, of Haſell, or of ſmall Nut, trees; a Haſell wood, or Haſell groue.
Couldre: m. A Haſell tree, a ſmall Nut tree, of what kind ſoeuer.

Coul-

Couldre : f. A Haſell Nut, or ſmall Nut, of what kind ſoeuer.
Couldre franche. A Filberd.
Couldré. as Coudré.
Couldrer. as Coudrer.
Couldrier : m. A Haſell, or ſmall Nut tree, of what kind ſoeuer.
Couldroir. as Coudroir.
Coulé : m. ée : f. Runne, glid, gone, ſlipped gently along ; ſlid, trilled, trickled downe; alſo, ſtrained ; alſo, leaked.
Coulée : f. as Coulement.
Coulement : m. A gentle running, eaſie paſſing, ſoft gliding, glib ſliding, (as of water, &c) along ; a trilling, or trickling downe ; alſo, a leaking ; alſo, a ſtraining.
Couler. To ſlide, ſlip, runne quietly along ; to goe glib away ; to flow gently, glide eaſily by ; to trill, trickle, or fall downe ſoftly ; alſo, to leake ; alſo, to ſtraine.
Se couler. To creepe through, or into ; to crawle ouer.
Le navire couloit à bas en pleine mer. Went, or ſunke, downe to the bottome.
Cette pluye fait couler les raiſins. Makes them drop, or fall off.
Coule-ſang : m. A certaine Viper, ſo called, becauſe thoſe that are bitten by her bleed to death.
Coulet : m. as Collet.
Couletage. Droict de c. A pennie, or halfe-pennie toll collected, & taken, of all wares, or marchandiſe bought and ſold.
Couleur : f. A colour, hue ; dye ; ſtaine ; alſo, a pretext, pretence, cloake, ſhew, ſhadow, for a matter.
Couleur baſtarde. A weake, pale, wan, decayed colour.
Couleur de Caſſidoine. A mingled colour betweene purple, and white ; a Mallow colour.
Couleur chargée. A deepe colour, in any kind.
Couleur de ciel ſerein. A bright skie colour.
Couleur d'enfer. as much as, Noir-brun enfumé.
Couleur flamboyante. A flame colour.
Couleur de fleur de peſcher. A Peach colour.
Couleur de gris violant. A whitiſh purple, or the Mallow-flower colour.
Couleur de jaulne paille. Straw colour.
Couleur incarnat. A Carnation, or Damaske-Roſe, colour.
Couleur d'Inde. A Painters browne Violet, made of the ſcumming of woad ſodden with ſlaked lyme, or chalke, and mixed afterwards with a little Amydon.
Couleur de Minime. A huswiues darke gray, or light ſoote colour, wherein there is an eye of gray.
Couleur paillarde. The greene ſickneſſe ; or, a pale, wan, bleake hue.
Couleur paſle. A vaded, or vnperfect colour, ſuch as that of Box wood is.
Couleur pers. A Blue, or Watchet.
Couleur perſe. Skie-colour, Azure colour, a Blunket, or light blue.
Couleur de poil de ſouris. A Mouſe-dunne.
Couleurs Rhetoriques. Phraſes, conceits, figures, flouriſhes of Rhetoricke ; ornaments of ſpeech.
Couleur de Roſes ſeiches. The beſt darke Crimſon, or Murrey.
Couleur de Roy, was in old time, Purple ; but now is the bright Tawnie, which wee alſo tearme, Colour de Roy.
Couleur Turquine. A right blue, or Venice blue; the colour of the Turkie ſtone.
Couleur de verd de mer. A ſea-greene.
Haulte couleur. A fierie red, or flame colour.
Les paſles couleurs. The greene ſickneſſe.
Les riches couleurs. The yellow launditſe.
Il en parle comme vn aveugle de couleurs. Hee ſpeakes he knowes not what, nor of what ; Seeke Aveugle.
Couleurée : f. The weed Bryonie ; or, as ;
Couleurée blanche. Bryonie, white Bryonie, the white Vine, Tettar-berrie.
Couleurée noire. The wild Vine, blacke Bryonie, our Ladies Seale.
Couleurée ſauvage. Wild Bryonie, or the wild blacke Bryonie.
Coulevriner. as Couleuvriner.
Couleuvre : f. An Adder.
Couleuvré : m. ée : f. Made after the faſhion of an Adder.
Couleuvreé. Snakeweed, Oyſterloit.
Couleuvreau : m. A yong Adder.
Couleuvrin : m. ine : f. Adderlike, of an Adder.
Couleuvrine : f. A Culuerin ; the peece of ordnance called ſo.
Couleuvriner. To ſquat, lurke, ly cloſe, or flat along ; alſo, to glide wrigling along.
Coulier : m. See Collier.
Coulis : m. A cullis, or broth of boiled meat ſtrained ; fit for a ſicke, or weake bodie.
Coulis : m. iſſe : f. as Coulant ; Gliding.
Potage coulis. as Coulis.
Vent coulis. The hurtfull, or vnwholeſome wind, which blowes through a hole, creuiſe, or crannie.
Couliſſe : f. A Portcullis ; or any other doore, or thing, which, as a portcullis, falls, or ſlips, or is let, downe ; alſo, a web in the eye.
Couliſſe d'un arbaleſte. The hollow furrow wherein the arrow lyes ; we call it, the gutter, or chace (of a croſſe-bow.)
Coullebobes : f. The hearbe Alkakengie, or, the fruit thereof ; Winter-cherries.
Coullon. as Coulon.
Couloir : m. A cullander, or ſtrainer.
Couloir : m. ire : f. Cullender-like, belonging to a cullander, ſtraining through it, as a cullander.
Os couloir du nez. The head bone, or inner bone of the noſe.
Couloire : f. as Couloir. A cullander.
Coulomb : m. A Doue, a Pigeon.
Coulomb biſet. A Stocke-doue, Queeſt, Culuer.
Coulombier : m. A Doue-cote, a Pigeonhouſe.
Coulombin. Doue colour. See Colombin.
Coulomne : f. as Colomne ; a pillar.
Coulon : m. A Doue, Pigeon, or Culuer.
Coulon ramier. A Queeſt, Cowſhot, Ringdoue, Stockdoue, Wood-culuer.
Coulouëre. as Couloire ; alſo, a channell, gutter, or any ſuch hollow, along which melted things are to runne, as Bell-mettall, from the furnace to the mould.
Coulouöir : m. A ſliding blow.
Coulouré : m. ée : f. Coloured. See Coloré.
Coulourer. To colour ; ſhadow ; make pretences.
Coulpable : com. Culpable, guiltie, offending, faultie, blame-worthie.
Coulpe : f. A fault, offence, treſpaſſe, miſdeed, or ill deed.
Batre ſa coulpe. To beat his breaſt for his faults.

En

En dire ſa coulpe. Le meſme.

Coulper. To blame, tax, reproue, chide, reprehend, find fault with.

Coulteau; &, Coultel. as Couſteau. A knife.

Coultre: m. The Sexton of a Church; alſo, the Culter, or knife of a Plow.

Coulture: f. A great plowed field; a large cloſe of tilled land; alſo, plowing, or tillage.

Coulure: f. A gentle running, ſlipping, ſliding along; trilling, or falling downe; creeping through, or into; gliding, or crawling ouer; alſo, a leaking; alſo, a ſtraining.

Coulure de Vignes. A fault, or imperfection in Vines, the chiefe grapes falling, and the reſidue verie little; comes by much raine when they were young, or in knitting.

Counil: m. A Connie.

Counille: f. A Doe Connie, a female Rabbet.

Counilleau: m. A young Rabbet, little young Connie.

Counin: m. as Counil. See Connin.

Coup: m. A blow, ſtroake; knocke, rap, thumpe, cuffe, whirret; alſo, a hit, or touch; a Vennie, in fencing; alſo, a fling, or caſt, as at Dice, [illegible]; alſo, a Cuckold.

Coup de bec. A pecking, or pecke (of a birds beake;) alſo, a quip, taunt, cut, or bad word; alſo, a kiſſe.

Coup d' eſſay. A tryall-peece, or Maiſter-peece; Looke Eſſay.

Coup d'eſtoc. A thruſt, foine, ſtab; alſo, a prick-caſt.

Coup de haut. A downe-right blow; alſo, a quaffe, carouſſe, or ſound draught.

Coup de langue. A checke, taunt, rebuke; alſo, a quip, cut, gird; ſlaunder, diſgracefull nip, reprochfull touch; a tearme of imputation; and hence the Prouerbe;

Vn coup de langue eſt plus dangereux qu' un coup de lance. A word is (oft) more dangerous then a wound.

Coup de mer. A violent waue, a mightie ſea; or, a blow giuen by a waue of the ſea.

Coup de rets. The draught (of a Net.)

Coup de taille. A ſlaſh, cut, gaſh, wype.

Coup orbe. A bruiſe, cruſh, thumpe, duſt, dry-blow.

Coup-orbe. Red pimples in the face.

Coup perdu. A Miſſe; alſo, a caſt, or throw made at randome, and without any apparant hope, or likelyhood of hitting; whence;

`A coup perdu. Fruitleſly, in vaine, vnto no purpoſe; alſo, at randome; without any certaine aime, or hope of hitting; and,

Prins à coup perdu. Atchieued by chance, obtained by meere fortune, ſucceeding beyond expectation, gotten more by hap then by any manner of cunning.

Le tiers coup de baſton. The knocke which in a Portſale (or Act which any other way) gaines a full, and abſolute poſſeſſion.

Coup à coup. Euer; euerie time; or, from time to time.

Coup ſur coup. Often, eftſoones, now and anon, ſucceſſiuely, one in the necke of another.

`A coup; tout à coup; tout à vn coup; tout d'un coup. Speedily, ſuddainly, at once, all at once, all together.

`A tous coups. Often, eftſoones; euery time, continually, at each blow.

Au bon du coup. when the matter is at beſt, or in beſt tearmes; or, when it is time to do a mans beſt in it.

Le coup valoit bien la boule. His good caſting was worth all other aduantages; or, his good play was vnto him as great an aduantage, as leading vnto the other.

Donner coup à. To ſtrike the onely ſtroake; to be of moſt auaile, to doe all in all, in.

Donner vn coup de gaule par ſous l' huis. To ſupplant, or giue a priuie lift. See Gaule.

Faire coup ſur. To ſtrike home vnto, be of great conſequence in, worke an important effect on.

Faire vn coup de ſa main. Il a fait &c. He hath played a leud part.

Faire vn mauvais coup: de peur qu'il ne feiſt quelque mauvais coup. Leaſt he ſhould enter into ſome naughtie practiſe, or execute any villanous proiect.

Faire ſelon la jambe le coup. (as we ſay) to cut his coat according to his cloth.

D'une pierre faire deux coups. To kill two birds with one ſtone; to make a double vſe, or profit, of his trauell.

Gauchir au coup. To auoid a blow by turning, or by wrinching, the bodie aſide.

Gauchir le coup. To giue a winding blow, ihruſt indirectly, ſtrike awry.

Porter coup. To hit home; to preuaile; to attaine to the purpoſe it was directed vnto.

Porter coup à la foy. To wrong, blemiſh, violate, infringe, breake, faith giuen.

Prendre coup. cela a desja pris coup. Hath alreadie receiued a fatall blow; or, is come vnto ſo ill a ſtate, that the ruine thereof muſt of neceſſitie follow.

Rompre le coup. To beat, or put by a blow. Seeke Rompre.

Suivre ſes coups. To proſecute, or ſecond, with great earneſtneſſe, an enterpriſe begun.

Tenir coup à la beſongne. To ply a matter; to follow it diligently, proſecute it ſeriouſly, hold hard vnto it.

`A tout perdre n' y a qu' un coup perilleux: Prov. One ſound blow will ſerue to vndoe vs all.

Chaſcun eſt ſage apres le coup: Prov. Looke Sage.

En adventure giſent grands coups: Pro. In doubtfull caſes great blowes are beſtowed.

L'arbre ne tombe pas du premier coup: Pro. The firſt blow fels not the tree; the firſt attempt, or effort, carries not a great matter.

On ne fait pas à grand coups douce vielle: Prov. Tis not the great (but the apt) ſtroake that makes the harmonie.

Qui viſe loing iamais ne rend ſon coup heureux: Prov. The farre-off leueller ſhall neuer hit the white.

Coupant: m. A Spade; or ſuch another earth-cutting inſtrument of Husbandrie.

Les Coupans des coſtez des traces d' un ſanglier. The ſharpe edges, or ſides, of the foot of a wilde Bore.

Coupant: m. ante: f. Cutting; cleauing; hacking, hewing; launcing, ſlitting; caruing, intdiling; lopping; mowing.

Coupau: m. A Cuckold; alſo, a greene Gooſe.

Coupe: f. A cut, or cutting; a gaſh, a ſlit, an inciſion; alſo, a cup, goblet, or mazer; alſo, the rooſe of a houſe, made almoſt round; the cop of a houſe.

Coupe de balance. The ſcole of a Balance.

Coupe de bois. The cutting, felling, or lopping of wood; alſo, the ſeaſon thats fitteſt to cut, or fell, it in; alſo, the ſoyle whereon the wood ſo cut, or felled, grew.

Bois de coupe. Wood thats betweene ten, and thirtie, yeares growth.

Tel bois à la coupe rouge. Such wood cuts red.

Coupé: m. ée: f. Cut; clouen, sliced; hacked, slashed, hewed; carued, grauen, intailed; slit, launced; pruined, lopped, felled, as a tree; mowed, as grasse.

Croix coupée. A crosse-humet; Blazon.

Coupeau: m. The cop, head, or top of a thing.

Coupeau de bois. A chip.

Coupeau d'oignon. The head, or peele of an Onyon.

Coupeau de la teste. The Crowne, or Noddle.

Piquant coupeau. A kind of pricklie thistle, tearmed thus about Paris.

Coupe-aureille. See Coupe-oreille.

Coupe-bourse: m. A Cut-purse.

Hardi en coupe-bourse. as bold as a Cut-purse.

Coupelle: f. A Coppell; the little Ashen pot, or vessell, wherein Goldsmiths melt, or fine their mettals.

Argent de coupelle. Siluer that hath beene tested, or tryed; fine siluer.

Coupement: m. A cutting, slicing, hewing, slashing; a cleauing, slitting; launcing, incision-making; also, a pruning, lopping, or felling of trees; a sheering of corne, mowing of grasse; also, a diuiding, sundering, seperating.

Coupe-oreille: f. A (fashion of) sharpe, and thin-bladed French knife, wherewith the eares of rogues, and pettie theeues are cut off.

Coupe-queuë. Deux mots à coupe-queuë. Two short, and soone-done words; two words, and there's an end; but two bare words, and no more.

Couper. To cut, slice, hacke, slash, hew; to cleaue, slit; launce, make an incision; also, to carue, graue, intayle; also, to prune, lop, or fell trees; mow corne, or grasse; also, to diuide, sunder, seperate.

Se Couper. To cut himselfe; also (in speaking) to trip.

Couper broche à. To preuent, cut off, cut short.

Couper chemin à. To stop, crosse, forestall, preuent, let from proceeding any further.

Couper de deux costez. To deale on both hands, to intertaine both sides with promise of his assistance.

Couper l'herbe sous les pieds à. To supplant, vndermine; marre the market of; set beside the cushion.

Couper les ongles de prés à. To curbe very short; to keepe very bare, or neere; to restraine, impouerish, yeeld hard, or scant allowance to; or withdraw most of his meanes, or allowance from.

Couper la queuë à. To desist, giue ouer, leaue off from; (and particularly) to breake off talke with.

Couper la queuë au ieu. To leaue playing with one whose money he hath woon; to giue ouer a winner.

Couper le vin. To leaue blowne drinke; or to drinke but part.

Il a vn nez qui coupe. He hath a most searching wit, a most piercing spirit.

Se Couper soy mesme par ses defenses. To speake against, in thinking to defend, himselfe.

Il se coupe de son propre cousteau. He wounds himselfe with his owne weapons; as does a learned Diuine that fals into heresie; an eloquent speaker, that wrests or peruerts the Law, a beautifull person that grows dissolute, or effeminate; a wealthie man that becomes either a miser, or an vnthrift, &c.

Couperet: m. A Butchers Knife, or Cleauer.

Couperose: f. Copres; also, extreame redness of the face, accompanied with many pimples, and rubies, especially about the nose.

Couperolé: m. ée: f. Mingled, seasoned, or dressed with Coperose; also, Crimson-faced, Copper-nosed, red, ruddie.

Coupet: m. The top, head, height, cop, crest, ridge, of.

Coupet de cheveux. A tuft, or topping, of haire.

Coupeur: m. A cutter, cleauer; hacker, hewer; caruer, intayler; launcer, slitter; mower; lopper, feller of trees; and most particularly, a reaper or cutter of grapes, in the time of Vintage.

Coupeur de bourses. A Cut-purse; whence; Estonné comme vn coupeur de bourses pris sur le fait; Amazed like a Cut-purse, taken in the manner.

Coupeur de cuir. A Cut-purse.

Coupeure: f. See Coupure.

Coupeuse: f. A woman that reapes, or cuts grapes in the time of Vintage.

Coupeux: m. euse: f. Cutting; or, full of cutting; or fit to cut.

Dents coupeuses. The fore-teeth.

Coupier: m. A cup-bearer; one that waiteth on his masters cup.

Couple: f. A couple; a paire; also, a paire of dogge-couples.

En couple. Coupled, by paires, two and two together.

Couplé: m. ée: f. Coupled; yoaked, vnited, ioyned; grapled, together.

Coupler. To couple, ioyne, yoake, vnite together; also, to coape, or graple together, as in fight.

Couplet de chanson. A Staffe, or Stanzo of a Poeme, or Song.

Couplot de bois. A woodden sole, or Nut for a Screw; the foot of a Screw, &c.

Coupon: m. A great Cup, or Bowle; also, a Tray of wood, &c; also, a cut of; or, a thicke and short slice, or peece cut from, a thing.

Coupon de drap. A shred of cloth.

Coup-orbe. Red pimples on the face.

Coüppe. as Coupe.

Couppe-bourse. as Coupebourse.

Couppelettes de gland. Akorne cups.

Couperet: m. A Butchers Knife, or Cleauer.

Couppier: m. A cup-bearer; or one that waiteth on his masters cup.

Couppon. as Coupon.

Coupure: f. A cutting; slicing; cleauing; launcing; lopping; sheering (&c. as in Coupement;) also, a cut (&c. as in Coupe;) and hence;

Par coupures. Peece-meale; by peeces; in slices; by shreds.

Cour: f. A Court of Law, or Iustice; any Session, or Assemblie of Iudges; or the place wherein they vse to assemble; also, the Court of a Prince; or of a priuat house. See Court.

Cour des Aides. A soueraigne Court, wherein all causes that concerne the Aides, Tailles, &c, are heard, and determined: (Some report, that King Iohn, others that Charles the fift, about the yere 1380, erected that which is at Paris; Charles the seuenth erected another at Montpelier, Anno 1437. There be others also, at Roun, and at Montferrant in Auuergne; and one at Bourdeaux, the which was first at Perigueux.)

Cour feudale. A Court Leet, or Baron; the Lords Court, whereto his vassales and tenants owe their suit, and seruice.

Cour fonciere. A Court Baron; or, Court of base iurisdiction.

La

La Cour des monnoyes. as, La Chambre des monnoyes.
La Cour des Pairs. A Court Leet, or Baron.
La Cour de Parlement. Looke Parlement.
Cour personnelle. See Personnel.
Cours souverains. The highest Courts, from which there is no appealing.
Retraict de barre, ou de Cour. See Retraict.
De par la Cour. By the opinion, consent, or sentence of the Iudges, in Court.
En pleine Cour. In the hearing of the whole Court; when all the Iudges and Officers thereof were present.

Courage: m. Courage; mettall, spirit, hart, stomacke; valour, stoutnesse, bouldnesse, bardinesse, forwardnesse; also, confidence, assurance, hopefulnesse; also, liuelinesse, alacritie, iolitie, cheerefulnesse; also, willingnesse; also, the mind, will, humor, fancie, affection, disposition.
Courage de brebis. (A merrie forme of incouraging, or cheering vp; wherein tis meant that, Le nez en terre, should follow) On with a sheepes heart.
Dur courage. A rude, stiffe, obdurate, inflexible, humor.
Felon courage. A fiercenesse, rigor, crueltie, an vntractable, or vnsociable disposition.
Franc courage. Openesse, plainnesse, freeheartednesse; de franc courage. Cheerefully, freely, willingly, with a heart.
Lasche courage. Negligence, carelesnesse, faintnesse; slacknesse, weaknesse; abiection, lowlinesse.
Petit courage. Weaknesse, feeblenesse, pusillanimitie; slender wit, little spirit, poore mettall.
De courage. as Courageusement.
Sans courage. Dully, slackly, cowardly.
Tu cognois mon courage. Thou knowest my minde, thou art well acquainted with my humor.
I'ay bon courage mais les jambes me faillent. My heart is verie good, but my heeles (viz. my meanes) doe faile me.
A grand danger grand courage: Prov. Courage, when danger is, had need be great.

Courageusement. Couragiously, stoutly, valiantly, boldly, forwardly, hardily; confidently, with great assuredneſſe.

Courageux: m. euſe: f. Couragious, valiant, hardie, bold, stout, manlie, aduenturous, forward; full of confidence, full of assurance, full of assuredneſſe.

Couramment. Swiftly, glibly, readily, without stop.

Courance: f. A flux, or laxatiueneſſe in the bodie; the Squirt.

Courans. as Coulans.

Courant: m. A current, or swift course of waters; also, an vpper Mill-stone, called (also by our Millers) the runner.

Courant. Running, speeding, poasting; coursing, chasing.
Cordeau courant. See Cordeau.
Queſte courant. Such an imposition as may be layed by a Lord on his tenants, when, and in what proportion he list.
Rente courant. A rent-secke, or charge; raised of, or bought with, money.

Courante: f. A Curranto.

Courbaſſé: m. ée: f. Hulch-backed, or crooke-shouldered.

Cour-baſton: m. A truncheon, or short cudgell; also (in a ship) a crooked peece of tymber, tearmed a Knee, or Futtocke.

Courbatu: m. uë: f. Tyred, ouertoyled, worne out, growne crooked, with extreame labour; also, beaten till he stoope againe, or so much, that he is grown crooked withall; also, foundered.

Courbature: f. The foundering of a horse, or beating of his feet, by ouer-much trauell.

Courbe: f. A bought; also, a crooked, or bowing peece of tymber; and (more particularly) a compasse, or moulded, Rafter; also, the Curbes (in a horses hinder legs.)
Courbes d'un navire. The ribs of a ship; called by Mariners, the Futtocks, or Nauell tymbers.
Courbes d'une voulte. The arching of a Vault.

Courbé: m. ée: f. Crooked, bowed, plyed, vaulted, arched, bent arch-wise.
Les bras courbez en anſe. With armes a-kemboll.

Courbée: f. as Courvée. ¶Gasc.

Courbe-eſpine. The name of a delicate Normand apple.

Courbement: m. A crooking, bowing; vaulting, arching; plying, or bending, arch-wise.

Courber. To crooke, bow; vault, arch; ply, or bend, arch-wise.

Courbes: f. The legs; ¶Barrag; also, the plurall vnto Courbe.

Courbette: f. A small crooked Rafter, or peece of Tymber; also, a curuet, or, the curuetting of a horse.

Courbure: f. as Courbement; or, a bought.

Courcaillée de cailles. The calling of Quayles.

Courcie: f. Part of a Galley tearmed, the Coursey.

Courde: f. A Gourd.

Courdier: m. A Gourd-plant.

Courée de mouton: f. A Sheepes Plucke; the intrailes, or inwards of a Mutton.

Courement: m. A running; poasting, coursing, passing on apace.

Coureur: m. A runner; a courser; a Poaster, a Poste; also, a roamer, or wanderer abroad; one whose shooes are made of running leather; one that neuer keepes at home, or where he should be; also, a courror, outrider, rank-rider; and hence;
Coureurs. Light horsemen, imployed in the ouerrunning, rauaging, or forraging, of an enemies countrey.

Coureuſe: f. A gadding huswife; also, a common, publicke, notorious, whore.

Courge: f. The fruit called, a Gourd; also, a wide, and deepe Lymbecke, made somewhat Gourd-like; also (and the more properly) the wide bellie, or lower part of such a Lymbecke; also, a Stang, Pale-staffe, or Coleſtaffe, carried on the shoulder, and notched (for the hanging of a Pale &c) at both ends.
Courge blanche. The white Gourd, a very holesome fruit either boyled, fryed, or preserued.
Courge d'hyver. The ordinarie great round Pompion, or Gourd, hung vp in Kitchins for Winter prouision.
Courge d'Inde. as Courge d'hyver; so called, because the first seedes thereof came out of the Indies; ¶Mathiolus; (yet are there, besides this, three seuerall kinds of Indian Pompions; a small round one; a cornered one; and the Mushrome Pompion. ¶Gerard.)
Courge longue. The Snakes Gourd, or long Gourd.
Courge marine. The sea Gourd, whereof there be diuers kinds; (though Gerard haue none.)
Courge ſauvage. The wild Gourd; some also call so the wild Citrull, or fleame-purging Coloquintida.

Courge de Turquie. The Turkie Gourd.
Grande courge. The great round Gourd.
Petite courge. The bottle Gourd, or lesse Gourd.
Courier: m. A Post, &c; as Courrier.
Courin. as Cousin.
Courir. To runne; post, gallop; make speed, hye apace, goe verie hastily, passe verie swiftly; runne on; proceed fast in; also, to ride a running horse, or (as in posting) runne on horseback; also, to hunt, course vp and down, follow hard, pursue hastily, giue hot chase vnto; also, to ouerrun, rauage, ransack, make hostile incursions vpon; also, to haue course, or be current; to be in date, vse, request, or fashion.
Courir les champs en pourpoint. To play the Bedlam; to runne vp and downe like a mad man.
Courir les choses legierement. To runne, or passe ouer things verie sleightly; to take a snatch, and be gone; to giue onely a touch, and away.
Courir danger. To be in danger, or, in a doubtfull estate; to be as like to speed ill as well.
Courir au deuant de. To meet with.
Courir l'esguillette. To play the impudent, or importunate, whore; extreamly to lust, or maddingly to run, after a P.
Courir fortune. To be in danger of shipwracke; or, to abandon a ship, in a great storme, vnto the mercie and conduction of the wind and waues.
Courir fortune avec; ou, courir la fortune de. To imbarke himselfe, or take part, with another, in all his attempts, or hazards whatsoeuer.
Courir la lance. To tilt, or, to run at tilt.
Courir la lance S. Crespin sur vn escabelle à trois pieds. To play the Shoomaker.
Courir vn livre; To runne ouer a booke with the eye, noting onely the words, and neglecting the matter; or, to read a booke sleightly, and hastily ouer, without much respect had, or heed taken, either to the phrase, or matter.
Courir vn office. To ride post for the getting of an Office.
Courir apres son ombre. To spend his time idly, fondly, vainely; or, to loose time.
Courir la poule. To forrage, rauage, ransacke, spoyle, or make pillage of, euery thing that comes in his way; (Said of a disorderlie, and ill-gouerned, souldier, who in his march, or residence in a countrey, twitches vp euery poore mans henne that peepes out.)
Courir comme vne rasle, viz. Very swiftly.
Courir les rues. To play the Bedlam; to range, roame, or gad vp and downe, like a mad man.
Courir sus à. Furiously to inuade, assaile, or set vpon; also, to vsurpe, or incroach on, to interrupt, or intermeddle with, another mans profit, or imployment.
Ce n'est pas tout de courir, Il faut partir à temps: Prov. 'Tis not enough to pursue diligently, vnlesse we haue begun discreetly.
Il ne faut iamais courir apres son esteuf: Prov. One must neuer let go a thing, which he hath, and may hold, with a purpose to follow, or for any hope to recouer, it; Looke Esteuf.
L'eau qui dort est pire que celle qui court: Prov. Standing waters are much worse then running ones; sleepie dispositions of lesse worth (or more dangerous) then giddie ones.
Courle: f. as Courge; a Gourd.
Courle sauvage. Wild Nep, white Bryonie, the wild or white Vine; also, the wild flegme-purging Gourd, Coloquintida.

Courlis: m. A Curlue.
Courmaran: m. A Cormorant.
Couronne: f. A Crowne; the Diademe, or circlet wherwith Princes be crowned; also, a wreath, garland, or chaplet of flowers, &c. for the head; also, the coyne so called; also, the crowne, top, or beginning of a horses hoofe; the place, or part whereat it ioynes vnto the leg; also, a round, or a ring made by many persons that stand close, or hold hands, together; (In Architecture) also, the Corona, crowne, or member of greatest sayle, in a Cornish.
Couronne de Clercs. The crowne of a Shaueling, or, a Priests shauen crowne.
Couronne Imperiale. The Imperiall Crowne; (a goodlie flower.)
Couronne de Prestre. Dandelyen, Piss-a-bed; (an hearbe.)
Lettre de couronne. A cup; or as Tasse. ¶Barrag.
Enter en petite couronne. Seeke Enter.
Femme bonne vaut vne couronne: Prov. A vertuous dame is worth a Diadem.
Couronné: m. ée: f. Crowned.
Couronnement: m. A crowning; also, the outward mouth of the wombe, so tearmed by Midwiues.
Couronner. To crowne; to set a crowne, diadem, circlet, or garland vpon (the head.)
Couronneure: f. The broad-spread, and crowne-resembling, top of a Deeres head.
Couroye, & Couroyer. See Courroye, & Conroyer.
Cour-pendu. Pomme de cour-pendu. The short-start, or short-shanke; (an excellent apple.)
Courquaillet: m. A Quayle-pipe.
Courracteur. See Courratier. ¶Rab.
Courrail: m. as Courreau.
Courratage: m. Brokage; scoursing, horse-scoursing; See Courretage.
Courraterie: f. as Courratage.
Courratier: m. A Broker; one that sels other mens stuffe for them; also, a foot-post, messenger, or carrier.
Courratier de chevaux. A horse-courser.
Courratiere: f. A Brokeresse; or Brokers wife.
Courre. as Courir; laisser courre; to let slip, or, to hound a dog, at.
Courreau d'une huisserie. The bolt, or barre of a dore.
Courretage: m. Brokage; horse-scoursing; busie dealing or intermedling betweene partie and partie.
Courretier: m. as Courratier.
Courrier: m. A Post, or, a Poster; also, a horse-rider; also, a Broker.
Courrier de mer. A kind of very swift fish. Looke Poste de Mer.
Courroucé: m. ée: f. Angrie, offended, fuming, displeased, in a great chafe; also, vexed, grieued, afflicted; impatient, out of quiet.
Bien courroucé de peu pleure: Prov. He thats throughly angred hardly weepes.
Il n'est pas aise qui est courroucé: Prov. Hee's not at ease thats in a chafe.
Courroucéement. Angrily, chafingly; as one that is offended, or in a fume.
Courroucer. To anger; offend, moue, displease; vex, grieue, afflict, put out of quiet.
Se courroucer. To fret, fume, chafe, be angrie, take pet, or pepper, in the nose.
Se courroucer contre ses morceaux. To be angrie at his own morsels; rather to starue then chaw his own meat, rather to want then vse his owne meanes.

Cour-

Courrouceuſement. Wrathfully; moſt angrily.
Courroux: m. Anger; chafing, fuming; wrath, rage, indignation; diſpleaſure, ſtomacke againſt; alſo, vexation, griefe, ſorrow, affliction of mind; impatiencie.
Courroye: f. A thong, or belt of leather; a ſtrong leatherne ſtrap, or ſtring; alſo, the latchet of a ſhooe.
Alonger la courroye. To delay, prolong, or draw out in length, a gainefull imployment; as many Lawyers do their clients cauſes, and ſome Generals the warres they commaund in.
Avoir les deux bouts de la courroye. To haue the Law (or the abſolute diſpoſition of a thing) in his owne hands.
Il veut avoir les deux bouts de la courroye, & le milieu. He is a hard, and ſore dealer; he will neither do right, nor take wrong; or, no leſſe will ſerue him then all; he will haue the verie extremitie of Law.
Faire d'autruy cuir large courroye. To ſpend liberally on another mans purſe.
On a fait de ſon dos courroye. He hath been whipped extreamely.
Mieux vaut avoir amy en voye qu'or, ny argent en courroye: Prov. We ſay (with ſome little difference) better is a friend in Court then a pennie in the purſe.
Qui cuir voit tailler courroye en demande: Prov. While a thing's whole it may be wholly kept.
Courroyé: m. ée: f. Curried; tawed, or dreſſed, as leather.
Courroyement. as Conroyement (in the firſt ſence.)
Courroyer. as Conroyer; to curry; tew, or dreſſe, leather.
Courroyeur: m. A Currier (of leather.)
Cours: m. A courſe, race, running; alſo, the place wherein a race is runne; alſo, a continuall iourney, paſſage, traine, trace, motion forward; alſo, length, or tract of time; alſo, a ſtile, faſhion, way, manner, or meanes of proceeding; alſo, a road, or expedition againſt an enemie at ſea; (and hence, piracie, roving, ſea-robbing.)
Cours du ciel. The courſe of the Starres, Planets, or of the Regions wherein they are ſeated; alſo (among Gardeners) a certaine bad conſtellation, whereby the growth of hearbes is hindered.
Vn Cours Civil, ou Cannon. All the Volumes, or Bookes, of the Ciuill, or Cannon Law.
Le cours des Loix, de Medecine, de Philoſophie, &c; the whole order, or proceeding of ſtudie in thoſe Arts, from the firſt and ſleighteſt rudiments, to the laſt and deepeſt myſteries thereof.
Cette marchandiſe n'a plus de cours. Is cleane out of date, out of uſe, out of requeſt; no chapman will buy it, no tradeſman can vtter it, there is no further dealing in it.
Courſable. Monnoye courſable. Currant money.
Courſaire: m. A Rouer, a Pyrate, a ſea-theefe. See Corſaire.
Courſe: f. A courſe, a race; a courſe, running, ſpeed; alſo, a road, or incurſion into an enemies countrey; alſo, a ſmall and light chariot, or waggon.
Courſerot: m. A little Pyrate; alſo, a little Courſer, or Horſe of ſeruice.
Courſey. as Courſon.
Courſie: f. Part of the Hatches of a Galley, termed the Courſey; or, the Gallerie-like ſpace, on both ſides whereof the ſeats of the ſlaues are placed.
Courſier: m. A Courſer of Naples; alſo, a Tilting-horſe, or horſe for the Careere.
Courſier: m. ere: f. Belonging, or like, vnto a Courſer; and hence;
Mule courſiere. Which in height & breadth reſembles, or equalls, an ordinarie Courſer.
Courſiere: f. The Grating, in a ſhip of warre; alſo, a compendious courſe, readie meane, ſhort cut, ſpeedie way.
Courſif: m. iue: f. Swift, ſpeedie, faſt, running.
Lettres courſives. Written by a quick, or ſwift hand; faſt written.
Courſon: m. A young vine-branch, or ſhoot, reſerued, in the cutting of the vine, for ſtore.
Courſouër. as Eſcourſouër.
Court: f. The Court of a Prince; the Eſtate, or State, of his houſe, and houſhold; alſo, his houſhold ſeruants, or followers; alſo, the aſſembly of Nobles about him; alſo, Courtſhip, the humors, or faſhions of Court; and the courting, or wooing of a wench; alſo, the court, or yard, or, the court-yard, of a houſe; alſo, as Cour.
Bouche à Court. Budge-a Court, diet allowed at Court.
Eau beniſte de Court. Court holie-water; fawning, ſoothing, ſmoothing, flatterie, faire (but falſe) words.
Faire la court à. To court, wooe, fawne vpon, ſolicite, or ſue vnto; collogue, or cog with.
Sçavoir ſa court. To be a skilfull Courtier; to know well the faſhion of intertainement, the phraſes of complement, the humors and proceedings, vſed in Court.
Tenir Court; ou, Tenir Court planiere. A Prince to keepe open houſe; or to intertaine, and feaſt, all commers.
La Court du Roy Petaud, ou chaſcun eſt maiſtre: Pro. Looke Petaud.
En la Court du Roy chaſcun eſt pour ſoy: Pro. In Court men ſtudie onely their owne fortunes.
Court: m. courte: f. Short, briefe, ſuccinct, cutted, compendious; low; alſo, little, ſmall.
Courte boule. Our round bowle.
Courtes chauſſes. Short hoſe; alſo, women.
Court en paſte. Short, crummie, not holding, ill cleauing together.
Robbe courte. Gens de robbe c. Noblemen, Gentlemen, or Souldiers; or Officers, that be any of them.
A leur courte honte. To their exceeding ſhame.
Demeurer court. To play at Mumbudget, or be at a Nonplus; not to haue a word to throw at a dog.
C'eſtoit le plus court, & le plus aiſé, de les renvoyer. The beſt, or the neereſt, and eaſieſt courſe was, to ſend them backe.
Il y alla tout court. He went thither on a ſuddaine, or without any manner of ſtaying.
Pour le faire court. In ſumme, or in few words; to conclude; to abridge the matter; not to hold you long.
Tenir court. To reſtraine, bridle, keepe vnder, tye vp ſhort, hold vnto hard meat.
Tourner court: I'apprédray bien à tourner court à celuy. I will teach him to be more dutifull, readie, ſupple, pliable.
Courtes folies ſont les meilleures: Pro. The ſhorteſt follies are the beſt.
Courtault, ou Courtaut: m. A Curtall.
Courtaut de boutique. A tradeſmans prentiſe; a ſhop-keeping boy.
Double courtaut. A ſtrong curtall; or, a horſe of a middle ſize betweene th'ordinarie curtall, and horſe of ſeruice.
Courtaut: m. aude: f. Curtall; being curtalled.

Fouëtter quelqu'un en chien courtaut. To whip one extreamely.

Court-baſton. A truncheon, or ſhort cudgell ; See Courbaſton.

Court-d'aleauine. The name of a certaine bitter ſweet apple.

Courte-pointe: f. A Quilt, or quilted counterpoint.

Courtes-feſſes. A Button-breech; one that is pin-buttockt; or hath but ſmall or ſlender buttocks.

Court-feſtu: m. Drawing of cutts.

Courtiban; or Courtibau. A coat-armour, long caſſock, or horſemans coat, worne by a Prince, or Commander in an armie.

Courtier. as Courratier ; a Broker ; Horſe-ſcourſer, Meſſenger.

Courtil: m. A backe-yard ; or garden.

Courtilliere: f. A kind of Palmer, or yellowiſh, and many-legd vermine, that abides almoſt euer in the ground, and is a great enemie to hearbes (eſpecially Onions) whoſe roots ſhe gnawes aſunder.

Courtinages: m. Curtaines ; hangings for beds, or windowes.

Courtine: f. A Curtaine ; and (in fortification) the plaineneſſe of the wall betweene bulwarke and bulwarke.

Sous la courtine. Secretly, cloſely, priuately, vnderhand, in corners, in hugger-mugger.

Courtineau: m. A little Curtaine ; alſo, the head-peece, or peece that hangs downe at the head, of a fluffe-bed.

Courtiſan: m. A Courtier.

Courtiſane: f. A Ladie, Gentlewoman, or waiting-woman of the Court ; alſo (but leſſe properly) a curtizan, profeſſed ſtrumpet, famous (or infamous) whore.

Courtiſanie: f. Court-ſhip ; courtlie behauiour, or humour.

Courtiſanne: f. as Courtiſane.

Courtiſanneau: m. A young, little ; paultrie, or ſeruile, Courtier.

Courtiſanner. To play the Courtier.

Courtiſé: m. ée: f. Courted, ſued vnto ; intertained with reſpectiue complements ; alſo, flattered, fawned on, cogged with.

Courtiſer. To court, make court vnto ; intertaine with all complements, or offices of reſpect, and obſeruance ; alſo, to flatter, ſooth, fawne on, cog with.

Courtois: m. iſe: f. Courteous, gentle, debonaire ; ciuile ; gratious, benigne, affable ; tractable, faire-conditioned ; complementall.

Chambre courtoiſe. An Aiax ; or, as Chambre aiſée.

Lance courtoiſe. A tilting-ſtaffe ; or, launce with a blunt, or buttoned, head.

Qui fut François ſi fut courtois: Pro. The French were euer full of courteſie.

Courtoiſement. Courteouſly, gently, affably, benignely, ciuilly, gratiouſly.

Courtoiſie: f. Courteſie, ciuilitie, affabilitie, gentleneſſe, humanitie, debonaritie, benignitie, graciouſneſſe ; alſo, a kindneſſe, fauour, good office ; whence ;

Courtoiſie tardiue eſt diſcourtoiſie: Pro. A fauour long in comming proues diſfauour.

Courtoiſie qui ne vient que d'un coſté ne peut longuement durer: Prov. Courteſies vnrequited continue not.

Couru: m. uë: f. Runne, courſed, hyed, ſpeeded, poſted, galloped ; alſo, hunted, chaſed, followed hard, hotly purſued ; alſo, ouerrun, ranſacked, rauaged.

Fortune luy a couru ſus. Fortune hath aſſaulted, or afflicted him ; a great misfortune is befallen him.

Courué. as Courbé.

Courvée: f. A dayes worke, due by a Tenant vnto his Lord. See Corvée.

Il a fait vne grande courvée. He hath done a great dayes worke, he hath made a long dayes iourney ; or, he hath diſpatched the matter with verie much toyle.

Courver. To crooke, bow, bend, arch, vault.

Couſant. Sewing, or ſowing.

Couſe: f. A ieaſt, a toy, a ſleight matter.

Couſement: m. A ſewing ; or, a ſeame.

Couſin: m. A couſin, or kinſman ; alſo, a Gnat, or Midge.

Au preſter couſin, au rendre fils de putain: Prov. Some, when they would borrow giue good wordes, but when they ſhould repay, moſt bad ones.

Couſinage: m. Kindred, conſanguinitie, couſinſhip.

Couſiner. To clayme kindred for aduantage, or particular ends ; as he, who to ſaue charges in trauelling, goes from houſe to houſe, as couſin to the owner of euerie one.

Couſinette. The name of a certaine little red apple.

Couſſegail: m. Meſſelin, corne mingled. ¶ Langued.

Couſſer. To butt, or iurre, as Rammes doe.

Couſſeur: m. A butter, a iurrer.

Couſſi: m. The name of a ſmall (but excellent) blacke Grape.

Couſſin: m. A cuſhion to ſit on.

Couſſinet: m. A cuſhinet, or little cuſhion ; alſo, a fluffing, or boulſtering vſed in womens garments, when one ſhoulder is higher then another, to make them ſeeme ſtraight though they be not ; alſo, a cuſhinet, or boulſter of folded linnen, layed on the plaiſter of a wound.

Couſſinet de la feſſe. The fleſhie tip, or muſcle of the buttockes.

Couſſinet de la trompe. The firſt bed, or couching of ſtones, on the right hand of the vault of the out-iutting roome Trompe.

Couſſineux: m. euſe: f. Full of, or ſtored with, cuſhions : alſo, ſoft as a cuſhion ; fit to vſe as a cuſhion.

Couſſon: m. The guſſet of a ſhirt, or ſmocke ; alſo, a Mite, or Weeuill.

Couſt: m. Coſt, charges, expence.

Couſtange: m. as Couſt.

Couſtangeux: m. euſe: f. Deere, coſtlie, chargeable.

Couſtau: m. A little hill, or riſing of ground ; a Downe, or high ground.

Couſtau de montaigne. The ſide, or skirt of a mountaine.

Couſté. (The Participle of Couſter;) coſt.

Couſteau: m. A knife, or whittle ; alſo, a ſword, or any ſuch cutting weapon ; alſo, the principall feather in a Hawkes wing, tearmed by our Faulkoners (in ſhort-winged Hawkes) the Cut, or Cuttie.

Couſteau marin, ou de mer. The Pyrot, or Hag-fiſh ; a long and round ſhell-fiſh, of a bright, and ſhining colour ; In ſome parts of France, the Sleeue-fiſh, and by ſome French Authors, the Sword-fiſh, are alſo called ſo.

Couſteau des moiſſons. Corne-Sedge, Corne-Flags, Corne-Gladen, the right Gladen.

Couſteau à pied. A Shoomakers round cutting-knife.

Couſteau à rongner. The knife wherewith Booke-binders cut the leaues of their bookes.

Couſteau de tripiere. A (faſhion of) two-edged knife ; and by Metaphor, one that playes Iacke on both ſides.

Manche

Manche de cousteau. as Cousteau marin (in the first sence.)
Pied de cousteau. A Play at Shuffleboord with keyes, a knife being the marke.
Au pain,& au cousteau avec. Familiar, conuersant, a daylie companion, bayle fellow well met, with.
Se couper de son propre cousteau. To cut himselfe with his owne knife; See Couper.
Iouër des cousteaux. To fight, combat, bicker, battaile; to come to open warre; to lay lustily about him; also, to feed eagerly, bestirre himselfe at a Table, fall hotly to his victuals.
Les cousteaux de Iehan Colot, l'un vaut l'autre: Prov. See Colot.
Dans vne gaine d'or vn cousteau de plomb: Pro. A leaden sword in a golden sheath; a foule heart in a faire bodie.
Peu peut bailler à son escuyer qui son cousteau leche: Prov. Where the Maister pinches the seruants pine; or, he can spare others but little that hath but little for himselfe.
Selon la gaine le cousteau: Prov. An inside answerable vnto the outside.
Selon le pain il faut le cousteau: Prov. (Like our) the coat according to the cloth.
Vn mesme cousteau me coupe le pain,& le doigt: Pro. One knife both cuts me bread, and my finger; (said of any thing that one while helpes, and another while hurts.)
Coustelet: m. A little knife, or sword.
Cousteleux. Full of, or furnished with, knives.
Gaine cousteleuse. A sheath which is neuer without knives.
Coustelier: m. A Cutler, or maker of knives.
Coustellerie: f. A Cutlers shop, or worke-house.
Coustemens: m. Costs, and charges.
Couste-pointe: f. A counterpoint, or double couerlet.
Couster. To cost, in price; (Cecy me couста cent livres; I gaue a hundred pounds for this; Telle chose ne me couste gueres. I haue such a thing for little, or nothing.)
Couste & vaille. Whatsoeuer come of it, howsoeuer I come by it; at what price, or perill soeuer I buy it; or, I care not what I pay for it so it be good.
Compere de la Pouille, couste,& despouille: Pro. (Said of a dangerous companion) one that will both feed on you, and filch from you, and at length wholly fleece you; See Pouille.
Cousteux: m. euse: f. Costlie, chargeable, very deere.
Coustier: m. ere: f. Wide, aside, or of one side; also, as Cottier.
Coustil. as Coutil; a ticke for a bed.
Coustilier. as Coustillier.
Coustillade. See Coutillade.
Coustille: f. A kind of long Ponniard, vsed heretofore by Esquires.
Coustillé: m. ée: f. Oft strucken, or stabbed with a Coustille.
Coustiller. To strike, or stab, often with a Coustille.
Coustilleur. as Coustillier.
Coustillier: m. An Esquire of the bodie; an Armourbearer vnto a Knight; the seruant of a man at Armes; also, a groome of a stable, a horse-keeper.
Coustre. as Coultre.
Coustume: f. Custome, vse, vre, vsage, wont, guise; habit, manner; continuall fashion, or order; also, an ancient Law, or Custome in a countrey; also, a Custome, Imposition, Tax, Toll; also, a customarie Rent, Seruice, or Tenure; also, the vse of, or freedome in, another mans woods, or grounds.
La petite coustume. is (in most places) a pennie for an Ox, Cow, Pipe of wine, or load of corne sold, and carried out of the Territorie belonging to a Lord Iusticer; for other lesse beasts, as Hogs, and Sheep, a halfepennie, or Maille; for a cart-load of moueables iiij d. Tourn: for a Horseload, ij d; for a mans burthen, a pennie.
Droict de coustume. is (in Normandie) the Toll thats payed for commodities vttered in the Market place; and by the custome of grand Perche, a pennie Tourn: due vnto the Lord (that hath low Iurisdiction) for euery foure-footed beast (not milch) that hath beene bred, bought, and deliuered, within his Territorie.
Droict de grosse coustume. Looke Droict.
Prendre heritage en coustume. That is on condition to pay yearely a certaine quantitie of Corne, or Hennes; which if they be vnpayed (hauing beene demaunded) three yeares together, the Landlord may reenter; as he may also, if the thing be aliened, or sold without his consent; or if the Tenant die without issue lawfully begotten.
Gasteau, & mauvaise coustume se doivent rompre: Prov. (For the one does no good, the other much hurt, if it be kept.)
Le loup alla à Rome,& y laissa de son poil, mais rien de ses coustumes: Prov. The Wolfe went vnto Rome, and there left part of his coat, but none of his ill conditions, behind him.
Coustumerie: f. A custome-taking, or custome-leuying; also, a Place, Passage, or Libertie, whereunto custome is due.
Coustumier: m. A customarie tenant, or tenant by custome; a Copie-holder; See Coustumiers.
Coustumier: m. ere: f. Customarie, vsuall, wonted, inueterate.
Aides coustumiers. as Aides chevels. Looke Aides.
Bourse coustumiere. A purchase of land made, or price giuen for a purchase, by a yeoman, Roturier, or ignoble person.
Païs coustumier. A countrey thats altogether gouerned by particular customes; (as most of the Prouinces in France be.)
Quint coustumier. The portion of younger brethren in the inheritance left by their father; which is (by the custome of diuers places) as fift part onely, diuided among them.
Coustumierement. Ordinarily, vsually, commonly, customarily; after, or according to, the ordinarie vse, and custome.
Coustumiers. Auncient, and experienced Lawyers; who are able to informe the Court what the Law, and locall customes are in any case.
Couture: f. A Seame.
Couture incarnatiue. Looke Incarnatif.
Herbe sans couture. Adders tongue, Serpēts tongue.
Desfait à plate couture. Vtterly defeated; ouerthrowne horse and man.
Harenguer à plate couture. To make a rude, plaine, or homelie, Oration.
De forte couture dure deschirure: Pro. A strong seame strongly rent asunder.
Couturier: m. A Taylor, or Botcher; a Seamster; also, a little red worme, or fly, of the kind of Moathes.
A ce drap couturiers. To this geare, to it, set to it my maisters; lets roundly about this businesse; Looke Drap.

Coufturiere: f. A Seamſter; or woman botcher.
Coufturiers: m. Certaine long muſcles in the outward part of the thigh, which they make plyable, to croſſe one leg ouer the other.
Couſu: m. uë: f. Sewed, ſeamed, ſtitched, faſtened together; alſo, pierced, gored, run through.
Vn viſage couſu. A wrinkled, or a writhen viſage, that lookes as if the skin thereof had beene gathered, or plaited with a needle.
Ses fineſſes ne ſont couſuës que de fil blanc. His deuiſes are plaine, and apparant enough; euery one may ſee how ſubtilly he hath dealt.
Couſyre: f. Bugle, Comfrey, Wallwort.
Coutau: m. A hillocke, or little hill; a Downe, or high ground.
Coute: f. A ſeame; as in Coutes.
Couteau. A knife, &c. See Couſteau.
Coutelas: m. A Cuttelas, Courtelas, or ſhort ſword, for a man at armes.
Coutelaſſe ſur le viſage: f. A ſlaſh ouer the face with a Cuttelas.
Coutelaſſé: m. ée: f. Wounded, ſlaſhed, or ſtricken with a Cuttelas.
Coutelaſſer. To wound, ſlaſh, cut, or ſtrike with a Cuttelas.
Couteleu. as Couſteau de mer.
Coutes: f. The ſeames; or diſtances that are betweene Planke and Planke (in a ſhip.)
Coutil: m. A Ticke, or Quilt ſtuffed with flocks, wooll, or feathers; a Mattreſſe, Wooll-bed, Flock-bed, Feather-bed.
Coutillades: f. Hackes, gaſhes, wipes, cuts, wounds, giuen or made by edge-tooles.
Couton: m. A faggot-ſticke; or, the thicke ſtalke of ſome Plants, as of Cabbage, &c.
Coutonner. To cudgell, thwacke, baſte, belamme.
Coutre: m. as Coteret (in the firſt ſence.)
Coutre: f. as Coutil (in the latter ſence.)
Coutrepointer. (in ſtead of Contrepoincter*) to quilt.*
Couture. See Coulture.
Couvade: f. as Couvée; or, as Couvement.
Faire la couvade. To ſit cowring, or ſkowking within dores; to lurke in the campe when Gallants are at the Battell; (any way) to play leaſt in ſight.
Couvaiſon: f. as Couvement.
Couvé: m. ée: f. Brooded, ſet on, couered or cowred ouer, cheriſhed, or kept warme; hatched; bred, or brought to perfection, by being continually ſet on.
Couvé de mauvaiſe pie. Ill-bred, of an euill race, come of an euill kind.
Couvecendre. A lazie huswife; one that is euer hanging her noſe ouer the fire.
Couvée de pouſſins: f. A brood, or hatching of chickens; as many as came of one ſitting.
Couveleque: f. The lid of a pot, or cup. (v. m.)
Couvement: m. A brooding, ſitting on, cowring ouer; a cheriſhing, or keeping warme; alſo, a hatching.
Couvement de pouſſins. A brooding, or hatching of chickens; or, a brood, &c; as Couvée.
Couver. To brood, ſit on, or cowre ouer; to cheriſh, keepe warme; breed, or bring to perfection (by a continuall ſitting ouer;) Hence alſo, to hatch.
Couver vn mauvais oeuf. To nouriſh an ill deſſigne.
Elle y peut bien pondre, mais elle n'y couvera pas. She may perhaps be there for a day or two, but longer then that ſhe ſtayes not.
Iamais mauvaiſe poule ne le couva. He is come of gentle kind, of a right noble ſtraine; he hath no manner of ill breeding in him.
Couvercle: m. A Couer, or Lid.
Couvercle digne du chauderon: Prov. A Couer good enough for the Cauldron.
Tel pot tel couvercle: Prov. Such pot ſuch pot-lid, like maiſter like man.
Couvereſſe: f. A ſitting henne.
Couvert: m. A Couert; a wooddie plot, or countrey; a place full of buſhes, and trees; alſo, the couering, or furniture of Table for the meale of a Prince, &c; alſo, a young Shad (called ſo in Anjou.)
Nous ſommes mal à couvert ſous. Wee are ill ſhadowed, or ſhrowded vnder.
Couvert: m. erte: f. Couered, vayled; cloſed; ſecret, hidden; buried; ouercaſt, ouerſhadowed; clowdie, or darkened, as a thing ouerſhadowed.
Fief couvert. An inheritance for which homage and fealtie is done, or hath beene duly offered, vpon change of the Tenant, or Tenure.
Homme couvert. A ſtill, ſilent, or cloſe fellow.
Les rachapts, & arrerages de cens couverts. An abſolute poſſeſſion, or preſcription; a quiet enioying of land held by Cens, for thirtie yeares together.
Les rachapts d'un fief couverts. Happening, or fallen before the receit of homage and fealtie, or a diſcharge giuen by the lord to the vaſſall for them; and without any reſeruation of them; ſo that he hath no way to get them but by Action.
Vin couvert. Red, blacke, or darke-coloured wine.
Le feu plus couvert eſt le plus ardent: Prov. The fire thats couered moſt burnes moſt; or, the more tis hidden the hoter it burnes.
Couverte: f. A Couerlet, or bed-couering.
Tirer la couverte de ſon coſté. Looke Tirer.
Couvertement. Couertly, cloſely, ſecretly, obſcurely, darkly, priuily, vnder hand.
Couvertoir: m. A tricke, or Engin wherewith water-fowle is caught.
Couverture: f. A couerture, or couering; an arraying, cloathing, cladding, attiring; alſo, apparrell, rayment, attire; alſo, a hiding, vayling, obſcuring, ouer-ſhadowing; alſo, a couerlet, or couering for a bed.
Couverture de maiſon. The roofe of a houſe.
Couverture de murailles. The plaiſtering, dawbing, white-liming, pargetting, rough-caſting; alſo, the coping, of walls.
Couverture veluë. An Iriſh Rug, Mantle, or Cadowe.
Sous couverture de. Vnder the pretext, ſhadow, or colour, of.
Couvi. oeuf couvi. An addle egge, or a rotten egge (that hath beene ſet on.)
Couvine: f. Il en ſçait bien toute la co. Hee is well acquainted with their packing; he knows full well how the matter hath beene carried.
Couvoir: m. A hennes neſt; the place where ſhe ſits her egges; alſo, the height, or top, of a bed in a garden.
Couvoiter. See Convoiter.
Couvrailles: f. Goſſymeare; or, the white, and cobweb-like exhalations which flye abroad in hot Sunnie weather.
Couvre-chef: m. A Kerchiefe.
Couvre-coeur. The Pericardium, a thin skin, or membrane, wherewith the heart is couered.
Couvrement: m. A couering; concealing, hiding, obſcuring; burying; vayling, ouercaſting, ouerſhadowing.

Couvre-

Couvre-ordure. Gold; alſo, a womans Maske.
Couvre-rive. Banke-couering, ſhoare-ſurrounding.
Couvrir. To couer; vayle, cloake; hide, conceale, ſtop, or cloſe vp; to hoodwinke, ouerſpread, ouercaſt, ouerſhadow; alſo, to cloath, apparrell, attire all ouer; alſo, a dog (or ſuch like beaſt) to lyne a bitch; (In which ſence, Aligner is the word for Wolues; and Saillir for Horſes, Bulls, and ſuch other great beaſts.)
Couvrir le feu de ſon fivatier. A Lord to ſeiſe, or make an entrie vpon, his tenants land for default of payment of the rents, rights, and ſeruices due vnto him; which, as it ſeemes, is done by raking out, or couering ouer, the fire found in the tenement.
Couvrir la jouë à. To giue a box on the eare vnto.
Couvrir ſon mommon à. To tickle a wench.
Couvrir leur raſtelier. Seeke Raſtelier.
Se couvrir d'un ſac mouillé. To colour his hard, or ill dealing with idle, and inſufficient pretences; to alledge for himſelfe excuſes, which rather condemne, then cleere, him.
Couyol: m. as Coyon.
Coy: m. A Sinke; or, as Foſſe coye.
Coy: m. coye: f. Quiet, ſtill, peaceable, calme, reſtfull, huſht; See Quoy.
Foſſe coye. A Priuie, Jakes, houſe of Office.
Coyau: m. A returned, or hip, Rafter.
Coyed. as Cayer. ¶Pic.
Coyement. Quietly, peaceably, ſtilly, calmely; ſoberly; patiently.
Coymeaux: m. A kind of Cherries.
Coyon: m. A coward, cullion, ſcowndrell, baſe fellow, faint-hearted companion.
Coyonnade: f. A cowardlie, or cullionlie tricke, a baſe, or daſtardlie part.
Coyonnerie: f. Baſe roguerie, cowardiſe, cullionnerie.
Coypellé: m. ée: f. Chipped; alſo, thwyted, whitled, or cut as a ſticke, &c.
Coypeller. To chip; alſo, to thwyte, or cut a ſticke, &c.
Coyraul. See Coiraux.
Coyté: f. Quietneſſe, calmeneſſe, peaceableneße, gentleneſſe; patience; ſoberneße.
Coytes: f. Tackes; great Ropes vſed about the (maine) ſayle of a ſhip.
Coytis. as Coytes. Ticke; or, the blew-rewed ſtuffe whereof Tickes for beds are made; alſo, a bed-Ticke.
Coyts. as Coytes.
Crabbat: m. ate: f. Comelie, proper, decent, handſome, gracious, of a ſweet preſence, pleaſing to the eye.
Crabron: m. A Hornet.
Crac: m. A cracke, or thing that crackes.
Crachard. as Crachat.
Crachat: m. Spittle, or ſpit; alſo, a ſpitting.
Craché: m. ée: f. Spet, or ſpatled out; ſpattered, beſpawled.
C'eſtoit luy tout craché. He reſembled him in euerie part; he was as like him as if he had beene ſpit out of his mouth.
Crache-en-ruelle. A ſpawling, or ſpattering fellow.
Crache-fil. Thread-ſpinning (the Epithete of a ſpider.)
Crachement: m. A ſpitting, ſpatling, ſpattering, ſpawling.
Cracher. To ſpit; ſpawle; ſpattle, beſpatter.
Cracher au baſſin. To pay downe readie coyne; to giue readie money; to come off with round fees; to beſtow a reward in hand; alſo, to ſpit (as a man may doe with his mouth ſhut) into a fleſhlie baſen; alſo, to play a mad, fond, retchleſſe, or careleſſe, part.
Cracher vn Iacobin. Looke Iacobin.
Cracheur: m. A ſpitter, ſpawler, ſpatterer.
Cracquer. as Craquer.
Crage: f. as Croye. Chalke; (a ruſticall word.)
Craie: f. as Croye. Chalke.
Craies. Wild Peares, choake Peares.
Craignant. Dreading, fearing, doubting, redoubting, ſtanding in awe of.
Craillement: m. The croaking of a Rauen, or Toad.
Crailler. as Croailler.
Craindre. To dread, feare; doubt, redoubt; ſtand in awe of.
Il ne craind ny les rez, ny les tondus. He reſpects no man, feares no bodie, is awed by no creature liuing; Looke Rez.
Craine: m. The ſkull, or braine-pan of the head.
Crainſer. To ſhrinke in, or together; (alſo, to crackle) as Parchement, &c, throwne into the fire.
Craint: m. ainte: f. Dreaded, feared; doubted, redoubted.
Crainte: f. Feare, dread; awe, doubt of, redoubting.
Craintif: m. iue: f. Fearefull, dreading, timerous; baſhfull, cowardlie, daſtardlie, faint-hearted, white-liuered.
Craintivément. Fearefully, timerouſly, with a faint heart.
Craïon. See Crayon.
Crainaillere: f. The pot-hanger, or pot-hookes.
Cramas: m. Stones torne from rockes by tempeſts, inundations, or the violent working of the ſea.
Cramoiſi: m. Crimſon colour.
Sot en cramoiſi. An Aſſe in graine.
Cramoiſi: m. ie: f. Crimſon, Crimſon-coloured, of a Crimſon hue.
Crampe: f. The Crampe.
La crampe du pied d'un cheval. A horſes hooſe.
Les gouttes crampes. Conuulſions; tenſions, or ſtiffeneſſe of the muſcles, cauſed by ſharpe, and große vapors incloſed among the Membranes.
Crampelle: f. A Grampell, Grit, or Pungar-fiſh.
Crampon: m. A Cramp-yron; a hooke, or crampe of yron, &c.
Crampon de cuir. A loope, or tab, of leather.
Les crampons d'un fer de cheval. Caulkes; or, caulkings.
Cramponné: m. ée: f. Ioyned, or faſtened with Crampyrons; alſo, tatched, haſped, booked; looped; caulked.
Cramponner. To ioyne, or faſten together with Crampyrons; alſo, to tatch, haſpe, booke; loope; caulke.
Cramponnet: m. A little Cramp-yron; tacke, or loope.
Crane: m. The ſkull, braine-pan, or bone of the head.
Cranequin: m. The Gaffle of a Croſſe-bow; or, as Crennequin; alſo, an Engin for batterie, vſed in old time.
Cranequinier: m. A Croße-bow man (whether he ſerue on horſeback, or on foot) or, as Crennequinier; alſo, an (inferior) Officer, that had, in old time, the conduction of warlike Engines.
Crannequin. as Cranequin.
Crapaud: m. A Toad.
Crapaud de mer. The ſea-Toad; an ouglie, and vnholeſome fiſh; or, the full-rowed bellie of the Dog-fiſh, &c.
La danſe des crapauds. A State, or Gouernment wherein knaues, and fooles are ſupported.
Il en eſtoit chargé comme vn crapaud de plumes. He was little burthened, nothing troubled, withall.

Crapaudaille: f. A crue of ouglie knaues, of noysome Rogues; a packe of base, and beastlie Scowndrels.
Crapaudeau: m. A young, or little, Toad.
Crapaudine: f. The stone Chelonitis, or, the Toad-stone; also, the square peece of yron, &c, wherein the Pivot playes, or turnes, in the bottome of a Gate; some of our workmen call it, the sole.
Crapaudon: m. A young Toad.
Crape: m. The Crabfish teamed, a Pungar.
Crappaude: f. The sea-Toad, or sea-Diuell; (an ouglie, and rauenous fish.)
Crappe. as Crappaude.
Crapule: f. Drunkennesse, or drunken surfetting; beastinesse of the head by excessiue drinking.
Craquant: m. ante: f. Cracking, creaking, crashing, clashing.
Craquelin: m. A Cracknell; made of the yolks of egges, water, and flower; and fashioned like a hollow trendle; hence also, a little light cap of that fashion.
Craquement: m. A cracking, creaking, clashing.
Craquement des dents. The crashing of the teeth.
Craquer. To cracke, to creake; to crash, to clash.
Craquetant: m. ante: f. Cracking, creaking; crashing often.
Cerceau craquetant. The ierting circle made by a Peacocke with his tayle, by a Turkie-cocke with his wings.
Craqueter. Often to cracke, creake, clash, crash.
Craquetis: m. An often creaking, clashing, cracking, crashing.
Cras. as Croye. Chalke. ¶Villageois.
Cras. as Chraies; Choake-Peares.
Crasse: f. (Thick-growne) filth, or ordure; slouenrie, sluttishnesse; greasinesse, bawdinesse, nastinesse; loathsome array.
Crasse de bronze. The skumme of melted Brasse.
Crasse de la teste. Dandriff; the skales that fall from the head, &c, in combing, &c.
Crasseusement. Filthily, nastily, greasily, bawdily, slouenly, sluttishly.
Crasseux: m. euse: f. Filthie, greasie, bawdie, begreased, nastie, durtie, slouenlie, sluttish, full of vncleanenesse, full of ordure.
Plus crasseux que la tasse d'un Meseau. More loathsome then a Lazers dish.
Crassi. A certaine Italian coyne worth about j d. q.
Crassitie: f. as Crassitude.
Crassitude: f. Thicknesse, fatnesse, grossenesse.
Cravant: m. The small Goose, or Goose-like fowle, termed, a Brigander.
Cravanté: m. ée: f. Oppressed, foyled, or spoyled with excessiue toyle, or stripes.
Cravanter. To oppresse, foyle, or spoyle with excessiue toyle, or stripes.
Craye: f. Chalke.
Mal de craye. The stone-Cray; a disease in Horses.
Crayé: m. ée: f. Chalked; marked, whited, scowred, or cleansed, with chalke.
Crayement: m. A chalking; a marking, dressing, scowring, or cleansing, with chalke.
Crayer. To chalke; to dresse, marke, white, scowre, or cleanse, with chalke.
Crayon: m. Dry painting; or, a painting in, or Picture of, dry colours; also, the Table whereon a Painter mingleth (such) colours; and the first draught, or lineaments of a picture, made with any of them; hence also, a patterne, or example.
Crayonné: m. ée: f. Painted, or drawne in dry colours; also, rudely drawne, as a Picture is at the first.
Crayonner. To paint, or draw in dry colours; also, to draw the first lines, or make the first draught, of a Picture.
Creable. as Credible; or, Croyable.
Creac, ou Creal; a Sturgeon. ¶Langued.
Creac de Busc. The Scate-fish.
Creance: f. Faith, beleefe; trust, affiance, confidence; also, credulitie, or credulousnesse; also, credit with Marchants, &c; also, a debt entrusted; also, docilenesse; apprehension of, or obedience vnto, precepts; also, behauiour, fashion, carriage, good or ill manners; also, a taste, or essay taken of another mans meat; also, a Hawkes cryants.
La creance d'un Embassadeur. The effect, or substance of his Embassage, referred vnto his owne report.
Lettres de creance. Letters of trust, and credence; wherein the writer wills, that his messenger be credited in those things which he shall deliuer by word of mouth.
Creancer. To promise; to assure by his promise, to vndertake vpon his word (v. m.) also, to tast another mans meat, or drinke; to play the taster.
Creancier: m. A creditor, or truster.
Creanciere: f. A creditrix; the woman that trusteth.
Createur: m. A Creator; maker, framer; founder.
Creation: f. A creation, creating, framing, making.
Creature: f. A creature; a thing made of nothing.
Il est creature d'un tel Seigneur. He is the creature of, or hath beene onely aduanced by, such a Lord; he hath made him all that he is; but for him he had beene of no wealth, no credit, no authoritie.
Crecerelle: f. A Rattle, or Clacke for children to play with; also, a Kestrell, Fleingall, or Fuckwinde.
Credence. as Creance.
Tesmoing de credence. That deposes onely what he beleeues, or thinkes is true, without any absolute, or further, assuring of it.
Credence d'argent. Siluer plate; or, a cupboord of siluer plate.
Credentier: m. A cupboord-keeper; also, a Princes Taster, Estayer, Cup-bearer.
Credible: com. Credible, beleeuable; to be credited, or beleeued.
Credit: m. Credit; reputation, account, renowme; esteeme in, fauour with, good opinion of, the world; also, trust, beleefe, affiance, faith; also, loyaltie; also, as Creance; trust, or credit giuen; or, a debt entrusted.
Batre à credit. Looke Batre.
Plaisir à credit. A sleight pleasure.
Perdre leurs ames à credit. To hazard their soules on a shallow, or vpon no, ground.
Seruir Dieu à credit, & par procureur. To serue God but sleightly, carelesly, or onely for a shew.
Assez a qui bon credit a: Prov. A good name is a sufficient treasure.
Crediteur: m. A creditor; one that beleeueth, or trusteth.
Credos, qui fait credos charge son dos: He that leudeth often looseth.
Credule: com. Credulous, trustfull; easie, or light, of beleefe.
Credulité: f. Credulitie, lightnesse of beleefe.

Crée: f. as Croye.
Creé: m. creée: f. Created, made, framed, formed; chosen, ordained, established; also, marked with chalke.
Créer. To create, make, forme, frame, giue the first being vnto; also, to chuse, ordaine, establish; also, as Croyer; to marke with chalke.
Creiche: f. A cratch, racke, Oxe-stall, or crib; also, a Bullace, or small plumme.
Cremaillée. as Cremaillere.
Cremaillere: f. A hooke to hang any thing on; especially a pot-hooke, or pot-hanger.
Cremant. Fearing, dreading.
Cremasteres. Two sinewes, or muskles, whereby the cods do hang: ¶Rab.
Creme: f. Creame.
Cremeau. as Cresmeau.
Cremeu. Fearefull, or full of dread. (v.m.)
Cremeur: f. Feare, dread; also, a creamie, or milkie disposition, or humor.
Cremillée, & Cremillére. as Cremaillere.
Cremir. To feare, to dread.
Cren: m. A breach, or snip in a knife, teole, &c; a notch in a score; a nocke in a bow, or arrow; also, the cleft, or clouen neb of a pen; also, the nicke of an Indenture; or iag about the edge of a leafe.
Crene: f. as Cren.
Crené: m. ée: f. Nicked, snipped, broken into; nocked, notched; iagged, indented.
Creneau: m. A nooke, or corner.
Creneaux. as Carneaux; the battlements of a wall.
Crenelé: m. ée: f. Imbattled; made into, or fashioned like, battlements; or, as Crené.
Crenelet. To imbattle; to make into, or fashion like, battlements.
Creneleure: f. An imbattling; a making into, or like vnto, battlements.
Crenequin. as Cranequin, or Crennequin.
Creneure: f. A iagging, nicking, notching; indenting; or an imbattling, or making into square notches.
Crenne. as Cren.
Crennequin. as Cranequin; or (as some interpret it) a fashion of horsemans head-peece, resembling the Helmet.
Crennequinier. as Cranequinier; or, a Crossebow-man armed with a fashion of head-peece that resembles an Helmet.
Crenquenier: m. A Catchpole, Sergeant, or Officer, that can execute, or serue Executions.
Crenure. as Creneure; and as Cren.
Crepeture: f. A bursting, cracking, riuing asunder.
Crepelu. as Crespu.
Crepez, ou Crepets: m. Fritters; also, Wafers.
Crepillé: m. ée: f. Frizled, curled.
Crepiller. To frizle, or curle.
Crépine: f. as Crespine.
Crepir. as Crespir; To parget.
Crepissage: m. Pargetting, rough-casting.
Crepisseure. as Crespisseure.
Crepitation: f. A creaking, crasbing, crackling, rattling noyse.
Creppe. as Crespe.
Crepuscule: m. The twilight; (either in the euening, or morning.)
Crepusculin: m. ine: f. Betweene day and night, of the twilight.
Crescent: m. as Croissant; an halfe-Moone.
Cresche. as Creiche; a cratch, racke, or crib.
Creseau: m. Kersse.

Creseul: m. A Cruzet, or Crurible; a Goldsmithes melting pot.
Cresme: m. The Crisome, or oyle wherewith a Baptized child is annointed; (And because it is to be blessed by a Bishop before it be vsed, it signifies) also, a Dioces.
Homme de bon cresme. An open-hearted, good-natured, plaine-dealing, man.
Cresme: f. Creame.
Cresmé; m. ée: f. Fleeted, creamed, or, whose creame is scummed off; also, full of creame.
Cresmeau: m. The Crisome wherewith a child is annointed (in Popish Churches;) or (more properly) the cloth, or Christening cap, thats put on the head of the child as soone as it hath beene annointed.
Cresnette: f. A pen-knife; or, a sharpe, and small graffing knife.
Crespe: m. Cipres; also, Cobweb Lawne.
Crespe de chaperon. A Crepine; the Crepine of a French-hood (most commonly of Cobweb Lawne, or white Cipres.)
Crespe: com. Curled, frizled; crisped; also, crisse.
Crespé: m. ée: f. The same; also, crackled, creaked; crashed.
Crespelet: m. ette: f. Curled, frizled, crisped, a little.
Crespelu. as Crespelet.
Crespelure: f. A curling, frizling, ruffling.
Crespément. Crispingly; frizlingly, curlingly.
Cresper. To crackle, or creake, as new shooes, or drie sticks that are layed in the fire; also, to crash between the teeth (a thing thats crisse, or brittle;) also, to crisp, curle, frizle, ruffle, braid; also, to sleeke, make to shine, or glitter.
Crespi: m. Parget, rough-cast.
Crespi: m. ie: f. Pargetted, rough-cast; also, curled, or frizled.
Femme crespie de couleurs. Whose face is all-to-bedawbed, or plaistered ouer, with painting.
Crespillé: m. ée: f. Frizled, curled, crisped.
Crespiller. To frizle, to curle, to crisse.
Crespillonné. as Crespu.
Crespillonner. as Crespiller.
Crespin: m. A proper name for a man; and, the name of a certaine Saint, who is Patron to Shoomakers; whence;
Apprenti de S. Crespin. A Shoomaker.
Lance de S. Crespin. An Awle.
Crespine: f. The Crepine of a French-hood.
Crespine de chevreau. The call of a Kid.
Crespine du ciel. The skie, the coape of heauen.
Crespinette: f. A third kind of Knot-grasse, held (by some) to be Gerards Knawell, or Parsley peart.
Crespir. To parget, or rough-cast; also, to curle.
Crespissement: m. A pargetting, rough-casting, curling.
Crespissure: f. A pargetting, rough-casting.
Crespon: m. A curlell, or frizled locke.
Crespu: m. uë: f. Curled, frizled, ruffled, crisped; sleeked, shining.
Cresserelle. as Crecerelle; a Rattle, or Clacke for children; also, a Kestrell, Stanniell, Fleingall.
Cressiné. Crackled, or clattered; also, chattered.
Cressiner. To creake, or crackle, or clatter.
Cressiner des dents. To chatter; to say an Apes Paternoster.
Cresson: m. The herbe tearmed Karres, or Cresses.
Cresson alenois. Kersse, garden cresses, towne Karres, towne cresses.
Cresson d'eau. as Cresson de ruisseau.
Cresson de ruisseau. Water Karres, water cresses, ſes, browne Creßes.

Petit creſſon aquatique. Little water Creſſes, or Cuckow flowers.

Creſſonadiere: f. A bed of Creſſes, or place where they grow.

Creſſonniere: f. The place, bed, or plot whereon Creſſes grow; alſo, a woman that ordinarily ſells Creſſes.

Creſte: f. A creſt, cop, combe; alſo, a tuft, or little plume ſtanding on the top of.

La creſte des cheveux. The ſeame of the head, or parting of the haire in the middle of the head.

Creſte au coq, ou, de coq. The hearbe Coxcombe, Penie-graſſe, yellow and white Rattle; alſo, the hearbe Clarie.

La creſte d'un fer de cheval. A welt about a horſe-ſhooe.

Creſte à geline. as Creſte au coq; Coxcombe.

Creſte marine. Sampier, ſea Fennell, Creſtmarine.

Fourni d'entendement comme vn oiſon de creſte. As wiſe as a Woodcocke.

Creſté: m. ée: f. Creſted, copped, adorned with a combe.

Creſteaux: m. The battlements of a wall, &c.

Creſtelé. murs creſtelez. Imbatiled, hauing battlements.

Creſter. Creſted, combed; hauing a creſt, or combe.

Iamais tigneux n'aima le pigne, ny chapon creſter geline: Prov. The guiltie cannot abide reproofe, nor a weake man a woman.

Crete. as Creſte; and hence;

Crete marine. as Creſte marine; Sampier.

Crete: com. Gay, fine, gawdie, ſpruce, neat.

Cretelé. tour creteleé d'argent. Imbattled ſiluer.

Cretiſme. Lying; falſhood, or falſeneſſe, in words.

Cretonart: m. The drug tearmed Zedoarie, or Serapions Zedoarie.

Cretons: m. The criſpie peeces, or mammockes, remaining of lard, that hath beene firſt ſhred, then boiled, and then ſtrained through a cloth, &c.

Creu: m. Groweth; increaſe, &c; as Cru.

Creu: m. euë: f. Growne, waxen, increaſed; (The Participle of Croiſtre; ) alſo, truſted, credited, beleeued; (of Croire.)

Il veut eſtre creu. He will ſtand to his owne opinion, none ſhall ouerrule him; (Creu de;) He will haue what he propounds, or appoints, to paſſe for currant; he will haue things to goe as he liſt himſelfe.

Crevacé: m. ée: f. Riuen, cleft, chinked, chawned, chapped.

Crevailles. Il nous invita à ſes crevailles. He inuited vs vnto his burſting; (ſpoken of a huge fat-guts.)

Crevaſſe: f. A creuis, chinke, rift, cleft, chap, chawne.

Crevaſſes d'un cheval. Cratches, or Rats-tailes in a horſes legs.

Crevaſſes du fondement. The Piles, or Emrods.

Crevaſſé: m. ée: f. as Crevacé.

Crevaſſer. To chop, chawne, chap, chinke, riue, or cleaue aſunder.

Creuë: f. A groweth, acceſſe, riſing; augmentation; increaſe, eeking; alſo, a fifteene; or any other increaſe of Subſidie.

De creuë. Ouer and beſides, moreouer.

Crevé: m. ée: f. Burſt, broken, riuen aſunder.

Creve-coeur: m. Hearts-ſore, heart-breaking ſorrow, extreame griefe of heart, anguiſh of ſpirit.

A creve-coeur. Sore againſt the will; or to deſpight, or breake, his heart withall.

Crevellé. muraille crevellée. See Crenelé.

Creventriſſime. An ironicall alluſion vnto Reverendiſſime.

Crever. To burſt, or breake aſunder; to chinke, riue, cleeue, or chawne.

Crever les yeux à. To put, plucke, or dig, out the eyes of.

Crevette: f. A Shrimpe, or Prawne.

Petite crevette de riviere. The Beard, or freſh-water Shrimpe.

Creveure: f. as Crevaſſe; a chinke, cleft, riſt.

Creuſé: m. ée: f. Hollowed, made hollow; vndermined, vnder-digged.

Creuſement: m. A hollowing, or making hollow; an vndermining, a digging into, or vnder.

Creuſer. To hollow, make hollow, dig into, or vnder; to vndermine.

Creuſet: m. A Crurible, Cruzet, or Cruet; a little earthen pot, wherein Goldſmithes melt their ſiluer, &c.

Creux: m. A caue, hole, hollow place, or corner.

Le creux de l'eſtomach. The hole, or pit of the ſtomacke.

Le creux des mains. The palme, or middle of the palme, of the hands.

Creux: m. creuſe: f. Hollow, deepe, caued, full of holes.

Racine creuſe. The hearbe Holewort, or Hollow-root.

Songer creux. To muſe deepely of a matter.

Teſte creuſe. A ſhallow braine.

La viande creuſe (aſçavoir, les beſtes à deux pieds) Wenches, trulls, female raskalls.

Creziou: m. as Creſeul: ¶Rab.

Cri: m. A crie, clamor, ſhrike; ſhowt; an outcrie, lowd noyſe, acclamation; alſo, a Proclamation.

Le cri, & les Armes. The name, title, qualitie; Armes, Deuice, or Scutcheon of a noble familie; belonging onely, or chiefely (at leaſt) vnto the eldeſt heire (as he pretends.)

A cor, & à cri. See Cry.

En bas cri. Whiſperingly; or, in a low, and ſtill voyce.

Criage: m. The Cryers fee; alſo, a crying, or proclaiming of; alſo, a Crierſhip; or, the Office, or place, of a publicke Crier.

Criaillé. Bawled, cried, ſqueaked out often and alowd; ſpoken earneſtly, proteſted vehemently.

Criaillement: m. A bawling; as Criaillerie.

Criailler. To bawle, crie, or ſqueake out often, & alowd; to ſpeake high and earneſtly; to proteſt with great vehemencie.

Criaillerie: f. Lowd babling, or brawling; a clamorous vrging, or proteſtation.

Criailleur: m. A bawling fellow, clamorous perſon; a lowd and importunate ſpeaker; one who with his high ſpeaking deafes all that are about him.

Criard: m. arde: f. Clamorous, out-crying, full of noiſe; that does nothing but bawle, bray, and crie out.

Criarde: f. A ſcowld; an vnquiet woman of her tongue.

Criblage: m. A ſifting.

Crible: m. A ſiue, or ſifter; raunging ſiue.

Criblé: m. ée: f. Sifted, raunged.

Cribler. To ſift, or to raunge.

Cribleur: m. A ſifter.

Cribleure; or, Criblure: f. A ſifting, or raunging of meale; alſo, ſiftings.

Cribleux: m. euſe: f. Siue-like; full of holes as a ſiue; alſo, full of ſiues.

Os cribleux. The bone Etmoïde, whereof the top of the noſe is made; ſo tearmed, becauſe it is full of little holes holes like a ſiue.

Cricaille: f. Chinkes, coine.

Cride. A publike Crier.

Cridons: m. Certaine thicke haires of a pinnes length, which vex, & paine children in their turning, as much as if they had ſo many thornes, in their backs.

Crie: f. A Proclamation, Crie, or outcrie; alſo, a Criers fee; alſo, a Crier.

Crié: m. éc: f. Cried, skreeked, ſhowted, hallowed; exclaimed of, complained on; alſo, proclaimed.

Criée: f. Any Proclamation, crie, or outcrie; whence alſo, an outrope, or outcrie of goods (tearmed more commonly than properly, a Portſale, which is rather a preſent ſale of fiſh in Hauens;) alſo, a crying, exclaiming, bawling, braying.

Criées. The publication of a future ſeiſure, & ſale of a mans goods, made by a Sergeant, or Crier, at the doore of his pariſh Church, on ſundrie dayes, & ſundrie times, before the ſeiſure, or ſale, be executed.

Criement: m. A crying, calling, ſhowting; an exclaiming, railing, complaining, crying out againſt, a proclaiming; alſo, a wrangling, brabling, brawling.

Crier. To crie, skrecke; hallow, ſhowt; bray, bawle; exclaime, complaine of, crie out vpon; alſo, to wrangle, brawle, brable, contend in words; alſo, to proclaime; to ſummon, ſignifie, denounce by proclamation.

Crier harol. To make hue & crie after; or to exclaime vpon, &c; Seeke Harol.

Crier au lard ſur. To ſlowt, deride, ſcoffe at publickly; to diſgrace with outcries, and acclamations.

Crier au regnard l'un ſur l'autre. To reuile extreamely, raile on bitterly one another.

On crie le loup plus grand qu'il n'eſt: Prov. Report makes miſchiefes greater than they be.

La pire rouë du chariot eſt celle qui crie le plus fort: Prov. The worſt wheele of the wagon is that which creakes moſt; the moſt ignorant ſot in aſſemblies talkes higheſt; and the varieſt cow in a companie brags moſt.

On plume l'oye ſans la faire crier: Prov. Looke Oye.

Tandis que le chien crie le loup s'enfuit: Prov. While the dog doth nought but barke, the wolfe hath leaſure to eſcape.

Tant crie on Noel qu'il vient: Prov. We call ſo oft on Chriſtmas, that at length it comes.

Trop tard crie l'oiſeau quand il eſt prins: Prov. Too late cries the bird when ſhee is taken; too late comes repentance when we are ſure of puniſhment; or we repent vs too late of wrongs done when wee are paying for them.

Crierie: f. A ſhowt, exclamation, bawling, or crying out.

Crieur: m. A Crier; proclaimer; exclaimer.

Crieurs de treſpaſſez. Certaine Bell-men, who attired in blacke, & bearing on either ſide of their gowns the Armes of one thats lately dead, go vp and downe the ſtreets tinging their bells, and publiſhing his death, and the time, and place, of his buriall; at which they march before the coarſe, attired, and tinging, as before: In Paris there be 24 of them; all which are neuer imployed except it be at the funerall of the King, or Queene; for at others (how great ſoeuer) there muſt be but 23 at the moſt.

Crieurs de vin. Wine-criers; thoſe that publiſh throughout the neighbour ſtreets the names, and dwelling places of ſuch as haue wine to ſell; together with the price tis held at, and goodneſſe it is of; which to approue, they carrie ſome of it in a pot, and a ſiluer cup, to giue any man, that demaunds, a taſt of it.

Crignon: m. A field Cricket, or Graſſehopper.

Crime: m. A crime, fault, offence; imputation.

Criminalité: f. Criminalitie; a criminall action, caſe, or cauſe.

Crimination: f. A crimination, or accrimination; an accuſing of, or charging with, a crime.

Criminatoire: com. Criminatorie, accuſatorie; criminall, accuſing.

Criminel: m. A malefactor, guiltie perſon, offendor; the defendant in a criminall action, or accuſation; the priſoner at the barre; alſo, an accuſer.

Criminel: m. elle: f. Criminall; guiltie, faultie, culpable; alſo, capitall, or, of life and death; whence;

Iuge criminel. The Iudge that ſits on life and death.

Lieutenant criminel. The ſame; See Lieutenant.

Criminellement. Criminally; culpably, faultily, guiltily; alſo, capitally.

Crimineux: m. euſe: f. Faultfull, naughtie, lewd, wicked, ſubiect vnto accuſation.

Crin: m. A haire; See Crins.

Il n'eſt ſi petit crin qui ne porte ſon ombre: Prov. The ſmalleſt haire hath it ſhadow; the leaſt act a circumſtance; the loweſt word a ſound.

Crineux: m. euſe: f. Hairie, full of haire.

Criniere: f. A haire-cloth; alſo, a hood for a horſe; alſo, a Crannet; armor for the necke, or mane, of a horſe; alſo, haire; or a locke, or tuft of haire; whence;

Criniere horrible. An ouglie buſh of haire.

Verte criniere. The haires of trees; viz. the boughes, or branches.

Crinons des cheminées. Crickets: Pic.

Il a beaucoup de crinons en la teſte. His head is troubled, or full of crochets; he is much perplexed in his thoughts.

Crinons en teſte gaſtent la feſte: Prov. Looke Teſte.

Crins. les crins. The haires; haire.

Les crins d'un cheval, &c. The mane of a horſe, &c.

Cripaulme. as Agripaulme; The hearbe Motherwort.

Criquemelette: f. A crackling, ruſtling, ruffing, or buffing wench; one that buſtles, or bruſhes the ground, as ſhe goes.

Criquement: m. A creaking, crackling, ratling; buſtling, rumbling, ruſtling.

Criquer. To creake, rattle, crackle; buſtle, rumble, ruſtle.

Criqueter. as Criquer; Alſo, to knacke, or knap with the fingers.

Criqueter des dents. To gnaſh, or chatter with the teeth.

Criſe: f. The Iudgement of Phyſicke vpon the alteration of a diſeaſe; alſo, the conflict betweene nature, and the diſeaſe.

Criſſant. Crackling, or creaking; or croſhing.

Criſſement: m. A creaking, as of a doore; a craſhing, as of things broken; a whiſtling, as of the wind; any ſuch lowd, or ſhrill noiſe.

Criſtal: m. Cryſtall.

Criſtalin: m. ine: f. Cryſtallie, cryſtall-like; white, and tranſparent, as cryſtall; of, or belonging to, cryſtall.

Humeur criſtalin. The cryſtaline humour; ſeated in the middeſt of the eye, and of a round figure, ſomewhat flattened both before and behind; it is the firſt inſtrument of ſight; and a glaſſe wherein the ſpirit examines, iudges

Iudges of, the formes represented vnto it.

Critiquer. To play the Criticke; to controll, or correct what another hath done; also, to shew the signes of it selfe; or, to foreshew, by signes, what will succeed.

La maladie critiquoit. Came to a Crisis, or, altered on a criticall day.

Critiqueur: m. A Criticke; a Controller, or Corrector of other mens works, or doings.

Croäc: m. The croaking of Rauens, Frogs, or Toads.

Croäceux: m. euſe: f. Croaking, as a Rauen, &c.

Croäillement: m. The croaking of a Rauen, or Toad.

Croäiller. To croake like a Rauen, or Toad.

Croäillerie: f. The croaking of a Rauen, or Toad.

Croäilleur: m. A croaker.

Croäilleur: m. eure. as Croäilleux.

Croäilleux: m. euſe: f. Often croaking, full of croaking, using much to croake.

Croäquer. To croake as a Rauen.

Croäsſement. as Croäillement.

Croäſſer. To croake like a Rauen, or Toad.

Croäſſeur: m. A croaker, a croaking Rauen, or Toad; one that cries like a Rauen, or croakes like a Toad.

Croc: m. A graple, or great hooke.

Donner le croc en jambe à. To ouerthrow, foile, ouerturne; supplant.

Vn proces pendu au croc. A suit put off, deferred, or hanging by the wall; the like is;

Sac au croc. A suit vndecided.

Croce. A Crosier, or Bishops staffe; also, a kind of game; See Croſſe.

Crocer. as Croſſer; To play at Cricket.

Envoyer croçer. To send packing; See Croſſer.

Crocette: f. A vine-slip; a small twig, or shoot of a vine, springing from the staulke, and fit to be planted.

Croceux. as Croäceux.

Croché: m. ée: f. Crooked, hooked; as Crochu.

Crochement des dents. The crookednesse, or outward bending of the teeth, or tusks.

Crochet: m. A small hooke, or fish-hooke; also, a nut-hooke; or, a kind of hooke wherewith Mulberries bee gathered; also, a grubbing forke, or hooke-like instrument, wherewith the earth is digged, or turned vp; also, the double skrue-hooke whereat saddles be hung vp in Stables; also, the tush, tuske, or fang of a beast; also, a Quauer in Musicke; also, a place in, or part of, a market, wherein many things are confusedly sold together; also, a Romane Beame, or Stelleere; a beame of yron or wood full of nickes, or notches, along which a certaine peize of lead, &c, playing, and at length setling towards the one end, shewes the iust weight of a commoditie hanging by a hooke at the other end.

Le crochet d'un crocheteur. The forke, or crooked staffe, vsed by a (burthen-bearing) Porter.

Clou à crochet. A tenter hooke.

A crochets. Cleauing one to another; by heaps, or hudling one among another.

Donner le crochet à. To trip, cast, ouerturne, ouerthrow.

Il ne faut aller aux Meures ſans crochet: Prov. Mulberries must not be gathered without a hooke; nor harsh worke fingered with naked hands.

Crocheté: m. ée: f. Picked open with a hooke; also, hanged on a hooke.

Crocheter. To open, picke open, with a hooke, &c; also, to hang on a hooke.

Crocheterie: f. A picking of lockes.

Crocheteur. A Porter, or common burthen-bearer.

Crocheteur de ſerrures. A pick-locke, a filtcher, or filtching theefe.

Il les fit crocheteurs. He laid load on them.

Crocheton. A peece of siluer money, worth about iij. s. ix. d. sterl.

Crochu: m. The Cormorant tearmed, a Sea-Drake.

Crochu: m. uë: f. Hooked, crooked, bowed downwards, or inwards.

Auoir les maines crochuës. Looke Main.

Crochuë: f. A Quauer in Musicke; whence;

Il a des crochuës en teſte. (We say) his head is full of crochets.

Crochuëment des dents. The crookednesse, or bending out of the teeth, or tusks.

Crochure: f. Crookednesse, hookednesse.

Crociteur. as Crocheteur de ſerrures.

Crocodile: m. A Crocodile.

Le petit crocodile. The small Crocodile tearmed Scinque.

Crocodilée: f. A medicine, made of some parts of a Crocodile, for the suffusions, and webs of eyes.

Crocomagnie. An ointment made of Saffron; also, the dregs of Saffron oyle.

Crocqué. as Croqué.

Crocquer. as Croquer.

Crocquer la pie. To wet the whistle, or weason, throughly; to drinke hard.

Crocqueter. as Croqueter.

Crocute. The Corcute; a monster begot of a Lyonesse by the Hyena.

Croie. as Croye; Chalke.

Croier. as Croyer.

Croire. To beleeue, or thinke assuredly; to trust, haue confidence in, giue credit vnto; also, to lend, put in trust with, commit into the hands of; also, as Croyer; and thence;

Si vous ne le voulez croire, charbonnez-le. If you will not (chalke, or) beleeue him, bleach him.

Et pour le faire croire. And to make it be beleeued.

S'en faire croire. To ouerrule, preuaile in, make himselfe sure of; absolutely, or at his owne pleasure to dispose of; also, to winne, gaine, or haue, credit by; &c; as in Accroire.

Si m'en croyez. If you credit, relie on, or will be ruled by, me.

Ne croire à Dieu que ſur bons gages, ou à bonnes enſeignes. To trust no man further than hee sees him; to beleeue no promise, nor protestation before the deed be done.

Fol ne croit iuſques à tant qu'il reçoit: Prov. The foole beleeues not till he do receiue (the whole fruit of his owne hopes, or of other mens promises.)

Pour neant demande conſeil qui ne le veut croire: Prov. In vaine he craues aduice that will not follow it.

Qui femme croit, & aſne meine, ſon corps ne ſera ia ſans peine: Pro. He that trusts a woman, and leads an Asse, is neuer without one trouble or other.

Crois: f. as Croix.

Croiſade: f. An expedition of Christians, assembled, out of diuers countries, (by preachings, and the Popes Bulls) against the Turkes, or other Infidels; tearmed so, because euerie one of them, when he vndertakes the iourney, accepts of, and weares on his cassocke, or coat armour, the badge of the Crosse.

Croiſades. Crossings.

Croiſadeur: m. A croßer, he that crosses, or sets, or makes the signe of the Crosse on himselfe, or others.

Croiſé:

Croiſé: m.ée: f. Croſſed; layed acroſſe, or ouerthwart; alſo, that hath taken on him the croſſe, or vndertaken to fight againſt Infidels.

Les bras croiſez. Idly, ſloathfully, lazily; careleſly; alſo, mournefully, wofully, dolefully, with heauie cheere.

Croix croiſée. A croſſe croſſet (in Blazon.)

Paroles mal croiſées. Ill couched, or ſet together.

Croiſeau: m. A Stockdoue, Queeſt, Culuer.

Croiſée: f. The croſſe-barre of a window; alſo, a window ſo croſſe-barred; alſo, the ſpace that is betweene the ſhoulders on the top of the backe; and (generally) any croſſe, or croſſe-like proportion, or thing thats made croſſe-wiſe, or ſet acroſſe; alſo, the bearbe Croſſewort Gentian; or a kind of ſmall Gentian, that beares red flowers, and hath a white, long, and moſt bitter root, ſoueraigne againſt bellie-wormes, the plague, the ſtinging of Serpents, &c, and vlcered throat-wennes, or the Kings Euill.

Les croiſées d'un'eſpée. The croſſe-barres, or hilts, of a ſword.

Demy croiſée. A window that hath but one barre, from ſide to ſide.

A la croiſée. Croſſe-wiſe, or ecroſſe, or one ouerthwart another.

Croiſer. To croſſe; to ſigne, or marke with a croſſe; to ſet croſſewiſe; to lay ouerthwart, or one or ecroſſe another; alſo, to cut, or diuide in forme of a croſſe-like X; alſo, to cancell, or croſſe, a writing; alſo, (at Tennis) the ball to croſſe, or to take a touch of the ſide-wall before it touch the wall at th'end.

Se croiſer. To croſſe himſelfe, or make the ſigne of the croſſe on himſelfe; alſo, to take on him the croſſe, or vndertake, with others, a holy iourney, or warre againſt miſcreants, and Infidels.

Croiſet: m. A Cruet, Crurible, or little earthen pot, ſuch as Goldſmithes melt their gold in; alſo, a greene Frog.

Croisette: f. A little croſſe; alſo, the hearbe Croſſewort Gentian; or as Croiſée.

Croiſeur: m. One that ſets, makes, or ſtampes a croſſe on any thing.

Croiſi. as Croiſeau.

Croiſie: f. A croſſe, a croſſing, a marking with a croſſe.

Croiſillons. The ſmall croſſe barres of a window.

Croiſſance: f. Groweth, increaſe, a growing, augmentation, eeking.

Croiſſant: m. The halfe-Moone; in Blazon, a Creſſant.

Le croiſſant du jour. Is about nine a clocke in the morning.

Ordre du Croiſſant. Seeke Ordre.

Croiſſant: m.ante: f. Growing, increaſing, waxing bigger and bigger.

Croiſet: m. A greene Frog.

Croiſſette. as Crocette.

Croiſſir. To cracke, or craſh, or crackle, as wood thats readie to breake.

Croiſt: m. A groweth, increaſe, thriuing.

Bail de beſtes à croiſt. A leaſe made of beaſts (with reſeruation of their propertie) for part of whatſoeuer profit ſhall be made of them.

Croiſtre. To increaſe, grow, thriue, wax bigger, augment; ſwell, or riſe in height, ſhoot vp; come on apace.

Le nez luy croiſt. Said of one that quietly ſwallowes, and digeſts, a publicke affront, or diſgrace, which hee might haue returned, reuenged, or preuented; we ſay of ſuch a one, he will carrie coales; or, he is an Aſſe whom any man may ride.

Mauvaiſe herbe croiſt touſiours: Prov. An ill weed growes apace.

Croiſure: f. A croſſe, a croſſing, the forme of a croſſe; or, a making of the ſigne of a croſſe, or forme of a croſſe.

La Croiſure des eſpaules. The breadth of, or ſpace betweene, the ſhoulders; the top or part, of the backe, which is betweene the ſhoulders.

Croix: f. A croſſe; alſo, the ſigne, badge, or forme, of the croſſe.

La croix du cerf. The bone thats found in the heart of a Stag.

La croix de par Dieu. The Chriſts-croſſe-row; or, the hornebooke wherein a child learnes it.

Exaltation Saincte croix. Holy-rood-day; (the foureteenth of September.)

Invention Saincte croix. Th'inuention of the Holy Croſſe; a holy-day kept by the Church of Rome on the third of May; alſo, a ſhift, inuention, or deuice for the getting of money.

Croizer. See Croiſer.

Crolant. as Croulant; whence; Bois crolant d'un ladre. A Lazers clacke, or clicket.

Cronique. See Chronique.

Crope: f. The top, or knap of a hill; See Croupe.

Cropion: m. The rumpe, or crupper; a little thing like a taile, or Cuckoes beak, compoſed of foure ſmall bones, and hanging at th'end of the Os Satré.

Le cropion du becquefigue. The haunch, or flanke, of a Gnat-ſnapper.

Le mal de cropion. The Rumpe-euill, or Crupper-euill; a diſeaſe wherewith ſmall (cage) birds are often troubled.

Croppe: f. as Crope.

Croppiere. as Croupiere; A Crupper.

Bonnet à croppiere. A ſquare cap.

Croqué: m. ée: f. Creaked, cracked, crackled, craſhed; alſo, eaten, or ſnatcht vp at a bit; ſwallowed, or let downe at a gulpe; diſpatched on a ſudden, in a trice.

Croque-jarret. A Baker-legd fellow; one whoſe hammes are warpt, or, that goes in with the hammes.

Croque-lardon: m. A ſmell-feaſt, a lickorous fellow; a waſtfull glutton, a greedie eater; and (moſt properly) one that pickes the lard out of meat, as it roaſts.

Croque-mouche: m. A flie-catcher; an idle gaping hoidon.

Croque-noiſette. A nut-cracker.

Croque-notaire: m. A Pregnotarie, or Pronotarie; a word deuiſed by Rabelais in deriſion of Prothonotaire.

Croque-quenouille. He whoſe wife beats him with a diſtaffe: Rab.

Croquer. To croake, creake, cracke, craſh, crackle, as a bone which a dog breakes; alſo, to eat, or chaw; to catch, or ſnatch at a bit; alſo, to gulpe, as a man that drinkes haſtily.

Croquer la pie. Seeke Pie.

Croqueter. To eat lickorouſly, to picke out the daintieſt morſells; to deuour, or feed greedily.

Croqueterie: f. Lickorous feeding, or, gourmandizing.

Croqueteur: m. An eatnell; a greedie, and lickorous feeder.

Cros: m. Deepe holes digged into the earth to preſerue corne in.

Croſilles: f. The ſhells which Pilgrims weare about their hats.

Croſlé:

Crosſé: m. ée: f. Shaken, wagged, fast moued.
Crosſer. To shake, wag, tremble; quauer, moue fast; quiuer, quake.
Crosſier: m. ere: f. Shaking, wagging, quaking, trembling.
Crosſiere: f. A quagmire, bog; or peece of looſſe, and soft ground, that shakes vnder the feet.
Crosſe: f. A Crosier, or Bishops staffe; also, a Cricket-staffe; or, the crooked staffe wherewith boyes play at Cricket.
Donner la Mitre, & la crosſe à. To authorise, or beare out, by the priuiledge of a religious function; to couer with the specious cloake of Religion.
Eveſque d'or crosſe de bois, crosſe d'or Eveſque de bois: Prov. The leſſe a Bishops staffe, the more his vertue, shines; pompe first corrupted Prelacie.
Crosſer. To play at Cricket.
Aller ou envoyer crosſer. To send one packing, to bid him goe shake his eares.
Crosſette: f. A slip of a tree, or plant; See Crocette.
Crosſir. as Grincer.
Crosſtes. as Crottes.
Crot: m. A hole, denne, caue, grot: ¶Parisien.
Crotaphique: com. Belonging, or neere vnto, the Crotaphiques.
Artere crotaphique. A great sinew neere vnto the temples.
Crotaphiques. The two muskles of the temples.
Croté. as Crotté.
Crotenotaire. as Croquenotaire.
Crotes. as Crottes.
Crotesque: f. Rude countrey painting, or caruing, wherein many things are confusedly represented; See Grotesques.
Croton: m. as Crotton; and (more particularly) the dungeon of a prison.
Crotpeſcheret. A kind of blacke Osprey; ¶Bourg.
Crotte. See Crottes.
Crotté: m. ée: f. Bedagled, bemired, berayed, with durt.
Crotté en Archediacre. Dagged vp to the hard buttes, extreamly bedurtied, all to be dabled; (Belike when this phraſe came first in vſe, Archdeacons trudged vp and downe on foot.)
Crotter. To dig, or make holes in the earth, or in old mals; also, to daggle, bedurtie, bemire.
Crottes: f. Durt, filth, mire; dagling stuffe; also, the dung, excrements, or ordure of Sheepe, Goats, Conies, Hares, &c.
Crotton: m. A deepe hole, a filthie dungeon.
Croüacement. as Croüas.
Croüas: m. The croaking, or crie of Rauens.
Croüaſſer. To croake or crie like a Rauen, or Crow.
Croüe d'un preſſouër. as Eſcrouë; or the vppermoſt boord, and the hole thereof, whereinto the Vice-pynne enters.
Crouillet: m. The latch of a doore.
Croulant: m. ante: f. Shaking, wagging, moving, trembling.
Crouler. as Crosler; to shake, wag, or quake.
Croule-vniuers. World-shogging, all-shaking.
Croulier: m. ere: f. (prez crouliers. which tremble, or shake vnder one;) shaking, wagging, trembling, quagmire-like.
Crouliere: f. A quagmire, a trembling, or shaking peece of ground; as Crosliere.
Croupane: m. ante: f. Crooching, stooping, bowing downwards; also, long standing in one place; & hance;

Eau croupante; puddle water.
Croupe. as Crope; the top or knap of a hill; also, the rumpe, or crupper peece.
La croupe du dos. The ridge of the backe.
Vn chien aſsis ſur la croupe. A dog sitting on his taile, or buttocks.
Porter en croupe. To carrie behind on horseback.
Croupeton. vn lievre eſtant à croupeton. That sits vpon her buttocks (as she doth often while she is at reliefe) and raises her selfe thereon, to listen at euerie wag of a feather.
Croupi: m. ie: f. as Croupy.
Eau Croupie. Standing water, which hath no course, as that of lakes, puddles, &c.
Croupie. chaſſer à la croupie. To find a Hare at reliefe, and then course her with Greybounds.
Croupiere de cheval. A horse-crupper.
Croupir. To crooch, bow, stoope, grow or goe double; also, to rest, or grow idle; stand, or abide long in a place.
Croupiſſant. eau croupiſſante. A standing puddle, a dead water.
Crouppe: f. The top, or knap, of a hill.
Croupy: m. ye: f. Crooched, or crooching; inclined, crooked, stooping, bowing; also, resting, standing, being idle.
Crouſille: f. The shell-fish, called a Scallop.
Crouſſiller entre les dents. To crash, or crackle betweene the teeth, as a nut shell, &c.
Crouſte: f. A crust; a scab, or hard sturfe.
Crouſtes de paſtez valent bien pain: Pro. Piecrust is alwayes worth a peece of bread; or may well serue in stead of bread.
Crouſteau: m. A great crust; or great scab.
Crouſteau de cire. A wax comb wherein bees make, or lay vp, their honie.
Crouſtelevé. Scuruie, bescabbed; full of the pocks.
Crouſteleveure: f. Scuruineſſe, scabbineſſe, porkineſſe.
Crouſteleux. Cruſtie; as Crouſteux.
Crouſtelles; ou Crouſtellettes. Little crusts, or scabs.
Crouſter. To crust, or scab; to bring a crust, or scab vpon.
Crouſteux: m. euſe: f. Cruſtie, bescabbed; hard, and rugged, like a wall that is pargetted.
Crouſtons: m. Sharpe flintie stones.
Croute: f. A hole, grot, caue, denne.
Croutelevé. as Crouſtelevé: ¶Rab.
Croyable: com. Credible, beleeuable, to be trusted vnto, relyed on.
Choſe aiſée croyable: Prov. That which is easily done is soone beleeued.
Croyablement. credibly.
Croyance: f. Beliefe, beleening, credit given vnto.
Croye: f. Chalke.
Croye pour nettoyer draps. Fullers earth.
Croye rouge. Ruddle, red Lead, red Oaker.
Croye teincte de pourpre. Cheeke vernish, red painting.
Croye verde. as Verd de terre.
Croyé: m. ée: f. Chalked, marked, or whited with chalk.
Croyer. To chalke; to marke, or white, with chalke.
Croyeux: m. euſe: f. Chalkie, full of chalke.
Cru: m. A groweth, growing; increase, or increasing.
Armé à cru. In compleat armour; or, all-ouer armed.
Cela n'eſt pas de ſon cru. That was none of his owne ſetting, or plotting; that is none of his owne inuention, or doing.

Cru:

Cru: m. uë: f. Crude, raw, vnripe, ouer-new; imperfect, vnprepared; alſo, vnſauorie.
Cruauté: f. Crueltie, inhumanitie, fierceneſſe, tyrannie, rigour, bloudthirſtineſſe.
Cruche: f. An earthen pot, pitcher, or ſteane; alſo (in old French) a ſtable.
Telle terre telle cruche: Pro. Such ſtuffe, ſuch work; ſuch wit, ſuch words; ſuch affection, ſuch actions; ſuch diſcretion, ſuch directions.
Cruché: m. eé: f. Hollow, or hollowed, as a pitcher; made like a pitcher.
Crucher. (quaſi le meſme que, jucher; or) To crouch; alſo, to make hollow like a pitcher.
Crucheter. as Chucheter.
Cruchette. A little pitcher.
Crucial: m. ale: f. Croſſe-wiſe, croſſe-like.
Crucié: m. ée: f. Tormented; vexed, grieued, afflicted.
Crucier. To torture, torment; vex, grieue, afflict.
Crucifié: m. ée: f. Crucified, nailed on the croſſe.
Crucifiement: m. A crucifying, or nailing on the croſſe.
Crucifier. To crucifie; to naile, or put to death on a croſſe.
Crucifix: m. A Crucifix.
Mangeur de crucifix. An hypocrite.
Crucifix: m. ixe: f. Crucified, put to death on the croſſe.
Crucigeres: m. Croſſe-bearers; or, an Order of Fryers which weare croſſes on their habits.
Crud. as Cru. Crude, raw, vnripe; vnprepared.
Crudité: f. Cruditie; rawneſſe, vnripeneſſe; indigeſtion.
Cruë. as Creuë.
Cruel: m. elle: f. Cruell, fell, vngentle, fierce; tyrannous, rigorous, vnmercifull; bloudie, bloudthirſtie, bloudie minded.
Cruelisé: m. ée: f. Vſed, or handled cruelly.
Cruellement. Cruelly, fiercely, bloudily, fellly, rigorouſly, vnmercifully.
Cruëment. Rawly, barely, nakedly; alſo, raſhly.
Cruente. le flux cr. The bloudie flix.
Crujon: m. Any round thing, as a mans skull, or braine panne.
Cruon. The skull, or braine panne; or, as Crujon.
Crural: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to the thighes.
Muſcle crural. as Cuiſsier.
Veine crurale. A branch of the deſcendent trunke of the hollow veine; diuided into foure branches.
Cruſol. as Cruzeul.
Cruzeul. A Founders mould, wherinto the melted mettall is conueyed.
Cry. The motto, or deuice of an Embleme.
Cry. à cor & a cry. By proclamation; or, by hue and crie.
Cryptoportique. A ſecret walke, or vault vnder ground, or in ſome low place; a cloſe low gallerie for coolneſſe in Summer.
Cryſolite. A pretious ſtone; as Chryſolite.
Cryſtal: m. Cryſtall.
Cryſtalin. as Cryſtal.
Cryſtalin: m. ine: f. Cryſtaline, of Cryſtall.
Cubaſeau: m. The little Sea-nettle: (Bourdelois.
Cube: m. A Cube; or, figure of Geometrie, foure ſquare like a Die.
Cubebes: f. Cubebs; an Aromaticall, and Indian fruit.
Cubiculaire: m. A Groome of the Chamber.
Cubiculaire: com. Cubicular; belonging to the bedchamber.
Cubique: com. Square, or made ſquare.
Cubital: m. ale: f. Cubitall; of, or belonging to the Cubite.
Artere cubitale. Seeke Artere.
Cucube. Herbe cuc. Garden Nightſhade.
Cucurbite: f. A gourd.
Cucurbitin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, gourds.
Cucuye. An admirable bird in Hiſpaniola (no bigger than a thombe) hauing two eyes in her head, and two vnder her wings (which are double, a greater, and ſmaller paire) ſo ſhining in the night (wherein only ſhe flies) that fiue or ſix of them tied together, giue as much light as a torch.
Cueillement: m. A gathering, reaping, picking vp; a culling, collecting, choice, or chuſing out.
Cueiller: m. An oare.
Cueillette: f. A collection, a reaping, or gathering together.
Bonne cueillette. Plentie of corne, and of all other fruits; a plentifull Autumne, or Harueſt.
Cueilleur: m. A gatherer; a reaper; a picker, chuſer, or culler.
Mis en cuilleur de pommes. Turned into the habit of an Appleſquire.
Cueilleure: f. A gathering; reaping; picking, culling, or chuſing out.
Cueilli: m. ie: f. Gathered, reaped, picked vp; choſen, culled, collected out.
Cueillier. The fowle tearmed a Shoueler; alſo, as Cuillier, a ſpoone; and hence the Prouerbe;
Entre la bouche & la cueillier ſouvent advient grand deſtourbier. Much may happen betweene the cup and the lip.
Cueillir. To gather; to reape; to picke vp; to cull, collect, or chuſe out.
Cuens. An Earle, or Count. (v.m.)
Cueur: m. The heart; See Coeur.
Cueurs. The heart-reſembling Cherries, called French Cherries, or Spaniſh Cherrie.
Cueut: f. A whetſtone.
Cueux de plomb. A Sow of Lead.
Cuferin: m. A running at the Noſe got by a Horſe after an ouer-long courſe, or gallop, whereby the Veines of his Braine are opened ſo wide, that they are hardly, or not in a ſmall time, cloſed againe.
Cuict: m. icte: f. Sodden; baked; concocted, diſgeſted, ripe ynough; fit to be eaten.
Bois cuict. Charcoale.
Matiere cuicte. (Sometimes vſed for) Matiere fecale.
Miel cuict. A kind of pancake made of, or ſeaſoned with, honie.
Teſte mal cuict. An vnſtaied, or greene, head.
Cuidance: f. Thought, weening, imagination, ſuppoſition, preſumption.
Orgueilleuſe ſemblance monſtre fol[illegible]uidance: Prov. Looke Semblance.
Cuidant. Thinking, weening, ſuppoſing, imagining, deeming; preſuming.
Cuidé. Thought, weened, imagined, ſuppoſed, deemed; preſumed.
Cuider: m. A thought, conceit, gheſſe, weening, imagination, opinion, ſuppoſition, preſumption.
Cuider n'eſt pas iuſte meſure: Prov. Imagination is no iuſt meaſurer.
Cuider. To thinke, weene, deeme, imagine, ſuppoſe, preſume, haue an opinion of, make a gheſſe at.

Cela cuide avenir à. That bad like to haue happened at.

Cuidereau : m. A Braggadochio ; a pretie bardie fellow ; one that thinks well of himselfe ; one that is bold or so.

Cuideur : m. A thinker, weener, deemer, supposer ; imaginer ; presumer.

Cuideur de vendenge. One that is deceiued in that he thinketh ; and, more particularly, one that farts in syrrope ; or, meaning but to fart, mars all.

Cuideurs sont en vendenge : Prov. Vpon a merrie Harueſt many ground fond hopes.

Cuidrelles. See Cuydrelles.

Cuigner. To wedge, or hold open with wedges.

Cuignet : m. A little corner ; also, a little wedge.

Cuilier : f. A spoone ; See Cuillier.

Cuiliere : f. A ladle.

Cuillerée : f. A spoone-full of.

Cuillier : f. A spoone.

Cuillier de mer. The Sea-spoone ; a kind of long Cockle.

Herbe aux cuilliers. Spoonewort, Scruuie-grasse.

De vieilles maisons bruslées il sçait tirer des cuilliers neufues. (Said of a skilfull, & thriftie house-keeper ;) he can extract new spoones from old burnt houses.

Entre la bouche & le cuillier souvent advient grand destourbier : Pro. Disturbance oft steps in twixt cup, and lip.

Cuillier. boyau cuil. The arse-gut ; See Boyau.

Cuin : m. A wedge.

Cuir : m. The skin ; also, a skin, fell, hide ; also, leather.

Coupeur de cuir. A cut-purse.

Le cuir luy tient. He is clung'd, or hide-bound.

Faire d'autruy cuir large courroye. To spend freely on another mans purse ; to cut a large thong out of another mans leather.

Il se iette sur tout cuir. He deales with euery thing ; all is fish that comes to his net, all good prise that comes in his way ; bee greedily falls aboord on any trash, or trull.

On s'est ioué de son cuir. His skin hath beene plaid with, to his paine ; (said of one that hath been throughly whipped.)

Tremblant entre cuir & chair. Trembling inwardly, extreamely, throughly, or (as wee say) at the the verie heart.

Qui cuir voit tailler courroye en demande : Prov. Hee that sees Leather cut requires a thong of it.

Cuirace. as Cuiraſſe.

Cuirain : m. Leatherne stuffe ; prouision, or marchandise, of leather.

Cuiraſſe : f. A Cuirats ; armour for the breast, and backe.

Cuiraſsé : m. ée : f. Armed with a Cuirats.

Lievres cuiraſſez, ou morionnez. Sillie, or cowardlie Artificers watching in armor ; the ordinarie watchmen of good townes.

Cuiraſseux : m. euſe : f. Leatherie, of a hide ; or, thicke and stiffe, as a hide.

Cuiraſſier : m. ere : f. Of, or belonging to, seruing for, a Cuirats.

Cuiraſſine : f. A sleight Cuirats for a light Horseman.

Cuire. To seeth, boyle ; bake ; disgest ; make ripe, or readie ; also, to itch, or smart.

Cela me cuict. That vexeth, fretteth, stingeth, or grieueth me.

Trop grater cuict, trop parler nuit : Prov. Too much scratching paines, too much talking plagues.

Cuirie : f. A leatherne Ferkin ; (an old word.)

Cuiſſant : m. ante : f. Smarting, itching, netling, stinging.

Cuiſinal : m. ale : f. Of, or belonging to, a Kitchin.

Livre cuiſinal. A booke of Cookerie.

Cuiſine : f. A Kitchin ; (and sometimes) also, meat ; whence ;

Leur cuiſine ordinaire. Their ordinarie diet, or proportion of victualls.

Harpye de cuiſine. A rauenous, or most greedie deuourer ; a beastlie feeder ; one that eats extreamly much, and spoyles the rest which he cannot eat.

Latin de cuiſine. Grosse Latine.

Faire la cuiſine. To play the Cooke, to dresse meat.

Se ruer tresbien en cuiſine. To fall eagarly to his victualls, to be a verie good trencher-man.

Graſſe cuiſine maigre teſtament : Prov. Great house-keepers leaue poore executors ; The like is ;

De graſſe cuiſine povreté s'avoiſine : Prov.

Mauvais chien ne veut iamais compagnon en cuiſine : Prov. A churle cannot endure a companion in his gainfull imploiments.

Cuiſinement : m. A dressing of meat, a cooking, or playing of the Cooke.

Cuiſiner. To cooke, play the Cooke, dresse meat as a Cooke.

Cuiſineux : m. euſe : f. Fit for Cookerie, belonging to the Kitchin.

Cuiſinier : m. A Cooke.

Cuiſiniere : f. A woman Cooke.

Cuiſſal ; or, Cuiſſaux. Cuisses ; Armour for the thighes.

Cuisse : f. The thigh.

Vne cuisse d'ail. A cloue of Garlicke.

Cuiſſedame : f. The name of a kind of peare.

Cuiſſelette : f. A litttle thigh.

Cuisse-né. Thigh-borne ; (an Epithete of Bacchus.)

Cuiſſette : f. as Cuiſſelette.

Cuiſſier. Of, or belonging to, the thigh.

Muscle cuiſſier. One of the foure principall muscles whereby the thigh is bent, or stretched out.

Cuiſſin : m. A cushion.

Cuiſſinet : m. A little cushion.

Cuiſſineux : m. euſe : f. Soft as a cushion ; fit for a cushion ; holding of the cushion ; full of cushions.

Cuiſſon : f. A seething ; also, a smarting, a stinging, as of Nettles.

Cuiſſots : m. Tasses ; armour for the thighes.

Cuit. as Cuict.

Cuite : f. A seething ; baking, batch ; also, digestion.

Cuivre : m. Copper.

Cuivreux : m. euſe : f. Full of Copper.

Cul : m. An arse, bumme, tayle, nockandroe, fundament.

Cul d'asne. as Cubaseau. The small Sea-nettle.

Cul blanc. The bird called a Whittaile.

Cul de cheval. A small, and ouglie fish, or excrescence of the Sea, resembling a mans bung-hole, and called, the red Nettle.

Le Cul d'un 'esguille. The eye of a needle.

Cul d'un 'espingle. The head of a pin.

Cul de fosse. A dungeon.

Cul de four. The bottome of an ouen.

Cul de lampe. See Lampe.
Cul noüé. The name of a certaine ſhort-tailed Apple.
Cul de poule. A certaine hard, and eminent ſwelling on the Orifice, or edge of a Fiſtula; alſo, a bringing, or ſetting all the tops of the fingers cloſe together.
Cul ſur pointe. Topſie turuie, arſie-varſie, vpſide-downe.
Cul rouge. The bird called a Specht, or Speght.
Cul ſur teſte. as Cul ſur pointe.
Au cul du ſac. At length; in th'end, or bottome; when all is done and gone.
De cul & de teſte. Furiouſly, fiercely, on all hands, on euerie ſide, euerie way.
Aſsis entre deux ſelles le cul à terre. Betweene two ſtooles the breech goes to the ground.
Grattant le cul au ſoleil. Idlely, ſloathfully, ſlouenly; as one that lies clawing his breech, or bleaking himſelfe, in the Sunne.
Il leur fit leuer le cul à Dreux. He raiſd their ſiege, or made them riſe, from before Dreux.
Iouër à pique en cul. To thruſt out the harlot, or driue out one naile with another.
Vn Mangeur de culs de poules. A nickname for a ſouldior.
Mettre de cul. To ſet on his arſe; to ouercome, confound, ouerturne, ouerthrow.
Torcher à autruy le cul de ſa chemiſe. To doe a man a pleaſure, but (which he could haue done himſelfe) only by his owne meanes; Looke Chemiſe.
A cul de foirard touſiours abonde merde: Prov. A ſhitten taile hath euer ſtore of ordure; a ſhitten fellow is ſtored with filthie humours, or ſcuruie followers.
Il eſt mal caché à qui le cul paroiſt: Prov. Hee's but ill hid that ſhewes his taile; he is but a ſhallow diſſembler that ſuffers the world to take notice of his worſt humors.
Culace: f. as Culaſſe.
Culaçon. The breech of a peece of Ordnance.
Culant. Setting on his taile, giuing an arſe-poſſe vnto.
Culaſſe: f. The Counter (in the Poope) of a Ship; alſo, the breech of a Gunne; alſo, a ſoule-great, or full-grown arſe, or breech; alſo, a lumpe of gold or ſiluer melted in a crurible, &c, and ſtill retaining the forme of the bottome thereof.
Qui ne chaſtie culot, ne chaſtie culaſſe: Prov. He that corrects not youth, controuls not age; he that nips not vice in the bud, ſuffers it, a branch.
Culaſſé: m. ée: f. Foyled, ouerthrowne, ſet on the taile; that hath receiued an arſe-poſſe, or fall on the arſe.
Culaſſeur: m. One that foyles, or ſets another on his taile.
Culbute: f. A tumbling; a turning, or toſſing vpſide downe; See Culebute.
Faire la culbute. To play the tumbler; or, to turne as a tumbler, top ouer taile.
Culbuté: m. ée: f. Tumbled, throwne topſie turuie; ouerturned, turned top ouer taile.
Culbuter. To tumble, throw topſie turuie, turne vpſide downe; alſo, to ouerturne, ſet on the taile; tumble one vpon another.
Culebute. bidet de culebute. The ſinewie inſtrument of mankind.
Culeron: m. The binder part of the buttockes of a horſe.
Culetage: m. Buttocke-ſtirring, taile-wagging, leacherie.
Culeter. To wag, or ſtirre the buttockes vp and downe; to moue the taile in a wanton time, or with the taile keep time vnto a wanton muſicke.
Culetis: m. as Culetagé.
Culette: f. as Culaçon.
Culier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to the taile, arſe, or fundament.
Boyau culier. The arſe-gut; See Boyau.
Culiere: f. A crupper for a horſe.
Culinaire: com. Of, or belonging to, a kitchin.
Cul-leve. Iouër à cul-leve. To play at leuell-coyle.
Cullot. as Culot; Alſo, a cuſhion (made) to ride poſt on.
Cullottes. as Culottes.
Culot: m. A little arſe, a ſmall taile; (and by metaphor, a lad, or yong bodie;) alſo, as Qulocul; and, the lag, or laſt of a companie; alſo, as Cullot.
Culot de bronze. A hollow barre, or wedge of braſſe.
Culot de fondeur. The mould wherein a Bell-founder, &c, caſts his mettall.
Marcher comme culots. To come behind, or, in the rereward of the reſt.
Qui ne chaſtie culot ne chaſtie culaſſe: Prov. Hee that corrects not ſmall faults, will not controll great ones; or, he that corrects not a knaue while hee is young, will not bee able to controll him when hee is old.
Culottes: f. Armour for the binder parts, or taile peece, of a horſe; alſo, (a faſhion of) cloſe breeches.
Culpe d'un artichaud. (Perhaps miſtaken for Pulpe;) The pulp, pith, or ſubſtance of an Artichocke.
Cul-pelé: m. ée: f. Bauld-arſt, bare-taild, pild-breecht.
Culrage. as Curage.
Culte: m. Reſpect, worſhip, honour giuen, ſeruice done one.
Cultellaire: com. Of a knife, or knife-like.
Cautere cultellaire. See Cautere.
Cultivage: m. Tillage.
Cultivant. Tilling, husbanding, dreſſing, labouring.
Cultivation: f. A tilling, or tillage.
Cultivé: m. ée: f. Tilled, wrought, laboured, husbanded; improued by plowing, bettered by tillage.
Cultivement: m. A tilling, husbanding, labouring, plowing; culture, or improuing by culture.
Cultiver. To labour, till, plow; improue by culture, better by plowing.
Cultiveur: m. A husbandman; a labourer, or tiller of land.
Culture: f. Culture, tillage, husbandrie.
Cumanée. Of the Sybill Cumana: Rab.
Cume de preſſouër. (Belike miſtaken for Cuve;) the vat, or trough which receiues the liquor expreſſed.
Cumin: m. The hearbe, or ſeed, Cummin.
Cumin ſauvage. Wild Cummin; whereof there are three kinds; the ordinarie, the codded, and the horned one.
Cumulativement. Largely, abundantly, by heaps.
Cumulé: m. ée: f. Heaped, accumulated, filled vp; gathered by heaps.
Cumuler. To heape, accumulate, fill vp; to augment, or gather together, by heaps.
Cunctation: f. Cunctation, tarriance, delay, abiding, lingering, prolonging of the time.
Cuneiforme. Wedge-reſembling, wedge-like, of the faſhion of a wedge.
Os cuneiforme. Seeke Os.
Cuniculeux: m. euſe: f. Full of inward holes, or by-corners.

Cunilage. Sauorie, Winter Sauorie; alſo, wild, or baſtard Marierome; (ſome alſo call Fleabane, Cunilago.)
Cunöet. A Kennet (apple.)
Cupide: com. Couetous, greedie, deſirous of, luſting after.
Cupidique. Embloquer à la Cupidique; autant que, beſongner.
Cupidité: f. Cupiditie; luſt; couetouſneſſe; wanton affection, diſhoneſt loue; vniuſt, or ill-ſeaſoned, deſiring.
Cupule: f. The little cup, or ſhell, of an Acorne.
Curage: f. The bearbe Water-pepper, Arſe-ſmart, Killridge, or Culerage.
Curage rouge. Water Dragon, or Marſh Dragon.
Curailles de maiſon: f. The duſt, filth, ſweepings, or cleanſing, of houſes.
Curatelle: f. Wardſhip; the office of a Gardian, or Tutor; a ſurueying, an ouerſeeing.
Curateur: m. A Gardian in Socage; a Tutor, an ouerſeer; a Surueyor, &c.
Curation: f. A cure; curing, healing.
Curé: m. The Curate, or Parſon of a Church; he that hath the ſpirituall charge of a Pariſh.
Bourſe de curé. The bearb Toywort, Pickepurſe, Cooſeweed, Shepheards-pouch, or purſe, poore-mans Parmacetie.
Cure: f. Care, heed, reſpect, regard; carke, thought, penſiueneſſe; alſo, a Cure, or charge of Souls; a Parſonage, or Vicarage; alſo, a cure, healing, reſtoring to health; alſo, a Hawkes caſting.
Il eſt tout preſché qui n'a cure de bien faire: Pro. He that will not be ſaued needs no preaching; aduice preuailes not with ſuch as are careleſſe of their owne good.
Curé: m. eé: f. Cleanſed, purged, purified, cleered, voided of ordure; picked, pruned; alſo, healed, cured, recouered.
Cure-dent: m. A tooth-picke.
Curée: f. A (dogs) reward; the hounds fees of, or part in the game they haue killed.
La curée d'un foſſé. The cleanſing, or ſcowring of a ditch; the mud, ſlime, or durt thats taken out of it.
Cure-oreille. An eare-picker.
Curer. To cleanſe, cleere, purifie, purge, void of ordure; picke, prune; alſo, to heale, recouer, cure; alſo, to caſt, as a Hawke doth.
Cureſtable: m. A ſtable-cleanſer; an Oſtler, Horſekeeper, or Groome of a Stable.
Curette: f. A Chirurgions Probſe, or Probe; an inſtrument wherewith he ſounds the bladder, & gathers together ſuch grauell, congealed bloud, or other filth, as remaines in it, after a ſtone taken out; alſo, an eare-picker; alſo, a Plough-ſtaffe, or Aker-ſtaffe (wherewith the Culter is cleanſed.)
Cureures de maiſon. as Curailles.
Curial: m. ale: f. Of the Court, belonging to a Court.
Amende curiale. Seeke Amende.
Curialiſte: m. A Courtier.
Curialité: f. Formalitie, courteſie, or courtſhip.
Curie: f. A Tribe, or ward in a Citie.
Curieuſement. Curiouſly, preciſely, nicely, quaintly, daintily; doubtfully, ſcrupulouſly; carefully, heedfully, buſily, too too diligently.
Curieux: m. euſe: f. Curious; quaint, nice, daintie, preciſe; doubtfull, ſcrupulous, heedfull, buſie; too too diligent; more carefull than needs.
Curin: m. A thinne, or ſmall skin.
Curioſité: f. Curioſitie, curiouſneſſe; daintineſſe, niceneſſe; affectation.
Curoir: m. as Curette (in the firſt ſence.)
Curtille: f. A little many-legd vermine, that gnawes aſunder the roots of plants.
Curtin: m. (The name of) a verie ſweet, and long-laſting Apple.
Cuscoamy. as Cuſcouil: ¶Rab.
Cuſcouil. Well hanged, well ſtoned.
Cuſcute. A kind of worme; alſo, the weed Dodder.
Cuſins: m. Whurtle-berries, or Winberries.
Cuſſonné: m. ée: f. Worme-eaten.
Cuſtode: m. A Gardian, warden, keeper, ouerſeer.
Cuſtode (de lict.) A Curtaine (for a bed.)
Cutané: m. ée: f. Skinnie, or, of the skin.
Cuticulaire; peau cuticulaire. Full of Pores, or of holes, for ſweat to come out at.
Cûve: f. An open tub; a fat, or vat.
A fonds de cuve. Largely, throughly, fully.
Foſſé fait à fonds de cuve. Hauing a bottome like a fat, or, flat-bottomed, and downe-right ſided.
Goutte à goutte on emplit la cuve: Prov. By drop after drop the the fat is filled; See Goutte.
Cuvé: m. ée: f. Put into, or ſeaſoned in, a great vat, or tub.
Cuveau: m. A little fat, or tub.
Cuvée: f. A tub-full of.
Cecy eſt d'un 'autre cuvée. This is of another veſſell, of another edition; of another ſort, of another faſhion.
Cuvelier: m. A vat-maker, or tub-maker.
Cuver. To tunne, or put into a fat, or tub; to ſeaſon, let worke, or ſtand in, a vat, or tub.
Cuver ſon vin. To diſgeſt his liquor; to euacuate, or paſſe ouer, the fumes thereof by a good nap, or any other helpe.
Cuvette: f. A little fat, or tub.
Cuvette de Venus. The Teazell, or Fullers Thiſtle.
Cuviel: m. A bathing tub.
Cuvier. as Cuviel; Alſo, a Dying fat, or lead.
Cuviere: f. An open veſſell, or ceſterne to waſh, or coole drinking pots in Summer; or as Cuvier.
Cuyderolles. as Cuydrelles.
Cuydrelles: f. Crow-flowers, wild Williams, marſh Gilliflowers, Cuckoe Gilliflowers.
Cuyraſſine. See Cuiraſsine.
Cuyvre: m. Copper.
Cuyvreux: m. euſe: f. Full of copper.
Cy: f. The name of a Saint; whence;
Pain beniſt de la S. Cy. Wine, good liquor, Nippitatie.
Cy. Here, in this place, hither, in this matter; Looke Ci.
Cy devant. Heretofore.
Cyané: m. ée: f. Azure, bright, blew of colour.
Cyathe: m. A ſmall cup, or meaſure among th' auncient Romanes, containing about fiure ſpoonefulls; and in weight an ounce, halfe a quarter, two charats, and fifteene graines of our weight; Looke Ciathe.
Cyboïde. os Cyb. A certaine bone in the inſtup.
Cyclamine. The hearbe Hogs-bread, Sowes-bread, Swines-bread; alſo, the wild vine, blacke Brionie, our Ladies Seale; alſo, Wood-Nightſhade, Bitterſweet.
Cycle. A round, or circle.
Cyclopique. Monſtrous; one-eyed, halfe-blind; cruell, furious.
Cycogne. A Storke; Looke Cicogne.
Cycogneau: m. A yong Storke.
Cyerce. The Northerne wind: ¶Rab.

Cygne : m. A Swan; Looke Cigne.
Cygnean : m.anne : f. Like a Swan; of, or belonging to a Swan.
Cygneur : m. A Swan-keeper; (a word sometimes vsed in derision of Seigneur.)
Cylindre : m. A rowler; the woodden instrument wherwith clods are broken, and allies plained.
Cymace : f. A ledge, or outward member in Architecture, fashioned somewhat like a Roman S, and tearmed a Waue, or Ogee.
Cymacion. A small Waue, or Ogee.
Cymaise. as Cymace.
Cymas. The same.
Cymat. A small waue, or Ogee (in building.)
Cymbale : f. A Cymball to play on.
Iouër des cymbales. autant que paillarder : ¶ Rab.
Cyme. as Cymace; also, as Cime.
Cymettes : f. The shoots, or tender buds yeelded by the stalks of Coleworts, after the greater leaues haue beene cropped off.
Cymier : m. as Cimier; Also, a Crest, Cognisaunce, or deuice, borne on the top of an helmet.
Cymitiere. A Churchyard; Looke Cimitiere.
Cynabre. Cynoper; a kind of Vermilion; Looke Cinnabre.
Cynamolge. An Arabian bird, that vseth to sucke bitches.
Cynanthropie. A frenzie, which maketh a man haunt vnfrequented places, with a conceit, that hee is turned into a dog.
Cynic : m. ique : f. Dogged, cinicall, doggish, currish, churlish.
Cyniphe. A gnat, midge, or dog-flie.
Cyniphé : m. ée : f. Dogged.
Cynocephale : m. A Baboone.
Cyntre. Looke Cintre.
Cyon : m. A Whirlewind; or, the boisterous incounter of two strong winds (at Sea.)
Cypere : m. Cyperus, or Cypresse, Galingale, (a kind of reed.)
Cyprés : m. The Cyprus tree; or Cyprus wood.
Cyprés de Candie. The Candian Cyprus tree; (is lower, and smaller, and spreads it boughes in a rounder forme, than the ordinarie one.)
Cyprés de Iardin. Lauender Cotton; or, garden Cyprus.
Cyprés sauvage. Female Soothernwood.
Le menu, ou petit Cyprés. The same; or sweet Soothernwood.
Droict de branche de Cyprés. A duetie yeelded in old time by Englishmen arriuing at Bourdeaux, as a signe that they had beene there.
Cypressier : m. ere : f. Of, or belonging to, Cyprus.
Cyprin : m. ine : f. Of, or belonging to, th' Island Cyprus, or vnto Venus, the Patroneesse thereof; whence;
Torche cyprine. The flame of loue.
Cyre. Looke Sire.
Cyron : m. A hand-worme; Lorke Ciron.
Cyronne. A seare-cloth; &c; as Ceroesne.
Cysimbre : m. Water-Mint, fish-Mint, brooke-Mint, and horse-Mint.
Cystepatique. Artere cys. A braunch of the Arterie Coeliaque; which goes to the liuer, and gall.
Cystique. veine cystique. A certaine little veine issuing from the trunke of the Port veine, and thence mounting to the bladder of the gall; before it comes at which it is sometime single, and sometimes double; but there diuided into two branches.

Cythariser. To sing, or whizze as the wind.
Cytise. The shrubbie plant Citisus, Shrub-Trefoyle, Herbarist, and Tetrifolie; some also call it, milke Trefoile; becaus it increases milke in the cattell that feed on it.
Cyvade. A Shrimpe, or Prawne.

D

Dâ, for deà. An Interiection, confirming the word whereto it is ioyned; as ouy dâ, yes verily; nondâ, no in truth, or, no forsooth.
Dabblée. See Dablée.
D'abbordée. At first, at first sight, at their arriuall, as soone as they touched, as soone as they came together.
Dablée : f. A crop of corne, &c; corne growing, or standing, on the ground; also, Haruest, or the reaping of corne, &c.
Daces : f. Tolles.
Dacier : m. A toll-gatherer.
Dacque. A certaine weed like vnto our Docke.
Dacte : m. A Date.
Dactier. The Palme, or Date tree.
Dactier d' Inde. Th' Indian Date tree.
Dactilaire : com. Of, or belonging to, a Date; also, Date-like.
Cautere dactilaire. See Cautere.
Dactiliomantie : f. Finger-Magicke.
Dactyle : m. The Date-grape, or Finger-grape; also, the hearbe Dogges-tooth; also, a kind of long shell-fish; also, a long precious stone found in Candia; also (in versifying) a foot of three sillables, whereof the first is long, the two other short.
Dactylogie : f. Finger-talke; speech made with the fingers.
Dada. A horse; (Childishly.)
Dadée : f. Childish toying, speech, or dalliance; whence;
Souffrir à vn enfant toutes ses dadées. To cocker, or cokes it; to make a feddle, or wanton of it.
Dadvantage. Moreouer; furthermore; ouer-and besides; also, better then; as, il estoit monté d'advantage, Hee was better mounted than the rest; (in which sence it must euer bee written with an Apostrophe.)
Daemon : m. A diuell, spirit, soule.
Dagard : m. A Brocket, Spitter; Pricket; a young male Deere that but begins to put forth a head.
Dagasse : f. A great dagger.
Dagobert. The name of a certaine ruddie, & very good peare.
Dagorie : f. The name of a faire yellow apple.
Dagorne : f. A decrepite, and toothlesse beldame.
Dague : f. A dagger; also, the head of the young Deere, called a Spitter, or Pricket.
Dague & baston. Large measure, heaped measure, measure with aduantage.
Dague à roëlles. A Scottish dagger; or Dudgeon bast dagger.
Servante faicte à la dague. A soothing wench, a colloguing queane.
Daguenet : m. A little (pocket) dagger.
Daguer. To stab with a dagger.
Daguette : f. A little dagger.
Daignant. Deigning, vouchsafing.
Daigner. To deigne, vouchsafe, thinke worthie of.

Dail: m. A ſithe to mow with.
Daille: f. A kind of long ſhell-fiſh, thats couered, or armed with two ſhells.
Dain: m. A fallow Deere.
Dain: m. as Daim.
Dain: m. Daine: f. Daintie, fine, quaint, curious; (an old word.)
Daincean. as Dainteau.
Daine: f. The Sea-fiſh called, otherwiſe, Maigre.
Daing: m. as Daine.
Dainteau: m. A yong fallow Deere.
Daintiers: m. The Doucets, tenderings, or ſtones of a Deere.
Dais, or Daiz. A cloth of Eſtate, Canopie, or Heauen, that ſtands ouer the heads of Princes thrones; alſo, the whole State, or ſeat of Eſtate; alſo, the boords of a beds teaſter whereat the valances be hanged.
Daiſſellé: m. ée: f. Made of, or couered with, boords.
Dalader. A kind of fruitleſſe, and barren Priuet.
Daldre. A Flemiſh coine worth about iiij. s.
Dale. as Daldre; Alſo, a ſlice.
Dalle: m. A ſewer, or pit, whereinto the waſhings, diſh-water, and other ſuch ordure of houſes, are conueyed.
Dalle: f. as Dale; alſo, as Daille.
Daller: m. The coine called, a Doller.
Dalmatique: f. (A faſhion of) a long white gowne, or Veſtment (ſpotted, or tufted all ouer with purple) at firſt brought vp by the Dalmatian, or Sclauonian Prieſts; alſo, a wide-ſleeued Veſtment, or Surplus worne, at this day, by Deacons during the celebration of ſolemne daies Maſſes.
Dam. Sir; (an addition, or title of reſpect, and honour, giuen, in courteſie, vnto a Gentleman, or Knight: This in old time; and yet the Gouernors of the Charterhouſe Monks are ſtiled Dams.)
Dam: m. Dammage, loſſe, hinderance, harme.
Damage. as Dam: ¶Pic. Loſſe, dammage, hurt.
Damaiſine: f. A Damaſcene, or Damſen plum.
Damas: m. Damaske.
Eau de Damas. Damaske, or ſweet, water (diſtilled from all ſorts of odoriferous hearbs.)
Huile de Damas. Oyle Damaſcene.
Raiſins de Damas. The beſt ſort of Raiſins of the Sun.
Roſe de Damas. The Damaske, or Muske Roſe.
Terebenthine de Damas. Turpentine of Venice.
Damaſceure: f. Damasking, or Damaske worke.
Damaſquin: m. ine: f. Of Damaske, or, wrought like vnto Damaske.
Roſe Damaſquine. The white Muske Roſe.
Damaſquinage: m. Damaske worke.
Damaſquine: f. Damasking, or Damaske worke.
Damaſquiné. as Damaſſé.
Damaſquiner. To Damaske, to worke Damaske work; to flouriſh, carue, or ingraue Damaske-wiſe.
Damaſquineure: f. as Damaſceure.
Damaſſé: m. ée: f. Damasked; of Damaske; wrought or ſtamiſhed, like Damaske.
Damaſſer. as Damaſquiner.
Damaſtic: m. A kind of varniſh like vnto Damasking.
Dame: f. A Dame; a Miſtreſſe; a Ladie; alſo, a Stepdame; alſo, a man at Tables, or Draughts; alſo, a Pie, Piannet, Magatepie. (In old time this word, ſignifying that which Monſieur or Seigneur doth now, was appropriated vnto men.)
Dame du milieu. A certaine thicke skin, or filme, which is broken when a virgine is made a women.
Belle Dame. Seeke Beau.
Mes Dames. The title, and ſtile of the French kings daughters.
Noſtre Dame. Our Ladie; the virgine Marie, the bleſſed virgine.
L' aſſumption noſtre Dame. Our Ladie day in Harueſt.
Chardon de noſtre Dame. The white Thiſtle, milke Thiſtle, our Ladies Thiſtle.
La conception noſtre Dame. The conception of our Ladie; the eighth of December, kept holyday by the Church of Rome.
Les cinq doigts noſtre Dame. Fiue leaued graſſe.
Fillaſſe de noſtre Dame. The ſlender threads of Cobwebs.
Herbe de noſtre Dame. The hearbe Clarie; ſo called in Languedoc.
Laict de noſtre Dame. as Chardon de noſtre Dame.
Mente de noſtre Dame. Speare-mint, Baulme-mint, Browne-mint, Macrell-mint, our Ladies Mint, common Garden Mint.
La Nativité de noſtre Dame. A ſolemne holy-day kept by the Church of Rome on the eighth of September.
Poire de noſtre Dame. A verie good peare, called Maries Peare, or, our Ladies peare.
La preſentation noſtre Dame. The Preſentation of our Ladie; a holy-day kept by the Church of Rome on the 21 of Nouember.
Roſe de noſtre Dame. Peonie, Pionie, Kings Bloome, Roſe of the Mount; alſo, the ſhrub called Roſe of Hieruſalem, Roſe of Jerico, our Ladies Roſe, & heath Roſe.
Seau de noſtre Dame. Our Ladies Seale, black Brionie, wild Vine; (an hearbe.)
La Viſitation noſtre Dame. The Viſitation of our Ladie; a holy-day kept by the Church of Rome, on the ſecond of Iuly.
Dame qui trop ſe mire peu file: Prov. She that heeds her beautie much, tends her benefit but little; a proud, and a good, huſwife are incompatible.
En moiſſons Dames chambrieres ſont: Pro. While Harueſt laſts, all fellowes.
Pour l' amour du Chevalier baiſe la Dame l' Eſcuyer: Prov. The Ladie kiſſes her man for his Maſters ſake (an exceſſe of her loue which verie well might be ſpared.)
Quand la Meſſe fut chantée, ſi fut la Dame parée: Prov. By that time Prayers were done her tiers were on.
Vuides chambres font les Dames folles: Pro. The roome once voided, farewell modeſtie.
Damé: m. ée: f. Made a Queene, as a Pawne at Cheſs; doubled at Draughts.
Damer. To make a Queene at Cheſs; to double a man, or make a king, at Draughts.
Ie dameray ceſte-cy. I will requite, or ſecond this tale; I will tell another vpon the necke of it; (a Metaphor from the making of a King, by doubling of a man, at draughts.)
Dameret: m. An effeminate fondling, or fond carpet Knight; one that ſpends his whole time in the intertaining, or courting, of women.
Dames. (The Plurall to Dame; alſo,) the play on the outſide of a paire of Tables, called Draughts.
Iouër aux dames rabbatuës. To leacher it.
Damier: m. A Cheſſe-boord; or, paire of Tables.
Damnable: com. Damnable, condemnable; blameable, vnfit to be allowed.
Damnation: f. Damnation; a damning, a condemning.
Damné: m. ée: f. Damned, condemned, adiudged vnto death.

Damner. To damne, condemne, giue iudgement against, adiudge vnto death.

Damoiſeau. as Damoiſel; and as Damoiſelet; alſo, a neat fellow, ſpruce yonker, effeminate youth.

Damoiſel: m. A young gentleman profeſſing Armes, and not yet knighted.

Damoiſel d'un tel lieu. The Lord of ſuch a place (an ancient forme of ſpeech.)

Damoiſelet: m. ette: f. Gentlewoman-like; or, whiting on a Gentlewoman.

Teinct damoiſelet. An effeminate complexion; a face of hue more womanlie then manlike.

Damoiſelette: f. A little Gentlewoman; a Gentlewoman of meane eſtate, or of low degree.

Damoiſelle: f. A Gentlewoman; any one, vnder the degree of a Ladie, that weares, or may weare, a Veluet hood.

Damoiſelle d'attour. The Gentlewoman, or waiting woman that vſes to dreſſe, and make readie, her Ladie, or Miſtreſſe.

Mes damoiſelles. The title, and ſtile of the French Kings younger brothers daughters.

Damp chevalier. Thou ſir Knight; or, as, Dam.

Damyon. The name of a certaine apple, that yeelds very cleere Cydar.

Danché. Indented; or (as in termes of blazon) dancy.

Dandin: m. A meacocke, noddie, ninnie; a boydon, ſot, lobcocke; one that knows not how to looke, and gapes at euery thing he knowes not.

Dandiner. To goe gaping ilfauoredly, looking vnſteaddily; to gape, and looke, like an Aſſe, Noddie, Ninnie.

Dandrilles: f. Hangars, Dantrils; Looke Dendrille.

Danger: m. Danger, perill, ieopardie, hazard.

Les dangers des bois. The amerciaments, and confiſcations adiudged vnto the King by the Officers of woods, and forreſts.

Droict de tiers, & danger. A third and tenth (as of xxx pound xiij) payed vnto the King out of the price of euery Woodſale made in the woods and forreſts of his, or other lords demaines (eſpecially within Normandie) wherein he hath thoſe rights.

Fief de danger. Looke Fief.

Il y a danger que. It is to be feared leaſt.

A grand danger grand courage: Prov. Great courage is in greateſt dangers tryed; or as in Courage.

Il n'eſt danger que de vilain: ¶Pro. A clowne (inraged) is moſt dangerous.

Dangereuſement. Dangerouſly, perilouſly, with much ieopardie, with great hazard.

Dangereux: m. euſe: f. Daungerous, perilous, ieopardous, full of hazard.

Sergens dangereux. Certaine Officers, that leuied, vnto the Kings vſe, les dangers des bois, & le droict de tiers & danger, vntill the yeare 1563, when they were caſſed by Charles the ninth.

Dans. as Dedans. In, within.

Danſe: f. A daunce, or dauncing.

La Danſe des crapaux. as in Crapaud.

Danſe du loup la queuë entre les jambes. Lecherie.

Danſe Macabré. Death; (a daunce wherein there is no reſpect of age, degree, worth, or dignitie.)

Danſe Treviſanne. Lecherie.

Elle ſçait aſſez de la vieille danſe. She knowes well enough what belongs to the Game; ſhe hath bin a backſter, a twigger, a good one, in her time.

De la panſe vient la danſe: Pro. Men are the merrieſt when their bellies are fulleſt; or, when the bellie is full the breech would be figging; (for by this Danſe is any luſtfull, or ſenſuall, motion vnderſtood.)

Danſé. Daunced; hopped, skipped.

Danſement. A dauncing; hopping, skipping; a motion directed by time, and harmonie.

Danſer: m. To daunce; alſo, to hop, skip, or leape (for ioy.)

Danſer en bille. To daunce very liuely.

Danſer la grue. To hop, leape, skip, daunce often; or but vpon one leg.

Il ne ſçait ſur quel pied danſer. Hee is at his wits end, he knowes not what in the earth to doe.

Amour apprend les aſnes à danſer: Pro. Loue makes the cokes turne courtier.

Chaſcun n'eſt pas aiſe qui danſe: Prov. Euerie one is not merrie that daunces; of ſuch a one wee ſay, his heart is not ſo light as his heeles.

Danſereſſe: f. A woman dauncer.

Danſerie: f. A dauncing, &c; as Danſement.

Danſeur: m. A dauncer, hopper, skipper.

Iamais danſeur ne fut bon clerc: Prov. Neuer was dauncer good ſcholler.

Danſpied. The hollow part of the ſole of the foot.

Dante. A certaine hard-skind Indian beaſt, reſembling a Mule.

Daphnomantie. Diuination by a Lawrell, or Bay tree.

Dapifer. The great Maſter, or Steward of the Kings houſe; (tearmed ſo in old time.)

Darceau. A certaine fiſh; as Derceau.

Dard: m. A Dart, a laueline, a Gleaue; alſo, a kind of aſh-coloured ſerpent, which from high trees throweth it ſelfe at paſſengers; alſo, a Dace, or Dare fiſh.

Dardanaire: m. A Regrater, Ingrater, or Ingroſſer; one that buyes, and hoords vp corne, or other prouiſion, with a purpoſe to ſell it againe when tis growne deere.

Dardanier. as Dardanaire.

Darde: f. A play, wherein boyes hauing layed a heape of points vnder a ſtone, and made a circle about them, dart at them with a rod, and win as many as they driue out of that circle; (Our boyes laying their points in a heape of duſt, and throwing at them with a ſtone, call that play of theirs, Duſt-point.)

Dardé: m. ée: f. Darted; flung, hurled, caſt, throwne, as a dart; alſo, hit, hurt, ſtrucken, wounded with a dart.

Darder. To dart; to fling, hurle, caſt, or throw a dart; alſo, to hit, wound, pierce, or hurt with a dart.

Dardereſſe: f. A woman that caſteth a dart.

Darde-tonnere. Thunder-hurling, thunder-ſhooting.

Dardeur: m. A darter, or thrower of a dart.

Dardiller. To ſhake, or wauer, like a dart caſt with violence.

Dardoiſes fourmis. Beaſts among the Dardes (in the North part of India*) coloured like cats, and as big as Egyptian wolues; they dig gold oare, as Moles earth, and keepe it careſully, till creeping, in extreame heat, into caues, they are couſened thereof by the countrey people.*

Dare. A huge big bellie; alſo, Dole.

Darioles: f. Small paſties filled with fleſh, hearbes, and ſpices, mingled, and minced together.

Dariolette: f. A bawd, or carrier of loue-meſſages.

Darne: m. A ſlice; a broad, and thin peece, or partition of.

Dartre: f. A Tettar, or Ring-worme.

Daſ-

Daſſez. Fully, enough.
Dataire: m. A dater of writings; and (more particularly) the dater, or diſpatcher of the Popes Bulls; an ordinarie Officer in the Court of Rome.
Date: m. Piſſe, vrine, lant.
Date de lettres: f. The date of Letters, or Euidences.
Mis en date. Brought into date, or into reckoning; come in requeſt.
Mis en date de. Set in the ranke, or number of.
Daté: m. ée: f. Dated, as a letter &c.
Dater. To date a writing; alſo to piſſe. ¶Normand.)
Datif: m. iue: f. Datiue; giuing; of power to giue.
Quint datif. See Quint.
Datil. A Date.
Dation: f. A gift, or giuing.
Datte. as Dacte. A Date.
Dattier: m. The Palme, or Date tree.
Davantage. See Dadvantage.
Davanture. Peraduenture, by chance, perhaps.
Daubé. as Dobé.
Dauber. To beat, ſwindge, lamme, canuaſſe throughly.
Daveſnes. Horſe-plums.
Daugier. Droict de tiers, & daugier. Looke Danger.
Davier de barbier. The Pinſer wherewith he drawes, or puls out, teeth.
Davier d' un pelican: m. A certaine inſtrument to picke a locke withall; an yron hooke, or crampiron for that purpoſe.
Daulphin. as Dauphin. A Dolphin.
Daulphin de France. The Dolphin, or eldeſt ſonne of France; called ſo of Daulphiné, a Prouince giuen, or (as ſome report it) ſold, in the yeare 1349, by Humbert Earle thereof to Philippe de Valois; partly on condition, that for euer the French Kings eldeſt ſonne ſhould hold it (during his fathers life) of the Empire.
Davoines. A kind of Plummes; or, as Daveſnes.
Dauphin: m. The fiſh called, a Dolphin; Looke Daulphin.
Fort comme vn dauphin en terre: Prov. Moſt weake, moſt feeble, without force; (for a Dolphin dies as ſoone as he is out of the water.)
Daurade: f. The fiſh tearmed a Guilt-head; alſo, as Dorée.
Daurée. as Dorée.
Dauſſe d'ail. A cloue of Garlicke.
Dauſſé: m. ée: f. Cloued; diuided into ſeuerall parts, or cloues, as a head of Garlicke.
Se Dauſſer. To be diuided in ſeuerall parts, or cloues, like a head of Garlicke.
Daymon. Looke Demon.
Day: m. as Ders.
Dé: m. A Dye.
Dé à couldre. A thimble.
Les dez luy diſent fort bien. The dice are verie fauourable to him; or, hee hath paſſing good lucke at dice.
Le dé ſoit ietté. Put the matter in hazard; ſet all on ſix and ſeuen; it can be but an ill caſt; whatſoeuer it be let's venture on it.
Les dez ſont deſia iettez. The worſt is paſt; or, the action is alreadie begun, the matter alreadie determined; we muſt now ſtand to it, or abide the brunt of it.
Les dez ne me veulent. The dice croſſe me, or runne not as I would haue them.
Sans flatter le dé. Roundly, plainly, truly, without ſoothing, ſmoothing, or making things better then indeed they be.
Les graces du Lombard ſont trois dez ſur table: Pro. See Lombard.
De. Sometimes ſignifies, of, (the note of the Genitiue caſe) as, Le chappeau de Iaques; le chaulme de l'avoine; Sometimes (a Prepoſition) it ſignifies from; as, Ie viens de Paris; Sometimes, in, or at; as, de mon temps, de ce temps là; and ſometimes, by; as, Nul ſi beau don fut onques donné de prince; la ſentence, ou iugement donné de nous, &c.
De. Sometimes giues Nownes an Aduerbiall ſignification; as; Il vit de reigle, Il court dé viſteſſe, &c; He liues regularly, runnes ſwiftly.
D'icy à vn an. Till this time tweluemonth; alſo, a yeare hence.
De par Dieu ſoit. In the name of God be it; God proſper it, or ſend it well to ſpeed.
De par luy bon Dieu. In the name of God; or, for Gods ſake. ¶Lymoſin.
De par moy; &, De par le Roy. Looke Par.
De partie à partie. Betweene partie and partie.
Deâ. An Interiection, as, Dâ; ouy deâ; Yes truely, verily, without doubt; alſo, a tearme of expoſtulation; as, deâ, qui vous mouvoit? Why, or, good God, what reaſon had you? or, what a Gods name mooued you?
Dealbatoire: com. Whiting, whitening, making white.
Deambulatif. as Ambulatif.
Deambulatoire: com. Oft remouing, euer going, neuer reſting; or, remoueable, or changeable from place to place.
Iuſtice deambulatoire. Iuſtice adminiſtred in circuits.
Debaccher. To raue, rage, rayle, take on like a drunken man.
Debagoulé: m. ée: f. as Desbagoulé; alſo, mumbled, or muttered.
Debagouler. as Desbagouler; alſo, to mumble, or mutter.
Debail: m. A Gardien, Tutor, Gouernour; as the husband is (or ſhould be) of his wife. ¶Boullenois.
Debaquer. as Debaccher.
Debardeur: m. A Lighter-man; a Porter that belongs to a Ship, or Lighter, for the vnlading thereof.
Debarraſſé: m. ée: f. Diſintangled, rid from.
Debarraſſer. To looſen, diſintangle, rid from.
Debaſté. Vnſadled, rid of his pack-ſadle, as an Aſſe after his worke done.
On y va comme aſnes debaſtez. Looke Aſne.
Debaſter. To take off the Pack-ſaddle from an Aſſe, &c.
Debat: m. Strife, debate, variance, contention, difference, diſagreement; iarring, altercation, diſpute, controuerſie, brabling, wrangling.
Ronde table oſte le debat: Pro. The reaſon followes;
Chaſcun eſtant aupres du plat.
Debatable: com. Diſputeable, debateable, ſubiect to oppoſition.
Debatement: m. A debating; or, as Debattement.
Debateur: m. A debater, arguer, diſputer, contender.
Debatis: m. The bating, or vnquiet flittering of a Hauke.

De-

Debatre. To debate, argue, diſcuſſe, examine, diſpute of; to wrangle, cauill, iarre, brable; to ſtriue, contend, bicker, differ about; in law to demurre vpon.

Nous debatons de la chappe à l'Abbé. We ſtriue for that whereto neyther of vs hath right; or that we ſhall both go without; for that which belongs, or is due to another; or, we brable about had I wiſt; caſtles in the aire; mooneſhine in the water. (The leſſe properly.)

Se Debatre, & demener. To beſtirre himſelfe hard, or apace.

Par trop debatre la verité ſe perd: Prov. By too much arguing truth is loſt.

Debattement des flancs. A panting in the flancke.

Debatu: m. uë: f. Debated, argued; diſputed on; brabled about.

Au temps que cela n' eſtoit debatu aux ieunes hommes; When that was not refuſed, or denyed yong men; when there was no difficultie made of admitting yong men vnto it.

Debauchement. Looke, Desbauchement.

Debaucher. Looke Baucher.

Debellé: m. ée: f. Conquered, vanquiſhed, ſubdued, ouercome in warre.

Debeller. To ſubdue, vanquiſh, ouercome by warre.

Debendade: f. A ſuddaine disbanding of a companie one from another; an vnbending; a violent looſing, or letting go, as of an arrow out of a bow.

A la debendade. Confuſedly; without order, or array; alſo, violently, or furiouſly.

Debexiller. To cruſh, or breake aſunder, to beate vnto peeces.

Debiffé. Razed, or ſcraped out; alſo, ragged, tattered; rent in peeces, torne aſunder; alſo, out of order, much out of tune; looking ſorrily as one that is not well; alſo, farre ſpent, ſore decayed, ſhrewdly ſhaken, as one that is but newly recouerd of a great ſickneſs; of whom, compared to that he hath bin may be ſayd, he is as a letter almoſt ſcraped out, which hardly ſhews what it was.

Debiffer. To raze, or ſcrape out, as a letter; alſo, to rend, or teare in peeces.

Se Debiffer. To ſplit, or fly aſunder; as boords that riue, or cleaue in a ſhip, or other building, for want of due ſeaſoning, or cloſe ioyning together.

Debile: com. Debile, weake, feeble, faint, infirme.

Au plus debile la chandelle en la main: Pro. He that worſt may the candle holdeth; or, let him that is the weakeſt hold the candle.

Debilitation. A Debilitation, weakening, enfeebling, faintneſſe; infirmitie, feebleneſſe.

Debilitation de veuë. Shortneſſe of ſight, weaknes of the eyes.

Debilité: f. Debilitie, weakeneſſe, faintneſſe, feebleneſſe, infirmitie, imbecilitie, decay of ſtrength.

Debilité. Debilitated, weakened, enfeebled.

Debiliter. To debilitate, weaken, enfeeble.

Debiller. To vnlooſe the rope of a boate faſtened vnto the peece of wood which runs orecroſſe the bummes of boate-baling borſes.

Debit: m. as Debite.

Debitage: m. Retaylage.

Debite: f. A diſtribution, or ſale of any thing by parcels; vtterance of commodities, in retaile, & vpon truſt, or otherwiſe.

Ces bleds n'ont aucune debite. This corn is not ſaleable, will take no mony, yeelds no commodious returne.

Debité: m. ée: f. Diſtributed, vttered, retayled, paſſed away by parcels, vpon truſt.

Terres debitées. Lands giuen by the Lord vnto a tenant to be held of him by rents, or ſeruices, or both.

Debitement: m. A diſtributing; a ſelling, vttering, paſſing away by retayle, or in parcels, and (moſt properly,) vpon truſt.

Debiter. To diſtribute, or doe away things, one by one; to ſell, or vtter by parcels, to paſſe away by retayle (and moſt properly, vpon truſt;) alſo, to rid much worke, diſpatch buſineſſe a pace.

Debiter vn arbre qui eſt abatu. To peecemeale it, to cut it into manie ſeuerall peeces, or parcels.

Debiteur. A diſtributer; or ſeller by retayle; a retayler, vpon truſt; alſo, as Debteur.

Debitis. Lettres, ou mandement de debitis. A generall, and peremptorie writ, graunted out of the Chaunceric, or by ſome of the chiefe Iuſtices, to compell a debtor, by the ſeiſure and ſale of his goods, and impriſonment of his perſon (if he be bound, or ſubiect thereto) to ſatisfie his creditor, that procured it.

Debitoribus. il eſt tout deb. tourné à gauche; he is cleane ſpoyled, ouerthrowne horſe and foot, vtterly vndone; or he dares not loooke his creditor in the face.

Deblée. as Desblée.

Debleure: f. Corne ſtanding; or hanging by the roots.

Deboire: m. An after taſte, ill ſmacke, or twang, which an vnſauorie thing leaues behind in the mouth.

Deboité. Looke Desboité.

Debonnaire: com. Debonnaire, courteous, affable; gentle, mild; of a ſweet, or friendlie conuerſation.

Debonnaire Mire fait playe puante: Prov. a tender-harted Surgeon makes a wound to ſtinke.

Oiſeau debonnaire de luy meſme ſe fait: Pro. The gentle hauke (halfe) mannes herſelfe.

Debonnairement. Debonnairely, courteouſly, affably; gently, mildly.

Debonnaireté: f. Debonnairitie, or debonnairneſſe; courteſie, friendlines, affabilitie; gentleneſſe, mildneſſe, faire or ſweet behauiour.

Grand' debonnaireté a maintes hommes grevé: Prov. Much courteſie hath ruined many.

Deboſquer. To ruſh, or iſſue out of a wood; to ruſh, or ariſe from an Ambuſcadoe (in a wood.)

Deboucler. as Desboucler.

Debourrer. See Desbourrer.

Debout. Vp, ſtanding, vpright, boult-vpright.

Bois debout. The branch of a vine, that (when all the reſt are cut off as ſuperfluous) is left growing for the next yeares increaſe.

Debouté: m. ée: f. Debouted; put, or thruſt from; driuen fro; depriued, or turned out, of; depoſed; expelled, excluded; alſo, repulſed, reiected, vtterly refuſed; alſo, denyed, or diſmiſſed with a ſharpe, and ſhort anſwer.

Deboutement: m. A depoſing, putting or thruſting, from; a depriuing, or turning out, of; an expelling, or excluding; a repulſe; an abſolute refuſall, or peremptorie denyall, of; a ſhort and ſharpe diſmiſſion; alſo weakeneſſe, imbecillitie, infirmitie.

Debouter. To deboute; to put, thruſt, or driue from; to depoſe, depriue, or turne out, of; to expell, repulſe, exclude, reiect; refuſe abſolutely, or peremptorily; alſo, to diſmiſſe with a ſhort, and ſharpe anſwer; to ſend away with a flea in the eare.

Deboutonne: m. ée: f. Vnbuttoned; vnbraced,

Manger à ventre deboutonné. To eat while his skin will hold; or, till his bellie cracke againe.

Deboutonner. To vnbutton, to vndoe a button, to looſe, or let ſlip, a button.

Debradé: m. ée. f. Vnarmed, or whoſe arme is burſt aſunder, ſunder; without an arme, wanting an arme. ¶Rab.

Debraguetter: m. An vntying of the codpeece.

Elle ne vault pas le debraguetter. She is but a hamelie peece of ſtuffe; ſhe is not worth the paines one ſhould take with her.

Debraguetter. To vnty the codpeece.

Debranchi: m. ie: f. Lopped, vnbranched.

Debranchir. To lop a tree; to cut, or pull off the branches thereof.

Debrigandé: m. ée: f. Tattered, ragged, or ſtript naked, as one that hath paſt through the hands of needie theeues.

Debris: m. A wracke; a breaking, or ſplitting aſunder, as of a ſhip againſt a rocke; alſo, any rupture, or breach.

Debriſé: m. ée: f. Burſt, broken, ſplit aſunder; alſo, nimbly footed (in dauncing.)

Debriſement: m. as Debris.

Debriſer. To breake, burſt, or ſplit aſunder; alſo, to foot it nimbly in dauncing.

Debriſer la voix. To diuide, or reliſh cunningly.

Debriſſure. as Debris.

Debrouillé: m. ée: f. Disintangled, vnpeſtered.

Debrouiller. To vnpeſter, disintangle, rid from trouble.

Debte: f. A debt; a dutie, or thing due.

Debtes actives. Debts owing, or due, by others vnto vs.

Debtes Hypothecaires. Looke Hypothecaire.

Debtes paſſives. Debts which are owed, or due by vs vnto others.

Debtes perſonnelles. Perſonall debts; thoſe that grow due vpon a bare promiſe; or appeare to be due by a Scedule, or Scroll.

Ie t'en feray la debte bonne. I will warrant it, vndertake for it, make it good.

Il ne laiſſe dormir la debte ſur le ſoleil. He is an excellent quicke paymaſter.

Vieilles debtes duiſent: Pro. Looke Duire.

Debteur: m. A debtor.

Debvoir: m. Dutie, aeuoire, indeuour; a ſeruice, good office, obligation; alſo, a Haukes reward, or part, of the game ſhe hath taken.

Debvoirs. The act of ſubmiſſion, and acknowledgement of dutie, vnto a landlord, expreſſed by the tenants mouth, hands, and oath of fealtie.

Debvoir des Delicts. A buſhell of Rye payed vnto the Lord of the Borough of Pont Niuſillac (in Britain) by euerie houſeholder of auncient tenure, that keepes Tillage within the Territorie thereof.

Debvoir de Ligence; Seeke Ligence.

Debvoir de lignage. A certaine toll exacted vpon euerie load of wood that's brought into Rennes.

Debvoir de luets. as Debvoir des Delicts.

Debvoir de moulage. The fee, or Toll thats due, for grinding, vnto the Miller, or Lord of the Mill.

Debvoir de Paſques. A Lambe at Eaſter, due vnto ſome Curates, by euerie one that keepes Sheepe within their Pariſhes.

Francs debvoirs. Ce ſont les charges que doivent les hommes de franche, & libre condition, pour vſage de bois, pour paſcage, panage, ou autrement. ¶Ragueau.

Debvoir. To owe; to be due; to be bound vnto.

Ie luy doy cela de retour. I am beholden to him, or, I am bound to requite him, for that.

Le temps le debvoit. The time gaue, required; allowed, or approoued, it.

Ceux qui nous doibvent nous demandent: Pro. Our debtors are as bold with vs as if they were our creditors; (applyable vnto thoſe that hauing receiued great fauours, are not ſatisfied, but either impudently demand more, or vngratefully complaine they haue not had enough.)

Fais ce que tu doys advienne ce que pourra: Pro. Doe thou thy dutie, happen what hap may.

Il ſied mal à qui doibt de parler plus haut qu'il ne doibt: Prov. It ill becomes him that owes to ſpeake lowder then hee ought; (viz: to ſtand on prowd tearmes.)

Il n'eſt pas quite qui doibt de reſte: Pro. He is not out of debt that is to pay ought.

Va ou tu peux, meurs ou tu doys: Pro. Goe whether thou canſt, but dy where thou ſhouldſt; yong men may trauell, but the old muſt reſt at home.

Debuſquer. as Desbuſquer.

Debuter. as Desbuter.

Deça. On this ſide; from hence; hether.

Decacheté: m. ée: f. Vnſealed, as a letter &c.

Decacheter vne lettre. To vnſeale a letter.

Decade. A Decade; the tearme, or number of tenne yeares, or moneths; alſo, a tenth, or, the number of tenne.

Decadenaſſer. To vndoe a padlocke; alſo, to reſolue a Riddle.

Decadence: f. Decay, ruine; declining, falling away.

Decal d'argent. Want of alloy in ſiluer.

Decaller. To ſlacken, or grow ſoft; to become leſſe firme, hard, or ſtrong then before.

Decalogue. The tenne Commaundements.

Decapité: m. ée: f. Decapitated, beheaded.

Decapiter. To decapitate, or behead.

Decaptivé: m. ée: f. Vncaptiuated, deliuered from captiuitie.

Decaptiver. To vncaptiuate; free from captiuitie, ſet at libertie.

Decartelé: m. ée: f. Quartered.

Decarteler. To quarter.

Decedé: m. ée: f. Deceaſed, departed, dead.

Deceder. To dy, deceaſe, depart this life.

Decelé: m. ée: f. Detected, diſcouered, diſcloſed, bewrayed.

Decelement: m. A detection, diſcloſing, diſcouering, bewraying.

Deceler. To diſcouer, detect, diſcloſe, lay open, bewray.

Deceleur: m. A detecter, diſcloſer, diſcouerer, bewrayer of.

Decemment. as Decentement. Decently, ſeemely, comelily.

Decempedal: m. ale: f. Of tenne foot, or tenne foot long, &c.

Ombre decempedale. The ſhadow of a Dyall falling vpon the point of tenne.

Decence: f. Decencie, ſeemelineſſe, comelineſſe, handſomeneſſe.

Decent. Decent, ſeemelie, handſome, comelie, graceſull, becomming, beſeeming, beſitting; meet, conuenient, apt, fit.

Decentement. Decently, comelily, handſomely, graceſully, beſeemingly; aptly, fitly, conueniently.

Deceptif: m. iue: f. Deceptiue, deceitfull, deceiuing; wilie, craftie, full of ſubtiltie.

Deception: f. Deception, deceit, fallacie, craft, ſubtiltie, couſenage.

Decerclé: m. ée: f. Vncircled; ſquared as a circle; taken taken out of a circle.

Decercler. To vncircle; square a circle; take out of a circle.

Decerné: m. ée: f. Decreed, sentenced, adiudged, ordered; determined, concluded; appointed by iudgement.

Decerner. To decree, determine, sentence, order, iudge; conclude, appoint, in Court.

Deceu: m. euë: f. Deceiued, beguiled, gulled, couſened, circumuented, ouer-raught; diſappointed; betrayed.

Il eſt toſt deceu qui mal ne penſe: Prov. He that thinkes no hurt is ſoone deceiued; the harmleſſe man is quickly ouer-raught.

Decevable: com. Deceiueable; deceitfull, apt to beguile, couſen, gull.

Decevance: f. as Deception.

Decevant. Deceiuing, beguiling, gulling, couſening.

Deceveur: m. A deceiuer, beguiler, guller, couſener, impoſter, cheater, connycatcher.

Decevoir. To deceiue, beguile, gull, couſen, circumuent, ouer-reach; mocke; diſappoint; betray.

Decez: m. A deceaſe, or deceaſing; death, or a departure out of this life.

Dechalandé: m. ée: f. Out of trade, without cuſtomers.

Dechaſſé: m. ée: f. Expelled, eiected, driuen, or chaſed away.

Dechaſſement: m. A driuing, expelling, or chaſing away; an expulſion, eiection, abdication.

Dechaſſer. To chaſe, or driue away, from, or out of; to abdicate, expell, eiect, thruſt out.

Decheant: m. ante: f. Falling away from; alſo, decaying, waſting, leſſening, diminiſhing.

Decheoir. To fall away from; alſo, to miniſh, leſſen; decay, waſt, fall to want.

Decheoir de claim; To relinquiſh, or giue ouer, bus clayme; or, to be nonſuited.

Decheoir du droict de. To looſe, or forfeit his right in.

Dechet: m. A fall from former worth, or goodneſſe; a decay, waſt, leſſening, miniſhing, in gold, ſiluer, wine, oyle, &c.

Decheu: m. euë: f. Fallen away (from;) miniſhed, leſſened; waſted, decayed; (Looke Decheoir.)

Dechiffrer. To decypher.

Dechiqueté. Looke Deſchiqueté.

Gelée dechiquetée. Cut Dyamond-wiſe.

Dechiqueter. as Deſchiqueter.

Dechiré: m. ée: f. Torne, rent, mangled, diſmembred.

Dechirer. To rend, teare, mangle, diſmember.

Decidé: m. ée: f. Decided, determined, compounded, ẽnded; alſo, cut off, cut ſhorter.

Décider. To decide, determine, compound, bring a matter to end; alſo, to cut off, or cut ſhorter.

Decidu: m. uë: f. Falling, or fallen off; hanging, or falling downe.

Decimable: com. Tytheable.

Decimal: m. ale: f. Tything, or belonging to tythe; whence;

Fruicts decimaux. Tythe-fruits.

Decime: f. The tythe, or tenth of.

Decimé: m. ée: f. Tythed; payed as, or, put vnto, tythe.

Armée decimée. Whereof euerie tenth ſouldier is culled out, and put to death for an offence committed by them all.

Decimer. as Diſmer. To pay, or take tythe.

Decimeſtre. Of tenne monethes.

Decicif: m. iue: f. Deciſiue, deciding, determining; fit, or able, to end a controuerſie.

Deciſion: f. A deciſion, determination, end of a controuerſie.

Deciſoire: com. Deciſorie, deciding; fit, vſed, or able, to decide controuerſies.

Declamateur: m. A declamor; alſo, an outcryer.

Declamation: f. A declamation; an Oration made of a fained ſubiect, or onely for exerciſe; alſo, a crying out aloud.

Declamatoire: com. Declamatorie, declaiming.

Declamer. To declaime; to make Orations of fained ſubiects, or onely for exerciſe; alſo, to cry out aloud.

Declarant. Declaring, telling, relating, publiſhing, manifeſting; ſignifying; expreſſing, explaning, expounding; denouncing.

Declaration. A declaration; a relation; an interpretation, explication, expoſition; a ſhewing, ſignifying, denouncing; a ſuruey of land, or Inuentorie of goods, couched in writing.

Declaré. Declared, told, related; publiſhed, denounced, manifeſted; ſignified; expreſſed, explaned, expounded.

Declarer. To declare, tell, relate; ſignifie, teſtifie; denounce, publiſh, pronounce; open, cleere, manifeſt, expreſſe, expound, explane.

Declaveté: m. ée: f. Vnpegged, vnboulted, vnpinned.

Declaveter. To vnboult, vnpinne, vnpeg; looſe from.

Declin: m. A fall, declining, deſcent, or bending downewards; alſo, an eſchewing, waiuing, ſwaruing, winding, or bending from; alſo, a wayning, decaying, decreaſing; or, as in Declinement.

Declinatoire: f. An exception taken againſt a Iudge, or to the Iuriſdiction of a Court of Iuſtice; the diſabling, or a refuſall, of either of them, in a tryall.

Declinatoire: com. Diſabling, excepting againſt, or refuſing to be tryed by, a Iudge, or Court of Iuſtice.

Fin declinatoire. Looke Fin.

Declinant. Declining, downe-falling; alſo, eſchewing, wayuing, auoiding, bending from.

Decliné. Declined, bent, or fallen downewards; alſo, declined, eſchewed, wayued, auoided, ſwarued, wound, or turned away from.

Declinement. as Declin; le declinement du jour. The later part of the day.

Decliner. To decline, bend, or fall downewards; alſo, to eſchew, decline, bend from, wayue, auoid, ſwarue, turne away, paſſe by.

Decliner la Iuriſdiction. To except againſt, or refuſe to be tryed by, a Court, as of inſufficient Iuriſdiction.

Decliquer. To iert, clacke, or clatter out; raſhly to blab, or bable; to let fly, let goe, rap out.

Declive: com. Steepe, deepe, hanging, or bending downward.

Declos. Diſparked, wide open; See Deſclos.

Decoction: f. A boyling, or ſeething; alſo, a decoction; or the liquor wherin things haue been ſodden.

Decognoiſtre. as Descognoiſtre; To vnknow, or, not to know.

Decoler. as Deſcoler; To vnglue.

Decollation. A beheading.

Decollation Sainct Iean. An holyday kept the 29 of August.
Descombres: f. Looke Descombres.
Decompter. See Descompter.
Deconte. A prepostorous numbring, or reckoning backwards; Looke Descompt.
Decoration: f. A decoration, beautifying, bedecking, adorning, garnishing, trimming, gracing.
Decoré: m. ée: f. Decked, adorned, graced, trimmed, beautified.
Decore: com. Handsome, comelie, gracefull, seemelie, beautifull, with a good Decorum.
Decorement. as Decoration.
Decorer. To decorate, garnish, adorne, trimme, grace, beautifie, make gorgeous, set forth vnto the eye.
Decoucher. See Descoucher.
Decoulé: m. ée: f. Flowed, runne, glid, or fallen (gently) downeward; slipped away; also, faded, wasted, consumed, come vnto nothing.
Decoulement: m. A flowing, running, or falling downward; a fading, consuming, melting away.
Decouler. To flow, runne, or fall (gently) downward; to glide, or slip away; to fade, consume, come vnto nothing.
Decoulouré: m. ée: f. Discoloured; pale, bleake, wan, lew.
Decoulourement. A staining, discolouring, or loosing of colour.
Decoulourer. To staine, discolour, take away the colour of.
Decoupé: m. ée: f. Cut downe, cut off; pared, or cut away; slit, sliced.
Decouper. To cut downe, or cut off; to pare, or cut away; to slice; to slit.
Decoupure: f. A cutting, paring; slicing; slitting.
Par decoupures. Peecemeale, in slices, by slits.
Decourir. To runne downe; to hast, or hy apace; also, to purge downewards.
Decouronné: m. ée: f. Vncrowned; bereaued of a Crowne.
Decouronner. To vncrowne; or depriue of a Crowne.
Decours: m. A course, a streame, a running; a passing ouer; the time a man hath past through; the end of his course.
Decours de la Lune. The wayne, decrease, or later age of the Moone.
Decouru: m. uë: f. Runne downe; hasted, hyed; also, purged downewards.
Decoustemens: m. Costs, and charges.
Decramponné: m. ée: f. Vnhooked, vnclasped, vndone.
Decramponner. To vnhooke, vnclaspe, vndoe.
Decrassé: m. ée: f. Looke Descrassé.
Decrasser. To cleanse, or rid from filth; Looke Descrasser.
Decrepite: com. Decrepite, verie old; whose candle is almost burnt out; that hath one foot alreadie in the graue.
Decrepiteux: m. euse: f. Full of agednesse, and aches.
Decrepitude: f. Extreame agednesse.
Decret: m. A Statute, Ordnance, or Decree; also, a Sentence, or Order passed in Court for the sale of a debtors goods, alreadie seised into the hands of Iustice.
Decretales. The Decretals; Bookes containing the Decrees of sundrie Popes.
Decretaliarche: m. An absolute Commaunder; one that commaunds by decrees; or, whose commaund is, and is obeyed as, a Decree.
Decretant: m. The creditor, at whose suit a debtors goods are decreed to be sold.
Decretant. Ordering, ordaining, decreeing.
Decretation: f. An Order passed in Court for the sale of a debtors goods; or, a proceeding thereby.
Decreté: m. The debtor whose goods, after a publicke seisure, are ordered to be sold.
Decreté: m. ée: f. Decreed, enacted, ordered, ordained, awarded, appointed.
Decreter. To order, ordaine, decree, enact, establish, award, appoint; also, to giue a iudgement, passe an order, in Court, for the sale of a debtors goods.
Decroire. To vnbeleeue; or, not to beleeue; to distrust, or, thinke otherwise of then he hath done.
Decroissant. Decreasing, waning, lessening.
Decroistre. To lessen, decrease, wayne; weare away.
Decroter; Decrotoire. See Descroter, &c.
Decrustation: f. A decrustation, or vncrusting; a paring away of the vppermost part, or outmost rind.
Decrusté: m. ée: f. Vncrusted; bared of crust, or whose crust is pared away.
Decruster. To vncrust; to pare off the vppermost part, barke, or crust of.
Decuisant. Boyling, or seething very much.
Decuit: m. itte: f. Vnsodden; made raw againe; also, boyled, or sodden, very much.
Deculpé: m. ée: f. Excused, purged, iustified, deliuered from imputation, discharged of blame.
Deculper. To excuse; purge; deliuer from imputation, or discharge of blame.
Decumane. Large, mightie, huge, as big as tenne. Rab.
Porte Decumane. The chiefest gate of the Romane campe.
Decuple: com. Tenne times as much.
Decurie: f. A band of tenne, Senatours, or Souldiors; (a diuision of much vse among the auncient Romanes.)
Dedalé. Intricate, perplexed; Dedalian, Mazelike.
Dedaler. To make a Maze, or Laberinth.
Dedans. Within, inwardly, in.
Dedans ou dehors. Fast, or loose (a Iuglers phrase.)
Estre dedans. To be drunken, to be in drinke.
Dedans-terré. Vpland, or inland.
Dedens. as Dedans.
Dedicace: f. A dedication, a consecration; a giuing for euer.
Dedicasse, & Dedication. as Dedicace.
Dedié: m. ée: f. Dedicated, deuoted, consecrated.
Dedier. To dedicate, deuote, or giue for euer.
Dedoré: m. ée: f. Vngilt.
Dedorer. To vngild.
Deduction: f. A deduction; diminution, abatement, withdrawing, deducting; also, a guiding.
Deduire. To deduct, abate, plucke backe; diminish part of a summe; to draw out, or withdraw; also, to handle, intreat, or discourse of.
Se deduire. To sport, or solace himselfe; to take pleasure, and delight in.
Deduisant. Deducting, abating; intreating, discoursing of.
Deduit: m. Delectation, sport, pastime, solace, pleasure, delight.
Deduite: f. A Deduction, Diminution, Abatement.

Deeſſe: f. A Goddeſſe.

Defaillance: f. A fayling, languor, faintneſſe; defect, want, lacke, defection; alſo, a fainting.

Defaillance de coeur. A ſwonding; when all ſtrength failes one by reaſon that the orifice of his ſtomacke is ill affected.

Defaillancé. Fainted, languiſhed, out of heart, growne feeble, decayed, worne, or withered away.

Defaillant. Fayling, defectiue; fainting, pining, decaying; wanting, lacking, making a default.

Defaille: f. A default, defect, or fayling; a pining, languiſhing, or wearing away.

Defaillement: m. as Defaille.

Defaillir. To decay, languiſh, pine, faint, wax feeble, weare, or wither away; alſo, to want, lacke, faile; to be away, or wanting; to make a default.

Defaitte: f. A defeat, or ouerthrow; alſo, proportion, ſhape, ſhew, making (but outward;) alſo, any ſleight vſed by a Hare for the auoiding of the dogs that purſue her.

Il eſt de belle defaitte; He is faire to look on, or faire in ſhew, but otherwiſe of little worth; alſo (ſimply) he is of a goodlie preſence.

Defalqué: m. Defaulked, deduced, deducted, bated, abated, taken out of.

Defalquer. To defaulke, deduce, diminiſh, cut off, or take away part of; See Deffalquer.

Defané: m. ée: f. Vnwithered; recouered, reſtored to it former life, or freſhneſſe.

Defardé: m. ée: f. Vnpainted; whoſe painting is worne, wyped, or waſhed away.

Defarder. To vnpaint; to waſh, take, or wype off, painting.

Defaroucher. as Desfaroucher. To make tame.

Defaucillé: m. ée: f. Put out of ioint.

Defauciller. To put out of ioint.

Defaveur: f. Disfauor; loſſe, or lacke of fauor.

Default, ou defaut: m. A default, fault, offence, defect; want of apparance before a Iudge; the default which dogs are ſometimes at in hunting; any want, lack, penurie, ſcantneſſe, or ſcarceneſſe; a defection.

Default d'homme. Want, or omiſſion, of due homage, and fealtie.

Default ſimple, ou pur. Looke Simple.

Default. (The third perſon of the preſent tenſe of Defaillir.) Rien ne me default. I want nothing.

Defaux. The ground, or paſture wherein a beaſt ſhould not be; or, wherein it is a treſpaſſer; or, as Default.

Defectueux: m. euſe: f. Defectiue; wanting, lacking, fayling, maimed, full of defects.

Defectuoſité: f. Lacke, want, defect, maymedneſſe.

Defedation: f. A fowling, ſoyling, filing, defiling, ſtayning, ſpotting of.

Defence. as Defenſe.

Defences. Defences, flankes, caſemats, and ſuch like parts of fortification, prouided for the ſafegard of thoſe that make good a Place beleaguered; alſo, the tuskes of a wild Bore.

Defendant. Defending, ſauing, ſhielding, preſeruing.

Defendeur: m. A defendor, or protector; alſo, a defendant; a partie challenged, accuſed, or ſued.

Défendo. A play with bits of bread (ranked one by another) which the player counts with certaine words, and the laſt his words end on, he takes, whether it be little, or great. ¶Rab.

Defendre. To defend, ſaue, guard, ward, ſhield; preſerue, maintaine; protect, patrocinate, ſuſtaine; alſo, to forbid the doing of a thing.

Harnois ne vaut rien qui ne defend: Prov. The Armour is worth nothing that defends not.

Defenſable. Defendable, defenſible, which may be defended, guarded, or preſerued.

Defenſe: f. A defence, a defending; a preſeruation, ſafegard, protection; a fence, or fortification; alſo, an iniunction, prohibition, forbidding; alſo, a reply, anſwer, argument, or allegation vſed, or vrged in defence.

Defenſes. as Defences.

Se couper ſoy meſme par ſes defenſes. To accuſe, by meaning to excuſe, himſelfe.

Defenſeur. as Defendeur. A defender, or defendant.

Defenſible. as Defenſable.

Defenſif: m. A defenſatiue; a medicine that keepes humors from comming vnto a ſore, or place affected; or binders the inflamation thereof.

Defenſif: m. iue: f. Defenſiue, defending.

Defenſoire: com. Defenſorie, which defendeth, guardeth, or preſerueth.

Defequé: m. ée: f. Cleanſed, fined, purged, purified.

Defequer. To fine, purge, cleanſe, purifie.

Deferé: m. ée: f. Charged, appeached, accuſed; alſo, admitted, allowed, accepted of; yeelded vnto.

Deferer. To charge, accuſe, appeach.

Deferer à vn appel. To admit, allow, or accept of; to giue way vnto, an Appeale.

Deferer à vne compaigne. To yeeld, referre, or attribute much vnto, a companie.

Defermer. as Desfermer. To open, vnſhut; looſſe, vndoe.

Deferrer. See Desferrer.

Deferrure: f. An vnſhooing, or caſting of a ſhooe.

Defeublé: m. ée: f. Vnclaſped; vnmuffled; open, diſcouered, vncouered, vnclothed.

Defeubler. To vnclaſpe, vnbutton; vnmuffle; open, diſcouer, vncouer; put by, or caſt off, the clothes that hide, or peſter.

Deffaicte. as Desfaicte.

Deffaire, & Deffait; as Desfaire, & Desfaict.

Deffalqué: m. ée: f. Defaulked, deducted, bated, abated.

Deffalquer. To defaulke, deduct, bate, abate.

Deffaſcher. Looke Desfaſcher.

Deffaveur: f. Disfauor; want, or loſſe, of (accuſtomed) fauor.

Deffault. as Default.

Deffavoriſé: m. ée: f. Disfauoured, out of fauour.

Deffavoriſer. To disfauour, not to fauour, to withdraw his fauour from.

Deffectueux de ſes membres. Maimed, lame, impotent, wanting his limmes, or the vſe of them.

Deffené. Hay-fed; or, as Affené; inſeamed with Hay.

Mon eſtomac eſt bien à poinct deffené, & aggrené. My ſtomacke is throughly furniſhed, hath drinke, and meat enough in it; (for ſeeing that fené ſignifies withered, or dryed, as Hay, deffené a Priuatiue may perhaps, for a need, be taken for wet, moiſtened, or freſh.)

Deffenſatrice: f. A defendreſſe.

Deffermé: m. ée: f. Opened; vnſhut; vndone.

Deffermer. To open; to vnſhut, or vndoe a thing ſhut.

Deferré: m. ée: f. Vnshooed, as a horſe; alſo, the yron whereof is taken, or plucked off.

Defferrer. To vnshoe a horſe, &c; and (more generally) to take, or plucke off, the yron from any thing.

Se Defferrer l'un l' autre. To ruine one another; See Desferrer.

Deffiamment. Mistrustfully, diffidently, distrustfully.

Deffiance: f. Distrust, diffidence, mistrust.

Deffier. To mistrust; (Looke Desfier;) also, to defeat; also, as Defier.

Deffilé: m. ée: f. Vntwisted, rauelled; also, disordered; Seeke Desfilé.

Deffiler. To vntwist, vnspinne, loosse, rauell; also, to put out of his ranke, or file; also, to take off a file.

Deffileure: f. An vntwisting, rauelling; disordering; displacing.

Deffleurer. To rase, scotch, or scratch; Looke Desfleurer, or Defleurer.

Defformité. as Difformité.

Deffortune: m. Misfortune, mischance.

Deffortuné: m. ée: f. Vnfortunate.

Deffouir. To dig vp, to vnearth, to take out of the earth.

Deffrayer. as Defrayer.

Deffriché. as Defriché; Grubd vp, &c.

Deffroncer. To vnfrounce, vnwrinckle, vncrumple.

Deffrongner. The same; and (as the same) to smooth the forehead, or leaue frowning.

Deffroqué: m. ée: f. Stripped, vnclothed.

Deffuler. as Defeubler, or Desfuler.

Defi: m. A challenge, defy, prouocation, defiance.

Defiance: f. A defying, or defiance.

Defiché: m. ée: f. Vnfixed, loosed, vnfastened.

Deficher. To loosse, vnfix, vnfasten.

Defié. Defyed, prouoked, or challenged to fight, or contend.

Defiement: m. A defying, or challenging to fight.

Defier. To defie, challenge, prouoke, or call vnto fight, or contention.

Defiguré: m. ée: f. Disfigured, deformed, mishapen, defaced; whose fashion is marred.

Defigurement: m. A disfiguring, disgracing, mishaping, defacing; a marring of the fashion of.

Defigurer. To disfigure, deforme, deface, disgrace; to spoyle the fashion, marre the figure of.

Defilé: m. ée: f. Rauelled.

Se Defiler. To rauell, as cloth, stuffe, silke, or linnen doth after it is cut.

Defilocher. as Defiler. To rauell.

Defiloter. The same.

Definant. Pining, wasting, consuming, wearing away; also, blasting, taking, suddainely benumming.

Diffiné: m. ée: f. Wasted, consumed, worne, fallen away; at an end, come to nothing; also, blasted, or taken.

Definement: m. A pining, wasting, consuming, wearing, or falling away. (Le Definement du monde. The later end of the world;) also, a blasting, taking, suddaine benumming, or putrefaction of a member.

Definer. To pine, consume, waste, weare away; also, to blast, or suddainely benumme (a member, &c.)

Definir. To define; conclude, determine, or discusse; precisely to expresse; fully to describe, exactly to declare.

Definitif: m. iue: f. Definitiue; which limitteth, expresseth, describeth, or determineth, fully; which makes a full end of.

Definition: f. A definition; exact description; precise limitation; short and full declaration; a defining; apt, and iust expressing; true, and liuelie describing.

Definitivement. Definitiuely, determinately, expressely, precisely, fully.

Deflamé: m. ée: f. Whose flame is extinguished, or put out.

Deflamer. To quench, extinguish; put out, or take away, the flame of.

Defleuré: m. ée: f. Deflowred; distained; defiled, violated; whose floures be cropped, or shed.

Defleurer. To deflowre; to defile; to crop the flower of; to distaine, violate, blemish, diminish the chiefest grace, and beautie of a thing.

Se defleurer. as Defleurir.

Defleurir. To shed, or let fall it flowers; hence, to loose the beautie, or grace, which erst it had; or, it former beautie to fade, faile, or fall away.

Se Deflicher. To plucke an arrow, or arrowes out of his (owne) bodie.

Defloration. A deflowring; the change from a flourishing colour to the contrarie.

Se Deflorer. as Defleurir.

Defluer. To flow, or to runne, as water, or a sore.

Defluxion: f. A Defluxion, Rheume, Catarrhe.

Defoncé. as Desfoncé. Knockt out, as the head of a wine-vessell, &c.

Deforcé: m. ée: f. Dispossessed, disseised.

Deforcer. To disseise, dispossesse, violently take, forcibly plucke from.

Deformation. A deforming, disfiguring, defacing; disgracing.

Deformé: m. ée: f. Deformed, defaced, disfigured, made ouglie; disgraced.

Deformer. To deforme, disfigure, deface, make ouglie; disgrace.

Defortifié: m. ée: f. Vnfortified; rased.

Defortifier. To vnfortifie; to rase a fortification.

Defoulé: m. ée: f. Troden, trampled on; also, taunted, rebuked, reproched.

Defoulement. A treading, or trampling on; also, a taunting, rebuking, reproching.

Defouler. To tread, or trample on; also, to rebuke, reproch, taunt, or take vp.

Defraudateur. A defrauder, deceiuer, beguiler; lurcher.

Defraudé: m. ée: f. Defrauded, beguiled.

Defraudement: m. A defrauding, deceiuing, beguiling.

Defrauder. To defraud, beguile, couzen, deceiue, imbeasill, or take away the profit belonging to another.

Defrayé: m. ée: f. Defrayed; discharged; acquited.

Defrayer. To defray; to discharge; to furnish, or beare, all the charges of.

Defrayeur: m. A Cater, or Steward; one that in a iourney furnishes, and defrayes the prouision, and expence of the whole companie.

Defreloqué: m. ée: f. Torne, ragged, tattered; that hath not a whole clout on him.

Defreloquer. To teare into rags, make tatters of.

Defrichage: m. The shrubbing, or grubbing vp of yong wood, or bushes; any such preparation, or worke, fitting land for tillage.

Defriché. Grubd, rid of bushes, roots, &c, hindering the Plough; prepared, or first broken vp for tillage; made arable.

Defrichement: m. A grubbing, shrubbing, ridding the ground from bushes, and thereby to make it arable; a preparation, or breaking vp for tillage.

De-

Defricher. To grub, ſhrub, rid a ground from rootes, buſhes, thiſtles, &c; thereby to make it arable; to prepare, or breake vp land for tillage.
Defrichis: m. Grubbings; buſhes, rootes, thiſtles, &c, pluckt out of the ground.
Se Defriper. To rub, or ſcrub with the ſhoulders, after the faſhion of lowſie hedge-creepers.
Defroiſſé: m. ée: f. Cruſhed in peeces.
Defroiſſer. To cruſh in peeces.
Defroque: f. Spoyle, bootie, pillage, got by ſtripping of poore men.
Defroqué: m. ée: f. Stripped, vnclothed, deſpoyled, or depriued of garments.
Defroquer. To ſtrip, vncloth, diſpoyle, depriue of his habillements.
Defroy: m. A defraying; a bearing of other mens charges.
Defueillé: m. ée: f. Vnleaued; bared, or bereft of leaues.
Defueiller. To vnleaue, to plucke the leaues from, to depriue of leaues.
Defunct. Vn defunct. A deceaſed, or dead perſon; one that is departed this life.
Defunctoirement. By diſcent, or ſucceſſion after the deceaſe of another.
Degaerie: f. An vnder Bayliwicke; the Office, Authoritie, Precinct, or Circuit of a Degan.
Degallicó. Waxen poore, vndone, downe the weather. Pic.
Degan: m. A certaine inferiour Officer, or vnder Bayliffe, choſen euerie May day within the ſeuerall members, or Hamlets of the Iuriſdiction of La Solle; (hee cannot arreſt a Gentleman; and deales moſt in perſonall Actions.)
Degaſouiller. To ſing, or warble faſt, and confuſedly; as a troope of ſma'l birds met, and ſet downe in a tree, buſh, or hedge, together.
Degaſt: m. Waſt, loſſe, ſpoyle, rauage, ranſacke, ruine, deſtruction.
Degaſté: m. ée: f. Waſted, ſpoyled, ranſacked, rauaged, ruined.
Degaſtement: m. A waſting, ſpoyling, rauaging, ranſacking, deſtroying, deuaſtation.
Degaſtement de maiſons. The raſing, or ruining of houſes.
Degaſter. To waſt, ſpoyle, ranſacke, rauage, deuaſt, deſtroy, ruine.
Degaſteur: m. A waſter, ſpoyler, ranſacker, rauager, deſtroyer.
Degel: m. A thawe, or thawing weather.
Degeler. To thawe the ice; to reſolue.
Degeneré: m. ée: f. Degenerated.
Degenerer. To degenerate, grow out of kind, be vnlike his anceſtors.
Deglouti: m. ie: f. Deuoured, ſwallowed downe.
Degloutir. as Engloutir. To deuoure, or ſwallow vp.
Deglution: f. A deuouring, or ſwallowing downe; alſo, the paſſage, or deſcending of meat and drinke from the mouth into the ſtomacke.
Degodalie. Skittiſh, iadiſh. ¶Rab.
Degoiſé: m. ée: f. Warbled, chirped.
Degoiſement: m. The chirping, or warbling of birds.
Se Degoiſer. To chirpe, or warble (as a ſinging bird.)
Degondé: m. ée: f. Lift off the hindges.
Degonder. To lift, or heaue off the hindges.
Ils commencent à ſe degonder. They begin to laſh, or fly out; to reuell it, or play reakes; they begin verie much to diſorder themſelues.

Degourt. Blithe, iocond, luſtie, frolicke. ¶Rab.
Degouſt. as Degout.
Degout: m. A drop, or dropping.
Le degout du roſt. The grauie, or fat that drops from meat as it roſts.
Degouttant. Dropping, diſtilling.
Degoutté: m. ée: f. Dropped, diſtilled.
Degouttement. A diſtilling, or dropping.
Degoutter. To drop; diſtill; fall downe by little and little.
Degracié: m. ée: f. Vnacceptable, (and therefore) vnſucceſſiue; whence;
Saiſon degraciée. An ill, or vnluckie, ſeaſon.
Degradant. Degrading; depriuing of office, degree, &c; alſo, ſpoyling, waſting, making hauocke of.
Degradation: f. A degradation; a degrading, or depriuing of office, eſtate, benefice, dignitie, or degree.
Degradé: m. ée: f. Degraded, depriued of his degree; alſo, waſted, ſpoyled; defaced.
Degradement. as Degradation; alſo, waſt, ſpoyle, or hurt done, and committed in other mens houſes, gardens, woods, &c.
Degrader. To degrade, or depriue of degree, office, eſtate, or dignitie; alſo, to ſpoyle, or waſt; or make waſt, and hauocke of.
Degrader vne foreſt. To hagge, or fell it all downe.
Degraffer. as Deſgrafer.
Degravé. Vngrauelled, ſet afloat; alſo, taken out of, or, plucked from, the ground.
Degraver. To vngrauell, or ſet afloat a ſhip that ſtucke faſt in the ſand; alſo, to take out of the ground; alſo, to plucke vp by the roots.
Degré: m. A ſtaire, ſtep, greeſe; alſo, a degree, ranke, or place of honour; alſo, an occaſion, meane, or way vnto a thing.
Degrez tetradiques. Looke Tetradique.
De degré en degré. By degrees, by leiſure, by little and little; faire and ſoftly; alſo, in order, one after another.
Degreſſeur: m. A skowrer of greaſie things.
Degroſſi: m. ie: f. Refined, ciuilized.
Degroſſir. To refine; to ciuilize.
Degroumelé: m. ée: f. Reſolued, vnclotted, vncluttered.
Degroumeler. To reſolue, or vnclot a thing thats cluttered, congealed, or curded together.
Deguener. as Deſgainer. To vnſheath, or draw out of the ſheath. ¶Rab.
Deguerpi: m. ie: f. Quit, left, abandoned, forſaken, forgone, throwne away, yeelded vp, giuen ouer.
Deguerpir. To quit, leaue, abandon, forgoe, forſake, yeeld vp, giue ouer; to throw away, as wee doe things which we care not for, or will not keepe, in our houſes.
Deguerpiſſement: m. A quitting, leauing, abandoning, forgoing, forſaking, giuing ouer, yeelding vp of a thing; a throwing out, or away.
Deguerpiſſeur. A quitter, leauer, forgoer, abandoner.
Deguerpy: m. ie: f. Seeke Deſguerpy.
Degueſtré: m. ée: f. whence; Femme degueſtrée. A ſlut, or ſlattern; one thats vnhandſome in her clothes, or weares them moſt vnhandſomely.
Degun. Any one; Gaſc. ¶Rab.
Dehaché: m. ée: f. Hacked, hewed, cut into ſmall peeces; made into a hachey.
Dehacher. To hacke, or cut in ſmall peeces; to make a hachey of.

Dehait: m. itte: f. Merrie, pleaſant, iocond, blithe, luſtie, frolicke.
Dehaité. as Deshaité. Ill at eaſe.
Dehalé: m. ée: f. Leane, meagar, skraggie, disfigured, ouglie, or illfauoured, by extreame leaneneſſe.
Dehayté: m. ée: f. Diſtaſted, or loathed as meat; alſo, out of tune, ill at eaſe.
Dehayter. To diſtaſt, or loath meat; to be out of tune, ill at eaſe.
Dehinch. Away hence; Allem. ¶Rab.
Dehonté: m. ée: f. Shameleſſe, impudent, braſen-faced.
Dehors. Without, abroad, out of, on the outſide of.
De dehors. From abroad, from forraine places.
Dedans, ou dehors. Faſt, or looſe (a Iuglers tearme.)
Par dehors. Outward, without, on the outſide.
Dehotté: m. ée: f. Drawne out of the mire.
Dehotter. To draw (as a faſt-ſticking coach &c) out of the mire.
Dehouſé: m. ée: f. Diſpatched, rid out of the way; alſo, vnbooted, or whoſe boots are pulled off.
Dehouſſé: m. ée: f. Vnfootclothed; vncouered; alſo, vnrugged, or made low napped, as new cloth, with the Teazell.
Deiect: m. iecte: f. as Deiecté.
Deiecté: m. ée: f. Deiected, abaſed, brought low, caſt downe; alſo, repelled, reiected, thruſt from with contumelie or contempt.
Deiectement: m. A deiecting, abiecting, bringing low; alſo, a contemptible reiection, contumelious repulſe.
Deiecter. To deiect, abiect, abaſe, abate, bring low, throw downe; alſo, to repell, reiect, ſhake off, thruſt fro, put from with contumelie, or contempt.
Se Dejecter. To ſtand on tearmes; or, proudly to beſtirre himſelfe. ¶Nicot.
Deïfication: f. A deifying.
Deïfié: m. ée: f. Deified, made a god.
Deifier. To deifie, to make a god of.
Deillavier. To ſtarue, to bereaue of life.
Dejoindre. as Desjoindre.
Deité: f. The deitie, or godhead.
Delà. Beyond, ouer, on the further or other, ſide of.
Par deça, & par delà. On this ſide and that, on both ſides, euerie way.
Vingt eſcus, & par delà. Twentie crownes and better; and more; and aboue.
Delabré: m. ée: f. Vnbraced, vnlooſed, vntruſſed; alſo, ragged, torne, tattered.
Delacher. as Deſlacher. To looſſe, diſcharge, let goe, let fly.
Delai. as Delay.
Delaiſſé: m. ée: f. Forſaken, abandoned, left or caſt off; relinquiſhed, or giuen ouer; alſo, forgotten, ouerſlipped, neglected, or left out, when good was t'haue bene done; alſo, deſtitute, forlorne, or left alone; alſo, deuoid of, or left without.
Toutes autres choſes delaiſſées. All other things layed apart, or ſet aſide.
Delaiſſement: m. A forſaking, abandoning, leauing, or caſting of; relinquiſhing, or giuing ouer; alſo, a forgetting, ouerſlipping, neglecting, or leauing out; alſo, a depriuing of, or leauing without; alſo, a deſtituting, or leauing alone; or (paſſiuely, as in the two next phraſes) a being deſtitute, or left alone.
Delaiſſement d'amis. The wretched, or ſuccouriesſe eſtate of one that hath not a friend left to helpe him.
Delaiſſement d'enfans. The forlorn, or pitifull eſtate of Orphans, left to looke vnto, or ſhift for, themſelues.
Delaiſſement de raiſon. A defection, declining; reuolting, or ſwaruing, from reaſon.
Delaiſſer. To forſake, abandon, leaue, or caſt of; relinquiſh, or giue ouer; to deſtitute, leaue alone, or without; alſo, to ouerſlip, ouerpaſſe, neglect, or leaue out (when good may be done;) alſo, to ſwarue, reuolt, or decline, from.
Delateur: m. A Promooter, Informer, Complainer, Pickthanke, Tell-tale, or Tale-bearer; (properly ſuch a one, as either in loue vnto Iuſtice and the State, or in hope of reward or gaine, proſecutes offendors, or publiſhes Concealements, at his owne charge.)
Delation: f. An Information; or bill of Complaint exhibited, and followed by an Informer; alſo, a priuate accuſation, or tale framed againſt.
Delavé: m. ée: f. Waſhed away.
Delay: m. A delay; ſtay, lingering, protraction, tergiuerſation, deferring, or driuing off; a pauſe, a ſpace, an intermiſſion; alſo (in Law) a day giuen, for apparance; or for the bringing in, or amending of, a Plea, &c; and hence;
Delay peremptoire. A peremptorie day; the laſt of delayes.
Injure de delay. A wrong ſo hainous, that a ſuddaine reuenge will not ſerue, but opportunitie muſt be waited for the quitting of it in a more cruell manner.
Paroles de delay. (Of the ſame ſence; or) Reproches, or Slanders in the higheſt degree; as the tearme of Traytor, Murtherer, Church-robber; which to prooue, were enough to ruine, or for euer to diſgrace, a man.
Delayant. Delaying, deferring; alſo, allaying, or macerating.
Delayé: m. ée: f. Delayed, deferred, ſuſpended, prolonged, protracted; driuen, ſhifted, or put off; alſo, allayed, or ſoftened, by ſteeping; alſo, made thin.
Delayement: m. A delaying, deferring, protracting, pawſing, ſuſpending; alſo, a macerating, or allaying.
Delayer. To delay, deferre, procraſtinate, protract, ſuſpend, prolong; driue, put, or ſhift off from day to day; to pawſe, linger, wiredraw it, or draw out in length; alſo, to macerate, allay, or ſoften, by ſteeping, &c; alſo, to make thin.
Delayeur: m. A delayer, deferrer, protractor, prolonger, lingerer, wiredrawer.
Delectable: com. Delectable, delightfull; pleaſant, pleaſing.
Delectation: f. Delectation, delight, pleaſure, oblectatiõ.
Delecter. To delight, pleaſe, ioy; make ſport, yeeld pleaſure, giue contentment, vnto.
Delegation: f. A delegation; a chuſing for, or appointment vnto, a charge, &c.
Delegué: m. ée: f. Delegated, appointed, aſſigned, or choſen, vnto a charge, &c.
Deleguer. To aſſigne, commit, or appoint vnto an office, charge, or commiſſion; to chuſe, or delegate vnto a buſineſſe, or for a meſſage.
Les Deleguez. The Delegates; Iudges appointed, or choſen to decide, and determine of certaine matters.
Deleuce. in ſtead of d'ellend. Of the colour of an Elk. ¶Rab.
Delez. Hard by. (vieil mot.)
Deliberatif: m. iue: f. Deliberatiue; determinatiue.
Deliberation. A deliberation, conſultation, thinking, aduiſing; alſo, a determination vpon former aduiſement.
Deliberé: m. ée: f. Deliberated, conſulted, aduiſed of; alſo, determined, concluded, reſolued on; alſo, reſolute, courageous, readie, cheerfull, in the middeſt of dangers; hartie; merrie, iocond, of a pleaſant humor.

Deli-

Deliberer. To deliberate; aduiſe, conſult, thinke what were beſt to be done; alſo, to purpoſe, reſolue, determine.

Delicat: m. ate: f. Delicate; daintie; pleaſing, prettie, delicious; tender, nice; effeminate, of a weake complexion.

Vn ouvrage delicat. An excellent, or prime, peece of worke.

Delicatement. Delicately, daintily; deliciouſly; pleaſantly, ſweetly; prettily, tenderly; nicely, wantonly, weakely, effeminately.

Delicateſſe: f. Delicacie, daintineſſe; tenderneſſe, niceneſſe, wantonneſſe, effeminacie; ſenſualitie.

Delicateté: f. The ſame.

Delices: f. Delights, dainties, pleaſures, pleaſant fantaſies; ſports, paſtimes; prettie toyes.

Delicieuſement. Deliciouſly, delightſomely, delicately, pleaſantly.

Delicieux: m. euſe: f. Delicious, delightſome, delicate, pleaſant.

Delict: m. A fault, offence; miſdeed, omiſſion of dutie; a treſpas; alſo, a rift, or cleft in a ſtone.

Debvoir des delicts. A buſhell of Rye, payed vnto the Lord of the Borough of Pont Niuſillac (in Britaine) by euery houſeholder of auncient tenure that keepes a fire, and tillage within the Territorie thereof.

Se Delicter. Cette pierre facilement ſe delicte. This ſtone quickly riues, or eaſily cleaues aſunder.

Delié: m. ée: f. Thin, ſlender, fine, ſmall, ſparing, ſcant.

Deliément. Thinly, ſmally, ſlenderly, finely, ſcantly.

Delier. To make thin, ſmall, fine, ſlender; to leſſen, extenuate, or miniſh.

Delineation. The delineation; firſt draught, or portraiture of a thing.

Delineature. The ſame; or, a delineature.

Deliniment: m. A ſmoothing, aſſuaging, appeaſing, mitigation, qualification.

Delinquant: m. A delinquent, offendor, faultie, or guiltie perſon.

Delinquer. To offend, miſdoe, commit a fault, faile in dutie.

Deliot. Sodden pot-herbes.

Deliré. Doated; raued.

Delire. To chuſe, cull, ſelect, gather, picke out.

Delirement: m. A rauing, or doating.

Deliter. To doat, raue, do things againſt reaſon.

Deliteſcence: f. A lurking, or lying hidden.

Delivrance: f. A deliuerance, deliuerie, deliuering; a releaſing, diſcharging; ſetting at libertie; alſo, as Arrierefaix.

Delivre: f. The ſeconds, or after-birth; the skin wherein a child is wrapped at it birth; (a Midwiues tearme.)

Delivre de ſa perſonne: com. An actiue nimble wight; whoſe ioints are not tyed with points; one that can wield his limmes at pleaſure.

A delivre. Looſely, freely, at full ſcope, with good libertie.

Delivré: m. ée: f. Deliuered, freed, looſed, releaſed; alſo, diſpatched, rid from; alſo, deliuered, or yeelded ouer vnto.

Delivrer: m. To deliuer, free, looſe, releaſe; diſpatch, rid from; alſo, to deliuer, giue, make, or yeeld ouer vnto.

Delivreur. A deliuerer, preſeruer, looſſer, a ridder from.

Deloché: m. ée: f. Vnioynted, or put out of ioynt.

Delocher. To looſen, diſioynt, put out of ioynt.

Deloiſir. à deloiſir. At leiſure, hauing little to doe.

Deloüer. as Deſloüer.

Deltoïde. Muſcle d. A certaine Muſcle, which drawes the arme vpwards.

Deluge: m. A deluge, great floud, or inundation of waters.

Bois de deluge. Tymber a long time ouerwhelmed by waters; Looke Bois.

Delugé. Eauës delugées. Waters broken out of their bankes, or ouerflowing their bounds; ſurrounding waters.

Delurer. To picke.

Demachoiré: m. ée: f. Vniawed; whoſe iaw is rent, or cut from the cheeke.

Demachoirer. To vniaw; to cut, or teare a iaw from.

Demacqué: m. ée: f. Vnchawed; put, ſpit, or ſpued out of the mouth; alſo, looſed, or let goe. ¶Pic.

Demacquer. To vnchew; to put, or ſpit forth of the mouth; to tell, or ſpue out; alſo, to looſſe, or let goe. ¶Pic.

Demain. To morrow; (Looke Aujourd'huy.)

Quand mes amis me prient ie n'ay point de demain. When my friends intreat me, I cannot delay thē, I cannot poſt them off to the next day.

Chaſque demain apporte ſon pain: Pro. (So mercifully doth God prouide for his creatures.)

Ia ne vienne demain qu'il n'apporte ſon pain: Pro. Looke Pain.

Tels ſont huy qui demain ne verront pas: Prov. Some are aliue to day, that will be dead to morrow.

Demaine: m. A Demaine, &c; as Domaine.

Demainier: m. An owner of a Demaine, or of lands &c. in Demaine.

Demaiſonné: m. ée: f. Depriued, or turned out, of a houſe.

Demaiſonner. To depriue, or turne out, of a houſe.

Demanché: m. ée: f. Vnhafted; bereft, or taken out of, it handle; See Deſmanché.

Demandant. Asking, demaunding, queſtioning; requeſting, beſeeching, ſuing for.

Demande: f. A Demaund, or Queſtion; alſo, a requeſt; Suit, Action; Petition, Supplication; alſo, a Clayme.

Beaucoup offrir à vn qui peu demande, c'eſt luy nier tout à plat ſa demande: Prov. Looke Demander.

Demandé: m. ée: f. Demaunded, asked, queſtioned; alſo, requeſt, required, ſued for.

Demander. To demaund, aske, propound a queſtion vnto; alſo, to deſire, woe, craue, beg, requeſt, require, make ſuit, or bring an Action, for.

On luy demanda la chanſon; They intreated him to ſing; (Spoken mockingly of one thats newly come out of priſon, where hauing bene, as a bird in a cage, pent vp, he may, perhaps haue learnt to chaunt it.)

Se demander en vn lieu. To wiſh himſelfe in a place.

Aſſez demande qui ſe pleint: Pro. He begs enough that playnes his wants.

Aſſez demande qui bien ſert: Pro. Looke Aſſez.

Chaſcun demande ſa ſorte: Pro. Like will to like; a Iacke lookes for a Gill.

Qui demande ce qu'il ne devroit, il oit ce qu'il ne vouldroit: Prov. He that askes what he ſhould not, heares what he would not.

Beaucoup offrir à vn qui peu demande, c'eſt luy nier tout à plat ſa demande: Pro. An offer of more then is required, imports a flat denyall.

Ceux qui nous doibvent nous demandent: Prov. Looke Debvoir.

Il eſt bien fol qui à fol ſens demande: Prov. He is a verie foole that lookes for wit from a foole.

Il n'aura ia bon marché qui ne le demande: Pro. Let no man thinke to haue, that asks not, things good cheape.

Demandereſſe: f. A demaunderesſe; a woman that is a Plaintiſe; or Petitioner.

Demandeur: A demaunder; asker, begger, requeſter; queſtioner; alſo, a demaundant, plaintiſe, complainant, petitioner.

A bon demandeur bon refuſeur: Prov. Wee ſay, ſhameſull crauing muſt haue a ſhameſull nay.

Demange-chair. Fleſh-tickling, ſetting an itch on the fleſh.

Demangement: m. An itching, or itch.

Se Demanger. To itch.

Demangerie. An itch, an itching.

Demangéſon: f. An itch, or itching.

Demangéſon de dents. The paineſull itch thats felt by children while their teeth are in breeding.

Demangeure: f. as Demangéſon.

Demantelé: m. ée: f. Dismanteled.

Demanteler vne ville. To dismantle, or deface the wals of a towne.

Demantellement: m. A dismantelling.

Demantibulé: m. ée: f. Vniawed, or, whoſe iawes are daſht in peeces. ¶Rab.

Demaquer. as Demacquer.

Demarche: f. A gate, pace, going; the ſetting of one foot before the other; or (moſt properly) behind another; the trauerſing of ground; alſo, ward, fence, or, the lying of the bodie in fencing; and generally, the ſetting, poſture, or carriage of the bodie in any kind whatſoeuer.

Demarche de bourſe. Looke Bourſe.

Demaré: m. ée: f. Vnmoored, as a ſhip.

Demarer. To vnmoore; to looſen a ſhip thats moored, or ankored, and put out to ſea.

Demarrier. To vnmarrie, diuorce, vnwed.

Demence: f. Madneſſe.

Demené: m. A practiſe; or, as Demenée.

Demené: m. ée: f. Stirred, wagged, iogged, mooued to and fro, remooued often; tumbled, toſſed, canuaſſed vp and downe; much handled, managed, or dealt in.

Demené parmi tous les communs proverbes. A common by-word; the ſubiect of common prouerbes; a ſubiect throughly, or ordinarily, played on.

Le procés s'eſt ainſi demené iuſques à icy. The ſuit hath ſo bene carried, or followed, hetherto.

Demenée: f. A ſtirre, iog, wag, vnquiet motion, frequent remoue; a tumble, toſſe, canuaſſe; or, as Demenement; alſo, a practiſe, plot, ſecret enterpriſe, or deuice.

Demenement: m. A ſtirring, iogging, wagging, moouing to and fro, remouing often; a tumbling, toſſing, or canuaſſing vp and downe; a frequent handling, or ſerious following of.

Demener, & ſe Demener. To ſtirre much, mooue to and fro, remoue often; to wag or iog, tumble, or toſſe, vp and downe; to ſit fidging as if the itch were in his taile.

Demener le dueil de. To lament, or mourne for.

Demener ioye. To reioyce, make merrie, be glad.

Demener marchandiſe. To trade, or traffique; to turne ouer, or paſſe away, commodities.

Demener vn procés. To follow, purſue, or deale in, a ſuit.

Se Dementer. To complaine, make mone, bewayle himſelfe.

Se Dementer de. To meddle with; to buſie, or intangle, himſelfe in.

Dementi. as Deſmenti.

Dementir. Looke Deſmentir.

Se Dementir. To fayle; proue nought or falſe; to bely, or derogate from, himſelfe; to diſſemble, or force, his owne nature, or humor.

Demerite: m. Deſert, merite, deſeruing; alſo (the contrarie) a diſſeruice, demerite, miſdeed, ill carriage, ill deſeruing; (In which ſence it is moſt commonly vſed at this day.)

Demeſler. See Deſmeſler; To disintangle.

Demeſler vn fuſeau avec. To haue to doe with in a matter; to performe a buſineſſe iointly with.

Demettre. To diſmiſſe, or let goe; See Deſmettre.

Demeurance: m. A tarrying, ſtaying, remaining, abiding, continuing, dwelling.

Demeurant: m. A reſidue, remnant, remainder, arrerage, relicke; the reſt of.

Au demeurant. Moreouer; as touching, or for, the reſt; alſo, in other matters.

Tenez chaud le pied, & la teſte, au demeurant vivez en beſte: Pro. The foot and head kept warme, no matter for the reſt.

Demeurant. (particip.) Abiding, ſtaying, tarrying, remaining, continuing, dwelling.

Demeure: f. An abode, ſtay, tarriance; delay; continuance; alſo, a ſeat, manſion, habitation, houſe, dwelling, lodging, place of abiding.

Longue demeure faict changer amy: Prov. Long abſence changes loue; looſes friends; alters affection.

Demeuré: m. ée: f. Left, remaining; behind; ſtayed, or continuing, behind.

Il eſt demeuré entre deux ſelles à terre. Betweene two ſtooles his tayle is come to ground.

Demeurer. To abide, remaine, tarrie, ſtay; linger, ſtand long on, continue, perſeuere; to dwell, ſoiourne, inhabite, ſeat, ſettle, or plant himſelfe in a place; Looke Demourer.

Demeurer court. To be graueld, plunged, put to ſilence, or to a Nonplus.

Demeurer entre deux & as. Looke As.

Il ne demeure pas trop qui vient: Prov. He tarries not too long that comes at length.

De ce que fol penſe ſouvent en demeure: Prov. A foole comes often ſhort of his intentions.

Demi: m. Demie: f. Halfe, demy.

Demi-arpent: m. The halfe Arpent; the French halfe aker; containes 50 Perches, and euery Perch 20 foot.

Demi-boiſſeau: m. A halfe Buſhell.

Demi-boſſe. as Baſſe-taille.

Demi-ceinct: m. A halfe-girdle; or, a faſhion of womans girdle, whoſe forepart is of gold or ſiluer, and hinder of ſilke, &c.

Demi-ceinctier. A maker of ſuch halfe-girdles.

Demicinct, & Demicinctier. as Demiceinct, &c.

Demi-crochuë: f. A ſemyquauer in Muſicke.

Demi-dieu: m. A demy god; one that is partly God, and partly man.

Demi-eſpineux. Muſcle dem. One of the two muſcles that extend the flanke.

Demi-veuë. en dem. That one can ſee but halfe thereof.

Demi-frere: m. A half-brother; a brother of one ſide only.

Demi-

Demigraine. as Migr

Demi-lict: m. The h hood, on th'one ſide or

Demi-membraneux

Demincé, m. ée: f.

Demi-nerveux: m. new.

Muſcle demi-nerv which bow the thigh.

Demi-quart. as Dem

Demi-quarteron. T Quarteron.

Demiqueuë: f. The in Orleans, Anjou, tie ſeuen Septiers, pintes.

Demiſaut: m. A halfe ſome mens laſt-leape; Faire le demiſaut. hanged.

Demi-ſeur: f. A halfe mother.

Demi-ſextier. The qu about our halfe pinte;

Demiſſion: f. An hu alſo, a demiſe, letting,

Demiſſion de foy. a vaſſall, in th'alienati part, or in whole) vnto

Demiſphere: f. An H of the viſible beauen.

Demi-taille: f. as Den ille. A repreſentation ſed.

Demi-vent. vn d. A ſ

Democratie: f. A De rule, or authoritie.

Democratique: com old Democrates) at eu

Democratiquement alſo, ſcoffingly.

Demoli: m. ie: f. Den ted, throwne, or pulled

Demolir. To demoliſh, pull downe, a building

Demolition: f. A den on, ouerthrow, raſing, of buildings, &c.

Demon: m. A diuell,

Demonachation. Monkiſh profeſſion.

Demoniaque: com.

Demonique: com. D

Demonſtrance: f. A a plaine declaration, fication.

Demonſtrateur: m. dently ſhewes, plainel things.

Demonſtratif: m. iu ſhewing, euidently ſigni

Demonſtré: m. ée: f. declared euidently, ſig

Demonſtrer. To demon nifeſtly, deliuer perſpic the finger.

Demordre. as Deſm uer.

Demigraine. as Migraine The Megrum.
Demi-lict: m. The halfe-bed; brotherhood, or sister-hood, on the one side onely.
Demi-membraneux: m. euſe: f. Halfe-skinnie.
Deminсé, m. ée: f. Minced; cut small; shred.
Demi-nerveux: m. euſe: f. Halfe-sinewie, halfe a sinew.
Muſcle demi-nerveux. One of the foure muscles which bow the thigh.
Demi-quart. as Demy-quart.
Demi-quarteron. The halfe of a Quarteron; See Quarteron.
Demiqueuë: f. The name of a wine vessell much vsed in Orleans, Anjou, and Maine; it containes twentie seuen Septiers, and euerie Septier eight of their pintes.
Demiſaut: m. A halfe-leape; also, the roape-leape, or some mens last-leape; whence;
Faire le demiſaut. To leape short; stretch a rope; be hanged.
Demi-ſeur: f. A halfe-sister; a sister onely by father, or mother.
Demi-ſextier. The quarter of a French pinte, & much about our halfe pinte; (a measure.)
Demiſſion: f. An humbling, casting, or letting downe; also, a demise, letting, or dimising; and hence;
Demiſſion de foy. A reseruation of fealtie made by a vassall, in th'alienation, or letting out of his estate (in part, or in whole) vnto another.
Demiſphere: f. An Hemisphere; or, halfe the compasse of the visible heauen.
Demi-taille: f. as Demi Relief: figure de demi-taille. A representation thats halfe carued, halfe imbossed.
Demi-vent. vn d. A side-wind, or halfe-wind.
Democratie: f. A Democratie; popular gouernment, rule, or authoritie.
Democratique: com. Mocking, geering, laughing (as old Democrates) at euerie thing; also, popular.
Democratiquement. Vulgarly, popularly, commonly; also, scoffingly.
Demoli: m. ie: f. Demolished; rased, ruined, subuerted, throwne, or pulled downe.
Demolir. To demolish, rase, ruine, subuert, ouerthrow, pull downe, a building.
Demolition: f. A demolishment; the ruine, subuersion, ouerthrow; rasing, ruining, beating, or pulling down, of buildings, &c.
Demon: m. A diuell, spirit, hobgoblin.
Demoniachation. An abandoning, or depriuing, of Monkish profession.
Demoniaque: com. Possest with a spirit, or diuell.
Demonique: com. Diuellish, bellish.
Demonſtrance: f. A demonstrance, or demonstration; a plaine declaration, euident shewing, apparant signification.
Demonſtrateur: m. A demonstrator; one that euidently shewes, plainely declares, perspicuously deliuers things.
Demonſtratif: m. iue: f. Demonstratiue; plainely shewing, euidently signifying.
Demonſtré: m. ée: f. Demonstrated, shewed plainely, declared euidently, signified manifestly.
Demonſtrer. To demonstrate, shew plainely, declare manifestly, deliuer perspicuously, point to (as it were) with the finger.
Demordre. as Deſmordre; To forgoe, or giue ouer.

Demoulé: m. ée: f. Vnmoulded; whose mould is broken, forme spoiled, frame defaced.
Demouler. To vnmould; breake the mould, marre the forme, spoyle the frame, of.
Demourance. as Demeurance.
Demoure. as Demeure; An abiding place, &c.
Demourer. To abide, stay, tarrie, &c; as Demeurer.
Demourez. Rub (at bowles.)
Ne demourez pas. Bee not short; (a Bowlers tearme.)
Demouſſé: m. ée: f. Rid, or bared of mosse, from which the mosse hath beene pulled.
Demouſſer. To rid, or bare of mosse; to pull mosse from, plucke the mosse off.
Demuſſer. To vnhide, vnhoodwinke, vncouer the eyes.
Demy. Halfe, demie.
Demy-arpent. A quantitie of, or measure for, land, containing fiftie pearches, and euerie pearch twentie foot in length; Or, the halfe Arpent whatsoeuer.
Demy-ceinct. as Demi-ceinct.
Demyon. as Demiſextier: (Rab.
Demy-quart. A kind of measure; See Quart; also, a peece of siluer money, worth the eighth part of a French Crowne, or ix.d. ſterl; the halfe of a Teſton.
Demy-quarteron. The halfe of a Quarteron; See Quarteron.
Demy-taille. as Demi-taille.
Demy-teſte. An yron scull, or steele cap.
Denaire. The number of ten; or, a tenth.
Dendrille: f. The rag, or clout wherewith a leaking tub is stopped; also, a mans priuities; or that which hangs dangling betweene his legs.
Deneanti: m. ie: f. Abased, made worthlesse, vile, most base.
Deneantir. To abase; to make worthlesse, vile, most base.
Deneantiſe: f. Worthlesnesse, vilenesse, extreame basenesse.
Denegation: f. A denegation, denying, disauowing, refusall, forsaking.
Deneraux: m. Patternes whereby coyne is to be made, or euerie peece weighed, before it be coyned.
Denerée: f. Ware, marchandise; as Denrée.
Denerver. To weaken; See Deſnerver.
Deni. A Nay, deniall; refusall.
Deniaiſer. To make, or become, wise by costlie experiences; to teach one wit by often cousening, or gulling of him.
Denié: m. ée: f. Denied; disaffirmed; inficiated.
Deniement: m. A deniall, denying, inficiation, disaffirming, saying nay vnto.
Denier: m. A pennie, a deneere; a small copper coyne valued at the tenth part of an English pennie; also, a pennie-weight, or 24 graines, in weight; also, the price of a thing.
Deniers: (plural,) Money, coyne, treasure; a summe, or stocke, of money.
Deniers communs. as Deniers patrimoniaux; & Deniers d'octroy.
Denier à dieu. An earnest pennie, or peece of siluer.
Deniers d'Eſtat. Looke Eſtat.
Denier de Marc. A pennie-weight, or, twentie foure graines.
Deniers d'octroy. The tolls, &c, which vpon speciall suit made by citizens, the Prince allowes them to leuie within their liberties; towards the repairing, and and vpholding of their walls, rampiers, gates, cau- seyes,

ſeyes, bridges, &c.

Deniers patrimoniaux. The common ſtocke, reuenue, or treaſure of a towne; comming in by rent of lands, houſes, ſtalls, and other commodities, or priuiledges, of a long time belonging to it.

Denier de ſeruice. Pennie rent; a quit, or chiefe rent; or, the reſeruation of a ſingle pennie in lieu of all other rents and ſeruices, (homage excepted.)

Chambre aux deniers. Looke Chambre.

Droict du dixieſme denier. The tenth pennie, or penniworth of all Mines, mineralls, mettalls, & other ſubſtances got within ground (in whatſoeuer part of France) due vnto the King; alſo, th' Admiralls tenth part, or ſhare in all Shipwracks, prizes, conqueſts, &c, made at Sea.

Droict de tiers denier. The third pennie, or part of the price giuen for an inheritance Roturier, or Bourdelier, due, in ſome places, vnto the Land-lord

Francs deniers. Looke Franc.

Au denier douze. After twelue yeares purchace; & (in matters of intereſt) a pennie for a yeares loane of twelue pence, which comes to eight pounds and a noble in the hundred.

Venir entre la bourſe & les deniers. To preuent, foreſtall, come betweene and home; a Law phraſe; Looke Venir.

Denier ſur denier baſtit la maiſon: Prov. One pennie after another builds the houſe; by little and little great matters are effected, great workes finiſhed.

Deniers avancent les bediers: Prov. Coine prefers Coxcombes.

Apres beſongne repos, & denier: Prov. Eaſe, and wealth are the rewards of labour; or, when a man hath done his worke, he loues to reſt, and lookes to be paid.

Bonne la maille qui ſauve le denier: Prov. Well is the money ſpent that ſaues more than it ſelfe.

Denier. To denie, diſaffirme, inficiate, ſay nay vnto.

Denigré: m. eé: f. Blackned, or ſmeared with blacke; alſo, defamed, blemiſhed in reputation; alſo, vnneſtled.

Denigrer. To blacken, or ſmeare with blacke; alſo, to defame, or blemiſh the reputation of; alſo, as Denicher, to vnneſtle, or plucke out of his neſt.

Denis. Dioniſius, or Denis; a proper name for a man; and one of Bacchus his ſurnames.

Denombrement: m. A denumeration; a numbring, reckoning, or telling ouer; alſo, a liſt, roll, or catalogue of names; alſo, an Inuentorie of goods; alſo, a ſuruey of land, particularizing the quantitie, ſeat, rents, ſeruices, and tenure thereof.

Denommé: m. ée: f. Denominated, nominated, named.

Les denommez en ceſte charge. The within-named, which are appointed to vndertake, or vndergoe this charge.

Denommer. To denominate, nominate, name; giue names, or titles vnto.

Denoncé: m. ée: f. Denounced; ſummoned; threatened; publiſhed; proclaimed; warned, aduertiſed; foreſhewed, ſignified; alſo, accuſed, or appeached of; charged with, or blamed for; informed againſt.

Denoncement: m. A denouncing; a threatning; a ſignifying, declaring; warning, aduertiſing of; alſo, a publicke accuſing of, charging with, or blaming for, a fault.

Denoncer. To denounce; threaten; ſummon; ſignifie, declare; warne; foreſhew; publiſh, proclaime; alſo, publickly to accuſe, appeach of; charge with, or blame for, an offence; to informe againſt.

Denonciateur: m. A denouncer; threatener; publiſher, proclaimer; alſo, an Informer, or publicke accuſer; as Delateur.

Denonciation: f. A denunciation; or threatning Summons; a publication, declaration; publicke threatening, ſending of defiance.

Denonciation faitte en Iuſtice. An information, accuſation, bill of complaint.

Denoté: m. ée: f. Denoted; ſhewed, ſignified.

Denoter. To denote; ſhew, ſignifie.

Denouër, & Denoüé. Looke Deſnouër, & Deſnoüé.

Denrée: f. Ware, ſtuffe, marchandiſe; any ordinarie chaffer that is retailed; alſo, a certaine meaſure, or proportion in buying and ſelling; as;

Vne denrée d' herbes, &c. A pennie-worth of hearbs &c.

Denſe: com. Thicke, compact, hard cloſed together.

Dent: f. A tooth; or fang; tuske, or tuſh.

Dents briſeuſes. as Dents canines.

Dents canines. The tuſhes, or tuskes.

Dent au chien. Couch-graſſe, Quitch-graſſe, Doggesgraſſe; alſo, (but leſſe properly) Harts-horne Plantaine, or Crow-foot Plantaine; (Gerards Dens caninus, or Dogs-tooth is a kind of Satyrion.)

Dent de chien. Couch-graſſe, Dogs-graſſe; alſo, Dandelion, Prieſts-crowne; Piſſeabed; alſo, a grudge, repining, ill meaning.

Dents de chien. The tuſhes.

Les dents d'une herſe. Harrow-teeth.

Dents inciſiues. The foure fore-teeth.

Dents de laict. Coults teeth, young teeth; (il luy porta vn dent de laict; he bore him a grudge, or ſpleene.

Dents longues. qui a les dents bien longues. That is throughly a hungred, or moſt ſharpe ſet.

Dent de lyon. The hearbe Dandelyon, Piſſeabed, Prieſts-crowne, Swines-ſnowt.

Dents maſchelieres. Looke Maſcheliere.

Dents maſchoires. The cheeke teeth, or grinders.

Dents molares. The great Iaw-teeth, or eye-teeth; the grinders, or cheeke teeth, wherewith wee gently breake, and grind our meat.

Dents oeillieres. The vpper tuſhes, or eye-teeth.

Dents riantes. The fore-teeth; (becauſe in laughing they are commonly ſeene.)

Dents de ſens & de ſageſſe. The Iaw-teeth.

Dents tranchantes. as Inciſiues.

Arracher les dents en dormant à. Looke Dormant.

Mal aux dents. The tooth-ache; alſo extreame hunger, or an hunger-ſtarued eſtate; whence; Qui a mal aux dents a mauvais parents: Prov.

Mauvaiſe dent. as Dent de chien.

Elle a les dents à maſchecoulis, le haut defendant le bas. She hath a thinne row of teeth, whoſe ſtench, and rottennеſſe driue men from her trench.

Batre le tambour avec les dents. To didder, or chatter, as an Ape that ſayes his Paternoſter.

Cheoir à dents. To fall groueling.

Clerc iuſques aux dents. A good trencher ſcholler; an excellent Clerke in a Cookes ſhop.

Faire de l'argent avec les dents. To grow rich by eating little.

Ne marcher que ſur les dents. Ils ne marchent que ſur &c. They ſtirre not a foot but for good cheere; they are true paraſites, trencher-friends, ſmell-feaſts.

Mettre vn pot &c à dents. To turne it vpſide-down, to whauve it with the mouth downewards.

Mettre ſur les dents. To toyle out, or to ouertoyle; to take too much of; to ſpend or ſpoyle, by putting to too much.

Monſtrer la dent. To girne, or grinne at; looke threateningly, or grimly on; fall into anger, grow into choller with.

Parler à vn des groſſes dents. To checke, taunt, reproue, take vp, chide throughly, ſpeake roughly to; to talke to one as if he would eat him.

Prendre le frein aux dents. To take the bit between his teeth; to reſiſt authoritie, as a ſtubborne horſe doth his rider; or, obſtinately to follow his owne courſe, or go on with his owne proiect, whatſoeuer aduice, or commaund be giuen to the contrarie.

Prendre la lune à belles dents. To performe impoſſibilities.

Rire à groſſes dents. To laugh onely from the teeth outward.

Telle dent telle morſure: Prov. Looke Morſure.

En vne herſe bien dentée n'y faut nulles dents: Prov. A thing being once well done, what need additions?

Tel a du pain lors qu'il n'a plus de dents: Prov. Some haue great plentie when they can take no pleaſure in't.

Vin trouble ne briſe dents: Pro. Thicke wine breaks no teeth.

Dentade: f. A biting, or bit of the teeth; ſuch a ſnatch, or pinch as a dog will ſometimes giue on a ſudden.

Dentaire: f. A kind of Sanicle; alſo, Toothwort, or clownes Lungwort.

Dental: m. as Denté.

Dentateur: m. A Tooth-drawer.

Denté: m. The ruddie, and ſpotted Sea-Breame, or Goldenie; called ſo for the tuſhes that appeare out of his mouth; whereas the other fiſhes of that kind, either haue none, or none ſo appearing.

Denté: m. ée: f. Toothed, furniſhed with teeth; hauing many teeth; alſo, indented, notched, iagged.

En vne herſe bien dentée n'y faut nulles dents: Prov. Looke Dent.

Dentée: f. as Dentade; or, a gaſh made, or blow giuen, by the tuſh of an angrie boare, &c.

Dentelé: m. A kind of miſchieuous Dog-fiſh, that doth much hurt with his teeth.

Dentelé: m. ée: f. Toothed, toothie; full of iags reſembling little teeth.

Rouët dentelé. A cog-wheele.

Dentelet: m. A little tooth; (alſo, a repaſt, or meale: Barrag.)

Dentelez: m. Foure muſcles (two little, and two great ones) belonging to the breaſt.

Denteliz: m. Teeth; or, a tooth-like notching, or iagging, in Imagerie, &c.

Dentelle: f. Small edging (and indented) Bonelace; or Needleworke.

Denteleure: f. A tuſking, or toothing, or tooth-like iagging, in Architecture.

Denticules: m. Tuskings, tooth-like iags, or caruing, on the chapters of pillers, or on any ledge, or edging.

Dentier: m. The part of an helmet that couers the teeth.

Dentir. To breed yong teeth.

Denudation: f. A denudation, or denuding; a laying, or leauing, bare.

Denué: m. ée: f. Denuded, bared; ſtript naked.

Denuer. To denude, bare, ſtrip naked; leaue, or lay, bare.

Denys: m. as Denis.

Deoppilatif: m. iue: f. Deoppilatiue; opening, or vnſtopping obſtructions.

Depaiſé: m. ée: f. Driuen out of his country; alſo, growne courtlie, or, that hath left the countrey faſhion.

Depaiſer. To driue out of his country.

Se depaiſer. To grow courtlie, make it fine, leaue the countrey faſhion.

Depaiſer le beſtial. To change their ſoile, to ſend them out of the countrey they were bred in.

Depaiſtre. as Deſpaiſtre.

De par. From; by the commaundement, or authoritie of.

De-par vous. From you; on your part; in your name, roome, or place.

Deparceler. as S'accorder. To agree, or come to an agreement.

Deparler. To diſpraiſe, blame, deſpiſe. (v.m.)

Deparqué: m. ée: f. Diſparked, diſincloſed, layed open; alſo, broken, or got out, of a Parke, or incloſure.

Se Deparquer. To breake out of a Parke, or incloſed place; alſo, to goe out, or away from.

Depart: m. A departure, or going from; alſo, the parting of mettalls; and hence;

Eau de depart. A kind of ſtrong water, vſed in the parting of mettalls.

Departement: m. A parting, or departing; alſo, a diuiding; an alotting, parting, or appointing out vnto euerie one his part; and hence; a diuiſion, or partition of a country, as;

Chaque Gouverneur eſt allé à ſon departement. vnto the place of gouernment allotted vnto him.

Departeur: m. A diuider, parter, diſtributer.

Departeur d'or, & d'argent. One that parts mettalls, or ſeuers the one from another.

Departi: m. ie: f. Parted, gone, departed; alſo, diuided, diſtributed, diſpoſed, ſorted, or ſet into parts; alſo, refuſed, renounced, quitted, left, deſiſted from; alſo, parted, or ſeuered, as mettalls.

Departie: f. as Depart; A parting, or departure.

Departiment: m. A diuiſion, parting; ſquaring, or sorting out into ſeuerall parts, or for ſundrie purpoſes.

Departir. To part, depart, or go from; alſo, to diuide, diſtribute, ſort, or diſpoſe into ſeuerall parts; alſo, to part, or ſeuer mettalls aſunder.

Se departir de, &c. To refuſe, quit, renounce; alſo, to leaue, or deſiſt from.

Departir vn procez. When one Court is equally diuided, to require th'opinion of the Judges of another; that making vp one of two of the three, iudgement may bee thereon giuen.

Departiſement. A parting, diuiding, diſtribution, partition; a ſorting, or ſetting into parts; alſo, a leauing, departing, or going from.

Depaſſionner. To be angrie, or grow into choller.

Depecé. Diſmembred; Looke Deſpecé.

Depeinct: m. cte: f. Purtrayed, painted, liuely drawn, or deſcribed.

Depeindre. To draw, paint, purtray; deſcribe liuely.

Ie vous depeindray de vos couleurs. I will ſet you forth in your colours.

Depellé: m. ée: f. Pilled, ſhinned; blanched; flayed; pared.

Depenaillé. as Deſpenaillé.

Dependance: f. A dependancie; waiting, relying on; the hanging of one thing vpon another.

Depen-

Dependant. Depending, relying, hanging, waiting on.

Dependre. To depend, relie, hang on; to reſt, or conſiſt in; alſo, to vnhang; or take downe from the gallowes.

Dependre l' huis, ou feneſtres de la maiſon. Looke Huis.

Dependu: m. uë: f. Vnhanged; or, taken downe from the gallowes; alſo, (more generally) vnhung, or taken off that whereon it hung.

Deperdition: f. Vtter ruine, totall perdition.

Deperi: m. ie: f. Periſhed, quite loſt.

Deperir. To periſh; to be loſt, to be ruined, or vtterly vndone.

Deperiſſant: f. Periſhing.

Depeſche. as Deſpeſche.

Depeſché: m. ée: f. Diſpatched.

Depeſcher. To diſpatch; Looke Deſpeſcher.

Depeſcher quélqu'vn. To talke freely of, to cenſure at pleaſure, to rip vp a mans actions; alſo, to ieaſt at.

Depeſtrer. as Deſpeſtrer; To vnpeſter.

Depié de fief. A diſmembring of an inheritance; an aliening part thereof.

Depilatoire: m. A depilatorie; any ointment, ſalue, water, &c, which takes away haire.

Depilé: m. ée: f. Bauld; bare, or bared of haire.

Depiteux. as Deſpiteux.

Depitonné. See Deſpitonné.

Deplanter. To diſplant, or vnplant; to vnſet; to remoue.

Deplaſtrer. To vnplaiſter, to pull the plaiſter off; hence alſo, to bare, or diſcouer.

Deplayé: m. ée: f. Extreamely wounded, ſore hurt.

Deplayer. To wound extreamely, hurt verie ſore.

Deplicer. To vnplait, or vnfold; to vndoe the plaits, to open the foulds, of.

Se Deplicer de. To rid himſelfe of; to vnfould himſelfe out of; to diſintangle himſelfe.

Deplorant. Deploring, bewailing, lamenting.

Deploré: m. eé: f. Deplored, bemoaned, bewailed, lamented for; alſo, deſperate, remedileſſe, paſt helpe, out of hope; forſaken, or giuen ouer.

Deplorer. To deplore, bewaile, moane, bemoane, lament for.

Deplumation: f. A deplumation, pluming, vnfeathering; alſo, an inflamed, and hard thickneſſe of th'eyelids, with loſſe of all their haire, which onee gone, either cannot get through againe, or being got through, faſten not within them.

Depoché: m, ée: f. Vnpouched, vnpocketted.

Depocher. To vnpouch; to pull, or draw a thing, out of a pocket.

Depopulé: m. ée: f. Depopulated, vnpeopled; alſo, deſtroyed, waſted, ravaged.

Depopuler. To depopulate, vnpeople, or diſpeople; alſo, to waſt, rauage, ruine, deſtroy.

Deport: m. Diſport, ſport; paſtime, recreation; pleaſure; alſo, two of the three parts of a Ward's reuenew, due vnto a Land-lord.

Le deport des benefices. The firſt fruits; or one yeres reuenue of vacant benefices (due vnto the Prince, Patron, or Prelate, as the cuſtome, or caſe is.)

Sans aucun deport. Without any let, ſtop, or delay.

Deporté: m. ée: f. Saued, ſpared, exempted, excuſed from; borne with, forborne; left off, let alone, abſtained from; alſo, diſported, ſported, played; alſo banished.

Deportemens: m. Deportments, demeanor.

Deporter. To beare, ſuffer, indure; alſo, to ſpare, or exempt from; alſo, to baniſh (into an Iſland, &c.)

Se deporter. To ceaſe, forbeare, leaue off, giue ouer, pauſe on, quiet himſelfe, hold his hand; alſo, to diſport, play, recreate himſelfe, paſſe away the time.

Se deporter de. To omit, let alone, let paſſe; abſtaine, ſurceaſe, forbeare, from.

Se deporter ſur quelqu'un (d' vne choſe.) To relie, or beare himſelfe altogether vpon one (in a matter;) to referre, or commit it, wholly vnto him.

Deportet: m. A ſporting bable; a wenches &c.

Depoſé: m. ée: f. Depoſed, ſworne vnto; alſo, depoſed, or put from.

Depoſer. To depoſe, to teſtifie by oath; alſo, to depoſe, deprive of, or put from.

Depoſitaire: m. Hee vnto whom a thing is layed in gage, or comitted for ſafer keeping; a Gardian, or feoffee, vpon truſt.

Depoſité: m. ée: f. Laied downe as a gage; committed vnto the truſt, or keeping of.

Depoſiter. To lay downe as a gage; to infeoffe vpon truſt, to commit vnto the keeping, or truſt of.

Depoſition de teſmoignes. The depoſition, or teſtimonie of witneſſes (written downe.)

Depoſſedé: m. ée: f. Diſpoſſeſſed; depriued, or diſſeiſed of.

Depoſſéder. To diſpoſſeſſe, depriue, diſſeiſe of.

Depoſt: m. A pledge, or gage; a thing left in, or committed vnto, another mans keeping.

Depourprer. To vnpurple, or make pale.

Deppié. Looke Depié.

Depraver. To depraue, marre, viciate, corrupt.

Depredé: m. ée: f. Rauaged, ranſacked, robbed, made bootie of.

Depreder. To rauage, ranſacke, rob, make ſpoyle, prey, or bootie of.

Depreſſoir de la membrane. An inſtrument wherewith, after trepaning, the membrane that couers the braine is held downe, thereby to know if there bee any thing left betweene it and the ſcull, to hurt, or annoy it.

Depri: m. as Depry.

Depriant: m. The purchaſer that agrees with the Lord Cenſuel for his Lods and Ventes, or prays time for the paiment of them.

Depriant. Earneſtly praying; humbly beſeeching.

Deprier. To pray earneſtly, requeſt inſtantly; beſeech humbly; alſo, as Deſprier; alſo, a purchaſer to agree before-hand with the Lord Cenſuel for his Lods and Ventes; or to ſhew him the contract of his purchaſe, and beſeech him to forbeare for a while his cenſuall duties, that, if they be not paied in due time, he may incur the leſſe danger.

Deprimé: m. ée: f. Depreſſed, abaſed, brought low, kept downe.

Deprimer. To depreſſe, abaſe, bring low; to keepe, hold, thruſt, or weigh, downe.

Depry: m. An agreement made by a purchaſer with the Lord Cenſuel for his Lods and Ventes; or rather, a ſignification of his purchaſe, and humble requeſt, vnto him, that he will forbeare his duties; that, if they be not paid in due, or th'accuſtomed time, there may be the leſſe aduantage taken againſt him.

Deps: m. A kind of royaltie, or Seigneuriall dutie.

Depucelé: m. ée: f. Depucelated, deflowred; Looke Deſpucelé.

Depuceler. To depucelate, or deflower a virgine; to take take her maidenhead.

Depucellé. as Depucelé.

Depuis. Since, or ſithence.

Depuration : f. A depuration ; purging, purifying, or clarifying.

Depuré. Purged, cleered, purified, clarified.

Depurer. To purge, cleere, purifie, clarifie.

Depurgatoire : com. Depurgatorie ; purging.

Deputé : m. A Deputie ; (properly, one thats imployed by ſubiects vnto their Prince.)

Deputé : m. ée : f. Deputed, ordained, appointed, aſſigned.

Deputer. To depute, appoint, ordaine, aſſigne.

Dequoy : m. (Subſtantiuely) ſtuffe, ſubſtance, wherewithall.

Dequoy. (Adverb.) Whereto, wherefore, to what end ; as, Dequoy me ſert cela? wherto doth that ſerue me? what vſe haue I of that? or, what am I the better for it?

Il y a bien dequoy. There is good cauſe for it.

Derbro : m. A kind of ſmall mouthed, blew-backt, and white-bellied Sea-fiſh.

Derceau. A little Dace, or Dare-fiſh : ¶Rab.

Derechef. Againe, moreouer ; once, or ouer, againe.

Deregler. Looke Se Deſreigler.

Dereté. Diſintangled, vnſnared, got out of the net.

Deridé : m. ée : f. Smoothed, vnwrinkled, planed, made plaine; alſo, looſſened, ſlackened, vnſtiffened.

Derider. To ſmooth, plane, or make plaine a thing that had wrinkles ; or as in ;

Derider les cordes, les voiles ; &c ; To looſſen, vnſtiffen, or ſlacken the tackling, ſailes, &c.

Deris : m. A mocke, flout, gibe, deriſion.

Deriſion : f. Deriſion, mockerie, flouting, ſcoffing.

Derivé : m. ée : f. Deriued, or drawne from; alſo, drayned.

Deriver. To deriue ; or draw from ; alſo, to draine, or draw drie.

Dĕrme : m. The (true) skin which couers the extreame parts of the bodie.

Derne : m. as Darne ; A ſlice ; a broad and thin peece, or partition of.

Dernier : m. ere : f. The laſt, hindmoſt ; vttermoſt, farthest, or furthermoſt ; alſo, the later, or ſecond, in ranke, or place.

Au dernier. Finally, at the laſt caſt.

Maudiſſant le dernier. Curſing the laſt ; viz. ſtriuing to run (away) with the formoſt.

Le dernier le loup le mange : Prov. The lag, (or laziest) of a flocke is preyed on.

Le dernier venu eſt le mieux aimé : Prov. He that came laſt is beſt beloued ; the neweſt friend, &c, moſt truſted, beſt vſed.

Les derniers venus ferment les portes : Prov. The laſt commer ſhuts the doore ; ſtrikes vp the bargaine ; ends the buſineſſe.

Les derniers venus ſont les Maiſtres : Prov. The laſt commers get the maiſterie, ouerrule the reſt, rule the roaſt.

Vn iour iuge de l'autre, & le dernier iuge de tous: Prov. One day rules another, but the laſt ouerrules all.

Dernierain : m. aine : f. Late, or lateward ; verie backward ; which is long in comming, or late before it bee ripe.

Dernierement. Lately, or, not long agoe.

Deroché : m. ée : f. Pulled, or fallen, from a rocke ; Looke Deſroché.

Derogant. Looke Derogeant.

Derogation : f. A derogation ; a diſabling, or diſparaging of ; a diminution ; abrogation, or aboliſhment of part of.

Derogatoire : m. A derogatorie, or act of derogation, or of diſparagement.

Derogatoire : com. Derogatorie ; diſparaging, derogating from ; alſo, diminiſhing ; abrogating, or aboliſhing part of.

Derogé : m. ée : f. Diſparaged, or derogated from ; diſabled ; alſo, abrogated, or aboliſhed in part.

Derogeant. Derogating from ; diſparaging ; diſabling ; impairing ; abrogating, or aboliſhing part of.

Deroger. To derogate from ; to diſparage ; to diſable, or impaire ; to abrogate a peece, aboliſh a part, of.

Deroguer. as Deroger.

Deroinpement : m. A breaking, or burſting in peeces ; a riuing aſunder.

Deroinpement de maiſons. A raſing, ouerthrowing, pulling, or breaking downe of houſes.

Derompre. To burſt, or breake in peeces ; to riue or teare aſunder ; to ouerthrow, raſe, ruine, breake downe.

Deroinpu : m. uë : f. Burſt, or broken, in peeces ; riuen, or torne, aſunder ; full of breaches ; broken downe.

Deroute : f. A rout, a deſeature, or flight of men.

Derrain. as Derner. The laſt : ¶Pic.

Derrainier. The ſame.

Derrée. as Denrée ; Ware, &c.

Derrenier. See Dernier.

Derrider. To ſmooth, plane, vnwrinkle, ſtretch out.

Derrider les voiles. To looſſen, or ſlacken the ſayles ; a Mariners phraſe.

Derriere. (Subſtantiuely ; as) le derriere de. The binder part, backe part, or backeſide of.

Courir ſur le derriere. A horſe to gallop all vpon his binder parts.

Derriere. (An Aduerbe of Place ;) Behind, backward, on the backe-ſide, or backe-part of.

Au devant par derriere. The wrong way to the wood ; round about next way, and in at further doore ; Looke Devant.

Gaigner le devant par derriere. See Devant ; or Gaigner.

Cheval qui porte derriere. A double gelding, a horſe that will carrie double.

Ders : m. A cloath of State, hanging full ouer, and falling low behind, a Soueraigne Princes chaire of Eſtate.

Derſelet : m. A little ſquare Canopie, or cloath of Eſtate.

Dertre. as Dartre ; A tetter, or ring-worme.

Des. From, euen from, ſince.

Des à preſent. Forthwith, incontinently, from this verie time forword.

Des que i'auray diſné ; As ſoone as euer I haue dined.

Deſabillé : m. ée : f. vncloathed, vndreſſed, vnarrayed.

Deſabiller : m. A Ladies cuſhion-cloth.

Deſabiller. To vncloath, vndreſſe, vnray, put off habilements.

Deſabuſé : m. ée : f. Diſabuſed ; vnblinded ; deliuered of errors, rid from abuſes.

Deſabuſer. To diſabuſe, to rid from abuſes.

Deſaccointé : m. ée : f. Diſacquainted ; growne out of acquaintance with ; made ſtrange vnto.

Deſaccointer. To diſacquaint ; to breake, or diſſolue the the acquaintance of; also, to renounce, or forgoe all acquaintance with.

Desaccommodé : m.ée : f. Disaccommodated.

Desaccommoder. To disaccommodate.

Desaccord : m. A iarre, discord, vntuneableneſſe; disagreement, contention, difference.

Desaccordance : f. A discordance, or disaccording; a squaring, iarring, differing, variance, disagreeing.

Desaccordant. Discordant; squaring, iarring, disagreeing, discrepant, repugnant vnto.

Desaccordé. Discordant, iarring, out of tune; also, disaccorded.

Desaccorder. To discord, or disaccord; to iarre, differ, disagree, dissent, square, be repugnant.

Desaccoſtable : com. Vnaccoastable, vnapproachable; vncompanable, vnsociable.

Desaccouplé : m.ée : f. Vncoupled; vnyoaked.

Desaccoupler. To vncouple; vnyoke; disioyne.

Desaccouſtumance : f. A disuse, vnwontedneſſe, vnaccustomedneſſe; discontinuance; a leauing of a fashion, a forgoing of a custome.

Desaccouſtumé. Disaccustomed, left off, disused, giuen ouer, worne out of vse, growne out of fashion.

Desaccouſtumer. To disaccustome; disuse, bring out of vse; to discontinue the custome, forgoe the fashion of.

Desaccroché : m. ée : f. Vnhoked.

Desaccrocher. To vnhooke.

Desacré : m.eé : f. Vnhallowed, prophaned.

Desacrer. To prophane, to vnhallow.

Disadjuſté : m.ée : f. Disadiusted; disapted; disordered; made vneuen, or vnsteaddie.

Desadjuſter. To disadiust, vnsettle, disorder, disapt, make vneuen, or vnsteaddie.

Desadmoneſté : m.ée : f. Disadmonished, or dissuaded; warned from, or to the contrarie of.

Desadmoneſter. To disadmonish, or dissuade.

Desadvenant. A portion of an inheritance left a vassall, but not sufficient for the homage due vnto the Lord.

Desadvantageuſement. Disaduantagiously.

Desadventure : f. Misfortune, misaduenture.

Desadveſt : m. A Disseisin, dispossession, disaduesture, disinheriting.

Desadveſtir. To disseise, disadueſt, dispossesse, disinherite.

Desadveu. A disclaime, disaduowing, renouncing; also, a thing done at vnawares, or against the will.

Desadviſé : m.ée : f. Vnaduised, inconsiderate, fooliſh, raſh.

Desadvoüé : m.ée : f. Disaduowed, disclaimed from.

Desadvoüement : m. A disaduowing, or disclaiming from.

Desadvoüer. To disaduow, disclaime, refuse, renounce.

Desaffamé : m. ée : f. Whose hunger is slaked, or satisfied.

Desaffamer. To slake, or satisfie the hunger of.

Desaffleuré : m. ée : f. Deflowred; or, whose flouriſhing is hindered.

Desaffleurer. To deflower, or vnflower; to plucke the flowers from; to hinder the flowring, or flouriſhing of.

Desaffublé : m. ée : f. Vnmuffled, vnhooded, vnhoodwinked.

Desaffubler. To vnmuffle, vnhood, vnhoodwinke; vncouer.

Il ſe diſaffubla. He cast open his gowne, or cassocke, wherewith he had couered his face.

Desagé : m.ée : f. Vnder age, not of full age, not yet of yeares; also, decrepit, verie old, or so old, as hee hath need of tending.

Desagencé : m. ée : f. Disadapted, disadiusted, disordered.

Desagencement : m. A disadapting, disadiusting, disordering.

Desagencer. To disadapt, disadiust, disaccommodate, disproportion, disorder; to set out of frame, put out of fashion, bring out of the right, into a wrong place.

Desagenouillé : m.ée : f. Risen, or got vp from kneeling.

Se Desagenouiller. To ariſe, or get vp from kneeling.

Desagrafé : m. ée : f. Vnclasped, vngrapled, vnbasped.

Desagrafer. To vnclaſpe, vngraple, vnbaſpe.

Desagreable : com. Disagreeable, vnacceptable, vnpleasing.

Desajancer. as Desagencer.

Desaigri : m. ic : f. Sweetned; appeased.

Desaigrir. To sweeten, or vnsharpen, to allay the sowerneſse of; also, to assuage, mitigate, pacifie, appeaſe.

Desaiguilleter. To vntrusse, or vndoe points; also, to take the points from, or depriue of points.

Desaimé : m. ée : f. Vnloued; fallen into the dislike of.

Desaimer. To vnloue; desist from louing; loath what before was loued; fall into dislike, or disgust of.

Desairer. To vnayrie; or, spoyle, and destroy an ayrie of Hawkes &c.

Desaiſe : f. A Sickneſſe, a diseaſe, a being ill at eaſe.

Desaiſé : m. ée : f. Diseaſed, sicke, out of temper, ill at eaſe.

Desaiſine. Looke Deſſaiſine.

Desalé : m.ée : f. Taught wit by experience, purged of the foole, that hath seene the Lyons.

Desalier. as Deſlier; To vnbind.

Desallé. as Desalé.

Desalteré : m. ée : f. Whoſe thirſt is quenched, slaked, allayed.

Desalterer. To quench, allay, slake thirſt.

Desamaſſé : m.ée : f. Vnheaped, vnpiled.

Desamaſſer. To vnheape, vnpile; pull downe a heape; consume things heaped.

Desancré. Weighed, as an anker; let goe, or loosed, as a hold.

Desancrer. To weigh anker, and be gone; also, to looſe ones hold.

Desangé : m.ée : f. Extirpated; the race whereof is destroyed.

Desanger. as Desenger; To extirpate, or destroy the race of.

Desaniimé : m.ée : f. Depriued of ſpirit, or life.

Desaniimer. To depriue of life, or spirit,

Desantourat. Deflowred, as a virgine that hath leachered: ¶ Langued.

Desapareillé : m. ée : f. Disordered, ruffled, made vnreadie.

Dſapareiller. To ruffle, disorder, make vnreadie, put out of tune, or trim.

Desapareilleur : m. An vndreſſer; a maker vnreadie; a disorderer.

Desaparié : m.ée : f. Vnmatched, vnpaired, vncoupled; whoſe match, mate, or companion is taken from him.

Desaparier. To vnmatch, vnpaire, vncouple; to diuide, sunder, or seperate mates, fellowes, couples.
Desapetisance: f. A distast, or loathing of meats.
Desapetissé: m. ée: f. Distasted, loathed, as meat.
Desapetisser. To distast, marre the stomacke; take away the appetite; to breed a dislike, or loathing, of meats.
Desapointé: m. ée: f. Disappointed, frustrated; also, remooued, or put from an office, estate, or authoritie.
Desapointer. To diappoint, or frustrate; also, to remoue, or put from an office, or estate; to depriue, or bereaue of authoritie; also, to wry the leuell, put by the aime of.
Desappetit: m. Want of appetite, an ill, or no stomacke vnto a thing; a queasinesse, or disgust of stomacke.
Desapprendre. To vnlearne, or learne anew, or otherwise than before; also, to leaue a fashion vsed, or forget what hath beene learned.
Desapresent. From this verie instant; See Des.
Desarboré: m. ée: f. Let, or strucke downe; as the mast of a ship.
Desarborer. To let, or strike, downe the mast of a ship.
Desarçonné: m. ée: f. Dismounted, vnhorsed, cast out of the saddle.
Desarçonner. To vnhorse, dismount; throw ouer, set beside, cast out of the saddle.
Desarester. To take the bones out of fish.
Desargenté: m. ée: f. Vnsiluered, without siluer, cleane out of siluer.
Desarmé. Disarmed, depriued of armes.
Desarmement: m. A disarming, a depriuing of Armes.
Desarmer. To disarme; to depriue of armour; bereaue of weapons.
Se desarmer. To vnarme himselfe; to put off his arms, lay downe his weapons.
Desarnaché: m. ée: f. Vnharnessed; whose harnesse, or furniture is taken off.
Desarnacher vn cheval. To vnharnesse a horse, to take off his harnesse, or furniture.
Desarrengé: m. ée: f. Disordered, vnranked, disarrayed.
Desarrengement: m. An vnranking, disordering, disarraying.
Desarrenger. To vnranke, disorder, disarray.
Desarresser. To make fall a standing yard; to coole, or take downe the courage of.
Desarroy: m. Disorder, confusion, disarray; spoyle, bauocke, hurly-burly; also, a rout, ouerthrow, discomfiture, as of an armie.
En desarroy. Pel-mell, confusedly, out of array, cleane without order; also, in rout.
Desarroyé: m. ée: f. Disordered, disarrayed; put into rout; confounded, discomfited.
Desarroyer. To disorder, disarray, confound, marre the order, or fashion of; also, to discomfit, ouerthrow, or put to rout, an armie, &c.
Desassemblé: m. ée: f. Disassembled, disioyned, parted, diuided, seperated, disunited; dispersed, scattered.
Desassembler. To disassemble, disioyne, disunite, part, or take in peeces; to seperate, scatter, disperse, disassociate, dissipate.
Ce qu' assemble pille pille desassemblé tire tire: Prov. That which prowling gathers prodigalitie scatters.
Desasseuré: m. ée: f. Disassured; put in feare, brought into doubt; made vnsetled, vncertaine, vnsteadie; made to stagger.
Desassiurer. To disassure; to put in feare, or bring into doubt, one that was well resolued; to make vnsetled, vnassured, vnsteadie, what formerly was stay[ed].
Desassiegé: m. ée: f. Deliuered from siege.
Desassieger. To raise a siege; to deliuer from a siege.
Desassocié: m. ée: f. Disassociated; seperated, parted from the companie of.
Desassocier. To disassociate, breake companie, dissolue societie, seperate, or part, friends.
Desastre: m. A distaster, misfortune, calamitie, misaduenture, hard chance.
Desastré: m. ée: f. Disasterous, vnfortunate; vnhappie.
Desatteler. as Desteler.
Desattisé: m. ée: f. Quenched, slaked, put out, as a kindled firebrand.
Desattiser. To quench, put out, or slake a (kindled) fire, or firebrand.
Desauancé: m. ée: f. Hindered, impeached, kept back, driuen backeward.
Desauancer. To hinder, cast backward, keepe or driue backe; impeach the proceedings of.
Desauantage: m. Disaduantage, hinderance, dammage, losse.
Desauantagé: m. ée: f. Disaduantaged; incommodated, indammaged, hindered.
Desauantager. To disaduantage, hinder, displeasure, incommodate, indammage, impeach.
Desaubé: m. ée: f. Off the hinges, out of reparations; torne, ragged, tattered, all in peeces: ¶ Blesien.
Desauenture ux: m. euse: f. Vnhappie, vnfortunate.
Desaugmenter. To disaugment, wane, diminish, decrease, wast, grow lesse and lesse.
Desauié: m. ée: f. Starued; or, bereft of life.
Desauier. To bereaue of life; to starue, murder, kill.
Desauoüé: m. ée: f. Disauowed, disallowed; renounced, disclaimed, refused.
Desauouër. To disauow, disallow; refuse, renounce; disclaime.
Desbagager. To packe, or trusse vp his bag and bagage.
Desbagoulé. crin desbagoulé. Ruffled, staring, or disordered haire.
Morceau desbagoulé. A morsell chawed, and put out of the mouth againe.
Desbagouler. To ruffle, or disorder; also, to spue, or put out of the mouth a morsell halfe chawed.
Desballé: m. ée: f. Vnpacked; vntrussed.
Desballer. To vnpacke, or vntrusse; to vndoe a packe, or trusse.
Desbandade: f. A disbanding; a cassing of whole troups, or companies of souldiours; also, as Debendade.
Desbandage: m. A disbanding; an vnbending.
Desbandé: m. ée: f. Disbanded; vnbent; vnbound; loosse; careless; dispersed, scattered.
Desbandée. à la desbandée. Out of their ranks, out of order, out of array.
Desbander. To loosen, vnbind, vnbend; also, to casse, disband; scatter, disperse.
Se desbander. To disband; leaue his ranke; forsake his Companie, or Colours.
Desbander l' arc ne gueriſt pas la playe: Prov. The bowes vnbending heales no wound it made; the disusing of a mischieuous instrument is no amends for the hurt it hath done.
Desbaraté: m. ée: f. Disordered, out of order.
Desbarbouillé: m. ée: f. Cleansed, rid of spots.

Desbarbouiller. To cleanse, make cleane, vnspot, or cleanse from spots.
Desbardé: m. ée: f. Vnladen, as a ship; disarmed, as a great horse; vnsadled, as an Asse.
Desbarder. To vnload a ship, or boat; to vnheape, vnburthen, disburthen; also, to vnbarbe, or disarme a horse of seruice; to vnsadle a Moyle, or Asse.
Desbardeur: m. A Lyter-man, or Lighter-man; a Porter that vses to vnload ships, or carrie wares out of ships &c.
Desbarger. c'est, abbatre la terre du chevalier de costé, & d'autre qui peut cheoir sur les plantes de Vigne.
Desbarqué: m. ée: f. Disimbarked, put a land, set on shore.
Desbarquer. To disimbarke, put a land, set on shore.
Desbarré: m. ée: f. Vnbarred, vnboulted.
Desbarrer. To vnbar, vnboult; open.
Desbasté: m. ée: f. Vnsadled; or, whose packesadle is taken off.
Desbaster vn asne. To vnsadle an Asse; to take off his packesadle.
Desbasti: m. ie: f. Pulled downe, as a building.
Desbastiment: m. A pulling downe of buildings.
Desbastir. To ruine, vnbuild, take downe, or pull downe a building.
Desbastonné: m. ée: f. Disarmed; depriued of weapons.
Desbastonner. To disarme, or depriue of weapons.
Desbauche: f. Incontinencie, dissoluteneſſe, lewdneſſe, riot, vnrulineſſe, disorder.
Desbauché: m. ée: f. Deboshed, lewd, incontinent, vngracious, dissolute, naught; vnthriftie, riotous, vnrulie, disordered; also, depraued, misled, ill-aduised, or led by ill aduice.
Desbauchement: m. A deboshement; a corrupting, marring, deprauing, viciating; seducing, misleading.
Desbaucher. To debosh, marre, corrupt, spoyle, viciate; seduce, mislead; make lewd, bring to disorder, draw from goodneſſe.
Il se desbauche. He roames, digreſſes, flies out, goes from the purpose, runs altogether from the matter.
Desbaudi: m. ie: f. Made sad, or ashamed.
Desbaudir. To make sad, or ashamed; (old words.)
Desbaugé: m. eé: f. Vnsloughed; raised (as a wild swine) out of the durt wherein he lay wallowing.
Desbauger vn sanglier. To raise, or to rouse a wild boare from the place he lies, or wallows in; to vnslough him.
Desbellé: m. ée: f. Subdued, vanquished, ouercome by warre, &c.
Desbeller. To subdue, vanquish, ouercome, in warre.
Desbaux: m. A generall deboshement, disorder, dissoluteneſſe.
Desbendade: f. ~~a~~ Debendade; An vnbending.
A la desbendade. Swiftly, violently, furiously, like an arrow out of a bow; also, disorderly.
Desbender. To vnbend, looſſen; disband; vnbind.
Desberger. as Desbarger.
Desbifé. as Debiffé.
Desbifement: m. A rasing, or scraping out; also, decay, pining, languor, sorie looking, low taking, poore estate of bodie; also, a rending, or a riuing asunder.
Desblaver. To reape corne; to despoile, or vnfurnish of corne; to gather a crop of corne.
Desblayé: m. Disincumbred, vnpestered; cleere of, rid from.
Desblayer. To vnpester, disincumber, cleere; take away lets, remoue impediments.
Desblée: f. Hinderance, dammage, disaduantage by scarcitie; also, corne; or a crop of corne; also, a stacke, or halfe-thraue, of corne.
Desbléer. as Desblayer.
Desbleure. la desb: ou les desbleures. Hay, or stuble, whether it be made in cockes, or lie vnmade vp on the ground.
Desbleyer. as Desblayer.
Desblouqué: m. ée: f. Vnblocked; also, vnbuckled.
Desblouquer. To vnblocke, or open the (blockt-vp) passages of; also, to vnbuckle.
Desboeté: m. ée: f. Vnboxed, taken out of a box; put out of ioint.
Desboeter. To vnbox, or take out of a box; also, to put out of ioynt; (in which sence it is vsed most.)
Desboeture. A putting out of ioynt.
Desboire: m. Looke Deboire.
Desboisté: m. ée: f. Vnboxed; out of it right box; or, as Desboeté.
Desboistement. The being out of ioynt.
Desboité. as Desboisté.
Desboiter. To vnbox, vnioynt, take out of a box; put out of ioynt.
Desbondé: m. ée: f. Vnbunged, opened, vnstopped.
Desbonder. To vnbung, open, vnstop; to take out the bung, pull out the stople of.
Se desbonder. To gush, rush, or breake strongly, (as water thats let) out of a spowt, sluce, or bunghole.
Desbondonner. as Desbonder.
Desbord: m. as Desbordement.
Desbordé: m. ée: f. Ouerflowne or broken (as water) out of it bankes, or bounds; also, excessiue, profuse, disordered.
Desbordement: m. An ouerflowing, surrounding, or breaking out, as of waters; also, riot, excesse, disorder, superfluitie, profusion.
Se Desborder. To ouerflow, surround, runne ouer his bankes, breake out of his bounds; exceed rule, order, measure.
Desborné: m. ée: f. Vnbounded; whose bounds are laid open.
Desbornement: m. An vnbounding, or laying open of bounds.
Desborner. To vnbound, lay open the bounds; plucke vp, or pull downe the meeres of.
Desbort. as Desbordement.
Desbossué: m. ée: f. Vnbunched; smoothed, planed, plained, leuelled, fallen, made flat, or without bunches.
Desbossuër. To vnbunch, plane, leuell, make flat, plaine, without bunches, or bunching.
Desbouché: m. ée: f. Opened, vnstopped; also, disparked, disinclosed; also, vnmuffled, vnmasked, whose mouth is vncouered.
Vn cheval desbouché. Ill-mouthed, of an vnsetled mouth; also, not fitted by his bit.
Desboucheinent: m. An vnstopping; a disparking, an opening of inclosures.
Desboucher. To vnstop, open, broach; to dispark, to breake downe hedges, or inclosures; also, to vnmuffle, vnmaske, vncouer the mouth.
Desbouclé: m. ée: f. Vnbuckled, looſſe, vnfastened.
Desboucler. To vnbuckle, to open, to looſe.
Desboucler vne ville. To raise a siege, or free it from those that had blocked it vp.

Desbourbé: m. ée: f.
Desbourber. To pull o
to draw out of the mi
Desbourgeonner. To Desbourrer. To rid of Il commence à desb begins to speake toller hauing beene kept vn gins a little to flie out,
he did before.
Desbours: m. A disbu
Desbourſé: m. ée: f.
Desbourſement: m.
money.
Desbouſcher. Looke D
Desboutonné. Vnbut
Desboutonnement:
Desboutonner. To vn
Deboutonner.
Desbraguetter. To vn
braguetter.
Desbraillé: m. ée: f. V
afore.
Desbrailler. To vnbrac
Desbranchi: m. ie: f.
ches are cut, or pulled Desbranchir. To top, or off, the branches of a tr
Desbraquer. To vnplan or disappoint the leuell
Desbride: f. An eare-w
flaps, or head-peece, of Desbridé: m. ée: f. Vnb
Desbrider. To vnbridle.
Desbrigandiner. To d
vndoe, take, pull, or cut,
Desbris. as Debris.
Desbrisé: m. ée: f. Riue
sunder.
Desbrisement. A riuing
asunder.
Desbriser. se desbriser. boards that gape; See D
Desbrodequiné: m. é or pulled off.
Desbrodequiner. To v
buskins.
Desbrouillant. Cleering
Desbrouillé: m. ée: f. Di
Desbrouillement: m.
Desbrouiller. To disinta wind o trouble; al
expell the mist of.
Desbuissonné: m. ée:
a couert, or thicket.
Desbuissonner. To rou
of a couert, or thicket.
Desbusqué: m. ée: f. P
scudded away.
Desbusquer. To part, or d
from, to scud away; to ge Desbuté: m. ée: f. Repe
put from his marke; prest
Desbuter. To repell, thrust or place; to put from the to disappoint.
Descaché: m. ée: f. Discouer
uealed, opened, brought to

Desbourbé : m. ée : f. Drawne out of the mire.
Desbourber. To pull out of a slough, or muddie puddle; to draw out of the mire.
Desbourgeonner. To plucke, or nip off yong buds.
Desbourrer. To rid of bourre ; Looke Bourre.
Il commence à desbourrer. Said of a stranger that begins to speake tollerable French ; as also of one that hauing beene kept vnder, and thereby liued barely, begins a little to flie out, and liues in a better fashion than he did before.
Desbours : m. A disbursement of money.
Desbourſé : m. ée : f. Disburſed, laid out of a purſe.
Desbourſement : m. A disburſing ; or laying out of money.
Desbouſcher. Looke Desboucher.
Desboutonné. Vnbuttonned ; Looke Deboutonné.
Desboutonnement : m. An vnbuttoning.
Desboutonner. To vnbutton, or vndoe a button ; See Deboutonner.
Desbraguetter. To vntie the codpeece point ; Looke Debraguetter.
Desbraillé : m. ée : f. Vnbraced, vnbuttonned, all open afore.
Desbrailler. To vnbrace, or vnbutton himselfe.
Desbranchi : m. ie : f. Lopped, or topped ; whose branches are cut, or pulled off.
Desbranchir. To top, or lop the boughes ; to cut, or pluck off the branches of a tree.
Desbraquer. To vnplant, or dismount artillerie ; to wry, or disappoint the leuell thereof.
Desbride : f. An eare-wire ; or, the wire that stayes the flaps, or head-peece, of a French-hood.
Desbridé : m. ée : f. Vnbridled.
Desbrider. To vnbridle.
Desbrigandiner. To depriue of a Brigandine ; to rip, vndoe, take, pull, or cut, off a Brigandine.
Desbris. as Debris.
Desbriſé : m. ée : f. Riuen, clouen, torne, burst, or split asunder.
Desbriſement. A riuing, cleauing, bursting, or splitting asunder.
Desbriſer. se desbriſer. To riue, or cleaue asunder, as boords that gape ; See Debriſer.
Desbrodequiné : m. ée : f. Whose buskins are drawn, or pulled off.
Desbrodequiner. To vnbuskin ; to plucke, or draw, off buskins.
Desbrouillant. Cleering ; disintangling.
Desbrouillé : m. ée : f. Disintangled, vnpestered ; cleered.
Desbrouillement : m. A disintangling ; a cleering.
Desbrouiller. To disintangle ; rid from incombrance, wind out of trouble ; also, to cleere, manifest, lighten, expell the mist of.
Desbuiſſonné : m. ée : f. Rouſed, forced, or driuen from a couert, or thicket.
Desbuiſſonner. To rouse, raise, driue, or force, out of a couert, or thicket.
Desbuſqué : m. ée : f. Parted, flit, gone roundly from ; scudded away.
Desbuſquer. To part, or depart, flit, stirre, goe roundly from, to scud away ; to get him gone.
Desbuté : m. ée : f. Repelled, thrust backe ; driuen or put from his marke ; pretences, appointments.
Desbuter. To repell, thrust back, driue from his pretence, or place ; to put from the marke he was, or aimed, at ; to disappoint.
Deſcaché : m. ée : f. Discouered, vncouered, vnhidden, reuealed, opened, brought to light.
Deſcacher. To vncouer, disclose, open, reueale, discouer.
Deſcacheté : m. ée : f. Vnsealed, or, whose seal is burst ope.
Deſcacheter lettres. To vnseale, or breake open, letters.
Deſcaillé : m. ée : f. Vncurded, resolued.
Se Deſcailler. To resolue, vncurd, fall asunder.
Deſcalengé : m. ée : f. Vnarrested, vnapprehended, non inuentus ; also, discharged ; or redeliuered after a seizure.
Deſcampé : m. ée : f. Discamped.
Deſcampement : m. A discamping ; a raising, or a remouing of ; a departing from the camp.
Deſcamper. To discamp ; to raise, or to remoue a camp ; to depart from the campe.
Descapité : m. ée : f. Decapitated, beheaded.
Deſcapiter. To decapitate, behead, strike off the head.
Deſcapuchonné : m. ée : f. Vnhooded, vncowled ; vncouered, bare headed.
Deſcapuchonner. To vnhood, vncowle, vncouer.
Deſceinct : m. cte : f. Vngirt, without a girdle.
Deſceindre. To vngird, vnloosse, or vndoe a girdle.
Se deſceindre, & ietter ſa ceincture à terre. A ceremonie, by which (being done in Court) a debtor giues vnto his creditors the possession of his whole estate ; A vassall also when he prepares himselfe to do his homage, or fealtie, must put off his girdle, and lay by the sword, or other weapon which he vsually weares.
Deſceler. To discouer, disclose, detect, bewray.
Deſcendant. les deſcendans de. The progenie, or offspring of.
Deſcendant. Descending ; alighting ; going downwards.
Qui va en deſcendant. Steepe, declining, enclined, bowing, bending, or hanging downewards.
Deſcendement. as Deſcente ; Or, a descending, alighting ; a going, falling, lighting downe ; also, a casting, taking, laying downe.
Deſcendre. To descend, goe downe, come from, alight, light off, or downe ; also, to cast, bring, take, or lay down ; to fetch from a higher place vnto a lower.
Deſcendu : m. uë : f. Descended, deriued, come from ; also, cast, brought, let, laied, taken downe ; also, put ouer, as the meat a Hawke hath eaten.
Deſcenduë : f. A Discent, race, progenie, offspring, linage.
Deſcenglé : m. ée : f. Vngirded, or vngirthed.
Deſcengler. To vngird, or vngirth.
Deſcensoire : com. Descensiue, descending ; of power, or propertie to descend.
Deſcente : f. A descent ; fall ; steepe side of a hill, &c ; also, a descending, declining, or going downe.
Deſceptré : m. ée : f. Deposed, vnkinged, depriued of a (royall, or kinglie) Scepter.
Deſceptrer. To depose, or put from, to bereaue, or depriue of, a (kinglie) Scepter.
Deſceu. à mon desceu. Vnwitting to me, without my knowledge.
Deſchainé : m. ée : f. Vnchained ; vnfettered ; loosed, or deliuered from chaines ; fetters ; bondage.
C'eſt vn diable deſchainé. He is a verie furie, an incarnate diuell ; or limme of the diuell ; a man would thinke that hell's broke loosse where he is.
Deſchainer. To vnchaine ; to loosse out of chaines ; to deliuer from slauish captinitie.
Deſchalandé : m. ée : f. Out of trade, without custome, or customers.
Deſchalander. To driue away customers ; or depriue of custome.
Deſchambré : m. ée : f. Seperated, scattered, parted, as chamber-fellowes ; also, driuen, rouſed, or thrust out of a lodging, or chamber.

Deſchambrer. To diuide, ſeperate, ſcatter, diſperſe, part a companie, that liued, or lay together in a chamber; alſo, to rouſe, driue, or thruſt out of a lodging, or chamber.

Deſchampé: m. ée: f. Vnfoulded; alſo, broken out of a fould.

Deſchamper. To vnfould; alſo, to breake out of a fould, like vnto ſheepe.

Deschant: m. Deſcant (of Muſicke;) alſo, a Palinodie, recantation, or contrarie ſong to the former.

Deſchanté: m. ée: f. Deſcanted; alſo, recanted.

Deſchanter. To Deſcant; alſo, to recant, or vnſay what one hath formerly deliuered.

Deſchaperonné: m. ée: f. Vnhooded; capped; vncouered.

Deſchaperonner. To vnhood; to cap; to pul off the hood, or couering of.

Deſcharge: f. A diſcharge; acquitance; Quietus-eſt.
Les deſcharges. Coſts, and charges (in a ſuit.)

Deſchargé: m. ée: f. Diſcharged, vnloaden, disburdened.
Deſchargé de chair. A cleane timberd man, one that hath not too much fleſh on his backe.
Couleur deſchargée en bleu. Neere vnto a light blew, or of a light blew; light, (& ſo of other colours.)

Deſchargement: m. A diſcharging, vnloading, eaſing, disburdening; a cleering, or acquiting.

Deſchargeoir: m. A ſluce, or water-paſſage of plankes bored full of holes, whereout the ſuperfluous water of a Mill damme diſchargeth it ſelfe.

Deſcharger. To diſcharge, disburden, exonerate, vnload; eaſe; alſo, to cleere or acquit of, rid or deliuer from, a charge; alſo, to purge, draine, euacuate, put out, or take away, ſuperfluities.
Se deſcharger ſur vn autre. To lay the blame which he hath deſerued vpon another; to charge with the fault which he hath committed, another; to excuſe himſelfe by accuſing another.

Deſcharges. les deſcharges. Coſts and charges (in a ſuit.)

Deſcharmé: m. ée: f. Vncharmed, vnſpelled.

Deſcharmer. To vncharme, vnſpell; fruſtrate a charme, diſſolue a ſpell.

Descharné: m. ée: f. Lanke, ſcraggie, fleſhleſſe, dogleane, fallen away, cleane ſtarued, looking like a ghoſt, that hath nought but skinne and bone left on him.

Deſcharner. To take fleſh from; to make leane.
Deſcharner les os. To teare, cut, looſſen, or diuide, the fleſh from the bones.

Descharongné: m. ée: f. Torne, rent, or plucked, as carrion, or fleſh, aſunder.

Deſcharongnement. A tearing, renting, or breaking, of fleſh into peeces.

Deſcharonguer. To teare in peeces, to rent aſunder fleſh, or carrion.

Deſcharper. Looke Deſcharpir.

Deſcharpi: m. ie: f. Cleered, freed from, got rid of; Looke Charpi.

Deſcharpir la trame d'un eſcarlate: c'eſt autant que deffiler. Or, to take off the nap thereof, to make it thread-bare.
Ie ne me puis deſcharpir de luy. I cannot free my ſelfe from him; I cannot rid my hands, I cannot get cleere, of him.

Deſchaud, & Deſchault. Bare-foot, and bare-legged.

Deſchauſſé. as Deſchaud; Alſo, vncouered, or opened, as a tree, at the root.

Deſchauſſement: m. An vnſhooing.
Deſchauſſement d' arbres. An opening, or baring of trees at the root.

Deſchauſſer. To vnſhooe, to pull off ſhooes; alſo, to vnhoſe, or draw off hoſen.
Deſchauſſer vn' arbre. To open, or bare a tree at the root.
Deſchauſſer Bertrand. To be whitled, cup-ſhotten, throughly drunken.
Deſchauſſer les dents. To bare their bottomes; to cut, or diuide the gummes from about them.

Deſchauſſoir: m. A Fleame; the toole wherewith Barbers diuide the gum from the tooth which they would draw out.

Deſchaux. as Deſchaud.

Deſcheance: f. A decay, diminution, waſt, conſumption; ruine of.

Descheoir. as Decheoir; To miniſh, leſſen, decay; fall away.

Descherpilleur. A notable robber, or freebooter; a famous purſetaker.

Deschet: m. as Deſcheance; or, Dechet.

Descheu. Fallen away &c; as Dechu.

Deschevalé: m. ée: f. Vnhorſed, caſt, or tumbled from horſebacke.

Deschevaler. To vnhorſe, to throw off horſe back.

Deschevancé: m. ée: f. Robbed, deſpoiled, beggered.

Deschevancer. To rob, ranſacke, begger, depriue, or deſpoile of wealth, or ſubſtance.

Descheuauché: m. ée: f. as Deſchevalé.

Deschevaucher vn homme. To throw, or tumble a man from his horſe.

Deſchevelé. vne femme toute deſchevelée. Diſheueled, with all her haire diſorderly falling about her eares.

Deſchevueler. To diſcheuell; to looſſe, diſorder, ſcatter; pull the haire about the eares.

Deſcheveſtré: m. ée: f. Vnhaltered; looſſed, diſintangled.

Deſcheveſtrer. To vnhalter, or take off the halter from; to vnfetter, vnpeſter, diſintangle, vntie, vnlooſſe, vndoe, rid, wind out of.

Deſchiffré: m. ée: f. Decyphered.

Deſchiffrer. To decypher; expound, explane, explicate an obſcure matter, or myſterie.

Deſchiffreur: m. A decypherer; an expounder, vnfolder, interpreter of cyphers; of myſtical, or dark writings.

Deſchiqueté: m. ée: f. Cut, ſlit, ſhred, iagged; pinked, or cut thicke, ſmall, and neere together.

Deſchiquetement: m. A cutting, ſlitting; a iagging, mangling, or ſhredding into little peeces; a pinking, or ſmall, and thicke cutting.

Deſchiqueter. To pinke, or cut full of ſmall holes; to iag, ſlit, mangle, ſlaſh, or ſhred into many ſmall peeces or parcels.

Deschiquoter. as Eſchiquoter.

Deschirant. Rending, tearing, diſmembring, mangling.

Deschiré. Rent, torne, diſmembred, mangled, plucked in peeces, raſhed in two.

Deschirement: m. A tearing, renting, diſmembring, mangling, plucking in peeces, raſhing in two.

Deschirer. To teare, diſmember, mangle, rend, or plucke in peeces; to riue aſunder, to raſh in two.

Deschirure: f. A teare, a rent, a violent raſh, diſmembring, riue; alſo, a tearing, rending, riuing.
De forte couſture dure deschirure: Prov. Strong ſeames by ſturdie hands are torne aſunder.

Deſchute: f. A lapſe or fall.
Deſcigler. Looke Deſsiller.
Deſciimenter. Cette Muraille ſe deſcimente. This wall growes vnmortered, or hath worne out it morter.
Deſciré; Deſcirer: &c; as Deſchiré; Deſchirer; &c.
Deſclaveté: m. ée: f. Diſmounted, vnlocked, or taken, as a cannon from it carriage.
Deſclaueter vn Canon. To diſmount a cannon; (properly, to vnlocke the carriage thereof.)
Deſcliquer. To let goe, let flye; rap out: See Decliquer.
Deſclorre. To diſparke, vncloſe; diſcloſe, pull downe hedges, or incloſures.
Deſclos: m. oſe: f. Diſparked, vncloſed, layed open, diſcloſed.
Fleur deſcloſe. A flower thats ſpred, full blowen, fully bloomed.
Secret deſclos. diſcloſed, reuealed, bewrayed,.
Deſcloüé: m. ée: f. Vnnayled, vncloyed.
Deſclouër. To vnnayle, or vncloy; to looſſe, pull off, drawe out, a nayle.
Deſcoché: m. ée: f. Shot, looſſed, or ſent, as an arrow out of a Bow.
Deſcocher vne fleiche. To ſhoote; looſſe, or ſend an arrow from a bow.
Deſcoeffé: m. ée: f. Vncoifed, vnhooded, whoſe head is diſarrayed, or vncouered.
Deſcoeffer. To vncoife; to diſarray, diſattire, vnhood, vncouer, the head.
Deſcogneu: m. euë: f. Vnknowne, not kowne, forgotten; alſo, diſaduowed, or denyed.
Deſcognoiſſance: f. A not knowing, or forgetting of; alſo a diſaduowing, or denyall.
Deſcognoiſtre. To vnknow, or to not know, to forget what one hath knowne; alſo, to diſaduow, deny; take no notice of.
Deſcoiffer. To vncoife, or pull a coife off the head; or, as Decoeffer.
Deſcolé: m. ée: f. Vnglued.
Deſcoler. To vnglue, to looſſe, or plucke aſunder, things that are glued.
Deſcollé: m. ée: f. Decapitated, beheaded.
Deſcoller. To decapitate; behead, or cut the head off.
Deſcoloré: m. ée: f. Diſcoloured, or decayed in colour; that hath loſt colour; alſo, pale, bleake, wanne, lew.
Se Deſcombatre de. To rid his hands of, or deliuer himſelfe from.
Deſcombré: m. ée: f. Diſincombred; vnpeſtered; cleered of; rid, or freed from; alſo, warranted (in law.)
Deſcombrement: m. A diſincombring, or vnpeſtering; alſo, a warranting (in law.)
Deſcombrer. To diſincomber, or vnpeſter; to rid, free, deliuer from, cleere of, incombrances; alſo, to warrant (in law.)
Deſcombres: f. The ruines of decayed, the rubbiſh of down-fallen, buildings; alſo, a cleering of a ground &c from them.
Deſcompt: m. An accompt giuen for things receaued; a backe-reckoning.
Deſcompter. To accompt (for the proffits of land &c receaued,) to accompt backe, or make a backe reckoning.
Deſconfire. To diſcomfit, vanquiſh, defeate; ruine.
Deſconfiture: f. A defeature, ouerthrow, diſcomfiture; alſo, a diſtribution, or equall ſharing of a bankrupts goods among all his creditors, as farre as they will goe; whence;
Payer par deſconfiture. A debtor bankrupt, or decayed, to pay his creditors after ſome ſuch ſmall rate as xij pence in the pound.
Deſconfiz. Defeated, diſcomfited, vanquiſhed; ouerthrowne.
Deſconfort: m. Diſcomfort; ſadneſſe, penſiueneſſe, heauineſſe of hart; griefe, that will not admit, or cannot taſte, of comfort.
Deſconforté: m. ée: f. Diſcomforted, diſconſolated; moſt heauie, ſad, penſiue; much out of hart.
Se Deſconforter. To be diſcomforted; moſt heauie, ſad, penſiue; to be much out of hart.
Deſconſeillé: m. ée: f. Diſcounſelled, diſſuaded from, aduiſed to the contrarie of; alſo, vncounſelled, void of counſell, wanting aduiſe.
Deſconſeiller. To diſcounſell, diſſuade, dehort, aduiſe vnto the contrary.
Deſconſeilleur. A diſſuader, deborter; a counſellor, or aduiſer, to the contrarie.
Deſconſolé: m. ée: f. Comfortleſſe, diſcomforted.
Deſconſoler. To diſcomfort, ſadden, grieue; to make or leaue deſolate.
Deſcontenancé: m. ée: f. Abaſhed, put out of countenance.
Geſtes fols, & deſcontenancez. Vncomelie, vngracefull, ill-fauored, geſtures.
Deſconvenuë: f. Griefe, ſorrow, trouble, diſcomfort; misfortune, inconuenience.
Deſcordant. Vntwiſting, vndoing, looſſing a cord, or ſtring.
Deſcordelé. Vntwiſted, vntwined.
Deſcordeler. To vntwiſt a cord, or ſtring.
Deſcorder en chantant. as Deſaccorder. To iarre.
Deſcorder vne corde. To vndoe, or vntwiſt, a cord.
Deſcouché: m. ée: f. Gotten vp, riſen out of bed; alſo, lyen from; alſo, diſlodged, or put from his lodging.
Deſcoucher. To ly from, alſo to diſlodge; to depriue of, or put beſide, his lodging.
Se Deſcoucher. To get vp, to riſe out of bed.
Deſcoudre. To vnſowe, vndoe ſtitches, rip or breake open ſtitched things.
Deſcouler. To ſlide, or ſlip away, to glide along; See Decouler.
Deſcoulouré: m. ée: f. Diſcolored, diſtayned; growne pale, wanne, lewe; that hath loſt it colour, or hue.
Deſcoulourement: m. A diſcoulouring, or diſtayning; a looſing, or taking away, of coulor.
Deſcoulorer. To diſcoulour, or diſtaine; to make pale, wanne, lew; to take away the hue of.
Deſcoulpé: m. ée: f. Diſcharged; cleered, purged, rid of an imputation, deliuered from blame.
Deſcoulper. To diſcharge, cleere, purge, rid of an imputation, free from blame.
Deſcoupé. Looke Decoupé.
Deſcouple: m. The vncoupling of boundes, or looſſing them after their game.
Deſcouplé: m. ée: f. Vncoupled.
Deſcoupler. To vncouple; to looſſe, or let goe, out of couples.
Deſcourable: com. Slipperie, flitting; eaſely eſcaping from the place it was put in.
Deſcouragé: m. ée: f. Diſcouraged, amated, made heartleſſe, in diſpaire, out of conceit with his own fortune, or valour.
Deſcourager. To diſcourage, vnharten, feare, frighten, apall, put into doubt, driue out of hart, bring out of conceit, with his owne fortune, or worth.
Deſcouronné: m. ée: f. Vncrowned, put frõ a crown.

Descouronner. To vncrowne; deprive of a crowne; dispossesse of a diadem.

Descourtoisie: f. Discourtesie, want of courtesie; Looke Discourtoisie.

Descouseur: m. A ripper, vnsower; vndooer of.

Descousu: m. uë: f. Ripped, vnsowed; vndone.
Estre tout descousu (apres la colere.) To be as calme as a (standing) clocke; to haue no mettall, spirit, vigor in him; to be as good as nobodie.

Descousure: f. A ripping, vnsewing, vndoing of.

Descouvert: m. erte: f. Discouered; vncouered; detected, disclosed; exposed vnto the worlds view; open, euident, manifest, apparant, without any cloke, pretext, or colour; also, descried, or discerned a farre off.
A descouvert. Manifestly, openly, euidently, apparantly, in the view of all men, abroad in the ayer, without doores.
Il a descouvert le pasté. Looke Pasté.

Descouverte: f. A discouerie, detection, disclosure, denudation; a descrying, discerning, perceiuing, or spying out of.

Descouvrement: m. A discouering, vncouering, detecting, disclosing; a descrying, discerning, or perceiuing a farre off.

Descouvreur: m. A discouerer; detector, discloser; a scout, an espiall.

Descouvrir. To discouer; to vncouer, vnhill, denude, lay naked, make bare; to disclose, detect, manifest, open, lay open, expose vnto the worlds view; also, to descrie, discerne, perceiue a farre off.
Descouvrir la meiche. To vent (and auoid) a deadlie mischiefe; Looke Meiche.
Descouvrir Sainct Pierre pour couvrir Sainct Paul. To rob, or borrow of, one, therewith to inrich, or pay, another.

Descrassé: m. ée: f. Cleansed, made cleane, cleered, of grease, or greasinesse; rid from filthie, or slouenlie ordure; the thicke-growne durt whereof is gotten out.

Descrasser. To cleanse, make cleane, wipe away greasie filth, get out thicke-growne durt, rid from slouenlie ordure.

Descri. as Descrit.

Descrié: m. eé: f. Cried downe, called in; as naughtie, or false, money; also, discredited, whose credit is broken, or crackt; openly defamed, in disgrace with the publicke.

Descriement: m. A crying downe, or calling in; also, an open discrediting, publicke disgracing, or disparaging.

Descrier. To crie downe, or call in, vncurrent, or naughtie coine; also, publickly to discredit, disparage, disgrace; to publish the faults, diuulge the imperfections, blaze the wants, proclaime the defects, of.
On le descrie comme la vieille monnoye. He hath a verie bad report among the people; his credit is wholly crackt, fame blemished, reputation lost.

Descript: m. ipte: f. Described, set downe, or declared.

Description: f. A description.

Descrire. To describe; set downe, or declare.

Descrit de monnoye: m. The calling in of money.

Descroché: m. ée: f. Vnhooked, loosed, vndone.
Ancre leuée, & descrochée. Weighed, pulled vp.

Descrocher. To vnhooke, to vndoe, or loosen a hooke; to shake, or pull a thing off a hooke.

Descrocheter. as Descrocher.

Descroire. To discredit; or, to giue no credit vnto; not to beleeue.

Descroisé: m. ée: f. Vncrossed; set straight.

Descroiser. To vncrosse; to open, diuide, lay, or set straight a thing which stands acrosse.

Descroissement: m. A decreasing; minishing; lessening, waning.

Descroistre. To decrease, diminish, wane, wax lesse, weare away.

Descroté: m. ée: f. Rubbed off, scowred out, wiped away, as durt, &c.

Descroter. To rub off, scowre out, wipe away, durt.

Descroteur: m. A rubber, or maker cleane of cloathes; also, one that rubs on, or runnes ouer, things.

Descrotoire: f. A rubbing-brush.

Descroulé: m. ée: f. Shaken asunder.

Descrouler. To shake asunder.

Descroyant. Distrusting, misbeleeuing, not beleeuing.

Descuire. To vnseeth; or leaue seething.

Descuvé: m. ée: f. Tunned, or taken out of a fat, or tub.

Descuver. To take out of a fat, or tub.

Desdaignable: com. Disdainable, contemptible, despiseable.

Desdaigné: m. ée: f. Disdained, scorned, contemned, despised.

Desdaignement: m. A disdaining, despising, scorning, contemning.

Desdaigner. To disdaine, despise, contemne, scorne, loath, not to vouchsafe; to make vile account of.

Desdaigneur: m. A disdainer, scorner, contemner, despiser.

Desdaigneusement. Disdainfully, scornfully, contemptibly; proudly, coily, squeamishly.

Desdaigneux: m. euse: f. Disdainfull, scornefull, coy, squeamish.

Desdaing: m. Disdaine, scorne, contempt; coinesse; proud squeamishnesse; hautinesse; despight; moodinesse.

Desdaigner. To vnladie; to denie a Ladie her due title, or stile; to deprive her of the title, or stile of Ladie; also, to take a man at Tables, a Queene at Draughts.

Desdetté: m. ée: f. Rid out of debt, set cleere aboord.

Desdetter. To rid out of debt.

Desdict: m. icte: f. Vnsayed, recanted, reuoked; contradicted; forbidden.

Desdié: m. ée: f. Dedicated; giuen, or deuoted vnto; destined, purposed, reserued for.

Desdiement: m. A dedicating, deuoting; destining vnto; reseruing, or purposing for.

Desdier. To dedicate, giue, or deuote vnto; to destine, reserue, or purpose for.

Se Desdire. To vnsay, recant, retract, reuoke; forbid; contradict himselfe, go from his word.

Desdommage. as Desdommagement.

Desdommagé: m. ée: f. indemnified, saued harmelesse; discharged.

Desdommagement: m. An indemnitie, or indemnifying; a sauing harmelesse; an amends-making.

Desdommager. To indemnifie, saue harmelesse; discharge; make an amends vnto.

Desdoré: m. ée: f. vngilt; or whose gilding is worne off.

Desdorer. To vngild; to take the gold off.

Desdormi. Awaked; roused, raised from sleeping.
Les mains desdormies. Vnastonied, vnbenummed hands.

Desdormir. To awake, rouse, raise from sleepe; to quicken, vnbenumme, take away the drousinesse of.

Desdor-

Desdormissement: m. An awaking, rowsing, raising from sleepe; a quickening, or vnbenumming.
Desdoublé: m. ée: f. Vnlyned, whose lynings are taken out.
Desdoubler. To vnlyne, or take the lynings out of a garment.
Desdouloir. To leaue off sorrow, to surcease from mourning.
Desduict: m. icte: f. Discourſed, handled, intreated, dilated of.
Desduire vn poinct. To handle, intreat, dilate, or discourse of a point; See Deduit.
Desduit: m. Sport, paſtime, recreation, delight.
Desduite: f. A Diſcourſe; the handling of a matter; alſo, as Deduite.
Desembarqué: m. ée: f. Disimbarked.
Desembarquement: m. A disimbarking.
Desembarquer. To disimbarke, or vnload a ſhip; alſo, to land, or goe aſhore out of a ſhip, &c.
Desembarrassé: m. ée: f. Disintangled, vnpeſtered.
Desembarrasser. To vnpeſter, disintangle; rid from intricateneſſe, or troubles.
Desembellir. To disimbelliſh, disfigure, impaire the beautie of.
Desembroché: m. ée: f. Vnbroached, vnſpitted.
Desembrocher. To vnbroach, vnſpit; pull off the broach, or ſpit.
Desembuscé: m. ée: f. Riſen from an Ambuſcadoe; gone, or gotten from among buſhes.
Desembuscher: m. The place, or part of a Thicket, whereout wild beaſts vſe to goe into the Plaines.
Se Desembuscher. To riſe from an Ambuſcadoe; to ruſh vp from among buſhes; to goe out of a thicket into plaine ground.
Desemmuré: m. ée: f. Disimmured; taken out of a wall wherein it was incloſed; alſo, vnwalled; or whoſe wals are taken downe.
Desemmurer. To take a thing out of a wall wherein it was incloſed; alſo, to vnwall, or take downe the walls of.
Desempacqueté: m. ée: f. Vnpacked; taken out of a packe, or packet.
Desempacqueter. To vnpacke, to vnlooſe a packe; to take out of a packe, or packet.
Desemparable. Partable, ſeuerable, ſeperable; depriueable; abandonable; diſorderable.
Desemparé: m. ée: f. Diſſeiſed, depriued, diſpoſſeſſed of; alſo, diuided, parted, ſeuered, ſeperated; alſo, left, quit, abandoned; alſo, diſordered, vnſorted.
Desemparement: m. A diſſeiſing, depriuing, diſpoſſeſſing; a diſſeiſin; a leauing, quitting, abandoning; a looſing, or letting goe, the poſſeſſion of; alſo, a ſeuering, parting, ſeperating; alſo, a diſordering, or vnſorting of.
Desemparer. To diſſeiſe, depriue, diſpoſſeſſe of; alſo, to ſeuer, diuide, part, put aſunder; alſo, to diſorder, or vnſort what lay in order; alſo, to leaue, quit, abandon.
Se desemparer. To looſe, leaue, or let goe the poſſeſſion of a thing; alſo, to be gone; to quit, or abandon a place.
Desempartement. A diuiſion, ſeperation; a diuiding, or departing from.
Desempenné: m. ée: f. Vnfeathered, whoſe feathers are pulled off.
Desempenner. To vnfeather; to pull the feathers off an arrow, &c.
Desempesché: m. ée: f. Diſimpeached, cleered, disincombered.
Desempescher. To disimpeach, disincomber, cleare.
Desempeſtré: m. ée: f. Cleered, freed, vnpeſtered, disintangled.
Desempeſtrer. To vnpeſter, cleere, vntangle, free, deliuer from intricacie.
Desempli: m. ie: f. Emptied, or vnfilled.
Desemplir. To emptie, or vnfill; to lade, or ſhift, out of one thing into another.
Desemplumé: m. ée: f. Plumed; whoſe plumes are plucked, feathers pulled.
Desemplumer. To plume; to pull his plumes, to plucke his feathers off.
Desempriſonné: m. ée: f. Diſimpriſoned; freed, ſet at libertie, deliuered out of priſon.
Se Desempriſonner. To free, or deliuer himſelfe; to ſet himſelfe at libertie, or get himſelfe out of priſon.
Desenchainé: m. ée: f. Vnchayned, or looſſed from chaynes.
Desenchainer. To vnchayne, to looſſe from chaynes.
Desenchanté: m. ée: f. Disinchaunted.
Desenchanter. To disinchaunt; to rid from charmes, or inchauntments.
Desencloué: m. ée: f. Vnnayled; vncloyed.
Desencloüer. To vnnayle; to vncloy; to take the nayles out of; alſo, to eaſe a horſe that hath beene pricht in ſhooing.
Desencordé. Vncorded, vnſtrung.
Desencoulpé: m. ée: f. Purged, or diſcharged from blame.
Desencoulper. To diſcharge from blame.
Desendetté: m. ée: f. Rid out of debt.
Desendetter. To bring out of debt.
Desendormir. as Desdormir.
Desendormissement. as Desdormissement.
Desenduire. To vndawbe; to bare; to pull the dawbing off; to diſcouer whats vnder a dawbing.
Desenflé: m. ée: f. Vnſwelled; whoſe ſwelling is abated, or aſſuaged.
Se Desenfler. To vnſwell; to aſſuage, fall, or wax leſſe, after ſwelling.
Desenforgé: m. ée: f. Disinforged.
Desenfourné: m. ée: f. Drawne, or taken out of an Ouen.
Desenfourner. To draw, or take, out of an Ouen.
Se Desenfrongner. To looke cheerefully, to leaue frowning.
Desengagé: m. ée: f. Disingaged, redeemed.
Desengager. To disingage, vngage, redeeme.
Desengeancé: m. ée: f. The race whereof is extinguiſhed.
Desengeancer. To ruine, or extinguiſh the race of.
Desengé: m. ée: f. Extirpated, or deſtroyed, as a noyſome plant.
Desenger. To root vp, to plucke vp by the root; to deſtroy an euill impe, a noyſome plant.
Desengigné: m. ée: f. Disinchanted, deliuered from inchauntments.
Desengourdi: m. ie: f. Vnbenummed, awaked, reſtored from ſleepineſſe, or clumpſineſſe, to ſence.
Desengroſſir. A full-bellied women to miſcarrie.
Desenhorté: m. ée: f. Dehorted, diſſuaded.
Desenhorter. To dehort, diſſuade, aduiſe to the contrarie of.
Desenhorteur: m. A dehorter, diſſuader.
Desennuyance: f. Paſtime, ſporting, driuing away of time, or of trouble.
Desennuyé: m. ée: f. Cheered vp, deliuered from heauineſſe, beauineſſe, irkſomeneſſe, carke, or care.

Deſennuyer. To expell wearineſſe, or tediouſneſſe; to driue away beauineſſe, carke, or care.

Deſenrouillé: m. ée: f. Skowred, furbuſhed, or cleanſed from ruſt.

Deſenrouiller. To skowre, furbuſh, or take the ruſt from.

Deſenroulé: m. ée: f. Caſſed, put from his wages, raſed out of the roule, or liſt of; alſo, vnrouled, vnfoulded.

Deſenrouler. To vnfold, or vnroule; as Deſrouler; alſo, to caſſe, diſcharge, put out of the rowle, or liſt of.

Deſenſeigner. To vnteach, or teach otherwiſe then was taught before.

Deſenſeveli: m. ie: f. Vnburied, taken out of the graue.

Deſenſevelir. To vnburie, to take out of a graue.

Deſenſorcelé: m. ée: f. Vnbewitched, exorciſed.

Deſenſorceler. To vnbewitch, exorciſe, rid from ſorcerie.

Deſentaſſé: m. ée: f. Vnheaped; taken off a heape.

Deſentaſſer. To vnheape, vnload; take off a heape, or load.

Deſenterré: m. ée: f. Disinterred, vnburied.

Deſenterrer. To vnburie, to take out of the earth againe.

Deſentortillé: m. ée: f. Vntwiſted, vnwrithen, vnwouen.

Deſentourner. To turne, or wind off; to take from about.

Deſentraillé: m. ée: f. Paunched, bowelled.

Deſentrailler. To paunch, to bowell, or vnbowell; to draw.

Deſenvelopper. as Deſveloper.

Deſenyvré: m. ée: f. Made, or become ſober, (after drunkenneſſe.)

Deſenyvrer. To rid from drunkenneſſe, to make ſober againe.

Deſequé. as Defequé.

Deſert: m. A Deſart, a Wilderneſſe, a place vnfrequented, or abandoned of inhabitants.

Deſert. as Deſerté.

Appel deſert. An appeale made before the time, or vnfitly, and out of time; or, an appeale neither begun, nor followed, as it ought to haue beene.

Deſerte: f. Deſert, merit; Sans deſerte. Vndeſeruedly.

Deſerté: m. ée: f. Forſaken, deſolate, deſart, vnhabited, abandoned of all men.

Deſerter. To make deſart; to ruine a whole nation; of an inhabited place to make an vninhabited Wilderneſſe.

Deſerteur: m. A forſaker, ſtragler, fugitiue; runneaway; one that abandoneth his friend, cauſe, or countrey.

Deſertion: f. A leauing, abandoning, forſaking.

Deſertion d'appel. An vnfit, vndue, or vntimelie appealing; an appeale vnſeaſonably begun, and vnorderly followed; alſo, a fayling in, or giuing ouer of, an appeale.

Deſertion de cauſe. A Nonſuit, or letting fall of a Suit.

Deſervice. Diſſeruice, a diſpleaſure, ill office, bad turne.

Deſervi: m. ie: f. Deſerued, merited; earned.

Deſervir. To deſerue, to earne, to merite, (whether it be well or ill.)

Deſervir ſus table. To take away. See Deſſervir.

Deſeſperable: com. Deſpaireable, vnhopefull.

Deſeſperade: f. A kind of mournefull ſong.

Iouer à la deſeſperade. To ſet his whole reſt, or ſet all on ſixes, and ſeuens; to throw at all.

Deſeſperance: f. Deſperateneſſe, deſpaire.

Deſeſperément. Deſperatly, hopeleſſely, in deſperation, without any hope of helpe, or of ſucceſſe.

Deſeſperer. To deſpaire; to be in deſpaire, or without hope.

Deſeſpoir: m. Deſpaire, deſperation.

Deſeſtimé: m. ée: f. Diſeſteemed, neglected, ſet naught by.

Deſeſtimer. To diſeſteeme, neglect, contemne, ſet naught by, make no reckoning of.

Deſeſtouffé: m. ée: f. Vnſtuffed, emptied, euacuated.

Deſeſtouffer. To emptie, euacuate, vnſtuffe.

Deſeſtourdi: m. ie: f. Vnamaſed, recouered of, rouſed from, aſtoniſhment.

Deſeſtourdir. To recouer of, or to rouſe from, an aſtoniſhment.

Desfacer. as Effacer.

Desfacher. Looke Desfascher.

Desfacilé: m. ée: f. Put out of ioynt. ¶Rab.

Desfaict: m. cte: f. Vndone; broken; defeated, diſcomfited, ouercome; ruined, deſtroyed, ouerthrowne.

Vn viſage desfaict. Growne very leane, pale, wan; or, decayed in feature, and colour.

Desfaicte: f. A defeat, or defeature; a diſcomfiture, or ouerthrow; alſo, a ſhift, excuſe, euaſion, auoidance; (Looke Défaitte*.) alſo, a riddance, diſpatch, cleering the hands of, putting off.*

Il ſçait ſes desfaictes. He is a very cunning Marchant, he will make ſhift for one.

Desfaire. To vndoe; breake; defeat, diſcomfit, ouercome; ruine, deſtroy, ouerthrow.

Desfaire vn cerf. To breake vp a red Deere.

Se Desfaire de. To rid, or deliuer himſelfe from; to quit himſelfe, to diſpatch, or cleere his hands, of.

Se desfaire ſoy meſme. To murther, or make away, himſelfe; to lay violent hands on himſelfe.

Aſſez faict qui s'en desfaict: Prov. He does enough that rids himſelfe of (a whore.)

Desfait, & Desfaitte. as Desfaict, & Desfaicte.

Desfarouché: m. ée: f. Reclaymed, made gentle, tamed.

Desfaroucher. To make gentle, to reclayme, or tame.

Desfaſché: m. ée: f. Appeaſed, quieted, calmed; eaſed, comforted, lightened at the hart.

Desfaſcher. To appeaſe, quiet; eaſe, comfort, lighten the hart; to take away loathing, or irkſomeneſſe.

Desfaveur. Diſfauor; want, or loſſe, of fauour.

Desfavoriſé: m. ée: f. Diſfauoured, out of fauour with.

Desfavoriſer. To diſfauor, not to fauour; to withdraw his fauor from, to baniſh from his fauour.

Desfermé: m. ée: f. Vnſhut, layed open, diſcloſed; diſcouered.

Desfermer. To vnſhut, lay open, diſcloſe; diſcouer.

Desferre: f. An old ſuit of apparrell, caſt clothes; alſo, as Diſferre; alſo, an intangled, and vnprofitable buſneſſe; alſo, a ſhift, or ſhifting.

Ces gens ſont de faſcheuſe desferre. These are vnrulie, ſtubborne, obſtinate, froward people; they are ill to be gouerned, hard to be pleaſed.

Desferré. Vnſhod, or, hauing caſt his ſhooes, as a horſe; alſo, alſo, weakened, or depriued of his beſt helpes; of rich become poore.

Desferre-cheval. The ſmall pulſe, or Hatchet Fetch, called Horſe-ſhoe.

Desferrer vn cheval. To vnſhooe a horſe.

Desferrer l'aſne. To ride the wild Mare.

Se desferrer. To contradict (and thereby betray) himſelfe; alſo, to caſt, or looſe his ſhooes, as a horſe.

Desfi: m. as Defi; a challenge, or hoſtile defiance.

Desfiance: f. A diffidence, or miſtruſt.

Desfiant. Diſtruſting; deſpairing in; miſtruſtfull; alſo, defying.

Desfiché: m. ée: f. Looſ'ed, vnfixed, vnfaſtened.

Desficher. To looſ'e, vnfix, vnfaſten, vnſettle.

Desfiement: m. A defying; alſo, a diſtruſting.

Desfier. To defy, to challenge vnto the combat.

Se Desfier. To diſtruſt; or to diſpaire.

Se Desfier l'un de l'autre comme aveugles. To miſtruſt, like two blind men, one another.

Desfigurer. See Defigurer.

Desfilé: m. ée: f. Vntwiſted; vnwouen; rauelled; diſordered.

Sove desfilée. Sleue ſilke.

Desfiler. To vntwiſt, vntwine, vnweaue, looſſe, rauell; alſo, to vnranke, diſorder; put off a file.

Desfinancé: m. ée: f. Depriued, vnfurniſhed, drayned, of treaſure.

Desflamné: m. ée: f. Quenched, extinguiſhed, put out, as a flame.

Desflammer. To quench, extinguiſh, put out the flame.

Desfleurer. To defloure; See Defleurer.

Desfleuri: m. ie: f. Whoſe flowers are caſt, or ſhed.

Desfleurir. as Defleurir.

Desfoncé: m. ée: f. Knocked out, broken open, as the head of Caske.

Desfoncer vn vaiſſeau. To knocke out the head, or bottome of a veſſell.

Desfonſer. as Desfoncer.

Desfortune: m. Misfortune, miſaduenture, miſhap.

Desfortuné: m. ée: f. Vnluckie, vnhappie, vnfortunate.

Desfouï: m. ie: f. Digged out.

Desfouïr. To dig out.

Desfrais. à frais & desfrais. Defraying, or freeing of charges.

Desfrayé: m. ée: f. Defrayed, diſcharged, whoſe charges are borne.

Desfrayer. To defray, diſcharge, or beare the charges of.

Desfriché. as Defriché.

Desfrichement. as Defrichement.

Desfricher. To grub, ſhrub, rid the ground from rootes, buſhes, &c; Looke Defricher.

Desfroiſſé: m. ée: f. Cruſhed in peeces.

Desfroncé: m. ée: f. Vnwrinckled, ſmoothed; cleered, or cheered vp.

Desfroncer ſon viſage. To looke merrily; to cleere, vncloud, or vnwrinckle his viſage, to ſhew a cheereſull countenance.

Desfrongner. as Desfroncer, or Deſenfrongner.

Desfroquer. as Defroquer.

Se Desfroquer. To renounce, or abandon his Monkiſh habit, as Luther did.

Desfroy: m. A defraying, or bearing of charges.

Desfuite: f. An excuſe, euaſion, ſtarting-hole, ſhift, cauil.

Desfulé: m. ée: f. Vncapped, vnmitred, vncouered, bare headed.

Desfuler. Se Desfuler. To put off his cap, hat, or miter; to be vncouered, or ſtand bare headed before.

Deſgagé: m. ée: f. Vngaged, disingaged, redeemed.

Deſgagement. An vngaging, disingaging; a redeeming, or fetching out of a gage.

Deſgager. To vngage, disingage, redeeme; fetch out a gage, or pledge.

Deſgageur: m. A disingager, or redeemer.

Deſgaine: f. An vnſheathing, or drawing out, of a weapon.

Il y marcha bien d'un' autre deſgaine. He proceeded in a farre quicker faſhion; he went about it with another manner of reſolution.

Deſgainé: m. ée: f. Vnſheathed, drawne out of the ſheath.

Deſgainée, & Deſgainement. as Deſgaine; a drawing forth of the ſcabberd.

Deſgainer. To vnſheath; to draw out of the ſcabberd, or ſheath.

Deſgainnade: f. An vnſheathing, or drawing of weapons; alſo, a bickering wherein edged tooles are vſed; alſo, a Purchaſe made, or Prize taken, by theeues, or pyrats.

Deſgarni: m. ie: f. Diſgarniſhed, vnfurniſhed of.

Deſgarnir. To diſgarniſh, vnfurniſh, depriue of, take away from.

Deſgarnir la terre. A vaſſall to tranſport his moueables, or commodities out of his Lords territorie.

Deſgaroté: m. ée: f. Vnbound, vnlooſſed, vnfettered, vntyed, deliuered from bands; alſo, torne, ragged, tattered; whence;

Vn vallet deſgaroté. A Raggamuffian; and we ſay when the toes, or knees peepe out, they haue broken looſſe, or broken priſon.

Deſgaſté: m. ée: f. as Degaſté.

Deſgaſte-parcs. Fould-rauaging, parke-waſting.

Deſgaſter. To waſt, ſpoyle, make hauocke of, bring loſſe vnto.

Deſgelé: m. ée: f. Thawed; melted, reſolued.

Se Deſgeler. To reſolue, melt, thawe.

Deſgiſter vn lieure. To put a Hare off her forme.

Deſglacé: m. eé: f. Thawed; the ice whereof is melted.

Deſglacer. To thawe, or take the yce of; to make warme.

Deſglouti: m. ie: f. Gulped, or ſwallowed downe.

Deſgloutir. To gulpe, or ſwallow downe.

Deſglué: m. ée: f. Vnglued; looſſed; ſeuered.

Deſgluer. To vnglue, to looſſe, to ſunder, to ſeuer.

Deſgobillé: m. ée: f. Spued, caſt, vomited out; alſo, as Deſgozillé.

Deſgobiller. To ſpue, caſt, or vomit.

Deſgofiller. To rob.

Deſgonder. Looke Degonder.

Deſgorgé: m. ée: f. Diſgorged, ſpued, vomited out; emptied, euacuated, voided; alſo, ſcowred, [illegible]eanſed from greaſe, &c by fulling.

Deſgorgement. A diſgorging, vomiting, ſpuing, caſting; an emptying, euacuating.

Le deſgorgement d'un lac. The mouth, or iſſue of a lake thats nouriſhed by a Spring.

Deſgorger. To diſgorge, vomit, ſpue out, caſt his gorge, vnburthen his ſtomacke; to void, euacuate, emptie; alſo, to ſcoure, or take out greaſe, &c by fulling.

Deſgouler. To vomit, ſpue, caſt, or put out of the throat.

Deſgourdi: m. ie: f. Vnbenummed; ſuppled; made nim- nimble, gentle, pliant; also, dispatched, rid out of the way.

Desgourdir. To vnbenumme; to quicken, reuiue, resolue a thing that is benummed, or stiffe with cold; also, to supple; to make, or wax nimble, gentle, pliant; also, to rid, or dispatch out of the way.

Desgourmé: m. ée: f. Vncurbed.

Desgourmer vn cheval. To vncurbe a horse.

Desgoust: m. as Degout.

Desgousté. Tastlesse, distastfull, without stomacke; nice, daintie; disdainefull, wayward, froward; loathing euerie thing, pleased with nothing; out of the humour with, hauing no mind vnto.

Desgoustement: m. A distasting, loathing, abhorring of meats; also, the strange lusting, or longing of women.

Desgouster. To distast, loath; dislike, abhorre; be out of humor with, haue no mind, nor maw vnto.

Desgouziller. To gulpe, or swill vp, to swallow downe.

Desgozillé. Whose throat is cut.

Desgradé: m. ée: f. Degraded, deposed, put from a place, or degree.

Desgrader. To degrade, or depose; to deprive of, or put from, a place, or degree.

Desgrafé: m. ée: f. Vnclasped, vngrapled, vnhooked, loosed from.

Desgrafer. To vngraple, vnclaspe, vnhooke; looose, or sunder things that are grapled.

Desgraissé: m. ée: f. Vnfattened, made leane; also, cleansed, purged, vngreased, rid of grease; also, rifled.

Desgraisser. To vnfatten; vngrease; rid of fat; purge from grease; make leane; or cleane; also, to rifle.

Terre à desgraisser. Fullers earth.

Desgrapher. as Desgrafer.

Desgravir. To fetch, or throw, downe a climbing thing.

Desgressé; &, Desgresser. as Desgraissé, & Desgraisser.

Desgrossé: m. ée: f. Lessened, subtilized, made small, fine, or lesse grosse; also, polished, refined, made handsome, brought into fashion.

Desgrosser. To lessen, vngreaten, subtilize, make small, fine, or lesse grosse; also, to polish, refine, make handsome, bring into fashion.

Desgrossir. as Desgrosser.

Desguerpir. Looke Deguerpir.

Desguerpissement: m. A quitting, leauing, abandoning, forgoing, giuing ouer of.

Desguerpisseur: m. as Deguerpisseur.

Desguerpy: m. ie: f. Quit, left, abandoned, forgone, yeelded vp, giuen ouer.

Desguilleté: m. ée: f. Vntrussed; or whose hose are depriued of their points.

Desguilletter. To vntrusse, vnty, or vndoe points; also, to take points from.

Desguindé: m. ée: f. Let downe, or let fall, from the height it was lift vp vnto.

Desguinder. To let downe, or let fall (a thing) from the height it was lift vp vnto.

Desguisé: m. ée: f. Disguised; dissembled, fained, counterfeited; adulterated, falsified, sophisticated.

Desguisement: m. A disguising; a dissembling, counterfeiting, fayning; a falsifying, adulterating, sophisticating.

Desguiser. To disguise; to counterfeit, or set a false coat or glosse on; to alter, adulterate, falsifie, sophisticate.

Se desguiser. To faine, dissemble, counterfeit, be double, false, hollow-hearted; say one thing, and meane another.

Desguisseure: f. as Deguisement.

Deshabillé: m. ée: f. Disarrayed, vnclothed.

Deshabiller. To disarray, vncloth, make vnreadie; put, or take, off clothes.

Deshabité. Disinhabited, without inhabitants.

Deshabiter. To disinhabitate, or depriue of inhabitants.

Deshaict: m. Sadnesse, heauinesse, pensiuenesse; disquiet.

Deshait. as Deshaict.

Deshaité: m. ée: f. Sad, grieued, pensiue, heauie-hearted, depriued of ioy, deuoid of gladnesse; also, crasie, sicklie, vnhealthfull.

Tu m'as deshaité. Thou hast turned my ioy into sadnesse.

Deshaitement: m. Vnhealthfulnesse, infirmitie, sadnesse, pensiuenesse.

Deshalé de famine. Pined, withered, worne away through hunger; starued.

Vn cheval deshalé. Out of heart; haled, or tyred out.

Deshanché: m. ée: f. Whose hanches are broken, or put out of ioynt.

Deshancher. To breake, or put out of ioynt, the hips, or hanches.

Deshanté: m. ée: f. Disused, or not haunted as in former times; also, whose handle, or staffe is broken, or taken from it.

Deshanter. To forbeare his haunt; to leaue the companie of; also, to take from the head of a Speare &c the handle, or staffe thereto belonging.

Desharnaché: m. ée: f. Vnharnessed, vntrapped, vnfurnished, or whose furniture is taken off.

Desharnacher. To vnharnesse, or vntrap; to take off the furniture from a horse.

Desheaulmé. Bereaued of his helmet.

Desheaulmer. To take a helmet from the head.

Desherance. Want of heires; or, the inheritance of one that hath left no heire behind him; an Escheat for want of heires.

Droict de des. See Droict.

Desheritance: f. A disseisin.

Desherité. Disseised, disinherited, depriued of an inheritance.

Desheritement: m. A disinheriting, a disseising.

Desheriter. To disseise, disinherite, bereaue of an inheritance.

Deshingandé: m. ée: f. Lift, or throwne, off the hindges; out of frame, out of all order.

Deshingander. To lift, or throw, off the hindges; put out of frame, bring out of all order.

Deshonneste: com. Dishoneſt, leud, bad; foule, impure, filthie, villanous; vnfitting, vnbeseeming, dishonorable.

Deshonnestement. Dishonestly, impurely, vilely, filthily, badly, leudly, naughtily, dishonourably, shamefully.

Deshonnesteté. Dishonestie, leudnesse, villanie, badnesse; filthinesse, impuritie; baseneſſe, vilenesse, vnseemelinesse.

Deshonneur: f. Dishonour, shame, reproach, infamie, disgrace, obloquie, discredit, ignominie.

Deshonoration. A dishonouring, discrediting, disgracing, defaming, traducing.

Deshonoré: m. ée: f. Dishonoured, discredited, disgraced, shamed, traduced, defamed.

Des-

Deshonorement. as Deshonoration.
Deshonorer. To dishonour, discredit, shame; defame, traduce, disgrace.
Deshonté: m. ée: f. Impudent, shameleſſe, brasen-faced.
Deshontément. Impudently, shamefully, shameleſly.
Deshouſé. Whoſe boots are pulled off.
Deshouſer. To plucke off boots.
Deshouſſé: m. ée: f. Whoſe footcloth is taken off.
Deshouſſer vne mule. To take off the footcloth from a Mule.
Desia. Alreadie.
Des-ja. So farre; or, thus farre.
Desjanté: m. ée: f. Vnſtraked, as a wheele.
Desjanter vne roue. To vnſtrake a wheele, to pull the ſtrakes from about it.
Deſiccatif: m. iue: f. Deſiccatiue; of power, or propertie to dry vp.
Deſiccation. A drying vp.
Deſidence: f. Idleneſſe, nonreſidencie.
Deſidieux: m. euſe: f. Idle, lazie, lither, ſlouthfull.
Desjeuné: m. ée: f. Whoſe faſt is broken (in a morning.)
Il a eſté desjeuné de ce nouveau ſtyle. He hath (to his coſt) learnt what theſe new tearmes meane.
Desjeuner. See Desjuner.
Deſignatif: m. iue: f. Deſignatiue, denotatiue; appointing; ſhewing, declaring.
Deſigné: m. ée: f. Denoted, ſignified, ſhewed by ſignes, or tokens; alſo, deſigned, preſcribed, appointed.
Deſigner. To denote, ſignifie, or ſhew by a marke, or token; alſo, to deſigne, preſcribe, appoint; as, Deſigner les limites de, &c.
Deſinence: f. A deſinence, ending, cloſing; an end, or cloſe.
Deſing: m. A deſigne, purpoſe, proiect, priuat intention, or determination.
Desintereſſé: m. ée: f. Diſcharged from; or, that hath forgone, or loſt, all intereſt in.
Desintereſſer. To diſcharge, or ſaue harmeleſſe; to rid from all intereſt in.
Desjoinct: m. cte: f. Diſioyned; parted, ſeuered, ſeperated, ſundered, diuided, diſunited, vncoupled.
Desjoindre. To diſioyne, diſunite, part, vncouple, diuide, ſeperate, ſeuer, ſunder.
Desjoingnement: m. A diſioyning, diſuniting, parting, ſeperation, diuiſion, ſeuering, ſundering.
Desiouſſé: m. ée: f. Vnhuſked.
Deſir: m. Deſire; a coueting of; a wiſh, wiſhing, or longing for; a fancie, affection, or appetite, vnto; a luſting after.
Il commence bien à mourir qui abandonne ſon deſir: Prov. He that leaues to deſire begins to dy.
Deſirable: com. Deſirable; fit, or worthie to be wiſhed for.
Deſirant. Deſiring; coueting, affecting, wiſhing for, luſting after.
Deſiré: m. ée: f. Deſired, coueted, wiſhed, or longed for; affected, fancied, luſted after.
Paſques long temps deſirées ſont en vn iour toſt paſſées: Pro. (So that which was expected long is enioyed but little.)
Deſirer. To deſire; couet, wiſh, or long for; to fancie, affect; require; luſt after.
Deſireux: m. euſe: f. Deſirous, full of deſire.
Deſiſté: m. ée: f. Deſiſted, ceaſed, forborne, left off, giuen ouer.

Deſiſtement: m. A deſiſting, ceaſing, forbearing, leauing off, giuing ouer.
Deſiſter. To deſiſt, ceaſe, forbeare, leaue off, giue ouer.
Desjuché: m. Vnrouſted; taken downe (as a bird) from the rouſt whereon it reſted.
Desjucher vn oyſeau. To vnrouſt, or take downe a bird from his rouſt, or pearch where he reſteth.
Desjuné: m. as Desjuner: m.
Desjuné: m. ée: f. That hath broken his faſt; Looke Desjeuné.
Desjuner: m. A breakfaſt, a mornings repaſt.
Desjuner de chaſſeur. A large breakfaſt, meale, repaſt.
Desjuner. To breake faſt in the morning.
Leuer matin n'eſt pas heur; mais desjuner eſt le plus ſeur: Prov. There is more ſafetie in eating, then happineſſe in riſing, early a mornings.
Deſlabré: m. ée: f. Torne, ragged, full of rags; alſo, all vnbraced, or looſely vntruſſed.
Deſlabrer. To teare, tatter, make ragged, or make rags of; alſo, to vnbrace.
Deſlacé: m. ée: f. Vntyed, vnlaced, as a woman.
Deſlacer. To vnlace; to vnty.
Deſlaché: m. ée: f. Diſcharged; looſened; let goe, let fly.
Deſlacher. To diſcharge, as a Gunne, or Croſſe-bow; to let goe, let fly, let looſe.
Deſlaicté: m. ée: f. Milked; alſo, weaned.
Deſlaicter. To milke, or draw the milke from; alſo, to weane.
Deſlainé: m. ée: f. Fleeced; whoſe wooll is pouled, or pulled off.
Deſlainer. To fleece; poule, pill; deſpoyle of ſubſtance.
Deſlaitté. as Deſlaicté.
Deſlaitter. To weane; to take from the damme, or nurſe; or, as Deſlaicter.
Deſlaſché: m. ée: f. Looſed, let fly.
Deſlaſcher. To looſe, or let fly.
Deſlaſſé: m. ée: f. Eaſed, refreſhed, vnwearied.
Deſlaſſer. To refreſh; to eaſe after much trauell; to rid from wearineſſe, or weariſome incumbrances.
Deſlaté: m. ée: f. Vnlathed.
Deſlater. To vnlath; to take, or pull, away lathes.
Deſlavé: m. ée: f. Waſhed away.
Deſlavement. A waſhing away; an inundation.
Deſlaver. To waſh away.
Deſlayé: m. ée: f. Supled, ſoftened, allayed; ſoaked, ſteeped.
Deſlayer. To ſupple, ſoften, allay; ſoake, ſteepe.
Deſléement. A ſoftening, allaying, ſuppling; ſoaking, ſteeping.
Deſléer. as Deſlayer.
Deſlié: m. ée: f. Vnbound, vnfettered, vndone, vntyed, at libertie, looſe, free.
Deſlier. To vnlooſe, vntye, vnbind, vndoe; to deliuer, to free, to rid from.
On euſt dit qu'il n'euſt ſceu deſlier vne mouſche. One would haue thought that butter would not haue melted in his mouth.
Desli-ſoing: m. An Epithete of Bacchus, or Wine, which deliuers men from care, penſiueneſſe, or thought-taking.
Deſlogé: m. ée: f. Diſlodged; remoued, parted, or departed from an vſuall lodging.
Deſlogement: m. A diſlodging, remouing, ſhifting of an ordinarie lodging; a ſitting, parting, or departure ture from an accuſtomed abode.

Deſlogement de vie. A dying, deceaſing, departing.

Deſloger. To diſlodge, remoue; ſhift, flit, part, or depart from an accuſtomed lodging.

Se deſloger. The ſame.

Faire deſloger de. To vnneſtle; to thruſt, or driue, out of; to diſpoſſeſſe, or diſſeiſe of.

Deſloqueté: m. ée: f. Ragged, torne, tattered.

Deſloqueter. To teare vnto rags, or tatters; to make clouts of.

Deſloué: m. ée: f. Diſpraiſed; diſallowed, reproued; alſo, looſſened, or put out of it place.

Deſlouër. To diſpraiſe, diſallow, blame, reprooue; alſo, to looſſen, or put out of it place.

Deſlouëure: f. A looſſing, mouing, or putting of a thing out of it right place.

Deſloyal: m. ale: f. Diſloyall, vnfaithfull, truſtleſſe, trecherous, falſe, traiterous.

Deſloyalement. Diſloyally, vnfaithfully, falſely, trecherouſly.

Deſloyauté: f. Diſloyaltie, trecherie, falſehood, faithleſneſſe, vntruth, vnfaithfulneſſe, infidelitie.

Deſmaché: m. ée: f. Vnchawed; alſo, blurted out.

Deſmacher. To vnchaw; alſo, to blurt out, by force, a ſecret, and concealed matter; or, as Demacquer.

Deſmaçonné: m. ée: f. Pulled downe, or taken aſunder, as ſtone-worke.

Deſmaçonner. To vndoe, take aſunder, pull downe, ſtone-worke.

Deſmaillé: m. ée: f. Vnmailed; vnlinked; vndone, cut in peeces, hacked vnto pecces, as a coat of maile.

Deſmailler. To vnlinke, vndoe, cut in peeces, or hacke to peeces, a coat of maile.

Deſmailloté: m. ée: f. Vnſwathed, vnſwadled.

Deſmaillotement: m. An vnſwadling, or vnſwathing.

Deſmailloter. To vnſwadle, or vnſwath; to looſſe, or take, a child out of the ſwathing bands.

Deſmaillure: f. An vnmailing; an vndoing, tearing, or cutting, as of maile, in peeces.

Deſmaintenant. Preſently, euen now; from henceforth.

Deſmaiſonné: m. ée: f. Turned out of his houſe; thruſt out of his owne dores; diſſeiſed, or diſpoſſeſſed of his owne dwelling.

Deſmaiſonner. To diſpoſſeſſe, or diſſeiſe of his owne dwelling, to driue out of houſe and harbour; to turne out of his owne dores.

Deſmanché: m. ée: f. Looſſe, diſorderlie, vnhelued, off the hindges.

Deſmanchement: m. An vnhafting; a flying out of it haft, or helue; hence, any out-laſhing, or vnrulie, diſordinate, or diſobedient, pranke.

Deſmancher. To vnhelue, or take off the helue, or haft from an axe, &c; alſo, to looſſen, diſorder, put out of frame; turne out of it right place.

Deſmandibulé: m. ée: f. Vniawed; whoſe iawes are burſt, or put out of ioynt.

Deſmandibuler. To breake, or vnioynt the iawes of.

Deſmantelé: m. ée: f. Diſmanteled.

Deſmanteler. as Deſmanteller.

Deſmantellement: m. A diſmantling; razing, or beating downe the wals of a towne.

Deſmanteller. To take a mans cloake off his backe; alſo, to diſmantle, raze, or beat downe the walls of a fortreſſe.

Deſmarche: f. A backe ſtep; a ſtepping, or ſtirring backward; a ſetting of one foot behind the other; alſo, a ſtepping aſide, a trauerſing of ground; and (more generally, and moſt vſually) any pace, gate, or going; alſo, ward, fence, or the lying of the bodie in fencing; and the poſture, or carriage thereof in any motion, or action whatſoeuer.

Deſmarche de cordier. A ſtepping, or going backward.

Deſmarché: m. ée: f. Stepped backe, remoued backward; that hath loſt ground; thats gone, or put, from the place he held; thats recoyled, thats retired.

Deſmarcher. To ſtep, or goe, backe; to plucke, twitch, or bring backe a ſtep; to remoue a foot backward; to recoyle, retire, ſtirre from, giue backe, looſe ground.

Deſmarer. To vnmoore; or, as Demarer.

Deſmarié: m. ée: f. Diuorced, vnmarried againe.

Deſmarier. To diuorce, vnwed, or vnmarrie.

Deſmarquer. To take away the marke from; or, to put from his marke.

Deſmarrer. as Demarer.

Deſmaſquer. To vnmaske, diſcouer, pull, or take off his maske.

Deſmelancolié: m. ée: f. Vnmelancholized, rid of melancholie.

Deſmelancolier. To rid of melancholie, take away ſadneſſe; gladden, reuiue, cheere vp; comfort, ſolace.

Deſmembré: m. ée: f. Diſmembred, peecemealed, rent, or torne from.

Deſmembrement: m. A tearing, diſmembring, rending from, or in peeces.

Deſmembrer. To diſmember, peecemeale; teare, maugle, cut, rend from, or in peeces; to make hauocke of.

Deſmembrer ſon fief. To ſell, alien, paſſe away, or part with, a part thereof.

Deſmenacer. To vnthreaten, to reuoke a threat.

Deſmenagé: m. ée: f. Scattered as a familie, remooued as a houſehold, broken vp as a houſe; alſo, tranſported, or ſhifted, as houſehold-ſtuffe, from one lodging to another.

Deſmenagement: m. A diſſoluing, or ſcattering of a familie, a breaking vp of houſe.

Deſmenager. To giue vp houſe, to diſſolue, or ſcatter his familie, to remoue houſehold; alſo, to tranſport houſehold-ſtuffe out of one lodging into another.

Deſmenter. See Dementer.

Deſmenti: m. The Ly (giuen, or taken;) alſo, a little Stiletto, or ſharpe-pointed dagger.

Deſmenti: m. ie: f. Digreſſed, or derogated from; proued naught, grown falſe; fayling in word, or of expectation; alſo, by whom, or to whom the Ly is giuen.

En cette maiſon il n' y a rien de deſmenti. This houſe is not a whit ſunke, ſhrunke, or fallen into decay.

Deſmentir. To giue the Ly vnto; alſo, to fayle; digreſſe, or derogate from; proue naught, or falſe; doe contrarie to expectation.

Se Deſmentir. Looke Se Dementir.

Vn bon arbre ne deſmentira point ſon fruict en ſa ſaiſon. A good tree will not deny it fruit, or will not fayle to yeeld it fruit, in due ſeaſon.

La maiſon deſment. The houſe begins to faile, ſhrink, ſinke, fall into decay.

Deſmenture: f. A fayling, decaying, ſhrinking, ſinking.

Deſmeslé: m. ée: f. Looſed, opened, cleered, vnpeſtered, diſintricated, diſintangled; alſo, dealt in, handled, managed.

Deſmeslement: m. A looſſing, opening, cleering, vnpeſtering, diſintricating, diſintangling; alſo, a handling, managing, diſpatching of, dealing in, buſineſſes.

Deſ-

Deſmeſler. To looſſe,open,cleere,vnpeſter,disintricate, reſolue,disintangle; alſo,to handle,manage; diſpatch; and hence;

Se deſmeſler de. To determine, finiſh,diſpatch; or, to rid his hands, get cleere of, vnwind himſelfe out of.

Vne choſe à deſmeſler. A matter to deale in,a courſe to meddle with,a thing to ſcuffle for.

Deſmeſnager. as Deſmenager.

Deſmeſuré: m. ée: f. Huge, vnmeaſurable, immenſe, infinite,exceeding great; enormous,exceſſiue, outragious,vnſatiable,vnreaſonable;moſt vnrulie,vnbridled, lauiſh,diſordered,immoderate.

Deſmeſurément: m. A hugeneſſe, immenſeneſſe, vnmeaſurableneſſe, exceeding greatneſſe; alſo, outragiouſneſſe,enormitie,vnſatiableneſſe,vnreaſonableneſſe, extreame diſorder,exceſſiue vnrulineſſe.

Deſmeſurément. Hugely,immenſly, vnmeaſurably, exceeding greatly; outragiouſly, vnſatiably, exceſſiuely, moſt vnreaſonably; the moſt out of ſquare, out of rule, out of order that may be.

Deſmettre. To diſplace,or put out of his right place,as a member out of ioynt; alſo,to diſmiſſe,let goe,lay down; alſo,to depoſe.

Se deſmettre du bien qu'on nous a fait. To return, ſend,or giue backe the good turne one hath done vs.

Se deſmettre d'un'entrepriſe. To abandon, leaue off,deſiſt from,an enterpriſe.

Se deſmettre d'un'office. To reſigne,ſurrender,giue ouer,an office.

Deſmeu: m. euë: f. Remoued,altered,put off; deſiſting from.

Deſmeublé: m. ée: f. Diſfurniſhed, or depriued of moueables.

Deſmeubler. To vnfurniſh,or depriue of moueables; to take away the houſhold-ſtuffe from a place.

Deſmis: m. iſe: f. Diſplaced,depoſed; miſplaced,put out of due place; alſo,diſmiſſed,reſigned,let goe,left off,giuen ouer; alſo,ſubmitted,humbled,ſubmiſſiue.

Deſmiſſion: f. A demiſſion, depoſition; a diſplacing, miſplacing; a reſignation; diſmiſſing, forgoing.

Deſmiſſion de foy. An acknowledgement of tenure made by the tenant vnto his Land-lord; a ſubmiſſion, or humbling of himſelfe.

Deſmoelé: m. eé: f. Emptied,or depriued of marrow; weakened.

Deſmoeler. To emptie, or depriue of marrow; hence, alſo,to weaken.

Deſmonté: m. ée: f. Diſmounted; taken,or liſt off; caſt, or throwne downe.

Deſmonter. To diſmount; to take,or caſt,or liſt, off; alſo,to diſcend,or goe downeward.

Deſmonter vn canon. To diſmount,or throw downe a Canon with counter-batterie; alſo, to take it off the carriages.

Deſmonter vn'eſpee. To take it out of the hilts.

Deſmonter vn homme. To vnhorſe a man.

Deſmonter vne navire. To diſarme a ſhip,to deſpoile her of all her munition,and furniture.

Deſmorché. Without powder in his touch-hole: ¶Rab.

Deſmordre. To diſtaſt; to part from; to forgoe, giue ouer,looſe,let go his hold.

Deſmouvoir. To remeue, diſplace, driue backe, put from.

Se deſmouvoir de. To decline, ſwarue,change,bee carried from.

Deſmuni: m. ie: f. Vnfurniſhed, diſgarniſhed, vnprouided,left bare of.

Deſmunir. To vnfurniſh,diſgarniſh, leaue bare, or vnprouided of.

Deſnaturé: m. ée: f. Vnnaturall, churliſh,vnkind, without naturall affection; alſo,weakened through the leſſening,or loſſe of nature; alſo, vnnaturalized vpon his owne petition, or by renouncing publickly, and to that end,his naturall Prince,and country.

Deſnaturer. To make vnnaturall; to weaken in nature; to renounce his naturall Prince, or Country, to th'end he may liue where,and vnder whom,he liſt.

Deſnervé: m. ée: f. Bereaued of ſinewes, or of ſtrength.

Deſnerver. To bereaue of ſinewes,or ſtrength; to weaken,enfeeble,debilitate.

Deſni: m. A nay,denyall,denying.

Deſniaiſé: m. ée: f. That hath beene extreamely cheated,or gulled; alſo,purged of the foole,that hath ſeene the Lyons; made wiſe,taught wit,by coſtlie experience, or by many tricks put vpon him.

Deſniaiſer. To couſen,cheat, gull of; alſo,to purge of the foole; to make wiſe,or teach wit by often deceiuing, or putting many tricks vpon.

Se Deſniaiſer; or Deſniaiſer (without ſe.) To put off childiſhneſſe, learne wit, gaine experience, by hauing beene often cheated,or much gulled.

Deſniaſeur: m. A couſener, guller, cheater, connycatcher; or, one that makes th' ignorant grow cunning by couſening them.

Deſniché: m. ée: f. Vnneaſted, or vnneaſtled; driuen, chaſed,or plucked out of a neaſt,hole,or hold.

Deſnicher. To vnneaſtle; to driue, chaſe, or plucke out of a neaſt,hole,or hold.

Deſnigration: f. A defaming,ſlaundering,diſcrediting; a blemiſhing,or blotting the good name of.

Deſnigré: m. ée: f. Defamed,traduced,reproached, diſcredited,whoſe good name is foulely ſtained, or blemiſhed.

Deſnigrement: m. as Deſnigration.

Deſnigrer. To defame,traduce,reproach,diſcredit, blemiſh,or blot the good name of.

Deſnoüé: m. ée: f. Looſſed,diſſolued,vnknit,vnbound; vnfolded,reſolued; out of ioynt.

Deſnouëment: m. An vntying,vnknitting,vnbinding (of knots;) a putting out of ioynt.

Deſnouër. To vnknit,vnbind,vnty; diſſolue,reſolue; to explicate,manifeſt,vnfould.

Se Deſnouër quelque membre. To looſſe the bone thereof,or put it out of ioynt.

Deſnoüeure: f. as Deſnouëment; alſo, a part, or member of the bodie, thats out of ioynt.

Deſnué: m. ée: f. Bared,ſtripped; bereaued,depriued; voided,or deuoid of; cleane without.

Vn enfant deſnué. Bared of fleſh, that hath nought but skin and bone left on it.

Deſnuër. To bare, ſtrip,turne naked, bereaue, depriue, or void of.

Deſobeïr. To diſobey,reſiſt authoritie; be ſtubborne, reſtie, vnrulie.

Deſobeïſſance: f. Diſobedience, ſtubbornneſſe,headineſſe,wilfulneſſe,reſtineſſe,vnruline ſſe.

Deſobeïſſant. Diſobedient; ſtubborne, vnrulie, reſtie, ſelf-willed; ſullen; hard, ſtiff,vnpliant.

Deſobligé: m. ée: f. Diſobliged; diſcharged, from all obligation, or beholdingneſſe.

Deſobliger. To diſoblige; to releaſe, or diſcharge of a bond, to acquit of an obligation.

Deſolation: f. Deſolation, deuaſtation, extreame ſolitarineſſe, or lonelineſſe; vtter ruine,or deſtruction.

Desolé: m. ée: f. Desolate, deavelie, desart; made solitarie; abandoned of all comfort, or companie.

Desolément: m. A desolating, extreame wasting, making desart, or solitarie; a ruining, vtter destroying.

Desolément. Desolately, solitarily; without solace, comfort, or companie.

Desoler. To desolate; make lonelie, solitarie, deavelie, or desart; to deuast, wast extreamely, ruine vterly.

Desoppilé: m. ée: f. Vnstopped, set open.

Desoppiler. To vnstop, vnshut, or set open.

Desordonnance: f. Disarray, disorder, breach of order, confusion.

Desordonné: m. ée: f. Disorderlie, disordinate, vnrulie, disordered, outragious, vnbridled, out of all good compasse.

Desordonnément. Disorderly, disordinately, disorderedly, vnrulily, outragiously, without meane, without measure, without any manner of order.

Desordre: m. Disorder, confusion, vnrulinesse, licentiousnesse, excesse.

Desoreres. From hence forth.

Desormais. Yet; for all that; also, from henceforth.

Desossé: m. ée: f. Vnboned; whose bones are taken out.

Desosser. To take out, or away, the bones from; to depriue of bones.

Desourat. Deflowred before her time. ¶Langued.

Desourdi: m. ie: f. Vnwouen; vnwound; done, and vndone.

Desourdir. To vnweaue; vnwind; to doe, and vndoe, or vndoe what is alreadie done.

Despaïsé: m. ée: f. Banished, or driuen out of his naturall countrey; also, growne courtlie, or hauing left rude countrey fashions.

Despaïsement: m. The abandoning of, or driuing one out of, his naturall countrey; also, a leauing of rude countrey fashions.

Despaïser. To driue, or send out of his naturall country; See Depaïser.

Despaistre. To feed, graze, pasture.

Despampé: m. ée: f. Bared, as a Vine, of leaues.

Despamper. To vnleafe, bare of leaues, pull the leaues off a Vine &c.

La vigne, ou la Rose, se despampe. Sheeds her leaues, or leauie branches.

Despamprer. as Despamper.

Despaqueté: m. ée: f. Vnpacked; broken open as a packe, or packet.

Despaqueter. To vnpacke; to rifle, open, or breake up a packet.

Desparagé: m. ée: f. Disparaged.

Desparager. To disparage; to offer vnto, or impose on, a man vnfit, or vnworthie conditions.

Departement. as Departement.

Despartir. Looke Departir.

Se despartir. To be diuided; to part, or goe asunder.

Desparty. as Departi.

Despecé: m. ée: f. Dismembred, peecemealed, cut in peeces; pulled, plucked, rent, or torne asunder.

Despecé à grands coups d'injures. Extreamely reuiled, cruelly ratled, horribly railed on.

Despecement: m. A dismembring, peecemealing, or cutting in peeces; a pulling, breaking, rending, or tearing asunder.

Despecer. To dismember, peecemeale, cut in peeces, breake into parcels; pull, plucke, rend, or teare asunder.

Despecer son fief. as Desmembrer son fief.

Despeinct: m. cte: f. Vnpainted; whose painting is defaced, luster decayed, colours worne, or blotted, out; also, as Depeinct.

Despeindre. To vnpaint; to deface, blemish, raze, blot, or put out, things painted.

Despeint. as Despeinct.

Despenaillé: m. ée: f. Ragged, torne, tattered; full of clouts, rags, tatters.

Despence: f. A larder, storehouse, gardemanger; also, bouschold wine; or, small wine mingled with water.

Despencé: m. ée: f. Dispended, expended, spent; bestowed, or disposed of.

Despencer. To dispend, spend, expend; bestow, dispose of.

Despencerie: f. A Spence, Larder, Storehouse, for victuals.

Despendance: f. A dependancie; a relying, or hanging on.

Despendeur: m. A spender, lauisher, spend-thrift, wast-good, riotous or prodigall fellow.

Despendeux: m. euse: f. Spendfull, wastfull, riotous, lauish, prodigall, expensiue.

Despendre: m. (Substantiuely) spending, expence; as in this Prouerbe:

Au despendre gist le profit. There's gaine made by (some) spending; or, (not much vnlike our) Euer spare and euer bare; Looke Profit.

Despendre. To dispend, spend, expend, disburse; bestow, imploy, lay out vpon; also, as Dependre.

Despendre tout. To wast, consume, or squander all away.

Despendre trop. To prodigalize it, lauish, or lash out.

Autant despend chiche que large: Prov. Looke Chiche.

Prou despendre, & peu gaigner saccage le mesnager: Pro. Lauish expence and little gaine put a housekeeper to much paine.

Ce que chiche espargne large despend: Pro. That which the wretch doth spare the waster spends.

Qui bien gaigne, & bien despend, ne luy faut bourse à mettre argent: &, Qui plus despend qu'il ne pourchasse, il ne luy faut pas de besace: Pro. He that spends all he gets, or, prodigall, wasts any more, needs not a purse with the rich (but may need a scrip with the poore.)

Qui plus qu'il n'a vaillant despend, il fait la corde à quoy se pend: Pro. He that spendeth aboue his abilitie, may at length hang himselfe with great agilitie.

Trop tard se repend qui tout despend: Prov. When all's consum'd repentance comes too late; or, repentance is neuer in season with one thats euer an vnthrift.

Despendu: m. uë: f. Dispended, spent, expended; bestowed, imployed, layed out vpon; also, prodigalized, lauished, lasht out; wasted, consumed, squandered away.

Despens: m. Expence, cost, charge; or, expences, disbursements, layings out, costs, and charges.

Maison de despens. Looke Maison.

Despensaire: m. as Dispensaire.

Despense: f. Charge, cost, expence; or, an expending, dispending, or laying out of money; also, as Despence.

Despensé: m. ée: f. Dispended, spent, expended; disposed of.

Despenser. To dispend, spend, expend; bestow, dispose of.

Despensier: m. A spender, waster, prodigall, spend-thrift, wast-good; also, a cater, or clarke of a Kitchin.

Des-

Deſpenſier: m. ere: f. Spending, expenſiue, ſpendfull, prodigall, vnthriftie, waſtfull; exceſſiue in, lauiſh of, expence.

Deſpenſiere: f. as Deſpencerie; alſo, a woman cater, keeper, or diſpoſer of victuals.

Deſperché: m. ée: f. Vnpearched; throwne, beaten, or fetched, off a pearch.

Deſpercher. To vnpearch; to throw, beat, or fetch, off a pearch.

Deſperonné: m. ée: f. Without ſpurres.

Desperonner. To depriue of ſpurres.

Desperſuadé: m. ée: f. Diſſuaded.

Desperſuader. To diſſuade.

Despeſche: f. A diſpatch, haſt, riddance; diſcharge.

Despeſché: m. ée: f. Dispatched, haſtened, rid, ſent away quickly; alſo, deliuered, freed, diſcharged.

Deſpeſcher. To haſten, dispatch, rid, ſend away quickly; to take a ſpeedie courſe with, make a ſpeedie end of; alſo, to deliuer, free, diſcharge; Looke Depeſcher.

Deſpeſcher au petit point. To canuaſſe throughly, curry ſoundly, take vp for halting.

Deſpeſſi: m. ie: f. Vnthickened, or made thinne; alſo, clarified.

Deſpeſſir. To vnthicken, or make thinne; alſo, to clarifie.

Despeſtré: m. ée: f. Vnpeſtered, cleered, disintangled; vnwound, vnfoulded, rid out of.

Deſpeſtrer. To vnpeſter, disintangle; vnfould, vnwind, cleere, deliuer, rid out of.

Deſpeuplé: m. ée: f. Dispeopled, or vnpeopled, disinhabited.

Deſpeupler. To dispeople, or vnpeople; to disinhabite.

Despié. as Depié.

Despieça. Long agoe.

Despiecé, Despiecement, & Despiecer; Looke Deſpecé, Deſpecement, & Deſpecer.

Deſpit: m. Deſpight, ſpight, anger, ſpleene, ſtomacke, vexation.

Il n'eſt ſi grand deſpit que de pauvre orgueilleux: Prov. There's no despight to that of a proud beggar.

Deſpitant. Deſpighting, ſpighting; angring, vexing, chafing.

Deſpité: m. ée: f. Angrie, vexed, fuming, chafing, ſnuffing at; offended, moodie, much moued.

Deſpiter. To deſpight, ſpight, or doe a thing in ſpight of.

Se deſpiter. To be exceeding angrie; to fret, fume, chafe, ſtomacke extreamely; to take in great ſcorne, dudgeon, or ſnuffe.

Deſpiteuſement. Deſpightfully, moſt angrily, moodily; maliciouſly; with great ſpleene, or ſpight.

Deſpiteux: m. euſe: f. Teſtie, fumiſh, deſpightfull, ſtomackfull, exceeding angrie, or moodie; full of ſpleene, or ſpight.

Deſpitonné: m. ée: f. Wayward; coy, ſqueamiſh.

Desplacé: m. ée: f. Displaced, or put from his place.

Deſplacer. To diſplace; to put from a place; alſo, to part, or depart from a place.

Fol ſe doit nommer en face qui bien aſſis ſe deſplace: Prov. Looke Fol.

Deſplaire. To diſpleaſe, diſlike, offend, anger, vex, grieue.

Qu'il ne vous deſplaiſe. By your leaue, with your fauour, on good tearmes be it.

Deſplaiſance: f. Greeſe, vnpleaſantneſſe, anguiſh, heauineſſe; alſo, a diſpleaſure, or ill turne; as Deſplaiſir.

Deſplaiſant. Diſpleaſing, offenſiue, troubleſome, vnpleaſant, irkeſome.

Eſtre deſplaiſant de. To take in ill part, or, not to be well contented with.

Deſplaiſir: m. A diſpleaſure, offence, bad office, ill turn; affront, wrong, iniurie; trouble; preiudice.

Desplanché: m. ée: f. Vnfloored, or, whoſe floore is (taken vp.

Deſplancher. To take, or pull vp the (boorded) floore of.

Deſplanté: m. ée: f. Displanted, plucked vp by the root; vnplanted, vnſet, remoued.

Deſplanter. To displant, or plucke vp by the root; to vnplant, vnſet, remoue.

Deſplié: m. ée: f. Diſplayed, vnplaited, vnfoulded; manifeſted, made plaine, layed open, ſpread abroad.

Deſpliement: m. An vnfoulding; diſplaying, vnplaiting; plaining; manifeſting; opening, diſcouering.

Deſpliement des jambes. The nimbleneſſe of the legges; or, a nimble beſtirring, or gathering vp thereof.

Deſplier. To diſplay, vnplait, vnfould; manifeſt, make plaine, lay open, ſpread abroad.

Deſplier les jambes. To runne lightly, nimbly, to beſtirre, or gather vp, his legges.

Deſpliſſé: m. ée: f. Vnfoulded, vnplaited, vnwrinckled.

Deſpliſſer. To vnfould, vnplait; vnwrinkle, vncrumple; ſmooth, plaine; Looke Deplicer.

Deſpliſſure: f. An vnfoulding, vnplaiting, vnwrinckling, vncrumpling; a ſmoothing, plaining, making plaine.

Deſplorable: com. Lamentable, deploreable; remedileſſe, deſperate, paſt all recouerie.

Desploré. See Deploré.

Desployé: m. ée: f. Diſplayed, opened, vnfoulded, ſpred abroad.

A voile deſployée. With might and maine; as faſt, or as much, as one can.

Deſployer. as Deſplier; to vnfould, or lay open vnto view, as a Marchant his wares, or a pedler his packe, in a Market.

Deſplumation. Looke Deplumation.

Desplumé: m. ée: f. Plumed, or bereft of feathers.

Deſplumer. To plume, or depriue of feathers.

Despluvié. Toicts despluviez, (C'eſt à dire, faicts en dos d'Ane.) Looke vnder Dos.

Deſpoché: m. ée: f. Vnpouched, or, drawne out of a pouch.

Deſpocher. To vnpouch, draw out of a pouch, or pocket.

Despoiſſé: m. ée: f. Vnpitched.

Despoiſſer. To vnpitch, or get the pitch from.

Despoſſedé: m. ée: f. Diſpoſſeſſed; put out of poſſeſſion.

Deſpoſſeder. To diſpoſſeſſe, to put out of poſſeſſion.

Deſpote: m. A Deſpote; the chiefe, or ſoueraigne Lord of a Countrey.

Deſpouille: f. A bootie, prey, ſpoyle, pillage taken from enemies; alſo, the skin, fell, or hide of a beaſt; alſo, a Tiring-houſe in Tenis-Courts; the roome wherein ſuch as intend to play may attire themſelues for the purpoſe.

La deſpouille d'arbres. Their fruit, leaues, barke, boughes.

Les deſpouilles de baſtimens. All kind of rubbiſh.

Les deſpouilles de iardins. Weedes; withered, or dead hearbes; refuſe, or out-caſt ſtaulkes, leaues, &c.

La deſpouille de terres. Corne, hay; all kind of fruits comming in by Husbandrie; or of themſelues yeelded by, or otherwiſe gotten within, grounds.

La deſpouille de vignes. Grapes.

Despouillé: m. ée: f. Stript, diſarrayed, vnclothed; deſpoyled, depriued, vnfurniſhed of; robbed, pilled, polled; alſo, flayed, mued, vncoated.

Deſpouille-autels. Sacrilegious, altar-ſpoyling, church-deſpoyling.

Despouillement. A deſpoyling, taking off, or away; a ſtripping, diſarraying; depriuing, or vnfurniſhing of; a flaying; a muing, a caſting of the skin, or coat.

Deſpouiller. To ſtrip, vncloth, diſarray; to deſpoyle, take away, vnfurniſh, depriue, or bare of; to rob, pill, pole, ſpoyle; alſo, to flay, or take the skin off.

Deſpouiller vn cerf; to breake vp a Deere.

Se Deſpouiller. To vncloth himſelfe; to mue himſelfe; to caſt his coat, or skin.

Se deſpouiller avant que ſe coucher; to make his heires, in his life time, abſolute Maiſters of all he hath.

On ne peut deſpouiller vn homme nud: Prov. Of a naked man who can haue clothes? Where there is nothing, the King looſes his rights.

Deſpoulſer. To expulſe, or thruſt out of.

Despourpré: m. ée: f. Whoſe (purple) hue is loſt, altered, or decayed.

Se Deſpourprer. To looſe it purple hue.

Despourveu. as Deſprouveu; Vnprouided.

Despravation. A corrupting, deprauing, marring; a crooking, wrying, ſpoyling.

Deſpravé: m. ée: f. Depraued, marred, corrupted, ſpoyled.

Deſpraver. To deprane, corrupt, viciate, ſpoyle, marre; make crooked, wreſt, wry to bad purpoſes.

Deſprendre. To looſſe from, to let his hold goe.

Desprier. To vnpray, diſintreat; reuoke a ſuit, recall prayers, deſire to the contrary.

Deſpris: m. Diſeſteeme, deſpiſall, neglect, little regard, ſmall reſpect, contempt, or diſdaine of.

Deſpris de Dieu. Impietie, wickedneſſe, vngraciouſneſſe, extreame vngodlineſſe.

Deſpriſable: com. Vile, baſe, deſpiſeable, contemptible.

Deſpriſé: m. ée: f. Diſeſteemed, neglected, made light of, priſed verie low; deſpiſed, diſdained, contemned; alſo, diſpraiſed, diſcommended, blamed, condemned.

Deſpriſement: m. A diſeſteeming, neglecting, low-priſing; deſpiſing, diſdaining, contemning; diſpraiſing, blaming, condemning.

Deſpriſer. To diſeſteeme, vilipend, neglect, make light of, ſet naught by, prize at a low rate; to deſpiſe, contemne, diſdaine; alſo, to blame, condemne, diſpraiſe, diſcommend.

Deſpriſereſſe: f. A diſeſteemereſſe, deſpiſereſſe, or diſpraiſereſſe of; a ſtornefull, or diſdainefull, woman.

Deſpriſeur: m. A diſeſteemer, neglecter, deſpiſer, or diſpraiſer of.

Deſpriſonné: m. ée: f. Diſimpriſoned; deliuered from, got out of, priſon; freed, ſet at libertie.

Deſpriſonner. To vnpriſon, or diſimpriſon; to deliuer from, to get, or take, out of priſon; to free; to ſet at libertie.

Deſprouveu: m. euë: f. Vnprouided, vnfurniſhed; deuoid of, without.

A deſprouveu. At vnawares; without thinking of, or looking for; or, vnthought on, vnlooked for; napping, as Moſſe tooke his Male.

Deſpucelé: m. ée: f. Depucelated, deflowred, vnmaidened; depriued of, or that hath loſt, her maidenhead.

Eſpée deſpucelée. That hath beene imbrued; that hath beene dipped in, or ſeaſoned with, bloud; that hath drawne bloud.

Deſpuceler. To depucelate, deflowre, take the maidenhead of, depriue of her maidenhead.

Deſpucellage: m. Depucelage; a deflowring.

Despucellement: m. A depucelating, or deflowring; the taking of a maidenhead.

Deſpumé: m. ée: f. Scummed; clarified; whoſe ſoame, or froath is taken away.

Deſpumer. To clarifie; to ſcumme the ſoame, or froth, off.

Deſracher. To plucke off, or teare away. ¶Rab.

Deſraciné: m. ée: f. Rooted vp, or out; plucked vp by the roots.

Deſracinement: m. A rooting out, a plucking vp by the root.

Deſraciner. To deracinate, root out, or plucke vp by the root.

Deſraiſon: f. Wrong, iniuſtice, vnreaſonableneſſe, want of reaſon.

Deſraiſonnable: com. Wrongfull, vniuſt, vnreaſonable.

Deſraiſonné: m. ée: f. Without reaſon, bereft of reaſon.

Deſramé: m. ée: f. Without boughes, or branches; whoſe boughes haue bene cut, and lopped off.

Deſramer. To vnpearch, to plucke off, or pull downe from a bough; to rid, bare, or depriue of boughes.

Deſrangé: m. ée: f. Diſranked, diſordered, diſarraied.

Deſranger. To diſranke, diſarray, diſorder; to thruſt out of his ranke, put out of array; turne out of order.

Deſrayé: m. ée: f. Diſordered, out of order and array, out of his due place.

Deſreiglé: m. ée: f. Vnrulie, diſordered, outragious, vnbridled; vnmannerlie; immoderate, immodeſt; irregular, vnreaſonable, vnmeaſurable, out of frame.

Deſreiglément: m. Vnrulineſſe; diſorder, outrage; immoderateneſſe, immodeſtie, lauiſhneſſe, outlaſhing; irregularitie.

Deſreiglément. Diſorderedly, vnrulily, outragiouſly, immoderately, immodeſtly; out of ſquare, beyond all meane, without all meaſure.

Se Deſreigler. To be vnrulie, or vnreaſonable; to diſorder himſelfe; to be out of order, out of all frame.

Deſrene: f. A iuſtification, or proofe of the denyall of an act, or fact, wherewith a man is charged by his aduerſarie. ¶Norm.

Deſrener. To dereine; to iuſtifie, or make good, the denyall of an act, or fact. ¶Norm.

Deſreté: m. ée: f. Vnſnared, freed, or deliuered out of a net.

Deſ-

Desreter. To vnſnare; free, rid, or deliuer out of a net.
Desreumé: m. ée: f. Whoſe rhewme is dried vp.
Desreumer. To dry vp the rhewme.
Desridant. Planing, ſmoothing; looſening, ſlackening.
Desridé: m. ée: f. Vnwrinkled, vnfolded; planed, ſmoothed; alſo, looſened, or ſlackened.
Desridement: m. A planing, vnwrinkling, vnfoulding.
Desrider. To vnfold, vnwrinkle, or take away wrinkles; to ſmooth, plane, or make plaine.
Desrider les voiles, cordes, &c; to looſen, or ſlacken the ſayles, tackling, &c.
Desrivé: m. ée: f. Vnriuetted; alſo, ouerflowne, broken out of; or, ouerflowing, breaking ouer it bankes, or ordinarie channell.
Desrivement. An vnriuetting; alſo, an ouerflowing, breaking ouer, going out of it bankes, or ordinarie channell.
Desriver. To vnriuet; to looſen a nayle, or take out a pinne that is riuetted.
Se desriver. To ouerflow, breake ouer, goe out of it banks, or ordinarie channell.
Desrobbant. Stealing, filching, lurching, pilfering.
Desrobbé: m. ée: f. Stollen, filched, nimmed, lurched, pilfered; alſo, contriued.
Enfant desrobbé; that was begotten in Adulterie.
Vn huis desrobbé. A ſecret, or priuie dore.
Desrobbée. à la desrobbée. Priuily, ſecretly, by ſtealth, couertly, cloſely, vnder hand.
Desrobbement: m. Stealth; a ſtealing, filching, pilfering, nimming, lurching.
Desrobber. To ſteale, filch, pilfer, picke, nimme, purloine; ſlyly to lurch, priuily to take, ſecretly to withdraw, from.
Desrobber la boſſe à S. Roch; Looke Boſſe.
Il eſt caut larron qui desrobbe à vn larron: Prov. He is a cunning theeſe that robs a theeſe.
Desrobbeur: m. A theeſe, ſtealer, filcher, pilferer, nimmer, purloyner.
Desroché: m. ée: f. Taken, or hewed out of a rocke; violently pulled, caſt, beaten, throwne; alſo, fallen down, as the broken peeces of a rocke.
Desrocher. To beat, or hew out of a rocke; alſo, violently to pull, breake, throw downe; alſo, to fall downe, as the broken peeces of a rocke.
Se desrocher d' un rivage. Suddainely to put off from ſhore (as a ſhip that gets cleere off a rocke;) or, to part from the ſhore, as a ſhip from a rocke.
Desroller. To vnroule, to open a roule; or, as Desrouler.
Desrompre. as Derompre.
Desrompu. See Derompu.
Desrondir. To vnround, vnbow, vncompaſſe, bring out of roundneſſe, or compaſſe.
Desroqué: m. ée: f. Ouerthrowne in wraſtling.
Desroquer. To ouerthrow, as in wraſtling.
Desroté: m. ée: f. Vntyed, vnbound.
Desrougi: m. ie: f. Growne pale, or decayed in rednesse.
Desrougir. To grow pale, to looſe his rednesse.
Desrouillé: m. ée: f. Scoured, vnruſted, or, whoſe ruſt is got off, ruſtineſſe taken away.
Desrouiller. To ſcoure, ſurbiſh, get out ruſt, fetch off ruſtineſſe.
Desroulé: m. ée: f. Vnrouled, vnfoulded, layed open, diſplayed.
Desrouler. To vnroule, vnfould, lay open, diſplay.

Desroute: f. A rout, breaking, diſcomfiture, putting to flight.
Desrouté: m. ée: f. Put, forced, or inticed out of the way; alſo, broken, diſcomfited, put into rout, vnto flight.
Desroutéement. Cleane awry, as one out of the way, as one thats put by, or driuen from, his way.
Refuſer tout desroutéement; to refuſe wholly, vtterly, altogether; or to put a demaunder, by an abſolute denyall, cleane out of the way of renewing his requeſt; or to breake his heart, or cruſh his hopes, by a reſolute denyall.
Desrouter. To put by, driue from, intice out of, the way; alſo, to breake, diſcomfit, put into rout, or vnto flight.
Desroy: m. Diſorder, diſarray, vnrulineſſe, confuſion; or, as Desarroy.
Desroyé. as Desarroyé.
Desroyer. To diſorder, diſarray, driue out of order, put out of array; See Desarroyer.
Desruer. To goe amiſſe, or looſe his way, in a towne; to miſtake one ſtreet for another.
Desrumé: m. ée: f. Rid of the Rhewme, dryed vp as a Rhewme.
Desrumer. To rid, or dry vp, the Rhewme.
Desruné: m. ée: f. Diſordered, diſiuſted, peruerted, vnfitly diſioyned, ill-fauoredly taken aſunder, or ſet together.
Desruner. To diſorder, diſiuſt, peruert, put out of faſhion, or array, a thing which before was euerie way well fitted; ill-fauoredly to take aſunder, or ſet together.
Desacré: m. ée: f. Prophaned, vnhallowed, violated.
Desacrer. To prophane, violate, vnhallow.
Dessaiſi: m. ie: f. Diſſeiſed, diſpoſſeſſed, depriued, bereaued, put out of.
Dessaiſine: f. A diſſeiſin, diſpoſſeſſion, depriuation, bereauement; a looſing, forgoing, or letting goe his hold of; in Law, moſt properly, a yeelding of poſſeſſion; or the leaue giuen by the ſeller vnto the purchaſor, to enter into the land ſold.
Se Dessaiſir de. To diſſeiſe, diſpoſſeſſe, bereaue, depriue himſelfe of; to forgoe, giue ouer, looſe, or let goe, his hold of.
Dessaisonné: m. ée: f. Vnkindlie, vnſeaſonable.
Dessaler. To vnſalt; make freſh; become freſh.
Dessallé: m. ée: f. That hath ſeene the Lyons; or, as Desniaiſé.
Dessanglé: m. ée: f. Vngirt, or vngirthed.
Dessangler. To vngird; to looſe, or looſen, a girth.
Dessarrier. A woman to caſt her child.
Dessauvagé: m. ée: f. Tamed, ciuilized, reclaymed, brought from wildneſſe.
Dessauvager. To tame, reclaime, ciuilize, bring from wildneſſe.
Desſeelé: m. ée: f. Vnſealed.
Desſéeler. To vnſeale, take away the ſeale from, open a thing thats ſealed.
Desſeigné: m. ée: f. Deſigned, purpoſed, proiected.
Desſeigner. To deſigne, purpoſe, proiect, lay a plot.
Desſeiller. as Desſiller.
Desſeing: m. A deſigne, plot, proiect, purpoſe, determination; reſolution.
Desſellé: m. ée: f. Vnſadled.
Desſeller. To vnſadle.

Deſſemblé: m. ée: f. Diſaſſembled, disioyned, diuided, ſeperated.
Deſſembler. To diſaſſemble, disioyne, diuide, ſeperate.
Deſſenglé. as Deſſanglé.
Deſſengler. To vngirth, or looſſen the girthes of.
Deſſente. The Gout proceeding from a rhewme.
Deſſerpilleurs de paſſans. Riflers, ranſackers of paſſengers; robbers by the high way.
Deſſerre: f. A ſuddaine looſſing, opening, vnſhutting; releaſing, diſcharging, inlarging, or ſetting at large; a violent, or quicke letting goe.
Deſſerré: m. ée: f. Releaſed, opened, vnſhut, looſſed, diſcharged, ſet at large.
Deſſerrer. To looſſe, or ſet at large; to releaſe, diſcharge, open, vnſhut, vndoe.
Deſſert: m. The laſt courſe, or ſeruice at table; of fruits, comfits, ſweet meats, &c.
Deſſerte: f. as Deſſert; or, the reuerſion of a meale; alſo, merit, or deſeruing.
Deſſervice: f. A diſſeruice, demerite, offence, ill office, miſdeed.
Deſſervir. To doe one ill ſeruice, or bad offices.
Deſſervir ſus table. To take away the table.
Deſſerviteur: m. A table-attendant, an ordinarie waiter.
Deſſeveli: m. ie: f. Disinterred, vnburied.
Deſſevelir. To disinterre, vnburie, take vp, or out of the ground.
Deſſevré: m. ée: f. Diſſeuered, parted, ſundered.
Deſſevrer. To diſſeuer, part, ſunder.
Deſſiccatif. as Deſiccatif. Deſſicatiue, or drying vp.
Deſſiegé: m. ée: f. Freed from a ſiege.
Deſſieger. To raiſe a ſiege, to free from ſiege.
Deſſillé: m. ée: f. Vnſeeled, vnhoodwinkt, whoſe eyes, or ſight is opened.
Deſſiller. To vnſeele, vnhoodwinke; open the eyes of, reſtore vnto ſight.
Deſſiner, or rather Deſchirer. To rend, or teare. ¶Rab.
Deſſing. as Deſſeing.
Deſſoiué: m. ée: f. Whoſe thirſt is quenched.
Se Deſſoiuer. To quench the thirſt.
Deſſolé: m. ée: f. Vnſolcd; the bottome of whoſe foot, or hoofe is pared quite away.
Deſſoler vn cheval. To vnſole; to pare away, or wholly cut off, the bottome of a horſes foot.
Deſſonger. To breake off ſleepe with a ſnort, or ſtart; to awake out of a dreame, ſtarting.
Deſſorcelé: m. ée: f. Diſinchanted, vnbewitched.
Deſſorceler. To diſinchant, vnbewitch, vnwitch.
Deſſoté: m. ée: f. Vnbeſotted; much quickened, or improued in vnderſtanding.
Deſſoler. To vnbeſot; to quicken, refine, or cleere a dull vnderſtanding.
Deſſoubs: m. (Subſtantiuely) le des. The bottome, loweſt, or vndermoſt part of.
Deſſoubs. adverb. Vnder, beneath, below.
S'en deſſus deſſoubs. Vpſide downe, topſie turuie, with the bottome vpwards.
Deſſoulde. En deſſoulde. Scattered, out of order, diſarrayed, ſtragling.
Deſſouldé: m. ée: f. Vnſoldered; vnlooſſed.
Deſſoulder. To vnſolder, looſſe, diſſolue.
Deſſous. as Deſſoubs.
Deſſous-mis. Muſcle des. A muſcle (in the inner part of the hand) whereby the fingers are bowed.
Deſſuëtude: f. Diſuſe.

Deſſus: m. (ſubſtant.) le deſſus de; the Superficies, top, or vpper part of; alſo, the treble part, in Muſicke.
Le deſſus d'un habit; the outſide of a garment (called ſo by taylors.
Vn deſſus de porte; the haunſe of a dore.
Faire le deſſus; to ſing the treble part; alſo, to play the Maiſter, ouerrule, dominiere ouer; and hence;
L'homme fait la malencontre quand ſa femme fait le deſſus: Prov. (Wherein there is a double meaning.)
Deſſus. (adverb.) Aboue, ouer, vpon, aloft, on high.
Deſſus & deſſoubs: as s'en deſſus deſſoubs; in Deſſoubs.
Et bien, là deſſus? Well, what then? what of that? what came of that?
Eſtre deſſus; to be on foot, or ſtand vp on his feet.
Il eſt tout deſſus; he is vpon the head of it (a Bowlers phraſe.)
Leur eſtant touſiours deſſus; hauing alwaies the better of them, preuailing euer againſt them; alſo, being ſtill vpon their lacks.
Eſtre au deſſus du vent encontre; to haue the wind, aduantage, or vpper hand of; to haue on the hip.
Venir au deſſus de; to atchieue, compaſſe, obtaine, ſubdue, conquer, ouercome.
Deſſus-mis: m. iſe: f. Put ouer, ſet aboue.
Deſtaché: m. ée: f. Vnty'd, looſſed, vnbound; alſo, cleanſed, or purged from ſpots.
Deſtacher. To vnty, looſſe, vnbind; alſo, to take out, or purge from, ſpots.
Deſtail. as Detail.
Deſtaillé: m. ée: f. Cut, ſlit, gaſhed, backed, nicked, notched; alſo, retayled.
Deſtailler. To cut, ſlit, gaſh, backe; nicke, notch; alſo, to retayle, or paſſe away by parcels.
Deſtaindre. To ſtaine, diſtaine, take away the colour of; or as Deſteindre.
Deſtampé: m. ée: f. Vnpropped, whoſe treſſles are taken from vnder it.
Deſtamper. To vnprop; to take the treſſles from.
Deſteinct: m. cte: f. Diſtained; pale, wan, bleake, ill-coloured; whoſe dy is decayed, or colour loſt.
Deſteindre. To diſtaine; to dead, or take away, the colour of.
Se deſteindre. To decay in colour, to looſe it (liuelie) dy.
Deſteler les chevaux. To vnlooſſe, vnteame, vnſpang the draught horſes.
Deſtendre. To vnbend, ſlacken, vnſtretch, looſſe, vndoe, or let downe.
Deſtendre la Tapiſſerie. To vnhang, or take downe Hangings.
Deſtendu: m. uë: f. Slackened, vnbent, vnſtretched, looſſed, vnhanged, let, or taken downe.
Le temps eſt deſtendu. The weather is opened, or begins to thaw.
Deſtenture: f. An vnbending, vnſtretching, ſlackening, looſſing, vnhanging, letting, or taking downe.
Deſterré: m. ée: f. Digged, or taken, out of the ground.
Deſterrer. To dig, or take out of the ground.
Deſthroné: m. ée: f. Diſthronized, depoſed from a Throne.
Deſthroner. To diſthronize, or vnthrone; to depoſe from, or put out of, a Throne.
Deſtiltre. To vnweaue; or, as Deſtitre.
Deſtin: m. Deſtinie, fate; Gods prouidence, ordinance, purpoſe, or decree.

Des-

Deſtination: f. A deſtin- ment.
Deſtiné: m. ée: f. Deſtina- purpoſed for.
Nul vent ne fait pour c deſtiné. No helpe ſerues courſes (or knowes not w
Deſtinée: f. as Deſtin.
Deſtiner. To deſtinate, or d for.
Deſtiſtre. To vnweaue, ſolue, vndoe.
Deſtituable: com. Deſtit
Deſtitué: m. ée: f. Deſtit- ted of.
Deſtituer. To diſappoint, pinch; to leaue deſtitute,
Deſtitution: f. A deſtitu- failing, diſappointing.
Deſtitution de compa- neſſe, want of companie.
Ils pourſuyvirent la de taines. They ſued to haue
Deſtombi: m. ie: f. Vnc- tonied; reſtored vnto wa
Deſtombir. To vnbenum- ſtore vnto warmth, ſence
Deſtonnement: m. A di- a changing of tune.
Deſtonner. To change, or er, or lower.
Deſtordement: m. A wr- a crooking, bowing, bend
Deſtordre. To writh, wri- bend, wreath, turne out
Se deſtordre. To ſtray, or goe out of, the way.
Deſtorſe: f. A writh, wri- alſo, an erring, ſtraying, o- alſo, a by-way, ſide-way, tune, hinderance, incomb
Deſtortillé: m. ée: f. Op- vnwound.
Deſtortiller. To vnwrith
Deſtortoire. as Deſtour
Deſtoupé. Vnſtopped, vn
Deſtouper. To vnſtop, or
Deſtour: m. A turning, b- blind corner betweene hi- may hide themſelues; al- on, craftie auoidance.
Deſtourbé: m. ée: f. Di- hindered, interrupted, in Deſtourbement: m. A h- peaching.
Deſtourber. To diſturbe, interrupt; alſo, as Deſto
Sans vous deſtourber without turning you mu
Deſtourbeur: m. A diſt- ter, interrupter; a tro- gheſt, prating, or buſie co
Deſtourbier: m. A diſtur- ruption, impediment, inco
Entre la bouche, & grand deſtourbier: twеene the ſpoone and m- men thinke all ſure.

Deſtination: f. A deſtination, ordainement, appointment.

Deſtiné: m. ée: f. Deſtinated, ordained, appointed vnto, purpoſed for.

Nul vent ne fait pour celuy qui n'a point de port deſtiné. No helpe ſerues him that runnes vncertaine courſes (or knowes not where to end them.)

Deſtinée: f. as Deſtin.

Deſtiner. To deſtinate, ordaine, appoint vnto; to purpoſe for.

Deſtiſtre. To vnweaue, vntwiſt, vnplait; looſe, diſſolue, vndoe.

Deſtituable: com. Deſtituable; diſappointable.

Deſtitué: m. ée: f. Deſtitute, vnfurniſhed, or diſappointed of.

Deſtituer. To diſappoint, abandon, forſake, faile at a pinch; to leaue deſtitute, or vnfurniſhed of.

Deſtitution: f. A deſtitution, or deſtituting; a leauing, failing, diſappointing.

Deſtitution de compagnie. Lonelineſſe, or ſolitarineſſe, want of companie.

Ils pourſuyvirent la deſtitution d'aucuns Capitaines. They ſued to haue ſome Captaines caſſed.

Deſtombi: m. ie: f. Vnclumpſed, vnbenummed, vnaſtonied; reſtored vnto warmth, ſence, motion.

Deſtombir. To vnbenumme, vnclumpſe, vnaſtonie; reſtore vnto warmth, ſence, or motion.

Deſtonnement: m. A diſcord, or iarre, in ſound; alſo, a changing of tune.

Deſtonner. To change, or alter, a tune; to take it higher, or lower.

Deſtordement: m. A wringing, writhing, wrinching, a crooking, bowing, bending awrie.

Deſtordre. To writh, wrie, crooke, wrinch, wring, bow, bend, wreath, turne out of the right way.

Se deſtordre. To ſtray, to erre, wander, decline from, or goe out of, the way.

Deſtorſe: f. A writh, wrinch, wring; alſo, an errour; alſo, an erring, ſtraying, or wandering out of the way; alſo, a by-way, ſide-way, or turning-way; alſo, misfortune, hinderance, incombrance.

Deſtortillé: m. ée: f. Opened, vnwrithen, vnwrapped, vnwound.

Deſtortiller. To vnwrith, vnwind, open, vnwrap.

Deſtortoire. as Deſtournoire.

Deſtoupé. Vnſtopped, vnſtoppelled.

Deſtouper. To vnſtop, or pull the ſtopple out of.

Deſtour: m. A turning, by-way, crooked way; alſo, a blind corner betweene hills, or in a houſe, wherein men may hide themſelues; alſo, a cunning ſhift, ſubtle enaſion, craftie auoidance.

Deſtourbé: m. ée: f. Diſturbed, troubled, impeached, hindered, interrupted, incombred.

Deſtourbement: m. A hindering, letting, ſtopping, impeaching.

Deſtourber. To diſturbe, trouble, comber; let, hinder, interrupt; alſo, as Deſtourner; whence;

Sans vous deſtourber gueres de voſtre chemin. without turning you much out of your way.

Deſtourbeur: m. A diſturber, troubler; hinderer, letter, interrupter; a troubleſome fellow, comberſome gheſt, prating, or buſie companion.

Deſtourbier: m. A diſturbance; comber, trouble, interruption, impediment, incombrance, let, hindrance.

Entre la bouche, & la cuillier ſouvent advient grand deſtourbier: Prov. Great lets oft thruſt betweene the ſpoone and mouth; miſchances happen when men thinke all ſure.

Deſtourné: m. ée: f. Turned, declined, withdrawne, diuerted, alienated, diſſuaded, remoued, altered from; alſo, conueyed, filched, purloyned.

Lieux deſtournez. By-places, blind corners, vnhaunted roomes, deuelie habitations, ſolitarie lodgings, dwellings which ſtand out of all high-wayes.

Destournement: m. A turning, diuerſion, diuerting; a withdrawing, diſſuaſion, diſtraction; alienating, eſtranging, remouing from; alſo, a conueying, or pilfering away.

Deſtournement de pieces de procez. A cõcealing, or ſuppreſſing of bookes, or euidences.

Destourner. To turne, diuert, diſtract, avert, withdraw, diſſuade, remoue, alter, alienate, eſtrange from; alſo, to take away craftily, conuey away falſly, foreſtall with violence; to filtch, pilfer, conuert vnto his owne vſe what was prouided for another.

Se deſtourner de. To forbeare the companie of; to withdraw his fauour, and loue from.

Se deſtourner du chemin. To erre, wander, ſwarue, goe aſtray, decline from the right way; or (as we ſay) goe by the way.

Se deſtourner d'un dard. To auoid, eſchew, or bend from, a dart, by a nimble turning, or leaping aſide.

Deſtournoire: f. A hunting-pole (wherewith comberſome branches are turned aſide by a wood-man paſſing through thickets.)

Deſtourtoire. as Deſtournoire.

Deſtrabord. Starboord; the right ſide of a ſhip.

Deſtracqué: m. ée: f. as Deſtraqué.

Deſtracquer. To put from a racke, or, to ſpoyle the rack, marre the pace, of; to put out of his racke, or pace; (Hence) alſo, to depraue, diſorder, miſlead, corrupt, ſeduce, or draw from honeſt courſes; alſo, to ſlaunder, or detract from.

Deſtracquer vn lievre. To vntie the doubles of a Hare.

Deſtrainct: m. cte: f. Strained, preſſed, wrung, vexed extreamely; alſo, ſtraitened, reſtrained, abridged of libertie.

Deſtraincte: f. A narrow ſtrait, or pinch; a hard, or extreame wring; alſo, a reſtraint of libertie.

Deſtraincte d'amour. The anguiſh, impatience, or extremitie of paſſion, in loue.

Deſtraindre. To ſtraine, preſſe, wring, vexe extreamely; alſo, to ſtraiten, reſtraine, or abridge of libertie.

Deſtranché: m. ée: f. Cut off, hewed from, hacked aſunder, chopped in peeces.

Deſtranchement: m. A cutting off, hewing aſunder, chopping in peeces.

Deſtrancher. To cut off, hew from, hacke aſunder, mangle, or chop in peeces.

Deſtrancher à coups de langue. To reuile, reproach, rattle vp, raile on.

Deſtrapé. Beaten, or ſtamped with the feet; alſo, rid, or freed (as the feet) from intanglements.

Deſtraper. To beat, or ſtampe with the feet; alſo, to free, rid, or cleere the feet from the things intangling them.

Destraqué: m. ée: f. Put out of a racke, or pace; alſo, ſeduced, miſled, corrupted, depraued, or drawne from honeſt courſes; alſo, ſlaundered, or detracted from.

Destraquer. To ſpoyle the pace of, or put out of his pace; hence; to deprave, corrupt, miſlead, ſeduce, or draw from honeſt courſes; alſo, to ſlaunder, or detract from; Looke Deſtracquer.

Destravé: m. ée: f. Vnſhackled, vngyued, vnfettered.

Destraver. To vnſhackle, vngyue, vnfetter.

Destrem-

Destrempé : m.ée : f. Steeped, ſoaked, moiſtened, made fluide, liquid, or thinne; ſeaſoned, or laied in water; ſoftened, or allayed by watering.

Deſtrempement : m. A ſoaking, ſteeping; moiſtening, watering.

Deſtremper. To ſoake, ſteepe, moiſten, water, ſeaſon, or lay in water; ſofien, or allay, by laying in water; to make fluide, liquid, or thinne.

Deſtrempis. as Deſtrempement.

Deſtrenché. as Deſtranché.

Deſtrencher. as Deſtrancher.

Deſtreſſe : f. Diſtreſſe, perplexitie, anguiſh of mind, ſcarcitie in eſtate; a ſtrait, narrow pinch, hard tearmes.

Deſtrier : m. A ſteed, a great horſe, or horſe of ſeruice; alſo, a kind of wafer.

Deſtroict : m. A ſtrait; a narrow place, or paſſage; a narrow entrance into, or comming vnto, a way; a way between two hills; alſo, a narrow ſea, or ſtrait between two lands.

Le deſtroict d'un Bailliage. The iuriſdiction, precincts, or liberties of a Bailiwicke.

Deſtroict de la gorge. The bottome of the mouth, or iawes, next aboue the Larinx.

Deſtroit. as Deſtroict.

Deſtroquer. To vntrucke; to alter, annihilate, or goe from, a change agreed on.

Deſtrouſſe : f. Spoyle, bootie, pillage, or baggage got from; a ranſacking, or ſtripping of; a hand made vpon, enemies; alſo, a hoſtile road, incurſion, or inuaſion wherin ſuch bootie is got; alſo, a defeature, ouerthrow; beggering, or vndoing of people.

Deſtrouſſé : m. ée : f. Vntruſſed, vntucked, vnpacked, vnloaden, vndone; alſo, robbed, ranſacked, ſtripped, (& thereby) vndone.

Deſtrouſſement : m. An vntruſſing, vnpacking, vnloading.

Deſtrouſſement de gents. A robbing, rifling, ranſacking, (ruining) of people; a freebooting.

Deſtrouſſément. tout deſtrouſſément. Flatly, plainly; confidently, reſolutely; or, quickly, ſpeedily, haſtily.

Deſtrouſſer. To vntruſſe, vntucke; vnload, vnpacke, vndoe; alſo, to rob, rifle, ſtrip, ranſacke, deſpoile, all commers, or paſſengers; to freeboot, or boothale.

Deſtrouſſeur de gens. A robber, a ranſacker of people by the high-way-ſide; one of S. Nicholas Clerkes; alſo, a freebooter, or boothaler.

Deſtruction : f. Deſtruction; an vtter ſubuerſion, or deuaſtation; an abſolute ruine, or ouerthrow of.

Deſtruict : m. ćte : f. Deſtroyed; vtterly ſubuerted, or deuaſted; abſolutely ruined, or ouerthrowne.

Deſtruire. To deſtroy; ruine, ſubuert, ouerthrow; deuaſt, make deſolate; rauage, or ſpoile, vtterly.

Deſtruiſant. Deſtroying; vtterly ſubuerting, or deuaſting; abſolutely ruining, or ouerthrowing.

Deſtruiſeur : m. A deſtroyer; a ruiner, ſubuerter, ſpoyler of euerie thing he deales with, or comes neere.

Deſvalizé : m. ée : f. Rifled, ſtripped, robbed of all hee hath.

Deſvalizement : m. A rifling, robbing, ſtripping.

Deſvalizer. To rob, deſpoyle, rifle; ſtrip out of all hee hath; to depriue of cloake-bag, bag and baggage.

Deſveiné : m. ée : f. Bereft of all his veines, or bloud.

Deſveiner. To bereaue, or deprine of all his veines; to ſucke the bloud out of.

Deſvelopé : m. ée : f. Vnwrapped, vnfoulden; opened, vndone; diſplaied, ſpread abroad; alſo, cleered.

Deſvelopement : m. An vnwrapping, vnfoulding; vndoing, opening; manifeſting, diſplaying, ſpreading open.

Deſveloper. To vnwrap, vnfould; vndoe, open, ſhew forth, diſplay, ſpread abroad; rid, vnpeſter, cleere.

Deſvely : m. ie : f. Changed through ſickneſſe, or indiſpoſition; whoſe face is ſo altered that a man can hardly know him.

Deſverdiat. Deflowred, as a virgine that teachers: ¶Langued.

Deſverrouillé : m. ée : f. Vnboulted.

Deſverouiller vn huis. To vnboult, or vnſparre a doore.

Deſveſti : m. ie : f. Deneſted, vncloathed; diſſeiſed, diſpoſſeſſed.

Deſveſtir. To vncloath, deſpoyle, depriue; diſſeiſe, diſpoſſeſſe of.

Se deſveſtir de. To forgoe, leaue, giue ouer, paſſe away, diſpoſſeſſe himſelfe of.

Desvidé : m. ée : f. as Devidé.

Deſvider. To wind thread &c, from blades into bottomes.

Deſvidoir : m. A paire of blades, or yarnwindles.

Deſvié : m. ée : f. Miſled, put out of the way; alſo, dead, or deceaſed.

Deſvier. To miſlead, or put out of the way; alſo, to die, deceaſe, or depart this life.

Deſviſagé : m. ée : f. Deformed, diſfigured; defaced; whoſe face is rent, or torne.

Deſviſager. To deforme, diſfigure, bereaue of feature; to deface.

Deſultoire. Chevaux deſultoires. Two horſes (tied together) from the one whereof an actiue rider leapes vpon the other, in a full careere; alſo, horſes that bee led, and kept freſh for the vſe of Souldiors, which in a fight haue tired thoſe they ſerued on.

Desumbré : m. ée : f. Vnſhaded, or depriued of the ſhadow.

Deſumbrer. To vnſhade, or depriue of ſhadow.

Deſuni : m. ie : f. Diſunited, diſioyned, vncopled, ſeuered, ſindered.

Deſunion : f. Diſuniting, diſunion, diſiunction, ſeperation.

Deſunir. To diſunite, vncouple, diſioyne, diuide, ſeperate, ſunder.

Deſvoilé : m. ée : f. Vnuayled, manifeſted, openly ſhewed.

Deſvoiler. To vnuayle, diſcouer, manifeſt, take away the vayle from.

Deſvoyé : m. ée : f. Miſled, ſtrayed; in an errour; brought out of the way.

Chemin deſvoyé. An indirect, vnuſuall, or vncertaine, way.

Eſtomac deſvoyé. A looſſe, weakened, or diſtempered, ſtomacke.

Deſvoyement : m. An erring, wandering, ſtraying one knowes not whither; a miſleading.

Deſvoyement d'eſtomac. Looſeneſſe, or weakneſſe, of the ſtomacke.

Deſvoyement de riviere. The turning of a riuer out of it vſuall courſe, or channell; alſo, a damme, or banke made for that purpoſe.

Deſvoyer. To miſlead, or bring out of the way.

Se deſvoyer. To erre, ſtray, ſwarue, decline out of the way.

Deſuſage : m. Diſuſage, diſcontinuance.

Deſuſitation. A diſuſing, diſcontinuing, leauing off.

Deſuſité : m. ée : f. Diſuſed, diſcontinued, left off, grown out of vſe.

Deſuſiter. To diſuſe, diſcontinue, diſaccuſtome, leaue off.

Desyvré: m.ée: f. Made ſober againe.
Desyvrer. To make ſober after drunkenneſſe.
Det: m. A dye to play with; See Dé.
Detail: m. A Peecemealing; a hewing, or cutting in peeces; (hence) alſo, retaile, ſmall ſale, or a ſelling by parcells, or in peeces.
Detaillé: m. ée: f. Peecemealed; cut into parcells, hewed in peeces (or, as Deſtaillé; ) alſo, retailed, ſold by retaile.
Detailler. To peecemeale, to cut into parcells, or peeces; (hence) alſo, to retaile, or ſell by retaile.
Detailleur. A retailer, or tradeſman that ſells by retaile.
Detalenté: m. ée: f. Vnwilling, luſtleſſe, vndiſpoſed, out of the humor, that hath no diſpoſition vnto a thing.
Detapper. To vnbung, to open the bung-hole of: ¶Bleſien.)
Detendre. See Deſtendre.
Detenir. To detaine, or withhold; alſo, to retaine, buſie, occupie, ſtay, hold, continue in a place; alſo, to reſtraine, or keepe in.
Detente d'arquebuſe: f. The Tent of a Caleeuer; the little peece of iron that keepes the Cocke vp.
Detenteur: m. A detainer; a wrongfull keeper of poſſeſſion; a withholder of another mans right.
Detention: f. A detention; detaining, withhoulding; reſtraining.
Detenu: m. uë: f. Detained, withheld; reſtrained, kept in; buſied, occupied.
Detenuë: f. as Detention.
Detergent: m. ente: f. Cleanſing, ſcouring, rubbing away, wiping off.
Deterioration: f. An impairing, or making worſe.
Deterioré: m. ée: f. Impaired, marred, ſpoiled; growne, or made, worſe.
Deteriorer. To impaire, make worſe, marre, ſpoyle, ſtroy.
Determinance: f. An order, decree, ordinance, ſentence, determination; an ending, concluſion, determination of a matter alreadie debated.
Determiné: m. ée: f. Determined, reſolued on, ended, concluded.
Vn homme determiné. A reſolute, or couragious fellow; one that feares no dangers, dreads no colours.
Determinément. Reſolutely, couragiouſly; alſo, with a full end, and concluſion of matters; determinately.
Determiner. To determine, conclude, reſolue on, end, finiſh.
Deterré: m. ée: f. Digged, or taken out of the earth; alſo, diſinherited, diſſeiſed, left landleſſe.
Deterrer. To dig, or take out of the ground; alſo, to diſinherit; deprive of, leaue without, land.
Deterſif: m. iue: f. Deterſiue; of a ſcouring, or cleanſing qualitie.
Deteſtable: com. Deteſtable, execrable, abhominable, moſt odious, exceeding loathſome.
Deteſtation: f. A deteſtation, loathing, abhorring.
Deteſté: m. ée: f. Deteſted, loathed, abhorred.
Deteſter. To deteſt, loath, abhorre, haue in abhomination.
Dethroner, ou Dethroſner. as Deſthroner.
Detiré: m. ée: f. Racked, retched, or ſtretched out with violence; almoſt pulled in peeces.
Detirer. To racke, retch, or ſtretch out with violence; to pull almoſt in peeces.
Detomber. To vntombe, or take out of a tombe.
Detordre. To wrie, to writh, &c; See Deſtordre.

Detouillé: m. ée: f. Diſincombred; alſo, diſintangled, vnſnarled.
Detouiller. To diſincomber, or vnpeſter; alſo, to vnſnarle, or diſintangle; and hence;
I'ay beaucoup à detouiller. I haue much intricate, and ſhuffled, buſineſſe to order.
Detourbier. as Deſtourbier.
Detracter. To detract from; to ſlaunder, backbite, deprave, diſpraiſe, traduce, report ill of; diſparage in ſpeeches; raile on, reuile one, behind his backe.
Detracteur: m. A detractor; ſlaunderer, backbiter, deprauer; an ordinarie traducer, or diſparager of others behind their backs; an ill-tongued, or foule-mouthed fellow.
Detraction: f. Detraction; ſlaunder, backbiting, depravation, diſcrediting, miſreport of, priuate diſgracing, or diſparaging; ſlaunderous ſpeeches, reproachfull tearmes giuen of one behind his backe.
Detrapper. as Deſtraper.
Detraqué: m. ée: f. Out of the tract, iuſt path, right way; or, as Deſtraqué.
Se Detraquer. To put himſelfe out of his path, or out of the way; Looke Deſtraquer.
Detravé. le monde eſt tout detravé. The world is cleane out of ſquare, out of faſhion, out of frame, out of order, off the hindges.
Detrencher. See Deſtrancher.
Detreſle: f. Looke, Deſtreſſe.
Detrichoüere: as Dextrochere; alſo, the fould of leather wherewith yarne-winders preſerue their fingers from skarres; alſo, the ſharp Iron wherein the quill, or ſpindle of a wheele doeth twirle.
Detriment: m. Detriment, loſſe, domage, hurt, binderance, decay.
Detrimenteux: m. euſe: f. Hurtfull, dommageous; much hindering, full of loſſe, dammage, diſaduantage.
Detriſté: m. ée: f. Comforted, cheered vp; whoſe griefe is allayed, whoſe ſorrow layed aſide.
Detrister. To driue away ſadneſſe.
Detrompé: m. ée: f. Deliuered from error.
Detromper. To vndeceiue, to rid of error.
Detrouſſément. as Deſtrouſſément.
Dette: f. A debt; See Debte.
Deturper. To defile, file, fowle, ſoyle, make foule or illfauored.
Deu: m. deuë: f. Due, owed, or owing, ones owne; alſo, iuſt, fit, right, apt, ſeaſonable, conuenient.
Devallant. Deſcending, alighting; bringing, or letting downe; tumbling, or throwing downe.
Devallé: m. ée: f. Brought, or let downe; tumbled, or throwne downeward; deſcended, alighted.
Devallée: f. A deſcent, or low ground; a fall in ground.
Devallement: m. A deſcent, an alighting; a ſliding, or going downe; a bringing, or letting, a tumbling, or throwing, downeward.
Devaller. To bring, or let downe, to tumble, or throw downeward; alſo, to deſcend, alight; ſlide, or goe downe.
Devancé: m. ée: f. Outgone, exceeded, ſtripped, ouerrunne, preceded, got before.
Devancer. To ſtrip, outgoe, ouerrunne, get, or goe before; to preuent; precede, forerunne.
Devancier. nos Deuanciers. Our auncеſtors, or predeceſſors, our forefathers.
Devancier: m. ere: f. Forerunning, preceding, more old, of greater antiquitie then; got, or gone before; outgoing, exceeding, that hath ouerrunne another.

Devant : m. (Substantiuely) as ; vn devant de robbe; a kirtle ; or, apron.
Le devant d'un pourpoint &c. The forebodie.
Gaigner le devant par derriere. To outstrip, or outgoe by wrong, priuate, or by-wayes ; to crosse, or preuent a mans proiects by courses different from th'ordinarie, or his.
Devant. (of the verbe Devoir ;) laquelle chose devant estre. Which thing since it must be.
Devant. Before, formerly.
Par ci devant. Heretofore, in former times.
S'en (or Sens) devant derriere. The wrong end forward ; the inside outward ; the cart before the horses ; cleane kamme.
Tout devant. Right against, ouer against.
Aller au devant. To goe meet.
Aller au devant par derriere. To goe the wrong way to worke.
Devant. (Interject.) Vsed, as our, Auaunt, in the driuing away of a dog.
Devanteau : m. An apron.
Devantel : &, Devantier. The same.
Devants : m. Stands ; or places wherein men stand with bowes, dogs, or otherwise, to shoot, houad, or looke, at a Deere, as he passes along.
Deuës à vetando. Priuiledges of forbidding (others to fish, or gather sticks, in his waters, or woods.)
Deveiner. as Desveiner.
Developpé : m. ée : f. Disinueloped, vnwrapped, vnfoulded.
Developper. To vnwrap, vnfould, display.
Deüement. Duely, rightly, fitly, as it should be.
Devely. Changed, or altered, so that a man cannot know him.
Devenir. To wax, to grow, to become.
Que deviendra cest argent ? What will become of, what shall be done with, this money? how shall it be bestowed, how must it be disposed of ?
Que deviendray je ? What will befall me, what shall betide mee ? how shall I shift, what shall I doe ?
Devenu : m. uë : f. Become, waxen, or growne.
Devergondé : m. ée : f. Shameleste ; (a rusticall word.)
Deverrouillé : m. ée : f. Vnboulted, vnsparred.
Deverrouiller. To vnboult, or vnsparre a doore.
Devers. Towards.
Devers Orient. Towards the East ; also, of the Easterne coast, or countries ; as, je suis fille d'un Roy devers Orient ; I am the daughter of an Easterne King.
Ie viens de devers la riviere. From, or fromwards the riuer come I.
Devertaper. To open, or vnbung : Orleannois.
Devest. A disaduesture ; or as Dessaisine.
Devestir. To put himselfe out of possession of ; Looke Desvestir.
Devestu : m. uë : f. Disseised, put out of possession of.
Devexité : f. Deuexitie ; a hollownesse, bowing, bending, hanging double, or downewards.
Devidé : m. ée : f. Wound from blades (or yarne windles) into bottomes ; also, reeled.
Devideau : m. A little paire of blades, or of yarne windles.
Devider. To wind (as yarne &c) from blades &c into bottomes ; also, to reele ; whence ;
Pour devider la fusée il faut trouver le bout du fil : Prov. To conceiue, dispose, or discourse of things rightly one must find out their beginnings.
Devidereſſe : f. A woman that winds yarne &c from the blades &c into bottomes ; or from the spindle on a reele.
Devidet. as Devideau.
Devidoir : m. A paire of blades, or of yarne windles.
Devidoire : f. as Devidoir.
Devier. See Desvier.
Devin : m. A Diuiner, Soothsayer, Fortune-teller, ghesser at, foreteller of, things to come.
Renvoyer quelqu'un au devin. cecy nous renvoit au devin. We not know what this is, what it was, what to make, or thinke of it.
Devinailles : f. Diuinations, predictions, coniectures, ghesses.
Devinaises : f. as Devinailles.
Devinance. as Devinement.
Deviné : m. ée : f. Diuined, foretold, ghessed, coniectured.
Devinement : m. A diuining, soothsaying, foredeeming, coniecturing, guessing, supposing, surmising what will follow.
Deviner. To Diuine, presage, soothsay it ; to coniecture, ghesse, foredeeme, suppose, surmise, presume, what will follow.
Il nous a mis à deviner. He hath put vs to our plunges, or dumps ; he hath driuen vs to our wits end, or to search euerie corner of our wits.
Devinereſſe : f. A Diuinereſſe, or Propheteſſe ; a woman that ghesses at, or foretells of, things to come.
Devineur. A Soothsayer ; &c ; as Devin.
Devis : m. Speech, talke, discourse, a conference, or communication ; deuising, conferring, or talking together ; also, a deuice, inuention ; disposition, or appointment of.
Devisagé : m. ée : f. as Desvisagé.
Devisager. as Desvisager.
Devise : f. A deuice, posie ; Embleme ; conceit, coat, or Colizance borne, or giuen for some priuate respect ; an inuention ; also, a diuision ; bound, meere, or marke diuiding land.
Quelle devise y avoit il en cela ? What reason, or sence was there in that ?
Devisé : m. ée : f. Discoursed, talked ; inuented, deuised ; ordered, disgested, disposed of.
Deviser. To commune, talke, discourse, conferre, deuise, chat, conuerse with ; also, to deuise, or inuent ; also, to order, disgest, or dispose of.
Deument. as Deüement.
Devoir : m. See Debvoir.
Devolu : m. A lapse ; a thing deuolued, letten fall, or fallen into lapse ; or as Devolut.
Devolu : m. uë : f. Deuolued ; in lapse, fallen into lapse ; or fallen from one to another ; also, letten fall ; and hence ;
Proces devolu. An action, or suit surceased, nonsuited, abandonned, giuen ouer.
Devolut : m. as Devolutaire ; also, a grant of, or presentment vnto, a Benefice, by lapse ; also, as Devolu.
Devolutaire : m. A deuolutarie ; one that obtaines the grant of a Benefice by a complaint, or pretence of insufficiencie, or intrusion in him that possesses it ; also, hee whom the superior presents to one, fallen into lapse, for want of due presentment by the Patron, or Ordinarie.
Devolutif : m. iue : f. Deuolutiue ; readie, or like, to deuolue.
Devolution : f. A deuolution, or falling into lapse.
Devoré : m. ée : f. Deuoured, rauined.
Devo[illegible] rauine, deuoure, inglut ; eat greedily, swallow

Devot : m. te : f. also, scrupulous,
Devotement. De so, curiously, scrup
Devotieusemen
Devotieux : m. c
Devotion : f. Deuo neſſe ; a religious sitie.
Hommage de d
Devotionné : m.
Devoüé : m. ée : appointed, or dai
Devouëment : m
Devouer. To vow daine, or prouide
Devouté : m. ée as a bow &c.
Devouter. To vn it off.
Deuſdet. as Masle
Deuvet. as Duvet
Deux. Two.
Les deux ; ou t
Deux à deux.
couples, euerie tw
Deux fois. Twi
Deux pour vn.
of them are worth
Entre deux. Do knowes not whet both ; also, readie at his owne choice
Demeurer entre
Mettre en deux double.
Respondre entre doubtfull an answ m under knowes that stands edglin chance.)
Deux chiens ne Looke Accorder.
Deux hommes deux Montagne but mountaines n
Deux loups ma wolues can make
Deux orgueille asne : Prov. One Asses.
Deux yeux voy see better (two me
Qui bien tire de drawes twice ; a draught.
Secret de deux
Deux pour-vn.
Dexterité : f. Dex neſſe, apineſſe ; a fulneſſe.
Dextre : com. vn per, handsome, we
Dextre. dextre hand, or side.
Dextrement. Nim ly, handsomely, gra

low whole, gulpe or let downe without chawing.

Devot: m. te: f. Deuout, holie, godlie, zealous, religious; alſo, ſcrupulous, or curious (religiouſly.)

Devotement. Deuoutly, holily, religiouſly, zealouſly; alſo, curiouſly, ſcrupulouſly, with feare of conſcience.

Devotieusement. Moſt deuoutly.

Devotieux: m. euſe: f. Full of deuotion.

Devotion: f. Deuotion, zeale, holineſſe, conſcience, godlineſſe; a religious awe, reuerend feare, ſcruple, curioſitie.

Hommage de devotion. Looke Hommage.

Devotionné: m. ée: f. Deuoted, affected vnto.

Devoüé: m. ée: f. Deuoted, vowed, or deſtined vnto; appointed, ordained, prouided for.

Devouëment: m. A vowing; or, deuoting vnto.

Devouer. To vow, deuote, or deſtine vnto; appoint, ordaine, or prouide for.

Devouté: m. ée: f. Vnvaulted, vnarched; vnbent; as a bow &c.

Devouter. To vnvault, or vnbend, as a bow in ſhooting it off.

Deuſdet. as Maſſe d'armes.

Deuvet. as Duvet; Soft downe.

Deux. Two.

Les deux; ou tous deux. Both, or each of them.

Deux à deux. By two and two, from two to two, by couples, euerie two.

Deux fois. Twice.

Deux pour vn. A Snipe-knaue; ſo called, becauſe two of them are worth but one Snipe.

Entre deux. Doubtfull, indifferent, in ſuſpence, one knowes not whether; alſo, in the mid-way, or betweene both; alſo, readie, in mind, or about to do a thing; alſo, at his owne choice, as he liſts himſelfe.

Demeurer entre deux & as. Looke As.

Mettre en deux. To double (in foulding;) or to fould double.

Reſpondre entre deux & as. Cunningly to frame ſo doubtfull an anſwer betweene yea and no, that the demaunder knowes not what to make of it; (from a Die that ſtands edgling, and thereby yeelds an vncertaine chance.)

Deux chiens ne s'accordent point à vn os: Prov. Looke Accorder.

Deux hommes ſe rencontrent bien; mais iamais deux Montagnes: Prov. Two men may often meet, but mountaines neuer.

Deux loups mangent bien vne brebis: Prov. Two wolues can make good ſhift with one poore ſheepe.

Deux orgueilleux ne peuvent eſtre portez ſur vn aſne: Prov. One ſimple Aſſe cannot beare two proud Aſſes.

Deux yeux voyent plus clair qu'un: Prov. Two eyes ſee better (two men know more) then one.

Qui bien tire deux en a: Prov. He that drawes well drawes twice; a good draught counteruailes a double draught.

Secret de deux ſecret de Dieu: Prov. Looke Dieu.

Deux pour-vn. A Snipe-knaue.

Dexterité: f. Dexteritie, nimbleneſſe, quickneſſe, readineſſe, aptneſſe; alſo, handſomeneſſe, comelineſſe, gracefulneſſe.

Dextre: com. vn homme dextre. An able, actiue, proper, handſome, well-behaued man; Seeke Adeſtre.

Dextre. à dextre; ou, à coſté dextre. On the right hand, or ſide.

Dextrement. Nimbly, aptly, actiuely, properly, fitly, featly, handſomely, gracefully.

Dextrier. as Deſtrier; a Steed, or horſe of ſeruice.

Dextrochere: m. The right arme (from th'elbow to the wriſt) whereon there hangs a Manple fringed at the bottome, and charged all ouer with Ermines.

Dez. en Dez. Incontinently, by and by, forthwith; euer and anone.

Dia. The cry wherewith Carters make their horſes turne on the left hand; alſo, a tearme ſet before medicinall Confections, or Electuaries, that were deuiſed by the Greekes.

Diabete: m. A continuall, and immoderate voiding of vrine, accompanied with extreame thirſt.

Diable: m. A Diuell, a Fiend, an euill Spirit.

Diable deſchainé. A diuell got looſe; a Hell-hound, or Furie broken out of hell; a diuelliſh, horrible, or terrible fellow.

Diable de mer. A ſea-Coot; or, ſea-Cormorant; alſo, the ougliе wide-mouthed fiſh, called, the ſea Frog, or ſea Toad.

Diable en procez. A notable wrangler, or cauiller a wonderfull plodding, ſtirring, or buſie-headed companion.

Vn povre diable. A poore wretch, poore ſnake, ragged, needie, or beggerlie fellow.

Banquet de diables. Wherein there is no ſalt.

Mors à diable. Hearbe Auens, Bennet, or bleſſed (called ſo by ſome.)

Mors du diable. The hearbe Forebit, or Diuels bit.

Vallet du diable. C'eſt vn val: du d; il fait plus que l'on luy commande. Said of one thats too diligent, officious, or buſie.

Voix de diable: Aile d'Ange, & voix de diable. The deſcription, or ſtile, of a Peacocke.

Le diable y ſera bien. There will be a foule coyle, horrible ſtirre, monſtrous confuſion, or garboyle.

A ces diables. To it apace and ſpare not, ſirs; forbeare it not as long as it will laſt.

Faire le diable de Vauvert. To keepe an old coyle, horrible buſtling, terrible ſwaggering; to play monſtrous reakes, or raks-iakes.

Faire d'un diable deux. To make a thing the worſe by ſeeking to amend it; to commit two errors in ſtriuing to ſalue one.

Fuſt il plus diable qu'il n'eſt cornu. Were he much more terrible then he ſeemes to be.

Ie le rendray plus diable qu'il n'eſt cornu; I will affright him more then he feares others.

Il n'eſt ſi diable qu'il eſt noir. He is not ſo lewd as he lookes, nor ſo bad as he is taken, for; he is nothing ſo offenſiue, miſchieuous, or dangerous as he ſeems to be.

Le diable n'eſt pas touſiours à vn huis: Prov. The diuell is not alwaies at one dore; he tempts, and attempts, men ſundrie wayes.

Au preſter Ange, au rendre diable: Pro. (Thus doe vngratefull men when they would borrow, flatter, when they muſt repay, rayle.)

De jeune Angelot vieux diable: Prov. We ſay, a young Saint an old diuell.

Et plus a le diable, & plus veut avoir: Prov. The more the diuell hath the more he would; (And herein, as in moſt points elſe, the greedie ſcrape-good humors him.)

Ire de Freres, ire de Diables: Prov. Looke, Ire.

La farine du diable s'en va moitié en ſon: Pro. Halfe of the diuels meale turnes vnto branne.

On connoit le diable à ſes griffes: Pro. The diuell is knowne by his clawes; a couetous heart discerned by catching hands.

Quand le François dort le diable le berse. (A Prouerbe made by the Flemings out of patience with th'impatient, and restlesse humors of the French.)

Qui a marastre il a le diable à l'atre: Prov. Looke Atre.

Diablerie: f. Diuellishnesse; also, a diuellish crue, knot, or companie; also, a Play, or Shew of diuells; and hence;

La diablerie à quatre personnages. A great matter, or mischiefe; a mischieuous hap; also, a wonderous rumbling, terrible coile, horrible stirre.

Diablesse: f. A she diuell, or female diuell.

Diableteau. A little diuell, a yong diuell.

Diableteau de coeur. A lad-diuell, or nouice diuell (a prophane allusion to, Enfant de coeur; a Quirrester:) ¶Rab.

Diableusement. Most diuellishly.

Diabolique: com. Diabolicall, diuellish, feend-like.

Diaboliquement. Diabollically, diuellishly.

Diacartami. A purging composition, made of sundrie ingredients.

Diacatholicon. A composition so tearmed, because it purgeth all kind of humors.

Diacimmon. A composition made of Simples fit to dissolue windinesse in the stomacke.

Diaconal: m. ale: f. Diaconall; of, or belonging to, a Deacon.

Diaconat: m. as Diaconie.

Diaconie: f. A Deaconrie; the place of a Deacon.

Diacre: m. A Deacon.

Diaculon. A certaine mollifying plaister, tearmed otherwise, Diachylon, because it is made of iuices.

Diademe: m. A Diadem; a Crowne, or wreath for the head of a King; properly it signifies, a wreathed headband (with which the auncient Kings were contented, as thinking, that the Crowne belonged onely to the gods.)

Diafane: com. Cleere, bright, transparent, translucent, through-shining, through which one may see.

Diagalange. A confection, or salue made of Galingale.

Diagonal: m. ale: f. Diagonall; or extending from one corner to another.

Diagonalement. Diagonally; from corner to corner.

Diagone: m. A line that extends from one corner to another.

Diagoné: m. ée: f. as Diagonal; also, more high, or deepe, than broad.

Diagredé. A medicine, or ointment made of the Gumme Diagredi.

Diagredi. A strong-purging Gumme, which distilleth from the root of the hearbe Scammonie.

Diagredié: m. ée: f. Mixt with Diagredium, or Scammonie prepared.

Diaire: m. A Diarie, or Jornall; a relation of things done euerie day.

Diaire: com. Of a day, of one day, continuing for a day (and no longer.)

Diale. The diuell: ¶Pic.

Dialecte: m. A Dialect, or proprietie of language.

Dialecticien. A Logician.

Dialectique: f. Logicke, the Art of reason, or of reasoning.

Dialectiquement. Logically, by the art of Logicke; as a good Logician.

Diallement. Diuellishly, furiously, fellly.

Dialogisme: m. A figure, or discourse, wherein one arguing with himselfe as if hee talked to another, both moues the question, and makes the answer.

Dialogue: m. A Dialogue; a discourse betweene two, or more.

Dialthée. An ointment, whose principall ingredient is the mucilage, or slime of Althea, or marsh Mallow.

Diamant: m. A Diamond; also, the Loadstone; (in stead of Aymant.)

Cloué à clous de diamant. Most fast, most sure.

Diamantin: m. ine: f. Of a Diamond, as hard as a Diamond.

Diamargariton. An Electuarie, so called by reason of the Pearles whereof tis made.

Diambre. A confection of Amber, and other heart-comforting simples.

Diamerdis. A confection of turds, pilgrims salue; also, a shitten fellow.

Diametralement. Oppositiuely, right ouerthwart, cleane crosse, in opposition to, or one ouer against another.

Diametraler à. To correspond, or answer vnto diametrally; to stand right ouer against.

Diametre: m. A Diameter; a straight line, which passing through the middle, or center of a square, circle, or other figure, diuides it into two equall parts.

Diammour. The Diuell: ¶Barrag.

Diamouron. Syrop of Mulberries.

Diamoschum. A kind of cordiall powder.

Diane. à la diane. In the morning, at the breaking vp of the watch (a militarie tearme.)

Bailler la diane. To giue a cold pie, or mornings camisadoe; also, to surprise, or assault, by Moone-light.

Sonner la Diane. Trumpetters to sound in a morning to their Generall, and Captaines.

Dianier: m. ere: f. Consecrated to Diana; or, that hath vowed chastitie.

Dianisum. An Electuarie made of Anise seeds and other things good to breake wind.

Diantre. The diuell, the god of darkenesse: ¶Nom. ¶Rab.

Diapason. A Diapason, in Musicke; also, as Iauge; a gage to measure caske with.

Diapente. A powder, or composition, wherein there are fiue simples equally incorporated; Myrhe, Gentian, long Birthwort, Bay berries, and Shauen or scraped Iuorie.

Diaphane. as Diafane; Transparent, translucent, cleere as Crystall.

Diaphaner. To cleere, brighten, make transparent.

Diaphenicum. A purging Electuarie made of the Dates called Phenices.

Diaphoretique: com. Dissoluing, or euaporating humors.

Diphragmatique. veine diaph. Looke Veine.

Diaphragme. The Midriffe; a long, and round muscle, whereby the vitall parts are seperated from the naturall, and, the heart & lights from the stomack, and nether bowels.

Diapré: m. ée: f. Diapred, or diapred; diuersified with flourishes, or sundrie figures.

Diaprer. To diaper, flourish, diuersifie with flourishings.

Diaprerie: f. Flourishing in worke; or, flourisht worke.

Diapreure: f. A diapring, or flourishing in worke; as in Diapers.

Diarrhée.

Diarrhée. A laske, or flux without inflammation.
Diarrhoëtique. That hath such a laske.
Diarrodon. A kind of paine-abating syrrop.
Diarthrose. A knitting, or connexion of bones, that euidently moue together.
Diasene. as Diasenné.
Diasenné. A purging composition made of Scne, or Trifolie.
Diaspertisant (or rather) Diaspermatisant. Disseminating, or sowing of seed: ¶Rab.
Diastolé. The dilatation of the heart.
Diatipose: f. A double Description, or Figuring.
Diatolique: com. Continuall, without intermission: ¶Rab.
Diaule: m. A measure containing two furlongs.
Dicastes: m. The Judges of the auncient Thebans: ¶Rab.
D'ici. Looke D'icy.
Dict: m. cte: f. Sayed, spoken, deliuered, uttered, expressed, shewen, told, declared, signified, reported vnto.
Dictam: m. as Dictame.
Dictame: m. The hearbe Dittanie, Dittander, garden Ginger.
Dictame bastard. Bastard Dittanie; somewhat resembles the right one, but is neither sweet of smell, nor biting in tast; some also call Fraxinella so.
Dictame blanc. Tragium, Fraxinella; called also, bastard, or false Dittanie; and oft mistaken, and much vsed, by Apothecaries, for the right Dittanie, though, in forme, it be nothing like it: (¶Mathiolus.)
Dictame de Candie. Dittanie, &, Dittanie of Candia, the right Dittander.
Dictamon. as Dictame.
Dictateur: m. A Dictator; an Officer among the Romanes, who, for the time he ruled, had Soueraigne authoritie.
Dictature: f. The Dictatorship.
Dicté: m. ée: f. Dictated; indicted.
Dicter. To dictate, appoint, or tell another, what and how, he shall write.
Diction: f. A diction, speech, or saying.
Diction: m. A conceit, pithie sentence, prettie saying; an Apothegme; also, a finall arrest, sentence, iudgement, order, penned at large, and commonly subscribed by the Iudge, and his assistants.
D'-icy. From hence; from this place, or time.
D'-icy à quel temps? How long? in what time? till when?
Diesble, for Diable; The diuell: ¶Parisien.
Diése: f. A sharpe, in Musicke.
Diete: f. Diet, or dailie fare; also, a Diet, Parliament, or assemblie of the States, & Princes of the Empire.
Dietitique: com. Of, or belonging to, diet; prescribing a diet.
Dieu: m. God.
Dieux! An Interiection of admiring; as we say, good God!
Boeuf de dieu. A Wren.
La Croix de par dieu. The Christs-crosse-row; or Horne-booke wherein a child learnes it.
La feste dieu. Whitsunday.
Vne Iambe de dieu. So doe the canting, and blasphemous rogues of France tearme a cankered, gangrened, or desperately-sore leg.
Maison dieu. A Spittle, or Hospitall.
Paulme dieu. Palma Christi, Satyrion royall.
Vn pleust à dieu. Looke Plaire.
Dieu Colas. By S. Nicholas, or for S. Nicholas sake: ¶Lorrainois: ¶Rab.
A dieu ne plaise. God forbid, God shield, God sware-bot.
De par dieu soit. In the name of God be it; God prosper it, or send it well to speed.
De par luy bon dieu. In the name of God; or, for Gods sake: ¶Lymosin: ¶Rab.
Et encor pour dieu soit, si. And he may thanke God, or, hee is beholden to his aduersaries pietie, if.
Ne croire à dieu que sur bons gages. To trust no man, how rich soeuer hee bee, without good pawnes; to beleeue no man, how honest soeuer, without great prooses: (In which phrase though God bee mentioned, yet is not an impious, but a churlish distrust meant by it.)
Faire le doux dieu dessous vne pesle. Il fait &c. He is very nice, quaint, precise, or curious in all his actoins; Looke Pesle.
Oublier dieu parmi tous les Saincts. Il oublie, &c; The neerer he is to the Church, the further he is from God.
Dieu donne biens, & boeuf, mais ce n'est pas par la corne: Prov. Looke Boeuf.
Dieu donne le froid selon le drap: Prov. God sends men cold according to their cloath; viz. afflictions according to their faith.
Dieu sçait qui est bon pelerin: Prov. God knowes the hearts of Pilgrims.
A pere à maistre, à dieu tout puissant, nul ne peut rendre l'equivolent: Prov. No man can sufficiently requite his Father, Maister, Maker.
A toile ourdie dieu mande le fil: Prov. God works begun enables vs to follow.
En petite maison dieu a grand part: Prov. In a little mansion God hath a great portion.
En peu d'heure dieu labeure: Pro. God quickly does what he will doe.
Il ne perd rien qui ne perd dieu: Prov. Hee looses nothing that keepes God his friend.
Là ou dieu veut il pleut: Prov. Looke Plouvoir.
Pour devenir bien tost riche il faut tourner le dos à dieu: Prov. The way to grow soone rich is, to forsake religion.
Qui sert dieu il a bon maistre: Pro. He that serues God, serues a good maister.
Secret de deux secret de dieu: Prov. Yet wee say, that, two can keepe counsell when one is away.
Dieu-donné: m. Theodore (a proper name for a man.)
Dieu-gard: vn dieu-gard. A salutation; or, a, God-saue-you.
Dieutelet: m. A little god.
Dieux! Interject. Looke Dieu.
Diffamation: f. A defamation; defaming, depraying, discrediting, traducing, open disgracing in speeches.
Diffamatoire: com. Diffamatorie.
Diffame: m. Infamie, obloquie, reproach, discredit, ignominie, dishonour, disgrace, an ill report, an euill name, an imputation.
Diffamé: m. ée: f. Defamed, infamous, discredited, dishonoured, much and ill spoken of; whose good name is tainted, reputation blemished, credit lost.

Diffamer. To defame, traduce, discredit, reproach, deprave, disgrace, dishonor.

Differanté : m. ée : f. Differed, or disagreed from; in debate, or at variance with; also, diuersified.

Differanter. To differ, or disagree from; to iarre, contend, debate, or be at variance with; also, as Differenter.

Differé : m. ée : f. Differed, protracted, delayed, lingered, driuen, put, or shifted off.

Differemment. Distinctly, seuerally, differently, with a difference.

Difference : f. A difference, diuersitie; vnlikelinesse; distinction; disagreeing; also, a certaine distance, or measure in Geometrie.

Differencié : m. ée : f. Distinguished, made different from.

Different : m. A difference, controuersie, suit, variance; disagreement, contention, strife, debate, ods; also, a different marke, or thing; or a marke whereby one thing is distinguished from another.

Different. Different; vnlike, diuers, differing, varying, disagreeing, seuerall, from; of another condition or qualitie, nature or kind.

Differenter. as Differanter; Also, to diuersifie, or varie.

Differer. To deferre, delay, driue, or put off; to protract, prolong, linger, procrastinate, shift off day after day.

Sans differer. Presently, at the verie instant; without staying one iot more, any whit longer.

Difficile : com. Difficile, difficult; hard, vneasie, troublesome, intricate, painefull, almost impossible.

Qui fait du difficile. Thats backeward, vnwilling; stubborne; squeamish, coy, nice; thats verie loath to meddle with, or to be drawne vnto, a thing; thats verie hard to bee intreated, or woon to vndertake a thing.

Difficilement. Difficultly, hardly, vneasily, troublesomely; scantly, scarcely; with great paine, with much adoe.

Difficulté : f. A difficultie; a great let, maine impediment, a trouble, a painefull or intricate enterprise.

Difficulté de digestion. Ill disgestion, rawnesse of the stomacke.

Difficulté d'haleine. Pursnesse; obstruction of the conduits of the lights.

Difficulté d'vriner. The Strangurie.

Difficulter. To difficultate, or difficilitate; to make difficult, or vneasie; to make it a hard matter; to make bones of.

Difficultueux. Verie hard, verie difficult, full of difficulties.

Diffinitivement. as Definitivement.

Difflation : f. A difflation, blowing, or breathing.

Difforme : com. Deformed, ouglie, ill-fauoured, vnseemelie, vncomelie, mishapen, formelesse, out of fashion.

Difformité : f. Deformitie, ouglinesse, vnseemelinesse, vncomelinesse, ill-fauouredneſſe; a blemish in fauour.

Diffus : m. use : f. Diffused, spred, scattered abroad; large, wide, extended; hanging loosse; also, spilt, powred out.

Diffusément. Diffusedly, scatteredly, disordredly.

Digame. One that hath two wiues together; also, one that marieth after his first wiues death; one that hath had two wiues.

Digastrique. Hauing two bellies.

Muscle digastrique. A muscle issuing from the Processe called Mastoide (sometimes from Stilloide) the vse of it is, to draw the lower iaw downeward.

Digeré : m. ée : f. Disgested, concocted, digested, borne, abiden; also, disposed, sorted, ordered.

Digerer. To disgest, concoct; brooke, beare, digest, abide, away with; also, to sort, order, dispose.

Digerer bien vn conseil. Throughly to examine, weigh, thinke, or consider of, a counsell giuen.

Digestif : m. iue : f. Disgestiue, or procuring disgestion.

Digestion : f. Disgestion, concoction, digestion.

Digitale. The hearbe called Fox-gloues.

Digitale jaulne. Fox-gloues with the yellow flower, (is lesse, and lesse common then)

Digitale purpure. Purple Fox-gloues; called so of the colour of the flowers.

Digitation : f. The forme of the fingers of both hands ioyned together; or the manner of their so ioyning.

Digitte : m. A Diget, the Character which expresseth a figure in Arithmeticke; as an V, the figure of fiue; &c.

Digne : com. Worthie; condigne, deseruing; meet, fit for.

Dignement. Worthily, condignely, deseruedly, according to merit.

Dignité : f. Dignitie; promotion; honour; authoritie, superioritie; greatnesse of estate, or in office; great estimation, or worthinesse; Nobilitie, or nobleneſſe.

Fief de dignité. A Fief that hath a dignitie, or title of Nobilitie, annexed vnto it; Looke Fief.

Seigneurs de dignité. Are Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Princes, Vicounts, Barons, and Chattelains; Noble-men; or such Gentlemen as are Lords by inheritance, or birth.

Digonner. To dig, or pricke; ¶Norm.

Digression : f. A digression, or digressing; a going, straying, swaruing, aside, or from the matter; a changing of purpose, an altering of discourse.

Digue. A ditch, bound, or banke; a iettie, dam, or mount, raised vp for a defence against the incursions, or inundations of waters.

Dilaceration : f. A tearing, or rending asunder.

Dilaceré : m. ée : f. Dilacerated; rent, or torne in peeces.

Dilacerer. To dilacerate, rend, or teare in peeces.

Dilaïé : m. ée : f. Delayed; or allayed.

Dilaïer. To delay; or, allay.

Dilapidé : m. ée : f. Dilapidated.

Dilapider. To dilapidate; ruine, or pull downe stone-buildings; also, to rid of, or purge from, stones.

Dilatable : com. Dilatable, inlargeable, extendable, widenable.

Dilatateur : m. A dilatator, inlarger, widener; extender.

Dilatation : f. A dilatation; a widening, inlarging, stretching out, spreading abroad.

Dilatatoire : m. A dilatatorie, or inlarger; an Instrument wherewith Chirurgions open those partes that by sickenesse, or other accident, are too much closed.

Dilaté : m. ée : f. Dilated, widened, inlarged, stretched out, spred abroad, made broad.

Dilater. To dilate, widen, inlarge, extend, stretch out, spread abroad, make broad.

Dilation : f. A deferring, delaying, prolonging, protraction.

Dilatoire : com. Dilatorie, delaying, deferring.

Dilayant. Delaying, deferring, protracting, prolonging.

Dilayement: m. as Dilation.

Diligemment. Diligently, sedulously, quickly, speedily; laboriously, studiously, carefully, industriously, intentiuely, vigilantly.

Diligence: f. Speed; sedulitie; diligence, quickneſſe; much trauell, or ſtudie; great inſtance; laborious induſtrie; earneſt intention, about.

Faire ſes diligences. To performe, or pay his dueties; meant of ſuch as are to be performed before one can recouer land ſold by his next kinſman, or forfeited by his owne default; alſo; in the firſt caſe, to enter his action for; or, to enter, and take poſſeſſion of, the land ſo aliened.

Diligence paſſe ſcience: Prov. Diligence exceedeth Science; painefulneſſe of more merit then skilfulneſſe.

Diligent. Diligent, ſedulous, quicke, ſpeedie; ſtudious, laborious, painfull; vigilant, intentiue, carefull; earneſt, or buſie about a thing.

Diligenté: m. ée: f. Speeded, haſtened; quickly prepared, ſoone prouided; forwarded apace.

Diligenter. To haſten, forward, giue ſpeed vnto, ſet on apace.

Se diligenter. To be diligent, nimble, quicke; painfull, earneſt about; to make ſpeed, or beſtirre himſelfe apace, in a buſineſſe.

Dille: f. The Quill, or Fawcet of a Hogshead &c.

Dillon: m. A Quinſell, for a horſe.

Dilucide: com. Cleere, bright, plaine, manifeſt, euident, eaſie to be diſcerned.

Dilucidé: m. ée: f. Dilucidated; cleered.

Delucider. To cleere, dilucidate; explaine, manifeſt, make plaine to be vnderſtood.

Dimenche: m. Sunday; the Sabboth day.

Dimenche de blanches. Palmes-Sunday.

Le Dimenche de paſques fleuries. (The ſame.)

Dimencheret. valet dimencheret. A Holy-day ſeruant; one that waits but on good dayes.

Dimenſion: f. A dimenſion, or meaſuring.

Diminué: m. ée: f. Diminiſhed, leſſened, impaired, abated, extenuated; qualified.

Diminuer. To diminiſh, leſſen, impaire, abate, extenuate; alſo, to qualifie; alſo, to diuide (in ſinging.)

Diminution: f. A diminution; appairing, leſſening, impairing, diminiſhing, extenuation; abatement.

Diminutions. Diuiſion (in Muſicke.)

Dinanderie: f. Broken ware, Copper ware, Tinkers worke; alſo, the place where ſuch ſtuffe is ſold; or made.

Dinandier: m. A Copper-Smith, or Braſier; a word (as the former) deriued from Dinand, a towne (ſtanding on the riuer of Meuſe*) wherein copper kettles, &c, are made.*

Dinarchie: f. The ioynt gouernement of two Princes.

Dindan: m. The ding-dong, or ringing out of bells.

Dindar. A Turkie-cocke; Seeke Indar.

Diner. A dinner; See Diſner.

Dintiers: m. The cods, dowcets, or tenderings of a Deere.

Dioceſe: m. A Dioceſſe; the iuriſdiction of a Biſhop.

Diole. The diuell: ¶Brett.

Diphthere. Peau Diphthere. The skinne of th' Amalthean Goat, wherein Iupiter is fained to record humane occurrences: ¶Rab.

Dipsade. A Snake whoſe biting brings with it a mortall drineſſe.

Dipſode. A thirſtie fellow: ¶Rab.

Diptam, ou Diptame. Hearbe Dittanie, Garden Ginger; Looke Dictame.

Dique: f. as Digue.

Dire: m. A ſaying, tale, ſpeech, talke, word.

Du dire au faict y a grand traict: Prov. Deeds and words dwell farre aſunder: either becauſe many things that are ſpoken are not intended to be done; or becauſe few things will ſo quickly, or can ſo eaſily be done, as they are ſpoken.

Dire. To ſay, ſpeake, talke, vtter, expreſſe, deliuer, tell, declare, ſhew, ſignifie, relate, report vnto; alſo, to bid, or commaund.

En dire ſa coulpe. To beat, or thumpe his breaſt, as a repentant ſinner, for his faults.

Dire par jeu. To ieaſt.

Dire le mot. To breake a ieaſt.

Dire mille pouilles à. To reuile, reproach, raile on, ſcould at.

A dire. Il y a autãt à dire, que du. There is as much difference, as betweene.

Trouver à dire. To miſſe, lacke, need, want the things we had before.

Ie ne trouve rien à dire en cela. I find no fault with, I ſee no defect in, that.

Ie ne dis pas. (Encore ſi elle eſtoit ieune, ie ne dis pas.) I would neuer ſpeake on't.

Mal dire. fortune voulut mal dire à. Would croſſe, or become foe vnto.

Ouy dire. par ouy dire. By heare-ſay, by the report of others.

Sans dire guare. On a ſudden, without warning, at vnawares.

Que faut il tant dire? What need ſo many words about the matter?

Dis tu? Indeed? It is euen ſo? (an angrie manner of ſpeaking.)

Que dis tu! (In admiration) Is it poſſible? good God who would haue thought it! tis a wonder you tell me!

Ie ne dis qui le dit? I am nothing, who is any thing? (a Card-players phraſe.)

Les dez luy disent fort bien. He caſts verie well, or hath paſſing good lucke, at dice; the dice are exceeding fauourable vnto him. The like is;

Fortune vous dit. Fortune anſwers your expectation, or, is fauourable vnto you.

La livre dit douze onces. The pound containes, or conſiſts of, 12 ounces.

On dit. The ſpeech is, the report goes; tis ſaid, or talked abroad.

On me dit ton frere. Men call, name, or tearme mee, thy brother.

Vous dites d'orgues. You ſpeake to the purpoſe, you ſay maruellous well; (Ironically.)

Aſſez en dit qui apporte bonnes nouvelles: Prov. He ſayes ynough that ſayes his newes are good; or, he that brings good newes loues to tell them often.

Bien dire fait rire, bien faire fait taire: Prov. Good words breed laughter, good deeds admiration.

Entre faire & dire il y a grand à dire: Prov. Betweene ſaying and doing there is great difference; (Looke before in Dire, Subſtan.)

On doit dire du bien le bien: Prov. Of things well done we ought to ſpeake well.

Tout ouïr, tout voir, & rien dire, merite en tout temps qu'on l'admire: Prov. Heare and ſee all, but ſay nothing, ſo maieſt thou ſtill be admired.

Tout vray n'eſt pas bon à dire : Prov. Euerie trueth is not to be told.

Direct : m. cte : f. Direct, ſtraight, right, iuſt, plaine; immediate, peculier.

Seigneur direct. A Land-lord; a direct, immediate, or next Lord.

Directement. Directly, rightly, ſtraightly, iuſtly; immediately; plainely, without circumſtances, to the purpoſe.

Directer. To direct, guide, lead, conduct; rule, order; ſtraighten the courſe of, or keepe in a ſtraight courſe; alſo, to acknowledge from whence a good commeth.

Directeur : m. A directer, leader, conducter, guide; ruler, gouerner, inſtructer.

Direction : f. A direction; guide, conduction; inſtruction.

Directoire : com. Directorie, directiue, directing.

Direption : f. A ſpoyling, robbing, ranſacking; pulling, reuling, tearing, or taking away by violence.

Dirigé : m. ée : f. Directed, guided, conducted, led; ordered, ruled, gouerned; addreſſed, leuelled, made right, kept ſtraight.

Diriger. To direct, guide, lead, conduct; addreſſe, leuell, make right, keepe ſtraight; rule, order, gouerne.

Diſceptateur : m. An arguer, diſputer, contender, debater; a pleader; alſo, a Dayes man, arbitrator, or ſtickler.

Diſceptation : f. A diſceptation; diſputation, contention, arguing, debating, reaſoning about a matter; alſo, an arbitrement.

Diſceptatrice : f. A woman that diſputes, reaſons, or debates, a matter; alſo, an arbitratrix.

Diſcepté : m. ée : f. Diſputed, debated, reaſoned, pleaded, argued; examined, arbitrated.

Diſcepter. To diſpute, debate, reaſon, plead, argue a caſe; alſo, to arbitrate, or examine a controuerſie betweene parties and parties.

Diſcerné : m. ée : f. Diſcerned, or diſtinguiſhed; parted, ſeuered, ſundered.

Diſcerner. To diſcerne, or diſtinguiſh one thing from another; alſo, to part, ſeperate, ſeuer, diuide aſunder; to make, or put a difference betweene.

Diſciple : m. A Scholler, a learner, a Pupill, a Diſciple.

Diſciplinable : com. Diſciplinable; teachable, fit to learne.

Diſciplinaire : com. Diſciplinarie; belonging to diſcipline, full of inſtruction; correctiue, ſchooling.

Diſcipline : f. Diſcipline, learning, doctrine, inſtruction; an art, a ſcience; alſo, correction, ſchooling, and penance; or a whip to doe penance, or giue puniſhment with.

Diſcipliné : m. ée : f. Diſciplined, ſchooled, corrected; put vnto penance.

Diſcipliner. To diſcipline, ſchoole, correct, bring vnder coram; (and hence) alſo, to whip, or put vnto a ſharpe penance.

Diſcole : com. Vnrulie, not obſeruing orders, without gouernment.

Dicommodation. Dammage, hurt, inconuenience, hinderance, diſeaſe, diſpleaſure.

Diſcommodé : m. ée : f. Diſcommodated, or incommodated; hurt, indammaged, hindered.

Diſcommoder. To diſcommodate, incommodate, hurt, hinder, bring dammage, breed inconueniences, vnto.

Diſconcerté : m. ée : f. Diſordered, confuſed; ſet awry.

Diſcontinuation : f. A diſcontinuation, or diſcontinuing; an intermiſſion, ſurceaſing, diſcontinuance, breaking off, giuing ouer, for a time.

Diſcontinué : m. ée : f. Diſcontinued, ſurceaſed, intermitted.

Diſcontinuément. Diſcontinuingly; intermiſſiuely, by ſtops, with interruptions.

Diſcontinuer. To diſcontinue, ſurceaſe, intermit, forbeare, put off for a time.

Diſconvenance : f. A diſagreeing with, a diſſenting from; a being vnfit for, or vnlike vnto.

Diſconvenir. To diſagree, or be at ods with; to be vnfit for, or vnlike vnto; to diſſent from.

Diſcord : m. Diſcord, iarring, repugnancie, diſagreement; variance, debate, altercation, ſtrife; diſſention, contention.

Diſcordamment. Jarringly, repugnantly, diſagreeingly, without any order, or harmonie.

Diſcordant. Diſcordāt, iarring, diſagreeing, repugnant, contrarie; moſt harſh, moſt vnfuneable.

Diſcorder. To diſagree, differ, diſſent from; to iarre, ſtriue, be at diſcord with; to be repugnant, vnlike, or contrarie vnto.

Diſcoſte : com. Diſtant, remote, farre, farre aſunder, farre off.

Se Diſcotter de. To remoue, put from him, rid himſelfe of, leaue aſide, abandon, quit, forſake, forgoe.

Diſcourir. To diſcourſe of; to relate, report, recite, rehearſe; to particularize point after point; alſo, to peruſe, examine, ſearch into; ſuruey, diſcouer, runne ouer; and hence;

Diſcourir pluſieurs païs. To paſſe, or trauell through, many lands.

Diſcours : m. A diſcourſe, report, relation, rehearſall of a matter; alſo, a ſuruey, peruſall, examination, pondering of things in the mind.

Diſcourtois : m. iſe : f. Diſcourteous, vngentle, vnciuile, rude, harſh, without humanitie.

Courtoiſie tardiue eſt diſcourtoiſe : Prov. A lateward courteſie is a diſcourteſie; fauours that are long a doing are loathſome, done.

Diſcourtoiſie : f. A diſfauour, diſcourteſie, vngentle tricke, vnciuile pranke, rude part.

Diſcraſié : m. ée : f. Pulled, baled; alſo, drie, drained, or wrung drie; of an ill complexion : ¶ Rab.

Diſcrepance : f. A diſcrepancie, difference, repugnancie, diſagreement.

Discrepant : m. ante : f. Diſcrepant, different, diſagreeing from, repugnant vnto.

Diſcret : m. ete : f. Diſcreet, aduiſed; prudent, ſage; prouident, heedfull, circumſpect.

Diſcretement. Diſcreetly, aduiſedly; prudently; prouidently, heedfully, circumſpectly.

Diſcretion : f. Diſcretion, (truc) diſcerning; a difference made, or a ſenſibleneſſe of difference had, betweene things; hence, iudgement, aduiſednеſſe, knowledge, wit enough, to find out whats good, t'eſchew what is bad, and to make the beſt vſe of either; alſo, a wager, (but an vncertaine one; it being at the loſers choice to pay what he things good.)

Vivre à diſcretion. To liue as he liſt, to pay for his board &c. what he liſt.

Diſcrucié : m. ée : f. Excruciated, extreamely afflicted.

Diſcrucier. To excruciate, vexe, torment, afflict extreamely.

Diſcuſſion : f. A diſcuſſion, or ſtrict examination, by parcells; a ſearching into, or ſifting out of.

Faire

Faire discussion sur les biens d'un debteur. To prise, or examine the value of, a debtors goods, thereby to know how able he is to satisfie Creditors.

Discuté: m. ée: f. Discussed, debated, examined, diligently sought into, narrowly sifted out; also, prised, or praised, as a debtors goods.

Discuter. To discusse, examine, debate, search into, sift out; also, to value, or praise goods.

Discuteur: m. A discusser, examiner, debater; also, a valuer, or praiser of goods, to see what they are worth.

Discution. as Discussion.

Diseaux de gerbes. Sheafes of corne set tenne and tenne in a heape; halfe-thraues of tenne sheaues apeece; (ten-sheaued) stonks, or shocks of corne.

Disenier: m. A Counsellor, or Alderman of a Citie; also, a Captaine, or Commaunder ouer tenne souldiours; Looke Dixenier.

Disentourner. To vnturne, or turne off.

Disert: m. erte: f. Eloquent, well spoken, of good vtterance.

Disertement. Eloquently, elegantly, with choice words and good vtterance.

Diseteux: m. euse: f. Needie, wanting, in want, poore, beggarlie, penurious, vnfurnished of necessaries.

Disette: f. Want, scarcitie, beggarie, lacke, pouertie, necessitie, dearth, penurie, needinesse.

Diseur: m. A speaker, an arguer, a pleader, a prater.

Diseur d'heures. A Chaplaine; a sayer of prayers.

Disferre: f. An horse-shoe of two peeces ioyned together at the top with an yron pinne, and thereby straitened, or enlarged, to fit the foot, at pleasure.

Disgrace: f. A disgrace; an ill fortune, hard lucke; desesture, check-mate, mishap; also, vncomelinesse, vnseemelinesse, illfauorednesse; a deformitie, ill fashion, rude behauior, ouglie manner.

Disgratié: m. ée: f. Vnhappie, vnluckie, disastrous, vnfortunate; also, vnseemelie, deformed, vnhandsome, vncomelie.

Disgregé: m. ée: f. Disgregated, dispersed, scattered, seuered, sundered.

Disgreger. To disgregate, disperse, scatter, seuer, sunder.

Disjonctif: m. iue: f. Disiunctiue, disioyning, disuniting, diuiding.

Disjonction: f. A disiunction, diuision, disunitement, parting, or putting asunder.

Dislayer. as Delayer. To deferre, delay, put off.

Dislocation: f. A dislocation, a displacing.

Dislocation de membre. A putting out of ioynt.

Disloqué: m. ée: f. Displaced; put out of ioynt.

Disloquer. To put out of ioynt; to remoue out of his due place; to displace.

Dismages. Tythings, or matters belonging to tythes.

Disme: f. A tythe, or tenth of.

Dismes infeudées, ou infeodées. Impropriations of tythes.

Disme, & terrage à deux mains. Looke Main.

Veau de disme. A notable sot, blockhead, lobcocke.

Amasser la disme de l'ail. To procure vnto himselfe a sound beating; (In Poictou they say of one that hath beene well cudgelled, Il vouloit amasser la disme de l'ail. Because the Poicteuins will not suffer Tythe-Garlicke to be payed.

Dismé: m. ée: f. Tythed, whereof tythe is taken.

Disner. To tythe, or take the tenth of.

Disnerie: f. A tenth, tythe, or tything; the title, or possession of a tythe; a place whereout tythe is due.

Disneur: m. A tythe-gatherer; the owner of tythes, or he to whom tythe is due.

Disnier. A tyther; or, as Disneur.

Disné. Dined.

Ou nous avons disné nous souperons: Prov. Looke Souper.

Disner: m. A dinner; and (sometimes more generally) a meale.

Disner d'Advocats. A large meale; (eaten, not giuen.)

Disner de chien. Hounds fare, onely bread and water; or a meale wherein there is nothing drunke but water.

Disner de mouche. A poore pittance, a small bit, a little morsell, a Sparrowes dinner.

Disner de semonce. A feast, or solemn dinner, whereunto many guests are inuited aforehand.

Contre disner appert vallet: Prov. When meat is to be had my man appeares (sayes the ill-serued Maister.)

Petit disner longuement attendu, n'est pas donné, mais cherement vendu: Pro. Looke Attendu.

Qui garde son disner il a mieux à souper: Prov. He that keepes his dinner hath the better supper.

Disner. To dine.

Mal soupe qui tout disne: Prov. Hee suppes ill that dines all; after a gluttonous, and disordinat youth followes a needie, and hungrie age.

Disparagement: m. A disparagement; an vnfit, or vnworthie condition offered vnto, or imposed on, a man. ¶ Norm.

Disparer. ou, se Disparoir. To vanish away, to withdraw himselfe, or slinke out of sight on a suddaine.

Disparoissance: f. A disappearing, or vanishing out of sight; a suddaine withdrawing, or slinking out of companie.

Disparution: f. A disparition; or, as Disparoissance.

Dispathie: f. An Antipathie, or naturall disagreement.

Dispensaire: m. A Dispensatorie, or Booke, that teacheth how to make all Phisicall compositions.

Dispensateur: m. A Dispenser; a Disposer of things.

Dispensation: f. A dispensation; a distribution, or disposing of things.

Dispense: f. as Dispensation.

Dispensé: m. ée: f. Dispensed with; released, or held excused; also, proportionably distributed, or disposed of.

Dispenser. To dispence with, to take leaue of; to release, or giue leaue vnto; also, proportionably to distribute, or dispose of.

Dispersé: m. ée: f. Dispersed, scattered, sundered farre.

Dispersion: f. A dispersing, scattering, dissipation.

Dispos: m. ose: f. Nimble, actiue, lustie, sound, well disposed in body.

Disposé: m. ée: f. Disposed, ordered, sorted, appointed, trimmed, set in frame, put in array.

Disposer. To dispose, raunge, order, trim, dresse, appoint, set in frame, put in array.

Dispositeur: m. A disposer, sorter, orderer, arraunger of.

Diſpoſitif: m. iue: f. Diſpoſitiue, diſpoſitorie, diſpoſing.

Diſpoſition: f. A diſpoſing, ordering, ſorting, arraying, ranging, ranking; alſo, an inclination, or diſpoſition; a naturall humor, or affection vnto.

Diſpoſte: com. as Diſpos.

Diſpoſtement. Nimbly, actiuely, luſtily, ſoundly, with a good ſtrength, with great agilitie.

Diſproportion: f. A diſproportion, an inequalitie.

Diſproportionné: m. ée: f. Diſproportioned, vnequall, ill agreeing.

Diſputable: com. Diſputable; which may be reaſoned of, which will admit the debating.

Diſputaillé: m. ée: f. Fondly diſputed of, idly debated.

Diſputailler. To diſpute fondly, to debate a matter ſcurilly.

Diſputation: f. A diſputation; reaſoning, talking, or debating of a matter pro & contra.

Diſpute: f. A diſpute, difference, debate, altercation.

A vieux comptes nouvelles diſputes: Prov. Old accompts breed new differences.

Grande diſpute verité rebute: Prov. Looke Verité.

Diſputé: m. ée: f. Diſputed, debated; reaſoned, argued, talked, or treated of on both ſides.

Diſputer. To diſpute, reaſon, argue, talke, or treat of, pro & contra, to debate a matter in controuerſie.

Diſruption: f. A burſting, or breaking aſunder.

Diſſection: f. A diſſection; a cleauing in peeces, a cutting off, or aſunder.

Diſſeiché: m. ée: f. Dried vp.

Diſſeicher. To dry vp.

Diſſeillonner. To vnſeele, or open the eyes.

Diſſemblable: com. Diſſemblable, vnlike, diuers, different, vnreſembling.

Diſſemelé: m. eé: f. Vnſoled, or, whoſe ſoles are pulled off.

Diſſemeler. To vnſole, or pull the ſoles off a ſhoe.

Diſſentiment: m. Diſſent, diſagreement, diſaccord, repugnancie in opinions.

Diſſention: f. Diſſention, ſtrife, debate, variance; controuerſie, iarring, diſcord.

Diſſequé: m. ée: f. Cut in peeces, clouen aſunder.

Diſſequer. To cut in peeces; to open, or cleaue aſunder.

Diſſimilaire: com. Parties du corps diſſimilaires. Such compound parts of the bodie as are of ſundrie ſubſtances.

Diſſimulateur: m. A diſſembler, hypocrite, diſguiſer, double-dealer.

Diſſimulation: f. Diſſimulation, diſſembling, diſguiſing, hypocriſie, cloaking.

Diſſimulatrice: f. A woman diſſembler.

Diſſimulé: m. ée: f. Diſſembled; pretended, counterfeited.

Diſſimulément. Diſſemblingly, cloſely, couertly, vnder hand, as though he were not the man.

Diſſimuler. To diſſemble, counterfeit, play the hypocrite, pretend one thing and doe another.

Diſſipateur. A diſſipator, diſperſer, or ſcatterer abroad; an vnthrift, ſpendall, waſter, conſumer.

Diſſipation: f. A diſſipation, diſperſing, ſcattering; a waſting, vnthriftineſſe, prodigalitie, conſuming.

Diſſipé: m. ée: f. Diſſipated, diſperſed, ſcattered; waſted, rioted, conſumed.

Diſſipendre. as Deſpendre, or Diſſiper.

Diſſiper. To diſſipate, ſcatter, diſperſe, diſſolue, or ſend packing; to waſt, conſume, riot, bring vnto naught.

Diſſociable: com. Vnſociable, vnaccompanable, ſterne, rude, churliſh, froward, vnfriendlie.

Diſſociation. A diſſociation; or diuiding of companie, a ſeperation of fellowſhip.

Diſſocié: m. ée: f. Diſſociated; ſeperated, or ſeuered from the reſt.

Diſſolu: m. uë: f. Diſſolute, looſſe, leud, retcheleſſe, vnrulie, diſordered.

Diſſoluëment. Diſſolutely, looſſely.

Diſſolution: f. A diſſoluing, aboliſhing; a diſſolution, or looſſing; alſo, diſorder, exceſſe, retcheleſneſſe, looſſeneſſe of conuerſation.

Diſſonant. Diſſonant; diſcording, diſagreeing, iarring, vntuneable, of different tune from, ſounding vnlikely.

Diſſouldre. To diſſolue, vndoe, breake, ouerthrow.

Diſſuadé: m. ée: f. Diſſuaded, or deborted from.

Diſſuader. To diſſuade, or debort from.

Diſſuaſion: f. A diſſuaſion, diſſuading, deborting, aduiſing to the contrarie.

Diſſuétude: f. Diſuſe; the leauing of a cuſtome, or vſe.

Diſſyllabe: com. Of two ſyllables.

Diſtance: f. A diſtance, or difference; a ſpace betweene place and place.

Diſtant. Diſtant, different, diuers, farre off, farre remooued, farre aſunder.

Diſtenſion: f. A diſtenſion, ſtretching, retching, racking, or ſtrouting out.

Diſtenſion, & convulſion de nerfs: The Crampe.

Diſtillable: com. Diſtillable; fit, or apt to be diſtilled.

Diſtillation: f. A diſtilling, trilling, or dropping downe.

Diſtillation d'humeurs. A Rhewme, or Catarrhe.

Diſtillé: m. ée: f. Diſtilled; trilled, dropped downe.

Diſtillement: m. as Diſtillation.

Diſtiller. To diſtill, trill, drop downe by little and little.

Diſtinct: m. cte: f. Diſtinguiſhed, diuided, ſeperated, ſeuered, differing, alone; diſtinct, orderlie; marked, noted, pointed.

Diſtinctement. Diſtinctly, ſeuerally, aſunder; pointed in order, plainely.

Diſtinction: f. A diſtinction, diuerſitie, difference, a ſeperation; alſo, a note, point, or marke of difference.

Diſtingué: m. ée: f. Diſtinguiſhed, diuided.

Diſtinguer. To diſtinguiſh, diuide; ſeperate, ſeuer; to diſcerne, or put a difference betweene; to ſunder by different markes, notes, or colours.

Diſtique: m. A Diſtic; a couplet, or couple of verſes.

Diſtract: m. Any diſtraction, or diuiſion of a Contract, Right, or Act.

Diſtraction: f. A diſtraction; a pulling, into diuers parts, or by diuers parties; a violent withdrawing, diſſuading, or leading away, from.

Diſtraict: m. cte: f. Diſtracted, or diſtraught; plucked into diuers parts, pulled by diuers parties; violently withdrawne, diſſuaded, or led away, from.

Diſtraict & tiré d'une part & d'autre. Wonderfully diſtraught, or diſtracted; in a thouſand minds, moſt vnreſolued which way to take; which part to chuſe; what ſide to follow, or fall in with.

Distraire. To distract, or distraught; to rend into seuerall peeces, or hale into seuerall wayes; to draw into sundrie parts, or driue into sundrie passions; violently, and diuersly to withdraw, dismember, or dissolue.

Distrait. as Distraict.

Distrayant: m. ante: f. Distracting; drawing into seuerall parts, driuing into sundrie passions; violently, and diuersly withdrawing, or dismembring.

Distribué: m. ée: f. Distributed, diuided, parted, dealt, bestowed; deliuered, allotted, appointed.

Procez distribué. Looke Distribuer les procez.

Distribuer. To distribute; to distinguish, diuide, sort; to deale, bestow, giue in sundrie parts; to allot, or appoint vnto euerie one his portion.

Distribuer les procez. To referre th'examination of causes vnto some iudicious Conseillier, that may report vnto the Court the true state thereof; also, to appoint causes their seuerall dayes of hearing.

Distributeur: m. A distributor, dealer, diuider; hee that appoints vnto others their seuerall portions in a thing bestowed.

Distributif: m. iue: f. Distributiue; dealing, diuiding, distributing.

Distribution. A distribution, dealing, parting, diuision; a sorting, or seuering; a doale; an allotting or appointing out vnto each his portion.

Distribution des procez. The sorting of causes vnto their seuerall dayes of hearing, and Courts to be heard in; or as in Distribuer les procez.

District: m. A district; the liberties, or precincts of a place; the territorie, or circuit of countrey, within which a Lord, or his Officers may iudge, compell, or call in question, the inhabitants.

Distroict. as District.

Distroict de moulin. as Banlieuë de moulin.

Dit: m. A saying, speech, tearme, word.

Il ne faut pas enquerir d'ou soit le dit, mais qu'il soit bon: Prov. Inquire not whence a speech came so it be good.

Dit: m. ite: f. as Dict.

Ditateur: m. An inricher.

Dite: f. à sa dite. At his becke, at his nod; after his will and pleasure.

Ditellet: m. A little worke, a Pamphlet, a small Treatise.

Divague: com. Straying, raunging, roguing about, roaming abroad, wandering vp and downe, whose shooes are made of running leather.

Divagué. Strayed, raunged, roamed; wandered about.

Divaguer. To stray, raunge, rogue about, roame abroad, runne vnsteadily from place to place, wander inconstantly vp and downe.

Divers: m. erse: f. Diuers, differing, vnlike, sundrie, repugnant; also, froward, vnquiet, waspish, diuerous, waiward, hard to please.

Diversement. Diuersly, seuerally, asunder, apart by it selfe; differently, in seuerall fashions, in sundrie manner.

Diversifié: m. ée: f. Diuersified, varied; made of diuers formes, fashions, colours.

Diversifier. To varie, diuersifie; decke with sundrie colours, worke in diuers fashions; interlace, or mingle sundrie formes together; to change, or alter often.

Diversité: f. A diuersitie; seueraltie; varietie; a difference, or vnlikenesse.

Diverti: m. ie: f. Diuerted, turned, altered, withdrawne, dissuaded, averted, kept, or driuen from.

Divertir. To diuert, auert, alter, withdraw, dissuade, keepe, or driue from.

Divin: m. ine: f. Diuine, godlie, heauenlie, most holie; participating of the Godhead; belonging to, or comming from, God.

Huile divin. Oyle extracted by distillation from tiles, or brickes which haue bene some time steeped in verie old oyle.

Divinance: f. A diuining, presaging, foretelling, ghessing, prophecying.

Divination: f. A diuination, presage, or coniecturall iudgement of things to come.

Divinement. Diuinely, godlily, heauenly, most holily.

Diviner. To diuine; presage, foretell; See Deviner.

Divinité: f. Diuinitie, Godhead.

Divis. as Diviſé; Or, deuised; passed, or graunted by deuise.

Dot, & mariage divis. The dowrie, or portion giuen, or appointed out for, a daughter by her father, or mother.

Doüaire divis. The ioynture, or dower accorded, assigned, and laid out at the time of the contract.

Diviſé. Diuided, parted, seperated, disioyned, sundered, distinguished.

Doüaire diviſé. as Doüaire devis.

Diviſément. Diuidedly, or diuisiuely; seperately, distinctly, seuerally.

Diviſer. To diuide, part, sunder, distinguish, disioyne, seperate; sort into seuerall parcells, cut out into equall portions.

Diviſible: com. Diuisible, diuidable.

Diviſion: f. A diuision, partition, seperation, distribution, disposing of a thing into sundrie members, parcells, or portions.

Divorce: m. A diuorce; a seperation, sundering, parting of man and wife; the dissolution of mariage; also, trouble, crosses, ouerthwarting.

Diuretique: com. Which hath the power, or propertie to make one pisse.

Diurne: com. Diurnall, dailie, done by day, belonging to the day.

Diuturne: com. Long-lasting, of long continuance.

Divulgateur. A divulger, publisher, proclaimer.

Divulgué: m. ée: f. Divulged, published, proclaimed, talked, or knowne all the world ouer.

Divulguer. To divulge, publish, make common, spread abroad in the world.

Divulsion: f. A divulsion, or pulling vp; also, a-cutting, section, or diuision.

Dix. Tenne.

Dixain. See Dizain.

Dixaine: f. A Ward in a Citie, comprehending ten parishes, Constableships, or Tribes; also, a halfe-thraue of corne consisting of ten sheaues.

Dixenier. An Officer, or Ouerseer, next in authoritie vnto the Quartenier, in a Dixaine, or Ward; & somewhat resembling our Aldermans Deputie; but that euery Quartenier hath diuers of these vnder him.

Dixhuict. Eighteene; also, a Lapwing, or Blacke-Plouer; (so tearmed becausc her ordinarie crie sounds not vnlike this word.)

Dixhuitiesme. The eighteenth.

Dixiesme. The tenth.

Droict de dixiesme denier. The tenth penie, or pennie-worth of all Mines, Mineralls, Mettalls, and other other ſubſtances gotten within the ground, throughout France, due vnto the King; alſo, the Admiralls ſhare, or part (being a tenth) of all ſhipwrackes, prizes, conqueſts, &c, made at Sea.

Dixme; &, Dixmer. as Diſme; &, Diſmer.

Dixneuf. Nineteene.

Dixneufieſme. The nineteenth.

Dixſept. Seuenteene.

Dizain: m. A tenth; alſo, a Dittie of tenne Stanzoes, or Stanzo of tenne verſes; alſo, a paire of beades containing tenne peeces (or courſes;) alſo, a (French) Pennie.

Dizain: m.ine: f. Of, or belonging to, tenne; tenne, or containing iuſt tenne.

Dizaine: f. A tenth; tenne whole parts; the number of tenne.

Dizeaux. as Diſeaux.

Döanne. as Douane.

Dobbe: f. A Tub.

Dobé: m.ée: f. Beaten, lammed, bethwacked.

Dober. To beat, ſwinge, lamme, bethwacke; to canuaſſe throughly.

Docile: com. Docible, teachable, tractable, apt to learne, quickly taught, eaſily inſtructed, ſoone conceiuing.

Dociliſé: m.ée: f. Made docible, teachable; tractable.

Dociliſer. To docilize, to make docible, tractable, teachable.

Docilité: f. Docilitie, aptneſſe to learne, quickneſſe of apprehenſion.

Docte: com. Learned, skillfull, cunning, throughly inſtructed.

Doctement. Learnedly, skilfully, cunningly, Clerkelike.

Docteur: m. A Doctor.

Docteur de Quandoque. A Dunſicall Doctor.

Docteur en gaye ſcience. A Doctor of Rie; (In Tholouſe they ſometimes vſe to make a merrie companion proceed Doctor with this title:) Rab.

Doctoral: m. ale: f. Doctorall; of, or belonging to, a Doctor.

Doctorande: f. The ſolemnitie, or time of proceeding Doctar in any Art; Doctors commencement.

Doctorat: m. A Doctorſhip; the degree of a Doctor.

Doctorie: f. The degree of a Doctor; a Doctorſhip.

Doctrinable: com. Docible, teachable, apt to learne, fit to be taught.

Doctrinal. The patterne of learning.

Doctrine: f. Learning, doctrine, ſcholler ſhip, ſcience, Clerkeſhip; skill in, knowledge of, good letters.

Doctrine du Palais. Ciuilitie, courteſie, good maners, courtlie behauiour, faſhion, carriage.

Document: m. A document, precept; inſtruction, admonition; experiment, example.

Dodecaëdre. A Geometrical bodie, or figure, of twelue faces.

Dodechedron. A twelue-conered proportion, or figure.

Dodeliné: m.ée: f. Rocked; alſo, fondly nodding, vnſteadily carried; alſo, dandled, lolled, lulled, fedled.

Dodelinement: m. A rocking; alſo, a fooliſh nodding, vnſteadie wagging (as of the head) vp and downe; alſo, a dandling, lolling, or lulling of.

Dodeliner. To rocke, or iog vp and downe; alſo, to dandle, to loll, or lull, to fedle, cocker, hug fondly, make a wanton of.

Dodeliner de la teſte. To nod often, or wag the head much; to carrie the head vnſteadily, or like a boat in a ſterme.

Dodelineur. The rocker of a cradle; or as Dodelineux.

Dodelineux: m. A rocker; alſo, one that nods much, or wags his head verie often; alſo, a fond, fantaſticall, or giddie-headed noddie; one whoſe head, and humours are moſt vnſteadie; alſo, a fawning, or flattering companion.

Dodelineux: m.euſe: f. Much nodding, often wagging the head; alſo, toyiſh, fond, fantaſticall, humorous, vnſteadie-headed, giddie-braind.

Dodentral. See Dodrental.

Dodine: f. A fond, or giddie wag of the head; or as Dodelinement.

Canars à la dodine. Serued in with (French) onion ſauce.

Dodiner. To rocke; ſhake, ſhog, wag vp and downe; or, as Dodeliner.

Dodineux. as Dodelineux.

Dodo. A word wherewith Nurſes rocke, or lull, their ſucklings aſleepe.

Apres bu dodo: Prov. After ſwink ſleepe.

Dodrental: m. ale: f. Nine ounces heauie; nine inches, or a full ſpan, long.

Dodu: m. A fat chops, or chuffe.

Dodu: m.uë: f. Fat, plump, chuffie, round-cheeked, full-bodied.

Doët: m. A brooke, or ſpring.

Dogguin: m. A filthie great old curre.

Dogmatiſer. To teach ſtrange doctrine; to breed a ſect, or broach new opinions.

Dogmatiſme: m. The teaching, or preaching of new doctrine, the producing of a new ſect.

Dogmatiſte: m. A forger of new ſects, or opinions; one that makes, or would trie, concluſions.

Dogue: m. A Maſtiffe, or great dog.

Doigt: m. A finger; alſo, a fingers breadth; or the ſixteenth part of a foot, in meaſuring.

Les cinq doigts noſtre Dame. Fiue-leaued graſſe.

Se donner du doigt dans l'oeil. ſe penſans ſigner ſe donnent du doigt dans l'oeil. Thinking to croſſe, they ſcratch, themſelues: (appliable to ignorant, or heedleſſe coxcombes.)

Mettre le doigt deſſus. Tu as mis le doigt deſſus. Thou haſt hit it, or ghеſſed aright (from them that lay their hand on their ſmut.)

Mettre le doigt entre le bois, & l'eſcorce. To loue medling, to be of a buſie humor; or ſawcily to intermeddle with, or take too much notice of, the buſineſſes that are, or differences that may be, betweene two neere friends; alſo, to breed quarrels, make debate, or ſet diuiſion, betweene them.

I' en mettray le doigt au feu. I am moſt aſſured of it; I dare anſwer for it, or pawne my head on it; I know it is moſt true.

Monſtrer au doigt. To ſhew manifeſtly, point out euidently, lead one (as it were) by the hand vnto a thing.

Mordre les doigts. To chafe, or fret inwardly at a thing which is paſt helpe, or out of his power to alter.

Servy au doigt, & à l'oeil. Serued at a beche.

Toucher du bout des doigts. To runne lightly, or or sleightly ouer; onely to glaunce at.

Les Alemanes ont l' esprit aux doigts: Pro. The Germanes are excellent Artificers; or haue nimbler fingers then heads.

L'herbe qu'on cognoist on la doit lier à son doigt. pro. Looke, Herbe.

Qui a besoing de feu le cerche avec le doigt: Pro. Let him that needeth fire, take paines to find it.

Qui remue les pierres ses doigts casse. Pro. He that remoueth stones crusheth his fingers; harsh things are seldome stirred without harme.

Vn mesme couteau me coupe le pain, & le doigt. Pro. (Applicable vnto any thing that does both good and ill offices.)

Doigtier: m. A thimble or fingerstall; also, as Digital.

Doil: m. A pipestaffe; and, (lesse properly) any vessell, or caske of a (reasonable) big size.

Doile: The same; or, as Douille.

Panneau de doile A cant pane, or peece.

Doille: as Douille.

Doire; for Douaire; A dower, or dowrie.

Doisil: m. A faucet.

Dol: m. The name of a city in Bergondy.

Fiebvre de Dol. The french pockes.

Dol: m. Deceit, fraud, guile, craft, tromperie, trecherie, falshood, wilinesse.

Dolé m. ée: f. Squared, planed, hewed smooth, wrought, or made plaine with an ax, or addis.

Doleance: f. A wayling, lamentation, moaning complaining, waymenting.

Dolent. Sorrowfull, heauie, greening; painfull, aking, smarting; wretched, wailefull, miserable, wofull.

Dolentement. Mournefully, heauily, sorrowfully, wofully, grieuously, wailefully.

Doler (du bois.) To chip, to square, to plane, to hew smooth, to make plaine with an ax, or addis.

Doleur: f. Griefe, sorrow, anguish, woe, sadnesse, teene, heauinesse, ache, paine, smart, soreneesse; a throw, throbbing, wringing.

Doleux: m. euse f. Wilie, deceitfull, Subtill, guilefull, fraudulent; false, trecherous.

Doliman as Dolyman.

Doloir. To greeue, sorrow; moane; throb; to ake, warch, paine, smart.

Bien escorche à qui ne deult: Pro. No matter though they flayed be who feele no paine in flaying.

Femme se plaind, femme se deult, femme est malade quand elle veut: Pro. Looke Femme.

Doloire: f. A (Coopers) ax, or addis; also a Carpenters ax, or plaining hatchet.

Doloüere. as Doloire.

Doloureusement. Dolorously; heauily, sorrowfully, wailefully, most wofully; also, grieuously, or till it ake gaine.

Doloureux: m. euse: f. Sorrowfull, dolorous, painefull, wofull; also, smarting, grieuing, payning, or putting to much paine.

Parties doloureuses. Tender, or which cannot indure to be touched.

Dolousant. Wayling, lamenting, waymenting, making moane.

Dolouser. To wayle, moane, lament, wayment, complaine.

Dolyman: m. A Turkish gowne, long coate, or vpper garment; collerlesse, and closed with long buttons downe to the girdlestead.

Dom Iehan. Sir Iohn, or, lord Iohn.

Domaine: m. A demaine; a mans patrimonie or Inheritance, proper and hereditarie possessions; those wherof he is the right or true Lord, possessor, and absolute owner; also, an absolute, and hereditarie propertie in, and possession of, land, &c; also, an honor; or a principall Fief, Mannor, or Mannorhouse; the place whereof inferior Fiefs are held, or vassalls hold.

Domaine congeable; See Congeable.

Domaine de la Couronne. The crowne land; Ancient demesne; or th'ancient Inheritance of the crowne; also, any land which hath remained in the Kings hands, and bene disposed of by his officers, for the space of ten yeares.

Domaine forain; was at the first, in Francis the firsts time, an Imposition of iiij. d. in the pound vpon all kind of wares, and v. s. Tour. vpon euery Queue of wine, sold: whereunto Henry the second ioyned two other Impostes, Reisve, & Haut passage, & tooke for them all together vij. d. in the pound; but afterwards disunited them in effect (leuying their seuerall and distinct rates,) and ioyned them only in this name.

Domaine de France. as Domaine de la Couronne, And, as it, vnalienable; not by any especiall law, but by the generall custome of all Monarchies, interessed in the preseruation therof, as of the chiefest dowrie which they bring to their princes at their comming to the crowne.

Domaine immuable. Censives, Chiefe rents, and all fundamentall rights, and seruices, which follow the land howsoeuer it descend, or be disposed of.

Domaine muable. A propertie in a thing whose value may be improued, or impaired, according to the yearelie letting of it; (generally) such land as is, or may be ordinarily, and often leassed; and the rents thereof raised, or lessened vpon euerie lease.

Domaine du Roy. The kings demaine; the rents, reuenue, profits, & fruits of the crown lands; also, the benefit of casualties, and rights of Seigneurie, or of Iurisdiction thereunto belonging; also all manner of lands confiscated by, or forfeited vnto him; and such as he had in his owne right before he came to the crowne; and such as he purchased after.

Domaine du Royaume. as Domaine de la Couronne.

De son domaine faire son Fief. Looke Fief.

De son Fief faire son domaine. c'est, reünir à sa Table, & raproprier à son domaine le Fief, ou Censif tenu de soy: ¶ Ragueau.

Domanial: m. ale f. Of, or belonging to, a demayne, Mannor, or principall Fief.

Exploict domanial. A seisure made by a Lord of his tenants land, for his homage, rights, and seruices withheld from him.

Domanier: m. Th'owner of a demayne, or of land in demayne.

Domanier: m. ere f. as Domanial.

Droict domanier. The priuiledge a Lord Iusticer hath, to proceed, of his owne authoritie, by way of execution, without any written commission, in cases that concerne his ancient demaine, or th'accustomed rights thereof.

Seigneur domanier. The Lord of the soile of a Mannor; a chiefe Lord.

Dome. A Townehouse, Guildhall, Statehouse, Meetinghouse in a Citie (from that of Florence, which is called so;) also, as Dosme.

Domestique: com. Domesticall, housall, of our household; also, tame, familier, priuie.

Domestiquement. Domestically, tamely, familierly, priuately, at home, within doores.

Do-

Domeſtiquer. To tame, reclaime; ciuilize, make familier, gentle, tractable, houſall.

Domeſtiqué: m. ée. f. Tamed, reclaymed, ciuilized, made familier, gentle, tractable, houſall.

Domicile: m. An houſe, manſion; habitation, dwelling, place of aboade.

Domicilié. homme domicilié en vn tel lieu. Houſed, or that hath a dwelling, in ſuch a place; an inhabitant of.

Domicilier: m. A houſekeeper.

Se Domicilier. To houſe himſelfe; to goe to inhabit, or to keepe houſe.

Dominant. Gouerning, ruling, commaunding, bearing ſway, hauing authoritie ouer.

Fief ſuzerain, & dominant. A mannor held in chief, or whereof diuers others hould.

Seigneur dominant. A Lord paramount, or chiefe Lord.

Dominateur. A maiſter, ruler, commaunder, gouerner.

Domination: f. Dominion, rule, power, authoritie, gouernment, ſouereignty, ſway ouer others.

Dominatrice: f. A gouerneſſe, commaundereſſe, Miſtreſſe, Ladie of.

Dominé: m. ée: f. Gouerned ruled, commanded, ſwayed, maiſtered, ſeigniorized, domineered ouer.

Dominer. To gouerne, rule, commaund, maiſter, domineere, to haue ſoueraigntie, beare ſway ouer, a ſtroke among, others; to ſeigniorize it.

Domineur. as Dominateur.

Dominical. la lettre dominicale. The dominicall letter.

L'oraiſon dominicale. The Lords prayer, the Paterſter.

Domino: m. A kind of hood, or habit for the head, worne by Cannons; (and hence) alſo, a faſhion of vaile vſed by ſome women that mourne.

Dominorié: m. ée. f. Domineered ouer.

Dominorier. To domineere, to beare ſway; as Dominer.

Dominotier: m. A maker of the hood called Domino.

Dommage: m. Dammage, loſſe, detriment, hinderance, incommoditie, diſcommoditie, hurt, harme, ſcath, diſpleaſure; diſaduantage; a miſchiefe done, or ouerheauie charge impoſed.

Mais dommage que, &c. But it is ſtrange, or tis a wonder, that, &c.

Qui eſt loing du plat eſt prez de ſon dommage. Pro. He that ſits farre from the diſh is neere his diſaduantage.

Dommageable: com. Dammageable; hurtfull, harmefull, hindering, incommodious vnto.

Dommageablement. Hurtfully, with dammage, to ones harme, loſſe, and hinderance.

Dommas: m. A Cope-wearer; or, the Prieſt, or Cannon, who, by turne, is to weare a Cope for a weeke together.

Dompté: m. ée. f. Tamed, reclaimed, ſubdued.

Dompter. To tame, reclaime; daunt; &c; as Donter.

Dompte-venin: m. Celandine the greater, ſwallowes hearb, tetterworte, pileworte, figworte.

Dompte-villain: m. A good cudgell, or any thing wherby a Stubborne knaue is tamed, or awed.

Dompture: f. A taming, reclaiming; daunting; breaking, ſubduing.

Ce que poulain prend en dompture il le maintient tant comme il dure: Pro: Looke Poulain.

Don: m. A gift, graunt; offering, preſent; bribe; reward; alſo, as Dom.

le don de mercy. The gift wherein a woman is more mercifull then modeſt.

Donaiſon: f. A free gift, or deed of gift.

Donat. The name of a certaine Gramarian, read in ſome Schooles; whence;

Les diables eſtoient encores à leur Donat. The diuells were, as then, but breeching boyes, like Grammar Schoole boyes, but young in experience, but Nouices in the world.

Donataire: m. A donatarie, or donee.

Donateur: m. A donor: giuer, beſtower.

Donation: f. A donation; a preſent, gift, or deed of gift; alſo, a giuing.

Donation à cauſe de mort. See, Mort.

Donation entre vifs. A perfect, and vnrreuocable gift; an abſolute deed of gift, (made, and executed in a mans life time.)

Dondaine: f. A certaine warlike engine (out of vſe in theſe daies) where out great round ſtones were ſhot: alſo, the burden of a ſong.

Dondon: f. A ſhort, fat, and groſſe woman; a ſmall bundle of farts.

Dongeon: m. A Dungeon; a ſtrong Tower, or platforme, in the middle of a Caſtle or fort, wherein the beſieged make their laſt efforts (of aefence) when the reſt is forced.

Donjon. as Dongeon.

Donné: m. ée. f. Giuen, conferred, beſtowed; preſented; yeelded, or deliuered vp; alſo, dated.

Vn donné à entendre. A relation, ſpeech, tale, narration.

Il s'en eſt bien donné. He hath tipled ſquarely.

On luy a donné ſon ſac, & ſes quilles: He is caſſed, diſmiſſed, or turned out of ſeruice.

Choſe bien donnée n' eſt iamais perduë: Pro: He that giues diſcretly gaines directly.

Donnée: f. A dole, guift, or diſtribution, a donatiue.

Donne-lardon: m. A mocker, flouter, giber, ieaſter; one that beſtowes a liuery, or caſt of his wit, vpon euery one he ſees.

Donnement: m. A giuing, beſtowing, conferring; preſenting; yeelding, or deliuering vp.

Donner. To giue, beſtow, conferre, miniſter; preſet, grant; offer; yeeld or deliuer vp.

Donner des adons. To lay luſtily about him, to beſtirre himſelfe like a man.

Donner barres à. To ſtop, or ſtay the current of; to ſhut vp.

Donner le bond à. Looke, Bond.

Donner carriere à. To ſet a running, a galloping, a gadding; alſo, to let goe, or giue ſcope vnto.

se donner carriere. To raunge, flie out; make a vagarie; to take ſome libertie, or a little ſwindge abroad; to recreate himſelfe a little.

Donner la carte blanche à: To deliuer a man a blanke ſigned with his hand; hence, to offer to receiue, or vndergoe, any conditions he will tye him too, or exact of him.

Donner les champs à. To free, or ſet at libertie.

Donner la clef des champs à. To diſmiſſe, let goe, ſend out.

Donner la cognoiſſance de. To bring acquainted with.

Donner coup à: To worke effect, or doe good in.

Donner le croc en jambe à. To ſoyle, ſupplant, ouerturne, ouerthrow.

Don-

Donner dedans les. To breake in vpon, ruſh among the thickeſt of, them.
Donner à dos à. To aſſaile, or ſet vpon, behind; Looke Dos.
Donner dronos. Looke Dronos.
Donner le flanc à tout propos. To yeeld vnto, or bee woon by, euerie word.
Donner fond. To caſt anker.
Donner es gauffriers. To leacher.
Donner iour à. To grace, beautifie, decorate, giue light, or luſter vnto.
Donner jour à ſa deſpence. So to ſpend as the world may take moſt notice of his expences; Looke Iour.
Donner main-levée de. To reſtore, giue backe, yeeld vp, things taken, or ſeiſed.
Donner mal de teſte à. To make iealous.
Donner en mandement. To commaund, bid, giue in charge; to will and commaund (the phraſe of Princes in their Letters Patents.)
Donner la mitre, & la croſſe à. To countenance, or authorize by the ſpecious pretext of religious Ornaments.
Donner la muſe à. To put into a dumpe; to make to-ſtudie, or pauſe about a matter.
Donner des oeufs de Paſques à toutes reſtes: Look Paſque.
Donner ombrage à. To make iealous, fill with ſuſpition; giue an inkling of.
Donner parole à. Looke Parole.
Donner pente à. In wraſtling, to offer play, or an aduantage, vnto his aduerſarie.
Donner pied à. To ſet afoot, ſend abroad into the world; giue beginning to.
Donner pied ferme à. To ground, ſettle, aſſure the ſeat of, giue ſure footing vnto.
Donner du pied à. To ſcorne, contemne, ſpurne.
Donner le plein & le rond à. To accompliſh, or perfect.
Donner à poinct nommé. To hit point-blanke; to ſtrike the marke he ſhoots at.
Donner du roſmarin. To giue a wooer his anſwer; or, a flat deniall.
Donner vn mauvais ſault. To do a man a miſchiefe; giue him a vild puſh; make him catch great harme.
Donner vne lourde ſtrette. To ierke ſhrewdly, pinch extreamely; See Strette.
Donner de la teſte. To butt, or iurre; to runne his head againſt.
Il ne ſçait ou donner de la teſte. Hee knowes not what to do, nor whither to betake him.
Donner entre deux vertes vne meure. To ſeaſon matters, or iumble good and bad together.
Donner d' vne. To tell a lie; to giue a gudgeon, a lurch, a gleeke; a drie liſt; to gull, or make a foole of.
Donner vogue à. To authorize; to giue ſway, or ſcope vnto.
Donner voile à tous vents. To ſaile with all winds; weakely, to be perſuaded by euerie one that ſpeakes to him; inconſtantly, to be ſwayed by euerie ſeuerall humor that moues him.
Se donner du doigt dans l'oeil. qui ſe penſant ſigner ſe donnent du doigt &c. Who (with their fingers) meaning to bleſſe, are like to blind, themſelues: (appliable to Ninny-hammers.)
Se donner de garde. To beware, take heed, be circumſpect, looke well about him.
Se donner de bon temps. To make much of himſelfe, to liue merrily, or at eaſe; to paſſe away his time delightfully.
Ie te le donne gaigné. I grant it, I yeeld vnto thee, I giue thee place, I leaue thee the victorie.
Ce qu'on donne luit, ce qu'on mange puit: Prov. (a true difference betweene bountie and ſenſualitie.)
Entre promettre, & donner doit on la fille marier: Prov. Betweene promiſing, and giuing the maid ought to be maried; (or as vnder Promettre.)
Fille qui donne s'abandonne. Pro. Looke Fille.
Promettre ſans donner eſt fol recomforter: Prov. Faire words make fooles faine.
Qui toſt donne deux fois donne: Prov. Hee that giues quickly giues twice: viz. Doubles th'eſtimate of his gift.
Qui tout me donne, tout me nie: Prov. Hee that giues me all denies me all: viz. He that offers me all, meanes to giue me nothing.
Tout eſt perdu ce qu'on donne à fol: Prov. Whatſoeuer is giuen to fooles is loſt: for either they are ſimple and cannot, or vngratefull and will not, requite it.
Donneur: m. A donor; a giuer, a beſtower.
Donq. Then, therefore.
Donques. The ſame.
Dont. Whence, whereby, whereof, whereupon; and (in the beginning of queſtions) how comes it to paſſe.
Dontable: com. Tameable; reclaimeable, which may be ruled.
Donté: m. ée: f. Tamed, broken, reclaimed, ruled; daunted, ſubdued, ouercome, brought vnder.
Dontement: m. A taming, reclaiming, breaking; ouercomming, ſubduing.
Donte-mer. Sea-taming, waues-breaking, ſurges-calming.
Donte-orgueil. Pride-taming, ſtoutneſſe-daunting, hautineſſe-downe-pulling.
Donter. To tame, reclaime, breake; daunt; vanquiſh, ouercome, ſubdue, bring vnder.
Dontereſſe: f. She that tameth, or ſubdueth.
Donteur. A tamer, reclaimer, breaker, ruler; daunter, ſubduer, ouercommer.
Donzelle: f. An Eele-powt.
Dorade: f. The fiſh Guilthead, or Goldenie; alſo, as Dorée.
Dorcade. A Roe-Bucke.
Doré: m. ée: f. Gilt ouer; alſo, of gold; alſo, faire, beautifull, brightly ſhining.
Brandon doré. The Sunne.
Il eſchappa par la porte dorée. viz. By mouey.
Dorée: f. The Dorce, or Saint Peters fiſh; alſo (though not ſo properly) the Goldfiſh, or Goldenie; alſo, a kind of delicate yellow Summer peare; the gold peare.
Dorelle: f. The pulſe Orobus, bitter Vetch, or bitter Fitch.
Dorelot: m. A darling, dilling, ſweet heart; wanton, fedle; alſo, as Dorlot.
Doreloté. as Dorlotté.
Doreloteur. A cockerer, dandler, hugger; fawner, ſoother, flatterer of.
Dorelotter. as Dorletter.
Dorer. To gild, or doe ouer with gold.
Dorerie: f. Gilt worke; alſo, a gilding.
Dores-en-avant. Henceforth, from hence forward; hereafter.
Doreur. A gilder.
Doreur de la nuict. A Gold-finder, a Jakes-farmer.
Doreure: f. A gilding; alſo, a Billement, or Jewell of two peeces.

Doriphage:

Doriphage: m. A Munch-present; a deuourer of bribes, an eater of gifts.

Dorlot: m. A iewell, or prettie trinket, as a Chaine, brooche, ring, aglet, button, billement, &c, wherewith a woman sets out her apparell, or decks herselfe; ¶ Pic: and hence, as Dorelot.

Dorlotté: m. ée: Decked, or set out with prettie trinkets; also, dandled, cockered, bugged, much made of; also, drowned in pleasure, vp to th'eares in delights; also, nice, quaint, mincing it, making it fine or goodlie.

Dorlotter. To furnish, decke, or set out with prettie trinkets; also, to cocker, dandle, hug, stroake, make much of; also, to mince it, make it fine, or goodlie; also, to tumble or wallow in fulnesse of delights.

Dormailler. To slumber.

Dormant: Sleeping; En dormant; in his sleepe, while he tooke his rest, as he slumbered.

Eau dormante. Standing water, such as is in pits, cesternes, &c.

Fenestre à voirre dormant. A close window of glasse without any casement; a standing window that is not to be opened, nor shut.

A qui l'on peut sans les resveiller arracher les dents en dormant. Whose teeth one may plucke out without awaking them; (Appliable to such as be sluggish, dull, or senceless in extremitie.)

Dormart: m. A slug-a-bed, a drousie companion, a heauie-headed luske, one that euer sleepes as he goes, one of the seauen sleepers.

Dormeveille: f. A being betweene a sleep and awake; or a counterfeiting of sleepe.

Dormeur: m. A sleeper.

Iamais dormeur ne fit bon guet, ni paresseux ne fit beau faict: Pro. Looke paresseux.

Dormilieuse, as Dormilleuse.

Dormille: f. The sickenesse of silkewormes, during which they sleepe; also, a kind of small Lamprey.

Dormilleuse. The cramp fish, whose propertie is to benumme the hands of her taker.

Dormilleux: m. as Dormillart.

Dormilleux: m. euse: f. Heauie, sleepie, drousie, sluggish.

Dormir: m. A nap, a sleep; a sleeping.

Vn dormir attrait l'autre: Pro: The more a man sleepes, the more he may.

Dormir. To sleepe, rest; slumber, take a nap; also to slug it, or be negligent.

Dormir en chien. To sleep before dinner or fasting, in an open Sunne.

Dormir sur les deux costez. To barrell vp sleep; or, when one is wearie with sleeping on th'one side, to turn, and to it againe on th'other.

Dormir la grasse matinée. To lie in bed long a mornings.

Dormir sur le jour. To take a nap at dinner time, or presently after; to sleepe at noone dayes.

Dormir son vin. To sleepe vpon a drinking, or digest his drink with sleeping.

Ce sont des contes à dormir debout. These are most idle, friuolous, or foolish tales.

Il ne laisse dormir sa debte sur le Soleil. He lets not the Sunne goe downe vpon his debt; he alwaies payes his debts before he goes to bed.

Assez dort qui rien ne fait: Prov. As good be fast asleep as idle awake.

En seureté dort qui n'a que perdre: Pro. He sleepes securely that hath nought to loose.

Le lict est vne belle chose, qui n'y dort on y repose: Prov. As in Lict.

Qui a bruit de se lever matin peut dormir iusques à disner: Prov. He that is thought an earlie man may sleepe till dinner time; he that is held an honest man may long abuse the world; common report gulles manie, who thinke no hurt when outwardly they see none.

Tant dort le chat qu'il se resveille: Prov. The slugging or sleepie Cat at length awakes.

Regnard qui dort la matinée n'a pas la langue emplumée: Pro. He cannot thriue that lies in bed a mornings.

Dormitoire. A sleep-procuring medecine.

Dorque. A kind of great and round earthen vessel; ¶ Lang: also a great fish thats enemy to the Whale.

Dorsal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, the backe; whence;

Cautere dorsal. The backe-cauter; somewhat like a knife; or hauing a back like a knife, and searing onely on the other side.

Dortoir: m. A dorter, or lodging wherein manie sleepe together; also, a Churchyard.

Dortuit. Sleepie, drowsie.

Dorure: f. as Doreure. A gilding.

Dos: m. The backe; a back-part, or backside; also a ridge.

Dos du nez. The bridge of the nose.

Nichil au dos. Looke Nichil.

A dos d'Asne. Ridgill-backed, high-ridged, or hauing a sharp ridge; high, or highest, in the middle; sharp, or sharpening, toward the top, or middle; resembling the backe of an asse.

Donner à dos à. To assaile, or set vpon behinde: se donnerent eux mesmes à dos. They tumbled for haste one ouer another.

Faire ensemble la beste à deux dos. To leacher.

On a fait de son dos courroye. He hath bene whipped soundly, lashed horribly.

Mal est caché à qui l'on void le dos. Prov: He's but ill hid whose backe is seene.

Qui faict credos charge son dos. Prov: He that credits much carries much; or, he that giues much credit vndergoes a great charge.

Dose. A dose; the quantitie of potion, or medecine, which a Phisition appoints his patient shall take at once.

Dosme: m. A flat-round louer, or open roofe, to a steeple, bankettinghouse, piggeon-house &c somewhat resembling the bell of a great watch.

Dosse d'ail A cloue of garlicke.

Dossé: m. ée: f. Indorsed.

Dosseresse: f. A buttresse, or supporter to beare vp the great beame of a wall.

Dossier: m. A back-stay; any thing that easeth, or staieth the backe, or serues for it to leane on; as a rayle behind a forme; the back of a chaire, &c; also, the backe of a chimney.

Vn dossier de pavillon. The head of a Pauillion, or Canopie,; the peece that hangs down at the head thereof.

Dossier de sable. A shelfe, or banke of sand.

Dossier: m. Of, or belonging to, the backe; also, easing, bearing, or, staying the backe; also, growing on the back; and hence;

Soye dossiere. A hogs bristles.

Dossiere: f. The part of a draught horses harnesse which runnes ore-crosse his backe; we call it the ridgeband.

Dost: m. A dowrie; a maidens portion; goods or lands

giuen

giuen with a woman in mariage.

Dot. as Doſt.

Dotal: m. ale: f. Dotall; giuen in dowrie; of, or belonging to, a dowrie.

Dotateur: m. An endower.

Doté: m. ée: f. Indued, or endowed with; hauing a portion in.

Dotter. To doate.

Doüaire: m. A dower, or ioynture for a woman after her husbands death; alſo her mariage good, or the portion ſhe hath, or brings, to her mariage.

Doüaire plein &, entier. A ioynture of, or thirds in, the whole land deſcended; which is eſpecially, when no other woman hath any dower out of it.

Doüairiére: f. A dowager; a widow endowed, or that hath a ioyntrue.

Doüane. The name of the Cuſtomehouſe at Lyons; hence alſo, any cuſtome, or impoſt; and particularly, two French Crownes taken by th'Officers of that houſe, for euerie peece of gold, or ſiluer (and ratably for all other kinds of ſtuffe, and marchandiſe) imported.

Doüanne: f. as Doüane.

Doüannier: m. An Officer of the Cuſtome-houſe.

Doubé: m. ée: f. Rigged, or trimmed vp, as a ſhip.

Douber. To rig, or trimme, a ſhip.

Doublage. as Aides Chevels; Called ſo in the Cuſtomes of Aniou, and Maine; Looke Aides; a reliefe is alſo called, doublage; becauſe a double, or two yeres, rent, or Cens is paid for it.

Doublant. Doubling, making double, or as much more.

Double: m. A double; double part; or double pace; twice as much; alſo, the copie of a writing; alſo, a peece of baſe coine worth two pence Tourn.

Double d' Aouſt. Looke Aouſt.

Le double d'un cerf. Deeres ſuet.

Au double. Doubly, with great vſurie, two-fold, vnto his great aduantage.

Double: com. Double; twice as big, as great againe; of as much weight, or worth againe.

Double vaiſſeau. A cauldron, or kettle, full of hot water; or, as Bain de Marie.

Habillement double. A garment thats lined, or furred cleane through, or double all ouer.

Doublé: m. ée: f. Doubled; made two-fold, or twice as much; increaſed verie much, or vnto as much more; alſo, bowed much, or made almoſt to meet at the ends; alſo, copied out as a writing; alſo, lined, as a garment; alſo, repeated, reiterated.

Doubleau: m. as Hemicycle; A halfe circle; alſo, a double quarter of timber.

Doubleau. Somewhat double, almoſt two-fold.

Arcs doubleaux. as Branches d'Augiues.

Double-marcheur: m. The little, ſpotted, and wormlike Serpent Amphisbæna; which hauing a head at both ends (an errour in auntient authors, in the opinion of Mathiolus, and Grevinus) can goe both wayes.

Doublément: m. A doubling; a making two-fold, or twice as much; a riſing vnto as much more; alſo, the copying out of a writing; In a Portſale, a double outbidding, or double the price of the moſt that was at firſt bidden (which he that ariſes vnto, moſt commonly carries the thing.)

Doublément. Doubly, two wayes, in two ſorts, for two cauſes.

Doubler. To double; to make two-fold, or twice as much; to increaſe very much, or vnto as much more; alſo, to bow much, or make both ends meet; alſo, to copie out a writing; alſo, to line a garment; alſo, to reiterate.

Doublet: m. A Doublet; a Jewell, or ſtone of two peeces ioyned, or glued together.

Doublet en caſe. A corner-point taken with two men at Tables.

Double-teſtu: m. The worme-like Serpent Amphisbæna; double-headed, as auncient authors haue imagined; But no Serpent, ſayes Mathiolus, hath naturally two heads; Looke Double-marcheur.

Double-vaiſſeau. as Bain de Marie.

Doublier: m. A long, and large Table-cloth of Damask, Diaper, &c, hanging to the ground on both ſides of the boord, and laid double thereon; a Table-cloth for Princes, and great States.

Doublure: f. Lining for a garment.

Fin contre fin n'eſt bon à faire de doublure: Pro. Two craftie knaues being matcht, will neuer agree together.

Doutable: com. Doubtable; redoubtable; vncertaine, fit to be feared.

Doubtance: f. Doubt; ſuſpition; feare; vncertaintie.

Doubtant. Doubting; ſuſpecting; vncertainly thinking of; (and ſometimes) alſo, as much as hoping.

Doubte: f. A doubt; ſuſpect; feare, ſcruple; miſtruſt; ſuſpence; vncertaintie of, or ſtaggering in, opinion; alſo, a reuerent awe, or dread of.

Sans doubte. Queſtionleſſe, vndoubtedly, certainely, without faile, as ſure as can be.

Amener, ou mettre, en doubte. To call in queſtion, bring in controuerſie, make men doubtfull of.

Tenir en doubte. To delay, deferre, hold in ſuſpence.

Doubté: m. ée: f. Doubted; ſuſpected; miſtruſted; feared; awed.

Doubtement: m. A doubting, ſuſpecting; fearing.

Doubter. To doubt, ſuſpect, miſtruſt; bee vncertaine, make a queſtion, or ſcruple of; to ſtagger, ſtammer, wauer betweene hope and feare; to be in ſuſpence; alſo, to feare, awe, dread, redoubt; (ſometimes) alſo (as much as) to hope.

Qui ne ſcait rien de rien ne doubte: Pro. He that knowes nothing liues in feare of nothing.

Doubteuſement. Doubtfully, vncertainly; inconſtantly, waueringly; miſtruſtfully.

Doubteux: m. euſe: f. Doubtfull, vncertaine, in ſuſpence; alſo, variable, inconſtant, ſtaggering; alſo, ambiguous, perplexed, ſubiect to cauilling, or exception; whereof a queſtion may be made, a controuerſie raiſed, or diuers ſences gathered; alſo, feareſull, terrible, redoubtable.

Douce (The feminine of Doux) la douce perſonne. A ſweet fellow ſure; Ironically; See Doux.

Douceaſtre: com. Sweetiſh.

Doucelet: m. ette: f. Dulcet, prettie and ſweet, or, a little ſweet.

Doucement. Sweetly, deliciouſly; ſoftly, ſmoothly; mildly, graciouſly, courteouſly, louingly; eaſily, tractably.

Douce-ente: f. The name of a certaine thicke, ruddie, and ſappie apple.

Doucereux: m. euſe: f. Full of ſweetneſſe, delicious; moſt pleaſant; moſt courteous.

Doucet: m. A kind of ſea-fiſh like a Hedgehog; Looke Douſin.

Doucet: m. ette: f. Dulcet; prettie and ſweet; or, a little ſweet.

Doucettement. Sweetly; prettily; mildly, gently, eaſily.

Douceur: f. Sweetnes, delight, pleaſãtnes, daintines; ſoftnes, ſmoothnes; meeknes, gẽtlenes, mildnes, tractablenes; kindnes, kindnesse, humanitie, courtesie; indulgencie, mercie, clemencie.

Douceur de chant. The melodie, or harmonie of tuneable singing:

Il faut avoir mauvaise beste par douceur: Pro. (Some-what like to our, the rough Net is not the best catcher of Birds;) shreud beasts would be caught by sweet baites.

Doucin. as Doussin.

Doucine. as Doulcine.

Dove: f. A castle, ditch, or Towne-ditch (with water in it.)

Doüé: m. ée: Endued; endowed.

Douëlle: f. A Pipe-staffe; also, the strickle used in the measuring of Corne.

Doucn d'antan. Hence ouer a yeare: ¶Norm.

Douër. To indue, endow, or giue a dowrie vnto.

Douës: f. as Douves.

Douët: m. A brooke, or spring.

Douëtte. à longues douëttes. In long rowes, files, ranks: ¶Bret.

Dougé: m. ée: f. Small, fine; little; slender, thinne.

Douger. To trip; as a horse that stumbleth not outright, (an old word.)

Douille: f. The socket of the head of a pike, iauelin, &c; also, the socket of a candlestick; any socket; also, the barrell of an harquebuze, or pistoll.

Douillet: m. ette: f. Daintie, tender, delicate, soft, effeminate; a milke-sop; one that cannot beare a feather without breathing; also, quaint, curious, as nice as a Nunnes henne.

Douillettement. Daintily, tenderly, delicately, effeminately; also, quaintly, nicely, curiously.

Douit: m. as Douët: a brooke.

Doulcin: m. The fish cald, the sea Vrchin: ¶Marseillois.

Doulcin rascaz. A greater, and white, kind thereof; Looke Dousin.

Doulcine. as Cymaise, or Cymace.

Douleur: f. as Doleur.

Douloüere. A planing ax, a coopers addis.

Doulourcusement, Douloureux. as Doloureusement, & Doloureux.

Se Doulousant. Pittifully complaining, in a lamentable taking, waimenting, most woe-begon.

Se Doulouser. To lament, wayle, complaine, wayment.

Doulx: m. Doulce: f. Looke, Doux.

Dour: m. A hands breadth; or the breadth of foure fingers; the fourth part of a Geometricall foot, in measuring.

Dourdé: m. ée: f. Knocked, mawled, thumped, rapped, beaten.

Dourder. To knocke, mawle, beat, thump, rap.

Dourdier: m. A luske, lowt, slouch.

Dousil: m. A spigot.

Dousslaine: f. A certein musicall instrument.

Dousse: m. ée: f. Indorsed.

Douser. To indorse, a paper, &c.

Dousseresse. as Dosseresse.

Dousier: m. An indorsement.

Dousin. The sea Vrchin; a fish thats eatable, though vnsauorie enough.

Dousin rascas. The greatest, and whitest kind thereof; not to be eaten.

Doutance: f. Looke Doubtance.

Douve: f. A castle-ditch (hauing water in it) also, a certeine hearbe, that kils the sheepe which eat of it.

Douves. A mortall disease bred in sheeps pluckes, or intrails, by th'eating of the hearbe aforesaid.

Douves d'un tonneau, &c. The head-peeces of a Tunne, &c.

Douvelle: f. A Cinter, or Centrie; the frame of wood whereby a vault, or arch is both in the making, and for a while after, held vp.

Doux: m. douce: f. Sweet; delicious, delightsome, daintie, pleasing; soft, pliant; smooth, tractable; gentle, mild, meeke; louelie; kind, courteous, louing.

Doux de sel. Fresh, vnsauorie, not throughly seasoned; also, of small standing, or experience.

Doux à taster. Smooth, soft, without any roughnesse; also, sweet, or without any manner of harshnesse.

Eau douce. Fresh water. Medecin d'eau douce. A yong, or vnexperienced Physitian.

Estain doux. The best kind of Tinne; gotten in our Cornewall.

Pierre douce. A certaine white stone, called, the Honie stone.

Taille douce. Sweet cutting; small ingrauerie, such as prints in copper are cut with.

Tout doux. Husht; quietly, stilly, calmely, without noise, or dinne.

Faire les doux yeux. To counterfeit ciuilitie, or modestie; to seeme coy; also, to make as though he slept, and saw nothing; or to be betweene sleeping and waking; also, to winke, or smile prettily with the eyes.

Faire les doux yeux à. To play at boe-peepe with; to winke lasciuiously, or wantonly at; also, to frame, or set th'eyes to looke alluringly, flatteringly, or pitifully at one, thereby to get somewhat of him.

Filer doux. To flatter, or speake faire.

Douce parole n'escorche langue: Prov. Honey, good words breake no bones.

Douce parole rompt grand'ire: Prov. Gentle words appease the irefull.

Douces promesses obligent les fols: Prov. Faire promises oblige fools; or (as our) faire words make fools faine.

De doux arbre douces pommes: Prov. Such as the tree such is the fruit; sweet th'one, sauorie th'other; (yet we say, that many a good cow hath but an euell calfe.)

Doux-amer. Bitter-sweet.

Doux-auvesque. The name of a sweet, and tender apple, as big as a middle Orange.

Doux-balon. A certaine round, great, greene, soft, and sweet apple.

Doux-belheur. A certaine great, sweet, round, and hard-skinned apple.

Doux-gliſſant. Glib, gently-gliding.

Doux-grave. viz. Doucement grave.

Doux de la Lande. The name of a white sweet apple, that yeelds most excellent cyder.

Doux-Martin. A certaine white, long, and drie apple.

Doux-veret. The name of a white, long, and tender apple.

Douzain: m. A Sous, or French shilling; (whereof ten make but one of sterling money.)

Douzaine: f. A dozen.

Il est bien au compte de la douzaine. He is a sorrie fellow, a sillie companion; one thats neither able ynough to doe hurt, nor wise ynough to doe good; (for things that are sold by the dozen, (because not curiously heeded) are often sleightly made.)

Douze. Twelue; a dozen.

Au denier douze. Looke Denier.

Douze-doigtier. A small gut, or entrall, seated on the right side, & descëding oblikely towards the back-bone and and ending where the circumuolution of the guts begins.

Douzil: m. A ſpigot.

Douzieſme. The twelfth; alſo, an impoſition of 12.d. in the pound vpon all wares ſold; firſt raiſed by King Charls the firſt.

Droict de douzieſme. An yearelie rent of 12.d. due by euerie affranchiſed inhabitant of Haynault, vnto the Earle thereof, in acknowledgement of his former thraldome, & as a recompence of his now-got freedom.

Doyen: m. A Deane; the head of a Colledge, or Cathedrall Church.

Doyenné: m. A Deanerie; or Deaneſhip.

Doygé: m.ée: f. as Dougé.

Doze de Veniſe. The Duke of Venice.

Drache: f. The little ſtaulke whereby a grape cleaues to the bunch.

Drachme. as Drame; A dram; the eighth part of an ounce.

Dragacanth. as Dragagant.

Dragagant: m. Gumme Dragagant, a gummie liquor which diſtills from the root of the Candian ſhrub, called Goats-beard.

Dragée: f. A kind of diſgeſtiue powder, vſually preſcribed vnto weake ſtomackes after meat; and hence, any ionkets, comfets, or ſweet meats, ſerued in at the laſt courſe, (or otherwiſe) for ſtomacke-cloſers; alſo ſmall haile-ſhot, of lead, &c.

Dragée aux chevaux. Prouender of diuers ſorts of pulſe mingled together; or, as Farrage; alſo, the courſe graine called Bolſmong, French-wheat, Blocke-wheat, or Bucke-wheat.

Drageoir. A comfet box, of ſiluer; alſo, the fat, or veſſell that receiues new wine, falling by a narrow paſſage, from the preſſe.

Drageon: m. A vine branch, twig, or ſprig.

Drageon fourcheran. A ſprig that ſpurteth out betweene two branches, as from the middle of a forke.

Drageon fruictier. The branch that beareth the grape.

Drageon panipier. A vine branch, or twig that beareth no fruit, but onely leaues.

Drageries: f. Comfets, ionkets, ſweet meats.

Dragme: m. A dramme; the eighth part of an ounce, or three ſcruples; alſo, a handfull of.

Dragme ſarmentine. A cup of wine; See Pilure.

Dragoir. Looke Drageoir.

Dragon: m. A Dragon; alſo, the hearbe Dragonwort, or Dragons.

Dragon marin. The Viuer, or Quauiuer; a monſtrous, and venomous fiſh.

Sang de dragon. Dragons-bloud; is not (as ignorant people imagine) the bloud of a Dragon cruſht to death by an Elephant, but the Gumme of the Dragon tree opened, or bruiſed in the dog-daies; alſo, Bloudwort, red Patience, bloudie Patience, (an hearbe.)

Dragonceau: m. A yong, or little Dragon.

Dragoncelle: f. as Dragontée.

Dragonné: m.ée: f. Dragonie; whoſe hinder parts reſemble a Dragon: (a word of Blazon.)

Dragonneau: m. A yong, or little Dragon; alſo, the ouer fulneſſe of any great veine being bent, or ſtretched out.

Dragontée: f. The hearbe Dragons, or Dragonwort.

Dragontée mineur. Small Dragonwort.

Draguinage. So do they at Lyons tearme a kind of Gibridge, whereby priſoners vſe to fetch drinking money from new-come gueſts.

Drainant. Miching, pinching, drawing out things ſcantly, vſing them ſo ſcarcely as if he were affraid, or loath, to touch them.

Draine: m. as Dragme; A dramme.

Dramé: m. ée: f. Miched, pinched, miſerably vſed, ſcantly diſpoſed of, ſtrictly meaſured, or deliuered, out.

Dramer. To miche, pinch, dodge; to vſe, diſpoſe of, or deliuer out, things by a preciſe weight, or ſtrict meaſure; or ſo ſcantly, ſo ſcarcely, as if the meaſurer were afraid to touch them, or loath to haue them touched.

Drap: m. Cloth; woollen cloth; broad cloth.

Drap mortuaire. A Hearſe-cloth.

Demy drap. Cloth-raſh.

Eſtre des draps de. To be towards; to be an attendant, or ſeruant of, to belong, or be a retainer, vnto.

Le drap, & les ciſeaux luy ſont délivrez. The matter is wholly referred vnto him; he hath the law in his owne hands.

Le drap des deux eſt d'une meſme piece. They are both of one kind of ſtuffe, mettall, humor; there went but a paire of ſheeres betweene them.

A ce drap couſturiers. To it whoreſons; or, let vs go roundly to worke; alſo, there was old cutting, ſnipping, ſhredding, laying about them.

Au bout de l'aulne faut le drap. There is but inſt meaſure, no more then will ſerue the turne; more were too much, leſſe too little.

Il veut avoir drap, & argent enſemble. He is an extreame, or vniuſt dealer; he would haue mens ware without paying for it; or, he would haue both ſtuffe, and money; one thing contents him not, he would haue both.

Dieu donne le froid ſelon le drap: Prov. Looke Froid.

Drapé. as Drappé.

Drapeau: m. A (linnen) cloth, or clowt; alſo, an Enſigne, Standard, Banner, Colours.

Drapeau d'un fuſil. Tinder.

Drapeau de la Meleze. A white, and leatherlike filme, or skinne (found neere to the pith of the bodies of old Larch trees) wherewith countrey people cloſe wounds, and ſtaunch bloud.

Vieux drapeaux. Old rags, clowts, clothes paſt wearing; traſh, trumperie, odde ends; outcaſt friperie.

Chevalier au drapeau quarré. A Knight Banneret; ſo called, becauſe his Colours in the field are to be of a ſquare forme; as alſo, his Armes may be painted in a ſquare field.

Mort tout paſle, & mort comme vn drapeau. Hee lookes like death; or as pale as a clowt.

Drapelet. A little linnen cloth, clowt; or Enſigne.

Draper. To make, or worke cloth; to dreſſe, or full cloth; to beat, or thicken, as cloth, in the fulling; alſo, to ſeiſe, or take another mans goods, &c, vnder a faire pretext; alſo, to mock, flowt, deride, ieaſt at; alſo, to eat, or champ apace.

Draperie: f. Draperie; cloath-ſelling, cloth-working; alſo, a flouriſhing with leaues, and flowers in wood, or ſtone, vſed eſpecially on the heads of pillers, & tearmed by our workemen Draperie, or Cilerie.

Drapier: m. A Draper.

Drapier drappant. A Clothworker.

Drappant. Working, dreſſing, or fulling of cloth; thickning, or beating cloth in the fulling; alſo, mocking, flowting, deriding, ieaſting at.

Drappé: m.ée: f. Dreſſed, wrought, fulled (as cloth;) beaten, or, thickned (by beating) as cloth is in the fulling; fulling; also, derided, mocked, flouted; also, taken, or seised vnder a faire pretext.

Sarge drappée. Milled Sey.

Drappeau: m. as Drapeau.

Drappelet: m. A little linnen cloth, rag, or clowt.

Drapper. as Draper.

Drapperie: f. Looke Draperie.

Drappeux: m. euſe: f. Full of cloth, or fit to make cloth.

Drappier. as Drapier.

Drappier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to cloth; also, fit to make cloth.

Drave: f. Spaniſh, or Babylonian Creſſes.

Dravée: f. All kind of pulſe, as Beanes, peaſe, &c.

Draule: m. as Drole; A wag, or merrie grig.

Daulerie: f. Waggerie; also, the figure of a Maske, Satire, Monkie, or ſuch like apiſh viſages, and anticke reſemblances, ſet on the top of a Scutcheon, or coat of Armes.

Drege: f. A kind of fiſh-net; forbidden to bee vſed, except for the catching of Oiſters.

Drelotter. as Dorlotter.

Dreſsé: m. ée: f. Straightened, leuelled, euened, ſet right, made ſtraight; alſo, raiſed, aduanced, erected; held, liſted, ſet, or taken vp; alſo, directed, inſtructed, trained vp; ordered; framed, made, faſhioned; alſo, deuiſed, contriued, inuented; alſo, found of, as Deere by dogs; alſo, couered, as a table; diſhed vp, as meat for a meale.

Dreſſer. To ſtraighten, ſet right, make ſtraight, leuell, euen; alſo, to raiſe, aduance, erect; lift, ſet, hold, or take vp; alſo, to direct, inſtruct, order, gouerne, traine vp; to faſhion; frame, build, make.

Dreſſer vn cerf. The dogs to find of a Deere.

Dreſſer les cheveux. To ſtroake vp the haire.

Dreſſer vne coquille. To ſet a trap for a Woodcocke; See Coquille.

Dreſſer vne entrepriſe. To plot, proiect, contriue an enterpriſe.

Dreſſer des fineſſes. To deuiſe ſleights, or lay ſnares, for fooles.

Dreſſer vn lict. To make a bed.

Dis au Cuiſinier qu'il dreſſe. Bid the Cooke diſh vp his meat; ou, au ſommelier qu'il dreſſe; or the Butler, that he couer.

Se dreſſer. To raiſe, to aduance himſelfe; to ſtand boult-vp-right.

Se dreſſer vn bon heur. To procure vnto, or prouide for, himſelfe a great fortune.

Il ſe dreſſe vne guerre. A warre is in preparing.

Les cheveux luy dreſſent. His haire ſtares, or ſtands annend.

Se faire dreſſer quelque choſe à quelqu'un. To get him to ſet it ſtraight, or to giue order for it.

Dreſſeur: m. A ſtraightner, directer, leueller; ſetler; a raiſer, erecter, framer, faſhioner, orderer, inſtructer.

Dreſſeur de compte. An Accompt-caſter.

Dreſſiere: f. A ſtraight or outright path, or tract; a direct, or directiue, way.

Dreſſoir: m. A cupboord; a court-cupboord (without box, or drawer) onely to ſet plate on.

Dreſſouïr: m. A ſetting yron, or poating ſticke, for ruffe bands; a ſtanding thing.

Dridiller. To gingle, as a Hawkes bells.

Drillant. Twinkling, ſparkling, gliſtering, like a ſtarre, or good diamond.

Driller. To twinkle, or ſparkle; to caſt a glittering, or yeeld a gliſtening, light.

Drilles: f. Rags, tatters, beggerlie clowts.

Drilleux: m. euſe: f. Tattered, ragged, in beggerlie array.

Dringuemorigue. A nickname for a Dutchman.

Marcher en dringuemorigue. To ſtaulk, or ſtrout it like a ſwaggering huffeſnuffe.

Drogue: f. A drug.

Drogué: m. ée: f. Bedrugged; mingled, purged, or ſeaſoned with drugs.

Boiſſon drogué. A ſpiced cup; alſo, an impoiſoned one.

Drogueman: m. An Interpreter.

Droguement: m. A drenching, bedrugging, or miniſtring of drugs.

Droguer. To drug, bedrug; ſeaſon, purge, or mingle, with drugs.

Droguer le corps. To ſtuffe himſelfe with drugs, to make an Apothecaries ſhop of his bellie.

Droguerie: f. The ſeaſon of fiſhing for herrings, and other ſuch fiſh, which is to be ſalted, and barrelled vp.

Drogueries: f. Drugs, druggeries, confections; alſo, traſh.

Droguet: m. A kind of ſtuffe thats halfe ſilke, halfe wooll.

Drogueur: m. A druggiſt, or drug-ſeller.

Droict: m. The Law (Ciuile, Canon, or Common;) alſo, right, law, iuſtice, equitie, reaſon; alſo, a right or title vnto, an intereſt or propertie in, a thing; a mans due; that which either he hath, or ſhould haue.

Droict eſcrit. (Is particularly) the Ciuile Law.

A bon droict. Lawfully, worthily, vpon iuſt cauſe, with good reaſon. (See Droict Aduerb.)

Ses menus droicts. His vailes, fees, wages.

Venir à ſes droicts. A Ward, or Pupill, comming vnto his yeares, to enter into the poſſeſſions that were left him.

Venir, ou eſtre appellé, aux droicts du Roy. To come, or be called into the Court of the Peeres of France, for the triall of his cauſe.

Bon droict a bon meſtier d'aide. (A Prouerb taxing th'iniquitie, and iniuſtice of our times; wherein good right hath oftentimes need of great fauour.)

Droict: m. (alſo) A duetie, right, fee, prerogatiue, priuiledge, royaltie, power.

Droict d'acqueſt; ou de nouvel acqueſt; ou de nouveaux aqueſts. The fine due vnto the king vpon purchaſes made by Church-men, or in Mortmaine; and either to the king, or vnto other Lords, vpon purchaſes, made by th'ignoble, of Fiefs, or noble inheritances held of them; The rate of it is, one yeares profit in three; or otherwiſe, as their compoſition, or the cuſtome is; (for this Rate is moſt proper vnto Droict de nouvel acqueſt, a perſonall right.)

Droict d'acquit. The right of Toll, or Cuſtome, due by paſſengers vnto the Lord of the place wherein tis vſually taken, and payable if they be not free by birth (as the Noble) or by condition (as Church-men) or by Patent, or Charter (as ſome Officers, and Townesmen) In which caſes they muſt, in a good faſhion, acquaint him beforehand with their eſtates, or priuiledges.

Droict d'advouërie. Soueraigne patronage, or protection.

Droict d'affeurage. as Droict d'afforage.

Droict d'afforage. Two pots of wine, &c, due vpon the broaching of euerie veſſell retailed; one to the Lord Feodall, his right for the ſtanding thereof in his Manor, & for his leaue (if he haue iuriſdiction) to ſel it; another vnto the magiſtrate, for allowance of the liquor, and for the rate which he ſets on it.

Droict

Droict d' aide. Looke Aide.

Droict d' aisnesse. The right, and prerogatiue of an eldest heire; or, the portion due, by prime birth, vnto him; which is, in most places, the principall house, and garden with th'inclosure thereof; and if it haue no garden, the furlong of ground which lies next vnto it; or as much as a Capon can flie ouer from it: In the rest of the land he hath but an equall share with the younger: (But this is not generall.)

Droict d'Aisneté, ou d'Aisneage; The same.

Droict d'Amende. Power to fine a new purchaser for not acquainting the Lord of the Mannor, or soyle, with his bargaine, so soone, as by the custome of the place he was bound to doe.

Droict d'Annate. A yeares reuenew of a vacant rest Benefice; challenged heretofore in most Countries by the Pope; but taken from him by the Pragmatique Sanction, and some other Edicts, before Luthers time.

Droict d'arrest de meubles. Libertie, or power to arrest goods for a debt not acknowledged; a Priuiledge of diuers townes; and either giuen them by the Prince, or taken, and approued by custome.

Droict d'Asize de six deniers. 6. d. Tour. due vnto the Towneship of Tournay for euerie pottle of wine thats retailed within it.

Droict d'Aubaine. Escheatage by strangers; the right of succession in the estates of all strangers, who die (in any part of France) without Naturalization, and French-borne issue; Looke Aubaine.

Droict d'Aubenage. The same.

Droict d' Aurillage. The profit of Bee-hiues; or a fee due, to a Lord, or to the King (as in Provence) vpon the profit thats made of euerie hiue, by the owner.

Droict de bac. The fare due vnto the Lord, or owner, of a Ferrie-boat.

Droict de Bailliage. Looke Bailliage.

Droict de ban à vin. An vnalienable Priuiledge, enioyed by many Gentlemen in Touraine; who for fortie daies together after vintage may forbid any other wine then their owne, to be sold within their Precincts.

Droict de bannerie. The Royaltie of hauing a common Mill, Ouen, Presse, &c, whereto the tenants of, and dwellers within, a Libertie, or Mannor are to resort.

Droict de bannie. The same; and the reuenew thereof; or the power to take fees for the vse of such a Mill, Ouen, Presse, &c.

Droict de banniere. as Droict de Bannerie.

Droict de blairie. The power a Lord hath to fine any forreiners, who without his permission turne their cattel into the wastes, or Vaines pastures, belonging to his Mannors; as in Blayrie.

Droict de bordage. The drudgerie, or base seruices reserued by some Lords vpon the letting of their cottages, or small tenements; which cannot be sold, giuen, nor ingaged by the poore slaues that haue taken them.

Droict de bornage. Power to place meeres on, appoint limits vnto, lay out the bounds of, other mens lands.

Droict de boucherie. The Priuiledge of keeping a common slaughter house, whereat all the inhabitants of that Quarter are to haue their beasts killed; also, the fees belonging thereto; enioyed by such Lords as haue Moyenne Iustice.

Droict de bourgeoisie. Freedome; Looke Bourgeoisie.

Droict de boutage. A certaine dutie, or fee, exacted by the Lord of Breci (a member of Bourges) for the wine thats retailed within his iurisdiction.

Droict de branche de Cypres. A duetie paied, in old time, by English men arriuing at Bourdeaux; In signe, and as a token, that they had beene there.

Droict de braslage. The fee due, to the particular Maisters of the Mint, out of euerie sort of money thats coined; also, the fees of the workman, cutter, stamper, &c, (whom the Maisters are to pay;) Looke Braslage.

Droict de brefs, ou briefs. Looke Bref.

Droict de bris. The Admiraltie of a Sea-coast, which giues a man all wreckes, and shipwracks.

Droict de buche; ou de busche. The Officers of the wood-yards fees; or, the proportion of wood allowed, vnto euerie Office at Court; and vnto diuers Officers of th'Exchequer, ouer and besides their ordinarie wages.

Droict de Carnalage. A Priuiledge enioyed by the inhabitants of some places, to kill, and eat, or make profit of, such beasts as breake into their grounds; but this onely in some cases, and for a certaine number; which if they exceed they are answerable for all, as other men.

Droict de meilleur Catel/Heriotage; the best chatell a tenant hath when he dies, due vnto his Landlord.

Droict de Cauciage. The power of imposing taxes on tenants, or of taking toll of passengers, towards the reparation, or maintenance of a common causey; (In some Lords of Haynault.)

Droict de Cellerage. Sellerage; a duetie, or fee paied vnto some Lords, at the laying of wines into sellers.

Droict de Centiesme. Looke Centiesme.

Droict de Chambellage. An Income; or the fine due by euerie new tenant (that comes in as heire by a direct succession) vnto the Lord of the Mannor whereof his land is held: the rate of it is, by the customes of Mante, a Crowne of the Sunne; by those of Senlis, 20. s. Parisis; as also, by those of Vallois; and those of Noyon, (wherby tis due at euerie change of tenant:) by those of S. Quintins, a peece of gold worth (at least) halfe a Crowne; by those of S. Paul, 30. s. Paris. by those of Laon, a peece of gold of what value the tenant will: In other places he paies more, or lesse, according to their customes: Also, a fee due vnto the chiefe Vsher of the Chamber of Accompts, by euerie one of the Kings tenants, when he does his homage.

Droict de Chambellenage. Is, by the customes of Britaine, a dutie of 5. s. Tour. paid by euerie vassall at the doing of his fealtie, vnto his Liege Lord.

Droict de Chambrelage. as Droict de Chambellage; Stiled so, in the customes of Cambray; and of Haynault; in which country the rate of it is, 60. s.

Droict de Champagne. The fees due vnto the Officers of th'Exchequer vpon the lett[illegible] of the farms which belong to Champagne: viz. 2. s. 6. d. sterl. for such as are worth 100. l. or lesse; and 4. s. for those which exceed that rate.

Droict de Champart. Looke Champart.

Droict de Chantellage. Gauntellage; or, a certaine fee due vnto some Lords for the Gauntries whereon wine, thats any way to be sold, doth stand.

Droict de Charruage. as Droict de suitte de disme.

Droict de Chastellenie. The Royalties belonging to a Castleship, or Castleward; Looke Chastellenie.

Droict de chauffage. Looke Chauffage.

Droict de Chemage. The paſſage-toll, or, through-toll, thats taken at Sens.

Droict de Cheminage. The ſame.

Droict de Chevage. An yearely due tie, fine, or fee, of 12.d. Pariſis, paied, to the Kings vſe, within Vermandois (and ſome other places) by euerie baſtard, ſtranger, forreiner, and affranchiſed perſon, that is, or hath beene, married.

Droict de Chevalerie. The Priuiledge of Knighthood, or to bee made a Knight; Looke Chevalerie.

Droict de Chevauchée. Compoſition money, due (vpon agreement) by ſome townes; thereby exempted, in the Kings iourneyes, and progreſſes, from prouiding of horſes, and carts for his traine.

Droict de chevelure. The wearing of a locke, which in old time, none but a Prince of the bloud might weare.

Droict des chiens. That part of the game which belongs to the hounds for their reward.

Droict de Cire. Is 18.d. Tour. in euerie pound aboue twentie giuen, or agreed, for a wood-ſale; due vnto the King, in regard of the lights, which are (imagined to be) ſpent, while the bargaine is in making.

Droict de Collerage. Collerage; a fee due for the collers worne by the horſes, or men, which draw wine vp and downe.

Droict de commande. Is 2.d. Pariſis, taken yearely, by ſome Lords, of euerie one of their widowes (that hold by Villenage) in acknowledgement, and preſeruation of the right of their authoritie ouer them.

Droict de commis. The right, or power ſome Landlords haue, to confiſcate, ſeiſe, or enter on the inheritances of ſuch their tenants, or vaſſalls, as diſaduow them, giue them the lye, or commit felonie.

Droict de commiſe. The ſame.

Droict de confirmation. The fine due by all Officers of the kingdome of France vnto the King, at his firſt comming to the Crowne, for eſtabliſhing them by his letters Patents, in their places.

Droict de contentor. See Contentor.

Droict de Cornage. Hornage; or a quantitie of corne, taken yearely by the Lord Chaſtellain of Berri (a member of Bourges) for euerie Oxe, or horned beaſt that workes at the plough in the Winter-corne grounds which be within his iuriſdiction.

Droict de Couletage. See Couletage.

Droict de Couſtome. Is (in Normandie) the cuſtome, or toll, due vpon the ſale of wares in Markets; In Grand Perche; it is a penie Tour. payable vnto Lords that haue baſe Iuriſdiction, for euerie beaſt that giues no milke, and was bred, bought, and deliuered within their territories; This vnder a penaltie of 2.s. 6.d. for euerie one thats not ſo paid for.

Droct de groſſe couſtome. A toll, or impoſt of 48.s. 10.d. Tour. vpon euerie eighteene Muids of Salt paſſing along by Chartres; due vnto, and equally diuided betweene, the King, and the Biſhop of that citie.

Droict de petite couſtome. See La petite couſtome, in, Couſtome.

Droict de deſherance. Eſcheatage; power to ſeiſe, and conuert vnto his owne vſe, an inheritance whoſe owner dies inteſtate, and without heire; belongs to the King, Lord high Iuſticer, or Land-lord.

Droict de directe, ou fondalité. The Seigneuriall rights, or dueties annexed vnto the ſoile, or belonging to the Lord thereof.

Droict du dixieſme denier. The tenth penie, or pen-niworth, of all mines, mettalls, mineralls, and other (extraordinarie) ſubſtances got within ground, throughout all France, due vnto the King; alſo, th' Admiralls tenth part, or ſhare in all ſhipwracks, prizes, conqueſts, &c, made at ſea.

Droict de tiers denier. The third pennie, or part of the price giuen for an inheritance Roturier, or Bourdelier, due, in ſome places, vnto the Land-lord.

Droict de dixieſme. Looke Dixieſme.

Droict domainer. The Priuiledge a Lord Iuſticer hath, to right himſelfe by execution, without any former proceeding, in caſes that concerne his auncient demaine, or the cuſtomarie duties thereto belonging.

Droict de doublage. Looke Doublage.

Droict de douzieſme. An yearely rent of 12. d. due by euerie affranchiſed inhabitant of Henault vnto the Earle thereof, in acknowledgement of his former thraldome, and in thankefulneſſe for his new-got freedome.

Droict de folle enchere. The right of confiſcating money paied beforehand for an Office, which after the bargaine made the chapman would refuſe, as too deere.

Droict d' Entrage. Entrage; a fee due for th' entrance of marchandiſe into the Hauens, and walled townes of the kingdome; alſo, an Income payable to a Leſſor at th' entrie of the Leſſee.

Droict d' Entrée. Looke Entrée; Alſo, halfe a crown due to euerie Treaſurer, and Generall of the Finances (beſides their ordinarie wages) for reſidence, euery day they meet, and ſit in their Courts, about the Kings buſineſſe.

Droict d'eſcas. The tenth pennie of the value of moueables which are left by a freeman vnto a forreiner within Seclin, and Baſſée ſous Liſle; due vnto the common Treaſurie of thoſe townes.

Droict d'eſchats, & Tavernes. A certaine Impoſition vpon wines that are ſold by retaile, & in Tauernes; (from which all Prieſts beneficed within Bourdeaux are exempted, for as much as grew in their owne grounds, glebe, or Prebendaries.)

Droict d'Eſcheance. Eſcheatage.

Droict d' Eſchevinage. Power to incorporate a towne.

Droict d' Eſſongne. A duetie, or fine, paiable (in Brittaine) by the heire, or ſucceſſor of a deceaſed tenant vnto the Lord, vnder whoſe Cenſiue he held, and enioyed land at the time of his death: And thus is, a pennie Pariſis, or two, or twelue; or more or leſſe, according to the annuall value of the land, and according to the cuſtome, ſeuerall, in ſeuerall places.

Droict d'Eſtablage. That which in our law is called Stallage; or a fee taken by Lords, of Marchants, for permitting them to open, & ſell their wares in their Faires, and Markets; alſo, Stablage, or, that which is paied for the ſtanding of a horſe in a ſtable.

Droict d'Eſtallage. Stallage.

Droict d'Eſtallonnage. The Royaltie, or Priuiledge of aſſigning, and aſſizing of publicke weights, and meaſures.

Droict d'Eſtellage. Stallage.

Droict de faultrage; ou fautrage. A certaine vnalienable fee, due vpon each head of cattell that runnes in the common medowes, or paſtures of a Manner; In lieu whereof a beardſman is maintained, to keepe the ground in good order, & to looke that the beaſts at firſt put in be not after changed.

Droict de ferrage. A priuiledge whereby ſome ſpeciall officers, and followers of Court claime to haue their horſes horſes ſhod at the Kings charge; alſo, a certein fee due to the Cutters of the mint.

Droict de feſtage. An yerelie dutie payable vnto certein lords for euery ridge, roofe, or houſetop within their dominion; alſo, the feaſts that are due by ſome Prelats vnto their Chapters.

Droict de feſtin. The ſame (in the later part.)

Droict de feurmariage; as, Droict de formariage.

Droict de foire, & marchez: The royaltie, or priuiledge, of houlding a faire, or keeping markets, within a mans owne territorie (originally of the Kings grant.)

Droicts de fondalité. The rights, or royalties which are annexed vnto the ſoile, & belong euer vnto the lord thereof.

Droict de forage. A certein fee, or part, out of wines that are ſould, belonging to the lords of the Iuriſdiction, or place wherein they are ſould: by the cuſtome of Amiens, and of Beaũqueſne, it is two pots on euery ſingle veſſell, or bottome thats retayled; and belongs to the lord high, meane, or low Iuſticer: by the cuſtomes of Teroanne, it is alſo two pots vpon euery veſſel thats ſould in groſſe, and belongs to the Biſhop: In Beauvois, there in xx. d. for euery veſſell ſould in groſſe, and xvj. d. for euery one retailed in the town, paied vnto the Biſhop of that Sea: And by the cuſtomes of Ponthieu a Lord of a ſoile, that hath but low Iuriſdiction, may take two pots of euery barred veſſell thats broched vpon his ſoyle, or within the limits of his authoritie; In other places, otherwiſe.

Droict de forban. The royaltie, or power, of baniſhing an offendor out of his territories.

Droict de formariage. The halfe, or third, or (as the cuſtome is) other part of a villens ſubſtance, due vnto his landlord, or the lord of the Iuriſdiction wherin he liues, if he marrie a woman thats free, or a forreiner; & this, although he haue leaue to do it, for otherwiſe he looſes ſixtie ſhillings more: In old time baſtards, and ſtrangers, who maried out of their owne condition, were ſubiect vnto this penalty; Now thoſe in moſt places, and theſe in ſome, are priuiledged.

Droict de foüage. Chimney-pence; or, an yearelie tax leuied in old time by ſome ſupreame Lords vpon euery chimney, or fire, kept within their territories: In Charles the fifts time it was foure pound Tour. and ſome tooke foure buſhels of Oats; others bread; and others other things: the Blacke Prince would haue exacted a franc of euery fire kept in Aquitaine; which bred him great miſchiefe (ſayes a Frenchman:) Since thoſe times the Tailles haue ſucceeded this taxation in moſt places.

Droict de francs-fiefs. Looke, Francs-fiefs.

Droict de fournage. The fee thats due for baking in a common Ouen; alſo, the fine paied by vaſſals or tenants, bound to reſort vnto their lords, for a licence to vſe their owne.

Droict de freſange. One hog, or more, due vnto the maſter of the waters and forreſts of Aubigny (and elſewhere) by the farmer of the maſtage, and browſage thereof.

Droict de Gabelle de ſel; Th'impoſt, or gabell of ſalt; See, Gabelle.

Droict de Gabelle de vins. Th'impoſt of wines, due to the duke of Buillon.

Droict de gambage. Foure bottles of beere vpon euerie brewing, due vnto diuers Lords within the county of Boullenois.

Droict de Gants. A paire of gloues, or in lieu thereof, money (more or leſſe according to the cuſtome) due by a purchaſer, as a concluſion of all his firſt ſeruices, vnto the Lord Cenſuel, or of the ſoyle; Seek, Droict de ventes & gants.

Droict de garde. Soueraigne patronage, or protection.

Droict de garde noble. The wardſhip of gentlemens lands held in Capite, or by knights ſeruice, due by the cuſtomes of Normandie, vnto the king, or lords, of whom they are held.

Droict de giſte. Power to lie at the houſe of a tenant, vaſſall, or ſubiect in paſſing along by it; due to the king onely, not to the Queene; (though ſome dukes, and earles haue had it at the abbayes, & monaſteries within their territories;) now the great Biſpops, and Abbots, by an yearelie allowance in money, haue got themſelues diſpenſed withall.

Droict de garene. Free warren; or, a liberty to hunt all ouer the grounds of his ſubiects, or vaſſals.

Droict de Grarie. The Kings fee out of euerie ſale of wood made in his ſubiects forreſts; due vnto him for the Iuſtice done, and good order kept, within them, by his officers; thereby alſo, he challenges a part, or property in part, of the demaine, and reuennes thereof.

Droict de greffe: Sixtie three ſhillings nine pence Tour. due to the king vpon a ſale of wood, in Normandie, and elſewhere.

Droict de gruerie: The browſage, or pawnage of ſome woods; belongs to the lords that haue high Iuriſdiction ouer their owners; or, as Droict de grurie.

Droict de grurie. Conſiſts in the fines and amerciaments leuied, & in the confiſcation of treſpaſſing beaſts, within foreſts; and belongs vnto the King. See Grurie.

Droict de guerre: Feud; or the libertie which one ſubiect had, in old time, to make warre vpon another whom he had firſt defied.

Droict de guet. Caſtle-gard, or Caſtle-ward; whereunto the vaſſals of diuers lords, that haue Caſtles, are bound (in time, or expectation, of war) by their tenures; yet are they not bound to doe this ſeruice at any other place then the Caſtle whereof they hould; nor to doe it there at, if it be very ruinous, vntill it be repaired: alſo, the watch which a vaſſall, inhabiting a frontire, or ſea coaſt, is tied to keepe, ordinarily, once a moneth; in lieu, or default, whereof he paies his lord v. s. Tour. a time; or an yearelie quantitie of corne, or number of hens, &c, as the cuſtome of the place is, or as they can agree.

Droict d' hallage. Hallage; the toll due to a lord by thoſe, that ſell wares in the common halls of townes, wherein the king hath licenſed him to keep faires, or markets.

Droict d' harenc. A certein number of herrings, heretofore due euery lent vnto th' officers of the Chamber of accompts; who at this day haue, in lieu thereof, an yerelie allowance in money.

Droict d' Haubert. A certeine priuiledge whereof there are many parts, the moſt of high Iuriſdiction, enioyed by diuers lords of Normandie.

Droict d' Haultban. An yearelie tax of vj. s. Pariſis, leuied, for the king of euery baker, and ſome other Artificers, within Paris.

Droict d' Herbage. Herbage; or the liberty ſome haue to graze their cattell in other mens woods.

Droict d' herbage mort. A penny, or halfe-penny (as the cuſtome is) payed by a poore Cottager, or copieholder vnto the Lord that hath high, or meane Iuriſdiction ouer him, for euery ſheep he hath, if he haue not a boue tenne, or (as in ſome places) twentie.

Droict

Droict d'herbage vif. If he haue more then tenne, or twentie, then he giues euerie tenth sheepe; which is chosen by the Lord, or his Officers. These dueties are leuied at Midsummer, and grow due from Christmas Eue.

Droict d'hommes. The Kings Prerogatiue, and power of his officers, to moderate, or diminish th'excessiue taxes laied, by mesne Lords, in the iurisdiction of Tours, vpon their villeines, whom otherwise they might tax at pleasure.

Droict d'hostelage. The rate Marchant-strangers are at, in some parts of France, for their warehouses; and which, if they hold them, but a night, they pay, if a whole yeare, they doe but pay; also, as Pains d'hostelage; in Hostelage.

Droict de Iallage. One, two, or three pintes (as the custome is) of wine, taken by a Lord vpon euerie Poinson retailed within his iurisdiction.

Droict d'Indemnité. Looke Indemnité.

Droict d'Inquant. Fiue in the hundreth, due to the King in some parts of Provence.

Droict d'Inteſtat. A priuiledge which the next of bloud hath (in some places) to enter on the possessions left by his intestate kinsman.

Droict d'Inveſtiſon. The right of Inuesture of Prelates, &c, due vnto the Prince.

Droict d'Iſſue. The custome due for the transportation, or exportatio of marchandise, &c, out of the land; also, the rights, fine, or seruices due vnto a mesne Lord vpon his tenants alienation, or leasing of his tenement vnto another.

Droict de Iurée. A duetie, or fine leuied yearely by th'old Earles of Champagne, vpon all their subiects, and vassalls; viz. 6. d. in the pound for mouables, and 2. d. for euerie pounds worth of immoueables; yet might the richest be quit for 4. s. sterl. yearely; others not vnder 12. d. At this day the King, and other Lords of Iurisdiction take this duetie, in some places, of their Burgesses, or freemen.

Droict de Levage. An Imposition of three bushells, and three quarters, or 15. s. Tour. vpon euerie boatfull of salt transported: In some parts of France (as within Anjou, and le Maine) tis also, a pennie for a beese, pipe of wine, load of corne, &c, and a halfe-pennie for a sheepe, hog &c, due vnto a Lord of Iurisdiction, if they haue bene within his libertie eight dayes together before their sale, or transportation.

Droict de Liage. Hoopage; or a fee due vnto some Lords vpon euerie hooped vessell of wine which their vassalls haue, or sell.

Droict de ligne esteinte. Escheatage; the right which a Lord hath in the land of his tenant, dying without heires of his bodie, or bloud.

Droict de litige. The right of presentation to a Benefice, by a Lord, while his vassalls are at suit for it; was the Dukes of Normandie, now tis the Kings; some hold it to be rather a receiuing of the fruits, & profits thereof, while the suit lasts.

Droict de loges. A certaine annuall fee due vnto some Lords for the lodgings their vassalls haue within their castles, in time of warre.

Droict de logies. An yearelie tax of 16. s. 6. d. sterl. leuied vnto the Kings vse vpon euerie Prouostship within the Countie of Poictou; ouer and besides the rent at which, or price for which, it is farmed; and 18. d. for the Officers of the Chamber of Accompts.

Droict de logues. A certain fee due, to th'vnder Butler of th'Abbey of Deols in Berri, out of the tithes belonging to that Abbey.

Droict de lots. Certaine dueties paied by a purchaser vnto the Lord Censuel, who in receiuing them giues him possession of the land he hath bought; (They be commonly as much as the Ventes, and goe together.)

Droict de maille d'or. A golden halfe-penie due, vnto the Duke of Nevers, by the Prior of S. Privé, for the Faire he keepes in that place.

Droict de Mainbournie. Soueraigne patronage, or protection.

Droict de Maire, & Communauté. The priuiledge of hauing, being, or belonging to, a Corporation.

Droict de Manée de sel. A certain quantitie of salt, vpon euerie horse-load thereof entring into Bourges, and of euerie one that sells any within Bourges; taken by th'Abbot, and Couent of S. Sulpice; Looke Manée.

Droict de Manteaux. Is 20. s. sterl. a yeare; and belongs both to euerie Secretarie of the house, and Crown of France, that takes wages, and vnto those Counsellors of Parliament, which are of, or for, the Church.

Droict de Marc. The Prouost of the Mints fee vpon euerie Marke, or halfe pound of gold, siluer, or Billon thats coined; Looke Marc.

Droict de Marchage. The Common of pasture which the inhabitants of one Iurisdiction, Parish, Village, or Manour, haue ouer all the grounds belonging to another.

Droict de Marché. The royaltie of hauing, or keeping a Market within his territorie; belongs to a Lord Chattelain; and sometimes is conferred by the King on meaner Lords of Iurisdiction.

Droict de Marciage. Is, euerie third yeare, all the profit of naturall fruits, as hay, &c, and the halfe of all others, as wine, corne, &c, due, within Bourbonnois, vnto a Landlord, in lieu of his whole rent; tis also due, as a fine, vpon euerie change of Lord and tenant.

Droict de Marque. Power to arrest the bodie, and seise the goods, of another; graunted by the King, and, in old time, giuen by the Parliament, against a stranger, or forreiner.

Droict de Mesurage. Th'appointing, or proportioning of measures in a territorie; belongs to the Lord therof; also, toll-corne, and toll-salt; a dishfull vpon euerie Septier of either.

Droict de Minage. The toll due vnto some Lords, vpon euerie Mine of corne thats measured within their Iurisdictions.

Droict de Moiſſon. A certaine quantitie of corne due yearely, vnto the King, out of the towne, and Iurisdiction of Bourges.

Droict de Monneage. An Aid, or Subsidie of 12. d. paid, each third yere, by euerie housholder within Normandie, vnto the Duke, or (as now) the King, on condition, that the money of the countrey be not altered: from this, are all Church-Officers; beneficed men; Gentlemen; widowes that haue not aboue 2. s. yearelie reuenewe, or 4. s. in goods (besides their apparell, and household-stuffe) and diuers others, by their Charters, exempted.

Droict de Montenage. Toll paied vnto certaine Lords by those that buy, and sell beasts, or other marchandise within their territories.

Droict de Montrouvage. The same (false Printed.)

Droict de Morte-main. The right a Lord hath to the estate of villeine dying without heire of his bodie, and no no tenant in Common with any other of his owne condition.

Droict de Mortuage. A mortuarie; due to a Parſon at the death of one of his pariſhioners; Looke, Droict de Neufme.

Droict de Moulage. Multure; the fee, or toll, for grinding, due vnto the Miller, or Lord of the Mill; is (by the cuſtomes of Britaine) the ſixteenth part of the Corne that is to be ground.

Droict de Moulture; ou de Moulure; the ſame.

Droict de Moutonnage: as, Droict de Montenage.

Droict de Neufieſme. A ninth part of th'yearelie profits of ſome benefices in Britaine, demanded by the Pope.

Droict de Neufme. A ninth of a third part of a deceaſed perſons moueables, due to the Parſon for his Mortuarie.

Droict de Nommer aux Eueſchez,& Abbayes du Royaulme: Belongs to the king.

Droict de nopſages. The fee due to a Parſon for a mariage.

Droict d'obliages. The fine due vnto a Lord by his tenant who hath omitted, or forgotten to pay his rent, or yearelie duties at his day.

Droict d'obole. A halfepennie in the pound due to the King vpon all Obligations of money lent, and contracts of ſale, exceeding xv. li. Tourn.

Droict d'oſtizes. A certein number of hennes due euerie yeare vnto Lords from their tenants, in lieu of their Chimney-pence, or as a rent for their houſes.

Droict de oublie. A Douzain, or Sol in the mouth of a Capon, payed, in ſome places, as a rent.

Droict de padventage. The right of common of paſture in one, or more pariſhes.

Droict du paillé. The priuiledge of the Pall, or of wearing a Pall, due onely to ſome Biſhops.

Droict de pain de paniere. A great white-loafe due yerelie by the tenants of Saint Gondonſur Loire (beſides their Cens) vnto their Lord.

Droict de paréé. Acorreſpondencie held betweene ſome neighbouring Lords, for the purſuing of one anothers villeins into their ſeuerall territories; thereby to take from them the pretence, they would otherwiſe haue, of being affranchiſed by being got out of their lords dominions.

Droict de pariage. A perpetual aſſociation, or correſpondencie of Iuriſdiction, agreed vpon betweene a ſpirituall, and a temporall Lord; alſo, the right of common of paſture in one anothers grounds.

Droict de parnage. Pawnage; or, (more generally,) the profit made, or mony receiued by the lord of a forreſt for th'agiſtment, laying, or feeding of ſwine with the maſte, or of Cattell with the herbage, thereof.

Droict de patronnage. The patronage, or aduowſon of a benefice either when a man, that giues land to the Church, reſerues the ſeigneurie thereof; or when the founder of a Church conditions, that he and his heires ſhall haue power to nominate, and preſent vnto the Biſhop a perſon capable of the benefice, whenſoeuer tis vacant.

Droict de peage. A through-toll or paſſage-toll.

Droict de peſcherie. A right of fiſhing, or libertie to fiſh, in waters from which all others be reſtrayned.

Droict de plaſſage: A fee due, in ſome places, by Marchants and ware-ſellers, for the ſhewing, and ſelling of their commodities in the market place, or publike ſtreetes, and for the roomes wherein they ſhew, and ſell them; therein like our ſtallage.

Droict de poiſage. Poiſage; or, a fee due in ſome places, vnto the king, for the weighing of wares in the Market-hall, or Towne-houſe.

Droict de police. Looke, Police.

Droict de pontenage. Pontage; paſſage-toll at a bridge, or, toll due for Marchandize paſſed ouer a bridge.

Droict de porte. A certein dutie paied by the Scholers of Paris, at their admiſſion into colledges.

Droict de preage. A priuiledge enioyed by ſome lords, to put, at certein times, and with ſufficient gard, their horſes, and kine into their vaſſals meadowes; for which they are, at all times bound to find one that ſhall keepe, and looke vnto them.

Droict de prelation. The priuiledge of being preferred before others in a purchaſe.

Droict de premice. A ſheafe of corne, or ij. s. Tour. and a lamb, if there be ten or more; if fewer a pennie for euery lamb, due vnto Parſons.

Droict de prenices. The firſt fruits of Eccleſiaſticall liuings.

Droict de preſence. Halfe a Crowne due vnto euerie Treaſurer, & generall of the Finances (beſides their ordinarie wages) for reſidence; or, euery day they meet and ſit about the kings buſineſſe.

Droict de Preuoſté: The priuiledge of hauing a Prouoſt vnder him to keepe his Courts, and leuie his toules, rights, fines, &c; (belongs vnto a Lord Baron, or Chattelain that haue Iuriſdiction;) alſo, a paſſage toll.

Droict de quart denier du prix, ou de l'eſtimation. The fourth pennie, or part, of the worth of an Inheritance Cottier, due vnto Landlords vpon any alienation thereof.

Droict de quatrieme. The fourth pot of, or pennie taken for, Wine, Cyder, and other ordinarie drinke retailed; due in ſome places vnto the king; & firſt graunted, for wine, vnto Charles the fift at a parliament helde in Paris.

Droict de quenaiſe. The right of Eſcheatage, whereby an Inheritance Roturier falles into the Lords hands, if his tenant leaue no lawfull iſſue of his bodie behind him: ¶ Bretton.

Droict de quint. The fift part of the price of land ſould; belongs to the Lord of the ſoile vpon the ſale thereof, and is paied ſometimes by the ſeller, in ſome places by the buyer, and in ſome equally by both.

Droict de Regale: Seeke, Regale.

Droict de Regiſtration. eſt deu pour inſinuer en Iuſtice vn tranſport d'heritage, de cens, ou rente: ou pour l'approbation d'une ſaiſine. ¶ Ragueau.

Droict de Regiſtre. A foure-pennie dutie paied by a tenant Cottier vnto his Landlord, when he puts him in poſſeſſion of his tenement.

Droict de Regiſtre, ou Contentor. A certein fee due vnto th'audienciers of Chanceries; (viz. iiij. s. ſterling veuery Charter.)

Droict de Relevoiſon. A yeares rent in ſome caſes, in others vj. d. for each pennie of yearelie Cens, payed by tenants Cenſiers vnto their Lord when they firſt enter into their tenements: Looke, Relevoiſon.

Droict de Relief. Reliefe; a fine due to the Lord of a Manner, vpon the change of a tenant which houlds of him in fee: by the cuſtomes of Amiens it is 60. s. Pariſis for euerie Noble fee held by a full homage, and x. li. Paris. for euerie one held in Peeredome: by the cuſtomes of Peronne, the yeres reuenue after the charge, or

or the third part of the Reuenue of the three yeares next before it, at the Lords choice: By the customes of Valançai, S. Aignan, and Selles, xij. d. for euerie pennie of yearelie Cens: And by the customes of Paris, and (almost) all other places, the Lord may chuse whether he will take a yeares Reuenue, or a whole Summe at once offered vnto him by the Tenant.

Droict de Relods. xx d. Tour. payable by a purchaser vnto the Landlord vpon euerie pound due to him for the Lods and Ventes.

Droict de Rendage de chascun ouvrage; containes both the Kings Right of Seigneuriage, and the Master of the Mints Brassage.

Droict de Represailles, ou Repressailles. Libertie, or Power to take, in time of warre, a stranger prisoner, and to keepe him, vntill he haue repayed vnto his Taker the ransome he payed formerly, or satisfied him for goods taken from him by one of his countreymen; Looke Represailles.

Droict de Requart. A Quarter of a Quarter of the price, or worth of an Inheritance Cottier, due vnto the Landlord vpon the alienation thereof; (abolished by some late Customes.)

Droict de Requint. A fift pennie of the fift pennie of the price, or value of an Inheritance feodal, due in all alienations vnto the Lord feodal; but abolished, by the customes of some places, as the Requart.

Droict de Ressort. Looke Ressort.

Droict de Resue. An auncient Tax, or Imposition of iiij d. in the pound for Marchandise, and x s. Tour. for euerie Pipe of wine, brought into, or sent out of, the kingdome.

Droict de Retenuë. A Priuiledge of some Landlords; who may redeeme, within fortie dayes, the lands which their tenants haue sold, paying for them vnto the purchaser, ouer and besides his lawfull costs and charges, as much as he gaue.

Droict de Retiers; as Droict de Reventes.

Droict de Reventes. A fine due, besides the Lods and Ventes, vnto the Lord Censuel, by a Purchaser, who buying an Inheritance thats charged with Cens, doth vndertake to acquit the seller from the payment of Lods.

Droict de Reventons. The same.

Droict de Reversion. The right of Reuersion; power to take backe, and reunite vnto the demaine of the Crowne, such lands as haue beene diuided from it by Dowers, younger brothers Portions, &c; as also to seize on Duchies, & Earldomes that fall among daughters.

Droict de Rivage. Shorage, or Boatage; the Custome, or Toll for wine, or other wares, put vpon, or brought from, the water, by boats.

Droict de Robbes de Pasques. Gownes at Easter, due vnto the Officers of the chamber of Accompts.

Droict de Rodage. A certaine Toll exacted by some countrey Lords vpon euerie Wayne that passes (through the high way) by their Seigniories, whether it be loaden or no; for if it be, they will also be payed for the Load.

Droict de Roses. A certaine quantitie of Roses, or a fee in lieu of them, belonging to the Officers of the chamber of Accompts.

Droict de Roüage. Wheelage; a certaine Toll, or Imposition vpon wine sould in grosse, and carried away in Carts; leuied, before a wheele thereof bee suffered to turne: In some places, a Lord Terrageur hath also, as a wheelage, a sheafe vpon euerie load of his tenants corne, towards the carrying of his Terrage vnto his Barne, whereto by couenant, or custome they are bound to lead it.

Droicts Royaux. The Royall Prerogatiue, or Priuiledges; such as be the Protection of Vniuersities, and Cathedrall Churches (whose Officers, Members, Ministers, Seruants, and Vassals are not to bee tried before any other Iudges then the Kings) Exemption from Excommunication, both for himselfe, and his Officers (by reason of their Offices;) Power to prohibit the publication, and execution of Admonitions, Interdictions, or Suspensions denounced against the Prelates, or Officers of his Kingdome; Absolute, and onely power, to forgiue offences committed against the Publicke; to recall the Banished, release the Gallyslaue, and free other mens Villaines; to giue Protections, generall Passeports, and Safeconducts; to punish Traitors, Rebels, and Coyners; to giue Letters of Mart, and Repriſall; of Nobilitation, Legitimation, and full restitution; to raise new Customes, and Taxes; graunt Faires, and Markets; found Vniuersities; erect Corporations, and new Offices; make all kind of Knights; to enter into Warre, Peace, League, or Truce with an enemie; to create of a Chastellenie, a Baronie, or Countie; and of this a Marquisdome, or Duchie; to acknowledge no Superiour in temporall matters, no subiection vnto the Lawes Imperiall; generally, to exercise, and execute, all Soueraigne, and Monarchall Jurisdiction.

Droict de saintre; belongs vnto some Lords; who may thereby eat, with (onely) their cattell, all the wast, vntilled, stuble, or bushie grounds that be within their Manors.

Droict de saisine. The money due vnto the Lo. Censuel, and of the Soyle, by a Purchaser of an Inheritance Censuel, when he is inseisined, and put into possession thereof; (by the customes of Paris it is xij d. Parisis.)

Droict de salage. A certaine quantitie of Salt due vnto the Abbot of Bourgmoien within Blois, vpon euerie boat that carries any into the hauen, or vnder the bridges of that Towne.

Droict de Salin. as Gabelle de Sel.

Droict de Salvage. A tenth part of goods which were like to perish by shipwracke, due vnto him that saues them.

Droict de Saunelage; the same. Breton.

Droict de Sauvelage; the same.

Droict de Seel. The Priuiledge of hauing a Seale, wherewith his vassals are to stampe all their contracts.

Droict de Segorage. A certaine dutie, or fee, belonging to the Lord of the Isle Savari within the Bayliwike of Touraine.

Droict de Segreage; the same.

Droict de Seigneuriage. Whereby defective coyne is forfeited vnto the Crowne; also, the right of coynage, or fee for coyning, due vnto the King; the first is, the profit he makes, in generall, by the defect of the coyne which he authorises; the second is (most commonly) 65 s. Tour, vpon euerie Marc of gold; iiij s. vj d. vpon a Marc of siluer; and xx d. vpon euerie Marc of Billon, or courser mettall, coyned.

Droicts Seigneuriaux. Rents, Seruices, Wardships, Escheats, and all other Rights due, or Profits accruing, vnto a Lord out of the land thats held of him; Looke Seigneurial.

Droict de Sepulture. A Parsons dutie, or fee, for the buriall of one of his Parishioners.

Droict de sixiesme; &, du sixiesme denier; Looke Sixiesme.

Droicts

Droict de Souveraineté. Looke Souveraineté.
Droict de Stellage. Toll-corne, and Toll-salt; a dish-full vpon euerie Septier of either sold within Buillon, due vnto the Duke thereof.
Droict de Stippes, & nobis. is, in some parts of Normandie, a pennie Tour. in other places iij d, vpon euerie pound made of the farmes of the Kings Domaine muable, due to the Officers of the Court of Accompts.
Droict de suitte de bestes. The power one hath, who lets a beast out to halues, or hire, to challenge and seize it, being sold, or passed away, without his knowledge, by him he let it vnto.
Droict de suitte de disme. A right, whereby a Lord of tythe-grounds which haue kept, and wintered cattell, whose owners worke with them in the tythe grounds of another Lord, may lawfully take halfe of those tythes, when they are to be gathered; (The maintaining of this vnreasonable Right breedes many suites and quarrels; and therefore it might, without wrong to the Publicke, be spared; sayes Ragueau.)
Droict de suitte de gens; as;
Droict de suitte de personnes serves. The power some Lords haue to compell their villaines, or others that hold land of them by villenage, to reside, and keepe a continuall fire, on their tenements; from this Right (which extends vnto their goods, or persons) all the Inhabitants of the Kings Townes within Berry, are exempted.
Droict de suriect. Power to adde vnto the last price thats offered in a Portsale, or Outrope.
Droict de Tabellionnage. The Priuiledge of a Lord Chatelain, or high Iusticier to make, and keepe vnder him a Notarie for the ingrossing of all deedes, and contracts past'ed within his Iurisdiction; Looke Tabellionnage.
Droict de Taille. The right of Subsidie, Tax, or Tallage; belongs as well vnto diuers Lords, by the customes of their Manors, as vnto the King; also, the Prerogatiue, or power to raise new taxes (onely in the King.)
Droict de Terceau. A certaine dutie taken by a Lord at the Fatt, or other vessell of his vassals wine; and to be payed vnto himselfe, or his Officer, before the wine be drawne, or else the vassall forfeits sixtie sols Tour.
Droict de Terrage. Field-Rent; Countrey-toll; Seeke Terrage.
Droict de Thonnieu. as Droict de Tonlieu.
Droict de Tiers & danger. A third, and a tenth part, of the price for which wood is sold in the woods, and forrests belonging to the Kings Demaine (especially within Normandie) due vnto him; Looke Danger.
Droict de Tiers denier. The third pennie of the price giuen for the purchase of an Inheritance Roturier, or Bourdelier, due, in some places, vnto the Landlord.
Droict de Tirage. Draggage; or a toll, or fee for draggage (of salt, or wine) due vnto some Lords.
Droict de Tonlieu. Toll due to the Lord of a Faire, or Market, for all kind of Marchandise, and Cattell, bought and sold: (By the customes of Boulenois it is iiij d. from the Buyer, and as much from the Seller, of a Horse, Ox, or Cow; a pennie for a Sheepe, or Goat; and ij d. for a Hog, equally payable, as the former, betweene the Buyer and Seller, before Sunne set.)
Droict de Tonnelieu; &, de Toulieu; the same.
Droict de Traicte, is ij d. Tour. leuied for the King of euerie cartload of Marchandise transported out of the Territorie of Mehun; Looke Traicte.

Droict de Traicte de bleds. An Imposition of vij s. sterl. vpon euerie Tunne of wheat (and rateably of all other kinds of graine) transported out of the Realme.
Droict de Traicte foraine; Looke Forain.
Droict de Trainage, as Droict de suitte de disme.
Droict de Travers. Crosse-toll; passage-toll; or, through-toll.
Droict de Treu. The Toll, or Custome due vnto Lords for Salt, or Marchandise, carried through their dominions; and generally, any Toll.
Droict de Treu accoustumé. A Priuiledge of the Lords high Iusticers in the Countie of Burgundie; where if a beast be taken, or killed in any one of their dominions, it must be brought, and giuen vnto him, or to some one of his Officers for him, whosoeuer the hunter be, or from whence soeuer the game was chased.
Droict de trezieisme. The thirteenth pennie, or part, of the money for which land is sold, payable vnto the Lord, of whom tis held in fee by the Seller (vnlesse there be a couenant to the contrarie;) also, the thirteenth sheafe of a crop, due vnto a Lord that hath field-Rent, or countrey-toll.
Droict du trezieisme denier; the same (in the first part.)
Droict de trezieisme de Vin. The thirteenth pot, or pennie of the price of wine retayled; due, in some places, vnto the Lord of the Soyle, or of the Iurisdiction.
Droict de Trousse. A certaine number of Geese, or dutie payed in Geese, within the Iurisdiction of Crosses neere vnto Bourges.
Droict de Truage. as, Droict de Treu.
Droict de Venditions. The Toll which Lords of Markets, and Faires take for the sale of wares, and marchandise therein.
Droict des Veneurs. The Huntsmens, or Hunters, part of the Deere, or other game.
Droict de venterolles. A certaine fine due to a Landlord by the Purchaser that vndertakes to discharge the seller of all fines: By the Customes of Lagni (within the Iurisdiction of Meaux) it is xx d. in euerie pound which he giues; by those of Senlis, the sixteenth part of the Droict de ventes; by those of Amiens, the thirteenth pennie of the Trezieisme; and by those of Doulens, the sixt of the Sixieisme: By those of Clermont it is called Reventes; and by those of Arthois it is as Droict de Requint.
Droict de ventes. is (most commonly) the twelfth part of the price of land Censuel, due to the Lord of whom it is held; and payable, in some places, by the Purchaser, in others by the Seller, and in others betweene them both: (The French Lawes and Customes often ioyne, with this, another dutie called Lods, or Lots; which is euer as much as this; both together swallowing vp a sixt part of that which is giuen for the purchase.)
Droict de ventes, & Gants. A twelfth part (as before) and xv d. (by the customes of Tours) or x d. (by the customes of Lodunois) for a paire of gloues.
Droict de ventes, & honneurs. The sixt, or other part (as the custome is) due onely by the Purchaser.
Droict de ventes & issuës. is also a sixt part, or iij s. iiij d. in the pound; (whereof, as if it were Lods and Ventes, there is but halfe meant for Ventes.)
Droict de Verre. A certaine number of drinking glasses, diuided, in old time, among the Officers of the chamber of Accompts, but at this day allowed them in money.
Droict de Vertemoulte. A certaine dutie, or fine payable vnto Lords in Normandie, by their tenants that inne inne their corne out of their Manors.

Droict de veſt. Power to make Liuerie and Seiſin vnto a Purchaſer, belongs in a few places to the ſeller, in many to the Lord Cenſier, or Foncier; alſo, the fine, or fee due to a Lord for Liuerie and Seiſin made by him.

Droict de veuës. Authoritie to make windowes in other mens houſes, for the commoditie and aduantage of a neighbour; or to damme vp ſuch as hinder, or annoy a neighbour.

Droict de Veufve. Looke Veufve.

Droict de viager. An eſtate for life in; or libertie to enioy a thing during his life.

Droict de vignages. A certaine toll, or fee, taken by Lords of Marchants, or Drouers, &c, which with their commodities, or cattell paſſe by their territories.

Droict de ville cloſe. Libertie, or power to incloſe a Towne with walls, or fortifie it with Rampiers, procured from the Prince.

Droict de Vin, ou de Vins. A fine of iij s. vpon euerie alienation of an Inheritance Cenſuel exceeding xx s, due, beſides Lods and Ventes, vnto the Conent of Fareſmontier, by the inhabitants of Iouy (in the Iuriſdiction of Meaux.)

Droict de mettre prix au Vin. A Priuiledge which a Lord, high or meane Iuſticer, hath ouer all thoſe that retayle Wine, or ſell it by the pot, within his Iuriſdiction; alſo, the fee thereto belonging; which is, a loafe of bread, and a lot of the Wine, deliuered vnto his Officers as a taſt of it.

Droict de Vins & ſtippes. 45 s. Tour. vpon euerie Sale of wood within the Dominions of the Duke of Buillon, payable vnto the officers of the forreſt out of which the ſale is made.

Droict de Vins & ventes. A Iallée full of Wine, due to a Lord Cenſuel vpon the ſale of land held of him, ouer and beſides the twelfth part of the price for the Ventes, and payable by the Purchaſer.

Droict de Vinade. The vſe, and worke of two yoake of Oxen, or of a Cart, all Vintage time, due vnto the Lords of ſome Places, from their vaſſals and tenants.

Droict de Vinage. Twelue pence, due to the Officers of the Court of Aides, vpon a pound comming in for Wine (onely in ſome caſes;) Alſo, the portion of Wine due out of a Vineyard vnto a Lord Cenſier, in lieu of his Cenſive, and to bee allowed him at the head of the Vatt, before the tenant can (lawfully) draw any Wine out of it; At Angiers, and in other places, this dutie is turned into a pecuniarie, and yerelie Cens.

Droict de Vinenote. as Droict de Vivelotte.

Droict de Vingtieſme. The twentieth part of Wine thats made, and Corne thats gotten, euerie yeare, payed in Dauphiné, and elſewhere, towards the building, fortifying, and reparation of the wals of Towns, Holds, and Caſtles.

Droict de Vivelotte. The Dower, or thirds due to the widow of a Cottier, or tenant of Mainferme.

Droict de Vivenotte. The ſame.

Droict d'extreme Vnction. The fee due to the Prieſt for that ceremonie.

Droict de Voirie. The right of Iuſtice; or power to exerciſe Iuriſdiction as a Voyer; Looke Voyer.

Droict de Voüade. The labour of two Oxen, or vſe of a ſmall Cart, due certaine dayes in Summer by tenants (that hold by Villenage, or Mortaille) vnto their Landlords for the turning vp of their Vineyards.

Droict de Vouerie. Meane Iuriſdiction; or, as Droict de Voirie.

Droict: m. ćte: f. Right, ſtreight, direct; leuell, euen; iuſt, lawfull, reaſonable; ſincere; vpright.

Inteſtin, ou boyau droict. The ſtreight gut, or arſe-gut.

Muſcle droict. The name of one of the foure principall muſcles in the thigh.

Pied droict. The Iaume, or Iaumbe of a dore, chimney, window, &c.

`A droict fil. Directly forward, right forth, ſtreight on.

Mal droict. Vnapt, vnwieldie; vnhandſome, vncomelie in euerie thing he does.

Droict. (Adverbially) as, Droict en ce lieu, iuſt here, in this verie place, or, preciſely in this place.

`A droict. as, `A droict fil.

Parler à droict. To ſpeake diſtinctly, or to the purpoſe.

Tenez ceſt homme à droict. Deale iuſtly with this man; vſe him indifferently, or well.

`A droict, ou à tort. By hooke, or crooke; by right or by wrong; one way or another.

Au droict d'entre eux. Right ouer againſt them.

Tout droict. Right forth, ſtreight on, directly forward.

Droictement. Streightly, directly, rightly; iuſtly, vprightly, rightfully.

Droictement à l'heure. Iuſt at the time, at the very houre appointed.

Droicture: f. Right, reaſon, iuſtice, directneſſe, impartialitie, vprightneſſe; alſo, a Right, or due, or, the rights and duties belonging to a Landlord, &c; alſo, a full, or iuſt poſſeſſion of land.

Droicture de Patronnage. Patronnage, or the Right of Preſentation to a Benefice.

Relever droicture. as Droicturer.

Qui d' honneur n' a cure honte eſt ſa droicture: Prov. Hee that for honour doth not care, diſgrace beſmeares him, ſhame's his ſhare.

Droicturé: m. ée. f. That hath payed his Reliefe, and all other the rights, or duties of Tenancie.

Droicturer. A new tenant, or vaſſall to doe his Lord all right, and pay him all the rights, belonging to him.

Droicturier: m. ere: f. Iuſt, rightfull, ſincere, vnpartiall, intire, incorrupt, vpright; alſo, ſeuere, ſtrict, according to the letter of the Law; alſo, direct, or next.

Droicturier Seigneur. A mans true, right, or lawfull Lord.

Seigneur droicturier. as Seigneur feudal.

Droicturierement. Iuſtly, rightfully, incorruptly, vprightly, vnpartially; ſtrictly, ſeuerely.

Droiſſer. as Dreſſer. To direct; erect; inſtruct.

Droit, & Droiturier. See Droict, & Droicturier.

Droitier. Right-handed; alſo, as Droicturier.

Drolatique: com. Waggiſh, knauiſh, full of rye, pleaſant, merrie, ſportfull.

Drole: m. A good fellow, boone companion, merrie grig, pleaſant wag; one that cares not which end goes forward, or how the world goes.

Droler. To play the wag; to paſſe away the time, as a good fellow, merrily, or carelefly; alſo, to beat ſoundly.

Drolerie: f. Rye, waggerie, good roguerie; a merrie pranke, a pleaſant, and knauiſh part; good-fellowſhip; See Draulerie.

Dromant: m. A Drumbler, Carauell, or ſuch like ſmall, and ſwift veſſell, vſed by Pyrats.

Dromedaire: m. A Dromedarie, or great beaſt of burthen, like a Camell; verie ſwift & hardie in trauell, and of of little charge to him that vſeth him.

Dromille: f. A little fiſh caught (all Summer long, but ſeldome during Winter) in the riuers about Lions.

Dromon. as Dromant.

Dronine: f. A ſpade.

Dronos. donner dronos. Knockes, thumpes, raps, thwacks. ¶Rab.

Dropace. A depilatorie; an oyntment, or medicine to take away haire. ¶Rab.

Dru: m. druë: f. Thicke, cloſe together, full of, many one by another; copious, plenteous.

Oiſeau dru. A full-fledg'd bird, a young bird readie to fly.

Druëment. Thickly, many together, cloſe one by another, plenteouſly, copiouſly.

Druge: f. as Truffe; a daintie, round, and ruſſet root, thats all incloſed within, but not on any part faſtened vnto, the ground; by the bulking out whereof tis found.

Drugé: m. ée: f. Wet, throughly moiſtened.

Drugeon: m. A little branch, twig, or ſprig.

Drugeonnement. A bearing, or putting forth of ſmall branches, or twigs.

Drugeonner. To beare, or put forth many ſmall branches, or twigs.

Drugeonneux. Twiggie, ſpriggie, full of ſmall branches.

Druger. Voilà que druge bien. (Spoken of a ſound ſhower) this wets throughly.

Drugement. A Truchman, or Interpretor. (v.m.)

Drulle: f. as Drylle.

Dryinade. as Chelydre.

Drylle: f. The Maſte, or Akorne of the (female) Oake.

Du. is ſometimes (as an Article) ſet before Maſculine words, which begin with a Conſonant, and ſignifie the kinds, or ſpecies of things; as, du pain, du vin, &c; (then of little, or no ſignification:) Sometimes it ſerues as a note of the Genitiue Caſe, vnto Nownes of the nature aforeſaid; and then ſignifies, of them; as, Le fruict du iardin: Sometimes it does the Office of a Prepoſition; and then ſignifies, in the; as, Si i' euſſe du commencement faict cela; du temps du Roy Henry, &c; or, from the; as, Il vient du iardin; du milieu d' eux; or, by the; as, Il a eſté batu du Maiſtre.

Du moins. At the leaſt.

Du tout. Throughly, vtterly, altogether.

Dubitation: f. Doubtfulneſſe, vncertainetie, ſuſpence, or ſuſpition.

Duc: m. A Duke. (When the French Kings had chaſed the Romanes out of Gallia, and found ſome of the Prouinces thereof gouerned, vnder the Emperours, by certaine martiall Commaunders tearmed Duces, they, who altered but few of the auncient faſhions of the countrey, beſtowed the ſame Title (a little curtalled à la Françoiſe) on ſuch of their own principall captaines as they placed in the roomes of the others: At which time Dukes were but Officers, and Vaſſalls; and their Functions, and Fiefs reuocable at the Princes pleaſure, or determined with their liues; howſoeuer afterwards, they vſurped, firſt, the Inheritance of, and then a Soueraignetie ouer, them both: Looke the word Comte; wherein whatſoeuer is ſaid of the ancient, or moderne eſtate of (Prouinciall) Earles agrees with that of Dukes; with this onely difference, that, commonly, the Title of Duke was conferred on the more warlike, and Comte on the more ciuill, followers of Princes; whereupon it is coniectured, that when both a Duke, and an Earle haue beene in one Towne, the one gouerned the Souldiors, the other the People.)

Duc: m. (is alſo) the great Owle tearmed, a Horne-owle, or Horne-coot; of three kinds.

Grand duc. The great Horne-coot; is bigger then a Gooſe, and keepes alwayes in forreſts, and deſert places.

Moyen duc. is ſomewhat leſſe then the former: Both of them be hairie-legd, and rough-footed; and haue tufts of feathers, on either ſide of their heads, bearing out like hornes; and now and then breath out horrible skrikes.

Petit duc. The ſmall Horne-owle, or Horne-coot; ſhaped like, but ſomewhat leſſe then, le Moyen duc.

Poudre de duc. The name of a moſt comfortable pouder, made of Aromaticall drugs, and ſpices.

Ducal: m. ale: f. Ducall, Duke-like; of, or belonging, to a Duke.

Ducat: m. A Dukedome, or Duchie.

Ducat: m. The coyne, tearmed a Ducket; worth vj s. viij d.

Ducat d'Aragon; de Bolongne; de Caſtille; d' Eſpaigne à deux teſtes (the duckat thats currant among vs) de Florence; de Gennes; d' Hongrie; de Portugal; de Portugal à la longue croix; de Portugal à la petite croix; de Portugal à la paline, de Sicile, de Valence, de Venize; All forraine coynes; of whoſe value (often changed by the French Kings) no certaine interpretation can be giuen, other then that they hold a rate much about v, or vj s. ſterl. the peece.

Ducat Henry. A coyne of Gold worth vj d. ſterl. more then the ordinarie Crowne of the Sunne.

Ducaton. A ſmall duckat, or halfe duckat.

Duché: m. A Dukedome, a Duchie.

Ducteur. as Conducteur; a guide, leader, &c.

Ductile: com. Eaſie to be hammered, or beaten into thin plates.

Dudepuis. Since, ſithence, from that time.

Dueil: m. Dole, griefe, ſorrow, heauineſſe; mourning, wayling, moaning, lamentation; alſo, mourning weeds, or mourning attire; as, Il porte le dueil; alſo, a mourner, or mourners, following a courſe to the graue; as, voila le dueil, or, le dueil paſſe; alſo, a duello, ſingle combat, or fight betweene two.

Apres tout dueil boit on bien: Prov. Drinke after dole goes merrily downe; or, they tiple now as much as erſt they teend.

Aſſez boit qui a dueil: Pro. Sorrow is dry, ſay we; or, as in Boire.

Bon eſt le dueil qui apres aide: Prov. That mourning's well beſtowed that helpes the mourner.

Chacune vieille ſon dueil plaind: Pro. See Plaindre.

De petit enfant petit dueil: Pro. The death of little ones is not much bemoand.

Duelle: f. The third part of an ounce.

Duire. To vſe, accuſtome, enure; faſhion, traine vp, frame; lead, induce, bring, vnto.

Cela me duit. That is good, or maketh, for me; that is helpefull, auaileable, or commodious, vnto me; in which ſence they ſay; Vieilles debtes duiſent: Prov. aſçauoir; helpe the creditor, (but hurt the debtor.)

Duiſable: com. Conuenient, fit, for ones turne; auaileable, profitable, whereof good vſe, or great benefit, may be made.

Duiſant. Apt, meet, conuenient, fitting; handſome, ſeemelie, becomming.

Duiſible. as Duiſable.

Duiſion: f. An accuſtoming, vſing, enuring; faſhioning, training, framing, making fit, or apt for.

Duit: m. duite: f. Accuſtomed, vſed, enured; framed, faſhioned, trained vp vnto; alſo, fitting, auaileable, helpefull, conuenient, good for, to the purpoſe.

Duiter. To frame vnto vſe, to make fit for his purpoſe.

Dumetté: m. ée: f. Downie; of downe; ſoft as, full of, ſtuffed with, downe.

Dun. An old French word, ſignifying a hill, or rocke; (and therefore the townes whoſe names end in it haue, commonly, a rockie acceſſe, or ſeat.)

Dune: f. A waue, or ſurge of the ſea; alſo, a Downe; a ſandie banke, or hill neere the ſea; called ſo, (at firſt by the Flemmings) becauſe it reſiſts the violence of thoſe waues; and vſed, moſt commonly, in the plurall number, Dunes.

Duner. To plaine, as a horſe, that neither halteth outright, nor ſetteth his foot hard on the ground.

Dunes. Looke Dune.

Dunette: f. A Thruſh; alſo, a little downe, or ſandie hill.

Dunne: f. as Dune.

Duodene: m. as Douze-doigtier.

Dupe: f. A whoope, or hooper; a bird that hath on her head a great creſt, or tuft of feathers, and loues ordure ſo well, that ſhe euer neſtles in it.

Duplication: f. as Duplique.

Duplique: f. A reioynder; or, the ſecond anſwer of a defendant.

Duppe. as Dupe.

Dupliquer. To double; alſo, to reioyne, or anſwere the ſecond time.

Duquel. Of whom, from whom, whereof.

Dur: m. dure: f. Hard; ſtiffe, ſolide; alſo, rough, harſh, rude; alſo, ſturdie, fierce, cruell, difficile, rigorous, inflexible, vnmercifull; alſo, dull, groſſe, beauie, ſottiſh, or ſlow of apprehenſion; and hence;

Dur à l'eſperon. Dull, ſluggiſh, beauie-mettled, that will not be moued, nor ſtirred vp by any inſtigation.

Dure mere de la teſte. The outward ſkinne of the braines.

Dure taye. as Dure mere.

Ouïr dur. To be thicke of hearing.

Tunique dure. One of the thin skins of the eye, the which it enuirons; it comes from the dure mere, and couers alſo the Opticke ſinew.

Durable: com. Durable, laſting, of long continuance.

Duracines. The Peaches, Plummes, Cherries, &c, whoſe pulpe cleaues faſt vnto their ſtones; alſo, ſuch as are of a hard, or firme pulpe, and thereby long-laſting.

Duraines. as Duracines.

Durant. (Particip.) During, laſting, continuing; enduring, brooking, ſuffering.

Durant (Conjunct.) ces iours-là. During that age, in thoſe dayes.

Durant que. Whiles that, whilome that, vntill that.

Trois mois durant. Three moneths together.

Durci: m. ie: f. Hardened, ſtiffened.

Durcir. To harden, ſtiffen; wax hard, become ſtiffe, grow ſolide.

Dure: f. Coucher ſur la dure (terre, is vnderſtood) to ly on the bare earth.

Duré. Dured, indured, laſted, continued, remained; brooked, ſuffered, ſuſtained.

Durée: f. A during, a laſting, a continuance.

Longue durée. Euerlaſtingneſſe, perpetualneſſe, long laſting.

Dureines. as Duracines.

Dureiment. Hardly; ſtreightly, ſtiffely; harſhly, roughly, rudely; cruelly, fiercely, rigorouſly; alſo, greatly, mainly, extreamely, exceeding much; as, Il eſt dureiment haï des Seigneurs.

Durer. To dure, laſt, continue, indure, abide, remaine, perſiſt; alſo, to ſuſtaine, brooke, ſuffer.

Homme à qui on ne peut durer. A froward, wayward, ſullen, harſh, rude, ſoure, vnſociable fellow.

Ils ont bien beſoing que ie leur dure. My liues continuance imports them verie much; it ſtands thē much vpon to haue me long among them.

Endurer faut pour durer: Pro. To dure we muſt indure.

Touſiours ne dure orage ne guerre: Pro. Extremities laſt not alwayes.

Dureſſe: f. Hardneſſe, ſoliditie, ſtiffeneſſe.

Duret: m. ette: f. Somewhat hard; ſtiffe, ſolide; rough, harſh; difficile, inflexible; ſturdie, rude, fierce.

Dureté: f. as Dureſſe; alſo, roughneſſe, harſhneſſe, rudeneſſe; aſperitie, rigor.

Dure-teſte: f. A kind of ſpotted, and hard-headed Spider.

Durillon: m. A hard knot, or knurre in a peece of timber, or ſtone, which dulls the workemans tooles; alſo, a corne, or hard skin in the feet, or hands; alſo, a hard ſparkle, or graine in ſome Saphires, &c, hindering the cutting thereof.

Duvet: m. Downe, ſoft feathers.

Duvet du linge. Lint.

Duvetté: m. ée: f. Downie, ſoft as downe; full of, or filled with, downe.

Duyere: f. A Conny-hole.

Dy, ay, & hory ho. The Cry of Carters.

Dyafané, & Dyaphané. Tranſparent; See Diafané.

Dynandrie. as Dinanderie; braſen ware, &c.

Dynarchie. The ioynt rule of two princes.

Dyſcole: com. Wayward, froward, hard to rule, ill to intreat; out of all order.

Dyſcraſié. Looke Diſcraſié.

Dyſenterie: f. The bloudie flix.

Dyſenterique: com. Troubled with, or ſicke of, the bloudie flix.

Dyſopie. Vicious, or exceſſiue ſhamefaſtneſſe.

Dyſurie: f. Difficultie of voiding vrine, and paine withall when it voides, by the ſharpeneſſe thereof, and the inflammation, or exulceration of the necke of the Bladder.

E

EAge: m. Age; Seeke Aage.

Eagé. Old, aged, of ſuch an age, of ſo manie yeares.

Eale. A blackiſh (Ethyopian) beaſt, that hath cheekes like a Boare, a tayle like an Elephant, and two long hornes, which he extends, or draweth inward, at pleaſure. ¶Rab.

Eard: m. The blacke Poplar tree.

Eau: f. Water; alſo, the Element of water; alſo, the yellowiſh ſweat which euaporeth continually from the the skinne of an infant (and lyes betweene the coife, or biggin, called Amnios, and the bodie) while it is in the wombe.

Les Eaux. Windgalls in a horses legs.

Eau d'Ange. A kind of excellent sweet compound water.

Eau ardant. Aquauite.

Eau beniste de cave. Good wine, or strong beere.

Eau beniste de Cour. Court holie water; complemẽts, faire words, flattering speeches, glosing, soothing, palpable cogging.

Eau de bouchet. A compound water, which with Coriander water makes a kind of Hypocras.

Eau clairette. A water (made of Aquauite, Cinnamon, Sugar, and old red Rose water) excellent against all the diseases of the Matrix.

Eau endormie. Seeke Endormi.

Eau ferrée. Wherein a gad of hot steele hath beene quenched.

Eau Gringoriane. Holie-water. Rab.

Eau de laict. Clarified whay.

Eau de nafe, ou de naphe. Orange-flower water.

Eau de vie. Aquauite.

Eau vifve. A spring; a running water.

Beuveur d'eau. Looke Beuveur.

Fil d'eau. à fil d' eau. With the streame.

Fleur d'eau. The water Lillie, water Rose, yellow or white Nenuphar.

A fleur d'eau. Close by the water, betweene wind and water.

Medecin d'eau douce. A yong, raw, or vnexperienced Phisition; (we say, a fresh water souldior.)

Pierre d' eau de mer. A kind of white, and glittering Gemme; as Oeil de Chat.

Verseur d'eau. The celestiall signe, Aquarius.

De belle eau. Perle de belle eau. Of a faire luster, or water.

De bonne eau. Of a good relish, or tast, hauing a good smacke with it.

De delà l'eau. Gens de delà l'eau. Simple fellowes, witlesse companions, ignorant creatures.

Affleurir l'eau. To skimme the water; or, goe close by it, as doth a ships lee-side in a strong side-wind.

Amener l'eau au moulin. To draw in gaine, to bring in crownes, to furnish with customers, or commodities.

Avoir de l'eau vers les garces. To haue sap, and moisture enough for his lecherie.

Batre l'eau. To loose his labour, to spend his time in vaine.

Batre les eaux. A Deere to take soyle.

Batre leur eau. To disgest, or shake down their drinke, as a horse thats ridden two or three miles after watering.

Estre en eau. To sweat; (we say also) to be all on a water; Estre en l'eau. To be in, or vpon the water; (so that the Article makes the difference.)

Faire eau. To leake; also, to water, or take in fresh water, for the prouision of a ship.

Laisser de l'eau en son moulin. To leaue himselfe euer somewhat to doe.

Mener à la bonne eau. To steale (as) a horse, (whereto this Phrase is chiefely applyed.)

Mettre de l'eau dedans leur vin. To temper, coole, qualifie, tame them; to take them a hole lower.

Nager en grand' eau. To haunt, frequent, or abide in places, wherein most honour, gaine, roome, and companie may be gotten; Looke Nager.

Nager entre deux eaux. To be in danger on all sides; to saile betweene Scilla and Charybdis; also, to hold on a middle course betweene two extreames; also, to play on both hands, or apply himselfe vnto the time, whatsoeuer; Looke Nager.

Paistry d'eau froide. White-liuered, dull, fearefull, without spirit, without mettall.

Pescher en eau trouble. To seeke for gaine by other mens losses, or brables; or, to make a benefit of publicke tumults, or calamities.

Piler l'eau en vn mortier. To loose time, or spend it verie fondly.

Tenir le bec en l'eau: Pro. To hold in suspence; to put off with dalliances, or delayes.

Il n'a pas tenu le bec en l'eau. Hee hath plyed the wine-pot, and is become tipsie; hee is throughly drunke (but not with water.)

Tirer de l'eau en son moulin. To draw all dealings into his owne hands; to seeke only his own profit, without respecting the interest of others.

Tomber de l'eau. To pisse, leake, make water.

Cela luy fit venir l'eau en la bouche. That made his teeth water; viz. put him into an extreame longing.

L'eau qui dort est pire que celle qui court: Pro. So is a sleepie humor worse then a giddie.

Eau & pain c'est la viande du chien: Prov. Bread, and water is diet for dogs.

En petite eau souvent on trouve grand bieure: Pro. A great beauer is often found in a little brooke.

Fol est qui se fie en eau endormie: Pro. Looke Endormi.

Il fait beau pescher en eau large: Prov. There is no fishing to the sea, say we.

Il n'a pas soif qui de l'eau ne boit: Prov. Hee's not athirst that will not water drinke.

Il n'est nager qu' en grand' eau: Prov. The biggest waters are the best to swimme in.

Il n'y a pire eau que la quoye: Prov. The stillest waters (and humors) are euer the worst.

Eauë. as Eau.

Eauïer: m. A gutter, channell, sinke, sewer for the voiding of foule water.

Eaulice: f. The hearbe Helicampanie, Scabwort, Horseheale.

Eaurolle: f. as Aerolle; a wheale, or blister.

Eauvier. as Esvier.

Ebaucher. To rough-hew; as Esbaucher.

Ebe. An ebbe; or the ebbing of water.

Tout ce que vient d' Ebe s'en retournera de flot: Prov. The Tyde will fetch away what th' ebbe brings in.

Ebene: m. The blacke wood called Heben, or Ibonie.

Ebesté: m. eé: f. Made, or growne bestiall, beastlie, blockish.

Eborgner. To deprive of one eye.

Ebouiller. Seeke Esbouillir.

Ebouller. as Esbouler; to throw, or tumble downe.

Eboulu. Seeke Esboulu.

Ebreché: m. ée: f. That hath lost diuers teeth; or, in whose mouth the losse of teeth hath made diuers breaches.

Ebrieté: f. Drunkennesse.

Ebriosité: f. Continuall drunkennesse.

Ebulition. as Ebullition.

Ebullition: f. An ebullition, boyling, seething, or bubling vp; a rising vp in bubles.

Eburnin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to Iuorie.

Ecaille: f. as Escaille.

Ecaillé: m. ée: f. Scaled, or shaled.

Ecailler. To ſcale, or ſhale; to pull the ſcales off, to rid of ſhales.

Ecamoter. To change, diſguiſe, or alter; Seeke Eſcamoter.

Ecarboté: m. ée: f. Stirred, or ſcattered, as the fire; alſo, bruiſed, or cruſhed, as an apple.

Ecarboter le feu. To ſtirre vp, or ſcatter, the fire.

Eçarboter vne pomme. To bruize, or cruſh an apple.

Ecardan. Nice, daintie, queaſie-ſtomacked; whence;

Ie ſuis plus eçar. à boire qu' à manger; any ſluttiſhneſſe is more loathſome to my ſtomacke in drinke then in meat.

Eccleſiaſte: m. A Preacher.

Eccliſe. as Egliſe. The Church.

Eccliſſe. as Eſcliſſe.

Eccliſſer. as Eſcliſſer.

Ecentrique: com. Without center, out of the center; alſo, without meaſure, whereof no meaſure can be taken.

Fol ecentrique. An vnrulie, or irregular coxcombe; one that can be held within no compaſſe.

Ecervelé. as Eſcervelé. Braineleſſe, harebraind.

Echaudé: m. ée: f. Scalded; Looke Eſchaudé.

S'Echauder. To be ſcalded; to grow too hot, or be put into ouermuch heat.

Echelette. Seeke Eſchelette.

Echelle: f. A ladder.

Echelon: m. The ſtep of a ladder.

Echevelé. Diſcheueled. as Deſchevelé.

Echevement: m. as Eſchevement.

Echidne: f. A Viper, or Hydra; any kind of Serpent.

Echine. as Eſchine.

Eclat, & Eclater; Seeke Eſclat, & Eſclater.

Eclipſe: f. An Eclipſe; a leſſening, diminution, defect of.

Eclipſé: m. ée: f. Eclipſed; leſſened, impaired.

Eclipſement: m. An eclipſing, leſſening, diminiſhing, impairing.

Eclipſer. To diſappeare, to vaniſh out of ſight (in part;) alſo, to eclipſe, leſſen, diminiſh, impaire.

Ecliptique. The Eclipticke line, or way of the Sunne; ſo tearmed, becauſe Eclipſes happen, when the Moone is either in coniunction, or oppoſition, vnder this line.

Ecliptique: com. Belonging to an Eclipſe.

Ecliſſe. Looke Eſcliſſe.

Ecloy: m. Lant, piſſe, vrine. ¶Pic.

Ecluſe. as Eſcluſe.

Eclyptique. as Ecliptique.

Ecolleté. as Eſcouleté.

Economie, & Economie. as Oeconome, & Oeconomie.

Ecoſſe. as Eſcoſſe; a cod, huſke &c.

Ecoüé: m. ée: f. Curtall, curtalled, without a tayle.

Ecouër. To curtall, or cut off the taile; Seeke Eſcouër.

Ecphraſe: f. A plaine declaration, or expoſition.

Ecraſer. as Eſcraſer.

Ecreté: m. ée: f. Topped, vncreſted; whoſe top, or creſt is taken off.

Ecrioches: f. Crutches (at Tours.)

Ecſtaſe: f. An extaſie, ſwooning, trance; aſtoniſhment; a dampe, or dumpe; a great amazement.

Ecſtatique. In an Extaſie; Seeke Extatique.

Ectique: com. In a conſumption; or, ſick of an Hecticke feuer; The word properly ſignifieth, habituall; (as any thing is, that by continuance is turned vnto nature) & thence is a feuer called Hecticke, when it hath poſſeſſed all parts of the bodie, without any alteration in it ſelfe.

Eculée: f. A diſhfull.

Ecume: f. Looke Eſcume.

Edent. il tomba edent. He fell groueling, on his face, on his teeth.

Edenté: m. ée: f. as Edent; alſo, toothleſſe, whoſe teeth are daſht, or fallen, out of his mouth.

Edenter. To make toothleſſe; to bereaue of teeth; to draw, or ſtrike, out the teeth of.

Edenter la morſure de. To diſappoint, or make vaine the biting of.

Edenter vn pot, ou autre vaiſſeau. To ouerturne a pot, or ſet it on the ground with the mouth downeward.

Edict: m. A Statute, Edict, Ordinance,

La Chambre de l'Edict. as, Chambre mipartie.

Edificateur: m. An edifier; builder; maker; framer.

Edification: f. An edification, building, erecting, framing, making.

Edifice: m. An Edifice, building, or houſe readie built; alſo, the frame of a building; alſo, the art, or worke of building.

Edifié: m. ée: f. Edified, builded, framed, erected, founded; alſo, bred, come, or brought, vp of.

Edifier. To edifie, build; frame, erect, found, make vp (any thing, but eſpecially) a houſe.

Tell' herbe s' edifie de. is ſet, or planted by; is bred, or comes, vp of.

Education: f. Nurture, education, bringing vp.

Eduction: f. An eduction, leading, drawing out, bringing forth.

Efaiſté: m. ée: f. Topped, or whoſe top is cut off, or taken downe.

Efaiſter. To top, or cut the top of, a plant; to take downe the top of.

Efemeridiaire. fievre ef. An ague that continues but one day.

Effable: com. Speakeable; which may be vttered, or ſpecified in words.

Effacé: m. ée: f. Defaced, effaced, razed, blotted out.

Effacement: m. An effacing, defacing, razing, blotting out.

Effacer. To efface, deface, raze, blot, rub out, wipe away; to aboliſh.

Effaré: m. ée: f. Skared, amazed, aſtonied; wilde, or ghaſtlie of looke; alſo, diſturbed, moued; altered, diſtempered, or put into paſſion.

Effarer. To skare, amaze, terrifie, appall, moue, perturbe, diſtemper, put into paſſion.

Effaroucher. To mad, make wood, skittiſh, wild, fierce, cruell; to exaſperate; alſo, to fright, skare, feare away.

Qui veut prendre vn oiſeau, qu'il ne l'effarouche: Prov. Let not him anger, that would take, a bird.

Effaſſure: f. A defacement, raze; blot, blurre; a daſh, or ſtroke through a thing written, or painted.

Effect: m. An effect, or worke; the iſſue, or ſucceſſe of a thing; a working, bringing to paſſe, making to be.

Homme de peu d'effect. A weake, and witleſſe fellow; one that can do little, thats ſcarſe worth taking vp; one in whom there is no manner of worth.

Qui n'a point d'effect. Vain, void, ſucceßeleße; that is come to no proofe, whereby one is much diſappointed.

Effectrice: f. An effectrix; ſhe that cauſeth, procureth, or bringeth to paſſe.

Effectué: m. ée: f. Effectuated, effected; executed.

Effectuër. To effectuate, effect, execute, performe, diſpatch, bring to paſſe.

Effectueux. Effectuall; to the purpose; also, effecting, working, doing, causing, procuring, dispatching.

Effemination: f. An effemination, or effemiaacie; a womanizing, weakning, wantonizing; a making womanish, weake, wanton.

Effeminé: m. ée: f. Effeminate, womanish, womanlike, heartlesse, weake, tender, delicate; that hath no hardinesse, that can endure no hardnesse.

Homme effeminé. A weakling, milksop, sensuall and refined goose, puling or faint-hearted cokes.

Effeminement. Effeminately, womanishly; weakely, tenderly, delicately.

Effeminer. To effeminate, weaken, make daintie, tender, nice, quaint, womanish.

Efferé. wild, skittish, giddie, wood; also, proud.

Effiancé: m. ée: f. Affianced, betrothed.

Efficace: f. Efficacie, force, effectualnesse, vertue, strength, ablenesse.

Efficacement. Forcibly, effectually, strongly, throughly, pithily, with efficacie, to purpose.

Efficacieusement. Most effectually, very forcibly, with much strength, to great purpose.

Efficacieux: m. euse: f. Most effectuall, forcible, strong, of much power, of great efficacie.

Efficient. Efficient, causing, effecting, accomplishing, making, wholly procuring, onely finishing.

Effigial: m. ale: f. Representing, resembling; also, belonging to an image, or shape.

Effigie: f. An image, picture, figure, counterfeit, resemblance, representation of a shape, or feature.

Pendu en effigie. Hangd in picture; if an offendor, whose fault deserues hanging, escape, yet is he, by the Customes of France, adiudged to the gallowes, and his picture hanged thereon; A signe, that whensoeuer he is taken, he shall be trussed vp in person.

Effigié: m. ée: f. Drawne, figured, pourtrayed, counterfeited, resembled, represented.

Effigier. To figure, draw, picture, pourtray, counterfeit, expresse the forme, represent the shape, make a true resemblance of, (by painting, caruing, or otherwise.)

Effilé: m. ée: f. Rauelled, vnwound, loossened; also, weakened, or loose-hangled.

Effiler. To rauell, vnwind, looose; loosen; also, to weaken, or loosen the ioynts.

Efflanché. (Cheval efflanché.) Swayed in the backe.

Esflanqué: m. ée: f. as Esflanqué.

Effleurant. Deflowring; also, skimming ouer, grazing along vpon.

Effleuré: m. ée: f. Deflowred, or depriued of flowers; also, skummed, gone lightly ouer, grazed along on; also, razed a little; whose beautie, or best peeces are gone.

Effleurer. To deflowre; or, depriue of flowers; also, to skum, or take onely the top off; to graze along, as a bullet on the side of a wall; to goe lightly ouer, as a stone on the water; also, to picke out sleightly the best, and most gracefull peeces of a thing.

Efflorescence: f. The outward face, or superficies, the vpmost rinde, pilling, or skinne, of any thing; whence;

Efflorescence du cuir. The superficiall, and outmost thin skin of the bodie; that which riseth in blisters after a burning, & the skalie substance pilled from scabbaryed hands, &c.

Effoncé: m. ée: f. Whose bottome is beaten out.

Effoncer. To driue, or beat out the head, or bottome of a vessell, &c; to bulge.

Effondément. Profusely, extreamely, exceedingly, without measure.

Effondré: m. ée: f. Paunched, bowelled, or drawne; burst open; strucke through; also, as Enfondré.

Chemin effondré. A way full of holes, or myrie sloughes; a verie deepe, and durtie way.

Effondrer. To bowell, paunch, draw the guts, or garbage out of.

Effondrer vn cheval. To strike, or thrust a horse through the bellie.

Effondrer vn huis, ou vn vaisseau. To burst open a dore, to knocke, or beat, out the bottome of a vessell.

Effondrille. The groud, bottome, lees, or dregs of liquor.

Efforcé: m. ée: f. Indeuored, labored, trauelled in with vtmost force, striuen in with might and maine.

Efforcément: m. Indeuor, &c; as Effort. (v. mot.)

Efforcément. Earnestly, vehemently, with all his might, with great indeuour, with tooth and nayle.

S'Efforcer. To indeuor, labor, inforce himselfe; to striue with might and maine; to vse his vtmost strength, apply all his vigour, imploy his whole power.

Efforcillons. A certaine disease, or distemperature, in a Haukes tongue.

Effort: m. An effort; indeuor; labour, trauell, painestaking; a striuing for a matter with whole force, power, meanes.

Effort de gens de guerre. A violent assault, a furious onset, or attempt.

Faire effort à. To offer violence, or do ope wrong vnto.

Ils font leur effort. They doe what lyes in them; they doe their best, or worst; they do performe their vtmost; or, they are at their height of strength.

Effray. as Effroy.

Effrayable: com. Fearefull, dreadfull, terrible, hideous, horrible.

Effrayablement. In a fearefull, and terrible manner.

Effrayant: m. ante: f. Hideous, fearefull, horride, gastlie, frighting, horrible; also, affrighting, skaring, fraying.

Effraye: f. A Scricheowle, or Lycheowle; an vnluckie night-bird, which in shape, colour, and bignes resembles a Cuckoe.

Effrayé: m. ée: f. Affrighted, frayed, skared, feared; amazed, appalled, daunted, dismayed.

Effrayement. Dreadfully, terribly, after a fearefull sort, in a horrible manner.

Effrayer. To affright, fray, skare, feare; also, to daunt, appall, amaze, dismay.

Effreinte: f. A default of hounds.

Effrenation: f. Vnrulinesse, vnbridled headinesse, immoderate libertie, headlong rashnesse.

Effrené: m. ée: f. Vnbridled, rash, headie, dissolute, vnrulie, disordered, without gouernment.

Effrenément. Rashly, headily, dissolutely, disorderedly.

Effrener. To vnbridle; set at large, turn loose, giue head vnto, leaue wholly to his owne swindge, direction, or gouernment.

Effrité: m. ée: f. Frighted, agast, afraid.

Effriter. To affright, skare, affray.

Effroidi: m. ie: f. Cooled.

Effroidir. To coole.

Effrondille. The lees, dregs, or grounds of wine, &c.

Effronté: m. ée: f. Shamelesse, impudent, ouer-bold, brasen-faced, whō nothing can dash out of coūtenance; also, one that hath a great, and large forhead.

Effronté en putain. as impudent as a whore.

Effrontement: m. Impudencie, malapertnesse, vnshamefastnesse, shamelesnesse.

Effrontément. Impudently, shamelessely, vnshamefastly, without blushing, with a brasen face.

Effronterie. as Effrontemént; alſo, an impudent, or ſhameleſſe part.
Effroué: m.ée: f. Crummed, crumbled, broken verie ſmall.
Effrouër. To crum, crumble, breake very ſmall.
Effroy: m. A fright, feare, dread, affright, terror, aſtoniſhment, amazement.
Effroyable. as Effrayable.
Effroyablement. Feareſully, dreadſully, terribly, hideouſly.
Effroyant. Hideous, ghaſtfull, terrible, horrible, dreadfull, fearefull, affrighting.
Effroyé: as Effrayé.
Effroyer. To fray, skare, feare, affright; alſo, to daunt, amaze, aſtoniſh, appall, diſmay.
Effruicté: m. ée: f. Whoſe fruit is cropped, gotten, or gathered.
Effruicter. To take, or gather the fruit of.
Effueillé. Vnleaued; ſtripped, or bared of leaues.
Effueillement: m. An vnleauing; a cutting, or pulling off ſuperfluous leaues from plants.
Effueiller. To vnleaſe; to cut, plucke, or nip off ſuperfluous leaues; to ſtrip, or bare of leaues.
Effueilleur: m. A pruner of trees; a puller of leaues from trees.
Effuſément. Proſuſely, extreamely, out of meaſure.
Effuſion: f. An effuſion, ſhedding, ſpilling, pouring out.
Efielé: m. ée: f. Mild, calme, vnmoued, without ſpleene, or gall.
Egal: m. ale: f. Equall, ſemblable, euen, well matched, alike.
Egalement. as Equalement.
Egale-nuicts. Nights-equalling; or night and day matching.
Cercle egale-nuicts. The Equator, or Equinoctiall circle.
Egaler. To equall, euen, leuell, match.
Egalizement. as Equalizement.
Egalizer. Looke Equalizer.
Egaronné: m. ée: f. Trodden, as a ſhooe, downe at the heeles.
Egaronner vn ſoulier. To tread a ſhooe downe at the heeles.
Egaſsé: m. ée: f. Set on edge, as a tooth.
Egau: m. The leſſe kind of the baſtard Mackerell; or a yong one. ¶Marſeillois.
Egelfin: m. The Haddocke; as Egrefin.
Egener le labeur. To run through their worke; to diſpatch, or to rid away worke apace. (A Ploughmans terme.)
Egeſtion: f. A voiding, euacuation, caſting out of excrements, and ordure.
Egipanes. Satyres; or beaſts like men, but footed as goats. ¶Rab.
Egiptiaque. L'onguent Eg. A certaine ſalue, or ointment, of a cleanſing facultie, and good to preuent mortification.
Egliſe: f. A Church; or Congregation of Chriſtians.
Coq d'Egliſe. A Weathercocke.
Gens d'Egliſe. Churchmen, Prieſts, &c.
Pres de l'Egliſe eſt ſouvent loing de Dieu. Prov. The neerer to the Church, the further from God; (ſay we.)
Egoſſe: f. A cod, huske, or hull, of pulſe, &c.
s'Egouffrer. as s'Engouffrer; or, to ingulfe it ſelfe.
Egouſſer. To ſhale, cod, pill: Seeke Eſgouſſer.
Egout. as Eſgout.
Egozillé: m. ée: f. Whoſe throat is cut; alſo, vomited, or ſpued out.
Egoziller. To cut the throat of; alſo, to vomit, or ſpue out.
Egratigné: m. ée: f. Scratched, ſcraped, rent, or torne with the nailes.
Egratigner. To ſcratch, to ſcrape, to rend, or teare, with the nayles.
Egratigneure: f. A ſcraping, or ſcratching; alſo, a ſcratch, or little skarre.
Egrefin: m. A kind of Haddocke.
Egrege: com. Excellent, notable, ſingular, principall, paſſing good, of chiefe marke, of ſpeciall woorth, one of the choiſeſt.
Egremé: m. ée: f. Vncreamed; fleeted, or skummed, as milke.
Egrette. as Aigrette; A foule that reſembles a Heron.
Egrugé: m. ée: f. Crummed, crumbled, broken into ſmall peeces.
Egruger. To crum, crumble, breake into ſmall peeces.
Egrumer. To vncluſter, or plucke from the cluſter.
Egrun: m. Any thing that angers, or exaſperats, a diſeaſe, or ſore.
Egual: m. ale: f. Equall, euen, leuell; ſemblable, well matched, of a like eſtate, nature, age, condition, qualitie.
Egualé: m. ée: f. Equalled, matched, leuelled, euened, made like; reſembled, compared vnto.
Egualement. Euenly, equally, alike, ſemblably; in euen parts, in equall portions, indifferently, as much the one as the other.
Egualer. To equall, match; euen, leuell; make like, reſemble, compare.
Egualizé: m. ée: f. Equalled, matched, or made euen with.
Egualizement: m. An equalling, leuelling, matching, reſembling, making euen, or alike.
Egualizer. To match, equall, euen, leuell; make one thing like another.
Eguillat: m. A kind of Dog-fiſh, that hath two long and ſtiffe prickles on his backe.
Eguillon: m. A pricke, or ſting; Looke, Eſguillon.
Eguillonner. To pricke, ſting, prouoke, incenſe: Looke, Eſguillonner.
Eguiſer. To whet, or ſharpen; Seeke Eſguiſer.
Egyptelle. A kind of white ſtone, or minerall, that hath blacke and red veins, or ſtreakes.
Egyptiac: m. An excellent (though ſharpe) ointment, or ſalue to preuent, or correct the putrifaction, and mortification of wounds, and ſores.
Ehancé. as Ehanché.
Ehanché: m. ée: f. Whoſe hip, or hanche, is bruized, or out of ioint.
Ehancher. To bruize the hanch, or put it out of ioint; alſo, to leaue hanchleſſe, or cut off a hanch.
Ejaculation: f. An eiaculation; a violent caſting, flinging, burling forth; ſpurting, ierting, ſpouting out.
Ejaculatoire: com. Eiaculatorie; of propertie, or power to caſt, ſpout, or ſpurt forth; and hence;
Vaiſſeaux ejaculatoires. Certaine aſſiſtant, & actiue parts in the worke of generation.
Ejaculatrice. vertu eja. Darting, ſhooting, ſpouting, ſpurting, caſting from afar.
Ejarté: m. ée: f. Houghed, cut off by the hammes.
Ejarter. To hough, or cut off at the hammes.
Eine: f. The groine, or grime; the part thats next about our priuities.
Ela. The higheſt note of the Gamuth.
Nous ſommes au deſſus d'Ela, hors toute la Gamme. We are cleane off the hinges, or out of all good compaſſe; alſo, we are in very great extremitie.

maolb-

Elaboratoire : m. An Elaboratorie, or workehouſe.
Elaboré. as Elabouré.
Elabouration : f. Elaboration ; diligent labour, painestaking ; a perfect, or skilfull working.
Elabouré : m. ée : f. Elaborated ; cunningly wrought, exactly done ; laboured painfully, trauelled throughly in.
Elabourer. To elaborate ; labour painfully, trauell throughly ; to worke exactly, doe a thing fully, and finely.
Elambiqué. as Alambiqué ; Diſtilled.
Elambiquer. as Alambiquer ; To diſtill, or extract by Lymbecke.
Elan. A certaine wild beaſt ; as Ellend.
Elancé : m. ée : f. Launced, cut, pierced, or pricked with a launcet.
Elancement : m. A cutting, launcing, piercing, pricking with a launcet ; alſo, as Eſlancement.
Elancer. To launce, cut, pricke, pierce with a launcet ; alſo, to hurt, paine, pinch as a ſtitch doth ; Seeke Eſlancer.
Elangoré : m. ée : f. Langourous, languiſhing, deiected, creſt-fallen.
Elargir. Looke Eſlargir.
Elarmé de pleurs. That can weepe no more ; whoſe eyes are wholly drained with much weeping.
Elatine : f. The hearbe called Speedwell, or Fluellin the female.
Elation : f. Loftineſſe, hautineſſe.
Elebore. Seeke Ellebore.
Electeur : m. An Elector, a chuſer.
Electif : m. iue : f. Electiue, ſubiect vnto choice ; gotten, or paſſing, by election.
Election : f. An election, or choice, a chuſing, culling, or picking out ; alſo, the Prouince, or circuit of an Eleu, or generall aſſeſſor of Subſidies.
Electorat : m. An Electorſhip ; a chuſing, or electing ; or the right, or power of election, ſuch as the ſeuen Electors of the Empire haue.
Electre : m. Amber whereof beads, and bracelets are made ; alſo, a mixture of gold, copper, and a fift part of ſiluer.
Electuaire : m. An Electuarie ; a medicinable compoſition made of choice drugs, and of ſubſtance betweene a ſyrrope and a conſerue, but more enclining to this then to that.
Elegamment. Elegantly, eloquently ; neatly, comptly, quaintly, finely, politely, trimly, minion-like.
Elegance : f. Elegancie, eloquence, daintie ſpeech, neat words, choice of tearmes ; alſo, comptneſſe, quaintneſſe, neatneſſe, trimneſſe, delicacie, fineſſe.
Elegant. Elegant, eloquent, fine-ſpoken, choice in words, neat in tearmes ; alſo, compt, quaint, ſpruce, trimme, daintie, delicate, polite.
Elegiaque. Elegiacall, belonging to an Elegie ; lamenting, mournefull.
Elegie : f. An Elegie ; a mournefull verſe, Poeme, Song, or Dittie.
Element : m. An element ; as water, earth, fire, or aire ; alſo, a rudiment, or firſt principle of Art ; the ground, foundation, or beginning of any thing.
Elementaire. Elementall ; belonging to elements, rudiments, principles.
Elemi. A kind of Gumme, or Roſen (as ſome will haue it, becauſe it melts before the fire) which is an excellent healer, and cloſer of head-wounds.
Elemmy. as Elemi.
Elenchie. vnion elenchie. A pendant pearle of the faſhion of an egge.
Eleomeli. A ſweet, and fat liquor that iſſues from the old trunks of certaine trees in Syria.
Elephangines. Certaine pills (by Phyſitians tearmed ſo, or de aromatibus) good to ſtrengthen the ſtomack, and to helpe diſgeſtion.
Elephant : m. An Elephant.
Elephant de mer. A kind of great Lobſter.
Elephanteau : m. A yong Elephant.
Elephantin. Elephantine ; of, or belonging to, an Elephant.
Elephantique. Leaprous, infected with a leaproſe.
Eleu. A generall Aſſeſſor of the Kings Aides, and Subſidies in euery particular Circuit, Prouince, or Dioceſſe ; Looke Eſleu.
Elevation : f. An eleuation, lifting, heauing, holding, raiſing or rearing vp ; Looke Eſlevation.
Elevatoire : m. An Eleuatorie ; th'inſtrument wherewith Chirurgions lift vp the broken, and ſunke-in parts of the ſcull ; and draw out bullets, or haile-ſhot that's entred but a little way into the fleſh, or bones.
Eleveur : m. A raiſer, or lifter vp.
Elice. The ſigne in heauen called Charles waine, or Vrſa major.
Elicie. A fierie vapour drawne from the clouds : Rab.
Elider. To quaſh, daſh, breake, ſplit, or hit againſt ; to pound, or ſtampe ; to ſqueeze, or preſſe, to ſtrike, or daſh, out ; alſo, to ſtrangle, throttle, ſtifle.
S' Elider de. To riſe, or burſt, vp out of.
Elider la production de la partie adverſe. Priuily to conuey, or purloine from an aduerſarie his chiefeſt euidence, or proofes ; thereby to weaken his cauſe.
Eligible : com. Eligible ; to be elected ; fit, or like, to be choſen.
Eliminé : m. ée : f. Thruſt, caſt, hurled, or put out of doores ; alſo, divulged, or publiſhed.
Eliminer. To thruſt, caſt, hurle, or put out of doore ; alſo, to divulge, or publiſh abroad.
Elingue. A ſling : ¶ Norm.
Elire. as Eſlire ; To chuſe.
Eliſer la monnoye. To pare, clip, or cut, money round about the hemme.
Elixe. Quinteſſence ; or the Philoſophers ſtone ; as Elixir.
Elixir. Quinteſſence ; or, the Philoſophers ſtone ; or one of the names thereof ; ſome take it for the chymicall powder of Production ; (the word originally ſignifies force, or ſtrength.)
Elle. (The feminine of il, or luy) ſhe.
Ellebore blanc. White Hellebore, Lingwort, Neeſewort.
Ellebore baſtard. The hearb Oxe-eye ; alſo, the black baſtard Hellebore.
Ellebore noir. Blacke Hellebore ; whereof Gerard deſcribes foure kinds ; the true blacke Hellebore ; the baſtard, or wild blacke Hellebore ; great Oxe-heele, or great wild blacke Hellebore ; and the ordinarie Oxeheele, Beares-foot, Setterwort ; the two laſt are alſo called Lowſie-graſſe, and Lowſe-worts.
Elleborine : f. Wild white Ellebore.
Ellée. bailler les ellées à vn cheval. To giue a horſe the head ; to gallop with bridle laid on his necke.
Ellend : m. Th'Elke ; a moſt fearefull, melancholike, ſtrong, ſwift, ſhort-neckt, and ſharp-hooued, wild beaſt ; much troubled with the falling ſickneſſe, and (by reaſon of the extraordinarie length of his vpper lip) euer going backward as he grazeth ; (ſome report, that his forelegs are imperfect, and his fleſh good veniſon ; but Vigenere (vpon-

(vpon Cæsar) denies th'one, and Gesner disiikes th'other.)

Elocher. To loosen, or make looose; Looke Eslocher.

Elocquer. To shake off; (a word properly vsed of things that are firmely ioyned together.)

Eloise: f. A lightning; also, (metaphorically) a little space of time.

Elope. as Elopien; Also, a kind of Sea-fish whose finnes are turned towards her head; shee liues in the deepe Pamphilian sea; when she is taken, (which is but seldome) the fishers crowne themselues with garlands, and bring her to shore with ioyfull applauses, & sound of pipes, hoping they shall haue good lucke for a long time after.

Elopien. A kind of harmelesse Serpent.

Eloquence: f. Eloquence; gracefull speaking, sweet vtterance; tearmes choicely sorted, readily deliuered.

Eloquent. Eloquent, well-spoken, of a sweet deliuerie; whose words are choice, vtterance gracefull, speech most plausible.

Elourdé: m. ée: f. Dulled, amazed, astonished.

Elourder. To dull; dall, amaze, astonish.

Eloyse. as Eloise.

Elucidation. An elucidation; a cleere manifestation, or exposition; an outward shining.

Elucidé: m. ée: f. Cleered, manifested, made bright, euident, apparant; expressed, expounded.

Elucider. To cleere, manifest, make bright, or perspicuous; to expound, or expresse; also, to shine outward.

Elue. The wild Pine tree.

Emaceration: f. An emaceration; leanenesse, or falling away in flesh; or, as Emaciation.

Emaciation: f. A pulling downe, or making leane; a falling away in flesh.

Emacie: f. Leanesse.

Emacié: m. ée: f. Made, or growne, leane.

Email: m. Amell, or Enamell.

Emaillé: m. ée: f. Enamelled.

Emailler. To enamell.

Emaillure: f. An enamelling, or worke enamelled.

Emanation: f. An issuing, or comming forth; also, a publication of.

Emancipé: m. ée: f. Affranchised, made free, set at libertie; also, alienated, made away, put ouer to another.

Emanciper. To affranchise, dismisse, make free, set at libertie; also, to alienate, passe away, make ouer an interest, or possession.

Emané: m. ée: f. Proceeded, issued, flowed, or come out from; also, published, diuulged, spred abroad.

Emaner. To proceed, issue, flow, or come out from; also, to publish, diuulgue, spread abroad.

Emant: m. The Adamant, or Loadstone.

Emantellement. A mantle; also, a bemantling, or couering, as with a mantle.

Emanuër. as Emanciper; Or, to manumit.

Emargé: m. ée: f. Noted, or quoted in the Margent.

Ematite: f. The Bloud-stone.

Embabillé. vn courtisan bien em. Well-spoken; that hath tongue at will, or that wants no Babil.

Embabionné. as Embabouiné.

Embabouiné: m. ée: f. Gulled, deceiued, besotted, made a child of, brought into a fooles Paradise.

Embabouïner. To deceiue, gull, ride, bring into a fools Paradise; to giue sucke vnto; to vse like a child.

S'Embabouïner. To besot, or deceiue himselfe; to bring himselfe into a fooles Paradise; also, to be medling with matters he hath little skill in; or foolishly to wind himselfe into a businesse which he is not able to get well out of.

S'Embadurnoser. To annoint himselfe.

Embagué: m. ée: f. Beiewelled; furnished, inriched, bedecked, with Jewels.

Embaguer. To furnish, inrich, or decke with Jewels.

Embaillonné: m. ée: f. Gagged, begagged.

Embaillonner. To gag, begag.

Embaler, &c. as Emballer, &c.

Emballage: m. The packing vp of ware, or marchandise.

Emballé: m. ée: f. Packed vp, made vp in packes.

Emballer. To packe vp, to make vp in packes.

Emballer quelqu'un d'un trousseau. To play one a fine tricke; to serue one a prettie touch.

Emballeur: m. A packer vp of wares.

Embaras, &c; as Embarras, &c.

Embarbouillé: m. ée: f. Beray'd, besmeared, bemired, bespotted, begrimed.

Embarbouiller. To beray, besmeare, besot, begrime.

Embarqué: m. ée: f. Imbarked, imbargued, shipped, put or got a shipboord.

Embarquement: m. An imbarking, taking ship, going a shipboord, putting into a ship; also, an imbarguing.

Embarquer. To imbarke, ship, get or put on shipboord; also, to imbargue; to furnish, or imploy shipping.

S'embarquer. To take ship, or go on shipboord.

S'embarquer en vn entreprise. To vndertake, enter into, or ingage himselfe in, an action; to make one.

S'embarquer sans biscuit. To vndertake an enterprise without helpes to begin, or meanes to follow it.

Embarras: m. A pesterment, intricacie, perplexitie, confusion, garboile, trouble.

Embaraſſé: m. ée: f. Pestered, intricated, intangled, perplexed, troubled.

Embarassement. as Embarras; Or, a pestering, intangling, intricating, perplexing, troubling.

Embarasser. To intricate, pester, intangle, perplex, confound, comber, trouble.

Embarasseur: m. An intricator, pesterer, comberer.

Embarré. Heaume embarré. Sire bruised, beaten in, or fastened to, the head with blowes.

Embarrer. To rayle, or set barres on; also, to crush, bruise, ding, or beat inward.

Embarrer son espée en vn Arbre. To fasten his sword in a tree.

Embarrure: f. A bruising, dinging, or beating inward.

Embas. Below, or beneath.

Trape d' embas. Looke Trape.

Vent d' embas. The Westerne wind.

Embaser. To giue a Basis, or bottome vnto; also, to ground, make a Basis, haue a bottome; end at the Basis, or bottome.

Embasmé: m. ée: f. Imbalmed; annointed, or dressed with Baulme.

Embasmer. To imbaulme; to dresse, or annoint all ouer with Baulme.

Embassade: f. An embassage, or message; also, an Embassador accompanied with his ordinarie traine; as, Voila l' embassade de tel Royaume.

Embassadeur: m. An Embassadour; a (publicke) messenger.

Embassement. Looke Soubassement.

Embasté: m. ée: f. Sadled with a packesaddle; also, seised, ſeiſed, or put into poſſeſſion of.

Embaſter. To ſaddle with a packeſaddle; alſo, to put into poſſeſſion of (land, &c.)

Embaſtonné: m. ée: f. Armed with, or prouided of, weapons; alſo, cudgelled.

Embaſtonner. To arme, or furniſh with weapons; alſo, to cudgell; belabour, bethwacke with cudgels.

Embatage: m. The laying of ſtreakes about the wheele of a Carroche &c.

Embatonner. as Embaſtonner.

Embatre. To arriue, ruſh, or come in vpon ſuddenly.

Embatre les bandages de rouës. To nayle, or faſten the ſtreakes vnto wheels.

Ie m' embati ſur luy. I fell vpon him by chance, I met with him on a ſudden, I light on him ere I was aware.

Il luy embatit l' eſpée iuſques au foye. Hee thruſt him into the liuer.

Embattage. as Embatage.

Embattes. The Eaſterlie winds which ordinarily raign about the Dog-dayes.

Embatu: m. uë: f. [illegible]iued, ruſhed, thruſt, caſt, or come in vpon on a ſudden; lighted, or ſlipt into, fallen vpon, ere he was aware.

Embauché: m. ée: f. Imployed, vſed, occupied, beſtowed in, or put vnto, worke.

Embaucher. To imploy, occupie, vſe in buſineſſe, put vnto worke.

Embaveté, ou Embavieté: m. ée: f. Imbibbed; that, as a child, hath a bib, or mocket put before his breaſt, to keepe him from drieling thereon.

Embavieté de machoueres. Whoſe broken Jawes hanging downe, ſerued him, in ſtead of a bib, to ſlauer on.

Embaumé: m. ée: f. Imbaulmed; annointed, or preſerued with Baulme.

Embaumement: m. An imbaulming.

Embaumer. To imbaulme; to dreſſe, annoint, or preſerue with Baulme.

Embecqué. That hath his leſſon; inſtructed beforehand.

L' oiſeau gazouille ſelon qu'il eſt embecqué: Prov. A man ſpeaks euen as his hopes do moue, or paſſions vrge him; It may be alſo applied to a Lawyer, who according to the fee he hath receiued, pleads for his Client, better or worſe.

Embecquer. as Emboucher; To giue one his leſſon beforehand.

Embelli: m. ie: f. Imbelliſhed, beautified; garniſhed, bedecked, adorned, ſet out.

Embellir. To imbelliſh, beautifie; garniſh, adorne, bedecke; trimme vp, ſet out vnto the eye.

Embelliſſage: m. An imbelliſhing, beautifying; decking, adorning, garniſhing.

Embelliſſement. as Embelliſſage; Or, an imbelliſhment.

Embelliſſement de maiſon. A pleaſant tuft, or groue of trees, growing neere, or about, a houſe; tearmed ſo in Law.

Emberni: m. ie: f. Couered with, or clad in, rug.

Embernir. To couer with, or clad in, rug.

Embeſongné: m. ée: f. Buſied, imployed, occupied, ſet on worke.

Embeſongnement: m. A buſineſſe, or buſie worke; alſo, an imploying, or buſying.

Embeſongner. To buſie, imploy, occupie, ſet on worke.

Embeurré: m. ée: f. Buttered, dreſſed, or annoynted with butter.

Embeurrer. To butter, or bebutter; to dreſſe, or annoint all ouer with butter.

Embezars. Aumes ace on the dice: Rab.

Emblavé: m. ée: f. Sowen, as a field, with corne; alſo, whoſe corne is put vp a prettie height aboue ground.

Emblavence de bled. Corne ſprung, or put vp, a prettie height aboue ground; or, the ſpringing, or putting vp of corne.

Emblaver. To ſow the ground with corne.

Emblaveures. Corne; whether growing, or in ſheaues.

Emblayement. A trouble, comber, peſtlerment.

Emblé: m. ée: f. Stollen, filched, pilfered, purloined, imbezeled.

Ie me ſuis emblé de la troupe. I ſlunke out of the companie.

Emble-coeur. Alluring, winning, heart-ſtealing.

Emblée. à l'emblée. Priuily, cloſely, by ſtealth, with two fingers and a reach.

D'emblée. Subtily, craftily, vnderhand, at vnawares.

Emblemature: f. An emblemizing, or making of Emblemes.

Embleme: m. An Embleme; a Picture, and ſhort Poſie, expreſſing ſome particular conceit.

Embler. To ſteale, filch, lurch, pilfer, nimme, purloyne, imbezel, conuey away.

Embleſne: m. A Cataplaſme, or Poultis.

Embleures. Corne ſtanding, or hanging by the roots.

Emblic. A kind of round Mirabolan, wherewith th' Indians, for want of other things, tanne their leather, and make inke and blacking; neuer putting it, as we doe, (and as they all other Mirabolans) vnto Phyſicall vſes.

Emblocquer à la Cupidique; autant que, beſongner.

Embobeliné: m. ée: f. Botched, or patched vp; alſo, deceiued, gulled, beguiled; whoſe eyes are bleared.

Embobeliner. To botch, or patch vp; alſo, to deceiue, gull, beguile, bleare the eyes of.

Emboëtture: f. An imboxing, or putting in a box; as Emboiture.

Emboire. To imbue, moiſten, bedeaw; alſo, to ſoke, or drinke vp.

Emboiſtement. as Emboitement.

Emboiſter. To imbox; incloſe, inſert, faſten, put, or ſhut vp, as within a box; alſo, to ioyne, or cloſe together.

S'Emboiſter. To enter, or be included, as a leſſe thing within a greater, or one thing within another.

Emboiſture: f. as Emboiture; Alſo, the ring, or plate of yron, &c, that keepes the box of a wheele from wearing.

Emboité: m. ée: f. Imboxed; inſerted, incloſed, entered, or put within a bigger, or other thing; alſo, ioyned, bound, or faſtened together.

Emboitement: m. An imboxing, or incloſing within a bigger, or other, thing; any ſuch faſtening, ioyning, or cloſing.

Emboiter. as Emboiſter.

Emboiture: f. An imboxing; incloſing, entering, or inſertion, (as of one bone into the hollow end of another) any ſuch colligation, cloſing, ioyning, or faſtening of things together; alſo, the ioynt, part, bone, or thing ſo incloſed, or cloſed; alſo, as Emboiſture.

Emboliſmal: m. ale: f. Added, as a day vnto a yere; or increaſed, as the yeare, by ſo many dayes.

Emboliſme: m. An addition, as of a day (or more) vnto a yeare.

Embon-

Embonpoint: m. Fullneſſe, plumpneſſe, healthfull eſtate, good liuing, ſound diſpoſition, of the bodie.
Vn embonpoint de nourrice. A fat, or foggie conſtitution of a woman.
Embofqué: m. ée: f. Woodded; ſet with wood; ſhrowded with wood.
Embofquer vne terre. To plant, or ſet wood in it; to turne it into a wood.
S'embofquer. To ſhrowd himſelfe in a wood; to get a wood on his backe, to take into a wood.
Embofſer. To bunch, or ariſe in bunches, bulches, knobs; to emboſſe, or fourniſh.
Embottelé: m. ée: f. Imbottelled; made, or packt vp in bundles, or bottles.
Embotteler. To make vp in bundles, or bottles.
Embouché: m. ée: f. Mouthed; put into the mouth of; inſtructed, ſuborned, made, prepared, leſſonned, beforehand: alſo, fitted; furniſhed, or fitted with a Bit; alſo, entered into; alſo, ſtraitned, or narrowing (as a riuer from the mouth vpwards.)
Bas embouché. Whoſe mouth ſtands low.
Fourreau de cuir embouché de velours. Whoſe mouth, or top is tipped with velwet.
Homme mal embouché. A detractor, ſlaunderer, backbiter; a foule-mouthed fellow; one that hath bene ill taught, leſſonned, inſtructed.
Embouchement: m. A mouthing, or putting into the mouth of; a ſubornation, or fore-inſtruction; a leſſon giuen, or conned beforehand; alſo, the bitting, or bridling of a horſe.
Emboucher. To mouth, or put into the mouth of; hence, to ſuborne; inſtruct, prepare, or make, beforehand; to giue one his leſſon aforehand; alſo, to bit a horſe; to furniſh, or fit him with a Bit.
S'emboucher. To enter into; alſo, to straiten, or grow narrow, as a riuer from the mouth vpwards.
Emboucher d'vn menſonge. To put a lie into the mouth of, to teach to lie; alſo, to face downe, or flap in the mouth, with an (apparant) lie.
Il m'emboucha de l'argent qu'il me preſta. He vpbraided me, or caſt me in the teeth, with the money he lent me.
Emboucher en la mer. To fall, or enter into the ſea, (as a riuer;) alſo, to runne, or enter, farre into the ſea (as the ſtreame of a violent, or ſwift riuer.)
Emboucheure: f. as Embouchement; Alſo, a mouth, or open paſſage; an entrie, or ouerture.
Emboucheure d'vn cheval. The barres, or part of his nether iaw, whereon the Bit reſteth; alſo, a Bit, or, the mouth of a Bit.
Cheval de mauvaiſe emboucheure. An ill, or vicious, mouthed horſe.
Emboucheure de farines. A putting of the beſt meale in the mouth, or at the top, of a ſacke; (a couſening tricke among Meale-men.)
Emboucheure de Montagne. A gullet, ſtrait paſſage, or narrow entrie, at the foot of a mountaine.
Emboucheure d'vne Riviere. The mouth of a riuer; the place whereat it runs, or empties it ſelfe, into the Sea.
Embouchoir: m. A Boot-laſt, or Boot-tree; alſo, a horn to drench a horſe with; or, as Embouchouër.
Embouchonné: m. ée: f. Stopt with a ſtopple; alſo, hauing a buſh (as a Tauerne, or Alehouſe) hanging before it.
Embouchouër: m. A horne to drench a horſe with; (generally) any thing that ſerues to conuey another thing into a mouth.

Embouchure: f. as Emboucheure.
Embouclé: m. ée: f. Buckled, claſped.
Emboucler. To buckle, faſten, claſpe together.
Emboüé: m. ée: f. Bemired, bedurtied, berayed with mud, beſpatled with ordure.
Embouër. To bemire, bedurt, beray, bedaſh with mud, beſpatle with ordure.
Embouquetè: m. ée: f. Beſet, or bedecked, with noſegayes.
Embourbé: m. ée: f. Bemudded; berayed with, laid or ſtucke faſt in, mud; alſo, made or growne muddie; ouergrowne with mud.
Embourbement: m. A bemudding; a berayying with, or ſticking faſt in, mud.
Embourber. To bemud; to beray with, or lay faſt in mud.
S'embourber. To ſticke faſt in, or be berayed with, mud; alſo, to corrupt; wax thicke, or turne into mud, as a ſtanding water that wants a ſpring to feed it.
Embourbeure: f. as Embourbement.
Embourré: m. ée: f. Stuffed, bumbaſted, or puffed vp with flockes, &c.
Embourrement: m. A ſtuffing, or bumbaſting with flockes, haire, &c; alſo, a cuſhion, bouſſter, &c, ſo ſtuffed.
Embourrer. To ſtuffe, bumbaſt, or puffe vp with flockes, haire, &c; to make ſtrout out.
Embourreur: m. A ſtuffer, bumbaſter, or puffer vp of things with flockes, haire, &c.
Embourſé: m. ée: f. Purſed, imburſed; put into, or laied vp in, a purſe.
Embourſer. To purſe vp, to imburſe; to put into, or lay vp in, a purſe.
Embouſcher en la mer. To runne, or fall into the ſea; Seeke Emboucher.
Embouſé: m. ée: f. Bedunged; berayed with Cowes ordure.
Embouté: m. ée: f. Plated, ſtiffened; or, as Embouti; imboſſed.
Marteau embouté d'argent. Tipped, or trimmed at the end, with ſiluer.
Embouti: m. ie: f. Extended, retched, ſtretched out; alſo, puffed, or drawne out with puffes; alſo, raiſed, imboſſed; or boulſted; raiſed into, wrought with boultes.
Emboutir. To retch, extend, ſtretch out; alſo, to raiſe, or imboſſe; alſo, to draw out with puffes; alſo, to ſtitch with packthread; whence;
Eſguille à emboutir. A pack-needle.
Emboutiſſement: m. An extending, retching, ſtretching out; alſo, a raiſing, or imboſſing; alſo, a puffe, or a drawing out with puffes.
Emboutiſſemens de ſoye. Silke thrummes.
Emboutoir. as Boutoir.
Embouzé. as Embouſé.
Emboyſture. as Emboiture.
Embrabile: com. Broad headed. (vieil mot.)
Embraceler. To furniſh, or bedecke with braceletts.
Embraſe. as Braiſe. (Barbarouſly.)
Embralé. Fired, inflamed, ſet on, conſumed with, a light fire; alſo, skued, or chamfretted.
Embraſement: m. A conſuming with fire, a burning to aſhes, or coles; alſo, a kindling, inflaming, firing, ſetting on fire; alſo, as Embraſure.
Embraſer. To burne vnto coales, or aſhes, to conſume with fire; alſo, to kindle, inflame, fire, ſet on a light fire; alſo, to skue, or chamfret off the laumbes of a doore, or window.
Embraſſade: f. An imbracement; a clipping, hugging, colling, imbracing in the armes.

Embraſſant. Imbra
Embraſſé: m. ée: beld, taken, or inf
arme; alſo, compr
Embraſſée: f. An Embraſſelé: m. é
let on; furniſhed,
Embraſſement. a Embratier. To imb in the armes; to a Embraſſer ſon e to buckle his ſhield
Trop embraſſer more buſineſſe the rons in the fire; to Embraſſe-tout. H
prehending.
Embraſure: f. as E
ing, or chamfretti
Embrazé. as Emb
Embrené: m. ée: f
Embréner. To bes
Embretelé. liſ, ou telles.
Embreuvé: m. ée
with, liquor; alſo, Embreuver. To m
him; alſo, to die
Embridé: m. ée:
med, keps in.
Embrider. To brid
in.
Embrion. as Emb
Embrocation: f.
ſprinkling, or gentl
part, with a liquor
nay of raine.
Embroché: m. é
ſpit, or broach.
Embrocher. To ſp
Embrocheure: f.
Embronché: m.
a blow; whoſe be downe, after a blo
Renfrongné.
Embroncher. To head; as one that alſo, to bide the ſ
ſuch matter.
Embroqué: m. ée
with moiſt things;
Embroquer. Ge
with moiſt things
Embroué: m. ée:
Embrouillaſſer.
Embrouillé: m. é
ded; intangled, p
Embrouillement
intricateneſſe, co
Embrouiller. To
confound.
Embrouilleur: m
peſterer of.
s'Embruer. To in dable himſelfe w
Embruncné: m.
Renfrongné.
Embruncher. To

Embraſſant. Imbracing, hugging, fouldring in the armes.
Embraſſé: m. ée: f. Imbraced, clipped, colled, hugged, beld, taken, or infolded in; plit, or buckled vnto, the arme; alſo, comprehended.
Embraſſee: f. An arme-full, or fadome.
Embraſſelé: m. ée: f. Bebracelletted, hauing a bracelet on; furniſhed, or bedecked, with a bracelet.
Embraſſement. as Embraſſade.
Embraſſer. To imbrace, coll, hug, clip, imbrace, or infold in the armes; to intreat kindly, intertaine louingly.
Embraſſer ſon eſcu. To put his ſhield vpon his arme, to buckle his ſhield vnto his arme.
Trop embraſſer, & peu eſtraigner. To meddle with more buſineſſe then he can wield; to haue too many irons in the fire; to looſe all by coueting all.
Embraſſe-tout. Huge, immenſe, all-imbracing, all comprehending.
Embraſure: f. as Embraſement; Alſo, the skuing, ſplaying, or chamfretting of a doore, or window.
Embrazé. as Embralé.
Embrené: m. ée: f. Berayed, beſhitten.
Embrener. To beray, or beſhite.
Embretelé. lié, ou ceinct avec bretelles; Looke Bretelles.
Embreuvé: m. ée: f. Moiſtened, ſoaked in, ſoftened with, liquor; alſo, died, indued, imbued.
Embreuver. To moiſten, bedeaw, ſoake in, ſoften with, liquor; alſo, to die, indue, imbue; as Abbreuver.
Embridé: m. ée: f. Bridled, reſtrained, held backe, tamed, kept in.
Embrider. To bridle, reſtraine, hold backe, tame, keepe in.
Embrion. as Embryon.
Embrocation: f. An embrochation; a fomenting, beſprinkling, or gentle bathing of the head, or any other part, with a liquor falling from aloft vpon it in the manner of raine.
Embroché: m. ée: f. Spitted, broached, put vpon a ſpit, or broach.
Embrocher. To ſpit, broach, put vpon a ſpit, or broach.
Embrocheure: f. A ſpitting, or broaching.
Embronché: m. ée: f. Aſtonied, amazed, dizzied with a blow; whoſe head hangs downe, or totters vp and downe, after a blow receiued; alſo, budwinked; alſo, as Renfrongné.
Embroncher. To bow, or hold downe the necke, and head; as one that is ſtonied with a rap on the ſconce; alſo, to hide the face, or eyes with hands, a cloth, or any ſuch matter.
Embroqué: m. ée: f. Gently bathed, wet, or bedeawed with moiſt things; as in Embrocation.
Embroquer. Gently to bath, wet, beſprinkle, or bedeaw with moiſt things; as in Embrocation.
Embroué: m. ée: f. bedurtied, ſoiled, defiled.
Embrouillaſſer. as Embrouillet.
Embrouillé: m. ée: f. Intricated, incombred; confounded; intangled, peſtered.
Embrouillement. A peſtering, intangling, incombring, intricateneſſe, confuſion, ambiguitie.
Embrouillet. To peſter, intangle, incomber, intricate; confound.
Embrouilleur: m. A confounder, intricater, incombrer, peſterer of.
s'Embruer. To indeuo himſelfe; alſo, to imbrue, or bedable himſelfe with.
Embruncné: m. ée: f. Wainſcotted, ſeeled; alſo, as Renfrongné.
Embruncher. To Wainſcot, or ſeele with wainſcot.

Embruni: m. ie: f. Darkened, obſcured, made browne, or blackiſh; growne brownie, darke, or blacke.
Embrunir. To darken, obſcure, make browne or blackiſh; alſo, to grow darke, or blacke.
Embryon. The infant in the mothers wombe, while it hath got perfect ſhape; or, the ſeed that is put into the wombe before the infant be faſhioned; any maſſe, or lumpe of fleſh.
Embu: m. ue: f. Imbued, imbrued, wet, moiſtened, indued; drunke with; died, or ſtained with.
Embuche, & Embucher. as Embuſche, & Embucher.
Embuffé: m. ée: f. Deceiued, couſened, gulled, cheated; led (as a Buffe) by the noſe.
Embuffler. To deceiue, couſen, gull, beſot; lead (as a buffe) by the noſe.
Emburelucoqué: m. ée: f. Turmoiled, troubled, or peſtered, as the braine vſed (a troubleſome neſſe.
Emburelucoquer l'eſprit de. To trouble, blunder, or peſter the mind with, to beat the braines about. Rab.
Embuſcade: f. An Ambuſcadoe, or ambuſh; a way laying, or lying in wait for.
Embuſche: f. as Embuſcade.
Embuſché. Layed in ambuſh, belaying, way-laying.
Embuſcher. To belay, to lay in ambuſh, or for, to waylay; alſo, to take a wood; or get into a thicket, for ſhelter.
S'embuſcher. To lie in wait, or ambuſh for; or as Embuſcher.
s'Embuſquer. as s'Embuſcher.
Embut. A funnell; alſo, a pipe to ſucke with.
Emedullé: m. ée: f. Vnmarrowed, whereout the marrow is taken; depriued of marrow.
Emedullet. To vnmarrow; draw the marrow out of, deprive of marrow.
Emembré: m. ée: f. Diuided, diſmembred, diſioyned, diſioynted.
Emendateur: m. A mender, amender, reformer, corrector, ruler.
Emendation: f. An amending, mending, reformation, correction.
Emendatrice: f. She that correcteth, amendeth, reformeth, redreſſeth; a correctreſſe, reformereſſe.
Emende: f. as Amende.
Emendé: m. ée: f. Mended, amended, reformed, corrected.
Emender. To mend, amend, reforme, redreſſe, better; improue; correct.
Emeril: m. The blacke hard mineral ſubſtance, or ſtone, called an. Emerod; wherewith yron-workes are ſcrubbed and pretious ſtones and glaſſe, cut.
Emerillon: m. A Merlin, or Marlin.
Emerillonné: m. ée: f. Watched narrowly, looked to neerely, obſerued, or proſecuted with a quicke (& cruell) eye.
Emerillonner. To watch narrowly, looke too neerely; to obſerue with a quicke (and cruell) eye.
Emerillonner à feu & à ſang. To proſecute with fire and ſword.
Emeute: f. A ſtirre, commotion, rebellion, vproare.
Emeute des chiens. as Meute.
Emicicle: m. An Hemicycle, or halfe circle.
Emier. as Eſmier.
Emine: f. A meaſure that containes three Poſſons; and comes to, in weight (about ſeuen and a halfe of our moderne ounces; I call them moderne, becauſe th'auntient ent Hemina was ten ounces.

Eminemment. Eminently, apparantly.

Eminence: f. Eminencie, excellencie, apparantneſſe, ſurpaſſing of others; alſo, a riſing vp aboue, or bearing out beyond, others.

Eminent. Eminent, apparant, bearing outwards, high, or loftie in ſight; excelling, ſurpaſſing, ouerpeering, others.

Emiſſaire: m. A ſluce, or floudgate to let water out of a riuer, or pond.

Emiſſole. A ſmooth-skind, and toothleſſe, kind of Dog-fiſh.

Emmaigri: m. ie: f. Made leane, ſtarued, pined.

Emmaigrir. To make leane, to ſtarue, to pine.

S'emmaigrir. To grow leane, waſt in fleſh, fall away.

Emmaigriſſant. Making leane.

Emmailloté: m. ée: f. Swadled, ſwathed.

Emmaillotement: m. A ſwadling, or a wrapping in ſwathe-bands.

Emmailloter. To ſwadle, to ſwathe, to wrap in ſwathe-bands.

Emmaiſonné: m. ée: f. Houſed, furniſhed with a houſe.

Emmaiſonner. To houſe; to put into, or furniſh with a houſe.

Emmaiſtriſé. Made, or paſſed Maſter, that hath taken the degree of a Maiſter; that is growne as cunning in an Art as any Maſter.

Emmaladi: m. ie: f. Made, or growne, ſicke.

Emmaladir. To make ſicke.

Emmalicé: m. ée: f. Full of rancor, or malice; enraged with ſpight, verie deſpightfull.

Emmalissant. Maliciouſly raging, or growing malicious.

Emmanché: m. ée: f. Helued; ſet into a haft, or handle.

